«... Whatever the Messenger gives you [of the gains, or of instructions], accept it, and whatever he forbids to you, refrain from it...» (al-Hashr 59: 7)

We have seen above that it is not permissible to interpret the Book of Allah on the basis of Isrâ'eeliyât reports, even if it is the case that it is permissible to narrate reports from them that cannot be certain. That is because the meanings of the Book of Allah are certain, but these reports cannot be confirmed as true or false. Hence there is no way that they can be used to interpret the Qur'an.

﴿وَلَوْطًا إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ أَتَأْتُونَ الْفَاحِشَةَ مَا سَبَقَكُمْ بِهَا مِنْ أَحَدٍ مِنَ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٨٠﴾ إِنَّكُمْ لَتَأْتُونَ الرِّجَالَ شَهْوَةً مِنْ دُونِ الْنِسَاءِ ۚ بَلْ أَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ مُّسْرِفُونَ ﴿٨١﴾ وَمَا كَانَ جَوَابَ قَوْمِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا أَخْرِجُوهُمْ مِنْ قَرْيَتِكُمْ ۖ إِنَّهُمْ أَنَاسٌ يَبْطِهُرُونَ ﴿٨٢﴾ فَأَنجَيْنَاهُ وَأَهْلَهُ إِلَّا أَمْرَأَتَهُ ۖ كَانَتْ مِنَ الْغَابِرِينَ ﴿٨٣﴾ وَأَمْطَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ مَطَرًا ۖ فَانْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَذَابُ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿٨٤﴾﴾

(سورة الأعراف: ٨٠-٨٤)

- 7:80. And We also sent Loot. He said to his people: Do you commit this shameful deed that no one in the world has ever committed before you?
- 7:81. For you approach men with lust instead of women; you are indeed a people transgressing beyond all bounds.
- 7:82. But the only response his people gave was to say: Drive them out of your city, for they are indeed people who want to keep themselves clean and pure!

7:83. So we saved him and his family, except his wife; she was one of those who stayed behind.

7:84. And We let loose upon them a shower [of stones]. So see what was the fate of the evildoers.

﴿And We also sent Loot﴾ (لُوطٌ). That is, We sent him to his people to instruct them to worship Allah alone and to forbid to them the shameful deed that no one in the world had ever done before them.

﴿He said to his people: Do you commit this shameful deed﴾ that is, the deed which surpasses, in its severity and abhorrent nature, all other shameful deeds

﴿that no one in the world has ever committed before you﴾. It was one of the most repulsive of deeds, and their invention of it, thus setting the precedent for those who came after them, was also one of the most abhorrent of deeds.

Then he explained further: ﴿For you approach men with lust instead of women﴾ that is, you ignore women, whom Allah has created for you, when you could find in them pleasure to fulfil your desire in a manner that is in accordance with sound human nature, and instead you prefer anal intercourse with men, which is something utterly filthy and abhorrent, for the anus is the place from which filth emerges, that one feels embarrassed to mention, let alone touch and be close to it.

﴿you are indeed a people transgressing beyond all bounds﴾ that is, people who overstep the limits set by Allah in the most audacious manner.

﴿But the only response his people gave was to say: Drive them out of your city, for they are indeed people who want to keep themselves clean and pure!﴾ That is, they want to keep away from committing shameful deeds.

﴿Their only grievance against them was that they believed in Allah, the Almighty, the Praiseworthy.﴾ (al-Burooj 85: 8)

«So we saved him and his family, except his wife; she was one of those who stayed behind» that is, those who remained behind and were punished. Allah instructed him to take his family and leave at night, for the punishment would come upon his people in the morning, so he took his family, except his wife, who met the same fate as they did.

«And We let loose upon them a shower [of stones]» that is, a shower of hot stones of baked clay, and Allah turned the city upside down.

«So see what was the fate of the evildoers», namely destruction and eternal disgrace.

﴿وَالِى مَدْيَنَ أَخَاهُمْ شُعَيْبًا قَالَ يَتَقَوِّمُوا أَعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ إِلَهِ غَيْرُهُ قَدْ جَاءَتْكُمْ بَيِّنَةٌ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ فَأَوْفُوا الْكَيْلَ وَالْمِيزَانَ وَلَا تَبْخَسُوا النَّاسَ أَشْيَاءَهُمْ وَلَا تُفْسِدُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ بَعْدَ إِصْلَاحِهَا ذَٰلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٨٥﴾ وَلَا تَقْعُدُوا بِكُلِّ صِرَاطٍ تُوعِدُونَ وَتَصُدُّونَ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ مَنْ ءَامَنَ بِهِ وَتَبْغُونَهَا عِوَجًا وَاذْكُرُوا إِذْ كُنْتُمْ قَلِيلًا فَكَذَّبْتُمْ وَأَنْظَرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عِقَابُ الْمُفْسِدِينَ ﴿٨٦﴾ وَإِنْ كَانَ طَائِفَةٌ مِنْكُمْ ءَامَنُوا بِالَّذِى أُرْسِلْتُ بِهِ وَطَائِفَةٌ لَمْ يُؤْمِنُوا فَاصْبِرُوا حَتَّى يَحْكُمَ اللَّهُ بَيْنَنَا وَهُوَ خَيْرُ الْحَاكِمِينَ ﴿٨٧﴾﴾

(سورة الأعراف: ٨٥-٨٧)

- 7:85. To Madyan We sent their brother Shu'ayb. He said: O my people, worship Allah; you have no god but He. There has come to you a clear sign from your Lord. Give full measure and weight, and do not undermine people's rights and dues, and do not spread mischief in the land after it has been put in order. That will be best for you, if you are [truly] believers.

7:86. Do not lie in wait on every path, making threats and barring from the path of Allah those who believe in Him, and seeking to make it appear crooked. Remember how you were few and He made you many, and see what was the fate of those who spread mischief.

7:87. And if there are some among you who believe in the message with which I have been sent, and others who do not believe, then be patient until Allah judges between us, for He is the best of judges.

---

«To Madyan», who were a well-known tribe
 «We sent their brother» in lineage «Shu'ayb», to call them to worship Allah alone, with no partner or associate, and to instruct them to give full measure and weight, and not to undermine people's rights and dues, or strive to spread mischief in the land (cf. 11: 85) by committing a lot of sins. Hence he said: «and do not spread mischief in the land after it has been put in order. That will be best for you, if you are [truly] believers». For giving up sin in obedience to the command of Allah and seeking to draw close to Him is better and more beneficial for a person than committing sin that incurs the wrath of the Almighty and the punishment of hell.

«Do not lie in wait» for people «on every path» that is, on any road where there is a great deal of traffic, warning people off,
 «making threats» to those who travel that road,
 «and barring from the path of Allah» those who want to follow it and be guided,
 «and seeking to make it appear crooked» that is, wanting the path of Allah to be crooked, so you twist it in accordance with your whims and desires, when what you and others should have done was to respect and venerate the path that Allah ordained for His slaves to follow in order to earn His pleasure and paradise, thereby destroying the greatest mercy upon them; you should have taken on the task of supporting it, calling people to it and defending it, not barring people from it and turning people away from it. This is ingratitude for the blessing of Allah and a challenge to Allah, for you are making the straightest and fairest path twisted and crooked, and you denounce anyone who follows it.

«Remember» the blessings that Allah has bestowed upon you and «how you were few and He made you many» that is, He caused you to grow in number by blessing you with wives, offspring and good health, and He did not test you with epidemics or fatal diseases that would reduce your numbers, or cause your enemies to gain power over you and eradicate you, or cause you to be scattered in the land; rather He blessed you by causing you to be together, bestowing abundant provision on you and granting you numerous offspring.

«and see what was the fate of those who spread mischief», for you will not find any among them but they are scattered, and in their land you will find nothing but desolation and sparse population. No one speaks well of them, rather they are overtaken by curses in this world and on the Day of Resurrection they will be exposed to disgrace and shame.

«And if there are some among you who believe in the message with which I have been sent, and others who do not believe» who are the majority of them, «then be patient until Allah judges between us, for He is the best of judges»; He will support the one who is in the right and will send punishment upon the one who is in the wrong.

﴿قَالَ أَلَمْأَلَّا الَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا مِنْ قَوْمِهِ لَنُخْرِجَنَّكَ يَشْعِيبُ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مَعَكَ مِنْ قَرْيَتِنَا أَوْ لَنَعُودَنَّ فِي مِلَّتِنَا قَالَ أُولَئِكَ كَافِرِينَ ﴿٨٥﴾ قَدْ أَفْرَيْنَا عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا إِنْ عُدْنَا فِي مِلَّتِكُمْ بَعْدَ إِذْ بَعَثْنَا اللَّهَ مِنْهَا وَمَا يَكُونُ لَنَا أَنْ نَعُودَ فِيهَا إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ رَبُّنَا وَسِعَ

رَبَّنَا كُلُّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمًا عَلَى اللَّهِ تَوَكَّلْنَا رَبَّنَا أَفْتَحْ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَ قَوْمِنَا بِالْحَقِّ وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ
 الْفَاضِلِينَ ﴿٨٩﴾ وَقَالَ الْمَلَأُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ قَوْمِهِ لَئِنْ أَتَيْتُمْ شُعَيْبًا إِتَّكُرَ إِذَا لَخِيسِرُونَ
 ﴿٩٠﴾ فَأَخَذَتْهُمُ الرَّجْفَةُ فَأَصْبَحُوا فِي دَارِهِمْ جَنِينَ ﴿٩١﴾ الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا شُعَيْبًا
 كَأَن لَّمْ يَغْنَوْا فِيهَا الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا شُعَيْبًا كَانُوا هُمُ الْخَاسِرِينَ ﴿٩٢﴾ فَنَوَلَّى عَنْهُمْ
 وَقَالَ يَأْقُومُوا لَقَدْ أَتَيْتُكُمْ بِرِسَالَةٍ مِنِّي وَنَصَحْتُ لَكُمْ فَكَيْفَ ءَاسَىٰ عَلَىٰ قَوْمٍ
 كَافِرِينَ ﴿٩٣﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ٨٨-٩٣)

- 7:88. The chieftains of his people who were arrogant said: O Shu'ayb, we will certainly drive you and those who believe with you out of our city, unless you all return to our religion. He said: What, even if we detest it?
- 7:89. We would be guilty of fabricating lies against Allah if we were to return to your religion after Allah has saved us from it. There is no way we could return to it unless Allah our Lord so willed. Our Lord encompasses all things in His knowledge. In Allah we put our trust. Our Lord, judge between us and our people in truth, for You are the best of judges.
- 7:90. The chieftains of his people who disbelieved said: If you follow Shu'ayb, then indeed you will be losers.
- 7:91. So an earthquake overtook them, and morning found them lying lifeless in their homes.
- 7:92. Those who rejected Shu'ayb became as if they had never lived there; those who rejected Shu'ayb became themselves the losers.
- 7:93. So Shu'ayb left them, saying: O my people, I did indeed convey to you the messages of my Lord. I gave you sincere advice, but why should I grieve over a disbelieving people?

«The chieftains of his people who were arrogant» that is, the nobles and prominent figures among them, who followed their whims and desires and were preoccupied with their pleasures. When the truth came to them and they saw that it was not in accordance with their evil whims and desires, they rejected it and were too arrogant to follow it. They said to their Prophet Shu'ayb and the oppressed believers who were with him:

«O Shu'ayb, we will certainly drive you and those who believe with you out of our city, unless you all return to our religion». They used their physical strength to oppose the truth and they did not pay attention to any religion, covenant or human rights; all they cared about was following their whims and desires and their foolish way of thinking that led to this corrupt idea, as they said: Either you and those who are with you should come back to our religion or we will surely expel you from our city.

Shu'ayb (ﷺ) was calling them in the hope that they would believe, but now he was not safe from their evil, to such an extent that they threatened him, saying that if he did not follow them, they would banish him from his homeland, to which he had more right than they did.

Shu'ayb (ﷺ) said to them in amazement at what they said: «What, even if we detest it?» That is, should we follow you in your false religion, even if we detest it because we know that it is false? Rather you should call someone to it who shows an interest in it, but in the case of someone who openly forbids it and denounces anyone who follows it, how could he be called to it?

«We would be guilty of fabricating lies against Allah if we were to return to your religion after Allah has saved us from it» that is, bear witness against us that if we were to return to it after Allah has saved us from it and from its evil, then we would be liars fabricating lies against Allah, because we know that there is no fabrication worse than that of one who ascribes partners to Allah when He is the One and Only God, Who has no son or spouse, and no partner in His sovereignty.

«There is no way we could return to it» that is, it is not possible for people like us to go back to it, for this is impossible. Shu'ayb (ﷺ) made them despair of him ever going along with them in many ways, by pointing out a number of things, such as the following:

- The believers hated and detested their religion because of what it involved of ascribing partners to Allah.
- He described what they were following as fabrications and called them to bear witness that if he and the people with him were to follow it, they would be liars and fabricators.
- They acknowledged that Allah had blessed them because He had saved them from it.
- It was impossible for them to return to it after Allah had guided them, because of their current state and what they had in their hearts of veneration for Allah and acknowledgement of their servitude to Him, and their belief that He alone is God and none should be worshipped but Him alone, with no partner or associate, and that the gods of the polytheists were the falsest of falsehoods and the most impossible to be true.

As Allah had blessed them with reason, they were able by means of it to recognise what was true and what was false, what constituted guidance what constituted misguidance.

However, within the context of the divine will and Allah's decree that inevitably comes to pass for His creation, and no one can escape it, even if means were made available and all forces got together to achieve that, they cannot decide concerning themselves that they will be able to do something or give up something for certain. Therefore, Shu'ayb made an exception here, as he said: «There is no way we could return to it unless Allah our Lord so willed» that is, neither we nor anyone else can act independently or rebel against His will that is connected to His knowledge and wisdom.

«Our Lord encompasses all things in His knowledge» that is, He knows what is good for His slaves and in what direction He will steer them

«In Allah we put our trust» that is, we trust that He will keep us steadfast on the straight path and protect us from all paths that lead to hell. Whoever puts his trust in Allah, He will suffice him and make things easy for him in both his spiritual and worldly affairs.

«Our Lord, judge between us and our people in truth» that is, support and help the one who is wronged and the one who is in the right against the stubborn wrongdoer who rejects the truth
«for You are the best of judges».

So they asked Allah to judge between them and their people on the basis of truth and justice, and to show them His signs that would decide the matter between the two parties.

«The chieftains of his people who disbelieved said», warning against following Shu'ayb

«If you follow Shu'ayb, then indeed you will be losers». This is what their evil souls told them, that loss and doom would result from following true guidance. They did not realise that real loss would result from persisting in what they were following of misguidance and misguiding others, but they realised that when the punishment befell them.

«So an earthquake overtook them»; it was a severe tremor
«and morning found them lying lifeless in their homes» that is, lying dead on the ground.

Allah says, describing them after their death: «Those who rejected Shu'ayb became as if they had never lived there» that is, it was as if they had never resided in their homeland, and as if they had never enjoyed wandering about in its streets or resting in its shade or enjoyed the flow of its rivers, or never eaten the fruits of its trees. When the punishment overtook them, they moved from a state of amusement, pleasure and fun to a realm of grief, misery, punishment and hell. Hence Allah says: «those who rejected Shu'ayb became themselves the losers» that is, the only ones who were losers, because on the Day of Resurrection they will lose their religion, their own selves and their families; indeed that is the true loss, not what others said to them: ﴿If you follow Shu'ayb, then indeed you will be losers﴾ (7: 90).

When they were destroyed, their Prophet Shu'ayb turned away from them, ﴿saying﴾ by way of rebuke, addressing them after they had died: ﴿O my people, I did indeed convey to you the messages of my Lord﴾ that is, I brought them to you and explained them so that you got the message in the best way and it could not have been any clearer.

﴿I gave you sincere advice﴾ but you did not accept my advice and you did not follow my instructions; rather you disbelieved and transgressed ﴿but why should I grieve over a disbelieving people?﴾ That is, how can I grieve for people in whom there is nothing good? Goodness came to them and they rejected it and failed to accept it, so they deserve nothing but evil. These people do not deserve to be grieved over; rather one should rejoice at their destruction and eradication. We seek refuge in You, O Allah, from disgrace and shame. What doom and punishment could be worse than reaching the point where the most sincere of people towards them disavow them?

﴿وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا فِي قَرْيَةٍ مِّن نَّبِيٍّ إِلَّا أَخَذْنَا أَهْلَهَا بِالْبَأْسَاءِ وَالضَّرَّاءِ لَعَلَّهُمْ
يَضُرَّعُونَ ﴿٩٤﴾ ثُمَّ بَدَّلْنَا مَكَانَ السَّيِّئَةِ الْحَسَنَةَ حَتَّى عَفَوْا وَقَالُوا قَدْ مَسَّ آبَاءَنَا
الضَّرَّاءُ وَالسَّرَّاءُ فَأَخَذْنَاهُمْ بَغْنَةً وَهُمْ لَا يُشْعُرُونَ ﴿٩٥﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ٩٤-٩٥)

- 7:94. Whenever We sent a Prophet to a city, We afflicted its people with adversity and distress, so that they might humble themselves.
- 7:95. Then We changed their suffering into prosperity, until they thrived and began to say: Our fathers also underwent both hardship and ease. Then We seized them suddenly, unawares.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says: «Whenever We sent a Prophet to a city», to call its people to worship Allah and forbid them to continue with whatever they were following of evil, and they did not submit to him, Allah tested them «with adversity and distress» that is, poverty, sickness and different types of calamity «so that», if that befell them, it might humble them, so they would beseech Allah and submit to the truth.

«Then» if that did not succeed, and they continued in their arrogance and increased in their transgression

«We changed their suffering into prosperity», so provision was granted abundantly to them, their bodies were healed and they were relieved of distress

«until they thrived» that is, they increased in number, their provision increased, and they enjoyed a life of ease because of the blessings and favours of Allah, and they forgot what they had gone through of hardship.

«and began to say: Our fathers also underwent both hardship and ease» that is, this is something normal that has been happening since the earliest generations and is still happening among the later generations: sometimes they are in a state of ease and sometimes they are faced with hardships; sometimes there is joy and sometimes there is sorrow, according to the vicissitudes of time. They think that there is no lesson or reminder to pay heed to, and that this is not happening in order to let them get carried away in sin until, when they are rejoicing in what they have been given and this world is the most important thing in their minds, the punishment overtakes them «suddenly» and catches them «unawares». In other words, it never occurs to them that they may be faced with destruction, and they think that they have full control over what Allah has granted to them and that they will never die or move on and leave it behind.

﴿وَلَوْ أَنَّ أَهْلَ الْقُرَىٰ ءَامَنُوا وَاتَّقَوْا لَفَتَحْنَا عَلَيْهِم بَرَكَاتٍ مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَلَٰكِن كَذَّبُوا فَأَخَذْنَاهُم بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾ أَفَأَمِنَ أَهْلُ الْقُرَىٰ أَن يَأْتِيَهُمْ بَأْسُنَا بَيِّنًا وَهُمْ نَائِمُونَ ﴿٩٧﴾ أَوَأَمِنَ أَهْلُ الْقُرَىٰ أَن يَأْتِيَهُمْ بَأْسُنَا ضُحًى وَهُمْ يُلْعَبُونَ ﴿٩٨﴾ أَفَأَمِنُوا مَكْرَ اللَّهِ ۚ فَلَا يَأْمَنُ مَكْرَ اللَّهِ إِلَّا الْقَوْمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ ﴿٩٩﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ٩٦-٩٩)

- 7:96. If only the people of the cities had believed and feared Allah, We would indeed have opened up for them blessings from heaven and earth. But they rejected the truth, so We punished them because of what they earned.
- 7:97. Do the people of the cities feel secure that Our punishment will not come upon them at night whilst they are sleeping?
- 7:98. Or do the people of the cities feel secure that Our punishment will not come upon them during the day whilst they are engaged in frivolous pursuits?
- 7:99. Or do they feel secure from the plan of Allah? No one feels secure from the plan of Allah except the people who are losers.

Having stated that those who rejected the Messengers will be tested with hardship by way of admonition and warning, and they will be tested with ease by way of letting them get carried away, Allah (ﷻ) then tells us that if the people of the cities had believed sincerely in their hearts, had faith that was confirmed by righteous deeds, and they had actually feared Allah both outwardly and inwardly, by giving up that which Allah had prohibited, He would have bestowed upon them the blessings of heaven and earth, and He would have sent rain from the heaven in abundance, and caused to grow for them from the earth that which would sustain them and their livestock and cause them to live a life of prosperity and plenty, without any exhaustion or tiredness on their part. But they did not believe and they did not fear Him ﴿so We punished them because of what they earned﴾ by sending upon them the penalty and calamity, and by removing blessings, and sending troubles and problems. This was partial recompense for their deeds; otherwise if He were to punish them for all that they had earned, He would not have left a single living being on the face of the earth. ﴿Corruption and disorder have appeared on land and sea<sup>18</sup> because of what people's hands have earned. Thus Allah causes them to taste the consequences of some of what they have done, so that they may turn in repentance.﴾ (ar-Room 30: 41)

﴿Do the people of the cities feel secure﴾ that is, do the people of the disbelieving cities feel secure, as is indicated by the context ﴿that Our punishment﴾ that is, Our severe punishment ﴿will not come upon them at night whilst they are sleeping?﴾ that is, when they are unaware and resting.

﴿Or do the people of the cities feel secure that Our punishment will not come upon them during the day whilst they are engaged in frivolous pursuits?﴾ that is, what makes them feel secure from that, when they have done that which may lead to punishment, and they have committed grave sins, some of which are enough to cause their doom?

﴿Or do they feel secure from the plan of Allah?﴾ As He may let them get carried away in order to seize them; He will give them respite, for His stratagem is sure (cf. 7: 183).

﴿No one feels secure from the plan of Allah except the people who are losers﴾. For if anyone feels secure from the punishment of

---

<sup>18</sup> This refers to the widespread occurrence of troubles such as drought, fires and floods, poor yield of crops, decline of fish stocks, market stagnation and difficulty in earning a living. That is because of people's sins, including neglect and abuse of the natural environment.

Allah, then in reality he does not believe in requital for deeds and he does not believe in the Messengers in any true sense.

This verse is intended to instil a great deal of fear, so that the individual should never feel safe (from divine punishment) in spite of what he has of faith in his heart. Rather he should always be worried and anxious lest he go through trials that deprive him of what he has of faith, and he should always call upon Allah, saying: "O Controller of the hearts, make my heart adhere firmly to Your religion", and he should strive hard to take all measures that could protect him from evil and at times of turmoil. No matter what his level of faith is, the individual should never feel secure and certain of spiritual well-being.

﴿أَوَلَمْ يَهْدِ لِلَّذِينَ يَرِثُونَ الْأَرْضَ مِنْ بَعْدِ أَهْلِهَا أَنْ لَوْ نَشَاءُ أَصَبْنَاهُمْ بِذُنُوبِهِمْ
وَنَطْبَعُ عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ فَهُمْ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ ﴿١٠٠﴾ تِلْكَ الْقُرَى نَقُصُّ عَلَيْكَ مِنْ أَنْبَاءِهَا
وَلَقَدْ جَاءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُهُم بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَمَا كَانُوا لِيُؤْمِنُوا بِمَا كَذَّبُوا مِنْ قَبْلُ
كَذَلِكَ يَطْبَعُ اللَّهُ عَلَى قُلُوبِ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿١٠١﴾ وَمَا وَجَدْنَا لِأَكْثَرِهِمْ مِنْ عَهْدٍ وَإِنْ
وَجَدْنَا أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَفَاسِقِينَ ﴿١٠٢﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٠٠-١٠٢)

- 7:100. Is it not clear to those who inherit the earth in succession to its former inhabitants that, if We so willed, We could punish them too for their sins? But We seal up their hearts so that they cannot hear.
- 7:101. These are the cities, some of the stories of which We have told to you. Their Messengers indeed came to them with clear signs, but they would not believe what they had rejected before. Thus does Allah seal the hearts of the disbelievers.
- 7:102. And most of them We found not true to their covenant; rather We found most of them are indeed rebellious.

Here Allah draws our attention to current nations after the destruction of those nations that have passed away.

﴿Is it not clear to those who inherit the earth in succession to its former inhabitants that, if We so willed, We could punish them too for their sins?﴾ That is, is it not clear to those nations who have inherited the earth after the destruction of those who came before them for their sins, then they did the same deeds as those who were doomed?

Or do they not realise that if Allah so willed, He could punish them for their sins? For this is His way with the earlier and later generations.

﴿But We seal up their hearts so that they cannot hear﴾ that is, if Allah alerts them and they do not respond, and if He reminds them and they pay no heed, and if He shows them signs and they are not guided, then Allah will punish them and place a seal on their hearts, so that they will be covered with dirt and impurities until they are sealed. Then no truth or goodness can reach them and they cannot hear that which benefits them; rather they hear that which establishes proof against them.

﴿These are the cities﴾ that are mentioned above
﴿some of the stories of which We have told to you﴾, about what happened to them, as a lesson for those who reflect, a warning for those who do wrong and an exhortation for those who fear Allah.

﴿Their Messengers indeed came to them with clear signs﴾ that is, their Messengers came to these disbelievers and called them to that which could lead to their happiness, and Allah supported them with miracles and clear signs to explain the truth completely, but they did not benefit from that, and it did not avail them anything.

﴿but they would not believe what they had rejected before﴾ that is, because of their disbelief and their initial rejection of the truth, Allah would not guide them to faith, as a recompense for their rejection of the truth, as He says elsewhere:

﴿We will turn their hearts and eyes away [from the truth], since they refused to believe in it the first time, and We will leave them to wander blindly in their misguidance.﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 110)

﴿Thus does Allah seal the hearts of the disbelievers﴾, as a punishment. And Allah does not wrong them; rather they wrong their own selves.

﴿And most of them We found not true to their covenant﴾ that is, We did not find most of the nations to whom Allah sent the Messengers to be true to the covenant; in other words, they did not adhere to it and they were not bound by the instructions that Allah enjoined upon all people, and they did not comply with the commands that He sent to them on the lips of His Messengers.

﴿rather We found most of them are indeed rebellious﴾ that is, disobedient towards Allah and following their whims and desires without any guidance from Allah. Allah (ﷻ) tested His slaves by sending the Messengers and sending down the Books, and He commanded them to follow His covenant and guidance, but no one obeyed His command except a few, those who He had already decreed would be blessed.

Most people, however, turned away from guidance and were too arrogant to follow that which the Messengers brought. Hence Allah sent upon them various punishments.

﴿ثُمَّ بَعَثْنَا مِنْ بَعْدِهِم مُّوسَىٰ بِآيَاتِنَا إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِ فَظَلَمُوا بِهَا فَأَنظَرْنَاهُ كَيْفَ
كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُفْسِدِينَ ﴿١٢٣﴾ وَقَالَ مُوسَىٰ يُعْرِعُونَ لِي رَسُولٌ مِنْ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ
﴿١٢٤﴾ حَقِيقٌ عَلَىٰ أَنْ لَا أَقُولَ عَلَى اللَّهِ إِلَّا الْحَقُّ قَدْ جِئْتُكُمْ بِبَيِّنَاتٍ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ
فَأَرْسِلْ مَعِيَ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿١٢٥﴾ قَالَ إِنْ كُنْتَ جِئْتَ بِآيَةٍ فَأْتِ بِهَا إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ

الْصَّادِقِينَ ﴿١٠٦﴾ فَأَلْقَى عَصَاهُ فَإِذَا هِيَ ثُعْبَانٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿١٠٧﴾ ﴿سورة الأعراف: ١٠٣-١٠٧﴾

(١٠٧)

- 7:103. Then after them We sent Moosâ with Our signs to Pharaoh and his chiefs, but they wrongfully rejected them. So see what was the fate of those who spread mischief.
- 7:104. Moosâ said: O Pharaoh, verily I am a Messenger from the Lord of the worlds,
- 7:105. duty-bound to say nothing about Allah except the truth. I have come to you with a clear sign from your Lord, so let the Children of Israel go with me.
- 7:106. Pharaoh said: If you have indeed come with a clear sign, then show it to us, if you are telling the truth.
- 7:107. So Moosâ threw down his staff, and suddenly it was a serpent, plain for all to see.

Then, after those Messengers, We sent Moosâ al-Kaleem (the one to whom Allah spoke directly), the great leader and noble Messenger, to a people who were harsh and arrogant tyrants, namely Pharaoh and his chiefs from among their nobles and prominent figures. He showed them mighty signs of Allah, the like of which had never been seen, ﴿but they wrongfully rejected them﴾ and disbelieved; the one who disbelieves in such a sign is a wrongdoer, and in fact they arrogantly rejected those signs.

﴿So see what was the fate of those who spread mischief﴾, how Allah destroyed them.

﴿They were overtaken by a curse in this world, and [they will be cursed] on the Day of Resurrection; how wretched is the gift to be given!﴾ (Hood 11: 99)

This is a brief outline; then Allah explains further:

﴿Moosâ said﴾ when he came to Pharaoh to call him to faith

﴿O Pharaoh, verily I am a Messenger from the Lord of the worlds﴾ that is, I am a Messenger sent by One Who is great; He is the Lord of the worlds, which includes both the upper and lower realms. He is in charge of His creation of all types, and He is taking care of them, which means that He does not leave them without guidance; rather He sends to them Messengers as bringers of glad tidings and as warners. He is the One Whom no one may challenge or claim to be sent by Him when that is not the case.

If this is how He is, and He has chosen me and selected me to convey His message, then it is incumbent upon me not to lie about Him or to say anything about Him except the truth, for if I were to say anything other than that, then He would hasten the punishment for me and seize me with all His might and power.

This should have made them follow Moosâ and submit to him, especially as he brought to them a clear sign from Allah to prove the soundness of the message of truth that he brought, that they should have complied with the goals of his message, the two main goals of which were that they should believe in him and follow him, and release the Children of Israel, the people whom Allah had favoured above all others (at that time), the children of the Prophets and the descendants of Ya'qoob (ﷺ), of whom Moosâ was one.

But Pharaoh said to him: ﴿If you have indeed come with a clear sign, then show it to us, if you are telling the truth. So Moosâ threw down his staff﴾ onto the ground ﴿and suddenly it was a serpent, plain for all to see﴾ that is, a moving snake, as they were looking on.

﴿وَنَزَعَ يَدَهُ فَإِذَا هِيَ بَيْضَاءُ لِلنَّظَرِ ۚ﴾ (١٨) قَالَ الْمَلَأُ مِنْ قَوْمِ فِرْعَوْنَ إِنَّ هَذَا لَسَاحِرٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿يُرِيدُ أَنْ يُخْرِجَكُمْ مِنْ أَرْضِكُمْ فَأَصْبَحَ تَائِبُونَ﴾ (١٩) قَالُوا أَزِجُّهُ وَأَخَاهُ

وَأَرْسِلْ فِي الْمَدَائِنِ حَاشِرِينَ ﴿١١٠﴾ يَأْتُوكَ يَكْلٍ سَحِيرٍ عَلِيمٍ ﴿١١١﴾ (سورة الأعراف:

(١١٢-١٠٨)

- 7:108. And he drew forth his hand, and it appeared shining white to all beholders.
- 7:109. The chiefs among Pharaoh's people said: Verily this is a learned magician!
- 7:110. He wants to drive you out of your land. [Pharaoh said:] What do you advise then?
- 7:111. They said: Let him and his brother wait a while, and send heralds to the cities to gather
- 7:112. and bring to you all the learned magicians.

«And he drew forth his hand» from his collar «and it appeared shining white to all beholders», although unharmed. These were two great signs that highlighted the truth of the message that Moosâ brought, and proved that he was the Messenger of the Lord of the worlds. But those who do not believe, even if all signs come to them, they will not believe until they see the painful punishment.

Hence «The chiefs among Pharaoh's people», when they were astounded by what they saw of signs, but they did not believe and they tried to find some wrong interpretation for them, «said: Verily this is a learned magician!» That is, one who is skilled in magic.

Then they tried to scare the weak in mind and foolish by saying: «He» namely Moosâ, by doing this, «wants to drive you out of your land» that is, he wants to banish you from your homeland «[Pharaoh said:] What do you advise then?» The magicians consulted one another as to what they should do with Moosâ and how they should ward off his harm, as they saw it, because if what he brought was not confronted with something to refute and defeat it, most people would be convinced by it. So they decided to say to Pharaoh:

﴿Let him and his brother wait a while﴾ that is, detain them and gave them respite, and send people to the cities to gather your subjects; let them bring every learned magician. In other words, let them bring the skilled magicians to confront what Moosâ has brought. They said: Fix a time between us and you which neither we nor you will fail to keep, at a mutually agreeable place.

﴿Moosâ said: Your appointment will be on the day of the festival; let the people assemble in the forenoon. So Pharaoh withdrew and gathered his resources, then he came [for the appointment].﴾ (Tâ Hâ 20: 59-60)

﴿وَجَاءَ السَّحَرَةُ فِرْعَوْنَ قَالُوا إِنَّ لَنَا لَأَجْرًا إِن كُنَّا نَحْنُ الْغَالِبِينَ ۝١١٣﴾ قَالَ نَعَمْ وَإِنَّكُمْ لَمِنَ الْمُقَرَّبِينَ ۝١١٤ قَالُوا يَمُوسَى إِمَّا أَنْ تُلْقِيَ وَإِمَّا أَنْ نَكُونَ نَحْنُ الْمُلْقِينَ ۝١١٥ قَالَ أَلْقُوا فَلَمَّا أَلْقَوْا سَحَرُوا أَعْيُنَ النَّاسِ وَاسْتَرْهَبُوهُمْ وَجَاءُوا بِسِحْرٍ عَظِيمٍ ۝١١٦ وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَى مُوسَى أَنْ أَلْقِ عَصَاكَ فَإِذَا هِيَ تَلْقَفُ مَا يَأْفِكُونَ ۝١١٧ فَوَقَعَ الْحَقُّ وَبَطَلَ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ۝١١٨ فَغُلِبُوا هُنَاكَ وَانْقَلَبُوا صَافِرِينَ ۝١١٩﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١١٣-١١٩)

- 7:113. The magicians came to Pharaoh and said: Will we have a reward if we are the victors?
- 7:114. He said: Yes, and you will surely be among those who are close to me.
- 7:115. They said: O Moosâ, either you throw first or we will be the first to throw!
- 7:116. Moosâ said: You throw first. So when they threw, they bewitched the eyes of the people and stuck fear into them, producing powerful magic.

- 7:117. We inspired Moosâ: Throw your staff, and thereupon it swallowed up all their deceptions.
- 7:118. Thus the truth was established, and all they did was proven to be false.
- 7:119. Thus they were defeated there and then, and were utterly humiliated.

«The magicians came to Pharaoh» seeking from him a reward if they were victorious. They said: «Will we have a reward if we are the victors?»

«He» namely Pharaoh, «said: Yes» you will have a reward «and you will surely be among those who are close to me». He promised them the reward and that they would be close to him and held in high esteem by him, so that they would try hard and do their utmost to defeat Moosâ. When they met with Moosâ, in the presence of a great crowd, «They said» by way of showing confidence and giving the impression that they were not worried about what Moosâ had brought: «O Moosâ, either you throw first» whatever you have with you, «or we will be the first to throw».

«Moosâ said: You throw first» so that the people would see what they had with them, and what Moosâ had with him.

«So when they threw» their ropes and sticks, which by their magic became like moving snakes, «they bewitched the eyes of the people and stuck fear into them, producing powerful magic» such as had never been produced before.

«We inspired Moosâ: Throw your staff» and he threw it, «and thereupon it» turned into a moving snake, which «swallowed up all their deceptions» that is, their fabrications and illusions.

«Thus the truth was established» and became clear and visible before that gathering

﴿and all they did was proven to be false. Thus they were defeated there and then﴾ in that place

﴿and were utterly humiliated﴾ that is, defeated; their falsehood had vanished and their magic was diminished, and they did not attain the goal they thought they could reach.

The people for whom truth becomes clearest are the people of magic who know all types of magic and the details thereof, which other people do not know. Hence they realised that this was a great sign, one of the signs of Allah that no human could produce.

﴿وَأَلْقَى السَّحَرَةُ سِحْرَ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ۖ قَالُوا ءَامَنَّا بِرَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٢١﴾ رَبِّ مُوسَى وَهَارُونَ ﴿١٢٢﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٢٠-١٢٢)

7:120. The magicians fell down in prostration

7:121. and said: We believe in the Lord of the worlds,

7:122. The Lord of Moosâ and Hâroon.

That is, we believe in the clear signs with which Moosâ was sent.

﴿قَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ ءَامَنْتُمْ بِهِ قَبْلَ أَنْ مَأْذَنَ لَكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ هَذَا لَمَكْرٌ مَكْرُومُهُ فِي الْعَمِيدِ ۚ لِيُخْرِجُوا مِنْهَا أَهْلَهَا ۚ فَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٢٣﴾ لَأَقْطَعَنَّ أَيْدِيَكُمْ وَأَرْجُلَكُمْ مِنْ خِلْفٍ ثُمَّ لَأُسَلِّبَنَّكُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿١٢٤﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٢٣-١٢٤)

7:123. Pharaoh said: How dare you believe in Him before I give you permission! Surely this is a plot that you hatched in this city in order to drive out its people. But you will soon know the consequences.

7:124. I will certainly cut off your hands and feet on opposite sides, then I will certainly crucify you all.

---

﴿Pharaoh said﴾ to them, threatening them for believing ﴿How dare you believe in Him before I give you permission!﴾ The evil one was a tyrannical ruler who wanted to control people's actions and words; it was well established in his view and theirs that he was to be obeyed and his instructions were to be carried out; no one could go against his word or his rule.

When people reach that degree of obedience, nations begin to decline; they lose their reason and they lose power, and become unable to defend their rights. Hence Allah says elsewhere concerning Pharaoh:

﴿Thus he made fools of his people and they obeyed him...﴾ (az-Zukhruf 43: 54)

And Allah tells us here that he said: ﴿How dare you believe in Him before I give you permission!﴾ That is, this is bad manners on your part and is a challenge to me. Then he tried to deceive his people and said: ﴿Surely this is a plot that you hatched in this city in order to drive out its people﴾ that is, Moosâ, who is your leader, is the one who taught you magic, so you hatched a plot together, you and him, that you would be defeated by him and he would prevail, so you would follow him, then the people, or the majority of them, would follow you and thus you would drive the people out of the city.

But this was a lie. He and anyone who understood the situation was well aware that Moosâ had never met any one of them; they were summoned and selected by Pharaoh and his envoys; what Moosâ brought was a sign from Allah; and the magicians did their utmost to defeat Moosâ, but they failed. Thus the truth became clear to them, and they followed it.

Then Pharaoh threatened them by saying: «But you will soon know the consequences» and what will happen to you by way of punishment.

«I will certainly cut off your hands and feet on opposite sides». The evil one claimed that they were spreading mischief in the land, so he was going to do to them what is usually done to those who spread mischief, which is cutting off hands and feet on opposite sides, that is, the right hand and the left foot.

«then I will certainly crucify you» on the trunks of palm trees so as to disgrace you – according to his claim
«all» that is, I will not do this to some of you and not others; rather all of you will taste this punishment.

﴿قَالُوا إِنَّا إِلَىٰ رَبِّنَا مُنْقَلِبُونَ ﴿١٢٥﴾ وَمَا نُنْقِمُ مِنْهَا إِلَّا أَتَاءَ مَا نَحْنُ بِرَبِّنَا لَمَّا جَاءَنَا رَبَّنَا أَفْرِغْ عَلَيْنَا صَبْرًا وَتَوَفَّنَا مُسْلِمِينَ ﴿١٢٦﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٢٥-١٢٦)

7:125. They said: It is to our Lord that we will surely return.

7:126. The only grievance you have against us is that we believed in the signs of our Lord when they came to us. Our Lord, grant us abundance of patience and cause us to die as Muslims, submitting to You.

The magicians who believed said to Pharaoh, when he threatened them: «It is to our Lord that we will surely return» that is, we do not care about your punishment, for Allah is better and more lasting, so do whatever you want.

«The only grievance you have against us» that is, what fault do you find in us, for which you are denouncing and warning us? We have done no wrong, except «that we believed in the signs of our Lord when they came to us». If this is a fault for which we are to be rebuked and deserve punishment, then so be it.

Then they called upon Allah, asking Him to make them steadfast and patient, as they said: «Our Lord, grant us» that is, bestow upon us «abundance of patience» that is, great patience, as is indicated by use of the indefinite form in the original Arabic. This was a great trial that would lead to loss of life, for which a great deal of patience is required to remain steadfast and confident in faith, and to dispel panic. «and cause us to die as Muslims, submitting to You» that is, complying with Your command and following Your Messenger. It seems that he carried out his threat to them, and Allah made them steadfast in faith.

﴿ وَقَالَ الْمَلَأُ مِنْ قَوْمِ فِرْعَوْنَ أَنْذَرُ مُوسَى وَقَوْمَهُ لِيُفْسِدُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَيَذَرَكِ
وَالْهَيْكَلُ ۚ قَالَ سَنُنْقِلُ أَبْنَاءَهُمْ وَنَسْتَحْيِي نِسَاءَهُمْ وَإِنَّا فَوْقَهُمْ قَاهِرُونَ
﴿١٢٧﴾ قَالَ مُوسَى لِقَوْمِهِ اسْتَعِينُوا بِاللَّهِ وَأَصْبِرُوا إِنَّا الْأَرْضُ لِلَّهِ يُورِثُهَا مَنْ
يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ ۗ وَالْعَاقِبَةُ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿١٢٨﴾ قَالُوا أَوْذَيْنَا مِنْ قَبْلُ أَنْ تَأْتِيَنَا وَمِنْ
بَعْدِ مَا جِئْتَنَا قَالَ عَسَى رَبُّكُمْ أَنْ يُهْلِكَ عُدُوَّكُمْ وَيَسْتَخْلِفَكُمْ فِي
الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرَ كَيْفَ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٢٩﴾ ﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٢٧-١٢٩)

- 7:127. The chiefs among Pharaoh's people said: Are you going to let Moosâ and his people spread mischief in the land, and abandon you and your gods? He said: We will slaughter their sons and spare their women, for we have absolute power over them!
- 7:128. Moosâ said to his people: Seek help from Allah and be patient and steadfast, for verily the land belongs to Allah and He grants it as an inheritance to whomever He will among His slaves; and the best outcome is for those who fear Allah.

7:129. They said: We were oppressed both before you came to us and since you came to us. He said: It may well be that your Lord will destroy your enemy and make you successors in the land, so that He may see how you will do.

Moreover, Pharaoh and his chiefs, and the common folk who followed the chiefs, were too arrogant to accept the signs of Allah and rejected them by way of transgression and arrogance. They said to Pharaoh, inciting him to punish Moosâ, and claiming that what he brought was false and corrupt:

﴿Are you going to let Moosâ and his people spread mischief in the land﴾ by calling people to Allah and to noble characteristics and good deeds, which was spreading righteousness in the land, at the time when what they were following was mischief and corruption, but the wrongdoers do not care what they say.

﴿and abandon you and your gods﴾ that is, he is forsaking you and your gods, forbidding people to follow you and barring people from doing so.

﴿He﴾ namely Pharaoh ﴿said﴾ in response to them that he would leave the Children of Israel with Moosâ in such a state that they could not grow in numbers, thus Pharaoh and his people would be safer – or so he claimed – from their harm:

﴿We will slaughter their sons and spare their women﴾ that is, we will let the women live and not kill them, and if we do that we will be safe from their increasing in numbers, and we will be able to use those who are still alive and force them to do whatever we want.

﴿for we have absolute power over them﴾ and they have no way and no means to escape our rule over them. This was the utmost tyranny, arrogance and hardheartedness on the part of Pharaoh.

﴿Moosâ said to his people﴾, advising them in this situation – in which they were unable to do anything or offer any resistance – to seek divine help and aid:

﴿Seek help from Allah﴾ that is, rely on Him to bring that which will benefit you and ward off that which will harm you; put your trust in Allah and have faith that He will help you to reach your goals
 ﴿and be patient and steadfast﴾ that is, adhere to patience in bearing that which has befallen you, and wait for relief.

﴿for verily the land belongs to Allah﴾ and not to Pharaoh or his people, such that they can control it as they want
 ﴿and He grants it as an inheritance to whomever He will among His slaves﴾ that is, He alternates it among people according to His will and wisdom, but the best outcome is for the pious, for even if they are tested for a while, by Allah's wisdom, victory will ultimately be theirs
 ﴿and the best outcome is for those who fear Allah﴾.

This is what the individual should do: when he is able to take measures towards warding off the harm of others, he should do as much as he can; but if he is not able to do so, then he must be patient, seek the help of Allah and wait for relief.

﴿They said﴾ to Moosâ, complaining about the persecution and harm they had endured at the hands of Pharaoh
 ﴿We were oppressed both before you came to us﴾, for they subjected us to grievous torment, slaughtering our sons and letting our womenfolk live, ﴿and since you came to us﴾ it has continued in like manner.

Moosâ said to them, giving them hope of relief and deliverance from their calamity: ﴿It may well be that your Lord will destroy your enemy and make you successors in the land﴾ that is, give you power therein and put you in control of it ﴿so that He may see how you will do﴾ – will you be grateful or ungrateful? This is a promise that Allah fulfilled when the time came as He willed.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَخَذْنَا آلَ فِرْعَوْنَ بِالسِّنِينَ وَنَقَصْنَا مِنَ الشَّجَرِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَذَّكَّرُونَ﴾
(سورة الأعراف: ١٣٠)

7:130. Verily We afflicted the people of Pharaoh with years of drought and scarcity of crops, so that they might pay heed.

Here Allah (ﷻ) explains how He dealt with the people of Pharaoh during this final period; it was in accordance with His usual way of dealing with the nations: by afflicting its people with adversity and distress, so that they might humble themselves, and so on (see 7: 94 and onwards).

﴿Verily We afflicted the people of Pharaoh with years of drought﴾ that is, drought and famine
﴿and scarcity of crops, so that they might pay heed﴾ that is, so that they might understand that what has befallen them is a rebuke from Allah, so that they might give up their disbelief. But that was to no avail; rather they persisted in wrongdoing and mischief.

﴿فَإِذَا جَاءَتْهُمْ الْحَسَنَةُ قَالُوا لَنَا هَذِهِ وَإِنْ تُصِبْهُمْ سَيِّئَةٌ يَطَّيَّرُوا بِمُوسَى وَمَنْ مَعَهُ ۚ أَلَا إِنَّمَا طَّيَّرَهُمْ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَلَكِنْ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ﴾ (١٣١) وَقَالُوا مَهْمَا تَأْتِينَا بِهِ مِنْ آيَةٍ لِّنَسْحَرَنَّ بِهَا فَمَا يَخُنُّ لَكَ يَٰمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٣٢﴾ فَأَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمُ الطُّوفَانَ وَالْجَرَادَ وَالْقُمَّلَ وَالضَّفَادِعَ وَالْدَّمَ ۚ آيَاتٍ مُّفَصَّلَاتٍ فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا وَكَانُوا قَوْمًا مُّجْرِمِينَ ﴿١٣٣﴾ وَلَمَّا وَقَعَ عَلَيْهِمُ الرِّجْزُ قَالُوا يَٰمُوسَىٰ أَدْعُ لَنَا رَبَّكَ بِمَا عَهِدَ عِنْدَكَ لِيَن كَشَفَ عَنَّا الرِّجْزَ لَنُؤْمِنَ لَكَ وَلَنُرْسِلَنَّ مَعَكَ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿١٣٤﴾ فَلَمَّا

كَشَفْنَا عَنْهُمْ الرِّجْزَ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ هُمْ بَلَّغُوهُ إِذَا هُمْ يَنْكُثُونَ ﴿١٣٥﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٣١-١٣٥)

- 7:131. Whenever good fortune came their way, they said: This is our due. But when bad fortune befell them, they ascribed it to the evil auspices of Moosâ and those who were with him. Surely, whatever befalls them has been decreed only by Allah, but most of them do not understand.
- 7:132. They said: Whatever signs you bring us, to bewitch us therewith, we will never believe in you.
- 7:133. So We sent against them floods, locusts, lice, frogs and blood, distinct signs, but they showed arrogance and were wicked people.
- 7:134. When the punishment befell them, they said: O Moosâ, call upon your Lord for us, on the strength of the covenant He has made with you; if you remove the punishment from us, we will surely believe in you and we will let the Children of Israel go with you.
- 7:135. But when We removed the punishment from them until an appointed term which they were bound to reach, they immediately broke their promise.

«Whenever good fortune» that is, fertility and abundance of provision «came their way, they said: This is our due» that is, we deserve it, but they did not give thanks to Allah for it
 «But when bad fortune» that is, famine and drought
 «befell them, they ascribed it to the evil auspices of Moosâ and those who were with him» that is, they said: This has only happened to us because of Moosâ's coming and because of the Children of Israel following him.

But Allah (ﷻ) said: ﴿Surely, whatever befalls them has been decreed only by Allah﴾ that is, by His will and decree. It is not as they said; rather it is their sins and disbelief that are the cause of that. ﴿but most of them do not understand﴾, hence they said what they said.

﴿They said﴾, explaining to Moosâ that they would persist in their falsehood and never give it up ﴿Whatever signs you bring us, to bewitch us therewith, we will never believe in you﴾ that is, it is established in our minds that you are a magician, so whatever sign you bring, we are certain that it is magic, therefore we do not believe in you and we do not believe what you say. This was the utmost stubbornness, when the disbelievers reached such a point that whatever happened was all the same to them, regardless of whether signs came down to them or not.

﴿So We sent against them floods﴾ that is, huge volumes of water that swamped their trees and crops, and caused them a great deal of harm

﴿locusts﴾ that ate their fruits, crops and plants

﴿lice﴾ it was suggested that these were small locusts, but the apparent meaning is that they were ordinary lice

﴿frogs﴾ that filled their vessels and caused them annoyance and a great deal of harm

﴿and blood﴾ this was either nosebleeds or, as many of the commentators said, the water that they drank turned into blood, so they had nothing to drink except blood and nothing to cook with except blood.

﴿distinct signs﴾ that is, evidence and proof that they were lying and doing wrong, and that what Moosâ had brought was the truth.

﴿but they showed arrogance﴾ when they saw the signs

﴿and were﴾ and had been, before they saw the signs, ﴿wicked people﴾. Hence Allah (ﷻ) punished them by causing them to remain misguided and astray.

﴿When the punishment befell them﴾ – it may be that what is meant by the punishment is the plague, as many of the commentators suggested, or it may be that what is meant is the signs mentioned above, namely the flood, locusts, lice, frogs and blood, which came as punishments. Every time one of them befell the people, ﴿they said: O Moosâ, call upon your Lord for us, on the strength of the covenant He has made with you﴾ that is, they sought the intercession of Moosâ on the strength of the covenant that Allah had made with him ﴿if you remove the punishment from us, we will surely believe in you and we will let the Children of Israel go with you﴾ but they were lying when they said that, because their only intention was to get relief from the punishment that had befallen them; they thought that if it was lifted, no other punishment would befall them.

﴿But when We removed the punishment from them until an appointed term which they were bound to reach﴾ that is, until a time until which Allah had decreed that they should remain. It was not permanent relief; rather it was only temporary ﴿they immediately broke their promise﴾ that they had made to Moosâ, when they pledged to believe in him and let the Children of Israel go. So they did not believe in him and they did not let the Children of Israel go with him; rather they persisted in their disbelief, wandering blindly, and they persisted in persecuting the Children of Israel.

﴿فَأَنقَمْنَا مِنْهُمْ فَأَغْرَقْنَاهُمْ فِي الْيَمِّ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا وَكَانُوا عَنْهَا غَافِلِينَ ﴿١٣٦﴾ وَأَوْرَثْنَا الْقَوْمَ الَّذِينَ كَانُوا يُسْتَضَعُونَ مَشْرِقَ الْأَرْضِ وَمَغْرِبَهَا الَّتِي بَدَرَكْنَا فِيهَا وَتَمَّتْ كَلِمَتُ رَبِّكَ الْحُسْنَىٰ عَلَىٰ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ بِمَا صَبَرُوا وَدَمَرْنَا مَا كَانُوا يَصْنَعُونَ فِرْعَوْنَ وَقَوْمَهُ وَمَا كَانُوا يَعْرِشُونَ ﴿١٣٧﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف:

(١٣٧-١٣٦)

7:136. So We exacted retribution upon them: We drowned them in the sea, because they rejected Our signs and paid them no heed.

7:137. And We caused the people who had been oppressed to inherit the eastern and western parts of the land that We had blessed. The good word of your Lord was fulfilled for the Children of Israel because of their patience and steadfastness, and We destroyed what Pharaoh and his people had wrought, and what they had built.

﴿So We exacted retribution upon them﴾ that is, when the time came for their destruction, Allah instructed Moosâ to take the Children of Israel and leave by night, and He informed him that Pharaoh and his troops would pursue them.

﴿So Pharaoh sent heralds to the cities [to mobilize troops].﴾ (ash-Shu'arâ' 26: 53)

– to rally the people to pursue the Israelites. They said to them:

﴿...These are but a small band, and they have enraged us, but we are all well-prepared. Thus did We cause them to leave their gardens and springs, and their treasures and fine dwellings. And so it was; and We caused the Children of Israel to inherit such things. Then [the Egyptians] caught up with them at sunrise. When the two groups came within sight of one another, the companions of Moosâ said: We are sure to be overtaken. Moosâ said: No indeed! Verily, my Lord is with me and He will guide me. Then We inspired Moosâ: Strike the sea with your staff. So it parted, and every part became like a huge mountain.<sup>19</sup> We brought the other group closer to that place. We saved Moosâ and all those who were with him, then We drowned the others.﴾ (ash-Shu'arâ' 26: 54-66)

Here (7: 136) Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿We drowned them in the sea, because they rejected Our signs and paid them no heed﴾ that is, because of their rejection of the signs of Allah and their turning away from the truth to which they pointed.

<sup>19</sup> The waters parted, opening up twelve dry passages by which the Israelites could cross, and where the parting waters gathered, in each part the water was drawn up and became like a huge mountain.

﴿And We caused the people who had been oppressed﴾ in the land, namely the Children of Israel who had been servants to the people of Pharaoh, who had subjected them to grievous torment. Allah caused them ﴿to inherit the eastern and western parts of the land﴾. What is meant by the land here is the land of Egypt in which they had been oppressed and humiliated. Allah give them power over all of it ﴿that We had blessed. The good word of your Lord was fulfilled for the Children of Israel because of their patience and steadfastness﴾ when Moosâ said to them: ﴿Seek help from Allah and be patient and steadfast, for verily the land belongs to Allah and He grants it as an inheritance to whomever He will among His slaves; and the best outcome is for those who fear Allah﴾ (7: 128).

﴿and We destroyed what Pharaoh and his people had wrought﴾ of huge buildings and beautiful dwellings ﴿and what they had built﴾. ﴿Now their houses lie desolate, because of their wrongdoing. Verily, in that is a sign for people who have knowledge.﴾ (an-Naml 27: 52)

﴿وَجَوَّزْنَا بِبَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ الْبَحْرَ فَأَتَوْا عَلَى قَوْمٍ يَعْكُفُونَ عَلَى أَصْنَامٍ لَهُمْ قَالُوا
يَمُوسَى اجْعَلْ لَنَا إِلَهًا كَمَا لَهُمْ آلِهَةٌ قَالَ إِنَّكُمْ قَوْمٌ تَجْهَلُونَ ﴿١٣٨﴾ إِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ مُتَّبِعُونَ
مَا هُمْ فِيهِ وَنَظِيلٌ مَّا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٣٩﴾ قَالَ أَغَيْرَ اللَّهِ أَبْغِيكُمْ إِلَهًا وَهُوَ
فَضَّلَكُمْ عَلَى الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٤٠﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٣٨-١٤٠)

7:138. We brought the Children of Israel across the sea, then they came upon a people who were devoted to some idols of theirs. They said: O Moosâ, make for us a god like the gods they have. He said: Verily you are ignorant people.

7:139. The way these people follow is bound to lead to destruction, and what they do is in vain.

7:140. He said: Shall I seek for you a god other than Allah, when He has favoured you above all other nations?

﴿We brought the Children of Israel across the sea﴾ after Allah had saved them from their enemy, Pharaoh and his people, and He destroyed them whilst the Children of Israel were looking on.

﴿then they came upon﴾ that is, passed by
 ﴿a people who were devoted to some idols of theirs﴾ that is, they stayed near them, seeking blessing from them and worshipping them.
 ﴿They said﴾ in their ignorance and folly, to their Prophet Moosâ, after Allah had shown them His signs: ﴿O Moosâ, make for us a god like the gods they have﴾ that is, prescribe for us to take idols as gods, as these people have done
 ﴿He﴾ that is, Moosâ (ﷺ) ﴿said: Verily you are ignorant people﴾. What ignorance could be greater than the ignorance of one who is ignorant of his Lord and Creator, and wants to make others equal with Him that do not possess any power to bring benefit or cause harm, or to cause death or bring life or bring about resurrection?

Hence Moosâ said to them: ﴿The way these people follow is bound to lead to destruction, and what they do is in vain﴾ because their calling upon them (their false gods) was in vain, and they are false in and of themselves. So the deed was in vain and the aim was in vain.

﴿He said: Shall I seek for you a god other than Allah?﴾ That is, should I seek for you a god other than Allah, the only One Who is rightfully worshipped, perfect in His essence, His attributes and His actions?

﴿when He has favoured you above all other nations﴾, for this requires you to respond to His blessing and favouring of you with gratitude, which means worshipping Him alone and disbelieving in all those other than Him who are called upon.

﴿وَإِذْ أَنْجَيْنَاكَ مِنْ آلِ فِرْعَوْنَ يَسُومُونَكَ سُوءَ الْعَذَابِ يُقْتُلُونَ
أَبْنَاءَكَ وَيَسْتَحْيُونَ نِسَاءَكَ ۚ وَفِي ذَلِكَ لَبَاءٌ لِمَنْ رَزَقْنَاهُ عَظِيمٌ﴾

(سورة الأعراف: ١٤١)

7:141. And [remember] when We delivered you from the people of Pharaoh, who were subjecting you to grievous torment, slaughtering your sons and letting your womenfolk live; in that was a great trial from your Lord.

Then Allah reminds them of the blessings that He bestowed upon them:

﴿And [remember] when We delivered you from the people of Pharaoh﴾ that is, from Pharaoh and his people ﴿who were subjecting you to grievous torment﴾ that is, they were subjecting you to the worst torment, which was that they were ﴿slaughtering your sons and letting your womenfolk live; in that﴾ that is, in deliverance from their torment
﴿was a great trial from your Lord﴾ – the word balâ', translated here as ﴿trial﴾, may also mean blessing, hence what is meant here is a great blessing from your Lord. Or it may be that what is meant is a great trial, namely the torment to which Pharaoh and his people subjected them. When Moosâ reminded and admonished them, they stopped their outrageous request.

﴿وَوَعَدْنَا مُوسَى ثَلَاثِينَ لَيْلَةً وَأَتَمَمْنَاهَا بِعَشْرِ فِتْنٍ مِمَّا مَنَعَتْ رَبَّهُ أَزْجَعِ
لَيْلَةً ۚ وَقَالَ مُوسَى لِأَخِيهِ هَارُونَ أَخْلِفْنِي فِي قَوْمِي وَأَصْلِحْ وَلَا تَتَّبِعْ سَبِيلَ
الْمُفْسِدِينَ﴾ (١٤٢) وَلَمَّا جَاءَ مُوسَى لِمِيقَاتِنَا وَكَلَّمَهُ رَبُّهُ قَالَ رَبِّ أَرِنِي إِلَيْكَ

قَالَ لَنْ تَرِنِي وَلَكِنْ أَنْظِرْ إِلَى الْجَبَلِ فَإِنْ اسْتَقَرَّ مَكَانَهُ فَسَوْفَ تَرِنِي فَلَمَّا
 تَجَلَّى رَبُّهُ لِلْجَبَلِ جَعَلَهُ دَكًّا وَخَرَّ مُوسَى صَعِقًا فَلَمَّا أَفَاقَ قَالَ سُبْحَنَكَ
 ثَبَّتْ إِلَيْكَ وَأَنَا أَوَّلُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٤٢﴾ قَالَ يَمْوَسَّىٰ إِنِّي اصْطَفَيْتُكَ عَلَى النَّاسِ
 بِرِسَالَتِي وَبِكَلَامِي فَخُذْ مَا آتَيْتُكَ وَكُن مِنَ الشَّاكِرِينَ ﴿١٤٣﴾ وَكَتَبْنَا لَهُ فِي
 الْأَلْوَابِ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ مَوْعِظَةً وَتَفْصِيلًا لِّكُلِّ شَيْءٍ فَخَذَهَا بِقُوَّةٍ وَأَمَرَ قَوْمَهُ
 بِأَخْذِهَا بِحَسَنِهَا سَأُزِيكُمُ الدَّافِسِينَ ﴿١٤٤﴾ سَأَصْرِفُ عَنْ آيَتِيَ الَّذِينَ يَتَكَبَّرُونَ
 فِي الْأَرْضِ بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ وَإِنْ يَرَوْا كَلَّآيَةً لَا يُؤْمِنُوا بِهَا وَإِنْ يَرَُوا سَيْلَ
 الرَّشَدِ لَا يُخْذُوهُ سَيْلًا وَإِنْ يَرَُوا سَيْلَ الْغَيِّ يَتَّخِذُوهُ سَيْلًا ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ
 كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا وَكَانُوا عَنْهَا غَافِلِينَ ﴿١٤٥﴾ وَالَّذِينَ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا وَلِقَاءِ الْآخِرَةِ
 حَبِطَتْ أَعْمَالُهُمْ هَلْ يُجْزَوْنَ إِلَّا مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٤٦﴾ ﴿سورة الأعراف:

(١٤٦-١٤٧)

- 7:142. We appointed for Moosâ thirty nights, and completed [the period] with ten [more]; thus the term of forty nights set by His Lord was completed. Moosâ said to his brother Hâroon: Take my place amongst my people in my absence, do what is right, and do not follow the way of those who spread mischief.
- 7:143. When Moosâ came at the time appointed by Us, and his Lord spoke to him, he said: O my Lord, show Yourself to me, so that I may look upon You. Allah said: You cannot see Me. But look at the mountain; if it remains firm in its place, then you will see Me. But when his Lord appeared to the mountain, He caused it to crumble, and Moosâ fell down unconscious. When he recovered, he said: Glory be to You! I repent to You and I am the first to believe.
- 7:144. Allah said: O Moosâ, I have chosen you above others, by giving you My messages and speaking to you. Hold fast to what I have given you, and be among those who are grateful.

- 7:145. And We inscribed for him in the Tablets all manner of admonition and an explanation of all things. [We said:] Hold fast to them and enjoin your people to follow the best thereof, and I will show you the fate of the evildoers.
- 7:146. I will turn away from My signs those who behave arrogantly on earth without justification. Even if they see all the signs, they will not believe in them; if they see the path of guidance, they will not follow it, but if they see the path of error, they will take it as their way, for they have rejected Our signs and paid them no heed.
- 7:147. As for those who reject Our signs and disbelieve in the meeting of the hereafter, their deeds will come to nothing. Should they be requited for anything other than what they used to do?

---

When Allah completed His blessing upon them by delivering them from their enemy and establishing them in the land, He wanted to perfect His blessings upon them by sending down the Book containing religious rulings and sound beliefs. So He set an appointed time for Moosâ of thirty nights, and completed it by adding ten, so the total number was forty nights. That was so that Moosâ might prepare himself and get ready for this appointment with Allah, and so that when the Book came down, it would have a great impact on them and they would be longing for it to come down.

When Moosâ went to the place appointed by his Lord, at the time appointed, he said to Hâroon, leaving him in charge of the Israelites because of his concern and kindness towards them:

﴿Take my place amongst my people in my absence﴾ that is, be my deputy among them and deal with them as I have been dealing with them

﴿do what is right﴾ that is, follow the path that maintains order and peace

﴿and do not follow the way of those who spread mischief﴾ namely, those who commit sin.

«When Moosâ came at the time appointed by Us», which was the time appointed for the sending down of the Book
 «and his Lord spoke to him», with the words of His revelations, commands and prohibitions, Moosâ longed to see Allah, a longing that was born out of love for his Lord and a desire to see Him.

«he said: O my Lord, show Yourself to me, so that I may look upon You. Allah said: You cannot see Me» that is, you are not able now to see Me. For Allah (ﷻ) has created people in this realm in such a way that they cannot do that; they are not able to withstand seeing Allah. But that does not mean that they will not see Him in paradise.

The Qur'anic texts and prophetic hadiths indicate that the people of paradise will see their Lord (ﷻ) and will have the joy of gazing upon His noble Countenance, and that He will create them in a perfect form, in which they will be able to see Allah (ﷻ).

Hence Allah stipulated a condition in this verse connected to seeing Him: that would only happen if the mountain remained in place. He said, explaining to Moosâ why He would not answer his request to see Him: «But look at the mountain; if it remains firm in its place» when Allah manifested Himself to it, «then you will see Me».

«But when his Lord appeared to the mountain» which was solid rock

«He caused it to crumble» that is, it collapsed like dust, unable to bear seeing Allah and unable to stand firm

«and Moosâ fell down unconscious» when he saw what he saw.

Thus it became clear to him that if the mountain could not withstand seeing Allah, then he would be even less able to withstand it, so he asked his Lord to forgive him for his request, which had not been appropriate. Hence he said:

«Glory be to You» that is, I declare You to be above all shortcomings, and reject anything that is not befitting to Your Majesty,

«I repent to You» from all sins and from my poor etiquette towards You,

﴿and I am the first to believe﴾ that is, he renewed his faith because Allah perfected his faith for him by making him aware of that which he had not known before. When Allah did not allow him to see Him – after he had longed for that – He bestowed much good upon him, and said:

﴿O Moosâ, I have chosen you above others﴾ that is, I have chosen you, selected you and favoured you, and I have singled you out for great blessings and virtues

﴿by giving you My messages﴾ which I bestow upon, and single out for, none but the best of people.

﴿and speaking to you﴾ without any intermediary. These are the virtues for which Moosâ al-Kaleem (the one to whom Allah spoke directly) was singled out and for which he is known among his fellow Messengers.

﴿Hold fast to what I have given you﴾ of blessings, and take what I have given you of commands and prohibitions with an open heart; accept it and submit to it

﴿and be among those who are grateful﴾ to Allah for His having singled you out and blessed you.

﴿And We inscribed for him in the Tablets all manner of admonition﴾ that people need, encouraging them to do good deeds and warning them against evil deeds

﴿and an explanation of all things﴾ namely rulings, beliefs, morals and etiquette.

﴿Hold fast to them﴾ that is, strive hard to establish them
﴿and enjoin your people to follow the best thereof﴾. These instructions include matters that are both obligatory and encouraged, for they are the best of them. This indicates that the commands of Allah – in all laws – are perfect, just and good.

﴿and I will show you the fate of the evildoers﴾ after Allah destroyed them and left their houses as a lesson to those who came after them, so that the believers who are guided and humble may learn from them.

As for others, Allah says concerning them: ﴿I will turn away from My signs﴾ that is, I will turn away from learning from the signs in the universe and in their own selves, and from understanding the verses of the Book

﴿those who behave arrogantly on earth without justification﴾ that is, those who show arrogance toward the slaves of Allah, towards the truth and towards the one who brought it. Whoever is like this, Allah will deprive him of a great deal of good; He will forsake him and he will not understand from the signs of Allah that which may benefit him. Rather he will be confused about the facts and will see evil as good.

﴿Even if they see all the signs, they will not believe in them﴾ because they turn away from them and object to them, and they oppose Allah and His Messenger

﴿if they see the path of guidance﴾ that is the path of righteousness, which is the path that leads to Allah and to His paradise

﴿they will not follow it﴾ and will show no interest in it;

﴿but if they see the path of error﴾ that is, misguidance which leads to hell

﴿they will take it as their way﴾. The reason why they deviate to such an extent is because ﴿they have rejected Our signs and paid them no heed﴾. It is their rejection of the signs of Allah, paying no heed to the message, and their scorning thereof, that cause them to choose the path of error and to forsake the path of guidance.

﴿As for those who reject Our signs﴾ that is, Our great signs that point to the truth of that with which We sent Our Messengers

﴿and disbelieve in the meeting of the hereafter, their deeds will come to nothing﴾ because they have no basis and they have failed to meet the conditions of acceptance, namely belief in the signs of Allah and in the recompense.

﴿Should they be required﴾ as a result of the rejection of their deeds and their getting the opposite of what they sought

﴿for anything other than what they used to do?﴾ For the deeds of one who does not believe in the Last Day there is no hope of reward, and they have no purpose; therefore they are diminished and rendered invalid.

﴿وَاتَّخَذَ قَوْمُ مُوسَىٰ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ مِنْ حُلِيِّهِمْ عِجْلًا جَسَدًا لَّهُ خُوَارٌ أَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّهُ لَا يُكَلِّمُهُمْ وَلَا يَهْدِيهِمْ سَبِيلًا اتَّخَذُوهُ وَكَانُوا ظَالِمِينَ ﴿١٤٨﴾ وَلَمَّا سَقَطَ فِي أَيْدِيهِمْ وَرَأَوْا أَنَّهُمْ قَدْ ضَلُّوا قَالُوا لَئِنْ لَمْ يَرْحَمْنَا رَبُّنَا وَيَغْفِرْ لَنَا لَنَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الْخَاسِرِينَ ﴿١٤٩﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٤٨-١٤٩)

- 7:148. In his absence, the people of Moosâ took for worship a calf made from their jewellery, an effigy that made a lowing sound. Did they not see that it could not speak to them or guide them in any way? They took it for worship and thus became transgressors.
- 7:149. When they became remorseful and realised that they had gone astray, they said: If our Lord does not have mercy on us and forgive us, we will surely be among the losers.

﴿In his absence, the people of Moosâ took for worship a calf made from their jewellery, an effigy﴾ that was made by as-Sâmiri, who threw into it a handful [of dust] from the hoof print of the messenger Jibreel's horse (cf. 20: 96) and it ﴿made a lowing sound﴾. They worshipped it and took it as a god.

He (as-Sâmiri) said:

﴿...This is your god, and the god of Moosâ, but he has forgotten.﴾
(Tâ Hâ 20: 88)

– and he has gone to look for it. This was due to their foolishness and lack of understanding; how could they have confused the Lord of the earth and the heavens with a calf, which is one of the lowest of creatures?

Hence Allah says, explaining that the calf had none of the characteristics or actions that might imply divinity: ﴿Did they not see that it could not speak to them﴾ that is, lack of speech is a major shortcoming; they are better off than this animal or inanimate object that could not speak ﴿or guide them in any way﴾ that is, it cannot show them any religious path or bring them any worldly benefit. It is well established, according to reason and common sense, that taking as a god something that cannot speak or bring any benefit or do any harm is the falsest of falsehoods and the silliest of foolishness. Hence Allah said: ﴿They took it for worship and thus became transgressors﴾, as they directed their worship inappropriately, and they ascribed partners to Allah for which He sent down no authority. This indicates that whoever denies that Allah speaks, has denied one of the divine characteristics of Allah, because Allah stated that not speaking indicates that the one who does not speak is not fit to be regarded as divine.

﴿When﴾ Moosâ returned to his people and found them in this state, and he told them that they had been misguided, they regretted it and ﴿became remorseful﴾ that is, they were filled with grief and sorrow for what they had done, and they ﴿realised that they had gone astray﴾. So they turned to Allah, humbly beseeching Him, and ﴿they said: If our Lord does not have mercy on us﴾ and guide us to Himself, enable us to worship Him and help us to do righteous deeds, ﴿and forgive us﴾ for what we did of worshipping the calf, ﴿we will surely be among the losers﴾ who lose out in this world and the hereafter.

﴿وَلَمَّا رَجَعَ مُوسَىٰ إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ غَضْبَانَ أَسِفًا قَالَ بِئْسَمَا خَلَفْتُمُونِي مِنْ بَعْدِي ۖ أَعَجِلْتُمْ أَمْرَ رَبِّكُمْ ۚ وَأَلْقَى الْأَلْوَاحَ وَأَخَذَ بِرَأْسِ أَخِيهِ يَجُرُّهُ إِلَيْهِ ۚ قَالَ ابْنَ أُمَّ إِنَّ الْقَوْمَ

اسْتَخَفُّونِي وَكَادُوا يَقْتُلُونَنِي فَلَا تُخْسِتْ لِي الْأَعْدَاءَ وَلَا تَجْعَلْنِي مَعَ الْقَوْمِ
 الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿١٥٠﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَلِإِخِي وَأَدْخِلْنَا فِي رَحْمَتِكَ وَأَنْتَ أَرْحَمُ
 الرَّاحِمِينَ ﴿١٥١﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا الْعِجْلَ سَيَنَالُهُمْ غَضَبٌ مِنْ رَبِّهِمْ وَذِلَّةٌ فِي
 الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَكَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُفْتَرِينَ ﴿١٥٢﴾ وَالَّذِينَ عَمِلُوا السَّيِّئَاتِ ثُمَّ تَابُوا مِنْ
 بَعْدِهَا وَآمَنُوا إِنَّ رَبَّكَ مِنْ بَعْدِهَا لَغَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١٥٣﴾ وَلَمَّا سَكَتَ عَنْ مُوسَى
 الْغَضَبُ أَخَذَ الْأَلْوَابَ ﴿١٥٤﴾ وَفِي نُشْخَتِهَا هُدًى وَرَحْمَةٌ لِلَّذِينَ هُمْ لِرَبِّهِمْ يَرْهَبُونَ ﴿١٥٥﴾

(سورة الأعراف: ١٥٠-١٥٤)

- 7:150. When Moosâ returned to his people, angry and grieved, he said: What an evil thing you have done in my absence! Could you not patiently wait for the promise of your Lord? He threw down the Tablets, seized his brother by his hair and pulled him towards him. Hâroon said: O son of my mother, the people overpowered me and almost killed me. Do not give my enemies cause to rejoice in my misfortune or count me among the evildoers.
- 7:151. Moosâ said: O my Lord, forgive me and my brother and admit us to Your mercy, for You are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy.
- 7:152. As for those who took the calf for worship, wrath from their Lord and disgrace will indeed overtake them in this world; thus do We requite those who invent falsehood.
- 7:153. As for those who do bad deeds, then repent after that and believe, verily your Lord is thereafter Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
- 7:154. When Moosâ's anger had subsided, he picked up the Tablets; in their inscription there was guidance and mercy for all those who fear their Lord.

«When Moosâ returned to his people, angry and grieved» that is, he was filled with anger and rage towards them, because he cared so much for them and was sincere and compassionate towards them

﴿he said: What an evil thing you have done in my absence!﴾ That is, what a terrible thing you have done after I left you, for it is something that leads to eternal doom and everlasting misery.

﴿Could you not patiently wait for the promise of your Lord?﴾ For He promised you that He would send down the Book, but you hastened – on the basis of your corrupt argument – to commit this abhorrent deed.

﴿He threw down the Tablets﴾ in anger, ﴿seized his brother﴾ Hâroon ﴿by his hair﴾ and beard, ﴿and pulled him towards him﴾. He said to him:

﴿...what prevented you, when you saw that they had gone astray from following me? Did you then disobey my command?﴾ (Tâ Hâ 20: 92-93)

– when I had told you: ﴿Take my place amongst my people in my absence, do what is right, and do not follow the way of those who spread mischief﴾ (7: 142).

﴿Hâroon said: O son of my mother, do not seize me by my beard, or by my head! Verily, I was afraid that you would say: You have caused division among the Children of Israel, and you did not pay heed to my words.﴾ (Tâ Hâ 20: 94)

And here Allah tells us that he said: ﴿O son of my mother﴾ – he said this to soften his brother's heart, by mentioning their mother on her own; in fact they were full brothers, with the same mother and father

﴿the people overpowered me﴾ that is, they scorned me when I said to them:

﴿...O my people, you are being tested with it. Verily, your Lord is the Most Gracious, so follow me and obey my command.﴾ (Tâ Hâ 20: 90)

﴿and almost killed me﴾ that is, so do not think that I fell short.

«Do not give my enemies cause to rejoice in my misfortune» by rebuking me or hurting me, for my enemies are very keen to find any reason to pick on me or to see me make a mistake «or count me among the evildoers» and treat me like them.

Then Moosâ (ﷺ) regretted his hasty actions towards his brother, before finding out his point of view, and thinking that he had fallen short. He said:

«O my Lord, forgive me and my brother» Hâroon «and admit us to Your mercy» that is, encompass us with it on all sides, for it is a strong fortress that protects against all evils, and it is all blessings and good
«for You are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy» that is, You are more merciful towards us than any other; You are more merciful towards us than our fathers, our mothers, our children and our own selves.

Allah says explaining the state of the people who worshipped the calf: «As for those who took the calf for worship» that is, they took it as a god, «wrath from their Lord and disgrace will indeed overtake them in this world» as they angered their Lord and took His command lightly.

«thus do We requite those who invent falsehood». Every inventor of falsehood against Allah, who tells lies about His religion, attributing words to Him that He did not say, is subject to a share of the divine wrath and humiliation in the life of this world. They incurred the wrath of Allah, when Moosâ ordered them to kill (the guilty ones) among them (cf. 2: 54),<sup>20</sup> and told them that Allah would not accept anything other than that.

So some of them killed others (the guilty ones among them) and that resulted in a large number of slain. Then Allah accepted their repentance after that. Hence He mentions here a general ruling that is applicable to them and others, as He says:

<sup>20</sup> This was a punishment for having taken the calf for worship.

«As for those who do bad deeds» and commit sins both major and minor, «then repent after that» by regretting what they have done, giving it up and resolving not to go back to it «and believe» in Allah and in what Allah has enjoined them to believe in, for faith is not complete without both belief in the heart and sound intention, and outward actions that stem from faith «verily your Lord is thereafter» that is, after repentance from bad deeds and coming back to acts of obedience «Oft-Forgiving» He forgives bad deeds and erases them, even if they were so many as to fill the earth «Most Merciful», as He accepts repentance, enables one to do good deeds and accepts them.

«When Moosâ's anger had subsided» that is, when he had calmed down and began to think of the situation he was in and to focus on what was most important
 «he picked up the Tablets» that he had thrown down; these Tablets were of great value and importance «in their inscription» that is, contained in them
 «there was guidance and mercy» that is, they contained guidance away from error and explanation of truth as distinct from falsehood, good deeds as distinct from evil deeds, guidance to the best of deeds, morals and etiquette, and mercy and blessings for those who acted upon them and understood their rulings and meanings. But not everyone accepts the guidance and mercy of Allah; rather those who accept it and comply with it are those who «fear their Lord».

But as for those who do not fear Allah or the standing before Him, it only increases them in arrogance and aversion, and the proof of Allah is thereby established against them.

﴿وَاخْتَارَ مُوسَىٰ قَوْمَهُ سَبْعِينَ رَجُلًا لِّمِيقَاتِنَا فَلَمَّا أَخَذَتْهُمُ الرَّجْفَةُ قَالَ رَبِّ لَوْ
 شِئْتَ أَهْلَكْتَهُم مِّن قَبْلُ وَإِنِّي أَهْلِكُنَا بِمَا فَعَلَ السُّفَهَاءُ مِنَّا إِن هِيَ إِلَّا فِتْنَتُكَ تُضِلُّ

بِهَا مِنْ نَشَاءٍ وَتَهْدِي مَنْ نَشَاءُ أَنْتَ وَلِيْنَا فَاعْفِرْ لَنَا وَارْحَمْنَا وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ الْغَافِرِينَ ﴿١٥٥﴾
 وَاسْتَبْنَا لَنَا فِي هَذِهِ الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ إِنَّا هُنَا وَإِلَيْكَ عَذَابِي
 أُصِيبُ بِهِ مَنْ أَشَاءُ وَرَحْمَتِي وَسِعَتْ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ فَسَأَكْتُبُهَا لِلَّذِينَ يَتَّقُونَ
 وَيُؤْتُونَ الزَّكَاةَ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ بِآيَاتِنَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿١٥٦﴾ الَّذِينَ يَتَّبِعُونَ الرَّسُولَ النَّبِيَّ
 الْأُمِّيَّ الَّذِي يَجِدُونَهُ مَكْنُوبًا عِنْدَهُمْ فِي التَّوْرَةِ وَالْإِنْجِيلِ يَأْمُرُهُمْ
 بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَيَنْهَاهُمْ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ وَيُحِلُّ لَهُمُ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَيُحَرِّمُ عَلَيْهِمُ
 الْخَبَائِثَ وَيَضَعُ عَنْهُمْ إِصْرَهُمْ وَالْأَغْلَالَ الَّتِي كَانَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ ۚ فَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
 بِهِ وَعَزَّرُوهُ وَنَصَرُوهُ وَاتَّبَعُوا النُّورَ الَّذِي أُنْزِلَ مَعَهُ ۚ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ﴿١٥٧﴾

(سورة الأعراف: ١٥٥-١٥٧)

- 7:155. Moosâ chose seventy men from among his people to come at the time appointed by Us. Then when the earthquake overtook them, he said: O my Lord, if it had been Your will, You could have destroyed them before, and me too; will You destroy us because of what the foolish among us have done?<sup>21</sup> That was nothing but a trial from You, by which You caused to go astray whomever You willed and You guided whomever You willed. You are our Protector, so forgive us and have mercy on us, for You are the best of those who forgive.
- 7:156. Ordain good for us in this world and in the hereafter, for we have indeed turned to You in repentance. Allah said: I afflict with My punishment whomever I will, but My mercy encompasses all things; I shall ordain it for those who fear Me, and give zakâh, and those who believe in Our revelations,
- 7:157. those who follow the Messenger, the unlettered Prophet, whom they find mentioned in their own [scriptures], in the Torah and the Gospel. He enjoins them to do that which is right and forbids them to do that which is wrong; he makes good things lawful to them and bad things unlawful; he relieves them of their burden, and of the shackles that were upon them. So those who believe in him, honour him, help him, and follow the light which is sent down with him – it is they who will prosper.

<sup>21</sup> That action was their taking the calf for worship, or their audacious demand to see Allah with their own eyes. (an-Nisâ 4: 153)

When the Children of Israel repented and came back to their senses, ﴿Moosâ chose seventy men﴾ from among the best of them, to offer their apology on behalf of their people before their Lord. Allah appointed a time and place for them to attend, but when they attended, they said: O Moosâ,

﴿...Let us see Allah with our own eyes...﴾ (an-Nisâ' 4: 153)

Thus they showed great audacity and poor etiquette towards Allah, therefore ﴿the earthquake overtook them﴾ and they fell down and were destroyed.

Moosâ (ﷺ) kept beseeching Allah and praying, saying: ﴿O my Lord, if it had been Your will, You could have destroyed them before﴾ that is, before they came here to offer an apology on behalf of their people, then they themselves became transgressors.

﴿will You destroy us because of what the foolish﴾ that is, the weak-minded and silly ones ﴿among us have done?﴾ So he beseeched Allah, giving an apology on the basis that those who had made this audacious request of Allah were immature in thinking and lacked the reasoning that could have prevented them from what they had said and done, for they had been subjected to a trial in which there was a risk of losing one's faith. Hence he said:

﴿That was nothing but a trial from You, by which You caused to go astray whomever You willed and You guided whomever You willed. You are our Protector, so forgive us and have mercy on us, for You are the best of those who forgive﴾ that is, You are the best to forgive and most deserving to show mercy, the most generous of those who give. It is as if Moosâ (ﷺ) was saying: The main aim of all of us,

O Lord, is to adhere to obedience and faith in You. Whoever is wise and mature, and guided by You, still adheres to the straight path; as for those who are weak-minded and foolish, and were influenced by the trial, they did what they did. Nevertheless, You are the most merciful of those who show mercy and the best to forgive, so forgive us and have mercy on us.

So Allah answered his request and brought them back to life, and He forgave them their sins. Moosâ said at the end of his supplication: «Ordain good for us in this world» namely beneficial knowledge, abundant provision and righteous deeds

«and in the hereafter» also ordain good for us, which is what Allah has prepared for His righteous close friends of reward.

«for we have indeed turned to You in repentance» that is, we acknowledge our shortcomings and we turn to You in all our affairs

«Allah said: I afflict with My punishment whomever I will» of those who are doomed and follow the path that leads to that

«but My mercy encompasses all things» of the upper and lower realms, righteous and evildoer, believer and disbeliever. There is no created being who is not touched by the mercy of Allah or encompassed by His bounty and kindness. But the special mercy that leads to blessing in this world and the hereafter is not for everyone. Hence Allah says concerning it:

«I shall ordain it for those who fear Me» and avoid sin, both minor and major.

«and give zakâh», which is obligatory, to those who are entitled to it «and those who believe in Our revelations». Part of perfect faith and belief in the revelations of Allah is to understand their meanings and act accordingly. That includes following the Prophet (ﷺ) both outwardly and inwardly, in both fundamental and minor issues of religion.

«those who follow the Messenger, the unlettered Prophet», as distinct from all the other Prophets. The one referred to here is Muhammad ibn 'Abdullâh ibn 'Abdul-Muṭṭalib (ﷺ).

The context here has to do with the Children of Israel; believing in the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) is a condition of their becoming believers, and those who believe in him and follow him are the people of mercy, which Allah has ordained for them. He is described as unlettered because he was one of the Arabs, the unlettered nation who did not read or write, and before the Qur'an they had no scripture.

﴿whom they find mentioned in their own [scriptures], in the Torah and the Gospel﴾ by name, with a description of his characteristics, the most significant of which is what he promotes and forbids, for he ﴿enjoins them to do that which is right﴾, which is everything that is known to be good, sound and beneficial

﴿and forbids them to do that which is wrong﴾, which is everything that is known to be abhorrent on the basis of rational thinking and common sense. So he enjoins them to pray, give zakâh, fast, go on pilgrimage (Hajj), uphold ties of kinship, honour their parents, treat neighbours and slaves kindly, be kind to all creatures, be honest, chaste, righteous and sincere, and so on. And he forbids them to ascribe partners to Allah, kill any soul unlawfully, commit fornication or adultery, drink or consume intoxicants, mistreat any creature, tell lies, commit immoral actions, and so on.

The greatest evidence that proves that he is the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) is what he calls people to, what he enjoins and forbids, and what he permits and prohibits, for he ﴿makes good things lawful to them﴾ with regard to food, drink, and sexual matters

﴿and [he makes] bad things unlawful﴾ with regard to food, drink, sexual matters, words and deeds.

﴿he relieves them of their burden, and of the shackles that were upon them﴾ that is, one of his characteristics is that his religion is easy and tolerant; it is not burdensome and there is no hardship in it or any heavy and strict rules and regulations.

﴿So those who believe in him, honour him﴾ that is, they respect and venerate him

﴿help him, and follow the light which is sent down with him﴾, which is the Qur'an; it illuminates the darkness of doubt and ignorance and is to be followed if there are conflicting views.

﴿it is they who will prosper﴾ and will attain good in this world and the hereafter, and be saved from the evil of both realms, because they took the greatest measures that lead to prosperity.

As for those who do not believe in this unlettered Prophet (ﷺ), and do not venerate him or support him, or follow the light that was sent down with him, it is they who will be the losers.

As the preceding verse calls the people of the Torah, the Israelites, to follow the Prophet (ﷺ), and one may think that believing in him was enjoined only upon them, the subsequent verse indicates that following him is enjoined upon everyone:

﴿قُلْ يَتَّبِعْهَا النَّاسُ إِنِّي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ إِلَيْكُمْ جَمِيعًا الَّذِي لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ فَآمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ النَّبِيِّ الْأُمِّيِّ الَّذِي يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَكَلِمَاتِهِ وَاتَّبِعُوهُ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَهْتَدُونَ﴾

(سورة الأعراف: ١٥٨)

- 7:158. Say [O Muhammad]: O people, I am the Messenger of Allah to you all, of Him to Whom belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth; there is no god but He; He gives life and causes death. So believe in Allah and His Messenger, the unlettered Prophet, who believes in Allah and in His words, and follow him so that you may be rightly guided.

﴿Say [O Muhammad]: O people, I am the Messenger of Allah to you all﴾ that is, to the Arabs among you and the non-Arabs, to the People of the Book among you, and others.

﴿of Him to Whom belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth﴾
 – He controls them by means of His universal laws and His religious laws, part of which is that He has sent to you a great Messenger (ﷺ), to call you to Allah and to His paradise, and to warn you against everything that distances you from Him and from His paradise.

﴿there is no god but He﴾ that is, none is rightfully worshipped except Allah alone, with no partner or associate, and the way to worship Him is known only through His Messengers

﴿He gives life and causes death﴾ that is, part of His control of the universe is the giving of life and the causing of death, in which no one has a share with Him. He has made death a bridge and a crossing point to the eternal realm; whoever believes in it has definitely believed in the message of Muhammad (ﷺ).

﴿So believe in Allah and His Messenger, the unlettered Prophet﴾, with faith in the heart that requires sound beliefs and physical actions.

﴿who believes in Allah and in His words﴾ that is, they believe in this Messenger (ﷺ) who is sound in his beliefs and actions.

﴿and follow him so that you may be rightly guided﴾ to the best way with regard to both religious and worldly affairs, for if you do not follow him you will go far astray.

﴿وَمِنْ قَوْمِ مُوسَىٰ أُمَّةٌ يَهْدُونَ بِالْحَقِّ وَبِهِ يَعْدِلُونَ﴾ (١٥٩) وَقَطَعْنَاهُمْ اثْنَتَيْ عَشْرَةَ أَسْبَاطًا أُمَمًا وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ إِذِ اسْتَسْقَاهُ قَوْمُهُ، أَنِ اضْرِبْ بِعَصَاكَ الْحَجَرَ فَانْبَجَسَتْ مِنْهُ اثْنَتَا عَشْرَةَ عَيْنًا قَدْ عَلِمَ كُلُّ أُنَاسٍ مَّشْرِبَهُمْ وَظَلَّلْنَا عَلَيْهِمُ الْغَمَمَ وَأَنزَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمُ الْمَرُّ وَالسَّلَوى كُلُوا مِنْ طَلِيَّتِ مَا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ وَمَا ظَلَمُونَا وَلَكِن كَانُوا أَنفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُونَ﴾ (سورة

الأعراف: ١٥٩-١٦٠)

- 7:159. Among the people of Moosâ there are some who guide others in the way of truth and establish justice therewith.
- 7:160. We divided them into twelve tribes, distinct clans, and We inspired Moosâ, when his people asked him for water: Strike the rock with your staff. There gushed forth from it twelve springs, and each group knew its own drinking place. We shaded them with clouds and sent down to them manna and quails, [saying]: Eat of the good things We have provided for you. Yet they could do Us no wrong, but they certainly wronged themselves.

﴿Among the people of Moosâ there are some who guide others in the way of truth and establish justice therewith﴾ that is, they guide people in the way of truth by teaching it to them, issuing edicts to them and establishing justice among them when judging between them with regard to their affairs. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿We made some of them leaders, guiding people by Our command, because they were patient and steadfast, and they believed with certainty in Our revelations.﴾ (as-Sajdah 32: 24)

This points to the virtue of the nation of Moosâ (ﷺ), and tells us that Allah created among them people who were guided and guided others by His command.

It is as if this verse is aimed at avoiding a wrong impression that may arise from the previous verses, in which Allah (ﷻ) had mentioned a number of the faults of the Israelites, that were contrary to perfection and guidance. Some may think that this referred to all of them, therefore Allah (ﷻ) stated that among them was a group of upright people who were guided and who guided others.

﴿We divided them into twelve tribes, distinct clans﴾ that is, twelve tribes who were in harmony with one another; the descendants of each of the sons of Ya'qoob formed a tribe.

﴿and We inspired Moosâ, when his people asked him for water﴾ that is, they asked him to pray to Allah (ﷻ) to give them water from which they could drink and from which their flocks could drink, because they – and Allah knows best – were in a place where there was little water.

So Allah inspired Moosâ, in response to their request: «Strike the rock with your staff». It may be that this was a specific rock, or it may be that this is a generic word which refers to any rock. So he struck it, and «There gushed forth from it» that is, there flowed from that rock «twelve springs», flowing on the surface.

«and each group knew its own drinking place» that had been allocated to each of those twelve tribes. Each of them was given a spring, which they knew. Thus they felt reassured and were given a break from pushing, shoving and arguing. This was a perfect blessing from Allah to them.

«We shaded them with clouds» that sheltered them from the heat of the sun

«and sent down to them manna» which is sweet

«and quails» which are a kind of bird; they are one of the best types of birds, with the most delicious meat. So Allah bestowed upon them shade, drink, and good food composed of something sweet and meat, by way of comfort and reassurance.

It was said to them: «Eat of the good things We have provided for you. Yet they could do Us no wrong» when they did not give thanks to Allah or do that which Allah had made obligatory for them «but they certainly wronged themselves» when they caused themselves to miss out on much good and exposed themselves to evil and divine wrath. This was the case throughout their sojourn in the wilderness.

﴿وَإِذْ قِيلَ لَهُمْ اسْكُنُوا هَذِهِ الْقَرْيَةَ وَكُلُوا مِنْهَا حَيْثُ شِئْتُمْ وَقُولُوا حِطَّةٌ وَادْخُلُوا الْبَابَ سُجَّدًا نَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ خَطِيئَتَكُمْ ۚ سَازِيدٌ

الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١٦١﴾ فَبَدَّلَ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مِنْهُمْ قَوْلًا غَيْرَ الَّذِي قِيلَ لَهُمْ
فَأَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِجْزًا مِنْ السَّمَاءِ بِمَا كَانُوا يَظْلِمُونَ ﴿١٦٢﴾ (سورة
الأعراف: ١٦١-١٦٢)

- 7:161. And [remember] when it was said to them: Dwell in this town and eat freely from it wherever you may wish, and say: Relieve us [from the burden of our sins], and enter the gate bowing down [with humility]. We will forgive you your sins and increase [the reward] of those who do good.
- 7:162. But the wrongdoers among them changed the word to something other than what they had been told; so We sent down upon the wrongdoers a plague from heaven, because of their wrongdoing.

﴿And [remember] when it was said to them: Dwell in this town﴾ enter it so that it may become a homeland and place of dwelling for you. That town was Aelia (Jerusalem)

﴿and eat freely from it wherever you may wish﴾. It was a city where there were many trees, abundant fruit and a life of ease and prosperity. Hence Allah instructed them to eat from it wherever they may wish ﴿and say﴾ when you enter the gate: ﴿Relieve us [from the burden of our sins]﴾ that is, forgive us our sins and pardon us.

﴿and enter the gate bowing down [with humility]﴾ that is, showing humility towards your Lord, submitting to His might and showing gratitude for His blessing. Thus He instructed them to humble themselves and ask for forgiveness, and He promised them in return for that forgiveness of their sins and reward in this world and the hereafter, so He said: ﴿We will forgive you your sins and increase [the reward] of those who do good﴾ in this world and the hereafter.

But they did not comply with this divine command; rather ﴿the wrongdoers among them changed the word﴾ that is, they disobeyed Allah and took His command lightly.

«changed the word to something other than what they had been told» so – instead of asking for forgiveness and saying hittatun (translated here as «Relieve us [from the burden of our sins]») – they said habbah fee sha'eerah (a grain of barley). If they changed the word, even though it was easy to say, then they were even more likely to change their actions. Hence they entered the gate shuffling on their rear ends.

«so We sent down upon the wrongdoers», when they went against the command of Allah and disobeyed Him

«a plague from heaven» that is, a severe punishment, either the plague or some other kind of divine punishment.

Allah did not wrong them by sending His punishment upon them; rather that was «because of their wrongdoing» that is, they failed to obey Allah and chose to disobey Him, without there being anything to compel them or motivate them to do that, except for the evil that was hidden in their hearts.

﴿وَسَأَلْنَهُمْ عَنِ الْقَرْيَةِ الَّتِي كَانَتْ حَاضِرَةَ الْبَحْرِ إِذْ يَعْدُونَ فِي السَّبْتِ إِذْ تَأْتِيهِمْ جِثَاتُهُمْ يَوْمَ سَبْتِهِمْ شُرَعًا وَيَوْمَ لَا يَسْبِتُونَ لَا تَأْتِيهِمْ كَذَلِكَ نَبْلُوهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَفْسُقُونَ﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٦٣)

7:163. Ask them about the town which was by the sea and how they broke the Sabbath. Their fish would come to them on their Sabbath, appearing on the surface of the water, but when it was not their Sabbath, they did not appear. Thus We tried them, because of their defiant disobedience.

«Ask them» that is, ask the Children of Israel
«about the town which was by the sea» that is, on the coast, when they transgressed and how Allah punished them.

«and how they broke the Sabbath». Allah (ﷻ) had commanded them to venerate and respect the Sabbath and not to fish on that day. Then He tried and tested them. Their fish used to come to them «on their Sabbath, appearing on the surface of the water» that is, appearing in great numbers on the surface of the sea
 «but when it was not their Sabbath» that is, on other days
 «they did not appear» that is, the fish disappeared into the sea and the people did not see any of them.

«Thus We tried them, because of their defiant disobedience» so it was their defiant disobedience that made it inevitable that Allah would test them, and that they would face this trial. If they had not been defiantly disobedient, Allah would have spared them and would not have exposed them to this trial and evil. So they tried to use tricks to get around this ruling. They would dig ditches for the fish, and set up nets, and on the Sabbath the fish would come and fall into those ditches and nets, but the people would not take the nets on that day, but on Sunday they would take them. This was a common occurrence among them, and the people were divided into three groups with regard to this matter.

﴿وَإِذْ قَالَتْ أُمَّةٌ مِنْهُمْ لِمَ تَعِظُونَ قَوْمًا اللَّهُ مُهْلِكُهُمْ أَوْ مُعَذِّبُهُمْ عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا قَالُوا مَعذِرَةٌ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكُمْ وَلَعَلَّهُمْ يَنْقُوتُونَ ﴿١٦٤﴾ فَلَمَّا نَسُوا مَا ذُكِّرُوا بِهِ أَنْجَيْنَا الَّذِينَ يَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ السُّوءِ وَأَخَذْنَا الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا بِعَذَابٍ بَیِّنٍ بِمَا كَانُوا يَفْسُقُونَ ﴿١٦٥﴾ فَلَمَّا عَتَوْا عَنْ مَا نُهُوا عَنْهُ قُلْنَا لَهُمْ كُونُوا قِرَدَةً خَاسِئِينَ ﴿١٦٦﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٦٤ -

(١٦٦)

- 7:164. When some of them said: Why are you admonishing people whom Allah will destroy or punish severely? they said: To discharge our duty before your Lord, and in the hope that they may [pay heed and] fear Allah.

- 7:165. When they ignored the admonishment they had been given, We saved those who forbade evil, and We afflicted the wrongdoers with a dreadful punishment, because of their defiant disobedience.
- 7:166. When they insolently persisted in doing what they had been forbidden to do, We said to them: Be apes, despised and rejected.

Most of them transgressed in a blatant and audacious manner. Some of them openly tried to stop them and denounced them for that. And (a third group) thought that the objections of the other people were sufficient, and they said to them:

﴿Why are you admonishing people whom Allah will destroy or punish severely?﴾. It is as if they were saying to them: There is no point in admonishing those who have transgressed the sacred limits of Allah and never listened to any sincere adviser, and rather persist in their transgression, for Allah will inevitably requite them, either by destroying them or sending a severe punishment upon them.

But the admonishing group said: We admonish them and tell them not to do that, ﴿To discharge our duty before your Lord﴾, so that we will not be blamed

﴿and in the hope that they may [pay heed and] fear Allah﴾ that is, perhaps they will give up the sin that they are committing. So we will not despair of their being guided; perhaps our admonition may be effective and our censure may have some impact on them.

The main aim behind objecting to and denouncing evil is so as to discharge one's duty and establish proof against the one to whom it is addressed, in the hope that Allah may guide him, so that he will then comply with what is enjoined or forbidden.

﴿When they ignored the admonishment they had been given﴾ that is, when they failed to do what they were reminded of, and they persisted in their misguidance and transgression,

«We saved» from the punishment «those who forbade evil». This is the way of Allah in dealing with His slaves: when the punishment comes down, He saves from it those who enjoined what is right and forbade what is wrong.

«and We afflicted the wrongdoers» namely those who broke the Sabbath

«with a dreadful» that is, severe «punishment, because of their defiant disobedience».

As for the other group, who had said to those who told them not to commit that sin: «Why are you admonishing people whom Allah will destroy or punish severely?» (7: 164), the commentators differed as to whether they were saved or not. It seems that they were among those who were saved, because Allah mentioned doom only for the wrongdoers, and He did not say that these people were wrongdoers.

This indicates that the punishment was only for the Sabbath-breakers. Moreover, enjoining what is right and forbidding what is wrong is a communal duty; if some people undertake it, then it is waived for the others. So they were content with the actions of the others (who did speak out against them), and they also (implicitly) denounced them by saying: «Why are you admonishing people whom Allah will destroy or punish severely?». Thus they expressed their disapproval of them, which implies that they hated them because of their deeds, and believed that Allah would punish them severely.

«When they insolently persisted in doing what they had been forbidden to do» that is, they grew hard-hearted and did not pay heed or learn a lesson

«We said to them» by way of decree

«Be apes, despised and rejected», so they turned into apes, by Allah's leave, and Allah cast them far away from His mercy. Then He tells us how those who were left were humiliated and brought low:

﴿وَإِذْ تَأَذَّنَ رَبُّكَ لَيَبْعَثَنَّ عَلَيْهِمْ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ مَنْ يَسُومُهُمْ سُوءَ الْعَذَابِ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَسَرِيعُ الْعِقَابِ وَإِنَّهُ لَغَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١٦٧﴾ وَقَطَعْنَاهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ أُمَمًا مِّنْهُمْ الصَّالِحِينَ وَمِنْهُمْ دُونَ ذَلِكَ وَبَلَوْنَاهُمْ بِالْحَسَنَاتِ وَالسَّيِّئَاتِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿١٦٨﴾ فَخَلَفَ مِنْ بَعدِهِمْ خَلْفٌ وَرثُوا الْكِتَابَ يَأْخُذُونَ عَرَضَ هَذَا الْأَدْنَى وَيَقُولُونَ سَيُغْفَرُ لَنَا وَإِنْ يَأْتِهِمْ عَرَضٌ مِّثْلَهُ يَأْخُذُوهُ أَلَمْ يُؤْخَذْ عَلَيْهِمْ مِيثَاقُ الْكِتَابِ أَنْ لَا يَقُولُوا عَلَى اللَّهِ إِلَّا الْحَقَّ وَدَرَسُوا مَا فِيهِ وَالِدَارُ الْأُخْرَىٰ خَيْرٌ لِلَّذِينَ يُتَّقُونَ أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿١٦٩﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يُمْسِكُونَ بِالْكِتَابِ وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ إِنَّا لَا نَضِيعُ أَجْرَ الْمُصْلِحِينَ ﴿١٧٠﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٦٧-١٧٠)

- 7:167. And [remember] when your Lord declared that He would certainly send against them, until the Day of Resurrection, people who would subject them to grievous torment. Your Lord is indeed swift in punishment, but He is also Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
- 7:168. So We scattered them in communities throughout the earth. Among them are some who are righteous and some who are otherwise. And We tested them with both prosperity and adversity, so that they might turn in repentance.
- 7:169. Then they were succeeded by an evil generation who inherited the scripture, but they seized the fleeting gains of this world, saying: We will be forgiven. Yet if similar fleeting gains came their way again, they would again seize them. Are they not bound by the covenant mentioned in the scripture, that they would not say of Allah anything but the truth? And they have studied its contents well. But the life of the hereafter is better for those who fear Allah. Will you not then understand?
- 7:170. As for those who hold fast to the scripture and establish prayer, We will not cause the reward of those who do righteous deeds to be lost.

﴿And [remember] when your Lord declared﴾ that is, announced and proclaimed

﴿that He would certainly send against them, until the Day of Resurrection, people who would subject them to grievous torment﴾ that is, humiliate them and bring them low.

﴿Your Lord is indeed swift in punishment﴾ for the one who disobeys Him, so that He hastens the punishment for him in this world

﴿but He is also Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾ to the one who repents to Him and turns to Him; He forgives him his sins and conceals his faults, and He shows mercy to him by accepting his acts of worship and rewarding him for them in various ways. Allah did to them what He threatened them with; they are still humiliated and subjected to the rule of others, and they will never rise or be victorious.

﴿So We scattered them in communities throughout the earth﴾ that is, divided and dispersed throughout the earth, after they had been together.

﴿Among them are some who are righteous﴾, carrying out their duties towards Allah and towards His slaves

﴿and some who are otherwise﴾ that is, not righteous, either because they are half-hearted or they are wrongdoers.

﴿And We tested them﴾ as is Our way

﴿with both prosperity and adversity﴾ that is, hardship and ease

﴿so that they might turn in repentance﴾ and give up their bad ways, and adhere to the guidance for which they were created. But they continued in this manner, some of them righteous, some evil, and some in between, until there came a generation whose evil increased and they ﴿inherited the scripture﴾ after them. They became the reference point for people with regard to the scripture, but they started to interpret it according to their whims and desires. Money was given to them to issue unlawful rulings, and bribery became widespread among them.

﴿but they seized the fleeting gains of this world, saying﴾ and admitting that it was a sin and that they were wrongdoers:

﴿We will be forgiven﴾. These words meant nothing, because they were not seeking forgiveness in any true sense. If that had been the case, they would have regretted what they were doing and they would have resolved not to go back to it, but – if any other fleeting gain or bribe came their way – they would seize it.

They sold the revelations of Allah for a small price (9: 9) and exchanged that which is better for that which is inferior (2: 61).

Allah (ﷻ) said, denouncing them and highlighting their audacity: ﴿Are they not bound by the covenant mentioned in the scripture, that they would not say of Allah anything but the truth?﴾ Why do they say about Allah something that is not true, following their whims and desires?

﴿And﴾ in fact ﴿they have studied its contents well﴾, so they have no problem in understanding it. But they did what they did deliberately, aware of what they were doing, and this is a greater sin and more blameworthy, and deserves a more severe punishment. This was due to their lack of reasoning and foolishness, because they preferred the life of this world to the hereafter. Hence Allah says: ﴿But the life of the hereafter is better for those who fear Allah﴾ and avoid that which Allah has prohibited to them, of meals to which they are invited and they eat by way of a bribe for issuing a ruling contrary to that which Allah revealed, and other types of prohibited things.

﴿Will you not then understand?﴾ That is, do you not have reason with which to know what should be your first priority and what should be secondary to that, or what you should give precedence to and what should be of lesser concern, because one of the main benefits of reason is to understand consequences. As for the one who looks at what is immediate, insignificant and temporary at the expense of missing out on great and lasting blessings, how could such a one be rational and wise?

Those who are truly rational and wise are those whom Allah describes as «those who hold fast to the scripture and establish prayer». That is, they adhere to it in terms of knowledge and practice; they know what it contains of rulings and stories, knowledge of which is the noblest of knowledge.

They also know what it contains of commands which lead to joy and happiness, and well-being in this world and the hereafter.

One of the most important commands which must be adhered to is establishing prayer, both outwardly and inwardly. Hence Allah singles it out for mention, because of its virtue, and because it is the measure of faith and establishing it leads to establishing other acts of worship.

As their deeds are all righteous, Allah (ﷻ) says: «We will not cause the reward of those who do righteous deeds to be lost» that is, their words and deeds, and their efforts to adhere to righteousness themselves and call others to do likewise.

This and similar verses indicate that Allah sent His Messengers to establish righteousness and well-being, not to spread mischief, and to promote benefit and not harm. They were sent to promote well-being in this world and the hereafter, so the more righteous a person is, the closer he is to following them.

﴿وَإِذْ نَفَخْنَا الْبَرْقَ فَوْقَهُمْ كَأَنَّهُ ظُلَّةٌ وَظَنُوا أَنَّهُ وَاقِعٌ بِهِمْ خُذُوا مَا آتَيْنَاكُمْ بِقُوَّةٍ
وَاذْكُرُوا مَا فِيهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَتَّقُونَ﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٧١)

7:171. And [remember] when We raised the Mount above them, as if it were a canopy, and they thought that it was going to fall on them. [We said:] Hold fast to what We have given you and bear in mind what is in it, so that you may fear Allah.

﴿And [remember] when We raised the Mount above them﴾ when they refused to accept what was in the Torah.

Allah obliged them to accept it and act upon it, and He raised the mountain above their heads so that it towered above them

﴿as if it were a canopy, and they thought that it was going to fall on them﴾. And it was said to them ﴿Hold fast to what We have given you﴾ that is, and adhere firmly to it.

﴿and bear in mind what is in it﴾ by studying it, discussing it and applying it

﴿so that you may fear Allah﴾ if you do that.

﴿وَإِذْ أَخَذَ رَبُّكَ مِنْ بَنِي آدَمَ مِنْ ظُهُورِهِمْ ذُرِّيَّتَهُمْ وَأَشْهَدَهُمْ عَلَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ أَلَسْتُ بِرَبِّكُمْ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ شَهِدْنَا أَن تَقُولُوا يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ إِنَّا كُنَّا عَنْ هَذَا غَافِلِينَ ﴿١٧٢﴾ أَوْ نَقُولُوا إِنَّمَا أَشْرَكَ آبَاؤُنَا مِنْ قَبْلُ وَكُنَّا ذُرِّيَّةً مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ أَفَتُهْلِكُنَا بِمَا فَعَلَ الْمُبْطِلُونَ ﴿١٧٣﴾ وَكَذَٰلِكَ نَفْصِلُ الْآيَاتِ وَلَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿١٧٤﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٧٢-١٧٤)

7:172. And [remember] when your Lord brought forth from the children of Adam – from their loins – their offspring, and made them testify concerning themselves, [saying]: Am I not your Lord? They said: Yes indeed; we testify. That was lest you should say on the Day of Resurrection: Verily, we were unaware of this.

7:173. Or lest you should say: It was our forefathers before us who ascribed partners to Allah, and we are only the offspring who came after them. Will You then destroy us because of the deeds of those who invented falsehood?

7:174. Thus We explain the revelations in detail, so that they may turn in repentance.

﴿And [remember] when your Lord brought forth from the children of Adam – from their loins – their offspring﴾ and made them reproduce, generation after generation.

When He brought them forth from the wombs of their mothers and the loins of their fathers, He ﴿made them testify concerning themselves, [saying]: Am I not your Lord?﴾ That is, He asked them to affirm that He was their Lord, on the basis of what He instilled in their innate nature, that He is their Lord, Creator and Sovereign. ﴿They said: Yes indeed﴾, we affirm that, because Allah (ﷻ) created His slaves with a natural inclination towards the right way of monotheism.

Therefore everyone has this natural inclination, but that inclination may change and be altered because of corrupt beliefs by which it may be influenced. Hence ﴿They said: Yes indeed; we testify. That was lest you should say on the Day of Resurrection: Verily, we were unaware of this﴾.

That is, We tested you by asking you this question, in order to make you affirm that which was instilled in your innate nature, that Allah (ﷻ) is your Lord, lest you deny that on the Day of Resurrection and therefore you do not affirm any of it, and you claim that the proof of Allah was not established against you and you have no knowledge of it; rather you were heedless and distracted from it.

But today you have no excuses left, and the ultimate proof of Allah is established against you.

Or lest you offer another excuse and say: ﴿It was our forefathers before us who ascribed partners to Allah, and we are only the offspring who came after them﴾, so we followed in their footsteps and followed them in their falsehood. ﴿Will You then destroy us because of the deeds of those who invented falsehood?﴾.

Allah has instilled in your nature that which could tell you that what your forefathers followed was falsehood, and that the truth is what was brought by the Messengers, and that truth should stand up to the ways you found your forefathers following and prevail over it.

Yes, a person may grow up learning the views and corrupt ways of his misguided forefathers, which he thinks are true, but that is only because he is turning away from the proof and evidence of Allah, and His signs in the universe and in himself, so he is turning away from the truth and focusing on what those who invented falsehood say may be the reason why he ended up on a path where he prefers falsehood to truth. This is the correct interpretation of this verse.

According to another view, this refers to the day on which Allah made a covenant with the progeny of Adam, when He brought them forth from his loins and made them testify concerning themselves, and they gave that testimony. Thus He used the testimony that they gave at that time to prove that they have no excuse for their disbelief and stubbornness in this world and the hereafter. But there is nothing in the verse to indicate this, and it is not appropriate or in accordance with the wisdom of Allah (ﷻ), and reality proves that.

This covenant that they mentioned, and said that it occurred when Allah brought forth the progeny of Adam from his loins, in the realm of our prior existence, is something that no one mentioned and it never crossed anyone's mind. How could Allah use as evidence against them something of which they have no recollection and that left no trace or impact?

Hence, because this is something that is very clear, Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Thus We explain the revelations in detail﴾ and make them expressly clear ﴿so that they may turn in repentance﴾ and turn back to that which Allah has instilled in their innate nature and to that which they pledged to Allah, so that they may refrain from evil.

﴿وَأَنذِرْ عَلَيْهِمْ نَبَأَ الَّذِي ءَاتَيْنَاهُ ءَايَاتِنَا فَٱنشَلَحَ مِنْهَا فٱتَّبَعَهُ الشَّيْطَٰنُ فَكَانَ مِنَ
ٱلْغَٰوِبِينَ﴾ ١٧٥ وَلَوْ شِئْنَا لَرَفَعْنَاهُ بِهَا وَلَكِنَّهُ أَخْلَدَ إِلَى ٱلْأَرْضِ وَٱتَّبَعَ هَوَاهُ
فَمَثَلُهُ كَمَثَلِ ٱلْكَلْبِ إِنْ تَحَمَّلَ عَلَيْهِ يَلْهَثْ أَوْ تَتْرُكْهُ يَلْهَثْ ذَٰلِكَ مَثَلُ
ٱلْقَوْمِ ٱلَّذِينَ كَذَبُواْ بِآيَاتِنَا فَٱقْصُصِ ٱلْقَصَصَ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ﴿١٧٦﴾ (سورة

الأعراف: ١٧٥-١٧٦)

- 7:175. Recount to them the story of the man to whom We gave knowledge of Our revelations, but he discarded it, then Shayṭān caught up with him and he became one of the misguided.
- 7:176. If it had been Our will, We would have honoured him thereby, but he clung to this earthly life and followed his desires. His likeness is that of a dog: if you chase him away, he pants with his tongue lolling, and if you leave him alone, he still pants with his tongue lolling. Such is the likeness of those who reject Our revelations. Therefore tell them the stories, so that they may reflect.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Prophet (ﷺ):

﴿Recount to them the story of the man to whom We gave knowledge of Our revelations﴾ that is, We taught him knowledge of the Book of Allah, so he became a great and prominent scholar.

﴿but he discarded it, then Shayṭān caught up with him﴾ that is, he shunned the attributes that are expected of one who has knowledge of the revelations of Allah, because knowledge thereof should make a person acquire the noblest of characteristics, do the best of deeds and be elevated to the highest of levels and most sublime of statuses. But this man threw the Book of Allah behind his back and cast aside the manners and conduct enjoined by the Book, like one would shed his clothes; when he discarded it, the Shayṭān caught up with him and gained power over him when he departed from that strong fortress, and enticed him to sin. Thus he became the lowest of the low ﴿and he became one of the misguided﴾, after he had been one of those who were guided and guided others. That is because Allah (ﷻ) forsook him and left him to his own devices.

Hence Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿If it had been Our will, We would have honoured him thereby﴾, by enabling him to act upon it and rise in status in this world and the hereafter, thus he would be protected from his enemies.

﴿but﴾ he did that which led to him being deprived of divine help, so he clung to the earth, that is, to base desires and worldly aims

﴿and followed his desires﴾, and he stopped obeying his Lord.

﴿His likeness﴾ in terms of his eagerness for worldly gain and his total devotion to it

﴿is that of a dog: if you chase him away, he pants with his tongue lolling, and if you leave him alone, he still pants with his tongue lolling﴾ that is, he remains with his tongue lolling out in all situations, and this person remains at all times eager for worldly gain, and no gains he makes can satisfy his desire.

﴿Such is the likeness of those who reject Our revelations﴾ after Allah made them available to them. They did not submit; rather they disbelieved in them and rejected them because of their insignificance before Allah, and because of their following of their whims and desires without guidance from Allah.

﴿Therefore tell them the stories, so that they may reflect﴾ on these likenesses and these lessons and signs, for if they think they will learn, and if they learn they will act.

﴿سَاءَ مَثَلًا الْقَوْمَ الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا وَأَنْفُسَهُمْ كَانُوا يَظْلِمُونَ﴾ (سورة

الأعراف: ١٧٧)

7:177. How vile is the likeness of people who rejected Our revelations; rather it is themselves they have wronged.

That is, how vile is the likeness of those who disbelieve in the revelations of Allah and wrong themselves by committing all kinds of sins, for their likeness is truly vile. This may refer to a specific individual to whom Allah made available His revelations and he rejected them, then what Allah mentions happened to him, so Allah tells his story as a warning to others; or it may be that this is a generic case and includes everyone to whom Allah makes available His revelations and he rejects them.

In these verses we find encouragement to act upon knowledge, for that raises one in status before Allah and protects him against the Shayṭān. At the same time, there is a warning against not acting upon knowledge, for that will take one to the lowest of levels and will give the Shayṭān power over him. This also shows us that following whims and desires and being preoccupied with such matters will lead to Allah forsaking him.

﴿مَنْ يَهْدِ اللَّهُ فَهُوَ الْمُهْتَدَىٰ وَمَنْ يُضِلِلْ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ﴾ (سورة

الأعراف: ١٧٨)

7:178. Whomever Allah guides is truly guided; whomever He causes to go astray, it is they who are the losers.

Then Allah explains that He alone has control over guidance and misguidance.

«Whomever Allah guides» by enabling him to do good deeds and protecting him from error, and teaching him that which he did not know

«is truly guided», because he gives precedence to Allah's guidance. «whomever He causes to go astray» by forsaking him and not enabling him to do good

«it is they who are the losers», for they will lose themselves and their families on the Day of Resurrection, and that is, indeed, a loss beyond compare (22: 11).

﴿وَلَقَدْ ذَرَأْنَا لِجَهَنَّمَ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الْجِنِّ وَالْإِنسِ لَهُمْ قُلُوبٌ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ بِهَا وَلَهُمْ أَعْيُنٌ لَا يُبْصِرُونَ بِهَا وَلَهُمْ أُذُنٌ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ بِهَا أُولَٰئِكَ كَالْأَنْعَامِ بَلْ هُمْ أَضَلُّ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْغَافِلُونَ﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٧٩)

7:179. We have surely created for hell many of the jinn and humankind. They have hearts with which they do not understand, eyes with which they do not see, and ears with which they do not hear. They are like cattle; nay, they are even more astray, for it is they who are heedless.

Here Allah explains why so many people go astray and follow the accursed Iblees.

«We have surely created for hell many of the jinn and humankind», so the animals are better off than them.

«They have hearts with which they do not understand» that is, no understanding or knowledge reaches them, except for the purpose of establishing proof against them.

﴿eyes with which they do not see﴾ that which may benefit them; rather they miss out on any benefit their eyes may bring them
 ﴿and ears with which they do not hear﴾ anything in such a way that the meaning could reach their hearts.

﴿They﴾ namely those who have these negative characteristics
 ﴿are like cattle﴾ that is, animals that have no reason, for these people give precedence to that which is transient over that which is eternal, therefore they are devoid of reason.

﴿nay, they are even more astray﴾ than animals, for cattle function in accordance with the purpose for which they were created, and they have instincts, by which they know what is harmful or good for them; hence they are better off than these people.

﴿for it is they who are heedless﴾ and unaware of the most beneficial things. They are heedless of faith in Allah, and obedience to Him and remembrance of Him.

Their hearts, hearing and sight were created to help them to obey the commands of Allah and fulfil their duties towards Him, but they use them for the opposite purpose.

Therefore these people deserve to be among those whom Allah created for hell and its fire, so they do the deeds of its people.

As for those who use these faculties in order to worship Allah, and whose hearts are filled with faith in Allah and love for him, and they are not heedless of Allah, these are the people of paradise and they do the deeds of its people.

﴿وَلِلَّهِ الْأَسْمَاءُ الْحُسْنَىٰ فَادْعُوهُ بِهَا وَذَرُوا الَّذِينَ يُلْحِدُونَ فِي أَسْمَائِهِ سَيُجْزَوْنَ مَا
 كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٨٠﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٨٠)

7:180. To Allah belong the most beautiful names, so call on Him by them, and keep away from those who profane His names. They will be required for what they do.

This is indicative of the greatness of His glory and attributes, for to Him belong the most beautiful names. In other words, all good names are His. What this refers to is every name that is indicative of an attribute of perfection and greatness. This is why they are called beautiful, because if they did not refer to an attribute, and were merely information, they would not be beautiful. Similarly, if they referred to attributes of imperfection or attributes that may be praiseworthy or otherwise, then they would not be beautiful. Each of His names points to the meaning of that attribute in the most complete and comprehensive manner, and includes all its shades of meaning.

For example, the name al-'Aleem (the All-Knowing) indicates that He has all-encompassing knowledge of all things, so nothing, not even the weight of an atom on earth or in heaven, is beyond His knowledge.

The name ar-Raheem (the Most Merciful) indicates that He is possessed of great mercy that encompasses all things.

The name al-Qadeer (the Omnipotent, All-Powerful) indicates that He is possessed of all-encompassing power and nothing is beyond His power, and so on.

Another aspect of the beauty of these names is that He cannot be called except by these names. Hence He says: ﴿so call on Him by them﴾. This includes the supplication of worship and the supplication of asking. So He is to be called upon for everything that is needed, in a manner that is appropriate to the need in question. So the one who calls upon Him may say, for example: O Allah, forgive me and have mercy on me, for You are the Oft-Forgiving, the Most Merciful. Accept my repentance, O Acceptor of repentance. Grant me provision, O Provider. Show me kindness, O Most Kind – and so on.

«and keep away from those who profane His names. They will be requited for what they do» that is, as a penalty and punishment for profaning His names. What that means is misusing the name and calling by these names those who do not deserve them, as the polytheists do when naming their false gods; or denying their meanings and distorting them, giving meanings that were not intended by Allah or His Messenger (ﷺ); or likening the divine attributes to the attributes of some created being. What one must do is beware of profaning these names and beware of those who profane them. It is proven in aṣ-Ṣaḥeeḥ that the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

«Allah has ninety-nine names; whoever learns them by heart will enter paradise.» (Bukhari, Muslim, at-Tirmidhi, and Ibn Mājah)

﴿وَمِمَّنْ خَلَقْنَا أُمَّةٌ يَهْدُونَ بِالْحَقِّ وَبِهِ يَعْدِلُونَ﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٨١)

7:181. Among those whom We have created there is a group who guide others in the way of truth and establish justice therewith.

That is, among those whom We have created there is a virtuous nation, perfect in and of itself, striving to perfect others, guiding themselves and others on the basis of truth. Hence they learn the truth, act upon it, teach it, call others to it and call them to act upon it. «and establish justice therewith» among people in their rulings, if they rule concerning matters of property, killing, people's rights over one another, the views and ideas of others, and so on. These people are the leaders of guidance and lights in the darkness. They are the ones whom Allah has blessed with faith, righteous deeds, mutual enjoining of truth and mutual enjoining of steadfastness; they are the strong and true in faith, whose status is second only to that of the Messengers. Among themselves they are of varying status, each according to his situation.

Glory be to the One Who singles out for His mercy whomever He will, and Allah is the Possessor of abundant grace.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا سَنَسْتَدْرِجُهُمْ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٨٢﴾ وَأُمْلِي لَهُمْ إِنَّ كَيْدِي مَتِينٌ ﴿١٨٣﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَتَفَكَّرُوا مَا بِصَاحِبِهِمْ مِنْ حِنَّةٍ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿١٨٤﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَنْظُرُوا فِي مَلَكُوتِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا خَلَقَ اللَّهُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ وَأَنْ عَسَى أَنْ يَكُونَ قَدِ اقْتَرَبَ إِلَهُهُمْ فَيَأْتِي حَدِيثٌ بَعْدَهُ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿١٨٥﴾ مَنْ يَضِلِّ اللَّهُ فَكَلا هَادِيَ لَهُ وَيَذَرُهُمْ فِي طُغْيَانِهِمْ يَعْمَهُونَ ﴿١٨٦﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٨٢-١٨٦)

- 7:182. As for those who reject Our signs, We will lead them step by step to their ruin, without their even realising it.
- 7:183. I will give them respite, for My stratagem is sure.
- 7:184. Have they not reflected? There is no madness in their companion; he is but a clear warner.
- 7:185. Have they not considered [Allah's] mighty dominion over the heavens and the earth, and all that Allah has created, and [realised] that their own appointed time may be near? In what message after this will they then believe?
- 7:186. Whoever Allah causes to go astray, none can guide him; He will leave them to wander blindly in their misguidance.

This refers to those who disbelieved in the signs of Allah that highlight the truth of the message of guidance brought by Muhammad (ﷺ), so they rejected it and did not accept it.

﴿We will lead them step by step to their ruin, without their even realising it﴾, by sending them abundant provision.

﴿I will give them respite﴾ that is, I will give them respite so that they will think that they will never be taken to task or be punished;

hence they will increase in disbelief and transgression, and will add evil to their evil. Thus their punishment will increase and be multiplied, and they will harm themselves without realising it. Hence Allah says: ﴿for My stratagem is sure﴾ that is, strong and effective.

﴿Have they not reflected? There is no madness in their companion﴾, namely Muhammad (ﷺ). In other words, did they not think or wonder whether their companion – who they know well, and nothing of his character is hidden from them – was in fact insane? Let them look at his character, attitude, behaviour and attributes; let them look at that to which he is calling them. They will find nothing in it but the most perfect of characteristics, and he surpassed all others in reason and wisdom. He does not call to anything but that which is good, and he does not prohibit anything but that which is evil.

Do you think, O people of reason, that such a man would have any madness in him? Is he not the great leader and sincerest adviser, honourable and noble, compassionate and kind?

Hence Allah says: ﴿he is but a clear warner﴾ that is, he calls people to that which will save them from punishment and cause them to attain reward.

﴿Have they not considered [Allah's] mighty dominion over the heavens and the earth﴾ for if they look at them, they will find clear evidence of the oneness of their Lord, and of His perfect attributes ﴿and﴾, likewise, let them look at ﴿all that Allah has created﴾, for all parts of the universe offer the greatest evidence of Allah's knowledge, power, wisdom, abundant mercy and kindness, and demonstrate that His will is always done, and point to other great divine attributes. It highlights that He alone is the Creator and Controller, which means that He is the only One Who is deserving of worship, praise, glorification, love and affirmation of His oneness.

﴿and [realised] that their own appointed time may be near﴾ that is, let them look at their own situation and look at their own selves before their time comes and death takes them unawares whilst they are in a state of heedlessness, for at that time they will not be able to make up for their negligence.

﴿In what message after this will they then believe?﴾ That is, if they do not believe in this great Book, then in what message will they believe? Will they believe in books of lies and misguidance, or in the message of every fabricator and charlatan?

Nothing will succeed in bringing this misguided one to true guidance. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Whoever Allah causes to go astray, none can guide him; He will leave them to wander blindly in their misguidance﴾ that is, confused and hesitant, and never emerging from it; they will never be guided to the truth.

﴿يَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ السَّاعَةِ أَيَّانَ مُرْسَاهَا قُلْ إِنَّمَا عِلْمُهَا عِنْدَ رَبِّي لَا يُجِيبُهَا لَوْفِيهَا إِلَّا هُوَ ثَقُلَتْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ لَا تَأْتِيكُمُ إِلَّا بَغْثَةٌ يَسْأَلُونَكَ كَأَنَّكَ حَفِيٌّ عَنْهَا قُلْ إِنَّمَا عِلْمُهَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٨٧﴾ قُلْ لَا أَمْلِكُ لِنَفْسِي نَفْعًا وَلَا ضَرًّا إِلَّا مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ وَلَوْ كُنْتُ أَعْلَمُ الْغَيْبِ لَاسْتَكْفَرْتُ مِنَ الْخَيْرِ وَمَا مَسَّنِيَ السُّوءُ إِنْ أَنَا إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ وَبَشِيرٌ لِّقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿١٨٨﴾﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٨٧-١٨٨)

7:187. They ask you about the Hour: When will it come to pass? Say: The knowledge thereof is with my Lord [alone]. None but He can disclose when its time will come. It will weigh heavily on the heavens and the earth; it will not come upon you but suddenly. They ask you as if you were well-informed of it. Say: The knowledge thereof is with Allah [alone], but most people do not realise.

7:188. Say: I have no power either to benefit or harm myself, except as Allah wills. If I had knowledge of the unseen, I would have acquired much good, and no harm would have touched me. I am but a warner and a bringer of glad tidings to people who believe.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ): ﴿They﴾ that is, those who stubbornly disbelieve in you ﴿ask you about the Hour: when will it come to pass?﴾ That is, when will it come and when will it befall people? ﴿Say: The knowledge thereof is with my Lord [alone]﴾ that is, He alone has knowledge of it ﴿None but He can disclose when its time will come﴾ that is, no one can disclose its time when He has decreed it will begin, except He.

﴿It will weigh heavily on the heavens and the earth﴾ that is, the knowledge thereof is concealed from the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth, and they feel very worried concerning it; they are concerned about the Hour.

﴿it will not come upon you but suddenly﴾ that is, when you do not realise, and you have not prepared for it and are not ready for it to begin.

﴿They ask you as if you were well-informed of it﴾ that is, they are keen to ask you about the Hour, as if you have knowledge of it. They do not realise that you – because of your perfect knowledge of your Lord and because you know that there is no benefit in asking about it, are not concerned about this question and you are not very keen to find out about it, so why do they not follow your example and refrain from thinking too much about this matter that serves no purpose and is difficult to find out about? For no Prophet who was sent, and no angel who is close to Allah, knows about it; it is one of the matters that Allah has concealed from His creation in accordance with His perfect wisdom and abundant knowledge.

﴿Say: The knowledge thereof is with Allah [alone], but most people do not realise﴾ hence they are keen to find out about something they should not be so keen to know, especially people such as these, who fail to ask about what is more important and ignore that which they should learn, then they focus on something which no one could ever find out and that they are not required to know about.

﴿Say: I have no power either to benefit or harm myself﴾ for I am helpless and under His control; nothing good comes to me except from Allah, nothing bad is ward off from me except by Him, and I have no knowledge except what Allah (ﷻ) has taught me.

﴿If I had knowledge of the unseen, I would have acquired much good, and no harm would have touched me﴾ that is, I would have taken the measures that I knew would serve my interests and bring me benefits, and I would have avoided everything that could lead to negative consequences and harm, because I would have known things before they happened and what they would lead to. But – because I have no knowledge – bad things may befall me and I may miss out on worldly benefits and interests. This is the clearest evidence that I have no knowledge of the unseen.

﴿I am but a warner﴾ – I warn of punishments in this world and the hereafter, and I explain the deeds that lead to that and warn against them.

﴿and a bringer of glad tidings﴾ of reward in this world and the hereafter, and I explain the deeds that lead to that and encourage people to do them. But not everyone accepts these glad tidings and warnings; rather the only ones who benefit from that and accept it are the believers. These verses highlight the ignorance of those who go to the grave of the Prophet (ﷺ) and call upon him to bring benefits or ward off harm, for he has no control over anything. He cannot benefit anyone whom Allah does not want to benefit and he cannot ward off harm from anyone from whom Allah does not want to ward off harm. He has no knowledge except that which Allah has taught him. Rather he benefits those who accept the glad tidings and warning with which he was sent, and act accordingly. This is the benefit one may get from him, which supersedes the benefit one may get from fathers and mothers, friends and brothers; what this refers to is his encouragement to do all that is good and his warning against all that is evil, as he explained to them in the clearest terms.

﴿ هُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ نَفْسٍ وَاحِدَةٍ وَجَعَلَ مِنْهَا زَوْجَهَا لِيَسْكُنَ إِلَيْهَا فَلَمَّا تَغَشَّاهَا حَمَلَتْ حَمْلًا خَفِيفًا فَمَرَّتَ بِهِ فَلَمَّا أَثْقَلَتْ دَعَوَا اللَّهَ رَبَّهُمَا لَئِنْ آتَيْنَا صَاحِبًا لَنَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الشَّاكِرِينَ ﴿١٨٩﴾ فَلَمَّا آتَاهُمَا صَاحِبًا جَعَلَا لَهُ شُرَكَاءَ فِيمَا آتَاهُمَا فَتَعَالَى اللَّهُ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿١٩٠﴾ أَيْشْرِكُونَ مَا لَا يَخْلُقُ شَيْئًا وَهُمْ يُخْلَقُونَ ﴿١٩١﴾ وَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ لَهُمْ نَصْرًا وَلَا أَنْفُسُهُمْ يَنْصُرُونَ ﴿١٩٢﴾ وَإِنْ نَدَعُوهُمْ إِلَى الْهَلْدَى لَا يَتَّبِعُوكُمْ سَوَاءٌ عَلَيْكُمْ أَدَعَوْتُهُمْ أَمْ أَنْتُمْ صَامِتُونَ ﴿١٩٣﴾ ﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٨٩-١٩٣)

- 7:189. It is He Who created you from a single soul, and created from it its mate, so that he might find comfort in her. When he has covered her, she bears a light burden and carries it about with ease. Then when she grows heavy, they both call upon Allah, their Lord, [saying]: If You give us a healthy child, we will certainly be among those who are grateful.
- 7:190. But when He gives them a healthy child, they ascribe partners to Him in that which He has given to them. Exalted be Allah far above the partners they ascribe to Him.
- 7:191. Do they ascribe to Him as partners those who cannot create anything, but are themselves created?
- 7:192. They have no power to help them, nor can they help themselves.
- 7:193. If you call them to guidance, they will not follow you. It is the same for you whether you call them or remain silent.

﴿It is He Who created you﴾, O men and women who are scattered throughout the earth in large numbers of different groups

﴿from a single soul﴾ namely Adam (ﷺ), the father of humanity. ﴿and created from it its mate﴾ that is, He created from Adam his wife Ḥawwâ', so that he might find comfort in her, because she came from him and therefore there was compatibility and harmony between them that led to them finding comfort in one another; thus each was attracted physically to the other

﴿When he has covered her﴾ that is had intercourse with her. The Creator has decreed that offspring should result from that desire and intercourse. Thereupon ﴿she bears a light burden and carries it about with ease﴾. This refers to the beginning of pregnancy, when the female is unaware of it and it is not burdensome for her.

﴿Then﴾ as the pregnancy continues ﴿when she grows heavy﴾, as the foetus in her womb grows bigger, then the parents begin to feel concern about the birth and hope that the infant will emerge alive, healthy and sound, with no defects. So they both call upon ﴿Allah, their Lord, [saying]: If You give us a healthy child﴾ that is, physically sound and complete, with nothing missing

﴿we will certainly be among those who are grateful﴾.

﴿But when He gives them a healthy child﴾, according to their request, and He completes the blessing upon them

﴿they ascribe partners to Him in that which He has given to them﴾ that is, they ascribe partners to Allah with regard to that child – whom only Allah brought into being and blessed them with, thus bringing joy to his parents – by giving him a name suggesting that he is a slave ('abd) of something other than Allah, such as 'Abdul-Ḥârith, 'Abdul-'Uzzâ, 'Abdul-Ka'bah, and so on, or they join others with Allah in worship, after Allah bestowed upon them blessings such as no one could enumerate.

This verse moves from something specific to something general. The beginning of the verse speaks of Adam and Ḥawwâ', then moves on to speaking of people in general. Undoubtedly this is something that happens often among the progeny of Adam. Hence Allah proved to them the falseness of their ascription of partners to Him, and highlighted the fact that they commit a grave wrong thereby, whether that ascription of partners to Him is in word or in deed. For Allah is the One Who created them from a single soul, from which He created its spouse, and He gave them partners from among themselves; then He created love and compassion between them, whereby they find comfort and harmony with one another, as well as physical pleasure; then He guided them to the means of fulfilling that desire and producing offspring. Then He created the offspring in the wombs of the mothers during a brief period in which they long for the child and pray to Allah to bring him forth safe and sound, and Allah completes His blessing to them and grants them their request.

Does He not deserve that they should worship Him alone and not ascribe any partner to Him in their worship, and devote their worship solely to Him? But they did the opposite and ascribed as partners to Allah those who ﴿cannot create anything, but are themselves created. They have no power to help them﴾ namely their worshippers ﴿nor can they help themselves﴾.

If they do not create anything, not even an atom's weight, but are themselves created, and they cannot ward off any harm from those who worship them, or even from themselves, then how can they be taken as gods alongside Allah? This is the worst of wrongdoing and foolishness. If you, O polytheists, call these gods whom you worship besides Allah, ﴿to guidance, they will not follow you. It is the same for you whether you call them or remain silent﴾. So human beings are better off than the idols, because the idols cannot hear or see, or guide or be guided. If the smart, rational person thinks about all this in a fair-minded manner, he will be certain of the falseness of their gods and the folly of those who worship them.

﴿ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ عِبَادُ أَمْثَالِكُمْ فَأَدْعُوهُمْ فَلْيَسْجِبُوا
لَكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴾ (١٩٤) أَلَهُمْ أَرْجُلٌ يَمْشُونَ بِهَا أَمْ لَهُمْ أَيْدٍ يَبْطِشُونَ
بِهَا أَمْ لَهُمْ آعْيُنٌ يَبْصُرُونَ بِهَا أَمْ لَهُمْ آذَانٌ يَسْمَعُونَ بِهَا قُلْ ادْعُوا شُرَكَاءَكُمْ ثُمَّ
كِيدُونِ فَلَا تُنْظِرُونِ ﴾ (١٩٥) إِنَّ وَلِيَ اللَّهِ الَّذِي نَزَّلَ الْكِتَابَ وَهُوَ تَوَكَّلِ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴾ (١٩٦)

(سورة الأعراف: ١٩٤-١٩٦)

- 7:194. Verily those on whom you call besides Allah are slaves like you; call upon them and let them answer you, if you are truthful.
- 7:195. Do they have feet with which to walk, or hands with which to strike, or eyes with which to see, or ears with which to hear? Say [O Muhammad]: Call upon those partners whom you ascribe to Allah, then scheme against me and give me no respite!
- 7:196. Verily my Protector is Allah, Who sent down the Book, for it is He Who protects the righteous.

This is in the nature of a challenge to the polytheists who worship the idols. Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Verily those on whom you call besides Allah are slaves like you﴾ that is, there is no difference between you and them, for you are all slaves of Allah, under His control. If what you claim is true, that they are deserving of worship, then ﴿call upon them and let them answer you﴾. If they answer you and you get what you want, (then you have proved your point), otherwise it will become clear that this claim of yours is false and you are fabricating the worst of lies against Allah.

This needs no further explanation. If you look at the idols, you will see that they are mere images, which indicates that they can do nothing of benefit. They have no legs with which to walk, no hands with which to strike, no eyes with which to see, and no ears with which to hear. They are lacking all faculties and capabilities that man has.

Because they do not respond when you call upon them, and they are slaves like you – and in fact you are better and stronger than them in many ways – then why do you worship them?

﴿Say [O Muhammad]: Call upon those partners whom you ascribe to Allah, then scheme against me and give me no respite!﴾ That is, get together, you and your so-called partners, to do me harm without any delay or respite. But you will never be able to cause me any harm, because my Protector is Allah, Who protects me, brings me benefits and wards off harm from me.

﴿Who sent down the Book﴾ In which is guidance, healing and light. He is the One Whom I have taken as my ally, and I adhere to the teachings that He has ordained for His slaves.

﴿for it is He Who protects the righteous﴾, those whose intentions, deeds and words are sound, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Allah is the Protector of those who have faith; from the depths of darkness He will lead them forth into light...﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 257)

Because the righteous believers take their Lord as their ally, believing in Him and fearing Him, and they do not take as an ally anyone other than Him who can do no benefit or harm, Allah protects them and helps them to do that which is good for them and in their best interests in both spiritual and worldly terms, and by virtue of their faith He wards off from them all harm, as Allah says:

﴿Verily, Allah will defend those who believe...﴾ (al-Hajj 22: 38)

﴿وَالَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ لَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ نَصْرَكُمْ وَلَا أَنْفُسُهُمْ يَنْصُرُونَ
وَإِنْ تَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَى الْهُدَى لَا يَسْمَعُوا وَتَرَاهُمْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَيْكَ وَهُمْ لَا يُبْصِرُونَ﴾

﴿(سورة الأعراف: ١٩٧-١٩٨)﴾

- 7:197. Whereas those you call upon besides Him can neither help you nor even help themselves.
- 7:198. If you call them to guidance, they do not hear, and you see them looking at you but they do not see.

This also explains why these idols whom they worship besides Allah do not deserve any worship at all, because they cannot do anything to help themselves or to help their worshippers; they have no ability to think or respond. If you were to call them to guidance, they would not be guided. They are mere images with no spark of life in them.

You see them looking at you, but they do not really see, because they gave them the images of animate beings, human or otherwise, and they gave them eyes and limbs, so when you see them you might say that they are alive. But if you think about them, you will realise that they are inanimate and cannot move, and there is no life in them. So on what basis do the polytheists take them as gods besides Allah? For what purpose or benefit do they devote themselves to them and seek to draw close to them with all kinds of acts of worship?

Once this is understood, one will realise that even if the polytheists and the gods whom they worship were to come together and wanted to plot against the one whose protector is the Creator of the earth and the heavens, Who takes care of His righteous slaves, they would never be able to do him even an atom's weight of harm, because they and their gods are completely incapable, whereas the strength and power of Allah is perfect and so is the power of the one who seeks His protection and puts his trust in Him.

It was also suggested with regard to the meaning of the verse ﴿and you see them looking at you but they do not see﴾ is that the pronoun ﴿they﴾ refers to the polytheists who disbelieved in the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ). Thus the meaning would be: do you think that they are looking at you, O Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), with the understanding to differentiate one who is truthful and one who is lying? But they do not see you as you really are, for they cannot see the beauty, perfection and sincerity in you.

﴿خُذِ الْعَمَلْ وَأْمُرْ بِالْعُرْفِ وَأَعْرِضْ عَنِ الْجَاهِلِينَ﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ١٩٩)

7:199. Make allowances for people's nature, enjoin what is right and turn away from the ignorant.

This verse is a comprehensive summary that tells one, in a concise way, how to interact with people in the best manner; he should take people as they appear to be and adopt an easy-going approach, by accepting them as they are, with whatever they have to offer of deeds and characteristics. He should not expect more from them than they are able to do; rather he should appreciate whatever he sees of good words and deeds, and whatever is less than that, and overlook their shortcomings. He should not look down on the minor because he is young, or on one who is lacking in reason for his shortcomings, or on one who is poor because of his poverty. Rather he should treat everyone with kindness and respond kindly to each person as is appropriate to his nature and situation, with an open heart and mind.

﴿enjoin what is right﴾ that is, enjoin all good words, good deeds and good attitudes, addressed to close associates and strangers alike; ensure that whatever reaches people from you is either: teaching knowledge; encouraging good, such as upholding ties of kinship or honouring parents; reconciling people; beneficial advice; sound opinions; help in righteousness and piety; discouraging abhorrent deeds; or guiding to that which will attain some good purpose, be it spiritual or worldly.

As it is not possible to avoid the harm of the ignorant, Allah (ﷻ) instructs us to turn away from the ignorant one and not to respond to his ignorance; whoever harms you in word or deed, do not harm him in response; do not deprive the one who deprives you; whoever cuts you off, uphold ties with him; and whoever wrongs you, be fair towards him.

However, with regard to how one should interact with the devils among humankind and the jinn, Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿وَأَمَّا يَنْزَغَنَّكَ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ نَزْعٌ فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللَّهِ إِنَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ﴾ (٢٠٠)
 ﴿الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا إِذَا مَسَّهُمْ طَائِفٌ مِّنَ الشَّيْطَانِ تَذَكَّرُوا فَإِذَا هُمْ مُبْصِرُونَ﴾ (٢٠١)
 ﴿وَإِخْوَانُهُمْ يَمُدُّوهُمْ فِي الْغَيِّ ثُمَّ لَا يُقْصِرُونَ﴾ (٢٠٢) (سورة الأعراف: ٢٠٠-٢٠٢)

- 7:200. And if a prompting from Shayṭān stirs you up, seek refuge with Allah, for He is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.
- 7:201. Verily those who fear Allah, when an evil suggestion comes to them from Shayṭān, remember and immediately begin to see clearly.
- 7:202. Whereas the devils support and encourage their [human] brothers in sin, and never cease.

At any time, and in any situation, ﴿if a prompting from Shayṭān stirs you up﴾ that is, you feel his whispering and discouragement from doing good, or encouragement and prompting to do evil, ﴿seek refuge with Allah﴾ that is, turn to Allah and seek protection with Him, for He is ﴿All-Hearing﴾ and hears what you say ﴿All-Knowing﴾ – He knows your intention and your weakness, and how eager you are to turn to Him, so He will protect you from confusion and from the whispers of the Shayṭān, as He says elsewhere:

«Say: I seek refuge with the Lord of humankind.» (an-Nâs 114: 1)

Because it is inevitable that one will occasionally be heedless and the Shayṭân, who is always lying in wait, will find an opportunity to exploit, Allah (ﷻ) mentions the sign that distinguishes the pious from the heedless: the pious person, if he commits a sin by responding to devilish prompting to do something that is prohibited or to omit something that is obligatory, will remember how the Shayṭân got to him and will take note of that weak point. He will remember what Allah has enjoined upon him and what he must do of adhering to faith. So he will come back to his senses, ask Allah to forgive him and make up for his negligence by repenting sincerely and doing many good deeds. Thus he will repel the despised Shayṭân and spoil everything he has achieved.

As for the brothers and allies of the devils, if they fall into sin, their devils continue to encourage them in sin, time after time, without ceasing. The devils never stop tempting them, because they got their hopes up when they saw that they were easily led, and they never cease doing evil.

﴿وَإِذَا لَمْ تَأْتِهِم بِآيَةٍ قَالُوا لَوْلَا آجَبْنَاهَا قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَتَّبِعُ مَا يُوحَىٰ إِلَيَّ مِنْ رَبِّي هَٰذَا بَصَآئِرٌ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ٢٠٣)

7:203. When you do not bring them a miracle, they say: Why do you not improvise one? Say: I only follow that which is revealed to me from my Lord. This [Qur'an] contains clear proofs from your Lord, and is a guidance and a mercy for people who believe.

These disbelievers persist in their stubborn rejection, even if you bring them signs that point to true guidance. If you bring them any signs that point to your truthfulness, they will not submit.

«When you do not bring them a miracle» such as they suggest and specify

«they say: Why do you not improvise one?» That is, why do you not choose a particular miracle or sign, as if you are the one who brings down the signs and controls all of creation. They do not realise that you have no control over the matter at all. Or it may be that what is meant is: why do you not make something up on your own initiative?

«Say: I only follow that which is revealed to me from my Lord» – I am a slave under orders, and it is Allah (ﷻ) Who sends down the signs in accordance with His great wisdom. If you want a sign that does not diminish with the passage of time, or proof that never becomes obsolete, then look at this great Qur'an, the wise reminder, for it «contains clear proofs from your Lord», through which you will find guidance with regard to all divine commands and whatever humans may seek of good. It is a guide and a proof, so whoever reflects upon it and contemplates it will realise that it is a revelation from One who is Most Wise, Praiseworthy, and no falsehood can approach it from before it or from behind it (cf. 41: 42). By means of it proof is established against everyone it reaches, but most people do not believe. For those who do believe, however, it is «a guidance» away from error and «a mercy» that saves them from doom. The believer is guided by the Qur'an and follows it, and he will be blessed in this world and the hereafter.

As for the one who does not believe in it, he is misguided and doomed in this world and the hereafter.

﴿وَإِذَا قُرِئَ الْقُرْآنُ فَاسْتَمِعُوا لَهُ وَأَنْصِتُوا لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ﴾ (سورة

الأعراف: ٢٠٤)

7:204. When the Qur'an is recited, listen attentively and remain silent, so that you may be shown mercy.

This command is general and is applicable to everyone who hears the Book of Allah being recited. He is enjoined to listen to it and remain silent. The difference between listening and remaining silent is that remaining silent is an outward action, that requires one to stop talking or doing anything that may distract you from listening to it.

Listening, on the other hand, means lending your ears, focusing your mind and contemplating the meaning of what is heard. The one who does both of these things when the Book of Allah is recited will attain a great deal of good, abundant knowledge, renewed and ongoing faith, increasing guidance and understanding of his religion. Hence Allah has made attainment of mercy dependent on these two things. This indicates that if a person does not listen and remain silent when the Book is recited to him, he will be deprived of his share of mercy and will miss out on a great deal of good.

One of the most emphatically enjoined instructions with regard to listening to Qur'anic recitation is the requirement to listen attentively to it and remain silent during the prayers in which the recitation is done out loud. When the imam is reciting, the worshipper is instructed to remain silent. In fact the majority of scholars say that remaining silent and listening attentively to the imam is more important than reciting al-Fâtiḥah or any other soorah.

وَاذْكُرْ رَبَّكَ فِي نَفْسِكَ تَضَرُّعًا وَخِيفَةً وَدُونَ الْجَهْرِ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ بِالْغُدُوِّ وَالْآصَالِ
وَلَا تَكُن مِّنَ الْغَافِلِينَ ﴿٢٠٥﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ لَا يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ عَنْ عِبَادَتِهِ وَيُسَبِّحُونَهُ
وَهُمْ يَسْجُدُونَ ﴿٢٠٦﴾ (سورة الأعراف: ٢٠٥-٢٠٦)

- 7:205. And remember your Lord to yourself with humility and reverence, without raising your voice, in the morning and in the evening, and do not be among the heedless.
- 7:206. Verily those who are near your Lord [the angels] are not too proud to worship Him; they glorify Him and prostrate before Him.

Remembering Allah (ﷻ) may be done in the heart or verbally, or it may be both, which is the most perfect kind of dhikr. Allah enjoined His slave and Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) first of all, and others by virtue of their following him, to remember his Lord to himself that is, sincerely when he is alone

﴿with humility﴾ that is, beseeching verbally, repeating all kinds of dhikr (remembrance)

﴿and reverence﴾ in your heart, with fear of Allah and apprehension that your deed may not be accepted. The sign of fear of Allah is that one strives and does one's utmost to perfect one's deeds, try to improve on them and be sincere.

﴿without raising your voice﴾ that is, be moderate, neither too loud nor too quiet in your prayer, but following a middle course.

﴿in the morning﴾ at the beginning of the day

﴿and in the evening﴾ at the end of the day. The advantage and virtue of remembering Allah at these two times is greater than at others.

﴿and do not be among the heedless﴾, those who forget Allah, so He causes them to forget themselves; thus they are deprived of good in this world and the hereafter. They turn away from all blessings and success that come from remembering Him and submitting oneself in servitude to Him, and they turn to and focus on all that leads to misery and doom.

This is the etiquette to which the individual should pay proper attention, namely remembering Allah a great deal throughout the night and day, especially at the two ends of the day, sincerely, with proper focus and humility, and calmly, focusing on what one says, with proper conduct and dignity, calling upon Allah and remembering Him with full presence of mind, and not being heedless, for Allah does not answer the supplication of one who is distracted and not focused on what he is saying.

Then Allah tells us that He has slaves who persistently worship and serve Him, namely the angels. So you should understand that Allah is not seeking to have more of His creation worshipping Him because He does not have enough, or to be honoured because He is lacking in that; rather He wants what is beneficial for you and for you to gain from Him many times more than what your deeds are worth. Hence He says:

﴿Verily those who are near your Lord﴾ namely the angels who are close to Him, the bearers of the Throne and the cherubim
 ﴿are not too proud to worship Him﴾; rather they persist in humbly worshipping Him, submitting to the commands of their Lord
 ﴿they glorify Him﴾ night and day, without ceasing
 ﴿and prostrate before Him﴾ alone, with no partner or associate. So let the people follow the example of these noble angels and persist in worshipping the Sovereign, the All-Knowing.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-A'râf.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

Soorat al-Anfâl

(Madani)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

سَأَلْتُمُونَا عَنِ الْأَنْفَالِ قُلِ الْأَنْفَالُ لِلَّهِ وَالرَّسُولِ فَأَتَقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَصْلِحُوا ذَاتَ بَيْنِكُمْ وَأَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١﴾ إِنَّمَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ الَّذِينَ إِذَا ذُكِرَ اللَّهُ وَجِلَتْ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَإِذَا تُلِيَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُهُ زَادَتْهُمْ إِيمَانًا وَعَلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُونَ ﴿٢﴾ الَّذِينَ يُقِيمُونَ الصَّلَاةَ وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنْفِقُونَ ﴿٣﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ حَقًّا لَهُمْ دَرَجَاتٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ وَمَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ ﴿٤﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ١-٤)

- 8:1. They ask you [O Muhammad] about the spoils of war. Say: The spoils of war belong to Allah and the Messenger, so fear Allah and set things right among yourselves. Obey Allah and His Messenger, if you are [truly] believers.
- 8:2. The true believers are those whose hearts are filled with awe when Allah is mentioned, and when His revelations are recited it increases them in faith, and they put their trust only in their Lord;
- 8:3. those who establish prayer and spend out of what We have provided for them.

- 8:4. Such are the true believers; they will have high ranks with their Lord, and forgiveness and a generous provision.

The word anfāl (translated here as «spoils of war») refers to the booty that Allah granted to this Ummah, namely the property of the disbelievers (captured in battle). These verses in this soorah were revealed concerning the Battle of Badr, the first major booty that the Muslims captured from the polytheists. There was a dispute among some of the Muslims concerning it, so they asked the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and Allah (ﷻ) revealed the words: «They ask you [O Muhammad] about the spoils of war» – how they are to be divided and to whom?

«Say» to them: the spoils of war belong to Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), to decide concerning it however they will, so you have no right to object to the ruling of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ); rather, when Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) decide something, you must accept their ruling and submit to it. This is included in the words «so fear Allah» by complying with His commands and avoiding that which He prohibits.

«and set things right among yourselves» that is, set things right and turn disputes, disconnection and turning away into friendship, mutual love and upholding of ties. Thus you will become united and will put an end to what has occurred of arguments, disputes and conflict that resulted from cutting off ties with one another.

Setting things right among people includes showing a good attitude towards them and forgiving those among them who misbehave; this will dispel much of the resentment and severing of ties that may be in people's hearts. The instruction that includes all of that is to be found in this verse: «Obey Allah and His Messenger, if you are [truly] believers». For faith calls one to obey Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), so the one who does not obey Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) is not a believer.

If anyone falls short in obeying Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), that is due to his lack of faith, because faith is of two types: complete faith which results in success, which is praiseworthy, and faith that is of a lesser degree. What is referred to here is complete faith. Allah says: ﴿The true believers﴾, who adhere to all the teachings of faith ﴿are those whose hearts are filled with awe when Allah is mentioned﴾ that is, they are filled with fear and awe, and that fear of Allah (ﷻ) dictates that they should refrain from that which is prohibited. Fear of Allah (ﷻ) is one of the greatest signs that restrain one from committing sin.

﴿and when His revelations are recited it increases them in faith﴾, the reason being that they listen to it with presence of mind, contemplating the meaning, and as a result of that their faith increases, because contemplation is one of the actions of the heart, and it is inevitable that they will learn a meaning that they did not know, or they will be reminded of something that they had forgotten, or it will make their hearts inclined towards good and make them long for the reward of their Lord, or will make them fear His punishment, or they will be deterred from sin. All of these are things that increase one in faith.

﴿and they put their trust only in their Lord﴾ alone, with no partner or associate. In other words, they rely in their hearts on their Lord to bring what is in their best interests and ward off that which may harm them in spiritual or worldly terms, and they trust that Allah (ﷻ) will do that.

Trust in Allah is the motive for all good deeds, which cannot exist or be completed without it

﴿those who establish prayer﴾ both obligatory and supererogatory, doing all acts of the prayer, both outward and inward, with presence of mind which is the spirit and essence of the prayer.

﴿and spend out of what We have provided for them﴾ – this includes obligatory spending, such as zakâh, expiation, and spending on wives and relatives, as well as recommended spending such as charity of all kinds.

﴿Such﴾ that is, those who have these qualities ﴿are the true believers﴾, because they combine Islam and faith; good deeds, both inward and outward; knowledge and action; and fulfilling their duties towards Allah and towards His slaves.

Allah mentions the actions of the heart (such as intentions, feelings and emotions) first, because they are the basis of physical actions and are superior to them. This indicates that faith may increase and decrease; it increases by doing acts of obedience and it decreases by doing the opposite.

The individual should pay attention to his faith and tend it. The best way of doing that is contemplating the Book of Allah (ﷻ) and reflecting upon its meanings.

Then Allah mentions the reward of the true believers: ﴿they will have high ranks with their Lord﴾ that is, according to the level of their deeds

﴿and forgiveness﴾ of their sins ﴿and a generous provision﴾, which is what Allah has prepared for them in paradise, such as no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it ever crossed the mind of man.

This indicates that the one who does not reach their level of faith – even if he enters paradise – will not attain what they attain of perfect honour from Allah.

﴿كَمَا أَخْرَجَكَ رَبُّكَ مِنْ بَيْتِكَ بِالْحَقِّ وَإِنَّ فَرِيقًا مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ لَكَاذِبُونَ ۝ وَإِذْ يُجَادِلُونَكَ فِي الْحَقِّ بَعْدَ مَا بَيَّنَّ كَأَنَّمَا يُسَاقُونَ إِلَى الْمَوْتِ وَهُمْ يَنْظُرُونَ ۝ وَإِذْ يَعِدُكُمُ اللَّهُ إِحْدَى الطَّائِفَتَيْنِ أَنَّهَا لَكُمْ وَتَوَدُّونَ أَنَّ غَيْرَ ذَاتِ الشَّوْكَةِ

تَكُونُ لَكُمْ وَيُرِيدُ اللَّهُ أَنْ يُحَقِّقَ الْحَقَّ بِكَلِمَاتِهِ وَيَقْطَعَ دَابِرَ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٧﴾ لِيُحَقِّقَ
 الْحَقَّ وَيُبْطِلَ الْبَاطِلَ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُجْرِمُونَ ﴿٨﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٥-٨)

- 8:5. It is like when your Lord caused you to go forth from your home on a mission of truth, even though some of the believers disliked it
- 8:6. And disputed with you concerning the truth after it had been made manifest, as if they were being driven towards death and beheld it with their very eyes.
- 8:7. And [remember] when Allah promised you one of the two enemy parties, that it would fall to you, and you wished that the unarmed group would fall to you. But it was Allah's will to vindicate the truth by His words and to cut off the root of the disbelievers,
- 8:8. so that He might prove the truth to be true and the false to be false, even though the evildoers hate it.

Here Allah highlights – ahead of this blessed major battle – the qualities that the believers should attain, because whoever attains them will be in a good state and his deeds will be sound and correct; one of the most significant of these is jihad in His cause.

Just as their faith was true and their reward was the truth that Allah promised them, similarly Allah brought His Messenger (ﷺ) forth from his home to meet the polytheists at Badr on a mission of truth, which Allah (ﷻ) loves and which He willed and decreed.

Even though it did not occur to the believers that there would be fighting between them and their enemy during this excursion, when it became clear to them that this was going to happen, some of the believers began to argue with the Prophet (ﷺ) about that, and they were reluctant to meet their enemy; it was as if they were being driven towards death and beheld it with their very eyes.

But in fact this attitude of theirs was not appropriate, especially after it became clear to them that they had gone forth on a mission of truth and that it was something that Allah had enjoined and was pleased with. In such a situation there is no room for argument, because the right time for arguing and debating is when there is doubt and confusion about the right thing to do. But in this case the right thing was quite clear, therefore there should be no option but to submit and comply.

However, many of the believers were not part of this argument at all, and they were not reluctant to meet their enemy. Those whom Allah rebuked subsequently accepted the idea of jihad and Allah made them steadfast and made available to them measures of reassurance that put their minds at rest, as we shall see below.

The original reason for them going forth was to intercept the caravan of Quraysh that had travelled to Syria with Abu Sufyân ibn Hârb, which was a big caravan.

When they heard that the caravan was on its way back from Syria, the Prophet (ﷺ) mobilised the people, and three hundred plus men set out with him. They had seventy camels with them, which they took turns riding and carried their luggage on them. Quraysh heard about them, so they went forth to protect their caravan, with a large number of well-armed and well-equipped men, both riding and on foot; their number reached approximately one thousand.

Allah promised the believers one of the two groups: either they would capture the caravan or defeat the army. They wanted the caravan, because the Muslims were not well off and the caravan was unarmed, but Allah (ﷻ) wanted for them something better and more sublime than what they wanted.

He wanted them to defeat the army that had come forth with the leaders and prominent figures of the polytheists.

﴿But it was Allah's will to vindicate the truth by His words﴾ and to support the followers of truth

﴿and to cut off the root of the disbelievers﴾ that is, to eradicate the people of falsehood, and to show His slaves something of His support for the truth that had never crossed their minds.

﴿so that He might prove the truth to be true﴾ by means of what appeared of proof and evidence to validate and affirm the truth and its soundness

﴿and the false to be false﴾ by establishing proof and evidence of its falseness

﴿even though the evildoers hate it﴾, for Allah does not care about them.

﴿إِذْ تَسْتَغِيثُونَ رَبَّكُمْ فَاسْتَجَابَ لَكُمْ أَنِّي مُمِدُّكُمْ بِأَلْفٍ مِنَ الْمَلَائِكَةِ مُرَدِّفِينَ﴾ (٩) وَمَا جَعَلَ اللَّهُ إِلَّا بَشْرًا وَلِتُطْمِئِنَّ بِهِ قُلُوبُكُمْ وَمَا النَّصْرُ إِلَّا مِنْ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿١٠﴾ إِذْ يُغَشِّيكُمُ النُّعَاسَ أَمَنَةً مِنْهُ وَيُنَزِّلُ عَلَيْكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً لِيُطَهِّرَكُمْ بِهِ وَيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمْ رِجْزَ الشَّيْطَانِ وَلِيَرْبِطَ عَلَى قُلُوبِكُمْ وَيُثَبِّتَ بِهِ الْأَقْدَامَ ﴿١١﴾ إِذْ يُوحَىٰ رَبُّكَ إِلَى الْمَلَائِكَةِ أَنِّي مَعَكُمْ فَثَبِّتُوا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا سَأُلْقِي فِي قُلُوبِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا الرُّعْبَ فَاضْرِبُوا فَوْقَ الْأَعْنَاقِ وَاضْرِبُوا مِنْهُمْ كُلَّ بَنَانٍ ﴿١٢﴾ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ شَاقُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَمَنْ يُشَاقِقِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿١٣﴾ ذَلِكَمُ فَذُوقُوا وَأَنَّ لِلْكَافِرِينَ عَذَابَ النَّارِ﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٩-١٤)

- 8:9. And [remember] when you were calling upon your Lord for help, and He answered you: I am sending to your aid a thousand angels, coming host after host.

- 8:10. Allah granted it only as good news with which to reassure your hearts, for victory comes only from Allah. Verily Allah is Almighty, Most Wise.
- 8:11. And [remember] when He caused drowsiness to overcome you as an assurance from Him, and He sent down water from the sky to cleanse you and to purify you of the whispers of the Shaytân, and to strengthen your hearts and to steady your footsteps.
- 8:12. [Remember] when your Lord inspired the angels [saying]: Verily I am with you, so support those who believe. I will instil terror into the hearts of those who disbelieve. So strike them above the neck and strike all their limbs.
- 8:13. That is because they opposed Allah and His Messenger, and whoever opposes Allah and His Messenger, Allah is indeed severe in punishment.
- 8:14. That is for you, so taste it. And verily for the disbelievers there will be the punishment of the fire.

---

﴿And [remember] when you were calling upon your Lord for help﴾ that is, remember the blessing of Allah to you, when you were about to meet your enemy and you sought the help of your Lord and asked Him for His aid and support.

﴿and He answered you﴾ and helped you in a number of ways, such as the following:

- He sent to your aid ﴿a thousand angels, coming host after host﴾ that is, one group after another
﴿Allah granted it﴾ that is, the sending down of the angels
﴿only as good news with which to reassure your hearts﴾ and raise your spirits; otherwise, victory is only in the Hand of Allah, not with large numbers of men and weapons
﴿Verily Allah is Almighty﴾ and no enemy can overcome Him; rather He is the Subduer Who may defeat an enemy no matter what their number and no matter how well-armed and well-equipped they may be.

«Most Wise» as He decrees matters by making available the means that lead to them and putting things in the right place at the right time.

- In response to your supplication He sent down drowsiness upon you, «to overcome you», that is, it took away the fear and dread in your hearts,

«as an assurance from Him» to you, and as a sign of victory, to give you peace of mind.

- He sent down upon you rain from the sky to cleanse you of impurity and dirt, and to purify you of the insinuations and whispers of the Shayṭān.

«and to strengthen your hearts» that is, to make them steadfast, for steadfastness of heart leads to physical steadfastness (in battle)

«and to steady your footsteps», for the ground was soft sand, but when the rain fell on it, it became firm and the foothold became steady.

- He inspired the angels «[saying]: Verily I am with you» with My help, aid and support

«so support those who believe» that is, inspire courage against the enemy in their hearts, encourage them to strive in jihad, and remind them of its virtue

«I will instil terror into the hearts of those who disbelieve» which is the greatest help you have against them, for if Allah makes the believers steadfast and instils terror in the hearts of the disbelievers, the disbelievers will not be able to stand up to them and Allah will cause them to flee before them.

«So strike them above the neck» that is, on the neck
«and strike all their limbs» and joints.

This is addressed either to the angels whom Allah inspired to make steadfast those who believed, in which case it indicates that the angels took part in the fighting on the day of Badr, or it is addressed to the believers, and Allah is encouraging them and teaching them how to fight the polytheists, and instructing them to show them no mercy.

That is because ﴿they opposed Allah and His Messenger﴾; they fought them and showed enmity towards them ﴿and whoever opposes Allah and His Messenger, Allah is indeed severe in punishment﴾, and part of His punishment is that He sends His believing allies against His enemies and they kill many of them.

﴿That﴾ punishment mentioned here ﴿is for you, so taste it﴾, O you who opposed Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), a punishment that is hastened in this world.

﴿And verily for the disbelievers there will be the punishment of the fire﴾.

This story highlights some of the greatest signs of Allah which proves that what Muhammad (ﷺ), the Messenger of Allah, brought was true. These signs include the following:

- Allah made them a promise and fulfilled it for them.
- Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿There has already been for you a sign in the two groups that met [in combat]: one was fighting in the cause of Allah, the other disbelieving [in Allah]; they saw them with their own eyes twice their number. But Allah supports with His help whomever He wills. Verily, in this there is a lesson for those who have insight.﴾ (Āl 'Imrān 3: 13)
- Allah answered the supplication of the believers when they sought His help by the means mentioned here. This highlights His great care for His believing slaves and how He made measures available by means of which He strengthened their faith and made their footsteps steady, and He relieved them of harm and devilish whispers.

- By His kindness towards His slaves, Allah makes it easy for them to obey Him and makes available to them the means of attaining that both inwardly and outwardly.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِذَا لَقِيتُمُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا زَحَفًا فَلَا تُولُوهُمْ الْآدْبَارَ ۚ وَمَنْ يُؤَلِّمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ دُبُرَهُ إِلَّا مُتَحَرِّفًا لِّقِنَالٍ أَوْ مُتَحَيِّزًا إِلَىٰ فِتْنَةٍ فَقَدْ بَاءَ بِغَضَبٍ مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَمَأْوَاهُ جَهَنَّمُ وَبِئْسَ الْمَصِيرُ﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ١٥-١٦)

- 8:15. O you who believe, when you encounter the disbelievers on the march, never turn your backs to them.
- 8:16. Whoever turns his back to them on that day – unless it is for tactical reasons, or falling back to join another group – will incur the wrath of Allah, and his abode will be hell, a hapless journey's end.

Here Allah instructs His believing slaves to have courage based on faith, to adhere firmly to His commands, and to strive to take measures to strengthen themselves spiritually and physically, and He forbids them to flee when the two parties meet in battle.

«O you who believe, when you encounter the disbelievers on the march» that is, when you are drawn up in ranks for battle and the two armies begin to approach one another «never turn your backs to them»; rather stand firm and fight them, and be patient in combatting them, for by doing so you are supporting the religion of Allah and that will strengthen the hearts of the believers and strike fear into the disbelievers.

«Whoever turns his back to them on that day – unless it is for tactical reasons, or falling back to join another group – will incur the wrath of Allah, and his abode will be hell, a hapless journey's end». This indicates that fleeing from the battlefield with no excuse is a major sin, as mentioned in the ṣaḥeeḥ hadiths; in this verse there is a stern warning against that.

What this verse means is that if one retreats for tactical reasons, to take up a new position in order to be more effective in fighting the enemy, in that case there is nothing wrong with it, because one is not turning back in order to flee the enemy; rather he is turning back in order to gain some advantage over the enemy, or to come at him from an unexpected direction and catch him unawares or trick him, or to achieve some other military aim. If a fighter falls back to join another group for protection or help in fighting the disbelievers, that is permissible. If that group is also part of the army, then the matter is quite clear.

But if that group is not in the battlefield, such as if the Muslims are fleeing from the disbelievers and they seek refuge in some Muslim land or with some other Muslim army, then there are reports from the Ṣaḥâbah which indicate that this is permissible, although that may depend on whether the Muslims think that fleeing is likely to lead to better consequences and save their lives. But if they think that they will be able to defeat the disbelievers if they stand their ground and fight, then – in this case – it is not possible that they could have a concession allowing them to flee because, in that case, it would not be possible to understand what kind of fleeing is forbidden in this verse, at the time when it speaks in general terms. At the end of the soorah we will see that this was later restricted by the numbers involved.

﴿فَلَمْ تَقْتُلُوهُمْ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ قَتَلَهُمْ وَمَا رَمَيْتُمْ إِذْ رَمَيْتُمْ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ رَمَىٰ
وَلِيَسْبِي الْمُؤْمِنِينَ مِنْهُ بَلَاءٌ حَسَنًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ﴾ (١٦) ذَلِكُمْ وَأَنَّ

اللَّهُ مُوهِنُ كَيْدِ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿١٨﴾ إِنْ تَسْتَفِيحُوا فَقَدْ جَاءَكُمْ الْفَتْحُ وَإِنْ تَنْهَوْا
فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ وَإِنْ تَعُودُوا نَعُدْ وَلَنْ تُغْنِيَ عَنْكُمْ فِئَتُكُمْ شَيْئًا وَلَوْ كَثُرَتْ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ
الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٩﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ١٧-١٩)

- 8:17. It was not you who killed them; rather Allah killed them. And when you threw [a handful of dust], it was not your act, but Allah's, so that He might test the believers with a great test. Verily Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.
- 8:18. That is what happened; and verily Allah will undermine the schemes of the disbelievers.
- 8:19. [O disbelievers,] if you were seeking a verdict, then the verdict has come to you. If you desist, it will be better for you, but if you resume, We will resume [Our support of the believers], and your forces will avail you nothing, no matter how great in number they are, for verily Allah is with the believers.

Here Allah tells us that when He defeated the polytheists on the day of Badr, and the Muslims killed them, ﴿It was not you who killed them﴾ by your strength and power ﴿rather Allah killed them﴾ when He helped you to do that by means of what is mentioned above.

﴿And when you threw [a handful of dust], it was not your act, but Allah's﴾. At the time of fighting, the Prophet (ﷺ) went into his hut and started calling upon Allah, beseeching Him for His help. Then he threw a handful of dust into the faces of the polytheists, and Allah caused it to hit their faces, and there was not one among them who was not hit in his face, mouth and eyes with it. When their resolve broke and they lost momentum, and there appeared among them failure and weakness, they were defeated. Here Allah says to His Prophet (ﷺ): it was not by your strength – when you threw the dust – that it reached their eyes; rather We caused it to reach them by Our strength and power.

﴿so that He might test the believers with a great test﴾ that is, Allah (ﷻ) is able to grant victory to the believers over the disbelievers without them actually fighting, but He wanted to test the believers and enable them to attain the highest degrees and most sublime status by means of jihad, and to give them an immense and goodly reward.

﴿Verily Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing﴾ – He hears what people conceal and disclose, and He knows what is in their hearts of good intentions or otherwise, so He decrees different things for people in accordance with His knowledge and wisdom, and the best interests of His slaves, and He requites each person in accordance with his intentions and deeds.

﴿That﴾ namely the victory that Allah granted you ﴿is what happened; and verily Allah will undermine the schemes of the disbelievers﴾ that is, He weakens all the plots and schemes that they hatch against Islam and its people, and He makes their plots backfire on them.

﴿[O disbelievers,] if you were seeking a verdict﴾ that is, if you want Allah to send His vengeance and punishment against the wrongdoers ﴿then the verdict has come to you﴾ when Allah sent His punishment upon you, which was vengeance against you and a lesson to the pious. ﴿If you desist﴾ that is, if you stop demanding a verdict ﴿it will be better for you﴾, because He may give you respite and not hasten the punishment for you.

﴿but if you resume﴾, demanding a verdict and fighting the believers ﴿We will resume [Our support of the believers]﴾ against you. ﴿and your forces﴾ that is, your helpers and supporters on whom you rely in your fight ﴿will avail you nothing﴾ ﴿for verily Allah is with the believers﴾.

Those with whom Allah is will be supported and will prevail even if they are weak and few in number. What is meant by Allah being with them is that He supports the believers to a degree commensurate with their level of faith and righteous deeds.

If the enemy is given the upper hand over the believers on some occasions, that is only because of shortcomings on the believers' part and their failure to do the duties required by faith. Otherwise, if they do what Allah has enjoined in every respect, no army of theirs would ever be defeated as a final outcome, and their enemy would never have the upper hand over them in such a way that they can never recover from it.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَلَا تَوَلَّوْا عَنْهُ وَأَنْتُمْ تَسْمَعُونَ
وَلَا تَكُونُوا كَالَّذِينَ قَالُوا سَمِعْنَا وَهُمْ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٢٠-٢١)

(٢١)

8:20. O you who believe, obey Allah and His Messenger, and do not turn away from him when you are constantly hearing [his message].

8:21. And do not be like those who say: We hear, but do not listen.

When Allah (ﷻ) stated that He is with the believers, He instructed them to do the duties required by faith, so that they might attain His help and support:

﴿O you who believe, obey Allah and His Messenger﴾ by doing what they enjoin and avoiding what they prohibit.

﴿and do not turn away from him﴾ that is, from this command to obey Allah and obey His Messenger (ﷺ)

﴿when you are constantly hearing [his message]﴾ that is, what is being recited to you of the Book of Allah and His commands, instructions and advice, for your turning away in this situation is utterly reprehensible.

﴿And do not be like those who say: We hear, but do not listen﴾ that is, do not be content with mere empty claims that are not real, for that is a state with which Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) are not pleased. Faith is not wishful thinking or pretence; rather it is what resides in the heart and is confirmed by actions.

﴿ إِنَّ شَرَّ الدَّوَابِّ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ الصَّمُّ الْبُكْمُ الَّذِينَ لَا يَعْقِلُونَ ﴾ وَلَوْ عَلِمَ اللَّهُ فِيهِمْ خَيْرًا لَأَسْمَعَهُمْ وَلَوْ أَسْمَعَهُمْ لَتَوَلَّوْا وَهُمْ مُعْرِضُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٢٢-٢٣)

(٢٣-٢٢)

8:22. Verily the worst of creatures before Allah are the [wilfully] deaf and dumb, who do not understand.

8:23. If Allah had seen any good in them He would have made them hear, but if He had made them hear, they would have turned away in aversion.

﴿Verily the worst of creatures before Allah﴾ on whom all signs and warnings have no impact

﴿are the [wilfully] deaf﴾ that is, deaf to the truth

﴿dumb﴾ that is, unable to speak truth

﴿who do not understand﴾ that which would benefit them and give it precedence over that which would harm them. These people are worse, before Allah, than any animal, for Allah has given them hearing, sight and hearts to use them in obedience to Him, but they use them in disobedience to Him. Thus they are deprived of much good, because they had the opportunity to be among the best of people, but they refused that and chose for themselves to be among the worst of people.

The hearing that Allah says they do not have is hearing in the sense of that which has a positive impact on the heart. As for hearing in the sense of that which establishes proof against them, Allah has established proof against them by means of what they heard of His revelations, but He did not cause them to hear in any beneficial way, because He does not see any good in them that would qualify them to listen and benefit from His revelations.

«If Allah had seen any good in them He would have made them hear, but if», hypothetically speaking, «He had made them hear, they would have turned away» from obedience «in aversion», not paying heed to the truth in any way. This indicates that Allah (ﷻ) does not withhold faith and goodness except in the case of one in whom there is nothing good, the one who is not going to benefit. To Him be all praise, for He is possessed of great wisdom.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اسْتَجِيبُوا لِلَّهِ وَلِلرَّسُولِ إِذَا دَعَاكُمْ لِمَا يُحْيِيكُمْ وَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّهُ اللَّهُ يَحُولُ بَيْنَ الْمَرْءِ وَقَلْبِهِ وَأَنَّهُ إِلَيْهِ تُحْشَرُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَاتَّقُوا فَتَنَةَ لَا تُصِيبَنَّ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مِنْكُمْ خَاصَّةً وَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿٢٥﴾﴾
(سورة الأنفال: ٢٤-٢٥)

8:24. O you who believe, respond to Allah and His Messenger when he calls you to that which will give you life. Know that Allah stands between a man and his heart, and that it is to Him that you will be gathered.

8:25. Beware of retribution that will not only befall the wrongdoers among you, and know that Allah is severe in punishment.

Allah enjoins His believing slaves to do what faith requires of them, which is to respond to Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) by complying with their commands and hastening to do so, calling people to Him, avoiding and refraining from that which they prohibit, and telling others not to do it.

«when he calls you to that which will give you life». This is a description of everything that Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) call people to, and it highlights its benefits and the wisdom behind it. For it is in being a true slave to Allah (ﷻ), constantly obeying Him and obeying His Messenger (ﷺ), that the heart is brought to life.

Then Allah (ﷻ) warns against not responding to Him and His Messenger (ﷺ):

«Know that Allah stands between a man and his heart» so beware of rejecting the command of Allah as soon as it comes to you, lest there be a barrier between you and Him when you need Him after that, and there will be dissent among you. For Allah stands between a man and his heart, and He controls the hearts and directs them as He will.

The individual should often repeat the supplication, “O Controller of the hearts, make my heart adhere firmly to Your religion; O Director of the hearts, direct my heart to obey You and Your Messenger (ﷺ).”

«and that it is to Him that you will be gathered» that is, you will be gathered on a day concerning which there is no doubt, and He will requite the doer of good for his good deeds and the doer of evil for his sins.

«Beware of retribution that will not only befall the wrongdoers among you» rather it will befall the wrongdoer and others, if wrongdoing prevails and no one tries to stop it. Then His punishment will include both the one who does wrong and others. Avoiding this retribution is done by forbidding the evil and suppressing those who do evil and spread mischief; to the extent that is possible, they should not be given the opportunity to commit sin and wrongdoing.

«and know that Allah is severe in punishment» to the one who exposes himself to His wrath and avoids attaining His pleasure.

﴿وَأَذْكُرُوا إِذْ أَنْتُمْ قَلِيلٌ مُسْتَضْعَفُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ تَخَافُونَ أَنْ يَخَطِفَكُمْ النَّاسُ فَتَأْوِنَكُمْ وَيَأْبِدَكُمْ بِبَصَرِهِ ۖ وَرَزَقَكُمْ مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٢٦)

(الأنفال: ٢٦)

- 8:26. And remember when you were few in number, and regarded as weak in the land, and you were afraid lest the people snatch you away. Then He gave you refuge, and strengthened you with His help, and provided you with good things so that you may give thanks.

Here Allah (ﷻ) reminds His slaves of how He helped them after they had been humiliated, increased their numbers after they had been few, and made them rich after they had been poor.

﴿And remember when you were few in number, and regarded as weak in the land﴾ that is, subjugated and subjected to the control of others

﴿and you were afraid lest the people snatch you away﴾ that is, seize you.

﴿Then He gave you refuge, and strengthened you with His help, and provided you with good things﴾. He gave you a place of refuge that you could take as your home, and He defeated your enemies at your hands, and you acquired booty from their wealth that made you well off.

﴿so that you may give thanks﴾ to Allah for His great blessings and kindness, by worshipping Him and not ascribing any partner to Him.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَخُونُوا اللَّهَ وَالرَّسُولَ وَتَخُونُوا أَمْنَكُمْ وَأَنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ
وَءَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ أَمْوَالَكُمْ وَأَوْلَادَكُمْ فَتْنَةٌ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ عِنْدَهُ أَجْرٌ عَظِيمٌ﴾

(سورة الأنفال: ٢٧-٢٨) ﴿٢٨﴾

- 8:27. O you who believe, do not knowingly betray Allah and His Messenger or betray your own trusts.

- 8:28. Know that your wealth and your children are but a trial and that with Allah there is an immense reward.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs His believing slaves to pay heed to that which He instructed them to do and to avoid. For Allah (ﷻ) offered the trust to the heavens and the earth and the mountains, but they refused to bear it and were fearful of it; but man undertook it – he was indeed unjust and foolish (cf. 33: 72). So whoever fulfils the trust deserves a great reward from Allah, but whoever does not fulfil it – rather he betrays it – deserves a severe punishment, for he has betrayed Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), as well as the trust, and he has let himself down by having the worst of characteristics and committing the worst of deeds, which is betrayal. This causes him to miss out on the most perfect of characteristics, which is fulfilling the trust.

Because man is tested with his wealth and children, love of these things may prompt him to give precedence to his own whims and desires over fulfilling his trust. Hence Allah (ﷻ) tells us that wealth and children are a trial by means of which Allah tests His slaves; they are something that is given temporarily and must be given back to the One Who gave it and entrusted him with it, ﴿and... with Allah there is an immense reward﴾.

If you have reason and sound thinking, then you should give precedence to His great reward over small, transient, diminishing pleasure. The wise person weighs things up and gives precedence to that which is more deserving of being given precedence.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِن تَتَّقُوا اللَّهَ يَجْعَلْ لَكُمْ فُرْقَانًا وَيُكَفِّرْ عَنْكُمْ سَيِّئَاتِكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيمِ﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٢٩)

8:29. O you who believe. If you fear Allah, He will give you the insight to distinguish between right and wrong, expiate your sins and forgive you, for Allah is Possessor of abundant grace.

Complying and fearing Allah is the way to, and the sign of, blessings and success. Allah has made a connection between fear of Him and a great deal of good in this world and the hereafter. Here He says that the one who fears Allah will attain four things, each one of which is better than this world and all that is in it:

The first is insight (furqān), which is knowledge and guidance, by means of which one may differentiate between true guidance and misguidance, truth and falsehood, lawful and prohibited, those who are blessed and those who are doomed.

The second and third are expiation of bad deeds and forgiveness of sins. Each of these is included with the other when either of them is mentioned on its own. When they are mentioned together, expiation of bad deeds has to do with minor sins and forgiveness of sins has to do with expiation of major sins.

The fourth is the great reward for the one who fears Him and gives precedence to pleasing Him over his own whims and desires.

﴿for Allah is Possessor of abundant grace﴾.

﴿وَإِذْ يَمْكُرُ بِكَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِيُثْبِتُوكَ أَوْ يَقْتُلُوكَ أَوْ يُخْرِجُوكَ وَيَمْكُرُونَ وَيَمْكُرُ اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ خَيْرُ الْمَكْرِينَ﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٣٠)

8:30. And [remember] when the disbelievers plotted against you, to take you captive, kill you or expel you. They plot and plan, and Allah also plans; but Allah is the best of planners.

﴿And [remember]﴾, O Messenger (ﷺ), the blessing that Allah bestowed upon you

﴿when the disbelievers plotted against you﴾ that is, when the polytheists discussed in Dār an-Nadwah what to do with the Prophet (ﷺ): either to keep him in detention with them, in chains; or to rid themselves of his evil – or so they said; or to expel him and banish him from their land. The proponents of each of these options presented his case, then they agreed upon the view of the worst of them, namely Abu Jahl (may Allah curse him), which was to take a young man from each clan of Quraysh and give him a sharp sword, then let all of them kill him as one, thus spreading the blame among all the clans, so that Banu Hâshim would have no choice but to accept the blood money (diyyah), because they would not be able to fight all of Quraysh. The plan was that they would lie in wait for the Prophet (ﷺ) at night and pounce upon him when he got up from his bed.

But the revelation came to him from heaven; he came out to them, threw dust on their heads and left. Allah blinded them so that they could not see him, then when they were wondering why it was taking so long for him to come out, someone came to them and said: May Allah cause your doom! Muhammad (ﷺ) came out and threw dust on your heads. And each of them brushed the dust from his head.

Allah protected His Messenger (ﷺ) from them and gave him permission to migrate to Madinah. So he migrated there, and Allah supported him with his Companions, the Muhājireen and Anṣār. He began to prevail until he entered Makkah by force and subdued its people, then they submitted to him and came under his rule, after he had departed from them secretly, fearing for his life. Glory be to the One Who is most kind to His slave, Whom no one can defeat.

وَإِذَا تُنْتَلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُنَا قَالُوا قَدْ سَمِعْنَا لَوْ نَشَاءُ لَقُلْنَا مِثْلَ هَذَا إِن هَذَا إِلَّا أَسْطِيرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَإِذْ قَالُوا اللَّهُمَّ إِن كَانَتْ هَذِهِ حَقًّا مِّنْ عِنْدِكَ فَامْطُرْ عَلَيْنَا جِجَارَةً مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ أَوْ آتِنَا بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴿٣١﴾ وَمَا كَانَتْ لِلَّهِ لِيُعَذِّبَهُمْ وَأَنْتَ فِيهِمْ ۚ وَمَا كَانَتْ لِلَّهِ مُعَذِّبُهُمْ وَهُمْ يَسْتَغْفِرُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَمَا لَهُمْ

أَلَا يَعْلَمُ اللَّهُ وَهُمْ يَصُدُّونَ عَنِ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ وَمَا كَانُوا أَوْلِيَاءَهُ ۚ إِنَّ
أَوْلِيَاءَهُ إِلَّا الْمُتَّقُونَ وَلَٰكِنَّا أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٣٤-٣١)

- 8:31. When Our revelations are recited to them, they say: We have heard. If we wished, we could say something like this. It is nothing but tales of the ancients.
- 8:32. And [remember] when they said: O Allah, if this is indeed the truth from You, then rain down upon us stones from the sky or send us a painful punishment.
- 8:33. But Allah would not punish them whilst you were among them, nor would He punish them as long as they seek forgiveness.
- 8:34. And why should Allah not punish them when they prevent people from reaching the Sacred Mosque, although they are not its rightful guardians. Its rightful guardians can be none but those who fear Allah, but most of them do not understand.

Here Allah (ﷻ) speaks of the stubbornness of those who rejected the Messenger (ﷺ).

﴿When Our revelations are recited to them﴾ that highlight the truth of that which the Messenger (ﷺ) brought ﴿they say: We have heard. If we wished, we could say something like this. It is nothing but tales of the ancients﴾. This stemmed from their stubbornness and wrongdoing. Allah challenged them to produce a soorah like it, and to call upon whomever they could besides Allah, but they were not able to do that, so it became clear that they were quite incapable of doing that.

These words were a mere claim on the part of the one who uttered them, and reality showed it to be false. It was well known that the Prophet (ﷺ) was unlettered; he could neither read nor write, and he did not travel to study any of the stories of the ancients. He brought this great Book, which falsehood cannot reach from before it or behind it — it is a revelation from One Who is All-Wise, Praiseworthy (cf. 41: 42).

﴿And [remember] when they said: O Allah, if this﴾ that is, what Muhammad (ﷺ) is claiming ﴿is indeed the truth from You, then rain down upon us stones from the sky or send us a painful punishment﴾. They said this to show that they were certain of their falsehood and ignorant of how they should react. If they had some specious argument in support of their falsehood that led them to be certain on the basis of deep knowledge, they should have said to the one who debated with them and claimed that truth was on his side: If this is the truth from You, then guide us to it. That would have been better and more appropriate for them.

But as they said ﴿O Allah, if this is indeed the truth from You...﴾ It is known by the mere fact of their saying it that they were foolish and ignorant wrongdoers, for if Allah hastened the punishment for them, no trace would be left of them. But Allah (ﷻ) warded off the punishment from them because of the presence of the Messenger (ﷺ) among them. Hence He said:

﴿But Allah would not punish them whilst you were among them﴾. The presence of the Prophet (ﷺ) offered them protection against the punishment.

Even though they said this openly, in front of everyone, they understood how bad it was. They were afraid of the punishment befalling them, so they asked Allah (ﷻ) for forgiveness. Hence Allah says:

﴿nor would He punish them as long as they seek forgiveness﴾.

This protection prevented the punishment befalling them even after all its prerequisites were met.

Then Allah says: ﴿And why should Allah not punish them﴾ that is, what would protect them from the punishment of Allah, when they have done that which incurs it, namely barring people from the Sacred Mosque, especially the Prophet (ﷺ) and his Companions, who are more deserving of it than them.

﴿although they﴾ that is, the polytheists

﴿are not its rightful guardians [awliyā'ahu]﴾. It may be that the pronoun hu (in the word awliyā'ahu, translated here as ﴿its rightful guardians﴾) refers to the Sacred Mosque; that is, they have no more right to it than anyone else. Or it may be that the pronoun refers to Allah (ﷻ), in which case the phrase would mean “they are not His allies (awliyā')”.

﴿Its rightful guardians can be none but those who fear Allah﴾, for they are the ones who believe in Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), affirm the oneness of Allah, worship Him alone and are sincerely devoted to Him alone.

﴿but most of them do not understand﴾. Hence they claimed for themselves something to which others had a greater right.

﴿وَمَا كَانَ صَلَاتُهُمْ عِنْدَ الْبَيْتِ إِلَّا مُكَاءٌ وَتَصْدِيدَةٌ فَذُوقُوا الْعَذَابَ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْفُرُونَ﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٣٥)

8:35. Their prayer at the House [of Allah] is nothing but whistling and clapping of hands. So taste the punishment for your disbelief.

Allah (ﷻ) only established His Sacred House for the rituals of His religion to be practised therein and for worship to be devoted to Him alone therein. As for these polytheists who barred people from it, their prayer therein, although prayer is the greatest kind of worship, was ﴿nothing but whistling and clapping of hands﴾. These were the acts of ignorant and foolish people in whose hearts there was no veneration for their Lord or knowledge of His rights, and no respect for the best and noblest of places. If this is how their prayer was in that place, then what about the rest of their acts of worship?

By what criteria were they more entitled to this House than the believers:

﴿Those who humble themselves in their prayers, who turn away from all that is vain [of words and deeds].﴾ (al-Mu'minoon 23: 2-3)

– and have all the other praiseworthy qualities that Allah has described?

No wonder Allah caused them to inherit His Sacred House and gave them guardianship of it, and said to them, after giving them guardianship of it:

﴿O you who believe, truly the polytheists are impure, so do not let them come near the Sacred Mosque after this [final] year of theirs...﴾

(at-Tawbah 9: 28)

And here He says: ﴿So taste the punishment for your disbelief﴾.

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يَنْفِقُونَ أَنْوَالَهُمْ لِيَصُدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَسَيَفْشِقُونَهَا ثُمَّ تَكُونُ عَلَيْهِمْ حَسْرَةً ثُمَّ يُغْلَبُونَ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِلَىٰ جَهَنَّمَ يُخْشَرُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ لِيَمِيزَ اللَّهُ الْخَبِيثَ مِنَ الطَّيِّبِ وَيَجْعَلَ الْخَبِيثَ بَعْضُهُ عَلَىٰ بَعْضٍ فَيَرْكُمُهُ جَمِيعًا فَيَجْعَلُهُ فِي جَهَنَّمَ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٣٦-٣٧)

(٣٧)

- 8:36. The disbelievers spend their wealth to bar [people] from the path of Allah, and they will continue to spend it, then it will become a source of regret for them, then they will be defeated, and as for those who disbelieve, into hell they will be gathered,
- 8:37. So that Allah may separate the wicked from the good, placing the wicked one on top of another, heap them all up and throw them into hell. It is they who will be the losers.

Here Allah (ﷻ) highlights the enmity of the polytheists and their schemes, plots, opposition to Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) and their efforts to extinguish His light and silence His word, and He tells us that their plots will backfire on them, for the plotting of evil affects none but its authors (35: 43).

«The disbelievers spend their wealth to bar [people] from the path of Allah» that is, to suppress the truth and support falsehood, and to resist affirmation of the oneness of the Most Merciful and establish the religion of the idol worshippers

«and they will continue to spend it» that is, they will pay all these expenses, and they would not mind, because they adhere firmly to falsehood and they strongly resent the truth. But that will be «a source of regret for them» that is, a cause of sorrow, disgrace and humiliation «then they will be defeated» and will lose their wealth and all that they hoped for, and they will be punished most severely in the hereafter. Hence Allah says:

«and as for those who disbelieve, into hell they will be gathered» that is, they will be gathered there so that they might taste its punishment, because it is the realm of evil and evildoers.

Allah (ﷻ) wants to differentiate evil from good, and make each distinct from the other, putting each in a place where it belongs. So He will put evil deeds, wealth and people with one another «heap them all up and throw them into hell. It is they who will be the losers» who will lose themselves and their families on the Day of Resurrection, and that is true loss.

﴿قُلْ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِنْ يَنْتَهُوا يُغْفَرْ لَهُمْ مَا قَدْ سَلَفَ وَإِنْ يُودُوا فَقَدْ مَضَتْ سُنَّتُ الْأَوَّلِينَ﴾ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَقَالُوا هُمْ حَتَّى لَا تُكُونَ فَتْنَةً وَيَكُونَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّهِ فَإِنْ آتَتْهُمُ آيَاتُ اللَّهِ بِمَا يَكْمُلُونَ بُصِيرٌ ﴿٣٩﴾ وَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَأَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ مُوَلِّكُمْ نِعَمَ الْمَوْلَى وَنِعَمَ النَّصِيرِ ﴿٤٠﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٣٨-٤٠)

- 8:38. Say to those who disbelieve that if they desist, what is past will be forgiven; but if they persist, then the precedent of the earlier peoples is already established.
- 8:39. Fight them until there is no more persecution and all worship is devoted to Allah alone; but if they desist, then Allah sees well all that they do.
- 8:40. If they pay no heed, then know that Allah is your Protector, an excellent Protector and an excellent Helper!

By His kindness towards His slaves, people's disbelief and their persisting in stubbornness does not prevent Him from calling them to the path of true guidance and forbidding them to do that which leads to misguidance and doom.

﴿Say to those who disbelieve that if they desist﴾ from their disbelief, by submitting to Allah alone, with no partner or associate ﴿what is past﴾ of their sins ﴿will be forgiven; but if they persist﴾ and go back to their disbelief and stubbornness ﴿then the precedent of the earlier peoples is already established﴾. This refers to the destruction of the disbelieving nations. So let them see what befell the stubborn, for soon they will learn the consequences of their ridicule (6: 5).

This is addressed to the disbelievers. To the believers, when He instructed them on how to deal with the disbelievers, Allah says: ﴿Fight them until there is no more persecution﴾ or ascription of partners to Allah, or barring people from the path of Allah, and they submit to the rulings of Islam ﴿and all worship is devoted to Allah alone﴾. This is the goal of fighting and jihad against the enemies of the faith; it is to ward off their evil from the faith and to defend the religion of Allah, Who created people to follow this path, so that it will be supreme over all other religions. ﴿but if they desist﴾ from what they are doing of evil

﴿then Allah sees well all that they do﴾ and nothing is hidden from Him of their affairs.

﴿If they pay no heed﴾ and persist in disobedience and negligence
﴿then know that Allah is your Protector, an excellent Protector﴾ Who takes care of His believing slaves, helps them to attain that which is in their best interests and makes easy for them that which benefits them in spiritual and worldly terms
﴿and an excellent Helper﴾ Who helps and supports them, and wards off from them the plots and schemes of the wicked.

The one whose protector and helper is Allah will have no fear, but the one whom Allah opposes will have no honour and will not be able to achieve anything.

﴿وَأَعْلَمُوا أَنَّمَا غَنِمْتُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَإِنَّ لِلَّهِ خُمُسَهُ وَلِلرَّسُولِ وَلِذِي الْقُرْبَىٰ وَالْيَتَامَىٰ
وَالْمَسْكِينِ وَآبِنِ السَّبِيلِ إِن كُنتُمْ ءَامَنْتُمْ بِاللَّهِ وَمَا أُنزَلْنَا عَلَىٰ عَبْدِنَا يَوْمَ
الْفُرْقَانِ يَوْمَ النُّقَىٰ الْجَمْعَانِ وَاللَّهُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَفِيرٌ ﴿٤١﴾ إِذْ أَنْتُمْ بِالْعُدْوَةِ
الدُّنْيَا وَهُمْ بِالْعُدْوَةِ الْقُصْوَىٰ وَالرَّكْبُ أَسْفَلَ مِنْكُمْ وَلَوْ تَوَاعَدْتُمْ
لَاخْتَلَفْتُمْ فِي الْمِيعَادِ وَلَكِن لِّيَقْضِيَ اللَّهُ أَمْرًا كَانَ مَفْعُولًا لِيَهْلِكَ مَنْ
هَلَكَ عَنْ بَيِّنَةٍ وَيَحْيَىٰ مَنْ حَيَّ عَنْ بَيِّنَةٍ وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَسَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٤٢﴾﴾

(سورة الأنفال: ٤١-٤٢)

8:41. Know that whatever spoils of war you acquire, one-fifth belongs to Allah and His Messenger, and to his close relatives, orphans, those in need and wayfarers, if you truly believe in Allah and in what We sent down to Our slave on the day when the true was distinguished from the false, the day on which the two armies met in battle. And Allah has power over all things.<sup>1</sup>

8:42. Remember when you were on the nearer side of the valley, and they were on the farther side, and the caravan was on lower ground than you. If you had made prior arrangements to meet there [and fight], you would have failed to keep that appointment. But [Allah caused you to meet] so that He might bring about what was already decreed, and so that those who chose to perish [by choosing disbelief] might do so after seeing clear evidence, and those who chose to live [by choosing faith] might do so after seeing clear evidence. Verily Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.

<sup>1</sup> The meanings of the verses of the Qur'an in this book (with some minor changes to the punctuation) have been translated by the translator. (Editor)

﴿Know that whatever spoils of war you acquire﴾ that is, whatever you take of the wealth of the disbelievers by force and rightfully, whether it is a little or a great deal

﴿one-fifth belongs to Allah and His Messenger﴾ and the rest is for you who captured it, because Allah (Subhânahu wa Ta'âlâ – Glorified and Exalted is He) attributes capture of the spoils of war to them, but He excluded one-fifth from it. This indicates that the remainder is theirs and is to be divided as the Messenger of Allah (salla Allâhu 'alayhi wa sallam – blessings and peace be upon him) divided it: one share for the foot soldier, and the horseman receives two shares for his horse and one share for himself.

As for this one-fifth (khums),<sup>2</sup> it is to be divided among five categories: the first category is for Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), to be spent in the public interests of the Muslims, without specifying any particular interest, because Allah has ordained that it be for Him and for His Messenger (ﷺ), but Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) have no need of it. Thus it is known that it is for the slaves of Allah. Because Allah has not specified on whom it is to be spent, this indicates that it is to be spent in the public interest.

<sup>2</sup> Wherever possible, Arabic terms have been translated into English. In cases where we have chosen to retain the Arabic, the transliterated word or phrase is shown in italics the first time it appears in the text. The term is also defined in the glossary found at the end of this book. (Editor)

The second of these five categories is «his close relatives», which refers to the relatives of the Prophet (ﷺ), namely Banu Hâshim and Banu al-Muttalib. Allah mentioned the relatives here so as to indicate that the reason for this share being allocated to them is the mere fact that they are his relatives, among whom, both rich and poor, male and female, are to be treated equally in this regard.

The third category is orphans, who are those who lost their fathers when they were still small. Allah allocated one-fifth of the khums to them out of compassion towards them, as they are unable to look after their own interests and they have lost the one who would take care of their interests.

The fourth category is those in need, namely the poor, both minors and adults, males and females.

The fifth category is wayfarers. The wayfarer is the stranger who is cut off in a foreign land.

Some of the commentators said that the fifth of the war booty is not to be spent on any categories other than these, but it does not have to be spent on them equally; rather that is subject to what serves a greater interest, and this is more appropriate.

Allah has ordained that giving the khums in the proper manner is one of the conditions of faith, as He says: «if you truly believe in Allah and in what We sent down to Our slave on the day when the true was distinguished from the false». This refers to the day of Badr on which Allah distinguished between truth and falsehood, and He caused truth to prevail and showed falsehood to be false.

«the day on which the two armies met in battle», the Muslim group and the disbelieving group. In other words, if you believe in Allah and in the truth which Allah sent down to His Messenger (ﷺ) on the day when the true was distinguished from the false, the day on which so many signs and proofs were made manifest, which proved that what the Messenger (ﷺ) brought is true.

﴿And Allah has power over all things﴾ – no one opposes Him but he will be defeated.

﴿Remember when you were on the nearer side of the valley﴾ that is, on the side of the valley that was nearer to Madinah, whilst they were on the farther side, that is, the side that was further away from Madinah; you were all in the same valley.

﴿and the caravan﴾ which you had gone out to seek, but Allah willed something else

﴿was on lower ground than you﴾, nearer to the coast.

﴿If you had made prior arrangements to meet there [and fight]﴾ that is, if you and they had made arrangements to meet in this manner ﴿you would have failed to keep that appointment﴾ that is, either you or they would have arrived too early or too late, or chosen different places in which to camp, and the like, which would have prevented you from keeping the appointment.

﴿But [Allah caused you to meet]﴾ that is, He brought you together in this way

﴿so that He might bring about what was already decreed﴾ that is, that which was decreed from eternity that it should inevitably come to pass.

﴿and so that those who chose to perish [by choosing disbelief] might do so after seeing clear evidence﴾ that is, so that proof and evidence might be established against the one who was stubborn, so that if he wanted to choose disbelief after things had become clear and he became certain that what he chose was false, he would be left with no excuse before Allah.

﴿and those who chose to live [by choosing faith] might do so after seeing clear evidence﴾ that is, so that the believer might increase in understanding and certainty, by means of what Allah had shown to both parties of proof and evidence for the truth, that would serve as a reminder for those who had insight.

﴿Verily Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing﴾. He hears all voices in all different languages, expressing all kinds of needs, and He knows what is apparent and what is hidden, what is in people's hearts, what is unseen and what is seen.

﴿إِذْ يُرِيكُمُ اللَّهُ فِي مَنَامِكَ قَلِيلًا وَلَوْ أَرَأَيْتَهُمْ كَثِيرًا لَفَاشَتُمْ وَلَتَنزَعْتُمْ فِي الْأَمْرِ وَلَئِنَّ اللَّهَ سَلَّمَ إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ ﴿٤٣﴾ وَإِذْ يُرِيكُمُوهُمْ إِذِ التَّفَقُّتُمْ فِي أَعْيُنِكُمْ قَلِيلًا وَيُقَالُ لَكُمْ فِي أَعْيُنِهِمْ لِيَقْضِيَ اللَّهُ أَمْرًا كَانَ مَفْعُولًا وَإِلَى اللَّهِ تُرْجَعُ الْأُمُورُ ﴿٤٤﴾﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٤٣-٤٤)

8:43. Remember [O Muhammad] when Allah showed them to you in your dream as few in number; if He had shown them to you as many, you [Muslims] would surely have lost heart and would have disputed about the matter. But Allah saved you, for He knows well what is in [your] hearts.

8:44. And [remember] when you met, He showed them to you as few in your eyes, and He made you appear as few in their eyes too, so that Allah might bring about what was already decreed. It is to Allah that all things will return.

Allah had shown the polytheists to His Messenger (ﷺ) in a dream as few in number, and he had told his Companions (raḍiya Allāhu 'anhum – may Allah be pleased with all of them) of these glad tidings, which reassured them and put them at ease.

«if He had shown them to you as many» and you had told your Companions about that

«you [Muslims] would surely have lost heart and would have disputed about the matter». Some of you would have thought that you should go ahead and fight them, and others would have thought otherwise, so there would have been a dispute which would have led to your losing heart.

«But Allah saved you» and was kind to you «for He knows well what is in [your] hearts» of steadfastness and panic, sincerity and insincerity. Allah knew what was in your hearts, which was a reason for His kindness and care towards you. Allah confirmed the dream of His Messenger (ﷺ) and showed the believers their enemy as few in their eyes. He also made you – O believers – appear as few in their eyes. Thus each group saw the other as few, so that each would go ahead and fight the other «so that Allah might bring about what was already decreed» namely granting victory for the believers, humiliating the disbelievers, and killing their leaders and the leaders of misguidance among them, so that not one of them was left alive. Thus it was made easier for the others to submit when they were called to Islam, and it also became a sign of Allah's care for the rest, whom He blessed with Islam.

«It is to Allah that all things will return» that is, the affairs of all creatures will return to Allah, then He will separate the evil from the good and will judge between all people on the basis of His justice in which there is no unfairness or wrongdoing.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا لَقِيتُمْ فِئَةً فَاثْبُتُوا وَاذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا لَّعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ وَأَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَلَا تَسْرِعُوا بِالنَّفْسِ أَنْ تَنْهَبَ رِيحَكُمْ وَأَصْبِرُوا إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الصَّابِرِينَ ﴿١٦﴾ وَلَا تَكُونُوا كَالَّذِينَ خَرَجُوا مِنْ دِيَارِهِمْ بَطَرًا وَرِيشَةً النَّاسُ وَيَصُدُّونَ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا يَعْمَلُونَ مُحِيطٌ ﴿١٧﴾ وَإِذْ زَيْنَ لَهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ أَعْمَلَهُمْ وَقَالَ لَا غَالِبَ لَكُمْ الْيَوْمَ مِنَ النَّاسِ وَإِنِّي جَارٌ لَكُمْ فَلَمَّا تَرَأَتِ الْفِئَتَانِ نَكَصَ عَلَى عَقْبَيْهِ وَقَالَ إِنِّي بَرِيءٌ مِنْكُمْ إِنِّي أَرَى مَا لَا تَرَوْنَ إِنِّي أَخَافُ اللَّهَ وَاللَّهُ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿١٨﴾ إِذْ يَقُولُ الْمُنْفِقُونَ

وَالَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَّرَضٌ غَرَّ هَوَاهُمْ دِيَاهُهُمْ وَمَنْ يَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ

عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٤٩﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٤٥-٤٩)

- 8:45. O you who believe, when you meet an [enemy] troop, stand firm and remember Allah much, so that you may triumph.
- 8:46. And obey Allah and His Messenger, and do not dispute, lest you lose heart and your strength desert you. And be steadfast, for Allah is with those who are steadfast.
- 8:47. Do not be like those who set out from their homes insolently, to be seen by people, and to bar others from the path of Allah, for Allah has full knowledge of all that they do.
- 8:48. And [remember] when Shayṭān made their deeds appear fair-seeming to them and said: No one among men can overcome you this day, for I will be your protector. But when the two troops came in sight of one another, he turned on his heels and said: I am done with you, for verily I see what you do not. Indeed I fear Allah, for Allah is severe in punishment.
- 8:49. And [remember] when the hypocrites and those in whose hearts is a disease said: Their religion has deluded these people. But whoever puts his trust in Allah, verily Allah is Almighty, Most Wise.

﴿O you who believe, when you meet an [enemy] troop﴾ that is, a group of the disbelievers who are fighting you ﴿stand firm﴾ to fight them; be patient and adhere to this great act of obedience, the consequences of which are honour and victory, and seek help in doing that by remembering Allah a great deal,
 ﴿so that you may triumph﴾ that is, so that you may achieve what you are seeking of victory over your enemies. Patience, steadfastness and remembering Allah much are among the greatest means of attaining victory.

﴿And obey Allah and His Messenger﴾ by doing what they have instructed you to do, and following that in all situations ﴿and do not dispute﴾ in such a manner that leads to dissent in the heart and division ﴿lest you lose heart﴾ that is, become cowardly ﴿and your strength desert you﴾ that is, you lose resolve and strength, for then you will no longer be deserving of that which you were promised of victory for obeying Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ).

﴿And be steadfast﴾ in obeying Allah ﴿for Allah is with those who are steadfast﴾, with His aid, help and support. So fear your Lord and submit to Him.

﴿Do not be like those who set out from their homes insolently, to be seen by people, and to bar others from the path of Allah﴾ and that is all they try to achieve by going out. This is what brought them forth from their homes, for the purpose of insolence and showing off, so that people would see them and they could boast to them. But their main aim was to bar people from the path of Allah and prevent those who wanted to follow it ﴿for Allah has full knowledge of all that they do﴾. Hence He has told you of their aims and warned you against behaving like them, for He will punish them severely for that.

In contrast, your aim should be to seek the Countenance of Allah (ﷻ) and to make the religion of Allah supreme, to bar people from following the paths that lead to incurring the wrath and punishment of Allah, and to attract people to the straight path of Allah that leads to paradise.

﴿And [remember] when Shayṭān made their deeds appear fair-seeming to them﴾ that is, he made them appear attractive in their minds and deceived them ﴿and said: No one among men can overcome you this day﴾, for you have men and weapons and are in such a position that Muhammad (ﷺ) and those who are with him cannot stand up to you.

﴿for I will be your protector﴾ lest anyone come near you at whose hand you fear harm. That is because Iblees had appeared to Quraysh in the form of Surâqah ibn Mâlik ibn Ju'sham al-Madliji, and they were afraid of Banu Madlij because of the enmity that existed between them.

The Shayṭân said to them: ﴿I will be your protector﴾. Thus he reassured them and they went ahead with confidence.

﴿But when the two troops﴾, the Muslims and the disbelievers, ﴿came in sight of one another﴾ and the Shayṭân saw Jibreel (‘alayhi as-salâm – peace be upon him) leading the angels in battle array, he became very scared and ﴿turned on his heels﴾ that is, fled.

﴿and said﴾ to those whom he had deceived and tricked

﴿I am done with you, for verily I see what you do not﴾ that is, I see the angels whom no one can withstand or fight.

﴿Indeed I fear Allah﴾ that is, I am afraid that He may hasten the punishment for me in this world

﴿for Allah is severe in punishment﴾.

It is possible that the Shayṭân had enticed them and insinuated into their minds the idea that no one could overcome them on this day, and that he would protect them. Then when he had made sure that they had reached their inevitable doom, he turned and fled, and disavowed them, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿...like the Shayṭân when he says to a man: Disbelieve; then when he disbelieves, he says to him: I have nothing to do with you, for verily I fear Allah, the Lord of the worlds. So the outcome for both of them is that they will be in the fire, to abide therein forever; such is the recompense of the wrongdoers.﴾ (al-Hashr 59: 16-17)

﴿And [remember] when the hypocrites and those in whose hearts is a disease﴾ namely doubt and confusion, those who were weak in faith, said to the believers – when they went ahead, despite their small numbers, to fight the polytheists despite their large numbers:

«Their religion has deluded these people» that is, the religion that they follow has caused them this trouble that they cannot handle, and they have put themselves in this difficult situation which is beyond their means to cope with. They said this by way of belittling them, thinking that they were foolish, but they – by Allah – were the foolish ones who were lacking in reason.

For faith makes a person go ahead and confront serious challenges that huge armies would not dare to face. The believer who puts his trust in Allah, who knows that no one has any power or strength or ability except by the help of Allah (ﷻ), and that even if all people were to come together to do an atom's weight of benefit to someone, they would not benefit him, and if they were to come together to do him harm, they would not harm him, except as much as Allah has decreed of harm or benefit for him. He knows that he is following the truth and that Allah (ﷻ) is Most Wise and Most Merciful in everything He wills and decrees, so he does not worry about the strength or numbers of the enemy he is opposing, for he is certain of his Lord and is reassured; he does not panic and he is not cowardly. Hence Allah says:

«But whoever puts his trust in Allah, verily Allah is Almighty» and no power could withstand His power
«Most Wise» in all that He decrees.

﴿وَلَوْ تَرَىٰ إِذِ يَتَوَقَّى الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا الْمَلَائِكَةَ يَصْرِيحُونَ وَجُوهَهُمْ وَأَدْبَارَهُمْ
وَذُوقُوا عَذَابَ الْحَرِيقِ ﴿٥٠﴾ ذَٰلِكَ بِمَا قَدَّمْت أَيْدِيكُمْ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ لَيْسَ بِظَلَمٍ
لِّلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٥١﴾ كَذَٰبٌ مِّنْ آلِ فِرْعَوْنَ ۖ وَالَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ فَأَخَذَهُمُ اللَّهُ
بِذُنُوبِهِمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ قَوِيٌّ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿٥٢﴾﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٥٠-٥٢)

- 8:50. If only you could see when the angels take the souls of the disbelievers [at death], striking their faces and backs, [saying]: Taste the punishment of the scorching fire!
- 8:51. This is because of what your hands sent on ahead. For Allah is never unjust to [His] slaves.
- 8:52. That was the case with the people of Pharaoh and those who came before them. They rejected the signs of Allah, so Allah seized them because of their sins. Verily Allah is mighty, severe in punishment.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿If only you could see﴾ those who disbelieved in the signs of Allah, when ﴿the angels﴾ whose task it is take their souls and they become very distressed ﴿striking their faces and backs﴾ that is, the angels strike their faces and backs, saying to them: Give up your souls, but their souls refuse and are reluctant to come out, because they know what lies ahead of painful punishment.

Hence Allah says: ﴿Taste the punishment of the scorching fire!﴾ that is, the severe burning punishment. That punishment will befall you, not wrongfully or unfairly on the part of your Lord, but because of what your hands have sent on ahead of sins that have left their impact on you. This is the way of Allah with both the earlier and later generations; this is the case with these disbelievers and the way in which Allah deals with them, destroying them for their sins ﴿That was the case with the people of Pharaoh and those who came before them﴾ of the disbelieving nations ﴿They rejected the signs of Allah, so Allah seized them﴾ with the punishment ﴿because of their sins. Verily Allah is mighty, severe in punishment﴾ and no one whom He wants to seize can escape Him. ﴿...There is no living creature but He holds it [in His control] by its forelock...﴾ (Hood 11: 56)

﴿ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ لَمْ يَكْ مُغَيِّرًا نِّعَمَهُ أَنْعَمَهَا عَلَىٰ قَوْمٍ حَتَّىٰ يُغَيِّرُوا مَا بِأَنْفُسِهِمْ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٥٣﴾ كَذَابٌ ءَالِ فِرْعَوْنَ ۖ وَالَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ فَأَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ بِذُنُوبِهِمْ وَأَغْرَقْنَا ءَالَ فِرْعَوْنَ ۖ وَكُلُّ كَانُوا ظَالِمِينَ ﴿٥٤﴾﴾ (سورة الأنفال:

(٥٤-٥٣)

- 8:53. That is because Allah would never change the blessings He has bestowed upon a people unless they themselves changed their own attitude and conduct. Verily Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.
- 8:54. That was the case with the people of Pharaoh and those who came before them. They rejected the signs of their Lord, so We destroyed them for their sins and We drowned the people of Pharaoh, for they were all transgressors.

«That» namely the punishment that Allah sent upon the disbelieving nations, and took away from them what they were enjoying of blessings and a life of ease, was because of their sins and their changing their own attitude and conduct. For verily «Allah would never change the blessings He has bestowed upon a people», whether those blessings are spiritual or worldly; rather He preserves them and increases those blessings for them, if they increase in gratitude towards Him «unless they themselves changed their own attitude and conduct», turning from obedience to disobedience, thus showing ingratitude for the blessings of Allah and using them for sinful purposes. In that case He takes the blessings away from them and changes them into something else, as they changed their attitude and conduct.

Allah is wise and just in so doing, and He is kind to His slaves, as He does not punish them except for their wrongdoing.

«Verily Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing» – He hears all that people say, whether it is whispered or spoken out loud, and He knows what is in their hearts and in their minds, so He decrees for His slaves on the basis of His knowledge and will.

﴿That was the case with the people of Pharaoh and those who came before them. They rejected the signs of their Lord﴾ when they came to them

﴿so We destroyed them for their sins﴾ each according to his sins

﴿and We drowned the people of Pharaoh, for they﴾ those who were destroyed and punished

﴿were all transgressors﴾ who wronged themselves, and strove for their doom. Allah did not wrong them, nor did He take them to task for some offence that they did not commit. So those who are addressed here should beware of resembling them in wrongdoing, lest Allah send upon them His punishment as He sent it upon those evildoers.

﴿إِنَّ شَرَّ الدَّوَابِّ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ٥٥﴾ الَّذِينَ عَاهَدَتْ مِنْهُمْ
ثُمَّ يَنْقُضُونَ عَهْدَهُمْ فِي كُلِّ مَرَّةٍ وَهُمْ لَا يَتَّقُونَ ٥٦﴾ فَإِنَّمَا يَتَّقَنِ الَّذِينَ فِي الْحَرْبِ
فَشَرِدَ بِهِمْ مَنِ خَلَفَهُمْ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَذْكُرُونَ ٥٧﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٥٥-٥٧)

- 8:55. Verily the worst of creatures before Allah are those who disbelieve and will not believe.
- 8:56. They are the ones with whom you made a treaty, but they break their treaty every time, and they do not fear Allah.
- 8:57. If you defeat them in battle, then make a fearsome example of them for others, so that they may pay heed.

Those who combine these three characteristics – disbelief, lack of faith and treachery, in the sense that they do not adhere to their treaty or keep their word – are the worst of creatures before Allah. They are worse than donkeys, dogs or other animals, because goodness is lacking in them and evil is expected of them. Therefore getting rid of them and destroying them is essential, lest their disease spread to others. Hence Allah says:

«If you defeat them in battle» that is, if you come across them in a war situation, where they have no covenant or treaty with you «then make a fearsome example of them for others» that is, punish them so as to deter others, and inflict a penalty on them that will make an example of them for those who come after them «so that they» namely those who come after them «may pay heed» to the consequences of their actions, lest the same fate befall them. These are the benefits that are connected to the punishments and prescribed penalties that are connected to sins; they are a means of deterring those who have not committed sins, and they also deter those who did commit them from repeating them.

The restriction of this punishment to war situations indicates that it is not permissible to betray and punish the disbeliever if he is given a covenant, even if it is known that he is treacherous and that he would not hesitate to betray.

﴿وَأِمَّا تَخَافُ مِنْ قَوْمٍ خِيَانَةً فَانْزِلْ إِلَيْهِمْ عَلَى سَوَاءٍ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ الْفَائِزِينَ﴾

﴿٥٨﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٥٨)

8:58. So if you fear treachery from any group, then break off [the treaty] with them plainly and openly, for Allah does not love the treacherous.

That is, if there is a treaty or covenant between you and some people, agreeing not to fight, but you fear their betrayal due to circumstantial evidence to that effect, without open betrayal on their part,

﴿then break off [the treaty] with them﴾ that is, throw it back at them and tell them that there is no longer any treaty between you and them ﴿plainly and openly﴾ so that both of you will be well aware of that. It is not permissible for you to deceive them or strive to do anything that is not allowed according to the terms of the treaty, unless you inform them of that.

﴿for Allah does not love the treacherous﴾; rather He hates them greatly. It is essential to be open and clear, so that you will not be accused of treachery.

This verse indicates that if there is no fear of treachery, in the sense that there is no indication of that, then it is not permissible to cancel the covenant with them; rather it is obligatory to fulfil it until the end of its term.

﴿وَلَا يَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا سَبَقُوا إِنَّهُمْ لَا يُعْجِزُونَ﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٥٩)

8:59. Let not the disbelievers think that they can escape; surely they can never frustrate [Allah's will].

That is, those who disbelieve in their Lord and reject His revelations should not think that they have escaped from Allah, for they cannot frustrate His will; Allah is watching them.

There is great wisdom in His giving them respite and not hastening to punish them, one aspect of which is that this is a test and trial for His believing slaves which is aimed at motivating them to obey Him and do that which pleases Him so that they may attain a high status and acquire characteristics and attributes that they would not otherwise acquire. Hence Allah says to His believing slaves:

﴿وَأَعِدُّوا لَهُمْ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ مِنْ قُوَّةٍ وَمِنْ رِبَاطِ الْخَيْلِ تُرْهِبُونَ بِهِ عَدُوَّ اللَّهِ وَعَدُوَّكُمْ وَآخَرِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَهُمُ اللَّهُ يَعْلَمُهُمْ ۚ وَمَا تُنْفِقُوا مِنْ شَيْءٍ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ يُوَفَّ إِلَيْكُمْ وَأَنْتُمْ لَا تُظْلَمُونَ﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٦٠)

8:60. Make ready against them all that you can of [military] power and steeds of war, to strike fear into the hearts of the enemies of Allah and your enemies, and others besides them whom you do not know, but Allah knows them. Whatever you spend in the cause of Allah will be repaid to you in full, and you will not be wronged.

That is, «Make ready» against your disbelieving enemies who are striving to destroy you and your religion

«all that you can of [military] power» that is, all that you can of knowledge-based and physical strength, and all types of weapons, and so on, that will help you to fight them. This includes all kinds of skills that are required to produce various kinds of weapons and equipment such as artillery, automatic weapons, rifles, warplanes, land vehicles, ships, forts and strongholds, trenches and defensive equipment, as well as wisdom and diplomacy, by means of which the Muslims may become advanced in these fields and ward off the evil of their enemies. They should also learn shooting (fighting skills), courage and strategy. Hence the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

«Verily power is in shooting.» (Muslim)<sup>3</sup>

<sup>3</sup> All hadiths in this text have been checked and verified by IIPH's researchers. It is rare, but it does happen that a hadith is not verifiable within the timeframe of researching and editing the book. In that case, a decision is made by the editorial board as to whether or not to include the hadith. It is IIPH's policy not to include weak hadiths or fabricated (fake) hadiths in our publications. If a weak hadith is included in any text, =

That also includes preparing the means of transportation that are needed when fighting. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿and steeds of war, to strike fear into the hearts of the enemies of Allah and your enemies﴾. The reason at that time (and today) was to instil fear in the enemy; the ruling is always connected to the reason.

If there is a better alternative (to what was available in the past) for instilling fear, such as land vehicles and aircraft that are prepared for fighting and could be more effective, then it is enjoined to prepare them and try to obtain them. If they cannot be obtained except by learning how to manufacture them, then that must be done, because whatever is essential to achieving something that is obligatory is also obligatory.

﴿to strike fear into the hearts of the enemies of Allah and your enemies﴾, those who you know are your enemies
 ﴿and others besides them whom you do not know﴾ who will fight you after this time when Allah addressed these words to them
 ﴿but Allah knows them﴾ – therefore He commanded them to prepare to confront them. One of the greatest means that may help in fighting them is spending on jihad against the disbelievers. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says, encouraging that:

﴿Whatever you spend in the cause of Allah﴾ whether it be a small or great amount ﴿will be repaid to you in full﴾ – the reward for it on the Day of Resurrection will be multiplied greatly, to the extent that whatever is spent in the cause of Allah will be given a seven hundredfold reward up to many times more than that.
 ﴿and you will not be wronged﴾ that is, nothing will be detracted from the reward for that.

---

= it is only because the author of the book discusses it as a weak hadith.
 (Editor)

﴿ وَإِنْ جَنَحُوا لِلسَّلَامِ فَاجْنَحْ لَهَا وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴾ (١١) وَإِنْ يُرِيدُوا أَنْ يَخْدَعُوكَ فَإِنَّ حَسْبَكَ اللَّهُ هُوَ الَّذِي آتَاكَ بِضُرَّةِ وَالْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٢﴾ وَأَلَّفَ بَيْنَ قُلُوبِهِمْ لَوْ أَنْفَقْتَ مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا مَا أَلَّفْتَ بَيْنَ قُلُوبِهِمْ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ أَلَّفَ بَيْنَهُمْ إِنَّهُ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿١٣﴾ يَأْتِيهَا النَّبِيُّ حَسْبُكَ اللَّهُ وَمَنِ اتَّبَعَكَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴾ (١٤) (سورة الأنفال: ٦١-٦٤)

- 8:61. If they incline to peace, then make peace with them, and put your trust in Allah, for verily He is the All-Hearing, All-Knowing.
- 8:62. But if they intend to deceive you, then verily Allah is sufficient for you; He it is Who strengthened you with His help and with [the support of] the believers.
- 8:63. He brought their hearts together; even if you had spent all that is on earth, you could not have brought their hearts together, but Allah has brought them together, for He is Almighty, Most Wise.
- 8:64. O Prophet, Allah is sufficient for you and for the believers who follow you.

﴿If they﴾ that is, the disbelievers who are fighting you
 ﴿incline to peace﴾ that is, if they incline to a treaty with you and a cessation of fighting
 ﴿then make peace with them, and put your trust in Allah﴾ that is, respond to their request, putting your trust in your Lord, for in that there are many benefits, including the following:

- seeking peace and safety is always good; if they are the ones who initiate that, then it is more appropriate to respond
- that offers an opportunity to regain your strength and prepare again to fight them at some other time, if necessary
- if you make peace with one another and feel safe with one another, and each side starts to know the other, that will facilitate calling them to Islam, for Islam by its nature will prevail and cannot be prevailed over. Whoever is possessed of reason and understanding, if he is fair-minded, will inevitably prefer Islam over other religions, because its beauty is manifested in its commands and prohibitions, and its way of dealing with people and spreading justice among them; there is no injustice or unfairness in it. In that case, more people will become interested in it and will follow it.

Thus this peace will help the Muslims against the disbelievers. There is nothing to be feared from peace except one thing, which is that the disbelievers' aim behind that may be to trick the Muslims and take the opportunity to harm them.

Hence Allah tells them that He is sufficient for them and will protect them from the treachery of their enemies, for that treachery will backfire on them:

﴿But if they intend to deceive you, then verily Allah is sufficient for you﴾ that is, He will protect you from that which may harm you, for He is looking after your interests and concerns. He has already sufficed you and supported you with that which should reassure your heart.

For ﴿He it is Who strengthened you with His help and with [the support of] the believers﴾ that is, He helped you with His divine help, which is support that nothing could withstand, and He helped you with the believers, as He inspired them to support you.

﴿He brought their hearts together﴾ and they united in harmony, so their strength increased because of their unity; this was not due to the efforts of anyone or the strength of anyone except the strength of Allah.

If you spent all that is on earth of gold and silver and other wealth in order to bring hearts together after that dissent and extreme division, ﴿you could not have brought their hearts together﴾, because no one controls people's hearts except Allah (ﷻ).

﴿but Allah has brought them together, for He is Almighty, Most Wise﴾; by His might He united their hearts and brought them together after they had been divided, as He says elsewhere:

﴿...Remember the favour that Allah bestowed upon you, for you were enemies then He brought your hearts together, so that by His grace, you became brethren, and you were on the brink of the pit of fire, and He saved you from it...﴾ (Āl 'Imrān 3: 103)

Then Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿O Prophet, Allah is sufficient for you and for the believers who follow you﴾ that is, He will take care of you and your followers among the believers. This is a promise from Allah to His believing slaves who follow His Messenger (ﷺ), that He will suffice them and support them against their enemies.

Therefore if they take proper measures, namely believing and following the Prophet (ﷺ), then He will inevitably suffice them with regard to that which concerns them of both spiritual and worldly matters. That support is not granted only when its conditions are not met.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ حَرِّضِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ عَلَى الْقِتَالِ إِنْ يَكُنْ مِنْكُمْ عِشْرُونَ صَابِرُونَ يَغْلِبُوا مِائَتَيْنِ وَإِنْ يَكُنْ مِنْكُمْ مِائَةٌ يَغْلِبُوا أَلْفًا مِنَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِأَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ ﴿٦٥﴾ أَلَنْ خَفَّفَ اللَّهُ عَنْكُمْ وَعَلِمَ أَنَّ فِيكُمْ ضَعْفًا فَإِنْ يَكُنْ مِنْكُمْ مِائَةٌ صَابِرَةٌ يَغْلِبُوا مِائَتَيْنِ وَإِنْ يَكُنْ مِنْكُمْ أَلْفٌ يَغْلِبُوا أَلْفَيْنِ بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ مَعَ الصَّابِرِينَ ﴿٦٦﴾﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٦٥-٦٦)

- 8:65. O Prophet, urge the believers to fight. If there are twenty steadfast men among you, they will overcome two hundred, and if there are a hundred such, they will overcome a thousand of the disbelievers, for they are a people who do not understand.

8:66. But now Allah has lightened your burden, for He knows that there is weakness in you. So if there are one hundred steadfast men among you, they will overcome two hundred, and if there are a thousand, they will overcome two thousand, by Allah's leave. And Allah is with those who are steadfast.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Prophet (ﷺ): «O Prophet, urge the believers to fight» that is, encourage them and motivate them to fight by means of all that may strengthen their resolve and energise them, such as encouraging them to engage in jihad and combat their enemies, and warning them against doing the opposite of that; tell them of the virtues of courage and steadfastness, and what that results in of good in this world and the hereafter; remind them of the harm done by cowardice, and that it is a bad characteristic that is contrary to religious commitment and dignity, and that courage is more appropriate for the believers than for others.

«...If you are suffering hardships, they are also suffering hardships; but you hope for something from Allah that they cannot hope for...»
(an-Nisâ' 4: 104)

«If there are twenty steadfast men among you» O believers, «they will overcome two hundred, and if there are a hundred such, they will overcome a thousand of the disbelievers» so it will be a ratio of one believer to ten of the disbelievers. That is because «they are a people who do not understand»; they have no knowledge of what Allah has prepared for those who strive in His cause, so they fight in order to become supreme in the land and to spread mischief therein, whereas you understand the purpose of fighting, which is to make the word of Allah supreme, cause His religion to prevail and defend the Book of Allah, and to attain the greatest success with Allah. All of this instils courage and steadfastness and encourages you to fight.

Then Allah made this ruling easier for His slaves (and reduced the ratio of believers to disbelievers):

﴿But now Allah has lightened your burden, for He knows that there is weakness in you﴾. Hence His mercy and wisdom dictated that the burden should be made lighter:

﴿So if there are one hundred steadfast men among you, they will overcome two hundred, and if there are a thousand, they will overcome two thousand, by Allah's leave. And Allah is with those who are steadfast﴾ by His help and support.

These verses appear in the form of a description of the believers (as opposed to an instruction or prescription): if their number reaches this specific amount, they can defeat that number of disbelievers, for Allah has blessed them with that which will instil spiritual courage in them.

But what is really meant is an instruction or command. Initially Allah instructed the believers that one should not flee from ten, or ten from one hundred, or one hundred from one thousand.

Then He made the burden lighter, so it is not permissible for the Muslims to flee from double the number of disbelievers, but if the disbelievers are more than double their number it is permissible for them to flee. But two objections may be raised by others concerning this idea:

- 1- It appears in the form of a statement, and the basic principle concerning statements is that they are to be understood as they appear to be and that what is meant is a reminder of blessings and a description of reality;
- 2- It is stipulated with regard to that number that they should be steadfast in the sense that they should be accustomed to being steadfast and patient. What may be understood from this is that if they are not accustomed to being steadfast and patient, then it is permissible for them to flee, even if the number of the enemy is less than double their number, if they think it most likely that they will be harmed, as is dictated by divine wisdom.

The response to the first point is that the fact that Allah says ﴿But now Allah has lightened your burden...﴾ indicates that this is a binding instruction and a command to be obeyed, then Allah reduced the number, which clearly indicates that it is an instruction even though it appears in the form of a statement.

It may be said that the reason why it appears in the form of a statement is a beautiful meaning that would not be present if it appeared in the form of an instruction, which is that it is aimed at strengthening the hearts of the believers and giving them the glad tidings that they will defeat the disbelievers.

The aim behind the stipulation that they should be steadfast is to encourage steadfastness and patience, and it is saying that they should take measures to achieve that. Then if they do that, they will have taken measures on the basis of faith, as well as other material preparations, that will raise their hopes of attaining what Allah has told them about of victory for this small number.

﴿ مَا كَانَتْ لِنَبِيِّ أَنْ يَكُونَ لَهُ أُسْرَىٰ حَتَّىٰ يُمِخَّ فِي الْأَرْضِ ۖ تَرِيدُونَ عَرَصَ الدُّنْيَا
وَاللَّهُ يُرِيدُ الْآخِرَةَ ۚ وَاللَّهُ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٦٧﴾ لَوْلَا كِتَابٌ مِّنَ اللَّهِ سَبَقَ لَمَسَّكُمْ فِيمَا
أَخَذْتُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿٦٨﴾ فَكُلُوا مِمَّا غَنِمْتُمْ حَلَالًا طَيِّبًا ۚ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ
رَّحِيمٌ ﴿٦٩﴾ ﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٦٧-٦٩)

- 8:67. It is not befitting for a Prophet to take captives until he has thoroughly suppressed [the enemy] in the land. You desire the fleeting gains of this world, but Allah desires [for you] the hereafter. And Allah is Almighty, Most Wise.
- 8:68. Were it not for a prior decree from Allah, a grievous punishment would have befallen you for what you took [of ransom].
- 8:69. So enjoy what you have gained in war as lawful and good, but fear Allah; verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

This is a rebuke from Allah to His Messenger (ﷺ) and the believers on the day of Badr, when they captured the polytheists and kept them alive for the sake of the ransom, whereas the view of Ameer al-Mu'mineen 'Umar ibn al-Khattâb (radiya Allâhu 'anhu – may Allah be pleased with him) in this situation was that they should be executed and eradicated.

Hence Allah (ﷻ) said: ﴿It is not befitting for a Prophet to take captives until he has thoroughly suppressed [the enemy] in the land﴾ that is, it was not appropriate for him, when fighting the disbelievers who wanted to extinguish the light of Allah and were striving to eliminate His religion, so that there would remain no one on earth who worshipped Allah, to hasten to capture them and keep them alive for the sake of the ransom that he could get from them, at the time when that was a small gain in comparison to the interest that could be served by executing them and putting an end to their evil. So long as they were spreading evil and had power, it was more appropriate not to take them as prisoners.

If they are thoroughly suppressed, a stop has been put to their evil and their power has diminished, then in that case there is nothing wrong with taking prisoners from among them and letting them live.

﴿You desire﴾ by taking the ransom and letting them live ﴿the fleeting gains of this world﴾ that is, there is no benefit from that in terms of supporting the religion.

﴿but Allah desires [for you] the hereafter﴾ by supporting His religion and helping His close friends, and causing their word to prevail over others. Therefore He enjoins you to do that which will help you to attain that.

﴿And Allah is Almighty, Most Wise﴾ that is, He is perfect in might: if He wanted to defeat the disbelievers without a fight, He would have done so, but He is Most Wise and He tests some of you by means of others.

«Were it not for a prior decree from Allah», for by His will and decree He has made booty permissible for you and has spared this Ummah from the punishment

«a grievous punishment would have befallen you for what you took [of ransom]». In the hadith it says:

«If a punishment had come down on the day of Badr, no one would have been saved from it except ‘Umar.» (A da’eef hadith)

«So enjoy what you have gained in war as lawful and good». This is by the kindness of Allah (ﷻ) towards this Ummah: He has made booty permissible to them whereas He did not permit it to any previous nation.

«but fear Allah» in all your affairs, and adhere to that out of gratitude for the blessings that Allah has bestowed upon you

«verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving» – He forgives the one who repents to Him for all his sins, and He forgives all the sins of those who do not ascribe partners to Him

«Most Merciful» towards you, as He has permitted booty to you and has made it lawful and good.

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِمَنْ فِي أَيْدِيكُمْ مِنَ الْأَسْرَىٰ إِن يَعْلَمِ اللَّهُ فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ خَيْرًا يُؤْتِكُمْ خَيْرًا مِّمَّا أُخِذَ مِنْكُمْ وَيَغْفِرَ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ ﴿٧٠﴾ وَإِنْ يَرِيدُوا خِيَانَتَكَ فَقَدْ خَانُوا اللَّهَ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَأَمْكَنَ مِنْهُمْ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٧١﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٧٠-٧١)

8:70. O Prophet, say to those who are captives in your hands: If Allah knows of any good in your hearts, He will give you something better than that which has been taken from you, and will forgive you, for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

8:71. If they intend to betray you, they have already betrayed Allah before, so He gave [you] power over them. And Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise.

This was revealed concerning the captives of the Battle of Badr, among whom was al-'Abbâs, the paternal uncle of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ). When the ransom was demanded of him, he claimed that he had become Muslim before that, but they did not waive the ransom for him. Then Allah (ﷻ) revealed this verse to console him and those who were in a similar situation:

﴿O Prophet, say to those who are captives in your hands: If Allah knows of any good in your hearts, He will give you something better than that which has been taken from you﴾ that is, of wealth, for He will make easy for you by His grace something that is better and greater than that which was taken from you.

﴿and will forgive you﴾ your sins, and will admit you to paradise ﴿for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾.

Allah fulfilled His promise to al-'Abbâs and others, for he acquired a great deal of wealth after that, to the extent that on one occasion, when a great deal of wealth came to the Prophet (ﷺ), al-'Abbâs came to him and the Prophet (ﷺ) told him to take whatever he could carry in his garment, and he took so much that he was almost unable to carry it.

﴿If they intend to betray you﴾ by striving to fight you and oppose you

﴿they have already betrayed Allah before, so He gave [you] power over them﴾, so let them be wary of betraying you, for Allah (ﷻ) has power over them and they are under His control.

﴿And Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise﴾ that is, He knows all things and is Most Wise in doing that which is appropriate. By His knowledge and wisdom, He prescribes these great rulings for you and He has guaranteed to suffice you with regard to the issue of the prisoners and their evil if they want to betray you (following their release).

﴿ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَهَاجَرُوا وَجَاهَدُوا بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَنْفُسِهِمْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِينَ ءَاوَوْا وَنَصَرُوا أُولَئِكَ بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلِيَاءُ بَعْضٍ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَلَمْ يُهَاجِرُوا مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ وَلِيَّتِهِمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ حَتَّى يُهَاجِرُوا وَإِنْ اسْتَنْصَرُوكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ فَعَلَيْكُمْ النَّصْرُ إِلَّا عَلَى قَوْمٍ بَيْنَكُمْ وَبَيْنَهُمْ مِيثَاقٌ وَاللَّهُ يَعْمَلُونَ بِبَصِيرَةٍ ﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٧٢)

8:72. Verily those who believed, migrated, and strove and fought in the cause of Allah, offering their wealth and their lives, and those who gave them refuge and help – these are allies and protectors of one another. As for those who believed but did not migrate, you have no duty to protect them until they do migrate. But if they seek your help on grounds of faith, then it is your duty to support them, except against a people with whom you have a treaty. And Allah sees well all that you do.

This refers to the bond of alliance and love that Allah established between the Muhājireen who believed and migrated in Allah's cause, leaving behind their homeland for the sake of Allah and in order to engage in jihad in Allah's cause, and the Anṣār who gave shelter to the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and his Companions, and helped them by sharing their property, wealth and lives with them. They were allies and protectors of one another, because of the perfect nature of their faith and the strong ties among them.

﴿As for those who believed but did not migrate, you have no duty to protect them until they do migrate﴾ for they severed the bonds of alliance because of their separation from you at a time when there was a great need for manpower. Because they did not migrate, they had no alliance with the believers at all.

But ﴿if they seek your help on grounds of faith﴾ that is, in order to fight those who are fighting them because of their religion

﴿then it is your duty to support them﴾ and fight alongside them. However, if people fight them for other purposes, then you are not obliged to support them.

﴿except against a people with whom you have a treaty﴾ that is, an agreement not to fight. If the believers who are distinct from others but have not migrated want to fight them, you should not help them in doing so, because of the treaty that exists between you and them.

﴿And Allah sees well all that you do﴾ – He knows your circumstances and He prescribes appropriate rulings for you.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلِيَاءُ بَعْضٍ إِلَّا تَفْعَلُوهُ تَكُنْ فِتْنَةٌ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَفَسَادٌ

كَبِيرٌ﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٧٣)

- 8:73. Those who disbelieve are allies and protectors of one another. Hence if you fail to do [what you were enjoined to do, of supporting one another], there will be persecution in the land, and a great deal of mischief.

As Allah established the alliance among the believers, He informed them that the disbelievers are united on the basis of their disbelief, hence they are allies and protectors of one another. Therefore no one takes them as allies except one who is a disbeliever like them.

﴿Hence if you fail to do [what you were enjoined to do]﴾ namely taking believers as allies and opposing the disbelievers, such as taking all people as allies or taking all people as enemies (not distinguishing between Muslims and the disbelievers), or taking the disbelievers as allies and taking the believers as enemies

«there will be persecution in the land, and a great deal of mischief» and that will lead to unlimited evil, because of confusing truth with falsehood, and believers with disbelievers, and because of the cessation of major acts of worship such as jihad, Hijrah (migration) and other aims of Sharia, which will be missed if the believers do not take only their own kind as allies and protectors.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَهَاجَرُوا وَجَاهَدُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِينَ ءَاوُوا وَنَصَرُوا أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ حَقًّا لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ ﴿٧٤﴾ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مِن بَعْدِ وَهَاجَرُوا وَجَاهَدُوا مَعَكُمْ فَأُولَٰئِكَ مِنكُمْ وَأُولُوا الْأَرْحَامِ بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلَىٰ بِبَعْضٍ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٧٥﴾﴾ (سورة الأنفال: ٧٤-٧٥)

8:74. Verily those who believed, migrated, and strove and fought in Allah's cause, and those who gave them refuge and help – these are the true believers; they will have forgiveness and a generous provision.

8:75. Those who believed afterwards, migrated and strove and fought in Allah's cause with you, they too are of you. But kindred by blood are nearer to one another [regarding inheritance] according to the decree ordained by Allah. Verily Allah has knowledge of all things.

The previous verses mentioned the bond of brotherhood among the believers, the Muhājireen and Anṣār.

These verses praise them and speak of their reward:

«Verily those who believed, migrated, and strove and fought in Allah's cause, and those who gave them refuge and help – these» namely the believers, the Muhājireen and Anṣār,

﴿are the true believers﴾, because they confirmed their faith by means of the deeds that they undertook, namely migration, mutual support, forming an alliance with one another and striving in jihad against their enemies, the disbelievers and hypocrites.

﴿they will have forgiveness﴾ from Allah, by means of which their bad deeds will be erased
 ﴿and﴾ they will have ﴿a generous provision﴾ that is, much good from the Most Generous Lord in gardens of bliss.

They may also have a reward in this world that will bring them delight and reassure their hearts. This also applies to those who come after these Muhājireen and Anṣār, those who follow their guidance in the best manner, and believe, migrate and strive in Allah's cause.

﴿they too are of you﴾ and they have the same rights and duties as you do.

This brotherhood of faith, which appeared at the beginning of Islam, had a great impact and was of great significance, because the Prophet (ﷺ) established a special bond of brotherhood between the Muhājireen and Anṣār, something that surpassed the regular bonds of brotherhood, as they even used to inherit from one another by virtue of this brotherhood. Then Allah revealed the words: ﴿But kindred by blood are nearer to one another [regarding inheritance] according to the decree ordained by Allah﴾. So no one can inherit from a person except his male relatives on the father's side and those who are given allocated shares of inheritance; if there are no such heirs, then the nearest of other relatives inherit, as is indicated by the general meaning of this verse.

The phrase ﴿according to the decree ordained by Allah﴾ means: according to the rulings and laws that He has prescribed.

﴿Verily Allah has knowledge of all things﴾ which includes His knowledge of your circumstances, because of which He ordains laws and regulations for you that are appropriate to your circumstances.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-Anfāl.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

09.

Soorat at-Tawbah

(This soorah is also known as Bara'ah. It is Madani)

---

﴿بَرَاءَةٌ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ إِلَى الَّذِينَ عَاهَدْتُمْ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ ۚ فَسِيحُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ
أَرْبَعَةَ أَشْهُرٍ وَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّكُمْ غَيْرُ مُعْجِزِي اللَّهِ ۚ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ مُخْزِي الْكَافِرِينَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٢-١)

- 9:1. An annulment by Allah and His Messenger [is hereby announced] to those of the polytheists with whom you have made treaties.
  - 9:2. Therefore move about safely in the land for four months, but know that you can never escape Allah, and Allah will surely humiliate the disbelievers.
-

This is an annulment by Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) announced to all the polytheists with whom there were treaties, that they would have four months during which they might travel through the land as they chose and they would be safe from the believers, but after those four months, there would be no treaty or covenant with them.

This applied to those who had an open-ended treaty, or a treaty for a duration of four months or less. As for those who had a treaty longer than four months, that treaty remained valid until the end of its term, so long as there was no fear of treachery and they did not break the treaty first.

Then Allah warned those who had treaties that even if they felt safe during the term of their treaty, they could never escape Allah and that whoever among them persisted in ascribing partners to Allah, Allah would inevitably humiliate him. This was something that induced them to enter Islam, except for those who stubbornly persisted and did not care about Allah's warning to them.

﴿وَأَذِّنْ مِنْ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ إِلَى النَّاسِ يَوْمَ الْحَجِّ الْأَكْبَرِ أَنَّ اللَّهَ بَرِيءٌ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ وَرَسُولُهُ فَإِنْ تُبْتُمْ فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ وَإِنْ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ فَأَعْلَمُوا أَنَّكُمْ غَيْرُ مُعْجِزِي اللَّهِ وَبَشِّرِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٣)

- 9:3. And an announcement from Allah and His Messenger, to the people on the greatest day of the Hajj, that Allah and His Messenger have annulled the [treaties] with the polytheists. So if you repent, it is better for you, but if you turn away, then know that you can never escape Allah. And give those who disbelieve tidings of a painful punishment.

This is what Allah promises to the believers, that He will grant victory to His religion, make His word supreme and will humiliate their enemies among the polytheists who expelled their Messenger (ﷺ) and his Companions from Makkah, from the sacred House of Allah, and banished them because they had control over the land of the Hejaz.

Allah indeed granted victory to His Messenger (ﷺ) and the believers, as He enabled them to conquer Makkah and humiliate the polytheists, and the believers gained power over that land.

The Prophet (ﷺ) instructed his caller to announce on the greatest day of the Hajj, which was the Day of Sacrifice, the time when all the people, both Muslims and disbelievers, had assembled from all parts of the Arabian Peninsula, telling them that Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) had annulled the treaties with the polytheists, who no longer had any treaty or covenant with them; wherever they were found they were to be executed, and it was said to them: Do not approach the Sacred Mosque after this year of yours. This occurred in 9 AH.

The people were led in Hajj by Abu Bakr as-Şiddeeq (رضي الله عنه), and the annulment of the treaties was announced, on the Day of Sacrifice, by 'Ali ibn Abi Tālib (رضي الله عنه). Then Allah encouraged the polytheists to repent, and warned them against persisting in their ascription of partners to Him, as He said:

﴿So if you repent, it is better for you, but if you turn away, then know that you can never escape Allah﴾ that is, you can never escape Him for you are in His grasp, and He is able to give power to His believing slaves over you.

﴿And give those who disbelieve tidings of a painful punishment﴾ that is, painful and terrifying in this world, in the form of being killed, taken captive and expelled, and in the hereafter in the form of the hellfire, which is a most wretched journey's end.

﴿إِلَّا الَّذِينَ عَاهَدْتُمْ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ ثُمَّ لَمْ يَنْقُصُوكُمْ شَيْئًا وَلَمْ يُظَاهِرُوا عَلَيْكُمْ أَحَدًا فَأَتِمُّوا إِلَيْهِمْ عَهْدَهُمْ إِلَىٰ مُدَّتِهِمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ الْمُتَّقِينَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٤)

- 9:4. Except those of the polytheists with whom you have made treaties and who have not broken their treaties with you in any way or supported anyone against you. Fulfil your treaties with them until the end of their term, for Allah loves those who fear Him.

This is a complete disavowal of all treaties with all the polytheists, ﴿Except those of the polytheists with whom you have made treaties﴾ and they have upheld the treaties, and none of them have done anything detrimental to the upholding of the treaty; they have not broken any of the terms of the treaty or helped anyone against you. So in the case of these people, you must uphold the treaty with them until the end of its term, whether it is short or long, because Islam does not enjoin treachery; rather it enjoins upholding of treaties.

﴿for Allah loves those who fear Him﴾, those who do what is enjoined and avoid ascribing partners to Allah and treachery, and other sins.

﴿فَإِذَا انْسَلَخَ الْأَشْهُرُ الْحُرُمُ فَاقْتُلُوا الْمُشْرِكِينَ حَيْثُ وَجَدْتُمُوهُمْ وَخُذُوهُمْ وَأَحْصُرُوهُمْ
وَأَقْعُدُوا لَهُمْ كُلَّ مَرْصِدٍ ۚ إِن تَابُوا وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتَوُا الزَّكَاةَ فَخَلُّوا
سَبِيلَهُمْ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٥)

- 9:5. Then when the sacred months are over, slay the polytheists<sup>4</sup> wherever you find them, and seize them, besiege them and lie in wait for them on every route. But if they repent, establish prayer and give zakāh, then let them be, for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

﴿Then when the sacred months are over﴾ that is, the months in which it is prohibited to fight the polytheists with whom you have treaties – which was four months' grace in the case of open-ended treaties, and the end of the stated term in the case of longer treaties – then the Muslims are free of any treaty obligations towards the disbelievers, once the treaty has expired.

<sup>4</sup> This refers only to the polytheists who had broken their treaty with the Muslims and supported their enemies against them.

﴿slay the polytheists wherever you find them﴾ in any place and at any time

﴿and seize them﴾ and take them captive

﴿besiege them﴾ that is, put pressure on them and do not let them expand their territory in the land of Allah that He has ordained as a place of worship for His slaves, for these people are not qualified to dwell there and they do not deserve even a hand span of that land, for it is the land of Allah and they are His enemies who are opposing Him and His Messenger (ﷺ); they are in a state of war, as they want to rid the earth of His religion, but Allah insists on perfecting His light, even though the disbelievers hate it (cf. 9: 32).

﴿and lie in wait for them on every route﴾ that is, in every mountain pass and every place they pass through; keep a lookout for them, strive against them and do your utmost, and carry on doing that until they repent from their ascribing partners to Allah.

﴿But if they repent﴾ from ascribing partners to Allah ﴿establish prayer﴾ that is, perform the prayers properly
 ﴿and give zakâh﴾ to those who are deserving of it
 ﴿then let them be﴾ that is, leave them alone and let them be like you, with the same rights and duties as you.

﴿for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾ – He forgives ascription of partners to Him and lesser sins to those who repent, and He bestows mercy upon them by enabling them to repent, then accepting it from them.

This verse indicates that whoever refuses to pray and give zakâh is to be fought until he does fulfil these two duties; this verse was quoted as evidence for that by Abu Bakr as-Şiddeeq (رضي الله عنه).

﴿وَإِنْ أَحَدٌ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ اسْتَجَارَكَ فَأَجِرْهُ حَتَّى يَسْمَعَ كَلِمَ اللَّهِ ثُمَّ اتَّبِعْهُ مَأْمَنَهُ
 ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٦)

9:6. If any of the polytheists asks you for protection, grant it to him, so that he may hear the word of Allah, then convey him to his place of safety, for they are people who do not know.

Because Allah had previously said: ﴿Then when the sacred months are over, slay the polytheists wherever you find them, and seize them, besiege them and lie in wait for them on every route﴾ (9: 5), which constituted general instructions that were applicable in all circumstances and to all individuals among the polytheists, He points out here that if there is a purpose to be served by bringing some of them close, then it is permissible – and in fact obligatory – to do that. Hence He says here: ﴿If any of the polytheists asks you for protection﴾ that is, if he asks you to protect him from harm so that he may hear the word of Allah and think about Islam, ﴿grant it to him, so that he may hear the word of Allah﴾. Then if he becomes Muslim, all well and good; otherwise, convey him to a place where he will be safe. The reason for that is that the disbelievers are people who do not know, so perhaps their persisting in disbelief is due to their ignorance, and if that ignorance is dispelled, they may choose Islam. Therefore Allah instructed His Messenger (ﷺ) – and his Ummah who followed his example with regard to the rulings – to give protection to anyone who asked to hear the word of Allah.

This verse provides clear proof for the view of ahl as-Sunnah wal-jamā'ah, who say that the Qur'an is the uncreated word of Allah, because He is the One Who spoke it and attributed it to Himself, and it highlights the falseness of the view of the Mutazilites and those who followed their view that the Qur'an is created.

There is a great deal of evidence to show that this view is false, but this is not the place to discuss it.

﴿كَيْفَ يَكُونُ لِلْمُشْرِكِينَ عَهْدٌ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَعِنْدَ رَسُولِهِ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ
عَاهَدْتُمْ عِنْدَ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ فَمَا اسْتَقَمُوا لَكُمْ فَاسْتَقِيمُوا لَهُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ
الْمُتَّقِينَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٧)

- 9:7. How can the polytheists have a treaty with Allah and His Messenger? But as for those with whom you made a treaty at the Sacred Mosque, so long as they uphold the treaty with you, uphold the treaty with them, for Allah loves those who fear Him.

This explains the reason why Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) annulled the treaty with the polytheists:

«How can the polytheists have a treaty with Allah and His Messenger?» Have they embraced faith as they should have done, or have they refrained from harming the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and the believers? Did they not fight the truth and support falsehood? Did they not strive to spread mischief in the land?

Therefore they deserve that Allah should disavow them and that they should not have any treaty with Him or His Messenger (ﷺ).

«But as for those» among the polytheists «with whom you made a treaty at the Sacred Mosque», for their treaty, by virtue of the sacred place in which it was made, deserves to be upheld

«so long as they uphold the treaty with you, uphold the treaty with them, for Allah loves those who fear Him».

Hence Allah says:

﴿كَيْفَ وَإِنْ يَظْهَرُوا عَلَيْكُمْ لَا يَرْقُبُوا فِيكُمْ إِلَّا وَلَا ذِمَّةً يُرْضُونَكُمْ
بِأَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَتَأْبَىٰ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَأَكْثَرُهُمْ فَاسِقُونَ﴾ (٨) أَشْتَرُوا بِعَائِدَةِ اللَّهِ فَمَنْ

قَلِيلًا فَصَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ إِنَّهُمْ سَاءَ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩﴾ لَا يَرْقُبُونَ فِي مُؤْمِنٍ
إِلَّا وَلَا ذِمَّةً وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُعْتَدُونَ ﴿١٠﴾ فَإِنْ تَابُوا وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ
وَأَتَوْا الزَّكَاةَ فَلِخْوَتِكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ وَنُفَصِّلُ الْآيَاتِ لِقَوْمٍ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١١﴾ (سورة

التوبة: ٨-١١)

- 9:8. How [can there be a treaty] when, if they gain the upper hand over you, they will not respect the ties of kinship or the treaty with you? They please you with their [flattering] words, while at heart they remain adamantly hostile, and most of them are wicked.
- 9:9. They have sold the revelations of Allah for a small price and barred people from His way. Evil indeed is what they have done.
- 9:10. They do not respect the ties of kinship or treaties with regard to believers. It is they who are the transgressors.
- 9:11. Yet if they repent, establish prayer and give zakâh, then they are your brothers in faith. We explain the revelations in detail for people who have knowledge.

«How [can there be a treaty]» that is, how can the polytheists have a treaty and covenant with Allah
 «when» it is the case that «if they gain the upper hand over you» and they have power over you, they will not show you any mercy and «they will not respect the ties of kinship or the treaty with you» that is, there will be no treaty and no kinship, and they will not fear Allah with regard to you; rather they will subject you to grievous torment. This will be your situation if they prevail over you.

So do not be deceived by the way they act towards you at the time when they are afraid of you, for «They please you with their [flattering] words, while at heart» they do not love you; rather they are truly hostile towards you and they indeed hate you «and most of them are wicked»; they have no fear of Allah and no decency or dignity.

﴿They have sold the revelations of Allah for a small price﴾ that is, they have chosen worthless, immediate gain in this world over belief in Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) and submission to the revelations of Allah.

﴿and barred﴾ themselves and others ﴿from His way. Evil indeed is what they have done. They do not respect the ties of kinship or treaties with regard to believers﴾ that is, because of their enmity towards faith and its people.

The reason why they are described as hostile towards you and as hating you is the issue of faith, so defend your faith and support it; take those who oppose it as your enemies and take those who support it as your allies and friends, basing your relationships with others on that criteria, and do not base the issue of friendship or enmity on personal inclinations and whims and desires, following the self that is inclined towards evil with regard to this matter.

﴿Yet if they repent﴾ from their ascription of partners to Allah, and they come back to faith ﴿establish prayer and give zakâh, then they are your brothers in faith﴾, and you should forget about that enmity that existed at the time when they were polytheists, so that you may all be the chosen slaves of Allah. Thus the individual may attain true servitude to Him.

After explaining these important rulings and clarifying and discussing the rulings and the wisdom behind them, Allah says:

﴿We explain the revelations in detail﴾ that is, We clarify them ﴿for people who have knowledge﴾, and through them we learn the rulings and teachings of Islam.

O Allah, make us among the people who have knowledge and act upon what they know, by Your mercy, kindness and grace, O Lord of the worlds.

﴿ وَإِنْ كَثُرُوا أَتَمْنَهُمْ مِنْ بَعْدِ عَهْدِهِمْ وَطَعَنُوا فِي دِينِكُمْ فَقَاتِلُوا أَیْمَةً
 الْكُفْرِ إِنَّهُمْ لَا أَمِنَ لَهُمْ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَنْتَهُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ أَلَا تَقَاتِلُونَ قَوْمًا
 نَكَرُوا أَيْمَانَهُمْ وَهَمُّوا بِإِخْرَاجِ الرَّسُولِ وَهُمْ بَدَءُوكُمْ أَوَّلَ
 مَرَّةٍ أَنْتُمْ خَشِيتُهمْ فَأَلَّلهُ أَحَقُّ أَنْ تَخْشَوْهُ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٣﴾ قَاتِلُوهُمْ
 يُعَذِّبُهُمُ اللَّهُ بِأَيْدِيكُمْ وَيُخْرِجُهُمْ مِنْ صُدُورِ قَوْمٍ
 مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٤﴾ وَيَذْهَبُ غَيْظُ قُلُوبِهِمْ وَيَتُوبُ اللَّهُ عَلَى مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ
 حَكِيمٌ ﴿١٥﴾ ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١٢-١٥)

- 9:12. But if they break their oaths after making a treaty, and revile your religion, then fight the leaders of disbelief, whose oaths mean nothing to them, so that they may desist.
- 9:13. Will you not fight people who broke their oaths, wanted to expel the Messenger and attacked you first? Do you fear them? Rather it is Allah Whom you should fear, if you are [truly] believers.
- 9:14. Fight them, and Allah will punish them at your hands, bring disgrace upon them, grant you victory over them, and will grant heartfelt satisfaction to people who believe,
- 9:15. and will remove rage from their hearts. Allah turns in mercy to whomever He wills. Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise.

After mentioning those among the polytheists who had treaties, and saying that if they adhere to the treaty, then the Muslims were to uphold the treaty with them, Allah (ﷻ) then says:

﴿But if they break their oaths after making a treaty﴾ that is, if they break the treaty, and fight you or help others to fight you, or they do something contrary to the terms of the treaty

﴿and revile your religion﴾ that is, criticise and ridicule it. This includes all kinds of criticism that may be directed against Islam or the Qur'an.

﴿then fight the leaders of disbelief﴾ that is, the prominent figures who revile the religion of the Most Gracious, and support the way of the Shaytân. They are singled out for mention because of the seriousness of their offence, and because others follow them. This also highlights the fact that whoever reviles Islam and takes it upon himself to oppose it is one of the leaders of disbelief.

﴿whose oaths mean nothing to them﴾ that is, there is no treaty or covenant or oath that they fulfil; rather they are always treacherous and break their covenants, so they cannot be trusted.

﴿so that they may﴾ as a result of your fighting them ﴿desist﴾ and stop reviling your religion, and perhaps they may enter it.

Then Allah encourages the believers to fight them, by mentioning the deeds that the enemy did, which were characteristic of them and which made it justifiable to fight them:

﴿Will you not fight people who broke their oaths, wanted to expel the Messenger﴾, whom they should have respected, honoured and venerated. They are the ones who wanted to expel him and strove their utmost to do that

﴿and attacked you first﴾ when they broke the treaty and helped others against you. That was when Quraysh – at the time when they had a treaty with the Prophet (ﷺ) – helped their allies Banu Bakr against Banu Khuẓā'ah, who were allies of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), and fought alongside them as is mentioned in detail in the seerah (Prophet's biography).

﴿Do you fear them﴾ so that you refrain from fighting them?

﴿Rather it is Allah Whom you should fear, if you are [truly] believers﴾ for He has commanded you to fight them and has emphatically confirmed that command.

If you are truly believers, then comply with the command of Allah, and do not fear them to the extent that you refrain from obeying His command.

Then Allah instructs them to fight them and mentions the benefits that will result from fighting them. All of that serves to encourage the believers to fight them.

﴿Fight them, and Allah will punish them at your hands﴾ by your killing them, ﴿bring disgrace upon them﴾ when Allah grants you victory over them, for they are the enemy who should be disgraced and the believers should be eager for that.

﴿grant you victory over them﴾ – this is a promise from Allah and glad tidings that He fulfilled.

﴿and will grant heartfelt satisfaction to people who believe, and will remove rage from their hearts﴾, for they harbour resentment and rage towards them in their hearts, so that fighting and killing them will bring heartfelt satisfaction to the believers, and relief from distress and worry, when they see the defeat of these enemies, who waged war against Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), and strove to extinguish the light of Allah, and the rage that was in their hearts will recede. This is indicative of Allah's love and care for the believers, as He made one of the aims of Sharia this heartfelt satisfaction and causing their rage to recede.

Then He says: ﴿Allah turns in mercy to whomever He wills﴾ among those who oppose Him, as He guides them to enter Islam, and He makes it fair-seeming in their hearts and makes disbelief, evildoing and disobedience hateful to them.

﴿Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise﴾ and does what is appropriate. He knows who is fit to believe, so He guides him, and He knows who is not fit for that, so He leaves him in his error and misguidance.

﴿أَمْ حَسِبْتُمْ أَنْ تُتْرَكُوا وَلَمَّا يَعْلَمِ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ جَاهَدُوا مِنْكُمْ وَلَمْ يَتَّخِذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَلَا رَسُولِهِ وَلَا الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَلِجَنَّةٍ وَاللَّهُ خَبِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ﴾ (١٦)

(سورة التوبة: ١٦)

9:16. Or do you think that you will be left untested, when Allah has not yet made known which of you will strive in jihad and take none but Allah, His Messenger and the believers as trusted allies and friends? Allah is well aware of all that you do.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His believing slaves, after commanding them to engage in jihad:

﴿Or do you think that you will be left untested﴾, without being tried and tested, and instructed to do that which will distinguish the sincere from the insincere?

﴿when Allah has not yet made known which of you will strive in jihad﴾ that is, knowledge that is based on what He knows they will actually do, so that reward and punishment may be based on that, and thus it will be known who will strive in jihad for His sake, to make His word supreme

﴿and take none but Allah, His Messenger and the believers as trusted allies and friends﴾ that is, they will not take allies among the disbelievers; rather they will take Allah, His Messenger (ﷺ) and the believers as allies.

Allah has prescribed jihad to fulfil this great purpose, which is to distinguish the sincere, who do not side with anyone except for the sake of Allah's religion, from the insincere who claim to be believers when in fact they take other than Allah, His Messenger (ﷺ) and the believers as trusted allies and friends.

«Allah is well aware of all that you do» that is, He knows what you will actually do, so He tests you with that which will expose what you really are, and He will requite you for your deeds, both good and bad.

﴿ مَا كَانَ لِلْمُشْرِكِينَ أَنْ يَعْمُرُوا مَسَاجِدَ اللَّهِ شَاهِدِينَ عَلَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ بِالْكُفْرِ أُولَئِكَ حَبِطَتْ أَعْمَالُهُمْ فِي النَّارِ هُمْ خَالِدُونَ ﴾ (١٧) إِنَّمَا يَعْمُرُ مَسَاجِدَ اللَّهِ مَنْ ءَامَنَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ وَأَقَامَ الصَّلَاةَ وَءَاتَى الزَّكَاةَ وَلَمْ يَخْشَ إِلَّا اللَّهَ فَعَسَىٰ أُولَئِكَ أَنْ يَكُونُوا مِنَ الْمُهْتَدِينَ ﴾ (١٨) (سورة التوبة: ١٧-١٨)

- 9:17. It is not fitting for those who ascribe partners to Allah to visit or tend the mosques of Allah when they are self-confessed disbelievers. Their deeds will come to nothing and in the fire they will abide forever.
- 9:18. The mosques of Allah are only to be visited and tended by those who believe in Allah and the Last Day, establish prayer, give zakâh and fear none but Allah. It is those who are expected to be rightly guided.

«It is not fitting» that is, it is not appropriate
 «for those who ascribe partners to Allah to visit or tend the mosques of Allah» for the purpose of worship, prayer or other acts of devotion, when they affirm and testify that they are disbelievers on the basis of the way they are and the way they act, and the fact that many of them are aware of their disbelief and falsehood.

If they are «self-confessed disbelievers» and themselves attest to their lack of faith, which is a condition for acceptability of good deeds, then how can they claim to be caretakers of the mosques of Allah, when the basic requirement is lacking in them and their deeds are null and void?

Hence Allah says: «Their deeds will come to nothing» that is, they will be deemed invalid and will avail them naught, «and in the fire they will abide forever».

Then He tells us who the rightful caretakers of the mosques of Allah are: «The mosques of Allah are only to be visited and tended by those who believe in Allah and the Last Day, establish prayer» both obligatory and supererogatory, in the proper manner, both outwardly and inwardly «give zakâh» to those who are entitled to receive it «and fear none but Allah» that is, their fear is focused on their Lord, so they refrain from that which Allah has prohibited and they do not fall short in their obligatory duties towards Allah.

He describes them as having beneficial faith and doing righteous deeds, the most important of which are prayer and zakâh, and as fearing Allah, which is the foundation of all good. These are the true keepers of the mosques and their people to whom they belong.

«It is those who are expected to be rightly guided». The word translated here as «expected» (‘asâ, literally, perhaps or maybe), when it refers to Allah, indicates that something is definite or inevitable. As for the one who does not believe in Allah or the Last Day, and does not fear Allah, he is not one of the keepers of the mosques of Allah, nor is he one of their people to whom they belong, even if he claims to be such.

﴿ أَجَعَلْتُمْ سِقَايَةَ الْحَاجِّ وَعِمَارَةَ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ كَمَنْ أَمَنَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ وَجَاهَدَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ لَا يَسْتَوُونَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴾ (١٦) الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَهَاجَرُوا وَجَاهَدُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَنْفُسِهِمْ أَعْظَمَ دَرَجَةً عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْفَائِزُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾ يُبَشِّرُهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ بِرَحْمَةٍ مِنْهُ وَرِضْوَانٍ وَجَنَّاتٍ لَهُمْ فِيهَا نَعِيمٌ

مَقِيمٌ ﴿١٩﴾ خَلِيدٌ فِيهَا أَبَدًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ عِنْدَهُ أَجْرٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿٢٠﴾ (سورة التوبة)

(٢٢-١٩)

- 9:19. Do you regard giving water to the pilgrims and tending the Sacred Mosque as equal to the deeds of those who believe in Allah and the Last Day, and strive and fight in Allah's cause? They are not equal before Allah, and Allah does not guide people who are wrongdoers.
- 9:20. Those who believe, migrate, and strive and fight in Allah's cause, offering their wealth and their lives, are of a higher rank before Allah. It is they who will triumph.
- 9:21. Their Lord gives them glad tidings of mercy from Him and His good pleasure, and of gardens in which eternal bliss will be theirs,
- 9:22. To abide therein forever. Verily with Allah there is an immense reward.

When some of the Muslims, or some of the Muslims and some of the polytheists, disagreed as to whether tending and visiting the Sacred Mosque, by maintaining the structure, praying and worshipping in it and providing water for the pilgrims, is to be regarded as superior to believing in Allah and striving in jihad for His sake, Allah stated (ﷻ) that there is indeed a difference between them, as He said:

﴿Do you regard giving water to the pilgrims﴾ that is, giving them Zamzam water, as it is the custom that when this is mentioned in general terms, what it refers to is Zamzam
 ﴿and tending the Sacred Mosque as equal to the deeds of those who believe in Allah and the Last Day, and strive and fight in Allah's cause? They are not equal before Allah﴾.

Jihad and faith in Allah are superior by many degrees to providing water for the pilgrims and tending the Sacred Mosque, because faith is the foundation of the religion, and it is on that basis that deeds are accepted and one's soul is purified.

As for jihad in Allah's cause, it is the pinnacle of religion, for by means of it the Islamic religion is protected and expands, the truth is supported and falsehood is suppressed. As for tending the Sacred Mosque and providing water for the pilgrims, even though these are righteous deeds, the acceptability thereof is dependent on faith, and they do not achieve the same interests as faith and jihad. Therefore Allah says: «They are not equal before Allah, and Allah does not guide people who are wrongdoers», that is, those whose defining characteristic is wrongdoing and who are not fit to accept anything good; rather nothing befits them but evil.

Then Allah clearly states the superiority of faith and jihad: «Those who believe, migrate, and strive and fight in Allah's cause, offering their wealth» by spending on jihad and equipping the fighters «and their lives» by going out themselves to fight «are of a higher rank before Allah. It is they who will triumph» that is, none will attain what is sought or be saved from what is feared except the one who has these characteristics.

«Their Lord gives them glad tidings» by His generosity, grace, kindness, care and love for them «of mercy from Him» by means of which He will protect them from all ills and cause them to attain all that is good «and His good pleasure», which is the greatest blessing of paradise, where He will bestow His good pleasure upon them and will never be angry with them. «and of gardens in which eternal bliss will be theirs», with all that their hearts may desire and all that may delight their eyes, the nature and extent of which no one knows except Allah (ﷻ). Among that, Allah has prepared for those who strive in jihad for His sake one hundred levels, the distance between each two of which is like the distance between heaven and earth, and if all of creation were to be gathered in one of these levels, it would encompass them all.

«To abide therein forever» and never leave it or want to leave

﴿Verily with Allah there is an immense reward﴾. The abundance of His reward is nothing strange in light of the bounty of Allah, and its greatness and beauty are nothing to be wondered at from the One Who has the ability to say to a thing, 'Be!' and it is.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَتَّخِذُوا آبَاءَكُمْ وَإِخْوَانَكُمْ أَوْلِيَاءَ إِنِ اسْتَحَبُّوا
الْكُفْرَ عَلَى الْإِيمَانِ وَمَنْ يَتَوَلَّهُمْ مِنْكُمْ فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الظَّالِمُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ قُلْ
إِنْ كَانَ آبَاؤُكُمْ وَأَبْنَاؤُكُمْ وَإِخْوَانُكُمْ وَأَزْوَاجُكُمْ وَعَشِيرَتُكُمْ وَأَمْوَالٌ
اقتَرَفْتُمُوهَا وَتِجَارَةٌ تَخْشَوْنَ كَسَادَهَا وَمَسْكَنٌ تَرْضَوْنَهَا أَحَبَّ إِلَيْكُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ
وَرُسُولِهِ وَجِهَادٍ فِي سَبِيلِهِ فَتَرَبَّصُوا حَتَّى يَأْتِيَ اللَّهُ بِأَمْرٍ وَاللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ
الْفَاسِقِينَ ﴿٢٤﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٢٣-٢٤)

- 9:23. O you who believe, do not take as allies your fathers and brothers, if they prefer disbelief to faith; whoever among you takes them as allies, such are wrongdoers.
- 9:24. Say: If your fathers, your sons, your brothers, your spouses, your clan, the wealth that you have acquired, the merchandise which you fear will not be sold, and the dwellings in which you delight, are dearer to you than Allah and His Messenger, and striving and fighting in His cause, then wait until Allah brings about His decree [of punishment]. For Allah does not guide disobedient people.

﴿O you who believe﴾, act in accordance with the requirements of your faith, by taking as allies those who adhere to it and regarding as enemies those who do not do so;

﴿do not take as allies your fathers and brothers﴾ who are the closest of people to you, so it is even more appropriate that you should not take as allies other people ﴿if they prefer disbelief to faith﴾ that is, they willingly choose disbelief over faith.

﴿whoever among you takes them as allies, such are wrongdoers﴾ because they have transgressed and disobeyed Allah, by taking His enemies as allies. The basis of alliance is love and support; by taking them as allies, this implies giving precedence to obeying them over obedience to Allah and giving precedence to loving them over loving Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ).

The reason why they are wrongdoers is that love of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) should be given precedence over love of all others, and everything else should be secondary to them. Hence Allah says:

﴿Say: If your fathers﴾ and, by the same token, mothers

﴿your sons, your brothers﴾ in lineage and kinship

﴿your spouses, your clan﴾ that is, your relatives in general

﴿the wealth that you have acquired﴾ that is, that you have earned and toiled for. This is singled out for mention because people are more attached to it and more careful with it than wealth that comes to them without effort or striving.

﴿the merchandise which you fear will not be sold﴾ that is, you fear that its price will drop or that it will be lost. This includes all kinds of trade and earnings, such as trade goods, vessels, weapons, furniture, grains, farmland, livestock and so on.

﴿and the dwellings in which you delight﴾ because of their beauty and adornment, and because they suit your desires.

If these things ﴿are dearer to you than Allah and His Messenger, and striving and fighting in His cause﴾, then you are transgressors and wrongdoers.

﴿then wait﴾ and watch out for that which will befall you of punishment

﴿until Allah brings about His decree [of punishment]﴾ which cannot be put back

«For Allah does not guide disobedient people» that is, those who fail to obey Him and give precedence to any of the things mentioned above over love of Allah.

This verse provides the greatest evidence for the obligation to love Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), and to give them precedence over love of anything else. It also provides evidence for the stern warning and certain wrath for the one to whom any of these things is dearer than Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), and jihad in His cause.

The sign of that is that if a person is presented with two options, one of which is loved by Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), but he has no inclination towards it, and the other option is something that he loves and desires, but it will cause him to miss out on or will detract from the thing that is loved by Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ); if he gives precedence to that which he himself desires over that which Allah loves, this indicates that he is a wrongdoer who is not doing what he should do.

﴿لَقَدْ نَصَرَكُمُ اللَّهُ فِي مَوَاطِنَ كَثِيرٍ وَيَوْمَ حُنَيْنٍ إِذْ أَعْجَبَتْكُمْ كَثْرَتُكُمْ فَلَمْ تُغْنِ عَنْكُمْ شَيْئًا وَضَاقَتْ عَلَيْكُمْ الْأَرْضُ بِمَا رَحُبَتْ ثُمَّ وَلَّيْتُم مُّدْبِرِينَ ﴿٢٥﴾ ثُمَّ أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ سَكِينَتَهُ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ وَعَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَأَنْزَلَ جُنُودًا لَمْ تَرَوْهَا وَعَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَذَلِكَ جَزَاءُ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٢٦﴾ ثُمَّ يَتُوبُ اللَّهُ مِنْ بَعْدِ ذَلِكَ عَلَى مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ﴾

(سورة التوبة: ٢٥-٢٧) ﴿٢٧﴾

- 9:25. Allah indeed helped you in many battles. But on the day of Hunayn, when you were pleased with your great number, it availed you nothing; the land, despite its vastness, seemed to close in on you, and you turned and fled.

- 9:26. But then Allah sent down His reassurance to the Messenger and to the believers; He sent down troops that you did not see, and punished those who disbelieved. Thus does He requite the disbelievers.
- 9:27. Then after that, Allah will turn in mercy to whomever He wills, for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

Here Allah (ﷻ) reminds His believing slaves of the support He gave them on many occasions and in many battles; on the day of Hunayn, when the situation was critical and they saw some troops let them down and flee, and the land, despite its vastness, seemed to close in on them.

The story behind this verse is that when the Prophet (ﷺ) conquered Makkah, he heard that Hawâzin had gathered to fight him, so he marched to them with his Companions who had conquered Makkah, and with those of the people of Makkah who had become Muslim. The Muslims numbered twelve thousand whereas the polytheists numbered four thousand, so some of the Muslims were impressed with their own great numbers and some of them said: We will never be defeated today because of our small numbers.

When they and Hawâzin met in battle, the enemy attacked the Muslims as one and they fled, no one caring about anyone else. No one stayed with the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) except approximately one hundred men, who stood firm with him; they began fighting the polytheists and the Prophet (ﷺ) urged his mule on towards the polytheists, saying:

«I am the Prophet and no lie; I am the son of ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib.»
(Bukhari and at-Tirmidhi)

When he saw what the Muslims had done, the Prophet (ﷺ) instructed al-‘Abbâs ibn ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib, who had a loud voice, to call out to the Anṣār and the rest of the Muslims: O people of the tree!<sup>5</sup> O people of Soorat al-Baqarah!

When they heard his voice, they turned back as one and fought against the polytheists, then Allah inflicted a harsh defeat on the polytheists and the Muslims captured their camp, their women and their wealth. This is what Allah (ﷻ) refers to in the words:

«Allah indeed helped you in many battles. But on the day of Ḥunayn» – Ḥunayn is the name of the place where the battle took place, between Makkah and Taif.

«when you were pleased with your great number, it availed you nothing» that is, it did not help you to any extent, small or great

«the land, despite its vastness» that is, although it was so spacious

«seemed to close in on you» because of the worry and distress that befell you when you fled

«and you turned and fled».

«But then Allah sent down His reassurance to the Messenger and to the believers». Reassurance (sakeenah) is what Allah instils in people's hearts at times of turmoil, calamity and trouble, which makes them steadfast and calms them down, and gives them peace and assurance. It is one of the great blessings that Allah bestows upon people.

«He sent down troops that you did not see» namely the angels, whom Allah sent down to help the Muslims on the day of Ḥunayn, to make them steadfast and give them glad tidings of victory.

«and punished those who disbelieved» with defeat and killing, and the Muslims' capture of their women, children and wealth.

«Thus does He requite the disbelievers» – Allah punishes them in this world, then in the hereafter they will receive a grievous punishment.

<sup>5</sup> This refers to the tree under which they had sworn allegiance to the Prophet (ﷺ) (Bay'at ar-Riḍwān).

«Then after that, Allah will turn in mercy to whomever He wills». Allah accepted the repentance of many of those who were defeated, who came to the Prophet (ﷺ) announcing their Islam and repentance, so he returned their women and children to them.

«for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful» that is, He forgives abundantly and bestows abundant mercy; He forgives grave sins for those who repent, He grants mercy to them by guiding and enabling them to repent and obey Him, and He pardons their sins and accepts their repentance. So no one should despair of His forgiveness and mercy, no matter what sins he has committed.

﴿يَتَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّمَا الْمُشْرِكُونَ نَجَسٌ فَلَا يَقْرَبُوا الْمَسْجِدَ الْحَرَامَ بَعْدَ عَامِهِمْ هَذَا وَإِنْ خِفْتُمْ عَيْلَةً فَسَوْفَ يُغْنِيكُمُ اللَّهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ إِن شَاءَ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٢٨﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٢٨)

- 9:28. O you who believe, truly the polytheists are impure, so do not let them come near the Sacred Mosque after this [final] year of theirs. If you fear poverty, Allah will soon enrich you out of His bounty, if He so wills, for Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise.

«O you who believe, truly the polytheists» who ascribe partners to Allah and worship others besides Him

«are impure» that is, they are evil in their beliefs and actions, for what impurity could be worse than that of one who worships besides Allah other gods who can neither bring benefit nor cause harm, and cannot avail him anything?

Their deeds vary between opposing Allah, barring people from the path of Allah, supporting falsehood, rejecting truth, and spreading mischief in the land, and they make no effort to set things straight.

So you must cleanse the noblest and purest of houses (namely the Kaaba) of their presence.

﴿so do not let them come near the Sacred Mosque after this [final] year of theirs﴾. That was 9 AH, when Abu Bakr as-Şiddeeq led the people in Hajj, and the Prophet (ﷺ) sent his cousin ‘Ali to announce on the greatest day of the Hajj that all treaties with the polytheists were annulled. So he announced that after that year no polytheist should perform Hajj and no one should circumambulate the Kaaba naked.

What is meant here is not physical impurity, for the disbeliever – like anyone else – is pure in body, based on the fact that Allah (ﷻ) has made it permissible to have intercourse with and touch a Jewish or Christian woman (within the framework of marriage), and has not instructed the Muslim to wash himself after physical contact with her.

So the Muslims continued to touch the bodies of the disbelievers, and there is no report to suggest that they found it off-putting. Rather what is meant – as stated above – is that they are impure in metaphorical terms because of their ascription of partners to Allah. Just as affirmation of Allah’s oneness (tawḥeed) and faith are pure, ascription of partners to Him is impure.

﴿If you﴾ O Muslims ﴿fear poverty﴾ that is, you fear need and want as a result of preventing the polytheists from coming near the Sacred Mosque, because this would cut off a means of worldly gains and the trade between you and them

﴿Allah will soon enrich you out of His bounty﴾, for His bounty is not limited to one type or one place; rather no door closes but many others open. Allah’s bounty is vast and His generosity is immense, especially for the one who gives up something for His sake, for Allah is the most generous of those who show generosity.

Allah indeed fulfilled His promise, for He enriched the Muslims out of His bounty and granted them abundant provision, to the extent that they became the richest of people and the greatest of rulers.

﴿if He so will﴾ that is, this is conditional upon His will, because being enriched in this world is not necessarily one of the outcomes of faith and it does not indicate that Allah loves a person. Hence Allah connected this matter to His will, for Allah may give worldly gain to one whom He loves and one whom He does not love, but He does not grant faith and religious commitment except to one whom He loves. ﴿for Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise﴾ that is, His knowledge is immense and He knows for whom richness is appropriate and for whom it is not appropriate, and He puts things in the right place.

The words ﴿so do not let them come near the Sacred Mosque after this [final] year of theirs﴾ indicate that after the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and the believers conquered Makkah and took charge of the Kaaba, the polytheists who had been in charge of it were still staying around the Sacred House and in Makkah, then this verse was revealed.

But before the Prophet (ﷺ) died, he issued instructions that the polytheists should be expelled from the Hejaz, so that no two religions would be left in it. All of that was in order to keep all the disbelievers away from the Sacred Mosque. All of this is included in the words ﴿so do not let them come near the Sacred Mosque after this [final] year of theirs﴾.

﴿قَاتِلُوا الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَلَا بِالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ وَلَا يُحَرِّمُونَ مَا حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ، وَلَا يَدِينُونَ دِينَ الْحَقِّ مِنَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْكِتَابَ حَتَّى يُعْطُوا الْجِزْيَةَ عَنْ يَدٍ وَهُمْ صَاغِرُونَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٢٩)

- 9:29. Fight those who do not believe in Allah and the Last Day, and do not regard as forbidden that which Allah and His Messenger have forbidden, and do not follow the religion of truth, among those who were given the scripture, until they pay the jizyah readily and feel themselves subdued.

This verse contains instructions to fight the disbelievers among the Jews and Christians, «those who do not believe in Allah and the Last Day» in the sense of sound belief that is confirmed by deeds and actions

«and do not regard as forbidden that which Allah and His Messenger have forbidden», so they do not follow His law with regard to what was forbidden

«and do not follow the religion of truth» that is, they do not follow the true religion. Even if they do claim to follow a religion, then it is not the correct religion because either it is a false religion that Allah did not prescribe in the first place, or it is an abrogated religion that Allah did prescribe, but He superseded it with the religion of Muhammad (ﷺ), therefore adhering to it after it has been abrogated is not permissible.

Hence Allah instructed the Muslims to fight these people and encouraged them to do so, because they call people to the religion that they follow and cause a great deal of harm to people, as people may be deceived by them, because of their being People of the Book.

Then Allah defines the aim of that fighting: «until they pay the jizyah» that is, wealth that is given in return for the Muslims not fighting them and allowing them to stay among the Muslims, granting them safety for their lives and their property. The jizyah is to be taken from them every year, each according to his situation, and is to be taken from rich and poor and everyone in between, as was done by Ameer al-Mu'mineen 'Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb and other caliphs.

«readily» that is, until they give it when they are subdued and have no power to resist, and they give it themselves, not sending it with a servant or anyone else; rather it can only be accepted from their own hands

«and feel themselves subdued».

If they are like this, and they ask the Muslims to let them give the jizyah and live under Muslim rule and control, and there is no fear of their evil or turmoil, and they agree to the conditions stipulated by the Muslims, then it is obligatory for the Muslim ruler or his deputy to give them this deal.

This verse is quoted as evidence by the majority of scholars who say that the jizyah can only be accepted from the People of the Book, because Allah did not mention taking the jizyah from anyone except them.

The Magians are included with the People of the Book with regard to taking the jizyah from them and allowing them to live in the Muslim lands, because the Prophet (ﷺ) took the jizyah from the Magians of Hajar, then Ameer al-Mu'mineen 'Umar took it from the Persian Magians.

It was also said that jizyah may be taken from all the disbelievers, People of the Book and others, because this verse was revealed after the Muslims had finished fighting with the polytheist Arabs and had begun to fight the People of the Book and their ilk, so this condition is describing the real situation and is not meant to impose a restriction on accepting jizyah from the People of the Book only.

This is supported by the fact that the jizyah was taken from the Magians, who were not People of the Book, and the fact that it is narrated in mutawâtir reports from the Ṣaḥâbah and those who came after them that they called those whom they were about to fight to choose one of three options: either to become Muslim or to give the jizyah or to fight, without differentiating between those who were People of the Book and others.

﴿وَقَالَتِ الْيَهُودُ عُزَيْرُ ابْنُ اللَّهِ وَقَالَتِ النَّصَارَى الْمَسِيحُ ابْنُ اللَّهِ﴾
 ذَلِكَ قَوْلُهُمْ بِأَفْوَاهِهِمْ يُضَاهَوْنَ قَوْلَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ قَبْلُ

فَقَالَهُمْ اللَّهُ أَفَن يُؤْفَكُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾ اتَّخَذُوا أَحْبَارَهُمْ وَرُهْبَانَهُمْ
 أَرْكَبًا مِّن دُونِ اللَّهِ وَالْمَسِيحَ ابْنَ مَرْيَمَ وَمَا أُمِرُوا إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُوا
 إِلَهًا وَاحِدًا لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ سُبْحَنَهُ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٣١﴾
 يُرِيدُونَ أَن يُطْفِئُوا نُورَ اللَّهِ بِأَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَيَأْبَى اللَّهُ إِلَّا أَن يُتِمَّ نُورَهُ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ
 الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾ هُوَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ رَسُولَهُ بِالْهُدَىٰ وَدِينِ الْحَقِّ لِيُظَاهِرَهُ
 عَلَى الدِّينِ كُلِّهِ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٣٠-٣٣)

- 9:30. The Jews say that 'Uzayr is the son of Allah and the Christians say that the Messiah is the son of Allah. These are mere words that they utter, resembling the words uttered by the disbelievers who came before them. May Allah destroy them; how could they have gone so far astray?
- 9:31. They take their rabbis and monks, and the Messiah son of Maryam, as lords besides Allah, even though they were commanded to worship only One God. There is no god but He; glory be to Him, [far exalted is He] above having the partners they ascribe to Him.
- 9:32. They want to extinguish Allah's light with their utterances, but Allah insists on perfecting His light, even though the disbelievers hate it.
- 9:33. It is He Who has sent His Messenger with guidance and the religion of truth, so that He may cause it to prevail over all other religions, even though the polytheists hate it.

When Allah issued the command to fight the People of the Book, He mentioned some of their evil notions so as to encourage the believers who care about their Lord and His religion to fight them, striving and doing their utmost.

«The Jews say that 'Uzayr is the son of Allah». Even though this belief was not held by all of them, it was the belief of a group among them. This indicates that among them there was an element of evil that led them to hold this view that was a transgression against Allah, by which they impugned His greatness and majesty.

It was said that the reason why they claimed that 'Uzayr was a son of Allah was that when Allah sent the kings against the Israelites and they utterly destroyed them and killed the bearers of the Torah, after that they found that 'Uzayr had memorised it or most of it, and he dictated it to them from memory and they wrote it down, then they made this abhorrent claim about him.

﴿and the Christians say that the Messiah﴾ namely 'Eesâ ibn Maryam ﴿is the son of Allah﴾. Allah says: ﴿These﴾ things that they say ﴿are mere words that they utter﴾; they have no proof or evidence for them.

If a person does not care what he says, we should not be surprised at anything he says, for he has no religion or reason to deter him from saying whatever he wants. Hence Allah says:

﴿resembling the words uttered by the disbelievers who came before them﴾ that is, these words that they say resemble the words of the polytheists who said that the angels were the daughters of Allah; their words resemble one another in falsehood.

﴿May Allah destroy them; how could they have gone so far astray?﴾ That is, how could they go astray from the plain and clear truth and believe something that is so clearly false?

Even though one may feel that it is very strange for a large nation of great numbers all to hold a belief that is clearly wrong and false, as will be quite clear with a little thought and examination, there is a reason for that which is that ﴿They take their rabbis﴾ that is, their scholars

﴿and monks﴾ that is, devoted worshippers

﴿as lords besides Allah﴾. They permit to them that which Allah has prohibited, so they regard it as permissible, and they prohibit to them that which Allah has permitted, so they regard it as prohibited, and they prescribe for them laws and beliefs that are contrary to the religion of the Messengers, and they followed them in that.

They also used to exaggerate about their scholars and worshippers, venerating them too much, taking their graves as idols to be worshipped besides Allah, offering sacrifices to them, and directing supplication and pleas for help to them.

﴿and the Messiah son of Maryam﴾ – they took him as a god besides Allah and by doing so they went against the command that Allah sent to them on the lips of His Messengers

﴿they were commanded to worship only One God. There is no god but He﴾ so they should devote their worship and obedience only to Him and direct their love and supplication to Him alone. But they went against the command of Allah and ascribed partners to Him for which He had not sent down any authority.

﴿glory be to Him, [far exalted is He] above having the partners they ascribe to Him﴾ that is, He is too exalted, too holy and too great to have the partners they ascribe to Him, and is far above whatever they fabricate, for by doing so they are showing disrespect to Him and ascribing to Him that which is not appropriate to His majesty. For Allah (ﷻ) is the most sublime in attributes and actions, far above what is attributed to Him of anything that is contrary to His perfection.

Once it is clear that they have no proof or evidence for the words they utter and the beliefs they hold, and that they are mere words that they have fabricated, Allah then tells us that ﴿They want﴾ thereby ﴿to extinguish Allah's light with their utterances﴾.

The light of Allah is His religion with which He sent His Messengers and sent down His Books. Allah calls it light because He illuminates thereby the darkness of ignorance and false religions. It is knowledge of the truth and acting upon it, and everything other than it is its opposite. These Jews and Christians, like the polytheists, want to extinguish Allah's light with mere words that they utter, for which they have no proof or evidence at all.

﴿but Allah insists on perfecting His light﴾, for it is clear light which all of humankind, even if they came together to extinguish it, will never be able to extinguish, for the One Who sent it down is the One Who controls all people, and He has guaranteed to protect it from everyone who intends ill towards it. Hence He says: ﴿but Allah insists on perfecting His light, even though the disbelievers hate it﴾ and they strive their utmost to undermine and defeat it. But their efforts will not harm the truth in the slightest.

Then Allah describes this light that He has guaranteed to perfect and protect:

﴿It is He Who has sent His Messenger with guidance﴾ which is beneficial knowledge ﴿and the religion of truth﴾ which is righteous deeds. Therefore the message with which Allah sent Muhammad (ﷺ) includes: differentiating between truth and falsehood with regard to the names, attributes and actions of Allah, His rulings and the stories He tells us; enjoining all that is in the best interests of people's hearts, souls and bodies, such as sincere devotion to Allah alone, and loving and worshipping Allah; enjoining noble attitudes, good conduct, righteous deeds and proper etiquette; prohibiting the opposite of that and everything that detracts from it, such as bad attitudes and evil deeds that harm people's hearts, souls and bodies in this world and the hereafter.

Allah sent him with guidance and the true religion, ﴿so that He may cause it to prevail over all other religions, even though the polytheists hate it﴾ that is, so that He may make it prevail over all religions, by means of proof and evidence, and by means of fighting, even though the polytheists hate it and try to defeat it and plot against it, for evil plots harm no one but their authors. Allah will inevitably fulfil His promise and do that which He has guaranteed to do.

﴿يَتَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الْأَخْبَارِ وَالرُّهْبَانِ لِيَأْكُلُونَ أَمْوَالَ
النَّاسِ بِالْبَاطِلِ وَيَصُدُّونَ عَن سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِينَ يَكْنِزُونَ الذَّهَبَ
وَالْفِضَّةَ وَلَا يُنْفِقُونَهَا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَبَشِّرْهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴿٣٤﴾ يَوْمَ يُخَمَّى
عَلَيْهَا فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ فَتُكْوَىٰ بِهَا جِبَاهُهُمْ وَجُنُوبُهُمْ وَظُهُورُهُمْ هَذَا مَا
كَنَزْتُمْ لِأَنفُسِكُمْ فَذُوقُوا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْنِزُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٣٤-٣٥)

- 9:34. O you who believe, indeed many of the rabbis and monks devour people's wealth wrongfully and bar them from the path of Allah. And as for those who hoard up gold and silver, and do not spend it in the cause of Allah, give them the tidings of a painful punishment,
- 9:35. On the day when it [that hoarded wealth] will be heated in the fire of hell, and with it their foreheads, sides and backs will be branded. [It will be said to them]: This is what you hoarded up for yourselves; now taste what you used to hoard up.

This is a warning from Allah (ﷻ) to His believing slaves against many of the rabbis and monks, namely the scholars and devoted worshippers who devour people's wealth unlawfully and bar people from the path of Allah. If they have a regular income from people's wealth, or people give them wealth, that is because of their knowledge and worship, and because people want their help to be guided to follow the path of guidance, and they take it but they bar people from the path of Allah, then in that case their taking it in this manner is unlawful and wrong. For people give them what they give only so that they may show them the straight path.

Part of their taking people's wealth unlawfully is that people give them wealth so that they will give them an edict that they like or will judge in their favour on the basis of something other than that which Allah has revealed. In that case these rabbis and monks are committing wrong in both of these cases: taking people's wealth unlawfully and barring people from the path of Allah.

﴿And as for those who hoard up﴾ that is, withhold ﴿gold and silver, and do not spend it in the cause of Allah﴾ that is, good causes that bring one closer to Allah. This refers to the prohibited kind of hoarding, which is withholding wealth and not spending it on obligatory expenses, such as withholding zakāh or failing to spend on obligatory maintenance of wives or relatives, or failing to spend it in Allah's cause if that becomes obligatory ﴿give them the tidings of a painful punishment﴾.

Then Allah explains that by saying: ﴿On the day when it [that hoarded wealth] will be heated﴾ that is, their wealth will be heated ﴿in the fire of hell﴾. That is, each individual dinar or dirham will be heated on its own.

﴿and with it their foreheads, sides and backs will be branded﴾ on the Day of Resurrection. Every time it cools down, it will be reheated, on a day the length of which will be fifty thousand years, and it will be said to them by way of rebuke and blame: ﴿This is what you hoarded up for yourselves; now taste what you used to hoard up﴾; Allah has not wronged you; rather you wronged yourselves and brought this punishment upon yourselves.

Allah mentions two ways in which a person may go astray with regard to disposal of his wealth:

either he spends it on wrong causes that bring him no benefit; rather he gains nothing from that except pure harm, such as spending his wealth on sins and desires that do not help him to obey Allah, or spending it to bar others from the path of Allah; or he withholds his wealth and does not spend it on that which is obligatory. And the prohibition of a thing is implicitly enjoining its opposite.

﴿إِنَّ عِدَّةَ الشُّهُورِ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ اثْنَا عَشَرَ شَهْرًا فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ يَوْمَ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ مِنْهَا أَرْبَعَةٌ حُرُمٌ ذَلِكَ الدِّينُ الْقَيِّمُ فَلَا تَظْلِمُوا فِيهِنَّ أَنْفُسَكُمْ وَقَاتِلُوا الْمُشْرِكِينَ كَافَّةً كَمَا يُقَاتِلُونَكُمْ كَافَّةً وَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الْمُتَّقِينَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٣٦)

- 9:36. Verily the number of months with Allah is twelve, as ordained by Allah on the day He created the heavens and the earth, of which four are sacred. This is the correct calculation. So do not wrong yourselves during them, and fight the polytheists all together, as they fight you all together. And know that Allah is with those who fear Him.

﴿Verily the number of months with Allah﴾ that is, according to His will and decree

﴿is twelve﴾ – these are the well-known months

﴿as ordained by Allah﴾ that is, as decreed by Him

﴿on the day He created the heavens and the earth﴾; He initiated the alternation of night and day, decreed their timescales, and divided them into these twelve months.

﴿of which four are sacred﴾ namely Rajab on its own, and (the consecutive months of) Dhul-Qa'dah, Dhul-Hijjah and Muḥarram. They are called sacred as a sign of their special nature and sanctity, and the prohibition of fighting during them.

﴿So do not wrong yourselves during them﴾. It may be that the pronoun (them) refers to the twelve months, and Allah (ﷻ) stated that He has made them a means of measuring time, so time should be filled with acts of obedience and thanks should be given to Allah (ﷻ) for this blessing and making the months a means of serving people's interests, so let them beware of wronging themselves during these (twelve) months;

Or it may be that the pronoun refers to the four sacred months, and that this is a prohibition on wronging themselves during them, especially when this prohibition applies at all times, because these months are extra special and wrongdoing at that time is more serious than at other times.

Part of that is the prohibition on fighting during these months, according to the view of those scholars who say that the prohibition on fighting during the sacred months was not abrogated by the general texts that speak of the prohibition of fighting therein.

Other scholars say that the prohibition on fighting during the sacred months was abrogated, based on the general meaning of texts such as the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿and fight the polytheists all together, as they fight you all together﴾ (9: 36). That is, fight all types of polytheists and those who disbelieve in the Lord of the worlds.

(What this view implies is:) Do not single out any of the disbelievers for fighting, to the exclusion of others; rather take them all as enemies to you, as they regard you as enemies. For they have taken all the believers as their enemies and will not spare any effort to cause them harm.

It may be that the word translated here as ﴿all together﴾ (kāffatan) means that all should fight together as a group, in which case the meaning is: all of you should fight the polytheists. This would imply that mobilisation is obligatory upon all the believers. If we interpret it in this manner, we may say that it was abrogated by the verse in which Allah says: ﴿It is not right for all the believers to go out together﴾ (9: 122).

﴿And know that Allah is with those who fear Him﴾ by His help, support and aid. So let them strive to fear Allah in secret and in public, and to obey Him, especially when fighting the disbelievers, for in that situation a believer may abandon fear of Allah when dealing with the enemy disbelievers who are waging war.

﴿إِنَّمَا النَّسِيءُ زِيَادَةٌ فِي الْكُفْرِ يُضَلُّ بِهِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يُحْلُونَهُ عَامًا
وَيُحْكِمُونَهُ عَامًا لِّيَوَاطِنُوا عِدَّةَ مَا حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ فَيُحِلُّوا مَا حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ زَيْنٌ لَهُمْ
سُوْءُ أَعْمَالِهِمْ وَاللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الْكَافِرِينَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٣٧)

9:37. Verily the postponing of sacred months is but another act of disbelief, because of which those who disbelieve are led further astray. They regard it as profane one year and as sacred the next, so as to match the number of months that Allah has made sacred, thus making lawful what Allah has forbidden. The evil of their actions has been made fair seeming to them. And Allah does not guide the disbelieving people.

Postponing refers to what the people of the jāhiliyah used to do with regard to the sacred months, which was one of their false innovations. When they felt that they needed to fight at some time during the sacred months, they decided – on the basis of their corrupt thinking – to preserve the number of sacred months during which Allah had prohibited fighting, but they would postpone some of the sacred months, or bring them forward, and they would replace it after shifting it, with whatever they wanted of non-sacred months. Once they had made this substitution, they would permit fighting during it and they would make another month sacred instead. This, as Allah tells us, was an increase in their disbelief and misguidance, because of what it involved of transgressions, such as the following:

- They introduced it on the basis of their own ideas and made it equal to the laws prescribed by Allah, but Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) had nothing to do with it.
- They tampered with the religion, making what was lawful prohibited and what was prohibited lawful.

- They thought that they could deceive Allah and the people by their claim, and they confused the people concerning their religion, resorting to trickery with regard to the religion of Allah.
- If people persist in matters that are contrary to the laws of Allah, their ugliness becomes no longer noticeable, and people may think that these are good matters, which results in error and misguidance. Hence Allah says:

﴿...because of which those who disbelieve are led further astray. They regard it as profane one year and as sacred the next, so as to match the number of months that Allah has made sacred, thus making lawful what Allah has forbidden﴾ they make the numbers match, so they regard as profane that which Allah has made sacred.

﴿The evil of their actions has been made fair seeming to them﴾ that is, the devils have made their bad deeds fair seeming to them, so they think that they are good, because of the idea that was made attractive to their minds.

﴿And Allah does not guide the disbelieving people﴾ that is, those whose hearts became immersed in disbelief and lies; even if every sign were to come to them, they would not believe.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مَا لَكُمْ إِذَا قِيلَ لَكُمْ أَنْفِرُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ أَنْقَضْتُمْ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ ۚ أَرْضَيْتُمْ بِالْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا مِنَ الْآخِرَةِ ۚ فَمَا مَتَّعَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا فِي الْآخِرَةِ إِلَّا قَلِيلٌ ﴿٣٨﴾ إِلَّا تَنْفِرُوا يُعَذِّبْكُمْ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا وَيَسْتَبْدِلَ قَوْمًا غَيْرَكُمْ وَلَا تَضُرُّوهُ شَيْئًا ۚ وَاللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

﴿٣٨﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٣٨-٣٩)

- 9:38. O you who believe, what is the matter with you that, when you are told to go forth in the cause of Allah, you cling heavily to the earth? Do you prefer the life of this world to the hereafter? But the enjoyment of the life of this world, as compared with that of the hereafter, is but little.
- 9:39. Unless you go forth, He will afflict you with a painful punishment, and will replace you with another people, and not the least harm will you do to Him. For Allah has power over all things.

It should be noted that much of this soorah was revealed concerning the campaign of Tabook, when the Prophet (ﷺ) mobilised the Muslims to go on campaign against the Byzantines. At that time it was very hot, provisions were few and life was hard, so some of the Muslims were reluctant, which necessitated a rebuke from Allah (ﷻ) to them, and urging them to go forth.

«O you who believe» why do you not act upon what is required by your faith, namely hastening to obey the command of Allah, seek His pleasure, strive against His enemies and support your religion? «What is the matter with you that, when you are told to go forth in the cause of Allah, you cling heavily to the earth?» That is, you behave in a lazy manner, clinging to the earth and a life of ease and comfort.

«Do you prefer the life of this world to the hereafter?» That is, your reaction is but that of one who is content with this world and focuses mainly on it, and does not care about the hereafter, so it is as if he does not believe in it.

«But the enjoyment of the life of this world» that has hindered you and to which you have given precedence over the hereafter «as compared with that of the hereafter, is but little». Has Allah not given you reason with which to weigh up matters and determine which is more deserving of being given precedence?

Is it not the case that this world – from beginning to end – is as nothing in comparison to the hereafter?

Man's life in this world is very short, so why should he make it his only goal and focus all his efforts, striving, aspirations and concern only on this short worldly life that is filled with troubles, problems and calamities?

On what basis did you decide to give it precedence over the hereafter that is filled with all kinds of delights, everything that people long for and that delights the eyes, and you will abide therein forever? By Allah, no one could give precedence to this world over the hereafter who has faith established in his heart, or is of sound mind, or could be regarded as a person of mature thinking.

Then Allah warned them against not mobilising:

﴿Unless you go forth, He will afflict you with a painful punishment﴾ in this world and the hereafter, for failing to mobilise at a time when the command goes forth is a major sin that deserves the severest punishment, because of the great harm to which it leads. The one who fails to mobilise has disobeyed Allah (ﷻ) and is not helping to support the religion of Allah or defend the Book and law of Allah. He is also failing to help his Muslim brothers against their enemy who wants to eradicate them and destroy their religion. Moreover, those who are weak in faith may follow his example and, what is worse, he may weaken the resolve of those who have mobilised to fight in jihad against the enemies of Allah. So the one who is like this deserves this stern warning of punishment from Allah.

﴿Unless you go forth, He will afflict you with a painful punishment, and will replace you with another people﴾, then they will not be like you

﴿and not the least harm will you do to Him﴾ for Allah (ﷻ) has guaranteed to cause His religion to prevail and His word to be supreme, whether you comply with the command of Allah or throw it behind your backs.

﴿For Allah has power over all things﴾. Nothing that He wills is beyond Him, and no one can try to overcome Him.

﴿إِلَّا نَنْصُرْهُ فَقَدْ نَصَرَهُ اللَّهُ إِذْ أَخْرَجَهُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا ثَانِيَ اثْنَيْنِ إِذْ هُمَا فِي الْغَارِ إِذْ يَقُولُ لِصَاحِبِهِ لَا تَحْزَنْ إِنَّا نَظُنُّ أَنَّ اللَّهَ سَكِينَتُهُ عَلَيْهِ وَأَيَّدَهُ بِجُودٍ لَمْ تَرَوْهَا وَجَعَلَ كَلِمَةَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا السُّفْلَى وَكَلِمَةُ اللَّهِ هِيَ الْعُلْيَا وَاللَّهُ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٤٠)

- 9:40. If you do not help him [the Prophet (ﷺ)], Allah indeed helped him, when the disbelievers drove him out, and he was one of two, and when they were in the cave, as he said to his Companion: Do not worry; verily Allah is with us. Thereupon Allah sent down His reassurance to him, supported him with troops that you did not see, and made the word of those who disbelieve the lowest. And it is the word of Allah that is supreme. And Allah is Almighty, Most Wise.

That is, if you do not support His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ), then Allah has no need of you. You cannot harm him in the slightest, for He helped His Prophet (ﷺ) when he had the smallest number of followers and was most vulnerable, ﴿when the disbelievers drove him out﴾ from Makkah, when they decided to kill him, and tried hard, with all keenness, to do that. Thus they compelled him to leave.

﴿and he was one of two﴾ that is, he and Abu Bakr as-Şiddeeq (رضي الله عنه) ﴿and when they were in the cave﴾ that is, when they fled from Makkah and hid in the cave of Thawr on the outskirts of the city, and they stayed there until the pursuit cooled off.

In that critical situation, when their enemies had spread out in all directions looking for them in order to kill them, Allah sent down to them His support, such as had never crossed their minds.

«as he» that is, the Prophet (ﷺ) said to his Companion» Abu Bakr, when he was upset and very anxious «Do not worry; verily Allah is with us» with His help, support and aid. «Thereupon Allah sent down His reassurance to him» that is, steadfastness, comfort and tranquillity, that made your hearts steady. Hence when his Companion became anxious, he comforted him and said: «Do not worry; verily Allah is with us».

«supported him with troops that you did not see», namely the noble angels whom Allah sent to guard him
 «and made the word of those who disbelieve the lowest» that is, brought low and humiliated. For those who disbelieved had gone forth with strong resolve, thinking that they had the power to fulfil their goals and believing that they would be able to catch the Messenger (ﷺ) and kill him. They were filled with resentment towards him, so they did their utmost to carry out their plan, but Allah foiled their scheme and they did not achieve their goal; rather they were unable to harm him in the least.

Allah supported His Messenger (ﷺ) by protecting him; this is the support that is mentioned here. Divine support is of two types: the first type is support of the Muslims when they go after their enemy, whereby Allah helps them to attain the goal, thus they gain the upper hand over their enemy and defeat them.

The second type of divine support is support for the one who is oppressed and vulnerable, whose enemy is after him and is in a position of strength. Allah's support in that case is by protecting him and defending him from his enemy, and perhaps this is the more beneficial of the two types of support. Allah's support of His Messenger (ﷺ) when the disbelievers drove him out is of this second type.

«And it is the word of Allah that is supreme» that is, His decree, whether it is His universal decree or His religious injunctions, is supreme over all others. That includes the words:

﴿...Thus it is incumbent upon Us to save the believers.﴾ (Yoonus 10: 103)

﴿We will surely cause Our Messengers and those who believe to prevail in the life of this world and on the day when the witnesses come forward.﴾ (Ghâfir 40: 51)

﴿And it is surely Our troops who will be the victors.﴾ (aṣ-Ṣaffât 37: 173)

It is the religion of Allah that will prevail and be superior over all other religions, by means of clear proof and evidence and by means of overwhelming force.

﴿And Allah is Almighty﴾ and no one can overcome Him or escape Him.

﴿Most Wise﴾ – He does what is appropriate, and He may delay victory for His party until a later time, in accordance with His divine wisdom.

This verse highlights the superiority of Abu Bakr aṣ-Ṣiddeeq and his unique virtue that was shared by no one else of this Ummah, which is that he attained great virtue and sublime companionship with the Prophet (ﷺ). The Muslims are unanimously agreed that this is what is meant in this verse. Hence they regard anyone who denies that Abu Bakr was a Companion of the Prophet (ﷺ) as a disbeliever, because he is denying the Qur'an which stated that.

This verse also highlights the virtue of divine reassurance, and tells us that it is a blessing that Allah bestows upon His slaves at times of hardship and fear that make people lose their nerve. The sense of reassurance is commensurate with a person's knowledge of his Lord and trust in His promise, and with his level of faith and courage.

This verse also tells us that worry may affect the sincerest of Allah's slaves, even though it is more appropriate, if a person is faced with worry, to try to dispel it, because it causes one to lose courage and weakens one's resolve.

﴿أَنْفِرُوا خِفَافًا وَثِقَالًا وَجَاهِدُوا بِأَمْوَالِكُمْ وَأَنْفُسِكُمْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ذَلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ﴾ (٤١) لَوْ كَانَ عَرَضًا قَرِيبًا وَسَفَرًا قَاصِدًا لَّاتَّبَعُوكَ وَلَكِنْ بَعُدَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ الشُّقَّةُ وَسَيَحْلِفُونَ بِاللَّهِ لَوِ اسْتَطَعْنَا لَخَرَجْنَا مَعَكُمْ يُهْلِكُونَ أَنْفُسَهُمْ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ إِنَّهُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٤١-٤٢)

- 9:41. Go forth, whether it be easy or difficult for you, and strive and fight, offering your wealth and your lives in the cause of Allah. That is better for you, if only you knew.
- 9:42. If there had been easy gains and a short journey, they would certainly have followed you, but the distance seemed too far to them. They will swear by Allah: If we had been able, we would have gone forth with you. They destroy their own souls; and Allah knows that they are indeed lying.

Here Allah says to His believing slaves, urging them to mobilise in His cause: ﴿Go forth, whether it be easy or difficult for you﴾ that is, at times of hardship and of ease, whether you go willingly or reluctantly, whether it is hot or cold, in all circumstances.

﴿and strive and fight, offering your wealth and your lives in the cause of Allah﴾ that is, do your utmost and try your best by offering your wealth and your lives. This indicates that just as it is obligatory to offer yourself in jihad, it is also obligatory to offer your wealth in jihad, as dictated by need.

﴿That is better for you, if only you knew﴾ that is, engaging in jihad, offering your lives and your wealth, is better for you than staying behind and not engaging in that, because by doing that you may attain the pleasure of Allah (ﷻ) and a lofty status before Him, supporting the religion of Allah and being listed among His troops and His party.

﴿If there had been easy gains﴾ in your going out, that is if there had been worldly benefits that were easily obtained
 ﴿and a short journey﴾ that is, if the place had been nearby and easy to reach
 ﴿they would certainly have followed you﴾ because of the lack of many difficulties
 ﴿but the distance seemed too far to them﴾ that is, it was too far away for them and travel was difficult for them, so they were reluctant to go with you. This is not a sign of being a true slave of Allah; rather the true slave follows the instructions of his Lord in all circumstances, and does all acts of worship, whether they are easy or difficult. Such is the one who is a true slave of Allah in all situations.

﴿They will swear by Allah: If we had been able, we would have gone forth with you﴾ that is, they will swear that they stayed behind because they had an excuse and that they were not able to go.

﴿They destroy their own souls﴾ by staying behind, telling lies and saying things that are not true
 ﴿and Allah knows that they are indeed lying﴾.

This rebuke is only addressed to the hypocrites who stayed behind and did not go with the Prophet (ﷺ) on the campaign to Tabook. They offered false excuses, and the Prophet (ﷺ) pardoned them on the basis of their mere excuses, without testing them to find out who was telling the truth and who was lying. Hence Allah rebuked him for hastening to accept their excuses, as He said:

﴿عَفَا اللَّهُ عَنْكَ لِمَ أَذِنَتْ لَهُمْ حَتَّىٰ يَتَبَيَّنَ لَكَ الَّذِينَ صَدَقُوا وَتَعْلَمَ
 الْكَاذِبِينَ﴾ (١٣) لَا يَسْتَفِذُكَ الَّذِينَ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ أَن
 يُجَاهِدُوا بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَنْفُسِهِمْ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِالْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿١٤﴾ إِنَّمَا يَسْتَفِذُكَ الَّذِينَ لَا

يُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ وَآزَلَّتْ قُلُوبُهُمْ فَهُمْ فِي رَيْبِهِمْ يَتَرَدَّدُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾
(سورة التوبة: ٤٣-٤٥)

- 9:43. May Allah pardon you! Why did you give them permission [to stay behind] before it became clear to you which of them were telling the truth, and which were lying?
- 9:44. Those who believe in Allah and the Last Day will never ask your leave to be excused from striving and fighting, offering their wealth and their lives in the cause of Allah. And Allah knows well those who are conscious of Him.
- 9:45. Only those who do not believe in Allah and the Last Day ask your leave to be excused. Their hearts are full of doubt, so in their doubt they waver.

Here Allah says to His Messenger (ﷺ): ﴿May Allah pardon you﴾ that is, may He forgive you for what you did.

﴿Why did you give them permission [to stay behind] before it became clear to you which of them were telling the truth, and which were lying﴾, by testing them to find out who was telling the truth and who was lying, so that you could excuse those who deserved to be excused, and not those who did not deserve that?

Then Allah tells us that those who believe in Allah and the Last Day do not ask for permission to stay behind from jihad and avoid offering their wealth and their lives, because the desire that they have for good and their faith motivates them to strive in jihad without anyone urging them, let alone asking to stay behind without an excuse.

﴿And Allah knows well those who are conscious of Him﴾ and He will reward them for what they did of fearing Him. As He knows well those who are conscious of and fear Him, He tells us that one of their signs is that they do not seek permission to stay behind from jihad.

«Only those who do not believe in Allah and the Last Day ask your leave to be excused. Their hearts are full of doubt» that is, they do not have perfect faith or real certainty, hence they have little desire for good and they are too cowardly to fight; they needed to seek permission to refrain from fighting.

«so in their doubt they waver» that is, they are still unsure and confused.

﴿وَلَوْ أَرَادُوا الْخُرُوجَ لَأَعَدُوا لَهُ عُدَّةً وَلَكِنْ كَرِهَ اللَّهُ انْبِعَاثَهُمْ فَثَبَّطَهُمْ وَقِيلَ أَفْعُدُوا مَعَ الْقَاعِدِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ لَوْ خَرَجُوا فِيكُمْ مَا زَادُوكُمْ إِلَّا خَبَالًا وَلَا أَوْضَعُوا خِلَالَكُمْ يَبْغُونَكُمُ الْفِتْنَةَ وَفِيكُمْ سَمَّاعُونَ لَهُمْ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمُ الْظَالِمِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾ لَقَدْ ابْتِغَوْا الْفِتْنَةَ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَقَلَبُوا لَكَ الْأُمُورَ حَتَّى جَاءَ الْحَقُّ وَظَهَرَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ وَهُمْ كَرِهُونَهُ ﴿٤٨﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٤٦-٤٨)

- 9:46. If they had truly wanted to go forth, they would surely have made preparations to do so, but Allah disliked their going forth, so He made them lag behind, and it was said to them: Stay behind with those who are staying behind.
- 9:47. If they had gone forth with you, they would only have contributed mischief, and they would have scurried to and fro in your midst, sowing discord among you, and among you there are some who would have listened to them. And Allah is fully aware of the wrongdoers.
- 9:48. Indeed they have tried to sow discord before, and they devised plots against you, until the truth [victory] came and the decree [religion] of Allah prevailed, even though they hated it.

Here Allah explains that in the case of those hypocrites who stayed behind, there appeared circumstantial evidence from their attitude or conduct that proved that they never intended to engage in jihad at all, and that the excuses they made were false, because the real excuse is an impediment that arises when one tries one's best and takes all possible measures to go out, then a legitimate impediment prevents one from doing so. That is the valid excuse.

As for these hypocrites, ﴿If they had truly wanted to go forth, they would surely have made preparations to do so﴾ that is, they would have prepared themselves and taken whatever measures they could, but because they did not make any preparations, it was known that they never intended to go out.

﴿but Allah disliked their going forth﴾ with you on campaign ﴿so He made them lag behind﴾ as dictated by His will and decree, even though He had enjoined them and urged them to go out, and had given them the ability to do so. But by His wisdom, He did not want to help them; rather He forsook them and discouraged them ﴿and it was said to them: Stay behind with those who are staying behind﴾, with the women and those who have excuses.

Then Allah tells us the wisdom behind that:

﴿If they had gone forth with you, they would only have contributed mischief﴾ that is, they would have caused trouble

﴿and they would have scurried to and fro in your midst﴾ that is, they would have striven to cause division and evil among you, and they would have divided you when you had been united

﴿sowing discord among you﴾ that is, they would have been keen to divide you and create enmity among you

﴿and among you﴾ are some weak-minded people ﴿who would have listened to them﴾ that is, they would have responded to their call and been deceived by them. The hypocrites are keen to cause trouble for you and spread evil among you, and to discourage you from meeting your enemies in battle, and among you are some who would have been influenced by them and would have asked them for advice. So what evil do you think would have resulted from their going out with the believers, and what great trouble they may have caused?

Allah, in His great wisdom, caused them to lag behind and prevented them from going out with His believing slaves, out of mercy and kindness towards the latter, lest there mingle with them those who would not help them, and would in fact harm them.

«And Allah is fully aware of the wrongdoers», so He teaches His slaves how to beware of them, and explains to them the problems that result from mixing with them.

Then Allah explains that these people already had a precedent of causing trouble:

«Indeed they have tried to sow discord before» that is, when you migrated to Madinah, they did their utmost

«and they devised plots against you» and thought hard, and they used to cause mischief in their attempts to undermine your call and harm your religion, and they did not spare any effort to do so,

«until the truth [victory] came and the decree [religion] of Allah prevailed, even though they hated it». Thus their plot was foiled and their falsehood diminished. Such people deserve that Allah should warn His believing slaves against them, and that the believers should not care if they stay behind.

﴿وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَقُولُ أَفِئْدَن لِّي وَلَا تَفْتِنِّي ۚ أَلَا فِي الْفِتْنَةِ سَقَطُوا ۚ وَإِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ لَمُحِيطَةٌ بِالْكَافِرِينَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٤٩)

- 9:49. Among them there are some who say: Give me leave to be excused and do not expose me to temptation. They have already fallen prey to temptation. Verily hell encompasses the disbelievers.

That is, among these hypocrites are some who ask leave to stay behind and give another weird excuse, as they say: «Give me leave to be excused» and allowed to stay behind «and do not expose me to temptation» by going out, for if I go out and I see the Byzantine women, I will not be able to resist temptation. This was said by al-Jadd ibn Qays, but what he meant – may Allah curse him – was to show off in a hypocritical manner. It was as if he were saying: My intention is good, for if I go out, I will be exposing myself to temptation and evil, but if I do not go out, I will be safe and will refrain from evil.

Allah (ﷻ) said, highlighting the falseness of this claim: «They have already fallen prey to temptation».

Even if we assume that the one who said this was sincere in his intention, staying behind would cause a greater evil and would definitely lead to greater mischief, namely disobedience towards Allah and towards His Messenger (ﷺ), and having the audacity to commit this great sin and tell this great lie. As for going out, the negative consequences thereof are small in comparison to staying behind, and they are not real. Moreover, the aim of the one who said this was to stay behind, and nothing else. Hence Allah warned them by saying: «Verily hell encompasses the disbelievers» and they will have no escape or way out from it.

﴿إِنْ تُصِيبَكَ حَسَنَةٌ تَسُؤْهُمْ وَإِنْ تُصِيبَكَ مُصِيبَةٌ يَقُولُوا قَدْ أَخَذْنَا أَمْرًا مِنْ قَبْلٍ وَيَسْتَوِلُوا وَهُمْ فَرِحُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾ قُلْ لَنْ يُصِيبَنَا إِلَّا مَا كَتَبَ اللَّهُ لَنَا هُوَ مَوْلَانَا وَعَلَى اللَّهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٥١﴾﴾ (سورة

التوبة: ٥٠-٥١)

- 9:50. If anything good happens to you, it grieves them; but if some misfortune overtakes you, they say: We took our precautions beforehand, and they turn away rejoicing.
- 9:51. Say: Nothing will ever happen to us except what Allah has decreed for us; He is our Master. And in Allah let the believers put their trust.

Here Allah explains that the hypocrites are the true enemies who are filled with utter hatred towards the religion.

﴿If anything good happens to you﴾, such as victory and gaining the upper hand over the enemy, ﴿it grieves them﴾ that is, it upsets and worries them

﴿but if some misfortune overtakes you﴾ such as the enemy gaining the upper hand over you

﴿they say﴾, rejoicing that they remained safe by not going out with you

﴿We took our precautions beforehand﴾ and did that which saved us from falling into such a calamity.

﴿and they turn away rejoicing﴾ in your misfortune, and the fact that they did not share in it with you.

But Allah says, refuting them:

﴿Say: Nothing will ever happen to us except what Allah has decreed for us﴾ that is, what He decreed and wrote in al-Lawh al-Mahfoodh.

﴿He is our Master﴾ that is, He is in charge of our affairs both religious and worldly, so we must accept His decree, for we have no control over anything.

﴿And in Allah﴾ alone ﴿let the believers put their trust﴾ that is, let them rely on Him to bring that which is in their best interests and ward off harm from them, and let them trust Him to help them attain what they want, for the one who puts his trust in Him will never be disappointed. As for the one who puts his trust in anyone other than Him, he will indeed be disappointed and will not attain what he hopes for.

﴿قُلْ هَلْ تَرْتَبِصُونَ بِنَا إِلَّا إِحْدَى الْحُسَيْنَيْنِ وَنَحْنُ نَتَرَبَّصُ بِكُمْ أَنْ يُصِيبَكُمْ
اللَّهُ بِعَذَابٍ مِنْ عِنْدِهِ أَوْ يَأْتِيَنَا فَتَرَبَّصُوا إِنَّا مَعَكُمْ مُتَرَبِّصُونَ

(سورة التوبة: ٥٢) ﴿٥٢﴾

- 9:52. Say: Are you waiting for anything to happen to us except one of the two good things [victory or martyrdom]? But we are waiting for Allah to afflict you with a punishment, either from Himself or at our hands. So wait; we too are waiting.

That is, say to the hypocrites who are watching and hoping for some misfortune to befall you: What are you expecting to happen to us? For what you expect to happen to us can only be something that will be of great benefit to us. It can only be one of two things: either we will prevail over the enemy and defeat them, and attain reward in the hereafter and in this world; or we will attain martyrdom which is the highest level any person may reach and the loftiest status before Allah.

As for what we expect to happen to you – O hypocrites – we are waiting for Allah to inflict punishment upon you from Him, a punishment which has nothing to do with us or a punishment at our hands, by giving us power over you and authority to kill you. So you are waiting for something good to happen to us, and we are waiting with you, for something bad to happen to you.

﴿قُلْ أَنْفِقُوا طَوْعًا أَوْ كَرْهًا لَنْ يُتَقَبَلَ مِنْكُمْ إِتْكُمْ كُنْتُمْ قَوْمًا فَاسِقِينَ
وَمَا مَنَعَهُمْ أَنْ تُقَبَلَ مِنْهُمْ نَفَقَتُهُمْ إِلَّا أَنَّهُمْ كَفَرُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ﴾ (or)

﴿لَا يَأْتُونَ الصَّلَاةَ إِلَّا وَهُمْ كَسَالَى وَلَا يُنْفِقُونَ إِلَّا وَهُمْ كَرِهُونَ﴾

(سورة التوبة: ٥٣-٥٤)

- 9:53. Say: Whether you spend willingly or unwillingly, it will never be accepted from you, for you are indeed a rebellious and wicked people.
- 9:54. Nothing prevents their spending from being accepted from them but that they disbelieved in Allah and His Messenger, they only come to prayer half-heartedly and they only spend reluctantly.

Here Allah points out that the spending of the hypocrites is invalid, and He states the reason for that.

﴿Say﴾ to them

﴿Whether you spend willingly﴾ that is, by your choice

﴿or unwillingly﴾ this is, not by your choice

﴿it will never be accepted from you﴾ that is, none of your good deeds will be accepted from you

﴿for you are indeed a rebellious and wicked people﴾ who fail to obey Allah. Then Allah describes their wickedness and their deeds:

﴿Nothing prevents their spending from being accepted from them but that they disbelieved in Allah and His Messenger﴾. Faith is the condition of a deed being acceptable, so these people have no faith and no righteous deeds to their credit, not even prayer which is the best of physical actions, because they do it half-heartedly.

﴿they only come to prayer half-heartedly﴾ that is, reluctantly, and they almost fail to do it because they find it so burdensome.

﴿and they only spend reluctantly﴾ that is, unwillingly and hesitantly. This is the utmost criticism of anyone who acts like they did. It also indicates that one should only come to prayer with enthusiasm and energy, and one should only spend willingly and readily, hoping to store up its reward with Allah alone, so that one does not resemble the hypocrites.

﴿فَلَا تُعْجِبْكَ أَمْوَالُهُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُهُمْ إِنَّمَا يُرِيدُ اللَّهُ لِيُعَذِّبَهُمْ بِهَا فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا
وَيَزَهِّقَ أَنْفُسَهُمْ وَهُمْ كَافِرُونَ ﴿٥٥﴾ وَيَخْلِفُونَ بِاللَّهِ إِنْهُمْ لَيْسَ لَكُمْ وَمَا هُمْ
بِنُكْرٍ وَلَكِنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ يَفْرُقُونَ ﴿٥٦﴾ لَوْ يَجِدُونَ مَلْجَأًا أَوْ مَغْرَبًا أَوْ مَدْخَلًا
لَوَلُّوا إِلَيْهِ وَهُمْ يَجْمَحُونَ ﴿٥٧﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٥٥-٥٧)

- 9:55. So do not let their wealth and their children impress you; Allah intends only to punish them thereby in the life of this world, so that their souls will depart while they are still disbelievers.
- 9:56. They swear by Allah that they are indeed of you, but they are not of you; rather they are people who are afraid of you.
- 9:57. If they could find a refuge, or caves, or any place to hide, they would run there with great haste.

Here Allah says: do not be impressed by the wealth or children of these hypocrites, for there is no blessing in that. The first misfortune that befell them because of these things is that they gave precedence to them over seeking the pleasure of their Lord, and they disobeyed Allah for the sake of these things.

﴿Allah intends only to punish them thereby in the life of this world﴾. What is meant by punishment here is what they encounter of difficulty in obtaining these things, the great effort that they had to put into that, and the stress and physical exhaustion that that entailed. If you compare what they get of pleasure from it with the hardship they go through to obtain it, you will find that there is no comparison. When it distracted them from Allah and remembering Him, it became a disaster for them, even in this world. One of the serious evil consequences of it is that their hearts get attached to it and their aspirations do not go beyond it, thus it becomes their ultimate goal and there is no room left in their hearts for any thought of the hereafter. This dictates that when they leave this world, «their souls will depart while they are still disbelievers».

What punishment could be greater than this, which leads to eternal misery and abiding remorse?

«They swear by Allah that they are indeed of you, but they are not of you; rather» what this oath of theirs means is that «they are people who are afraid of you» that is, they fear bad consequences, but they have no courage in their hearts that might enable them to state what they really have in mind. So they are afraid to show you their real nature, and they are afraid that you may disavow them, then their enemies would snatch them from all sides.

As for the one who is strong at heart and steadfast, that makes him show his real nature, good or bad. But the hypocrites are characterised by cowardice and the propensity to tell lies.

Then Allah describes the severity of their cowardice, as He says: «If they could find a refuge» to which they could go when hardship befell them

«or caves» in which they could stay

«or any place to hide» that is, any place in which they could fortify themselves,

«they would run there with great haste» that is, they would hasten and rush to it, for they have no power that would help them to be steadfast.

﴿وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَلْمِزُكَ فِي الصَّدَقَاتِ فَإِنْ أُعْطُوا مِنْهَا رَضُوا وَإِنْ لَمْ يُعْطُوا مِنْهَا إِذَا هُمْ يَسْتَخْطُونَ ﴿٥٨﴾ وَلَوْ أَنَّهُمْ رَضُوا مَا آتَاهُمُ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ وَقَالُوا حَسْبُنَا اللَّهُ سَيُؤْتِينَا اللَّهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَرَسُولُهُ إِنَّا إِلَى اللَّهِ رَاغِبُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٥٨ -

- 9:58. Among them are some who find fault with you [O Prophet] concerning the [distribution of] zakâh [alms]; if they are given a share of it, they are pleased, but if they are not given anything, they become resentful.
- 9:59. If only they had been content with what Allah and His Messenger gave them, and said: Allah is sufficient for us; Allah will give us of His bounty, and so will His Messenger; to Allah alone do we turn in hope!

That is, among these hypocrites are some who criticise you with regard to the distribution of zakâh, but their criticism is not for any good reason and it is not based on any sound opinion; rather their aim is to state that they should be given some of it.

﴿if they are given a share of it, they are pleased, but if they are not given anything, they become resentful﴾. It is not appropriate for a person to be pleased or resentful on the basis of his own whims and desires, or for the sake of worldly matters and corrupt aims; rather his inclinations should be in accordance with what pleases his Lord, as the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

«None of you truly believes until his inclinations are in accordance with what I have brought.» (Recorded by Ibn Rajab and Ibn Hajar; an-Nawawi graded it as authentic)

﴿If only they had been content with what Allah and His Messenger gave them﴾ that is, with what they were given, whether it was a small or great amount

﴿and said: Allah is sufficient for us﴾ that is, Allah will suffice us, so we are pleased with what He allocates to us. And let them hope for His generosity and kindness by saying: ﴿Allah will give us of His bounty, and so will His Messenger; to Allah alone do we turn in hope﴾ that is, we ask Him to bring that which will benefit us and ward off that which will harm us. Thus they will be safe from hypocrisy and will be guided to faith and sublime attitudes.

Then Allah (ﷻ) explains how the obligatory zakâh is to be divided:

﴿ إِنَّمَا الصَّدَقَتُ لِلْفُقَرَاءِ وَالْمَسْكِينِ وَالْعَمِلِينَ عَلَيْهَا وَالْمُؤَلَّفَةِ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَفِي الرِّقَابِ وَالْغَرَمِينَ وَفِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَأَبْنِ السَّبِيلِ فَرِيضَةً مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٦٠)

9:60. Zakâh [alms] is only for the poor and those in need; those who work to collect it; those whose hearts are to be won over; for the freeing of slaves; for debtors; for the cause of Allah; and for wayfarers. [Thus it is] ordained by Allah, and Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise.

﴿Zakâh [alms]﴾ – This refers to obligatory charity, based on the fact that charity may be given to everyone, and is not to be given only to some in exclusion of others. What is meant here is that zakâh (obligatory charity) is only for the categories mentioned in this verse, and is not for others, because Allah has limited it to these categories, of which there are eight.

The first and second categories are the poor and those in need. In this context, these words refer to two different categories. Those who are «poor» are in greater need than those who are «in need», because Allah started with them, and He only starts with the most important, then the next most important. So the word translated here as «poor» refers to those who cannot find anything, or who can only find less than half of what they need. The word translated here as «those in need» refers to those who can find half or more of what they need, but they cannot find everything they need, because if they could do that, they would be independent of means. These people are to be given zakâh so that they will no longer be poor or in need.

The third category is «those who work to collect it». This refers to everyone who is involved in that, such as those who work it out, collect it from those who give it, take care of it, carry it, write it down and so on. They are to be given a share of it because of their work; this is a payment for the work they do with regard to it.

The fourth category is «those whose hearts are to be won over». The one whose heart is to be won over is a leader who is obeyed among his people, who it is hoped will become Muslim, or whose evil is feared, or it is hoped that by giving to him his faith will become stronger or others of similar standing will become Muslim. Such people may be given whatever will achieve the purpose of winning them over.

The fifth category is «the freeing of slaves». This refers to the *mukâtib*s, who are slaves who want to buy their freedom from their masters, so they are striving to acquire enough wealth to ransom themselves. They may be given zakâh for that purpose. This also includes ransoming Muslim slaves who are held captive by the disbelievers; in fact that is even more important. The freeing of slaves does not necessarily have to be done in this exact manner; it may be done in other ways too.

The sixth category is «debtors», who are of two types:

- 1- Those who go into debt as a result of their efforts to bring about reconciliation. This refers to situations where there is trouble between two groups of people, so a man intervenes to bring about reconciliation between them, by offering money to one of them or to all of them. He may be given a share of zakâh, by way of encouraging him and making him more steadfast. He may be given zakâh even if he is rich.
- 2- Those who go into debt then fall on hard times. Such a person may be given zakâh to pay off his debt.

The seventh category is those who fight for «the cause of Allah». This refers to voluntary fighters who are not listed in the official army rolls. They may be given zakâh to help them prepare for their campaign, to purchase weapons and mounts, or to cover the maintenance of themselves and their families, so that they can focus on jihad and be reassured (of their families' welfare in their absence).

Many of the fuqahâ' said that if a person is able to earn a living but he devotes all his time to seeking knowledge, he may be given zakâh, because seeking knowledge comes under the heading of jihad in Allah's cause.

They also said that it is permissible to give zakâh to the poor so that they may perform the obligatory Hajj, but this is subject to further discussion.

The eighth category is «wayfarers». This refers to the stranger who is cut off in a foreign land. He may be given zakâh to enable him to reach his homeland.

These eight categories are the only ones to whom zakâh may be given.

«[Thus it is] ordained by Allah» that is, He has decreed it and imposed it on the basis of His knowledge and wisdom «and Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise».

It should be noted that these eight categories may be reduced to two:

- 1- People who are given for their own needs and benefit, such as the poor, those in need, and so on.
- 2- People who are given because there is a need for them and Islam can benefit from them.

Allah has enjoined this share of the wealth of the rich, in order to meet individual and public needs of Islam and the Muslims. If the rich were to give the zakâh of their wealth in the prescribed manner, there would be no poor people left among the Muslims, and enough money would be collected to support those who guard the borders and strive in jihad against the disbelievers, and all religious interests would thus be met.

﴿وَمِنْهُمْ الَّذِينَ يُؤْذُونَ النَّبِيَّ وَيَقُولُونَ هُوَ أَذْنٌ قُلْ أَدْنَىٰ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ يَوْمِنُ
 بِاللَّهِ وَيُؤْمِنُ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مِنْكُمْ وَالَّذِينَ يُؤْذُونَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ
 لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٦١﴾ يَخْلِفُونَ بِاللَّهِ لَكُمْ لِيَرْضَوْكُمْ وَاللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ أَحَقُّ أَنْ
 يُرْضَوْهُ إِنْ كَانُوا مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٦٢﴾ أَلَمْ يَعْلَمُوا أَنَّهُ مَن يُحَادِدِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ
 فَأَنَّ لَهُ نَارَ جَهَنَّمَ خَلِيدًا فِيهَا ذَلِكَ الْخِزْيُ الْعَظِيمُ ﴿٦٣﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة:

(٦٣-٦١)

- 9:61. Among them are some who offend the Prophet and say: He listens to everyone. Say: His listening to everyone is good for you; he believes in Allah, trusts the believers, and is a mercy to those among you who believe. But those who offend the Messenger of Allah will have a painful punishment.
- 9:62. They swear to you [O Muslims] by Allah in order to please you, but it is more fitting that they should please Allah and His Messenger, if they are [truly] believers.
- 9:63. Do they not know that for whoever opposes Allah and His Messenger there will be the fire of hell, in which he will abide forever? That is the ultimate disgrace.

That is, among these hypocrites ﴿are some who offend the Prophet﴾ with their bad words and criticism of him and his religion ﴿[they] say: He listens to everyone﴾ that is, they do not care what they say of offensive words to the Prophet (ﷺ), and they say: If any of that reaches him, we will come and apologise to him, and he will accept it from us because he listens to everyone; in other words, he accepts everything that is said to him and does not differentiate between those who speak the truth and those who tell lies. What they meant – may Allah curse them – is that among themselves they did not care about that and were not worried about it, because if he did not hear about it, that is what they wanted, but if he did hear about it, all they had to do was offer an invalid excuse.

They misbehaved in many ways, the worst of which was offending their Prophet (ﷺ) who had come to guide them and bring them forth from misery and doom to guidance and happiness.

Another example of their misbehaviour was that they did not care about that, which made the offence even worse.

They also cast aspersions on the Prophet's reasoning, saying that he was not smart and could not differentiate between one who spoke the truth and one who told lies, at the time when he was the most perfect of creation in terms of reasoning and understanding, and he had the deepest insight and intuition.

Hence Allah (ﷻ) said: ﴿Say: His listening to everyone is good for you﴾ that is, he accepts whoever says something good and truthful to him. As for his turning away and not rebuking many of the hypocrites who offered false excuses, that was because of his patience and because he was not concerned about their affairs, and because he obeyed the command of Allah, Who said: ﴿They will swear to you by Allah, when you return to them, so that you will leave them alone. So leave them alone, for they are an abomination﴾ (9: 95).

As for what was really in his heart and mind, Allah said concerning him: ﴿he believes in Allah [and] trusts the believers﴾ namely those who are sincere and are believers, and he knows who is speaking the truth and who is telling lies, even though he often turns away from those who he knows are lying and are not speaking the truth. ﴿and is a mercy to those among you who believe﴾, so they are guided by him and they emulate him in his attitude and manners.

As for the non-believers, they do not accept this mercy; rather they rejected it and thus they lose out in this world and in the hereafter.

﴿But those who offend the Messenger of Allah﴾ in word or deed ﴿will have a painful punishment﴾ in this world and the hereafter. Part of that painful punishment is that it is a must to execute the one who says offensive things about him or impugns him.

﴿They swear to you [O Muslims] by Allah in order to please you﴾, thus seeking to absolve themselves of the offence that they have caused and other actions, but all they are trying to achieve is that you will be pleased with them.

﴿but it is more fitting that they should please Allah and His Messenger, if they are [truly] believers﴾ because the believer does not give precedence to anything over pleasing his Lord and pleasing His Messenger (ﷺ). This indicates that they are not believers when they give precedence to pleasing anyone other than Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ).

This is a kind of opposition to Allah, and Allah warns those who oppose Him: ﴿Do they not know that for whoever opposes Allah and His Messenger﴾ that is, those who are on the opposite side and further from Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), because they take the commands of Allah lightly and transgress His sacred limits ﴿there will be the fire of hell, in which he will abide forever? That is the ultimate disgrace﴾ and there is no worse disgrace than that and none more terrifying, for they will have missed out on eternal bliss and will have incurred the punishment of hell – may Allah protect us from their fate.

يَحْذَرُ الْمُنَافِقُونَ أَنْ تُنْزَلَ عَلَيْهِمْ سُورَةٌ تُنَبِّئُهُمْ بِمَا فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ قُلِ اسْتَزِرُوا
إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُخْرِجُ مَا تَحْذَرُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾ وَلَكِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ لَيَقُولُنَّ إِنَّمَا كُنَّا
نَعُوْذُ وَنَلْعَبُ قُلْ أَبِاللَّهِ وَآيَاتِهِ وَرَسُولِهِ كُنْتُمْ تَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ لَا تَعْزِدُوا

فَذَكِّرْتُمْ بَعْدَ إِيمَانِكُمْ إِنَّ نَعْفَ عَنْ طَائِفَةٍ مِنْكُمْ نُعَذِّبُ طَائِفَهُ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا
مُجْرِمِينَ ﴿٦٦﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٦٤-٦٦)

- 9:64. The hypocrites are afraid lest a soorah be sent down concerning them, informing the [believers] of what is really in their hearts. Say: Carry on with your mockery! Verily Allah will bring forth that which you are afraid of.
- 9:65. If you question them, they will surely say: We were only indulging in idle talk and joking. Say: Was it Allah, His revelations and His Messenger that you were ridiculing?
- 9:66. Make no excuse; you have disbelieved after having believed. If We pardon some of you, We will punish others, because they are evildoers.

This soorah is sometimes called al-fāḍihah (the expositor), because it exposed the secrets of the hypocrites and brought them to light. Allah kept saying “among them... among them...” mentioning their characteristics and attributes, without naming specific individuals among them, for two reasons:

- 1- That Allah is the Concealer; He likes to conceal the sins of His slaves;
- 2- This criticism of those who have these hypocritical characteristics is addressed to them and to others until the Day of Resurrection. Therefore it was more appropriate to mention their characteristics in general terms, and that instilled greater fear in their hearts.

Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿If the hypocrites, those in whose hearts is a disease and the rumour-mongers in Madinah do not desist, We will surely instruct you to take action against them. Then they will not remain with you in the city for much longer. They are cursed; wherever they are found, they should be captured and killed outright.﴾ (al-Aḥzāb 33: 60-61)

Here Allah says: ﴿The hypocrites are afraid lest a soorah be sent down concerning them, informing the [believers] of what is really in their hearts﴾ that is, it will tell all about them and expose them, highlighting their secrets, so that they will become known to His slaves and they will become a lesson to those who pay heed.

﴿Say: Carry on with your mockery!﴾ That is, continue with what you are doing of mockery and ridicule

﴿Verily Allah will bring forth that which you are afraid of﴾. And Allah (ﷻ) did indeed fulfil His promise; He revealed this soorah which exposed them and highlighted their secrets.

﴿If you question them﴾ about what they said of slandering the Muslims and their religion. A group of them said during the campaign to Tabook: “We have not seen anything like these reciters of ours – referring to the Prophet (ﷺ) and his Companions – they love to eat, are the falsest in speech and the most cowardly when meeting the enemy” and so on.

When they heard that the Prophet (ﷺ) knew what they were saying, they came and apologised to him, and said ﴿We were only indulging in idle talk and joking﴾ that is, we were just saying words that do not mean anything; we did not intend any insult or criticism.

But Allah (ﷻ) said – explaining that this excuse was not acceptable and that they were lying: ﴿Say﴾ to them: ﴿Was it Allah, His revelations and His Messenger that you were ridiculing? Make no excuse; you have disbelieved after having believed﴾ for verily ridiculing Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) constitutes disbelief that puts one beyond the pale of Islam, because the foundation of Islam is built on veneration of Allah and respect for His religion and His Messenger (ﷺ), and any mockery thereof is contrary to this principle and is in sharp contrast to it.

Hence, when they came to the Messenger (ﷺ), apologising for what they had said, the Messenger (ﷺ) did not say anything more to them than: ﴿Was it Allah, His revelations and His Messenger that you were ridiculing? Make no excuse; you have disbelieved after having believed﴾.

﴿If We pardon some of you﴾ because they repent, seek forgiveness and express remorse,

﴿We will punish others﴾ among you

﴿because they are evildoers﴾ who persist in their evildoing and hypocrisy.

These verses indicate that whoever has something hidden in his heart, especially if what is hidden is plotting against and ridiculing His religion, His revelations and His Messenger (ﷺ), then Allah will expose it and make him known, and will punish him severely. The one who ridicules, mocks or undermines anything of the Book of Allah or the Sunnah of His Messenger (ﷺ) that is proven from him, or ridicules or undermines the Messenger (ﷺ), is a disbeliever in Allah the Almighty. These verses also indicate that repentance may be accepted from any sin, even if it is great.

﴿الْمُنَافِقُونَ وَالْمُنَافِقَاتُ بَعْضُهُمْ مِنْ بَعْضٍ يَأْمُرُونَ بِالْمُنْكَرِ وَيَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْمَعْرُوفِ وَيَقْبِضُونَ أَيْدِيَهُمْ نَسُوا اللَّهَ فَنَسِيَهُمْ إِنَّ الْمُنَافِقِينَ هُمُ الْفَاسِقُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الْمُنَافِقِينَ وَالْمُنَافِقَاتِ وَالْكُفَّارَ نَارَ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا هِيَ حَسْبُهُمْ وَلَعْنَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّقِيمٌ ﴿٦٨﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة:

(٦٨-٦٧)

- 9:67. The hypocrites, men and women, are all alike. They enjoin what is wrong and forbid what is right, and they are tight-fisted. They have forgotten Allah, so He has forgotten them. Verily the hypocrites are the wicked.

9:68. Allah has promised the hypocrites, men and women, and the disbelievers the fire of hell, to abide therein forever. It is sufficient for them; Allah has cursed them and theirs will be an everlasting punishment.

---

«The hypocrites, men and women, are all alike» because they have something in common, namely hypocrisy; therefore they are allies of one another. This is a categorical statement that the believers cannot be their allies.

Then Allah gives a general description of the hypocrites, that is typical of them whether they are ordinary people or prominent figures: «They enjoin what is wrong» namely disbelief, evil-doing and sin «and forbid what is right» namely faith, good characteristics, righteous deeds and good manners «and they are tight-fisted» that is, they are reluctant to give charity and spend on good causes, so they are described as being miserly.

«They have forgotten Allah» and they do not remember Him but little

«so He has forgotten them» and excluded them from His mercy, so He does not enable them to do good and will not admit them to paradise; rather He will leave them in the lowest level of hell, to abide therein forever.

«Verily the hypocrites are the wicked» in this verse, wickedness is limited to them, because their wickedness is greater than that of others. The evidence for that is the fact that their punishment will be worse than that of others and that the believers are tested by means of them, because they live among them, so it is essential to take precautions against them.

«Allah has promised the hypocrites, men and women, and the disbelievers the fire of hell, to abide therein forever. It is sufficient for them; Allah has cursed them and theirs will be an everlasting punishment». The hypocrites and the disbelievers will share the fate of hell and the divine curse, which they will endure for all eternity, because in this world they shared the attitudes of disbelief, opposition to Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), and disbelief in His revelations.

﴿كَالَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ كَانُوا أَشَدَّ مِنْكُمْ قُوَّةً وَأَكْثَرَ أَمْوَالًا وَأَوْلَدًا فَاسْتَمْتَعُوا بِخَلْقِهِمْ فَاسْتَمْتَعْتُمْ بِخَلْقِكُمْ كَمَا اسْتَمْتَعَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ بِخَلْقِهِمْ وَخُضْتُمْ كَالَّذِي خَاضُوا أُولَئِكَ حِطَّتْ أَعْمَلُهُمْ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ أَلَمْ يَأْتِهِمْ نَبَأُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ قَوْمِ نُوحٍ وَعَادٍ وَثَمُودَ وَقَوْمِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَأَصْحَابِ مَدْيَنَ وَالْمُؤْتَفِكَاتِ أَنَّهُمْ رُسِلُهم بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيَظْلِمَهُمْ وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٦٩-٧٠)

9:69. [O hypocrites, you are] like those who came before you, who were more powerful than you and more abundant in wealth and children. They enjoyed their share [of worldly pleasures], and you have been enjoying your share just as those who came before you enjoyed their share; and you have been indulging in idle talk just as they did. Such are the ones whose deeds will come to nothing in this world and in the hereafter; such are the ones who are the losers.

9:70. Have the stories not reached them of those who came before them – the people of Nooh, ‘Ād and Thamood; the people of Ibrāheem, and the people of Madyan and the cities overthrown? Their Messengers came to them with clear signs. It was not Allah Who wronged them, but it was they who wronged themselves.

Here Allah (ﷻ) warns the hypocrites lest there befall them that which befall the disbelieving nations who came before them: ﴿the people of Nooh, 'Âd and Thamood; the people of Ibrâheem, and the people of Madyan and the cities overthrown» namely the cities of the people of Loot.

In the case of all these peoples: «Their Messengers came to them with clear signs» that is, with the clear truth that shows the reality of things, but they disbelieved in it, then there happened to them what Allah has told us of. Your deeds are like theirs, and you are enjoying your share (of worldly pleasures), using it to fulfil your desires and turning away from the purpose for which it was given; you are using it for sinful purposes and your aspirations do not go beyond what you were given of worldly pleasures, as was the case with those who came before you.

«and you have been indulging in idle talk just as they did» that is, you have been indulging in falsehood and arguing on the basis of falsehood so as to ward off the truth. This is what they did and it was all they knew, namely enjoying their share of worldly pleasures and indulging in falsehood. Thus they deserved punishment and doom, as did those who came before them, who did the same as they did.

As for the believers, even though they may enjoy their share (of worldly pleasures) and whatever they are granted in this world, they do so in a way that helps them to obey Allah.

With regard to the knowledge they have, it is knowledge that they learned from the Messengers; this is the type of knowledge that helps them to attain certain faith in all that they try to achieve, and it helps them to argue on the basis of truth in order to refute falsehood.

«It was not Allah Who wronged them» by sending what He sent of His punishment upon them

«but it was they who wronged themselves» when they dared to disobey Him and their Messengers, and they followed the commands of every stubborn tyrant.

﴿وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتُ بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلِيَاءُ بَعْضٍ يَأْمُرُونَ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَيَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ وَيُقِيمُونَ الصَّلَاةَ وَيُؤْتُونَ الزَّكَاةَ وَيُطِيعُونَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ أُولَئِكَ سَيَرْحَمُهُمُ اللَّهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٧١﴾ وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَمَسْكَنٍ طَيِّبَةٍ فِي جَنَّاتٍ عَدْنٍ وَرِضْوَانٌ مِّنَ اللَّهِ أَكْبَرُ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ ﴿٧٢﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٧١-٧٢)

- 9:71. The believers, men and women, are allies of one another; they enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong; they establish prayer, give zakāh and obey Allah and His Messenger. Such are the ones on whom Allah will have mercy, for Allah is Almighty, Most Wise.
- 9:72. Allah has promised the believers, men and women, gardens through which rivers flow, to abide therein forever, and fine dwellings in gardens of perpetual abode, and the good pleasure of Allah, which is the greatest of all; that is the supreme triumph.

Having stated that the hypocrites are allies of one another, Allah then tells us that the believers are allies of one another, and He describes them in terms opposite to those in which He described the hypocrites.

«The believers, men and women» that is, both male and female «are allies of one another» in terms of their mutual love, help, belonging and support

«they enjoin what is right» – this refers to everything that is known to be good, whether it is sound beliefs, righteous deeds or proper conduct; this is to be applied to themselves first of all.

«and forbid what is wrong» that is, everything that is contrary and opposed to what is right, whether it is false beliefs, evil deeds or immoral conduct.

﴿[they] obey Allah and His Messenger﴾ that is, they constantly obey Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ).

﴿Such are the ones on whom Allah will have mercy﴾ that is, He will include them in His mercy and encompass them with His grace.

﴿for Allah is Almighty, Most Wise﴾ that is, He is powerful and strong, but alongside His power and strength He is also Most Wise, and does things appropriately; He is to be praised for what He creates and commands.

Then Allah mentions what He has prepared for them of reward:

﴿Allah has promised the believers, men and women, gardens through which rivers flow﴾, that include all kinds of delights and joys, and are free of all kinds of annoyance and stress. There flow between its palaces, houses and trees abundant rivers that irrigate the beautiful gardens, in which there are good things and blessings such as no one knows except Allah (ﷻ).

﴿to abide therein forever﴾ – they will never want to leave ﴿and fine dwellings in gardens of perpetual abode﴾ that have been adorned, beautified and prepared for the pious slaves of Allah, a joy to behold and a delight to reside therein, in which there are lofty dwellings so beautiful that no one could wish for anything more; Allah has even prepared for them chambers that are so transparent and beautiful that the inside may be seen from the outside and vice versa.

These dwellings are so splendid that it is no wonder that souls incline towards them and hearts are attached to them and long for them, because they are located in gardens of perpetual abode, which they will never want to leave.

﴿and the good pleasure of Allah﴾ that He will bestow upon the people of paradise

﴿which is the greatest of all﴾, greater than all the delights that they are enjoying, for they cannot enjoy those delights except by seeing their Lord and by His being pleased with them, because this is the ultimate good that worshippers seek, and the end goal for which lovers strive.

Hence the good pleasure of the Lord of the earth and the heavens is greater than the delights of paradise.

«that is the supreme triumph» when they will attain all that they wanted and be protected from all that they feared, and all their circumstances will be good. We ask Allah to make us among them, by His grace.

﴿يَأْتِيهَا النَّارُ جَهْدًا ۖ يَكْفُرُ الْكَافِرُ وَالْمُنَافِقِينَ وَأَغْلَظَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَمَأْوَاهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ ۚ وَيَنْسُ الْمَصِيرَ ﴿٧٣﴾ يَخْلِفُونَ بِاللَّهِ مَا قَالُوا وَلَقَدْ قَالُوا كَلِمَةَ الْكُفْرِ وَكَفَرُوا بَعْدَ إِسْلَامِهِمْ وَهُمْ لَا يُنَالُونَ ۚ وَمَا نَقَمُوا إِلَّا أَنْ أَغْنَاهُمُ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ ۚ فَإِنْ يَتُوبُوا يَكُ خَيْرًا لَهُمْ ۚ وَإِنْ يَتَوَلَّوْا يُعَذِّبُهُمُ اللَّهُ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَمَا لَهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا نَصِيرٍ ﴿٧٤﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٧٣-٧٤)

9:73. O Prophet, strive and fight against the disbelievers and the hypocrites, and be harsh with them. Their abode will be hell, a hapless journey's end.

9:74. They swear by Allah that they said nothing [wrong], but they did indeed utter the word of disbelief, and thus disbelieved after having accepted Islam; and they planned something that they could not achieve. They had no grievance except that Allah and His Messenger had enriched them out of His bounty. If they repent, it will be better for them, but if they turn away, Allah will afflict them with a painful punishment in this world and in the hereafter, and they will have neither protector nor helper on earth.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Prophet (ﷺ): «O Prophet, strive and fight against the disbelievers and the hypocrites» that is, go to extremes in striving against them and be harsh with them whenever necessary.

This jihad includes physical jihad, and verbal jihad, by debating, so that whoever among them decides to take the Muslims on may be fought physically and verbally, by the sword and by debate.

Whoever chooses to submit to Islam, such as living under Muslim rule or by means of a covenant, may be striven against by means of debate and proof, explaining to him the beauty of Islam and the evil of ascribing partners to Allah and of disbelief. This is how they are to be dealt with in this world.

And in the hereafter ﴿Their abode will be hell﴾ that is, this is where they will end up and will never come out of it.

﴿a hapless journey's end﴾

﴿They swear by Allah that they said nothing [wrong], but they did indeed utter the word of disbelief﴾ that is, when they said something similar to that which some of them said –

﴿...When we return to Madinah, the mightier will surely drive out therefrom the weaker...﴾ (al-Munâfiqoon 63: 8)

– and the words of mockery spoken by one after another of them, ridiculing the religion and the Messenger (ﷺ).

Whenever they realised that the Prophet (ﷺ) had heard about that, they would come to him, swearing by Allah that they had said nothing wrong. So Allah (ﷻ) said, showing them to be liars: ﴿but they did indeed utter the word of disbelief, and thus disbelieved after having accepted Islam﴾. Although their previous outward acceptance of Islam appeared to have brought them forth from disbelief, the words that they subsequently spoke nullified their Islam and brought them back to disbelief.

﴿and they planned something that they could not achieve﴾ – that was when they planned to kill the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) during the campaign to Tabook. But Allah informed him of that, so he instructed some people to foil their plot.

«They had no grievance» that is, they had no reason to criticise the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ)

«except that Allah and His Messenger had enriched them out of His bounty», after they had been poor and needy. This was something very odd, that they would look down on the one who had been the means of their emerging from darkness to light, and of their being enriched after having been poor. Did he not deserve that they should respect him, believe in him and venerate him on the basis of both religious motives and human decency?

Then Allah suggests to them that they should repent: «If they repent, it will be better for them», because repentance is the foundation of happiness in this world and the hereafter.

«but if they turn away» from repentance
«Allah will afflict them with a painful punishment in this world and in the hereafter» – in this world by means of what will befall them of worry, distress and grief because of Allah supporting His religion and granting victory to His Prophet (ﷺ), and their not attaining what they wanted, and in the hereafter because of the punishment of hell.

«and they will have neither protector» to take care of their affairs and help them achieve their goals

«nor helper» to ward off harm from them; if they are cut off from the support of Allah, they will suffer all kinds of loss, misery and deprivation

«on earth».

وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ عٰهَدَ اللّٰهَ لَئِٓىۤ اٰتٰنَا مِنْ فَضْلِهٖۤ لَنَصَّدَّقَنَّ وَلَنَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ
الصّٰلِحِيْنَ ﴿٧٥﴾ فَلَمَّآ اٰتٰهُمْ مِنْ فَضْلِهٖۤ بَجَلُوْا بِهٖۤ وَتَوَلَّوْا وَهُمْ مُّعْرِضُوْنَ
﴿٧٦﴾ فَاَعْقَبَهُمْ نِفَاقًا فِىۤ قُلُوْبِهِمْ اِلٰى يَوْمٍ يَلْقَوْنَهٗۤ بِمَا اٰخَفَوْا اللّٰهَ مَا وَعَدُوْهُ وَبِمَا

كَانُوا يَكْذِبُونَ ﴿٧٧﴾ أَلَمْ يَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ سِرَّهُمْ وَنَجْوَاهُمْ
وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَّمُ الْغُيُوبِ ﴿٧٨﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٧٥-٧٨)

- 9:75. Among them are some who made a covenant with Allah: If He gives us of His bounty, we will surely give in charity and we will surely be among the righteous.
- 9:76. But when He did give them of His bounty, they became stingy with it, and turned away in aversion.
- 9:77. So as a consequence He planted hypocrisy in their hearts, to remain until the day when they will meet Him, because they broke their promise to Allah, and because of their persistent lying.
- 9:78. Do they not realise that Allah knows what they conceal and what they talk about in secret, and that Allah is Knower of the unseen?

That is, among these hypocrites are some who gave a promise and covenant to Allah:

«If He gives us of His bounty» in this world, and grants us a life of ease and plenty

«we will surely give in charity and we will surely be among the righteous», so we will uphold ties of kinship, honour guests, help those who are stricken by calamity and do good and righteous deeds.

«But when He did give them of His bounty», they did not keep their word; rather «they became stingy with it, and turned away» from obedience and submission

«in aversion» that is, not paying any attention to doing good.

As they did not fulfil the promise they had made to Allah, He punished them:

«So as a consequence He planted hypocrisy in their hearts» on a permanent basis

﴿to remain until the day when they will meet Him, because they broke their promise to Allah, and because of their persistent lying﴾.

So the believer should beware of this abhorrent attitude, whereby a person gives a promise to his Lord that if he gets some of what he wants, he will do such and such, but then he does not fulfil that, for perhaps Allah will punish him with hypocrisy as He punished these people.

The Prophet (ﷺ) said, in the hadith that is proven in as-Saheehayn (the two authentic Hadith collections of Imam Bukhari and Imam Muslim):

«The sign of the hypocrite is threefold, when he speaks he lies, when he makes a covenant he betrays it, and when he makes a promise he breaks it.» (Bukhari and Muslim)

This hypocrite, who made a promise and solemn pledge to Allah that if Allah gave him of His bounty, he would surely give in charity and he would surely be among the righteous, spoke then lied, made a covenant then betrayed it, and made a promise then broke it.

Hence Allah warns those who do such a thing: ﴿Do they not realise that Allah knows what they conceal and what they talk about in secret, and that Allah is Knower of the unseen?﴾ And He will requite them for what they do of deeds, which Allah (ﷻ) knows full well.

These verses were revealed concerning a man among the hypocrites who was called Tha'labah. He came to the Prophet (ﷺ) and asked him to pray to Allah for him, to give him from His bounty, and he said that if He gave him, he would surely give in charity, uphold ties of kinship and help people stricken by calamity. So the Prophet (ﷺ) prayed for him. He had sheep, and they kept increasing in number until he took them outside Madinah. After that, he only attended some of the five daily prayers. Then he moved further away, after which he only attended Jumu'ah prayer. Then his sheep increased even more in number, so he took them far away, and he no longer attended Jumu'ah or any prayer in congregation.

The Prophet (ﷺ) noticed his absence, and was told about his situation. He sent out people to collect zakâh from those from whom it was due, but when they came to Tha'labah he said: This is nothing but a jizyah; this is akin to jizyah. When he did not give it to them, they came and told the Prophet (ﷺ) about that, and he said: «Woe to Tha'labah, woe to Tha'labah» three times.

When this verse was revealed concerning him and others like him, some of his family went and told him about it, so he brought his zakâh, but the Prophet (ﷺ) did not accept it. Then he brought it to Abu Bakr after the death of the Prophet (ﷺ), but he did not accept it. Then after the death of Abu Bakr he brought it to 'Umar, but he did not accept it, and it was said that he died during the time of 'Uthmân.<sup>6</sup>

﴿الَّذِينَ يَلْمِزُونَ الْمُطَّوِّعِينَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فِي الصَّدَقَاتِ
وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَجِدُونَ إِلَّا جُهْدَهُمْ فَيَسْخَرُونَ مِنْهُمْ سَخِرَ اللَّهُ مِنْهُمْ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ
﴿٦﴾ اَسْتَغْفِرُ لَهُمْ أَوْ لَا تَسْتَغْفِرُ لَهُمْ إِنْ تَسْتَغْفِرْ لَهُمْ سَبْعِينَ مَرَّةً فَلَنْ يَغْفِرَ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ

<sup>6</sup> This story of Tha'labah was mentioned by many of the commentators, but it was classed as da'eef (weak) by the prominent scholars of Hadith such as Ibn Hazzam, al-Bayhaqi, al-Qurtubi, al-Haythami, al-'Irâqi, Ibn Hajar, as-Suyooti, al-Manâwi and others (may Allah have mercy on them). They explained that its isnâd includes 'Ali ibn Yazeed, who is da'eef. Other narrators of this report include Ma'ân ibn Rifâ'ah and al-Qâsim ibn 'Abdur-Rahmân, who are also da'eef. Moreover Ibn Hazzam said that the report was also da'eef in terms of its text (matn).

See: al-Muhallâ, 11:208; al-Isâbah, biography of Tha'labah; Majma' az-Zawâ'id, 7:32; al-Jâmi' li Ahkâm al-Qur'ân, 8:210; Fayḍ al-Qadeer, 4:257; Fath al-Bâri, 3:8; as-Suyooti, Lubâb an-Nuqool, 121; al-'Irâqi, Takhreej al-Ihyâ', 3:338.

ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَفَرُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ ۗ وَاللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الْفَاسِقِينَ ﴿٨٠﴾ (سورة

التوبة: ٧٩-٨٠)

- 9:79. It is those hypocrites who find fault with those believers who give freely in charity and with those who give according to their means, and they ridicule them. Allah will cause their ridicule to rebound on them and theirs will be a painful punishment.
- 9:80. Whether you [O Prophet] seek forgiveness for them, or do not seek forgiveness for them, even if you seek forgiveness for them seventy times, never will Allah forgive them, because they have disbelieved in Allah and His Messenger. Allah does not guide the wicked people.

This is another example of the disgraceful conduct of the hypocrites who – may Allah curse them – did not miss any opportunity to say something bad about Islam and the Muslims and criticise the faith, out of enmity and spite. When Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) encouraged the giving of charity, the Muslims hastened to give, and they spent from their wealth, each according to his means; some gave a great deal and some gave a little. The hypocrites would find fault with the one who gave a great deal, saying that his aim was only to show off and enhance his reputation. And they would say to the poor man who gave little: Allah has no need of the charity of this one. So Allah (ﷻ) revealed the words:

﴿It is those hypocrites who find fault with﴾ that is, they criticise and impugn ﴿those believers who give freely in charity﴾, and they say: They are showing off; all they are seeking is status and pride. ﴿and﴾ they find fault with ﴿those who give according to their means﴾ and give what they can afford, and they (the hypocrites) say that Allah has no need of their charity ﴿and they ridicule them﴾.

But Allah requited them for their deeds, as He says: ﴿Allah will cause their ridicule to rebound on them and theirs will be a painful punishment﴾, for in these words of theirs they combine a number of prohibited actions:

- Seeking out news of the believers' situation in hopes of finding something bad to say about them, when Allah says:
﴿Verily, those who like to see indecency spread among the believers will have a painful punishment...﴾ (an-Noor 24: 19)
- Impugning the believers because of their faith constitutes disbelief in Allah (كفر) and reflects hatred of the religion.
- Finding faults with others is prohibited; in fact if it has to do with worldly matters, it is one of the major sins; if it has to do with matters of worship, it is even worse.
- If a person obeys Allah and does voluntary good deeds, then what we should do is help him and support him in his action, but these people intended to discourage them by speaking negatively of them and criticising them.
- Their judgement of one who spent a lot of wealth as showing off was a serious mistake and a false judgement that was made on the basis of speculation, and what evil can be greater than that?
- Their comment regarding the one who gave little, saying that Allah had no need of his charity, was a comment that would lead to a wrong notion. For Allah has no need of the charity of anyone, whether the amount is small or great; indeed He has no need of the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth, but He has commanded His slaves to do that of which they themselves are in need. Even though Allah has no need of them, they need Him, and:
﴿So whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it.﴾ (az-Zalzalah 99: 7)
- But these words of the hypocrites are clearly discouragement from doing good, hence their punishment was that Allah ridiculed them and theirs was a painful punishment.

«Whether you [O Prophet] seek forgiveness for them, or do not seek forgiveness for them, even if you seek forgiveness for them seventy times» – this number is mentioned by way of exaggeration and is not meant literally.

«never will Allah forgive them» as He says elsewhere:

«It is the same to them whether you pray for their forgiveness or do not pray for their forgiveness; Allah will never forgive them...»
(al-Munāfiqoon 63: 6)

Then Allah mentions the reason why He will not forgive them: «because they have disbelieved in Allah and His Messenger». No prayer for forgiveness or good deeds will benefit the disbeliever so long as he remains a disbeliever.

«Allah does not guide the wicked people» that is, those for whom wickedness has become characteristic in the sense that they do not choose anything else over it and they do not wish for any alternative; the truth comes to them but they reject it, so Allah (ﷻ) will punish them by not guiding them to it after that.

﴿فَرِحَ الْمُخَلَّفُونَ بِمَقْعَدِهِمْ خَلْفَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ وَكَرِهُوا أَنْ يُجَاهِدُوا بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَنْفُسِهِمْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَقَالُوا لَا تَنْفِرُوا فِي الْحَرِّ قُلْ نَارُ جَهَنَّمَ أَشَدُّ حَرًّا لَوْ كَانُوا يَفْقَهُونَ ﴿٨١﴾ فَلْيَضْحَكُوا قَلِيلًا وَلْيَبْكُوا كَثِيرًا جَزَاءً بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿٨٢﴾ فَإِنْ رَجَعَكَ اللَّهُ إِلَى طَائِفَةٍ مِنْهُمْ فَاسْتَدْنُوكَ لِلْخُرُوجِ فَقُلْ لَنْ تَخْرُجُوا مَعِيَ أَبَدًا وَلَنْ تُقَاتِلُوا مَعِيَ عَدُوًّا إِنَّكُمْ رَضِيتُمْ بِالْقُعُودِ أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ فَاقْعُدُوا مَعَ الْخَالِفِينَ ﴿٨٣﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٨١-٨٣)

- 9:81. Those who were left behind [from the campaign to Tabook] rejoiced in their staying behind after the departure of the Messenger of Allah. They were unwilling to strive and fight in the cause of Allah, offering their wealth and their lives, and they said: Do not go forth in the heat. Say: The fire of hell is far hotter. If only they could understand.

9:82. Let them laugh a little; they will weep much as a recompense for what they used to earn.

9:83. If Allah brings you back safely and some of them ask your permission to go forth with you, say: You will never go forth with me, and you will never fight an enemy with me. You were content to stay behind the first time, so now stay behind with those who lag behind.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) highlights the boasting of the hypocrites for having stayed behind, and the fact that they did not care about that, which is indicative of lack of faith and of choosing disbelief over faith:

﴿Those who were left behind [from the campaign to Tabook] rejoiced in their staying behind after the departure of the Messenger of Allah﴾. This is worse than merely staying behind, because staying behind was prohibited, but what made it worse was being pleased with having done an act of disobedience, and rejoicing in it.

﴿They were unwilling to strive and fight in the cause of Allah﴾. This is in contrast to the believers who, if they stayed behind – even if that was with a valid excuse – would feel sad and be filled with sorrow for staying behind, and they would love to strive, offering their wealth and their lives, in Allah's cause, because of the faith in their heart and because of what they hoped for of the bounty, kindness and blessing of Allah.

﴿and they﴾ namely the hypocrites ﴿said: Do not go forth in the heat﴾ that is, they said: It is too difficult for us to go forth in the heat. Thus they gave precedence to brief and temporary comfort over complete and eternal comfort.

They were afraid of the heat from which one may protect oneself by seeking shade, and which disappears in the early morning and late afternoon, yet they did not fear the intense heat, the severity of which cannot be estimated, namely the fire of hell.

Hence Allah said: ﴿Say: The fire of hell is far hotter. If only they could understand﴾. (That will be their punishment) for having preferred that which is temporary to that which is eternal; they tried to flee from hardship that is light and temporary, but they will be faced with severe and eternal hardship.

﴿Let them laugh a little; they will weep much﴾ that is, let them enjoy this temporary realm, rejoice in its pleasures and amuse themselves with its fun; they will weep much when they are faced with a painful punishment
 ﴿as a recompense for what they used to earn﴾ of disbelief and hypocrisy, and their failure to submit to the commands of their Lord.

﴿If Allah brings you back safely and some of them﴾ namely those who stayed behind with no excuse, and did not regret doing so,
 ﴿ask your permission to go forth with you﴾ on another campaign, if they think it will be easy

﴿say﴾ to them, as a punishment:

﴿You will never go forth with me, and you will never fight an enemy with me﴾, for Allah will suffice me so that I will have no need of you.

﴿You were content to stay behind the first time, so now stay behind with those who lag behind﴾. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿We will turn their hearts and eyes away [from the truth], since they refused to believe in it the first time...﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 110)

The one who is reluctant and stays behind from something that has been enjoined when the opportunity arises to do it will not be helped after that, and will be prevented from doing it on subsequent occasions.

This is also a rebuke to them, for once the Muslims realised that these people were among those who were prevented from going out for jihad because of their sins, that would serve as a rebuke and source of disgrace for them, and as a deterrent against anyone else doing what they had done.

﴿وَلَا تُصَلِّ عَلَى أَحَدٍ مِنْهُمْ مَاتَ أَبَدًا وَلَا تَقُمْ عَلَى قَبْرِهِ إِنَّهُمْ كَفَرُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ
وَمَاتُوا وَهُمْ فَاسِقُونَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٨٤)

- 9:84. Never [O Muhammad] offer the funeral prayer for any of them who dies, or stand by his grave, for they disbelieved in Allah and His Messenger, and they died as evildoers.

﴿Never [O Muhammad] offer the funeral prayer for any of them﴾ that is, the hypocrites

﴿who dies, or stand by his grave﴾ after he has been buried, to offer supplication for him. That is because the Prophet's offering the funeral prayer or standing by their graves was a kind of intercession for them, but intercession will not benefit them.

﴿for they disbelieved in Allah and His Messenger, and they died as evildoers﴾. Whoever is a disbeliever and dies in that state, no intercession will benefit him. In that there is a lesson for others and a rebuke for them. Similarly, for anyone who is known to be a disbeliever and hypocrite, no funeral prayer is to be offered for him.

This verse indicates that it is prescribed to offer the funeral prayer for the believers, and to stand by their graves to offer supplication for them, as the Prophet (ﷺ) used to do for the believers. The fact that this prohibition is limited to the hypocrites indicates that these acts are confirmed and valid in the case of believers.

﴿وَلَا تَعْجَبْكَ أَمْوَالُهُمْ وَأَوْلَادُهُمْ إِنَّمَا يُرِيدُ اللَّهُ أَنْ يُعَذِّبَهُمْ بِهَا فِي الدُّنْيَا وَتَزْهَقَ أَنْفُسُهُمْ وَهُمْ كَافِرُونَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٨٥)

- 9:85. So do not let their wealth and their children impress you; Allah intends only to punish them thereby in this world, so that their souls will depart while they are still disbelievers.

That is, do not be deceived by what Allah has given them in this world of wealth and children, for that is not because they are dear to Him; rather it is by way of bringing them low.

«Allah intends only to punish them thereby in this world» so that they will strive hard to acquire those things, and they will worry lest they lose them. Thus they will not enjoy them; rather they will constantly suffer hardship and trouble in acquiring and keeping them, and that will distract them from Allah and the hereafter, until they depart this world and «their souls will depart while they are still disbelievers». Love of these things will take everything away from them and they will die when their hearts are still attached to these things, infatuated with them and in a state of distress because of them.

﴿وَإِذَا أُنزِلَتْ سُورَةٌ أَنْ ءَامِنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَجَاهِدُوا مَعَ رَسُولِهِ اسْتَأْذَنَكَ أَذِلَّةٌ أَلْطَوُلَ مِنْهُمْ وَقَالُوا ذَرْنَا نَكُنْ مَعَ الْقَاعِدِينَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٨٦-٨٧) ﴿رَضُوا بِأَنْ يَكُونُوا مَعَ الْخَوَالِفِ وَطُبِعَ عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ فَهُمْ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٨٧)

- 9:86. When a soorah is revealed, enjoining them to believe in Allah and to strive and fight along with His Messenger, the affluent among them ask you for leave to be excused, and say: Let us stay with those who stay behind.

9:87. They are content to be with those who stay behind; their hearts have been sealed up, so that they do not understand.

Here Allah explains how the hypocrites were persistently slow and reluctant to do acts of obedience, and the soorahs and verses of the Qur'an had no impact on them.

«When a soorah is revealed» in which they are enjoined to believe in Allah and strive in jihad in Allah's cause «the affluent among them ask you for leave to be excused» that is, the wealthy ones who have no excuse, for Allah has bestowed upon them wealth and sons. So why do they not give thanks to Allah and praise Him, and do what He has enjoined upon them and made it easy for them to do? But they insist on being lazy and seeking permission to stay behind.

«and say: Let us stay with those who stay behind».

«They are content to be with those who stay behind» that is, how can they be content to be with the women who stay behind from jihad? Is their action based on some interpretation or rational evidence, or has Allah placed a seal on their hearts so that they cannot recognise what is good and they have no willpower to do that which leads to good and success? For they do not understand what is in their best interests. If they truly understood that, they would not accept for themselves this state which causes them to be less than men.

لَنَكِينِ الرَّسُولِ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مَعَهُ جَاهِدُوا بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَنْفُسِهِمْ وَأُولَئِكَ لَهُمُ الْخَيْرَاتُ وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ﴿٨٨﴾ أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا ذَلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ ﴿٨٩﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٨٨-٨٩)

- 9:88. But the Messenger and those who believe with him strive and fight, offering their wealth and their lives. It is they who will have all good things, and it is they who will prosper.
- 9:89. Allah has prepared for them gardens through which rivers flow, to abide therein forever; that is the supreme triumph.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says: As these hypocrites stayed behind from jihad, Allah has no need of them, for He has special slaves whom He has selected from among His creation for His bounty and who will carry out this task. They are ﴿the Messenger﴾ Muhammad (ﷺ) ﴿and those who believe with him strive and fight, offering their wealth and their lives﴾. They are not reluctant or lazy; rather they are joyful and cheerful.

﴿It is they who will have all good things﴾ that is, many good things in this world and the hereafter

﴿and it is they who will prosper﴾ and attain the highest goals and the most one could desire.

﴿Allah has prepared for them gardens through which rivers flow, to abide therein forever; that is the supreme triumph﴾. May he perish, the one who does not aspire to that to which they aspire, for he is a loser in terms of religion, this world and the hereafter. This is like the verses in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Say: Believe in it, or do not believe. Verily, those who were given knowledge before it,<sup>7</sup> when it is recited to them, fall down on their faces in prostration.﴾ (al-Isrâ' 17: 107)

– and:

﴿...If these people [the Makkans] disbelieve therein, then We have entrusted it to a people who do not disbelieve therein.﴾ (al-An'âm 6: 89)

<sup>7</sup> Namely the People of the Book (Jews and Christians).

﴿وَجَاءَ الْمُعَذِّرُونَ مِنَ الْأَعْرَابِ لِيُؤْذَنَ لَهُمْ وَقَعَدَ الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ سَيُصِيبُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ﴾ (٩٠) لَيْسَ عَلَى الضَّعَفَاءِ وَلَا عَلَى الْمَرْضَى وَلَا عَلَى الَّذِينَ لَا يَجِدُونَ مَا يُنْفِقُونَ حَرَجٌ إِذَا نَصَحُوا لِلَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ مَا عَلَى الْمُحْسِنِينَ مِنْ سَبِيلٍ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ﴾ (٩١) وَلَا عَلَى الَّذِينَ إِذَا مَا أَتَوْكَ لِتَحْمِلَهُمْ قُلْتَ لَا أَجِدُ مَا أَحْمِلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ تَوَلَّوْا وَأَعْيُنُهُمْ تَفِيضُ مِنَ الدَّمْعِ حَزَنًا أَلَّا يَجِدُوا مَا يُنْفِقُونَ﴾ (٩٢) ﴿إِنَّمَا السَّبِيلُ عَلَى الَّذِينَ يَسْتَأْذِنُونَكَ وَهُمْ أَغْنِيَاءُ رَضُوا بِأَنْ يَكُونُوا مَعَ الْخَوَالِفِ وَطَبَعَ اللَّهُ عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ فَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ﴾ (٩٣) (سورة التوبة: ٩٠-٩٣)

- 9:90. Some of the Bedouin who had excuses came and asked to be exempted, while those who lied to Allah and His Messenger [merely] stayed behind. Those among them who disbelieved will be afflicted by a painful punishment.
- 9:91. There is no blame on the weak, the sick, and those who have no means [of equipping themselves], so long as they are sincere to Allah and His Messenger. There is no reason to reproach those who do good; and Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
- 9:92. Nor is there any blame on those who came to you to be provided with mounts, and to whom you said: I can find no mounts for you; they turned away with their eyes overflowing with tears of sorrow, because they could not find the means to contribute.
- 9:93. But there is reason to reproach those who ask you for leave to be excused even though they are rich. They are content to be with those who stay behind; Allah has sealed up their hearts, so that they do not know.

﴿Some of the Bedouin who had excuses came and asked to be exempted﴾ that is, those who were negligent and did not try hard to go out came so that they might be given permission to refrain from participating in jihad, and they did not care about asking to be excused because of their rough nature and lack of shame, and because their faith was weak.

As for those who lied to Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), and stayed behind without giving any excuses at all, it may be that what is meant by «[those] who had excuses» is those who had a genuine reason; they came to the Messenger (ﷺ) to be given leave to stay behind, because it was his habit to accept the excuses of anyone who had an excuse.

«while those who lied to Allah and His Messenger» in their claim to be believers, as faith would oblige them to go out, but they did not do what was expected of them, and they «[merely] stayed behind». Then Allah warned them by saying: «Those among them who disbelieved will be afflicted by a painful punishment» in this world and the hereafter.

Allah mentioned those who had excuses, who were of two types, those who had legitimate excuses and those who had no valid excuse. This is reflected in the words:

«There is no blame on the weak» that is, the physically weak and visually impaired who had no strength to go out and fight
 «the sick» this includes all types of sickness that make a person unable to go out and engage in jihad, including lameness, blindness, fever, pleurisy, paralysis and so on
 «and those who have no means [of equipping themselves]» that is, they were not able to find provisions or mounts that could help them to reach the destination. There is no blame on such people, so long as they are sincere towards Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), in the sense that they are true in faith and that they have the sincere intention and resolve that if they were able to, they would have gone out for jihad, and that they do whatever they can to support and encourage jihad.
 «There is no reason to reproach those who do good» and carry out their duties towards Allah and His slaves. There should be no blame on them. If a person does what he is able to, then what he cannot do is waived for him.

This verse is quoted as evidence for the principle which says that the one who does good to another person (with good intentions) by taking care of him and his wealth, and the like, but his attempt to do good leads to some damage or loss, then he is not liable, because he sought to do good and there is no reason to reproach those who do good. This verse also indicates that the one who does not do good, or does not do things properly, such as one who is negligent, is liable.

﴿and Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾. By His forgiveness and mercy He pardons those who are not able and for their sincere and firm intentions He grants them the reward of those who are able and actually do it.

﴿Nor is there any blame on those who came to you to be provided with mounts﴾ but they did not find anything with you to help them to get mounts

﴿and to whom you said﴾, apologising, ﴿I can find no mounts for you; they turned away with their eyes overflowing with tears of sorrow, because they could not find the means to contribute﴾. For they were incapable, although they were willing to contribute, and expressed grief and distress, as Allah describes them.

There is no blame on these people, and as there is no blame on them, the matter reverts to the original principle, which is that whoever intends good, accompanied by firm resolve in the sense that he tries to do whatever he can, but is not able to achieve that, is regarded as being like the one who did it completely and achieved results.

﴿But there is reason to reproach﴾ that is, there is cause to blame those who asked permission to stay behind even though they were rich and able to go out, and they had no excuse. These people ﴿are content﴾ and accepted for themselves ﴿to be with those who stay behind﴾, such as the women, children and the like.

They were only content with that because Allah had sealed up their hearts so that no goodness could enter them and they could not see what was in their best interests in both religious and worldly terms ﴿so that they do not know﴾, as a punishment for what they did.

﴿يَعْتَذِرُونَ إِلَيْكُمْ إِذَا رَجَعْتُمْ إِلَيْهِمْ قُلْ لَا تَعْتَذِرُوا لَنْ تُؤْمِنَ لَكُمْ قَدْ
 بَيَّنَّا اللَّهُ مِنْ أَخْبَارِكُمْ وَسَيَرَى اللَّهُ عَمَلَكُمْ وَرَسُولُهُ ثُمَّ تُرَدُّونَ إِلَىٰ عِلْمِ
 الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ فَيُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩٤﴾ سَيَخْلِفُونَ بِاللَّهِ لَكُمْ إِذَا
 انْقَلَبْتُمْ إِلَيْهِمْ لَتُعَرِّضُوا عَنْهُمْ فَأَعْرِضُوا عَنْهُمْ إِنَّهُمْ رَجِسٌ وَمَآوَاهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ جَزَاءً
 بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿٩٥﴾ يَخْلِفُونَ لَكُمْ لِتَرْضَوْا عَنْهُمْ فَإِنْ تَرْضَوْا عَنْهُمْ
 فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَرْضَىٰ عَنِ الْقَوْمِ الْفَاسِقِينَ ﴿٩٦﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٩٤-٩٦)

- 9:94. They will make their excuses to you when you return to them.
 Say: Make no excuse; we will never believe you. Allah has already informed us about you. Allah will see how you act, and so will His Messenger, then in the end you will be brought back to the Knower of the unseen and the seen, and He will inform you about what you used to do.
- 9:95. They will swear to you by Allah, when you return to them, so that you will leave them alone. So leave them alone, for they are an abomination. Their abode will be hell, as a recompense for what they used to earn.
- 9:96. They will swear to you so that you may be pleased with them. But even if you are pleased with them, Allah is not pleased with rebellious and wicked people.

After mentioning the rich hypocrites who stayed behind, and stating that they had no excuse, Allah then tells us that they ﴿will make their excuses to you when you return to them﴾ from your campaign.

﴿Say﴾ to them: ﴿Make no excuse; we will never believe you﴾ that is, we will never accept your false excuses.

﴿Allah has already informed us about you﴾ and He speaks the truth. Hence there was no longer any benefit in making excuses, because the excuses they gave were contrary to what Allah had told His Messenger (ﷺ) about them, and it was impossible that they could be telling the truth by saying something contrary to what Allah had said, for His word is the highest degree of truth.

﴿Allah will see how you act, and so will His Messenger﴾ in this world, for deeds are the criterion that distinguishes between sincerity and insincerity. As for mere words, they do not indicate anything.

﴿then in the end you will be brought back to the Knower of the unseen and the seen﴾ from Whom nothing is hidden
﴿and He will inform you about what you used to do﴾ of good or evil, and He will requite you by His justice and grace, without wronging you in the slightest. It should be noted that the evildoer and sinner will have one of three outcomes: either his excuses will be fully accepted and he will be pardoned, so that he will become as if he never sinned; or the punishment will be carried out on him for his sin; or he will be ignored, and his action will not be punished.

The third option is what Allah enjoined in the case of the hypocrites. Hence He said: ﴿They will swear to you by Allah, when you return to them, so that you will leave them alone. So leave them alone﴾ that is, do not rebuke them or flog them or kill them.

﴿for they are an abomination﴾ that is, they are evil and too insignificant to care about, and rebuking or punishing them will not be of any benefit. The punishment of the hereafter will be sufficient for them, ﴿as a recompense for what they used to earn﴾.

﴿They will swear to you so that you may be pleased with them﴾ that is, another thing that they will try to achieve with you is that they will not just want you to leave them alone; rather they want you to be pleased with them, as if they did nothing wrong.

﴿But even if you are pleased with them, Allah is not pleased with rebellious and wicked people﴾ that is, you – O believers – should not be pleased with those with whom Allah is not pleased; rather you should go along with your Lord in whatever He is pleased with or angry with.

Reflect on how Allah says: ﴿Allah is not pleased with rebellious and wicked people﴾ and He did not say “Allah is not pleased with them”, in order to highlight the fact that the gate of repentance is still open, and once they or any other people repent, Allah will accept their repentance and be pleased with them.

But if they persist in rebelliousness and wickedness, then Allah will not be pleased with them because there is an impediment to His good pleasure, which is their rejection of what Allah wants for them of faith and obedience, in favour of that which angers Him of ascribing partners to Him, hypocrisy and sin.

To sum up, Allah tells us that when the hypocrites who had stayed behind from jihad with no excuse made their excuses to the believers, claiming to have legitimate reasons for staying behind, the aim behind that was that the believers should leave them alone, be pleased with them and accept their excuses.

As for accepting their excuses and being pleased with them, that should never happen. As for leaving them alone, the believers should leave them alone as they leave alone and turn away from any other bad thing or abomination.

These verses are an affirmation that Allah (ﷻ) speaks, as He said (in 9: 94): ﴿Allah has already informed us about you﴾ and an affirmation that Allah does whatever He wills and decrees. In these verses and in the words ﴿Allah will see how you act, and so will His Messenger﴾ (9: 94), Allah tells us that He will see it after it happens. These verses also confirm that Allah is pleased with those who do good and is angry with those who are rebellious and wicked.

﴿الْأَعْرَابُ أَشَدُّ كُفْرًا وَنِفَاقًا وَأَجْدَرُ أَلَّا يَعْلَمُوا حُدُودَ مَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ ۗ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٩٧﴾ وَمِنَ الْأَعْرَابِ مَن يَتَّخِذُ مَا يُنْفِقُ مَغْرَمًا وَيَتَرَبَّصُّ بِكُمُ الدَّوَائِرَ عَلَيْهِمْ دَائِرَةُ السَّوْءِ ۗ وَاللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٩٨﴾ وَمِنَ الْأَعْرَابِ مَن يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ وَيَتَّخِذُ مَا يُنْفِقُ قُرْبًا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَصَلَوَاتِ الرَّسُولِ ۚ أَلَا إِنَّهَا قُرْبَةٌ لَهُمْ سِيقَتْ لَهُمُ اللَّهُ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ ﴿٩٩﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ٩٧-٩٩)

(٩٩)

- 9:97. The Bedouin are more stubborn in disbelief and hypocrisy, and are more likely to be unaware of the limits prescribed by Allah in what He has revealed to His Messenger. And Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise.
- 9:98. Some of the Bedouin regard what they spend [in the cause of Allah] as a penalty, and they wait for some misfortune to befall you. May ill fortune befall them! And Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.
- 9:99. But some of the Bedouin believe in Allah and the Last Day, and regard what they spend [in the cause of Allah] as a means of drawing closer to Him and of deserving the prayers of the Messenger. Indeed, it will be a means for them to draw closer to Him. Allah will admit them to His mercy, for verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

﴿The Bedouin﴾ that is, those who dwell in the desert and the wilderness

﴿are more stubborn in disbelief and hypocrisy﴾ than the city-dwellers, among whom disbelief and hypocrisy also exist. That is for a number of reasons, including the following:

- Their lack of knowledge of religious teachings, righteous deeds and Islamic rulings. Hence they are more likely ﴿to be unaware of the limits prescribed by Allah in what He has revealed to His Messengerﷺ, such as the fundamentals of faith and rulings on commands and prohibitions, in contrast to the city-dwellers, who are more likely to be aware of the limits prescribed by Allah in what He has revealed to His Messenger (ﷺ). Thus the city-dwellers – because of this knowledge – will develop proper understanding and will be more motivated to do righteous deeds of which they are more aware. None of this is available in the desert. City-dwellers have a gentle nature and willingness to follow the one who calls to good that is not found among the desert-dwellers; they sit with people of faith and mix with them more than the desert-dwellers do. Therefore they are more likely to do good than the desert-dwellers. Even though there are disbelievers and hypocrites among both the desert-dwellers and the city-dwellers, there is more harshness and roughness among the desert-dwellers than among the city-dwellers.

- The Bedouin are more concerned about wealth and are stingier with it. Some of them regard what they spend of zakâh and giving in Allah's cause and the like as a penalty that is, they see it as a loss and detrimental to their interests. They do not seek reward thereby, or intend it for the sake of Allah, and they only give it with great reluctance.

﴿and they wait for some misfortune to befall you﴾ that is, because of their enmity and resentment towards the believers, they wish and hope for misfortune and the vicissitudes of time to befall them. But this will backfire on them; may ill fortune befall them!

As for the believers, they will have the good fortune of seeing their enemies defeated, and the good consequences will be in their favour. ﴿And Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing﴾ – He knows people's intentions and the deeds they do, whether they are sincere or otherwise.

Not all the Bedouin are blameworthy; rather among them are some who believe in Allah and the Last Day, thus they are free of disbelief and hypocrisy, and they act as faith requires.

and regard what they spend [in the cause of Allah] as a means of drawing closer to Him; they seek the reward for spending and intend it for the sake of Allah (ﷻ) and as a means of drawing closer to Him and of deserving the prayers of the Messenger, that is, his supplication and prayers for blessing for them. Allah says, explaining the benefit of the prayers of the Messenger (ﷺ): Indeed, it will be a means for them to draw closer to Him that will bring them nearer to Allah, and will cause their wealth to increase and bring blessing to it.

Allah will admit them to His mercy among His righteous slaves for verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful; He will forgive the major sins of those who repent to Him. And He encompasses His slaves in His mercy, which encompasses all things, but He singles out His believing slaves for mercy that enables them to do good deeds and protects them from falling into sin, and by means of which He will grant them all kinds of reward in abundance.

This verse indicates that among the Bedouin, just as in the case of the city-dwellers, there are some who are praiseworthy and some who are blameworthy. Hence Allah does not criticise them just for being Bedouin; rather He criticises them for failing to obey the commands of Allah.

Other things we learn from this verse include the following:

- Disbelief and hypocrisy may increase and decrease, recede and grow, according to circumstances.
- The virtue of knowledge; the one who lacks knowledge is closer to evil than the one who has knowledge, because Allah criticised the Bedouin and stated that they are more stubborn in disbelief and hypocrisy, and He said that the reason for that is that they are more likely to be unaware of the limits prescribed by Allah in what He has revealed to His Messenger (ﷺ).

- That beneficial knowledge which is most useful is to know the limits prescribed by Allah in what He has revealed to His Messenger (ﷺ), namely the fundamentals and minor issues of the religion, such as the definitions of faith, Islam, ihsân, piety, prosperity, obedience, righteousness, upholding ties of kinship, disbelief, hypocrisy, wickedness, disobedience, adultery, alcohol, usury, and so on. Knowing these things enables one to do them if they are enjoined or to refrain from them if they are prohibited.
- The believer should do the duties that are required of him willingly and with peace of mind, and he should regard that as an opportunity, not as a penalty.

﴿وَالسَّابِقُونَ السَّابِقُونَ مِنَ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ وَالْأَنْصَارِ وَالَّذِينَ اتَّبَعُوهُمْ بِإِحْسَانٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ وَرَضُوا عَنْهُ وَأَعَدَّ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا ذَلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١٠٠)

9:100. As for the first and foremost to believe, the Muhājīroon and Anṣār,<sup>8</sup> and those who follow them in doing righteous deeds, Allah is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him. He has prepared for them gardens through which rivers flow, to abide therein forever. That is the supreme triumph.

The first and foremost to believe are the first generation of this Ummah, who hastened to believe, migrate, strive in jihad and establish the religion of Allah <sup>8</sup> The Muhājīroon (Migrants) were the Muslims who migrated from Makkah to Madinah. The Anṣār (Helpers) were the Muslims of Madinah who helped the Prophet (ﷺ) and the Muhājīroon when they arrived in Madinah and supported the cause of Islam.

﴿the Muhājīroon﴾ who:

﴿...who have been driven from their homes and property, seeking grace from Allah and His good pleasure, and helping the cause of Allah and His Messenger. It is they whose faith is true.﴾ (al-Hashr 59: 8)

﴿and Anṣār﴾ who:

﴿...were already settled in the land [of Madinah] before them, and were sincere in faith, love the Muhājīroon who came to them, and find no covetous desire in their hearts for what they have been given. Rather they give them preference over themselves, even if they too are poor...﴾ (al-Hashr 59: 9)

﴿and those who follow them in doing righteous deeds﴾ that is, in terms of beliefs, words and actions. These are the ones who are free of blame and who deserved to attain the best praise and honour from Allah.

﴿Allah is pleased with them﴾ and His pleasure is greater than the delights of paradise

﴿and they are pleased with Him. He has prepared for them gardens through which rivers flow﴾ to irrigate the lush and beautiful gardens. ﴿to abide therein forever﴾ – they will never want to leave and they will never ask for any change, because whatever they wish for they will get and whatever they want they will find.

﴿That is the supreme triumph﴾ whereby they will attain everything they hope for and everything that will bring them delight and pleasure, and all harms will be warded off from them.

﴿وَمَنْ حَوْلَكُم مِّنَ الْأَعْرَابِ مُنْفِقُونَ وَمِنْ أَهْلِ الْمَدِينَةِ مَرَدُّوا عَلَىٰ أَلْفَاقٍ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ لَمَّا نَعْلَمُهُمْ سَنَعَدُهُمْ مَّرَّتَيْنِ ثُمَّ يُرَدُّونَ إِلَىٰ عَذَابٍ عَظِيمٍ﴾ (سورة

التوبة: (١٠١)

9:101. Some of the Bedouin around you are hypocrites, as are some of the people of Madinah; they have become adamant in their hypocrisy. You do not know them, but We know them. We will punish them twice, then they will be given over to a grievous punishment.

«Some of the Bedouin around you are hypocrites, as are some of the people of Madinah; they have become adamant in their hypocrisy» that is, they have persisted in it and thus increased in stubbornness and arrogance.

«You do not know them» by name, such that you could punish them or treat them as they deserve because of their hypocrisy, for reasons of great wisdom that Allah has decreed.

«but We know them. We will punish them twice». It may be that what is meant by twice is what it appears to mean, and that they will be punished once in this world and again in the hereafter.

In this world, that was what befell them of distress, grief and resentment when the believers achieved victory, and in the hereafter they will face the punishment of hell, what a wretched resting-place.

Or it may be that what is meant is that the punishment will be intensified in the sense that it will be doubled and repeated.

﴿وَأَخْرُونَ أَغْرَفُوا بِذُنُوبِهِمْ خَلَطُوا عَمَلًا صَالِحًا وَآخَرَ سَيِّئًا عَسَىٰ اللَّهُ أَن يَتُوبَ عَلَيْهِمْ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ ﴿١٠٢﴾ خُذْ مِنْ أَمْوَالِهِمْ صَدَقَةً تُطَهِّرُهُمْ وَتُزَكِّيهِمْ بِهَا وَصَلِّ عَلَيْهِمْ ۚ إِنَّ صَلَاتَكَ سَكَنٌ لَهُمْ وَاللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿١٠٣﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١٠٢-١٠٣)

9:102. And there are others who have admitted their sins; they have mixed righteous deeds with others that were evil. Perhaps Allah will turn to them in mercy, for verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

9:103. Take charity from their wealth so that you may cleanse and purify them thereby, and pray for them. Verily your prayers are a source of comfort for them. And Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.

«And there are others» that is, other than those who are in and around Madinah; rather they are in other Muslim lands
 «who have admitted their sins» that is, they have acknowledged them and they regret them and are striving to repent from them and purify themselves from their stain

«they have mixed righteous deeds with others that were evil». For a deed cannot be described as righteous, unless a person has a foundation of belief in Allah's oneness and faith that brings him out of disbelief and polytheism, for this is the condition for acceptance of any righteous deeds. Thus these people mixed righteous deeds with others that were evil, by transgressing the limits and committing some prohibited actions, or falling short in some obligatory duties, whilst admitting it and hoping that Allah would forgive them. In their case «Perhaps Allah will turn to them in mercy» for His turning in mercy to His slaves is of two types: the first is by enabling them to repent and the second is by accepting it after they do it.

«for verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful» that is, He has the attributes of forgiveness and mercy from which no created being is excluded; rather the upper and lower realms could not continue to exist except by virtue of these two attributes. If Allah were to bring people to account for their wrongdoing, no creature would be left on the face of the earth.

«Verily, Allah sustains the heavens and the earth, lest they decline, and if they were to decline, there is no one who could sustain them other than Him. Verily, He is Forbearing, Oft-Forgiving.» (Fâṭir 35: 41)

By His forgiveness, those transgressors who wrong themselves and spend their lives in doing evil, if they turn to Him and repent, even if that is just before their death by a few moments, He will forgive them and pardon their evil deeds. This verse indicates that the one who mixes his deeds but recognises that and is remorseful but does not repent sincerely is subject to both fear (of punishment) and hope (of protection therefrom), but he is closer to salvation.

As for the one who mixes his deeds but does not acknowledge it or feel any remorse for what he has done in the past, and he persists in sin, there is the great fear that punishment will reach him.

Allah (ﷻ) says to His Messenger (ﷺ) and to anyone who is in a position of leadership after he is gone, instructing him to do that which will purify the believers and complete their faith:

﴿Take charity﴾ that is, the obligatory alms (zakâh)

﴿so that you may cleanse﴾ that is, so you may cleanse them of sins and bad characteristics

﴿and purify them thereby﴾ that is, so that they may develop and increase in good characteristics and righteous deeds, and in reward both in this world and in the hereafter, and so that their wealth may grow

﴿and pray for them﴾ that is, offer supplication for them, meaning the believers in general, and especially when they give you the zakâh of their wealth.

﴿Verily your prayers are a source of comfort for them﴾ that is, reassurance to their hearts and glad tidings for them

﴿And Allah is All-Hearing﴾ and He hears your supplication, and responds to it

﴿All-Knowing﴾ that is, He knows the situations and intentions of His slaves, and He requites each person for his actions, in accordance with his intention.

The Prophet (ﷺ) obeyed the command of Allah and instructed them to give zakâh; he would send out his workers to collect it, and when anyone brought his zakâh to him, he would offer supplication for him and pray for blessing.

This verse indicates that zakâh is obligatory on all kinds of wealth. This applies if that wealth is clearly intended for trade, for that is wealth that usually grows and one gains more by means of it. Hence it is only just and fair that some of it should be given to help the poor, by giving that which Allah has enjoined from it of zakâh.

Other than trade goods, if wealth is of a type that grows, such as grains and crops, or livestock that one keeps so that it may grow and give more, and so that it may give milk and offspring, then it is obligatory to give zakâh on it. Otherwise, zakâh is not obligatory because if it is meant to be kept (without it growing or being for trade) then it is not like the kinds of wealth that people usually acquire so that it will grow and so that they can seek financial gain from it; rather it is no longer regarded as wealth if it is kept for personal use.

From this verse we also learn that a person cannot be purified and cleansed until he gives zakâh from his wealth, and that nothing can make up for it except giving it, because purification and cleansing depend on giving zakâh.

We also learn that it is encouraged for the ruler or his deputy to offer supplication for blessing for the one who gives his zakâh, and that it should be done out loud so that the giver can hear it, so that he may be quiet and listen.

From this we may understand that it is good to try to make the believer happy by saying gentle words, offering supplication for him, and other things that bring reassurance and comfort to his heart.

It is also good to encourage those who give of their wealth and do righteous deeds, by offering supplication for them, praising them and the like.

﴿الَّذِينَ يَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ يَقْبَلُ التَّوْبَةَ عَنْ عِبَادِهِ وَيَأْخُذُ الصَّدَقَاتِ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ التَّوَّابُ

الرَّحِيمُ ﴿١٠٤﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١٠٤)

9:104. Do they not know that Allah accepts repentance from His slaves and accepts their charity, and that verily Allah is the Acceptor of repentance, the Most Merciful?

That is, do they not realise the vastness of Allah's mercy, and the all-encompassing nature of His generosity? For He «accepts repentance from His slaves» who repent, no matter what their sin was. Indeed He rejoices greatly over the repentance of His slave when he repents.

«and accepts their charity» from them, and He takes it in His Right Hand and tends it for one of them as a man tends his colt, to such an extent that a single date given in charity becomes like a huge mountain; so how about charity that is greater than that?

«and that verily Allah is the Acceptor of repentance» that is, He accepts a great deal of repentance from those who repent. Whoever repents to Him, He accepts his repentance, even if he sins repeatedly (and repents each time). Allah never tires of accepting repentance from His slaves, until they themselves grow tired and turn away.

«the Most Merciful» Whose mercy encompasses all things, and He has decreed it for those who fear Him, give zakâh, believe in His revelations and follow His Messenger (ﷺ).

﴿وَقُلْ أَعْمَلُوا فَسَيَرَى اللَّهُ عَمَلَكُمْ وَرَسُولُهُ وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَسَتُرَدُّونَ إِلَىٰ عِلِّيِّ الْعَلِيِّ
وَالشَّهَادَةِ فَيُنْشَرُ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١٠٥)

9:105. And say: Do [as you will]; Allah will see what you do, and so will His Messenger and the believers, then in the end you will be brought back to the Knower of the unseen and the seen, and He will inform you about what you used to do.

﴿And say﴾ to these hypocrites: ﴿Do [as you will]﴾ and carry on with your falsehood, and do not think that this will be hidden from Allah.

﴿Allah will see what you do, and so will His Messenger and the believers﴾ that is, your deeds will inevitably become clearly known ﴿then in the end you will be brought back to the Knower of the unseen and the seen, and He will inform you about what you used to do﴾, both good and bad. This is a warning and threat to those who persist in falsehood, transgression, misguidance and sin.

It may be that what is meant is: no matter what you do, good or bad, Allah is watching you and He will inform His Messenger (ﷺ) and His believing slaves of your deeds, even if they were hidden.

﴿وَأَخْرُوتَ مُرْجُونَ لَأَمْرِ اللَّهِ إِمَّا يُعَذِّبُهُمْ وَإِمَّا يَتُوبُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ﴾

(سورة التوبة: ١٠٦)

9:106. And there are yet others who must await Allah's decree; He will either punish them or turn to them in mercy. And Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise.

﴿And there are yet others﴾ who will be decided about at a later time

﴿who must await Allah's decree; He will either punish them or turn to them in mercy﴾. This is intended to scare those who stayed behind (from the Tabook campaign) and to encourage them to repent and feel remorse.

﴿And Allah is All-Knowing﴾ of people's situations and intentions ﴿Most Wise﴾ and He does what is appropriate. If His wisdom dictates that He should forgive them and accept their repentance, then He will forgive them and accept their repentance, but if His wisdom dictates that He should forsake them and not enable them to repent, then He will do that.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا مَسْجِدًا ضِرَارًا وَكُفْرًا وَتَفْرِيقًا بَيْنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَإِرْصَادًا لِّمَنْ حَارَبَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَلَيَحْلِفُنَّ إِنْ أَرَدْنَا إِلَّا الْحُسْنَىٰ وَاللَّهُ يَشْهَدُ إِنَّهُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ ﴿١٠٧﴾ لَا تَقُمْ فِيهِ أَبَدًا لَّمَسْجِدٌ أُسِّسَ عَلَى التَّقْوَىٰ مِنْ أَوَّلِ يَوْمٍ أَحَقُّ أَنْ تَقُومَ فِيهِ فِيهِ رِجَالٌ يُحِبُّونَ أَنْ يَتَطَهَّرُوا وَاللَّهُ يُحِبُّ الْمُطَهَّرِينَ ﴿١٠٨﴾ أَفَمَنْ أَتَّسَسَ بِئْسَ كُنْفَةً عَلَى تَقْوَىٰ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَرِضْوَانٍ خَيْرٌ أَمْ مَنْ أَتَّسَسَ بِئْسَ كُنْفَةً عَلَى شَفَا جُرْفٍ هَاكِ فَاتَّهَارَ بِهِ فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ وَاللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿١٠٩﴾ لَا يَزَالُ بُنِيتُهُمُ الَّذِي بَنَوْا رِيبَةً فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ إِلَّا أَنْ تَقَطَّعَ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿١١٠﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١٠٧-١١٠)

- 9:107. Then there are those who built a mosque for the purpose of spreading mischief, promoting disbelief and creating division among the believers, and as an outpost for those who previously made war on Allah and His Messenger. They will surely swear that they intended nothing but good, but Allah bears witness that they are indeed liars.
- 9:108. Never stand [to pray] there. A mosque that was founded upon piety from the first day is more deserving of your standing therein [to pray]. In it are men who love to keep themselves pure and Allah loves those who purify themselves.
- 9:109. Who then is better – the one who lays his foundation on piety and fear of Allah, and [pursuit of] His good pleasure, or the one who lays his foundation on the brink of a crumbling precipice, which then collapses with him into the fire of hell? And Allah does not guide people who are wrongdoers.

9:110. The structure they have built will remain a cause of doubt in their hearts until their hearts are cut to pieces. And Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise.

Some of the hypocrites among the people of Qubâ' built a mosque beside Masjid Qubâ', intending thereby to cause harm and create division among the believers. They prepared it for those who they hoped would fight Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), so that it could be a fortress for them if the need arose. So Allah (ﷻ) exposed their disgraceful intention and made known their secret.

«Then there are those who built a mosque for the purpose of spreading mischief» that is, causing harm to the believers and their mosque, in which they gathered «promoting disbelief» that is, their aim was to promote disbelief, whereas the aim of others was to promote faith.

«and creating division among the believers» that is, so that they would split and be divided, and would differ with one another

«and as an outpost for those who previously made war on Allah and His Messenger» that is, they prepared it to help those who already had a precedent of fighting Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), and whose enmity had become very strong. This refers to people such as Abu 'Âmir ar-Râhib, who was one of the people of Madinah. When the Prophet (ﷺ) came and migrated to Madinah, Abu 'Âmir disbelieved in him; he had been a devoted worshipper during the jâhiliyah. He went to the polytheists, seeking their help to wage war against the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ). When he did not achieve what he wanted with them, he set out to go to Caesar, thinking that he would support him, but this accursed one died on the way. He had been in contact with the hypocrites, and had conspired with them, and they had prepared for him this mosque that was built for the purpose of spreading mischief. Revelation was sent down concerning that, so the Prophet (ﷺ) sent people to demolish it and burn it, which was done, and after that the site became a garbage dump.

After explaining their evil goals in building that mosque, Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿They will surely swear that they intended nothing but good﴾ in building it, and that it was built to help the weak, incapacitated and blind.

﴿but Allah bears witness that they are indeed liars﴾ and Allah's testimony against them is more true than their oaths.

﴿Never stand [to pray] there﴾ that is, never pray in that mosque that was built for the purpose of spreading mischief, for Allah has sufficed you and you have no need of it.

﴿A mosque that was founded upon piety from the first day﴾ and in which Islam prevailed. This refers to the mosque of Qubâ', which was built on a foundation of sincere devotion to Allah, and for the purpose of establishing remembrance of Allah and the symbols of His religion, and it had a lengthy history of such. This good mosque ﴿is more deserving of your standing therein [to pray]﴾ and worship and remember Allah (ﷻ), for it is good and its people are good. Hence Allah praised them by saying: ﴿In it are men who love to keep themselves pure﴾ from sin, and they purify themselves from dirt and impurities.

It is well known that the one who loves a thing will inevitably strive for it, hence it is inevitable that they would be keen to keep themselves pure of sin, dirt and impurities. Hence they were among the people who came to Islam early on; they established prayer, constantly fought in jihad alongside the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), established the teachings of Islam and were among those who took care not to go against the commands of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ).

After this verse was revealed praising them for their purity, the Prophet (ﷺ) asked them about that, and they told him that after using stones to clean themselves (after relieving themselves), they would also use water, and he praised them for what they did.

﴿and Allah loves those who purify themselves﴾ this refers to metaphorical purity, such as rejecting all ascription of partners to Allah and bad characteristics, as well as physical purity such as removing dirt and impurities both minor and major.

Then Allah highlights the difference between these mosques, according to the aims of their people and whether those aims are in accordance with that which pleases Allah:

﴿Who then is better – the one who lays his foundation on piety and fear of Allah﴾ that is, good intentions and sincerity

﴿and [pursuit of] His good pleasure﴾, by doing that which is in accordance with His commands, thus combining sincerity with following the commands of Allah

﴿or the one who lays his foundation on the brink﴾ that is, the edge ﴿of a crumbling precipice﴾ that is about to fall

﴿which then collapses with him into the fire of hell? And Allah does not guide people who are wrongdoers﴾ to that which is in their best interests in both religious and worldly terms.

﴿The structure they have built will remain a cause of doubt in their hearts﴾ that is, doubts that will take root in their hearts

﴿until their hearts are cut to pieces﴾ with extreme regret, and they repent to their Lord and fear Him greatly, and thus Allah will forgive them. Otherwise, their structure will only increase them in doubt and hypocrisy.

﴿And Allah is All-Knowing﴾ and has knowledge of all things, apparent and hidden, secret and open, and all that people may conceal or disclose.

﴿Most Wise﴾ – so He does not do, create, enjoin or forbid anything but what His wisdom dictates. To Allah be all praise.

From these verses we learn a number of things, including the following:

- That building a mosque for the purpose of causing harm to a nearby mosque is prohibited, and the mosque that was built for the purpose of mischief and harm must be demolished if the intentions of its builders become known.

- Even if a deed is good, it may be changed by the intention behind it and thus become something prohibited, as the intention of those who built that mosque for the purpose of mischief changed their deed, as you can see.
- Any action that leads to the creation of division among the believers comes under the heading of sins that must be refrained from and stopped.

By the same token, any action that leads to bringing the believers together and creating harmony among them must be followed, enjoined and encouraged, because Allah criticised them for building that mosque for the purpose of mischief, and because of that intention it became prohibited. This also implied that they were disbelievers who intended to wage war against Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ).

- It is prohibited to pray in places of sin, and we should keep away from them and not come near them.
- Sin has an impact on places, as the sin of the hypocrites had an impact on that mosque that was built for the purpose of mischief, and thus it was prohibited to pray therein. By the same token, obedience has an impact on places, as was the case with regard to the mosque of Qubâ', of which Allah said: ﴿A mosque that was founded upon piety from the first day is more deserving of your standing therein [to pray]﴾ (9: 108).

Hence Masjid Qubâ' enjoys special standing that is not shared with any other mosque, as the Prophet (ﷺ) used to visit Qubâ' every Saturday to pray there, and he encouraged the Muslims to pray there.

- From the reasons for prohibition mentioned in this verse, we learn an important principle, which is that every deed that is harmful to a Muslim or involves disobedience to Allah – for sins are branches of disbelief – or it involves dividing the believers, or helping those who are hostile towards Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), is prohibited and forbidden.

- Physical deeds that stem from disobedience to Allah will continue to push the doer away from Him, as is the case with persisting in sin, unless he gives it up and repents from it completely, in the sense that his heart is cut to pieces with regret and remorse.
- If the mosque of Qubâ' is described as being a mosque that was founded upon piety, this description is even more apt in the case of the Mosque of the Prophet (ﷺ) that he founded with his own blessed hands and took part in the construction thereof, and Allah chose it for him.
- A deed that is based on sincerity and following Allah's commands is a deed that is founded on piety and fear of Allah, that will help the doer to enter paradise.

But the deed that is based on bad intentions, innovation and misguidance is the deed that is founded on the brink of a crumbling precipice, which will then collapse with him into the fire of hell, and Allah does not guide people who are wrongdoers.

﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ اشْتَرَىٰ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ أَنفُسَهُمْ وَأَمْوَالَهُمْ بِأَنَّ لَهُمُ الْجَنَّةَ يُقَاتِلُونَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَيَقْتُلُونَ وَيُقْتَلُونَ وَعَدًا عَلَيْهِ حَقًّا فِي التَّوْرَةِ وَالْإِنْجِيلِ وَالْفُرْقَانِ وَمَنْ أَوْفَىٰ بِعَهْدِهِ مِنَ اللَّهِ فَاسْتَبِشِرُوا بِبَيْعِكُمُ الَّذِي بَايَعْتُمْ بِهِ وَذَٰلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١١١)

- 9:111. Allah has purchased from the believers their lives and their wealth, in return for which paradise will be theirs; they fight in His cause, and they slay and are slain. It is a true promise, given by Him in the Torah, the Gospel and the Qur'an, and who is more faithful to His promise than Allah? Rejoice, then, in the bargain you have made; that is the supreme triumph.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us something true and makes a true promise of a great transaction, which is that He Himself ﴿has purchased from the believers their lives and their wealth﴾ and the item of which that price is announced is no less than paradise.

﴿in return for which paradise will be theirs﴾ in which there is all that hearts may long for and that may delight the eyes, of all kinds of pleasure, joy, happiness, beautiful spouses and splendid dwellings.

What this transaction involves is that they give their lives and their wealth to Allah, striving in jihad against His enemies and to make His word supreme and support His religion, so ﴿they fight in His cause, and they slay and are slain﴾. This transaction is offered by Allah with complete surety and all kinds of guarantees.

﴿It is a true promise, given by Him in the Torah, the Gospel and the Qur'an﴾ which are the noblest, most sublime and most perfect Books ever sent to the world, that were revealed to the noblest and greatest of the Messengers, the Messengers of strong will. All of them are agreed that this is a true promise.

﴿and who is more faithful to His promise than Allah? Rejoice, then﴾ O believers who have responded to the call and the promise of Allah ﴿in the bargain you have made﴾ that is, rejoice in that and give one another glad tidings, and encourage one another.

﴿that is the supreme triumph﴾ and there is no greater or better triumph, because it is a guarantee of eternal happiness, everlasting bliss, and the good pleasure of Allah which is greater than all the delights of paradise.

If you want to know how great this deal is, then look at who the purchaser is: it is Allah (ﷻ). Look at the price, for it is the greatest of prices, the gardens of eternal bliss. Look at what you pay for it, namely your lives and your wealth, which are the dearest of all things to man. Look at the one at whose hands this transaction was done, for he is the noblest of the Messengers (ﷺ). Look at the Books in which it was written down, for they are the great Books of Allah that were sent down to the best of creation.

﴿التَّائِبُونَ الْعَبِدُونَ الْحَامِدُونَ السَّائِحُونَ الرَّاكِعُونَ
السَّاجِدُونَ الْأَمْرُونَ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَالنَّهْيِ وَالْمَصْرُوفُونَ
لِحُدُودِ اللَّهِ وَبَشِّرِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١١٢)

9:112. [Those believers] are the ones who repent to Allah, worship Him, praise Him, fast, bow and prostrate, enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong, and observe the limits set by Allah. So give glad tidings to the believers.

It is as if it was said: Who are the believers who have glad tidings from Allah of admission to paradise and attaining honour? So He said: They are ﴿the ones who repent to Allah﴾ constantly and at all times from all kinds of sin

﴿worship Him﴾ that is, their characteristic is servitude to Allah and constantly obeying Him by doing obligatory and recommended acts at all times; thus a person becomes one of those who worship Allah. ﴿praise Him﴾ at times of hardship and of ease, and they acknowledge the rights that Allah has over them because of the blessings He bestows, both apparent and hidden; they praise Allah by remembering His blessings and they remember Him during the night and during the day.

﴿fast﴾ – the word translated here as ‘fasting’ may also refer to travelling in pursuit of knowledge; thus it is understood as referring to the heart taking a spiritual journey to know Allah and love Him, turning constantly to Him. However the correct view is that what is meant is travelling for the purpose of doing good deeds, such as Hajj and ‘umrah, jihad, seeking knowledge, upholding ties of kinship, and the like.

﴿bow and prostrate﴾ that is, they pray a great deal, for the prayer includes bowing and prostrating

﴿enjoin what is right﴾ which includes all obligatory and recommended acts

﴿and forbid what is wrong﴾ which includes everything that Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) have forbidden.

﴿and observe the limits set by Allah﴾ by learning the content of that which Allah has revealed to His Messenger (ﷺ) and what it includes of commands, prohibitions and rulings, and what it does not include, so that they adhere to it by doing what it enjoins and refraining from what it forbids.

﴿So give glad tidings to the believers﴾. No mention is made of what the glad tidings refer to, hence it includes everything that results from faith of reward in this world and the hereafter. Hence the glad tidings are applicable to every believer.

As for the amount and nature of that reward, that is according to each believer’s degree of faith, how strong or weak it is, and the extent to which he acts upon it.

﴿مَا كَانِ لِلنَّبِيِّ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَنْ يَسْتَغْفِرُوا لِلْمُشْرِكِينَ وَلَوْ كَانُوا أُولَىٰ قُرْبَىٰ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا بَيَّنَّ لَهُمْ أَنَّهُمْ أَصْحَابُ الْجَحِيمِ ١١٣﴾ وَمَا كَانِ اسْتَغْفَارُ

إِبْرَاهِيمَ لِأَبِيهِ إِلَّا عَنْ مَوْعِدَةٍ وَعَدَهَا إِيَّاهُ فَلَمَّا بَيَّنَّ لَهُ أَنَّهُ عَدُوٌّ لِلَّهِ تَبَرَّأَ مِنْهُ
 إِنَّ إِبْرَاهِيمَ لَأَوَّاهٌ حَلِيمٌ ﴿١١٤﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١١٣-١١٤)

- 9:113. It is not fitting for the Prophet and those who believe to pray for forgiveness for the polytheists, even if they are near of kin, after it has become clear to them that they are inhabitants of the blazing fire.
- 9:114. Ibrâheem's prayer for his father's forgiveness was only because of a promise he had made to him. But when it became clear to him that he was an enemy to Allah, he disavowed him. Verily Ibrâheem was humble in supplication, forbearing.

That is, it is not befitting or good for the Prophet (ﷺ) or those who believe in him «to pray for forgiveness for the polytheists» that is, for those who disbelieve in Allah and worship someone else besides Him «even if they are near of kin, after it has become clear to them that they are inhabitants of the blazing fire». Praying for forgiveness for them in this case is wrong and is of no benefit. Therefore it is not appropriate for the Prophet (ﷺ) and the believers to do that, because if they die ascribing partners to Allah, or it is known that they died with that belief, then they deserve the punishment and they are bound to remain in hell for eternity; the intercession of those who intercede and the prayers for forgiveness of those who pray for them will be of no benefit.

Moreover, the Prophet (ﷺ) and those who believed with him are required to go along with their Lord with regard to whatever He is pleased or angry with, and to take as allies those whom Allah takes as allies, and take as enemies those whom Allah takes as enemies. So their praying for forgiveness for one who is clearly doomed to hell is contrary to that. Even though the close friend of the Most Gracious, Ibrâheem (عليه السلام), did that, it was «only because of a promise he had made to him», as Allah tells us elsewhere that he said:

﴿...I will pray to my Lord to forgive you, for indeed He has always been very kind to me.﴾ (Maryam 19: 47)

That was before he knew his father's fate, but when it became clear to Ibrâheem that his father was an enemy of Allah who would die in a state of disbelief, and no exhortation not admonition would be of any avail, ﴿he disavowed him﴾ so as to be in harmony with his Lord's will and show respect to Him.

﴿Verily Ibrâheem was humble in supplication﴾ that is, he constantly turned to Allah in all his affairs, frequently remembering Him, calling upon Him, asking Him for forgiveness and turning to his Lord ﴿forbearing﴾ that is, he was compassionate towards people, forgiving towards those who made mistakes in their dealing with him, not provoked by the ignorance of the ignorant and he did not respond in kind to those who committed offences against him. His father said to him:

﴿...I will surely stone you...﴾ (Maryam 19: 46)

– but he said to him:

﴿...Peace be upon you. I will pray to my Lord to forgive you...﴾ (Maryam 19: 47)

So you should emulate him and follow the path of Ibrâheem in all things:

﴿... But [do not emulate]<sup>9</sup> the words of Ibrâheem to his father: I will surely pray for forgiveness for you...﴾ (al-Mumtahinah 60: 4)

– as Allah has pointed that and other things out to you. Hence He says:

---

<sup>9</sup> It is not allowed for believers to pray for forgiveness for disbelievers. In Ibrâheem's case, he did that because of a promise he had made to his father, until it became clear that his father was an enemy of Allah. Therefore with regard to this particular issue, his example is not to be followed.

﴿وَمَا كَانَتْ أَلَلَهُ لِيُضِلَّ قَوْمًا بَعْدَ إِذْ هَدَيْتَهُمْ حَتَّىٰ يَبَيِّنَ لَهُم مَّا يَتَّقُونَ إِنَّا اللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿١١٥﴾﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ وَمَا لَكُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا نَصِيرٍ ﴿١١٦﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١١٥-١١٦)

- 9:115. Allah will never let people go astray after having guided them, until He has made clear to them what they should guard against. And Allah has knowledge of all things.
- 9:116. Verily to Allah belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth. He gives life and causes death, and besides Him you have neither protector nor helper.

What is meant is that if Allah (ﷻ) blesses people with guidance and commands them to follow the straight path, He will complete His favour to them and explain to them all that they need to know; He will not leave them astray, ignorant about matters of their religion. This is indicative of the perfect nature of His mercy, and that the teachings of His religion are comprehensive and include all that people need to know of fundamental and minor issues.

It may be that what is meant by these words – ﴿Allah will never let people go astray after having guided them, until He has made clear to them what they should guard against﴾ – is that once that which they should guard against has become clear to them, if they do not follow that guidance, He will punish them by letting them go astray, as recompense to them for their rejection of the clear truth. But the first interpretation is more likely to be correct.

﴿And Allah has knowledge of all things﴾. Because His knowledge is perfect and all encompassing, He has taught you that which you did not know and He has explained to you that which will benefit you.

﴿Verily to Allah belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth. He gives life and causes death﴾ that is, He is the Sovereign of all that, and He controls His slaves in terms of giving life, causing death and other matters of divine control. As He is perfect in the way He controls the universe, how could he fall short with regard to religious matters that have to do with His divinity, and leave His slaves to their own devices, neglected, or leave them to go astray in their ignorance, when He cares so much for His slaves?

Hence He says: ﴿and besides Him you have neither protector﴾ to ward off harm from you ﴿nor helper﴾ to take care of you by bringing that which will benefit you.

﴿لَقَدْ تَابَ اللَّهُ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ وَالْمُهَاجِرِينَ وَالْأَنْصَارِ الَّذِينَ اتَّبَعُوهُ فِي سَاعَةِ الْعُسْرَةِ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا كَادَ يَزِيغُ قُلُوبُ فَرِيقٍ مِنْهُمْ ثُمَّ تَابَ عَلَيْهِمْ إِنَّهُ بِهِمْ رَءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ ١١٧﴾ وَعَلَى الثَّلَاثَةِ الَّذِينَ خَلَفُوا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا ضَاقَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ الْأَرْضُ بِمَا رَحُبَتْ وَضَاقَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ أَنْفُسُهُمْ وَظَنُّوا أَن لَّا مَلْجَأَ مِنَ اللَّهِ إِلَّا إِلَيْهِ ثُمَّ تَابَ عَلَيْهِمْ لِيَتُوبُوا إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ التَّوَّابُ الرَّحِيمُ ١١٨﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١١٧-١١٨)

9:117. Indeed Allah has turned in mercy to the Prophet, the Muhājireen and the Anṣār who followed him in the hour of hardship, after some of them were on the brink of losing heart. Then He turned to them in mercy, for He is to them Most Compassionate, Most Merciful.

9:118. [And He also turned in mercy to] the three who were left behind, until the land, despite its vastness, seemed to close in on them and their very souls closed in on them, and they realised that there is no refuge from Allah except in Him. Then He turned to them in mercy, so that they might repent, for Allah is the Acceptor of repentance, the Most Merciful.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that by His kindness, ﴿Indeed Allah has turned in mercy to the Prophet﴾, Muhammad (ﷺ), ﴿the Muhājireen and the Anṣār﴾, and He forgave them for their mistakes and saved their good deeds for them (so that they were not in vain), and He raised them to the highest ranks. That was because of their undertaking difficult deeds, hence He says: ﴿who followed him in the hour of hardship﴾ that is, they went out with him to fight the enemy on the campaign to Tabook, which occurred at a time when it was very hot, provisions and mounts were scarce, and the enemy was great in number, which prompted some people to stay behind.

So they sought the help of Allah (ﷻ) and they did that ﴿after some of them were on the brink of losing heart﴾ that is, their hearts were inclined to cling to comfort and a life of ease, but Allah made them steadfast, supported them and gave them strength. Losing heart means drifting away from the straight path, and if the drifting away is from the fundamentals of the faith, that constitutes disbelief; if it is drifting away from minor issues or some teachings, then the matter has to do with what those teachings are and the manner in which the person drifted – either he fell short and did not do something, or he did it in a manner other than that which was prescribed.

﴿Then He turned to them in mercy﴾ that is, before they repented ﴿for He is to them Most Compassionate, Most Merciful﴾ and by His kindness and mercy He blessed them by enabling them to repent, accepting it from them and making them steadfast in adhering to it.

﴿[And He also turned in mercy to] the three who were left behind﴾ and did not go out with the Muslims on that campaign. They were Ka'b ibn Mālīk and his two companions, and their story is well known in Ṣaḥeeḥs and Sunans.

﴿until﴾ they felt great sorrow and ﴿the land, despite its vastness, seemed to close in on them and their very souls﴾ which were dearer to them than all other things ﴿closed in on them﴾. So wide-open spaces and their own beloved souls, which do not usually close in on people, closed in on them, and that could only result from some disturbing matter that reached an inexpressible level. That was a sign of their regret for what they had done.

﴿and they realised that there is no refuge from Allah except in Him﴾ that is, they came to know with certainty the situation they were in, that no one could save them from hardship, and they had no one to turn to, except Allah alone, with no partner or associate. Thus they severed all their attachment to people and placed all their hopes in Allah, their Lord, and they fled from Him to Him, and they remained in that distressing situation for fifty days.

﴿Then He turned to them in mercy﴾ that is, He gave permission for them to repent and enabled them to do that

﴿so that they might repent﴾, and Allah accepted their repentance.

﴿for Allah is the Acceptor of repentance﴾ that is, He is very merciful and forgiving, and He forgives mistakes and sins.

﴿Most Merciful﴾; He is characterised by great mercy that He constantly sends down upon His slaves at all times, so that their religious and worldly affairs may be in good order.

These verses indicate that Allah's forgiveness is one of the most important aims to which one may aspire, for Allah has made it the ultimate goal to which the elite among His slaves may aspire, and He blessed them with it, when they do the deeds that He loves and is pleased with.

Other things that we learn from these verses include the following:

- Allah is kind towards them, as He makes them steadfast in their faith at times of distress and calamity.
- Worship that is hard to do has a virtue like no other; the greater the hardship, the greater the reward.
- Allah's turning in mercy towards His slave is commensurate with his remorse and great regret. If a person does not care about sin and does not feel any shame if he does it, then there is doubt as to whether his repentance is accepted, even if he claims that it is acceptable.

- The sign of relief and the end of hardship is when a person puts his hope completely in Allah and he loses hope in all created beings.
- By His kindness towards the three, Allah referred to them in terms that did not shame them, as He said: ﴿who were left behind﴾. This suggests that the believers left them behind, or that they were left behind in the sense that they were delayed with regard to acceptance or rejection of their excuse, and that the fact that they were left behind was not because they had no desire to do good. Hence Allah did not say that they 'stayed behind'.
- Allah (ﷻ) blessed them when they spoke the truth, hence He enjoined following their example, as He said:

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَكُونُوا مَعَ الصَّادِقِينَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١١٩)

(١١٩)

9:119. O you who believe, fear Allah and be with the truthful.

That is, ﴿O you who believe﴾ in Allah, and in what Allah enjoins you to believe in, do what faith requires, which is to fear Allah (ﷻ), and avoid and keep away from that which Allah forbids.

﴿and be with the truthful﴾ that is, those who are true in word, deed and conduct, those whose words are true and whose deeds and conduct cannot be but based on truth, devoid of laziness and apathy, free of bad intentions, and based on sincerity and good intentions. For truthfulness leads to righteousness, and righteousness leads to paradise.

Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Allah will say: This is the day when the truthful will benefit from their truthfulness...﴾ (al-Mā'idah 5: 119)

﴿ مَا كَانَ لِأَهْلِ الْمَدِينَةِ وَمَنْ حَوْلَهُمْ مِنَ الْأَعْرَابِ أَنْ يَتَخَلَّفُوا عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ وَلَا يَرْغَبُوا بِأَنْفُسِهِمْ عَنْ نَفْسِهِ ۚ ذَٰلِكُمْ بِأَنَّهُمْ لَا يُصِيبُهُمْ ظَمَأٌ وَلَا نَصَبٌ وَلَا مَخْمَصَةٌ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَلَا يَطْئُونَ مَوْطِئًا يَغِيظُ الْكُفَّارَ وَلَا يَنَالُونَ مِنْ عَدُوٍّ نِيْلًا إِلَّا كُتِبَ لَهُمْ بِهِ عَمَلٌ صَالِحٌ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُضِيعُ أَجْرَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١٢٠﴾ وَلَا يُنْفِقُونَ نَفَقَةً صَغِيرَةً وَلَا كَبِيرَةً وَلَا يَقْطَعُونَ وَادِيًا إِلَّا كُتِبَ لَهُمْ لِيَجْزِيَهُمُ اللَّهُ أَحْسَنَ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٢١﴾ ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١٢٠-١٢١)

9:120. It was not fitting for the people of Madinah and the Bedouin around them to stay behind [after the departure of] the Messenger of Allah, or to prefer their own comfort and well-being to his. That is because whenever they suffer any thirst, weariness or hunger in Allah's cause, or they take any step that angers the disbelievers, or inflict any loss on an enemy, a righteous deed is recorded to their credit thereby. For Allah will not cause the reward of those who do good to be lost.

9:121. Nor do they spend anything [for Allah's cause], small or great, or cross any valley, but it is recorded to their credit, so that Allah may reward them in accordance with the best of their deeds.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says – encouraging the people of Madinah al-Munawwarah, the Muhājireen and Anṣār, and those who lived in its vicinity, the Bedouin who had entered Islam and become good Muslims: ﴿It was not fitting for the people of Madinah and the Bedouin around them to stay behind [after the departure of] the Messenger of Allah﴾ that is, they should not have done that and it was not appropriate in the circumstances.

﴿or to prefer their own comfort and well-being to his﴾ by staying home in ease and comfort. Rather the Prophet (ﷺ) is dearer to the believers than their own selves, and every Muslim should be ready to sacrifice himself for the Prophet (ﷺ) and give him precedence over himself. The sign of veneration and love for the Messenger (ﷺ), and complete belief in him, is that one should not stay behind after his departure.

Then Allah mentions the reward that should motivate them to go out: ﴿That is because whenever they﴾ that is, the mujāhideen who are striving in Allah's cause

﴿suffer any thirst, weariness﴾ that is, exhaustion and hardship

﴿or hunger in Allah's cause, or they take any step that angers the disbelievers﴾ by stepping in their territory or capturing their land

﴿or inflict any loss on an enemy﴾ such as defeating an army or detachment, or capturing any of their wealth as booty

﴿a righteous deed is recorded to their credit thereby﴾ because this is the outcome of their deeds.

﴿For Allah will not cause the reward of those who do good to be lost﴾ – this refers to those who do good by hastening to obey the command of Allah and do what is required of them of duties to Him and to other people.

﴿Nor do they spend anything [for Allah's cause], small or great, or cross any valley﴾ on their way to confront their enemy

﴿but it is recorded to their credit, so that Allah may reward them in accordance with the best of their deeds﴾ – that includes these deeds, if they are sincere towards Allah in their intention.

These verses offer the strongest encouragement and inspiration to go out in jihad in Allah's cause and to seek reward with Him for whatever befalls them of hardship, for that is a means of attaining higher rank, and the outcome of the person's deeds will bring him great reward.

﴿وَمَا كَانُوا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ لِيَنْفِرُوا كَافَّةً فَلَوْلَا نَفَرَ مِنْ كُلِّ فِرْقَةٍ مِنْهُمْ طَائِفَةٌ لِيَتَفَقَّهُوا فِي الدِّينِ وَلِيُنذِرُوا قَوْمَهُمْ إِذَا رَجَعُوا إِلَيْهِمْ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَحْذَرُونَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١٢٢)

9:122. It is not right for all the believers to go out together; from every community, a group should go out to acquire deeper knowledge of the faith, in order to admonish their people when they return to them, so that they may be cautious.

Here Allah (ﷻ) points out to His believing slaves what they should do: ﴿It is not right for all the believers to go out together﴾ that is, for all of them to go out to fight their enemy, because that may cause them hardship and may be detrimental to many other interests.

﴿from every community﴾ that is, from every city, tribe and clan ﴿a group should go out﴾ who could achieve the purpose, and that would be preferable.

Then Allah points out that if some stay behind and do not go out, that will serve interests that would be missed if they did go out, as He says that those who stay behind should ﴿acquire deeper knowledge of the faith, in order to admonish their people when they return to them﴾ that is, let them acquire Islamic knowledge, understand its meanings and study it in depth, so that they can teach others and admonish their people when they return to them.

This highlights the virtue of knowledge, especially understanding of religion, and shows us that it is the most important matter. Whoever acquires knowledge should share it and spread it among people, and he should be sincere towards them in doing so, for the spread of knowledge by the knowledgeable person will bring him blessing and reward that will grow for him.

But if he keeps that knowledge to himself, and does not call people to the path of Allah with wisdom and beautiful exhortation, and he fails to teach the ignorant that which they do not know, what benefit will that bring to the Muslims? What result will come from his knowledge? Ultimately he will die, and his knowledge and the benefits thereof will die with him, and this is the utmost deprivation for one to whom Allah has granted the blessing of knowledge and understanding.

This verse also offers proof, advice and a subtle recommendation that may serve a great interest, which is that the Muslims should appoint, for each of their public interests, someone who will take care of it, devote his time to it and work hard at it, and will not be distracted by other activities, so that all public interests will be taken care of and their benefits will be harnessed, so that they will all be striving together to achieve one purpose, which is taking care of that which will fulfil their religious and worldly interests, even if everyone has a different role and a different approach. The actions may be different but the aim is one. This is a smart approach that helps to achieve all aims.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا قَاتِلُوا الَّذِينَ يَلُونَكُمْ مِنَ الْكُفَّارِ وَلِيَجِدُوا فِيكُمْ غِلْظَةً
وَأَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الْمُتَّقِينَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١٢٣)

9:123. O you who believe, fight those disbelievers who are nearest to you, and let them find toughness in you; and know that Allah is with those who fear Him.

This verse offers further advice: after instructing them as to who should be engaged in fighting, Allah now advises them that they should start with those disbelievers who are closest, then the next closest, and they should be tough and harsh in fighting, and should be courageous and steadfast.

﴿and know that Allah is with those who fear Him﴾ that is, you should know that help from Allah is commensurate with your level of piety and the extent to which you fear Him, so you should adhere to fear of Allah, and He will help you and support you against your enemies.

The general instruction given in this verse – ﴿fight those disbelievers who are nearest to you﴾ – may be restricted if there is a greater interest to be served by fighting those who are not close, and the kinds of interest that may be served by that are many.

﴿وَإِذَا مَا أُنزِلَتْ سُورَةٌ فَمِنْهُمْ مَّن يَقُولُ أَيُّكُمْ زَادَتْهُ هَذِهِ إِيمَانًا فَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا فَزَادَتْهُمْ إِيمَانًا وَهُمْ يَسْتَبْشِرُونَ ﴿١٢٤﴾ وَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِم مَّرَضٌ فَزَادَتْهُمْ رِجْسًا إِلَىٰ رِجْسِهِمْ وَمَاتُوا وَهُمْ كَافِرُونَ ﴿١٢٥﴾ أَوَلَا يَرَوْنَ أَنَّهُمْ يُفْتَنُونَ فِي كُلِّ عَامٍ مَّرَّةً أَوْ مَرَّتَيْنِ ثُمَّ لَا يَتُوبُونَ وَلَا هُمْ يَذْكُرُونَ ﴿١٢٦﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١٢٤-١٢٦)

- 9:124. Whenever a soorah is revealed, some of them say: Which of you has this increased in faith? As for those who believe, it does indeed increase their faith and they rejoice.
- 9:125. As for those in whose hearts is a disease, it will add doubt to their doubt, and they will die while they are still disbelievers.
- 9:126. Do they not see that they are being tested once or twice every year? Yet they do not repent and they do not pay heed.

Here Allah (ﷻ) describes the attitudes of the hypocrites and of the believers when Qur'an is revealed, and the difference in the reactions of each group.

«Whenever a soorah is revealed» in which there are commands and prohibitions, or Allah speaks of Himself or of matters of the unseen, or urges the Muslims to engage in jihad, «some of them say: Which of you has this increased in faith?» That is, this question enquires as to whose faith has been bolstered by it and which of the two groups has benefited.

Then Allah describes what really happens:

«As for those who believe, it does indeed increase their faith» by coming to know of this, understanding it, believing in it and acting upon it, seeking to do good and refraining from doing evil.

«and they rejoice» that is, they share the glad tidings with one another of what Allah has blessed them with of His revelations, and His enabling them to understand them and act upon them. This indicates that their hearts are open to the revelations of Allah, and they are reassured and hasten to comply with what the verses urge them to do.

«As for those in whose hearts is a disease» namely doubt and hypocrisy

«it will add doubt to their doubt» that is, sickness to their sickness, doubt to their doubt, in the sense that they disbelieve in it, stubbornly oppose it and turn away from it. Hence the sickness in their hearts is increased and it leads to that doom.

«and» Allah places a seal on their hearts until «they will die while they are still disbelievers».

This is a punishment for them, because they disbelieve in the verses of Allah and they disobey His Messenger (ﷺ), hence He punishes them by planting hypocrisy in their hearts, to remain until the day when they will meet Him (cf. 9: 77).

So Allah says, rebuking them for persisting in their disbelief and hypocrisy:

«Do they not see that they are being tested once or twice every year?» By means of the calamities and physical sickness that befall them, and they may be tested with divine commands that are meant to try them.

«Yet they do not repent» from their evil ways
 «and they do not pay heed» to that which would benefit them, so that they do it, or to that which would harm them, so they refrain from it.

Allah (ﷻ) tests them – as is His way with all nations – with ease and hardship, commands and prohibitions, so that they will come back to Him, yet they do not repent and they do not pay heed.

This verse indicates that faith may increase and decrease, and that the believer should check the level of his faith and pay attention to it, so that he may renew it and make it grow, and seek to ensure that it will always be on the increase.

﴿وَإِذَا مَا أَنْزَلَتْ سُورَةٌ نَظَرَ بَعْضُهُمْ إِلَى بَعْضٍ هَلْ يَرِيكُمْ مِنْ أَحَدٍ ثُمَّ أَنْصَرَفُوا صَرَفَ اللَّهُ قُلُوبَهُمْ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١٢٧)

9:127. Whenever a soorah is revealed, they look at one another [as if to say]: Is anyone watching? Then they turn away. Allah has turned their hearts away, for they are a people who do not understand.

The hypocrites are afraid that a soorah may be revealed pointing out what is in their hearts. So when a soorah is revealed so that they may believe in it and act upon it,

«they look at one another», resolving not to act upon it; rather they look for an opportunity to hide from the view of the believers, and they say:

«Is anyone watching? Then they turn away»; they sneak away and leave, turning away from it. Allah will requite them with a punishment that fits their deed: just as they turned away from action, «Allah has turned their hearts away» that is, He has barred them from the truth and has forsaken them.

﴿for they are a people who do not understand﴾ in any way that benefits them, for if they did understand, then when a soorah was revealed, they would believe in it and put it into practice.

The aim here is to explain how averse they were to jihad and other teachings of Islam, as Allah (ﷻ) says of them elsewhere:

﴿...But when an unambiguous soorah is sent down, in which fighting is mentioned, you see those in whose hearts is a disease staring fixedly at you like one who is about to die...﴾ (Muhammad 47: 20)

﴿لَقَدْ جَاءَكُمْ رَسُولٌ مِّنْ أَنفُسِكُمْ عَزِيزٌ عَلَيْهِ مَا عَنِتُّمْ حَرِيصٌ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ رَءُوفٌ رَّحِيمٌ ﴿١٢٨﴾ فَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَقُلْ حَسْبِيَ اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَهُوَ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ ﴿١٢٩﴾﴾ (سورة التوبة: ١٢٨-١٢٩)

9:128. There has come to you a Messenger from among yourselves; it grieves him that you suffer, and he is full of concern for you; and towards the believers he is compassionate and merciful.

9:129. But if they turn away, then say: Allah is sufficient for me; there is no god but He; in Him I put my trust and He is Lord of the mighty Throne.

Here Allah (ﷻ) reminds His believing slaves of how He sent to them the unlettered Prophet (ﷺ) who was one of their own; they knew him and were able to learn from him, and they would not refrain from following him. He was very sincere towards them and strove hard in their best interests.

﴿it grieves him that you suffer﴾ that is, whatever upsets you and makes you suffer upsets him
 ﴿and he is full of concern for you﴾. He loves good for you, strives his utmost to achieve it for you, and is very keen that you should be guided to faith. He hates evil for you and strives to turn you away from it.

﴿and towards the believers he is compassionate and merciful﴾ that is, he is extremely kind to them, and is more compassionate towards them than their parents. Hence his rights take precedence over the rights of all other people. The Ummah is obliged to believe in him, venerate him, respect him and honour him.

If they believe, then they are indeed fortunate, by the help of Allah. ﴿But if they turn away﴾ from faith and acting accordingly, then go on your way and continue with your call, and say: ﴿Allah is sufficient for me﴾ and will help me with all that concerns me ﴿there is no god but He﴾ that is, there is none that is rightfully worshipped except Him ﴿in Him I put my trust﴾ that is, I rely on Him and depend on Him to bring that which will benefit me and ward off that which will harm me. ﴿and He is Lord of the mighty Throne﴾ which is the greatest of all created things.

As He is the Lord of the mighty Throne, which encompasses all of creation, then it is more appropriate to say that He is definitely Lord of all that is less than the Throne.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat at-Tawbah.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

10. Soorat Yoonus

(Makki)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

In the name of Allah,

the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

﴿الرَّ تِلْكَ ءَايَاتُ الْكِتَابِ الْحَكِيمِ ۝١ أَكَانَ لِلنَّاسِ عَجَبًا أَنْ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَى رَجُلٍ مِنْهُمْ أَنْ أَنْذِرِ النَّاسَ وَبَشِّرِ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَنَّ لَهُمْ قَدَمَ صِدْقٍ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ ۚ قَالَ الْكَافِرُونَ إِنَّ هَذَا السَّحَرُ الْمُتَّبِعُونَ ۝٢﴾ (سورة يونس: ١-٢)

10:1. Alif. Lām. Râ'.<sup>10</sup> These are the verses of the Book of wisdom.

10:2. Does it seem strange to people that We have sent revelation to a man from among themselves [saying]: Warn the people and give glad tidings to those who believe, that they will have with their Lord the precedence merited by their sincerity? But the disbelievers say: This man is clearly a magician!

---

<sup>10</sup> Groups of letters (al-huroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

﴿Alif. Lām. Râ'. These are the verses of the Book of wisdom﴾, namely the Qur'an which includes wisdom and the verses of which establish rulings on the fundamental facts of faith and the commands and prohibitions of Islam, which all of humanity should believe in, accept and comply with.

Despite that, most of them turn away, so they do not understand and they find it strange ﴿that We have sent revelation to a man from among themselves [saying]: Warn the people﴾ of Allah's punishment and remind them of the signs of Allah.

﴿and give glad tidings to those who believe﴾ sincerely ﴿that they will have with their Lord the precedence merited by their sincerity﴾ that is, they will have an abundant reward that is stored up with their Lord, because of what they sent on ahead of sincere righteous deeds.

The disbelievers found it strange that revelation was sent to this great man, and that led them to disbelieve in him. Hence ﴿the disbelievers say﴾ of him: ﴿This man is clearly a magician!﴾ that is, the fact that he is a magician is obvious to anyone – or so they claimed. This was indicative of their foolishness and stubbornness, for they found strange a matter concerning which there was nothing strange at all. Rather what is strange is their ignorance and failure to realise what was in their best interests. How could they not believe in this noble Messenger (ﷺ) whom Allah sent from among themselves, whom they knew very well? Yet they rejected his call and were eager to undermine his religion, but Allah perfects His light even though the disbelievers hate it.

﴿إِنَّ رَبَّكُمْ اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ فِي سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ ثُمَّ اسْتَوَى عَلَى الْعَرْشِ يُدِيرُ
الْأَمْرَ مَا مِنْ شَافِعٍ إِلَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ إِذْنِهِ ذَلِكُمْ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ فَاعْبُدُوهُ أَفَلَا

تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٣﴾ إِلَيْهِ مَرْجِعُكُمْ جَمِيعًا وَعَدَ اللَّهُ حَقًّا إِنَّهُ يَبْدَأُ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ لِيَجْزِيَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ بِالْقِسْطِ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَهُمْ شَرَابٌ مِّنْ حَمِيمٍ وَعَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ مَّا كَانُوا يَكْفُرُونَ ﴿٤﴾ (سورة يونس: ٣-٤)

- 10:3. Verily your Lord is Allah, Who created the heavens and the earth in six days, and then rose over the Throne [in a manner that befits His Majesty], directing all things. No one can intercede except with His permission. Such is Allah your Lord, so worship Him. Will you not then pay heed?
- 10:4. To Him you will all return. [This is] a true promise from Allah. Verily He originates creation then repeats it, so that He may justly reward those who believe and do righteous deeds; but those who disbelieve will have scalding water to drink and a painful punishment, because they disbelieved.

Here Allah highlights His Lordship, divinity and greatness:

﴿Verily your Lord is Allah, Who created the heavens and the earth in six days﴾ even though He is able to create them in a single moment, because of the divine wisdom behind that, for He is not hasty in His actions.

Another aspect of His wisdom is that He created them on the basis of and for truth, so that He may be known by His names and attributes, and worship may be devoted to Him alone.

﴿and then﴾, after creating the heavens and the earth, He ﴿rose over the Throne﴾ in a manner that befits His greatness.

﴿directing all things﴾ in the upper and lower realms, such as causing death, giving life, sending down provision, giving the days of various fortune to people by turns, granting relief to those who have suffered harm, and responding to the pleas of those who ask of Him.

He is in full control in all senses; all of creation is subjugated to His might and submitting to His greatness and authority.

﴿No one can intercede except with His permission﴾ so none of them can come forward to intercede, even if he is the best of creation, until Allah grants permission, and He does not grant permission to anyone except one with whom He is pleased, and He is not pleased with anyone except those who are sincere to Him alone and affirm His oneness.

﴿Such﴾ that is, the One Who is like this ﴿is Allah your Lord﴾ that is, He is Allah, Who is the Divine Who possesses all attributes of perfection, all attributes of Lordship, all attributes that reflect His actions.

﴿so worship Him﴾ that is, devote to Him alone all that you can of various kinds of worship.

﴿Will you not then pay heed﴾ to the evidence which indicates that He alone is deserving of worship and praise, Possessor of majesty and honour.

Having mentioned His universal decree, which has to do with controlling all things, and His religious decree, which has to do with His laws and teachings, all of which point to one thing, which is that He alone is to be worshipped, with no partner or associate, Allah then mentions His decree of requital, which refers to His requital for deeds after death:

﴿To Him you will all return﴾ that is, He will gather you after your death for an appointed time on a certain day.

﴿[This is] a true promise from Allah﴾ that is, His promise must inevitably come to pass

﴿Verily He originates creation then repeats it﴾ for the One Who is able to initiate creation is able to repeat it. Hence the one who can see that He initiated creation, yet denies that He can repeat it, is lacking in reason and is denying one of two similar things whilst believing in the other. This is clear rational evidence for the Day of Resurrection.

Then Allah mentions the textual evidence, as He says: ﴿[This is] a true promise from Allah﴾ that is, His promise must inevitably come to pass.

﴿so that He may justly reward﴾ that is, reward them for their faith and deeds, a reward that He explained to His slaves, and told them that no one knows what is hidden for them of delights

﴿those who believe﴾ in their hearts, in that in which Allah commands them to believe

﴿and do righteous deeds﴾ that is, physical deeds, both obligatory and encouraged.

﴿but those who disbelieve﴾ in the signs of Allah and reject the messages of Allah

﴿will have scalding water to drink﴾ that is, water that is very hot and will scald their faces and pierce their bowels

﴿and a painful punishment﴾ which will involve all kinds of torment ﴿because they disbelieved﴾ that is, as a result of their disbelief and wrongdoing. Allah does not wrong them; rather they wrong themselves.

﴿هُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ الشَّمْسُ ضِيَاءً وَالْقَمَرَ نُورًا وَقَدَرَهُ مَنَازِلَ لِتَعْلَمُوا عَدَدَ السِّنِينَ وَالْحِسَابِ ۚ مَا خَلَقَ اللَّهُ ذَلِكَ إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ يُفَصِّلُ الْآيَاتِ لِقَوْمٍ يَعْلَمُونَ ۝ إِنَّمَا فِي آخِلَافِ اللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ وَمَا خَلَقَ اللَّهُ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يَتَّقُونَ﴾

(سورة يونس: ٥-٦)

10:5. It is He Who made the sun a radiant light and the moon a reflected light, and ordained its phases, so that you may know how to count the years and measure [time]. Allah has not created all of that except for a true purpose. He explains the signs in detail for people who have knowledge.

10:6. Verily in the alternation of the night and the day, and in all that Allah has created in the heavens and the earth, there are signs for those who fear Him.

Having affirmed His Lordship and His divinity, Allah then mentions rational evidence in the universe that points to that and to the perfect nature of His names and attributes, such as the sun and moon, the heavens and the earth, and all that He has created therein of all kinds of creatures. He tells us that they are signs ﴿for people who have knowledge﴾ (10: 5) and ﴿for those who fear Him﴾ (10: 6).

Knowledge will help one to recognise the evidence (in those things) and how to derive proof in the most straightforward manner. Fear of Allah generates in the heart the desire to do good and the aversion towards evil that stem from recognising the proof and evidence, and from knowledge and certainty.

That is because the mere creation of these things in this manner is indicative of the perfect power, knowledge and life of Allah (ﷻ) and indicates that He is the Sustainer.

What we see in them of precision, brilliant design and beauty is indicative of the perfect wisdom of Allah, the beauty of His creation and the vastness of His knowledge.

What we see in them of benefits – such as making the sun a radiant light and the moon a reflected light, through which essential and other benefits are attained – points to Allah’s mercy and care for His slaves, and the vastness of His kindness and blessings.

The variations in them are indicative of Allah’s will which is always done.

That indicates that He alone is deserving of worship, love and praise, Possessor of majesty and honour and of all great attributes. It is not appropriate to place one’s hopes in or fear anyone except Him. It is not appropriate to direct sincere supplication to anyone except Him; it is not to be directed to anyone other than Him, such as created beings that are subject to His Lordship and are in need of Allah in all their affairs.

These verses urge and encourage us to reflect on the creation of Allah, to examine it and seek to learn lessons from it. Thus our insight will deepen, our faith and knowledge will increase, and reason will be strengthened. But neglecting that implies that one is taking this command of Allah lightly, which closes the door to any increase in faith and causes the mind to stagnate.

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ لَا يَرْجُونَ لِقَاءَنَا وَرَضُوا بِالْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَاطْمَأَنَّنُوا بِهَا وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَنْ
ءَاثِنَانَا غَافِلُونَ ﴿٧﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ مَا لَهُمْ النَّارُ بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿٨﴾﴾

(سورة يونس: ٧-٨)

10:7. Those who do not expect to meet Us, and are pleased and satisfied with the life of this world, and are heedless to Our signs, 10:8. Their abode will be the fire, because of what they used to earn.

﴿Those who do not expect to meet Us﴾ that is, they do not long to meet Allah, which is the greatest and most sublime that anyone could ever wish for; rather they turn away from that and may disbelieve in it altogether

﴿and are pleased and satisfied with the life of this world﴾ instead of the hereafter; they are content with it and have made it their ultimate goal and aspiration, so they strive for it and focus on its pleasures and desires, regardless of how they attain them, and whatever opportunities they come across, they rush to seize them, and they focus their thoughts, intentions, ideas and deeds on attaining that.

It is as if they were created to remain in this world forever, and as if it were not a temporary realm from which they take provision that will help them to reach the eternal realm to which they, the first and the last of them, will travel and to attain the delights and pleasures for which people should strive hard.

﴿and are heedless to Our signs﴾ so they do not benefit from the verses of the Qur'an or the signs in the universe or in their own selves. Turning away from evidence implies turning away from and neglecting that to which it points.

﴿Their abode﴾ that is, the abode of these people and those who are like them

﴿will be the fire﴾ that is, that will be the place where they will settle and remain, and will never depart from it

﴿because of what they used to earn﴾ of disbelief, ascribing partners to Allah, and all kinds of sins.

Having mentioned their punishment, Allah then mentions the reward of those who are obedient:

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ يَهْدِيهِمْ رَبُّهُمْ بِإِيمَانِهِمْ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهِمُ الْأَنْهَارُ فِي جَنَّاتِ الْغَيْمِ ﴿٩﴾ دَعْوُهُمْ فِيهَا سُبْحَانَكَ اللَّهُمَّ وَتَحِيَّتُهُمْ فِيهَا سَلَامٌ وَاٰخِرُ دَعْوَاهُمْ اِنَّ الْحَمْدَ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٠﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ٩-١٠)

10:9. But as for those who believe and do righteous deeds, their Lord will guide them because of their faith. Rivers will flow at their feet in gardens of delight.

10:10. Their prayer therein will be: Glory be to You, O Allah. Their greeting therein will be: Peace; and the end of their prayer will be: Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

﴿But as for those who believe and do righteous deeds﴾ that is, they combine faith with doing what it requires of righteous deeds, which includes deeds of the heart (beliefs) and physical actions done with sincerity and in accordance with the teachings of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ).

﴿their Lord will guide them because of their faith﴾ that is, because of the faith that they have, Allah will grant them the greatest reward, which is guidance. So He will teach them that which will benefit them, bless them by enabling them to do the deeds that stem from guidance, and guide them to contemplate His signs. In this world He will guide them to the straight path and in the hereafter He will guide them to the path that will lead to the gardens of delight. Hence He says:

﴿Rivers will flow at their feet﴾ constantly
﴿in gardens of delight﴾. Allah describes them thus because they contain all types of delight, filling the heart with joy, happiness and cheerfulness; the joy of seeing the Most Gracious and hearing His words, and of attaining His good pleasure and being close to Him; the joy of meeting loved ones and brothers and enjoying their company; listening to delightful voices and pleasant tunes; gazing upon joyful scenes; physical pleasures such as all kinds of food and drink, and intimacy with spouses; and other things such as no one knows and has never crossed the mind of anyone, indescribable pleasures.

﴿Their prayer therein will be: Glory be to You, O Allah﴾ that is, their worship therein will be of Allah, beginning with glorifying Allah and declaring Him to be free of all shortcomings, and ending with praise of Allah. All duties will be waived from them in the realm of reward, and all that will be left for them will be the most perfect of pleasures, one that is greater than delicious food, namely remembrance of Allah in which hearts find rest and souls feel joy. For them it will be like breathing, without any effort or difficulty.

﴿Their greeting therein﴾ when they meet or visit one another will be salâm (translated here as ﴿Peace﴾); that is, it will be speech that is free of any idle talk or sin. It is described as salâm (peace); it was said in the commentary on the words ﴿Their prayer therein will be: Glory be to You...﴾, until the end of the verse, that when the people of paradise need food, drink and so on, they will say: «Glory be to you, O Allah»; and it will come to them immediately. Then when they have finished, they will say: «Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds».

﴿ وَلَوْ يُعَجِّلُ اللَّهُ لِلنَّاسِ الشَّرَّ اسْتِعْجَالَهُمْ بِالْخَيْرِ لَقُضِيَ إِلَيْهِمْ أَجْلُهُمْ فَنَذَرُ الَّذِينَ لَا يَرْجُونَ لِقَاءَنَا فِي طُغْيَانِهِمْ يَعْمَهُونَ ﴾ (سورة

يونس: ١١)

- 10:11. If Allah were to hasten the punishment for people as they would hasten their reward, then their fate would have been sealed. But We leave those who do not expect to meet Us to wander blindly in their misguidance.

This is by His kindness and grace towards His slaves. For if He were to hasten the punishment for them as soon as they did that which leads to it, as they would hasten the reward as soon as they did that which leads to it, then «their fate would have been sealed». That is, the punishment would have destroyed them. But Allah (ﷻ) gives them respite, although He does not forget about them, and He pardons a great deal. If Allah were to take people to task for their wrongdoing, He would not have left any creature alive on the face of the earth.

That includes the case of a man when he gets angry with his children or his family or his wealth, whereupon he may pray against them once, and if that prayer were to be answered, they would be doomed and it would cause a great deal of harm. But Allah (ﷻ) is Most Forbearing, Most Wise.

«But We leave those who do not expect to meet Us» that is, they do not believe in the hereafter, hence they do not prepare for it, and they do not do that which would save them from the punishment of Allah

﴿to wander blindly﴾ stumbling and confused; they are not guided to the right path and they are not helped to find sound evidence. That is a punishment to them for their wrongdoing and disbelief in the revelations of Allah.

﴿in their misguidance﴾ that is, their falsehood in which they overstepped the bounds of truth.

﴿وَإِذَا مَسَّ الْإِنْسَانَ الضُّرُّ دَعَانَا لِجَنْبِهِ أَوْ قَاعِدًا أَوْ قَائِمًا فَلَمَّا كَشَفْنَا عَنْهُ ضُرَّهُ مَرَّكَانَ لَمْ يَدْعُنَا إِلَى ضُرِّ مَسَّهُ كَذَلِكَ زُيِّنَ لِلْمُسْرِفِينَ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ﴾
(سورة يونس: ١٢)

10:12. When misfortune befalls a person, He calls upon Us, lying on his side, sitting or standing. But when We have relieved him of his misfortune, he carries on with his former ways, as if he had never called upon Us to relieve him of misfortune that had befallen him. Thus the deeds of the transgressors are made fair-seeming to them.

Here Allah tells us of the nature of man as he is: if misfortune befalls him, such as sickness or calamity, he strives hard in supplication, asking Allah in all situations, standing and sitting and lying down, and he persists in calling upon Allah to relieve him of his misfortune.

﴿But when We have relieved him of his misfortune, he carries on with his former ways, as if he had never called upon Us to relieve him of misfortune that had befallen him﴾ that is, he persists in his heedlessness, turning away from his Lord as if no misfortune had ever befallen him of which Allah had then relieved him. What wrongdoing can be greater than this? He asks Allah to meet his needs, then when He grants him that, he does not think of the rights of his Lord; it is as if Allah has no rights over him. This attitude that the Shaytân makes fair-seeming to him is something very strange and reprehensible according to sound reason and common sense.

«Thus the deeds of the transgressors» who overstep the bounds «are made fair-seeming to them».

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَهَلَكْنَا الْقُرُونِ مِن قَبْلِكُمْ لَمَّا ظَلَمُوا وَجَاءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُهُم بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ وَمَا كَانُوا لِيُؤْمِنُوا ۚ كَذَٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الْقَوْمَ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿١٣﴾ ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَاكُمْ خَلَائِفَ فِي الْأَرْضِ مِن بَعْدِهِمْ لِنَنْظُرَ كَيْفَ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٤﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ١٣-١٤)

- 10:13. We indeed destroyed nations before you when they transgressed. Their Messengers came to them with clear signs, but they would never believe. Thus We requite the evildoers.
- 10:14. Then He made you [their] successors in the land, so that He may see how you will do.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He destroyed the earlier nations for their wrongdoing and disbelief, after the signs had come to them at the hands of the Messengers and the truth had become clear. They refused to follow it and did not believe, therefore He sent upon them His punishment that could not be warded off from any evildoers who transgress the sacred limits of Allah. This is His way with all nations.

«Then He made you» who are addressed here «[[their] successors in the land, so that He may see how you will do»]. If you pay heed and learn a lesson from those who came before you, and you follow the revelations of Allah and believe in His Messengers, you will be saved in this world and the hereafter.

But if you do what the evildoers before you did, the same fate will befall you as befell them, and the One Who issues a warning has left no excuse.

﴿وَإِذَا تُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُنَا بَيِّنَاتٌ قَالَ الَّذِينَ لَا يَرْجُونَ لِقَاءَنَا أَتَنْتِ يَقْرَأِينَ غَيْرَ هَذَا أَوْ بَدَّلَهُ أَقُلْ مَا يَكُونُ لِي أَنْ أُبَدِّلَهُ مِنْ تِلْقَآئِ نَفْسِي إِنْ أَنْتِ إِلَّا مَا يُوْحَىٰ إِلَيَّ إِنِّي أَخَافُ إِنْ عَصَيْتُ رَبِّي عَذَابٌ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ﴿١٥﴾ قُلْ لَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ مَا تَلَوْتُهُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَلَا أَدْرَسُكُمْ بِهِ فَقَدْ لَبِثْتُ فِيكُمْ عُمُرًا مِنْ قَبْلِهِ أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ فَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنِ افْتَرَىٰ عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا أَوْ كَذَّبَ بِآيَاتِهِ إِنَّهُ لَا يُفْلِحُ الْمُجْرِمُونَ ﴿١٧﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ١٥-١٧)

- 10:15. But when Our clear revelations are recited to them, those who do not expect to meet Us say: Bring us a Qur'an other than this, or change it. Say: It is not for me to change it of my own accord; I only follow what is revealed to me. I fear, if I were to disobey my Lord, the punishment of a momentous day.
- 10:16. Say: If Allah had so willed, I would not have recited it to you, nor would He have made it known to you. I spent a whole lifetime among you before it came to me; will you not then understand?
- 10:17. Who does greater evil than he who fabricates lies against Allah or rejects Allah's revelations? Verily the evildoers will never prosper.

Here Allah (ﷻ) mentions the stubbornness of those who disbelieved in His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ), and states that when the Qur'anic revelations of Allah were recited to them, which explained the truth, they turned away from them and demanded, by way of stubbornness, audacity and wrongdoing: «Bring us a Qur'an other than this, or change it». May Allah curse them for their audacity towards Allah and their wrongdoing and rejection of His revelations.

Allah instructed His great Messenger (ﷺ) to say to them: «It is not for me» that is, it is not appropriate or befitting for me «to change it of my own accord», for I am merely a Messenger and I have no control over the matter at all.

«I only follow what is revealed to me» that is, I can do nothing other than that, for I am a slave under orders.

«I fear, if I were to disobey my Lord, the punishment of a momentous day». These are the words of the best of creation (Prophet Muhammad [ﷺ]) and his attitude towards the commands and revelations of his Lord. So how about these foolish, misguided people, who combined ignorance and misguidance, wrongdoing and stubbornness, obstinacy and trying to outsmart the Lord of the worlds? Do they not fear the punishment of a momentous day?!

If they claim that their aim is for the truth to become evident by means of the signs that they demanded, they are lying, for Allah has already shown them signs on the basis of which other people believed, and He is the One Who sends signs as He wills, in accordance with His divine wisdom and mercy towards His slaves.

«Say: If Allah had so willed, I would not have recited it to you, nor would He have made it known to you. I spent a whole lifetime among you before it came to me» that is, before I recited it to you and before you became aware of it, and it never crossed my mind and never occurred to me.

«will you not then understand?» that I never came up with anything like that in my life before, and I never uttered anything of that nature, so how could I come up with it now? I spent my whole life among you and you know me well; you know that I am unlettered and can neither read nor write, and I have not studied or learned from anyone, but I have brought you this great Book that the most eloquent and knowledgeable of people are unable to match. As that is the case, how could I have produced it of my own accord? Is this not definitive proof that it is a revelation from the Most Wise, Worthy of all praise?

If you think on the basis of reason and understanding, and you reflect on my situation and that of this Book, you would reach a level of certainty, far beyond any doubt, that it is the truth beyond which is nothing but misguidance. But if you insist on stubbornly disbelieving, then undoubtedly you are wrongdoers.

﴿Who does greater evil than he who fabricates lies against Allah or rejects Allah's revelations?﴾

If I were making it up, I would be the most evil of people and I would never succeed, and my real situation would never be hidden from you. But I brought you the revelations of Allah, yet you disbelieved in them. Therefore you are wrongdoers and undoubtedly you will decline and never succeed, so long as you remain like that.

The words ﴿those who do not expect to meet Us say...﴾ (10: 15) indicate that what prompted them to be so stubborn was their own lack of belief in the meeting with Allah, for they did not expect to meet Him. The one who expects to meet Allah will inevitably submit to this Book and believe in it, for it leads to the best results.

﴿وَيَعْبُدُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لَا يَضُرُّهُمْ وَلَا يَنْفَعُهُمْ وَيَقُولُونَ هَؤُلَاءِ شَفَعُونَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ ۚ قُلْ أَتَنْتَبِهُونَ ۚ اللَّهُ بِمَا لَا يَعْلَمُ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَلَا فِي الْأَرْضِ سُبْحَانَهُ، وَتَعَالَى عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ﴾ (سورة يونس: ١٨)

10:18. They worship, besides Allah, that which has no power either to harm or benefit them, and they say: These are our intercessors with Allah. Say: Do you presume to tell Allah of something that He does not know in the heavens or on earth? Glory be to Him; exalted be He far above the partners they ascribe to Him!

﴿They﴾ namely the polytheists who disbelieve in the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ)

﴿worship, besides Allah, that which has no power either to harm or benefit them﴾ that is, they (the false gods) do not possess power to benefit them in the least or ward off the slightest harm from them.

﴿and they say﴾ without any proof whatsoever

﴿These are our intercessors with Allah﴾ that is, they worship them so that they may bring them closer to Allah and intercede for them with Him, but this is something that they fabricated and made up by themselves. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says, declaring these words to be false: ﴿Say: Do you presume to tell Allah of something that He does not know in the heavens or on earth?﴾ That is, Allah (ﷻ) is the All-Knowing, Whose knowledge encompasses all that is in the heavens and on earth, and He has told you that He has no partner or god alongside Him. So do you – O polytheists – claim that He has any partners in the heavens or on earth? Do you presume to tell Him of something that is hidden from Him but known to you? Are you more knowledgeable, or Allah? Can there be any words more false than these, which imply that these misguided, ignorant, foolish people are more knowledgeable than the Lord of the worlds?!

Any wise person will reach the right conclusion simply by trying to understand this statement, and he will be certain that it is false and invalid.

﴿Glory be to Him; exalted be He far above the partners they ascribe to Him!﴾ That is, may He be glorified, for He is far above having any partner or equal; rather He is Allah, the One, the Unique, the Eternal, Absolute, besides Whom there is no other god in the heavens or on earth. All that is worshipped besides Him in either the upper or lower realm is false according to rational thought, religious teaching and common sense.

﴿That is because Allah is the Truth, and those they call upon besides Him are sheer falsehood. Verily, Allah is the Most High, the Most Great.﴾ (Luqman 31: 30)

﴿وَمَا كَانَ النَّاسُ إِلَّا أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً فَاخْتَلَفُوا وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةٌ سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ لَقُضِيَ بَيْنَهُمْ فِيمَا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَيَقُولُونَ لَوْلَا أُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ آيَةٌ مِنْ رَبِّهِ فَقَدْ إِنَّمَا الْغَيْبُ لِلَّهِ فَانْتَظِرُوا إِنِّي مَعَكُمْ مِنَ الْمُنْتَظِرِينَ ﴿٢٠﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ١٩-٢٠)

- 10:19. Humankind was but one nation, but then they differed. Were it not for a prior decree from your Lord, a decisive judgement would already have been passed between them concerning that wherein they differ.
- 10:20. They say: Why has no sign been sent down to him from his Lord? Say [O Muhammad]: Knowledge of the unseen belongs only to Allah. Wait then; I too am waiting.

«Humankind was but one nation», unanimously agreed on the true religion, but then they differed, so Allah sent the Messengers with glad tidings and warnings, and He sent down with them the Book to judge between people concerning that wherein they differed.

«Were it not for a prior decree from your Lord» giving respite to the sinners and not hastening to punish them for their sins
 «a decisive judgement would already have been passed between them» that We would save the believers and destroy the disbelievers; this is what made them differ «concerning that wherein they differ» but it was His will to test them, trying some of them by means of others, in order to distinguish the truthful ones from the liars.

«They» the stubborn liars
 «say: Why has no sign been sent down to him from his Lord?» What they meant was the specific signs that they demanded, as when they said:

«...Why has an angel not been sent down to him, to be a warner with him?» (al-Furqān 25: 7)

– and:

«...We will never believe in you until you cause a spring to gush forth from the earth for us; or you have a garden of date palms and vines, and you cause rivers to gush forth in their midst; Or you cause the sky to fall upon us in pieces, as you claimed [that Allah could do that if He willed]; or you bring Allah and the angels before us, face to face; Or you have a house made of gold; or you ascend to heaven, and even then we will not believe in your ascent unless you bring down to us a book we can read...» (al-Isrā' 17: 90-93)

«Say [O Muhammad]» to them, if they demand a sign from you: «Knowledge of the unseen belongs only to Allah» that is, He encompasses all people with His knowledge and He takes care of their affairs on the basis of what He knows about their circumstances and of His great wisdom.

«Wait then; I too am waiting» that is, each of us is waiting to see what will happen to the other party and whether he will get what he deserves. So wait and see who will have the best end.

﴿وَإِذَا أَذَقْنَا النَّاسَ رَحْمَةً مِنْ بَعْدِ ضَرَاءَ مَا كَانُوا يَسْتَعْجِلُونَ إِذَا لَهُمْ مَكْرُوفٌ أَيْبَانِنَا قُلِ اللَّهُ أَسْرَعُ مَكْرًا إِنَّ رُسُلَنَا يَكْتُبُونَ مَا تَمْكُرُونَ﴾ (سورة يونس: ٢١)

10:21. When We make the people taste mercy after some adversity has befallen them, they hasten to plot and plan against Our revelations. Say: Allah is swifter in planning. Verily, Our messengers [the angels] are recording all the plots you make.

«When We make the people taste mercy after some adversity has befallen them», such as good health after sickness, wealth after poverty, and safety after fear, they forget what befell them of adversity, and they do not give thanks to Allah for ease and mercy; rather they persist in their transgression and plotting.

Hence Allah says: «they hasten to plot and plan against Our revelations» that is, they strive on the basis of falsehood to invalidate the truth.

«Say: Allah is swifter in planning». The evil plan can only harm its authors, and what they try to achieve will backfire on them and they will not be free of responsibility; rather the angels are recording against them what they do and Allah is fully aware of them, then He will requite them in full.

﴿هُوَ الَّذِي يُسِرُّكُمْ فِي الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا كُنْتُمْ فِي الْفُلِكِ وَجَرِينَ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ بِرِيحٍ طَيِّبَةٍ وَفَرِحُوا بِهَا جَاءَتْهَا رِيحٌ عَاصِفٌ وَجَاءَهُمُ الْمَوْجُ مِنْ كُلِّ مَكَانٍ وَظَنُّوا أَنَّهُمْ أُحِيطَ بِهِمْ دَعَوُا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ لَئِنْ أَجَبْنَاهُمْ مِنْ هَٰذِهِ لَنَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الشَّاكِرِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾ فَلَمَّا أَجَبْنَاهُمْ إِذَا هُمْ يَبْغُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ يَأْتِيهَا النَّاسُ إِنَّمَا بِغِيكُم عَلَىٰ أَنْفُسِكُمْ مَتَاعَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا ثُمَّ إِلَيْنَا مَرْجِعُكُمْ فَنُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾﴾

(سورة يونس: ٢٢-٢٣)

- 10:22. It is He Who enables you to travel on land and sea. And when you are sailing on ships, and rejoicing in the favourable wind, a stormy wind comes; the waves come at those on board from all sides, and they think there is no escape. Then they call upon Allah, professing sincere devotion to Him alone, [saying]: If You deliver us from this, we will certainly be among those who are grateful.
- 10:23. Yet when He has delivered them, they spread mischief throughout the land without justification. O people, your mischief only harms your own souls. Take your enjoyment in this life; then to Us you will return, and We will inform you about what you used to do.

Having mentioned the general principle with regard to what people do when there comes to them mercy after adversity and ease after hardship, Allah then gives an example to confirm that, which is what they do at sea when the sea becomes rough and they fear the consequences.

﴿It is He Who enables you to travel on land and sea﴾ by what He has made available to you of means of transportation, to which He has guided you.

﴿And when you are sailing on ships﴾ on the sea
﴿and rejoicing in the favourable wind﴾ that is in accordance with their wishes, without causing any annoyance or troubles, and they feel reassured by it. Then whilst they are like that, ﴿a stormy wind comes﴾, blowing fiercely

﴿the waves come at those on board from all sides, and they think there is no escape﴾ that is, they think that they are doomed. At that point all attachment to created beings ceases, and they realise that no one can save them from this predicament except Allah alone. So they call upon Him, focusing their devotions solely on Him, and they make a promise that is binding upon themselves, saying: ﴿If You deliver us from this, we will certainly be among those who are grateful﴾.

﴿Yet when He has delivered them, they spread mischief throughout the land without justification﴾ that is, they forget that hardship and that supplication, and the binding promise they had made, and they ascribe as partners to Allah those who they acknowledge could not save them from hardship or ward off harm from them. Why do they not show sincere devotion to Allah at times of ease as they did at times of hardship?

But this transgression will backfire on them. Hence Allah says: ﴿O people, your mischief only harms your own souls. Take your enjoyment in this life﴾ that is, the most you are hoping for by means of your transgression and turning away from devotion to Allah is to attain some worthless worldly gains in status, which will soon end and be in the past, then you will leave it all behind. ﴿then to Us you will return﴾ on the Day of Resurrection ﴿and We will inform you about what you used to do﴾. This is the gravest of warnings to them against persisting in their actions.

﴿إِنَّمَا مَثَلُ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا كَمَاءٍ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ فَاخْتَلَطَ بِهِ نَبَاتُ الْأَرْضِ مِمَّا يَأْكُلُ
النَّاسُ وَالْأَنْعَامُ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا أَخَذَتِ الْأَرْضُ زُخْرُفَهَا وَازَّيَّنَتْ وَظَنَّ أَهْلُهَا أَنَّهُمْ
قَادِرُونَ عَلَيْهَا أَتَيْنَاهَا أُمْرًا لَّيْلًا أَوْ نَهَارًا فَجَعَلْنَاهَا حَصِيدًا كَأَن لَّمْ تَغْنَبْ
يَ الْأَمْسِ كَذَٰلِكَ نُفَصِّلُ الْآيَاتِ لِقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ٢٤)

- 10:24. The likeness of the life of this world is that of the rain that We send down from the heavens; by means of it, all kinds of plants are brought forth from the earth, from which both people and animals eat. Then when the land is at its loveliest and takes on its fairest appearance, and its owners think they have power over it, the fate We have decreed for it comes to pass, by night or by day, and We reduce it to stubble, as if it had not been there the day before. Thus We explain the revelations in detail for people who reflect.

This is one of the best kinds of likeness and is an apt description of the way this world is, for one may acquire its pleasures, desires, status and so on, and flourish – if indeed one does flourish – for a short time, then when those worldly gains reach their peak, they soon diminish and disappear, or the one who acquired them dies and leaves them behind; thus he ends up empty-handed, with his heart filled with worry, sorrow and regret.

Hence it is like ﴿the rain that We send down from the heavens; by means of it, all kinds of plants are brought forth from the earth﴾ that is, it puts forth every lovely kind of growth (cf. 22: 5).

﴿from which both people﴾ eat, such as grains and fruits
 ﴿and animals eat﴾, such as different types of vegetation.

﴿Then when the land is at its loveliest and takes on its fairest appearance﴾ that is, it becomes beautiful in appearance and is a delight to the onlookers and a sign to people of understanding, and they look at it and see an amazing scene filled with colours of green, yellow, white and others

﴿and its owners think they have power over it﴾ that is, they raise their hopes that it will continue and last, because that is all they want and that is the extent of their aspirations.

But whilst they are like that, ﴿the fate We have decreed for it comes to pass, by night or by day, and We reduce it to stubble, as if it had not been there the day before﴾ that is, as if it never existed. This is an exact likeness of the state of this world.

﴿Thus We explain the revelations in detail﴾, giving likenesses to clarify them and make them easy for people to understand
 ﴿for people who reflect﴾ that is, for those who use their minds in ways that benefit them.

As for the one who is heedless and turns away, the verses do not benefit him and the explanation does not dispel his doubts.

Having described this world and the utmost joy it can offer, Allah then refers to the hereafter, so as to make people aspire for it.

﴿وَاللَّهُ يَدْعُو إِلَى دَارِ السَّلَامِ وَيَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ﴾ ﴿٢٥﴾ لِلَّذِينَ أَحْسَنُوا الْحُسْنَىٰ وَزِيَادَةٌ وَلَا يَرْهَقُ وُجُوهَهُمْ قَتَرٌ وَلَا ذِلَّةٌ أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ الْجَنَّةِ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ (سورة يونس: ٢٥-٢٦)

- 10:25. Allah calls to the abode of peace, and He guides whom He will to a path that is straight.
- 10:26. For those who do good there will be the best reward and more besides. No gloom or shame will cover their faces. They will be the inhabitants of paradise; they will abide therein forever.

Allah (ﷻ) calls all His slaves to the abode of peace and encourages them to seek it, and He singles out for guidance whomever He chooses and selects. This is His bounty and grace, and Allah singles out for His mercy whomever He will. This is His justice and wisdom, and no one has any excuse after He has made things clear and sent His Messengers.

Allah calls paradise the «abode of peace» because it is free of all problems and imperfections. That is because its delights are perfect and complete, and they are everlasting and beautiful in all ways.

As Allah calls His slaves to the abode of peace, it is as if people's hearts long for it and want to find out the deeds that will lead to it, so He tells us about them:

«For those who do good there will be the best reward and more besides» that is, those who do good in worshipping the Creator, in the sense that they worship Him knowing that He is watching them and showing utter sincerity in their servitude to Him. So they do all that they can of worship, and they show as much kindness in word and deed to the slaves of Allah as they can, such as giving money, physically helping them, enjoining what is right, forbidding what is wrong, teaching the ignorant, advising the heedless, and other acts of kindness.

These are the ones who do good, and for them there will be «the best reward», namely paradise, which is perfect in its beauty «and more besides», which is gazing upon the noble Countenance of Allah, hearing His words, attaining His pleasure and having the joy of being close to Him. Thus they will have attained all that one could wish for or ask for.

Then Allah tells us how harm will be warded off from them: «No gloom or shame will cover their faces» that is, no harm will befall them in any way, because when harm befalls a person, that can be seen on his face, which changes and becomes gloomy.

But in the case of these people, as Allah tells us:

«You will see on their faces the radiance of bliss.» (al-Mutaffifeen 83: 24)

«They will be the inhabitants of paradise» who will abide there «they will abide therein forever» and will never move, leave or change.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ كَسَبُوا السَّيِّئَاتِ جَزَاءُ سَيِّئَةٍ يَبْتَغِيهَا وَنَزَّهَتْهُمْ ذَلَّةٌ مَّا لَهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ مِنْ عَاصِرٍ
كَأَنَّمَا أَغْشِيَتْ وُجُوهُهُمْ قِطْعًا مِنْ آتِلٍ مُظْلِمًا أُولَئِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ

﴿(سورة يونس: ٢٧)﴾

10:27. As for those who earn evil, the recompense of an evil deed will be the like thereof, and shame will cover them. They will have no protector from [the wrath of] Allah. Their faces will be covered, as it were, with patches of darkest night. They will be inhabitants of the fire; they will abide therein forever.

Having mentioned the inhabitants of paradise, Allah now mentions the inhabitants of hell, and tells us that what they earned in this world is evil deeds that incur the wrath of Allah, namely all kinds of disbelief and sin.

﴿the recompense of an evil deed will be the like thereof﴾ that is, a recompense that will upset them according to what they did of evil deeds.

﴿and shame will cover them﴾ and their hearts will be filled with fear of Allah's punishment. No one will ward it off from them and no one will protect them from it; their innocence and shame will be brought forth from them and darkness will appear on their faces.

﴿Their faces will be covered, as it were, with patches of darkest night. They will be inhabitants of the fire; they will abide therein forever﴾ how great a difference there will be between the two groups.

﴿On that day, some faces will be radiant, gazing upon their Lord. And on that day, some faces will be gloomy, knowing that a great calamity is about to befall them.﴾ (al-Qiyamah 75: 22-25)

﴿On that day, some faces will be beaming, laughing and rejoicing. And on that day, some faces will be covered with dust, overcast with gloom. Such will be the disbelievers, the wicked.﴾ ('Abasa 80: 38-42)

﴿وَيَوْمَ نَحْشُرُهُمْ جَمِيعًا ثُمَّ نَقُولُ لِلَّذِينَ أَشْرَكُوا مَكَانَكُمْ أَنْتُمْ وَشُرَكَائُمْ فَزَلَّلْنَا بَيْنَهُمْ
وَقَالَ شُرَكَائُهُمْ مَا كُنْتُمْ إِتَانَا تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ فَكَفَى بِاللَّهِ شَهِيدًا بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكُمْ إِنْ كُنَّا عَنْ
عِبَادَتِكُمْ لَغَافِلِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾ هُنَالِكَ تَبْلُوا كُلُّ نَفْسٍ مَّا أَسْلَفَتْ وَرُدُّوْا إِلَى اللَّهِ مَوْلَاهُمْ
الْحَقِّ وَصَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَّا كَانُوا يَفْتَرُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ٢٨-٣٠)

10:28. On the day when We gather them all together, We will say to those who ascribed partners to Us: Stay where you are, you and your [so-called] partners! We will separate them, and their [so-called] partners will say: It was not us you worshipped.

10:29. Sufficient is Allah as a witness between us and you: we certainly knew nothing of your worship of us.

10:30. There every soul will come to know what it had done in the past, and they will be brought back to Allah, their true Lord; the [false gods] of their own invention will be lost from them.

---

﴿On the day when We gather them all together﴾ that is, We will gather all creatures at the appointed time of reckoning, and we will bring together the polytheists and that which they used to worship besides Allah.

﴿We will say to those who ascribed partners to Us: Stay where you are, you and your [so-called] partners!﴾ That is, stay where you are so that your judgement will take place and the verdict between you and them will be announced.

﴿We will separate them﴾ that is, both physically and emotionally, and there will be extreme enmity between them after they had showed them nothing but pure love in this world. That love and allegiance will turn into resentment and enmity.

Their so-called partners will disavow them and say: ﴿It was not us you worshipped﴾, for we declare that Allah is far above having any partner or equal.

﴿Sufficient is Allah as a witness between us and you: we certainly knew nothing of your worship of us﴾ – we did not instruct you to do that and we did not call you to do it; rather you worshipped the one who called you to do that, and that was the Shayṭān, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Did I not instruct you, O children of Adam, that you should not worship the Shayṭān, for he is to you an avowed enemy?﴾ (Yâ Seen 36: 60)

«On the day when He gathers them all together He will say to the angels: Was it you that these people used to worship? They will say: Glory be to You! You are our Close Friend, not they. Rather they used to worship the jinn; most of them believed in them.» (Saba' 34: 40-41)

The noble angels, the Prophets, the close friends of Allah (awliyâ') and others will, on the Day of Resurrection, disavow those who worshipped them and they will deny that they ever called them to worship them, and they will be telling the truth. At that point, the polytheists will feel indescribable remorse and will realise the seriousness of the deeds that they sent on ahead and what they did of bad deeds. On that day it will become clear to them that they were fabricating lies against Allah, for their worship was to no avail and their objects of worship will be lost to them; they will find themselves cut off and helpless.

Hence Allah says: «There» that is, on that day «every soul will come to know what it had done in the past» that is, it will realise the nature of its deeds and earnings, and that will be followed by requital when each person will be requited according to his deeds: if they were good, he will be rewarded, and if they were evil, he will be punished.

«the [false gods] of their own invention will be lost from them» their belief that they were doing the right thing by ascribing partners to Allah, and that what they worshipped besides Him would benefit them and ward off punishment from them, will come to nothing.

﴿قُلْ مَنْ يَرْزُقُكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ أَمَّنْ يَمْلِكُ السَّمْعَ وَالْأَبْصَرَ وَمَنْ يُخْرِجُ الْحَيَّ مِنَ الْمَيِّتِ وَيُخْرِجُ الْمَيِّتَ مِنَ الْحَيِّ وَمَنْ يُدِيرُ الْأَمْرَ فَسَيَقُولُونَ اللَّهُ فَقُلْ أَفَلَا تَتَّقُونَ﴾

﴿۳۱﴾ فَذَلِكُمُ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ الْحَقُّ فَمَاذَا بَعَدَ الْحَقِّ إِلَّا الضَّلَالُ فَأَنَّى تُصْرَفُونَ ﴿۳۲﴾ كَذَلِكَ حَقَّقْتُ كُلِّمْتُ رَبِّكَ عَلَى الَّذِينَ فَسَقُوا أَنَّهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿۳۳﴾ (سورة يونس: ۳۱-۳۳)

- 10:31. Say [O Muhammad]: Who provides for you from the heaven and the earth? Who has power over hearing and sight? Who brings forth the living from the dead and brings forth the dead from the living? Who ordains all things? They will say: Allah. Say: Will you not then fear Him?
- 10:32. Such, then, is Allah, your true Lord. And what is there apart from truth but error? So how could you be turned away [from the truth]?
- 10:33. Thus the decree of your Lord against the wicked is fulfilled; hence they will not believe.

«Say [O Muhammad]» to these people who ascribed partners to Allah for which He sent down no authority – basing your argument against them on what they affirm of the oneness of Divine Lordship, to prove what they deny of the oneness of divinity:

«Who provides for you from the heaven and the earth» by sending down provision from the sky, bringing forth all types of provision from the earth, and making it available to you?

«Who has power over hearing and sight?» Who is it that created them and controls them? He singled these things out for mention by way of pointing out other blessings that are inferior by mentioning those that are superior, because they are so important and beneficial.

«Who brings forth the living from the dead», such as bringing forth all kinds of trees and plants from seeds and pits, and bringing forth the believer from the disbeliever, the bird from the egg, and so on «and brings forth the dead from the living?» By doing the opposite of the things mentioned above

«Who ordains all things?» in the upper and lower realms; this includes all kinds of divine control. If you ask them about these things,

﴿They will say: Allah﴾, because they acknowledge all that, and they know that Allah has no partner in any of the things mentioned here.

﴿Say﴾ to them, so as to establish binding proof, ﴿Will you not then fear Him?﴾ And worship Him alone sincerely, ascribing no partner to Him, and give up all that you worship besides Him of rivals and idols.

﴿Such, then﴾ is the One Who describes Himself in these terms ﴿is Allah, your true Lord﴾ that is, the Divine one Who is rightfully worshipped and Most Praiseworthy, Who is caring for all of His creation and bestowing all sorts of blessings upon them

﴿And what is there apart from truth but error?﴾

For He is the only Creator and the only One Who is in control of all things; people have no blessings except from Him and no one can grant them anything good except Him or ward off bad things from them except Him, the Owner of the most beautiful names and great, perfect attributes, Possessor of majesty and honour.

﴿So how could you be turned away [from the truth]?﴾ That is, from worship of the One Who possesses such attributes, and instead worship that which is non-existent and cannot do anything for itself in terms of bringing benefits, warding off harm, causing death, giving life or resurrecting.

For it does not have even an atom's worth of dominion and has no partnership with Allah in any way whatsoever; it cannot intercede with Him except with His permission. So may he perish, the one who ascribes partners to Him. Woe to those who disbelieve in Him, for they are lacking in reason just as they are lacking in their beliefs; indeed they are losers in this world and the hereafter.

Hence Allah (ﷻ) says of them: ﴿Thus the decree of your Lord against the wicked is fulfilled; hence they will not believe﴾ after Allah showed them clear signs and brilliant proof. In that there is a lesson for people of understanding, and admonition for those who fear Allah, and guidance for all people.

﴿قُلْ هَلْ مِنْ شُرَكَائِكُمْ مَنْ يَدْعُوا الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ قُلِ اللَّهُ يَسْجُدُ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ فَأَنْ تَوْفِكُونَ﴾ ﴿٣٤﴾ قُلْ هَلْ مِنْ شُرَكَائِكُمْ مَنْ يَهْدِي إِلَى الْحَقِّ قُلِ اللَّهُ يَهْدِي لِلْحَقِّ أَفَنْ يَهْدِيَ إِلَى الْحَقِّ أَحَقُّ أَنْ يُنَبِّعَ أَمَنْ لَا يَهْدِي إِلَّا أَنْ يَهْدِيَ فَمَا لَكُمْ كَيْفَ تَحْكُمُونَ﴾ ﴿٣٥﴾ وَمَا يَنْبَغُ أَكْثَرُهُمْ إِلَّا ظَنًّا إِنَّ الظَّنَّ لَا يَغْنِي مِنَ الْحَقِّ شَيْئًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ بِمَا يَفْعَلُونَ﴾ ﴿٣٦﴾ (سورة

يونس: ٣٤-٣٦)

- 10:34. Say: Is there any among your [so-called] partners who can originate creation then repeat it? Say: Allah originates creation then repeats it; how then are you turned away [from the truth]?
- 10:35. Say: Is there any among your [so-called] partners who can guide to the truth? Say: Allah guides to the truth. Is then One Who guides to the truth more worthy of being followed, or one who cannot find the way unless he himself is guided? What is the matter with you, that you judge as you do?
- 10:36. Most of them follow nothing but mere conjecture. But conjecture is no substitute for certain truth. Verily Allah has full knowledge of all that they do.

Here Allah (ﷻ) highlights the helplessness of the gods of the polytheists, and the fact that they possess no qualities that would make them deserve to be taken as gods along with Allah:

﴿Say: Is there any among your [so-called] partners who can originate﴾ that is, initiate ﴿creation then repeat it?﴾ This is a question which implies both negation and affirmation. In other words, there is none among them who could originate creation then repeat it; they are too weak and helpless to do that.

﴿Say: Allah originates creation then repeats it﴾ without any partner or helper in doing so.

﴿how then are you turned away [from the truth]?﴾ That is, how can you turn away and deviate from worship of the One Who is unique in His initiation and repetition of creation, and instead worship those who cannot create anything and are themselves created?

﴿Say: Is there any among your [so-called] partners who can guide to the truth?﴾ by explaining it, highlighting it, inspiring people, or helping them to follow it.

﴿Say: Allah﴾ alone ﴿guides to the truth﴾ by means of proof and evidence, and by inspiring and enabling and helping people to follow the straight path.

﴿Is then One Who guides to the truth more worthy of being followed, or one who cannot find the way unless he himself is guided﴾ because he has no knowledge and he is misguided? This refers to their so-called partners who cannot guide or be guided unless they receive guidance. ﴿What is the matter with you, that you judge as you do?﴾ That is, what made you reach this false judgement and think that it is appropriate to worship anyone alongside Allah, after the proof and evidence has become clear that no one is deserving of worship except Allah alone?

Once it is clear that their gods possessed no attributes or abilities that would make them deserving of being worshipped alongside Allah, rather they possess attributes of imperfection that lead to the conclusion that they cannot be divine, then for what reason were they made gods besides Allah?

The answer is that this is an example of the Shayṭān making fair-seeming to man the most abhorrent of falsehood and misguidance, to the extent that they believed that and got used to it, and they thought that it was true, when in fact it is nothing.

Hence Allah says: ﴿Those who call upon their [so-called] partners besides Allah follow nothing but conjecture and they do nothing but lie.﴾ (10: 66), that is, they are not really following so-called partners of Allah, for Allah has no partners in the first place, either on the basis of rational thought or textual evidence. Rather they are only following conjecture,

﴿...but conjecture is no substitute for certain truth.﴾ (an-Najm 53: 28)

They call them gods and worship them alongside Allah, but:

﴿They are no more than names you have named, you and your forefathers, for which Allah has not sent down any authority...﴾ (an-Najm 53: 23)

﴿Verily Allah has full knowledge of all that they do﴾ and He will requite them for that with a severe punishment.

﴿وَمَا كَانَ هَذَا الْقُرْآنُ أَنْ يُفْتَرَىٰ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَلَكِنْ تَصْدِيقَ الَّذِي بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ وَتَفْصِيلَ
الْكِتَابِ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ مِنْ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٣٧﴾ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَاهُ قُلْ فَأْتُوا بِسُورَةٍ مِثْلِهِ
وَادْعُوا مَنْ اسْتَطَعْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٣٨﴾ بَلْ كَذَّبُوا بِمَا لَمْ يُحِيطُوا بِعِلْمِهِ
وَلَمَّا يَأْتِهِمْ تَأْوِيلُهُ كَذَّابٌ كَذَّابٌ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَانظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عِقَابُ الظَّالِمِينَ
﴿٣٩﴾ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يُؤْمِنُ بِهِ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ لَا يُؤْمِنُ بِهِ وَرَبُّكَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْمُفْسِدِينَ ﴿٤٠﴾
وَإِنْ كَذَّبُوكَ فَقُلْ لِي عَمَلٍ وَلَكُمْ عَمَلُكُمْ أَنْتُمْ بَرِيئُونَ مِمَّا أَعْمَلُ وَأَنَا بِرِيءٌ مِمَّا
تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٤١﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ٣٧-٤١)

10:37. This Qur'an could not possibly have been produced by anyone except Allah. It is a confirmation of that which came before it and an explanation of that which is decreed for humankind [of rulings and laws]. There is no doubt about it; it is from the Lord of the worlds.

10:38. Or do they say: He has fabricated it? Say: Then produce a soorah like it, and call upon whomever you can other than Allah [to help you], if you speak the truth!

10:39. Nay, they reject that which they do not comprehend, even before any explanation thereof reaches them. In like manner did those who came before them reject [the truth]. So see what was the fate of the wrongdoers.

10:40. Among them are some who will believe therein and others who will never believe therein. And your Lord knows best those who spread mischief.

10:41. If they reject you, then say: My deeds are mine and your deeds are yours. You are not accountable for what I do, nor am I accountable for what you do.

«This Qur'an could not possibly have been produced by anyone except Allah» that is, that is not possible and it cannot be imagined that this Qur'an could have been produced by anyone except Allah (ﷻ), for it is the great Book which:

«No falsehood can approach it from before it or from behind it; [it is] a revelation from One Who is Most Wise, Praiseworthy.» (Fuṣṣilat 41: 42)

It is the Book which, if all of humankind and the jinn were to come together to produce the like of this Qur'an, they could never produce the like thereof, even if they helped one another (cf. 17: 88). It is the Book of Allah which was spoken by the Lord of the worlds. So how could anyone in creation speak a Book like it or even come close? For the words are indicative of the greatness of the One Who spoke them and of His attributes.

If there was anyone who could match Allah in His greatness and perfect attributes, then it would be possible for him to produce something like the Qur'an. If we assume that someone falsely attributed a Book to the Lord of the worlds, He would hasten to send a severe punishment upon him.

But Allah sent down this Book as a mercy to the worlds and as proof that leaves no excuse for anyone.

He sent it down as «a confirmation of that which came before it» of the divinely revealed Books of Allah, as it is in harmony with them and confirms what they mentioned and what they foretold, which came to pass as they had been foretold.

﴿and an explanation of that which is decreed for humankind [of rulings and laws]﴾ that is, what is prohibited and what is lawful, religious rulings and decrees, and other things that He has told us about the past.

﴿There is no doubt about it; it is from the Lord of the worlds﴾ that is, there is no doubt about it whatsoever; rather it is certain truth. It has been sent down from the Lord of the worlds Who takes care of all of His creation by His grace.

One of the most significant ways in which He takes care of them is that He has sent down to them this Book which speaks of their religious and worldly interests and contains all noble characteristics and good deeds.

﴿Or do they﴾, namely those who disbelieve in it ﴿say﴾ out of stubbornness and resentment: ﴿He has fabricated it﴾ that is, Muhammad (ﷺ) has fabricated it and attributed it falsely to Allah? ﴿Say﴾ to them (O Muhammad [ﷺ]), obliging them to produce something like it if they can, in which case it may be possible that their claim is true, otherwise it is false:

﴿Then produce a soorah like it, and call upon whomever you can other than Allah [to help you], if you speak the truth!﴾ That is, call them to help you to produce a soorah like it. But that is impossible; if it were possible, they would have announced their ability to do that and they would have produced something like it.

But because they were not able to do that, it became clear that what they were saying was false and that they had no proof for it. What made them disbelieve in the Qur'an, which contains truth beyond which there is no other, is the fact that they did not understand it. If they had understood it properly, they would have been humble enough to believe in it. But until now there has not come to them that which Allah promised them of punishment. This disbelief on their part is of the same nature as the disbelief of those who came before them. Hence Allah says: ﴿In like manner did those who came before them reject [the truth]. So see what was the fate of the wrongdoers﴾, which was utter destruction that spared none of them.

So let these people beware of persisting in their disbelief, lest there befall them that which befell the disbelieving and doomed nations.

This indicates that one should be cautious with regard to all matters, and not hasten to accept or reject anything before one fully understands it.

﴿Among them are some who will believe therein﴾ that is, in the Qur'an and what it says

﴿and others who will never believe therein. And your Lord knows best those who spread mischief﴾ – they are the ones who do not believe in Him out of stubbornness, wrongdoing and wickedness; He will requite them for their wickedness with the severest of punishments.

﴿If they reject you﴾ then carry on with your call, and you are not at all accountable for them; each individual is responsible for his own deeds.

﴿then say: My deeds are mine and your deeds are yours. You are not accountable for what I do, nor am I accountable for what you do﴾. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Whoever does righteous deeds, it is to his own benefit and whoever does evil deeds, it is to his own detriment...﴾ (al-Jâthiyah 45: 15)

﴿وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَسْتَمِعُونَ إِلَيْكَ أَفَأَنْتَ تُسْمِعُ الصَّمَّ وَلَوْ كَانُوا لَا يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَنْظُرُ إِلَيْكَ أَفَأَنْتَ تَهْدِي الْعُمْى وَلَوْ كَانُوا لَا يَبْصُرُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَظْلِمُ النَّاسَ شَيْئًا وَلَكِنَّ النَّاسَ أَنْفُسُهُمْ يَظْلِمُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ٤٢-٤٤)

- 10:42. Among them are some who listen to you, but can you make the deaf to hear, if they will not use their minds?
- 10:43. And among them are some who look at you, but can you guide the blind, if they will not see?
- 10:44. Verily Allah does not wrong people in the least, but it is people who wrong themselves.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about some of those who disbelieved in the Messenger (ﷺ) and in the message he brought.

﴿Among them are some who listen to you﴾ that is, they listened to the Prophet (ﷺ) when he recited the revelation, not by way of seeking guidance but by way of passing the time, disbelieving and seeking out faults. This kind of listening is not beneficial and will not lead to attaining anything good. No wonder the door of success was shut in their faces and they were deprived of the benefit of listening. Hence Allah says:

﴿but can you make the deaf to hear, if they will not use their minds?﴾ This appears in the form of a question but in fact establishes negation; in other words, it confirms that you cannot make deaf people hear, who cannot hear anything that is said to them, even if you shout out loud, especially if they are also lacking in reason.

If it is impossible to make the deaf hear, who do not understand what is said to them, then it is not possible for you to make these disbelievers hear you in such a way that they may benefit from what they hear.

As for making them hear proof (that will leave them with no excuse), they have indeed heard that which establishes the proof of Allah against them. Thus this important means of gaining knowledge is blocked for them, which is by means of hearing.

Then Allah tells us that another means of learning that is blocked for them is the means of seeing, as He says:

«And among them are some who look at you» but their looking at you does not benefit them, and they do not benefit by learning about you. Just as you cannot guide the blind if they will not see, in the same way you cannot guide these people. If their minds, hearing and vision, which are the means of acquiring knowledge and learning facts, are not functioning, then what way do they have of reaching the truth?

The words «And among them are some who look at you...» indicate that looking at the Prophet (ﷺ) and his teachings, character, deeds and message is the greatest evidence of his truthfulness and the soundness of what he brought; that is sufficient for the one who has eyesight, and he needs no further proof.

«Verily Allah does not wrong people in the least» so He does not add to their bad deeds or detract from their good deeds

«but it is people who wrong themselves»: the truth comes to them but they do not accept it, so Allah punishes them after that by placing a seal on their hearts, hearing and vision.

﴿وَيَوْمَ يُحْشَرُهُمْ كَأَن لَّمْ يَلْبَسُوا إِلَّا سَاعَةً مِنَ النَّهَارِ يَتَعَارَفُونَ بَيْنَهُمْ قَدْ خَسِرَ الَّذِينَ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِينَ كَانُوا مُهْتَدِينَ﴾ (سورة يونس: ٤٥)

10:45. On the day when He will gather them together, as if they had not remained [in this world] for longer than an hour of a day, they will recognise one another. Lost indeed are those who deny the meeting with Allah, and they are not guided.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of how quickly this world will end, and that when Allah (ﷻ) gathers the people and brings them together on a day concerning which there is no doubt, it will be as if they had only stayed (in this world) for a short while, and as if they had never experienced any joy or misery, and they will recognise one another as they used to in this world. On that day, those who feared Allah will be the winners, and those who disbelieved in the meeting with Allah will be the losers, for they were not guided to the straight path and the true religion, so they missed out on blessings and will deserve to enter the fire.

﴿وَأَمَّا نُرِيَنَّكَ بَعْضَ الَّذِي نَعِدُهُمْ أَوْ نَتَوَقَّعَنَّكَ فَإِلَيْنَا مَرْجِعُهُمْ ثُمَّ اللَّهُ شَهِيدٌ عَلَىٰ مَا يَفْعَلُونَ﴾

﴿٤٦﴾ (سورة يونس: ٤٦)

10:46. Whether We show you some of that [punishment] of which We have warned them, or We take your soul [in death, before that], to Us is their return; and, moreover, Allah is witness to all that they do.

That is, do not grieve, O Messenger (ﷺ), for these disbelievers, and do not seek to hasten the punishment for them, for what We have prepared for them of punishment will inevitably befall them, either in this world, so that you will see it with your own eyes and have the satisfaction of seeing it, or in the hereafter, after death, for they will return to Allah and He will inform them of what they used to do, for Allah has kept a record of their deeds but they forgot them, and Allah is witness of all things. This is a stern warning to them, and consolation to the Messenger (ﷺ) whose people stubbornly disbelieved in him.

﴿وَلِكُلِّ أُمَّةٍ رَّسُولٌ فَإِذَا جَاءَ رَسُولُهُمْ قُضِيَ بَيْنَهُمْ بِالْقِسْطِ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ﴾

﴿٤٧﴾ وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَىٰ هَذَا الْوَعْدُ إِن كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٤٨﴾ قُلْ لَا أَمْلِكُ لِنَفْسِي ضَرًّا وَلَا

نَقَعَا إِلَّا مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ لِكُلِّ أُمَّةٍ أَجَلٌ إِذَا جَاءَ أَجْلُهُمْ فَلَا يَسْتَعْجِرُونَ سَاعَةً وَلَا يَسْتَقْدِمُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ (سورة يونس: ٤٧-٤٩)

- 10:47. For every nation there was a Messenger, and when their Messenger came,<sup>11</sup> judgement was passed between them with justice, and they were not wronged.
- 10:48. They say: When will this promise come to pass, if you speak the truth?
- 10:49. Say: I have no power either to harm or benefit myself, except as Allah wills. For every nation there is an appointed time; when their appointed time comes, they will not be able to delay it for a single moment or bring it forward.

﴿For every nation﴾ of the past
 ﴿there was a Messenger﴾ who called them to affirm the oneness of Allah and follow his religion.

﴿and when their Messenger came﴾ to them, bringing signs, some of them believed and others disbelieved. So Allah will judge between them fairly, by saving the believers and destroying the disbelievers. ﴿and they were not wronged﴾ by being punished before the Messenger was sent and the proof was explained, or by being punished for crimes they did not commit. So let those who disbelieve in you (O Muhammad ﷺ) beware of behaving like those doomed nations, lest there befall them what befell those people.

They should not think that the punishment is slow in coming and say: ﴿When will this promise come to pass, if you speak the truth?﴾

<sup>11</sup> This may refer to:

- (i) either this world, when their Messengers came, and some believed in them while others did not; the latter were punished and the former were saved;
- (ii) or the hereafter, when the Messengers will come and give testimony concerning their nations on the Day of Resurrection.

This was wrongdoing on their part, when they demanded that of the Prophet (ﷺ), for he had no control over the matter; all he was required to do was to convey the message and explain it to the people.

As for the reckoning and the sending of the punishment upon them, that could only be from Allah (ﷻ), who sends it upon them when the ordained time comes, the time at which it has been decreed, in accordance with His divine wisdom.

When that time comes, they cannot put it back by a single hour or bring it forward. So let the disbelievers beware of seeking to hasten the punishment, for they are seeking to hasten the punishment of Allah which, when it comes, cannot be averted from the evildoers (cf. 6: 147). Hence Allah says:

﴿قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ أَتَاكُمْ عَذَابُهُ بَيِّنَاتًا أَوْ نَهَارًا مَاذَا يَسْتَعِجِلُ مِنْهُ الْمُجْرِمُونَ ٥٠﴾
 إِذَا مَا وَقَعَ آمَنْتُمْ بِهِ ءَأَلْتَنِ وَقَدْ كُنْتُمْ بِهِ تَسْتَعِجِلُونَ ٥١﴾ ثُمَّ قِيلَ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا ذُوقُوا
 عَذَابَ الْخُلْدِ هَلْ تُجْزَوْنَ إِلَّا بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْسِبُونَ ٥٢﴾ (سورة يونس: ٥٠-٥٢)

- 10:50. Say: What do you think, if His punishment should come upon you by night or by day, what could there be in it that the evildoers would seek to hasten?
- 10:51. Or when it comes to pass, then will you believe in it? [It will be said:] What, now [do you believe], when before you would [mockingly] seek to hasten it?
- 10:52. Then it will be said to the wrongdoers: Taste the everlasting punishment; will you be requited for anything other than what you used to earn?

﴿Say: What do you think, if His punishment should come upon you by night﴾ at the time when you are asleep

﴿or by day﴾ at the time when you are heedless
 ﴿what could there be in it that the evildoers would seek to hasten?﴾
 That is, what is good in it that they seek to hasten? Rather what a punishment they seek to bring forward!

﴿Or when it comes to pass, then will you believe in it?﴾ For faith will be of no benefit when the punishment of Allah has come to pass and it will be said to them by way of rebuke at that time when they will claim to believe:

﴿What, now [do you believe]﴾ at the time of hardship and pain?
 ﴿when before you would [mockingly] seek to hasten it﴾. This is Allah's way of dealing with His slaves: He forgives them if they ask Him for forgiveness before the punishment comes, but once the punishment has come, it is of no benefit to believe then, as Allah (ﷻ) said of Pharaoh, when he was about to drown: ﴿he said: I believe that there is no god but He in Whom the Children of Israel believe; I am one of those who submit to Allah [in Islam]﴾ (10: 90).

But it was said to him: ﴿What, now [do you believe], when before this you were disobedient, and were one of the mischief-makers?﴾ (10: 91).

And Allah says:

﴿But their believing after they had seen Our punishment could not benefit them at all. Such has always been the way of Allah in dealing with His slaves...﴾ (Ghāfir 40: 85)

And here Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Or when it comes to pass, then will you believe in it? [It will be said:] What, now﴾ do you claim to believe, ﴿when before you would [mockingly] seek to hasten it?﴾ This is what your hands have wrought and this is what you sought to hasten.

﴿Then it will be said to the wrongdoers﴾ when they are required for their deeds on the Day of Resurrection: ﴿Taste the everlasting punishment﴾ that is, the punishment that you will suffer for eternity, with no respite, not even for an hour

«will you be requited for anything other than what you used to earn?» of disbelief, rejection and sin.

﴿وَيَسْتَفِئُونَكَ أَحَقُّ هُوَ قُلْ إِي وَرَبِّي إِنَّهُ لَحَقٌّ وَمَا أَنْتُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ ﴿٥٣﴾ وَلَوْ أَنَّ لِكُلِّ نَفْسٍ ظَلَمَتْ مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ لَافْتَدَتْ بِهِ. وَأَسْرُوا النَّدَامَةَ لَمَّا رَأَوُا الْعَذَابَ وَفُضِيَ بَيْنَهُم بِالْقِسْطِ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾ أَلَا إِنَّ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ أَلَا إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٥٥﴾ هُوَ يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٥٦﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ٥٣-٥٦)

- 10:53. They ask you: Is this true? Say: Yes, by my Lord. It is indeed true, and you can never escape it.
- 10:54. Verily, if every soul that did wrong possessed all that is on earth, it would offer it in ransom. They will conceal their remorse, when they see the punishment. Judgement will be passed between them with justice, and they will not be wronged.
- 10:55. Verily to Allah belongs all that is in the heavens and on earth. Verily the promise of Allah is indeed true. Yet most of them do not know.
- 10:56. It is He Who gives life and causes death, and to Him you shall all return.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Prophet (ﷺ): «They ask you: Is this true?» That is, the disbelievers will ask you by way of stubbornness, not by way of seeking clarification and guidance.

«Is this true?» that is, is it true that people will be gathered and resurrected after death for the appointed day, and that they will be requited for their deeds, if they were good they will be rewarded and if they were evil they will be punished?

«Say», swearing that it is true and showing clear proof and evidence for it:

«Yes, by my Lord. It is indeed true» and there is no doubt or confusion about it.

«and you can never escape it». You can never escape Allah, for Allah will inevitably resurrect you. Just as He initiated your creation when you were nothing, similarly He will recreate you so that He may requite you for your deeds.

«Verily» when the Day of Resurrection comes, «if every soul that did wrong» by disbelieving and committing sin «possessed all that is on earth» of gold, silver and other wealth, with which to ransom itself from the punishment of Allah, «it would offer it in ransom», but that would not benefit it at all; rather benefit and harm, reward and punishment, will be in accordance with deeds, whether righteous or evil.

«They» namely those who did wrong «will conceal their remorse, when they see the punishment». They will regret what they did, but it will be too late.

«Judgement will be passed between them with justice» that is, perfect fairness in which there will be no injustice or unfairness in any way whatsoever.

«Verily to Allah belongs all that is in the heavens and on earth». They are subject to His religious and universal decrees and He will requite them (on the Day of Resurrection). Hence Allah says:

«Verily the promise of Allah is indeed true. Yet most of them do not know» and it is for this reason that they do not prepare to meet Allah; rather they may not believe in Him, even though there is so much definitive proof and textual and rational evidence.

«It is He Who gives life and causes death» that is, He is the One Who has control over life and death, and has control over all other things, and He has no partner in that.

﴿and to Him you shall all return﴾ on the Day of Resurrection, and He will requite you for your deeds, both good and bad.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ قَدْ جَاءَكُمْ مَوْعِظَةٌ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ وَشِفَاءٌ لِمَا فِي الصُّدُورِ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةٌ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ۝٥٧﴾ قُلْ يَفْضِلُ اللَّهُ وَرَحْمَتَهُ، فِذَلِكَ فَلْيَفْرَحُوا هُوَ خَيْرٌ مِمَّا يَجْمَعُونَ

﴿٥٨﴾ (سورة يونس: ٥٧-٥٨)

10:57. O humankind, there has come to you an admonition from your Lord and a healing for [the ills] in your hearts, a guidance and mercy for the believers.

10:58. Say: In the grace of Allah and in His mercy – in that let them rejoice. That is far better than all they could accumulate.

Here Allah (ﷻ) encourages people to focus on this noble Book, by mentioning its beautiful characteristics that are important for them: ﴿O humankind, there has come to you an admonition from your Lord﴾ that is, it exhorts you and warns you against the deeds that incur the wrath of Allah and lead to His punishment; it warns you against them by highlighting their negative consequences and evil outcomes.

﴿and a healing for [the ills] in your hearts﴾. It is this Qur'an, which is a healing for what there is in people's hearts of the diseases of whims and desires, which hinder man from complying with Islamic teachings, and the diseases of doubt which could undermine certain knowledge. It contains exhortation, encouragement and warnings, promises and threats, which all form motives and deterrents in people's hearts.

If one's heart finds, in the Qur'an, motivation to do good and a deterrent against doing evil, and it is shaped by what one grasps of its meanings when reading Qur'an regularly, that would lead one to give precedence to what Allah wants over what one's own nafs wants, and that which pleases Allah would become dearer to the individual than his own whims and desires.

Similarly, what it contains of proof and evidence that Allah has presented in different ways and explained in the most eloquent manner will dispel doubts about the truth; by means of that hearts attain the highest level of certainty.

Once the heart has healed from its sickness and has begun to enjoy sound health, all the other faculties will follow suit, for they become sound if the heart is sound and they become corrupt if the heart is corrupt.

﴿a guidance and mercy for the believers﴾: guidance is knowledge of the truth and acting upon it, and mercy is what one attains of good and reward in this world and the hereafter, for the one who is guided by the Qur'an. Guidance is the most sublime means (of attaining what one wants) and mercy is the most sublime of aims and goals, but the Qur'an will not be a source of guidance and a mercy except for the believers.

If a person attains guidance and mercy is bestowed on him as a result thereof, he will attain happiness, prosperity, gain, success, and joy.

Hence Allah (ﷻ) enjoined the believers to rejoice in that, as He says: ﴿Say: In the grace of Allah﴾ namely the Qur'an, which is the greatest blessing and grace that Allah bestowed upon His slaves ﴿and in His mercy﴾ namely Islam and faith, and worshipping, loving and knowing Allah ﴿in that let them rejoice. That is far better than all they could accumulate﴾ of worldly gains and pleasures.

There can be no comparison between the blessing of faith that leads to happiness in this world and the hereafter, and all that this world contains, for the latter is temporary and will soon vanish.

Rather Allah (ﷻ) instructs us to rejoice in His grace and mercy, because that is something that will result in feeling at ease, energised and grateful to Allah (ﷻ), and feeling a sense of power and eagerness to pursue knowledge and faith, which will motivate one to seek more of them. This is a praiseworthy kind of joy, in contrast to rejoicing in the desires and pleasures of this world, or rejoicing in falsehood, for that is blameworthy, as Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...Do not exult, for Allah does not love those who exult [in their riches].﴾ (al-Qaṣaṣ 28: 76)

And Allah (ﷻ) says concerning those who rejoice in what they have of falsehood that is contrary to the message brought by the Messengers:

﴿Then when their Messengers came to them with clear signs, they exulted in what they had of [worldly] knowledge...﴾ (Ghāfir 40: 83)

﴿قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا أَنزَلَ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ مِنْ رِزْقٍ فَجَعَلْتُمْ مِنْهُ حَرَامًا وَحَلَلًا قُلْ مَا اللَّهُ
أَذِنَ لَكُمْ أَنْ تَقْتُلُوا (٥٩) وَمَا ظَنُّ الَّذِينَ يَفْتَرُونَ عَلَى اللَّهِ الْكَذِبَ
يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ إِنْ اللَّهُ لَذُو فَضْلٍ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَلَئِنْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَشْكُرُونَ﴾ (سورة

يونس: ٥٩-٦٠)

10:59. Say: What do you think about the provision that Allah has sent down to you, of which you then declared some to be forbidden and some to be lawful? Say: Has Allah given you leave to do so, or do you fabricate lies against Allah?

10:60. What do those who fabricate lies against Allah think about the Day of Resurrection? Verily Allah is most gracious to humankind, but most of them are ungrateful.

Here Allah denounces the polytheists who introduced prohibitions of things that Allah had permitted and permitted things that He had forbidden.

﴿Say: What do you think about the provision that Allah has sent down to you﴾ – this refers to different types of permissible animals that Allah had bestowed as provision for them and as a mercy ﴿of which you then declared some to be forbidden and some to be lawful? Say﴾ to them, by way of rebuke for this corrupt action: ﴿Has Allah given you leave to do so, or do you fabricate lies against Allah?﴾ It is well known that Allah did not give them permission; thus it is known that they were lying.

﴿What do those who fabricate lies against Allah think about the Day of Resurrection?﴾ What do they think Allah will do to them by way of punishment? Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿On the Day of Resurrection you will see those who fabricated lies against Allah, their faces darkened...﴾ (az-Zumar 39: 60)

﴿Verily Allah is most gracious to humankind﴾ and He bestows a great deal of blessing, but most people do not give thanks. Either they do not show gratitude for the blessings or they use them for sinful purposes or they regard some of them as prohibited, and they reject what Allah has bestowed of His favours upon His slaves. Few of them are grateful and acknowledge the blessing, praise Allah for it and use it for the purpose of obeying Him.

This verse is quoted as evidence for the basic principle that all foods are permissible, except those concerning which there is a text stating that they are prohibited, because Allah denounced those who prohibited the provision that He bestowed upon His slaves.

﴿وَمَا تَكُونُ فِي شَأْنٍ وَمَا تَتْلُوا مِنْهُ مِنْ قُرْآنٍ وَلَا تَعْمَلُونَ مِنْ عَمَلٍ إِلَّا كُنَّا عَلَيْكُمْ شُهُودًا إِذْ تُفِيضُونَ فِيهِ وَمَا يَعْزُبُ عَنْ رَبِّكَ مِنْ مِثْقَالِ ذَرَّةٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي السَّمَاءِ وَلَا أَصْغَرَ مِنْ ذَلِكَ وَلَا أَكْبَرَ إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ مُبِينٍ﴾ (سورة يونس: ٦١)

10:61. Whatever business you [O Prophet] may be engaged in, whatever you may recite of Qur'an, and whatever deeds you [O people] may do, We are witness over you when you are engaged therein. Not even the weight of a speck of dust, on earth or in heaven, escapes your Lord, nor is there anything smaller or greater than that, but it is [inscribed] in a clear record.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He is watching and sees all that people do, when they are moving and when they are resting. This is an implicit call to remember that He is always watching.

﴿Whatever business you [O Prophet] may be engaged in﴾ that is, whatever situation you are in, whether it involves religious or worldly matters

﴿whatever you may recite of Qur'an﴾ that is, whatever you recite of the Qur'an, which Allah revealed to you

﴿and whatever deeds you [O people] may do﴾, small or great

﴿We are witness over you when you are engaged therein﴾ that is, at the time when you start it and when you are still doing it.

So remember that Allah is watching all your deeds, and do them with sincerity, striving hard. And beware of doing what Allah (ﷻ) dislikes, for He is watching you and He knows what you disclose and what you conceal.

﴿Not even the weight of a speck of dust, on earth or in heaven, escapes your Lord﴾ that is, nothing escapes His knowledge, His hearing, His sight or His awareness

﴿nor is there anything smaller or greater than that, but it is [inscribed] in a clear record﴾ that is, His knowledge encompasses it and His pen records it.

Allah often mentions these two aspects of the divine will and decree together: His knowledge that encompasses all things and His recording of everything that happens. This is like the verse in which He says:

«Do you not know that Allah knows all that is in the heavens and on earth? Verily, that is [inscribed] in a record; verily that is easy for Allah.» (al-Hajj 22: 70)

﴿أَلَا إِنَّ أَوْلِيَاءَ اللَّهِ لَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُونَ ۚ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَكَانُوا يَتَّقُونَ ۚ لَهُمُ الْبُشْرَىٰ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ لَا يَبْدِيلُ لِكَلِمَاتِ اللَّهِ ذَٰلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ﴾ (سورة يونس: ٦٢-٦٤)

10:62. Verily the allies and close friends of Allah will have no fear nor will they grieve;

10:63. Those who believe and guard against evil.

10:64. For them are glad tidings in the life of this world and in the hereafter; there can be no change in the words [promises] of Allah. That is the supreme triumph.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of His close friends and loved ones, and mentions their deeds, characteristics and reward.

«Verily the allies and close friends of Allah will have no fear» with regard to the future and what lies ahead of fear and terror (on the Day of Resurrection)

«nor will they grieve» over what they have done in the past, because they will have done nothing but righteous deeds. As they will have no fear and will not grieve, it is established that they will be safe and happy, and will have much good, such as no one knows except Allah (ﷻ).

Then He describes them: they are «Those who believe» in Allah and in His angels, His Books, His Messenger, the Last Day, and the divine decree, both good and bad; and they confirm their faith by fearing Allah and guarding against evil, and by complying with His commands and heeding His prohibitions.

Whoever is a believer and guards against evil, Allah (ﷻ) will be his ally, and ﴿For them are glad tidings in the life of this world and in the hereafter﴾.

Glad tidings in this world means being spoken well of, praised and loved by the believers. It also includes good dreams, and the kindness that Allah shows to him by enabling him to do the best of deeds and acquire the best of characteristics, and by diverting from him bad characteristics.

In the hereafter, the first glad tidings the believers receive are at the time when their souls are taken in death, as Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Verily, those who say: Our Lord is Allah, then remain steadfast, to them the angels will come down [at the time of death, saying]: Fear not, nor grieve; but receive the glad tidings of paradise which you were promised.﴾ (Fussilat 41: 30)

After that, in the grave they receive the glad tidings of the good pleasure of Allah (ﷻ) and eternal bliss.

Then in the hereafter they will receive the ultimate glad tidings of admission to the gardens of bliss and salvation from the painful punishment.

﴿there can be no change in the words [promises] of Allah﴾; rather whatever Allah promises is true and cannot be changed or altered, because He is truthful in all that He says and no one can go against what He wills and decrees.

﴿That is the supreme triumph﴾ because it includes salvation from everything one fears and attaining everything one seeks and loves. The triumph is limited to that, because there is no triumph except for people of faith and piety.

To sum up: the glad tidings include all the good things and rewards that Allah has connected, in this world and the hereafter, to faith and piety. Hence He spoke in general, not specific, terms.

﴿وَلَا يَحْزُنكَ قَوْلُهُمْ إِنَّ الْعِزَّةَ لِلَّهِ جَمِيعًا هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ﴾ (٦٥)

(سورة يونس: ٦٥)

10:65. Do not let their words grieve you, for all power belongs to Allah. He is the All-Hearing, All-Knowing.

That is, do not let the words of those who disbelieve in you, in which their aim is to impugn you and your religion, grieve you, for their words will be no source of honour for them and they will not harm you at all

﴿for all power belongs to Allah﴾ – He bestows it upon whomever He will and withholds it from whomever He will.

Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Whoever seeks honour, then all honour belongs to Allah...﴾ (Fâtir 35: 10)

– that is, so let him seek it by obeying Him. That is based on the fact that Allah says after that: ﴿To Him ascend all good words, and He exalts the good deed﴾.

It is well known that you are obeying Allah, and that power and honour will come to you and your followers from Allah:

﴿...In fact, might belongs to Allah, and to His Messenger and to the believers...﴾ (al-Munâfiqoon 63: 8)

﴿He is the All-Hearing, All-Knowing﴾ that is, His hearing encompasses all voices, and nothing is hidden from Him.

His knowledge encompasses all things, both apparent and hidden; not even the weight of a speck of dust, on earth or in heaven, escapes Him, nor anything smaller or greater than that.

Allah (ﷻ) hears what you say and what your enemies say about you, and He knows that in detail. So be assured of the knowledge of Allah and His care for you; whoever fears Allah, He will suffice him.

﴿أَلَا إِنَّ لِلَّهِ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا يَتَّبِعُ الَّذِينَ
يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ شُرَكَاءَ ۚ إِنْ يَتَّبِعُونَ إِلَّا الظَّنَّ وَإِنْ هُمْ
إِلَّا يَخْرُصُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾ هُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ اللَّيْلَ لِتَسْكُنُوا فِيهِ وَالنَّهَارَ
مُبْصِرًا ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يُسْمِعُونَ﴾ (سورة يونس: ٦٦-٦٧)

10:66. Verily to Allah belong all those who are in the heavens and on earth. Those who call upon their [so-called] partners besides Allah follow nothing but conjecture and they do nothing but lie.

10:67. He it is Who has made the night for you to rest in, and the day for you to see. Verily in that are signs for people who listen [attentively].

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that to Him belong all that is in the heavens and on earth, as He is its sole Creator and Owner, and all creatures are His slaves; He controls them by means of whatever decrees and rulings He will. They are all slaves of Allah, subjugated to Him and under His control, so they do not deserve any kind of worship and they are not partners of Allah in any sense whatsoever. Hence Allah says: ﴿Those who call upon their [so-called] partners besides Allah follow nothing but conjecture﴾ which has nothing to do with truth ﴿and they do nothing but lie﴾ and fabricate about such matters.

If they were telling the truth, that they are partners of Allah, then let them highlight any of their qualities and attributes that would make them deserving of an atom's weight of worship. But they will never be able to do that. Is there any among them who ever created anything or granted any provision, or who owns any created thing or controls the night and the day which Allah ordained for people to earn their living?

«He it is Who has made the night for you to rest in» by sleeping and reposing, because of the darkness that covers the face of the earth; if it remained light, they would not be able to settle and relax.

And Allah has created «the day for you to see» that is, He has made it light so that people can see and go about earning their living and taking care of their religious and worldly interests.

«Verily in that are signs for people who listen [attentively]» to the revelations of Allah, listening by way of seeking to understand, accept and be guided, not listening by way of stubbornness and rejection. In that are signs for people who listen attentively and take it as evidence that Allah alone is deserving of worship and He is the true God, and that the so-called divinity of anything besides Him is false, and He is the Most Kind, the Most Merciful, the All-Knowing, the Most Wise.

﴿قَالُوا اتَّخَذَ اللَّهُ وَلَدًا سُبْحَنَهُ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ اِنْ عِنْدَكُمْ مِنْ سُلْطٰنٍ بِهٰذَا اَقُولُوْا عَلٰی اللّٰهِ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ﴿١٨﴾ قُلْ اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَفْتَرُوْنَ عَلٰی اللّٰهِ الْكُذِبُ لَا يُفْلِحُوْنَ ﴿١٩﴾ مَتَّعَ فِي الدُّنْيَا ثُمَّ اِیْتٰنَا مَرْجِعُهُمْ ثُمَّ نَذِیْقُهُمُ الْعَذَابَ الشَّدِیْدَ بِمَا كَانُوْا یَكْفُرُوْنَ ﴿٢٠﴾﴾ (سورة یونس: ٦٨-٧٠)

- 10:68. They say: Allah has begotten a son. Glory be to Him! He is the Self-Sufficient; to Him belongs all that is in the heavens and on the earth. You have no proof for that. Would you attribute to Allah something of which you have no knowledge?
- 10:69. Say: Verily those who fabricate lies against Allah will never prosper.
- 10:70. A little enjoyment in this world [will be theirs], then to Us they will return, then We will make them taste severe punishment because they disbelieved.

Here Allah tells us of the lies of the polytheists about the Lord of the worlds:

﴿They say: Allah has begotten a son﴾. Then Allah declares Himself to be above that, as He says:

﴿Glory be to Him!﴾ That is, He is declaring Himself to be far above what the wrongdoers say of attributing imperfection to Him. Then He states why they are wrong, based on the following proof:

Firstly, He says: ﴿He is the Self-Sufficient﴾ that is, He is the only One Who is Self-Sufficient in all ways. He is the completely Self-Sufficient Who is independent in all aspects. As He is self-sufficient and independent in all aspects, for what reason would He beget a son? Is it because He needs a son? This is contrary to His self-sufficiency, for no one begets a son unless there is something lacking in his self-sufficiency.

Secondly, He says: ﴿to Him belongs all that is in the heavens and on the earth﴾. This is a comprehensive phrase that is general in meaning and does not exclude any being that exists among the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth; all of them are created beings and slaves (of Allah).

It is well known that this general description rules out the notion of Him having a son among them, for a son is of the same nature as his father, so a so-called ‘son of God’ could not be created or a slave. Therefore the fact that Allah owns everything in the heavens and on earth rules out the concept of His having a son.

Thirdly, He says: ﴿You have no proof for that﴾ that is, do you have any evidence or proof to confirm that Allah has a son? If they had any evidence, they would have produced it as He challenged them to do, but they were unable to establish any such proof. Thus it is known that what they say is false and that they were speaking without knowledge. Hence Allah says: ﴿Would you attribute to Allah something of which you have no knowledge?﴾ For this is the gravest of prohibited acts.

﴿Say: Verily those who fabricate lies against Allah will never prosper﴾ that is, they will never reach their goal or attain what they seek. Rather they will enjoy their disbelief and lies in this world for a little while, then they will return to Allah, and He will make them taste severe punishment because they disbelieved.

﴿...It is not Allah Who has wronged them, but they wronged themselves.﴾ (Al 'Imrân 3: 117)

﴿وَأَنذِرْ عَلَيْهِمْ نَبَأَ نُوحٍ إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ يَتَقَوَّمُوا إِن كَانَ كَبُرَ عَلَيْكُمْ مَقَامِي وَتَذِكْرِي بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ فَعَلَى اللَّهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ فَأَجْمِعُوا أَمْرَكُمْ وَشُرَكَاءَكُمْ ثُمَّ لَا يَكُنْ أَمْرُكُمْ عَلَيْكُمْ غُمَّةً ثُمَّ اقْضُوا إِلَيَّ وَلَا تُنظِرُونِ ﴿٧١﴾ فَإِن تَوَلَّيْتُمْ فَمَا سَأَلْتُكُمْ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِن أَجْرِي إِلَّا عَلَى اللَّهِ وَأُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٧٢﴾ فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَنَجَّيْتَهُ وَفِي مَعَهُ فِي الْفُلِّ وَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ خُلَفَاءَ وَأَغْرَقْنَا الَّذِينَ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا فَانْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُتَكِبِينَ ﴿٧٣﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ٧١-٧٣)

- 10:71. Recount to them the story of Nooh, when he said to his people: O my people, if my presence among you and my reminding you of the signs of Allah have become too much for you to bear, then in Allah I have put my trust, so decide on your course of action, you and your [so-called] partners, leaving no room for uncertainty, then carry out your decision concerning me, and give me no respite.
- 10:72. But if you turn away, I have not asked you for any recompense; my reward is with Allah alone, and I am commanded to be one of those who submit to Allah [in Islam].
- 10:73. But they rejected him; We saved him and those who were with him, in the ark, and made them [their] successors; and We drowned those who rejected Our signs. So see what was the fate of those who had been forewarned [but did not pay heed].

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Prophet (ﷺ): Recount to your people ﴿the story of Nooh﴾ and his call to his people. He called them to Allah for a long time, and he stayed among them for a thousand years less fifty, but his call only increased them in transgression. They got tired of him and could no longer put up with him, but he never slackened and was never heedless in calling them. He said to them:

﴿O my people, if my presence among you and my reminding you of the signs of Allah﴾ that is, if my staying with you and reminding you of that which will benefit you

﴿of the signs of Allah﴾ that is, clear and obvious proof; if that is too much for you and you find it burdensome, and you want to cause me harm or reject the truth,

﴿then in Allah I have put my trust﴾ that is, I rely upon Allah to ward off any harm intended to me and to the message to which I call people. This trust is my battalion and my weapon, so bring whatever you can of all kinds of manpower and weaponry.

﴿so decide on your course of action﴾ all of you together, so that none of you will stay behind and you will not spare any effort

﴿you and your [so-called] partners﴾ that is, bring your so-called partners whom you worship and take as allies instead of Allah, the Lord of the worlds

﴿leaving no room for uncertainty﴾ that is, do not be confused about it and do not conceal it; rather do it openly.

﴿then carry out your decision concerning me﴾ that is, carry out against me whatever punishment and harm you are able to

﴿and give me no respite﴾ that is, do not delay it for even an hour.

This is definitive proof and a great sign of the soundness of his message, and confirmation thereof. For he was alone, with no clan to protect him and no troops to turn to. But he initiated the argument with his people by declaring their beliefs to be foolish and their religion to be corrupt, and by criticising their gods. Hence they bore grudges and enmity towards him that were greater than lofty mountains, and they were people of power and aggression. But he said to them: Get together, you and your so-called partners, and whoever else you can, and prepare all that you can of plots, then carry out those plots against me if you can. But they were not able to do any of that.

Thus it was known that he was indeed truthful and they were lying with regard to their claims. Hence he said:

﴿But if you turn away﴾ from that to which I am calling you, there is no reason for you to turn away, because it has become clear to you that you are not turning away from falsehood to truth; rather you are turning away from truth for which all proof has been established, to falsehood which has been proven to be false.

Moreover, ﴿I have not asked you for any recompense﴾ for my call or for your accepting the call. You say: This man has come to us to take our wealth, and you refuse because of that, but ﴿my reward is with Allah﴾ that is, I do not seek reward or recompense from anyone except Him.

﴿and﴾ moreover I did not enjoin you to do something then fail to do it myself; rather ﴿I am commanded to be one of those who submit to Allah [in Islam]﴾ so I am the first one to do that which I enjoined you to do.

﴿But they rejected him﴾ after he had called them night and day, in private and in public. His call only increased them in aversion

﴿We saved him and those who were with him, in the ark﴾ which We commanded him to build under Our supervision (cf. 11: 37), and We said to him, when water gushed up out of the earth:

﴿...Take on board a pair from every species, and your family, except those against whom the sentence has already been passed, and those who believe...﴾ (Hood 11: 40)

And he did that.

Then Allah commanded the sky to send down water in torrents, and caused the earth to burst forth with springs, then the waters met for a purpose that had already been decreed (cf. 54: 12).

﴿We carried him on a [vessel] made of planks and nails.﴾ (al-Qamar 54: 13)

– that sailed under Our watchful eye.

﴿and made them [their] successors﴾ in the earth, after the destruction of the disbelievers.

Then Allah blessed his offspring and made his offspring the ones who survived, and He caused them to spread throughout the earth
﴿and We drowned those who rejected Our signs﴾ after they had become clear and proof had been established.

﴿So see what was the fate of those who had been forewarned [but did not pay heed]﴾. That fate was destruction and humiliation, and ongoing curses directed against them by every generation that came after them. You do not hear anyone speak of them but he blames them and criticises them.

So let these disbelievers beware lest there befall them what befall these disbelieving people of destruction, humiliation and punishment.

﴿ثُمَّ بَعَثْنَا مِنْ بَعْدِهِ رُسُلًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِمْ فَجَاءَهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَمَا كَانُوا لِيُؤْمِنُوا بِمَا كَذَّبُوا
بِهِ مِنْ قَبْلُ ۚ كَذَٰلِكَ نَطْبَعُ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبِ الْمُعْتَدِينَ﴾ (سورة يونس: ٧٤)

10:74. Then after him, We sent Messengers to their [own] peoples; they came to them with clear signs, but they would not believe what they had already rejected beforehand. Thus do We seal up the hearts of the transgressors.

﴿Then after him﴾ that is, after Nooh (ﷺ)

﴿We sent Messengers to their [own] peoples﴾ that is, their disbelieving peoples, to call them to guidance and warn them against that which might lead to their doom.

﴿they came to them with clear signs﴾ that is, each Prophet was supported in his call with signs that pointed to the soundness of the message he brought.

﴿but they would not believe what they had already rejected beforehand﴾ that is, Allah (ﷻ) punished them when the Messenger came to them but they hastened to disbelieve in him. So Allah put a seal on their hearts and prevented them from believing after they could have believed, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿We will turn their hearts and eyes away [from the truth], since they refused to believe in it the first time...﴾ (al-An'âm 6: 110)

Hence Allah says here: ﴿Thus do We seal up the hearts of the transgressors﴾ that is, We put a seal on them, so no good will enter them. Allah did not wrong them; rather they wronged themselves by rejecting the truth when it came to them and because of their initial rejection.

﴿ثُمَّ بَعَثْنَا مِنْ بَعْدِهِم مُّوسَىٰ وَهَارُونَ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِۦ يَتْلُوْنَ مَا آتَيْنَاكَ فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا وَكَانُوا قَوْمًا مُّجْرِمِينَ ﴿٧٥﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمُ الْحَقُّ مِنْ عِنْدِنَا قَالُوا إِنَّ هَٰذَا لَسِحْرٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿٧٦﴾ قَالَ مُوسَىٰ أَتَقُولُونَ لِلْحَقِّ لَمَّا جَاءَكُمْ أَسِحْرٌ هَٰذَا وَلَا يُفْلِحُ السَّاحِرُونَ ﴿٧٧﴾ قَالُوا أَجِئْتَنَا لِنَلْفِنَا عَزَمًا وَجَدْنَا عَلَىٰ ءَابَاءِنَا وَتَكُونُ لَكُمْ ءَالِكِبْرِيَاءَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا نَحْنُ لَكُمْ بِمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٧٨﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ٧٥-٧٨)

- 10:75. Then after them We sent Moosâ and Hâroon with Our signs to Pharaoh and his chiefs, but they showed arrogance and were wicked people.
- 10:76. So when the truth came to them from Us, they said: This is obviously nothing but magic!

10:77. Moosâ said: Do you speak thus of the truth after it has come to you? Can this be magic? Those who practise magic will never prosper.

10:78. They said: Have you come to us to turn us away from what we found our forefathers following, so that you two may reign supreme in the land? We will never believe in you!

---

«Then after them» that is, after these Messengers whom Allah sent to the disbelieving and doomed people,

«We sent Moosâ» ibn 'Imrân, the one to whom the Most Gracious spoke directly, one of the Messengers of strong will and one of the great leaders whose example is followed, to whom great and comprehensive laws were revealed.

«and» We sent with him his brother «Hâroon», as an adviser. We sent them «with Our signs» that pointed to the truth of their message, namely the oneness of Allah and the prohibition on worshipping anything other than Allah (ﷻ)

«to Pharaoh and his chiefs» that is, the leaders and senior figures of his state, because their common folk followed the leaders.

«but they showed arrogance» towards the signs, wrongfully and out of conceit, after they became certain of them.

«and were wicked people» that is, their defining characteristics were wickedness and disbelief.

«So when the truth came to them from Us» which was the greatest kind of truth, as it came from Allah to Whose greatness all of creation is subjugated, and He is the Lord of the worlds Who bestows blessings on all of His creation.

When the truth came to them from Allah at the hand of Moosâ, they rejected it and did not accept it, and «they said: This is obviously nothing but magic!». They did not stop at turning away from it or rejecting it; rather they regarded it as the worst type of falsehood, namely magic which in essence is a kind of deceit or illusion. Indeed they regarded it as obvious magic when in fact it was clearly the truth.

Hence ﴿Moosâ said﴾ to them, rebuking them for their rejection of the truth which no one rejects except the most wicked of people: ﴿Do you speak thus of the truth after it has come to you?﴾ That is, do you say that it is obviously magic?

﴿Can this be magic?﴾ That is, examine it and what it contains, for once you do that you will become certain that it is the truth.

﴿Those who practise magic will never prosper﴾ either in this world or in the hereafter. Wait and see for whom the good end will be and who will prosper, and at whose hands success will be achieved. They came to know after that, and it became clear to everyone, that Moosâ (ﷺ) was the one who prospered and attained victory in this world and the hereafter.

﴿They said﴾ to Moosâ, rejecting what he said and citing a flimsy argument:

﴿Have you come to us to turn us away from what we found our forefathers following﴾ that is, have you come to us to divert us from what we found our forefathers following of polytheism and worshipping something other than Allah, and to tell us that we should worship Allah alone with no partner or associate? Thus they regarded the beliefs of their misguided forefathers as proof, and rejected thereby the truth that Moosâ (ﷺ) had brought to them.

﴿so that you two may reign supreme in the land﴾ that is, have you come so that you may be the leaders and expel us from our land? This was a word of deceit on their part, and an effort to deceive their ignorant folk and incite the common folk against Moosâ, and to make them not believe in him.

But this is not an argument or proof. Anyone who knows how things really are and has deep insight knows that an argument cannot be warded off except by means of proof and evidence.

If a person brings truth and his message is countered with such flimsy arguments, this indicates that the one who presents this argument is unable to refute what his opponent stated. If he had sound proof and a sound argument, he would state it and would not resort to saying “your intention is..., your aim is...”, regardless of whether his accusation is correct or not. However, anyone who knew Moosâ and was aware of the message to which he called people would realise that he had no aim of achieving supremacy in the land. Rather his aim, and that of his fellow Messengers, was to guide people and show them that which would benefit them.

But the fact of the matter was as they said: ﴿We will never believe in you﴾ that is, out of arrogance and stubbornness, not because the message that Moosâ and Hâroon brought was false, or because they had any doubts about it, or for any other similar reason. It was only wrongdoing, enmity and a desire to reign supreme, which is what they accused Moosâ and Hâroon of.

﴿وَقَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ أَتَأْتُونِي بِكُلِّ سَاحِرٍ عَلِيمٍ ۖ﴾ ﴿٧٩﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَ السَّحَرَةُ قَالَ لَهُمُ مُوسَىٰ أَلْقُوا مَا أَنْتُمْ مُلْقُونَ ﴿٨٠﴾ فَلَمَّا أَلْقَوْا قَالَ مُوسَىٰ مَا جِئْتُمْ بِهِ السِّحْرُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَيُبْطِلُهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُصْلِحُ عَمَلَ الْمُفْسِدِينَ ﴿٨١﴾ وَيُخَيِّضُ اللَّهُ الْحَقَّ بِكَلِمَاتِهِ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُجْرِمُونَ ﴿٨٢﴾﴾

(سورة يونس: ٧٩-٨٢)

- 10:79. Pharaoh said: Bring to me all the learned magicians.
 10:80. When the magicians came, Moosâ said to them: Throw whatever you wish to throw.
 10:81. When they had thrown, Moosâ said: What you have brought is magic; Allah will surely show it to be false, for verily Allah does not allow the work of the mischief-makers to thrive.

10:82. Allah vindicates the truth by His words, even though the evildoers hate it.

﴿Pharaoh said﴾, in defiance of the truth that Moosâ had brought, and trying to mislead his chiefs and his people:

﴿Bring to me all the learned magicians﴾ that is, those who are skilled in magic.

So he sent someone to the cities of Egypt to bring him all kinds of magicians, who knew various types and levels of magic.

﴿When the magicians came﴾ to compete with Moosâ ﴿Moosâ said to them: Throw whatever you wish to throw﴾, I will not specify what you should do. That was because he was certain of victory and was not worried about them or what they had brought.

﴿When they had thrown﴾ their ropes and sticks, they became like moving snakes.

﴿Moosâ said: What you have brought is magic﴾ that is, this is real and great magic, but despite its greatness, ﴿Allah will surely show it to be false, for verily Allah does not allow the work of the mischief-makers to thrive﴾, for they intend thereby to support falsehood against truth, and what mischief can be greater than that?

This applies to any mischief-maker who does and plans anything. His deeds will come to naught and fail. Even if what he does may meet with some measure of success at some time, ultimately it will diminish and be destroyed.

As for those who do good, seeking thereby the Countenance of Allah (ﷻ) and they do beneficial deeds that are enjoined, Allah will guide them and refine their deeds, and cause them (their reward) to grow and develop. So Moosâ threw down his staff, and it swallowed up everything that they had wrought. Thus their magic failed and their falsehood diminished.

﴿Allah vindicates the truth by His words, even though the evildoers hate it﴾. So the magicians fell down in prostration when the truth became clear to them. Pharaoh threatened to crucify them and cut off their hands and feet, but they paid no attention to that and remained steadfast in their faith.

As for Pharaoh and his chiefs, and their followers, none of them believed; rather they continued to wander blindly in their misguidance. Hence Allah says:

﴿فَمَا آمَنَ لِمُوسَىٰ إِلَّا ذُرِّيَّةٌ مِّن قَوْمِهِ عَلَىٰ خَوْفٍ مِّن فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِمْ أَن يَفْتِنَهُمْ ۚ وَإِنَّ فِرْعَوْنَ لَعَالِي فِي الْأَرْضِ وَإِنَّهُ لَمِنَ الْمُسْرِفِينَ﴾ (سورة يونس: ٨٣)

10:83. But no one believed in Moosâ except some of the youth among his people, despite their fear that Pharaoh and his chiefs might persecute them. Indeed Pharaoh was high-handed in the land and was one who transgressed all bounds.

﴿But no one believed in Moosâ except some of the youth among his people﴾ that is, some of the young people of the Israelites who remained steadfast in the face of fear, because faith had become firmly rooted in their hearts.

﴿despite their fear that Pharaoh and his chiefs might persecute them﴾ and try to make them give up their religion.

﴿Indeed Pharaoh was high-handed in the land﴾ that is, he had the upper hand, so no wonder they feared his persecution and harm.

﴿and﴾, in particular, he ﴿was one who transgressed all bounds﴾ that is, he overstepped the limit in transgression and enmity.

The wisdom – and Allah knows best – behind the fact that no one believed in Moosâ except some of the youth of his people was that the youth are more accepting of the truth and are quicker to follow it, unlike their elders who grew up with disbelief. Because of what remains in their hearts of false beliefs, the latter are further from the truth than others.

﴿ وَقَالَ مُوسَىٰ يٰقَوْمِ إِن كُنتُمْ ءَامِنُمْ بِاللّٰهِ فَعَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلُوا إِن كُنتُمْ مُّسْلِمِينَ ﴿٨٤﴾ فَقَالُوا عَلَىٰ اللّٰهِ تَوَكَّلْنَا رَبَّنَا لَا تَجْعَلْنَا فِتْنَةً لِّلْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٨٥﴾ وَنَجِّنَا بِرَحْمَتِكَ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٨٦﴾ ﴾ (سورة يونس: ٨٤-٨٦)

10:84. Moosâ said: O my people, if you [truly] believe in Allah, then in Him put your trust, if you have [indeed] submitted to Him [in Islam].

10:85. They said: In Allah we put our trust. Our Lord, do not make us subject to the persecution of the wrongdoing people.

10:86. And deliver us by your mercy from the disbelieving people.

﴿Moosâ said﴾, advising his people to be patient and reminding them of what they could do to help themselves attain that ﴿if you [truly] believe in Allah﴾ then act in a manner that is expected of believers.

﴿then in Him put your trust, if you have [indeed] submitted to Him [in Islam]﴾ that is, depend on Him, turn to Him and seek His help.

﴿They said﴾, complying with that ﴿In Allah we put our trust. Our Lord, do not make us subject to the persecution of the wrongdoing people﴾ that is, do not give them power over us so that they force us to drift away from faith and say: If they were following truth, they would not have been defeated.

﴿And deliver us by your mercy from the disbelieving people﴾ so that we will be safe from their evil and we may adhere to our religion in such a way that we will be able to practise its teachings openly, without anyone objecting or opposing us.

﴿ وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ وَأَخِيهِ أَنْ تَبَوَّءَ لِقَوْمِكَ مِمَّا يَبْصُرُ بُيُوتًا وَأَجْعَلُوا يُبُوتَكُمْ قِبْلَةً
وَأَقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَبَشِّرِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴾ (٨٧) وَقَالَ مُوسَىٰ رَبَّنَا إِنَّكَ آتَيْتَ
فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئَهُ زِينَةً وَأَمْوَالًا فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا رَبَّنَا لِيُضِلُّوهُ عَن سَبِيلِكَ رَبَّنَا اطْمِسْ
عَلَىٰ أَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَشْدُدْ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبِهِمْ فَلَا يُؤْمِنُوا حَتَّىٰ يَرَوْا الْعَذَابَ الْأَلِيمَ ﴾ (٨٨) قَالَ قَدْ
أُحِبِّتَ دَعْوَتُكُمَا فَاسْتَقِيمَا وَلَا تَتَّبِعَانِ سَبِيلَ الَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴾ (٨٩) (سورة)

يونس: ٨٧-٨٩)

- 10:87. We inspired Moosâ and his brother: Provide houses of worship for your people in Egypt, and make your houses of worship face towards the qibla; establish regular prayer; and give glad tidings to the believers.
- 10:88. Moosâ said: Our Lord, verily You have given Pharaoh and his chiefs splendour and wealth in the life of this world so that, our Lord, they may lead people astray from Your path. Our Lord, destroy their wealth and harden their hearts, so that they will not believe until they see the painful punishment.
- 10:89. Allah said: Your prayer is accepted. So continue, then, both of you, steadfastly on the straight path, and do not follow the path of those who have no knowledge.

﴿We inspired Moosâ and his brother﴾ when the persecution of Pharaoh and his people against the Israelites grew intense and they were very keen to make them give up their religion

﴿Provide houses of worship for your people in Egypt﴾ that is, tell them to make houses for themselves where they will be able to hide
﴿and make your houses of worship face towards the qibla﴾ that is, make them places in which you can pray, because you cannot establish prayer in regular places of assembly or public places;

﴿establish regular prayer﴾ for this will help you in all your affairs

﴿and give glad tidings to the believers﴾ of help and support, and the victory of their religion, for verily with hardship comes ease, verily with hardship comes ease. When things become too hard, Allah grants relief. When Moosâ saw how hard-hearted Pharaoh and his chiefs were, and how they turned away from the truth, he prayed against them and Hâroon said âmeen to his supplication.

﴿Moosâ said: Our Lord, verily You have given Pharaoh and his chiefs splendour﴾ with which they adorn themselves with all kinds of jewellery, garments, fancy houses, fine mounts and servants ﴿and wealth﴾ in abundance ﴿in the life of this world so that, our Lord, they may lead people astray from Your path﴾ that is, they only use their wealth to mislead people from Your path, so they have gone astray and they lead others astray. ﴿Our Lord, destroy their wealth﴾ that is, take it away from them, either by ruining it or by turning it into stones that are of no use ﴿and harden their hearts, so that they will not believe until they see the painful punishment﴾.

He said that out of anger towards them, because they had transgressed the sacred limits of Allah, spread mischief among the slaves of Allah, and barred people from His way. Because of his perfect knowledge of his Lord, he knew that Allah would punish them for what they had done by closing the door of faith to them.

﴿Allah said: Your prayer is accepted﴾. The word translated here as “your” appears in the dual form in Arabic, which indicates that Moosâ was offering supplication and Hâroon was saying âmeen to his words, and that the one who says âmeen has a share in the supplication with the one who is offering that supplication.

﴿So continue, then, both of you, steadfastly on the straight path﴾ that is, remain steadfast in following your religion and continue with your call

﴿and do not follow the path of those who have no knowledge﴾ that is, do not follow the path of the ignorant and misguided who have deviated from the straight path and follow paths that lead to hell.

Allah instructed Moosâ to depart with the Children of Israel by night, and told him that they would be pursued. Pharaoh sent heralds to the cities to gather troops and said: ﴿These﴾ namely Moosâ and the Children of Israel:

﴿...are but a small band, and they have enraged us, but we are all well-prepared.﴾ (ash-Shu'arâ' 26: 54-56)

So Pharaoh gathered his troops from near and far, and pursued them with his army in a spirit of hatred and enmity. In other words, they set out to transgress against Moosâ and his people and to spread evil in the land. When transgression reaches such an extent and sin becomes so deeply rooted, then expect the punishment.

﴿وَجَوَزْنَا بِبَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ الْبَحْرَ فَأَتْبَعَهُمْ فِرْعَوْنُ وَجُنُودُهُ، بَغْيًا وَعَدُوًّا حَتَّى إِذَا
أَذْرَكَهُ الْفُرْقَى قَالَ ءَامَنْتُ أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا الَّذِي ءَامَنْتُ بِهِ، بَنُو إِسْرَءِيلَ وَأَنَا مِنَ
الْمُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٩٠﴾ ءَأَكْتَنَ وَقَدْ عَصَيْتَ قَبْلُ وَكُنْتَ مِنَ الْمُفْسِدِينَ ﴿٩١﴾ فَالْيَوْمَ
نُنَجِّكَ بِيَدِنَا لِتَكُونَ لِمَنْ خَلَقَكَ ءَايَةً وَإِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِنَ النَّاسِ عَنْ ءَايَتِنَا لَفَافِلُونَ
﴿٩٢﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ٩٠-٩٢)

- 10:90. We took the Children of Israel across the sea, and Pharaoh and his troops pursued them in transgression and enmity and caught up with them, until, when he was about to drown, he said: I believe that there is no god but He in Whom the Children of Israel believe; I am one of those who submit to Allah [in Islam].
- 10:91. [It was said to him:] What, now [do you believe], when before this you were disobedient, and were one of the mischief-makers?

10:92. So today We will save only your body, so that you may be a sign for those who come after you. But indeed many people are heedless of Our signs.

﴿We took the Children of Israel across the sea﴾ Allah revealed to Moosâ, when he reached the sea, that he should strike the sea with his staff. So he struck it, and twelve paths opened up, which the Children of Israel followed, and Pharaoh and his troops drove into the sea in pursuit.

When Moosâ and his people had all come out of the sea, and Pharaoh and his troops were in the middle of it, Allah commanded the sea to close in on Pharaoh and his troops, and they all drowned in the sea as the Israelites were looking on.

When Pharaoh was about to drown and was certain that he would perish, ﴿he said: I believe that there is no god but He in Whom the Children of Israel believe﴾, Who is Allah, the True God, besides Whom there is no other god.

﴿I am one of those who submit to Allah [in Islam]﴾ that is, those who submit to the religion of Allah and to the message that Moosâ brought.

Then Allah explains that this faith in this situation was of no avail to him:

﴿[It was said to him:] What, now﴾ do you believe and affirm the Messenger of Allah?

﴿when before this you were disobedient﴾ and audaciously committed sins, disbelieved and lied

﴿and were one of the mischief-makers?﴾ Believing now will not benefit you. This is the way of Allah: once the disbelievers reached the point at which they have no choice but to believe, belief will not benefit them because their belief is based on what they see with their own eyes, like the belief of one who is resurrected. The only belief or faith that is of benefit is faith in the unseen.

«So today We will save only your body, so that you may be a sign for those who come after you». The commentators said that because the Children of Israel were so terrified of Pharaoh, it was as if they could not believe that he had drowned, and they doubted that it had happened. So Allah commanded the sea to cast up his body onto a hill, so that it might be a lesson and a sign to them.

«But indeed many people are heedless of Our signs». Hence they may come across signs repeatedly, but they do not benefit from them because they have no interest in them.

In contrast, the one who is alert and focused sees of the signs of Allah that which is the greatest evidence of the soundness of what the Messengers told us.

﴿وَلَقَدْ بَوَّأْنَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ مَوْءَا صِدْقٍ وَرَزَقْنَهُمْ مِّنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ فَمَا اخْتَلَفُوا حَتَّىٰ جَاءَهُمُ الْعِلْمُ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَقْضِي بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فِيمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ﴾ (سورة يونس: ٩٣)

10:93. We caused the Children of Israel to settle in a goodly land and We provided good things for their sustenance, and they did not differ until after knowledge had come to them. Verily your Lord will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection concerning that wherein they differ.

«We caused the Children of Israel to settle in a goodly land» that is, Allah caused them to settle in the houses of the people of Pharaoh, and caused them to inherit their land and territory.

«and We provided good things for their sustenance» that is, We provided them with food, drink and other things

«and they did not differ» concerning the truth

«until after knowledge had come to them» that required them to unite and be in harmony. But they transgressed against one another and many of them developed desires and ulterior motives that were contrary to the truth. So dissent arose among them to a large degree.

﴿Verily your Lord will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection concerning that wherein they differ﴾ by His just ruling that stems from His perfect knowledge and all-encompassing might. This is the problem that the followers of the true religion are faced with: if the Shaytân fails to make them obey him by abandoning religion completely, he strives to stir up troubles among them and create enmity and resentment among them, so that there arise differences between them that lead to them labelling one another as misguided and developing grudges against one another, which will delight Iblees.

Otherwise, as their Lord is one, their Messenger is one, their religion is one, and their public interests are the same, why would they differ in such a way that divides them, weakens them, dissolves the bonds between them and thus is detrimental to their religious and worldly interests, and this detracts from their religious commitment?

We ask You, O Allah, to show kindness to Your believing slaves and to unite them, bridge the gaps between them, and bring them all together, near and far, O Possessor of majesty and honour.

﴿فَإِنْ كُنْتَ فِي شَكٍّ مِمَّا أَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ فَسْأَلِ الَّذِينَ يَقْرَأُونَ الْكِتَابَ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ لَقَدْ جَاءَكَ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّكَ فَلَا تَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الْمُمْتَرِينَ ﴿٩٤﴾ وَلَا تَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا بِبَيِّنَاتٍ اللَّهِ فَتَكُونُوا مِنَ الْخَاسِرِينَ ﴿٩٥﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ٩٤-٩٥)

10:94. If you [O Muhammad] are in doubt concerning that which We have revealed to you, then ask those who read the scriptures [revealed] before your time. The truth has indeed come to you from your Lord, so do not be among those who doubt.

10:95. Never be among those who reject the signs of Allah, for then you would be among the losers.

Here Allah says to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ): «If you [O Muhammad] are in doubt concerning that which We have revealed to you», as to whether it is sound or not, «then ask those who read the scriptures [revealed] before your time» that is, ask the fair-minded People of the Book and the well-versed scholars, for they will confirm to you the soundness of what you were told (of the Qur'an), and they will confirm that it is in harmony with what they have.

If it is asked: many – if not most – of the People of the Book, namely the Jews and Christians, stubbornly disbelieved in the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and rejected his call, but Allah (ﷻ) instructed His Messenger (ﷺ) to quote them and described their testimony as proof for the message he brought and evidence that it is true; how can that be?

This may be answered by noting the following points:

- If testimony is attributed to a particular group, school of thought, country, and the like, it is only referring to the testimony of those among them who are just and truthful. As for others, even if they are more numerous, they are to be overlooked, because testimony should be based on justice and honesty, and that was fulfilled when many of their rabbis and scholars believed, such as 'Abdullāh ibn Salām and his companions, and many of those who became Muslim at the time of the Prophet (ﷺ), his successors (the caliphs) and after that.
- The testimony of the People of the Book in favour of the Messenger (ﷺ) was based on their Book, the Torah, which they claim to follow. If there is in the Torah that which is in harmony with the Qur'an, and confirms it and attests to its soundness, even if they all, from the first of them to the last, agree to deny that, it cannot undermine the message that the Messenger (ﷺ) brought.

- Allah (ﷻ) instructed His Messenger (ﷺ) to seek the testimony of the People of the Book to the soundness of the message he brought, and he did that openly, announcing it before the people. It is well known that many of them were the keenest of people to prove false the call of the Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ). If they had possessed anything that could refute what Allah mentions, they would have proclaimed it openly and explained it clearly. As nothing of the sort happened, the fact that those who were hostile could not refute it and those who responded affirmed it offers the strongest evidence for the soundness and truthfulness of this Qur'an.
- Most of the People of the Book did not refute the call of the Messenger (ﷺ); rather most of them responded and submitted willingly. The Messenger (ﷺ) was sent at a time when most of the people on earth followed the religion of the People of the Book, and it was not long before most of the people of greater Syria, Egypt, Iraq and neighbouring regions became followers of Islam, in a region that was the heartland of the religions of the People of the Book, and none were left except people in positions of leadership who preferred that status to the truth, and those who followed them of the ignorant masses, as well as those who were Christian in name only, such as the Europeans who in reality do not believe in the hereafter and have nothing to do with any divinely-revealed religion; rather they claim to follow the religion of Christ for political reasons and as a means of camouflaging their falsehood, as anyone who mixes with them will clearly realise.

«The truth» concerning which there can be no doubt whatsoever; hence Allah says: «has indeed come to you from your Lord, so do not be among those who doubt». This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

«This is a Book that has been sent down to you [O Muhammad], so do not let your heart be troubled by it...» (al-A'raf 7: 2)

«Never be among those who reject the signs of Allah, for then you would be among the losers». In this verse Allah (ﷻ) forbids two things: doubt concerning this Qur'an and being confused about it.

Even more serious than that is denying it, when it is the clear revelations of Allah that cannot be denied at all. Allah describes the result of that as loss, which means not benefiting at all, by missing out on reward in this world and the hereafter, and incurring punishment in this world and the hereafter. Prohibition of a thing is implicitly enjoining its opposite, so it is a command to believe completely in the Qur'an, be content with it, learn it and put it into practice.

By doing that, a person will become one of the winners who will attain the most sublime of goals, the best of aims and the highest of achievements, and will avoid loss.

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ حَقَّتْ عَلَيْهِمْ كَلِمَتُ رَبِّكَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ۖ وَلَوْ جَاءَتْهُمْ كُلُّ آيَةٍ حَتَّىٰ يَرَوْا الْعَذَابَ الْأَلِيمَ ۗ﴾ (سورة يونس: ٩٦-٩٧)

10:96. Verily those against whom the decree of your Lord is fulfilled will not believe,

10:97. Even if every sign were to come to them, until they see [for themselves] the painful punishment.

«Verily those against whom the decree of your Lord is fulfilled» that is, they are among those who are misguided and doomed to hell; they will inevitably meet the fate that Allah has decreed. They will not believe even if every sign comes to them; the signs will only increase them in transgression and misguidance. But Allah does not wrong them; rather they wrong themselves by rejecting the truth when it first comes to them. So Allah punishes them by placing a seal on their hearts, hearing and sight, so that they will not believe until they see the painful punishment which they were promised.

At that point they will realise with certainty that what they were following is misguidance and that what the Messengers brought to them was the truth. But that will be at a time when faith will be of no avail to them. On that day excuses will not benefit those who did wrong, and no excuse will be accepted from them. The revelations only benefit the one who has a (sound) heart and who listens with an attentive mind.

﴿فَلَوْلَا كَانَتْ قَرْيَةٌ ءَامَنَتْ فَنَفَعَهَا إِيمَنُهَا إِلَّا قَوْمَ يُونُسَ لَمَّا ءَامَنُوا كَشَفْنَا عَنْهُمْ
عَذَابَ الْخِزْيِ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَمَتَّعْنَاهُمْ إِلَىٰ حِينٍ﴾ (سورة يونس: ٩٨)

10:98. There was no city that believed [after seeing the punishment] and benefitted from its faith except the people of Yoonus. When they believed, We removed from them the punishment of disgrace in this world, and allowed them to enjoy life for a while.

«There was no city» among the cities of the disbelievers «that believed» once they saw the punishment «and benefitted from its faith» that is, not one of them benefitted from believing once they had seen the punishment. This is like what Allah (ﷻ) tells us about Pharaoh, when he said: «I believe that there is no god but He in Whom the Children of Israel believe; I am one of those who submit to Allah [in Islam]. [It was said to him:] What, now [do you believe], when before this you were disobedient, and were one of the mischief-makers?﴾ (10: 90-91).

And it is like the verses in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿But when they saw Our punishment, they said: We believe in Allah alone, and we reject that which we used to associate with Him. But their believing after they had seen Our punishment could not benefit them at all. Such has always been the way of Allah in dealing with His slaves...﴾ (Ghāfir 40: 84-85)

﴿Until, when death comes to one of them, he says: My Lord, send me back, so that I may do the righteous deeds that I have failed to do...﴾ (al-Mu'minoon 23: 99-100)

The wisdom behind it is obvious: believing under compulsion does not constitute real faith, and if the punishment which compelled him to believe was averted, he would go back to disbelief.

﴿except the people of Yoonus. When they believed﴾ after they saw the punishment

﴿We removed from them the punishment of disgrace in this world, and allowed them to enjoy life for a while﴾ but this was an exception from the general ruling, and there must have been some wisdom behind that which was known to the Knower of the unseen and the seen, but has not reached us, and we cannot understand it.

Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Verily, Yoonus was one of the Messengers. ...We sent him as a Messenger to a hundred thousand people or more, and they believed, so We allowed them to enjoy life for a while.﴾ (aṣ-Ṣaffāt 37: 139, 147-8)

Perhaps the reason for that is that if the others who were destroyed had been given a second chance, they would have gone back to that which they were forbidden to do. As for the people of Yoonus, Allah knew that their faith would continue, and indeed they remained steadfast. And Allah knows best.

﴿وَلَوْ شَاءَ رَبُّكَ لَأَمَنَّ مِنَ فِي الْأَرْضِ كُلُّهُمْ جَمِيعًا أَفَأَنْتَ تُكْرِهُ النَّاسَ حَتَّى
يَكُونُوا مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٩٩﴾ وَمَا كَانَ لِنَفْسٍ أَنْ تُؤْمِنَ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ وَيَجْعَلُ الرَّجْسَ
عَلَى الَّذِينَ لَا يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿١٠٠﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ٩٩-١٠٠)

- 10:99. Had your Lord so willed, all those who are on earth would surely have believed, all of them together. Would you then compel people to become believers?
- 10:100. It is not [possible] for any soul to believe, except by Allah's leave, and He will cause to disbelieve those who will not understand.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ): ﴿Had your Lord so willed, all those who are on earth would surely have believed, all of them together﴾ as He could have inspired them to believe and instilled piety in their hearts, for He is able to do that. But His wisdom dictated that some of them should be believers and some of them should be disbelievers.

﴿Would you then compel people to become believers?﴾ That is, you cannot do that and it is not within your power; no one but Allah has the power to do such a thing.

﴿It is not [possible] for any soul to believe, except by Allah's leave﴾ that is, by His will and permission. Whoever is qualified for that, faith will take root in his heart and Allah will enable him and guide him to believe,

﴿and He will cause to disbelieve﴾ that is, He will leave to go astray ﴿those who will not understand﴾ the commands and prohibitions of Allah, and they do not care about His advice and exhortations.

﴿ قُلْ أَنْظَرُوا مَاذَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا تُعْطِي الْآيَاتُ وَالنَّذْرُ عَنْ قَوْمٍ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴾
 ﴿ ١٠١ ﴾ فَهَلْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا مِثْلَ آيَاتِ الَّذِينَ خَلَوْا مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ قُلْ فَانظُرُوا إِنِّي
 مَعَكُمْ مِنَ الْمُنْتَظِرِينَ ﴿ ١٠٢ ﴾ ثُمَّ نُنْجِي رُسُلَنَا وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا كَذَلِكَ حَقًّا عَلَيْنَا
 نُنْجِي الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿ ١٠٣ ﴾ (سورة يونس: ١٠١-١٠٣)

- 10:101. Say: Look at what is in the heavens and on earth. But neither signs nor warnings are of any avail to people who will not believe.
- 10:102. What do they expect but a punishment like that which befell those who came before them? Say: Wait then; I too am waiting.
- 10:103. Then [in the end] We deliver Our Messengers and those who believe. Thus it is incumbent upon Us to save the believers.

Here Allah (ﷻ) calls His slaves to look at what is in the heavens and on earth. What is meant by that is that they should reflect, ponder and contemplate what is in them and what they contain, and think deeply about it, for in that there are signs for people who believe and lessons for people who are certain; these things indicate that Allah alone is deserving of worship and praise, Possessor of majesty and honour, and the greatest names and attributes.

﴿But neither signs nor warnings are of any avail to people who will not believe﴾ for they do not benefit from the signs because they stubbornly turn away.

﴿What do they expect but a punishment like that which befell those who came before them?﴾ That is, do these people who disbelieve in the signs of Allah expect anything after those signs have become clear ﴿but a punishment like that which befell those who came before them﴾ namely destruction and punishment, for they have done the same as those people did, and the laws of Allah are applicable to earlier and later generations alike.

«Say: Wait then; I too am waiting» for you will come to know who will have the good end and salvation in this world and the hereafter; that is only for the Messengers and their followers.

Hence Allah says: «Then [in the end] We deliver Our Messengers and those who believe» from the hardships and troubles of this world and the hereafter.

«Thus it is incumbent upon Us» and We have made it binding upon Us «to save the believers». This comes under the heading of His defending the believers, for Allah defends those who believe. So according to a person's level of faith he will be protected from troubles.

﴿قُلْ يَأَيُّهَا النَّاسُ إِن كُنتُمْ فِي شَكٍّ مِنْ دِينِي فَلَا أَعْبُدُ الَّذِينَ تَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَلَكِنْ
أَعْبُدُ اللَّهَ الَّذِي يَتَوَفَّاكُمْ وَأُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٠٤﴾ وَأَنْ أَقِمَّ وَجْهَكَ لِلدِّينِ
حَنِيفًا وَلَا تَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ ﴿١٠٥﴾ وَلَا تَدْعُ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لَا يَنْفَعُكَ وَلَا
يَضُرُّكَ فَإِنْ فَعَلْتَ فَإِنَّكَ إِذَا مِنَ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿١٠٦﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ١٠٤-١٠٦)

- 10:104. Say [O Muhammad]: O people, if you are in doubt concerning my religion, I do not worship those whom you worship besides Allah. Rather I worship Allah, Who takes your souls [at death], and I am commanded to be among the believers,
- 10:105. And [I am commanded] to adhere exclusively and sincerely to the true faith of monotheism, and never to be among those who ascribe partners to Allah.
- 10:106. Do not call upon any besides Allah that can neither benefit you nor harm you, for if you do so, you will surely be among the wrongdoers.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), the leader of the Messengers, the imam of those who fear Allah and the best of those who have certain faith:

﴿Say [O Muhammad]: O people, if you are in doubt concerning my religion﴾ that is, if you are uncertain about it, I have no doubt about it; rather I have certain knowledge that it is the truth and that what you call upon besides Allah is false; and I have clear evidence and proof for that. Hence he said: ﴿I do not worship those whom you worship besides Allah﴾ such as rivals, idols and others, because they do not create anything, they do not grant provision and they have no control over anything at all. Rather they are created and subjected to Allah's will, and there is nothing in them to justify worshipping them.

﴿Rather I worship Allah, Who takes your souls [at death]﴾ that is, He is Allah Who created you; it is He Who causes you to die, then He will resurrect you so that He may requite you for your deeds. He is the One Who deserves to be worshipped, and you should pray to Him, humble yourselves before Him and prostrate to Him.

﴿and I am commanded to be among the believers, and [I am commanded] to adhere exclusively and sincerely to the true faith of monotheism﴾ that is, make your deeds, both outward and inward, sincerely for Allah alone, and establish all the teachings of Islam, turning to Allah alone and turning away from everything other than Him

﴿and never to be among those who ascribe partners to Allah﴾ that is, do not be like them and do not be with them.

﴿Do not call upon any besides Allah that can neither benefit you nor harm you﴾. This is a description of every created being: it can neither benefit nor harm; rather the only One Who can bring benefit or cause harm is Allah, may He be exalted.

﴿for if you do so﴾ by calling upon anything other than Allah that can neither benefit you nor harm you

﴿you will surely be among the wrongdoers﴾ who will harm themselves by bringing doom upon themselves. This wrongdoing is the ascription of partners to Allah, as He says:

﴿...associating others in worship with Him is indeed grievous wrongdoing.﴾ (Luqmân 31: 13)

He was the best of creation, but if he had called upon anyone alongside Allah, he would have been among the wrongdoers who ascribed partners to Allah, so how about people other than him?

﴿وَإِنْ يَمَسَّكَ اللَّهُ بِضُرٍّ فَلَا كَاشِفَ لَهُ إِلَّا هُوَ وَإِنْ يُرِدْكَ بِخَيْرٍ فَلَا رَادَّ لِفَضْلِهِ يُصِيبُ بِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ وَهُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ﴾ (سورة يونس: ١٠٧)

10:107. If Allah afflicts you with harm, none can remove it but He; if He wills some good for you, none can avert His bounty, which He bestows upon whomever He will among His slaves. And He is the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

This is one of the greatest arguments for the fact that Allah alone is deserving of worship, for He is the One Who both benefits and harms, gives and withholds. If He causes any hardship to befall a person, such as poverty or sickness and the like, ﴿none can remove it but He﴾. Even if all of creation were to come together to benefit from something, they would not benefit except as Allah has decreed, and if they were all to come together to harm somebody, they would not be able to harm him with anything that Allah has not willed.

Hence He says: ﴿if He wills some good for you, none can avert His bounty﴾ that is, no one among creation can avert His bounty and kindness, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Whatever Allah opens up for people of His mercy, none can withhold it, and whatever He withholds, none can grant it thereafter...﴾ (Fâtir 35: 2)

﴿which He bestows upon whomever He will among His slaves﴾ that is, He singles out for His mercy whomever He will among His creation, and Allah is Possessor of abundant grace.

﴿He is the Oft-Forgiving﴾ Who forgives all mistakes, the One Who enables His slave to take the measures that lead to attaining His forgiveness, then if a person takes those measures, Allah will forgive his sins, both major and minor.

﴿Most Merciful﴾ Whose mercy encompasses all things and His generosity reaches all existing beings, and they cannot do without His kindness for even the blink of an eye.

Once a person understands, on the basis of definitive proof, that Allah is the only One Who grants good and removes hardship and distress, and that no one in creation has any control over these things unless Allah causes it to happen at his Hand, he will be certain that Allah is the Truth and that whatever they call upon besides Him is false. Hence, having highlighted the clear evidence, Allah then goes on to say:

﴿قُلْ يَتَّيْبُهَا النَّاسُ قَدْ جَاءَكُمُ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ فَمَنِ اهْتَدَىٰ فَإِنَّمَا يَهْتَدِي لِنَفْسِهِ ۖ وَمَنْ ضَلَّٰ فَإِنَّمَا يَضِلُّ عَلَيْهِ ۖ وَمَا أَنَا عَلَيْكُمْ بِوَكِيلٍ ﴿١٠٨﴾ وَأَتَّبِعْ مَا يُوْحَىٰ إِلَيْكَ وَأَصْبِرْ حَتَّىٰ يَخُذَكَ اللَّهُ ۖ وَهُوَ خَيْرُ الْحَاكِمِينَ ﴿١٠٩﴾﴾ (سورة يونس: ١٠٨-١٠٩)

10:108. Say: O people, truth has come to you from your Lord. So whoever is guided, is only guided for [the good of] his own soul; whoever goes astray, only goes astray to his own detriment. I am not your keeper.

10:109. So follow [O Muhammad] that which is revealed to you, and then be patient until Allah gives His judgement, for He is the best of judges.

﴿Say﴾ O Messenger, once the proof has become clear:

﴿O people, truth has come to you from your Lord﴾ that is, the true message which is supported by evidence, concerning which there is no doubt whatsoever, has reached you from your Lord. One of the greatest signs of His care for you is that He has sent down to you this Qur'an in which there is explanation of all things, as well as all kinds of rulings, divine guidance, and teaching of good manners. This is the greatest care and kindness from Him to you, for He has highlighted guidance as distinct from misguidance, and there is no longer any room for confusion or doubt.

﴿So whoever is guided﴾ and follows the guidance of Allah by knowing that it is the truth, so he understands it and gives it precedence over everything else

﴿is only guided for [the good of] his own soul﴾, for Allah (ﷻ) has no need of his slaves; rather the benefit of their good deeds comes back to them.

﴿whoever goes astray﴾ from true guidance by turning away from knowledge of the truth or acting upon it

﴿only goes astray to his own detriment﴾ and he does not harm Allah in the slightest, for he only harms himself.

﴿I am not your keeper﴾ – I do not keep a record of your deeds or call you to account for them. I am only a clear warner to you, and Allah is your keeper, so watch yourselves during the period of respite.

﴿So follow [O Muhammad] that which is revealed to you﴾ by learning it, acting upon it, making it part of your character and calling people to it

﴿and then be patient﴾ in doing so, for this is the most sublime kind of patience and its consequences are good. So do not slacken or grow weary; rather persist in that and remain steadfast

﴿until Allah gives His judgement﴾ between you and those who disbelieve in you

﴿for He is the best of judges﴾; His judgement is based on perfect justice and fairness for which He deserves to be praised.

The Prophet (ﷺ) complied with the command of his Lord and remained steadfast on the straight path until Allah caused his religion to prevail over all other religions and granted him victory over his enemies in battle, after He had caused him to prevail over them in terms of argument and proof.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat Yoonus.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

11. Soorat Hood

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

الرَّكِتُ أَخِيَّتْ ءَايَتُهُ ثُمَّ فَصَّلَتْ مِنْ لَدُنْ حَكِيمٍ خَبِيرٍ ﴿١﴾ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا اللَّهَ إِنِّي
لَكُمْ مِنْهُ نَذِيرٌ وَبَشِيرٌ ﴿٢﴾ وَأَنْ أَسْتَغْفِرُوا رَبَّكُمْ ثُمَّ تُوبُوا إِلَيْهِ يُمْنِعْكُمْ مَنَعًا حَسَنًا إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ
مُّسَمًّى وَيُؤْتِيَ كُلَّ ذِي فَضْلٍ فَضْلَهُ وَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَإِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ كَبِيرٍ ﴿٣﴾ إِلَىٰ
اللَّهِ مَرْجِعُكُمْ وَهُوَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٤﴾ (سورة هود: ١-٤)

11:1. Alif. Lām. Râ'.<sup>12</sup> This is a Book, the verses of which are perfected, then explained in detail, from One Who is Most Wise, All-Aware.

11:2. [Saying] that you should worship none but Allah. [Say:] Verily I am [sent] to you from Him, as a warner and a bringer of glad tidings,

---

<sup>12</sup> Groups of letters (al-huroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

11:3. [and to instruct you]: Seek the forgiveness of your Lord and repent to Him, so that He may grant you goodly enjoyment of life for an appointed term and bestow His grace on all who merit it. But if you turn away, then verily I fear for you the punishment of a formidable day.

11:4. To Allah you will [all] return, and He has power over all things.

﴿This is a Book﴾ that is, a great Book and noble revelation
 ﴿the verses of which are perfected﴾ that is, they have been made precise and beautiful, truthful in what they tell you and fair and just in their commands and prohibitions, eloquent in turn of phrase and sublime in meaning.

﴿then explained in detail﴾ that is, they have been made unambiguous and crystal clear, at the highest level of clarity

﴿from One Who is Most Wise﴾ and does what is appropriate, the right thing at the right time, and He does not enjoin or prohibit anything except as His wisdom dictates

﴿All-Aware﴾ He sees everything, whether apparent or hidden.

As its perfection and clarification come from Allah, the Most Wise, All-Aware, then do not ask about how great and majestic it is and how it encompasses perfect wisdom and vast mercy.

Allah has only revealed His Book so ﴿that you should worship none but Allah﴾ that is, so that all worship will be devoted to Allah alone, and nothing of His creation will be associated with Him in worship.

﴿Verily I am [sent] to you﴾ O people, ﴿from Him﴾ that is, from Allah your Lord

﴿as a warner﴾ to anyone who dares to commit sin, of punishment in this world and the hereafter

﴿and a bringer of glad tidings﴾ to those who are obedient to Allah, of reward in this world and the hereafter.

«[and to instruct you]: Seek the forgiveness of your Lord» for what you have committed of sins

«and repent to Him» in the future, for the remainder of your lives, by turning to Him and by turning away from that which Allah dislikes and to that which He loves and is pleased with.

Then comes a description of what will result from seeking forgiveness and repentance:

«so that He may grant you goodly enjoyment of life» that is, so that He may grant you of His provision that which you will enjoy and benefit from

«for an appointed term» that is, until the time of your death.

«and bestow His grace on all» among you

«who merit it» that is, He bestows upon people who are good and righteous bounty and blessings as a reward for their good deeds, by enabling them to attain that which they love and warding off that which they dislike.

«But if you turn away» from that to which I call you, and you reject it and disbelieve in it

«then verily I fear for you the punishment of a formidable day» namely the Day of Resurrection, on which Allah will bring together the first and the last, and He will requite them for their deeds; if they were good He will reward them and if they were evil He will punish them.

«and He has power over all things» – among the things He is able to do is bringing the dead back to life, for He has power over all things. He has told us of that and He is the most truthful of all who speak, so that must inevitably come to pass, on the basis of rational thought and textual evidence.

﴿إِنَّمَا أَنَا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُكُمْ يُدْعُوا إِلَىٰ مَعْرِفَةِ اللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ ۚ يَخْبَاهُ الْغُيُوبُ﴾ (سورة هود: ٥)

11:5. Verily, they lean forward so as to conceal [their feelings] from Him, but when they cover themselves with their garments, He knows what they conceal and what they disclose, for He knows well what is in [their] hearts.

Here Allah tells us of the ignorance of the polytheists and how extreme their misguidance was.

﴿Verily, they lean forward so as to conceal [their feelings] from Him﴾, as they thought that doing this would conceal their situation from Allah, lest He see what they were doing.

But Allah explained that they were mistaken in their way of thinking:

﴿but when they cover themselves with their garments﴾ He knows what they are doing even when they are most hidden. Indeed ﴿He knows what they conceal﴾ of words and deeds ﴿and what they disclose﴾ thereof, and He knows what is even more hidden than that, ﴿for He knows well what is in [their] hearts﴾ that is, what is in them of wishes, whispers and thoughts that they never utter, either privately or in public, so how can their state be hidden from Him when they lean forward so as to conceal their feelings from Him?

It may be that what is meant here is that Allah mentions the turning away of those who disbelieved in the Messenger (ﷺ) and paid no heed to his call and states that, as part of their extreme turning away, they ﴿lean forward﴾ that is, they bend down, when they see the Messenger (ﷺ), lest he see them and make them hear his call, and exhort them with words that will benefit them. Can any turning away be worse than this?

Then in the next verse Allah (ﷻ) warns them that He knows all their situations and they cannot hide from Him, and He will requite them for their deeds.

﴿وَمَا مِنْ دَابَّةٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا عَلَى اللَّهِ رِزْقُهَا وَيَعْلَمُ مُسْتَقَرَّهَا وَمُسْتَوْدَعَهَا كُلٌّ فِي كِتَابٍ مُبِينٍ﴾ (سورة هود: ٦)

11:6. There is no creature that lives on the earth but its sustenance is guaranteed by Allah. He knows its dwelling place and its resting place; all is [inscribed] in a clear record.

That is, everything that moves on the face of the earth, be it human, land animal or sea creature, Allah (ﷻ) has guaranteed its provision and food.

«He knows its dwelling place and its resting place» that is, He knows the dwelling places of all these creatures, namely the places where they reside, settle and return to. The resting places are the places to which they come and go as they go about their business.

«all» the details about all these creatures

«is [inscribed] in a clear record» that is, in al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfūdh, which contains all events that will happen in the heavens and on earth. Allah encompasses all of that in His knowledge and has written it with His pen; His will is always done, and His provision encompasses all of them. So hearts may be reassured that the One Who guarantees provision will suffice them, as He encompasses in His knowledge their essence and attributes.

﴿وَهُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ فِي سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ وَكَانَ عَرْشُهُ عَلَى الْمَاءِ لِيَبْلُوَكُمْ أَيُّكُمْ أَحْسَنُ عَمَلًا وَلَئِنْ قُلْتُمْ إِنَّكُمْ مَبْعُوثُونَ مِنْ بَعْدِ الْمَوْتِ لَيَقُولَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ﴾ (٧)

الْعَذَابَ إِلَّا أَنتَ مَعْدُودَةٌ لِّقَوْلِكَ مَا يَحْسِبُهُ إِلَّا يَوْمَ يَأْتِيهِمْ مَصْرُوفًا عَنْهُمْ
وَحَاقَ بِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴿٨﴾ (سورة هود: ٧-٨)

- 11:7. He it is Who created the heavens and the earth in six days – and [before that] His Throne was upon the water – so that He may test you [and see] which of you is best in conduct. But if you say to them: Verily you will be resurrected after death, those who disbelieve will surely say: This is obviously nothing but magic!
- 11:8. If We delay the punishment for them for a limited time, they will surely say: What is holding it back? Verily, on the day it reaches them, nothing will avert it from them, and the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule will overwhelm them.

Allah tells us that He ﴿created the heavens and the earth in six days﴾, the first of which was Sunday and the last of which was Friday ﴿and﴾ at the time when He created the heavens and the earth, ﴿His Throne was upon the water﴾ above the seventh heaven.

After He created the heavens and the earth, He rose above the Throne and is controlling all affairs as He wills, in accordance with His divine decrees.

Hence He says: ﴿so that He may test you [and see] which of you is best in conduct﴾ that is, He created for you all that is in the heavens and on earth, so that He may try you, by means of His commands and prohibitions, to see which of you will be best in conduct.

Al-Fuḍayl ibn ‘Iyāḍ (may Allah have mercy on him) said: That is, who will be most sincere and most correct in conduct.

It was said: O Abu ‘Ali, what does most sincere and most correct mean? He said: If a deed is sincere but not correct, it will not be accepted, and if it is correct but not sincere, it will not be accepted; it will only be accepted if it is both sincere and correct.

Sincere means that it is done only for the sake of Allah, and correct means that it is in accordance with Islamic teachings and the Sunnah.

This is like the verses in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿I have not created the jinn and humans except to worship Me.﴾
(adh-Dhâriyât 51: 56)

– and:

﴿It is Allah Who created seven heavens and of the earth the like thereof. His decree descends throughout them so that you may know that Allah has power over all things and that He encompasses all things in His knowledge.﴾ (aṭ-Ṭalâq 65: 12)

Allah (ﷻ) created all of creation to worship Him and know Him by His names and attributes, and He has commanded them to do that. Whoever complies and does as he is commanded will be among the successful, but whoever turns away from that will be among the losers. He will inevitably bring them together in a realm where He will requite them for what He enjoined upon them and what He prohibited them to do.

Hence Allah mentioned the polytheists' disbelief in the recompense, as He says: ﴿But if you say to them: Verily you will be resurrected after death, those who disbelieve will surely say: This is obviously nothing but magic!﴾ That is, if you tell these people about the resurrection, they will not believe you; rather they will utterly reject it and criticise the message you have brought, and they will say: ﴿This is obviously nothing but magic!﴾. Rather it is obvious truth.

﴿If We delay the punishment for them for a limited time﴾ that is, until a time decreed, they will find it slow in coming and they will say, in their ignorance and unjust attitude: ﴿What is holding it back?﴾ This implies that they disbelieve in it, because they take the fact that it did not happen straightaway as an indication that the Messenger (ﷺ) was not telling the truth when he told them of the punishment. How far-fetched this conclusion is!

«Verily, on the day it» that is, the punishment «reaches them, nothing will avert it from them» so that they may rethink the matter. «and the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule will overwhelm them» that is, befall them, after they had taken the matter so lightly that they were certain that the one who brought the message was lying.

﴿وَلَيْنَ أَذْقَنَا الْإِنْسَانَ مِمَّا رَحِمَهُ ثُمَّ نَزَعْنَاهَا مِنْهُ إِنَّهُ لَيَكُفُّرٌ ۝٩
وَلَيْنَ أَذْقَنَهُ نِعْمَةً بَعْدَ ضَرْأٍ مَسْتَه لَيَقُولَنَّ ذَهَبَ السَّيِّئَاتُ عَنِّي إِنَّهُ لَفَرِحٌ
فَخُورٌ ۝١٠ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَأَجْرٌ كَبِيرٌ
﴿١١﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ٩-١١)

- 11:9. If We bestow upon a man mercy [prosperity] from Us, then take it away from him, he falls into despair and becomes ungrateful.
- 11:10. But if We bestow upon him good fortune after adversity had befallen him, he will surely say: All my woes are gone from me, and will become [unduly] exultant and boastful,
- 11:11. Except those who are patient and do righteous deeds; they will have forgiveness and a great reward.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the nature of man, that he is ignorant and given to wrongdoing. When Allah gives him a taste of mercy from Him, such as good health, provision, children, and so on, then He takes it away from him, he gives in to despair and ends up losing all hope. So he does not hope for the reward of Allah, and it never crosses his mind that Allah could restore it or give him something like it or better than it.

If Allah gives him a taste of mercy and prosperity after some hardship that befell him, he exults in it and becomes boastful. He thinks that he will always have that goodness and he says: «All my woes are gone from me, and will become [unduly] exultant and boastful» that is, he rejoices in what he was given that is in accordance with his own whims and desires, and he boasts of the blessings of Allah before the slaves of Allah. This makes him conceited and vain, filled with self-admiration and arrogant towards others, so he looks down on them and scorns them. What misconduct could be worse than this?!

This is the nature of man as he was created, except for the one whom Allah guides and helps him to rid himself of this bad attitude and develop the opposite. They are the ones who make themselves be patient at times of hardship, so they do not despair, and at times of ease they do not gloat; and they do righteous deeds, both obligatory and recommended.

«they will have forgiveness» for their sins, and they will be protected from the bad consequences thereof
«and a great reward» namely admittance to the gardens of bliss in which there is everything that the heart may desire and that may delight the eyes.

﴿فَلَعَلَّكَ تَارِكُ بَعْضِ مَا يُوحَىٰ إِلَيْكَ وَضَائِقٌ بِهِ صَدْرُكَ أَنْ يَقُولُوا لَوْلَا أُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ كُتُبٌ أَوْ جَاءَ مَعَهُ مَلَكٌ ۖ إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ نَذِيرٌ وَاللَّهُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَكِيلٌ ﴿١٢﴾ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَاهُ قُلْ فَأْتُوا بِعَشْرِ سُوْرٍ مِثْلِهِ مُفْتَرِيْنَ وَادْعُوا مَنِ اسْتَطَعْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿١٣﴾ فَإِنْ لَمْ يَسْتَجِيبُوا لَكُمْ فَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّمَا أُنْزِلَ بِعِلْمِ اللَّهِ وَأَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ فَهَلْ أَنْتُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ ﴿١٤﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ١٢-١٤)

- 11:12. Beware lest you omit some of that which is revealed to you, and feel distressed thereby, for fear that they will say: Why is not some treasure sent down to him, or why does an angel not come with him? Rather you are but a warner; Allah is in charge of all things.

- 11:13. Or they may say: He has fabricated it [the Qur'an]. Say: Then produce ten fabricated soorahs like it, and call upon whomever you can other than Allah [to help you], if you speak the truth!
- 11:14. Then if they do not respond to you, know that it [the Qur'an] is sent down with the knowledge of Allah, and there is no god but He. Will you then submit to Him [in Islam]?

Here Allah (ﷻ) says, consoling His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) for the rejection of the disbelievers: ﴿Beware lest you omit some of that which is revealed to you, and feel distressed thereby, for fear that they will say: Why is not some treasure sent down to him﴾ that is, it is not befitting for one such as you to let what they say affect you and turn you away from your mission, so that you omit some of that which is revealed to you and feel distressed by their stubbornness and their saying, ﴿Why is not some treasure sent down to him, or why does an angel not come with him?﴾. These words stem from stubbornness, wrongdoing, obstinacy, misguidance and ignorance of what constitutes proof and evidence. So carry on with your efforts and do not let these worthless ideas that only come from foolish people deter you or cause you distress.

Have they ever given you an argument that you could not refute, or criticised you for anything that you have brought that had an impact on it or detracted from it, and thus caused you distress?

Or are you responsible for bringing them to account, or are you expected to force them to follow you?

﴿Rather you are but a warner; Allah is in charge of all things﴾ – He is in charge of them, recording their deeds and He will requite them in full.

﴿Or they may say: He has fabricated it﴾ that is, has Muhammad (ﷺ) fabricated this Qur'an? Allah answered this question by saying: ﴿Say﴾ to them: ﴿Then produce ten fabricated soorahs like it, and call upon whomever you can other than Allah [to help you], if you speak the truth﴾ when you say that he has fabricated it, for there is no difference between you and him in terms of eloquence and fine words. Moreover, you are his sworn enemies who are very keen to do whatever you can to prove his call false. So if you are telling the truth, then bring ten fabricated soorahs like it.

﴿Then if they do not respond to you﴾ with regard to any of that ﴿know that it [the Qur'an] is sent down with the knowledge of Allah﴾, from Allah, because it is based on proof and there is no proof to the contrary.

﴿and there is no god but He﴾ that is, and you should know that there is no god but He; that is, He alone is divine and worthy of worship. ﴿Will you then submit to Him [in Islam]?﴾ That is, will you submit to His divinity and become utterly subservient to Him?

These verses indicate that it is not appropriate for the one who calls people to Allah to be deterred by the objections and criticisms of people, especially if this criticism is baseless and does not undermine the message to which he is calling them. He should not let that distress him; rather he should be certain of his message and persist, focusing on his task. He does not have to respond to their demands for evidence of their own choosing; rather it is sufficient to establish sound proof, with no proof to the contrary.

This indicates that the Qur'an is a miracle in and of itself, for no human being can produce anything like it, not ten soorahs like it, or even one soorah like it, because those eloquent and well-spoken enemies to whom Allah issued this challenge did not try to produce anything that could match it, for they knew that they were unable to do such a thing.

This also indicates that what we need to seek certain knowledge about, and not rely on mere conjecture, is the Qur'an and tawh  d (oneness of Allah), because Allah (  ) says: ﴿that it [the Qur'an] is sent down with the knowledge of Allah, and there is no god but He﴾.

﴿مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا وَزِينَتَهَا نُوَفِّ إِلَيْهِمْ أَعْمَلَهُمْ فِيهَا وَهُمْ فِيهَا لَا يُبْخَسُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ لَيْسَ لَهُمْ فِي الْآخِرَةِ إِلَّا النَّارُ وَحِطَّ مَا صَنَعُوا فِيهَا وَبِطِلْ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٦﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ١٥-١٦)

- 11:15. Those who seek the life of this world and its splendour – We will repay them in full in this life for their deeds, and they will not be given less than they deserve.
- 11:16. Those are the ones for whom there will be nothing in the hereafter but the fire. There all their efforts will come to nothing, and all they did will be in vain.

«Those who seek the life of this world and its splendour» that is, all their aspirations are limited to the life of this world and its adornments, such as women and sons, heaped-up hoards of gold and silver, fine horses, and livestock and well-tilled land (cf. 3: 14). Thus they focus their ambitions, efforts and striving on these things, and they do not aspire to the hereafter at all. Such a person can be nothing but a disbeliever, because if he were a believer, his faith would have prevented him from focusing all his attention on this world; rather his faith and whatever he was enabled to do of righteous deeds would be a sign of his aspiring for the hereafter.

But for such doomed individuals, who are as if they were created for this world alone, «We will repay them in full in this life for their deeds» that is, We will give them what was allocated for them in al-Lawḥ al-Mahfoodh of the reward of this world «and they will not be given less than they deserve» that is, nothing will be detracted from that which has been allocated to them, but that will be all that they get of joy and delight.

«Those are the ones for whom there will be nothing in the hereafter but the fire» where they will abide forever, and the torment will never cease; they have been deprived of great reward

«There all their efforts will come to nothing» that is, all that they did in this world will come to nothing and all their efforts against the truth and its followers will fail; this includes all the good deeds that they did that had no basis and did not fulfil the essential condition, namely faith.

﴿أَفَمَنْ كَانَ عَلَىٰ بَيِّنَةٍ مِّن رَّبِّهِ، وَيَتْلُوهُ شَاهِدٌ مِّنْهُ وَمِنْ قَبْلِهِ كُتِبَ مُوسَىٰ إِمَامًا وَرَحْمَةً أُولَٰئِكَ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِهِ، وَمَنْ يَكْفُرْ بِهِ، مِنَ الْأَحْزَابِ، فَالنَّارُ مَوْعِدُهُ، فَلَا تَكُ فِي مِرْيَةٍ مِّنْهُ إِنَّهُ الْحَقُّ مِن رَّبِّكَ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ﴾ (سورة هود: ١٧)

11:17. Can they be like one who possesses clear proof from his Lord, supported by a testimony from himself, which was preceded by the Book of Moosâ [which was revealed as] a guide and a mercy? Such people believe in it [the Qur'an]; as for those of any group who disbelieve in it, the fire will be their promised fate. So have no doubt about it, for it is the truth from your Lord, but most people do not believe.

Here Allah describes the situation of His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) and those who followed in his footsteps, calling others to His religion and the proofs that they believed in, and the qualities that they have that no one else could have except them, and no one could be like them.

«Can they be like one who possesses clear proof from his Lord» namely the revelation that Allah sent down to explain important matters and give clear proofs thereof, and he is certain of those proofs ﴿supported by a testimony from himself﴾ that is, this proof is supported by testimony from himself, which is the testimony of sound human nature and sound reason, when he testifies to the soundness of what Allah has revealed to him and of His religion, and he realises, on the basis of rational thinking, how beautiful it is, and that increases him in faith.

And there is a third testimony, which is ﴿the Book of Moosâ﴾, namely the Torah which Allah made ﴿a guide﴾ for people ﴿and a mercy﴾ to them. It also testifies to the truth of this Qur'an and is in harmony with it with regard to the truth.

In other words, is a person who is like this, who has all these proofs to support his faith and has all of this certain evidence, like one who is steeped in darkness and ignorance, and refuses to come out of it?

They are not equal before Allah or before the slaves of Allah. ﴿Such people﴾ that is, those who have been enabled to establish proof ﴿believe﴾ in the Qur'an in a real sense, so their faith will bear fruit and they will attain good in this world and the hereafter.

﴿as for those of any group﴾ that is, any of the groups of the people of this earth who are ganging up to reject the truth

﴿who disbelieve in it﴾ that is, the Qur'an

﴿the fire will be their promised fate﴾ and they will inevitably enter it.

﴿So have no doubt about it﴾ that is, do not entertain even the slightest doubt

﴿for it is the truth from your Lord, but most people do not believe﴾ either because of ignorance and wrongdoing on their part, or because of stubbornness and resentment. Otherwise, anyone whose intention is good and whose understanding is sound will inevitably believe in it, because he sees in it that which prompts him to believe in it completely.

﴿وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنِ افْتَرَىٰ عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا أُولَٰئِكَ يُعْرَضُونَ عَلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ وَيَقُولُ
 الْأَشْهَادُ هَٰؤُلَاءِ الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا عَلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ ۚ أَلَا لَعْنَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَى الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿١٨﴾
 الَّذِينَ يَصُدُّونَ عَن سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَيَبْغُونَهَا عِوَجًا وَهُمْ بِالْآخِرَةِ هُمْ كَافِرُونَ ﴿١٩﴾
 أُولَٰئِكَ لَمْ يَكُونُوا مُعْجِزِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا كَانَ لَهُم مِّن دُونِ اللَّهِ مِن
 أَوْلِيَاءَ يَضْعَفُ لَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ مَا كَانُوا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ السَّمْعَ وَمَا كَانُوا يُبْصِرُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾
 أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ خَسِرُوا أَنفُسَهُمْ وَضَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَفْتَرُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ لَا جَرَمَ
 لَهُمْ فِي الْآخِرَةِ هُمْ الْآخَسَرُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ١٨-٢٢)

- 11:18. Who does greater evil than he who fabricates lies against Allah? Such people will be presented before their Lord, and the witnesses will say: These are the ones who lied about their Lord. Indeed the curse of Allah is upon the evildoers,
- 11:19. those who barred [people] from the path of Allah and sought to make it appear crooked, and who disbelieved in the hereafter.
- 11:20. Such people cannot escape [Allah's punishment] on earth, nor do they have any protector besides Allah. For them the punishment will be doubled. They could not bear to hear, nor did they see.
- 11:21. Such are the ones who will have lost their souls and that which they invented will be lost from them.
- 11:22. Without a doubt, in the hereafter, it is they who will be the greatest losers.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that there is no one ﴿Who does greater evil than he who fabricates lies against Allah﴾. This includes everyone who tells lies against Allah by attributing partners to Him, or describing Him in terms that do not befit His Majesty, or saying things concerning Him that He did not say, or claiming to be a prophet, or other lies against Allah. These are the most evil of people.

﴿Such people will be presented before their Lord﴾ so that He may requite them for their wrongdoing. When He issues the verdict of severe punishment against them, ﴿the witnesses﴾ that is, those who testified against them that they were fabricating lies ﴿will say: These are the ones who lied about their Lord. Indeed the curse of Allah is upon the evildoers﴾ that is, a curse that will never cease, because their evil became second nature to them and is not subject to reduction.

Then Allah describes their wrongdoing: ﴿those who barred [people] from the path of Allah﴾. They barred themselves from following the path of Allah, which is the path of the Messengers to which they called people, and they barred others from following it, so they became leaders who called people to the fire.

﴿and sought to make it﴾ namely the path of Allah ﴿appear crooked﴾ that is, they strove to make it appear crooked, ugly and bad in people's eyes, so that it did not appear straight. They presented falsehood as good and truth as bad; may Allah curse them ﴿and who disbelieved in the hereafter﴾.

﴿Such people cannot escape [Allah's punishment] on earth﴾ that is, they cannot escape Allah, because they are under His control and subject to His power.

﴿nor do they have any protector besides Allah﴾ who could ward off the punishment from them or bring them any benefit; rather all ties between them are severed (cf. 2: 166).

﴿For them the punishment will be doubled﴾ that is, it will be intensified and increased, because they went astray themselves and they led others astray.

﴿They could not bear to hear﴾ that is, because of their resentment and their aversion towards the truth, they could not bear to hear the revelations of Allah in such a way that they could benefit from them.

«Then what is the matter with them, that they turn away from the Reminder [the Qur'an], as if they were startled [wild] donkeys, fleeing from a lion?» (al-Muddath-thir 74: 49-51)

«nor did they see» that is, they did not see by way of learning and reflection in a way that could benefit them; rather they are like the deaf and mute who cannot understand.

«Such are the ones who will have lost their souls» as they caused them to miss out on the greatest reward and made them deserve the worst punishment

«and that which they invented will be lost from them» that is, their religion, which they promoted and tried to make look good to others, will diminish, and the gods whom they worshipped besides Allah will avail them nothing when the decree of your Lord comes to pass.

«Without a doubt» that is, surely

«in the hereafter, it is they who will be the greatest losers». Loss is limited to them; in fact they are given the worst type of loss, because of the extent of their regret and deprivation, and what they will suffer of harsh punishment. We seek protection with Allah from ending up like them.

Having mentioned the state of those who are doomed (destined for hell), Allah then describes the characteristics of those who are blessed (destined for paradise) and what they will have with Allah of reward:

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ وَآخَبَتُوا إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ الْجَنَّةِ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ ﴿مَثَلُ الْفَرِيقَيْنِ كَالْأَصْصِ وَالْبَصِيرِ وَالسَّمِيعِ هَلْ يَسْتَوِيَانِ مَثَلًا ۚ أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ٢٣-٢٤)

11:23. Verily those who believe, do righteous deeds and humble themselves before their Lord, such will be the inhabitants of paradise; they will abide therein forever.

11:24. The likeness of the two groups is that of one who is blind and deaf, and one who sees and hears. Are they equal when compared? Will you not then pay heed?

﴿Verily those who believe﴾ in their hearts; that is, they believe and acknowledge all that Allah has commanded them to believe in of the fundamentals and principles of Islam.

﴿do righteous deeds﴾ – this includes deeds of the heart (beliefs), physical actions and words spoken

﴿and humble themselves before their Lord﴾ that is, they submit to Him and to His greatness, they humble themselves before His power and turn to Him with love, fear and hope, beseeching Him

﴿such﴾ that is, these people who have all of these characteristics

﴿will be the inhabitants of paradise; they will abide therein forever﴾, because they did not leave any good deed that was required of them but they did it, or any good deed but they were the first to do it.

﴿The likeness of the two groups﴾ that is, the group of those who are doomed and the group of those who are blessed

﴿is that of one who is blind and deaf﴾ these are the ones who are doomed

﴿and one who sees and hears﴾ these are the ones who are blessed

﴿Are they equal when compared?﴾ They are not equal when compared; rather the difference between them is indescribable.

﴿Will you not then pay heed﴾ to the deeds that will benefit you, so that you do them, and to the deeds that will harm you, so that you refrain from them?

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ إِنِّي لَكُمْ نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿٢٥﴾ أَنْ لَا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا اللَّهَ إِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴿٢٦﴾ فَقَالَ الْمَلَأُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ قَوْمِهِ مَا

نَزَّلَكَ إِلَّا بَشَرًا مِّثْلَنَا وَمَا نَزَّلَكَ أَنْتَعَلَك إِلَّا الَّذِي هُمْ أَرَادُوا بِأَدَى الرَّأْيِ
وَمَا نَزَّيْ لَكُمْ عَلَيْنَا مِنْ فَضْلٍ بَلْ نَظُنُّكُمْ كَاذِبِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾ (سورة هود: ٢٥-٢٧)

- 11:25. We sent Nooh to his people [and he said]: I have come to you with a clear warning:
- 11:26. That you should worship none but Allah. Verily I fear for you the punishment of a painful day.
- 11:27. But the chieftains of his people who disbelieved said: We do not see you as anything but a human being like ourselves. Nor do we see that any follow you but the lowest among us, those who are rash and undiscerning. We see no superior merit in you; in fact, we think you are liars.

﴿We sent Nooh﴾ that is, We sent Our Messenger Nooh, the first of the Messengers

﴿to his people﴾ to call them to Allah and to forbid them to ascribe partners to Him.

﴿[and he said]: I have come to you with a clear warning﴾ that is, I have explained to you that which I have warned you of, so as to dispel any confusion.

﴿That you should worship none but Allah﴾ that is, that you should devote your worship to Allah alone, and abandon everything that you worship besides Allah.

﴿Verily I fear for you the punishment of a painful day﴾ if you do not affirm the oneness of Allah and obey me.

﴿But the chieftains of his people who disbelieved﴾, namely the nobles and leaders, rejected the call of Nooh (ﷺ), as is usually the case with people of their ilk; they are the first to reject the call of the Messengers

﴿said: We do not see you as anything but a human being like ourselves﴾. This was what prevented them – or so they claimed – from following him, even though that was the right thing to do and nothing else was appropriate. That is because humans may learn from a fellow human and discuss all issues with him, which would not be possible with the angels (if an angel had been sent as a Messenger). ﴿Nor do we see that any follow you but the lowest among us﴾ that is, we see that no one follows you among us except the lowest in status and those who are inferior – or so they claimed.

But in fact the ones who followed him were the noble ones and people of mature thinking who submitted to the truth. They were not like the lowest people who were called chieftains, who followed every rebellious devil and took stones and trees as gods, and sought to draw close to them and prostrate to them. Could you see anyone who is lower and viler than these?

﴿those who are rash and undiscerning﴾ that is, they only followed you without thinking or deliberating; rather as soon as you called them, they followed you. What they meant by saying this was that these people had no insight and did not know what they were doing. But these disbelievers did not realise that the clear truth is something that is based on common sense and as soon as it comes to wise people, they recognise it and are certain of it. It is not like subtle issues that require lengthy thought and reflection.

﴿We see no superior merit in you﴾ that is, you are no better than us, so that we should follow you

﴿in fact, we think you are liars﴾ but they were lying when they said this, for they had seen the signs which Allah sent to support Nooh, which should have made them completely certain that he was indeed a true Messenger.

﴿ قَالَ يَقَوْمِ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُ عَلَىٰ بَيِّنَةٍ مِنْ رَبِّي وَءَاتَانِي رَحْمَةً مِنْ عِنْدِي ۖ فَعَمِيَيتَ عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْزَلْتُكُمْ هَآؤَآنتُمْ هَآؤَآ كَرِهُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ وَيَقَوْمِ لَا تَأْتِلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مَا لَا إِنْ أَجْرِي إِلَّا عَلَىٰ

اللَّهُ وَمَا أَنَا بِطَارِدِ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّهُمْ مُلْقُوا رَبِّهِمْ وَلَكِنِّي أَرِئُكُمْ قَوْمًا يَجْهَلُونَ
 (٣١) وَيَقُولُونَ مَنْ يَنْصُرُنِي مِنَ اللَّهِ إِنْ طَرَدْتُهُمْ أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَلَا أَقُولُ لَكُمْ عِنْدِي
 خَزَائِنُ اللَّهِ وَلَا أَعْلَمُ الْغَيْبَ وَلَا أَقُولُ إِنِّي مَلَكٌ وَلَا أَقُولُ لِلَّذِينَ تَزْدَرِي أَعْيُنُكُمْ
 لَنْ يُؤْتِيَهُمُ اللَّهُ خَيْرًا اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا فِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ إِنِّي إِذًا لَمِنَ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٣٣﴾ (سورة هود: ٢٨-٣١)

- 11:28. He said: O my people, what do you think, if I am relying on clear proof from my Lord, and He has bestowed on me mercy from Himself, but it has been obscured from your sight; can we compel you to accept it when you are averse to it?
- 11:29. O my people, I do not ask you for any wealth in return for it; my reward is with Allah alone. But I will not drive away those who believe, for they will surely meet their Lord. But I see that you are ignorant people.
- 11:30. O my people, who would protect me from Allah if I drove them away? Will you not then pay heed?
- 11:31. I do not tell you that I possess the treasures of Allah and I do not have knowledge of the unseen, nor do I tell you that I am an angel. Nor do I say of those who are contemptible in your eyes that Allah will never grant them any good – for Allah knows best what is in their hearts; if I did, then I would surely be one of the unjust.

Hence Nooh said to them in response:

﴿O my people, what do you think, if I am relying on clear proof from my Lord﴾ that is, certainty, for he was an exemplary leader whom the Messengers of strong resolve would follow, in comparison to whose wisdom the wisdom of the smartest minds is as nothing, and he was indeed telling the truth when he said: I am relying on clear proof from my Lord. This is sufficient testimony in his favour and confirmation of his truthfulness.

﴿and He has bestowed on me mercy from Himself﴾ that is, He has given revelation to me, sent me as a Messenger and blessed me with true guidance

﴿but it has been obscured from your sight﴾ that is, it is hidden from you, and you find it burdensome

﴿can we compel you to accept it﴾ that is, can we force you to accept that of which we are certain but about which you have doubts?

﴿when you are averse to it﴾ to the extent that you are keen to reject that which I have brought. That will not harm us or undermine our faith in it; your words and fabrications against us will not keep us from following what we believe. Rather the most that it can do is bar you yourselves from it, and lead to you not following the truth, which you claim is false. If the matter reaches this extent, then we cannot force you to follow the command of Allah or force you to accept something to which you are so averse. Hence Allah says: ﴿can we compel you to accept it when you are averse to it?﴾.

﴿O my people, I do not ask you for any wealth in return for it﴾ that is, for my call to you, for you would find it too burdensome to pay me.

﴿my reward is with Allah alone﴾. It is as if they asked him to drive away the believers who were weak in social standing, but he said to them: ﴿But I will not drive away those who believe﴾ that is, it is not appropriate or befitting for me to do that; rather I welcome them warmly, and I honour and respect them

﴿for they will surely meet their Lord﴾ and He will reward them for their faith and piety with gardens of bliss.

﴿But I see that you are ignorant people﴾ as you tell me to drive away the close friends of Allah and make them go away from me, and you rejected the truth because they follow it, and you regard truth as falsehood on the grounds that you say that I am human like you and that we are no better than you.

«O my people, who would protect me from Allah if I drove them away?» That is, who would protect me from His punishment, because driving them away would incur a punishment that no one can ward off except Allah.

«Will you not then pay heed» to that which is better for you, and take care of your affairs?

«I do not tell you that I possess the treasures of Allah and I do not have knowledge of the unseen, nor do I tell you that I am an angel»; all I am is the Messenger of Allah to you, bringing you glad tidings and warning you. As for anything other than that, I have no control over anything. The treasures of Allah are not under my control, such that I could give to whomever I wanted and withhold from whomever I wanted

«and I do not have knowledge of the unseen» such that I could tell you what is in your hearts and minds

«nor do I tell you that I am an angel». What is meant is: I do not claim to be anything more than I am, or to have any status other than that which Allah has given me; I do not judge people on the basis of my own speculation.

«Nor do I say of those who are contemptible in your eyes» namely the socially weak believers on whom the chieftains who disbelieved look down

«that Allah will never grant them any good – for Allah knows best what is in their hearts»; if they are sincere in their faith, they will have much good, but if they are otherwise, then their reckoning is with Allah

«if I did» that is, if I said to you any of the things mentioned, «then I would surely be one of the unjust». Thus Nooh (ؑ) would make his people lose any hope of him getting rid of or hating the poor believers, and he persisted in trying to convince his people by means that would convince any fair-minded person.

﴿قَالُوا يَنْتُحٍ قَدْ جَدَلْتَنَا فَأَكْثَرْتَ جِدْلَنَا فَأَيْنَا بِمَا قَدَدْنَا إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ﴾ (٣٢) ﴿قَالَ إِنَّمَا يَأْتِيكُمْ بِهِ اللَّهُ إِنْ شَاءَ وَمَا أَنْتُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ﴾ (٣٣) ﴿وَلَا يَنْفَعُكُمْ نُصْحِي إِنْ أَرَدْتُ أَنْ أَنْصَحَ لَكُمْ إِنْ كَانَ اللَّهُ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يُغْوِيَكُمْ هُوَ رَبُّكُمْ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ﴾ (٣٤) (سورة هود: ٣٢-٣٤)

- 11:32. They said: O Nooh, you have argued with us for too long. Bring us that with which you are threatening us, if you are telling the truth.
- 11:33. He said: It is Allah Who will bring it upon you if He wills, and you cannot escape it.
- 11:34. Nor will my advice benefit you, much as I desire to give you good advice, if Allah's will is to leave you astray. He is your Lord and to Him you will return.

When they saw that he would not give up his efforts to call them and they would not get from him what they demanded,

﴿They said: O Nooh, you have argued with us for too long. Bring us that with which you are threatening us﴾ of punishment ﴿if you are telling the truth﴾. How ignorant and misguided they were, when they said these words to their Prophet who was sincerely advising them. If they were sincere, why did they not say: O Nooh, you have been sincere towards us and cared for us, but you have called us to something that is not quite clear to us, so we want you to explain it to us so that we may follow you; otherwise we appreciate your efforts to give us sincere advice. That would have been a fair-minded response on the part of one who is called to something that is not clear to him. But they were lying in what they said and they were rude to their Prophet. They did not reject what he said because they had any doubts about it, let alone rejecting it on the basis of any sound argument.

Hence they turned from ignorance and wrongdoing to seeking to hasten the punishment, as if they were trying to outwit Allah.

Therefore Nooh responded to them by saying: ﴿It is Allah Who will bring it upon you if He wills﴾ that is, if His will and wisdom dictate that He should send it upon you, He will do that ﴿and you cannot escape it﴾ that is, you cannot escape Allah; and I have no control over the matter at all.

﴿Nor will my advice benefit you, much as I desire to give you good advice, if Allah's will is to leave you astray﴾ for His will is always done. If He wills to leave you astray because of your rejection of the truth, even if I did my utmost and advised you most sincerely – which is what he indeed did – it will not benefit you in the slightest.

﴿He is your Lord﴾ Who will do with you as He will and will judge you as He chooses

﴿and to Him you will return﴾ and He will requite you for your deeds.

﴿أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَيْنَاهُ قُلْ إِنِ افْتَرَيْتُهُ فَعَلَىٰ إِجْرَائِي وَأَنَا بِرِيءٌ مِّمَّا يَنْجُرُمُونَ﴾

(سورة هود: ٣٥) ﴿٣٥﴾

11:35. If they say: He has fabricated it himself, say to them: If I did fabricate it, then I am responsible for my own sin, but I am innocent of the sins you commit.

﴿If they say: He has fabricated it himself﴾ – the pronoun may refer to Nooh, as the context speaks of his story with his people, in which case what is meant is that his people said: He has fabricated lies against Allah and has told lies about the revelation which he claims is from Allah, and he claims that Allah has instructed him to say: ﴿If they say: He has fabricated it himself, say to them: If I did fabricate it, then I am responsible for my own sin, but I am innocent of the sins you commit» that is, each one will bear his own burden of sin.

﴿...No bearer of burdens can bear the burden of another...﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 164)

Or it may be that the pronoun refers to the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), in which case this verse is inserted, as if in parentheses, into the story of Nooh and his people, because this story is something that no one knows except the Prophets, so when Allah started to tell the story of Nooh to His Messenger (ﷺ), it was one of the signs that he was indeed a true Messenger and that his message was true, so He mentioned the disbelief of his people despite the perfect proof.

﴿If they say: He has fabricated it himself﴾, that is, Muhammad (ﷺ) has made up this Qur'an by himself, this would be an extremely strange and false thing to say, because they knew that he could neither read nor write, and he had not left them to go and study with any scholars, yet he brought them this Book that challenged them to produce even one soorah like it.

If, despite that, they claimed that he had fabricated it, it would be known that they were being stubborn and there would be no further use in arguing with them; rather what would be appropriate in that case would be to turn away from them. Hence Allah said:

﴿say to them: If I did fabricate it, then I am responsible for my own sin﴾ that is, the sin of my lying

﴿but I am innocent of the sins you commit﴾ that is, so why are you trying so hard to argue that I am a liar?

﴿وَأَوْحَىٰ إِلَىٰ نُوحٍ أَنَّهُ لَنْ يُؤْمِنَ مِنْ قَوْمِكَ إِلَّا مَنْ قَدْ ءَامَنَ فَلَا تَبْتَئِسْ بِمَا كَانُوا
يَفْعَلُونَ﴾ (سورة هود: ٣٦)

- 11:36. It was revealed to Nooh: None of your people will believe except those who have already believed. So do not be saddened by what they have been doing.

﴿It was revealed to Nooh: None of your people will believe except those who have already believed﴾ that is, their hearts have become hard

﴿So do not be saddened by what they have been doing﴾ that is, do not grieve and do not pay attention to them and their deeds, for Allah has cursed them and has decreed that they be punished, and His decree cannot be averted.

﴿وَأَصْنَعِ الْفُلَ بِأَعْيُنِنَا وَوَحِّينَا وَلَا تَخْطِبْنِي فِي الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا إِنَّهُمْ مُغْرَقُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَبَصْنَعِ الْفُلَ وَكَلَّمَا مَرْ عَلَيْهِ مَلَأْ مِنْ قَوْمِهِ سَخِرُوا مِنْهُ قَالَ إِنْ تَسْخَرُوا مِنَّا فَإِنَّا نَسْخَرُ مِنْكُمْ كَمَا تَسْخَرُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾ فَسَوْفَ نَعْلَمُ مَنْ يَأْتِيهِ عَذَابٌ يُخْزِيهِ وَيَحِلُّ عَلَيْهِ عَذَابٌ مُّقِيمٌ ﴿٣٩﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ٣٧-٣٩)

- 11:37. Build the ark under Our supervision and in accordance with Our inspiration. And do not plead with Me concerning those who did wrong, for they will surely be drowned.
- 11:38. So he started to build the ark, and every time the chieftains of his people passed by him, they ridiculed him. He said: Though you ridicule us now, we will certainly ridicule you as you are ridiculing us.
- 11:39. You will come to know who will receive a punishment that will disgrace him, and upon whom will descend an everlasting punishment.

«Build the ark under Our supervision and in accordance with Our inspiration» that is, under Our care, in Our view and with Our approval.

«And do not plead with Me concerning those who did wrong» that is, do not discuss their impending destruction with Me

«for they will surely be drowned» that is, the punishment has become inevitable and the decree concerning them will be implemented.

Nooḥ obeyed the command of his Lord, and he started to build the ark.

«and every time the chieftains of his people passed by him» and saw what he was doing

«they ridiculed him. He said: Though you ridicule us now, we will certainly ridicule you as you are ridiculing us».

«You will come to know who will receive a punishment that will disgrace him, and upon whom will descend an everlasting punishment», us or you. And they indeed came to know that when the punishment befell them.

﴿ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءَ أَمْرُنَا وَفَارَ التَّنُّورُ قُلْنَا احْمِلْ فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ زَوْجَيْنِ اثْنَيْنِ وَأَهْلَكَ
إِلَّا مَن سَبَقَ عَلَيْهِ الْقَوْلُ وَمَنْ ءَامَنَ وَمَا ءَامَنَ مَعَهُ إِلَّا قَلِيلٌ ﴾ (سورة هود: ٤٠)

11:40. [And so it went on] until, when Our command came and water gushed up out of the earth, We said: Take on board a pair from every species, and your family, except those against whom the sentence has already been passed, and those who believe. But only a few believed with him.

«[And so it went on] until, when Our command» that is, the time when We had decreed that the punishment should befall them ﴿came and water gushed up out of the earth﴾ that is, Allah caused the sky to send down rain in torrents and caused the earth to gush forth with springs, and the waters met (and rose) to the extent decreed (cf. 54: 11-12).

﴿We said﴾ to Nooh: ﴿Take on board a pair from every species﴾ that is, from every type of creature, take on board a male and female, so that different species could survive. As for the rest of the animals, other than the pairs that were taken on board, the ark could not carry them all.

﴿and your family, except those against whom the sentence has already been passed﴾ namely those who were disbelievers, such as his son who was drowned.

﴿and those who believe. But﴾ in fact ﴿only a few believed with him﴾.

﴿وَقَالَ أَزْكِبُوا فِيهَا بِسْمِ اللَّهِ بَحْرِنَهَا وَمُرْسَهَا إِنَّ رَبِّي لَغَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ﴾ (٤١) وَهِيَ تَجْرِي بِهِمْ فِي مَوْجٍ كَالْجِبَالِ وَنَادَى نُوحٌ ابْنَهُ وَكَانَ فِي مَعْزِلٍ يَبْنَى أَزْكِبْ مَعَنَا وَلَا تَكُنْ مَعَ الْكَافِرِينَ﴾ (٤٢) قَالَ سَتَأْوِي إِلَى جَبَلٍ يَعْصِمُنِي مِنَ الْمَاءِ قَالَ لَا عَاصِمَ الْيَوْمَ مِنْ أَمْرِ اللَّهِ إِلَّا مَنْ رَحِمَ وَحَالَ بَيْنَهُمَا الْمَوْجُ فَكَانَ مِنَ الْمُغْرَقِينَ﴾ (٤٣)

(سورة هود: ٤١-٤٣)

- 11:41. Nooh said: Embark; in the name of Allah will be its course and its mooring. Verily my Lord is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
- 11:42. And as it sailed with them amid waves like mountains, Nooh called out to his son, who had kept himself apart: O my son, embark with us, and do not be with the disbelievers.
- 11:43. The son said: I will take refuge on a mountain which will save me from the water. Nooh said: Today there is no refuge from Allah's punishment, except for those on whom He has mercy.

And a wave came between them, and [the son] was among those who were drowned.

﴿Nooḥ said﴾ to those whom Allah had instructed him to take on board: ﴿Embark; in the name of Allah will be its course and its mooring﴾ that is, it will set sail in the name of Allah and drop anchor in the name of Allah, and it will set sail by His command and power. ﴿Verily my Lord is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾ as He has forgiven us and had mercy on us, and He has delivered us from the wrongdoing people.

Then Allah describes its journey, as if we can see it: ﴿And as it sailed with them﴾ that is, with Nooḥ and those who had embarked with him ﴿amid waves like mountains﴾, Allah protected it and took care of its people.

﴿Nooḥ called out to his son﴾ when he embarked, telling him to embark with him ﴿who had kept himself apart﴾ from them, when they embarked. In other words, he was some distance apart from them, but Nooḥ wanted him to come closer so that he could embark, so he said to him: ﴿O my son, embark with us, and do not be with the disbelievers﴾ lest there befall you the same as will befall them.

﴿The son said﴾, not believing his father when he told him that no one would be saved except those who went on board the ark with him: ﴿I will take refuge on a mountain which will save me from the water﴾ that is, I will climb up a mountain and protect myself from the water thereby.

﴿Nooḥ said: Today there is no refuge from Allah's punishment, except for those on whom He has mercy﴾ that is, no mountain or anything else can protect anybody; even if he took all possible measures, he will not be saved if Allah does not save him.

﴿And a wave came between them, and [the son] was among those who were drowned﴾.

﴿وَقِيلَ يَا أَرْضُ ابْلَعِي مَاءَكِ وَتَسْمَأِي أَقْلِي وَغِيضَ الْمَاءِ وَقُضِيَ الْأَمْرُ وَاسْتَوَتْ عَلَى الْجُودِيِّ وَقِيلَ بُعْدًا لِلْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَنَادَى نُوحٌ رَبَّهُ فَقَالَ رَبِّ إِنَّ ابْنِي مِنْ أَهْلِي وَإِنَّ وَعْدَكَ الْحَقُّ وَأَنْتَ أَحْكَمُ الْحَاكِمِينَ ﴿٤٥﴾ قَالَ يُنَوِّحُ إِنَّهُ لَيْسَ مِنْ أَهْلِكَ إِنَّهُ عَمَلٌ غَيْرُ صَالِحٍ فَلَا تَتْلَنْ مَالَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ إِنِّي أَعِظُكَ أَنْ تَكُونَ مِنَ الْجَاهِلِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ أَنْ أَسْأَلَكَ مَا لَيْسَ لِي بِهِ عِلْمٌ وَإِلَّا تَغْفِرْ لِي وَتَرْحَمْنِي أَكُنَ مِنَ الْخَاسِرِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ٤٤-٤٧)

- 11:44. Then it was said: O earth, swallow up your water; O sky, cease [your rain]! The water subsided and the decree was fulfilled. The ark came to rest on Mount Judi and it was said: Gone are the wicked people.
- 11:45. Nooh called out to his Lord and said: O Lord, surely my son was one of my family, and surely Your promise is true and You are the most just of judges.
- 11:46. Allah said: O Nooh, he is not one of your family, for indeed he was unrighteous in his conduct. So do not ask of Me that of which you have no knowledge. I admonish you, lest you be among the ignorant.
- 11:47. Nooh said: O my Lord, I seek refuge with You lest I ask of You that of which I have no knowledge. Unless You forgive me and have mercy on me, I will be among the losers.

When Allah had drowned them and had saved Nooh and those who were with him,

﴿Then it was said: O earth, swallow up your water﴾ that came out of you and that which fell upon you. In other words, swallow up all the water that is on your surface

﴿O sky, cease [your rain]!﴾ They both obeyed the command of Allah; the earth swallowed up its water and the sky stopped sending down rain.

﴿The water subsided﴾ that is, it was absorbed into the earth

﴿and the decree was fulfilled﴾ with the destruction of the disbelievers and the deliverance of the believers.

﴿The ark came to rest on Mount Judi﴾ that is, it settled on that well-known mountain, which is in the land of Mosul

﴿and it was said: Gone are the wicked people﴾ that is, after their destruction, they were followed by curses and imprecations.

﴿Nooh called out to his Lord and said: O Lord, surely my son was one of my family, and surely Your promise is true﴾ that is, You told me: ﴿Take on board a pair from every species, and your family﴾ (11: 40), and You will never break your promise to me.

Perhaps Nooh felt very sad for his son, and Allah had promised to save his family, so he thought that the promise included all of them, both those who believed and those who did not believe. Hence he called upon his Lord in this manner and referred the matter to the wisdom of Allah.

﴿Allah said: O Nooh, he is not one of your family﴾ whom I promised to save

﴿for indeed he was unrighteous in his conduct﴾ that is, you are offering supplication for the salvation of a disbeliever who did not believe in Allah or His Messenger.

﴿So do not ask of Me that of which you have no knowledge﴾ that is, that of which you do not know the outcome, whether it will be good or otherwise.

﴿I admonish you, lest you be among the ignorant﴾ that is, I give you this admonition so that you will be among those who attain perfection and will be saved from the attributes of the ignorant.

Thereupon Nooh greatly regretted his words, and he said: «O my Lord, I seek refuge with You lest I ask of You that of which I have no knowledge. Unless You forgive me and have mercy on me, I will be among the losers».

Forgiveness and mercy will save a person from being among the losers. This indicates that Nooh (ﷺ) had no knowledge that asking his Lord to save his son was forbidden and was included in the words: «And do not plead with Me concerning those who did wrong, for they will surely be drowned» (11: 37). Rather the matter was not clear in his mind and he thought that his son was included in the words «your family».

After it became clear to him that his son was among those for whom he was forbidden to offer supplication or plead,

﴿قَالَ يَنْوُحُ أَهَيْظَ بَسَلِمَ مِنَّا وَبَرَكَتٍ عَلَيْكَ وَعَلَى أُمَمٍ مِمَّنْ مَعَكَ وَأُمَمٌ
سَنَعْتُبُكُمْ ثُمَّ لَنَبْسُقُنَّكُمْ إِنَّهُمْ لَمِنَ أَلْمِمْ﴾ (سورة هود: ٤٨)

11:48. It was said: O Nooh, disembark with safety granted by Us, and with blessings upon you and some of the communities [who will spring from] those who are with you. And there will be [other] communities whom We will allow to enjoy life for a while, then a painful punishment from Us will afflict them.

«It was said: O Nooh, disembark with safety granted by Us, and with blessings upon you and some of the communities [who will spring from] those who are with you» of humans and other species whom he had taken on board with him. Allah blessed them all, until they filled all regions of the earth.

«And there will be [other] communities whom We will allow to enjoy life for a while» on earth

﴿then a painful punishment from Us will afflict them﴾ that is, the saving of these people will not prevent Us from sending punishment on those who disbelieve after that; We will send the punishment upon them, even if they enjoyed life for a little while, then they will be brought to account after that.

﴿تِلْكَ مِنْ أَنْبَاءِ الْغَيْبِ نُوحِيهَا إِلَيْكَ مَا كُنْتَ تَعْلَمُهَا أَنْتَ وَلَا قَوْمُكَ مِنْ قَبْلِ هَذَا فَاصْبِرْ إِنَّ الْعَذَابَ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ﴾ (سورة هود: ٤٩)

11:49. This is an account of the unseen [the distant past], which We reveal to you [O Muhammad]; neither you nor your people had any knowledge of it before this. So be patient, for the best outcome is for those who fear Allah.

Allah said to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), after telling him the story discussed above, which no one could have known except one whom He blessed with His message:

﴿This is an account of the unseen [the distant past], which We reveal to you [O Muhammad]; neither you nor your people had any knowledge of it before this﴾, so they cannot say that he knew it from before. So praise Allah and give thanks to Him, and be patient and steadfast in adhering to the true religion that you are following, and to the straight path, and be patient in calling people to Allah ﴿for the best outcome is for those who fear Allah﴾, those who guard against polytheism and all sins. For you will ultimately prevail over your people, as Nooh prevailed over his people.

﴿وَالْإِلَٰهَ أَخَاهُمْ هُودًا قَالَ يَنْفَوْرُ آعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنَ إِلَٰهٍ غَيْرُهُ إِنِّي أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا مُفْتَرُونَ﴾ (سورة هود: ٥١)

أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٥١﴾ وَنَقُومُوا اسْتَغْفِرُوا رَبَّكُمْ ثُمَّ تُؤْبَئُونَ إِلَيْهِ يُرْسِلِ السَّمَاءَ عَلَيْكُمْ مِدْرَارًا وَيَزِدَّكُمْ قُوَّةً إِلَى قُوَّتِكُمْ وَلَا تَتَوَلَّوْا مُجْرِمِينَ ﴿٥٢﴾ (سورة هود: ٥٠-٥٢)

- 11:50. To 'Ad We sent their brother Hood. He said: O my people, worship Allah; you have no god but He. You are but inventors of falsehood.
- 11:51. O my people, no reward do I ask of you for this; my reward is only with Him Who created me. Will you not then understand?
- 11:52. O my people, seek the forgiveness of your Lord and repent to Him; He will send down upon you abundant rain from the sky, and will add strength to your strength. So do not turn away in sin.

﴿To 'Ad﴾ they were a well-known tribe in the region of the sandy tracts (al-ahqāf) in the land of Yemen.

﴿We sent their brother﴾ in lineage ﴿Hood﴾, so that they would be able to accept what he told them, as they knew that he was truthful. ﴿He said﴾ to them: ﴿O my people, worship Allah; you have no god but He. You are but inventors of falsehood﴾ that is, he instructed them to worship Allah alone and he forbade them to continue with what they were doing of worshipping gods other than Allah. He told them that they had fabricated lies against Allah when they worshipped gods other than Him and regarded it as permissible to do so, and he explained to them that it was obligatory to worship Allah alone and that it was wrong to worship anything other than Him.

Then he told them that they had no reason not to submit to his message, as he said: ﴿O my people, no reward do I ask of you for this﴾ that is, payment from your wealth for what I am calling you to, lest you should say: This man wants to take our wealth. Rather I am calling you and teaching you for free.

﴿my reward is only with Him Who created me. Will you not then understand﴾ what I am calling you to and that there is every reason for you to accept it, and there is no reason to reject it.

«O my people, seek the forgiveness of your Lord» for what you have done in the past

«and repent to Him» sincerely, turning to Allah (ﷻ).

If you do that, «He will send down upon you abundant rain from the sky» that will make your land fertile and cause its produce to become abundant.

«and will add strength to your strength», for they were the strongest of people, hence they said:

«...Who is more powerful than us?...» (Fussilat 41: 15)

So he promised them that if they believed, Allah would add strength to their strength.

«So do not turn away in sin» that is, do not turn away from your Lord in sin, too arrogant to worship Him and transgressing His limits.

﴿قَالُوا يَا هُودُ مَا جِئْتَنَا بِبَيِّنَةٍ وَمَا نَحْنُ بِتَارِكِي آلِهَتِنَا عَنْ قَوْلِكَ وَمَا نَحْنُ لَكَ بِمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٥٣﴾ إِنْ نَقُولُ إِلَّا اعْتَرَاكَ بَعْضُ آلِهَتِنَا بِسُوٍّ قَالَ إِنِّي أَشْهَدُ اللَّهَ وَأَشْهَدُوا أَنِّي بَرِيٌّ مِمَّا تَشْرِكُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾ مِنْ دُونِهِ فَكَيْدُوْنِي جَمِيعًا ثُمَّ لَا تُنْظِرُونَ ﴿٥٥﴾ إِنِّي تَوَكَّلْتُ عَلَى اللَّهِ رَبِّي وَرَبِّكُمْ مَا مِنْ دَابَّةٍ إِلَّا هُوَ آخِذٌ بِنَاصِيَتِهَا إِنَّ رَبِّي عَلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٥٦﴾ فَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَقَدْ أَبْلَغْتُكُمْ مَا أُرْسِلْتُ بِهِ إِلَيْكُمْ وَسَنُخْلِفُ رَبِّي قَوْمًا غَيْرَكُمْ وَلَا تَضُرُّوهُمْ شَيْئًا إِنَّ رَبِّي عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ حَفِیْظٌ ﴿٥٧﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ٥٣-٥٧)

11:53. They said: O Hood, you have not brought us any clear sign; we are not going to forsake our gods at your behest, nor will we believe in you.

11:54. We can only say that some of our gods have afflicted you with evil [madness]. He said: I call Allah to witness, and you too are my witnesses, that I disavow all those whom you ascribe as partners

- 11:55. to Allah. So scheme against me, all of you, and give me no respite.
- 11:56. I put my trust in Allah, my Lord and your Lord. There is no living creature but He holds it [in His control] by its forelock. Verily my Lord is on a straight path.
- 11:57. If you turn away, still I have conveyed to you that with which I was sent to you. My Lord will cause other people to replace you, and not the least harm will you do to Him. For my Lord watches over all things.

---

«They said», rejecting his words:

«O Hood, you have not brought us any clear sign». If what they meant by a clear sign was the sign that they suggested, that was not necessary in order to prove the truth, for all that is required is for the Prophet to bring a sign that confirms the soundness of the message he brings. But if what they meant was that he had not brought any signs that testified to the soundness of what he was saying, then they were lying, for no Prophet came to his people but Allah sent at his hands signs that would usually be sufficient for people to believe. If he had no sign except his calling them to devote their worship to Allah alone, with no partner or associate, and the command to do all good deeds and attain all good attitudes, and the prohibition on all blameworthy characteristics such as ascribing partners to Allah, committing obscenities and wrongdoing, and all kinds of objectionable matters, in addition to what Hood (عليه السلام) himself had of attributes that could not be obtained except by the best and most sincere of people, that would have been sufficient evidence and proof of his sincerity.

Indeed those who possess reason and understanding will see that this sign is greater than mere extraordinary feats that some people may think are the only real miracles. One of the signs and proofs of Hood's truthfulness is that he was one person, on his own, with no supporters or helpers, and he was shouting out, calling his people and proving them to be helpless, saying to them: ﴿I put my trust in Allah, my Lord and your Lord﴾ (11: 56), ﴿I call Allah to witness, and you too are my witnesses, that I disavow all those whom you ascribe as partners to Allah. So scheme against me, all of you, and give me no respite﴾ (11: 54-55). They were the enemies who had the upper hand, and they wanted to extinguish what he had of light by any possible means, but he did not care about them and paid them no heed, for they were helpless and were unable to do him any harm. In that there are signs for people who understand.

Their words ﴿we are not going to forsake our gods at your behest﴾ (11: 53) mean: we will not give up worshipping our gods just because of what you said, for which there is no proof – or so they claimed ﴿nor will we believe in you﴾. They were telling their Prophet Hood (ﷺ) to give up all hope of them ever believing, and that they would continue to wander blindly in their disbelief.

﴿We can only say﴾ concerning you ﴿that some of our gods have afflicted you with evil [madness]﴾ that is, they have afflicted you with insanity, so you have started to murmur things that cannot be understood. Glory be to the One Who put a seal on the hearts of the evildoers, who regarded the most truthful of people, who brought the truest of truth, as being of such a lowly status, and any wise man would refrain from repeating what they said about him, were it not that Allah has told us about it in His Book.

Hence Hood (ﷺ) explained to them that he was very confident that no harm would reach him from them or from their gods, as he said: ﴿I call Allah to witness, and you too are my witnesses, that I disavow all those whom you ascribe as partners to Allah. So scheme against me, all of you﴾ that is, try – all of you – to do me harm by all possible means at your disposal ﴿and give me no respite﴾.

﴿I put my trust in Allah﴾ that is, I rely in all of my affairs on Allah

﴿my Lord and your Lord﴾ that is, He is the Creator of all, and is in control of us and you, and it is He Who takes care of us.

﴿There is no living creature but He holds it [in His control] by its forelock﴾ so it cannot move or halt except by His leave. If all of you came together to harm me, but Allah did not give you power over me, you would not be able to do that; if He did give you power, it would be for some good reason known to Him.

﴿Verily my Lord is on a straight path﴾ that is, He is just, fair, wise and praiseworthy in all that He decrees of laws and commands, and in His requital, reward and punishment. His deeds do not go beyond that straight path, for which He is to be praised.

﴿If you turn away﴾ from what I am calling you to ﴿still I have conveyed to you that with which I was sent to you﴾, after which I have no further responsibility towards you.

﴿My Lord will cause other people to replace you﴾ who will worship Him and not ascribe any partner to Him

﴿and not the least harm will you do to Him﴾ because your harm will only backfire on you, for the sins of the disobedient do not harm Him, just as the obedience of the obedient does not benefit Him.

﴿Whoever does righteous deeds, it is to his own benefit and whoever does evil deeds, it is to his own detriment...﴾ (Fussilat 41: 46)

﴿For my Lord watches over all things﴾.

﴿وَلَعَلَّآ أَتُّرَكَّىٰ هُودًا ۖ وَالدِّينَ ءَامَنُوا مَعَهُ ۚ بِرَحْمَةٍ مِنَّا وَنُبَيِّنُ لَهُم مِّنْ عَذَابٍ غَلِيظٍ ۝٥٨ وَتِلْكَ ءَاثَارُ مَا كُنَّا فَعَلُوا بِرَبِّهِمْ وَعَصَوْا رُسُلَهُ ۚ وَاتَّبَعُوا أَمْرَ كُلِّ جَبَّارٍ عَنِيدٍ ۝٥٩ وَأَنبَعَا فِي هَذِهِ الدُّنْيَا لَعْنَةً ۖ وَيَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ ءَلَا إِنَّا كَفَرُوا بِرَبِّهِمْ ءَلَا بُعْدَ لِعَادِ قَوْمِ هُودٍ ۝٦٠﴾ (سورة هود: ٥٨-٦٠)

- 11:58. When Our command came, We saved Hood and those who believed with him, by Our mercy; We saved them from a harsh punishment.
- 11:59. Such were the people of 'Ād; they rejected the signs of their Lord, disobeyed His Messengers and followed the command of every obstinate tyrant.
- 11:60. They were overtaken by a curse in this world, and [they will be cursed] on the Day of Resurrection. Verily, 'Ād disbelieved in their Lord. So away with 'Ād, the people of Hood!

«When Our command came» that is, Our punishment, by sending the devastating wind, that:

«...spared nothing it came upon, but it reduced it to ruin and decay.»
(adh-Dhāriyāt 51: 42)

«We saved Hood and those who believed with him, by Our mercy; We saved them from a harsh punishment» that is, a great and severe punishment that Allah sent upon 'Ād, and when morning came there was nothing to be seen besides their ruined dwellings (cf. 46: 25).

«Such were the people of 'Ād» upon whom Allah sent that punishment because of their wrongdoing, for they «rejected the signs of their Lord», when they said to Hood: «you have not brought us any clear sign» (11: 53). Thus it became clear that they were certain of his call, but they stubbornly denied it «disobeyed His Messengers» because whoever disobeys one Messenger has disobeyed all of the Messengers, for their call is one «and followed the command of every obstinate tyrant» who persecuted the slaves of Allah and persisted in rejecting the signs of Allah. So they disobeyed everyone who sincerely cared about them, but they followed every insincere one who wanted to bring them doom. No wonder Allah destroyed them.

«They were overtaken by a curse in this world» in every time and generation, for there will be mention of their evil news and ugly deeds, and they will be condemned

﴿and [they will be cursed] on the Day of Resurrection﴾ too.

﴿Verily, 'Ād disbelieved in their Lord﴾ that is, they denied the One Who created them, granted them provision and took care of them.

﴿So away with 'Ād, the people of Hood!﴾ That is, may Allah send them far away from all that is good and bring them nearer all that is evil.

﴿وَإِلَى ثَمُودَ أَخَاهُمْ صَالِحًا قَالَ يَفْقَرُوا أَعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ إِلَهٍ غَيْرُهُ هُوَ أَنشَأَكُمْ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ وَاسْتَعْمَرَكُمْ فِيهَا فَاسْتَغْفِرُوهُ ثُمَّ تَوَلَّوْا إِلَيْهِ بِإِنَّ رَيْبَ قَرِيبٍ يُجِيبُ ﴿٦١﴾ قَالُوا يَصْلِحُ قَدْ كُنْتَ فِينَا مَرْجُوًّا قَبْلَ هَذَا أَتَنْهَانَا أَنْ نَعْبُدَ مَا يَعْبُدُ آبَاؤُنَا وَإِنَّنَا لَفِي شَكٍّ مِمَّا تَدْعُونَا إِلَيْهِ مُرِيبٍ ﴿٦٢﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ٦١-٦٢)

11:61. To Thamood, We sent their brother Sâlih. He said: O my people, worship Allah; you have no god but He. It is He Who created you from the earth and caused you to dwell therein. So seek His forgiveness and repent to Him, for verily my Lord is Ever Near, Responsive.

11:62. They said: O Sâlih, great were the hopes we placed in you before this. Do you [now] forbid us to worship that which our forefathers worshipped? Indeed we are in grave doubt about that to which you are calling us.

﴿To Thamood﴾ they were the second 'Ād, the well-known tribe who dwelled in al-Hijr (the Rocky Tract) and the Valley of al-Qurā.

﴿We sent their brother﴾ in lineage ﴿Sâlih﴾, the slave of Allah and His Messenger, who called them to worship Allah alone.

﴿He said: O my people, worship Allah﴾ and affirm His oneness, and devote your worship sincerely to Him alone

﴿you have no god but He﴾ among the inhabitants of either the heavens or the earth.

﴿It is He Who created you from the earth and caused you to dwell therein﴾, and He bestowed blessings upon you, both visible and hidden, and gave you the means to establish yourselves on earth, build structures, plant trees and crops, farm it however you wished, benefit from it in different ways and make use of its resources. As He has no partner in all of that, do not ascribe partners to Him in worship.

﴿So seek His forgiveness﴾ for what you have committed of disbelief, ascription of partners to Him and sin, and give up these deeds

﴿and repent to Him﴾ that is, turn back to Him by repenting sincerely ﴿for verily my Lord is Ever Near, Responsive﴾ that is, He is near to the one who calls upon Him and asks of Him, or who offers supplication as an act of worship; He responds by giving him what he asks for, and accepting his worship and granting him the best of rewards for it.

It should be understood that Allah's nearness is of two types: general and specific. In general terms, He is near to all people by His knowledge. This is what is referred to in the verse in which He says:

﴿...We are closer to him than his jugular vein.﴾ (Qāf 50: 16)

In specific terms, He is close to those who worship Him, ask of Him and love Him. This is what is mentioned in the verse

﴿...Prostrate [in prayer] and draw near [to Allah].﴾ (al-'Alaq 96: 19)

– in the verse under discussion here, and in the verse

﴿When My slaves ask you concerning Me, I am indeed close [to them]; I answer the call of the caller when he calls on Me...﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 186)

This type of closeness leads to the bestowal of Allah's mercy, His response to their supplications and His fulfilment of their hopes. Hence He mentions His name the ﴿Ever Near﴾ alongside His name the ﴿Responsive﴾.

When their Prophet Ṣāliḥ instructed them and encouraged them to be devoted to Allah alone, they rejected his call and responded in the worst manner.

«They said: O Ṣāliḥ, great were the hopes we placed in you before this» that is, we had hoped that you would be wise and bring benefit to us. This testimony on their part in favour of their Prophet indicates that they still acknowledged his good attitude and noble character, and that he was one of the best of his people. But when he brought this message to them, that was not in accordance with their corrupt whims and desires, they said these words, the implication of which was: you were good and perfect, but now you have disappointed us and you have reached the point where nothing good is to be expected from you.

The problem was, as they said: «Do you [now] forbid us to worship that which our forefathers worshipped?» This was the main factor that undermined Ṣāliḥ's character in their view: how could he cast aspersions on their rationality and that of their misguided fathers? How could he tell them not to worship that which could neither bring benefit nor ward off harm nor avail them anything, that was made of stone, wood and the like?

And he instructed them to devote their worship only to Allah their Lord, Who never stopped bestowing blessings upon them and granting them favours; they had no blessing but it was from Him and none ward off harm from them except Him.

«Indeed we are in grave doubt about that to which you are calling us» that is, we are still doubtful and suspicious about that to which you are calling us. According to them, if they knew it was sound they would have followed it. But this was a lie, so Ṣāliḥ pointed out that they were lying:

﴿قَالَ يَنْقُومُ أَرْءَيْتُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُ عَلَىٰ بَيِّنَةٍ مِّن رَّبِّي وَءَاتَنِي مِنْهُ رَحْمَةً فَمَن يَضُرُّنِي مِنَ اللَّهِ إِنْ عَصَيْتُهُ، فَمَا تَزِيدُونَنِي غَيْرَ تَخْسِيرٍ ﴿١٢﴾ وَيَنْقُومُ هَذِهِ نَاقَةُ اللَّهِ لَكُمْ

ءَايَةً فَذَرُوهَا تَأْكُلْ فِي أَرْضِ اللَّهِ وَلَا تَمْسُوهَا يُسُوءَ فَيَأْخُذْكَ عَذَابٌ قَرِيبٌ ﴿٦٤﴾
 فَعَقَرُوهَا فَقَالَ تَمَتَّعُوا فِي دَارِكُمْ ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ ذَلِكَ وَعْدٌ غَيْرُ مَكْذُوبٍ ﴿٦٥﴾
 (سورة هود: ٦٣-٦٥)

- 11:63. He said: O my people, what do you think, if I am relying on clear proof from my Lord, and He has bestowed on me mercy from Himself – then who would protect me from Allah, if I were to disobey Him? What you are offering me is no more than perdition.
- 11:64. O my people, this is the she-camel of Allah, a sign unto you. So leave her to graze in the land of Allah, and do not harm her in any way, or else an imminent punishment will overtake you.
- 11:65. But they hamstrung her, so he said: Enjoy life in your worldly abodes for [another] three days. This is a promise that will not be belied.

«He said: O my people, what do you think, if I am relying on clear proof from my Lord» that is, evidence and certainty
 «and He has bestowed on me mercy from Himself» that is, He has blessed me with His message and revelation, so should I follow you in the path you are on and to which you are calling me?
 «then who would protect me from Allah, if I were to disobey Him? What you are offering me is no more than perdition» that is, loss, doom and harm.

«O my people, this is the she-camel of Allah, a sign unto you» she had a day to drink from the well, then all of them could drink from her udder, and they had a day to drink at the well.
 «So leave her to graze in the land of Allah» that is, you are not responsible for her maintenance and feeding
 «and do not harm her in any way» that is, by hamstringing her
 «or else an imminent punishment will overtake you».

«But they hamstrung her, so he said» that is, Ṣâliḥ said to them: «Enjoy life in your worldly abodes for [another] three days. This is a promise that will not be belied»; rather it will inevitably come to pass.

﴿ فَلَمَّا جَاءَ أَمْرُنَا بَنَيْنَا صَلَاحًا وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مَعَهُ بِرَحْمَةٍ مِنَّا وَمِن خِزْيِ
يَوْمِئِذٍ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ الْقَوِيُّ الْعَزِيزُ ﴾ ٦٦ ﴿ وَأَخَذَ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا الصَّيْحَةَ فَأَصْبَحُوا فِي
دِيَارِهِمْ جِثْمِينَ ﴾ ٦٧ ﴿ كَان لَمْ يَنْفَعُوا فِيهَا أَلَا إِنَّ شِعْمُكَ كَفَرُوا رَبَّهُمْ أَلا بُعْدًا لِشِعْمُكَ
(سورة هود: ٦٦-٦٨) ﴾ ٦٨

- 11:66. When Our command came, We saved Ṣâliḥ and those who believed with him, by Our mercy, and [saved them] from the disgrace of that day. Verily your Lord is the Strong, the Almighty.
- 11:67. The blast overtook the wrongdoers, and morning found them lying lifeless in their homes,
- 11:68. as if they had never lived there. Verily Thamood disbelieved in their Lord. So away with Thamood!

«When Our command came», that the punishment was to befall them

«We saved Ṣâliḥ and those who believed with him, by Our mercy, and [saved them] from the disgrace of that day» that is, We saved them from the punishment, disgrace and shame.

«Verily your Lord is the Strong, the Almighty» by His might and power, He destroyed the evildoing nations and saved their Messengers and their followers.

«The blast overtook the wrongdoers»; it was a mighty blast that caused their hearts to stop

«and morning found them lying lifeless in their homes» that is, immobile and not moving.

﴿as if they had never lived there﴾ that is, when the punishment came to them, it was as if they had never enjoyed life in their homes and had never known any good times, for all delight left them and they were overtaken by the eternal punishment that will never end, and it is as if it had always been with them.

﴿Verily Thamood disbelieved in their Lord﴾ that is, they denied Him after the clear signs came to them

﴿So away with Thamood!﴾ How doomed and humiliated they were. We seek refuge with Allah from punishment and disgrace in this world.

﴿وَلَقَدْ جَاءَتْ رُسُلُنَا إِبْرَاهِيمَ بِالْبُشْرَىٰ قَالُوا سَلَامًا قَالَ سَلَامٌ فَمَا لَبِثَ أَنْ جَاءَ
بِعِجْلٍ خَنِيدٍ ﴿٦٩﴾ فَلَمَّا رَأَىٰ أَيْدِيَهُمْ لَا تَصِلُ إِلَيْهِ نَكِرَهُمْ وَأَوْجَسَ مِنْهُمْ خِيفَةً
قَالُوا لَا تَخَفْ إِنَّا أُرْسِلْنَا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِ لُوطٍ ﴿٧٠﴾ وَامْرَأَتُهُ قَابِئَةُ فَضَحَكَتْ فَبَشَّرْنَاهَا بِإِسْحَاقَ
وَمِنْ وَرَاءِ إِسْحَاقَ يَعْقُوبَ ﴿٧١﴾ قَالَتْ يَتُولى ۖ أَلِدُ وَأَنَا عَجُوزٌ وَهَذَا بَعْلِي شَيْخًا إِنَّ
هَذَا لَشَيْءٌ عَجِيبٌ ﴿٧٢﴾ قَالُوا أَنْعَجِينَ مِنَ أَمْرِ اللَّهِ رَحِمْتُ اللَّهُ وَبَرَكَتُهُ عَلَيْهِمْ أَهْلَ
الْبَيْتِ إِنَّهُ حَمِيدٌ مُّجِيدٌ ﴿٧٣﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ٦٩-٧٣)

- 11:69. Our messengers [angels] came to Ibrâheem with glad tidings. They bade him peace; he answered: [And upon you be] peace. And he hastened to bring them a roasted calf.
- 11:70. But when he saw that their hands did not reach out towards it, he had misgivings about them and conceived a fear of them. They said: Fear not; we have been sent to the people of Loot.
- 11:71. His wife, who was standing nearby, laughed. Then We gave her the glad tidings of Is-hâq and, after Is-hâq, of Ya'qoob.
- 11:72. She said: Alas for me! How can I bear a child when I am an old woman, and this husband of mine is an old man? That would be a strange thing indeed!

11:73. They said: Do you marvel at the decree of Allah? May the mercy and blessings of Allah be upon you, O members of this household.<sup>13</sup> Verily He is Praiseworthy, Glorious.

﴿Our messengers [angels] came to Ibrâheem﴾, the close friend (Khaleel) of Allah

﴿with glad tidings﴾ that is, with the glad tidings of a son. When Allah sent them to destroy the people of Loot, He instructed them to pass by Ibrâheem and give him the glad tidings of Is-hâq. When they entered upon him, ﴿They bade him peace; he answered: [And upon you be] peace﴾ that is, they greeted him and he returned the greeting.

This indicates that it is prescribed to give the greeting of salâm; this has been the case since the time of Ibrâheem. The greeting should be given before speaking, and the response should be better than the initial greeting.

﴿And he﴾ namely Ibrâheem ﴿hastened to bring them a roasted calf﴾ that is, he rushed to his house and prepared for his guests a fat calf that was roasted on hot stones. He brought it to them and said to them: Will you not eat?

﴿But when he saw that their hands did not reach out towards it﴾ that is, towards that food

﴿he had misgivings about them and conceived a fear of them﴾ and he thought that they had come to him for some evil purpose and with the intent of doing him some harm. That was before he found out who they were and why they had come.

﴿They said: Fear not; we have been sent to the people of Loot﴾ that is, we are messengers from Allah; Allah has sent us to destroy the people of Loot.

<sup>13</sup> ﴿members of this household﴾ refers to the family of Ibrâheem.

﴿His wife, who was standing nearby﴾ to serve his guests ﴿laughed﴾ out of amazement, when she heard who they were and what they had been sent to do.

﴿Then We gave her the glad tidings of Is-hâq and, after Is-hâq, of Ya‘qoob﴾. She was amazed at that, and said:

﴿Alas for me! How can I bear a child when I am an old woman, and this husband of mine is an old man?﴾ These were two impediments to having a child

﴿That would be a strange thing indeed!﴾.

﴿They said: Do you marvel at the decree of Allah?﴾ There is nothing strange in His decree, for His will is always done. So there is nothing strange about what His might and power may do, especially with regard to what He decides and decrees for the members of this blessed household.

﴿May the mercy and blessings of Allah be upon you, O members of this household﴾ that is, may His mercy, kindness and blessings always be upon you. This refers to even more of His goodness and kindness, and more divine blessings.

﴿upon you, O members of this household. Verily He is Praiseworthy, Glorious﴾ that is, He is Praiseworthy in His attributes, because His attributes are attributes of perfection; He is Praiseworthy in His deeds, for His deeds are deeds of kindness, generosity, wisdom, justice and fairness.

﴿Glorious﴾ Glory refers to the greatness and all-encompassing nature of His attributes, for they are attributes of perfection. His are the most perfect and complete of all attributes.

﴿فَلَمَّا ذَهَبَ عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ الرَّوْعُ وَجَاءَتْهُ الْبَشَرَىٰ يُجَادِلُنَا فِي قَوْمِ لُوطٍ ﴿٧٤﴾ إِنَّ إِبْرَاهِيمَ لَحَلِيمٌ أَوَّهٌ مِّنْبِيبٍ ﴿٧٥﴾ يَتَذَكَّرُ لَهُمْ أَعْرِضْ عَنْ هَذَا إِنَّهُ قَدْ جَاءَ أَمْرُ رَبِّكَ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَنَا بِهِمْ عَذَابٌ عَزِيزٌ مَّرْدُودٍ ﴿٧٦﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ٧٤-٧٦)

- 11:74. When Ibrâheem's fear had subsided, and the glad tidings had reached him, he began to plead with Us for the people of Loot.
- 11:75. Verily Ibrâheem was forbearing, humble in supplication, penitent.
- 11:76. O Ibrâheem, cease your pleading, for verily the decree of your Lord has gone forth; verily there is coming to them a punishment that cannot be averted.

«When Ibrâheem's fear» of his guests «had subsided, and the glad tidings had reached him» of a child, he began to argue with the messengers about the destruction of the people of Loot, and he said to them:

«...But Loot is there! They said: We know full well who is there. We will surely save him and his family, except his wife...» (al- 'Ankaboot 29: 32)

«Verily Ibrâheem was forbearing» that is, he had a good attitude and was patient and big-hearted; he did not get angry with the ignorance of the ignorant

«humble in supplication» that is, he would humbly beseech Allah at all times

«penitent» that is, he constantly turned back to Allah by knowing Him and loving Him, and by turning to Him and turning away from all others but Him. Hence he argued on behalf of those whom Allah decreed were to be destroyed.

So it was said to him: «O Ibrâheem, cease your pleading» and arguing

«for verily the decree of your Lord has gone forth» that they are to be destroyed

«verily there is coming to them a punishment that cannot be averted», so there is no point in arguing.

﴿وَلَمَّا جَاءَتْ رُسُلُنَا لُوطًا سِئَ بِهِمْ وَضَاقَ بِهِمْ ذَرْعًا وَقَالَ هَذَا يَوْمٌ عَصِيبٌ ﴿٧٧﴾ وَجَاءَهُ قَوْمُهُ يُهْرَعُونَ إِلَيْهِ وَمِنْ قَبْلُ كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ السَّيِّئَاتِ قَالَ يَنْفَوِرْ هُنَآءَ بَنَاتِي هُنَّ أَطْهَرُ لَكُمْ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَلَا تُخْزُونِ فِي ضَيْفِي أَلَيْسَ مِنْكُمْ رَجُلٌ رَشِيدٌ ﴿٧٨﴾ قَالُوا لَقَدْ عَلِمْتَ مَا لَنَا فِي بَنَاتِكَ مِنْ حَقٍّ وَإِنَّكَ لَلْعَٰلَمِ مَا تُرِيدُ ﴿٧٩﴾ قَالَ لَوْ أَنَّ لِي بِكُمْ قُوَّةٌ أَوْ إِيَّايَ إِلَىٰ رُكْنٍ شَدِيدٍ ﴿٨٠﴾ قَالُوا يَلُوطُ إِنَّا رُسُلُ رَبِّكَ لَنْ يَصِلُوا إِلَيْكَ فَأَسْرِ بِأَهْلِكَ بِقِطْعٍ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ وَلَا يَلْنَفِتْ مِنْكُمْ أَحَدٌ إِلَّا أَمْرَانِكَ إِنَّهُ مُصِيبُهَا مَا أَصَابَهُمْ إِنَّ مَوْعِدَهُمُ الصُّبْحُ أَلَيْسَ الصُّبْحُ بِقَرِيبٍ ﴿٨١﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ٧٧-٨١)

- 11:77. When Our messengers came to Loot, he was perturbed by their coming and felt troubled on their account, and he said: This is a distressing day.
- 11:78. His people came running towards him, for they had long been accustomed to evil practices. He said: O my people, here are my daughters; they are purer for you.<sup>14</sup> Fear Allah and do not put me to shame by wronging my guests. Is there not among you even one right-minded man?
- 11:79. They said: You know that we have no need of your daughters. You know very well what we want!
- 11:80. Loot said: Would that I had the strength to stop you or that I could have recourse to some powerful support.
- 11:81. [The angels] said: O Loot, we are messengers of your Lord; they will never be able to harm you. So depart with your family in the dead of night – and let none of you look back – except your wife; she will suffer the same fate as the others. Verily their appointed time is the morning; is not the morning nigh?

<sup>14</sup> What is meant by «my daughters» is 'the daughters of my nation'. Loot was urging his people to give up their immoral ways and marry women in a lawful and pure manner.

«When our messengers» who had left Ibrâheem came to Loot, he was perturbed by their coming» that is, he was distressed by their coming and felt troubled on their account, and he said: This is a distressing day» that is, he was very upset and worried, because he knew that his people would not leave them alone, for they had come in the form of beardless young men of the utmost physical perfection and beauty, and what crossed his mind indeed happened.

«His people came running towards him» that is, they came rushing, wanting to commit with his guests the evil deeds that they were accustomed to. Hence Allah says: «for they had long been accustomed to evil practices» that is, immoral deeds that no one in the world had ever committed before them.

«He said: O my people, here are my daughters; they are purer for you» than my guests. This is like the case when Sulaymân (ﷺ) suggested to the two women that he should cut in half the child over whom they were disputing, in order to find out the truth, because he knew that his daughters were well protected from them and that they had no right to them; rather his greater aim was to ward off these grave immoral acts.

«Fear Allah and do not put me to shame by wronging my guests» that is, you should either pay attention to fearing Allah, or you should be kind to me with regard to my guests, and not disgrace me before them. «Is there not among you even one right-minded man» who will tell you not to do this and rebuke you? This indicates that they were completely devoid of goodness and dignity.

«They said» to him:

«You know that we have no need of your daughters. You know very well what we want!» That is, we only want men and we have no desire for women.

Hence Loot (لُوطٌ) grew even more anxious, and said: «Would that I had the strength to stop you or that I could have recourse to some powerful support» such as a powerful tribe who could stop you.

This was with regard to tangible means, otherwise he was turning to the strongest and most powerful support, namely Allah, Whose might none can resist.

Hence when the matter reached an impasse and his distress became very great, «[The angels] said: O Loot, we are messengers of your Lord» that is, they told him who they were, in order to reassure him «they will never be able to harm you». Then Jibreel moved his wing and put out their eyes, and they began to threaten Loot about the coming of the morning, so the angels instructed Loot to take his family and depart at night:

«So depart with your family in the dead of night» that is, in the middle of the night, long before dawn, so that they could get far away from their city.

«and let none of you look back» that is, hasten to leave and let your main concern be salvation from the punishment; do not turn round to look behind you.

«except your wife; she will suffer the same fate» that is, punishment «as the others», because she was a partner with her people in their sin; she would tell them about the guests of Loot if guests came to stay with him.

«Verily their appointed time is the morning» – it is as if Loot wanted to hasten it, so it was said to him: «is not the morning night?»

﴿فَلَمَّا جَاءَ أَمْرُنَا جَعَلْنَا عَلَىٰهَا سَاقِلَهَا وَأَمْطَرْنَا عَلَيْهَا حِجَابَةً مِّن سِجِّيلٍ
﴿٨٢﴾ مِّنْضُودٍ ﴿٨٣﴾ مُّسَوِّمَةٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ وَمَا هِيَ مِنَ الظَّالِمِينَ يَبْعِدُ ﴿٨٢﴾﴾ (سورة

هود: ٨٢-٨٣)

- 11:82. When Our command came, We turned [the cities] upside down and let loose upon them a shower of stones of baked clay, one after another
- 11:83. specifically marked, and kept with your Lord; nor are they ever far from the evildoers.

«When Our command came» that the punishment was to be sent upon them,

«We turned [the cities] upside down and let loose upon them a shower of stones of baked clay» that is, stones of very hot fire.

«one after another», targeting those who ran away from the cities.

«specifically marked» that is, they bore the mark of punishment and wrath

«and kept with your Lord; nor are they ever far from the evildoers» who emulate the deeds of the people of Loot, so let the people beware of doing the same deeds lest the same fate befall them.

﴿وَإِلَىٰ مَدْيَنَ أَخَاهُ شُعَيْبًا قَالَ يَنْقُورُوا أَعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِن إِلَهِ غَيْرِهِ ۖ وَلَا تَنْقُصُوا الْمِكْيَالَ وَالْمِيزَانَ إِنِّي أَرَبُّكُمْ بِخَيْرٍ وَإِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ مُّحِيطٍ ﴿٨٤﴾ وَيَنْقُورُوا أَوْفُوا الْمِكْيَالَ وَالْمِيزَانَ بِالْقِسْطِ ۖ وَلَا تَبْخَسُوا النَّاسَ أَشْيَاءَهُمْ وَلَا تَعْنُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ مُفْسِدِينَ ﴿٨٥﴾ بَقِيَتْ اللَّهُ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِن كُنتُمْ مُّؤْمِنِينَ وَمَا أَنَا عَلَيْكُمْ بِحَفِيظٍ ﴿٨٦﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ٨٤-٨٦)

- 11:84. To Madyan We sent their brother Shu'ayb. He said: O my people, worship Allah; you have no god but He. And do not give short measure or weight. I see you are prospering, but I fear for you the punishment of an overwhelming day.

- 11:85. O my people, give full measure and weight fairly, and do not undermine people's rights and dues, and do not strive to spread mischief in the land.
- 11:86. And that which is left from the provision of Allah [after giving people their dues] is better for you, if you but believe, but I am not your keeper.

﴿To Madyan﴾ they were a well-known tribe who lived in Madyan, in southern Palestine

﴿We sent their brother﴾ in lineage ﴿Shu'ayb﴾ because they knew him and could learn from him.

﴿He said﴾ to them: ﴿O my people, worship Allah; you have no god but He﴾, that is, devote your worship to Him alone. They used to ascribe partners to Allah and, in addition to their polytheism, they used to give short measure and weight. Hence he told them not to do that, as he said:

﴿And do not give short measure or weight﴾; rather be fair and give full measure and weight.

﴿I see you are prospering﴾ that is, I see that you are enjoying many blessings, good health, abundant wealth and children, so give thanks to Allah for what He has given you, and do not be ungrateful for the blessings of Allah, lest they be taken away from you.

﴿but I fear for you the punishment of an overwhelming day﴾ that is, a punishment that will overwhelm you, and none of you will survive.

﴿O my people, give full measure and weight fairly﴾ that is, be fair as you would like to be given fairly,

﴿and do not undermine people's rights and dues﴾ that is, do not reduce people's property, stealing it by giving short measure and weight.

﴿and do not strive to spread mischief in the land﴾ for persisting in sin spoils one's religious commitment, beliefs and interests, both spiritual and worldly, and it leads to destruction of crops and livestock.

«And that which is left from the provision of Allah [after giving people their dues] is better for you» that is, what Allah leaves of provision for you, and what is yours, will suffice you, and you should not have hopes of acquiring something that you do not need when it is very harmful to you.

«if you but believe» then do as faith requires

«but I am not your keeper» that is, I am not keeping a record of your deeds and I am not responsible for them; rather the one who is keeping a record of that is Allah, may He be exalted; as for me, I only convey to you the message with which I have been sent.

﴿قَالُوا يَسْعَىٰ أَصْلُكُمْ أَنْ تَأْمُرَكُمْ أَنْ تَتْرُكَ مَا يَعْبُدُ آبَاؤُنَا أَوْ أَنْ نَفْعَلَ فِي أَمْوَالِنَا مَا نَشَاءُ إِنَّكَ لَأَنْتَ الْحَلِيمُ الرَّشِيدُ ﴾ (سورة هود: ٨٧)

11:87. They said: O Shu'ayb, does your prayer teach you that we should forsake that which our forefathers worshipped, or that we should not do as we please with our wealth? Are you not [supposed to be] the forbearing and right-minded one?

«They said: O Shu'ayb, does your prayer teach you that we should forsake that which our forefathers worshipped» that is, they said this by way of mocking their Prophet and showing that there was no chance that they would respond to his call.

What their words meant was: there is nothing that has made you forbid us to do what we want with our wealth except that you pray to Allah and worship Him; if that is the case, should we then give up what our forefathers used to worship, on the basis of words for which there is no evidence except that it suits you? How can we follow you and give up the ways of our forefathers, who were people of wisdom and reason?

Similarly, what you say does not mean that we should not do with our wealth what you suggest to us of giving full weight and measure and giving others their dues from it. Rather we will continue to do whatever we please with it, because it is our wealth and you have no rights over it.

Hence they said by way of mockery: «Are you not [supposed to be] the forbearing and right-minded one?» That is, are you the one who is supposed to be forbearing and dignified in character, and right minded in your attitude, so that you do not say anything but what is wise and you do not enjoin anything except what is wise, and you do not forbid anything but what is wrong? In other words, what they meant was: you are not like that.

What they meant was to suggest that he had the opposite of these two noble characteristics, and that he was foolish and wrong. In other words: how can you be the forbearing and right-minded one, and our forefathers be the ones who were foolish and wrong?

They said that by way of mocking him and meaning the opposite of what they said, but he was not as they thought he was. Rather he was as they said: his prayer did teach him that he should tell them not to worship that which their misguided forefathers had worshipped, and not to do whatever they pleased with that wealth, for prayer restrains one from shameful and evil acts, and what acts can be more shameful and evil than worshipping something other than Allah, withholding people's dues, or stealing by giving short weight and measure? Shu'ayb (ﷺ) was indeed the forbearing and right-minded one.

﴿ قَالَ يَتَقَوِّمُ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِن كُنتُ عَلَىٰ بَيِّنَةٍ مِّن رَّبِّي وَرَزَقَنِي مِنْهُ رِزْقًا حَسَنًا وَمَا أُرِيدُ أَنْ
أُخَالِفَكُم إِلَىٰ مَّا أَنهَضَكُم عَنْهُ إِن أُرِيدُ إِلَّا الْإِصْلَاحَ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُ وَمَا تَوْفِيقِي
إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَإِلَيْهِ أُنِيبُ ﴾ (سورة هود: ٨٨)

11:88. He said: O my people, what do you think, if I am relying on clear proof from my Lord, and He has bestowed on me goodly provision from Himself? I do not want to do that which I am forbidding you to do; I only want to put things right to the best of my ability. My success depends on Allah alone; in Him I put my trust and to Him I turn.

«He» that is, Shu'ayb said to them: «what do you think, if I am relying on clear proof from my Lord» that is, if I am certain and sure of the validity of the message I have brought
«and He has bestowed on me goodly provision from Himself» that is, Allah has given me different types of wealth, and «I do not want to do that which I am forbidding you to do»; I do not want to forbid you to give short measure and weight, and then do it myself, so that you may become suspicious of me concerning that. Rather if I tell you not to do something, I will be the first to refrain from doing it.

«I only want to put things right to the best of my ability» that is, I have no other aim except that your affairs should be set right and you should attain that which will benefit you; I have no personal aims of my own and I am trying my best for you.

Because what he said could have been taken as a form of self-praise, he balanced it by saying: «My success depends on Allah alone» that is, whatever I succeed in of doing good and whatever I manage to keep away from of evil is only by the help of Allah (ﷻ) and not by my own strength and power.

«in Him I put my trust» that is, I rely on Him in all my affairs and I am certain that He will suffice me
«and to Him I turn» in doing what He has enjoined upon me of various acts of worship, and in growing close to Him by means of all kinds of good deeds.

Based on these two things, a person's well-being will be sound: seeking the help of his Lord and turning to Him, as Allah (ﷻ) says: «So worship Him [alone] and put your trust in Him» (11: 123) and:

«You [alone] we worship, and You [alone] we ask for help.» (al-Fâtiḥah 1: 5)

﴿وَيَنْقُورُ لَا يَجْرِمَنَّكُمْ شِقَاقِي أَنْ يُصِيبَكُمْ مِثْلُ مَا أَصَابَ قَوْمَ نُوحٍ أَوْ قَوْمَ هُودٍ أَوْ قَوْمَ صَالِحٍ وَمَا قَوْمُ لُوطٍ مِنْكُمْ بِبَعِيدٍ﴾ (سورة هود: ٨٩)

11:89. O my people, do not let your enmity towards me cause you to sin, lest there befall you the like of that which befell the people of Nooh, the people of Hood or the people of Ṣāliḥ; nor are the people of Loot so distant from you.

«O my people, do not let your enmity towards me cause you to sin» that is, do not let your differing with me and your resentment towards me prompt you to sin,
 «lest there befall you» a punishment
 «the like of that which befell the people of Nooh, the people of Hood or the people of Ṣāliḥ; nor are the people of Loot so distant from you» in place or time.

﴿وَأَسْتَغْفِرُوا رَبَّكُمْ ثُمَّ تُوبُوا إِلَيْهِ إِنَّ رَبِّي رَحِيمٌ وَدُودٌ﴾ (سورة هود: ٩٠)

11:90. Seek the forgiveness of your Lord and repent to Him. Verily my Lord is Most Merciful, Most Loving.

«Seek the forgiveness of your Lord» for what you have committed of sins

«and repent to Him» in the future, for the rest of your life, repenting sincerely and turning to Him by obeying Him and not going against His commands.

«Verily my Lord is Most Merciful, Most Loving» to the one who repents and turns to Him; He has mercy upon him and forgives him, and He accepts his repentance and loves him. What is meant by the divine name the Most Loving is that He loves His believing slaves and they love Him.

﴿قَالُوا يَنْشُعِبُ مَا نُنْفِقُهُ كَثِيرًا مِمَّا نَقُولُ وَإِنَّا لَنَرُكَ فِينَا ضَعِيفًا وَلَوْلَا رَهْمُكَ لَرَجَمْنَاكَ وَمَا أَنْتَ عَلَيْنَا بِعَزِيزٍ﴾ (سورة هود: ٩١)

11:91. They said: O Shu'ayb, we do not understand much of what you say. Indeed, we see how weak you are among us. Were it not for your family, we would have stoned you, for you have no great standing among us.

«They said: O Shu'ayb, we do not understand much of what you say» that is, they showed resentment towards his advice and his exhortations, so they said: «we do not understand much of what you say». That was because of their resentment and aversion towards what he said.

«Indeed, we see how weak you are among us» that is, you are weak in yourself and not one of the leaders or prominent figures; rather you are one of those of low standing.

«Were it not for your family» that is, your tribe

«we would have stoned you, for you have no great standing among us» that is, you are not held in any esteem among us and we have no respect for you; rather we respect your tribe by leaving you alone.

﴿قَالَ يَنْفَقُوا أَرْهَطِي أَعَزُّ عَلَيْكُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَاتَّخَذْتُمُوهُ وَرَاءَكُمْ ظَهْرًا إِنَّ رَبِّي بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ مُحِيطٌ﴾ (٩٢)

تَعْلَمُونَ مَنْ يَأْتِيهِ عَذَابٌ يُخْزِيهِ وَمَنْ هُوَ كَذِبٌ وَأَرْتَقِبُوا إِنِّي مَعَكُمْ
رَقِيبٌ ﴿٩٣﴾ (سورة هود: ٩٢-٩٣)

11:92. He said: O my people, do you hold my family in greater esteem than Allah, whilst you have cast Him away behind your backs? Verily my Lord has full knowledge of all that you do.

11:93. O my people, carry on as you are, and so will I. You will come to know who will receive a punishment that will disgrace him, and who is a liar. Wait; verily, I too am waiting with you.

«He said» to them in a kind manner, seeking to soften their hearts: «O my people, do you hold my family in greater esteem than Allah» that is, how can you be gentle with me because of my family, yet you are not gentle with me for the sake of Allah, so you hold my family in greater esteem than Allah?

«whilst you have cast Him away behind your backs» that is, you have thrown the command of Allah behind your backs and you do not pay any attention to it or fear Him

«Verily my Lord has full knowledge of all that you do» and not even an atom's weight of your deeds is hidden from Him on earth or in heaven. He will requite you in full for what you have done.

When he grew tired and felt that he was not achieving any results with them, he said: «O my people, carry on as you are, and so will I. You will come to know who will receive a punishment that will disgrace him» and he will suffer an eternal punishment

«and who is a liar» me or you? And they did indeed come to know that when the punishment befell them.

«Wait» and see what will happen to me

«I too am waiting with you» to see what will happen to you.

﴿وَلَمَّا جَاءَ أَمْرُنَا نَجَّيْنَا شُعَيْبًا وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مَعَهُ بِرَحْمَةٍ مِنَّا وَأَخَذَتِ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا الصَّيْحَةَ فَأَصْبَحُوا فِي دِيارِهِمْ جثثًا ﴿٩٤﴾ كَأَن لَّمْ يَغْنَوْا فِيهَا ۚ أَلَا بُعْدًا لِّلْعٰلَمِينَ ۚ كَمَا بَعَدَتْ ثَمُودُ ﴿٩٥﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ٩٤-٩٥)

- 11:94. When Our command came, We saved Shu'ayb and those who believed with him, by Our mercy. But the blast overtook the wrongdoers, and morning found them lying lifeless in their homes,
- 11:95. as if they had never lived there. Away with Madyan just like Thamood!

«When Our command came» to destroy the people of Shu'ayb
 «We saved Shu'ayb and those who believed with him, by Our mercy. But the blast overtook the wrongdoers, and morning found them lying lifeless in their homes»; no sound was heard from them and no movement was seen.

«as if they had never lived there» that is, it was as if they had never resided in their homes and had never enjoyed anything there until the punishment came to them.

«Away with Madyan» as Allah destroyed them and disgraced them
 «just like Thamood» that is, these two tribes shared a common fate of doom and destruction.

Shu'ayb (ﷺ) was called the eloquent speaker among the Prophets, because of the eloquent way in which he discussed with his people. We learn many lessons from his story, including the following:

- Just as the disbelievers may be accountable and may be addressed with the fundamentals of Islam, they are also addressed with the laws and minor issues thereof. Shu'ayb called his people to affirm the oneness of Allah and to give full weight and measure, and the warning of punishment was connected to both issues.

- Giving short weight and measure is a major sin and there is the fear of punishment in this world for the one who does that. This action comes under the heading of stealing people's wealth. If stealing from them by giving short weight and measure is subject to this warning, then stealing from them by way of compulsion and force is even more emphatically prohibited.
- Requitil matches the nature of the deed, so the one who gives short measure to people, seeking to increase his own wealth, will be punished with the opposite of that, and it will be a cause of blessing being taken away from his provision, because Shu'ayb said: ﴿I see you are prospering﴾ (11: 84), that is: so do not be the cause of that prosperity being taken away from you because of your deeds.
- The individual should be content with what Allah has given him; he should be content with that which is permissible and with permissible earnings, so that he has no need of that which is prohibited or of prohibited earnings. That is better for him, because Allah says: ﴿And that which is left from the provision of Allah [after giving people their dues] is better for you﴾ (11: 86). Being content with that which is permissible will lead to blessing and increased provision, such as is not found if one persists in prohibited means of earning, which leads to diminishing of provision and the opposite of blessing.
- Being honest in weight and measure is one of the results of faith, because Shu'ayb connected that to faith. This indicates that if there are no righteous deeds, then faith is lacking or absent.
- Prayer had always been prescribed for the earlier Prophets, and it is one of the best of good deeds, to the extent that its virtue is also recognised by the disbelievers and they give it precedence over other deeds. Prayer restrains people from loathsome deeds and from all that is evil (cf. 29: 45), and it is the measure of faith and religious observance. So establishing it in the proper manner completes a person's well-being, but if it is not established properly, it undermines his religious well-being.

- If Allah bestows wealth upon a person – even though Allah has put it under his control – that does not mean that he may do whatever he wishes with it, for it is a trust that has been given to him and he must do what Allah has enjoined upon him with regard to it, by paying what is due from it and refraining from ways of earning that Allah and His Messenger have prohibited. It is not as the disbelievers and others of their ilk claim, that their wealth is theirs to do with as they wish, regardless of whether or not it is in accordance with the rulings of Allah.
- Part of perfecting one's efforts in calling people to Allah is being the first to do whatever one is enjoining others to do and being the first to refrain from whatever one is forbidding them to do, as Shu'ayb said: ﴿I do not want to do that which I am forbidding you to do﴾ (11: 88) and as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere: ﴿O you who believe, why do you say that which you do not do? It is most loathsome to Allah that you say that which you do not do.﴾ (as-Saff 61: 2-3)
- The role, way and character of the Messengers was to put things right to the best of their ability. Hence part of the message is to put things right and perfect them, or to achieve as much of that as possible, and to ward off and reduce evils, giving precedence to public interests over private interests.
The aim of putting things right is so that people's affairs will be put in order and their religious and worldly interests will be sound.
- If a person does whatever he can to put things right, he is not to be blamed or criticised for not doing what he is not able to do. The individual should put right whatever he can in himself and in others, to the best of his ability.

- The individual should not rely on his own devices, not even for the blink of an eye; rather he should always seek the help of his Lord, rely on Him and ask Him for guidance and strength. Whatever success comes to him, he should attribute it to his Lord, Who granted it to him, and he should not indulge in self-admiration, because of the words of Shu'ayb: ﴿My success depends on Allah alone; in Him I put my trust and to Him I turn﴾ (11: 88).
- The stories of warnings of punishment and what happened to the earlier generations should be remembered, and these stories, which tell of the punishments that befell the evildoers, should be mentioned in the context of exhortation and admonition. We should also mention the honours that Allah bestowed upon those who feared Him when encouraging and urging people to fear Allah.
- Just as Allah forgives and pardons one who repents from sin, He also loves him. No attention should be paid to anyone who says that if a person repents, it is sufficient that he is forgiven and pardoned, but divine love is not re-established, because Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Seek the forgiveness of your Lord and repent to Him. Verily my Lord is Most Merciful, Most Loving﴾ (11: 90).
- Allah protects the believers by many means, some of which they may be aware of and others they may know nothing of. He may protect them by means of their tribe or their fellow countrymen who are disbelievers, as Allah protected Shu'ayb from the stoning of his people by means of his family. There is nothing wrong with benefiting from these ties, by means of which Islam and Muslims may be protected; indeed that may be a must, because putting things right is required to the extent of one's ability and what is possible.

Based on that, if Muslims who live under the rule of disbelievers work with others to change the system in a particular country to one that is democratic, which will enable individuals and peoples to attain their religious and worldly rights, that is better than surrendering to a political system in which the state deprives them of their religious and worldly rights and tries to ignore them completely, and in which they will be no more than workers and servants.

Yes, if it is possible for the Muslims to be in power and be the rulers, that is what should be the case. But if that is not possible, then the other scenario (establishing a democratic system), in which there can be protection of religious and worldly affairs, should be given precedence. And Allah knows best.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَىٰ بِآيَاتِنَا وَسُلْطَانٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿١٦٦﴾ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِ، فَاتَّبَعُوا أَمْرَ فِرْعَوْنَ، وَمَا أَمْرُ فِرْعَوْنَ بِرَشِيدٍ ﴿١٦٧﴾ يَقْدُمُ قَوْمَهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فَأَوْرَدَهُمُ النَّارَ وَيَتَسَاءَلُونَ الْمُرُودَ ﴿١٦٨﴾ وَاتَّبِعُوا فِي هَذِهِ، لَعْنَةُ يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ يَتَسَاءَلُونَ الْمَرْفُودَ ﴿١٦٩﴾ ذَلِكَ مِنْ أَنْبَاءِ الْفَرَىٰ نَقُصُّهُ عَلَيْكَ مِنْهَا قَائِمٌ وَحَصِيدٌ ﴿١٧٠﴾ وَمَا ظَلَمْنَاهُمْ وَلَكِنْ ظَلَمُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ فَمَا أَغْنَتْ عَنْهُمْ آلِهَتُهُمُ الَّتِي يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ لَمَّا جَاءَ أَمْرُ رَبِّكَ وَمَا زَادُهُمْ إِلَّا تَتَابَعٌ ﴿١٧١﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ٩٦-١٠١)

11:96. And We sent Moosâ with Our clear signs and compelling proofs

11:97. To Pharaoh and his chiefs. But they followed Pharaoh's orders, and Pharaoh's orders were misguided.

11:98. He will go ahead of his people on the Day of Resurrection and lead them into the fire; how wretched is the place to which they will be led!

11:99. They were overtaken by a curse in this world, and [they will be cursed] on the Day of Resurrection; how wretched is the gift to be given!

- 11:100. These are some of the accounts of the cities which We relate to you [O Muhammad]; of them, some are still standing and some have been mown down.
- 11:101. We did not wrong them; rather they wronged themselves. Their gods, on whom they called besides Allah, availed them nothing when the command of your Lord came; in fact, they only added to their ruin.

---

﴿And We sent Moosâ﴾ ibn ‘Imrân
 ﴿with Our clear signs﴾ that pointed to the truth of the message he brought, such as his staff, his hand and other signs that Allah caused to occur at the hands of Moosâ (ﷺ).

﴿and compelling proofs﴾ that is, evidence that was as clear as day

﴿To Pharaoh and his chiefs﴾ that is, the nobles of his people, because they were the ones who were followed; other people would follow their lead. But they did not submit to the signs that Moosâ brought, which he showed to them as has been explained above in Soorat al-A‘râf.

﴿But they followed Pharaoh’s orders, and Pharaoh’s orders were misguided﴾ – he did not enjoin anything but that which was purely harmful, so it is no wonder that when his people followed him, Pharaoh led them to doom and destruction.

﴿He will go ahead of his people on the Day of Resurrection and lead them into the fire; how wretched is the place to which they will be led!﴾.

﴿They were overtaken by a curse in this world, and [they will be cursed] on the Day of Resurrection﴾ that is, they are cursed by Allah and His angels and by all of humankind in this world and the hereafter. ﴿how wretched is the gift to be given!﴾ That is, how wretched is all that they will receive, as the punishment of Allah and the curses of this world and the hereafter come upon them one after another.

Having mentioned the stories of these nations with their Messengers, Allah (ﷻ) then says to His Messenger (ﷺ): «These are some of the accounts of the cities which We relate to you [O Muhammad]» so that you may give warning and that may be a sign of the soundness of your message, and an exhortation and reminder to the believers

«of them, some are still standing» and have not been destroyed; rather the ruins of their abodes remain to tell something about them «and some have been mown down» that is, their dwellings have been destroyed and vanished utterly, leaving no trace of them.

«We did not wrong them» by sending various punishments upon them

«rather they wronged themselves» by ascribing partners to Allah and stubbornly disbelieving.

«Their gods, on whom they called besides Allah, availed them nothing when the command of your Lord came» this applies to everyone who turns to anything other than Allah; it does not avail them anything when calamity strikes.

«in fact, they only added to their ruin» that is, loss and destruction, the opposite of what they were thinking.

وَكَذَلِكَ أَخْذُ رَبِّكَ إِذَا أَخَذَ الْقُرَىٰ وَهِيَ ظَالِمَةٌ إِنَّ أَخْذَهُ أَلِيمٌ شَدِيدٌ ﴿١٠٢﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّمَن خَافَ عَذَابَ الْآخِرَةِ ذَلِكَ يَوْمٌ تَجْمَعُ لَهُ النَّاسُ وَذَلِكَ يَوْمٌ مَّشْهُودٌ ﴿١٠٣﴾ وَمَا نُؤَخِّرُهُ إِلَّا لِأَجَلٍ مُّعَدَّدٍ ﴿١٠٤﴾ (سورة هود: ١٠٢-١٠٤)

11:102. Such is the punishment of your Lord, when He punishes the cities that are given to wrongdoing; verily His punishment is painful and severe.

11:103. Surely in that there is a sign for those who fear the punishment of the hereafter. That is a day for which all humankind shall be gathered together; that will be a day when all [the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth] will be present.

11:104. Nor do We delay it, but until a time appointed.

«Such is the punishment of your Lord, when He punishes the cities that are given to wrongdoing; verily His punishment is painful and severe» that is, He destroys and eradicates them by means of the punishment, and what they called upon besides Allah will avail them nothing.

«Surely in that» which is mentioned of sending various punishments upon the wrongdoers

«there is a sign for those who fear the punishment of the hereafter» that is, there is a lesson and an indication that those who do wrong and commit evil will have a punishment in this world and a punishment in the hereafter. Then Allah describes the hereafter, as He says: «That is a day for which all humankind shall be gathered together» that is, they will be gathered for that day of requital, and the might, power and great justice of Allah will be made manifest to them in such a way that they will truly know Him.

«that will be a day when all [the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth] will be present» that is, it will be witnessed by Allah, His angels and all created beings.

«Nor do We delay it» that is, the coming of the Day of Resurrection «but until a time appointed». When the time appointed for this world and what Allah has decreed for it of creation comes to an end, at that point He will move them to the hereafter, where He will carry out on them His rulings of requital as He carried out on them His shar'i rulings in this world.

﴿يَوْمَ يَأْتِ لَا تَكَلَّمُ نَفْسٌ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِهِ ۚ فَمِنْهُمْ شَقِيٌّ وَسَعِيدٌ﴾ (سورة هود: ١٠٥)

11:105. When that day comes, no soul will speak except by His leave.
Some among them will be wretched and some will be blessed.

«When that day comes» and all creatures are gathered together
«no soul will speak except by His leave», even the noble Prophets and angels; they will not intercede except by His leave «Some among them» that is, among humankind «will be wretched and some will be blessed» the wretched are those who disbelieved in Allah, rejected His Messengers and disobeyed His command; the blessed are those believers who feared Allah.

﴿فَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ شَقُوا فَيُنَادُونَ فِي النَّارِ هَلْ مِنْ فِيهَا زَفِيرٌ وَشَهِيقٌ﴾ (١٠٦) ﴿خَلِيلَيْتَ فِيهَا مَا دَامَتْ
السَّمَوَاتُ وَالْأَرْضُ إِلَّا مَا شَاءَ رَبُّكَ ۚ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ فَعَّالٌ لِّمَا يُرِيدُ﴾ (سورة هود: ١٠٦-١٠٧)

(١٠٧)

11:106. As for those who are wretched, they will be in the fire, where they will wail and moan.

11:107. They will abide therein for as long as the heavens and the earth endure, except as your Lord wills; your Lord does whatever He wills.

«As for those who are wretched», the recompense will be doom, disgrace and shame
«they will be in the fire» and immersed in its punishment, which will be of the utmost severity
«where» because of their intense suffering

This verse contains a warning against inclining towards any wrongdoer; what is meant by inclining is joining him in his wrongdoing and approving of it or being content with what he does of wrongdoing.

If this warning has to do with inclining towards the wrongdoers, then what about the wrongdoers themselves? We ask Allah to keep us safe and sound from wrongdoing.

﴿وَأَقِمِ الصَّلَاةَ طَرَفِي النَّهَارِ وَزُلْفًا مِنْ اللَّيْلِ إِنَّ الْحَسَنَاتِ يُذْهِبْنَ السَّيِّئَاتِ ذَلِكَ ذِكْرَى لِلذَّاكِرِينَ﴾ (116) ﴿وَأَصْبِرْ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُضِيعُ أَجْرَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ﴾ (115) ﴿سورة هود:

(115-116)

11:114. And establish prayer at the two ends of the day and in some hours of the night. Verily good deeds erase bad deeds. This is a reminder for those who pay heed.

11:115. And be patient and steadfast, for verily Allah will not cause the reward of those who do good to be lost.

Here Allah (ﷻ) commands us to establish prayer in full ﴿at the two ends of the day﴾ that is, at the beginning and end of the day. This includes fajr, dhuhr and 'asr prayers. ﴿and in some hours of the night﴾ this includes maghrib and 'ishâ' prayers, as well as qiyâm al-layl (voluntary prayers at night), which are also one of the means by which a person draws closer to Allah (ﷻ). ﴿Verily good deeds erase bad deeds﴾ that is, these five prayers, and whatever is added to them of voluntary prayers, are among the greatest of good deeds and – in addition to being good deeds – they bring one closer to Allah and earn reward. Hence they erase and cancel out bad deeds, which in this case refers to minor sins, as specified in the ṣaḥeeḥ hadiths from the Prophet (ﷺ), such as the hadith in which he says:

«The five daily prayers, from one Jumu'ah to another, and from one Ramadan to another, expiate whatever (sins) come in between, so long as major sins are avoided.» (Muslim)

In fact, it is also specified by the verse in Soorat an-Nisâ', in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

«If you abstain from the major [sins] out of what you have been forbidden to do, We will erase your [minor] sins for you and admit you to a place of honour [paradise].» (an-Nisâ' 4: 31)

«This» it may be that this refers to all that is mentioned above of the obligation to adhere to the straight path and not transgress and go beyond that, and not to incline towards those who do wrong, as well as the command to establish prayer and the explanation that good deeds erase bad deeds. All of that is «a reminder for those who pay heed», from which they understand what Allah has enjoined upon them and what He has forbidden, and they comply with those instructions which lead to good results and ward off evil and bad consequences. But these commands require effort and patience in order to comply with them, hence Allah says:

«And be patient and steadfast» that is, control yourself and compel yourself to obey Allah and refrain from disobeying Him; adhere to that and persist in it, and do not falter.

«for verily Allah will not cause the reward of those who do good to be lost»; rather Allah accepts from them the best of their deeds and will reward them for the best of what they used to do. This is great encouragement to adhere to patience which will motivate people of weak resolve to remember the reward of Allah every time they falter.

﴿فَلَوْلَا كَانَ مِنَ الْقُرُونِ مِن قَبْلِكُمْ أُولُوا بَقِيَّةَ يَهُودَ عَنِ الْفَسَادِ فِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا مِّمَّنْ آمَنَّا مِنْهُمْ وَاتَّبَعَ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مَا أُتْرِفُوا فِيهِ وَكَانُوا مُجْرِمِينَ﴾

(سورة هود: ١١٦) ﴿١١٦﴾

11:116. There were not, among the nations that came before you, any people of virtue and understanding who would forbid others to spread mischief in the land, except a few among them whom We saved. But those who did wrong pursued the ease and comfort which had been conferred upon them, and they were evildoers.

---

Earlier in this soorah, Allah mentioned the destruction of the nations who disbelieved in the Messengers, and stated that most of them were deviant, even the people of the divinely revealed Books, all of which could lead to destruction and eradication of religious teachings. In this verse, Allah points out that were it not for the fact that there were some remnants of the past generations who were good people who called others to guidance, and forbade mischief and that which may lead to doom, and some benefit resulted from their efforts, the religious teachings would not have survived at all; but these people were very few.

The conclusion is that they were saved by means of their following the Messengers and adhering to their religion, and because Allah caused His proof and evidence to be established at their hands, so that those who chose to perish (by choosing disbelief) might do so after seeing clear evidence, and those who chose to live (by choosing faith) might do so after seeing clear evidence (cf. 8: 42).

﴿But those who did wrong pursued the ease and comfort which had been conferred upon them﴾ that is, they pursued what they had been used to of a life of ease and luxury, and they did not want anything else ﴿and they were evildoers﴾ that is, they did wrong by pursuing a life of ease and comfort, hence they deserved the punishment and the punishment eradicated them. This is encouragement to this Ummah, that there should be among them a remnant who put right what people corrupt, adhere to the religion of Allah, call those who go astray to come back to true guidance, bear with patience the harm that people do to them, and try to guide them after they have been heedless. This is the highest position that a person could aspire to; the one who attains that will be a leader in religion, if he makes his deeds sincerely for the sake of the Lord of the worlds.

﴿وَمَا كَانَ رَبُّكَ لِيُهْلِكَ الْقُرَىٰ بِظُلْمٍ وَأَهْلِهَا مُصْلِحُونَ﴾ (سورة هود: ١١٧)

(١١٧)

11:117. Your Lord would never have destroyed the cities unjustly, so long as their people were acting righteously.

That is, Allah would not have destroyed the people of the cities unjustly if they had been acting righteously and persisting in that. Allah would not have destroyed them unless they did wrong and proof was established against them.

It may be that what is meant is that your Lord would not have destroyed the cities for their previous wrongdoing if they had repented and mended their ways; in that case Allah would have pardoned them and erased their previous sins.

﴿وَلَوْ شَاءَ رَبُّكَ لَجَعَلَ النَّاسَ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً وَلَا يَزَالُونَ مُخْتَلِفِينَ﴾ (سورة هود: ١١٨-١١٩)

(سورة هود: ١١٨-١١٩)

11:118. If your Lord had so willed, He could have made humankind one nation. But they will continue to differ, 11:119. except those on whom your Lord has mercy. For that He created them, and the decree of your Lord will be fulfilled: I will certainly fill hell with jinn and men, all together.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that if He had so willed, He could have made all people one nation, following the Islamic religion, for that is not beyond His will and power, for nothing is beyond Him. But His wisdom dictated that they should continue to differ and go against the straight path, following paths that lead to hell, each one thinking that his way is the true way and that misguidance is what others follow.

﴿except those on whom your Lord has mercy﴾, for He guides them to knowledge of the truth and enables them to act upon it and agree upon it. They are the ones who are destined to be blessed, whom divine care and help has reached.

As for the others, they are forsaken and left to their own devices.

﴿For that He created them﴾ that is, His wisdom dictated that he should create them so that among them there would be those who are blessed (destined for paradise) and those who are doomed (destined for hell), those who will be in agreement and those who will differ, the group whom Allah guided and the group who deserved to be misguided, so as to demonstrate His justice and wisdom to His slaves, and to make manifest what is hidden in human nature of good and evil, so that there will be circumstances that require jihad, and acts of worship which cannot be perfected and done properly except through tests and trials.

﴿and﴾ because ﴿the decree of your Lord will be fulfilled: I will certainly fill hell with jinn and men, all together﴾. So it is inevitable that hell will be filled with people who do the deeds that will cause them to enter it.

﴿وَكُلًّا نَقُصُّ عَلَيْكَ مِنْ أَنْبَاءِ الرُّسُلِ مَا نُثَبِّتُ بِهِ فُؤَادَكَ ۚ وَجَاءَكَ فِي هَذِهِ الْحَقُّ ۚ وَمَوْعِظَةٌ وَذِكْرَىٰ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١١٩﴾﴾ وَقُلْ لِلَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ أَعْمَلُوا عَلَىٰ مَكَانَتِكُمْ إِنَّا عَمِلُونَ

﴿١٢١﴾ وَأَنْظِرُوا إِنَّا مُنْظِرُونَ ﴿١٢٢﴾ وَلِلَّهِ غَيْبُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَإِلَيْهِ يُرْجَعُ الْأَمْرُ كُلُّهُ فَاعْبُدْهُ وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَيْهِ وَمَا رَبُّكَ بِغَفِلٍ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٢٣﴾ (سورة هود: ١٢٠-١٢٣)

- 11:120. All that We relate to you of the accounts of the Messengers is so that We may make your heart steadfast thereby; through this, truth has come to you, and an admonition and a reminder to the believers.
- 11:121. Say to those who do not believe: Carry on as you are, and so will we.
- 11:122. And wait; verily, we too are waiting.
- 11:123. To Allah belongs all that is unseen in the heavens and on earth, and to Him all things will return. So worship Him [alone] and put your trust in Him, for your Lord is not unaware of what you do.

Having mentioned in this soorah the stories of some of the Prophets, Allah then tells us of the wisdom behind mentioning those stories, as He says:

﴿All that We relate to you of the accounts of the Messengers is so that We may make your heart steadfast thereby﴾ that is, so that your heart may be reassured and made steadfast and patient, as the Messengers of strong resolve were patient, because hearts feel at ease when they have an example to follow and they will be energised to do righteous deeds, and will want to compete in doing them. So the truth is supported by mentioning the proofs thereof and the large number of people who follow it.

﴿through this﴾ soorah,
 ﴿truth﴾ that is, certainty
 ﴿has come to you﴾, so there can be no doubt concerning it whatsoever, for knowledge thereof is knowledge of the truth which is the greatest virtue that one may attain.

﴿and an admonition and a reminder to the believers﴾ that is, by which they will be reminded and will be deterred from wrong deeds, and they will be reminded of actions that are beloved by Allah, so they will do them.

As for those who are not believers, they will not benefit from the exhortation and various kinds of reminders. Hence Allah says:

﴿Say to those who do not believe﴾, after establishing proof against them

﴿Carry on as you are﴾, doing what you have been doing

﴿and so will we﴾ that is, we shall do likewise.

﴿And wait﴾ and see what will befall us

﴿verily, we too are waiting﴾ to see what will befall you.

Allah passed judgement between the two parties, and demonstrated to His slaves His support for His believing slaves and His suppression of the disbelieving enemies of Allah.

﴿To Allah belongs all that is unseen in the heavens and on earth﴾ that is, whatever is hidden and unseen in them.

﴿and to Him all things will return﴾ of deeds and doers, and He will distinguish the evil from the good.

﴿So worship Him [alone] and put your trust in Him﴾ that is, worship Him, which means doing all that you are able to do of everything that Allah has enjoined, and put your trust in Allah with regard to that.

﴿for your Lord is not unaware of what you do﴾ of good and evil; rather His knowledge encompasses all of that. His pen is recording it and He will judge and requite for it.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat Hood.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

12. Soorat Yoosuf

(Makki)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿الر تِلْكَ آيَاتُ الْكِتَابِ الْمُبِينِ﴾ (١) إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ قُرْآنًا عَرَبِيًّا لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ
﴿نَحْنُ نَقُصُّ عَلَيْكَ أَحْسَنَ الْقَصَصِ بِمَا أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ وَإِنْ
كُنْتَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ لَمِنَ الْغَافِلِينَ﴾ (٢) (سورة يوسف: ١-٣)

12:1. Alif. Lām. Râ'.<sup>15</sup> These are verses of the clear Book.

12:2. Verily, We have sent it down as an Arabic Qur'an so that you may understand.

12:3. We relate to you [O Muhammad] the best of stories, by revealing to you this Qur'an, of which you were unaware before.

---

---

<sup>15</sup> Groups of letters (al-ḥuroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

Here Allah tells us that the verses of the Qur'an are «verses of the clear Book» that is, their words and meanings are clear, and they are so clear because He sent it down in the Arabic language, the noblest and clearest of all languages, which explains everything that people need to know of beneficial and useful facts. All of that clarification and explanation is «so that you may understand» that is, so that you may understand the limits that it sets, and the fundamental and minor issues of which it speaks, and its commands and prohibitions.

If you understand that and become certain of it, and your hearts are filled with knowledge of it, that will lead to physical actions in compliance with it.

«so that you may understand» that is, so that you may increase in understanding by repeating its sublime meanings when you recite it and reflect upon it, thus you will move from one level to another that is higher and more perfect.

«We relate to you [O Muhammad] the best of stories» that is because they are true and expressed in easy language, and they contain sublime meanings.

«by revealing to you this Qur'an» that is, with what is contained in this Qur'an that We have revealed to you and with which We have favoured you over all the other Prophets. This is a pure favour and blessing from Allah.

«of which you were unaware before» that is, you did not know anything about the Qur'an or faith, before Allah sent revelation to you. But We have made it a light by means of which We guide whomever We will of Our slaves.

Having praised what this Qur'an contains of stories, and told us that they are the best of all stories, and there are no stories in any other books that are like the stories in this Qur'an, Allah tells us the story of Yoosuf and his father and his brothers, this beautiful and wondrous story.

﴿إِذْ قَالَ يُوسُفُ لِأَبِيهِ يَا أَبَتِ إِنِّي رَأَيْتُ أَحَدَ عَشَرَ كَوْكَبًا وَالشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ رَأَيْتُهُمْ لِي سَاجِدِينَ﴾ (٤) قَالَ يَبْنَؤُ لَا تَقْصُصْ رُءْيَاكَ عَلَى إِخْوَتِكَ فَيَكِيدُوا لَكَ كَيْدًا إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ لِلْإِنْسَانِ عَدُوٌّ مُبِينٌ ﴿٥﴾ وَكَذَلِكَ يَجْنِيكَ رَبُّكَ وَيُعَلِّمُكَ مِن تَأْوِيلِ الْأَحَادِيثِ وَيُتِمُّ نِعْمَتَهُ عَلَيْكَ وَعَلَىٰ آلِ يَعْقُوبَ كَمَا أَتَمَّهَا عَلَىٰ أَبَوَيْكَ مِن قَبْلُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَإِسْحَاقَ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٦﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٤-٦)

- 12:4. [Remember] when Yoosuf said to his father: O my father, I saw [in a dream] eleven stars, and the sun and the moon; I saw them prostrating to me.
- 12:5. His father said: O my son, say nothing of this dream to your brothers, lest they plot evil against you, for verily the Shayṭān is to man an avowed enemy.
- 12:6. Thus your Lord will choose you and teach you the interpretation of dreams and events, and He will complete His favour to you and to the family of Ya'qoob, as He completed it to your forefathers Ibrâheem and Is-ḥâq before. Verily your Lord is All-Knowing, Most Wise.

It should be noted that Allah states that He tells His Messenger (ﷺ) the best of stories in this Book, then He tells this story and explains it, and tells what happened. Thus it is known that it is a complete, perfect and beautiful story. Whoever wants to augment it or improve on it by narrating what is mentioned in the Isrâ'eeliyât (stories from Jewish forces) that have no known chain of narration or narrator, and most of which are false, thinks he is filling so-called gaps in the story that Allah revealed, and he is trying to perfect something that he claims is lacking! It is sufficient evil for anyone to think in such a manner. Commentaries on this soorah in many books of tafseer are filled with a great deal of lies and abhorrent notions that are, to a large extent, contrary to what Allah (ﷻ) has told us.

People should understand what Allah has told us and ignore everything other than that which was not narrated from the Prophet (ﷺ).

«[Remember] when Yoosuf said to his father» Ya‘qoob ibn Is-hâq ibn Ibrâheem al-Khaleel (ﷺ)

«O my father, I saw [in a dream] eleven stars, and the sun and the moon; I saw them prostrating to me». This dream was a precursor to the high status that Yoosuf attained in this world and the hereafter.

This is how it is when Allah wills some great matter: He sends something ahead of it as a precursor to pave the way and prepare the individual for what he will go through of difficulty, by way of kindness to His slave. Ya‘qoob interpreted the sun as referring to his mother, the moon as referring to his father and the stars as referring to his brothers, and he understood it as meaning that he would move from one stage to another until they would all submit to him and prostrate to him out of respect and veneration, but this would not happen except by means of some events that Allah would choose for him, and that Allah would complete His favour upon him by blessing him with knowledge, guiding him to do righteous deeds and establishing him in the land.

This blessing would include the family of Ya‘qoob who prostrated to him; they would be included with him in that blessing.

«Thus your Lord will choose you» that is, He will select you through that with which He blesses you of sublime attributes and beautiful traits

«and teach you the interpretation of dreams and events, and He will complete His favour to you» in this world and the hereafter, by giving you goodness in this world and goodness in the hereafter

«as He completed it to your forefathers Ibrâheem and Is-hâq before» when Allah bestowed upon them abundant and immense blessings, both religious and worldly.

﴿Verily your Lord is All-Knowing, Most Wise﴾ that is, His knowledge encompasses all things and what is in people's hearts of righteousness or otherwise, so He gives to each one as His wisdom dictates, for He is Most Wise and does what is appropriate.

When the meaning of the dream became clear to Yoosuf, his father said to him:

﴿O my son, say nothing of this dream to your brothers, lest they plot evil against you﴾ that is, out of envy that you will be the leader over them

﴿for verily the Shayṭān is to man an avowed enemy﴾ and he never leaves him alone by night or by day, in private or in public. So it is better to avoid anything that may give an opportunity to him to gain power over you. Yoosuf obeyed his father's command and did not tell his brothers about that; rather he concealed it from them.

﴿لَقَدْ كَانَ فِي يُوسُفَ وَإِخْوَتِهِ آيَاتٌ لِّلسَّائِلِينَ ۖ﴾ (٧) إِذْ قَالُوا لَيُوسُفُ وَأَخُوهُ أَحَبُّ إِلَيْنَا مِمَّا نَحْنُ غَضَبُهُ إِنَّ أَبَانَا لَفِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٨﴾ أَقْتُلُوا يُوسُفَ أَوْ اطْرَحُوهُ أَرْضًا يَخْلُ لَكُمْ وَجْهُ أَبِيكُمْ وَتَكُونُوا مِن بَعْدِهِ قَوْمًا صَالِحِينَ ﴿٩﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٧-٩)

- 12:7. Verily in Yoosuf and his brothers there are lessons for those who enquire.
- 12:8. [Remember] when they [his brothers] said: Truly Yoosuf and his brother are dearer to our father than we, even though we are so many. Indeed, our father is clearly mistaken.
- 12:9. Kill Yoosuf or banish him to some [other] land, so that your father's attention will be yours alone; then after that you can become righteous people.

«Verily in Yoosuf and his brothers there are lessons» that is, signs and proofs that lead one to aspire to good aims

«for those who enquire» that is, for everyone who shows interest and asks, for those who enquire are the ones who benefit from the signs and lessons. As for those who turn away, they will not benefit from signs, stories or explanations.

«[Remember] when they [his brothers] said» to one another:
«Truly Yoosuf and his brother» Binyâmeen, who was his full brother; they were all brothers from different mothers

«are dearer to our father than we, even though we are so many» that is, a large group, so how can he love them more than us?

«Indeed, our father is clearly mistaken» that is, he is making an obvious mistake because he has favoured them over us for no obvious reason, as far as we can tell.

«Kill Yoosuf or banish him to some [other] land» that is, take him away from his father and send him to some faraway land where his father cannot see him; if you do one of these two things, «your father's attention will be yours alone» that is, he will pay full attention to you and will focus his love on you, for his heart was so distracted by Yoosuf that there was nothing left for you.

«then after that» that is, after taking this action

«you can become righteous people» that is, you can repent to Allah and ask Him to forgive you after committing your sin.

They had the intention of repentance before committing the sin, so as to make it easy for them to do that deed and reduce the impact of its abhorrent nature, and so that they would encourage one another.

﴿ قَالَ قَائِلٌ مِّنْهُمْ لَا تَقْتُلُوا يُوسُفَ وَالْقَوْهٖ فِي غَيْبَتِ الْجَبِّ يَلْقَاهُ بَعْضُ السَّيَّارَةِ إِن كُنْتُمْ فَاعِلِينَ ﴾ (سورة يوسف: ١٠)

- 12:10. One of them said: Do not kill Yoosuf; but if you must do something, throw him into the hidden depths of a well, so that some caravan can pick him up.

«One of them» that is, one of the brothers of Yoosuf who wanted to kill him or banish him

«said: Do not kill Yoosuf» for killing him is a worse sin and more abhorrent deed. You can achieve your aim by sending him away from his father without killing him. You can send him away by throwing him «into the hidden depths of a well» and warning him not to tell anyone what you have done; rather he should say that he is a slave who has run away from you, so that «some caravan can pick him up» that is headed to some distant place, and they can take him and keep him.

The one who suggested this made the best suggestion concerning Yoosuf, and he was the most righteous of them and the one who feared Allah the most concerning this matter. Some evils are less than others and greater harm may be warded off by means of lesser harm.

﴿قَالُوا يَا أَبَانَا مَا لَكَ لَا تَأْمُرُنَا عَلَىٰ يُونُسَ وَإِنَّا لَهُ لَنَنْصِحُونَ ﴿١١﴾ أَرْسِلْهُ مَعَنَا غَدًا يَرْتَعْ وَيَلْعَبْ وَإِنَّا لَهُ لَحَافِظُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ قَالَ إِنِّي لَيَحْزُنُنِي أَنَّ تَذْهَبُوا بِهِ، وَأَخَافُ أَنْ يَأْكُلَهُ الذِّئْبُ وَأَنْتُمْ عَنْهُ غَافِلُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ قَالُوا لَئِنْ أَكَلَهُ الذِّئْبُ وَنَحْنُ عُصْبَةٌ إِنَّا إِذًا لَّخَسِرُونَ ﴿١٤﴾﴾ (سورة يوسف: ١١-١٤)

- 12:11. They said: O our father, why do you not trust us with Yoosuf when we truly care for him?
- 12:12. Send him with us tomorrow so that he may roam about and play; we will surely keep him safe.
- 12:13. Ya'qoob said: Verily it saddens me that you should take him away, and I am worried that a wolf may eat him when you are not paying attention.

12:14. They said: If the wolf were to eat him when we are so many, we would then be good for nothing.

When they had agreed upon their plan, the brothers of Yoosuf set out to put it into effect. So they said to their father:

﴿O our father, why do you not trust us with Yoosuf when we truly care for him?﴾

That is, why do you fear that we may do something to Yoosuf for no reason, at the time ﴿when we truly care for him﴾ and are compassionate towards him, and we like for him what we like for ourselves? This indicates that Ya'qoob did not let Yoosuf go with them into the wilderness, and the like.

Having cleared themselves of any suspicions that could prevent him from letting Yoosuf go with them, they then told him how it was in Yoosuf's own interests, as he could enjoy himself, which his father would like for him, and that would prompt him to let him go with them. So they said:

﴿Send him with us tomorrow so that he may roam about and play﴾ that is, have an outing in the wilderness and enjoy himself

﴿we will surely keep him safe﴾ that is, we will look after him and protect him from any harm.

Their father replied: ﴿Verily it saddens me that you should take him away﴾ that is, your merely taking him away saddens me and is hard on me, because I cannot bear to be without him even for a short while; this is what keeps me from letting him go

﴿and﴾ a second reason is that ﴿I am worried that a wolf may eat him when you are not paying attention﴾ that is, if you are distracted from him, because he is small and unable to defend himself from the wolf.

﴿They said: If the wolf were to eat him when we are so many﴾ that is, a large group that is eager to look after him

﴿we would then be good for nothing﴾ that is, there would be nothing good in us and we would be useless, if the wolf were to overpower us and eat him.

As they gave their father reasons why he should let Yoosuf go with them, and there was no reason why he should not do so, he allowed him to go with them so that he could enjoy himself.

﴿فَلَمَّا ذَهَبُوا بِهِ، وَأَجْمَعُوا أَنْ يَجْعَلُوهُ فِي غَيَّبَتِ الْجُبِّ وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْهِ لَتُنَبِّئَهُمْ بِأَمْرِهِمْ هَذَا وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ وَجَاءَ آبَاهُمْ عِشَاءً يَبْكُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ قَالُوا يَا أَبَانَا إِنَّا ذَهَبْنَا نَسْتَبِقُ وَتَرَكْنَا يُوسُفَ عِنْدَ مَتَاعِنَا فَأَكَلَهُ الذِّئْبُ وَمَا أَنْتَ بِمُؤْمِنٍ لَنَا وَلَوْ كُنَّا صَادِقِينَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَجَاءُوا عَلَى قَمِيصِهِ بِدَمٍ كَذِبٍ قَالَ بَلْ سَوَّلَتْ لَكُمْ أَنْفُسُكُمْ أَمْرًا فَصَبْرٌ جَمِيلٌ وَاللَّهُ الْمُسْتَعَانُ عَلَى مَا تَصِفُونَ ﴿١٨﴾﴾ (سورة يوسف: ١٥-١٨)

- 12:15. So when they took him away, and they all decided to throw him into the hidden depths of a well, We revealed to him: You will surely tell them of this deed of theirs at a time when they will not realise who you are.
- 12:16. At nightfall they came to their father, weeping.
- 12:17. They said: O our father, we went off to race one another; we left Yoosuf with our things, and a wolf ate him. But you will not believe us, even though we are telling the truth.
- 12:18. They stained his shirt with false blood. Ya'qoob said: Nay; rather your souls have tempted you to do something evil. But I will bear this patiently, and in good grace. It is Allah alone Whose help I seek to bear the loss you speak of.

When the brothers of Yoosuf took him away, after his father had given him permission to go, they decided to throw him into the hidden depths of a well, as one of them had previously suggested, and they were able to carry out what they had agreed to. They threw him into the well, then Allah showed kindness to him by revealing to him when he was in that difficult situation: ﴿You will surely tell them of this deed of theirs at a time when they will not realise who you are» that is, you will rebuke them and tell them about this deed of theirs, when they will not be aware of who you are in that situation.

Thus he received foretelling that he would be saved from the situation he found himself in, for Allah would reunite him with his family and his brothers when he was in a position of honour and had been given authority in the land.

«At nightfall they came to their father, weeping». They came later than usual and weeping to show that they were sincere and were telling the truth. They said, giving false excuses:

«O our father, we went off to race one another» – the word translated here as «race one another» refers to competing, either by racing on foot or competing in shooting arrows

«we left Yoosuf with our things» to avoid putting him through trouble and to let him rest

«and a wolf ate him» whilst we were away from him and were competing

«But you will not believe us, even though we are telling the truth» that is, you will not accept our explanation, for it seems that you do not believe us because of the intense grief and sorrow that you feel in your heart for Yoosuf. But the fact that you do not believe us does not prevent us from offering our real explanation. All of this was said to confirm their version of the story.

And, to confirm what they were saying: «They stained his shirt with false blood» and claimed that it was the blood of Yoosuf, from when the wolf had eaten him. But their father did not believe them, rather he said: «Nay; rather your souls have tempted you to do something evil» that is, your souls made fair-seeming to you an abhorrent deed in order to separate me and him. For he realised, from the circumstantial evidence and from the dream that Yoosuf had told him about, that which proved his suspicion.

﴿But I will bear this patiently, and in good grace. It is Allah alone Whose help I seek to bear the loss you speak of﴾ that is, for this is what is required of me and is what I am very keen to do well, which is to show patience and good grace in the face of this calamity, free of discontent and complaints to people, and I seek the help of Allah to do that, and I do not rely on my own strength. He made this promise of his own accord, and he complained to His Creator, as it says (in 12: 18): ﴿It is Allah alone Whose help I seek to bear the loss you speak of﴾. Complaining to the Creator is not contrary to patience and good grace, because when a Prophet made a promise, he fulfilled it.

﴿وَجَاءَتْ سَيَّارَةٌ فَأَرْسَلُوا وَارِدَهُمْ فَأَدْلَى دَلْوَهُ قَالَ يَبُشْرَىٰ هَذَا غُلَامٌ وَأَسَرُّهُ بِضَاعَةً
وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِمَا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَشَرَوْهُ بِثَمَنٍ بَخْسٍ دَرَاهِمَ مَعْدُودَةٍ وَكَانُوا
فِيهِ مِنَ الزَّاهِدِينَ ﴿٢٠﴾﴾ (سورة يوسف: ١٩-٢٠)

12:19. There came a caravan and they sent their water carrier [to the well]. He let down his bucket and [when he saw Yoosuf] he said: What good luck; there is a boy here! They concealed him as part of their merchandise, but Allah had full knowledge of what they were doing.

12:20. They [his brothers] sold him for a small price, for a few pieces of silver; they were quite indifferent about him.

Yoosuf remained in the well for a while, until ﴿There came a caravan﴾ heading towards Egypt ﴿and they sent their water carrier [to the well]﴾ that is, the one who brought water for them would go on ahead of them, fetch water and put it in vessels and the like. This water carrier ﴿let down his bucket﴾ and Yoosuf (ﷺ) held onto it and came out.

The water carrier said: ﴿What good luck; there is a boy here!﴾ In other words, he was glad and said: There is a valuable boy here.

﴿They concealed him as part of their merchandise﴾; his brothers were nearby, so the travellers bought him from them

﴿for a small price﴾ that is, for very little which is explained by the words: ﴿for a few pieces of silver; they were quite indifferent about him﴾.

That is because they had no aim other than to send him away from his father; their aim was not to make money.

What is meant is that when the travellers found him, they decided to keep him secret and they put him with the rest of their merchandise, until his brothers came to them and claimed that he was a slave who had run away from them. So they bought him for that price, and (his brothers) urged them not to let him run away from them. And Allah knows best.

﴿وَقَالَ الَّذِي اشْتَرَاهُ مِنْ مِصْرَ لِامْرَأَتِهِ أَكْرِمِي مَثْوَاهُ عَسَىٰ أَنْ يَنْفَعَنَا أَوْ نَتَّخِذَهُ وَلَدًا وَكَذَٰلِكَ مَكَّنَّا لِيُوسُفَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلِنُعَلِّمَهُ مِن تَأْوِيلِ الْأَحَادِيثِ ۚ وَاللَّهُ غَالِبٌ عَلَىٰ أَمْرِهِ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٢١)

12:21. The man in Egypt who bought him said to his wife: Take good care of him; perhaps he will be of some benefit to us or maybe we will adopt him as a son. Thus We established Yoosuf in the land, so that We might teach him the interpretation of dreams and events. Allah's decree always prevails, though most people do not realise.

That is, when the travellers took him to Egypt and sold him there, he was bought by the 'Azeez of Egypt. When he bought him, he was very impressed by him and he told his wife to take care of him and said: «Take good care of him; perhaps he will be of some benefit to us or maybe we will adopt him as a son». In other words: either we will benefit from him as a slave, because he will do all kinds of service for us, or we will regard him as one of our children; perhaps that was because they did not have any children of their own.

«Thus We established Yoosuf in the land» that is, as We caused the 'Azeez of Egypt to buy him and honour him in that manner, We made that the first step towards establishing him in the land in that way. «so that We might teach him the interpretation of dreams and events», as he would not have anything to distract him and no concern except the pursuit of knowledge, so this became a means of his learning a great deal about rulings, interpretation of dreams, and other matters.

«Allah's decree always prevails» that is, His will is always done, for nothing can cancel it out and nothing can withstand it.

«though most people do not realise» and that is why they behave as they do, trying to withstand the decree of Allah when they are too helpless and too weak to do that.

﴿وَلَمَّا بَلَغَ أَشُدَّهُ ۖ ءَاتَيْنَاهُ حُكْمًا وَعِلْمًا ۖ وَكَذَٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٢٢)

(٢٢)

12:22. When Yoosuf reached his prime, We gave him wisdom and knowledge. Thus do We reward those who do good.

«When Yoosuf reached his prime» that is, his perfect strength, both mental and physical, and was fit to carry the heavy burdens of prophethood and messengership,

«We gave him wisdom and knowledge» that is, We made him a Prophet and a Messenger, knowledgeable and devoted to Allah.

«Thus do We reward those who do good» by worshipping the Creator, doing their utmost with all sincerity, and seek to do good to the slaves of Allah by helping them and being kind to them. We will reward them for their good deeds and kindness with beneficial knowledge.

This indicates that Yoosuf attained the status of one who does good, so Allah granted him the wisdom to judge between people, a great deal of knowledge, and prophethood.

﴿وَرَوَدَتْهُ الَّتِي هُوَ فِي بَيْتِهَا عَنْ نَفْسِهِ، وَعَلَّقَتِ الْأَبْوَابَ وَقَالَتْ هَيْتَ لَكَ قَالَ
مَعَاذَ اللَّهِ إِنَّهُ رَبِّي أَحْسَنَ مَثْوَايَ إِنَّهُ لَا يُفْلِحُ الظَّالِمُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَلَقَدْ هَمَّتْ بِهِ
وَهُمْ يَهْأُولَآ أَنْ رَمَاهُ بَرْهَنَ رَبُّهُ ۚ كَذَلِكَ لِنَصْرِفَ عَنْهُ السُّوءَ وَالْفَحْشَاءَ إِنَّهُ
مِنْ عِبَادِنَا الْمُخْلَصِينَ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَاسْتَبَقَا الْبَابَ وَقَدَّتْ قَمِيصَهُ، مِنْ دُبُرٍ وَأَلْفَيَا
سَيْدَهَا لِدَا الْبَابِ قَالَتْ مَا جَزَاءُ مَنْ أَرَادَ بِأَهْلِكَ سُوءًا إِلَّا أَنْ يُسْجَنَ أَوْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ
﴿٢٥﴾ قَالَ هِيَ رَوَدَّتْنِي عَنْ نَفْسِي وَشَهِدَ شَاهِدٌ مِّنْ أَهْلِهَا إِنْ كَانَتْ قَمِيصَهُ
قَدْ مِّنْ قُبُلٍ فَصَدَقَتْ وَهُوَ مِنَ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَإِنْ كَانَتْ قَمِيصَهُ قَدْ مِّنْ دُبُرٍ فَكَذَبَتْ
وَهُوَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾ فَلَمَّا رَأَاهُ قَمِيصَهُ قَدْ مِّنْ دُبُرٍ قَالَ إِنَّهُ مِّنْ كَذِبِكُنَّ إِنَّ
كَذِبَكُمْ عَظِيمٌ ﴿٢٨﴾ يَٰيُوسُفُ أَعْرِضْ عَنْ هَذَا ۖ وَاسْتَغْفِرِي لِذَنبِكِ ۖ إِنَّكِ كُنتِ مِنَ
الْخَاطِئِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٢٣-٢٩)

- 12:23. But she in whose house he was living wanted to seduce him.
She bolted the doors and said: Come here. He said: Allah forbid!
Surely, he [your husband] is my master; he has taken good care of me. Verily the wrongdoers will never prosper.

- 12:24. She advanced towards him, and he felt inclined towards her;<sup>16</sup> were it not that he saw a sign from his Lord [he would have succumbed]. Thus We averted from him evil and shameful deeds. Verily He was one of Our chosen slaves.
- 12:25. They both raced to the door and she tore his chemise from behind, and they found her husband at the door. She said: What should the recompense of one who had evil designs on your wife be, other than prison or a painful punishment?
- 12:26. He said: It was she who tried to seduce me. A witness from her own household suggested: If his chemise is torn from the front, then she is telling the truth and he is lying.
- 12:27. But if his chemise is torn from behind, then she is lying and he is telling the truth.
- 12:28. When he saw that Yoosuf's chemise was torn from behind, he said: This is but one of your [women's] wiles. Your cunning is great indeed!
- 12:29. O Yoosuf, say no more about this matter. [O wife] seek pardon for your sin, for you have indeed done wrong.

---

This grave trial was harder for Yoosuf than the trial he went through at the hands of his brothers, and the patience with which he bore it brought a greater reward, because it was patience based on choice even though there were many reasons to commit the sin, but he gave precedence to love of Allah over those reasons. As for the trial at the hands of his brothers, his patience in that case was the patience of one who had no other choice, as in the case of sickness and hardship that may befall a person with no choice on his part, and he has no option but to bear it patiently, willingly or unwillingly. Yoosuf (ﷺ) was respected and honoured in the house of the 'Azeez, and he had a high degree of beauty, perfection and dignity; all of this led to temptation at the hands of his mistress: ﴿she in whose house he was living wanted to seduce him﴾ that is, he was her slave and under her control, and they lived in the same dwelling, which would have made it easy to commit the evil deed without anyone realising.

---

<sup>16</sup> His feeling inclined was a natural human response to the situation. It does not mean that he wanted to commit any shameful deed, because he was a Prophet and therefore infallible.

What made matters worse was that she ﴿bolted the doors﴾ and the place was deserted; they were safe from anyone entering, because the doors had been bolted, and she called him to her.

﴿and said: Come here﴾ that is, commit the evil deed and come to me. Moreover, he was a stranger (in that land) and a stranger would not feel embarrassed as he would if he was in his homeland and among people who knew him. He was like a prisoner under her control, and she was his mistress and owner; she possessed beauty that might encourage him to do that, and he was a young man and single. Moreover, she threatened him, if he did not do her bidding, with prison or a painful punishment.

But he remained steadfast in refraining from disobedience to Allah, even though there was a strong motive for doing so, because he thought of that sin and felt inclined towards her, but he refrained for the sake of Allah, giving precedence to what Allah wanted over what the soul that is inclined to evil might want. From the proof of his Lord – which was what he possessed of knowledge and faith that required him to refrain from everything that Allah had forbidden – he saw that which compelled him to keep away and refrain from this grave sin.

﴿He said: Allah forbid!﴾ That is: I seek refuge with Allah lest I do this evil deed, for it is something that incurs the wrath of Allah and distances one from him; moreover, it is a betrayal of my master who has honoured me and taken good care of me. So it is not befitting for me to respond by committing the utmost evil with his wife, for this is one of the gravest kinds of wrongdoing, and wrongdoers never prosper.

To sum up, he mentioned reasons why he should not do this deed, namely fear of Allah and paying attention to the rights of his master who had shown him kindness, as well as protecting himself from wrongdoing, for those who do wrong never prosper. Moreover, Allah had blessed him with the proof of the faith that was in his heart, which dictated that he should comply with Allah's commands and avoid that which He prohibited. All of that was because Allah had averted evil and shameful deeds from him, because he was one of His devoted slaves who were sincere towards Him in their worship, whom Allah chose, selected and kept for Himself; He bestowed blessings upon them and averted evil from them, so they were the best of His creation.

When he refused to comply with her demand despite her fervent efforts, and he tried to flee from her and ran to the door in order to escape this temptation, she raced him to the door and grabbed hold of his garment and tore his chemise. When they reached the door, at that moment they found her husband at the door. He saw something that upset him, so she hastened to tell a lie, saying that Yoosuf was the one who had wanted to tempt her, as she said: ﴿What should the recompense of one who had evil designs on your wife be﴾? She did not say "one who did evil to your wife", so as to suggest that she was innocent and so was he. Rather what was disputed was the matter of who had tempted whom.

﴿other than prison or a painful punishment﴾?

Yoosuf declared his innocence of what she accused him of, and said: ﴿It was she who tried to seduce me﴾. At that point the issue was that one of them was telling the truth, but al-'Azeez did not know which one it was.

But Allah (ﷻ) has made signs and indications that point to the truth, which people may or may not know. In this case, Allah guided him to a way by which he could know which of them was telling the truth, thus proving the innocence of His Prophet and chosen one, Yoosuf (ﷺ). A witness from her household intervened and suggested a way to find out who was telling the truth, based on circumstantial evidence. He said: «If his chemise is torn from the front, then she is telling the truth and he is lying» because that would indicate that he was the one who had come to her and tried to seduce her, and she had wanted to fend him off, so she had torn his chemise from the front. «But if his chemise is torn from behind, then she is lying and he is telling the truth» because this would indicate that he was running away from her, and that she was the one who had been pursuing him and had torn his chemise from the back.

«When he saw that Yoosuf's chemise was torn from behind» he realised thereby that Yoosuf was telling the truth and was innocent, and that she was the liar. So her husband said to her: «This is but one of your [women's] wiles. Your cunning is great indeed».

Is there anything worse than this cunning by means of which she tried to prove her innocence of what she had tried to do and accused the Prophet of Allah Yoosuf (ﷺ) of doing? But when her husband realised what had really happened, he said to Yoosuf: «O Yoosuf, say no more about this matter» that is, do not speak about it; forget it and do not mention it to anyone. He said this because he wanted to conceal what his wife had done.

«[O wife] seek pardon for your sin, for you have indeed done wrong» – so he instructed Yoosuf to say no more about it and he instructed his wife to seek forgiveness and repent.

﴿ وَقَالَ يَسُوۡةٌ فِى الْمَدِيۡنَةِ اٰمْرَاۡتُ الْعَزِيۡزِ تَرْوِىۡ فَنَسْهَاعَنۡ نَّفْسِيۡهٖۤ ۚ قَدْ شَغَفَهَا حُبًّا ۗ اِنَّا لَنَرٰهَا فِى ضَلٰلٍ مُّبِيۡنٍ ﴿٢٠﴾ فَلَمَّا سَمِعَتْ بِمَكْرِهِنَّ اَرْسَلَتْ اِلَيْهِنَّ وَاَعْتَدَتْ لَهُنَّ مَتٰكِفًا وَّاَنْتَ كُلِّ وَجِدٍ مِّنْهُنَّ سَيٰكِنًا ۚ وَقَالَ اَخْرِجْ عَلَيْنَۙ فَلَمَّا رَاَتْهُۙ اَكْبَرْتُهُۥ وَفَطَعْنِ اَيْدِيَهُنَّ ۚ وَقُلْنَ حَٰشَ لِلّٰهِ مَا هٰذَا بَشَرًا اِنْ هٰذَا اِلَّا مَلَكٌۭ كَرِيۡمٌ ﴿٢١﴾ ۖ قَالَتْ فَاِذْ لٰكُنَّ الَّذِى لُمْتُنِّىۡ ۖ﴾

فِيهِ ۖ وَلَقَدْ رَوَدُّهُ عَنْ نَفْسِهِ ۖ فَاسْتَعْصَمَ ۚ وَلَئِنْ لَّمْ يَفْعَلْ مَا ءَامُرُهُ ۖ لَيَسْجُنَنَّ وَلَيَكُونًا
 مِنَ الضَّالِّينَ ﴿٣٠﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ السِّجْنُ أَحَبُّ إِلَيَّ مِمَّا يَدْعُونَنِي إِلَيْهِ ۖ وَإِلَّا تَصْرِفْ عَنِّي
 كَيْدَهُنَّ أَصْبُ إِلَيْهِنَّ وَأَكُن مِّنَ الْجَاهِلِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ فَاسْتَجَابَ لَهُ رَبُّهُ فَصَرَفَ عَنْهُ كَيْدَهُنَّ إِنَّهُ
 هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٣٢﴾ ثُمَّ بَدَأ لَهُمْ مِّنْ بَعْدِ مَا رَأَوُا الْآيَاتِ لَيَسْجُنُنَّهُ حَتَّىٰ حِينٍ
 ﴿٣٥﴾ ﴿سورة يوسف: ٣٠-٣٥﴾

- 12:30. Women in the city said: The wife of al-'Azeez is trying to seduce her slave, for she is passionately in love with him. Indeed we think she is clearly in error.
- 12:31. When she heard of their malicious talk, she sent for them and prepared a banquet for them, and gave each one of them a knife. Then she said [to Yoosuf]: Come out unto them. When they saw him, they were so wonderstruck that they cut their hands. They said: Good Lord! This is no mortal; this can be none but a noble angel!
- 12:32. She said: This is the one you blamed me for. I did indeed try to seduce him, but he resisted. If he does not do my bidding, he will certainly be thrown into prison and will certainly find himself among the despised!
- 12:33. He said: O my Lord, prison is more to my liking than that to which they are calling me. Unless You protect me from their wiles, I may succumb and lapse into folly.
- 12:34. So his Lord answered his prayer and protected him from their wiles. Verily He is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.
- 12:35. Then it occurred to them, even after they had seen the signs [of his innocence], that they should imprison him for a while.

The news became known far and wide in the city, and the women talked about it and started to criticise her, saying: «The wife of al-'Azeez is trying to seduce her slave, for she is passionately in love with him» that is, this is something abhorrent, for she is a woman of high standing and her husband is a man of high standing, yet despite that she is still trying to seduce her slave who is under her control and at her service, for her love for him has become intense.

﴿she is passionately in love with him﴾ that is, her love for him has penetrated deeply into her heart. This is the greatest degree of love.

﴿Indeed we think she is clearly in error﴾ as she is in this state, which is not befitting to her, for it is lowering her status and causing her to lose respect in people's eyes.

This was malicious talk on their part, because the aim behind it was not just to blame and criticise her; rather by means of this talk they wanted to see Yoosuf, this man by whom the wife of al-'Azeez had been tempted, so that she would get annoyed and decide to show him to them so that they would stop blaming her and would cease their malicious talk.

﴿When she heard of their malicious talk, she sent for them﴾ and invited them to her house

﴿and prepared a banquet for them﴾ that is, she prepared a room with couches and pillows, and delicious food. Among the food that she offered them was some food that required knives, either citrus fruits or something else, so she ﴿gave each one of them a knife﴾ with which to cut that food.

﴿Then she said [to Yoosuf]: Come out unto them﴾ with your beauty and dignity.

﴿When they saw him, they were so wonderstruck﴾ that is, they felt awe in their hearts, as they saw a beautiful sight, the like of which they had never seen

﴿that they cut their hands﴾ out of astonishment, with the knives that they had with them.

﴿They said: Good Lord! This is no mortal; this can be none but a noble angel!﴾ That is because Yoosuf was given a supreme degree of beauty, radiance and dignity, which was a sign to the onlookers and a lesson for those who reflect.

When they saw Yoosuf's outward beauty, they were so amazed by it that they expressed their understanding and appreciation of why the wife of al-'Azeez had been tempted. But she also wanted to show them his inner beauty and perfect dignity. So she said, announcing that and expressing her extreme love without a care, and because the women no longer blamed her:

«I did indeed try to seduce him, but he resisted» that is, he refused. But she kept trying to seduce him and the passage of time only increased her in anxiety, love and longing for his response. Hence she said to him in their presence:

«If he does not do my bidding, he will certainly be thrown into prison and will certainly find himself among the despised!» in order to force him, by means of this threat, to do what she wanted. At that, Yoosuf sought the protection of his Lord, seeking His help against their wiles.

«He said: O my Lord, prison is more to my liking than that to which they are calling me». This indicates that the women started advising Yoosuf to obey his mistress, and they were trying their best to make him do that.

But he preferred prison and worldly punishment over a brief moment of pleasure that would incur a severe punishment (in the hereafter).

«Unless You protect me from their wiles» that is, I may incline towards them, for I am weak and helpless; if You do not ward off their evil from me

«I may succumb» that is, give in to them

«and lapse into folly», for this is foolishness, because it is giving precedence to brief, tainted pleasure over the ongoing and varied delights of the gardens of bliss, and who is more foolish than the one who gives precedence to the former over the latter? For knowledge and reason call for giving precedence to the greater of two interests and the greater of two pleasures, and giving precedence to that which leads to the best consequences.

«So his Lord answered his prayer» when he called upon Him «and protected him from their wiles». But she kept trying to seduce him, using all possible means at her disposal, until she gave up and Allah protected him from her wiles.

«Verily He is All-Hearing» and hears the call of the one who calls upon Him

«All-Knowing» and He knew his good intentions and weak nature that required His support, protection and kindness. Thus Allah saved Yoosuf from a great trial and hard test. As for his masters, when the news became known far and wide, and some people gave justification for it whilst others blamed and criticised,

«Then it occurred to them» that is, they decided

«even after they had seen the signs [of his innocence], that they should imprison him for a while» that is, so that the gossip about that news would stop and the people would forget it, because when something becomes widely known, it will be talked about and spread further, so long as the reason for it is still present, but if the reason disappears, it will be forgotten. So they decided that this was in their best interests, and they put him in prison.

﴿وَدَخَلَ مَعَهُ السِّجْنَ فَتَيَانٍ قَالَ أَحَدُهُمَا إِنِّي أَرَدْتُ أُغْوِي رَجُلًا فَقَالَ الْأُخْرَىٰ إِنِّي
أَرَدْتُ أُحْمِلُ فَوْقَ رَأْسِي خُبْرًا تَأْكُلُ الطَّيْرُ مِنْهُ نَبِئْنَا بِتَأْوِيلِهِ إِنَّا نَرَاكَ مِنْ
الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ قَالَ لَا يَأْتِيكُمَا طَعَامٌ تُزْرَقَانِهِ إِلَّا نَبَأُكُمَا بِتَأْوِيلِهِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَأْتِيَكُمَا
ذَلِكَمَا مِمَّا عَلَّمَنِي رَبِّي إِنِّي تَرَكْتُ مِلَّةَ قَوْمٍ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَهُمْ بِالْآخِرَةِ هُمْ
كَافِرُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَاتَّبَعْتُ مِلَّةَ آبَائِي إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَإِسْحَاقَ وَيَعْقُوبَ مَا كَانُوا لَنَا
بِشْرِكٍ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ ذَلِكَ مِنْ فَضْلِ اللَّهِ عَلَيْنَا وَعَلَى النَّاسِ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا
يَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾ يَصْصَحِي السِّجْنَ ۖ أَبْوَابٌ مُتَفَرِّقُونَ حَيَّرَ أَمِ اللَّهُ أَلَوْحَدُ الْقَهَّارُ

﴿٣٦﴾ مَا تَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ إِلَّا أَسْمَاءُ سَعَيْتُمُوهَا أَنتَرَوْهَ أَبَاؤُكُمْ مَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ بِهَا مِنْ سُلْطَانٍ إِنْ الْحُكْمُ إِلَّا لِلَّهِ أَمَرَ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا إِيَّاهُ ذَلِكَ الدِّينُ الْقَيِّمُ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٣٦-٤٠)

- 12:36. Two young men went to prison with him. One of them said: I dreamt that I was pressing [grapes for] wine. The other one said: I dreamt that I was carrying bread on my head, from which the birds were eating. [They said:] Tell us the interpretation of these dreams, for we see that you are a man of virtue and knowledge.
- 12:37. Yoosuf said: Before there comes to you the meal which you are given [daily], I will inform you of the true interpretation of your dreams. This is part of what my Lord has taught me. Verily I have rejected the religion of people who do not believe in Allah and who deny the hereafter.
- 12:38. I follow the religion of my fathers, of Ibrâheem, Is-hâq and Ya'qoob; it is not right for us to ascribe any partner to Allah. This is part of Allah's grace which He has bestowed on us and on all humankind, but most people do not give thanks.
- 12:39. O my two fellow prisoners, which is better: many different gods or Allah, the One, the Subjugator?
- 12:40. All that you worship besides Him is no more than names you have named, you and your forefathers, for which Allah has not sent down any authority. All power belongs to Allah alone, and He has ordained that you should worship none but Him. This is the right religion, but most people do not realise.

When Yoosuf went to prison, «Two young men went to prison with him». Each of them saw a dream, and told it to Yoosuf so that he might interpret it.

«One of them said: I dreamt that I was pressing [grapes for] wine. The other one said: I dreamt that I was carrying bread on my head, from which the birds were eating. [They said:] Tell us the interpretation of these dreams» and how they will materialise, «for we see that you are a man of virtue and knowledge» that is, you are one of those who are kind to others, so be kind enough to interpret our dreams for us, as you have been kind to others. They appealed to Yoosuf on the basis of his virtue and knowledge.

«Yoosuf said», responding to their request: «Before there comes to you the meal which you are given [daily], I will inform you of the true interpretation of your dreams» that is, so that you may be reassured and be certain that I am going to interpret your dreams, your daily meal will not come to you before I interpret them.

Perhaps Yoosuf (ﷺ) meant to call them to faith in that situation in which they needed him, so that his call would be more effective and they would be more receptive.

Then he said: «This» interpretation that I will give to you «is part of what my Lord has taught me» that is, it is part of the knowledge of Allah that He has taught me and bestowed upon me. That is because «I have rejected the religion of people who do not believe in Allah and who deny the hereafter» and «I follow the religion of my fathers, of Ibrâheem, Is-hâq and Ya'qoob». Then he explained that religion, saying: «it is not right» that is, it is not appropriate or befitting «for us to ascribe any partner to Allah»; rather we affirm His oneness and we devote our worship only to Him.

«This is part of Allah's grace which He has bestowed on us and on all humankind» that is, this is part of His great blessings, favour and grace towards us and towards those whom Allah guides as He has guided us, for there is no greater blessing that Allah can bestow upon people than Islam and the true religion. Whoever accepts it and submits to Him is most fortunate, for he has attained the greatest blessings and the greatest virtues.

«but most people do not give thanks». Hence blessings come to them but they do not accept them and they do not carry out their duties towards Allah. This is encouragement to follow the path that he was following, clearly making it appealing. When it was established in Yoosuf's mind that the two young men held him in high esteem and regarded him as a man of virtue and knowledge, he told them: The reason why I am as you think is that it is all by the grace and blessing of Allah, for He has blessed me by enabling me to reject polytheism and follow the way of my forefathers. This is what has brought me to what you see now, so you should follow my path.

Then he openly called them to Allah, and said: «O my two fellow prisoners, which is better: many different gods or Allah, the One, the Subjugator?» That is, gods who are helpless and weak, and can neither bring benefit nor cause harm, give or withhold, and they are of many different types: trees, rocks, angels, the dead and other objects of worship that the polytheists take as gods. Is that better, «or Allah» Who possesses all attributes of perfection, «the One» in His essence, attributes and actions, and He has no partner in any of that.

«the Subjugator» to Whose might and power all things submit; whatever He wills happens and whatever He does not will does not happen.

«...There is no living creature but He holds it [in His control] by its forelock...» (Hood 11: 56)

It is well known that One Who is like this is better than the various gods that are mere names and are not perfect at all and do not do anything. Hence Allah says:

«All that you worship besides Him is no more than names you have named, you and your forefathers» that is, you have invented names for them and called them gods, but they are nothing and possess no divine attributes whatsoever.

«for which Allah has not sent down any authority»; rather Allah has sent down authority to prohibit worshipping them and to highlight their false nature. Because Allah has not sent down any authority for them, there is no proof or evidence to support them.

Because all power belongs to Allah alone, He is the One Who commands and prohibits, prescribes laws and ordains rulings, and He is the One Who has ordained ﴿that you should worship none but Him. This is the right religion﴾ that is, the straight path that leads to all good, and all other religions are not true or straight paths; rather they are crooked and lead to all that is bad.

﴿but most people do not realise﴾ the true nature of things, otherwise the difference between worship of Allah alone, with no partner or associate, and ascribing partners to Him, is the clearest and most obvious of things. But because most people do not realise that, they do what they do of ascribing partners to Him. So Yoosuf (ﷺ) called his two fellow prisoners to worship Allah alone and to be devoted solely to Him. It may be that they responded and submitted, and thus the blessing was completed for them, or it may be that they remained polytheists and thus proof was established against them. Then Yoosuf (ﷺ) began to interpret their dreams, after he had promised to do so.

﴿يَصْحَبِي السِّجْنِ أَمَّا أَحَدُكُمَا فَيَسْقِي رَبَّهُ خَمْرًا وَأَمَّا الْآخَرُ فَيُصَلَّبُ فَتَأْكُلُ
الطَّيْرُ مِنْ رَأْسِهِ قُضِيَ الْأَمْرُ الَّذِي فِيهِ تَسْتَفْتِيَانِ﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٤١)

12:41. O my two fellow prisoners, as for one of you, he will pour wine for his lord to drink; as for the other, he will be crucified, and the birds will peck at his head. The matter you asked about has been decreed.

﴿O my two fellow prisoners, as for one of you﴾ namely the one who dreamt that he was pressing grapes for wine, he will get out of prison and ﴿he will pour wine for his lord to drink﴾ that is, he would pour wine for his master whom he used to serve, which means that he would get out of prison.

﴿as for the other﴾ namely the one who dreamt that he was carrying bread on his head, from which the birds were eating

﴿he will be crucified, and the birds will peck at his head﴾. So he interpreted the bread that the birds were eating as referring to the flesh of his head and his brain, and said that he would not be buried and therefore would not be protected from the birds; rather he would be crucified and placed somewhere where the birds would be able to eat him. Then he told them that this interpretation that he gave them would inevitably come to pass, and said:

﴿The matter you asked about has been decreed﴾ that is, the matter of which you are asking about the interpretation and meaning.

﴿وَقَالَ لِلَّذِي ظَنَّ أَنَّهُ نَاجٍ مِّنْهُمَا اذْكُرْنِي عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ فَأَنَسَهُ الشَّيْطَانُ
ذِكْرَ رَبِّهِ ۖ فَلَبِثَ فِي السِّجْنِ بِضْعَ سِنِينَ﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٤٢)

12:42. Yoosuf said to the one who he knew would be saved: Mention me to your master. But Shayṭān made him forget to mention him to his master; thus Yoosuf remained in prison for a few more years.

﴿Yoosuf said to the one who he knew would be saved﴾ namely the one who dreamt that he was pressing grapes for wine: ﴿Mention me to your master﴾ that is, tell him about me and my story; perhaps he will feel sorry for me and will order my release.

﴿But Shayṭān made him forget to mention him to his master﴾ that is, Shayṭān caused the one who was saved to forget, and that was in order that the decree of Allah might be completed.

﴿thus Yoosuf remained in prison for a few more years﴾. The word translated here as ﴿a few﴾ refers to anything between three and nine. Hence it was said that he remained in prison for seven more years.

When Allah wanted to complete His decree and willed that Yoosuf should be released from prison, He ordained means for that which caused Yoosuf to be released and to become prominent and attain high esteem; that was the king's dream.

﴿ وَقَالَ الْمَلِكُ إِنِّي أَرَى سَبْعَ بَقَرَاتٍ سِمَانٍ يَأْكُلُهُنَّ سَبْعٌ عِجَافٌ وَسَبْعَ سُنبُلَاتٍ خُضْرٍ وَأُخَرَ يَابِسَاتٍ يَا أَيُّهَا الْمَلَأُ أَفْتُونِي فِي رُؤْيَايَ إِن كُنْتُمْ لِلرُّؤْيَا تَعْبُرُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ قَالُوا أَضْغَنْتُ أَخْلِيكَ وَمَا نَحْنُ بِتَأْوِيلِ الْأَخْلَامِ بِعَالَمِينَ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَقَالَ الَّذِي نَجَّا مِنْهُمَا وَادَّكَرَ بَعْدَ أُمَّةٍ أَنَا أُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِتَأْوِيلِهِ فَأَرْسِلُونِ ﴿٤٥﴾ يُوسُفُ أَيُّهَا الصِّدِّيقُ أَفْتِنَا فِي سَبْعِ بَقَرَاتٍ سِمَانٍ يَأْكُلُهُنَّ سَبْعٌ عِجَافٌ وَسَبْعِ سُنبُلَاتٍ خُضْرٍ وَأُخَرَ يَابِسَاتٍ لَعَلِّي أَرْجِعُ إِلَى النَّاسِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾ قَالَ تَزْرَعُونَ سَبْعَ سِنِينَ دَابَّا فَمَا حَصَدْتُمْ فَذَرُوهُ فِي سُنْبُلِهِ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا مِمَّا نَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ ثُمَّ يَأْتِي مِنْ بَعْدِ ذَلِكَ سَبْعٌ شِدَادٌ يَأْكُلْنَ مَا قَدَّمْتُمْ لَهُنَّ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا مِمَّا تَحْصِنُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ ثُمَّ يَأْتِي مِنْ بَعْدِ ذَلِكَ عَامٌ فِيهِ يُغَاثُ النَّاسُ وَفِيهِ يَعْرِضُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ ﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٤٣-٤٩)

- 12:43. The king said: I saw [in a dream] seven fat cows being eaten by seven lean ones; and seven green ears of corn and [seven] others that were dry. O chiefs, explain my dream to me, if you are able to interpret dreams.
- 12:44. They said: [These are] jumbled, confusing dreams, and we are not skilled in the interpretation of dreams.
- 12:45. The one [of the two prisoners] who had been saved, and who remembered [now], after a while, said: I will find out its interpretation for you, so give me leave to go [in search of it].
- 12:46. [He went to the prison and said:] O Yoosuf, O truthful one, explain to us [the dream of] seven fat cows being eaten by seven lean ones; and seven green ears of corn and [seven] others that were dry, so that I may go back to the people and they may know.

12:47. Yoosuf said: You will sow for seven years, as usual. But whatever grain you reap, leave it in the ear, except for a little that you will eat.

12:48. Then after that will come seven years of hardship [drought], which will consume what you had stored in advance, except a little that you will set aside.

12:49. Then after that will come a year in which the people will have rain, and in which they will press [grapes and olives].

When Allah (ﷻ) willed that Yoosuf should be released from prison, He caused the king to see that strange dream, the interpretation of which applied to the entire nation, so that it might be interpreted by Yoosuf and so that his virtue might be made manifest and his knowledge become widely known, and thus he might be raised in status. As it was the king who decided about his subjects' affairs, it was appropriate that he was the one to see the dream, because the affairs of the subjects are connected to the king.

The king saw a dream that alarmed him, so he gathered together all the people of knowledge and wisdom in his nation and said:

«I saw [in a dream] seven fat cows being eaten by seven lean ones». This was something very strange, to see seven lean and emaciated cows, who had lost their strength, eating seven fat ones who would have been very strong.

«And» I saw «seven green ears of corn» being eaten by seven others «that were dry. O chiefs, explain my dream to me» because the interpretation of all of these things points to one thing «if you are able to interpret dreams». But they were confused and did not know how to interpret it or what it meant.

«They said: [These are] jumbled, confusing dreams» that is, dreams that do not mean anything and for which there is no interpretation.

This was a statement about something of which they had no knowledge, so they excused themselves, then they said: ﴿and we are not skilled in the interpretation of dreams﴾ that is, we only interpret true dreams; as for jumbled dreams that come from the Shaytân or from the ruminations of one's own mind, we cannot interpret them.

Thus they combined ignorance with an affirmation that these were jumbled, confusing dreams, which stemmed from self-admiration, because they did not say, "We do not know how to interpret it." This is an attitude that is not appropriate for people of religious commitment and wisdom. This was also a sign of Allah's kindness towards Yoosuf (عليه السلام), because if he had interpreted this dream from the outset – before it was discussed with the chiefs of their people and their scholars, who were unable to interpret it, that would not have had the same impact. But because the king asked them first, and they failed to give him an answer, he was very concerned and worried about it. Then Yoosuf interpreted it, and that had a great impact on them. This is similar to the way in which Allah showed Adam to be superior to the angels because of the knowledge he had, after He asked them and they could not answer, then He asked Adam, and Adam taught them the names of all things. Thus his superiority became apparent. Similarly the superiority of the best of creation, Muhammad (ﷺ), will become apparent on the Day of Resurrection, when Allah will inspire humankind to seek the intercession of Adam, then Nooh, then Ibrâheem, then Moosâ, then 'Eesâ (peace be upon all of them), but they will offer their apologies; then they will come to Muhammad (ﷺ) and he will say: «I am able for it,» (Bukhari), then he will intercede for all of humankind and will attain that station of praise and honour for which he will be envied by the first and the last.

Glory be to the One Who is kind in subtle ways; how subtle is the way in which He causes blessings to reach His chosen ones and close friends.

«The one [of the two prisoners] who had been saved» that is, the one of the two young men who had dreamt that he was pressing grapes for wine; he was the one whom Yoosuf had asked to mention him to his master

«and who remembered [now], after a while» that is, he remembered Yoosuf and how he had interpreted the two dreams, and what he had asked him to do; and he realised, after several years, that Yoosuf would surely be able to interpret this dream. So he said:

«I will find out its interpretation for you, so give me leave to go [in search of it]» that is, let me go to Yoosuf and ask him about it.

So they gave him permission and he went to him, but Yoosuf did not rebuke him for forgetting him; rather he listened to his questions and answered them. The young man said:

«O Yoosuf, O truthful one» that is, one who is very truthful in word and deed

«explain to us [the dream of] seven fat cows being eaten by seven lean ones; and seven green ears of corn and [seven] others that were dry, so that I may go back to the people and they may know» for they are very eager to find out about the interpretation of this dream, and they are very concerned about it.

Yoosuf interpreted the seven fat cows and the seven green ears of corn as referring to seven years of abundance, and the seven lean cows and the seven dry ears of corn as referring to seven years of drought. The connection to abundance and drought – and Allah knows best – is that agriculture is based on that; if there is abundant rain, the crops will be good and there will be an abundant yield, but if there is a drought, then it will be the opposite of that.

Cattle (oxen) were usually used to till the soil and to irrigate it. The ears of corn referred to are the most common and best kind of staple food. The dream was interpreted in this manner because there is a connection. So he combined interpretation of the dream with advice to the people as to what they should do and what preparations they should make during the years of abundance for the years of drought, and said:

«You will sow for seven years, as usual» that is, seven consecutive years

«But whatever grain you reap» of those crops

«leave it in the ear» because that will better preserve it and you will be less likely to eat it.

«except for a little that you will eat» that is, you should also pay attention to how much you eat during these years of abundance; let it be little, so that what you save will become of significant benefit and will have a good impact.

«Then after that» that is, after the seven plentiful years

«will come seven years of hardship [drought]» that is, severe drought

«which will consume what you had stored in advance» that is, which will use up all that you had stored, even if it was a great quantity «except a little that you will set aside» that is, that you will keep and not use up during the hard years.

«Then after that» that is, after the seven hard years

«will come a year in which the people will have rain, and in which they will press [grapes and olives]» that is, there will be a great deal of rain and the streams will flow and the yield will increase and be abundant, and will give more than the people need, so that they will press the grapes and other crops that are surplus to what they eat. Perhaps the way in which he worked out that there would be that year of plenty, even though there was no clear indication of it in the king's dream, was that the seven years of hardship must be followed by a year in which hardship would come to an end. It is well known that a drought that lasted for seven consecutive years could only be followed by a year of great abundance, otherwise his plan would not work out. When the messenger went back to the king and the people, and told them about Yoosuf's interpretation of the dream, they were amazed and they rejoiced greatly.

﴿وَقَالَ الْمَلِكُ أَتُؤْتِيَنِي بِهِ؟ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُ الرَّسُولُ قَالَ أَرْجِعْ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ فَسْأَلْهُ مَا بَالُ النِّسْوَةِ
الَّتِي قَطَّعْنَ أَيْدِيَهُنَّ إِنَّ رَبِّي بِكَيْدِهِنَّ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٥٠﴾ قَالَ مَا خَطْبُكُمْ إِذْ رَوَدْتُنَّ يُوسُفَ عَنْ
نَفْسِهِ؟ قُلْنَ حَاشَ لِلَّهِ مَا عَلِمْنَا عَلَيْهِ مِنْ سُوءٍ قَالَتِ امْرَأَتُ الْعَزِيزِ الْقَنْ حَصْحَصَ
الْحَقُّ أَنَا رَوَدْتُهُ عَنْ نَفْسِهِ، وَإِنَّهُ لَمِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٥١﴾ ذَلِكَ لِيَعْلَمَ أَنِّي لَمْ أَخُنْهُ بِالْغَيْبِ
وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي كَيْدَ الْخَائِنِينَ ﴿٥٢﴾﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٥٠-٥٢)

- 12:50. So the king said: Bring him to me. But when the messenger came to him, Yoosuf said: Go back to your master and ask him: What about the women who cut their hands? For verily my Lord has full knowledge of their cunning.
- 12:51. The king said to the women: What happened when you tried to seduce Yoosuf? They said: Allah forbid! We know of no evil on his part. The wife of al-'Azeez said: Now the truth has come to light. It was I who tried to seduce him; verily he was telling the truth.
- 12:52. Thus he will know that I did not betray him in his absence, for Allah will never allow the plans of the treacherous to succeed.

﴿So the king said﴾ to those who were with him: ﴿Bring him to me﴾ namely Yoosuf; that is, they were to release him from prison and bring him to the king. When the messenger came to Yoosuf and ordered him to appear before the king, Yoosuf refused to hasten to leave the prison until his innocence had been established completely. This was indicative of his patience, mature thinking and complete wisdom.

Hence he said to the messenger: ﴿Go back to your master﴾ namely the king
﴿and ask him: What about the women who cut their hands?﴾ That is, ask him what happened with them, for what really happened with them is clear and obvious.

﴿For verily my Lord has full knowledge of their cunning﴾.

So the king summoned the women and said: ﴿What happened when you tried to seduce Yoosuf?﴾ Did you see any suspicious behaviour on his part?

But the women declared him to be innocent and said: ﴿Allah forbid! We know of no evil on his part﴾ that is, we know of no evil, small or great, on his part. Thus it was established that there was no longer any reason to be suspicious of him or his good character, and there was nothing left of the matter to be examined except what the wife of al-'Azeez had to say.

﴿The wife of al-'Azeez said: Now the truth has come to light﴾ that is, now the truth has become clear after we accused him and cast aspersions on him that led to his being put in prison.

﴿It was I who tried to seduce him; verily he was telling the truth﴾ in what he said, and he was innocent.

﴿Thus﴾ as a result of my confession that it was I who tried to seduce Yoosuf,

﴿he will know that I did not betray him in his absence﴾.

It may be that what she meant was her husband; that is, he will know, as I have admitted that I am the one who tried to seduce Yoosuf, that I did not betray him in his absence. In other words, nothing happened on my part except an attempt at seduction, but I did not betray him in bed.

Or it may be that what she meant was: so that Yoosuf would know, as I have admitted that I was the one who tried to seduce him and that he was telling the truth, that I did not betray him when he was away from me.

﴿for Allah will never allow the plans of the treacherous to succeed﴾ for the betrayal and plot of every betrayer will inevitably backfire on him, and he will inevitably be found out.

Then, because these words were a kind of self-praise and may imply that she was suggesting that she did nothing wrong with regard to the story of Yoosuf, she added a remark to correct that impression.

﴿they will wail and moan﴾ – these are among the most horrible sounds.

﴿They will abide therein﴾ in the fire with this torment
 ﴿for as long as the heavens and the earth endure, except as your Lord will﴾ that is, they will remain therein forever, except for the period before they enter it. This is the view of the majority of commentators. The exception here refers to the period before they enter it; they will abide in it forever apart from the time before they enter it.
 ﴿your Lord does whatever He will﴾ everything that He wants to do and is dictated by His wisdom, He does it, and none can avert His will.

﴿وَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ سُعِدُوا فَيُخَالِدُونَ فِيهَا مَا دَامَتِ السَّمَوَاتُ وَالْأَرْضُ إِلَّا مَا شَاءَ رَبُّكَ عَطَاءٌ غَيْرَ مَجْذُورٍ﴾ (سورة هود: ١٠٨)

11:108. As for those who are blessed, they will be in paradise. They will abide therein for as long as the heavens and the earth endure, except as your Lord wills – a gift without end.

﴿As for those who are blessed﴾ that is, those who attain happiness, success and triumph
 ﴿they will be in paradise. They will abide therein for as long as the heavens and the earth endure, except as your Lord will﴾. Then Allah confirms that by saying: ﴿a gift without end﴾ that is, what Allah will give them of eternal bliss and sublime pleasure will be ongoing and everlasting, and it will never ever cease. We ask Allah the Most Generous, by His grace, to make us among them.

﴿فَلَا تَكُ فِي مِرْيَةٍ مِّمَّا يَعْبُدُ هَؤُلَاءِ مَا يَعْبُدُونَ إِلَّا كَمَا يَعْبُدُ آبَاؤُهُمْ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَإِنَّا لَمُوفُونَ نَضِيبُ لَهُمْ مَا قَدْ سَلَفَ وَأَنَّا مُؤْتُونَهُمْ غَيْرَ مَنْقُوصٍ﴾ (سورة هود: ١٠٩)

11:109. Therefore do not be in doubt as to what these people worship; they worship nothing but that which their forefathers worshipped before them. We will surely give them their portion in full, undiminished.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ): «Therefore do not be in doubt as to what these people worship» that is, do not have any doubts about these polytheists and that what they follow is false, for they have no textual or rational evidence; rather their evidence is their specious argument that «they worship nothing but that which their forefathers worshipped before them».

It is well known that this is not a valid argument, let alone constituting proof, because the statements of anybody other than the Prophets require evidence and cannot be used as evidence, especially in the case of people such as these misguided ones who made many mistakes and whose views with regard to the fundamentals of religion were corrupt; even if they were unanimously agreed upon, they are still wrong and misguided.

«We will surely give them their portion in full, undiminished» that is, they will inevitably have their share of this world, whatever is decreed for them, even if it is a great deal and even if it appears pleasing to you. Yet it is not indicative of their sound well-being, for Allah bestows worldly gain upon those whom He loves and those whom He does not love, but He does not bestow faith and true religion upon any except those whom He loves. The point is that no one should be deceived by the consensus of the misguided on following the beliefs of their misguided forefathers, or by what Allah has bestowed upon them of worldly gain.

﴿وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ فَاخْتَلَفَ فِيهِ وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةٌ سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ لَفُضِيَ
بَيْنَهُمْ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَفِي شَكٍّ مِنْهُ مُرِيبٍ ﴿١١٠﴾ وَإِنْ كَلَّا لَمَا يُؤْفِكُهُمْ رَبُّكَ أَفْعَلُهُمْ إِنَّهُمْ بِمَا
يَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ ﴿١١١﴾ فَاسْتَقِمْ كَمَا أُمِرْتَ وَمَنْ تَابَ مَعَكَ وَلَا تَطْغَوْا إِنَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ
بَصِيرٌ ﴿١١٢﴾ وَلَا تَرْكَبُوا إِلَى الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا فَمَا تَقْسِمُكُمُ النَّارُ وَمَا لَكُم مِّنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مِنْ
أَوْلِيَاءَ ثُمَّ لَا تُنصَرُونَ ﴿١١٣﴾﴾ (سورة هود: ١١٠-١١٣)

- 11:110. We gave Moosâ the Book, but differences arose concerning it. Were it not for a prior decree from your Lord, a decisive judgement would already have been passed between them, but they are in grave doubt concerning it.
- 11:111. Verily your Lord will pay each one of them in full for his deeds, for verily He is well aware of all that they do.
- 11:112. So keep to the straight path as you have been commanded, together with those who have turned to Allah with you, and do not exceed the bounds, for verily He sees well all that you do.
- 11:113. Do not incline to those who do wrong, lest the fire touch you and you will have no protector against Allah, nor will you be helped.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He gave Moosâ the Book, namely the Torah, that should lead to consensus on following its commands and prohibitions, and should lead to being united. But despite that, those who claimed to follow it differed concerning it in a manner that adversely affected their beliefs and religious unity.

﴿Were it not for a prior decree from your Lord﴾ that they would be given respite and the punishment would not be hastened for them ﴿a decisive judgement would already have been passed between them﴾ that the punishment should befall the wrongdoer. But His wisdom dictated that judgement between them should be deferred until the Day of Resurrection, and they remained in grave doubt concerning it.

If this was their attitude towards their own Book, then with regard to the Qur'an which Allah has revealed to you (O Muhammad ﷺ), it should come as no surprise that the Jews do not believe in it and that they are in grave doubt concerning it.

﴿Verily your Lord will pay each one of them in full for his deeds﴾ that is, Allah will inevitably judge between them on the Day of Resurrection with justice, and He will requite each one of them as he deserves.

﴿for verily He is well aware of all that they do﴾, both good and evil; none of their deeds, small or great, are hidden from Him.

Having described how they did not remain steadfast, which led to differences and divisions among them, Allah then commanded His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), and the believers with him, to keep to the straight path as they had been commanded, to follow the laws and regulations that Allah prescribed for them, to believe in what Allah told them of sound beliefs, and not to drift away from that to the right or to the left, but to persist in that, and not transgress by exceeding the bounds of righteousness that Allah had set for them.

﴿for verily He sees well all that you do﴾ that is, nothing is hidden from Him of your deeds and He will requite you for them. This offers encouragement to adhere to the straight path and a warning against doing the opposite. Hence Allah warned them against being inclined towards those who had drifted from the straight path, as He said:

﴿Do not incline to those who do wrong﴾, for if you incline towards them and go along with their wrongdoing or approve of it,
 ﴿the fire [may] touch you﴾ if you do that
 ﴿and you will have no protector against Allah﴾ to save you from the punishment of Allah or to bring you any of the reward of Allah ﴿nor will you be helped﴾ that is, the punishment will not be averted from you if it touches you.

12. Soorat Yoosuf

(continued)

﴿ وَمَا أُنَبِّئُ نَفْسٍ ۖ إِنَّ النَّفْسَ لَأَمَّارَةٌ بِالسُّوءِ إِلَّا مَا رَحِمَ رَبِّي ۚ إِنَّ رَبِّي غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴾
﴿ ٥٣ ﴾ وَقَالَ الْمَلِكُ ائْتُونِي بِوَهْءٍ أُسَخِّلْهُ لِنَفْسِي فَلَمَّا كَلَّمَهُ قَالَ إِنَّكَ الْيَوْمَ لَدَيْنَا مَكِينٌ أَمِينٌ
﴿ ٥٤ ﴾ قَالَ أَجْعَلْنِي عَلَى خَزَائِنِ الْأَرْضِ إِنِّي حَفِيظٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿ ٥٥ ﴾ وَكَذَلِكَ مَكَّنَّا لِيُوسُفَ فِي
الْأَرْضِ يَتَّبِعُوا مِنْهَا حَيْثُ يَشَاءُ نُصِيبُ بِرَحْمَتِنَا مَنْ نَشَاءُ وَلَا نَضِيعُ أَجْرَ السَّاجِدِينَ
﴿ ٥٦ ﴾ وَلَا جُرْأَ الْآخِرَةِ خَيْرٌ لِلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَكَانُوا يَنْقُونَ ﴿ ٥٧ ﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٥٣-٥٧)

12:53. Nor do I absolve my own self [of blame], for verily the human soul constantly prompts one to do evil, except for those on whom my Lord bestows His mercy. Verily my Lord is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.<sup>1</sup>

12:54. The king said: Bring him to me, so that I may appoint him [as an adviser] solely for me. Then when he had spoken with him, he said: Verily from this day you will be in a position of high standing with us, and entrusted with our affairs.

12:55. Yoosuf said: Put me in charge of the storehouses of the land; indeed I will manage them carefully and wisely.

12:56. Thus We established Yoosuf in the land, so that he was free to do therein whatever he willed. We bestow Our mercy upon whomever We will, and We will not cause the reward of those who do good to be lost.

<sup>1</sup> The meanings of the verses of the Qur'an in this book (with some minor changes to the punctuation) have been translated by the translator. (Editor)

12:57. But verily the reward of the hereafter is better, for those who believe and are mindful of Allah.

Having admitted that she did indeed try to seduce Yoosuf (‘alayhi as-salâm – peace be upon him) and affirmed that she did not in fact betray her husband (as the seduction attempt failed), the wife of al-‘Azeez countered any possible impression of self-praise on her part by saying:

﴿Nor do I absolve my own self [of blame]﴾ that is, I do not absolve myself of the attempt at seduction, or of wanting that and being very eager and scheming to attain it

﴿for verily the human soul constantly prompts one to do evil﴾ that is, it is always prompting one to do evil, such as shameful deeds and other sins, for it is the vehicle of the Shayṭān, through which he gains access to people

﴿except for those on whom my Lord bestows His mercy﴾ and saves such a one from his soul that prompts him to do evil, until his soul becomes content with its Lord, submits to the call of guidance and resists the caller of doom. That does not come from the soul itself; rather it is by the grace and mercy of Allah (Subḥānahu wa Ta‘ālâ – Glorified and Exalted is He) towards His slave.

﴿Verily my Lord is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾ that is, He is Oft-Forgiving to the one who commits sins if he repents and turns back to Him

﴿Most Merciful﴾ because He accepts his repentance and enables him to do righteous deeds. This is the correct view, that these are the words of the wife of al-‘Azeez, not the words of Yoosuf, as the context has to do with her words, because at that point Yoosuf was still in prison and was not present.

When the king and the people realised that Yoosuf was completely innocent, the king sent for him, saying:

﴿Bring him to me, so that I may appoint him [as an adviser] solely for me﴾ that is, so that I may appoint him to serve me only and bring him close to me. So they brought him, with honour and respect

﴿Then when he had spoken with him﴾, he was impressed with his words and thought even more highly of him. So he said to him:

﴿Verily from this day you will be in a position of high standing with us, and entrusted with our affairs﴾ that is, you will be well established and entrusted with secrets.

﴿Yoosuf said﴾, seeking that which was in the public interest:

﴿Put me in charge of the storehouses of the land﴾ that is, in charge of the treasury of the land, and the storehouse in which the yield of the land was kept, as a keeper and controller

﴿indeed I will manage them carefully and wisely﴾ that is, I will be careful with whatever I am put in charge of, so nothing will be lost of it inappropriately. I will monitor what comes in and what goes out, for I have knowledge of how to manage things, when to give and when to withhold, and how to handle all manner of things. This was not because Yoosuf was eager to be in a position of authority; rather he cared about the public interest, and he knew that he was competent and honest, and able to take good care of things, which they did not know.

Hence he asked the king to put him in charge of the storehouses of the land, and the king did that.

﴿Thus﴾ by means of what is mentioned above

﴿We established Yoosuf in the land, so that he was free to do therein whatever he willed﴾ of living a life of ease and abundance, and holding a position of high status

﴿We bestow Our mercy upon whomever We will﴾ that is, this was by the mercy of Allah to Yoosuf, that He bestowed upon him and decreed for him; it was not limited to worldly blessings.

ld

mbin

It is through mindfulness of Allah and piety that prohibited matters, both major and minor sins, are given up, and it is through perfect faith that the heart believes in what Allah has commanded it to believe, and the actions of the heart (beliefs) and physical actions, both obligatory and recommended, follow that.

﴿ وَجَاءَ إِخْوَةُ يُوسُفَ فَدَخَلُوا عَلَيْهِ فَعَرَّفَهُمُ وَهُمْ لَهُ مُنْكَرُونَ ﴾ (٥٨) وَلَمَّا جَهَّزَهُم بِجَهَّازِهِمْ قَالَ أَتُنُونِي بِأَخٍ لَكُمْ مِنْ أَبِيكُمْ أَلا تَنُرُونَ أَنِي أُوْفِي الْكِيلَ وَأَنَا خَيْرُ الْمُنْزِلِينَ ﴾ (٥٩) فَإِنْ لَمْ تَأْتُونِي بِهِ فَلَا كَيْلَ لَكُمْ عِنْدِي وَلَا تَقْرُبُونِ ﴾ (٦٠) قَالُوا سَتَرِدُ عَنْهُ أَبَاهُ وَإِنَّا لَفَاعِلُونَ ﴾ (٦١) وَقَالَ لِفَتِيِّيهِ أَجْمَلُوا بِضَعْتَهُمْ فِي رِحَالِهِمْ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَعْرِفُونَهَا إِذَا انْقَلَبُوا إِلَى أَهْلِهِمْ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴾ (٦٢) فَلَمَّا رَجَعُوا إِلَى أَبِيهِمْ قَالُوا يَا أَبَانَا مُنِعَ مِنَّا الْكِيلُ فَأَرْسِلْ مَعَنَا آخَانَا نَكْتَلْ وَإِنَّا لَهُ لَحَافِظُونَ ﴾ (٦٣) قَالَ هَلْ ءَمَنْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ إِلَّا كَمَا ءَمَنْتُمْ عَلَى أَخِيهِ مِنْ قَبْلُ قَالَهُ خَيْرٌ حَفِظْتُ وَهُوَ أَرْحَمُ الرَّاحِمِينَ ﴾ (٦٤) وَلَمَّا فَتَحُوا مَتْعَهُمْ وَجَدُوا بِضَعَتَهُمْ رُدَّتْ إِلَيْهِمْ قَالُوا يَا أَبَانَا مَا نَبْغِي هَذِهِ بِضَعْنَا رُدَّتْ إِلَيْنَا وَنَمِيرُ أَهْلَنَا وَنَحْفَظُ أَخَانَا وَنَزَادُ كَيْلَ بَعِيرٍ ذَلِكَ كَيْلٌ يَسِيرٌ ﴾ (٦٥) قَالَ لَنْ أَرْسِلَهُ مَعَكُمْ حَتَّى تُؤْتُونِ مَوْثِقًا مِنْ اللَّهِ لَتَأْتُنَّنِي بِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ يُحَاطَ بِكُمْ فَلَمَّا ءَاتَوْهُ مَوْثِقَهُمْ قَالَ اللَّهُ عَلَى مَا نَقُولُ وَكِيلٌ ﴾ (٦٦) وَقَالَ يَبْنَئِي لَا

تَدْخُلُوا مِنْ بَابٍ وَاحِدٍ وَادْخُلُوا مِنْ أَبْوَابٍ مُتَفَرِّقَةٍ وَمَا أُغْنِي عَنْكُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ
 إِنَّ الْحُكْمَ إِلَّا لِلَّهِ عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَعَلَيْهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُتَوَكِّلُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ وَلَمَّا دَخَلُوا مِنْ
 حَيْثُ أَمَرَهُمْ آبَاؤُهُمْ مَا كَانَتْ يُعْطِي عَنْهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِلَّا حَاجَةً فِي نَفْسِ
 يَعْقُوبَ قَضَاهَا وَإِنَّهُ لَذُو عِلْمٍ لِمَا عَلَّمْنَاهُ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ
 ﴿٦٨﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٥٨-٦٨)

- 12:58. The brothers of Yoosuf came and presented themselves before him; he immediately recognised them but they did not recognise him.
- 12:59. When he had supplied them with their provisions, he said: Bring to me a brother of yours through your father; do you not see that I give full measure and am the best of hosts?
- 12:60. If you do not bring him to me, you will never again receive a single measure [of provisions] from me, nor will you come near me.
- 12:61. They said: We will try to persuade his father to let him go, and we will surely do it.
- 12:62. Yoosuf said to his servants: Put their trade goods [with which they had bartered] in their saddlebags so that they may discover them when they return to their people; perhaps they will come back.
- 12:63. When they returned to their father, they said: O our father, we have been denied any further provisions [unless we take our brother with us]; send our brother with us, so that we may get our measure [of provisions], and we will surely keep him safe.
- 12:64. Ya'qoob said: Am I to trust you with him as I once trusted you with his brother? But Allah is the best of guardians, and He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy.
- 12:65. When they opened their baggage, they discovered that their trade goods had been returned to them. They said: O our father, what more could we ask? These trade goods of ours have been returned to us. We will get [more] provisions for our household, and take care of our brother, and receive an extra camel-load. That is an easy measure [to obtain].

12:66. Ya'qoob said: I will never send him with you unless you swear a solemn oath to me, by Allah, that you will surely bring him back to me, unless you are overwhelmed by circumstances. Then when they had sworn their solemn oath to him, he said: Allah is witness over what we say.

12:67. And he said: O my sons, do not enter [all] by one gate; enter by different gates. I cannot avail you anything against [the decree of] Allah; Allah's decree alone prevails. In Him I put my trust, and in Him let all that trust put their trust.

12:68. Although they entered [the city] as their father had instructed them, it would not have availed them anything against [the decree of] Allah, yet a need in Ya'qoob's soul was satisfied. Verily he was possessed of knowledge because of what We had taught him, but most people have no knowledge.

---

When Yoosuf (ﷺ) took charge of the storehouses of the land, he managed them well. He grew a huge amount of crops throughout the land of Egypt during the years of abundance, and allocated large depots in which he collected a great deal of food, which he kept and managed in the best manner. Then when the years of drought began, and the drought spread as far as Palestine, where Ya'qoob and his sons lived, Ya'qoob sent his sons to Egypt for provisions.

﴿The brothers of Yoosuf came and presented themselves before him; he immediately recognised them but they did not recognise him﴾ that is, they did not realise who he was.

﴿When he had supplied them with their provisions﴾ that is, when he had weighed out for them as he weighed out for others; it was part of his good management that he did not give any individual more than one camel load. He had asked them about their situation, and they told him that they had a brother who was with his father, namely Binyâmeen.

﴿he said﴾ to them: ﴿Bring to me a brother of yours through your father﴾ – he encouraged them to bring him, and said:

﴿do you not see that I give full measure and am the best of hosts﴾ in generosity towards my guests?

Then he warned them of the consequences if they did not bring him: ﴿If you do not bring him to me, you will never again receive a single measure [of provisions] from me, nor will you come near me﴾. That was because he knew that they had no choice but to come to him, and that would make them bring their brother.

﴿They said: We will try to persuade his father to let him go﴾ – this indicates that Ya‘qoob (ﷺ) was very attached to Binyâmeen and could not bear to be apart from him, for he found consolation in him after the loss of Yoosuf. Therefore he needed to be persuaded to send him with them.

﴿and we will surely do it﴾ that is, what you have instructed us to do.

﴿Yoosuf said to his servants: Put their trade goods﴾ that is, with which they had bought their provisions

﴿in their saddlebags so that they may discover them﴾ that is, the trade goods

﴿when they return to their people; perhaps they will come back﴾ – that was because he felt uncomfortable taking the trade goods in return for the provisions. What appears to be the case is that he wanted to encourage them by showing generosity towards them, by giving them full measure and then by returning their trade goods to them without them realising.

﴿When they returned to their father, they said: O our father, we have been denied any further provisions﴾ that is, if you do not send our brother with us.

﴿send our brother with us, so that we may get our measure [of provisions]﴾ that is, let that be a means of us getting our measure of provisions. Then they promised to take care of him, as they said: ﴿and we will surely keep him safe﴾ from any harm that may befall him.

﴿Ya'qoob said: Am I to trust you with him as I once trusted you with his brother?﴾ That is, you previously gave me a stronger promise than this to keep Yoosuf safe, yet you did not fulfil the promise you made. Therefore I do not trust your promise; rather I trust Allah (ﷻ).

﴿But Allah is the best of guardians, and He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy﴾ that is, He knows my situation and I hope that He will have mercy on me, so He will protect him and bring him back to me. It was as if these words softened his heart to the idea of sending Binyâmeen with them.

Moreover, ﴿When they opened their baggage, they discovered that their trade goods had been returned to them﴾. This indicates that they were aware that Yoosuf had returned them deliberately and that he wanted them to keep them. So they said to their father, encouraging him to send their brother with them: ﴿O our father, what more could we ask?﴾ That is, what further kindness could we seek, when he has given us full measure and has returned our trade goods to us as a goodwill gesture, which is indicative of his sincerity and good attitude?

﴿These trade goods of ours have been returned to us. We will get [more] provisions for our household﴾ that is, if we take our brother with us, he will be a means of us being given provisions, so we will get more provisions for our household and we will bring them what they need of food

﴿and take care of our brother, and receive an extra camel-load﴾ if he goes with us, for Yoosuf gives each person a camel load.

﴿That is an easy measure﴾ that is, it is easily obtained, because it will not take any longer than usual and there is a clear interest in doing so.

﴿Ya'qoob said﴾ to them: ﴿I will never send him with you unless you swear a solemn oath to me, by Allah, that you will surely bring him back to me, unless you are overwhelmed by circumstances﴾ that is, unless something happens to you that you have no power to deal with and cannot ward it off.

﴿Then when they had sworn their solemn oath to him﴾ pledging to do as he asked

﴿he said: Allah is witness over what we say﴾ that is, His witness over us is sufficient, and His care will suffice us. When he sent Binyameen with them, he advised them that when they reached Egypt: ﴿do not enter [all] by one gate; enter by different gates﴾. That was because he feared the evil eye, as they were so many and good-looking, for they were all the sons of one man.

﴿I cannot avail you anything against [the decree of] Allah﴾ for His decree will inevitably come to pass

﴿Allah's decree alone prevails﴾ that is, His will and decree and His command, for whatever He decrees and rules will inevitably happen ﴿In Him I put my trust﴾ that is, I rely upon Allah, not on my advice to you of taking certain measures

﴿and in Him let all that trust put their trust﴾ for by doing so, all aims will be achieved and all harm will be warded off.

When they left and ﴿they entered [the city] as their father had instructed them﴾, that action ﴿would not have availed them anything against [the decree of] Allah, yet a need in Ya'qoob's soul was satisfied﴾ which was the result of compassion and love for his children; therefore by giving them this advice, he put his mind at rest.

This was not due to any lack of knowledge on his part, for he was one of the noble Messengers and devoted scholars. Hence Allah says of him: ﴿Verily he was possessed of knowledge﴾ that is, he had great knowledge

«because of what We had taught him» that is, he did not acquire knowledge by his own strength; rather it was by the grace of Allah Who taught him

«but most people have no knowledge» of the consequences and subtleties of things. This applies to the knowledgeable among them; some knowledge may be hidden from them and they may be unaware of some rulings and requirements.

﴿وَلَمَّا دَخَلُوا عَلَى يُوسُفَ ءَاوَىٰ إِلَىٰ أَخِيهِ قَالَ إِنِّي أَنَا أَخُوكَ فَلَا تَبْتَئِسْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾ فَلَمَّا جَهَّزَهُم بِجَهَازِهِمْ جَعَلَ السِّقَايَةَ فِي رِجْلِ أَخِيهِ ثُمَّ أَذَّنَ مُؤَذِّنٌ أَيَّتُهَا الْعِيرُ إِنَّكُمْ لَسَارِقُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ قَالُوا وَأَقْبَلُوا عَلَيْهِمْ مَاذَا تَفْقَدُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾ قَالُوا تَفْقَدُ صُورَاعَ الْمَلِكِ وَلِمَن جَاءَ بِهِ حِمْلُ بَعِيرٍ وَأَنَا بِهِ زَعِيمٌ ﴿٦٩﴾ قَالُوا تَاللَّهِ لَقَدْ عَلِمْتُمْ مَا جِئْنَا لِنُفْسِدَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا كُنَّا سَارِقِينَ ﴿٧٠﴾ قَالُوا فَمَا جَزَاؤُهُ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ كَاذِبِينَ ﴿٧١﴾ قَالُوا جَزَاؤُهُ مِنْ وُجْدٍ فِي رَحْلِهِ فَهُوَ جَزَاؤُهُ كَذَلِكَ يَجْزِي الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٧٢﴾ فَبَدَأَ بِأَوْعِيَّتِهِمْ قَبْلَ وِعَاءِ أَخِيهِ ثُمَّ اسْتَخْرَجَهَا مِنْ وِعَاءِ أَخِيهِ كَذَلِكَ كِدْنَا لِيُوسُفَ مَا كَانَ لِيَأْخُذَ أَخَاهُ فِي دِينِ الْمَلِكِ إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ نَرْفَعُ دَرَجَاتٍ مَن نَّشَاءُ وَفَوْقَ كُلِّ ذِي عِلْمٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٧٣﴾ قَالُوا إِنْ يَسْرِقْ فَقَدْ سَرَقَ أَخٌ لَهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَأَسْرَهَا يُوسُفُ فِي نَفْسِهِ وَلَمْ يُبْدِهَا لَهُمْ قَالَ أَنْتُمْ شَرُّ مَكَانٍ وَاللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا تَصِفُونَ ﴿٧٤﴾ قَالُوا يَا أَبَا الْعَزِيزِ إِنَّ لَهُ أَبَا شَيْخًا كَبِيرًا فَخُذْ أَحَدَنَا مَكَانَهُ إِنَّا نَرَاكَ مِنَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٧٥﴾ قَالَ مَعَاذَ اللَّهِ أَنْ نَأْخُذَ إِلَّا مَنْ وَجَدْنَا مَتَاعَنَا عِنْدَهُ إِنَّا إِذَا

لَطَلِمُونَ ﴿٧٦﴾ ﴿سورة يوسف: ٦٦-٧٩﴾

- 12:69. When they came into Yoosuf's presence, he lodged his brother with himself [and said]: Verily I am your brother, so do not be saddened by their past actions.
- 12:70. Then when he had given them their provisions, he placed the drinking-cup in his brother's saddlebag. Then a crier called out: O people of the caravan, you are thieves!
- 12:71. They said, turning towards them: What have you lost?
- 12:72. They said: We have lost the king's goblet. Whoever brings it will have a camel-load [of provisions, as a reward]; I guarantee it.
- 12:73. [The brothers] said: By Allah, you know that we did not come to cause mischief in the land, and we are not thieves.
- 12:74. [The Egyptians] said: Then what should the penalty for this be, if you are [found to be] lying?
- 12:75. They said: The penalty should be that the one in whose saddlebag it is found should be enslaved in recompense thereof. Thus do we punish wrongdoers.
- 12:76. So he began with their baggage before his brother's baggage, then he took it [the goblet] out of his brother's baggage. Thus We devised a plan for Yoosuf, for he could not have detained his brother under the king's law, unless Allah so willed. We raise in status whomsoever We will; above each one who is possessed of knowledge is one more knowing.
- 12:77. They said: If he steals, there was a brother of his who stole before him. But Yoosuf kept his thoughts to himself and did not disclose anything to them. He said [to himself]: You are in a worse position; and Allah knows best the truth of what you say.
- 12:78. They said: O ruler of the land, verily he has a father who is elderly and venerable; take one of us, instead of him, for indeed we see that you are a kind man.

12:79. Yoosuf said: Allah forbid that we should take any but the man with whom our property was found, for in that case we should surely be unjust.

---

«When they» that is, the brothers «came into Yoosuf's presence, he lodged his brother», namely his full brother, Binyâmeen, whom he had instructed them to bring, «with himself» and made him join him; he singled him out from among his brothers and told him the real situation.

«[and said]: Verily I am your brother, so do not be saddened» that is, grieved «by their past actions», for the outcome will be good for us. Then he told him what his plan was and the trick he wanted to use so that he would stay with him until the matter was concluded.

«Then when he had given them their provisions» that is, when he had weighed out provisions for each of his brothers, including this brother,

«he placed the drinking-cup» which was a vessel from which he drank, and also used for measuring «in his brother's saddlebag. Then» they loaded up their luggage, but when they set out, «a crier called out: O people of the caravan, you are thieves!» Perhaps this caller did not know what was really going on.

«They» namely the brothers of Yoosuf «said, turning towards them» in order to dispel suspicion, for the thief does not care about anything except getting away from the one from whom he stole, so that he can get away with his theft. But these people turned and came towards them, because they had no concern except to dispel the accusation that had been made against them, so they said: «What have you lost?» And they did not say, "What have we stolen from you?" because they were certain that they were innocent of theft.

«They said: We have lost the king's goblet. Whoever brings it will have a camel-load» that is, as a reward for finding it «I guarantee it» – this was said by the caller who was looking for it.

﴿[The brothers] said: By Allah, you know that we did not come to cause mischief in the land﴾ by committing all kinds of sins ﴿and we are not thieves﴾, for stealing is one of the worst kinds of causing mischief in the land. They only swore because they were confident that the Egyptians were aware that they were not causing mischief and were not thieves, as they knew them very well and were aware that they were people of dignity and piety, who could not have committed this theft; those who accused them knew that they could not have done that. This is a more eloquent way of refuting the accusation than saying, “By Allah we did not cause mischief in the land and we did not steal anything.”

﴿[The Egyptians] said: Then what should the penalty for this be, if you are [found to be] lying?﴾ and if it is found in your possession.

﴿They said: The penalty should be that the one in whose saddlebag it is found should be enslaved in recompense thereof﴾ that is, the one in whose saddlebag it is found should become the slave of the owner of the stolen item. According to their religion, if the thief was proven to be guilty, he would become the property of the owner of the stolen wealth. Hence they said: ﴿Thus do we punish wrongdoers﴾.

﴿So he﴾ the inspector ﴿began with their baggage before his brother’s baggage﴾, so that there would be no suspicion that it had been done deliberately. When he did not find anything in their baggage, ﴿then he took it [the goblet] out of his brother’s baggage﴾. It does not say “he found it” or “his brother stole it”, so as to reflect the reality of the situation.

Having described how Yoosuf accomplished what he wanted to do of keeping his brother with him in such a way that his other brothers would not realise it, Allah says: ﴿Thus We devised a plan for Yoosuf﴾ that is, We made easy for him this plan which enabled him to achieve something that was not blameworthy ﴿for he could not have detained his brother under the king’s law﴾ because there was nothing in that law that allowed enslavement of the thief; rather they had some other penalty in such cases. Therefore if the ruling had been referred to the king's law, Yoosuf would not have been able to keep his brother with him. But he made the ruling come from them, so that he might achieve his aim.

﴿We raise in status whomsoever We will﴾ by means of beneficial knowledge and knowledge of ways and means of achieving desired goals, as We raised Yoosuf in status ﴿above each one who is possessed of knowledge is one more knowing﴾. Above each one who has knowledge is one who is more knowledgeable than him, until knowledge ends with the Knower of the unseen and the seen.

When the brothers of Yoosuf saw what happened, ﴿They said: If he﴾ – namely this brother – ﴿steals﴾, there is nothing surprising about that, because ﴿there was a brother of his who stole before him﴾. They were referring to Yoosuf (ﷺ); what they meant by saying this was to declare their own innocence. In other words: this one and his brother may commit acts of theft, but they are not our full brothers.

These words implied a great deal of disparagement, but Yoosuf kept his thoughts to himself ﴿and did not disclose anything to them﴾ that is, he did not respond to their words in a way that would be displeasing to them; rather he restrained his anger and kept it to himself.

﴿He said [to himself]: You are in a worse position﴾ because you blamed us when you are worse than us in that regard ﴿and Allah knows best the truth of what you say﴾ that is, He knows better than others, as you are accusing us of theft when Allah knows that we are innocent.

Then they tried to appease him, hoping that he would let their brother go with them. ﴿They said: O ruler of the land, verily he has a father who is elderly and venerable﴾ and he cannot bear to be apart from him; it is too difficult for him to be separated from him.

«take one of us, instead of him, for indeed we see that you are a kind man», so be kind to us and to our father by doing that.

But «Yoosuf said: Allah forbid that we should take any but the man with whom our property was found» that is, this would be wrongdoing on our part, if we were to punish an innocent person for the crime of the one with whom we found our property. He did not say “the one who stole”, in order to avoid lying.

«for in that case», if we punished someone other than the one in whose saddlebag it was found

«we should surely be unjust» as we would be imposing punishment on one who was innocent.

﴿فَلَمَّا أَتَيْنَاهَا مِنْهُ خَلَصُوا بِحَيَاتٍ قَالَ كَبِيرُهُمْ أَلَمْ تَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ أَبَاكُمْ قَدْ أَخَذَ عَلَيْكُمْ مَوْثِقًا مِنَ اللَّهِ وَمِنْ قَبْلُ مَا فَرَّطْتُمْ فِي يُوسُفَ فَلَنْ أَبْرَحَ الْأَرْضَ حَتَّى يَأْذَنَ لِي أَبِي أَوْ يَحْكُمَ اللَّهُ لِي وَهُوَ خَيْرُ الْحَاكِمِينَ ﴿٨٠﴾ أَرْجِعُوا إِلَى آبَائِكُمْ فَقُولُوا يَتَابَعْنَا بِأَبْنَاءِ ابْنِكُمْ سَرَقَ وَمَا شَهِدْنَا إِلَّا بِمَا عَلَّمَنَا وَمَا كُنَّا لِلْغَيْبِ حَافِظِينَ ﴿٨١﴾ وَسَلِّ الْقَرْيَةَ الَّتِي كُنَّا فِيهَا وَالْعِيرَ الَّتِي أَقْبَلْنَا فِيهَا وَإِنَّا لَصَادِقُونَ ﴿٨٢﴾ قَالَ بَلْ سَوَّلَتْ لَكُمْ أَنْفُسُكُمْ أَمْرًا فَصَبِرْ جَمِيلٌ عَسَى اللَّهُ أَنْ يَأْتِيَنِي بِهِمْ جَمِيعًا إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْعَلِيمُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٨٣﴾﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٨٠-٨٣)

12:80. When they despaired of him [responding to their request], they conferred privately. The eldest of them said: Do you not know that your father took a solemn oath from you, by Allah, and before this you failed with regard to Yoosuf? Therefore I will not leave this land until my father gives me leave or Allah decides for me, and He is the best to decide.

12:81. Go back to your father and say: O our father, indeed your son has committed theft; we can only tell you what we saw and we could not guard against what we could not foresee.

12:82. Ask in the town where we have been and ask the caravan in which we returned; we are indeed telling the truth.

12:83. Ya'qoob said: Nay; rather your souls have tempted you to do something evil. But I will bear this patiently, and in good grace. Perhaps Allah will bring them all back to me, for verily He is the All-Knowing, Most Wise.

When the brothers of Yoosuf despaired of him allowing them to take their brother back with them,

﴿they conferred privately﴾ that is, they got together on their own, with no one else present, and started to discuss the issue amongst themselves.

﴿The eldest of them said: Do you not know that your father took a solemn oath from you, by Allah﴾ that you would look after him and that you would bring him back, unless you were overwhelmed by circumstances?

﴿and before this you failed with regard to Yoosuf﴾. So you did two things: your previous failure with regard to Yoosuf, and your failure to bring his brother back later on. I am too ashamed to face my father, ﴿Therefore I will not leave this land﴾ that is, I will stay in this land and will remain here

﴿until my father gives me leave or Allah decides for me﴾ that is, He decrees that I should come on my own or with my brother

﴿and He is the best to decide﴾.

Then he advised them what to say to their father. He said: ﴿Go back to your father and say: O our father, indeed your son has committed theft﴾ that is, he has been detained for theft and we could not bring him to you despite our best efforts. We are not telling you about something of which we have no knowledge; rather we can only tell you what we saw, because we saw the goblet taken out of his saddlebag

﴿and we could not guard against what we could not foresee﴾ that is, if we had known what we could not foresee, we would not have been eager and we would not have insisted that he should go with us, and we would not have given you our solemn oath. But we did not think that the matter would end like this.

﴿Ask﴾ if you doubt what we say ﴿in the town where we have been and ask the caravan in which we returned﴾ for they are aware of what we are telling you

﴿we are indeed telling the truth﴾ and we are not lying or changing the story; rather this is what really happened.

When they went back to their father and told him this news, he was very upset; his grief intensified and he accused them again about this matter, as he had accused them in the first case.

﴿Ya'qoob said: Nay; rather your souls have tempted you to do something evil. But I will bear this patiently, and in good grace﴾ that is, he resorted to patience and good grace that is not accompanied by discontent, panic or complaints to people. Then he began to hope for relief, when he saw that things had got worse and his distress had become severe. Therefore he said: ﴿Perhaps Allah will bring them all back to me﴾ namely Yoosuf, Binyameen and their eldest brother who had stayed in Egypt.

﴿for verily He is the All-Knowing﴾ Who knows my situation and my need for His relief and favour, and my desperate need for His kindness ﴿Most Wise﴾ Who has decreed for everything a timescale and an end for all things, according to His divine wisdom.

﴿وَتَوَلَّى عَنْهُمْ وَقَالَ يَأْسَفَى عَلَى يُونُسَ وَأَبْيَضَتْ عَيْنَاهُ مِنَ الْحُزَنِ فَهُوَ كَظِيمٌ﴾
 ﴿قَالُوا تَاللَّهِ تَفْتَوْا تَذَكَّرْ يُونُسَ حَتَّى تَكُونَ حَرَضًا أَوْ تَكُونَ مِنَ﴾
 ﴿الْهَلِكِينَ﴾ ﴿قَالَ إِنَّمَا أَشْكُوا بَنِي وَحْزَنِي إِلَى اللَّهِ وَأَعْلَمُ مِنَ اللَّهِ مَا لَا﴾ ﴿تَعْلَمُونَ﴾ ﴿(سورة يوسف: ٨٤-٨٦)﴾

- 12:84. And he turned away from them, and said: Alas for Yoosuf! And his eyes became white with grief, and he was burdened with silent sorrow.
- 12:85. They said: By Allah, you will not cease to remember Yoosuf until your health is ruined or you die.
- 12:86. He said: I only complain of my distress and sorrow to Allah, and I know from Allah what you do not know.

That is, Ya'qoob (ﷺ) turned away from his sons after they told him this news, and he was very sad and grieved. His eyes turned white because of the grief and sorrow in his heart that caused him to weep a great deal.

﴿and said: Alas for Yoosuf!﴾ That is, his old and deep-rooted sorrow and longing, that had remained hidden, now rose to the surface and this calamity, which was minor in comparison to the first calamity, reminded him of that earlier calamity. His sons, who were surprised at his state, said to him:

﴿By Allah, you will not cease to remember Yoosuf﴾ that is, you keep on remembering Yoosuf in all situations

﴿until your health is ruined﴾ that is, until you lose all power and become unable to move or talk

﴿or you die﴾.

﴿He﴾ that is, Ya'qoob ﴿said: I only complain of my distress and sorrow﴾ that are in my heart ﴿to Allah﴾ alone, not to you or to any other people. So say whatever you want.

﴿and I know from Allah what you do not know﴾, that He will return them to me and I will have the joy of being reunited with them.

﴿يَبْقَىٰ أَذْهَبُوا فَتَحَسَّسُوا مِنْ يُوسُفَ وَأَخِيهِ وَلَا تَأْتِسُوا مِنْ رَوْحِ اللَّهِ إِنَّهُ لَا يَأْتِسُ مِنْ رَوْحِ اللَّهِ إِلَّا الْقَوْمُ الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿٨٧﴾ فَلَمَّا دَخَلُوا عَلَيْهِ قَالُوا يَا أَيُّهَا الْعَزِيزُ

مَسْنَا وَأَهْلَنَا الْفَرُّ وَجِئْنَا بِضَعْفٍ مُزْجَنٍ فَأَوْفِ لَنَا الْكَيْلَ وَتَصَدَّقْ عَلَيْنَا إِنَّ اللَّهَ
يَجْزِي الْمُتَصَدِّقِينَ ﴿٨٨﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٨٧-٨٨)

- 12:87. O my sons, go and seek news of Yoosuf and his brother, and do not despair of the mercy of Allah. Verily no one despairs of the mercy of Allah but the disbelieving people.
- 12:88. When they came into his presence, they said: O ruler of the land, hardship has befallen us and our family, and we have brought merchandise of scant worth. So give us full measure, and be charitable to us, for Allah rewards the charitable.

Ya'qoob (ﷺ) said to his sons: ﴿O my sons, go and seek news of Yoosuf and his brother﴾ that is, try hard to look for them ﴿and do not despair of the mercy of Allah﴾ for hope makes a person try hard to achieve what he hopes for, whereas despair leads to apathy and giving up. The best that people can hope for is the grace, kindness and mercy of Allah.

﴿Verily no one despairs of the mercy of Allah but the disbelieving people﴾ for – because of their disbelief – they think it unlikely that He will bestow mercy upon them and they think His mercy is far off, so do not be like the disbelievers.

This indicates that a person's hope of the mercy of Allah will be commensurate with the level of his faith.

So they went, and ﴿When they came into his presence﴾ that is, when they entered upon Yoosuf

﴿they said﴾, beseeching him:

﴿O ruler of the land, hardship has befallen us and our family, and we have brought merchandise of scant worth. So give us full measure, and be charitable to us﴾ that is, we and our family are in desperate need ﴿and we have brought merchandise of scant worth﴾ that is, merchandise that no one is interested in and is of little value

«So give us full measure» that is, even though the goods we offer do not match what we seek, be charitable to us by giving more than is our due

«for Allah rewards the charitable» in this world and the hereafter.

When they had finished their plea for help and expressed how desperate they were, Yoosuf was very moved and felt sorry for them, and he told them who he was and rebuked them.

﴿قَالَ هَلْ عَلِمْتُمْ مَا فَعَلْتُمْ يُّوسُفَ وَأَخِيهِ إِذْ أَنْتُمْ جَاهِلُونَ﴾ (٨٩) ﴿قَالُوا أَوَإِنَّكَ لَأَنْتَ يُّوسُفُ﴾ قَالَ أَنَا يُوسُفُ وَهَذَا أَخِي قَدْ مَنَّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْنَا إِنَّهُ مَن يَتَّقِ وَيَصْبِرْ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُضِيعُ أَجْرَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٩٠﴾ ﴿قَالُوا تَاللَّهِ لَقَدْ ءَاتَاكَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْنَا وَإِنْ كُنَّا لَخَطِئِينَ﴾ (٩١) ﴿قَالَ لَا تَثْرِبَ عَلَيْكُمْ أَيُّومٌ يُغْفِرُ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ وَهُوَ أَرْحَمُ الرَّاحِمِينَ﴾ (٩٢) (سورة يوسف: ٨٩-٩٢)

12:89. He said: Do you know what you did to Yoosuf and his brother, when you were ignorant?

12:90. They said: Could it be that you are Yoosuf? He said: I am Yoosuf, and this is my brother. Allah has indeed been gracious to us. Verily, whoever fears Allah and is patient, Allah will not cause the reward of those who do good to be lost.

12:91. They said: By Allah, verily Allah has favoured you above us, and we were indeed in the wrong.

12:92. He said: There is no reproach against you this day. May Allah forgive you, for He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy.

«He said: Do you know what you did to Yoosuf and his brother» – as for Yoosuf, it is clear what they did to him; as for his brother, it may have been – and Allah knows best – what they said about him: ﴿If he steals, there was a brother of his who stole before him﴾ (12: 77), or it may have been the incident that separated him from his father, of which they were the cause.

﴿when you were ignorant﴾ this is a kind of excuse for their misbehaviour, attributing it to their ignorance, or it may be a rebuke to them, because they did the deeds of ignorant people even though that was not befitting for them.

They realised that the one who was addressing them was Yoosuf, and they said: ﴿Could it be that you are Yoosuf? He said: I am Yoosuf, and this is my brother. Allah has indeed been gracious to us﴾ by blessing us with piety and fear of Allah, and establishing us in the land. That is because ﴿Verily, whoever fears Allah and is patient﴾ that is, he avoids doing what Allah has prohibited and is patient in bearing pain and calamity and in complying with the commands, ﴿Allah will not cause the reward of those who do good to be lost﴾ for these things are part of doing good, and Allah will not cause the reward of those who do good to be lost.

﴿They said: By Allah, verily Allah has favoured you above us﴾ that is, He has favoured you above us in terms of sublime characteristics and attitude, and beautiful traits, but we mistreated you in the worst manner, and we strove to cause you harm and keep you away from your father. But Allah (ﷻ) favoured you and enabled you to attain what you wanted

﴿and we were indeed in the wrong﴾ – this was a clear and blunt admission on their part of the offence that they had committed against Yoosuf.

But Yoosuf (ﷺ) said to them, out of generosity and kindness: ﴿There is no reproach against you this day﴾ that is, I will not reproach you or blame you ﴿May Allah forgive you, for He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy﴾. So he forgave them completely, without shaming them by mentioning their previous sins, and he prayed for forgiveness and mercy for them. This is the ultimate kindness and goodness that only comes from the best of people, the elite of the chosen.

﴿أَذْهَبُوا بِقَمِيصِي هَذَا فَأَلْقُوهُ عَلَى وَجْهِ أَبِي يَأْتِ بَصِيرًا وَأْتُونِي بِأَهْلِكُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ﴾ (٩٣) وَلَمَّا فَصَلَ الْعِيرُ قَالَ أَبُوهُمْ إِنِّي لَأَجِدُ رِيحَ يُوسُفَ لَوْلَا أَن تُفَنِّدُونِ (٩٤) قَالُوا تَاللَّهِ إِنَّكَ لَفِي ضَلَالِكَ الْقَدِيمِ (٩٥) فَلَمَّا أَن جَاءَ الْبَشِيرُ أَلْقَاهُ عَلَى وَجْهِهِ فَارْتَدَّ بَصِيرًا قَالَ أَلَمْ أَقُلْ لَكُمْ إِنِّي أَعْلَمُ مِنَ اللَّهِ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُونَ (٩٦) قَالُوا يَا أَبَانَا اسْتَغْفِرْ لَنَا ذُنُوبَنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا خَاطِئِينَ (٩٧) قَالَ سَوْفَ أَسْتَغْفِرُ لَكُمْ رَبِّي إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ (٩٨) ﴿(سورة يوسف: ٩٣-٩٨)﴾

- 12:93. Take this shirt of mine and place it over my father's face; he will recover his sight. Then come [back] to me with all of your family.
- 12:94. When the caravan set out, their father said: Verily I can smell the fragrance of Yoosuf, even though you may think me senile.
- 12:95. They said: By Allah, you are still lost in your old delusions!
- 12:96. Then when the bearer of glad tidings came, he placed [the shirt] over his face, and he [immediately] recovered his sight. He said: Did I not say to you, I know from Allah what you do not know?
- 12:97. They said: Our father, pray to Allah to forgive us our sins, for we were indeed in the wrong.
- 12:98. He said: I shall ask my Lord to forgive you, for verily He is the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

Yoosuf (ﷺ) said to his brothers: «Take this shirt of mine and place it over my father's face; he will recover his sight» because every disease is treated with its opposite; this shirt held traces of the fragrance of Yoosuf, grief and longing for whom had taken deep root in his father's heart, to an extent known only to Allah, but when his father smelled it, his heart found relief and his sight was restored. There was divine wisdom in that which people do not fully understand, but Yoosuf was aware of that.

«Then come [back] to me with all of your family» that is, your children and your clan, and all those who are connected to you, so that the reunion will be complete and hardship and lack of provision will be removed from you.

«When the caravan set out» from Egypt, heading towards Palestine, Ya'qoob smelled the fragrance of the shirt and said: «Verily I can smell the fragrance of Yoosuf, even though you may think me senile» that is, you make fun of me and think I do not know what I am saying. That is because he realised that they were surprised at what had happened to make him say that, and what he expected from them did indeed happen, as they said:

«By Allah, you are still lost in your old delusions!» That is, you are still like one who is lost at sea, and you do not know what you are saying.

«Then when the bearer of glad tidings» that Yoosuf and his brothers and their father would soon be reunited «came, he placed [the shirt] over his face, and he [immediately] recovered his sight» that is, his sight was restored, after his eyes had turned white with grief, and he said to those of his children and his family who were present, who had rejected his view and been surprised at it, triumphantly rejoicing in the blessing that Allah had bestowed upon him: «Did I not say to you, I know from Allah what you do not know?», as I was hoping to meet Yoosuf, and I was expecting relief from worry, distress and grief.

Then they admitted their sin, and rightfully so: «They said: Our father, pray to Allah to forgive us our sins, for we were indeed in the wrong» when we did what we did to you.

«He said» hastening to respond to their request: «I shall ask my Lord to forgive you, for verily He is the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful» and I hope that He will forgive you and have mercy upon you, showering His mercy upon you. It was said that he delayed seeking forgiveness for them until the time just before dawn, which is the best time to pray for forgiveness and the time when such prayer is more likely to be answered.

﴿فَلَمَّا دَخَلُوا عَلَى يُوسُفَ ءَاوَىٰ إِلَيْهِ أَبَوَيْهِ وَقَالَ ادْخُلُوا مِصْرَ إِن شَاءَ اللَّهُ ءَامِنِينَ ۝١١﴾ وَرَفَعَ أَبَوَيْهِ عَلَى الْعَرْشِ وَخَرُّوا لَهُ سُجَّدًا وَقَالَ يَأْتِبَتِ هَذَا تَأْوِيلُ رُؤْيَايَ مِنْ قَبْلُ قَدْ جَعَلَهَا رَبِّي حَقًّا وَقَدْ أَحْسَنَ بِي إِذْ أَخْرَجَنِي مِنَ السِّجْنِ وَجَاءَ بِكُمْ مِنَ الْبَدْوِ مِنْ بَعْدِ أَنْ نَزَغَ الشَّيْطَانُ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَ إِخْوَتِي إِنَّ رَبِّي لَطِيفٌ لِمَا يَشَاءُ إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْعَلِيمُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿١٢﴾ (سورة يوسف: ٩٩-١٠٠)

12:99. Then when they came into Yoosuf's presence, he lodged his parents with himself and said: Enter Egypt, if Allah wills, safe and secure.

12:100. He seated his parents in the highest place of honour, and they fell down in prostration before him. He said: O my father, this is the fulfilment of my dream of old. My Lord has made it come true. He has indeed been gracious to me, when He rescued me from prison and brought you here from the desert, after Shaytân had sown discord between me and my brothers. Verily my Lord is gracious to whomever He will, for He is the All-Knowing, Most Wise.

«Then when» Ya‘qoob and his sons, and all their families, had made preparations and travelled from their land to go and join Yoosuf in Egypt and live there, when they reached him and «came into Yoosuf’s presence, he lodged his parents with himself» that is, he made them join him and he singled them out to be close to him, showing them a great deal of respect, kindness, honour and veneration «and said» to all of his family: «Enter Egypt, if Allah wills, safe and secure» from all harm and fear. So they entered Egypt in that happy state and were delivered from hardship and misery, and they attained happiness and joy.

«He seated his parents in the highest place of honour» that is, on the king’s throne, where al-‘Azeez sat

«and they fell down in prostration before him» that is, his father, his mother and his siblings fell down in prostration before him by way of respect and honour.

«He said», when he saw that and he saw them prostrating to him: «O my father, this is the fulfilment of my dream of old» when he saw eleven stars and the sun and moon prostrating to him. This was the fulfilment of that dream, when it finally came to pass.

«My Lord has made it come true» and He did not make it a jumbled, confusing dream.

«He has indeed been gracious to me» and very kind «when He rescued me from prison and brought you here from the desert». This is an example of his gentle and eloquent talk, as he mentioned his situation in prison, but he did not mention his situation in the well, because he had completely forgiven his brothers. Therefore he did not mention their wrongdoing and he described their coming from the desert as being an example of Allah’s kindness to him.

He did not say: Hunger and hardship have brought you here, and he did not say: Allah has been gracious to you. Rather he said: «He has indeed been gracious to me», pointing out that the divine kindness was directed to him. Blessed be the One Who bestows His mercy upon whomever He will of His slaves, and He grants mercy to them from Him, for He is the Bestower.

«after Shayṭān had sown discord between me and my brothers». He did not say: The Shayṭān misled my brothers; rather it was as if the sin and ignorance were on both parts. Praise be to Allah Who humiliated and defeated the Shayṭān and brought us together after this difficult separation.

«Verily my Lord is gracious to whomever He will» He causes His kindness to reach His slave from where he does not expect it, and He causes him to attain high status by means of things that he dislikes «for He is the All-Knowing» Who knows the visible and hidden aspects of all things and the secrets in people's hearts. «Most Wise» in doing what is appropriate and causing events to occur at decreed times.

﴿ رَبِّ قَدْ آتَيْتَنِي مِنَ الْمُلْكِ وَعَلَّمْتَنِي مِنْ تَأْوِيلِ الْأَحَادِيثِ فَاطِرَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ أَنْتَ وَلِيِّ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ تَوَفَّنِي مُسْلِمًا وَأَلْحِقْنِي بِالصَّالِحِينَ ﴾ (سورة يوسف: ١٠١)

12:101. O my Lord, You have indeed given me some authority and taught me something of the interpretation of dreams. O Originator of the heavens and the earth, You are my Protector in this world and in the hereafter. Cause me to die as a Muslim [submitting to Your will], and join me with the righteous.

When Allah gave Yoosuf power and authority in the land, and reunited him with his parents and brothers, and after Allah granted him great knowledge, he said, acknowledging with gratitude the blessing of Allah and asking Him to make him steadfast in Islam:

«O my Lord, You have indeed given me some authority» – as he was put in charge of the storehouses of the land, to manage as he saw fit, and he was an important adviser to the king

«and taught me something of the interpretation of dreams» – the Arabic wording may refer to the interpretation of the revealed Books, as well as the interpretation of dreams and other kinds of knowledge

«O Originator of the heavens and the earth, You are my Protector in this world and in the hereafter. Cause me to die as a Muslim [submitting to Your will]» that is, make me always adhere to Islam and be steadfast therein, until You cause me to die as a Muslim. This supplication was not by way of seeking to hasten death.

«and join me with the righteous» namely the Prophets, the righteous, the pure and the chosen.

ذَٰلِكَ مِنْ أَنْبَاءِ الْغَيْبِ نُوحِيهِ إِلَيْكَ وَمَا كُنْتَ لَدَيْهِمْ إِذْ أَتَمَعُوا أَمْرَهُمْ وَهُمْ يَمْكُرُونَ

﴿سورة يوسف: ١٠٢﴾

12:102. This is an account of the unseen [the distant past], which We reveal to you [O Muhammad]; you were not with them when they agreed upon their plot and they were scheming.

When Allah told this story to Muhammad (ṣalla Allāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam – blessings and peace be upon him), Allah said to him: «This» namely the story that We have related to you «is an account of the unseen [the distant past]». Were it not for Our sending revelation to you, this great story could not have reached you, because you were not present with them «when they» namely the brothers of Yoosuf «agreed upon their plot and they were scheming» against him, when they pledged to separate him and his father, and they were in a situation where no one could see them except Allah (ﷻ) and no one could know about it unless Allah informed him of it.

This is like what Allah (ﷻ) said when He told the story of Moosâ and what happened to him, and mentioned the situation that people had no way of knowing except by His revelation:

﴿You were not there on the western side [of the mountain] when We decreed for Moosâ the commission, nor did you witness that event.﴾
(al-Qasas 28: 44)

This is the clearest indication that what the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) brought is true.

﴿وَمَا أَكْثَرُ النَّاسِ وَلَوْ حَرَصْتَ بِمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٠٣﴾ وَمَا تَسْأَلُهُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٠٤﴾ وَكَأَيِّنْ مِنْ آيَةٍ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يَمُرُّونَ عَلَيْهَا وَهُمْ عَنْهَا مُعْرِضُونَ ﴿١٠٥﴾ وَمَا يُؤْمِنُ أَكْثَرُهُمْ بِاللَّهِ إِلَّا وَهُمْ مُشْرِكُونَ ﴿١٠٦﴾ أَفَأَمِنُوا أَنْ تَأْتِيَهُمْ غَشِيَةٌ مِّنْ عَذَابِ اللَّهِ أَوْ تَأْتِيَهُمُ السَّاعَةُ بَغْتَةً وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿١٠٧﴾﴾
(سورة يوسف: ١٠٣-١٠٧)

- 12:103. But most of humankind will not believe, no matter how eagerly you desire it.
- 12:104. No reward do you ask of them for this. It is but a reminder to the worlds.
- 12:105. How many are the signs in the heavens and the earth which they pass by without paying them any heed!
- 12:106. And most of them believe not in Allah except that they ascribe partners to Him.
- 12:107. Do they feel secure that the overwhelming scourge of Allah's punishment will not come upon them, or that the Hour will not come upon them suddenly when they least expect it?

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ): «But most of humankind will not believe, no matter how eagerly you desire it», for their thoughts and aims have become corrupt, so the eagerness of those who would sincerely advise them is of no avail, even if there are no impediments to guidance, in the sense that those would-be advisers are teaching them and calling them to that which is good for them and will ward off harm from them without asking for any reward or compensation, and even if they establish all evidence and proof that points to the truthfulness of their message. Hence Allah says:

«No reward do you ask of them for this. It is but a reminder to the worlds» so that they may remember that which will benefit them and thus do it, and that which will harm them and thus refrain from it.

«How many are the signs in the heavens and the earth» that point to the oneness of Allah «which they pass by without paying them any heed».

Yet despite that, even if there is some belief on the part of some of them, «most of them believe not in Allah except that they ascribe partners to Him». Even if they affirm the Lordship of Allah (ﷻ) and acknowledge that He is the Creator, Provider and Controller of all things, they still ascribe partners to Allah in His divinity and oneness. For those who have reached this state (of ascribing partners to Allah), there is nothing left for them but that the punishment should befall them and come upon them suddenly whilst they feel safe. Hence Allah says:

«Do they feel secure» that is, do those who do these deeds and turn away from the signs of Allah feel safe «that the overwhelming scourge of Allah's punishment will not come upon them» that is, a punishment that will overwhelm them all and eradicate them «or that the Hour will not come upon them suddenly when they least expect it» that is, for they deserve that, so let them repent to Allah and refrain from anything that may be a cause of their punishment.

﴿قُلْ هَذِهِ سَبِيلِي أَدْعُو إِلَى اللَّهِ عَلَى بَصِيرَةٍ أَنَا وَمَنِ اتَّبَعَنِي وَسُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَمَا أَنَا مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ﴾ (١٠٨) وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ إِلَّا رِجَالًا نُوْحِي إِلَيْهِمْ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْقُرَىٰ أَفَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَلَدَارُ الْآخِرَةِ خَيْرٌ لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿١٠٩﴾ (سورة يوسف: ١٠٨-١٠٩)

- 12:108. Say [O Muhammad]: This is my way; I call to Allah on the basis of clear evidence – I and those who follow me. Glory be to Allah! And I am not one of those who ascribe partners to Allah.
- 12:109. We did not send before you any but men to whom We gave revelation, from among the people of the cities. Have they not travelled in the land and seen what was the fate of those who came before them? But the abode of the hereafter is better for those who fear Allah. Will you not then understand?

Here Allah says to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ): ﴿Say﴾ to the people

﴿This is my way﴾ that is, my way to which I call; it is the way that leads to Allah and to paradise, the way that is based on knowledge of the truth, acting upon it and giving it precedence, and based on devoting worship to Allah alone with no partner or associate.

﴿I call to Allah﴾ that is, I urge and encourage people to turn to their Lord, and I warn them against that which keeps them away from Him. Moreover, I do that ﴿on the basis of clear evidence﴾ for my religion, that is, on the basis of knowledge and certainty beyond any shadow of a doubt, about which there are no reservations. And, likewise, ﴿those who follow me﴾ also call to Allah as I do, on the basis of certainty. So ﴿Glory be to Allah﴾, and exalted be He far above what is attributed to Him that is not befitting to His Majesty or is contrary to His perfection.

﴿And I am not one of those who ascribe partners to Allah﴾ in any of my affairs; rather I worship Allah, devoting my worship sincerely to Him alone.

﴿We did not send before you any but men﴾ that is, We did not send angels or any other type of creature, so why then do your people find it strange that you are sent as a Messenger, and claim that you are no better than them? But you have a good example in the Messengers who were sent before you.

﴿to whom We gave revelation, from among the people of the cities﴾ that is, they were not from the desert; rather they were from among the people of the cities, who are more rational and more mature in thinking, so that their case and their message would be clear.

﴿Have they not travelled in the land﴾ if they do not believe what you say ﴿and seen what was the fate of those who came before them﴾, and how Allah destroyed them for their disbelief; so beware lest you do what they did and thus the same fate befall you as befell them.

﴿But the abode of the hereafter﴾ that is, paradise and what it contains of eternal delights

﴿is better for those who fear Allah﴾ by obeying His commands and avoiding what He prohibits, for the delights of this world are imperfect, tainted and fleeting, whereas the delights of the hereafter are perfect, complete and never-ending; rather they are eternal and will forever increase and continue:

﴿...a gift without end.﴾ (Hood 11: 108)

﴿Will you not then understand?﴾ that is, do you not have reason with which to give precedence to that which is better over that which is inferior?

﴿حَتَّىٰ إِذَا اسْتَيْشَسَ الرَّسُولُ وَظَنُّوا أَنَّهُمْ قَدْ كُذِّبُوا جَاءَهُمْ نَصْرُنَا فَنُجِّيَ مِنْ نَشْأَةٍ وَلَا يَرُدُّ بَأْسُنَا عَنِ الْقَوْمِ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿١١﴾﴾ لَقَدْ كَانَتْ فِي قَصَصِهِمْ عِبْرَةٌ لِأُولَى

أَلَا لَيْتَ مَا كَانَ حَدِيثًا يُفْتَرَى وَلَٰكِن تَصَدِّقَ الَّذِي بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ وَتَفْصِيلَ
كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿١١١﴾ (سورة يوسف: ١١٠-١١١)

- 12:110. Then when the Messengers despaired and [the people] thought that the promise [made to the Messengers] was false, Our help came to them, and those who We willed were saved. Our punishment is never averted from the transgressors.
- 12:111. In their stories there is a lesson for people of understanding. This [the Qur'an] is not a fabricated tale, but a confirmation of [the scriptures] that came before it, an explanation of all things, and guidance and mercy to people who believe.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He sent the noble Messengers, but the wicked transgressors disbelieved in them, and that Allah gave them respite so that they might believe; He continued to give them respite until they reached such a high degree of harshness towards the Messengers that the latter, despite their complete certainty and strong belief in the promise and warnings of Allah, began to feel a kind of despair and a kind of faltering in knowledge and certainty. When matters reached that state, ﴿Our help came to them, and those who We willed were saved﴾ namely the Messengers and their followers. ﴿Our punishment is never averted from the transgressors﴾ that is, Our punishment is never averted from those who committed offences and transgressed the limits set by Allah.

﴿Then man will have no power to help himself nor anyone to help him.﴾ (at-Târiq 86: 10)

﴿In their stories﴾ that is, in the stories of the Prophets and Messengers with their people
﴿there is a lesson for people of understanding﴾ that is, they learn from them, as the stories speak of both good and bad people, and explain that those who do what they did will get what they got of honour or humiliation, respectively. They also learn from these stories what Allah has of attributes of perfection and great wisdom, and that Allah is the One Who alone should be worshipped, with no partner or associate.

«This [the Qur'an] is not a fabricated tale» that is, the Qur'an – in which Allah tells you these stories of the unseen – is not fabricated tales

«but» it is «a confirmation of [the scriptures] that came before it» namely the previous Books; it is in harmony with them and testifies to their truth

«an explanation of all things» that people need to know of the fundamental and minor issues of faith and of proof and evidence.

«and guidance and mercy to people who believe» for they – because of what they gain from it of knowledge of the truth to which they give precedence – attain guidance, and by what they attain of reward in this world and the hereafter, they will also attain mercy.

Note:

Here we will list some of the lessons that may be derived from this great story, at the beginning of which Allah says: «We relate to you [O Muhammad] the best of stories» (12: 3) and He says: «Verily in Yoosuf and his brothers there are lessons for those who enquire» (12: 7) and at the end of this story, He says: «In their stories there is a lesson for people of understanding» (12: 111).

Here we will list some lessons other than those which have been mentioned above:

- This story is one of the best and clearest of stories, because it moves from one situation to another, from trial to trial, from trial to blessing, from humiliation to honour, from slavery to a position of authority, from separation and fragmentation to reunion and harmony, from sorrow to joy, from ease to hardship, from hardship to ease, from restriction to abundance, from denial to admission. Blessed be the One Who told the story and told it well, making it abundantly clear.

- It shows that there is a basis for dream interpretation and that knowledge of dream interpretation is one of the important branches of knowledge that Allah gives to whomever He will among His slaves. What this knowledge is mostly based on is connection and similarity in names and attributes. In the dream that Yoosuf saw, the sun, moon and stars were prostrating to him, and the connection here was that these lights were the adornment and beauty of heaven, and the sky is useful because of them. Similarly, the Prophets and scholars are the adornment and beauty of the earth, and by them people are guided in the darkness as they are guided by the lights (of the heavenly bodies mentioned above). Moreover, his father and mother were his origin, and his brothers were branches that stemmed from them, so it was appropriate that the origin should be greater in illumination and size than that which stemmed from it. Therefore the sun represented his mother, the moon represented his father and the stars represented his brothers. Moreover, the Arabic word for sun (shams)<sup>2</sup> is feminine, therefore it represented his mother. The words for moon (qamar) and stars (kawākib) are masculine, therefore they represented his father and his brothers. It is also appropriate that the one who prostrates respects and venerates the one to whom he prostrates, and the one who is prostrated to is respected and venerated. Therefore this indicated that Yoosuf would be respected and honoured by his parents and brothers, which necessitated that he would be chosen and favoured in terms of knowledge and attributes that would lead to him being thus venerated and respected. Hence his father said to him: ﴿Thus your Lord will choose you and teach you the interpretation of dreams and events﴾ (12: 6).

<sup>2</sup> Wherever possible, Arabic terms have been translated into English. In cases where we have chosen to retain the Arabic, the transliterated word or phrase is shown in italics the first time it appears in the text. The term is also defined in the glossary found at the end of this book. (Editor)

In the case of the dreams of the two young men, his interpretation with regard to the first dream, in which the person saw himself pressing grapes for wine, was based on the fact that the one who presses the grapes is usually a servant to someone else, and that pressing is done for the sake of another person. Therefore Yoosuf interpreted the dream as he did, and told him that he would pour wine for his master, which implied that he would get out of prison.

In the case of the one who dreamt that he was carrying bread on his head from which the birds were eating, he interpreted it as referring to the skin and flesh of his head, and his brains, and that what was carried would be exposed to the birds in such a way that the birds would be able to eat from his head. From his situation, he realised that he would be killed and crucified after his death, and his body would be left out for the birds so that they could eat from his head, which would only occur in the case of crucifixion after execution.

He interpreted the king's dream of the cows and ears of corn as referring to years of plenty and years of drought. The connection in this case is that the people's situation and interests are tied to those of the king; if his situation is good or bad then their situation will be likewise. Similarly, the people's well-being and livelihood is connected to the yield of crops.

With regard to cows (oxen), they are used to till the soil and bring water to it, and if the yield is good they grow fat, but if there is drought, they grow lean. In years of abundance the ears of corn are plentiful and green, but at times of drought they are few and dry; they are the best crop that land may produce.

- This story offers evidence for the truthfulness of the prophethood of Muhammad (ﷺ), as he told this long story to his people, although he had not read the scriptures of earlier nations or studied with anyone. His people saw him living among them, morning and evening, and they knew that he was unlettered and could neither read nor write. But this story is in accordance with what is mentioned in the previous Books, although he was not with them when they agreed upon their plot and they were scheming (12: 102).

- We should keep away from the causes of evil and conceal what we fear, because Ya'qoob said to Yoosuf: ﴿O my son, say nothing of this dream to your brothers, lest they plot evil against you﴾ (12: 5).
- It is permissible to tell a person something that may upset him by way of advice, because Ya'qoob said to him: ﴿lest they plot evil against you﴾ (12: 5).
- The blessing that Allah bestows upon a person is also a blessing for anyone who is connected to him of the members of his household, his relatives and his friends, and they may get what he gets because of that, as Ya'qoob said, explaining the dream of Yoosuf: ﴿Thus your Lord will choose you and teach you the interpretation of dreams and events, and He will complete His favour to you and to the family of Ya'qoob﴾ (12: 6). When the blessing was completed for Yoosuf, the family of Ya'qoob also attained honour and power in the land, and were granted happiness and joy, and that was because of Yoosuf.
- Justice is required in all affairs, not only in the way in which the ruler treats his people or anything less than that; it is even required in the way a father treats his children in terms of love, giving of gifts, and so on. Not treating them equally will lead to trouble for the father and will cause problems. Therefore when Ya'qoob gave precedence to Yoosuf in terms of love, and preferred him over his brothers, they did what they did, which led to bad consequences for themselves and for their father and brothers.

- This story contains a warning of the bad consequences of sin, and that one sin may lead to many other sins; one sin cannot be committed unless many others were committed before it. When the brothers of Yoosuf wanted to separate him from his father, they used various kinds of tricks to achieve that; they told lies on several occasions, and they forged the evidence of the blood-stained shirt and came weeping in order to deceive their father. It is not far-fetched to say that perhaps they had discussed the matter a great deal, and perhaps that discussion continued until they met Yoosuf again, and the more they discussed it, the more lies and fabrications there were about what happened. This is the negative consequences of sin and the effects that result from it both before and after it is done.
- What matters is having a good end, not having a bad start. The sons of Ya'qoob (ﷺ) did what they did in the beginning, which was one of the gravest and most blameworthy of deeds, but in the end they repented sincerely and attained complete forgiveness from their father and from Yoosuf, who prayed for forgiveness and mercy for them. If a person gives up his rights and forgives another, then Allah is the best of those who show mercy.
Therefore – according to the more correct opinion – they were Prophets, because Allah (ﷻ) says:
﴿... We sent revelation to Ibrâheem, Ismâ'eel, Is-hâq, Ya'qoob and his sons...﴾ (an-Nisâ' 4: 163)
This refers to the twelve sons of Ya'qoob and their offspring. This is supported by the fact that Yoosuf saw them in his dream as bright stars, and stars give light and guidance, which are attributes of the Prophets; if they were not Prophets, then they were rightly guided scholars.
- In this story we also see that Allah blessed Yoosuf (ﷺ) with knowledge, forbearance and noble characteristics; he called people to Allah and to His religion, and he forgave his brothers who had wronged him, on his own initiative, and he completed that by not blaming or reproaching them. Then he honoured his parents greatly and treated his brothers – and indeed all people – with kindness.

- Some evils are less serious than others, and committing the lesser of two evils is preferable to committing the greater. When the brothers of Yoosuf agreed to either kill or banish him, one of them said: ﴿Do not kill Yoosuf; but if you must do something, throw him into the hidden depths of a well﴾ (12: 10). What he said was better than what the others said, and was less serious; because of it the major sin of his brothers was reduced in severity.
- If anything is passed from hand to hand (by buying and selling) and becomes part of people's property, and it is not known that it was acquired unlawfully, there is no sin on the one who handles it by way of buying, selling, using or benefitting from it. Yoosuf's brothers sold him in a haram transaction that was not permissible, then the caravan took him to Egypt where they sold him, and he remained with his masters as a slave and was well-treated by them. Allah called this transaction selling ﴿They [his brothers] sold him for a small price﴾ (12: 20); even though it was haram on the part of Yoosuf's brothers, it was permissible on the part of those who bought him.
- This soorah warns against being alone with women from whom temptation is feared, and it also warns against the type of love that may cause harm. The wife of al-'Azeer did what she did because of being alone with Yoosuf, which persisted until she attempted seduction and then told lies about him, and he was imprisoned for a long time because of her.
- The inclination that Yoosuf felt towards the woman, which he then gave up for the sake of Allah, was a means of drawing closer to Allah, because that inclination came from the soul that prompts evil, which is something natural in most people. But when he compared it with the love of Allah and fear of Him, love and fear of Allah overcame the inclinations and the whims and desires of the soul. Thus he was one:

«...who feared standing before his Lord and restrained himself from base desires.» (an-Nâzi'ât 79: 40)

– and he was one of the seven whom Allah will shade in the shade of His Throne on the day when there will be no shade but His, one of whom is:

«A man who is called (to sin) by a woman of high status and beauty, but he says: I fear Allah.» (Bukhari and Muslim)<sup>3</sup>

Rather the inclination for which a person is to be blamed is that which persists and becomes resolve, and may lead to action.

- If faith enters a person's heart and he is sincere towards Allah in all his affairs, then Allah will ward off from him, by means of his faith and sincerity, all kinds of evil and shameful deeds, and the means that lead to sin, as a reward for his faith and sincerity, because He says: «and he felt inclined towards her; were it not that he saw a sign from his Lord [he would have succumbed]. Thus We averted from him evil and shameful deeds. Verily He was one of Our chosen slaves» (12: 24).
- If a person sees a place in which there is temptation and the means that lead to sin, he should get as far away as possible, so that he will be able to be safe from sin. When the woman in whose house Yoosuf was living wanted to seduce him, he tried to flee from her and ran to the door in order to save himself from her evil.

---

<sup>3</sup> All hadiths in this text have been checked and verified by IIPH's researchers. It is rare, but it does happen that a hadith is not verifiable within the timeframe of researching and editing the book. In that case, a decision is made by the editorial board as to whether or not to include the hadith. It is IIPH's policy not to include weak hadiths or fabricated (fake) hadiths in our publications. If a weak hadith is included in any text, it is only because the author of the book discusses it as a weak hadith. (Editor)

- Circumstantial evidence is to be resorted to when there is doubt or confusion. If a man and his wife dispute about the pots and vessels in the house, what is good for the man is his and what is good for the woman is hers, if there is no proof to indicate what belongs to whom. The same applies if there is a dispute between a carpenter and a blacksmith concerning the tools of their trades, when there is no proof; actions are to be based on seeing similarities and likenesses (and the tools that are appropriate to one of these crafts are to be given to the appropriate craftsman). The witness in the case of Yoosuf testified on the basis of circumstantial evidence, ruling on the basis of the tear in the chemise. Based on the fact that it was torn from the back, he deduced that Yoosuf was telling the truth and the woman was lying.

Another example of the application of this principle was that Yoosuf deduced from the fact that the goblet was found in the saddlebag of his brother that his brother had stolen it, without the proof of a testimony or confession. Based on that, if the stolen property is found in the possession of the thief, especially if he is known for stealing, then he is to be deemed a thief. This is stronger than testimony. By the same token, if a man vomits wine, then the hadd punishment is to be carried out on that basis, so long as there is no impediment to doing so. Hence Allah called this ruling a witness, as He said: ﴿A witness from her own household suggested﴾ (12: 26).

- The beauty that Yoosuf possessed was both outward and inward. As for his outward beauty, it caused the woman in whose house he was living to do what she did, and it caused the women whom she brought together when they criticised her for that to cut their own hands and say: «This is no mortal; this can be none but a noble angel!» (12: 31). As for his inward beauty, it was his great dignity in refraining from sin, even though there were many motives for doing it, and the subsequent testimony to his innocence given by the wife of al-‘Azeez and the other women. Hence the wife of al-‘Azeez said: «I did indeed try to seduce him, but he resisted» (12: 32), and later on she said: «Now the truth has come to light. It was I who tried to seduce him; verily he was telling the truth» (12: 51). And the women said: «Allah forbid! we know of no evil on his part» (12: 51).

- Yoosuf (ﷺ) chose prison over sin. This is what a person should do if he is tested with the choice of two things – either committing sin or undergoing a worldly punishment; he should choose the worldly punishment over committing the sin which incurs a severe punishment in this world and the hereafter. Hence one of the signs of faith is that a person hates to go back to disbelief after Allah has saved him from it, as he would hate to be thrown into the fire.
- The individual should turn to Allah and seek His protection when faced with the temptation to sin, and he should say that he has no power or strength of his own, because Yoosuf (ﷺ) said: «Unless You protect me from their wives, I may succumb and lapse into folly» (12: 33).
- Knowledge and reason call a person to good and forbid evil, whereas ignorance and folly call a person to go along with his whims and desires even if they are harmful to himself.
- Just as the person should be a true slave to Allah at times of ease, he should also be a true slave to Him at times of hardship. Yoosuf (ﷺ) kept calling people to Allah, and when he was put in prison he continued to do so. He called the two young men to affirm the oneness of Allah and he told them to give up ascribing partners to Him. As an example of his smartness, when he saw that they were open to his call – as they thought positively of him and said to him: ﴿we see that you are a man of virtue and knowledge﴾ (12: 36), and they came to him so that he could interpret their dreams for them, and he saw that they were eager to learn their interpretation from him – he saw that as an opportunity and made the most of it. So he called them to Allah (ﷻ) before interpreting their dreams, as that would be more helpful in achieving his aims and goals. First of all he explained to them that what had brought him to the level of perfection and knowledge that they saw was his faith, his affirmation of Allah's oneness and his shunning of the path of those who did not believe in Allah and the Last Day. This was an indirect call to them, then he called them directly, explaining what was wrong with polytheism and the proof against it, and the reality of pure monotheism and the proof for it.

- One should start with what is most important, then the next most important, and so on. If a mufti is asked a question, but the questioner needs to know something else more than he needs to know what he asked about, then the mufti should teach him what he needs to know before answering his question. This is a sign of sincerity and smartness on the part of the teacher, and indicates that his advice and teaching are good. When the two young men asked Yoosuf about their dreams, before he interpreted the dreams he called them to Allah alone, with no partner or associate.
- If a person finds himself faced with hardship and difficulty, there is nothing wrong with him seeking the help of anyone who has the ability to save him or to tell others about his situation. This is not regarded as complaining to other humans, because it is something normal; people usually seek one another's help. Hence Yoosuf said to the young man who he thought would be saved: ﴿Mention me to your master﴾ (12: 42).

- It should and must be confirmed that the teacher should be completely sincere in his teaching; he should not make it a means of attaining some financial gain, status or other benefit, and he should not refuse to teach or be insincere in teaching, if the questioner does not do what his teacher tells him to do. Yoosuf (ﷺ) asked one of the two young men to mention him to his master, but he did not do so and he forgot, but when the need arose to ask Yoosuf, they sent that young man to him, and he came and asked him about the meaning of that dream. However, Yoosuf did not rebuke him or tell him off for not mentioning him sooner; rather he answered his question completely.
- The one who is asked should tell the one who is asking about that which will benefit him of matters connected to his question, and he should guide him to the way that will benefit him in both religious and worldly terms. This comes under the heading of perfect sincerity and smartness, and good advice. Yoosuf (ﷺ) did not only interpret the king's dream, he also – in addition to that – told them what they should do during those years of plenty, of collecting and storing up a great deal of food.
- A person is not to be blamed for trying to ward off accusations from himself and seeking to prove his innocence; rather he is to be commended for that, as Yoosuf refused to come out of prison until it became clear to them that he was innocent with regard to the women who had cut their hands.
- This story highlights the virtue of knowledge, namely knowledge of rulings, laws, dream interpretation, management and education; it indicates that knowledge is superior to having a good image, even if it is as beautiful as Yoosuf was. Because of his beauty, Yoosuf went through all these trials and was imprisoned, but because of his knowledge he attained honour and high status, and was established in the land. All that is good in this world and the hereafter is the result and consequences of knowledge.

- Knowledge of dream interpretation is one of the branches of Islamic knowledge, and the person will be rewarded for learning and teaching it. Hence it is not permissible to try to interpret dreams without knowledge.
- There is nothing wrong with a person speaking of the qualities he has, of knowledge and deeds, if there is an interest to be served by that, he is not intending to show off, and he is not lying, because Yoosuf said: ﴿Put me in charge of the storehouses of the land; indeed I will manage them carefully and wisely﴾ (12: 55). Similarly, seeking a position of authority is not blameworthy if the one who seeks it will do his best to fulfil his duties towards Allah and towards His slaves. There is nothing wrong with seeking such a position if one is more qualified for it than others. What is blameworthy is seeking such a position when one is not qualified for it, or if there is someone else who is of the same calibre or better, or if one is not seeking thereby to establish the command of Allah. In all such cases it is not permissible to seek positions of authority.
- Allah is most generous, and He bestows good upon His slave in this world and the hereafter. There are two means of attaining good in the hereafter, namely faith and piety, and that is better than worldly reward and acquiring worldly possessions. The individual should remind himself and make himself long for the reward of Allah, and he should not feel sad if he sees worldly people and their pleasures when he himself is not able to have the same things; rather he should console himself by thinking of the reward of Allah in the hereafter and His great bounty, because Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿But verily the reward of the hereafter is better, for those who believe and are mindful of Allah﴾ (12: 57).

- There is nothing wrong with collecting and storing provision – if the intention is to give it back to the people without harming them – because Yoosuf instructed them to collect provisions and food during the years of plenty in preparation for the years of drought. This is not contrary to putting one's trust in Allah; rather a person should put his trust in Allah whilst taking appropriate measures that will benefit him in both religious and worldly terms.
- Yoosuf managed things well when he was put in charge of the storehouses of the land, as their store of crops became so abundant that the people of neighbouring regions came to Egypt to seek provision from the Egyptians, because they knew that supplies were available, to the extent that he did not weigh out for anyone more than he needed for himself, or less, and no one who came was given any more than a single camel load.
- It is prescribed to be hospitable and honour one's guests, and this is one of the ways of the Messengers, because Yoosuf said to his brothers: ﴿do you not see that I give full measure and am the best of hosts?﴾ (12: 59).
- Thinking negatively of someone – when there is circumstantial evidence that points to that – is not prohibited. Ya'qoob said to his sons, when he refused to send Yoosuf with them and they tried very hard to persuade him, then they came to him and told him that the wolf had eaten Yoosuf: ﴿Nay; rather your souls have tempted you to do something evil﴾ (12: 18). And he said to them concerning the other brother: ﴿Am I to trust you with him as I once trusted you with his brother?﴾ (12: 64). Then when Yoosuf kept him (his brother) with him, and his brothers came to their father, he again said to them ﴿Nay; rather your souls have tempted you to do something evil﴾ (12: 83), even though they had not been negligent on the second occasion, they had previously done something that caused their father to say what he did, and there was no blame on him for that.

- Using means to ward off the evil eye and other ills, or to remove them once they have occurred, is not prohibited; rather it is permissible even when nothing will happen except the divine will and decree, because the means are also part of the divine will and decree. That is because Ya'qoob instructed his sons: ﴿O my sons, do not enter [all] by one gate; enter by different gates﴾ (12: 67).
- It is permissible to use tricks to attain one's rights, and knowing hidden ways of achieving one's aims is something that is praiseworthy. What is prohibited is using tricks to avoid obligations or commit prohibited acts.
- The one who wants to give a wrong impression to someone else in order to avoid disclosing something that he does not want to disclose may use vague words and vague actions that will prevent him from telling lies, as Yoosuf did when he put the goblet in his brother's saddlebag, then brought it out in order to give the impression that he was a thief, but there was no proof except circumstantial evidence that would give a wrong impression to his brothers. After that he said: ﴿Allah forbid that we should take any but the man with whom our property was found﴾ (12: 79) and he did not say "the man who stole our property". By the same token, he did not say "we found our property with him"; rather he used general words that might be applicable to him or to someone else. There is nothing wrong with that, as it is only giving an impression that he was a thief in order to achieve the desired result and to keep his brother with him. This wrong impression of his brother was corrected after matters had become clear.
- It is not permissible for a person to testify except on the basis of what he knows and is certain of, either because he saw it or because he heard it from someone whom he trusts and he feels at ease with it, because they said: ﴿we can only tell you what we saw﴾ (12: 81).

- This was a great trial with which Allah tested His Prophet and chosen one Ya‘qoob (ﷺ), as He decreed that he should be separated from his son Yoosuf, from whom he could not bear to be apart for even an hour, for doing so would grieve him deeply. The separation between them lasted for a long time, no less than thirty years, during which grief never left the heart of Ya‘qoob. ﴿And his eyes became white with grief, and he was burdened with silent sorrow﴾ (12: 84).

Then matters got worse when he was separated from his other son, the full brother of Yoosuf. Yet he was patient in bearing the decree of Allah, seeking reward from Him, as he had pledged to bear it patiently, and in good grace, and he undoubtedly fulfilled his pledge. This is not contrary to his words ﴿I only complain of my distress and sorrow to Allah﴾ (12: 86), for complaining to Allah is not contrary to patience; rather what is contrary to it is complaining to people.

- Relief comes with difficulty, for with hardship comes ease. Therefore when Ya‘qoob’s grief had gone on for a long time and had reached the ultimate point, and the family of Ya‘qoob were in a state of desperation (due to the famine), at that point Allah decreed relief, so the reunion came at the time of worst hardship and desperation. Thus they attained reward along with the joy of reunion. From this it is known that Allah tests His close friends with hardship and ease, in order to test their patience and gratitude and thus increase their faith, certainty and knowledge of Him.
- It is permissible for a person to tell others about what he is going through and what he is suffering of sickness, poverty and the like, not by way of discontent, because the brothers of Yoosuf said: ﴿O ruler of the land, hardship has befallen us and our family﴾ (12: 88), and Yoosuf did not object to them saying that.

- This soorah highlights the virtue of fearing Allah and being patient, and tells us that all good in this world and the hereafter is the result of fearing Allah and being patient, and those who attain these characteristics will have the best consequences, because Yoosuf said: ﴿Allah has indeed been gracious to us. Verily, whoever fears Allah and is patient, Allah will not cause the reward of those who do good to be lost﴾ (12: 90).
- The one whom Allah has blessed with ease after hardship, poverty and difficulty should acknowledge the blessing that Allah has bestowed upon him, and he should always remember his former situation so that he will give thanks to Allah every time he remembers it, because Yoosuf (عليه السلام) said: ﴿He has indeed been gracious to me, when He rescued me from prison and brought you here from the desert﴾ (12: 100).
- Allah showed great kindness to Yoosuf, as He caused him to go through these situations and made him go through hardship and trials so that he might reach thereby the highest goals and the most sublime status.
- The individual should always beseech Allah to make him steadfast in his faith and he should take measures to achieve that, asking Allah to grant him a good end and perfect blessing, because Yoosuf (عليه السلام) said: ﴿O my Lord, You have indeed given me some authority and taught me something of the interpretation of dreams. O Originator of the heavens and the earth, You are my Protector in this world and in the hereafter. Cause me to die as a Muslim [submitting to Your will], and join me with the righteous﴾ (12: 101).

This is what Allah has enabled me to list of the lessons that we learn from this blessed story. The one who reflects upon it will surely find others.

We ask Allah (ﷻ) for beneficial knowledge and accented deeds, for He is Most Generous.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat Yoosuf.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

13. Soorat ar-Ra'd

(Madani)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

In the name of Allah,

the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

﴿الْمَرْءُ يَلُوكَ عَيْنُهُ الْكِتَابِ وَالَّذِي أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَبِّكَ الْحَقُّ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا
يُؤْمِنُونَ﴾ (سورة الرعد: ١)

13:1. Alif. Lâ. Meem. Râ'.<sup>4</sup> These are verses of the Book. That which has been revealed to you from your Lord [O Muhammad] is the truth, but most people do not believe.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that this Qur'an is verses of the Book which highlight everything that people need to know of fundamental and minor issues of religion, and that what has come down to the

---

<sup>4</sup> Groups of letters (al-huroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

Messenger (ﷺ) from his Lord is plain truth, because what it tells of stories is true and its commands and prohibitions are just, supported by definitive evidence and proof. Therefore whoever studies it and learns it will be one of those who know the truth, which makes it obligatory upon him to do that which Allah loves.

﴿but most people do not believe﴾ in this Qur'an, because they turn away from it either out of ignorance and lack of interest in it, or out of stubbornness and wrongdoing. Therefore most people do not benefit from it, because the means of benefiting from it are absent in their case.

﴿اللَّهُ الَّذِي رَفَعَ السَّمَوَاتِ بِغَيْرِ عَمَدٍ تَرَوْنَهَا ثُمَّ أَسْتَوَىٰ عَلَى الْعَرْشِ وَسَحَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ كُلٌّ يَجْرِي لِأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى يُدِيرُ الْأَمْرَ يُفَصِّلُ الْآيَاتِ لَعَلَّكُمْ بِلِقَاءِ رَبِّكُمْ تُوقِنُونَ ﴿١﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي مَدَّ الْأَرْضَ وَجَعَلَ فِيهَا رَوَاسِيَ وَأَنْهَارًا وَمِنْ كُلِّ الشَّجَرِ جَعَلَ فِيهَا زَوْجَيْنِ اثْنَيْنِ يُغْشَى اللَّيْلُ النَّهَارُ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ﴿٢﴾ وَفِي الْأَرْضِ قِطْعٌ مُّتَبَعُونَ وَجَنَّاتٌ مِنْ أَعْنَابٍ وَزُرْعٌ وَنَخِيلٌ صُنُونٌ وَغَيْرُ صُنُونٍ يُسْقَى بِمَاءٍ وَاحِدٍ وَنُفِضَ لِّبَعْضِهَا عَلَى بَعْضٍ فِي الْأَكْثَلِ ﴿٣﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ﴾

(سورة الرعد: ٢-٤) ﴿١﴾

13:2. It is Allah Who raised the heavens without any pillars that you can see, and then rose over the Throne [in a manner that befits His majesty]. He made the sun and moon to be of service, each running its course for an appointed time. He governs all affairs, and explains the signs in detail, so that you may be certain of the meeting with your Lord.

13:3. He is the One Who spread out the earth and placed therein mountains standing firm and rivers, and of every fruit He has placed therein two kinds,<sup>5</sup> and He draws the veil of night over the day. Surely in that there are signs for people who reflect.

13:4. And on earth there are adjoining [yet different] tracts of land, and gardens of grapevines, grains and date palms, growing in clusters from one root or standing alone. They are irrigated with the same water, yet We cause some of them to excel others in taste. Surely in that there are signs for people of understanding.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He is the only One Who has the power of creation, control, might and authority, which indicates that He alone is deserving of worship, and none should be worshipped except Him.

﴿It is Allah Who raised the heavens﴾ with their greatness and vastness, by His mighty power

﴿without any pillars that you can see﴾ that is, it has no pillars beneath it; if it did have pillars you would see them.

﴿and then﴾ after He created the heavens and the earth, He ﴿rose over the Throne﴾ that is, His mighty Throne, which is the highest of all created things; He rose above it in a manner that befits His majesty and perfection.

﴿He made the sun and moon to be of service﴾ to the interests of people and of their flocks and crops

﴿each﴾, both the sun and the moon, ﴿running its course﴾ under the control of the Almighty, the All-Knowing, ﴿for an appointed time﴾ along a systematic course without slowing down or ceasing, until the appointed time comes, which is when Allah will roll up this universe and move them to the hereafter which is the eternal abode. At that time, Allah will roll up the heavens and change them, and He will change the earth. So He will fold up the sun and moon, and put them together, then they will be thrown into hell so that those who worshipped them will see that they did not deserve to be worshipped, whereupon they will feel intense regret, and those who disbelieved will realise that they were following falsehood.

<sup>5</sup> This refers to two types of each fruit, for example, black and white, sweet and sour, small and big, and so on.

﴿He governs all affairs, and explains the signs in detail﴾, in this passage, Allah (ﷻ) mentions together His combined powers of creation and command. In other words, Allah the Almighty rose above the Throne of sovereignty and He controls all affairs in the upper and lower realms. So He creates and grants provision, making people rich or poor, raising some and lowering others, honouring some and humiliating others. He helps the one who stumbles to get up again, He relieves distress, He causes His decree to come to pass at times of which He has prior knowledge, at the time written by His pen, and He sends the noble angels to do what He has appointed them to do.

He sends down the divine Books to His Messengers, explaining what people need to know of laws and regulations, commands and prohibitions. He explains and clarifies that in detail, ﴿so that you may be certain of the meeting with your Lord﴾. The abundance and clarity of the evidence are among the means of attaining certainty in all that is revealed, especially the fundamental beliefs such as the resurrection and the bringing forth of the dead from their graves.

Moreover, it is known that Allah (ﷻ) is Most Wise and does not create anything in vain, nor does He abandon them without care. Just as He sent Messengers and revealed His Books with commands and prohibitions for His slaves, He will inevitably move them to an abode where they will be requited; those who did good will be requited with the best reward and those who did evil will be punished according to their evil deeds.

﴿He is the One Who spread out the earth﴾ that is, He created it for His slaves, making it spacious, blessed and habitable, and He deposited in it all that they need to help them survive. ﴿and placed therein mountains standing firm﴾ that is, great mountains, lest the earth shake with its people. Were it not for the mountains, it would have shaken with its people, because it cannot remain firm and stable without the mountains standing firm, which Allah has made like pegs for the earth.

﴿and﴾ He has placed therein ﴿rivers﴾ to give water to humans and their livestock and crops; by means of it He brings forth much good from trees, crops and fruits; hence He says: ﴿and of every fruit He has placed therein two kinds﴾ that is, two types of everything that people need.

﴿and He draws the veil of night over the day﴾ so the world becomes dark and every creature goes back to its abode and rests from its toil and striving during the day. Then when they have had what they need of sleep, the day overtakes the night, whereupon they wake up and go about their business during the day.

﴿By His mercy He has made for you night and day, so that you may rest therein and seek His bounty, and so that you may give thanks.﴾
(as-Qaṣaṣ 28: 73)

﴿Surely in that there are signs﴾ of the divine ﴿for people who reflect﴾ upon them, and contemplate them and realise that what they point to is that the One Who created them and is controlling them and disposing of their affairs is Allah, besides Whom there is no other god and none who is rightfully worshipped but Him, and that He is the Knower of the unseen and the seen, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful; He has power over all things, is Most Wise in all that He does, and He is deserving of praise for what He has created and ordained, may He be blessed and exalted.

One of the signs of the perfection of His might and the brilliance of His creation is that He has created ﴿on earth ... adjoining [yet different] tracts of land﴾ in which there are different types of trees and plants, ﴿and gardens of grapevines, grains and date palms﴾ and other plants. Among the date palms are some ﴿growing in clusters from one root﴾ that is, a number of trees with one root ﴿or standing alone﴾ that is, each tree is on its own. But all of them ﴿are irrigated with the same water﴾ on the same land.

﴿yet We cause some of them to excel others in taste﴾ and also in colour, benefit and deliciousness. For one part of the land may be good, on which a great deal of grass, vegetation, trees and crops grow, yet an adjoining part of the land may have no vegetation at all, as it does not retain water. A third area may retain water, but not produce any vegetation, and another area may produce crops and trees, but not grass and the like. So fruits may vary, some being sweet, some bitter, and some in between.

Is this variation something that is decided by the nature of the land? Or does that occur by the decree of the Almighty, the Most Merciful?

﴿Surely in that there are signs for people of understanding﴾ that is, people who have reason which guides them to that which will benefit them and leads them to understand the instructions, commands and prohibitions of Allah. As for people who do not pay heed, and those who are unwise, they wander blindly in the darkness of their misguidance, unable to find a way; they are not guided to their Lord and they do not understand anything of what He has revealed.

﴿وَإِنْ تَعَجَّبَ فَعَجَبٌ قَوْلُهُمْ أَإِذَا كُنَّا تُرَابًا أَلَيْسَ خَلْقٌ جَدِيدٌ أَوَّلَتِكَ
الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِرَبِّهِمْ وَأَوَّلَتِكَ الْآعْطِلُ فِي أَعْنَاقِهِمْ وَأَوَّلَتِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ هُمْ
فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٥)

- 13:5. If you wonder, then you should surely wonder at their saying:
When we have become dust, will we then be created anew?
These are the ones who disbelieve in their Lord. They are the ones on whose necks will be placed yokes; they will be inhabitants of the fire and will abide therein forever.

It may be that what is meant by the phrase «If you wonder» is: if you wonder at the greatness of Allah and the abundance of the evidence for His oneness; what is even more amazing than that is the disbelievers' rejection and denial of the resurrection. «When we have become dust, will we then be created anew?» means: this is very unlikely and it is not possible, according to their claim, that after they have become dust, Allah will bring them back to life. In their ignorance, they compared the power of the Creator to the power of created beings. Because they saw that it is not possible for created beings to do such a thing, they thought that it was also impossible for the Creator to do it, but they forgot that Allah created them the first time, when they were nothing.

It may also be that what is meant is: if you wonder at their denial of the resurrection, then indeed that is strange. For a person to see the clear signs and definitive evidence for the resurrection, about which there can be no doubt, then to deny it, is something that is indeed very strange. But that is not strange in the case of «the ones who disbelieve in their Lord» and deny His oneness, even though it is the clearest and most obvious of things.

«They are the ones on whose necks will be placed yokes» that will prevent them from being guided, because they were called to faith but they did not believe, and guidance was presented to them but they did not follow it. Thus a seal was placed on their hearts as a punishment for not believing in Him the first time.

«they will be inhabitants of the fire and will abide therein forever» and will never emerge from it.

﴿وَسْتَغْلِبُونَكَ بِالسَّيِّئَةِ قَبْلَ الْحَسَنَةِ وَقَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمُ الْمَثَلُتُ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ
لَذُو مَغْفِرٍ لِلنَّاسِ عَلَى ظُلْمِهِمْ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَشَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٦)

13:6. They ask you to hasten on the evil before the good, even though punishment befell people of their ilk who came before them. But indeed your Lord is forgiving to humankind despite all their wrongdoing, and indeed your Lord is severe in punishment.

Here Allah tells us of the ignorance of those who disbelieve in His Messenger (ﷺ) and ascribe partners to Him, who received admonition but did not pay heed, and against whom proof was established but they did not submit to it; rather they openly rejected it, using as evidence the fact that Allah, the One, the Subduer, was showing forbearance towards them and not hastening the punishment, for them to argue that they were in the right, and they tried to hasten the punishment, saying:

﴿...O Allah, if this is indeed the truth from You, then rain down upon us stones from the sky or send us a painful punishment.﴾ (al-Anfāl 8: 32)

Yet despite the fact that ﴿punishment befell people of their ilk who came before them﴾ that is, the punishments of Allah that befell the disbelieving nations, why then do they not reflect on their situation and give up their ignorance?

﴿But indeed your Lord is forgiving to humankind despite all their wrongdoing﴾ that is, He continues to bestow blessings upon them, sending down His kindness and pardon to people when they are still doing evil and their acts of disobedience are still ascending to Him.

They disobey Him but He calls them to repent; they commit offences but He does not deprive them of His blessings and kindness, and if they repent to Him then they are His beloved, because He loves those who repent and He loves those who purify themselves. But if they do not repent, then He tests them with calamities in order to purify them from their sin.

﴿Say [Allah says]: O My slaves who have transgressed against themselves [by sinning greatly], do not despair of the mercy of Allah, for verily Allah forgives all sins. Verily, it is He Who is the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.﴾ (az-Zumar 39: 53)

﴿and indeed your Lord is severe in punishment﴾ to those who persist in sin and refuse to repent, seek forgiveness and turn to the Almighty, the Oft-Forgiving. So let people beware of His punishment of the evildoers, for verily His punishment is painful and severe (cf. 11: 102).

وَيَقُولُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَ عَلَيْهِ آيَةٌ مِنْ رَبِّهِ إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مُنْذِرٌ وَلِكُلِّ قَوْمٍ هَادٍ

(سورة الرعد: ٧) ﴿٧﴾

13:7. Those who disbelieve say: Why has no sign been sent down to him from his Lord? You are but a warner, and for every people there is a guide.

That is, the disbelievers demand from you (O Muhammad ﷺ) signs that they specify, and they say: ﴿Why has no sign been sent down to him from his Lord?﴾, giving this as an excuse for not responding to the Messenger (ﷺ). But in fact he is no more than a warner who has no control over anything, for it is Allah Who sends down the signs. Moreover, Allah has already supported him with clear evidence that is not hidden from people of understanding, and by it the one who seeks the truth may be guided. As for the disbeliever who – because of his injustice and ignorance – demands specific signs from Allah, these demands are false and fabricated. If any sign were to come to him, no matter what it was, he would not believe and would not submit, because his refusal to believe was not due to any lack of evidence for the soundness of faith; rather it was due to his own whims and desires. ﴿and for every people there is a guide﴾ that is, a caller who calls them to guidance, namely the Messengers and their followers, who have proof and evidence that points to the soundness of the guidance they have.

﴿اللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا تَحْمِلُ كُلُّ أُنْثَىٰ وَمَا تَغِيضُ الْأَرْحَامُ وَمَا تَزْدَادُ وَكُلُّ شَيْءٍ عِنْدَهُ بِإِمْقَادٍ ﴿٨﴾ عَلِيمُ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ الْكَبِيرُ الْمُتَعَالِ ﴿٩﴾ سَوَاءٌ مِّنْكُمْ مَّنْ أَسَرَ الْقَوْلَ وَمَنْ جَهَرَ بِهِ وَمَنْ هُوَ مُسْتَخْفٍ بِاللَّيْلِ وَسَارِبٌ بِالنَّهَارِ ﴿١٠﴾ لَهُ مُعَقَّبَاتٌ مِّنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِ يَحْفَظُونَهُ مِنْ أَمْرِ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُغَيِّرُ مَا يَقُومُ حَتَّىٰ يَغْيُرُوا مَا بَأْنَفْسِهِمْ وَإِذَا أَرَادَ اللَّهُ بِقَوْمٍ سُوءًا فَلَا مَرَدَّ لَهُ وَمَا لَهُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ مِنْ وَالٍ ﴿١١﴾﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٨-١١)

13:8. Allah knows what every female bears, and by how much the wombs may fall short or increase. With Him everything is regulated according to a determined measure.

13:9. He is the Knower of the unseen and the seen, the Most Great, the High Exalted.

13:10. It is the same [to Him] whether any of you conceals his speech or declares it openly, and whether he hides under the cover of the night or walks openly in the light of day.

13:11. For each [person], there are angels in succession, before him and behind him, watching over him by the command of Allah. Verily Allah does not change the condition of a people until they themselves change their own attitude and conduct. But once Allah has intended ill for a people, then it cannot be averted, nor will they find, besides Him, any protector.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the vastness of His knowledge and that He encompasses all things.

﴿Allah knows what every female﴾, human or otherwise, ﴿bears, and by how much the wombs may fall short﴾ that is, as a result of miscarriage or not reaching full growth ﴿or increase﴾ that is, when the foetus reaches full growth.

«With Him everything is regulated according to a determined measure» and it does not go beyond what is decreed or fall short; it only increases or decreases in accordance with what is decreed by His wisdom and knowledge.

«He is the Knower of the unseen and the seen, the Most Great» in His essence and in His names and attributes
«the High Exalted» above all of His creation, by His essence and His decree and His power.

«It is the same [to Him]» in His knowledge, hearing and sight
«whether any of you conceals his speech or declares it openly, and whether he hides under the cover of the night» that is, he stays in the place where he is hidden «or walks openly in the light of day».

«For each [person], there are angels in succession» who come to him in succession by night and by day.
«before him and behind him, watching over him by the command of Allah» that is, they watch over him, body and soul, protecting him from all who want to do him harm and recording his deeds, and they are always with him. In addition to that, the knowledge of Allah encompasses him, for Allah sends these keepers to watch over people, so that nothing of their situations or deeds is hidden and nothing of that will be forgotten.

«Verily Allah does not change the condition of a people» in terms of blessings, bounty and prosperity
«until they themselves change their own attitude and conduct» by shifting from faith to disbelief, from obedience to disobedience, or from gratitude for the blessings of Allah to insolence because of them; in such cases Allah takes those blessings away from them.

By the same token, if people change their condition of sin, and shift towards obedience to Allah, Allah will change the miserable situation in which they were to one of blessing, happiness, joy and mercy.

«But once Allah has intended ill for a people» that is, punishment and hardship, or something they dislike, then His will must inevitably be done,
 «then it cannot be averted» and no one can protect them from it
 «nor will they find, besides Him, any protector» to take charge of their affairs, bring them what they like and ward off from them what they dislike. So let them beware of persisting in that which Allah dislikes, lest the punishment befall them that will not be averted from the evildoers.

هُوَ الَّذِي يُرِيكُمْ الْبَرْقَ خَوْفًا وَطَمَعًا وَيُنشِئُ السَّحَابَ الثِّقَالَ
 وَيَسْجِجُ الرَّعْدُ بِحَمْدِهِ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ مِنْ خِيفَتِهِ وَيُرْسِلُ الصَّوَاعِقَ فَيُصِيبُ
 بِهَا مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَهُمْ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي اللَّهِ وَهُوَ شَدِيدُ الْحَالِ ﴿١٣﴾ (سورة الرعد: ١٢ - ١٣)

- 13:12. He is the One Who shows you the lightning, giving rise to both fear and hope, and gathers up the heavy clouds.
- 13:13. The thunder glorifies and praises Him, as do the angels, in awe of Him. He sends thunderbolts and strikes therewith whomever He wills, yet they dispute about Allah, Who is inexorable in His power.

«He is the One Who shows you the lightning, giving rise to both fear and hope» that is, fear of the thunderbolts and destruction, and other kinds of harm to crops and the like, and hope for its goodness and benefits.
 «and gathers up the heavy clouds» loaded with abundant rain, which brings benefits to people and the land.

«The thunder glorifies and praises Him». Thunder is the sound that is heard from the clouds, which alarms people. It is subjugated to the control of its Lord and it glorifies and praises Him «as do the angels, in awe of Him» that is, they also glorify and praise their Lord, out of fear of Him, for they fear His power and might. «He sends thunderbolts» namely the fire (lightning) that emerges from the cloud «and strikes therewith whomever He wills» among His slaves, according to His will «...Allah, Who is inexorable in His power» that is, He is mighty in power and strength. He does not will anything but He does it; nothing can be too difficult for Him and no one can escape Him.

As He alone is the One Who drives the rain and the clouds for people, in which is the substance of their provision, and as He is the One Who controls all things, and to Him are subjugated the mighty creations that people fear and are disturbed by, and as Allah is mighty in power, then He is the only One Who deserves to be worshipped, with no partner or associate. Hence He says:

لَهُ دَعْوَةُ الْحَقِّ وَالَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ لَا يَسْتَجِيبُونَ لَهُمْ شَيْءٌ إِلَّا كَبْسٌ كَفَيْهِ إِلَى الْمَاءِ
لِيَبْلُغَ فَاهُ وَمَا هُوَ بِبَالِغِهِ وَمَا دُعَاءُ الْكَافِرِينَ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ ﴿١٤﴾ (سورة الرعد: ١٤)

- 13:14. To Him alone should all supplication be addressed, for those to whom they offer supplication besides Him will never respond in any way. They are like a man who stretches out his hands towards water, [hoping] that it will come to his mouth; but it will never reach it. The supplication of those who disbelieve is all in vain.

That is, to Allah alone «should all supplication be addressed»; this refers to worshipping Him alone with no partner or associate, and sincerely devoting supplication to Him, asking only of Him. In other words, He is the only One to Whom all supplication should be addressed and on Whom all fear, hope, love and repentance should be focused, because His divinity is true, and the so-called divinity of all others is false.

﴿for those to whom they offer supplication besides Him﴾ of the idols and rivals that they regard as partners of Allah

﴿will never respond in any way﴾ that is, they will never respond to those who call upon them and worship them in any way, small or great, whether with regard to matters of this world or of the hereafter.

﴿They are like a man who stretches out his hands towards water﴾ that his hands cannot reach because it is far away

﴿[hoping] that it will come to his mouth﴾ by means of his stretching out his hands towards it, because he is thirsty, so the severity of his thirst makes him stretch out his hands towards the water that is far away and that he cannot reach.

This is the state of the disbelievers who call upon other gods besides Him that will never answer them at all and will bring them no benefit at the time of greatest need, because they themselves are lacking and those upon whom they call are also lacking; they do not possess an atom's weight of anything on earth or in heaven, and they have no share of anything on earth or in heaven; the one who calls upon them will never receive any help from them.

﴿The supplication of those who disbelieve is all in vain﴾ because of the falseness of those on whom they call besides Allah. Thus their worship and supplication is invalid because the means become invalid if the end is invalid. As Allah (ﷻ) is the only true Sovereign, worship of Him is valid and the benefit thereof will continue in this world and the hereafter.

This likening of their calling upon anything other than Allah to the one who stretches out his hand towards water, hoping that it will come to his mouth, is one of the best likenesses, because it likens it to something impossible. Just as this is impossible, what is likened to it is also impossible. Making something conditional upon something that is impossible is the most eloquent way of denying that it will ever happen. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿But as for those who reject Our revelations and turn away from them with arrogance, the gates of heaven will not be opened for them, nor will they enter paradise, until a camel can pass through the eye of a needle...﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 40)

﴿وَلِلّٰهِ يَسْجُدُ مَنْ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ طَوْعًا وَكَرْهًا وَظِلَالُهُمْ بِالْغُدُوِّ وَالْاَصَالِ﴾

(سورة الرعد: ١٥) ﴿١٥﴾

13:15. To Allah prostrate all those who are in the heavens and on earth, willingly or unwillingly, as do their shadows, in the morning and in the afternoon.

That is, everything that the heavens and earth contain is subjugated to their Lord and they all prostrate to Him

﴿willingly or unwillingly﴾. The former refers to those who prostrate and submit voluntarily and by choice, such as the believers; the latter refers to those who are too arrogant to worship their Lord, but their natural state belies that, because their shadows prostrate ﴿in the morning and in the afternoon﴾ that is, the shadows of all created things prostrate at the beginning and end of the day, and everything prostrates according to its situation, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿...There is not a thing that does not glorify Him with praise, but you do not understand their glorification...﴾ (al-Isrâ' 17: 44)

As all creatures prostrate to their Lord, willingly or unwillingly, He is the true God Who deserves to be worshipped, and the divinity of all others is false. Hence Allah states that they are false and gives proof for that, as He says:

﴿قُلْ مَنْ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ قُلِ اللَّهُ قُلْ أَتَاخَذُكُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ لَا يَمْلِكُونَ أَنْفُسَهُمْ نَفْعًا وَلَا ضَرًّا قُلْ هَلْ يَسْتَوِي الْأَعْمَى وَالْبَصِيرُ أَمْ هَلْ تَسْتَوِي الظُّلُمَاتُ وَالنُّورُ أَمْ جَعَلُوا لِلَّهِ شُرَكَاءَ خَلَقُوا كَخَلْقِهِ فَتَشَبَّهُ الْخَلْقُ عَلَيْهِمْ قُلِ اللَّهُ خَالِقُ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ الْوَاحِدُ الْقَهَّارُ﴾

(سورة الرعد: ١٦)

- 13:16. Say [O Muhammad]: Who is the Lord of the heavens and the earth? Say: [It is] Allah. Say: Have you then taken as protectors, besides Him, those that have no power either to benefit or harm themselves? Say: Is the blind man equal to one who can see? Or are the depths of darkness equal to the light? Or do they ascribe to Allah partners who have created [anything] as He has created, so that both creations appear to them alike? Say: Allah is the Creator of all things, and He is the One, the Subjugator.

That is, say to these polytheists who ascribe idols as partners to Allah and love them as they should love Him, and do all kinds of acts of worship and devotion for them: have you lost your minds to the extent that you have taken something other than Him as protectors to which you offer worship when they are not deserving of that, for they ﴿have no power either to benefit or harm themselves﴾, but you turn away from seeking the protection of the One Who is possessed of the most perfect names and attributes, the One Who is in control of the living and the dead, in Whose Hand is the power of creation and control, the power to bring benefit or cause harm? Worship of Allah alone and the worship of those who ascribe partners to Him are not equal, just as the one who is blind and the one who can see are not equal, and just as darkness and light are not equal.

If they have any doubt, and they ascribe partners to Him, claiming that these partners can create as He does and do what He does, then remove this doubt and confusion from their minds on the basis of proof that Allah alone is the true God, and say to them: ﴿Allah is the Creator of all things﴾ so it is impossible that anything can be created by itself.

It is also impossible that anything could come to be without a creator. Thus it is inevitable that it must have a God Who created it, with no partner or associate in His creation, because He is the One, the Subjugator, and oneness and subjugation belong only to Allah alone. As for created beings, each created being has another created being above it that subjugates it, and above that one there must be another subjugator, and so on all the way up to the subjugation of the One, the Subjugator. So divine subjugation and oneness are interconnected, belonging to Allah alone. Therefore on the basis of purely rational thinking, whatever is called upon besides Allah has no share in creation and thus worship thereof is invalid.

﴿ أَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَسَالَتْ أَوْدِيَهُۥ بِقَدَرِهَا فَاحْتَمَلَ السَّبِيلُ زَبَدًا رَابِيًا وَمِمَّا يُوقِدُونَ عَلَيْهِ فِي النَّارِ ابْتِغَاءَ حِلْيَةٍ أَوْ مَتَاعٍ زَبَدٌ مِثْلُهٗ ۚ كَذَٰلِكَ يَضْرِبُ اللَّهُ الْحَقَّ وَالْبَاطِلَ فَأَمَّا الزَّبَدُ فَيَذْهَبُ جُفَاءً ۖ وَأَمَّا مَا يَنْفَعُ النَّاسَ فَيَمْكُثُ فِي الْأَرْضِ ۚ كَذَٰلِكَ يَضْرِبُ اللَّهُ الْأَمْثَالَ ۝﴾

(سورة الرعد: ١٧)

- 13:17. He sends down water from the sky and the watercourses flow, each according to its measure, and the torrent carries with it a rising foam. And from that [ore] which they heat in the fire to make ornaments and utensils rises a similar foam. Thus Allah depicts truth and falsehood: the foam is cast away as a worthless thing, while that which is of benefit to people remains in the earth. Thus does Allah set forth comparisons.

---

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) likens the guidance that He sent down to His Messenger (ﷺ) for the well-being of hearts and souls to the water that He sent down for physical benefits, and He likens the abundant common benefit of that guidance, that is essential for all people, to the abundant and essential common benefit that rain brings. He likens the hearts that carry guidance of varying levels to the valleys through which water flows. The large valley that can take a lot of water is like the heart that can take a great deal of knowledge, and the small valley that takes little water is like the heart that only takes a little knowledge, and so on.

And He likens the doubts and whims and desires that there may be in people's hearts, when truth reaches them, to the foam that floats on top of the water, or that rises to the top of the ore that they heat with fire in order to purify it and cast it into shape when they want to make adornments from it. That foam continues to float on top of the water, making it dirty and impure, until it disappears, leaving behind that which benefits people of pure water and pure adornments.

In like manner, the heart continues to dislike and resist doubts and desires by means of sound proof and strong resolve, until they vanish and the heart is left pure and clean, containing nothing but that which benefits people, namely knowledge that is based on truth and gives precedence to it, and desires truth, for falsehood disappears and is erased by truth.

﴿...Falsehood is always bound to perish.﴾ (al-Isrā' 17: 81)

And Allah says here: ﴿Thus does Allah set forth comparisons﴾ in order to make truth distinct from falsehood and guidance distinct from misguidance.

﴿لِلَّذِينَ اسْتَجَابُوا لِرَبِّهِمْ الْخَيْرُ وَالَّذِينَ لَمْ يَسْتَجِيبُوا لَهُ لَوْ أَنَّ لَهُمْ مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا وَمِثْلَهُ مَعَهُ لَافْتَدَوْا بِهِ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمْ سُوءَ الْحِسَابِ وَمَأْوَهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ وَيَسْأَلُهَا ذُو الْقُرْئَانِ﴾ (سورة الرعد: ١٨)

13:18. For those who respond to their Lord, there will be the best reward, while for those who do not respond to Him, if they had all that is on earth and as much again, they would offer it as a ransom. But theirs will be a terrible reckoning; their abode will be hell, what a wretched resting-place.

When Allah (ﷻ) made truth distinct from falsehood, He stated that people are of two types: those who respond to their Lord, and He mentioned their reward, and those who do not respond, and He mentioned their punishment.

«For those who respond to their Lord» that is, whose hearts submit to knowledge and faith, and they comply physically with the commands and prohibitions, thus becoming in harmony with what their Lord wants from them. For them there will be «the best reward» that is, they will be in the best state and will have a great reward.

For they have the best attributes and traits, and they will have of reward in this world and the hereafter that which no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it ever crossed the mind of man.

«while for those who do not respond to Him» after He set forth these comparisons and likenesses for them, and explained the truth for them, they will not be in a good state. Hence «if they had all that is on earth» of gold, silver and other wealth, «and as much again, they would offer it as a ransom» to escape the punishment of the Day of Resurrection, but it will not be accepted from them, and how could it be accepted?

«But theirs will be a terrible reckoning», for it will be a reckoning that will include all that they did before of evil deeds, and all that they neglected of duties towards Allah and towards other people. All of that has been written down and recorded against them, and they will say: «... Woe to us! What sort of record is this, that leaves no deed, small or great, unaccounted for? They will find all they did recorded there, and your Lord will not wrong anyone.» (al-Kahf 18: 49)

And after this terrible reckoning, «their abode will be hell» which will combine all kinds of torment, such as severe hunger, painful thirst, blazing fire, the fruit of Zaqqoom (a horrible tree in hell), bitter cold, daree ' (dry, bitter and thorny fruit) and all the different kinds of torment that Allah has mentioned.

«what a wretched resting-place» that is, the place in which they will settle and abide forever.

﴿أَفَمَنْ يَعْلَمُ أَنَّمَا أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكَ مِنَ رَبِّكَ الْحَقُّ كَمَنْ هُوَ أَعْمَىٰ إِنَّمَا يَنْذَرُكَ أَتُؤَلِّمُوا الْبُتَّ ۖ (١٩) الَّذِينَ يُؤْفُونَ بِعَهْدِ اللَّهِ وَلَا يَنْقُضُونَ الْمِيثَاقَ (٢٠) وَالَّذِينَ يَصِلُونَ مَا أَمَرَ اللَّهُ بِهِ أَنْ يُوصَلَ وَيَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ وَيَخَافُونَ سُوءَ الْحِسَابِ (٢١) وَالَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا ابْتِغَاءَ وَجْهِ رَبِّهِمْ وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَأَنْفَقُوا مِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ سِرًّا وَعَلَانِيَةً وَيَدْرُءُونَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ السَّيِّئَةِ أُولَٰئِكَ لَمْ يُغْفَبِ أَلَدَارِ (٢٢) جَنَّتٍ عَدْنٍ يَدْخُلُونَهَا وَمَنْ صَلَحَ مِنْ آبَائِهِمْ وَأَزْوَاجِهِمْ وَذُرِّيَّاتِهِمْ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ يَدْخُلُونَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ كُلِّ بَابٍ (٢٣) سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ بِمَا صَبَرْتُمْ فَنِعْمَ عُقْبَى الدَّارِ (٢٤)﴾ (سورة

الرعد: ١٩-٢٤)

- 13:19. Is then the one who knows that what has been sent down to you from your Lord is the truth like one who is blind? It is only people of understanding who will pay heed,
- 13:20. Those who fulfil Allah's covenant and do not break their solemn pledge,

- 13:21. Those who uphold the bonds that Allah has commanded to be upheld, and fear their Lord, and dread a terrible reckoning,
- 13:22. Those who patiently persevere, seeking the Countenance of their Lord, and establish prayer, and spend from that which We have provided for them, secretly and openly, and repel evil with good; for them the end will be [best] in the hereafter,
- 13:23. Gardens of perpetual abode, which they will enter together with the righteous among their fathers, their spouses, and their offspring. Angels will enter unto them from every gate [saying]:
- 13:24. Peace be upon you because you patiently persevered. How excellent is the ultimate end!

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) highlights the difference between the people of knowledge and action, and the opposite:

«Is then the one who knows that what has been sent down to you from your Lord is the truth» and understands it and acts upon it «like one who is blind» and does not recognise the truth or act upon it? The difference between them is like the difference between heaven and earth. Hence it is the individual's duty to think and reflect as to which of the two groups is better off and will have the better outcome, and then to give precedence to that group and follow their path. But not everybody thinks about what will benefit him or harm him.

«It is only people of understanding who will pay heed» that is, people of sound reasoning and mature thinking, who are the elite of people and the chosen ones among the sons of Adam. If you ask about their description, you will not find any better than the description that Allah gives of them here:

«Those who fulfil Allah's covenant» that He made with them and enjoined upon them, of carrying out their duties towards Him in the most perfect manner, which means fulfilling it completely and with sincerity

﴿and﴾ part of fulfilling the covenant perfectly is that they ﴿do not break their solemn pledge﴾ that is, the covenant that they made to Allah and by which they are bound. That includes all the covenants, promises, vows and oaths that people make. No person can be regarded as one of the people of understanding who will have that great reward unless he fulfils his covenants completely and perfectly, without undermining them or undoing them.

﴿Those who uphold the bonds that Allah has commanded to be upheld﴾ – this is general and applies to every bond that Allah has commanded people to uphold, which includes believing in Him and His Messenger (ﷺ), loving Him and His Messenger (ﷺ), submitting in full servitude to Him alone, with no partner or associate, obeying His Messenger (ﷺ), upholding ties with their fathers and mothers, honouring them in word and deed and not disobeying them, upholding ties with relatives and kin by treating them kindly in word and deed, and paying attention to spouses, friends and servants by giving them their rights in full, whether religious or worldly.

The reason that makes a person uphold the bonds that Allah has instructed him to uphold is fear of Allah and fear of the Day of Reckoning. Hence Allah says: ﴿and fear their Lord﴾ that is, their fear of Him and of meeting Him on the Day of Reckoning prevents them from daring to disobey Allah or to fall short in anything that Allah has enjoined, for fear of punishment and in hope of reward.

﴿Those who patiently persevere﴾ in complying with the commands and heeding the prohibitions by staying away from what is forbidden, and in accepting the decree of Allah that may be painful, without complaining about it.

But that is on condition that this patience be based on ﴿seeking the Countenance of their Lord﴾ and not on any other, corrupt, purpose or aim. This beneficial patience by means of which a person restrains himself, seeking thereby the pleasure of his Lord and hoping to draw closer to Him and attain His reward, is the patience which is unique to the believers. As for the ordinary type of patience that is common among people, that is no more than showing how calm and tough one may be, which may lead to pride and showing off. This may be attained by both righteous and immoral people, believers and disbelievers; this is not the type of patience that is truly praiseworthy.

﴿and establish prayer﴾ with all its essential parts and optional extras, fulfilling all its conditions, both outwardly and inwardly ﴿and spend from that which We have provided for them, secretly and openly﴾ – that includes obligatory spending, such as zakâh and expiation, as well as that spending which is recommended; they spend as needed, secretly and openly ﴿and repel evil with good﴾ that is, if someone mistreats them in word or deed, they do not respond in kind; rather they respond with kindness.

So they give to those who withhold from them, they forgive those who wrong them, they uphold ties with those who cut them off, and they treat kindly those who mistreat them. If they respond with kindness to the one who mistreats them, then how do you think they would respond to one who does not mistreat them?

﴿for them﴾ that is, those who have these noble characteristics and good traits

﴿the end will be [best] in the hereafter﴾. This is explained in the following verse: ﴿Gardens of perpetual abode﴾ that is, where they will abide forever and never leave or want to leave, because they will not see anything better than it, because of what it contains of delight and joy that is all that one could ever want.

Part of that perfect delight and joy is that they will enter it ﴿together with the righteous among their fathers﴾ that is, their parents, both male and female

﴿their spouses﴾ that is, husbands or wives; the word translated here as ﴿spouses﴾ may also refer to peers, counterparts, friends and loved ones

«Angels will enter unto them from every gate» congratulating them on being safe and greeting them, as an honour from Allah to them. They will say:

«Peace be upon you» that is, you are now safe, and this is a greeting from Allah to you, which means that you are now safe and kept away from anything that is disliked, and you have attained all that you like.

«because you patiently persevered» that is, your patience is what brought you to this blessed state and these beautiful gardens

«How excellent is the ultimate end!»

It is worthwhile for one who cares about his soul and appreciates its value to strive hard in the hope that he will adopt some of the qualities of the people of understanding, so that perhaps he may attain this abode which is the wish of all hearts, where all pleasures and joy are to be found. For such as this let people strive and compete.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ يَنْقُضُونَ عَهْدَ اللَّهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ مِيثَاقِهِ وَيَقْطَعُونَ مَا أَمَرَ اللَّهُ بِهِ أَنْ يُوصَلَ وَيُفْسِدُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمُ اللَّعْنَةُ وَلَهُمْ سُوءُ الدَّارِ ۝﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٢٥)

13:25. But those who break Allah's covenant after it has been made binding, and sever the bonds that Allah has commanded to be upheld, and spread mischief in the land – upon them is the curse and for them is a wretched end.

Having mentioned the situation of the people of paradise, Allah tells us that the people of hell will be in the opposite situation:

«But those who break Allah's covenant after it has been made binding» that is, after Allah made it binding through His Messengers and confirmed it, they did not respond by submitting; rather they responded by turning away and breaking the covenant

﴿and sever the bonds that Allah has commanded to be upheld﴾ so they did not uphold the ties between them and their Lord by believing and doing righteous deeds, and they did not uphold the ties of kinship or do the duties that were required of them; rather they spread mischief on earth by disbelieving, committing sin, barring people from the path of Allah and making it seem crooked.

﴿upon them is the curse﴾ that is, they are cast far away and condemned by Allah, His angels and His believing slaves

﴿and for them is a wretched end﴾ namely hell, with all that it contains of painful punishments.

﴿اللَّهُ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَقْدِرُ ۚ وَفَرِحُوا بِالْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا فِي الْآخِرَةِ إِلَّا مَتَاعٌ﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٢٦)

- 13:26. Allah grants abundant provision to whomever He wills, or gives it in scant measure. [The disbelievers] rejoice in the life of this world, but the life of this world, compared to the hereafter, is nothing but a fleeting pleasure.

That is, Allah alone grants abundant provision and gives freely of His bounty to whomever He will, and He restricts it and gives it in small measure to whomever He will.

﴿[The disbelievers] rejoice in the life of this world﴾, which makes them feel content with it to the extent that they neglect the hereafter, and that is due to their lack of reason.

﴿but the life of this world, compared to the hereafter, is nothing but a fleeting pleasure﴾ that is, it is something insignificant that a person enjoys for a brief while, but then he will leave his family and friends behind, and it will be followed by lengthy suffering.

﴿وَيَقُولُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَ عَلَيْهِ آيَةٌ مِنْ رَبِّهِ قُلْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُضِلُّ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِي إِلَيْهِ مَنْ أُنَابَ ۚ﴾ (٢٧) الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَتَطْمَئِنُّ قُلُوبُهُمْ بِذِكْرِ اللَّهِ أَلَا بِذِكْرِ اللَّهِ تَطْمَئِنُّ الْقُلُوبُ ۚ﴾ (٢٨) الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ طُوبَى لَهُمْ وَحَسُنَ مَا أَشْرَفَ ﴿٢٩﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٢٧-٢٩)

- 13:27. Those who disbelieve say: Why has no sign been sent down to him from his Lord? Say: Verily Allah leaves to stray whomever He wills and guides unto Himself whoever turns to Him,
- 13:28. those who believe and whose hearts find comfort in the remembrance of Allah, for verily in the remembrance of Allah hearts find comfort.
- 13:29. Those who believe and do righteous deeds, joy will be theirs, and a blissful journey's end.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about those who disbelieve in the revelations of Allah and behave stubbornly towards the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), demanding things from him and saying, «Why has no sign been sent down to him from his Lord?», and claiming that if a sign came, they would believe. Allah responded to them by saying:

«Say: Verily Allah leaves to stray whomever He wills and guides unto Himself whoever turns to Him» that is, seeks His pleasure. For guidance and misguidance are not under their control, so that they can make that dependent upon signs. Moreover, they are lying:

«Even if We did send angels down to them, and the dead spoke to them, and We gathered together all things before them [to testify to the truth], they still would not believe, unless Allah willed it. But most of them are ignorant [of this fact].» (an-An'ām 6: 111)

The Messenger (ﷺ) is not obliged to bring the specific sign that they demand; rather if he brings them a sign that is enough to prove that the message he brings is true, that is sufficient and the goal has been achieved. In fact that will be more beneficial to them than their demand for the signs that they specify, because if the sign came to them in accordance with their demand and they did not believe in it, that would result in the punishment being hastened for them.

Then Allah (ﷻ) describes the sign of the believers: ﴿those who believe and whose hearts find comfort in the remembrance of Allah﴾ that is, their anxiety and worries are dispelled and replaced with joy and pleasure.

﴿for verily in the remembrance of Allah hearts find comfort﴾ that is, this is their nature and it is to be expected that they would not find comfort in anything except remembrance of Allah, for nothing brings greater pleasure to the heart and nothing is more desirable or sweeter than loving the Creator, feeling close to Him and knowing Him. According to how much the heart knows and loves Allah, it will remember Him to that degree. This is based on the assumption that what is meant by remembrance of Allah is when a person remembers his Lord (dhikr) by glorifying Him, proclaiming His oneness, magnifying Him and so on.

It was also suggested that what is meant by the remembrance of Allah is His Book that He sent down as a reminder to the believers. Based on that, what is meant by hearts finding comfort in the remembrance of Allah is that when the heart comes to know the meanings and rulings of the Qur'an, it feels reassured by them, for they point to clear truth that is supported by evidence and proof. Thus the hearts are reassured, for they cannot find reassurance except by means of certainty and knowledge, which is found in the Book of Allah that is certainly complete and perfect. As for other books that are not based on it, the heart does not feel at ease with them; rather the heart will remain troubled because of the contradictory nature of their evidence and rulings.

«...If it [the Qur'an] had been from anyone other than Allah, they would surely have found therein many contradictions.» (an-Nisā' 4: 82)

This is only known to those who are well-versed in the Book of Allah and who study it and other branches of knowledge, for they find a huge difference between them and it.

«Those who believe and do righteous deeds» that is, they believe with all their hearts in Allah, His angels, His Books, His Messengers and the Last Day, and they confirm this faith by doing righteous deeds which includes deeds of the heart, by loving Allah, fearing Him and putting their hope in Him, as well as physical deeds such as prayer and the like.

«joy will be theirs, and a blissful journey's end» that is, they will be in a good state and have a good return on the Day of Resurrection, because of what they attain of the pleasure of Allah and His honour in this world and the hereafter. They will attain complete rest and perfect reassurance. The word toobā, translated here as «joy», may also refer to the tree of Toobā in paradise, in the shade of which a person may travel for one hundred years without covering the entire distance, as is mentioned in the ṣaḥeeh hadiths.

﴿كَذَٰلِكَ أَرْسَلْنَاكَ فِي أُمَّةٍ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهَا أُمَمٌ لِّتَسْلُطُوا عَلَيْهِمُ الَّذِي أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ
وَهُمْ يَكْفُرُونَ بِالرَّحْمَنِ قُلْ هُوَ رَبِّي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَإِلَيْهِ مَتَابِ﴾

(سورة الرعد: ٣٠)

- 13:30. Thus We have sent you to a nation before whom other nations have passed away, so that you may recite to them that which We have revealed to you, yet they disbelieve in the Most Gracious. Say: He is my Lord, there is no god but He; in Him I put my trust and to Him I turn.

Here Allah says to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ): «Thus We have sent you» to your people, to call them to true guidance «to a nation before whom other nations have passed away» to whom We sent Our Messengers. You are not the first of the Messengers, such that they should find your message strange, and you are not speaking of your own accord; rather you recite to them the revelations of Allah that Allah reveals to you, which purify hearts and souls.

But in fact your people disbelieve in the Most Gracious, so they did not respond to His mercy and kindness – the greatest aspect of which is that We have sent you to them as a Messenger and We have sent down to you a Book – by accepting it with gratitude and thanks; rather they responded by rejecting and denying. Why do they not learn a lesson from those who came before them of nations who rejected their Messengers, and how Allah punished them for their sins?

«Say: He is my Lord, there is no god but He»; this includes both types of tawhīd (oneness of Allah): the oneness of divinity and the oneness of Lordship.

He is my Lord Who has cared for me by sending His blessings upon me since He created me, and He is my God in Whom «I put my trust» in all my affairs «and to Him I turn» that is, and devote all my acts of worship to Him and I turn to Him for my needs.

﴿وَلَوْ أَنَّ قُرْءَانًا سُيِّرَتْ بِهِ الْجِبَالُ أَوْ قُطِعَتْ بِهِ الْأَرْضُ أَوْ كَلِمٌ بِهِ الْمَوْتُ بَل لِّلَّهِ الْأَمْرُ جَمِيعًا أَفَلَمْ يَأْتِنِصِ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَن لَّوْ يَشَاءُ اللَّهُ لَهْدَى النَّاسَ جَمِيعًا وَلَا يَزَالُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا تُصِيبُهُم بِمَا صَنَعُوا قَارِعَةٌ أَوْ تَحُلُّ قَرِيبًا مِّن دَارِهِمْ حَتَّى يَأْتِيَ وَعْدُ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُخْلِفُ الْوَعْدَ﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٣١)

13:31. If there were a Qur'an with which the mountains could be moved, the earth could be cleft and the dead could be made to speak [they still would not believe]. But surely all things are subject to Allah's will. Do those who believe not know that if Allah had so willed, He could have guided all humanity? Calamities will continue to befall those who disbelieve, for their deeds, or to strike close to their homes, until the promise of Allah comes to pass, for Allah does not break His promise.

Here Allah highlights the superiority of the Holy Qur'an over all other revealed Books:

﴿If there were a Qur'an with which the mountains could be moved﴾ from their places

﴿the earth could be cleft and the dead could be made to speak [they still would not believe]. But surely all things are subject to Allah's will﴾ and He brings forth the signs that are in accordance with His wisdom. So what is wrong with the disbelievers and what makes them demand specific signs as they do? Do they or anyone else have any control over the matter?

﴿Do those who believe not know that if Allah had so willed, He could have guided all humanity?﴾ So let them realise that Allah is able to guide them all, but it was not His will to do so. Rather He guides whomever He will and He leaves astray whomever He will.

﴿Calamities will continue to befall those who disbelieve﴾ for their disbelief, but they will not learn any lesson or pay heed. Allah (ﷻ) will keep sending calamities upon them, one after another, which will strike them in their homes or nearby, yet they persist in their disbelief.

﴿until the promise of Allah comes to pass﴾, of sending down an ongoing punishment for which there can be no relief

﴿for Allah does not break His promise﴾. This is a threat and a warning to them that what Allah promised them because of their disbelief, stubbornness and wrongdoing will surely come to them.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَسْتَهْزِئَ بِرُسُلٍ مِّن قَبْلِكَ فَأَمَلْتُ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا ثُمَّ أَخَذْتُهُمْ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عِقَابِ﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٣٢)

13:32. Indeed Messengers before you [O Muhammad] were ridiculed, but I granted respite to those who disbelieved, then I punished them, and how [terrible] was My retribution!

Here Allah says to His Messenger (ﷺ), to reassure and console him: ﴿Indeed Messengers before you [O Muhammad] were ridiculed﴾; you were not the first one to be disbelieved and persecuted ﴿but I granted respite to those who disbelieved﴾ in their Messengers; that is, I granted them respite until they thought that they would not be punished ﴿then I punished them﴾ with all types of punishment ﴿and how [terrible] was My retribution!﴾ It was a severe punishment and painful torment. So these people who disbelieve in you and ridicule you should not be deceived because of Our respite, for they have an example in the nations who came before them. So let them beware lest the same fate befall them as befell those people ﴿أَفَمَن هُوَ قَابِئُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ وَجَعَلُوا لِلَّهِ شُرَكَاءَ قُلْ سَمُّوهُمْ أَمْ تُنَبِّئُونَهُ بِمَا لَا يَعْلَمُ فِي الْأَرْضِ أَمْ يَظْهَرُ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ بَلْ زَيْنٌ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مَكْرُهُمْ وَصُدُّوا عَنِ السَّبِيلِ وَمَن يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِن هَادٍ ۖ هُمْ عَذَابٌ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَلَعَذَابُ الْآخِرَةِ أَشَقُّ وَمَا لَهُم مِّنَ اللَّهِ مِن وَاقٍ﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٣٣-٣٤).

13:33. Is He Who watches over every soul and what it earns [like any other]? And yet they ascribe partners to Allah. Say: Name them; or do you presume to tell Allah of something that He does not know on earth, or is it [just] a show of words? But their contrivance is made fair-seeming to those who disbelieve and they are barred from the path. For those whom Allah has caused to go astray, no one can guide.

13:34. For them is punishment in the life of this world, but indeed the punishment of the hereafter will be harder still. And they will have no defender against Allah.

«Is He Who watches over every soul and what it earns», and requites it in this world and the hereafter on the basis of justice and fairness – this refers to Allah (ﷻ); can He be like one who is not like that?

Hence Allah says: «And yet they ascribe partners to Allah» when He is Allah, the One, the Self-Sustaining, Who has no partner, no equal and no peer.

«Say» to them, if they are speaking the truth

«Name them» so that it will be known what they are

«or do you presume to tell Allah of something that He does not know on earth» for if He is the Knower of the unseen and the seen, and He does not know that He has a partner, it will thus be known that this claim of His having a partner is false, and that you are like one who is informing Allah that He has a partner at the time when He does not know that, but this is the falsest of falsehood. Hence Allah says: «or is it [just] a show of words?» That is, the most that can be said of such a claim is that it is no more than words that you utter.

In reality there is no god but Allah, and no one among creation deserves to be worshipped in any way whatsoever.

«But their contrivance is made fair-seeming to those who disbelieve» that is, what they devised, namely their disbelief, ascription of partners to Allah, and disbelief in His revelations

﴿and they are barred from the path﴾ that is, from the straight path that leads to Allah and to His paradise

﴿For those whom Allah has caused to go astray, no one can guide﴾ because no one has any control over the matter.

﴿For them is punishment in the life of this world, but indeed the punishment of the hereafter will be harder still﴾ than the punishment of this world, because it is so severe and everlasting.

﴿And they will have no defender against Allah﴾ to protect them from the punishment of Allah, for when He sends His punishment upon them, no one can ward it off.

﴿مَثَلُ الْجَنَّةِ الَّتِي وُعدَ الْمُتَّقُونَ تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ أُكُلُهَا دَائِمٌ وَظِلُّهَا تِلْكَ عُقْبَى الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا وَعُقْبَى الْكَافِرِينَ النَّارُ﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٣٥)

13:35. The likeness of paradise, which the pious are promised, [is that of a garden] through which rivers flow; its food is perpetual, and so is its shade. Such will be the end for those who fear Allah, and the end for the disbelievers will be the fire.

﴿The likeness of paradise, which the pious﴾ that is, those who refrain from that which Allah has forbidden to them and do not fall short in that which He has enjoined upon them

﴿[is that of a garden] through which rivers flow﴾ that is, rivers of honey, rivers of wine, rivers of milk and rivers of water that flow without ditches and irrigate those gardens and trees, which bear all kinds of fruit.

﴿its food is perpetual, and so is its shade. Such will be the end for those who fear Allah﴾ that is, it will be their ultimate destination

﴿and the end for the disbelievers will be the fire﴾ and how obvious is the difference between them.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ آمَنَتْهُمْ أَلْكِتَابَ يَفْرَحُونَ بِمَا أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكَ وَمِنَ الْأَخْزَابِ مَنْ يُنْكِرُ بَعْضَهُ
قُلْ إِنَّمَا أُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَعْبُدَ اللَّهَ وَلَا أُشْرِكَ بِهِ إِلَيْهِ أَدْعُوا وَإِلَيْهِ مَتَابِ ﴿٣٦﴾﴾ (سورة

الرعد: ٣٦)

13:36. Those to whom We gave the scripture rejoice in that which is revealed to you, but there are some groups who reject parts of it. Say: I am commanded to worship Allah, and not to ascribe partners to Him. To Him I call and to Him is my return.

«Those to whom We gave the scripture» that is, those whom We blessed with it and with knowledge thereof

«rejoice in that which is revealed to you» so they believe in it and they rejoice in the harmony between the Books and how they confirm one another. This refers to those among the people of the two Books who believed.

«but there are some groups who reject parts of it» that is, among the disbelieving groups who deviated from the truth there are those who reject part of this Qur'an and do not believe in it.

«...Whoever is guided, it is for his own benefit, and whoever goes astray, it is to his own detriment...» (az-Zumar 39: 41)

You are but a warner, calling people to Allah.

«Say: I am commanded to worship Allah, and not to ascribe partners to Him» that is, to devote worship solely to Allah alone

«To Him I call and to Him is my return» that is, to Him I will go back, and He will reward me for what I did of calling people to His religion and striving to do what I was commanded to do.

﴿وَكَذَلِكَ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ حُكْمًا عَرَبِيًّا وَلَئِنْ أَتَيْتَ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ بَعْدَ مَا جَاءَكَ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ مَا لَكَ مِنَ اللَّهِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا وَاقٍ﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٣٧)

- 13:37. Thus have We revealed it, a precise Book in Arabic. If you were to follow their whims and desires, after the knowledge that has come to you, you would have neither protector nor defender against Allah.

That is, We have sent down this Qur'an, a precise Book in Arabic; that is, well-composed in Arabic, in the clearest and most eloquent of languages, so that there will be no doubt or confusion concerning it, and so that it alone will be followed without compromise, and that which opposes it and contradicts it of the whims and desires of those who have no knowledge will not be followed.

Hence Allah warned His Messenger (ﷺ) – even though he was infallible and protected from error, which was a great blessing from Allah – so that his Ummah would be subject to the same set of rulings: ﴿If you were to follow their whims and desires, after the knowledge that has come to you﴾ that is, the clear knowledge which forbids you to follow their whims and desires ﴿you would have neither protector﴾ to protect you so that you could attain what you want ﴿nor defender against Allah﴾ to defend you from harm.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا رُسُلًا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ وَجَعَلْنَا لَهُمْ أَزْوَاجًا وَذُرِّيَّةً وَمَا كَانَ لِرَسُولٍ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ بِبَاطِلٍ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ لِكُلِّ أَجَلٍ كِتَابٌ﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٣٨-٣٩)

13:38. We sent Messengers before you [O Muhammad], and gave them wives and children. It was not given to any Messenger to bring a sign except by Allah's leave. For everything there is a time ordained.

13:39. Allah erases and confirms whatever He wills, and with Him is the Mother of the Book [al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfooḍh].<sup>6</sup>

That is, you are not the first Messenger to be sent to people, such that they could find your message strange.

«We sent Messengers before you [O Muhammad], and gave them wives and children» so do not let your enemies criticise you for having wives and children, as your fellow Messengers did. Why should they criticise you for that, when they know that the Messengers before you did likewise, unless it is for their own corrupt ulterior motives?

If they ask you for a specific sign, you have no control over the matter. «It was not given to any Messenger to bring a sign except by Allah's leave» and Allah does not give permission for such things except at the exact time that He has decreed for it.

«For everything there is a time ordained» and it cannot be brought forward or put back from that time. The fact that they are seeking to hasten the signs or the punishment does not mean that Allah has to bring forward something that He has decreed should happen later, even though He can do whatever He wills.

«Allah erases and confirms whatever» decrees «He wills», and this erasing and alteration applies to matters other than what Allah has already decreed by His knowledge and written with His

<sup>6</sup> Al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfooḍh: the Preserved Tablet, the place where the decrees of Allah are kept. According to the hadith:

«The first thing that Allah created was the Pen, and He said to it: Write! It said: What shall I write? He said: Write the decrees of all things until the Hour begins.» (Recorded by Abu Dâwood; al-Albâni graded it as reliable) That was written in al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfooḍh.

pen, for the latter is not subject to any alteration or change, for it is impossible for there to be any shortcoming in the knowledge of Allah. Hence He says: ﴿and with Him is the Mother of the Book﴾, namely al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfoodh, which is the reference point of all things, because it is the basis thereof, and everything else branches from it.

Rather changes and alterations may occur in minor issues, such as people's actions during the day and night that are recorded by the angels, and Allah creates causes for the confirmation or erasure thereof that do not go beyond what is written in al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfoodh. For example, Allah has ordained that righteousness, upholding ties and doing good deeds should be causes for being granted a long life and abundant provision; He has ordained that sins should be causes for loss of blessing in provision and lifespan; He has ordained the taking of measures for protecting oneself against fatal accidents and injury as a means of safety; and He has ordained that exposing oneself to risks is a cause of damage and injury. It is He Who controls all things according to His will and decree, and whatever He controls does not take a course contrary to that which He already knew and wrote in al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfoodh.

﴿وَإِنْ مَا نُرِيَنَّكَ بَعْضَ الَّذِي نَعِدُهُمْ أَوْ نَتَوَقَّعَنَّكَ فَإِنَّمَا عَلَيْكَ الْبَلَّغُ وَعَلَيْنَا الْحِسَابُ ۚ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّا نَأْتِي الْأَرْضَ نَنْقُصُهَا مِنْ أَطْرَافِهَا ۚ وَاللَّهُ يَحْكُمُ لَا مُعَقَّبَ لِحُكْمِهِ ۚ وَهُوَ سَرِيعُ الْحِسَابِ﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٤٠-٤١)

- 13:40. Whether We show you [O Muhammad] some of that with which We have threatened them or We cause you to die [before that], your duty is only to convey the message, and the Reckoning is for Us.

13:41. Do they not see that We gradually reduce the land [in their control] from its outlying borders? When Allah decrees [a thing], none can reverse His decree, and He is swift in reckoning.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ): do not hasten the punishment of which they were warned, for if they persist in their transgression and disbelief, it is inevitable that that of which they were warned will befall them.

«Whether We show you» that in this world, so you have the delight of seeing it

«or We cause you to die» before it reaches them, that is not your concern.

«your duty is only to convey the message» to people, and explain it «and the Reckoning is for Us», so We will bring people to account for what they did of their obligations and what they neglected, and We will reward or punish them accordingly.

Then Allah says, warning the disbelievers: «Do they not see that We gradually reduce the land [in their control] from its outlying borders?» It was said that this refers to destruction of the disbelievers and eradication of the wrongdoers, or that it refers to the conquest of the lands of the polytheists, and reducing them in wealth and numbers. And there were other suggestions concerning the meaning.

However what appears to be the case – and Allah knows best – is that what is meant here is that Allah would cause the lands of these disbelievers to be swept by a wave of conquests, and that calamities would begin to strike the outlying areas as a warning to them before the decline began to take effect and before Allah caused them to be struck by calamities of a type that no one can ward off. Hence He said: «When Allah decrees [a thing], none can reverse His decree». That includes both His shar'i rulings and universal laws.

These decrees and rulings that Allah ordains are of the highest level of precision, with no shortcomings. Rather they are based on fairness and justice, so no one can reverse them and there is no way to undermine them. This is in contrast to the rulings of others, which may or may not be in harmony with the truth.

﴿and He is swift in reckoning﴾ that is, so do not seek to hasten the punishment, for everything that is meant to happen is close at hand.

﴿وَقَدْ مَكَرَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَلِلَّهِ الْمَكْرُ جَمِيعًا يَعْلَمُ مَا تَكْسِبُ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ وَسَيَعْلَمُ
الْكُفْرُ لِمَنْ عُقِيَ الدَّارُ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَيَقُولُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَسْتَ مُرْسَلًا قُلْ كَفَى
بِاللَّهِ شَهِيدًا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكُمْ وَمَنْ عِنْدَهُ عِلْمُ الْكِتَابِ ﴿٤٣﴾﴾ (سورة الرعد: ٤٢-٤٣)

(٤٣)

13:42. Those who came before them [also] plotted and planned, but Allah is master of all planning. He knows what each soul earns, and the disbelievers will come to know for whom the end will be [best] in the hereafter.

13:43. The disbelievers say: You are not a Messenger. Say: Allah is sufficient as a witness between me and you, and [so are] those who have knowledge of the scriptures.

﴿Those who came before them [also] plotted and planned﴾ against their Messengers and against the truth the Messengers brought, but their plots did not avail them in anything and did not achieve any goal, because they were fighting and opposing Allah, and ﴿Allah is master of all planning﴾. No one can plot and plan except by His leave and subject to His will and decree. Hence if they plot against His religion, the plot will backfire and lead to nothing but frustration and regret, for Allah ﴿knows what each soul earns﴾ that is, He knows its concerns and thoughts, and all that it does, both outwardly and inwardly.

Plots are inevitably part of what the soul earns, so their plots are not hidden from Allah and therefore it is not possible for them to come up with a plot that will harm the truth and its people and benefit themselves in any way.

﴿and the disbelievers will come to know for whom the end will be [best] in the hereafter﴾ that is, for them or for the Messengers. It is well known that the end will be best for those who fear Allah, not for the disbelievers.

﴿The disbelievers say: You are not a Messenger﴾ that is, they disbelieve in you and they disbelieve in the message with which you were sent ﴿Say﴾ to them, when they demand a witness for that: ﴿Allah is sufficient as a witness between me and you﴾ and His witness is on the basis of His words, His actions and His approval. As for His words, they are what Allah has revealed to the most truthful of His creation, by means of which He confirmed his messengerhood.

As for His actions, that is because Allah (ﷻ) supported His Messenger (ﷺ) and granted him victory that was beyond his means and those of his Companions and followers. This was testimony from Allah based on actions and support.

As for His approval, Allah told the Messenger (ﷺ) that he was indeed His Messenger and that people were enjoined to follow him. So whoever follows him attains the pleasure and honour of Allah, and whoever does not follow him is subject to hell and divine wrath. Allah approved of his message; if he had fabricated anything and attributed it falsely to Allah, He would have hastened to punish him.

﴿and [so are] those who have knowledge of the scriptures﴾ – this includes all the scholars of the people of the two Books, for they testify in favour of the Messenger. Those among them who believe in the Messenger (ﷺ) and follow the truth proclaim this testimony that they were obliged to give, and whoever withholds it, the fact that Allah tells us that he has a testimony that he is withholding carries more weight than if he himself were to disclose it openly. If he did not have any testimony to disclose, he would have responded that he had no testimony on the basis of proof. His silence proves that he has testimony that he is concealing. The only reason why Allah said that the testimony of the People of the Book should be sought is because they are people who have knowledge of this matter, and testimony is only to be sought from people who have more knowledge of the matter than others. This is in contrast to those who have nothing to do with it, such as the illiterate polytheist Arabs and others; there was no benefit in seeking their testimony, because they had no experience or knowledge of the matter. And Allah knows best.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat ar-Ra'd.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

14. Soorat Ibrâheem

(Makki)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿الرَّ كِتَبٌ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ لِتُخْرِجَ النَّاسَ مِنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ بِإِذْنِ
رَبِّهِمْ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَمِيدِ ﴿١﴾ اللَّهُ الَّذِي لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي
الْأَرْضِ ۖ وَنَبِّئِ لِلْكَافِرِينَ مِنْ عَذَابٍ شَدِيدٍ ﴿٢﴾ الَّذِينَ يَسْتَحِبُّونَ الْحَيَاةَ
الدُّنْيَا عَلَى الْآخِرَةِ وَيَصُدُّونَ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَيَبْغُونَهَا عِوَجًا أُولَٰئِكَ فِي ضَلَالٍ
بَعِيدٍ ﴿٣﴾﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ١-٣)

14:1. Alif. Lām. Râ'.<sup>7</sup> [This is] a Book that We have revealed to you, so that you may lead the people forth from the depths of darkness into light, by their Lord's leave, to the path of the Almighty, the Praiseworthy,

<sup>7</sup> Groups of letters (al-ḥuroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

- 14:2. [the path of] Allah, to Whom belongs all that is in the heavens and on earth. And woe to the disbelievers from a severe punishment!
- 14:3. Those who prefer the life of this world to the hereafter, who bar [people] from the path of Allah, and seek to make it appear crooked; those are the ones who have gone far astray.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He sent down His Book to His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) to benefit humankind and to bring them forth from the darkness of ignorance, disbelief, bad attitudes and all kinds of sin to the light of knowledge, faith and good attitudes. ﴿by their Lord's leave﴾ that is, they could not do that which Allah wants and loves them to do except by the will and help of Allah. This encourages people to seek the help of their Lord.

Then He explains further the light to which this Book guides them: ﴿to the path of the Almighty, the Praiseworthy﴾ that is, the path that leads to Him and to paradise, which involves knowing the truth and acting upon it. Mentioning ﴿the Almighty, the Praiseworthy﴾ after mentioning the path that leads to Him indicates that the one who follows this path will be honoured and protected by the might of Allah, even if he has no supporters except Him, and he will have a good end in all his affairs.

This indicates that the path of Allah is one of the greatest proofs of what Allah possesses of sublime attributes of perfection, and that the One Who set up the straight path for His slaves is almighty in power and praiseworthy in words, actions and rulings, and that He is to be loved and worshipped with acts of worship that lead one on the straight path. Just as He has dominion of the heavens and the earth, as their Creator, provider and controller, He also has the right to issue religious rulings to His slaves, because they belong to Him and it is not befitting for Him to leave them without guidance.

Having made the proof and evidence clear, Allah then warns those who do not submit to that, as He says: ﴿And woe to the disbelievers from a severe punishment» for they have not given due recognition to Allah and they have not complied with His commands.

Then He describes them as being «Those who prefer the life of this world to the hereafter», so they are happy and content with it, and they are heedless about the hereafter

«who bar [people] from the path of Allah» that He has set up for His slaves and explained it in His Books and on the lips of His Messengers. But these people have made a declaration of enmity and war against their Lord

And they «seek to make it» that is, the path of Allah «appear crooked» that is, they are keen to make it seem off-putting and ugly, so as to turn people away from it. But Allah insists that His light must be perfected, even though the disbelievers hate it.

«those» who are described here «are the ones who have gone far astray» because they have gone astray themselves and have caused others to go astray, and they opposed and fought Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ). What misguidance could be worse than this? As for the people of faith, they are the opposite of them, for they believe in Allah and His revelations, they prefer the hereafter over this world, and they call people to the path of Allah, making it look as beautiful as they can and highlighting how straight it is (as opposed to being crooked).

﴿وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ رَّسُولٍ إِلَّا بِلِسَانٍ قَوْمِهِ ۚ لِيُبَيِّنَ لَهُمْ فَيُضِلَّ اللَّهُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِيَ مَنْ يَشَاءُ ۚ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٤)

14:4. We did not send any Messenger but [he spoke] in the language of his own people, in order to make [things] clear to them. Then Allah leaves astray whomever He wills and guides whomever He wills, and He is the Almighty, Most Wise.

By His kindness to His slaves, Allah never sent any Messenger ﴿but [he spoke] in the language of his own people, in order to make [things] clear to them﴾ that they needed to know, so that they might be able to learn what he brought to them, which is different from the situation if he had spoken in a language other than theirs, for then they would have needed to learn that language in which he spoke, then understand what he had said. Then once the Messenger has explained what they are enjoined and forbidden to do, and the proof of Allah has been established against them, ﴿Then Allah leaves astray whomever He wills﴾ of those who did not submit to true guidance, and He guides whomever He will among those whom He has chosen for His mercy.

﴿and He is the Almighty, Most Wise﴾. Because He is Almighty, He is the only One Who has the power to guide or leave astray, and to control the hearts and direct them as He will. By His wisdom, he does not ordain guidance or misguidance except as is appropriate.

This verse is quoted as evidence that acquiring branches of knowledge having to do with the Arabic language, that lead to understanding of the words of Allah and of His Messenger (ﷺ), is something that is required and is dear to Allah, because knowledge of what He revealed to His Messenger (ﷺ) cannot be attained otherwise, except in cases where people are in such a situation that they have no need of that, which applies if they become well-versed in Arabic and grow up with it from an early age, and it is second nature to them. In that case, there is no need to put effort into that and they become fit to read the words of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) and understand them immediately, as the Ṣaḥābah (رضي الله عنهم) did.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَىٰ بِآيَاتِنَا أَن أَخْرِجْ قَوْمَكَ مِنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ وَذَكِّرْهُمْ بِآيَاتِنَا إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّكُلِّ صَبَّارٍ شَكُورٍ﴾

﴿٥﴾ وَإِذْ قَالَ مُوسَىٰ لِقَوْمِهِ أَذْكُرُوا نِعْمَةَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ إِذْ أَنْجَاكُمْ مِنْ
 آلِ فِرْعَوْنَ يَسُومُونَكُمْ سُوءَ الْعَذَابِ وَيُدْحِقُونَ أَنْفُسَكُمْ وَيَسْتَحْيُونَ
 نِسَاءَكُمْ فِي ذُلِّكُمْ بِآيَةٍ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ عَظِيمٍ ﴿٦﴾ وَإِذْ تَأَذَّتْ رُجُومُكُمْ
 لِمَنْ شَكَّرْتُمْ لَا تَزِيدَنَّكُمْ وَلَئِنْ كَفَرْتُمْ إِنَّ عَذَابِي لَشَدِيدٌ ﴿٧﴾ وَقَالَ مُوسَىٰ إِنَّ
 تَكْفُرُوا أَنْتُمْ وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا فَأِنَّ اللَّهَ لَغَنِيٌّ حَمِيدٌ ﴿٨﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٥-٨)

- 14:5. We sent Moosâ with Our signs, [saying]: Bring your people forth from the depths of darkness into light and remind them of the blessings of Allah. Surely in that there are signs for every steadfastly patient and deeply thankful person.
- 14:6. And [remember] when Moosâ said to his people: Remember Allah's blessing upon you, when He delivered you from the people of Pharaoh, who were subjecting you to grievous torment, slaughtering your sons and letting your womenfolk live; in that was a great trial from your Lord.
- 14:7. And [remember] when your Lord proclaimed: If you give thanks, I will surely give you more, but if you are ungrateful, verily My punishment is indeed severe.
- 14:8. And Moosâ said: Even if you are ungrateful, you and all who are on earth together, verily Allah is Self-Sufficient, Praiseworthy.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He sent Moosâ with great signs that confirmed the truth and validity of the message he brought, and enjoined upon him the same instructions as He enjoined upon His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) and, indeed, upon all the Messengers: ﴿Bring your people forth from the depths of darkness into light﴾ that is, from the darkness of ignorance and disbelief of all kinds, to the light of knowledge and faith, and all that is connected to them ﴿and remind them of the blessings of Allah﴾ that He has bestowed upon them, and His kindness towards them.

﴿Surely in that﴾ that is, in the blessings that Allah bestows upon His slaves

﴿there are signs for every steadfastly patient and deeply thankful person﴾ that is, the one who is steadfastly patient at times of hardship and difficulty, and deeply thankful for times of ease and blessings.

Allah's blessings are indicative of His perfect power, immense generosity and perfect justice and wisdom. Hence Moosâ (ﷺ) obeyed the command of his Lord and reminded his people of the blessings of Allah, saying:

﴿Remember Allah's blessing upon you﴾ that is, in your hearts and verbally

﴿when He delivered you from the people of Pharaoh, who were subjecting you to grievous torment﴾ inflicting the severest persecution. He then explained that by saying:

﴿slaughtering your sons and letting your womenfolk live﴾ that is, they left the women alive and did not kill them

﴿in that﴾ namely your deliverance

﴿was a great trial from your Lord﴾ that is, a great blessing, or it may mean: in that torment from Pharaoh and his chiefs with which you were tested there was a great trial for you from Allah, to see whether you would be patient or not.

Moosâ said to them, urging them to give thanks for the blessings of Allah: ﴿And [remember] when your Lord proclaimed﴾ that is, announced and promised

﴿If you give thanks, I will surely give you more﴾ of My blessings ﴿but if you are ungrateful, verily My punishment is indeed severe﴾ – that punishment includes taking away from them the blessing that He had bestowed upon them. Gratitude means acknowledging in one's heart the blessings of Allah, praising Allah for them and using them to seek the pleasure of Allah (ﷻ). Ingratitude is the opposite of that.

﴿And Moosâ said: Even if you are ungrateful, you and all who are on earth together﴾ you will never harm Allah in the slightest ﴿verily Allah is Self-Sufficient, Praiseworthy﴾. Acts of obedience do not add to His dominion and acts of disobedience do not detract from it, for He is perfectly self-sufficient, praiseworthy in His essence, names, attributes and actions. He has no attributes but attributes of the utmost praiseworthiness and perfection, He has no names but the best of names and He does no actions but actions of the utmost goodness.

﴿الَّذِينَ نَبَّأُوا الذِّينَ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ قَوْمَ نُوحٍ وَعَادٍ وَثَمُودَ وَالَّذِينَ
مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ لَا يَعْلَمُهُمْ إِلَّا اللَّهُ جَاءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَرَدُّوا أَيْدِيَهُمْ فِي
أَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَقَالُوا إِنَّا كَفَرْنَا بِمَا أُرْسِلْتُمْ بِهِ وَإِنَّا لَفِي شَكٍّ مِمَّا تَدْعُونَنَا إِلَيْهِ مُرِيبٍ
(٩) قَالَتْ رُسُلُهُمْ أَفِى اللَّهِ شَكٌّ فَأَطِرِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يَدْعُوكُمْ لِمَغْفِرٍ
لَكُمْ مِنْ ذُنُوبِكُمْ وَيُخْرِجَكُمْ إِلَى أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى قَالُوا إِنَّ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ
مِثْلُنَا تُرِيدُونَ أَنْ تَصُدُّونَا عَمَّا كَانَتْ يَعْبُدُ آبَاؤُنَا فَأَتُونَا بِسُلْطَانٍ مُبِينٍ (١٠)
قَالَتْ لَهُمْ رُسُلُهُمْ إِنْ نَحْنُ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُكُمْ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ يَمُنُّ عَلَى مَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ
عِبَادِهِ وَمَا كَانَتْ لَنَا أَنْ نَأْتِيَكُمْ بِسُلْطَانٍ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ وَعَلَى اللَّهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ
الْمُؤْمِنُونَ (١١) وَمَا لَنَا أَلَّا نَتَوَكَّلَ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَقَدْ هَدَانَا سُبُلَنَا وَلَنْصِيرِبَ
عَلَى مَا أَذَيْتُمُونَا وَعَلَى اللَّهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُتَوَكِّلُونَ (١٢)﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٩-١٢)

- 14:9. Have the stories not reached you of those who came before you – the people of Nooh, ‘Âd and Thamood, and those who came after them? No one knows them but Allah. Their Messengers came to them with clear signs, but they put their hands to their mouths and said: Indeed we disbelieve in that with which you have been sent, and indeed we are in grave doubt about that to which you are calling us.

- 14:10. Their Messengers said: Can there be any doubt about Allah, the Originator of the heavens and the earth? He calls you so that He may forgive some of your sins and give you respite for an appointed term. They said: You are but human beings like ourselves! You want to turn us away from that which our forefathers used to worship; then bring us some clear proof.

- 14:11. Their Messengers said to them: Indeed we are but human beings like yourselves, but Allah bestows His favour upon whomever He wills of His slaves. It is not within our power to bring you any proof except by Allah's leave. And in Allah let the believers put their trust.
- 14:12. Why should we not put our trust in Allah when He has guided us in our paths? We will surely be patient and steadfast in bearing whatever harm you cause us. And in Allah let all that trust put their trust.

Here Allah alerts His slaves to the way in which He dealt with the disbelieving nations when the Messengers came to them and they rejected them, so He punished them in this world with the punishment that was seen and heard by people.

«Have the stories not reached you of those who came before you – the people of Nooh, 'Ad and Thamood» – Allah has told their stories in His Book, and explained them.

«and those who came after them? No one knows them but Allah» because there were many of them, but their stories have been lost.

In the case of all of these nations «Their Messengers came to them with clear signs» that is, with evidence that confirmed the truthfulness of the message they brought. Allah did not send any Messenger but He gave him clear signs so that humans could believe in him. But when their Messengers came to them with clear signs, they did not accept them; rather they were too arrogant to believe.

«but they put their hands to their mouths» that is, they did not believe in the message that had come to them and they did not say anything to indicate that they had faith. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...They put their fingers in their ears to keep out the stunning thunderclap, for fear of death...﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 19)

﴿and said﴾ bluntly to their Messengers

﴿Indeed we disbelieve in that with which you have been sent, and indeed we are in grave doubt about that to which you are calling us﴾ that is, we find it confusing and unclear. They disbelieved in it and did wrong.

Hence ﴿Their Messengers said﴾ to them:

﴿Can there be any doubt about Allah﴾ that is, His existence is the clearest and most obvious of all things. Whoever has doubts about Allah, ﴿the Originator of the heavens and the earth﴾, on Whose existence the existence of all things is based, will not have any trust in anything that is known, even tangible things. Hence the Messengers addressed the people on the basis that they did not have any doubts about Allah, because there can be no doubt about Him.

﴿He calls you﴾ to that which will benefit you and is in your best interests

﴿so that He may forgive some of your sins and give you respite for an appointed term﴾ that is, so that He may reward you for responding to His call, in this world and in the hereafter. He did not call you so that He might benefit from your worship; rather the benefit will all come back to you.

But they responded to their Messengers in a foolish and ignorant manner, saying to them:

﴿You are but human beings like ourselves﴾ that is, how can you be favoured above us by means of prophethood and messengership?

﴿You want to turn us away from that which our forefathers used to worship﴾ so how can we give up the beliefs and way of our forefathers for the sake of your beliefs? How can we obey you, when you are but human beings like ourselves?

﴿then bring us some clear proof﴾ that is, clear evidence. What they meant was a sign that they themselves specified, otherwise their Messengers had already brought clear signs to them.

﴿Their Messengers said to them﴾ in response to their demands and objections:

﴿Indeed we are but human beings like yourselves﴾ that is, it is indeed true that we are human beings like yourselves, ﴿but﴾ there is nothing in that to justify your rejection of what we have brought of truth, for ﴿Allah bestows His favour upon whomever He wills of His slaves﴾. If Allah bestows His revelation and message upon us, that is by His bounty and favour, and no one has the right to prevent or restrict the bounty and favour of Allah. Look at what we have brought you; if it is truth, then accept it, and if it is otherwise, then reject it, but do not make our condition (of being human) a reason for rejecting the message that we have brought to you. You say ﴿then bring us some clear proof﴾, but it is not within our power to do so and we have no control over the matter.

﴿It is not within our power to bring you any proof except by Allah's leave﴾ for He is the One Who will send it to you, if He will, but if He does not will, He will not send it to you, for He only does that which is dictated by His wisdom and mercy.

﴿And in Allah﴾ and in nothing else ﴿let the believers put their trust﴾. So they rely on Him to bring that which is in their best interests, and to ward off that which will harm them, because they are fully aware of His complete power, perfect care and all-encompassing generosity, and they trust that He will suffice them. Their trust in Him will be commensurate with the level of their faith.

Thus it is known that putting one's trust in Allah is obligatory, and that it is one of the requirements of faith and one of the major acts of worship that Allah loves and is pleased with, because all other acts of worship are connected to it.

﴿Why should we not put our trust in Allah when He has guided us in our paths?﴾ That is, what is there to prevent us from putting our trust in Allah, when we are following truth and guidance, and whoever follows truth and guidance, His guidance compels us to strive to attain perfect trust. Moreover, the believer knows that Allah has guaranteed to help and suffice the one who is guided, which inspires him to put his trust in Him. This is in contrast to the one who is not following truth and guidance, for he has no assurance from Allah, so his situation is the opposite of that of one who has put his trust in Allah.

This is like a hint from the Messengers to their people, pointing to a great sign, which is that – in most cases – their people had power and had the upper hand over them, so their Messengers were challenging them by telling them that they were putting their trust in Allah to ward off the plots of their people against them, and that they were certain that Allah would take care of them and suffice them. And Allah did indeed take care of them and suffice them against their evil, even though they were so keen to destroy them and extinguish the truth that they had. This is like what Nooh (ﷺ) said to his people:

﴿...O my people, if my presence among you and my reminding you of the signs of Allah have become too much for you to bear, then in Allah I have put my trust, so decide on your course of action, you and your [so-called] partners, leaving no room for uncertainty, then carry out your decision concerning me, and give me no respite.﴾ (Yoonus 10: 71)

– and it is like what Hood (ﷺ) said:

﴿...I call Allah to witness, and you too are my witnesses, that I disavow all those whom you ascribe as partners to Allah. So scheme against me, all of you, and give me no respite.﴾ (Hood 11: 54-55)

﴿We will surely be patient and steadfast in bearing whatever harm you cause us﴾ that is, and we will persist in calling you, and admonishing you and reminding you, and we will not worry about whatever harm you may cause us, for we will try to bear with patience whatever harm you cause us, seeking reward with Allah and out of sincerity towards you, in the hope that Allah will guide you if we persist in reminding you.

«And in Allah» alone, and in no one else «let all that trust put their trust», for putting one's trust in Him is the key to all goodness.

It should be noted that the Messengers' trust in Allah was for the noblest and most sublime of aims, for they put their trust in Him to establish and support His religion, guide His slaves and save them from misguidance. This is the most perfect kind of trust in Allah.

﴿وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِرُسُلِهِمْ لَنُخْرِجَنَّكُمْ مِنْ أَرْضِنَا أَوْ لَتَعُوذُنَّ فِي
مِلَّتِنَا فَأَوْحَى إِلَيْهِمْ رَبُّهُمْ لَنُهْلِكَنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿١٣﴾ وَلَنُسَكِّنَنَّكُمْ
الْأَرْضَ مِنْ
بَعْدِهِمْ ذَٰلِكَ لِمَنْ خَافَ مَقَامِي وَخَافَ وَعِيدِ ﴿١٤﴾ وَاسْتَفْتَحُوا وَخَابَ كُلُّ
جَبَّارٍ عَنِيدٍ ﴿١٥﴾ مِّنْ وَرَائِهِ جَهَنَّمُ وَيُسْقَىٰ مِنْ مَّاءٍ صَدِيدٍ ﴿١٦﴾ يَتَجَرَّعُهُ
وَلَا يَكَادُ يُسِيغُهُ وَيَأْتِيهِ الْمَوْتُ مِنْ كُلِّ مَكَانٍ وَمَا هُوَ بِمَيِّتٍ وَمِنْ
وَرَائِهِ عَذَابٌ غَلِيظٌ ﴿١٧﴾﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ١٣-١٧)

14:13. The disbelievers said to their Messengers: We will certainly drive you out of our land, unless you return to our religion. But their Lord revealed to them: Indeed We will certainly destroy the evildoers, 14:14. And We will certainly cause you to dwell in the land after they are gone. This is for those who fear standing before Me [on the Day of Resurrection], and who heed My warning.

14:15. [The Messengers] sought victory and help [from Allah], and every obstinate tyrant met with frustration.

14:16. Ahead of him is hell, and he will be given putrid water to drink.

14:17. He will sip it unwillingly, hardly able to swallow it. Death will come at him from all directions, yet he will not die. And ahead of him will be a harsh punishment.

Having mentioned the Messengers' call to their people and their persistence and never giving up, Allah then tells us how matters with their people deteriorated further:

«The disbelievers said to their Messengers», threatening them: «We will certainly drive you out of our land, unless you return to our religion». This was the ultimate rejection, and there was no hope for them after this, because they did not stop at turning away from guidance; rather they threatened the Messengers with expulsion from their land, which they claimed as their own and said that the Messengers had no right to be there. This is the worst kind of injustice, because Allah sent His slaves to inhabit the earth, and He commanded them to worship Him, and He made the earth and everything on it to be of service to them in order to help them to worship Him.

So whoever uses that to help him worship Allah, using it is permissible for him and there is no blame on him. But whoever uses it to help him disbelieve and commit acts of disobedience, it cannot be exclusively for him and it is not permissible for him. Thus it is known that in reality the enemies of the Messengers have no right to the land from which they threatened to expel the Messengers. If we judge the matter on the basis of custom, the Messengers are among the inhabitants of the land, so for what reason can the people deny them a right that is clearly theirs? Is this anything but a complete lack of religious commitment and decency?

Hence when the plot against the Messengers reached that level, there was nothing left but for the decree of Allah to be executed and for Allah to come to the aid of His close friends.

«But their Lord revealed to them: Indeed We will certainly destroy the evildoers» with all kinds of punishments.

﴿And We will certainly cause you to dwell in the land after they are gone﴾ – this was the good end that Allah granted to the Messengers and their followers, as a reward ﴿for those who fear standing before Me [on the Day of Resurrection]﴾, and remember that Allah is always watching and can see them

﴿and who heed My warning﴾ that is, what I have threatened to those who disobey Me, which should make them refrain from doing that which Allah dislikes and hasten to do that which Allah loves.

﴿[The Messengers] sought victory and help [from Allah], and every obstinate tyrant met with frustration﴾ that is, those who opposed Allah and the truth, and opposed the slaves of Allah, behaved with arrogance in the land and stubbornly rejected the Messengers became losers in this world and the hereafter.

﴿Ahead of him is hell﴾ that is, hell awaits the stubborn tyrant, and he will inevitably enter it and taste the severe punishment

﴿and he will be given putrid water to drink﴾ that is, it is putrid in its colour, taste and foul stench, and it is extremely hot.

﴿He will sip it unwillingly﴾ out of severe thirst

﴿hardly able to swallow it﴾. When it is brought near his face, it will roast it, and when it reaches his stomach, it will destroy whatever it passes through of his innards.

﴿Death will come at him from all directions, yet he will not die﴾ that is, the severe punishments of all types will come towards him, each one of which will be so severe that he will reach the point of death, but Allah has decreed that they will not die. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...Death will not be decreed for them, so that they might die, nor will its punishment be alleviated for them. Thus do We requite every disbeliever. There they will cry out loud...﴾ (Fāfir 35: 36-37)

﴿And ahead of him﴾ that is, the obstinate tyrant

﴿will be a harsh punishment﴾ that is, a severe punishment, the nature and severity of which no one knows except Allah (ﷻ).

﴿مَثَلُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِرَبِّهِمْ أَعْمَالُهُمْ كَرَمَادٍ اشْتَدَّتْ بِهِ الرِّيحُ فِي يَوْمٍ عَاصِفٍ لَا يَقْدِرُونَ مِمَّا كَسَبُوا عَلَى شَيْءٍ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الصَّلَافُ الْبَعِيدُ﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ١٨)

14:18. The deeds of those who disbelieve in their Lord are like ashes which the wind scatters on a stormy day. No advantage will they gain from their deeds; that is straying far into error.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the deeds of the disbelievers. What is meant is either the deeds that they intended for Allah, in the way in which they will be lost and invalidated, and the way in which they will be diminished and disappear like ashes, which are formed of the smallest and lightest of particles; when the wind blows them away on a very stormy day, no trace is left of them and no advantage is gained from them, because they diminish and disappear. This is the likeness of the good deeds of the disbelievers: ﴿No advantage will they gain from their deeds﴾, not even an atom's weight, because they are based on disbelief and rejection.

﴿that is straying far into error﴾ because their efforts became invalid and their deeds became worthless.

Or it may be that what is meant is the efforts of the disbelievers in opposing the truth, for they put a great deal of hard work and effort into that, but their plot backfires and they will never harm Allah or His Messengers or their followers, or what they have of the truth, in the slightest.

﴿أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ إِن يَشَأْ يُذْهِبْكُمْ وَيَأْتِ بِخَلْقٍ جَدِيدٍ ﴿١٩﴾ وَمَا ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ بِعَزِيزٍ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَبَرِّزُوا لِلَّهِ جَمِيعًا فَقَالَ الضُّعِفَاتُ لِلَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا إِنَّا كُنَّا لَكُمْ تَبَعًا فَهَلْ أَنْتُمْ مُغْنُونَ عَنَّا مِنْ عَذَابِ اللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ قَالُوا

لَوْ هَدَدْنَاهُ اللَّهُ لَهَدَيْنَاكُمْ سِوَاءَ عَلَيْنَا أَجْزَعًا أَمْ صَبَرْنَا مَا لَنَا مِنْ مَّحِيصٍ
 ﴿سورة إبراهيم: ١٩-٢١﴾

- 14:19. Do you not see that Allah has created the heavens and the earth for a true purpose? If He so willed, He could destroy you and bring a new creation [in your place].
- 14:20. And that is not difficult for Allah.
- 14:21. They will all appear before Allah, then those who were weak will say to those who were arrogant: We were your followers; can you then protect us at all against Allah's punishment? They will say: If Allah had guided us, we would have guided you. It makes no difference to us [now] whether we panic or show patience, for we have no escape.

Here Allah (ﷻ) points out to His slaves that He ﴿has created the heavens and the earth for a true purpose﴾ that is, so that all creatures may worship Him and know Him, and heed His commands and prohibitions; and so that by means of the heavens and the earth and all that they contain, people may conclude what Allah possesses of perfect attributes; and so that they may know that the One Who created the heavens and the earth, with all their greatness and vastness, is able to create them anew so as to requite them for their good deeds and bad deeds. But His power and will are not limited to that. Hence He says: ﴿If He so willed, He could destroy you and bring a new creation [in your place]﴾.

It may be that what is meant is that He could take you away and bring another people in your stead, who would be more obedient to Allah than you. Or it may be that what is meant is that He could cause you to die then bring you back by resurrecting you as a new creation. This interpretation is supported by what is mentioned afterwards about the Day of Resurrection.

﴿And that is not difficult for Allah﴾ that is, it is not beyond Him; rather it is very easy for Him.

﴿The creation and resurrection of all of you are [for Allah, as easy] as [the creation and the resurrection of] a single soul...﴾ (Luqmân 31: 28)

﴿It is He Who originates creation then repeats it, and that is [even] easier for Him...﴾ (ar-Room 30: 27)

﴿They﴾ that is, all creatures
 ﴿will all appear before Allah﴾ when the Trumpet is blown and they emerge from their graves for the meeting with their Lord. They will stand on land that is a smooth, levelled plain (cf. 20: 106), in which you will see no depression or elevation (cf. 20: 107). They will appear before Him and nothing of them will be hidden from Him. When they emerge, they will begin to argue, and each will speak in his own defence and try to protect himself as much as he can, but there is no way they will be able to do that.

﴿then those who were weak﴾ that is, the followers and imitators
 ﴿will say to those who were arrogant﴾ namely the leaders of misguidance who were followed

﴿We were your followers﴾ that is, in the previous world; you told us to go astray, making it fair-seeming to us, and you misled us.

﴿can you then protect us at all against Allah's punishment?﴾ That is, by even an atom's weight

﴿They﴾ that is, the leaders who were followed

﴿will say﴾: We led you astray as we ourselves were led astray (cf. 28: 63).

﴿If Allah had guided us, we would have guided you﴾. So no one can help anyone else.

﴿It makes no difference to us [now]﴾ with regard to the punishment
 ﴿whether we panic or show patience, for we have no escape﴾ that is, we have no refuge to which we can flee and no way to escape the punishment of Allah.

﴿ وَقَالَ الشَّيْطَانُ لَمَّا قُضِيَ الْأَمْرُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَعَدَكُمْ وَعْدَ الْحَقِّ وَوَعَدْتُكُمْ فَأَخْلَفْتُكُمْ وَمَا كَانَ لِي عَلَيْكُمْ مِنْ سُلْطَانٍ إِلَّا أَنْ دَعَوْتُكُمْ فَاسْتَجَبْتُمْ لِي فَلَا تَلُومُونِي وَلُومُوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ مَا أَنَا بِمُصْرِخِكُمْ وَمَا أَنْتُمْ بِمُصْرِخِيَّ إِنِّي كَفَرْتُ بِمَا أَشْرَكْتُمُونِ مِنْ قَبْلُ إِنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴾ (٢٣) وَأَدْخِلْ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهِمْ يُحَيَّتُهُمْ فِيهَا سَلَامٌ ﴿٢٤﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٢٢-٢٣)

14:22. And Shayṭān will say, when the matter is decided: Verily Allah gave you a true promise; I also gave you promises, but I betrayed you. I had no power over you, except that I called you and you responded to me. So do not blame me; blame yourselves. I cannot help you, nor can you help me. I disavow your erstwhile association of me with Allah. Verily for the wrongdoers there will be a painful punishment.

14:23. But those who believe and do righteous deeds will be admitted to gardens through which rivers flow, to abide therein forever by their Lord's leave. Their greeting therein will be: Peace.

﴿And Shayṭān﴾ who is the cause of all the evil that happened and will ever happen in this world

﴿will say﴾, addressing the people of hell and disavowing them

﴿when the matter is decided﴾ and the people of paradise have entered paradise and the people of hell have entered hell

﴿Verily Allah gave you a true promise﴾ on the lips of His Messengers, but you did not obey Him. If you had obeyed Him, you would have attained the supreme triumph.

﴿I also gave you promises﴾ of good things

﴿but I betrayed you﴾ and what I promised you of false wishes did not happen and will never happen.

«I had no power over you» that is, I had no proof to support what I said

«except that I called you and you responded to me». In other words: that is all I had, that I called you to whatever I wanted and I made it fair-seeming to you, then you responded to me, following your whims and desires. As that is the case, «do not blame me; blame yourselves» because you were the cause and it is your fault that the punishment has become inevitable for you.

«I cannot help you» that is, I cannot save you from the distress in which you find yourselves «nor can you help me»; each of us will have his own share of punishment.

«I disavow your erstwhile association of me with Allah» that is, I disavow your having made me a partner with Allah, for I am not a partner to Allah, and there was no obligation to obey me.

«Verily for the wrongdoers» who wronged themselves by obeying the Shaytân

«there will be a painful punishment» in which they will abide forever.

By His kindness towards His slaves, Allah warned them against obeying the Shaytân and told them about the ways in which he tries to tempt man and what his goal is, for his aim is to cause man to enter hell. Here Allah tells us that when the Shaytân and his followers enter hell, he will disavow them in this manner and reject their association of him with Allah.

«...And none can inform you like [the One Who is] all-aware.» (Fâṭir 35: 14)

It should be noted that in this verse, Allah tells us that the Shaytân has no power, and elsewhere He says:

«He has power only over those who take him as an ally and, under his influence, ascribe partners to Allah.» (an-Nahl 16: 100)

The power which Allah tells us the Shaytân does not possess is the power of proof and evidence. He has no proof at all for that to which he calls people. All that he has is specious arguments that he presents to make falsehood fair-seeming, so that people will have justification in their minds to commit sin.

As for the power which Allah tells us that the Shayṭān has, it is power by means of temptation to commit sin, in the case of his allies; he strongly incites them to commit sin and they are the ones who gave him this power over themselves, by taking him as an ally and joining his party. Hence he has no power over those who believe and put their trust in their Lord. Having mentioned the punishment of the wrongdoers, Allah then tells us about the reward of those who obey Him:

«But those who believe and do righteous deeds» that is, adhere to the teachings of religion in word, deed and beliefs
 «will be admitted to gardens through which rivers flow» in which they will find all the pleasures that they could desire, such as no eye has seen, no ear has heard, and it has never crossed the mind of man.
 «to abide therein forever by their Lord's leave» that is, not by their own strength and power, but by the strength and power of Allah
 «Their greeting therein will be: Peace» that is, they will greet one another with salām and kind words.

﴿أَلَمْ تَرَ كَيْفَ ضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا كَلِمَةً طَيِّبَةً كَشَجَرَةٍ طَيِّبَةٍ أَصْلُهَا ثَابِتٌ
 وَفُرْعَاهَا فِي السَّمَاءِ ﴿٢٤﴾ تُؤْتِي أُكْلَهَا كُلَّ حِينٍ بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهَا وَيَضْرِبُ اللَّهُ
 الْأَمْثَالَ لِلنَّاسِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ وَمَثَلُ كَلِمَةٍ خَبِيثَةٍ كَشَجَرَةٍ خَبِيثَةٍ
 اجْتُثَّتْ مِنْ فَوْقِ الْأَرْضِ مَا لَهَا مِنْ قَرَارٍ ﴿٢٦﴾﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٢٤-٢٦)

14:24. Do you not see how Allah compares a good word to a good tree?
 Its root is firm and its branches reach to the sky.

14:25. It yields its fruit at all times, by its Lord's leave. Allah makes such comparisons for people so that they may pay heed.

14:26. But an evil word is like an evil tree, uprooted from the surface of the earth; it has no stability.

---

«Do you not see how Allah compares a good word» namely the testimony that there is no god but Allah, and what stems from that «to a good tree» namely the date palm.

«Its root is firm» that is, solidly rooted in the earth «and its branches reach to the sky». This tree constantly offers many benefits, as «It yields its fruit at all times, by its Lord's leave» This is how the tree of faith is: its roots are firmly established in the heart of the believer in terms of knowledge and belief, and its branches include good words, righteous deeds, good attitudes and good manners, which constantly rise to heaven, as the person's good deeds and good words, which are produced by the tree of faith, ascend from the individual to Allah, which brings benefits to the believer and to others.

«Allah makes such comparisons for people so that they may pay heed» to what He has enjoined upon them and forbidden to them, by giving likenesses in order to explain some concepts and liken them to tangible things. Thus the meanings intended by Allah become very clear, and this is by His mercy and kind manner of teaching; to Allah be the most perfect praise. This is a description of the word of tawhîd (affirmation of the oneness of Allah) and how firmly established it is in the heart of the believer.

Then Allah mentions the opposite of that, which is the word of disbelief and all that stems from it:

«But an evil word is like an evil tree», the fruit of which is unpleasant to eat and has an unpleasant taste. This refers to the colocynth and similar plants.

﴿uprooted from the surface of the earth﴾ that is, it is not firm and it has no roots to hold it steady, and it does not produce any good fruit; rather if there is any fruit, it is foul and evil. This is how the word of disbelief and sin is; it is not rooted in the heart in any beneficial way and it does not bear any fruit but evil words and evil deeds which cause harm to the individual and are of no benefit to him, so no righteous deed ascends from him to Allah and he does not benefit himself or anyone else.

﴿يُثَبِّتُ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا بِالْقَوْلِ الثَّابِتِ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ وَيُضِلُّ اللَّهُ الظَّالِمِينَ وَيَفْعَلُ اللَّهُ مَا يَشَاءُ﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٢٧)

14:27. Allah will make steadfast those who believe, with the word that stands firm, in this world and in the hereafter. But Allah leaves the wrongdoers to go astray; Allah does whatever He wills.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He will make steadfast His believing slaves, namely those who do what is required of them of having strong faith in the heart which must be manifested in their attitude and behaviour. Allah will make them steadfast in the life of this world, when they are faced with specious arguments and doubts, by guiding them to certainty, and when they are tempted by desires, by bestowing upon them strong resolve whereby they will give precedence to that which Allah loves over their own whims and desires.

And at the end of life, at the moment of death, He will make them steadfast in their Islamic religion and give them a good end; in the grave, when they are questioned by the two angels, He will guide them to the correct answer. When it is said to the deceased: Who is your Lord? What is your religion? Who is your Prophet? He will guide them to the correct answer, so the believer will say: Allah is my Lord, Islam is my religion and Muhammad (ﷺ) is my Prophet.

﴿But Allah leaves the wrongdoers to go astray﴾ from the straight path in this world and the hereafter, but Allah does not wrong them; rather they wrong themselves.

This verse offers proof for the trial, punishment and blessing in the grave, which are mentioned in numerous texts from the Prophet (ﷺ) which speak of and describe the trial in the grave, and the blessings and punishment therein.

﴿أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ بَدَّلُوا نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ كُفْرًا وَأَحَلُّوا قَوْمَهُمْ دَارَ الْبَوَارِ ﴿٢٨﴾ جَهَنَّمَ يَصْلَوْنَهَا وَيَنْشِقُّوا الْقَرَارَ ﴿٢٩﴾ وَجَعَلُوا لِلَّهِ أُنْدَادًا لِيُضِلُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ ۚ قُلْ تَمَتَّعُوا فَإِنَّ مَصِيرَكُمْ إِلَى النَّارِ ﴿٣٠﴾﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٢٨-٣٠)

14:28. Have you not seen those who have repaid Allah's blessings with ingratitude, and caused their people to dwell in the abode of ruin, 14:29. In hell? They will enter it, an evil place to settle in!

14:30. They set up rivals to Allah, to lead people astray from His path. Say [O Muhammad]: Take your pleasure now, for verily your journey's end will be the fire.

Here Allah (ﷻ) describes the situation of those among the disbelievers of Quraysh who rejected His Messenger (ﷺ), and where they ended up.

﴿Have you not seen those who have repaid Allah's blessings with ingratitude﴾ – the blessing of Allah is the sending of Muhammad (ﷺ) to them to call them to that which would bring them good in this world and in the hereafter, and to salvation from the ills of this world and the hereafter. But they responded to this blessing by rejecting it, showing ingratitude for it, turning away from it themselves and turning others away from it, until they «caused their people to dwell in the abode of ruin» namely hell, because they caused them to go astray, thus they were a cause of disaster for their own people when they thought that they were benefitting them. One aspect of that is that they made it fair-seeming to them to go out on the day of Badr to fight Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), then the events of that day took their course and many of their leaders and prominent figures were killed in the battle.

«In hell? They will enter it» and its heat will surround them in all directions

«an evil place to settle in».

«They set up rivals to Allah» that is, so-called equals and partners «to lead people astray from His path» that is, to lead people astray from the path of Allah because of what they set up of rivals to Allah, and calling people to worship them

«Say [O Muhammad]» to them, as a warning:

«Take your pleasure now» and enjoy your disbelief and misguidance for a little while, but that will not benefit you

«for verily your journey's end will be the fire» that is, your ultimate destination, and what a wretched journey's end.

﴿قُلْ لِعِبَادِيَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا يُقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَيُنْفِقُوا مِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ سِرًّا وَعَلَانِيَةً مِّن قَبْلِ أَن يَأْتِيَ يَوْمٌ لَا بَتَّعَ فِيهِ وَلَا خُلَّةٌ﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٣١)

- 14:31. Tell My slaves who believe that they should establish prayer and spend from that which We have provided for them, in secret and in public, before the day comes when there will be no bargaining and no friendship.

That is, tell My believing slaves, commanding them to do that which is in their best interests, to make the most of the opportunity before it is too late

«that they should establish prayer» both outwardly and inwardly «and spend from that which We have provided for them» that is, from the blessings that We have bestowed upon them, in small or great amounts

«in secret and in public» – this includes obligatory spending, such as zakâh and spending on those on whom one is obliged to spend, as well as recommended spending such as giving in charity and the like.

«before the day comes when there will be no bargaining and no friendship» that is, when nothing will be of any benefit and there will be no way to make up what has been missed, whether by buying and selling, or giving gifts to friends and loved ones, and each person, on that day, will have enough to preoccupy him (cf. 80: 37). So let him think of what he has prepared for the hereafter and let him check his deeds and take stock of himself before the great reckoning.

﴿اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَأَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَخْرَجَ بِهِ مِنَ الثَّمَرَاتِ رِزْقًا لَكُمْ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمُ الْفُلْكَ لِتَجْرِيَ فِي الْبَحْرِ بِأَمْرِهِ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمُ الْأَنْهَارَ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمُ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ دَائِبَيْنِ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمُ الَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَءَاتَاكُمْ مِنْ كُلِّ مَا سَأَلْتُمُوهُ وَإِنْ تَعُدُّوا نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ لَا تَحْصُوهَا إِنْ الْإِنْسَانُ لَظَلُومٌ كَفَّارٌ ﴿٣٤﴾﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٣٢-٣٤)

- 14:32. It is Allah Who has created the heavens and the earth, and sent down water from the sky; and brought forth therewith fruits as a provision for you. He has made the ships to be of service to you so that they may sail on the sea by His command, and He has also made the rivers to be of service to you.

- 14:33. And He has made the sun and moon to be of service to you, both constant in their courses, and He has made the night and day to be of service to you.
- 14:34. Of everything you have asked for, He has given you some. But if you [try to] count the blessings of Allah, you cannot count them all. Verily man is highly unjust, exceedingly ungrateful.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that it is He alone ﴿Who has created the heavens and the earth﴾, as vast and great as they are, ﴿and sent down water from the sky﴾ namely the rain that Allah sends down from the clouds ﴿and brought forth therewith﴾ that is, by means of that water ﴿fruits﴾ of various kinds ﴿as a provision for you﴾ and your livestock. ﴿He has made the ships﴾ and other vessels ﴿to be of service to you so that they may sail on the sea by His command﴾. It is He Who has enabled you to build them and given you the power to do so, and He has caused them to float on the water so that they may carry you and your trade goods and luggage to the land to which you are headed.

﴿and He has also made the rivers to be of service to you﴾ so that you may irrigate your crops and trees, and drink from them.

﴿And He has made the sun and moon to be of service to you, both constant in their courses﴾ – they never slow down or cease; rather they continue running in their courses to serve your interests, such as calculating time and managing your affairs in the interests of your physical well-being and that of your animals, crops and fruits.

﴿and He has made the night and day to be of service to you﴾ so that by night you may rest and by day you may see in order to go about seeking of His bounty.

﴿Of everything you have asked for, He has given you some﴾ that is, He has given you some of everything that you hope for or need, that you ask Him for either implicitly or explicitly, of livestock, tools, other things that may be made by man, and so on.

﴿But if you [try to] count the blessings of Allah, you cannot count them all﴾ let alone give thanks for them all ﴿Verily man is highly unjust, exceedingly ungrateful﴾ that is, this is the nature of man with regard to the fact that he is a wrongdoer and sinner, who falls short in his duty towards his Lord and is ungrateful for the blessings of Allah; he does not give thanks for them or acknowledge them, except those whom Allah guides, so they give thanks for His blessings, acknowledge the rights of their Lord and fulfil those rights.

These blessings highlight various types of the many blessings that Allah bestows upon His slaves, some in general terms and some in specific terms, because of which Allah calls His slaves to give thanks to Him and remember Him. He urges them to do so and encourages them to ask of Him and call upon Him during the hours of the night and day, just as His blessings are repeatedly bestowed upon them at all times.

﴿وَإِذْ قَالَ إِبْرَاهِيمُ رَبِّ اجْعَلْ هَذَا الْبَلَدَ آمِنًا وَاجْنُبْنِي وَبَنِيَّ أَنْ نَعْبُدَ
الْأَصْنَامَ﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٣٥)

14:35. And [remember] when Ibrâheem said: My Lord, make this city one of peace and security, and preserve me and my children from worshipping idols.

﴿And [remember] when Ibrâheem said﴾, offering this beautiful supplication in this beautiful situation:

﴿My Lord, make this city﴾ namely the Haram of Makkah

﴿one of peace and security﴾ and Allah answered his supplication by His decree. Allah made it something sacred and ordained measures to protect its sanctity, as is well known, to the extent that no wrongdoer ever intended evil for it but Allah destroyed him, as He did with the people of the elephant and others.

Having prayed for safety for the city, Ibrâheem then prayed for himself and his children to be protected and guided; he said: ﴿and preserve me and my children from worshipping idols﴾ that is, keep me and them far away from worshipping them or being involved with them.

The reason why he feared for himself and for his children was the fact that there were so many people who were confused and fell into the error of idol worship.

﴿رَبِّ إِنَّهُمْ أَضَلَّلَن كَثِيرًا مِّنَ النَّاسِ فَمَن يَتَّبِعُنِي فَإِنَّهُ مِنِّي وَمَن عَصَانِي فَإِنَّكَ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٣٦)

14:36. My Lord, they [the idols] have indeed led many people astray. So whoever follows me, then he is indeed of me, and whoever disobeys me – then verily You are Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

﴿My Lord, they [the idols] have indeed led many people astray﴾ that is, many people have gone astray because of them.

﴿So whoever follows me﴾ and the message of divine oneness and devotion solely to Allah, the Lord of the worlds, that I have brought ﴿then he is indeed of me﴾ because there is complete harmony and agreement on that, and whoever loves people and follows them becomes one of them.

﴿and whoever disobeys me – then verily You are Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾. This is an example of the compassion of Ibrâheem (ﷺ), as he prayed for forgiveness and mercy from Allah for the sinners, and Allah (ﷻ) is more merciful than him towards His slaves, and He does not punish anyone but those who rebel against Him.

﴿رَبَّنَا إِنِّي أَسْكَنْتُ مِنْ ذُرِّيَّتِي بِوَادٍ غَيْرِ ذِي زَرْعٍ عِنْدَ بَيْتِكَ الْمُحَرَّمِ رَبَّنَا لِيُقِيمُوا
الصَّلَاةَ فَاجْعَلْ أَفْئِدَةً مِنَ النَّاسِ تَهْوِي إِلَيْهِمْ وَارْزُقْهُمْ مِنَ الثَّمَرَاتِ لَعَلَّهُمْ
يَشْكُرُونَ﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٣٧)

14:37. Our Lord, I have settled some of my offspring in a valley without cultivation, by Your Sacred House, O our Lord, so that they may establish prayer. So make the hearts of some people incline towards them, and provide them with fruits, so that they may give thanks.

«Our Lord, I have settled some of my offspring in a valley without cultivation, by Your Sacred House» that was when Ibrâheem brought Hâjar, the mother of Ismâ'eel, and her son Ismâ'eel (ﷺ), who was still an infant, from Greater Syria, and left them in Makkah which – at that time – was not inhabited and there was no one there. When he left them there, he offered this supplication to his Lord, beseeching Him and putting his trust in his Lord.

«Our Lord, I have settled some of my offspring» that is, not all of my offspring, for Is-hâq and his other sons were still in Greater Syria. Rather he settled Ismâ'eel and his offspring in Makkah. «in a valley without cultivation» that is, because the land of Makkah is not fit for cultivation.

«O our Lord, so that they may establish prayer» that is, make them people who affirm Your oneness and establish prayer, for establishing prayer is one of the most important and most virtuous acts of worship; whoever establishes prayer has established his religion.

﴿So make the hearts of some people incline towards them﴾ that is, make them love them and the place in which they are residing.

Allah answered his prayer and, from the descendants of Ismâ'eel, brought forth Muhammad (ﷺ), who called his offspring to the Islamic religion, the path of their father Ibrâheem, and they responded to him and became people who established prayer.

And Allah ordained pilgrimage to this House, where the offspring of Ibrâheem settled, and He created in it something that attracts people's hearts, so that people come on pilgrimage to it and can never have enough of it; the more a person frequents it, the more he longs for it and feels attached to it. That is because Allah has attributed it (the Kaaba) to Himself (by calling it His House).

﴿and provide them with fruits, so that they may give thanks﴾ – and Allah answered this supplication, as a result of which fruits of all kinds are brought to it. Thus you see that fruits are available in Makkah at all times, and provisions come to it from all directions.

﴿رَبَّنَا إِنَّكَ تَعْلَمُ مَا نُخْفِي وَمَا نُعْلِنُ وَمَا يَخْفَى عَلَى اللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي

السَّمَاءِ ﴿٣٨﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٣٨)

14:38. Our Lord, verily You know what we conceal and what we disclose; from Allah, verily nothing is hidden on earth or in the heavens.

﴿Our Lord, verily You know what we conceal and what we disclose﴾ that is, You know us better than we know ourselves, so we ask You, as You are taking care of us and You are guiding us, to enable us to attain that which is in our best interests, both those of which we are aware and those of which we are unaware, in accordance with Your knowledge and mercy.

﴿from Allah, verily nothing is hidden on earth or in the heavens﴾ – that includes this supplication by which Ibrâheem (ﷺ) only intended good and to give abundant thanks to Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

﴿الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي وَهَبَ لِي عَلَى الْكِبَرِ إِسْمَاعِيلَ وَإِسْحَاقَ إِنَّ رَبِّي لَسَمِيعُ الدُّعَاءِ﴾

﴿(سورة إبراهيم: ٣٩)﴾

14:39. Praise be to Allah Who, despite my old age, has bestowed upon me Ismâ'eel and Is-hâq, for verily my Lord hears all prayers.

For this gift is one of the greatest of blessings, and the fact that they came despite his old age, at a time when one gives up all hope of having children, is another blessing; and the fact that they were righteous Prophets is a further blessing.

﴿for verily my Lord hears all prayers﴾ that is, He soon answers the one who calls upon Him; I called upon Him and He did not let me down. Then he prayed for himself and his offspring:

﴿رَبِّ اجْعَلْنِي مُقِيمَ الصَّلَاةِ وَمِنْ ذُرِّيَّتِي رَبَّنَا وَتَقَبَّلْ دُعَاءِ﴾

﴿(سورة إبراهيم: ٤٠-٤١)﴾

14:40. My Lord, make me one who establishes prayer, and some of my offspring also, our Lord, and accept my supplication.

14:41. Our Lord, forgive me, my parents, and the believers on the day when the Reckoning will take place.

Allah answered all of this supplication, except that his supplication for his father was only because of a promise that he had made to him.

But when it became clear that his father was an enemy of Allah, he disavowed him.

﴿وَلَا تَحْسَبَنَّ اللَّهَ غَافِلًا عَمَّا يَعْمَلُ الظَّالِمُونَ إِنَّمَا يُؤَخِّرُهُمْ لِيَوْمٍ تَشْخَصُ فِيهِ الْأَبْصَارُ﴾ (٤٢) ﴿مُهْطِعِينَ مُقْنِعِي رُءُوسِهِمْ لَا يَرْتَدُّ إِلَيْهِمْ طَرْفُهُمْ وَأَفْئِدَتُهُمْ هَوَاءٌ﴾ (٤٣) (سورة إبراهيم: ٤٢-٤٣)

14:42. Never think that Allah is unaware of what the evildoers are doing; He is only giving them respite until a day when the eyes will stare fixedly [in horror].

14:43. They will rush headlong, heads raised, eyes unblinking and hearts void.

This is a stern threat to the wrongdoers and consolation to those who are wronged.

﴿Never think that Allah is unaware of what the evildoers are doing﴾ when He gives them respite and grants them ample provision, allowing them to travel in the land safely and with ease. This is not an indication that they are in a good state, for Allah gives respite to the wrongdoer and gives him more time so that he may increase in sin until, when He seizes him, He will not let him go.

﴿Such is the punishment of your Lord, when He punishes the cities that are given to wrongdoing; verily His punishment is painful and severe.﴾ (Hood 11: 102)

Here wrongdoing includes wrongdoing towards one's Lord (that is, sin) and wrongdoing towards the slaves of Allah.

﴿He is only giving them respite until a day when the eyes will stare fixedly [in horror]﴾ that is, the eyes will not blink because of the intensity of the horrors and disturbing turmoil that they see.

﴿They will rush headlong﴾ that is, they will hasten to respond to the caller when he summons them to appear before Allah for the reckoning, and they will have no option to refuse and no escape or refuge

﴿heads raised﴾ that is, their hands will be tied to their chins, and as a result their heads will be raised

﴿eyes unblinking and hearts void﴾ that is, their hearts will have risen to the throats, and they will be overwhelmed with worry, distress, grief and anxiety.

﴿وَأَنذِرِ النَّاسَ يَوْمَ يَأْتِيهِمُ الْعَذَابُ فَيَقُولُ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا رَبَّنَا أَخِّرْنَا إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ قَرِيبٍ نَّجِبْ دَعْوَتَكَ وَتَتَّبِعِ الرَّسُولَ ۖ أُولَٰئِكَ نَكُونُ أَقْسَمْتُمْ مِّن قَبْلُ مَا لَكُم مِّن زَوَالٍ ۖ وَسَكَنتُمْ فِي مَسْكَانٍ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا أَنفُسَهُمْ وَبَبَّيْكُمْ لَكُم كَيْفَ فَعَلْنَا بِهِمْ وَضَرَبْنَا لَكُمُ الْأَمْثَالَ ۖ وَقَدْ مَكَرُوا مَكْرَهُمْ وَعِنْدَ اللَّهِ مَكْرُهُمْ وَإِنْ كَانَ مَكْرُهُمْ لِتَزُولَ مِنْهُ الْجِبَالُ﴾ (سورة إبراهيم: ٤٤-٤٦)

- 14:44. Warn the people of the day when the punishment will befall them. Then those who did wrong will say: Our Lord, give us a brief respite, so that we may respond to Your call and follow the Messengers! But did you not swear before that you would never leave [this world for the hereafter]?
- 14:45. You lived in the dwellings of those who had wronged themselves, and it was clear to you how We had dealt with them; We presented to you many examples.
- 14:46. They hatched their plots, but their plots were known to Allah; although their plots were such that they would even move mountains.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ): «Warn the people of the day when the punishment will befall them» that is, describe that day to them, and warn them against the deeds that will incur a punishment that, when it comes with all its turmoils and troubles,

«those who did wrong» by disbelieving and committing all kinds of sins

«will say», regretting what they did and asking to go back when it is too late:

«Our Lord, give us a brief respite» that is, send us back to the previous world, for now we understand

«so that we may respond to Your call» for Allah calls to paradise «and follow the Messengers» – but all of this will be so that they might escape the punishment, otherwise they are lying by making this promise:

«...And even if they were sent back, they would surely go back to that which was forbidden to them...» (al-An'ām 6: 28)

Therefore they will be rebuked and it will be said to them: «But did you not swear before that you would never leave [this world for the hereafter]?» But now you have clearly broken your oath and the falseness of your oath has become apparent.

Moreover, you were not short of clear signs; rather «You lived in the dwellings of those who had wronged themselves, and it was clear to you how We had dealt with them» by sending all kinds of punishment upon them, and how Allah sent the punishments upon them when they disbelieved in the clear signs. We presented clear likenesses and comparisons that left no room for doubt at all, but these signs were to no avail in your case; rather you turned away and persisted in your falsehood, until matters took the course they did and now this day has come when no apology will be to any avail.

«They hatched their plots» that is, those who disbelieved in the Messengers hatched their plots and managed to do what it was decreed that they should do

﴿but their plots were known to Allah﴾ that is, He encompassed them with His knowledge and power, and their plots backfired on them.

﴿...but the plotting of evil affects none but its authors...﴾ (Fâfir 35: 43)

﴿although their plots were such that they would even move mountains﴾ that is, the plot of the disbelievers against the Messengers who brought the truth was such that, because of its enormity, firmly-rooted mountains could have been moved from their places. In other words:

﴿They have put tremendous effort into plotting and scheming.﴾ (Nooh 71: 22)

– that could not be estimated, but Allah foiled their plot and made it backfire.

This includes every opponent who plotted against the Messengers in order to support falsehood or undermine the truth. The point is that their plots could not avail them anything and could never harm Allah in the slightest; rather they only harmed themselves.

﴿فَلَا تَحْسَبَنَّ اللَّهَ مُخْلَفًا وَعَدِيهِ رُسُلُهُ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ ذُو انْتِقَامٍ ﴿٤٧﴾ يَوْمَ تَبَدَّلَ
الْأَرْضُ غَيْرَ الْأَرْضِ وَالسَّمَوَاتُ ۚ وَبَرَزُوا لِلَّهِ الْوَاحِدِ الْقَهَّارِ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَتَرَى الْمُجْرِمِينَ
يَوْمَئِذٍ مُّقْرَّنِينَ فِي الْأَصْفَادِ ﴿٤٩﴾ سَرَابِلُهُمْ مِّنْ فَطْرَانٍ وَتَقَعُ وَجُوهُهُمْ النَّارَ
﴿٥٠﴾ لِّيَجْزِيَ اللَّهُ كُلَّ نَفْسٍ مَّا كَسَبَتْ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَرِيعُ الْحِسَابِ ﴿٥١﴾ هَذَا بَلَّغٌ
لِّلنَّاسِ وَلِيُنذَرُوا بِهِ ۚ وَلِيَعْلَمُوا أَنَّمَا هُوَ إِلَهٌُ وَاحِدٌ وَلِيَذْكُرُوا أَنَّهُمْ الْأَوَّلُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾﴾ (سورة

إبراهيم: ٤٧-٥٢)

14:47. Never think that Allah would fail in His promise to His Messengers. Verily, Allah is Almighty, an Avenger.

- 14:48. [His promise will be fulfilled] on the day when the earth will be changed to another earth and so will the heavens, and [all people] will appear before Allah, the One, the Subjugator.
- 14:49. And you will see the evildoers that day bound together in shackles,
- 14:50. Their garments of pitch and fire enveloping their faces,
- 14:51. So that Allah may requite each soul according to what it has earned; verily, Allah is swift in reckoning.
- 14:52. This [Qur'an] is a message for humankind, that they may be warned thereby and that they may know that there is but One God, and that people of understanding may pay heed.

«Never think that Allah would fail in His promise to His Messengers» to save them and to save and bless their followers, and to destroy their enemies, causing them to fail in this world and punishing them in the hereafter. This is inevitable, because His promise is true and was given on the lips of the most truthful of His creation, namely the Messengers, which is the most authentic of statements, especially as it is in accordance with divine wisdom, divine laws and sound reasoning, and nothing is beyond Allah (ﷻ), for «Allah is Almighty, an Avenger» that is, if He wants to wreak vengeance upon someone, that person cannot escape Him or frustrate Him.

«[His promise will be fulfilled] on the day when the earth will be changed to another earth and so will the heavens» that is, the heavens will be changed to other heavens. This refers to a change in attributes, not in essence, for on the Day of Resurrection the earth will become flat and all mountains and landmarks will be removed from its surface. So it will become a smooth, levelled plain, in which you will see no depression or elevation (cf. 20: 106-107). The sky will be like molten brass (cf. 70: 8) because of the severity of the terrors of that day, then Allah (ﷻ) will roll it up in His Right Hand.

﴿and [all people] will appear﴾ that is, all people will emerge from their graves on the Day of Resurrection and will appear in a place where nothing of them will be hidden from Allah. They will appear ﴿before Allah, the One, the Subjugator﴾ that is, the One Who is unique in His greatness, names, attributes and mighty deeds, and in His subjugation of all creation, as all of them are under His control; none of them move or halt except by His leave.

﴿And you will see the evildoers﴾ those whose characteristic is evil and a great deal of sin, on ﴿that day bound together in shackles﴾ that is, chained together; all those who committed the same kind of evil deeds will be bound together with chains of fire and will be led away to their punishment in the most humiliating, horrible and terrifying manner.

﴿Their garments of pitch﴾ because of the severity of the fire raging in them and its heat and foul stench
 ﴿and fire enveloping their faces﴾ which are the noblest part of the body. That is, the fire will surround their faces, burning them from all sides, so it is more likely that other parts of their bodies will suffer in like manner. This is not injustice towards them on Allah's part; rather it is the requital for what they earned. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿So that Allah may requite each soul according to what it has earned﴾ of good or evil, with justice and fairness in which there is no element of injustice whatsoever.

﴿verily, Allah is swift in reckoning﴾ this is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿The Day of Reckoning for humankind has drawn near, and yet they turn away in heedlessness.﴾ (al-Anbiyâ' 21: 1)

It may be that what is meant is that He is quick in reckoning, so He will complete the reckoning of all people in an instant, just as He grants them provision and manages their affairs simultaneously, and nothing distracts Him from anything, for that is not difficult for Him.

As He has explained things clearly in this Qur'an, Allah says, praising it: «This [Qur'an] is a message for humankind» that is, it is a message that they need in order to reach the highest levels of honour, because of what it contains of both basic and minor matters, and everything else that people need to know.

«that they may be warned thereby» because of what it contains of warnings against evil deeds, and because of what it tells us about what Allah has prepared of punishment for those who do them.

«and that they may know that there is but One God» as He has presented in it different types of evidence and proof for His divinity and oneness, by means of which this issue reached the level of certainty.

«and that people of understanding» that is, people of perfect reason «may pay heed» to that which will benefit them, so that they may do it, and to that which will harm them, so that they may refrain from it. Thus they became people of understanding and insight, because by means of the Qur'an their knowledge and understanding increased and they attained enlightenment, when they learned it directly from the Prophet (ﷺ), for it only calls to the most sublime characteristics and actions, and could only be based on the strongest and clearest evidence. If the smart person adheres to this principle, he will always be ascending and learning the best qualities. Praise be to Allah, Lord of the worlds.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat Ibrâheem.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

15.

Soorat al-Hijr

(Makki)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿الرَّ ۚ تِلْكَ ءَايَاتُ الْكِتَابِ وَقُرْءَانٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿١﴾ زُبْرًا يُوَدُّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَوْ
كَانُوا مُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٢﴾ ذَرَّهُمْ يَأْكُلُوا وَيَسْتَمْتَعُوا وَيُلْهِمُ الْأَمَلُ فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ
﴿٣﴾ وَمَا أَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ إِلَّا وَلَهَا كِتَابٌ مَعْلُومٌ ﴿٤﴾ مَا تَسْبِقُ مِنْ أُمَّةٍ أَجْلَهَا
وَمَا يَسْتَجِرُّونَ ﴿٥﴾﴾ (سورة الحجر: ١-٥)

- 15:1. Alif. Lām. Râ'.<sup>8</sup> These are verses of the Book and a clear Qur'an.
- 15:2. There will come a time when those who disbelieve will wish that they had been Muslims.
- 15:3. Leave them to eat and enjoy themselves, and let [false] hope divert them. They will come to know.

---

<sup>8</sup> Groups of letters (al-ḥuroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several chapters. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

15:4. We never destroyed any city but its appointed time had previously been decreed.

15:5. No nation can bring its appointed time forward, nor can they delay it.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) says, speaking highly of His Book and praising it: ﴿These are verses of the Book﴾, verses that point to the best of meanings and the most sublime of aims and goals ﴿and a clear Qur'an﴾ that explains real facts in the best and clearest of phrases, in the most straightforward manner. This dictates that all people should follow it, accept its rulings and receive it with approval, joy and happiness.

As for those who respond to this immense blessing by rejecting it and disbelieving in it, they are among the disbelievers who have gone astray; for them there will come a time when they will wish that they had been Muslims, that is, that they had followed its rulings. That will be when the veil is removed and the first signs of the hereafter and the precursors of death begin to appear. At every stage of the hereafter, they will wish that they had been Muslims, but the time for that will have passed; however in this world they are deceived.

﴿Leave them to eat and enjoy themselves﴾ and enjoy their pleasures ﴿and let [false] hope divert them﴾ that is, they hope to live for a long time in this world, and that distracts them from the hereafter ﴿They will come to know﴾ that what they are following is false, and that their deeds increase them in loss. So they should not be deceived by the fact that Allah (ﷻ) is giving them respite, for this is His way with all nations.

﴿We never destroyed any city﴾ that deserved punishment ﴿but its appointed time﴾ for its destruction ﴿had previously been decreed﴾.

«No nation can bring its appointed time forward, nor can they delay it» nevertheless, the consequences of sin will inevitably catch up with the sinner, even if that is at a later stage.

﴿وَقَالُوا يَتَّبِعُنَا الَّذِي نُنْزِلُ عَلَيْهِ الذِّكْرَ إِنَّكَ لَمَجْنُونٌ ﴿٦﴾ لَوْ مَا تَأْتِينَا بِالْمَلَكِ
إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٧﴾ مَا نُنْزِلُ الْمَلَكِ إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَمَا كَانُوا إِذَا مُنْظَرِينَ
﴿٨﴾ إِنَّا نَحْنُ نَزَّلْنَا الذِّكْرَ وَإِنَّا لَهُ لَحَافِظُونَ ﴿٩﴾﴾ (سورة الحجر: ٦-٩)

- 15:6. They say: O you to whom the Reminder [the Qur'an] has been sent down, you are surely insane!
- 15:7. Why do you not bring the angels to us, if you are telling the truth?
- 15:8. We do not send down the angels except for just cause, and then in that case, they [the disbelievers] would have no respite.
- 15:9. Verily it is We Who have sent down the Reminder [the Qur'an], and verily it is We Who will preserve it.

The disbelievers said to Muhammad (ﷺ) by way of mockery: «O you to whom the Reminder [the Qur'an] has been sent down», or so you claim

«you are surely insane!» If you think that we will follow you and give up what we found our forefathers following, just because you say so.

«Why do you not bring the angels to us» to testify that the message that you bring is sound

«if you are telling the truth». As you have not brought the angels, then you are not telling the truth. This was the ultimate unfairness and ignorance.

As for being unfair, that is obvious, because this was insolence towards Allah and stubbornness in demanding specific signs that

He had not chosen to send, because the aim was achieved and proof was established by means of many other signs that pointed to the soundness of the message He brought. As for ignorance, they could not differentiate between that which was in their best interests and that which was detrimental to their interests. There was nothing good for them in the angels coming down; rather Allah does not send down the angels except for just cause, after which there is no respite for anyone who does not follow the truth or submit to it.

﴿and then in that case﴾ that is, when the angels were sent down, if they had not believed – and they will never believe – ﴿they [the disbelievers] would have no respite﴾. So their demand for the angels to be sent down is hastening their own doom and destruction, for faith is not under their control; rather it is in the Hand of Allah.

﴿Even if We did send angels down to them, and the dead spoke to them, and We gathered together all things before them [to testify to the truth], they still would not believe, unless Allah willed it. But most of them are ignorant [of this fact].﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 111)

This Qur'an would be sufficient sign for them, if they were sincere. Hence Allah says here:

﴿Verily it is We Who have sent down the Reminder [the Qur'an]﴾ in which there is a reminder of all things, and clear proof, by means of which a person will be reminded if he wants to be reminded.

﴿and verily it is We Who will preserve it﴾ at the time of revelation and after its revelation. At the time of revelation, Allah protected it from the tampering of any accursed devil, and after revelation Allah deposited it in the heart of His Messenger (ﷺ), where it took root, then it was deposited in the hearts of his Ummah. Allah protected its words from being changed and from anything being added or subtracted, and He protected its meanings from alteration. So no one can distort any of its meanings but Allah will inspire scholars who will highlight the true meaning. This is one of the greatest signs of Allah, and one of His blessings to His believing slaves. Another way in which Allah protects it is that He protected people from their enemies, and no enemy will be given the upper hand in such a way that he will eradicate them.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ فِي شَيْعِ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٠﴾ وَمَا يَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ رَسُولٍ إِلَّا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴿١١﴾ كَذَلِكَ نَسْلُكُهُ فِي قُلُوبِ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿١٢﴾ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِهِ ۖ وَقَدْ خَلَتْ سُنَّةُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٣﴾﴾ (سورة الحجر: ١٠-١٣)

15:10. Indeed We sent Messengers before you among the communities of old.

15:11. No Messenger came to them but they ridiculed him.

15:12. Thus we let it [disbelief] enter the hearts of the evildoers.

15:13. They will not believe in it [the Qur'an], although the precedent of the earlier peoples is well established.

Here Allah (ﷻ) said to His Prophet (ﷺ), when the polytheists disbelieved in him: This was the pattern with past nations and communities.

﴿Indeed We sent Messengers before you among the communities of old﴾ that is, to past nations and groups.

﴿No Messenger came to them﴾, calling them to true guidance ﴿but they ridiculed him﴾.

﴿Thus we let it [disbelief] enter the hearts of the evildoers﴾ that is, those whose characteristics were wrongdoing and telling lies; We punished them when their hearts were equally filled with disbelief and their attitudes towards their Prophets and Messengers became similar in terms of mockery, ridicule and lack of faith. Hence Allah says: ﴿They will not believe in it [the Qur'an], although the precedent of the earlier peoples is well established﴾ that is, this is the way of Allah with them, to destroy those who do not believe in the revelations of Allah.

﴿وَلَوْ فَتَحْنَا عَلَيْهِم بَابًا مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ فَظَلُّوا فِيهِ يَعْرُجُونَ﴾ ﴿١٤﴾ لَقَالُوا إِنَّمَا سُكَّرَتْ
أَبْصَارُنَا بَلْ نَحْنُ مَسْحُورُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ (سورة الحجر: ١٤-١٥)

15:14. Even if a gate in heaven was opened to them, and they began to ascend through it,

15:15. They would still say: Our eyes are befuddled; indeed we have been bewitched!

That is, even if every great sign came to them, they would not believe and they would arrogantly reject it.

﴿Even if a gate in heaven was opened to them﴾ and they began to ascend through it, and they saw with their own eyes, they would still say, because of their wrongdoing and stubbornness, denying this sign: ﴿Our eyes are befuddled﴾ that is, they have become intoxicated and confused, so that we see things that are not real.

﴿indeed we have been bewitched!﴾ That is, this is not real; rather it is magic. When people reach such a level of denial, there is no hope for them whatsoever.

Then Allah mentions the signs that point to the truth that the Messengers brought:

﴿وَلَقَدْ جَعَلْنَا فِي السَّمَاءِ بُرُوجًا وَرَآيَتْهَا لِلنَّظِيرِ﴾ ﴿١٦﴾ وَحَفِظْنَاهَا مِنْ كُلِّ
شَيْطَانٍ رَّجِيمٍ ﴿١٧﴾ إِلَّا مَنَاسِرَ أَتَقَرَّقَ أَلْصَقَ فَأَنْبَعَهُ شَهَابٌ مُّزِينٌ ﴿١٨﴾ وَالْأَرْضَ مَدَدْنَاهَا

وَالْقَيْنَا فِيهَا رُجُومًا وَأَتَيْنَهَا بِمَنَازِلٍ وَأَتَيْنَهَا بِمَنَازِلٍ وَأَتَيْنَهَا بِمَنَازِلٍ
وَمَنْ أَلْسَمْتُمْ لِّلْمُزِفِّينَ ﴿٢٠﴾ (سورة الحجر: ١٦-٢٠)

- 15:16. We have placed big stars in the heaven, and made it lovely to behold.
- 15:17. And We have guarded it from every accursed devil.
- 15:18. But if any of them manages to eavesdrop, he is pursued by a clearly visible flame.
- 15:19. And the earth We have spread out, and set therein mountains standing firm, and caused to grow therein all kinds of things in due proportion.
- 15:20. And We have appointed means of livelihood therein for you and for those for whom you are not the providers.

Here Allah points out the perfect nature of His power and His mercy towards His creation:

﴿We have placed big stars in the heaven﴾ that is, the great stars by means of which people navigate in darkness on land and sea ﴿and made it lovely to behold﴾ – if it were not for the stars, the sky would not have this beautiful and amazing appearance. This calls the onlooker to reflect upon it, contemplate its significance, and see the indications of its Creator.

﴿And We have guarded it from every accursed devil﴾ – when a devil tries to eavesdrop, he is pursued by a shooting flame. Thus the heaven remains outwardly beautified with bright stars and is invisibly guarded and protected from troubles.

﴿But if any of them manages to eavesdrop﴾ – on some occasions, some of the devils may manage to covertly eavesdrop on heaven and snatch some news ﴿he is pursued by a clearly visible flame﴾ that is, a flame that is bright and clear, which kills him or stuns him.

Sometimes the flame may strike him before that devil can convey the news to his familiar, so the news of heaven is prevented from reaching the earth, and sometimes he throws it to his familiar before the flame strikes him, and his familiar then takes it and adds one hundred lies to it, and he uses that word that was heard from heaven to prove himself.

﴿And the earth We have spread out﴾ that is, We have made it spacious and have made both humans and animals able to move about, seeking their provision and settling in various spots.

﴿and set therein mountains standing firm﴾ that is, huge mountains that protect the earth, by Allah's leave, from moving; they make it firm so that it does not shift.

﴿and caused to grow therein all kinds of things in due proportion﴾ that is, things that are of benefit and have value, that people need, such as palm trees, grapevines, different kinds of trees and all types of plants.

﴿And We have appointed means of livelihood therein for you﴾ such as crops and livestock, and all kinds of professions and crafts.

﴿and for those for whom you are not the providers﴾ that is, We have blessed you with male and female slaves, and livestock, for your benefit and best interests. You are not the providers; rather Allah has made them subject to you and has guaranteed their provision.

﴿وَلَا مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِلَّا عِنْدَنَا خَزَائِنُهُ وَمَا نُنْزِلُهُ إِلَّا بِقَدَرٍ مَعْلُومٍ﴾ (سورة الحجر: ٢١)

(٢١)

15:21. And there is not a thing but its sources are under Our control, and We send it down only in a predetermined measure.

That is, no one has any control over any kind of provision except Allah. Its sources are in His Hand; He gives to whomever He will and He withholds from whomever He will, according to His all-encompassing wisdom and mercy.

﴿and We send it down﴾ that is, whatever is preordained of all things, rain and otherwise

﴿only in a predetermined measure﴾ so it is never more or less than what Allah has decreed.

﴿وَأَرْسَلْنَا الرِّيحَ لَوَاقِعَ فَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَسْقَيْنَاكُمُوهُ وَمَا أَنْتُمْ لَهُ بِخَازِنِينَ﴾ (سورة الحجر: ٢٢)

15:22. And We send the fecundating winds and bring down rain from the sky, thus providing you with water; you are not in control of its sources.

That is, We have made the winds to be of service, winds of mercy that fecundate the clouds as the male fecundates the female, resulting in rain by Allah's leave, which Allah gives to people to drink, water their flocks and irrigate their land, and it remains stored in the land for their needs, in accordance with His decree and mercy.

﴿you are not in control of its sources﴾ that is, you have no power to store and save it; rather Allah stores it for you and causes it to flow from springs in the land, out of mercy and kindness towards you.

﴿وَإِنَّا لَنَحْنُ نُحْيِي وَنُمِيتُ وَنَحْنُ الْوَارِثُونَ﴾ (٢٣) ﴿وَلَقَدْ عَلَّمْنَا الْمُسْقِدِينَ مِنْكُمْ وَلَقَدْ عَلَّمْنَا الْمُسْتَضْرِينَ﴾ (٢٤) ﴿وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ يَحْشُرُهُمْ إِنَّهُ حَكِيمٌ عَلِيمٌ﴾ (سورة الحجر: ٢٣-٢٥)

15:23. Verily it is We Who give life and cause death, and We are of [all things] heirs.

- 15:24. Well do We know those of you who have gone before and those who are yet to come.
- 15:25. Verily it is your Lord Who will gather them together; verily He is Most Wise, All-Knowing.

That is, He alone, with no partner or associate, is the One Who gives life and creates things from nothing, after they were nothing worth mentioning, and causes them to die at the time He has decreed. ﴿and We are of [all things] heirs﴾. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Verily, it is We Who will inherit the earth and all who are upon it, and to Us they will be brought back.﴾ (Maryam 19: 40)

That is not difficult or impossible for Allah, for He knows the earlier and later generations of humankind, and He knows what the earth consumes of them (cf. 50: 4) and what is scattered of their bodies. He is the One Whose power cannot be frustrated by anyone, and He will recreate His slaves and gather them to Him.

﴿verily He is Most Wise, All-Knowing﴾ He does what is appropriate and will requite each person for his deeds; if they were good then the outcome will be good, and if they were bad then the outcome will be bad.

﴿وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ صَلْصَلٍ مِنْ حَمَلٍ مَسْنُونٍ ١٦﴾ وَالْجَنَّ خَلَقْنَاهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ مِنْ نَارِ السَّمُومِ ١٧ ﴿وَإِذْ قَالَ رَبُّكَ لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ إِنِّي خَلِيقٌ بَشَرًا مِنْ صَلْصَلٍ مِنْ حَمَلٍ مَسْنُونٍ ١٨﴾ فَإِذَا سَوَّيْتُهُ، وَنَفَخْتُ فِيهِ مِنْ رُوحِي فَقَعُوا لَهُ، سَاجِدِينَ ١٩ ﴿فَسَجَدَ الْمَلَائِكَةُ كُلُّهُمْ أَجْمَعُونَ ٢٠﴾ إِلَّا إِبْلِيسَ أَبَى أَنْ يَكُونَ مَعَ السَّاجِدِينَ ٢١ ﴿قَالَ يَتَابِلِيسُ مَا لَكَ لَا تَكُونَ مَعَ السَّاجِدِينَ ٢٢﴾ قَالَ لَمْ أَكُنْ لَأَسْجُدَ لِبَشَرٍ خَلَقْتَهُ، مِنْ صَلْصَلٍ

مِنْ حَمَلٍ مَّسْنُونٍ ﴿٣٧﴾ قَالَ فَادْخُلْ مِنْهَا فَإِنَّكَ رَجِيمٌ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَإِنَّ عَلَيْكَ اللَّعْنَةَ إِلَى يَوْمِ
 الدِّينِ ﴿٣٩﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ فَأَنْظِرْنِي إِلَى يَوْمِ يُبْعَثُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾ قَالَ فَإِنَّكَ مِنَ الْمُنْظَرِينَ ﴿٤١﴾ إِلَى
 يَوْمِ الْوَقْتِ الْمَعْلُومِ ﴿٤٢﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ بِمَا أَغْوَيْتَنِي لَأُزَيِّنَنَّ لَهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَأُغْوِيَنَّهُمْ
 أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٤٣﴾ إِلَّا عِبَادَكَ مِنْهُمُ الْمُخْلَصِينَ ﴿٤٤﴾ قَالَ هَذَا صِرَاطٌ عَلَى مُسْتَقِيمٍ
 ﴿٤٥﴾ إِنَّ عِبَادِي لَيْسَ لَكَ عَلَيْهِمْ سُلْطَانٌ إِلَّا مَنِ اتَّبَعَكَ مِنَ الْغَاوِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَإِنَّ
 جَهَنَّمَ لَمَوْعِدُهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾ لَهَا سَبْعَةُ أَبْوَابٍ لِكُلِّ بَابٍ مِنْهُمْ جُزْءٌ مَقْسُومٌ ﴿٤٨﴾

(سورة الحجر: ٢٦-٤٤)

- 15:26. Indeed We created man from sounding clay, made from black mud moulded into shape.
- 15:27. And the jinn We created before that, from intensely hot fire.
- 15:28. And [remember] when your Lord said to the angels: Verily I am going to create a human being from sounding clay, made from black mud moulded into shape.
- 15:29. So when I have fashioned him and breathed into him the soul which I created for him, fall down in prostration before him.
- 15:30. Thereupon, the angels all fell down in prostration,
- 15:31. Except Iblees; he refused to be among those who prostrated.
- 15:32. Allah said: O Iblees, what is the matter with you, that you were not among those who prostrated?
- 15:33. Iblees said: I am not one to prostrate to a human being whom You created from sounding clay, made from black mud moulded into shape.
- 15:34. Allah said: Then get out of here, for you are accursed,
- 15:35. And verily the curse will be upon you until the Day of Judgement.
- 15:36. Iblees said: O my Lord, grant me respite until the day they are resurrected.
- 15:37. Allah said: You are among those who are granted respite,
- 15:38. Until the day of the time appointed.

- 15:39. Iblees said: My Lord, because You have caused me to be misguided, I will certainly make [evil] fair-seeming to them on earth, and I will certainly mislead them all,
- 15:40. Except Your chosen [and sincere] slaves among them.
- 15:41. Allah said: This [the way of My chosen (and sincere) slaves] is a path which will lead straight to Me.
- 15:42. Verily you will have no power over My slaves, except those misguided ones who choose to follow you.
- 15:43. And verily, hell is the promised destiny for them all.
- 15:44. It has seven gates, each gate having its allotted share of them.

Here Allah mentions the blessings that He bestowed upon our father Adam (ﷺ) and what happened with his enemy Iblees, including the warning to us of his evil and temptation.

«Indeed We created man» that is, Adam (ﷺ)
 «from sounding clay, made from black mud moulded into shape» that is, clay that has dried after fermenting, until it makes a sound.
 Black mud moulded into shape is mud that has changed in colour and odour, and has been left alone for a long time.

«And the jinn» here the word is taken as referring to the father of the jinn, namely Iblees
 «We created before that» before the creation of Adam
 «from intensely hot fire».

When Allah wanted to create Adam, He said to the angels:
 «Verily I am going to create a human being from sounding clay, made from black mud moulded into shape. So when I have fashioned him» that is, shaped his body completely
 «and breathed into him the soul which I created for him, fall down in prostration before him» – and they obeyed the command of their Lord.

«Thereupon, the angels all fell down in prostration». This is affirmation after affirmation, to highlight the fact that not one of them disobeyed, out of respect for the command of Allah and in order to honour Adam, for he knew what they did not know.

﴿Except Iblees; he refused to be among those who prostrated﴾. This was the beginning of his enmity towards Adam and his offspring.

﴿Allah said: O Iblees, what is the matter with you, that you were not among those who prostrated? Iblees said: I am not one to prostrate to a human being whom You created from sounding clay, made from black mud moulded into shape﴾. He was too arrogant to obey the command of Allah, and he expressed enmity towards Adam and his offspring, for he was too proud of his race and said: I am better than Adam.

﴿Allah said﴾, punishing him for his rejection of the command and his arrogance:

﴿Then get out of here, for you are accursed﴾ that is, condemned, shamed and cast far away from the mercy of Allah

﴿until the Day of Judgement﴾. This and similar verses indicate that he will persist in his disbelief and continue to be far away from goodness.

﴿Iblees said: O my Lord, grant me respite until the day they are resurrected. Allah said: You are among those who are granted respite, until the day of the time appointed﴾. The divine response to his supplication was not an honour in his case; rather it was a test and trial from Allah for him and for people, so that it might become clear who will be sincere and obey his Lord instead of his enemy, and who will not be like that. Hence Allah warned us against him in the strongest terms and explained to us what He wants from us.

﴿Iblees said: My Lord, because You have caused me to be misguided, I will certainly make [evil] fair-seeming to them on earth﴾ that is, I shall make this world fair-seeming to them and call them to give it precedence over the hereafter, so that they will commit all types of sins.

﴿and I will certainly mislead them all﴾ that is, I shall bar them all from the straight path

«Except Your chosen [and sincere] slaves among them» that is, those whom You choose and select for their sincerity, faith and trust in You.

«Allah said: This [the way of My chosen (and sincere) slaves] is a path which will lead straight to Me» it is straightforward and leads to Me and to My paradise.

«Verily you will have no power over My slaves» to make them incline towards whatever you want of all types of misguidance; because of their true servitude to their Lord and compliance with His commands, Allah will help them and protect them from the Shayṭān.

«except those misguided ones» – the word translated here as «misguided» is the opposite of rightly guided; it refers to one who knows the truth but shuns it. There are two types of misguided people, those who know the truth but shun it and those who go astray because they are not aware of the truth.

«who choose to follow you» and are content to be your allies and obedient to you instead of being obedient to the Most Gracious.

«And verily, hell is the promised destiny for them all» that is, for Iblees and his troops.

«It has seven gates», each gate lower than another.

«each gate having its allotted share of them» that is, of the followers of Iblees, according to their deeds. Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«Then they will be thrown headlong into hell, both they [the false gods] and those who went astray.» (ash-Shu'arā' 26: 94)

Having mentioned what He has prepared of torment and severe punishment for His enemies, the followers of Iblees, Allah then tells us what He has prepared for His close friends of great reward and eternal bliss:

﴿إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ ﴿٤٥﴾ أَذْخُلُوها بِسَلَامٍ ءَامِنِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَنَزَعْنَا مَا فِي صُدُورِهِمْ مِّنْ غَلٍ إِخْوَانًا عَلَىٰ سُرُرٍ مُّتَقَابِلِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾ لَا يَسْمُهُمْ فِيهَا نَصَبٌ وَمَا

هُمْ مِنْهَا يُخْرَجُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ نَتَقِ عِبَادِي أَنِّي أَنَا الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿١٩﴾ وَأَنَّ عَذَابِي هُوَ الْعَذَابُ الْأَلِيمُ ﴿٢٠﴾ (سورة الحجر: ٤٥-٥٠)

- 15:45. Verily the righteous will be amidst gardens and springs.
 15:46. [It will be said to them:] Enter here in peace and security.
 15:47. We will remove all ill feelings from their hearts; they will be like brethren seated on couches facing one another.
 15:48. There no fatigue will touch them, nor will they [ever] be made to leave.
 15:49. Tell My slaves that I am indeed the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
 15:50. And that My punishment is indeed the painful punishment.

«Verily the righteous» who kept away from obeying the Shayṭān and from all that he called them to of sin and evil
 «will be amidst gardens and springs» that contain all kinds of trees bearing all kinds of delicious fruit that are ready to eat at all times.

It will be said to them when they enter it: «Enter here in peace and security», for there will be no death, sleep, toil, tiredness, or cessation of joy and bliss that will never decrease, and there will be no sickness, grief, worry or any other ills.

«We will remove all ill feelings from their hearts», so their hearts will remain free of any resentment or envy, and they will be pure and filled with mutual love.

«they will be like brethren seated on couches facing one another» – this indicates that they will visit one another and gather together, with good etiquette among them, as they will all face one another, with no one turning his back on anyone; they will recline on those couches that are adorned with pearls and all kinds of gems.

«There no fatigue will touch them» either visibly or invisibly, because Allah will create them anew and give them a perfect life in which they will not be vulnerable to any ills.

﴿nor will they [ever] be made to leave﴾ at any time.

Having mentioned both encouragement and warning by describing what He has created in paradise and hell, Allah then tells us of His divine attributes that will help one attain paradise:

﴿Tell My slaves﴾ that is, inform them in definitive terms, supported by evidence

﴿that I am indeed the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾ for if they understand the perfect nature of His mercy and forgiveness, they will strive hard, taking all measures that could lead them to attain His mercy, and they will give up sin and repent therefrom, so that they may attain His forgiveness.

However, hope should not let them get carried away and feel safe and secure from punishment, so tell them: ﴿that My punishment is indeed the painful punishment﴾ that is, in fact there is no punishment except the punishment of Allah, of which no one could estimate the severity or understand the nature thereof. We seek refuge with Him from His punishment. If they knew that:

﴿...None can punish as He will punish on that day, and none can bind as He will bind.﴾ (al-Fajr 89: 25-26)

– they would be careful and would keep away from anything that could bring this punishment upon them. So the individual's heart should always be between fear and hope; when he thinks of the mercy, forgiveness, generosity and kindness of his Lord, that fills him with hope, but when he thinks of his sins and shortcomings with regard to his duties towards his Lord, that instils fear in him and makes him give up his sin.

﴿وَنَبِّئُهُمْ عَنْ ضَيْفِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ ۖ إِذْ دَخَلُوا عَلَيْهِ فَقَالُوا سَلَامًا قَالَ إِنَّا مِنْكُمْ وَجِلُونَ ۚ﴾
 ﴿قَالُوا لَا تَوْجَلْ إِنَّا نُبَشِّرُكَ بِغُلَامٍ عَلِيمٍ ۝﴾ قَالَ أَبَشْرْتُمُونِي عَلَىٰ أَنْ مَسَّنِيَ

الْكِبَرِ فِيمَ تَبْشُرُونَ ﴿٥١﴾ قَالُوا بَشِّرْنَاكَ بِالْحَقِّ فَلَا تَكُن مِّنَ الْفَاطِنِينَ ﴿٥٢﴾ قَالَ وَمَن يَقْنَطُ مِن رَّحْمَةِ رَبِّهِ إِلَّا الضَّالُّونَ ﴿٥٣﴾ (سورة الحجر: ٥١-٥٦)

15:51. Tell them about the guests of Ibrâheem,

15:52. When they came to him and said: Peace. He said: Truly we are afraid of you.

15:53. They said: Do not be afraid; we bring you glad tidings of a son endowed with knowledge.

15:54. He said: Do you bring me glad tidings when old age has overtaken me? What kind of glad tidings are you bringing me?

15:55. They said: We give you glad tidings in truth; so do not despair.

15:56. Ibrâheem said: Who despairs of the mercy of his Lord except those who go astray?

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ):

«Tell them about the guests of Ibrâheem» that is, tell them about that amazing story, for in your telling them the stories of the Messengers and what happened to them there are lessons for them and examples for them to follow, especially Ibrâheem al-Khaleel (the close friend of Allah), whose path Allah has instructed us to follow. His guests were the noble angels; Allah honoured him by making them his guests.

«When they came to him and said: Peace» that is, they greeted him with salâm and he returned the greeting.

«He said: Truly we are afraid of you» that is, scared. That was because, when they entered upon him, he thought that they were guests, so he rushed to offer them food and he hastened to bring them a roasted calf. But when he saw that their hands did not reach out towards it, he had misgivings about them and conceived a fear of them (11: 70), and thought that they might be thieves and the like.

«They said» to him: «Do not be afraid; we bring you glad tidings of a son endowed with knowledge» namely Is-hâq (ﷺ). This good news implied that the child would be a male, not a female. «Endowed with knowledge» means one who possesses a great deal of knowledge. Elsewhere, Allah says:

«We gave him the glad tidings of Is-hâq, a Prophet, one of the righteous.» (as-Saffât 37: 112)

Ibrâheem said, in amazement at this good news: «Do you bring me glad tidings» of a child «when old age has overtaken me?» This is indicative of a kind of despair of ever having a child.

«What kind of glad tidings are you bringing me?» That is, on what basis are you giving me this good news, when there is no possible means of it happening?

«They said: We give you glad tidings in truth» of which there can be no doubt, because Allah is able to do all things, and you in particular – O people of this household – are people upon whom Allah has bestowed His mercy and blessings, so it is no wonder that Allah should bestow His favour and kindness upon you.

«so do not despair» or be among those who do not expect any good to happen; rather keep hoping for the generosity, kindness, grace and favour of Allah. Ibrâheem responded to them by saying:

«Who despairs of the mercy of his Lord except those who go astray?» that is, those who have no knowledge of their Lord and His perfect power. As for the one whom Allah has blessed with guidance and great knowledge, there is no way he can despair because he knows that there are many ways and means for the mercy of Allah to reach him. When they had given him this good news, he realised that they had been sent on an important mission.

﴿ قَالَ فَمَا خَطْبُكُمْ أَيُّهَا الْمُرْسَلُونَ ﴾ ٥٧ ﴿ قَالُوا إِنَّا أُرْسِلْنَا إِلَى قَوْمٍ مُّجْرِمِينَ ﴾ ٥٨ ﴿ إِلَّا آءَالَ لُوطٍ إِنَّا لَمُنَجُّوهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴾ ٥٩ ﴿ إِلَّا أَمْرَانَهُ. فَدَرَنَّا إِنَّهَا لَمِنَ الْغَايِبِينَ ﴾

﴿٦٠﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَ عَالَ لُوطٍ الْمُرْسَلُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ قَالَ إِنَّكُمْ قَوْمٌ مُّكَرُّونَ ﴿٦٢﴾ قَالُوا بَلْ
 جِئْنَاكَ بِمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَمْتَرُونَ ﴿٦٣﴾ وَأَتَيْنَكَ بِالْحَقِّ وَإِنَّا لَصَادِقُونَ ﴿٦٤﴾ فَأَسْرِ
 بِأَهْلِكَ بِقِطْعٍ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ وَاتَّبِعْ أذُنَهُمْ وَلَا يَلْبَسْ مِنْكُمْ أَحَدٌ وَامْضُوا حَيْثُ تُؤْمَرُونَ
 ﴿٦٥﴾ وَقَضَيْنَا إِلَيْهِ ذَلِكَ الْأَمْرَ أَنَّ دَابِرَ هَتُولَاءِ مَقْطُوعٌ مُّصْحِحِينَ ﴿٦٦﴾ وَجَاءَ
 أَهْلُ الْمَدِينَةِ يَسْتَبْشِرُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ قَالَ إِنَّ هَتُولَاءِ ضَيْغِي فَلَا تَفْضَحُونِ ﴿٦٨﴾ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَلَا
 تُخْرَجُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ قَالُوا أَوَلَمْ نُنْهَكْ عَنِ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٧٠﴾ قَالَ هَتُولَاءِ بَنَاتِي إِنْ كُنْتُمْ فَعِيلِينَ
 ﴿٧١﴾ لَعَنَّاكَ إِنَّمَتُمْ لِي سَكْرَتِهِمْ يَعْمَهُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ فَأَخَذْتَهُمُ الصَّيْحَةُ مُشْرِقِينَ ﴿٧٣﴾ فَجَعَلْنَا
 عَلَيْهِمْ سَافِلَهَا وَأَمْطَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ حِجَارَةً مِنْ سِجِّيلٍ ﴿٧٤﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِلْمُتَوَسِّمِينَ
 ﴿٧٥﴾ وَإِنَّهَا لَاسِيلٌ مُّقِيمٌ ﴿٧٦﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٧٧﴾ (سورة الحجر: ٥٧-٧٧)

15:57. Ibrâheem said: Then what is your business, O messengers?

15:58. They said: We have been sent to a wicked people [who are to be destroyed],

15:59. except the household of Loot; we will save them all,

15:60. except his wife. We decreed that she should be one of those who stayed behind.

15:61. When the messengers came to the household of Loot, 15:62. He said: You are strangers [to me].

15:63. They said: We have come to you with that [the punishment] concerning which they had doubts.

15:64. We have brought to you that which is inevitably due [the punishment], and indeed we are telling the truth.

15:65. So depart with your family in the dead of night, with yourself bringing up the rear. Let no one among you look back, but go on to where you are commanded.

15:66. We made this decree known to him, that the last remnants of those [sinners] would be wiped out by the morning.

15:67. The people of the city came, exulting at the news [of the arrival of those young men].

- 15:68. Loot said: These are my guests, so do not put me to shame.
 15:69. Fear Allah, and do not disgrace me.
 15:70. They said: Did we not forbid you to offer hospitality to anyone?
 15:71. Loot said: Here are my daughters [to marry],<sup>9</sup> if you must.
 15:72. By your life. [O Muhammad,] they were wandering blindly in their lustful frenzy.
 15:73. So the blast overtook them at sunrise,
 15:74. And We turned [their city] upside down and let loose upon them a shower of stones of baked clay.
 15:75. Surely in that there are signs for the discerning.
 15:76. And it [the city] is on a road that is still travelled.
 15:77. Surely in that there is a sign for the believers.

﴿Ibrâheem said﴾ to the angels

﴿Then what is your business, O messengers?﴾ That is, for what purpose have you been sent?

﴿They said: We have been sent to a wicked people﴾ that is, people who have committed a great deal of evil and whose evil has become widespread; we have been sent to punish them

﴿except the household of Loot﴾ that is, except Loot and his family except his wife. We decreed that she should be one of those who stayed behind﴾ that is, those who will remain and be punished; as for Loot, We will bring him and his family forth, and save him from the punishment. Ibrâheem began to argue with the messengers about destroying them, and he pleaded with them, but it was said to him:

﴿O Ibrâheem, cease your pleading, for verily the decree of your Lord has gone forth; verily there is coming to them a punishment that cannot be averted.﴾ (Hood 11: 76)

<sup>9</sup> What is meant by ﴿my daughters﴾ is "the daughters of my nation". Loot was urging his people to give up their immoral ways and marry women in a lawful and pure manner.

Then the angels departed.

«When the messengers came to the household of Loot, he said» that is, Loot said to them: «You are strangers [to me]» that is, I do not recognise you and I do not know who you are.

«They said: We have come to you with that [the punishment] concerning which they had doubts» that is, we have come to you with the punishment that they doubted and they disbelieved you when you warned them about it.

«We have brought to you that which is inevitably due [the punishment]» and it is not a joke

«and indeed we are telling the truth» in what we say to you.

«So depart with your family in the dead of night» that is, during the night when people are asleep and no one will know of your departure

«Let no one among you look back»; rather hasten and hurry

«but go on to where you are commanded» – it was as if they had a guide to show them the way in which they should go.

«We made this decree known to him» that is, We told him in definitive terms

«that the last remnants of those [sinners] would be wiped out by the morning» that is, the punishment would come upon them in the morning and would overwhelm them and eradicate them.

«The people of the city came» that is, the city in which Loot was living

«exulting at the news [of the arrival of those young men]» that is, telling one another the good news of the guests of Loot and how handsome they were, because they had the power to overwhelm them and they had the intention of committing evil deeds with them. So they came to the house of Loot and started to argue with him about his guests, and Loot sought refuge with Allah from them and said:

«These are my guests, so do not put me to shame. Fear Allah, and do not disgrace me» that is, remember first of all that Allah is watching, and if you have no fear of Allah, then at least do not put me to shame with regard to my guests and transgress against them in this abhorrent manner.

«They said» in response to his pleas, and only answering his request not to disgrace him: «Did we not forbid you to offer hospitality to anyone?» That is, we warned you not to do that, and whoever has received the warning is left with no excuse.

«Loot said» to them, because of the tremendous pressure he felt he was under:

«Here are my daughters [to marry], if you must». But they paid no attention to his words, hence Allah said to His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ):

«By your life, [O Muhammad,] they were wandering blindly in their lustful frenzy». This frenzy resulted from their love of committing evil and they did not care about anyone who tried to stop them or who blamed them.

When the messengers explained the situation to Loot, his anxiety and distress dissipated, and he obeyed the command of his Lord by taking his family and departing at night, so they were saved.

As for the people of the city, «the blast overtook them at sunrise», which was a time when the punishment would be more severe.

«And We turned [their city] upside down» on them «and let loose upon them a shower of stones of baked clay» which even went after some who were alone in some part of the city.

«Surely in that there are signs for the discerning» that is, those who reflect and ponder and who have insight, for they will understand the point of this story, which is that anyone who has the audacity to disobey Allah, especially by committing this grave evil deed, will be punished by Allah in the worst way, as in the story of these people who dared to commit the most abhorrent of evil deeds.

«And it» that is, the city of the people of Loot

﴿is on a road that is still travelled﴾ and it is known to the travellers who pass by that land.

﴿Surely in that there is a sign for the believers﴾.

One of the lessons that we learn from this story is that Allah (ﷻ) cared for His close friend Ibrâheem (ؑ), for Loot was one of his followers and those who believed in him, so it was as if he was a student of his. When Allah wanted to destroy the people of Loot, as they deserved that punishment, He commanded His messengers to pass by Ibrâheem (ؑ), so that they might give him the glad tidings of a son and tell him the purpose for which they had been sent; he argued with them about destroying those people, until the angels convinced him and he felt at ease with it.

Similarly in the case of Loot (ؑ), because they were his fellow countrymen, perhaps he was seized with pity and compassion for them, so Allah decreed that events should take place by means of which he would become angry and upset with them, to the point that he could not wait for their punishment to come, when it was said to him: ﴿...Verily, their appointed time is the morning; is not the morning nigh?﴾ (Hood 11: 81)

When Allah (ﷻ) willed to destroy a city, their evil and transgression increased, and when it reached an ultimate level the punishments that they deserved befell them.

﴿وَإِنْ كَانَ أَصْحَابُ الْأَيْكَةِ لظَالِمِينَ ۝ فَانْتَقَمْنَا مِنْهُمْ وَإِنَّهُمَا لَبِإِمَارٍ مُّبِينٍ ۝﴾

(سورة الحجر: ٧٨-٧٩)

15:78. And the dwellers of the Wood were also wrongdoers;

15:79. So We exacted retribution upon them. They are both on a well-known highway.

They were the people of Shu'ayb. Allah described them as the dwellers of the Wood, which was an area with a lot of trees, as a reminder of His blessings to them and that they did not show gratitude; rather their Prophet Shu'ayb came to them and called them to affirm the oneness of Allah and to stop wronging people with regard to weights and measures, and he tried very hard to persuade them. But they persisted in their wrongdoing with regard to the rights of their Creator and the rights of other people, therefore Allah described them as wrongdoers.

«So We exacted retribution upon them» and the punishment of the day of overshadowing gloom overtook them; surely it was the punishment of a terrible day (cf. 26: 189).

«They are both» that is, the lands of the people of Loot and of the dwellers of the Wood

«on a well-known highway» that is, on a clear highway on which travellers pass by them all the time, and their ruins can be seen; thus people of understanding learn a lesson from that.

﴿وَلَقَدْ كَذَّبَ أَصْحَابُ الْحِجْرِ الْمُرْسِلِينَ ﴿٨٠﴾ وَآتَيْنَهُمْ آيَاتِنَا فَكَانُوا عَنْهَا مُعْرِضِينَ ﴿٨١﴾ وَكَانُوا يَنْحِتُونَ مِنَ الْجِبَالِ بُيُوتًا ءَامِنِينَ ﴿٨٢﴾ فَأَخَذَتْهُمُ الصَّيْحَةُ مُصْبِحِينَ ﴿٨٣﴾ فَمَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿٨٤﴾﴾ (سورة الحجر: ٨٠-٨٤)

15:80. The people of al-Hijr also rejected the Messengers.

15:81. We sent them Our signs, but they persisted in turning away from them.

15:82. They carved out dwellings in the mountains, feeling secure.

15:83. So the blast overtook them in the morning.

15:84. And of no avail to them was all that they had acquired.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the people of al-Hijr, who were the people of Ṣâliḥ who lived in al-Hijr, the well-known rocky tract in the land of Hejaz. They disbelieved in the Messengers; that is, they disbelieved in Ṣâliḥ, and whoever disbelieves in one Messenger has disbelieved in all the Messengers, for their call is one and when one of them is rejected, it is not because of his character; rather it is because of what he brought of truth that all the Messengers brought.

﴿We sent them Our signs﴾ that pointed to the soundness of the message of truth that Ṣâliḥ brought. One of these signs was the she-camel, which was one of the great signs of Allah.
 ﴿but they persisted in turning away from them﴾ out of arrogance and insolence towards Allah.

One of the many blessings that Allah had bestowed upon them was that ﴿They carved out dwellings in the mountains, feeling secure﴾, from fear and they felt at ease in their lands. If they had been grateful for that blessing and had believed in their Prophet Ṣâliḥ (ﷺ), Allah would have granted them abundant provision and honoured them with all kinds of reward in this world and the hereafter. But – when they disbelieved and hamstrung the she-camel, and they rebelled against the command of their Lord and said:

﴿...O Ṣâliḥ, bring us that with which you are threatening us, if you are indeed one of the Messengers [of Allah]!﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 77)

– then ﴿the blast overtook them in the morning﴾ and tore their hearts from their chests, and morning found them lying lifeless in their homes, along with what accompanied that of ongoing disgrace and curses.

﴿And of no avail to them was all that they had acquired﴾ because when the decree of Allah comes to pass, it cannot be put back by numbers of troops or strength of supporters or abundance of wealth.

﴿وَمَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَإِنَّ السَّاعَةَ لَآتِيَةٌ فَاصْفَحِ﴾
 (سورة الحجر: ٨٥-٨٦) ﴿٨٦﴾ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ الْخَلَّاقُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٨٥﴾

15:85. We have not created the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, except for a true purpose. And, verily, the Hour is surely coming, so [O Muhammad] bear with them graciously.

15:86. Verily your Lord is the Creator of all, the All-Knowing.

That is, We did not create them in vain for any false purpose, as the enemies of Allah think; rather We only created them ﴿for a true purpose﴾, part of which was that they, along with all that they contain, should point to the perfection and power of their Creator, and the vastness of His mercy and wisdom, and His all-encompassing knowledge, which proves that He alone is to be worshipped, with no partner or associate.

﴿And, verily, the Hour is surely coming﴾ no doubt about it, ﴿Indeed, the creation of the heavens and the earth is a greater matter than the creation [or recreation] of humankind...﴾ (Ghâfir 40: 57)

﴿so [O Muhammad] bear with them graciously﴾ – this refers to forbearance without causing any offence to them; rather it means responding to their mistreatment with kindness and to their misdemeanours with forgiveness, so as to attain a great deal of reward with your Lord, for everything that is meant to happen is close at hand.

A better meaning than that which I have mentioned above occurred to me, which is that what is enjoined is gracious forbearance, which is graciousness that is free of resentment or offence in word or deed, as opposed to forbearance that is not gracious, which is inappropriate forbearance. So one should not be forbearing when what is required is punishment, such as punishment for transgressors and wrongdoers for whom nothing is effective except punishment. This is what is meant.

«Verily your Lord is the Creator of all, the All-Knowing» that is, nothing that He created and is encompassed by His knowledge can escape Him, and applies to all created things.

﴿وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَاكَ سَبْعًا مِّنَ الْمَثَانِي وَالْقُرْءَانَ الْعَظِيمَ ﴿٨٧﴾ لَا تَمُدَّنَّ عَيْنَيْكَ إِلَىٰ مَا مَتَّعْنَا بِهِ أَزْوَاجًا مِنْهُمْ وَلَا تَحْزَنْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَخَفَضْ جَنَاحَكَ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٨٨﴾ وَقُلْ إِنِّي أَنَا النَّذِيرُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿٨٩﴾ كَمَا أَنزَلْنَا عَلَى الْمُقْتَسِمِينَ ﴿٩٠﴾ الَّذِينَ جَعَلُوا الْقُرْءَانَ عِضِينَ ﴿٩١﴾ فَوَرَبِّكَ لَنَسْأَلَنَّهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٩٢﴾ عَمَّا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩٣﴾﴾ (سورة)

الحجر: ٨٧-٩٣

- 15:87. We have given you the seven oft-repeated ones and the glorious Qur'an.
- 15:88. Do not look longingly at the good things We have given some among them to enjoy, nor grieve over them, but lower your wing [in humility and gentleness] to the believers.
- 15:89. And say [O Muhammad]: Verily I am the clear warner [of a punishment that will befall you],
- 15:90. Like [the punishment] that We sent down upon the discriminators,
- 15:91. Those who break the Qur'an into different parts.
- 15:92. So, by your Lord, We will surely question them all
- 15:93. About what they used to do.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says, reminding His Messenger (ﷺ) of His favours to him:

«We have given you the seven oft-repeated ones» According to the correct view, this refers to the seven long chapters: al-Baqarah, Âl 'Imrân, an-Nisâ', al-Mâ'idah, al-An'âm, al-A'râf, and al-Anfâl along with at-Tawbah. Or it may refer to al-Fâtiḥah, because it contains seven verses. That is because the seven long chapters frequently mention the oneness of Allah, knowledge of the unseen and sublime rulings, which are repeated throughout.

According to the view that al-Fâtihah is the seven oft-repeated ones, what is meant here is that they are seven verses that are repeated in every rak'ah. As Allah has given him the Glorious Qur'an with the seven oft-repeated ones, then He has given him the best thing for which people may compete and the greatest thing in which the believers may rejoice.

﴿Say: In the grace of Allah and in His mercy – in that let them rejoice. That is far better than all they could accumulate.﴾ (Yoonus 10: 58)

Hence Allah says after that:

﴿Do not look longingly at the good things We have given some among them to enjoy﴾ that is, do not admire them in such a way that causes you to become distracted by worldly desires that those who live a life of ease are enjoying and by which the ignorant are deceived; rather be content with what Allah has given you of the seven oft-repeated ones and the Glorious Qur'an

﴿nor grieve over them﴾ for there is nothing good to be hoped for from them and there is no benefit to be expected.

But in the believers you have the best alternative to them and the best compensation, so ﴿lower your wing [in humility and gentleness] to the believers﴾ that is, deal softly with them, with good manners, love, generosity and friendship.

﴿And say [O Muhammad]: Verily I am the clear warner [of a punishment that will befall you]﴾ that is, fulfil your duty of warning and conveying the message to relatives and strangers, enemies and friends, for if you do that, then you are not at all accountable for them nor are they accountable for you (cf. 6: 52).

﴿Like [the punishment] that We sent down upon the discriminators﴾ who strive to bar people from the path of Allah.

«Those who break the Qur'an into different parts» – they describe it according to their whims and desires; some of them call it magic and others call it soothsaying or fabrication, and other expressions of disbelief and rejection, using their criticism of it to bar people from true guidance.

«So, by your Lord, We will surely question them all» that is, all those who criticise, condemn, distort and alter it
 «About what they used to do» – this is a stern warning and rebuke to them for doing what they did.

﴿فَأُصْدِغَ يَمَا تُوْمَرُ وَأَعْرِضْ عَنِ الْمُشْرِكِينَ ﴿٩٤﴾ إِنَّا كَفَيْنَاكَ الْمُسْتَهْزِئِينَ ﴿٩٥﴾ الَّذِينَ يَجْعَلُونَ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾ وَلَقَدْ نَعْلَمُ أَنَّكَ يَضِيقُ صَدْرُكَ بِمَا يَقُولُونَ ﴿٩٧﴾ فَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ وَكُن مِّنَ السَّاجِدِينَ ﴿٩٨﴾ وَاعْبُدْ رَبَّكَ حَتَّىٰ يَأْتِيَكَ الْيَقِينُ ﴿٩٩﴾﴾ (سورة الحجر: ٩٤-٩٩)

- 15:94. Therefore proclaim what you are commanded to, and turn away from those who ascribe partners to Allah.
- 15:95. Verily, We will suffice you against those who ridicule you,
- 15:96. Those who set up another god beside Allah; but they will come to know.
- 15:97. We know you are distressed by what they say.
- 15:98. So glorify and praise your Lord, and be among those who prostrate [to Him].
- 15:99. And worship your Lord until that which is certain [namely, death] comes to you.

Then Allah instructed His Messenger (ﷺ) to pay no attention to them or to others, and to proclaim that which Allah had instructed him to proclaim, and to convey the message to everyone, not letting anything stand in his way or prevent him from conveying the message, and not being deterred by what the ignorant said.

﴿and turn away from those who ascribe partners to Allah﴾ that is, do not pay any attention to them, and refrain from trading insults with them; focus on your mission instead.

﴿Verily, We will suffice you against those who ridicule you﴾ and the message you brought. This is a promise from Allah to His Messenger (ﷺ) that those who ridiculed him would not be able to harm him, and that Allah would suffice him against them by means of whatever kinds of punishment He willed. And He did indeed do that, for no one openly ridiculed the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and the message he brought but Allah destroyed him and caused him to die in the worst manner.

Then Allah explained that just as they offended His Messenger (ﷺ), they also offended Allah by setting up beside Him ﴿another god﴾ when He alone is their Lord, Creator and Controller. ﴿but they will come to know﴾ the consequences of their deeds when the Day of Resurrection comes.

﴿We know you are distressed by what they say﴾ to you of disbelief and ridicule, and We are able to eradicate them by means of the punishment and to hasten for them that which they deserve. But Allah gives them respite although He does not let them get away with it.

﴿So glorify and praise your Lord, and be among those who prostrate [to Him]﴾ that is, remember Allah a great deal, glorify and praise Him, and pray, for that will give you comfort and put you at ease, and it will help you in all your affairs.

﴿And worship your Lord until that which is certain [namely, death] comes to you﴾ that is, carry on at all times seeking to draw closer to Allah by means of various kinds of acts of worship. The Prophet (ﷺ) obeyed the command of his Lord and persisted in worship until that which is certain came to him from his Lord.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-Hijr.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

16.
Soorat an-Nahl
(Makki)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿إِنَّا أَمَرُ اللَّهُ فَلَا نَسْتَعْجِلُوهٗ سُبْحٰنَهُ وَتَعَالٰى عَمَّا يُشْرِكُوْنَ ﴿١﴾ يُزِلُّ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةَ بِالرُّوْحِ مِمَّنْ أَمَرُوْهُ عَلَىٰ مَن يَشَآءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِۦٓ أَنۡ أَنْذِرُوْا أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَٰهَ إِلَّا أَنَا فَاتَّقُوْا ﴿٢﴾﴾

(سورة النحل: ١-٢)

- 16:1. The decree of Allah is at hand, so do not seek to hasten it. Glorified and exalted be He, far above the partners they ascribe to Him!
- 16:2. He sends down the angels with His revelation by His command to whomever among His slaves He wills, saying: Proclaim that there is no god but I, so fear Me.

---

Here Allah confirms that what He promised is close at hand, and offers reassurance that it will indeed come to pass:

﴿The decree of Allah is at hand, so do not seek to hasten it﴾ for it is coming, and that which is coming is near at hand.

﴿Glorified and exalted be He far above the partners they ascribe to Him﴾ such as a child, spouse or equal, and other things that the polytheists attributed to Him that are not befitting to His majesty or are contrary to His perfect nature.

Having declared Himself to be above that which His enemies ascribe to Him, Allah then mentions the revelation that He sent down to His Prophets, that one must believe in with regard to the perfect attributes of Allah:

«He sends down the angels with His revelation», which brings (spiritual) life to people's hearts

«by His command to whomever among His slaves He wills» who He knows to be righteous, to carry His message.

The main idea and focus of the call of all of the Messengers is: «Proclaim that there is no god but I, so fear Me» that is, the focus is on knowing Allah (ﷻ) and affirming His oneness through the attributes of greatness which are the attributes of divinity, and worshipping Him alone, with no partner or associate. This is the message with which Allah sent down His Books and sent His Messengers.

Then Allah mentions the proof and evidence for that:

﴿خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ تَعَلَّى عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ﴾ (٢) ﴿خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ فَإِذَا هُوَ خَصِيمٌ مُبِينٌ﴾ (١) ﴿وَالْأَنفَعُ خَلْقُهَا لَكُمْ فِيهَا دِفءٌ وَمَنْفَعٌ وَمِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ﴾ (٥) ﴿وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا جَمَالٌ حِينَ تُرْجَوْنَ وَحِينَ تَسْرَحُونَ﴾ (٦) ﴿وَتَحْمِلُ أُنْفُسَ كُفْمٍ إِلَى بَلَدٍ لَمْ تَكُونُوا بِهِ لَبِيبِهِ إِلَّا بِشِقِّ الْأَنْفُسِ﴾ (٧) ﴿إِنَّ رَبَّكُمْ لَرءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ﴾ (٨) ﴿وَالْخَيْلَ وَالْإِبَالَ وَالْحَمِيرَ لِتَرْكَبُوهَا وَزِينَةً وَيَخْلُقُ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُونَ﴾ (٩) ﴿وَعَلَى اللَّهِ قَصْدُ السَّبِيلِ وَمِنْهَا جَايزٌ وَلَوْ شَاءَ لَهَدَيْكُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ﴾ (١٠) (سورة النحل: ٩-٣)

- 16:3. He created the heavens and the earth for a true purpose. Exalted be He far above the partners they ascribe to Him!
- 16:4. He created man from a drop of semen, then he becomes argumentative, able to express himself.
- 16:5. And He created the livestock animals for you; they are a source of warm clothing [and blankets] and other benefits, and of their [meat] you eat.
- 16:6. You find beauty in them when you bring them home in the evening and when you drive them out to pasture [in the morning].
- 16:7. And they carry your heavy loads to lands that you could not [otherwise] reach without great hardship. Verily your Lord is indeed Compassionate, Most Merciful.
- 16:8. And [He has created] horses, mules and donkeys for you to ride and use for show, and He will yet create things of which [today] you have no knowledge.<sup>10</sup>
- 16:9. It is for Allah to show the straight path, and there are [other] paths which deviate from the right course. If He had so willed, He could have guided all of you.

---

This chapter is called the chapter of blessings, for at the beginning of it Allah mentions the basic blessings and at the end of it He mentions other blessings that complete those basic blessings. He tells us that He created the heavens and the earth for a true purpose, so that people may contemplate them and thus realise the greatness of their Creator and what He possesses of attributes of perfection, and so that they may know that He created them as a dwelling place for His slaves who worship Him by adhering to what He enjoined upon them of duties and laws that He sent down on the lips of His Messengers. Hence He declares Himself to be above what the polytheists ascribe as partners to Him, as He says: ﴿Exalted be He far above the partners they ascribe to Him﴾ that is, He describes Himself to be above and far greater than the partners they ascribe to Him, for He is the true God, and it is not appropriate for people to worship, love and humble themselves to any but Him.

---

<sup>10</sup> This may refer to other means of transportation, as suggested by some commentators.

Having mentioned the creation of the heavens and the earth, He then mentions the creation of that which is in them.

He starts with the noblest of that creation, which is man:

﴿He created man from a drop of semen﴾ then He caused it to develop and grow until it became a complete human with perfect limbs and faculties both visible and invisible. Then he bestowed upon him abundant blessings until, when he reached the level of (physical and mental) completeness, he became filled with pride and self-admiration. ﴿then he becomes argumentative, able to express himself﴾. It may be that what is meant is that man becomes argumentative with his Lord, ungrateful to Him, arguing with His Messengers and rejecting His revelations. Thus he forgets his initial creation and the blessings that Allah has bestowed upon him, so he uses those blessings for sinful purposes. Or it may be that what is meant is that Allah created man from a drop of semen, then He causes him to pass through the stages of development until he becomes a man of reason who is able to express himself, think, develop his views, argue and discuss. So let the individual give thanks to his Lord Who caused him to develop from a stage where he had no power at all and acquire all these abilities.

﴿And He created the livestock animals for you﴾ that is, He created them for your sake, for your benefit and in your interests. One of the great benefits that you derive from them is that ﴿they are a source of warm clothing [and blankets]﴾ because from their wool, hair and skins you make garments, furnishings and tents.

﴿and﴾ you have in them ﴿other benefits﴾ besides those mentioned above

﴿and of their [meat] you eat﴾.

﴿You find beauty in them when you bring them home in the evening and when you drive them out to pasture [in the morning]﴾ that is, at the time when they rest in the evening and at the time when they go out to pasture. That is because the beauty is not for them; rather it is for you, because you are the ones who enjoy their beauty and you also find beauty in your garments, your children and your wealth, and you admire that.

﴿And they carry your heavy loads﴾ and even carry you ﴿to lands that you could not [otherwise] reach without great hardship﴾. Allah has caused them to be of service to you, so that you ride on some of them and on others you carry whatever loads you wish to distant lands and faraway regions.

﴿Verily your Lord is indeed Compassionate, Most Merciful﴾ because He has subjected to you that which you need. So to Him be praise as befits the majesty of His Countenance, the greatness of His power and the abundance of His generosity and kindness.

﴿And [He has created] horses, mules and donkeys﴾ and caused them to be of service to you

﴿for you to ride and use for show﴾ that is, sometimes you use them for necessary purposes such as riding, and sometimes you use them for the sake of beauty and show. No mention is made of eating, because it is prohibited to eat mules and donkeys, and horses are not usually used for food; in fact it may be prohibited to slaughter them for food, for fear that they may become extinct. However it is proven in aṣ-Ṣaḥeeḥayn (the two authentic Hadith collections of Imam Bukhari and Imam Muslim) that the Prophet (ﷺ) allowed the eating of horsemeat.

﴿and He will yet create things of which [today] you have no knowledge﴾ that would come about after the revelation of the Qur'an, of means of transportation in which people ride on land and sea, and in the air, and that they use for their own benefit and in their interests. They are not mentioned in specific terms, because Allah (ﷻ) did not mention in His Book anything but that which people knew (at that time), or they knew something similar to it. As for that which had no comparison at that time, if He had mentioned it they would not have known it or understood what was meant. So He mentioned that in very general terms that may include what they knew and what they did not know. The same may be said concerning the way in which he mentions the blessings of paradise; He mentions by name those which we know or see something similar, such as palm trees, grapes and pomegranates, and He refers in general terms to that of which we know no comparison, as in the verse in which He says:

﴿In them are two kinds of every fruit.﴾ (ar-Rahmān 55: 52)

Similarly, here Allah mentions means of transportation that people knew (at the time of revelation) – such as horses, mules, donkeys, camels and ships – and He mentioned others in general terms, ﴿and He will yet create things of which [today] you have no knowledge﴾.

Having mentioned paths in a literal or physical sense, and stated that He created means for people to travel those paths, such as camels and the like, Allah then mentions the spiritual path that leads to Him:

﴿It is for Allah to show the straight path﴾ that is, the straight path that is the shortest and most straightforward path that leads to Allah.

As for the path that is deviant in terms of beliefs and actions, this is a description of everything that is contrary to the straight path, for it cuts one off from Allah and leads to the abode of doom. So those who are guided follow the straight path by their Lord's leave, and those who deviate follow deviant paths.

﴿If He had so willed, He could have guided all of you﴾ but He guided some by His kindness and grace, and He did not guide others, in accordance with His wisdom and justice.

﴿هُوَ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً لَكُمْ مِنْهُ شَرَابٌ وَمِنْهُ شَجَرٌ فِيهِ تُسِيمُونَ
 (١٠) يُنْبِتُ لَكُمْ بِهِ الزَّرْعَ وَالزَّيْتُونَ وَالنَّخِيلَ وَالْأَعْنَابَ وَمِنْ كُلِّ الثَّمَرَاتِ
 إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ﴿١١﴾﴾ (سورة النحل: ١٠-١١)

16:10. It is He Who sends down water from the sky; from it you drink, and from it grow the plants on which you pasture your livestock.

16:11. With it He causes to grow for you grains, olives, date palms, grapes and all kinds of fruits. Verily in that there are signs for people who reflect.

Thus those who reflect conclude how perfect is the power of Allah, Who sends this water from clouds that are soft and gentle by nature, and they conclude how perfect is His mercy, as He made in the clouds a great deal of water from which they may drink, give their flocks to drink and irrigate their crops, which then bring forth abundant fruit and great blessings.

﴿وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمُ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ وَالشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ وَالنُّجُومُ مُسَخَّرَاتٌ بِأَمْرِ رَبِّكَ
 فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿١٢﴾﴾ (سورة النحل: ١٢)

16:12. And He has made the night and the day, and the sun and moon, to be of service to you, and the stars are also made subservient by His command. Verily in that there are signs for people of understanding.

That is, He has made these things subject to you for your benefit and to serve various interests, to the extent that you cannot do without them at all. So by night you sleep and rest, and by day you go out to seek your livelihood and pursue your religious and worldly interests. From the sun and the moon there comes light which benefits the trees, crops and plants, and reduces moisture and dispels cold that may harm the land and people's bodies, and other necessities that are connected to the existence of the sun and moon.

In the sun and moon and in the stars there is adornment for the heavens, and they are used for the purpose of navigation in the dark on land and sea, for telling the time and working out dates; these are signs of varying kinds and significance. All of that is referred to here, where Allah says:

«Verily in that there are signs for people of understanding» that is, for those who have minds that they use to reflect and ponder, for that is the purpose for which their minds are created and prepared, so that they may understand what they see and hear, unlike the heedless who gain no benefit from seeing except like animals that have no reason.

﴿وَمَا ذَرَأَ لَكُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ مُخْتَلِفًا أَلْوَنًا إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يَذَّكَّرُونَ﴾ (سورة النحل: ١٣)

16:13. And [He has made to be of service to you] all that He has created on earth of different kinds of things. Verily in that there are signs for people who pay heed.

That is, in all that Allah has created for His slaves and scattered across the surface of the earth, such as animals, trees, plants and so on, of various colours and types, there is a sign of Allah's perfect might, immense generosity and abundant grace. This indicates that none should be worshipped but Him alone, with no partner or associate.

«for people who pay heed» that is, for those who bear in mind that which will benefit them of useful knowledge, and they reflect upon that which Allah calls them to contemplate, so that they may pay heed to the evidence that points to Him.

﴿وَهُوَ الَّذِي سَخَّرَ الْبَحْرَ لِتَأْكُلُوا مِنْهُ لَحْمًا طَرِيًّا وَتَسْتَخْرِجُوا مِنْهُ
حِلْيَةً تَلْبَسُونَهَا وَتَرَى الْفُلَ الْكَبِيرَ مُوَاجِهًا فِيهِ وَلِتَنَبِّغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ
وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ﴾ (سورة النحل: ١٤)

16:14. It is He Who has made the sea to be of service, so that you may eat from it succulent meat [fish] and bring forth from it ornaments which you wear. And you see the ships ploughing through the waves so that you may seek the bounty of Allah and so that you may give thanks.

That is, He alone, with no partner ﴿has made the sea to be of service﴾ and He has prepared it to offer you different types of benefits ﴿so that you may eat from it succulent meat﴾ this refers to the various kinds of fish that are caught from the sea ﴿and bring forth from it ornaments which you wear﴾ which add beauty to your beauty ﴿And you see the ships ploughing through the waves﴾ that is, ploughing through the huge waves with their bows, which take them from one land to another, carrying travellers, provisions and goods by means of which they seek provision and the bounty that Allah has bestowed upon them.

﴿and so that you may give thanks﴾ to the One Who made these things available for you and prepared them, and so that you may praise Allah Who has blessed you with them. To Allah be all praise and thanks, for He has given people that which is in their interests and to their benefit, more than they ask for and wish for, and He has given them some of all that they ask for. We cannot praise Him enough; rather He is as He has praised Himself.

﴿وَالْقَىٰ فِي الْأَرْضِ رَوًىٰ أَنْ يَمِيدَ بِكُمْ وَانْحَرَا وَسُبُلًا لَّعَلَّكُمْ تَهْتَدُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ وَعَلَمَنَّا بِالنَّجْمِ هُمْ يَهْتَدُونَ ﴿١٦﴾﴾ (سورة النحل: ١٥-١٦)

16:15. And He has set on the earth mountains standing firm, lest it shake with you; and rivers and paths so that you may find your way, 16:16. And landmarks. And by the stars too people find their way.

Allah ﴿has set﴾ for the sake of His slaves ﴿on the earth mountains standing firm﴾. This refers to huge mountains, lest the earth move and shake with the people on it. Hence they are able to till the land, build on it and walk on it. By His mercy, He has created therein rivers which He causes to run from a distant land to another land that is desperate for water, so that they are provided with water for themselves, their flocks and their crops. There are rivers that flow on the surface of the earth, and there are rivers underground which people access by digging, until they reach what Allah has subjected for them, and bring forth the water using buckets and other equipment. By His mercy, He has created in the earth paths, that is roads which connect distant lands,

﴿so that you may find your way﴾ to those places. You may even find a land that is surrounded with mountains, but Allah has created passes and routes by means of which people may reach such lands.

﴿أَفَمَنْ يَخْلُقُ كَمَنْ لَا يَخْلُقُ أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَإِنْ تَعُدُّوا نِعْمَةَ اللَّهِ لَا تُحْصُوهَا إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَغَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١٨﴾ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا تُسْرُوتُمْ وَمَا تَعْلِنُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ لَا يَخْلُقُونَ شَيْئًا وَهُمْ يُخْلَقُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾ أَمْوَاتٌ غَيْرُ

أَحْيَاءُ وَمَا يَشْعُرُونَ أَيَّانَ يُبْعَثُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ إِلَهُكُمْ إِلَهُ وَحْدٌ ۖ فَالَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ
 بِالْآخِرَةِ قُلُوبُهُمْ مُنْكِرَةٌ وَهُمْ مُسْتَكْبِرُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ لَا جَرَمَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا يُسِرُّونَ وَمَا
 يُعْلِنُونَ إِنَّهُ لَا يُحِبُّ الْمُسْتَكْبِرِينَ ﴿١٨﴾ (سورة النحل: ١٧-٢٣)

- 16:17. Is then He Who creates like one who cannot create? Will you not then pay heed?
- 16:18. If you [try to] count the blessings of Allah, you cannot count them all. Verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
- 16:19. Allah knows what you conceal and what you disclose.
- 16:20. Those they call upon besides Allah create nothing; they are themselves created.
- 16:21. They are dead, lifeless; and they do not know when they will be resurrected.<sup>11</sup>
- 16:22. Your God is One God. As for those who do not believe in the hereafter, their hearts refuse to know, and they are arrogant.
- 16:23. Undoubtedly Allah knows what they conceal and what they disclose. Verily He does not love the arrogant.

Having mentioned what He created of mighty entities and what He has bestowed of great blessings, Allah then tells us that no one resembles him and He has no equal or rival.

«Is then He Who creates» all these things and does whatever He wills

«like one who cannot create» anything, small or great.

«Will you not then pay heed?» And acknowledge that the only One Who can create is more deserving of all worship. Just as He is one in His power of creation and control, so too He is one in His divinity and He alone is deserving of worship.

<sup>11</sup> This refers to the idols, which are inanimate and cannot hear, see or reason; they do not know when the Hour will come. (Ibn Katheer)

Just as He had no partner when He created you and others, do not ascribe to Him partners or rivals in worship; rather devote your worship sincerely to Him alone.

﴿If you [try to] count the blessings of Allah﴾ without thanking Him ﴿you cannot count them all﴾, let alone give proper thanks, for His blessings to His slaves, both apparent and hidden, are as many as the breaths they take and the moments that pass. This applies to all kinds of blessings, both those of which people are aware and those of which they are not aware, which includes what He wards off from them of calamity. The blessings are more than can be counted.

﴿Verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾ for He is pleased with a little thanks from you, even though His blessings are so many. As it is the case that His mercy is vast, His generosity extends to all and His forgiveness is available to all, so His knowledge encompasses them all.

﴿Allah knows what you conceal and what you disclose﴾ unlike those that are worshipped besides Him, for they ﴿create nothing﴾ small or great; ﴿they are themselves created﴾ – so how can they create anything when they themselves need to be created by Allah (ﷻ)?

Moreover, they possess no attributes of perfection at all, whether that be knowledge or anything else.

﴿They are dead, lifeless﴾; they neither hear, nor see, nor understand anything. Should such things be taken as gods besides the Lord of the worlds? How foolish the polytheists are in their thinking, and how misguided and corrupt they are, for they are misguided by the most obviously corrupt ideas and they regard as equal one who is lacking in all aspects, possesses no attributes of perfection and can do nothing, and One Who is perfect in all aspects, to Whom belong all attributes of perfection in the greatest and most complete manner. He is possessed of all-encompassing knowledge, immense power and abundant mercy that fills the entire universe; to Him be all praise and glory, for He is possessed of might and greatness that none of His creation can fully comprehend.

«Your God is One God»; He is Allah, the One, the Self-Sustaining, and there is none like unto Him. People of faith and reason have great awe and veneration for Him in their hearts, they love Him greatly and devote to Him all that they can of both physical and financial acts of worship. All their feelings are attached to Him and all their physical deeds are devoted to Him. They praise Him by affirming His most beautiful names and attributes, and His sublime actions.

«As for those who do not believe in the hereafter, their hearts refuse to know» this great fact which no one denies except the most utterly ignorant and stubborn of people; this fact is the oneness of Allah (tawḥeed).

«and they are arrogant» that is, they are too arrogant to worship Him.

«Undoubtedly» that is, indeed

«Allah knows what they conceal and what they disclose» of evil deeds
«Verily He does not love the arrogant»; rather He hates them immensely and will requite them according to their deeds.

«...Verily, those who are too arrogant to worship Me will enter hell in humiliation.» (Ghâfir 40: 60)

﴿وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمْ مَاذَا أُنْزِلَ رُبُّكُمْ قَالُوا اسْطِطِرُّ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴾ (١٤) لِيَحْمِلُوا أَوْزَارَهُمْ كَامِلَةً يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَمِنْ أَوْزَارِ الَّذِينَ يُضِلُّونَهُمْ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ أَلَا سَاءَ مَا يَزِرُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ قَدْ مَكَرَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَأَنَّ اللَّهَ بَيَّنَّاهُمْ مِنْ أَلْفَوَاعِدٍ فَخَرَّ عَلَيْهِمُ السَّقْفُ مِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ وَأَتَاهُمُ الْعَذَابُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ ثُمَّ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ يُخْزِيهِمْ وَيَقُولُ أَيْنَ شُرَكَاءُ الَّذِينَ كُنْتُمْ تُشْفِقُونَ فِيهِمْ قَالَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ إِنَّ الْخِزْيَ الْيَوْمَ وَالسُّوءَ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿١٧﴾ الَّذِينَ

تَنفِقُهُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ ظَالِمِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ فَأَلْقَوْا السَّلَٰمَ مَا كُنَّا نَعْمَلُ مِنْ سُوءٍ بَلَىٰ إِنَّ اللَّهَ
 عَلِيمٌ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ فَأَدْخَلُوا أَبْوَابَ جَهَنَّمَ خَلِيلِينَ فِيهَا فَلَيْسَ مَثْوًى
 الْمُنْكَرِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾ (سورة النحل: ٢٤-٢٩)

- 16:24. When they are asked: What has your Lord sent down? they say: Tales of the ancients.
- 16:25. Hence on the Day of Resurrection they will bear the full weight of their own burdens, as well as some of the burdens of those without knowledge, whom they misled. Miserable indeed will be their burden.
- 16:26. Those who came before them [also] plotted and planned, but Allah struck at the foundations of what they built and the roof fell down on them from above; the punishment came upon them from a direction they did not expect.
- 16:27. Then on the Day of Resurrection He will disgrace them and will say: Where are My [so-called] partners for whose sake you used to oppose [the Prophets and the believers]? Those who were given knowledge will say: Verily today disgrace and punishment will befall the disbelievers,
- 16:28. Those whose souls the angels take [in death] when they are wronging themselves. They will offer their submission, saying: We did not do anything wrong. [It will be said to them:] Nay; verily Allah has full knowledge of what you used to do;
- 16:29. So enter the gates of hell, to abide therein forever. Wretched indeed is the abode of the arrogant!

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us how vehemently the polytheists rejected His revelations:

«When they are asked: What has your Lord sent down?» That is, if they are asked about the Qur'an and the revelation, which is the greatest blessing that Allah has bestowed upon His slaves: What do you say about it? Do you appreciate and acknowledge this blessing, or are you ungrateful and stubbornly reject it? The answer they give is the worst and silliest answer, because they describe it as «Tales of the ancients» that is, lies fabricated by Muhammad (ﷺ) about Allah, and it is no more than stories of the earlier peoples that have been handed down from generation to generation; some of them are true and some of them are false. They gave this opinion and called their followers to adopt it; hence they carry their own burden and the burden of all those who follow them until the Day of Resurrection.

«as well as some of the burdens of those without knowledge, whom they misled» that is, some of the burden of those blind followers who had no knowledge except what they called them to, so they will bear the sin of what they called them to. As for those who had knowledge, each one will bear his own burden of sin, because he knew what they knew.

«Miserable indeed will be their burden» that is, how miserable will be the burden that will weigh heavily upon them, the burden of their own sin and the sin of those whom they led astray.

«Those who came before them [also] plotted and planned» against their Messengers: they came up with all kinds of elaborate tricks to reject the message they brought.

«but Allah struck at the foundations of what they built» that is, He dealt with the matter at the root.

«and the roof fell down on them from above» and what they had plotted and planned became the punishment that was inflicted upon them.

«the punishment came upon them from a direction they did not expect». That was because they thought that this elaborate plot would benefit them and protect them from the punishment, but their punishment came through that which they had built and for which they had laid the foundation (of specious arguments).

This is a beautiful example of how Allah foiled the plots of His enemies: they thought and reflected on what the Messengers had wrought, after they decided to reject it, and they came up with principles and rules based on falsehood, to which they referred in order to refute what the Messengers had brought. They also used tricks to cause harm to the Messengers and those who followed them, but their plot became a disaster for them and their planning became the cause of their ruin and destruction, because their plot was evil:

﴿... but the plotting of evil affects none but its authors...﴾ (Fâfir 35: 43)

That is the case in this world, but the punishment of the hereafter is another matter. Hence Allah says here: ﴿Then on the Day of Resurrection He will disgrace them﴾ that is, He will put them to shame before all people and will expose their lies and fabrications against Him.

﴿and will say: Where are My [so-called] partners for whose sake you used to oppose [the Prophets and the believers]?﴾ That is, you fought and showed enmity towards Allah and His party for their sake, and you claimed that they were partners to Allah. When He asks them this question, they will have no response but to admit that they were misguided and to acknowledge that they were stubborn, so they will say:

﴿...They are lost from us. And they will testify against themselves that they were disbelievers.﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 37)

﴿Those who were given knowledge﴾ that is, the devoted scholars ﴿will say: Verily today﴾ that is, on the Day of Resurrection ﴿disgrace and punishment will befall the disbelievers﴾.

This highlights the virtue of the scholars, for they are the speakers of truth in this world and will be the speakers of truth on the Day of Resurrection, for their words carry weight before Allah and before His creation.

Then Allah tells us what will happen to them at the time of death, and on the Day of Resurrection:

﴿Those whose souls the angels take [in death] when they are wronging themselves﴾ that is, they take their souls when they are in that state, when they have committed a great deal of wrongdoing and transgression. It is known what the wrongdoers will face on the Day of Resurrection, of all kinds of punishment, disgrace and humiliation.

«They will offer their submission» they will surrender and will deny that which they used to worship besides Allah, saying: «We did not do anything wrong». But it will be said to them:

«Nay» you did do wrong, for «verily Allah has full knowledge of what you used to do». So their denial will be to no avail. This will occur at some stage of the Day of Resurrection; they will deny what they used to do in this world, thinking that this will benefit them. But when their physical faculties testify against them and what they used to do becomes clear, they will admit it and confess. Hence they will not enter hell until they acknowledge their sins.

«So enter the gates of hell» – all those who committed a particular deed will enter through the appropriate gate.

«Wretched indeed is the abode of the arrogant!» Namely the fire of hell, for it is the abode of sorrow and regret, a place of misery, pain, distress, anguish and the wrath of the Ever-Living, the Self-Sustaining and All-Sustaining. The painful punishment will never be reduced or alleviated, not even for a single day, for the Most Merciful Lord will have turned away from them and caused them to taste the grievous punishment.

﴿وَقِيلَ لِلَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا مَاذَا أَنْزَلَ رَبُّكُمْ قَالُوا خَيْرٌ لِلَّذِينَ أَحْسَنُوا فِي هَذِهِ الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةٌ وَلَدَارُ الْآخِرَةِ خَيْرٌ وَلَنِعْمَ دَارُ الْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٣٠﴾ جَنَّاتٌ عَدْنٍ يَدْخُلُونَهَا يُجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ لَهُمْ فِيهَا مَا يَشَاءُونَ كَذَلِكَ يَجْزِي اللَّهُ الْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ الَّذِينَ نَفَقْتُمْ الْمَلِئِكَةُ طَيِّبِينَ يَقُولُونَ سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ ادْخُلُوا الْجَنَّةَ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾﴾

(سورة النحل: ٣٠-٣٢)

- 16:30. But when it is said to those who fear Allah: What has your Lord sent down? they say: All that is good. For those who do good, there is good [reward] in this world, and the abode of the hereafter is better, and how excellent is the abode of those who fear Allah,
- 16:31. Gardens of perpetual abode, which they will enter, through which rivers flow. There they will have all that they wish for. Thus does Allah reward those who fear Him,
- 16:32. Those whose souls the angels take [in death] in a state of purity, saying [to them]: Peace be upon you; enter paradise as a reward for your deeds.

Having mentioned what the disbelievers said about the revelation, Allah now tells us what the pious said, and that they acknowledged and affirmed that what Allah had sent down was indeed a great blessing and immense good that Allah had bestowed upon His slaves. So they accepted and welcomed that blessing, and they submitted to Allah and give thanks to Him for it, then they learned it and acted in accordance with it.

﴿For those who do good﴾ in worshipping Allah (ﷻ) and showing kindness to the slaves of Allah,

﴿there is good [reward] in this world﴾ namely abundant provision, a life of ease, reassurance, security and happiness.

﴿and the abode of the hereafter is better﴾ than this world and all that is in it of various kinds of pleasures and desirable things. For the joy of this life is little and is filled with troubles, and it will soon come to an end, unlike the joy of the hereafter. Hence Allah says: ﴿and the abode of the hereafter is better, and how excellent is the abode of those who fear Allah﴾.

﴿Gardens of perpetual abode, which they will enter, through which rivers flow. There they will have all that they wish for﴾ that is, no matter what they wish for and want, they will get it in the most perfect and complete manner. They will not be able to ask for any kind of joy that would bring them delight and immense pleasure, but it will be granted to them. Hence Allah will give the people of paradise all that they wish for, to the extent that He will even prompt them to ask for some kinds of joy that never crossed their minds.

Blessed be He Whose generosity never ends and to Whose abundance there is no limit; there is nothing like unto Him in His essence, attributes and deeds, and in how these attributes are manifested, and in the greatness of His sovereignty and dominion.

﴿Thus does Allah reward those who fear Him﴾ and fear His wrath and punishment by fulfilling what He has enjoined upon them of obligatory beliefs, actions and words having to do with His rights and the rights of His slaves, and by refraining from that which Allah has prohibited to them.

﴿Those whose souls the angels take [in death]﴾ when they are persisting in that fear of Allah

﴿in a state of purity﴾ that is, when they are pure and free of any shortcomings or impurity that could reach them and undermine their faith. So their hearts are content with knowing and loving Allah, their tongues constantly remember and praise Him, and their physical faculties are constantly focused on acts of obedience and turning to Him.

﴿Those whose souls the angels take [in death] in a state of purity, saying [to them]: Peace be upon you﴾ that is, the perfect greeting is for you, and safety from all ills, for now you are safe from all that you may dislike.

﴿enter paradise as a reward for your deeds﴾ which includes your faith in Allah and submission to His command. Good deeds are the means of admission to paradise and salvation from hell, and they were able to do those good deeds by the grace and mercy of Allah, not by their own strength and power.

﴿ هَلْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا أَنْ تَأْتِيَهُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ أَوْ يَأْتِيَ أَمْرُ رَبِّكَ كَذَلِكَ فَعَلَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَمَا ظَلَمَهُمُ اللَّهُ وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُونَ ﴾ (سورة النحل: ٣٣-٣٤)
 ﴿ سَيَأْتِي مَا عَمِلُوا وَحَاقَ بِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴾ (سورة النحل: ٣٤)

16:33. Are they [the disbelievers] waiting for the angels to come to them, or for the decree of your Lord to come to pass? Likewise did those who came before them. It is not Allah Who wronged them, but it was they who wronged themselves.

16:34. The evil consequences of their deeds overtook them, and the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule overwhelmed them.

Here Allah (ﷻ) asks: Are these people to whom the revelations came but they did not believe, and they were exhorted but they did not pay heed, waiting ﴿for the angels to come to them﴾ to take their souls in death

﴿or for the decree of your Lord to come to pass﴾ namely the punishment that will befall them, for they deserve that it should befall them?

﴿Likewise did those who came before them﴾ – they rejected and disbelieved, then they did not believe, until the punishment came upon them.

﴿It is not Allah Who wronged them﴾ when He punished them ﴿but it was they who wronged themselves﴾ for they were created to worship Allah, so that they might attain His pleasure and admittance to paradise, but they wronged themselves and abandoned the purpose for which they were created, and exposed themselves to permanent humiliation and eternal misery.

﴿The evil consequences of their deeds overtook them﴾ that is, the punishment that resulted from their deeds

«and the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule overwhelmed them» – when their Messengers told them about the punishment, they would ridicule it and mock those who told them of it, so the very thing that they used to mock overwhelmed them.

﴿وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ أَشْرَكُوا لَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ مَا عَبَدْنَا مِنْ دُونِهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ نَحْنُ وَلَا آبَاؤُنَا وَلَا حَرَمْنَا مِنْ دُونِهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ كَذَلِكَ فَعَلَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَهَلْ عَلَى الرُّسُلِ إِلَّا الْبَلَاغُ الْمُبِينُ﴾ (سورة النحل: ٣٥)

- 16:35. Those who ascribe partners to Allah say: If Allah had so willed, we would not have worshipped anything besides Him – neither we nor our fathers – and we would not have declared anything forbidden without His sanction. Likewise did those who came before them. Is the duty of the Messengers anything other than conveying the message in the clearest way?

That is, the polytheists tried to justify their polytheism by saying that it was the will of Allah, and that if Allah had not willed it, they would not have ascribed partners to Him or prohibited any of the livestock animals that He had permitted, such as the baḥeerah, waṣeelah, hām,<sup>12</sup> and so on, without His sanction. This was a false argument, because if that were true, Allah would not have punished <sup>12</sup> These words refer to certain categories of camels to which certain taboos were applied during the jāhiliyah.

Baḥeerah: a she-camel whose milk was dedicated to the idols.

Sā'ibah: a she-camel that was let loose for the sake of their false gods and no load was to be carried on it.

Waṣeelah: a she-camel that produced female offspring the first and second times she gave birth, with no male offspring in between; she was also let loose for the sake of the idols.

those who came before them, when they ascribed partners to Him and He punished them most severely. If He had liked that action on their part, He would not have punished them. But their only aim was to reject what the Messengers had brought. Otherwise they were fully aware that there was no justification that they could present before Allah, for Allah had issued commands and prohibitions to them, and had granted them the ability to do what He had enjoined upon them, and had given them the strength and willpower from which their deeds stemmed. So their basing their justification on the divine will and decree was utter falsehood. Moreover, everyone realises, on the basis of his common sense, that man is able to do whatever he wants, without anyone stopping him. So they combined disbelief in Allah and His Messengers with rejection of the conclusion that was based on rational thinking and common sense.

«Is the duty of the Messengers anything other than conveying the message in the clearest way?» that reaches the heart, so that no one has any excuse before Allah. If the Messengers have conveyed the commands and prohibitions of their Lord to them, but they used the divine decree as an excuse for not responding to the call, then the Messengers have no control over the matter; rather the people's reckoning is with Allah (۞).

﴿وَلَقَدْ بَعَثْنَا فِي كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ رَسُولًا أَنِ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ وَاجْتَنِبُوا الطَّاغُوتَ ۚ فَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ هَدَىٰ اللَّهُ وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ حَقَّتْ عَلَيْهِ الضَّلَالَةُ ۚ فَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَانظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُكَذِّبِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾﴾ (سورة النحل: ٣٦-٣٧) ﴿٣٧﴾

Hâm: a stallion camel that was let loose for the sake of the idols after siring a particular number of offspring, and was not required to carry any load.

- 16:36. Indeed We sent to every nation a Messenger [saying]: Worship Allah [alone] and shun false gods. Among them were some whom Allah guided, and some for whom misguidance became inevitable. So travel through the land and see what was the fate of the deniers.
- 16:37. Though you [O Prophet] may be eager for them to be guided, Allah does not guide those whom He leaves to go astray, and they will have no helpers.

Here Allah tells us that His proof has been established against all nations; there is no nation, earlier or later, but Allah sent a Messenger to them, and all the Messengers brought the same call and the same religion, which is worship of Allah alone with no partner or associate. ﴿Worship Allah [alone] and shun false gods﴾. The nations fell into two categories with regard to their response to the call of the Messengers or their lack thereof:

﴿Among them were some whom Allah guided﴾ so they followed the Messengers in belief and deed
 ﴿and some for whom misguidance became inevitable﴾ so they followed the path of error.
 ﴿So travel through the land﴾ either physically or by thinking and reasoning
 ﴿and see what was the fate of the deniers﴾, for by doing so you will see wonders; you will not see any who disbelieved but the consequences for them led to destruction.

﴿Though you [O Prophet] may be eager for them to be guided﴾ and strive your utmost for that purpose
 ﴿Allah does not guide those whom He leaves to go astray﴾ and even if he took all measures, no one can guide him except Allah
 ﴿and they will have no helpers﴾ to protect them from the punishment of Allah.

﴿وَأَقْسَمُوا بِاللَّهِ جَهْدَ أَيْمَانِهِمْ لَا يَبْعَثُ اللَّهُ مَن يَمُوتُ بَلَى وَعْدًا عَلَيْهِ حَقًّا وَلَٰكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ﴾ (٣٨) لِيُبَيِّنَ لَهُمُ الَّذِي يُخْتَلِفُونَ فِيهِ وَلِيَعْلَمَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا كَاذِبِينَ ﴿٣٩﴾ إِنَّمَا قَوْلُنَا لِشَيْءٍ إِذَا أَرَدْنَاهُ أَنْ نَقُولَ لَهُ كُنْ فَيَكُونُ ﴿٤٠﴾ (سورة النحل: ٣٨-٤٠)

- 16:38. They swear their most solemn oaths by Allah that Allah will not raise up those who die. Nay, it is a promise by which He is bound, but most people do not realise.
- 16:39. [They will be raised up] so that He may make clear to them that concerning which they differ, and so that those who disbelieved may realise that they were lying.
- 16:40. When We will something, We merely say to it, 'Be!' and it is.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the polytheists who rejected His Messenger (ﷺ), that ﴿They swear their most solemn oaths by Allah﴾ that is, they swear so as to affirm that the promise of Allah is false, and that Allah will not resurrect the dead, and that He is not able to bring them back to life after they have turned to dust. But Allah (ﷻ) says, affirming that they are lying: ﴿Nay﴾, He will resurrect them and gather them on a day concerning which there is no doubt.

﴿it is a promise by which He is bound﴾ and He will not break it or change it

﴿but most people do not realise﴾ – as part of their immense ignorance, they deny the resurrection and the requital.

Then He mentions the wisdom behind the requital and the resurrection: ﴿[They will be raised up] so that He may make clear to them that concerning which they differ﴾ of issues both major and minor, and He will explain and clarify the facts.

«and so that those who disbelieved may realise that they were lying» when they see their deeds result in regret, and they realise that the gods on whom they called besides Allah will avail them nothing, when the decree of your Lord (namely His punishment) comes to pass, and they see what they used to worship become fuel for hell, for the sun and moon will be rolled up, the stars will be scattered, and it will become clear to those who worshipped them that they were subjugated slaves of Allah who were in need of Him at all times. That is not difficult or hard for Allah, for when He wills something, He merely says to it, 'Be!' and it is, without any objection or refusal; rather it comes to pass in accordance with His will.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ هَاجَرُوا فِي اللَّهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا ظَلَمُوا لَنُبَوِّئَنَّهُمْ فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَلَآ أَجْرُ الْآخِرَةِ أَكْبَرُ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ﴾ (النحل: ٤١-٤٢) ﴿الَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا وَعَلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُونَ﴾ (سورة

(النحل: ٤١-٤٢)

16:41. To those who migrated in the cause of Allah after having been wronged, We will surely grant them good in this world, and verily the reward of the hereafter will be greater, if only they knew.

16:42. [They are those] who patiently persevere and put their trust in their Lord.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the virtue of those believers who were tested

«those who migrated in the cause of Allah» that is, for His sake and seeking His pleasure

«after having been wronged» as they were subjected to persecution and harm by their people, who put pressure on them in order to bring them back to disbelief and polytheism. So they left behind their homeland and their loved ones, and moved away out of obedience to the Most Gracious. Allah tells us that they will have two rewards: reward in this world in the form of abundant provision and a life of ease that they saw with their own eyes, after they migrated, prevailed over their enemies, conquered new lands, acquired immense booty from them and became wealthy; Allah gave them good things in this world.

﴿and verily the reward of the hereafter﴾ which Allah has promised them on the lips of His Messenger (ﷺ)

﴿will be greater﴾ than the reward of this world, as Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Those who believe, migrate, and strive and fight in Allah's cause, offering their wealth and their lives, are of a higher rank before Allah. It is they who will triumph. Their Lord gives them glad tidings of mercy from Him and His good pleasure, and of gardens in which eternal bliss will be theirs, to abide therein forever. Verily with Allah there is an immense reward.﴾ (at-Tawbah 9: 20-22)

﴿if only they knew﴾ that is, if only they had certain knowledge of what there is with Allah of reward for those who believe in Him and migrate in His cause, not one of them would have stayed behind.

Then Allah describes His close friends (awliyā'): ﴿[They are those] who patiently persevere﴾ in heeding the commands and prohibitions of Allah, and in accepting the decree of Allah, even if it is painful, and in bearing the harm and trials that they suffer in His cause.

﴿and put their trust in their Lord﴾ that is, they rely on Him in doing what He loves; they do not rely on themselves. Thus they attain success and their affairs become sound, for patience and trust in Allah are the prerequisites for success in all affairs. No one misses out on anything good except because of lack of patience and lack of effort in what is expected of him, or because of failing to put one's trust in Allah and rely upon Him.

﴿وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ إِلَّا رِجَالًا نُوْحِيْ اِلَيْهِمْ ۖ فَسْتَلَوْا اَهْلَ الذِّكْرِ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ۝۴۳﴾ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ وَالزُّبُرِ ۚ وَاَنْزَلْنَا اِلَيْكَ الذِّكْرَ لِتُبَيِّنَ لِلنَّاسِ مَا نُزِّلَ اِلَيْهِمْ وَلَعَلَّهُمْ يَنْفَكِّرُوْنَ ﴿۴۴﴾ (سورة النحل: ۴۳-۴۴)

16:43. We did not send before you [O Muhammad] any but men to whom We gave revelation. So [O people] ask those who have knowledge,<sup>13</sup> if you do not know.

16:44. [We sent them] with clear signs and the scriptures, and We have sent down to you the Reminder [the Qur'an], so that you may explain to the people what has been sent down to them and so that they may reflect.

That is, you are not unprecedented among the Messengers, for We did not send angels before you; rather We sent men who were perfect, not women

﴿to whom We gave revelation﴾ of laws and rulings, and this was by His bounty and kindness towards people, without any effort on their part.

﴿So [O people] ask those who have knowledge﴾ of the earlier scriptures

﴿if you do not know﴾ the stories of the earlier peoples and you are not sure whether Allah sent men as Messengers before.

So ask of the people who have knowledge of that, to whom the earlier scriptures were sent down, for they learned them and understood them, and it is established according to all of them that Allah only sent men to whom He granted revelation, from among the people of the cities. The general meaning of this verse points to implicit praise for people of knowledge, and indicates that the highest type of knowledge is knowledge of the revealed Book of Allah, as Allah instructs those who do not know to refer to them in all cases. It also implies praise for people of knowledge, as Allah instructed us to ask them so that the ignorant one may do what is required of him. This indicates that Allah entrusted them with His revelation and that they are enjoined to purify themselves and strive to attain attributes of perfection.

<sup>13</sup> This may refer to: Jewish and Christian scholars who have knowledge of the previous scriptures; Muslim scholars who have knowledge of the Qur'an; or those who have knowledge of the history of earlier nations.

The best people of knowledge are those who have knowledge of this Holy Qur'an, for they are people of knowledge in a true sense and are more deserving of this title than others. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿and We have sent down to you the Reminder [the Qur'an]﴾ in which there is mention of what people need to know about religious and worldly issues,

﴿so that you may explain to the people what has been sent down to them﴾ this includes explanation of the words and explanation of the meanings

﴿and so that they may reflect﴾ upon it, and learn some of its treasures and knowledge, according to their ability and focus on it.

﴿أَفَأَمِنَ الَّذِينَ مَكَرُوا السَّيِّئَاتِ أَنْ يَخْسِفَ اللَّهُ بِهِمُ الْأَرْضَ أَوْ يَأْتِيَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ مِنْ
حَيْثُ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾ أَوْ يَأْخُذَهُمْ فِي تَقْلِيلِهِمْ فَمَا هُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ أَوْ يَأْخُذَهُمْ عَلَى
تَخَوُّفٍ فَإِنَّ رَبَّكُمْ لَرَءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٤٧﴾﴾ (سورة النحل: ٤٥-٤٧)

16:45. Do then those who devise evil plots feel sure that Allah will not cause the earth to swallow them up, or that the punishment will not come upon them from a direction they do not expect?

16:46. Or that He will not seize them suddenly in the midst of their comings and goings, and they can never escape it?

16:47. Or that He will not seize them when they are apprehensive of the impending calamity? Verily your Lord is Most Compassionate, Most Merciful

---

Here Allah seeks to alarm the disbelievers who commit various kinds of sins, by reminding them that the punishment may come upon them suddenly when they are not aware. The punishment may come upon them from above, or from beneath them, as in the case of a landslide and the like, or it may come upon them whilst they are going about their business and not thinking about it at all, or it may come upon them when they are apprehensive about the punishment. They cannot escape Allah in any of these scenarios; rather they are under His control and their forelocks are in His Hand.

But He is Most Compassionate, Most Merciful and He does not hasten the punishment for the sinners; rather He gives them respite, grants them well-being and bestows provision upon them, whilst they offend Him and His close friends. Yet despite that He opens the gates of repentance to them, calls them to give up the bad deeds that harm them, and promises in return for that the best honours and forgiveness for what they have committed of sins. So let the sinner feel ashamed before his Lord, for the blessings of Allah are descending upon him at all times whilst his sins are ascending to his Lord at all times. Let him realise that Allah gives respite but He does not let the sinner get away with it, for when He seizes the sinner, His grasp is the grasp of One Who is Almighty, Omnipotent. Let him repent to Allah and turn back to Him in all his affairs, for He is Most Compassionate, Most Merciful.

Let him hasten to seek His all-encompassing mercy and great kindness, and let him follow the paths that lead to the grace of the Most Merciful Lord, by fearing Him and striving to do that which He loves and is pleased with.

﴿أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا إِلَىٰ مَا خَلَقَ اللَّهُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ يُنْفِثُونَ ظِلُّهُ عَنِ الْيَمِينِ وَالشَّمَائِلِ سُجَّدًا لِلَّهِ وَهُمْ دَاخِرُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ وَلِلَّهِ يَسْجُدُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ مِنْ دَابَّةٍ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ وَهُمْ لَا يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ يَخَافُونَ رَبَّهُمْ مِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ وَيَفْعَلُونَ مَا يُؤْمَرُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾﴾ (سورة

النحل: ٤٨-٥٠)

- 16:48. Have they not seen the things that Allah has created, and how their shadows move to the right and the left, prostrating to Allah in all humility?
- 16:49. To Allah prostrates all that is in the heavens and every living creature on earth, as do the angels, and they are not arrogant.
- 16:50. They fear their Lord above them, and they do what they are commanded.

«Have they» that is, those who doubt the oneness, greatness and perfection of their Lord

«not seen the things that Allah has created» that is, all of His creations and how their shadows move

«to the right and the left, prostrating to Allah» that is, they all prostrate to their Lord, humbling themselves before His greatness and majesty «in all humility» that is, they are humbled, under His control and subjugation; their forelocks are in the Hand of Allah and under His control.

«To Allah prostrates all that is in the heavens and every living creature on earth» humans and animals alike

«as do the angels» – the angels are mentioned specifically after all creatures have been mentioned in general terms, because of their virtue and noble nature, and because they worship Allah a great deal. Hence He says: «and they are not arrogant» that is, they do not disdain to worship Him, despite their large numbers and their great size and power, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«The Messiah would never disdain to be a slave to Allah, nor would the angels who are close to Him...» (an-Nisā' 4: 172)

«They fear their Lord above them». Having praised them for their constant obedience and submission to Allah, He then praises them for their fear of Allah Who is above them in terms of His essence, might and perfect attributes, and they are beneath Him, so they are humble and subjugated.

«and they do what they are commanded» that is, no matter what Allah (ﷻ) commands them to do, they obey His command willingly.

The prostration of created beings to Allah is of two types. The first is involuntary prostration, which points to His attributes of perfection and majesty; this is applicable to all creatures, believers and disbelievers, righteous and evildoers, humans and animals. The second is voluntary prostration, which is applicable only to His close friends and believing slaves, among the angels and others.

﴿ وَقَالَ اللَّهُ لَا تَتَّخِذُوا إِلَهَيْنِ إِلَّا هُوَ إِلَهٌُ وَاحِدٌ فَإِنِّي فَارِهُونٌ ﴾ (٥١) وَلَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَلَهُ الدِّينُ وَاصِبًا أَفَغَيْرَ اللَّهِ تَنْفِقُونَ ﴾ (٥٢) وَمَا يَكُم مِّن تَعْمَةٍ فَمِنَ اللَّهِ ثُمَّ إِذَا مَسَّكُمُ الضُّرُّ فَإِلَيْهِ تَجْتَرُونَ ﴾ (٥٣) ثُمَّ إِذَا كُشِفَ الضُّرُّ عَنْكُمْ إِذَا فَرِيقٌ مِّنكُمْ بِرَبِّهِمْ يُشْرِكُونَ ﴾ (٥٤) لِيَكْفُرُوا بِمَا آتَيْنَهُمْ فَتَمْتَعُوا فَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴾ (٥٥) (سورة النحل)

(النحل: ٥١-٥٥)

16:51. Allah has said: Do not take two gods [for worship], for He is but One God, so fear none but Me.

16:52. To Allah belongs all that is in the heavens and on earth, and constant obedience is due to Him alone. Will you then fear anyone other than Allah?

16:53. Whatever blessing you have, it is from Allah, then when misfortune afflicts you, it is to Him that you cry out for help.

16:54. Yet when He has relieved you of your misfortune, some of you ascribe partners to their Lord, 16:55. Showing their ingratitude for what We have given them. Take your pleasure now, but you will soon know the consequences.

---

Here Allah instructs us to worship Him alone, with no partner or associate, because He is the only One Who bestows blessings and there is no god but Him.

﴿Do not take two gods [for worship]﴾ that is, do not ascribe a partner in divinity to Him when He ﴿is but One God﴾, One in His great attributes and unique in all His actions.

Just as He is One in His essence, names, attributes and actions, so you should worship Him alone. Hence He says: ﴿so fear none but Me﴾, obey My commands and heed My prohibitions, without associating any of My creation with Me, for they are under the control of Allah (ﷻ).

﴿To Allah belongs all that is in the heavens and on earth, and constant obedience is due to Him alone﴾ that is, devotion, worship and humility at all times are due to Allah alone, so people are required to be sincere towards Allah and to be true slaves to Him.

﴿Will you then fear anyone other than Allah﴾ among the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth? For they do not possess any power to cause you harm or benefit you. It is only Allah Who gives and bestows kindness.

﴿Whatever blessing you have﴾ visible or invisible

﴿it is from Allah﴾ and no one else has any part in that.

﴿then when misfortune afflicts you﴾ such as poverty, sickness or hardship

﴿it is to Him that you cry out for help﴾ that is, you raise your voices, calling upon Him and beseeching Him, because you know that no one wards off harm and hardship except Him, Who alone gives you what you love and wards off what you hate. Therefore none is deserving of worship except Him alone.

But many people wrong themselves by denying the blessings that Allah has bestowed upon them. When He saved them from hardship, at times of ease they begin to ascribe some of His helpless creation as partners to Him. Hence He says:

﴿Showing their ingratitude for what We have given them﴾ that is, when We saved them from hardship and difficulty.

﴿Take your pleasure now﴾ for a little while, in this world

﴿but you will soon know the consequences﴾ of your disbelief.

﴿وَيَجْعَلُونَ لِمَا لَا يَعْلَمُونَ نَصِيبًا مِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ ۖ تَاللَّهِ لَشَتَّىٰ عَمَّا كُنْتُمْ تَفْتَرُونَ ﴿٥٦﴾ وَيَجْعَلُونَ لِلَّهِ الْبَنَاتِ سُبْحَنَهُ وَلَهُمْ مَا يَشْتَهُونَ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَإِذَا بُشِّرَ أَحَدُهُم بِالْأُنثَىٰ ظَلَّ وَجْهُهُ مُسْوَدًّا وَهُوَ كَظِيمٌ ﴿٥٨﴾ يَتَوَارَىٰ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ مِن سُوءِ مَا بُشِّرَ بِهِ ۚ أَيُمْسِكُهُ عَلَىٰ هُونٍ أَمْ يَدُسُّهُ فِي التُّرَابِ ۗ أَلَا سَاءَ مَا يَحْكُمُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ لِلَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ مَثَلُ السَّوْءِ ۚ وَلِلَّهِ الْمَثَلُ الْأَعْلَىٰ ۚ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٦٠﴾﴾ (سورة النحل: ٥٦-٦٠)

- 16:56. They allocate a portion of the sustenance We have given them to those whose reality they do not even know. By Allah, you will surely be called to account for the lies you have been fabricating.
- 16:57. And they ascribe daughters to Allah – glory be to Him! – but for themselves they choose what they desire [sons].
- 16:58. When news is brought to one of them of [the birth of] a female infant, his face darkens and he is filled with inward grief.
- 16:59. He hides away from people because of the bad news he has been given. Should he keep her and feel disgraced or bury her in the dust? How evil is their estimate of Allah!
- 16:60. Those who do not believe in the hereafter have evil attributes, and to Allah belong the most sublime attributes, for He is the Almighty, Most Wise.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the ignorance and wrongdoing of the polytheists, and how they fabricated lies against Allah, for they allocated to their idols that knew nothing and could not bring any benefit or ward off any harm, a share of that which Allah had provided and blessed them with. They used the provision He had bestowed to associate others with Him and to draw closer to carved idols, as Allah (ﷻ) tells us elsewhere:

﴿They allocated to Allah a portion of that which He created of crops and livestock. They say: This is for Allah – or so they claim – and this is for our partners [that we ascribe to Him]. Then, that which is allocated for their ‘partners’ never reaches Allah, while that which is allocated for Allah does reach their ‘partners’. How ill they judge.﴾
(al-An‘ām 6: 136)

﴿you will surely be called to account for the lies you have been fabricating﴾ and it will be said:

﴿...Has Allah given you leave to do so, or do you fabricate lies against Allah? What do those who fabricate lies against Allah think about the Day of Resurrection?...﴾ (Yoonus 10: 59-60)

Allah will punish them severely for that.

﴿And they ascribe daughters to Allah﴾ because they described the angels who are close to Allah as being His daughters

﴿but for themselves they choose what they desire﴾ namely sons, because they deeply hated to have daughters

﴿When news is brought to one of them of [the birth of] a female infant, his face darkens﴾ with distress at what has befallen him

﴿and he is filled with inward grief﴾ that is, he is filled with grief and sorrow if he is given news of an infant daughter, to the extent that he feels ashamed before his fellow men and tries to hide away because of this bad news. Then later on he thinks, on the basis of corrupt ideas, what he should do about this daughter of whose birth he has been informed.

«Should he keep her and feel disgraced» should he let her live, and not kill her, and put up with humiliation and disgrace?

«or bury her in the dust» that is, bury her alive. This is a reference to female infanticide for which Allah condemned the polytheists.

«How evil is their estimate of Allah!» for they ascribe to Him that which is not befitting to His Majesty, as they ascribe offspring to Him.

But they did not stop there; rather they ascribe the inferior of the two to Him, namely female offspring which they themselves disdained and hated. So how could they ascribe it to Allah (ﷻ)? What a bad judgement this was on their part.

Because this was one of the negative attributes that His enemies, the polytheists, ascribed to Him, Allah (ﷻ) says here: «Those who do not believe in the hereafter have evil attributes» that is, attributes of imperfection and shortcomings

«and to Allah belong the most sublime attributes» – this refers to every attribute of perfection, and whatever perfection exists, Allah is more deserving of it, without that implying any kind of shortcoming. To Him belong the most sublime attributes in the hearts of His close friends, which means veneration, respect and love, turning to Him and knowing Him.

«for He is the Almighty» Who subjugates all things and to Whom all creatures submit

«Most Wise» Who does what is appropriate. So He does not enjoin or do anything but that for which He may be praised and extolled for the divine perfection that is implied thereby.

﴿وَلَوْ يَأْخُذُ اللَّهُ النَّاسَ بِظُلْمِهِمْ مَا تَرَكَ عَلَيْهَا مِنْ دَابَّةٍ وَلَكِنْ يُؤَخِّرُهُمْ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ۖ فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَجَلُهُمْ لَا يَسْتَنْخِرُونَ سَاعَةً وَلَا يَسْتَقْدِمُونَ﴾ (سورة النحل: ٦١)

16:61. If Allah were to take humankind to task for their wrongdoing, He would not leave on [the earth] a single living creature, but He gives them respite for an appointed term. Then when their appointed time comes, they will not be able to delay it for a single moment or bring it forward.

Having mentioned what the wrongdoers fabricated against Him, Allah (ﷻ) here mentions the perfect nature of His forbearance and patience:

«If Allah were to take humankind to task for their wrongdoing», no more and no less

«He would not leave on [the earth] a single living creature» because He would destroy those who committed the sin as well as others of all types of creatures and animals, for the bad consequences of sin may lead to destruction of crops and livestock.

«but He gives them respite for an appointed term» that is, He does not hasten the punishment for them until an appointed time, which is the Day of Resurrection.

«Then when their appointed time comes, they will not be able to delay it for a single moment or bring it forward» so let them beware, so long as they are still within the respite period, before the time comes when there will no longer be any respite.

﴿وَيَجْعَلُونَ لِلَّهِ مَا يَكْرَهُونَ وَتَصِفُ أَلْسِنَتُهُمُ الْكَذِبَ أَنَّ لَهُمُ الْحُسْنَىٰ لَا جَرَمَ أَنَّهُمْ فِي النَّارِ وَأَنَّهُمْ مُّفْرَطُونَ ﴿٦٢﴾ تَاللَّهِ لَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَىٰ أُمَمٍ مِّن قَبْلِكَ فَرِئَانٌ لَهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ أَعْمَلَهُمْ فَهُوَ وِلِيُّهُمْ آلِئِنَّ يَوْمَهُمْ وَعَذَابُ آئِمَّةٍ ﴿٦٣﴾﴾ (سورة النحل:

(٦٣-٦٢)

16:62. They ascribe to Allah that which they dislike [for themselves], and their tongues assert the falsehood that the better things will be theirs. Without a doubt for them is the fire, and they will be hastened on into it.

- 16:63. By Allah, We indeed sent [Messengers] to nations before you, but Shayṭān made their deeds fair-seeming to them [the evildoers]. He is their ally today, and theirs will be a painful punishment.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that the polytheists ascribe to Allah that which they dislike [for themselves] of daughters and abhorrent attributes. This refers to the association of others with Allah, by devoting some acts of worship to created beings who are slaves of Allah. Just as they would hate for their slaves – who are created beings just like them – to be their partners and share in that which Allah has provided to them, how can they ascribe partners to Allah from among His slaves?

and in addition to this serious offence, their tongues assert the falsehood that the better things will be theirs that is, that they will be in a good situation in this world and the hereafter. But Allah refutes that claim by saying: Without a doubt for them is the fire, and they will be hastened on into it that is, they will be rushed into it and will remain therein, and will never come out of it.

Then Allah (ﷻ) highlights to His Messenger (ﷺ) that he is not the first Messenger to be rejected, as He says: By Allah, We indeed sent [Messengers] to nations before you, calling them to affirm the oneness of Allah but Shayṭān made their deeds fair-seeming to them, so they rejected the Messengers and claimed that what they were following was the truth that would save them from all harm, and that what the Messengers were calling to was the opposite of that. When the Shayṭān made their deeds fair-seeming to them, he became their ally, so they obeyed him and followed him and took him as their ally.

...Will you then take him and his progeny as allies instead of Me, even though they are enemies to you? What a wretched exchange for the wrongdoers! (al-Kahf 18: 50)

﴿and theirs will be a painful punishment﴾ in the hereafter, because they turned away from being allies of the Most Gracious and were content to be allies of the Shayṭān; therefore they deserve that humiliating punishment.

﴿وَمَا أُنزِلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ إِلَّا لِتُبَيِّنَ لَهُمُ الَّذِي اخْتَلَفُوا فِيهِ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٦٤﴾ وَاللَّهُ أَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَخْيَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يَسْمَعُونَ ﴿٦٥﴾﴾ (سورة النحل: ٦٤-٦٥)

16:64. We have only sent down the Book to you so that you may make clear to them that wherein they differ, and so that it may be guidance and mercy to people who believe.

16:65. Allah sends down from the sky water whereby He gives life to an earth that is dead. Verily in that is a sign for people who listen [attentively].

That is, a sign for people who listen to the exhortation and admonishment of Allah, and understand from that that He alone is deserving of worship and no worship should be devoted to any but Him alone, for He is the One Who bestows blessing by sending down rain and bringing forth all kinds of plants. He is able to do all things, and the One Who gives life to the earth after it was dead is able to give life to the dead. The One Who bestows all these favours is the Possessor of abundant mercy and immense generosity.

﴿وَإِنَّ لَكُمْ فِي الْأَنْعَامِ لَعِبْرَةً تَشَاقِقُكُمْ مِمَّا فِي بُطُونِهِ مِنْ بَيْنِ فَرْثٍ وَفَرْثٍ وَدَمٍ لَبَنًا خَالِصًا سَائِغًا لِلشَّارِبِينَ ﴿٦٦﴾ وَمِنْ ثَمَرَاتِ النَّخِيلِ وَالْأَعْنَابِ لَتَتَخِذُونَ مِنْهُ سَكَرًا وَرِزْقًا حَسَنًا إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾﴾ (سورة النحل: ٦٦-٦٧)

- 16:66. And verily in livestock animals too there is a lesson for you. We give you to drink of that [fluid] which is in their bellies, produced alongside faeces and blood: pure milk, palatable to those who drink it.
- 16:67. And from the fruits of date palms and grapevines, you obtain intoxicants, and good provision. Verily in that there is a sign for people of understanding.

﴿And verily in livestock animals too﴾ that Allah has caused to be of service to you

﴿there is a lesson for you﴾ from which you learn of Allah's perfect might and abundant kindness, for he gives you (milk) to drink from their bellies, which contain faeces and blood; from between that comes pure milk that is free of contamination and palatable to those who drink it, because it is delicious, quenches thirst and nourishes. Can this be anything but divine power, not merely the dictates of nature?

What thing in nature can turn fodder that animals eat and the water that they drink, whether it is fresh or salty, into pure milk that is palatable to those who drink it?

Allah (ﷻ) has created many benefits for His slaves in the fruits of the palm tree and grapevine, such as various kinds of provision which is eaten raw and cooked, fresh and preserved, food and drink that they make from their juice and steeped fruits, and the strong drink that was previously permitted, then Allah abrogated the permissibility of all intoxicants, and He replaced that with good things such as nabeedh (a drink made by steeping dates and the like) and other kinds of delicious permissible drinks.

﴿Verily in that there is a sign for people of understanding﴾ of the perfect might of Allah, as He brings forth (provision) from trees that are like pieces of lumber, yet they produce delicious fruits. Just as He encompasses all His slaves with His mercy and makes this provision available to them, He is the only God Who is deserving of worship, for He is the only One Who does that.

﴿ وَأَوْحَىٰ رَبُّكَ إِلَى النَّعْلِ أَنْ اتَّخِذِي مِنَ الْجِبَالِ بُيُوتًا وَمِنَ الشَّجَرِ وَمِمَّا يَعْرِشُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾ ثُمَّ كُلِي مِن كُلِّ الثَّمَرَاتِ فَاسْلُكِي سُبُلَ رَبِّكِ ذُلُلًا يَخْرُجُ مِنْ بُطُونِهَا شَرَابٌ مُّخْتَلِفٌ أَلْوَنُهُ فِيهِ شِفَاءٌ لِّلنَّاسِ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ ﴾ (سورة النحل: ٦٨-٦٩)

- 16:68. And your Lord inspired the bee [saying]: Make your homes in the mountains or in the trees or in the [hives] that [humans] construct.
- 16:69. Then feed on all kinds of fruit and follow the ways made easy for you by your Lord. There comes forth from their bellies a drink of varying colours, in which there is healing for people. Verily in that there is a sign for people who reflect.

There is a sign in the creation of the little bee, which Allah has inspired and taught in this wondrous manner, and shown it places where it can find food, then come back to the hives which the bees build in the way that Allah has taught them. Then there comes from the bees' stomachs this delicious honey of varying colours, depending on the various flowers on which the bees fed; in it there is healing for people from many sicknesses. This is indicative of the perfect care of Allah (ﷻ) and His perfect kindness to His slaves, and that no one is to be loved and called upon except Him.

﴿ وَاللَّهُ خَلَقَكُمْ ثُمَّ يُنَوِّفُكُمْ ثُمَّ يُنْفِكُكُمْ وَمِنْكُمْ مَنْ يُرَدُّ إِلَىٰ أَوَّلِ الْعُمُرِ لِكَيْ لَا يَعْلَمَ بَعْدَ عِلْمٍ شَيْنًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٧٠﴾ ﴾ (سورة النحل: ٧٠)

- 16:70. Allah has created you, then He will take your souls [in death]. Among you are some who are sent back to a feeble age, so that they know nothing after having known [much]. Verily Allah is All-Knowing, Omnipotent.

Allah (ﷻ) tells us that it is He Who creates people then causes them to go through the stages of life, one after another. Then after they have completed their allotted term, He takes their souls in death; and He causes some of them to live until they are ﴿sent back to a feeble age﴾ that is, the worst state that a person may reach, where he becomes physically weak and in poor health, until even the mind, which is the essence of man, becomes increasingly weak, to the extent that he forgets everything he knew and his mind becomes like that of a child. Hence Allah says: ﴿so that they know nothing after having known [much]. Verily Allah is All-Knowing, Omnipotent﴾. Allah's knowledge and power encompass all things, which includes the stages of life that man goes through, one after another, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿It is Allah Who created you in a state of weakness, then after weakness He gave you strength, then after strength, weakness and grey hair. He creates as He wills, and He is the All-Knowing, Omnipotent.﴾

(ar-Room 30: 54)

﴿وَاللَّهُ فَضَّلَ بَعْضَكُمْ عَلَىٰ بَعْضٍ فِي الرِّزْقِ ۖ فَمَا الَّذِينَ فُضِّلُوا بِرَادَىٰ رِزْقِهِمْ عَلَىٰ مَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُمْ فَهُمْ فِيهِ سَوَاءٌ ۚ أَفَتِنَعِمَ اللَّهُ بِمُحَدِّثَاتٍ﴾ (سورة النحل: ٧١)

(٧١)

16:71. Allah has favoured some of you above others in what He has provided. Those who are so favoured are unwilling to share their provisions with those slaves whom they own, so that they will all be equal in this respect. Is it Allah's favours they deny?

This is among the evidence of Allah's oneness and the abhorrent nature of ascribing partners to Him. Here He says: just as you all have in common the fact that you are created and granted provision, but He ﴿has favoured some of you above others in what He has provided﴾, by the same token He has made some of you free, with abundant wealth, and He has made others slaves to them, who do not own anything of worldly wealth. Just as the masters are the ones whom Allah has favoured over them in terms of provision, they ﴿are unwilling to share their provisions with those slaves whom they own﴾ and they regard that as something impossible, in like manner those whom you ascribe as partners to Allah are slaves who possess not even an atom's weight of dominion, so how can you regard them as partners to Allah (ﷻ)? Can this be anything but the worst of wrongdoing and ingratitude for the blessings of Allah? Hence He says: ﴿Is it Allah's favours they deny?﴾ Had they affirmed the blessing and attributed it to the One Who bestowed it, they would not have ascribed anyone as a partner to Him.

﴿وَاللَّهُ جَعَلَ لَكُم مِّنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا وَجَعَلَ لَكُم مِّنْ أَزْوَاجِكُمْ بَنِينَ
وَحَفَدَةً وَرَزَقَكُم مِّنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ أَفَبِالْبَاطِلِ يُؤْمِنُونَ وَنِعْمَتِ اللَّهِ هُمْ يَكْفُرُونَ
﴿٧٦﴾ وَيَعْبُدُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لَا يَمْلِكُ لَهُمْ رِزْقًا مِّنَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ شَيْئًا وَلَا
يَسْتَطِيعُونَ ﴿٧٧﴾ فَلَا تَضْرِبُوا لِلَّهِ الْأَمْثَالَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ وَأَنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٧٨﴾﴾ ﴿صَرَبَ
اللَّهُ مَثَلًا عَبْدًا مَمْلُوكًا لَا يَقْدِرُ عَلَى شَيْءٍ وَمَن رَزَقْنَاهُ مِنَّا رِزْقًا حَسَنًا فَهُوَ
يُنْفِقُ مِنْهُ سِرًّا وَجَهْرًا هَلْ يَسْتَوُونَ ﴿٧٩﴾ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ
﴿٨٠﴾ وَصَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا رَجُلَيْنِ أَحَدُهُمَا أَبْكَمُ لَا يَقْدِرُ عَلَى شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ
كَلٌّ عَلَى مَوْلَاهُ أَيْنَمَا يُوَجِّههُ لَا يَأْتِ بِخَيْرٍ هَلْ يَسْتَوِي هُوَ وَمَن يَأْمُرُ بِالْعَدْلِ
وَهُوَ عَلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٨١﴾﴾ (سورة النحل: ٧٢-٧٦)

- 16:72. Allah has given you spouses of your own kind and has given you, through your spouses, children and grandchildren, and provided you with good things as sustenance. Will they then believe in falsehood and show ingratitude for the blessings of Allah,
- 16:73. and will they worship, besides Allah, that which has no power to provide anything for them from the heavens or the earth as sustenance, and can do nothing at all?
- 16:74. So do not liken anything to Allah. Verily Allah knows and you do not know.
- 16:75. Allah makes this comparison: a slave, the property of another, who has no power over anything, and one on whom We have bestowed goodly provision from Us, and he gives of it both in private and in public. Are the two equal? Praise be to Allah. But most of them do not know.
- 16:76. Allah makes [another] comparison: two men, one of whom is mute, unable to do anything, and is a burden on his master; whichever way he directs him, he achieves nothing good. Is he equal to one who enjoins justice and follows a straight path?

---

Here Allah tells us about the great blessings that He bestows upon His slaves, as He gives them spouses so that they may find tranquillity in them (cf. 30: 21), and He gives them from their spouses children in whom they delight and who help them and meet their needs, and they benefit from them in many ways. And He bestows upon them good and pure provision, of all kinds of food and drink, as well as other visible blessings, more than they can ever enumerate.

﴿Will they then believe in falsehood and show ingratitude for the blessings of Allah﴾ that is, will they believe in falsehood that had no mention before, then Allah created it and it cannot do anything or create anything, and it cannot grant provision or control anything? This is general in meaning and applies to everything that is worshipped besides Allah: it is false, so how can the polytheists take it for worship besides Allah?

﴿and show ingratitude for the blessings of Allah﴾ by denying them and using them for the purpose of disobeying Allah and disbelieving in Him. Can this be anything other than the worst of wrongdoing, wickedness and foolishness?

﴿and will they worship, besides Allah, that which has no power to provide anything for them from the heavens or the earth as sustenance, and can do nothing at all?﴾ Here Allah tells us of the ignorance and wrongdoing of the polytheists, for they worship besides Him gods that they regard as partners to Allah, when in fact they have no power to provide anything from the heavens or the earth. They do not send down rain or provision, they do not cause any plants to grow on earth, they have no dominion at all over the heavens or the earth, and they cannot do any of these things even if they wanted to.

This is the description of their gods, so how could they regard them as equal to Allah or liken them to the One Who has dominion over the earth and the heavens, to Whom all dominion, praise and power belong? Hence Allah says:

﴿So do not liken anything to Allah﴾ in such a way as to imply equality between Him and His creation.

﴿Verily Allah knows and you do not know﴾. Therefore we should not speak about Him without knowledge, and we should listen to the comparisons that He makes. Hence He makes two comparisons for Himself and for those that are worshipped besides Him. The first comparison is that of a slave who does not own himself or any worldly wealth, and the second is that of a man who is free and wealthy, to whom Allah has granted goodly provision of all types of wealth, and he is generous and likes to give to others, so he spends in secret and openly. Can these two men be equal? No, they are not equal, even though they are both created beings and it is not impossible for them to be regarded as equal.

If they are not equal, then how can a created slave who has no dominion, power or ability – rather he is dependent in all aspects – be equal to the Lord, the Creator, the Sovereign of all realms, Who is able to do all things? Hence Allah praises Himself, and all types of praise are exclusively for Him alone, as He says:

﴿Praise be to Allah﴾. It is as if it was said: if that is the case, then why did the polytheists regard their gods as equal to Allah? He said: ﴿But most of them do not know﴾; if they had truly known, they would not have dared to commit this grave action of ascribing partners to Allah.

The second comparison is that of ﴿two men, one of whom is mute﴾ and can neither hear nor speak

﴿unable to do anything﴾, small or great

﴿and is a burden on his master﴾ that is, his master serves him and he is not able to serve or help himself, so he is lacking in all aspects. Is he equal to one who enjoins justice and follows the straight path, so his words are just and his deeds are righteous? Just as they are not equal, so the one who is worshipped besides Allah, when he is not able to take care of himself in any way – and were it not for Allah taking care of him, he could not have done anything for himself – cannot be equal to and a rival to one who only speaks truth and only does what is praiseworthy.

﴿وَلِلَّهِ غَيْبُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا أَمْرُ السَّاعَةِ ۖ إِنْ كَلَّمَنِ الْبَصَرِ أَوْ هُوَ أَقْرَبُ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ﴾ (سورة النحل: ٧٧)

16:77. To Allah belongs all that is unseen in the heavens and on earth, and the coming of the Hour will be but as the blinking of an eye or even swifter, for Allah has power over all things.

That is, Allah (ﷻ) is the only One Who has knowledge of the unseen in the heavens and on earth. No one knows what is hidden and secret except He. That includes knowledge of the Hour; no one knows when it will come except Allah, but when it comes it will be ﴿but as the blinking of an eye or even swifter﴾ than that, then the people will rise from their graves on the Day of Resurrection, and those who want respite will have missed their opportunity.

﴿for Allah has power over all things﴾. As He is possessed of all-encompassing power, it is nothing strange that He will raise the dead.

﴿وَاللَّهُ أَخْرَجَكُمْ مِنْ بُطُونِ أُمَّهَاتِكُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ شَيْئًا وَجَعَلَ لَكُمُ السَّمْعَ
وَالْأَبْصَرَ وَالْأَفْئِدَةَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ﴾ (سورة النحل: ٧٨)

16:78. Allah brought you forth from your mothers' wombs knowing nothing, and He gave you hearing, sight and intellect, so that you may give thanks.

That is, He is the only One Who bestows these blessings, as He ﴿brought you forth from your mothers' wombs knowing nothing﴾ and unable to do anything, then He ﴿gave you hearing, sight and intellect﴾. These three faculties are singled out because of their significance and importance, for they are the key to all knowledge, as no one can acquire knowledge except through one of these three faculties. Otherwise with regard to all other faculties and physical strengths, both visible and hidden, it is He Who has also bestowed them and caused them to develop in them, stage by stage, until each one reaches its optimum level. All of that is so that they may give thanks to Allah by using what He has given them of these physical faculties in obedience to Him. Whoever uses them for other purposes, that will be evidence against him and he will have responded to the blessing in the worst manner.

﴿الْعَيْرُوا إِلَى الطَّيْرِ مُسَخَّرِينَ فِي جَوِّ السَّمَاءِ مَا يُمْسِكُهُنَّ إِلَّا اللَّهُ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ﴾ ﴿٧٩﴾ (سورة النحل: ٧٩)

16:79. Do they not see the birds, enabled to fly in mid-air? None holds them aloft except Allah. Surely in that there are signs for people who believe.

That is, because they are the ones who may benefit from the signs of Allah and reflect upon that which has been made a sign pointing to Him. As for others, when they look, it is in a heedless and careless manner. The sign in the birds is that Allah has created them in such a way that they can fly, then He caused this gentle air to be of service for them, so that they may fly in it, then He instilled in them this ability to move, through which they are able to do that. This is indicative of His perfect wisdom, vast knowledge, divine care for all His creatures and perfect power. Blessed be Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

﴿وَاللَّهُ جَعَلَ لَكُم مِّنْ بُيُوتِكُمْ سَكَنًا وَجَعَلَ لَكُم مِّنْ جُلُودِ الْأَنْعَامِ بُيُوتًا تَسْتَخِفُّونَهَا يَوْمَ ظَعْنِكُمْ وَيَوْمَ إِقَامَتِكُمْ وَمِنْ أَصْوَابِهَا وَأَوْبَارِهَا وَأَشْعَارِهَا أَتَبْنَاءُ وَنَتَعْنَأُ إِلَى حِينٍ﴾ ﴿٨٠﴾ وَاللَّهُ جَعَلَ لَكُم مِّمَّا خَلَقَ ظِلَالًا وَجَعَلَ لَكُم مِّنَ الْجِبَالِ أَكْنَانًا وَجَعَلَ لَكُم سَرَابِيلَ تَقِيَكُمُ الْحَرَّ وَسَرَابِيلَ تَقِيَكُمُ بَأْسَكُمْ كَذَلِكَ يُبَيِّنُ نِعْمَتَهُ عَلَيْكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٨١﴾ فَإِن تَوَلَّوْا فَإِنَّمَا عَلَيْكَ الْبَلَاءُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿٨٢﴾ يَعْرِفُونَ نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ ثُمَّ يُنْكِرُونَهَا وَأَكْثَرُهُمُ الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿٨٣﴾ (سورة النحل: ٨٠-٨٣)

- 16:80. Allah has made your houses places of rest and repose for you, and He has given you dwellings made from the skins of livestock, which you find light to handle when you travel and when you halt. And from their wool, fur and hair [He has given you] furnishings and other goods [to serve you] for a time.
- 16:81. Allah has made for you, out of what He has created, that which gives you shade. He has made for you in the mountains places of shelter, and He has given you garments to protect you from heat, and garments to protect you in battle. Thus does He perfect His favours to you, so that you may submit to Him.
- 16:82. But if they turn away, your duty is only to convey the message in the clearest way.
- 16:83. They recognise the blessing of Allah, yet they deny it, and most of them are ungrateful.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) reminds His slaves of His blessings and expects them to give thanks and acknowledge them.

﴿Allah has made your houses places of rest and repose for you﴾ that is, houses, palaces and the like, to protect you from heat and cold, and to conceal you and your children and your belongings. Inside them you make rooms for different uses, to serve your interests, and in them you keep your wealth and your family, and there are other visible benefits.

﴿and He has given you dwellings made from the skins of livestock﴾ either from the skin itself or from what grows on it, such as wool or hair

﴿which you find light to handle when you travel and when you halt﴾ that is, they are easy to carry when you travel and halt in places where you do not intend to settle, and they protect you from heat, cold and rain, and they protect your goods and luggage from rain.

﴿And from their wool, fur and hair﴾ that come from livestock
 ﴿[He has given you] furnishings﴾ this includes everything that is made from them, such as vessels, furnishings, clothing, blankets, and so on.

﴿and other goods [to serve you] for a time﴾ that is, you enjoy these things and benefit from them in this world. These are among the things that Allah has caused his slaves to make and produce.

﴿Allah has made for you, out of what He has created﴾ that is, things that you had no part in making ﴿shade﴾ this refers to the shade of trees, mountains, hills and so on ﴿He has made for you in the mountains places of shelter﴾ that is, caves in which you are protected from heat, hail, rain and enemies.

﴿and He has given you garments to protect you from heat﴾. Allah did not mention cold, because it was mentioned earlier in this chapter, at the beginning where He mentions basic blessings, which are things that are essential to man; at the end of the chapter He mentions extra blessings. Protection against the cold is a basic blessing, which is a necessity, and it was mentioned at the beginning of this chapter, where Allah says: ﴿And He created the livestock animals for you; they are a source of warm clothing [and blankets] and other benefits﴾ (16: 5).

﴿and garments to protect you in battle﴾ that is, garments that protect you at times of fighting and war. This refers to items such as plate armour, coats of mail and the like. Thus He perfects His favours to you by bestowing upon you innumerable blessings,

﴿so that﴾, when you remember the blessings of Allah and you see these blessings inundating you from all directions

﴿you may submit to Him﴾ that is, to His greatness, and comply with His commands and use His blessings to obey the One Who bestowed them and granted them. Abundance of blessings is one of the causes that lead people to show more gratitude and praise Allah (ﷻ) for them, but the wrongdoers insist on stubbornly rebelling.

Hence Allah says concerning them: ﴿But if they turn away﴾ from Allah and from obedience to Him, after they have been reminded of His blessings and signs

﴿your duty is only to convey the message in the clearest way﴾ that is, it is not your role to guide them; rather you are only expected to exhort, remind, warn and alarm. Once you have done what is required of you, their reckoning is up to Allah, for they can see His blessings and recognise His favours, but they deny that and show ingratitude. ﴿and most of them are ungrateful﴾ and there is nothing good in them; they do not benefit from the succession of signs because of their corrupt thinking and bad intentions, but they will see how Allah requites every stubborn tyrant who is ungrateful for His blessings and who rebels against Allah and His Messengers.

﴿وَيَوْمَ نَبْعَثُ مِنْ كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ شَهِيدًا ثُمَّ لَا يُؤْذَنُ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَلَا هُمْ يُسْتَعْتَبُونَ﴾
 ﴿وَإِذَا رَأَوْا الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا الْعَذَابَ فَلَا يُخَفَّفُ عَنْهُمْ وَلَا هُمْ يُنظَرُونَ﴾ (٨٥) وَإِذَا
 رَأَوْا الَّذِينَ أَشْرَكُوا شَرَكَاءَهُمْ قَالُوا رَبَّنَا هَؤُلَاءِ شُرَكَائُنَا الَّذِينَ كُنَّا نَدْعُوا
 مِنْ دُونِكَ فَأَلْقُوا إِلَيْهِمُ الْقَوْلَ إِنَّكُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ ﴿٨٦﴾ وَالْقَوَا إِلَى اللَّهِ يَوْمَئِذٍ
 السَّالِمَةُ وَضَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَفْتَرُونَ ﴿٨٧﴾ (سورة النحل: ٨٤-٨٧)

- 16:84. On the day when We raise up a witness from every nation, no excuse will be accepted from those who disbelieved, nor will they be allowed to make amends.
- 16:85. When the wrongdoers see the punishment, it will not be alleviated, nor will they be given any respite.
- 16:86. When those who ascribed partners to Allah see their [so-called] 'partners', they will say: Our Lord, these are our [so-called] 'partners' whom we used to call upon besides You. But they will respond: You are surely lying.
- 16:87. On that day they will offer total submission to Allah, and the [false gods] of their own invention will be lost from them.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about those who disbelieve in the Day of Resurrection: no excuse will be accepted from them and the punishment will not be alleviated for them; their so-called partners will disavow them and they will affirm their own disbelief and fabrication of lies against Allah.

﴿On the day when We raise up a witness from every nation﴾ who will testify against it with regard to its deeds and its response to the one who called them to true guidance. Those witnesses whom Allah will raise up will be the most sincere and most just of witnesses, namely the Messengers; once they have given their testimonies, judgement will be passed and ﴿no excuse will be accepted from those who disbelieved﴾ because any excuse they offer, after it becomes certain that what they followed was false, will be an invalid excuse that will not benefit them in the slightest. If they also ask to be sent back to this world so that they may put things right, they will receive no response and that excuse will not be accepted; rather the severe punishment will be hastened for them, and it will not be alleviated for them, and they will be given no respite from the time they see it. There will be no reckoning for them, because they will have no good deeds to their credit; rather their bad deeds will be checked and counted, and they will be shown to them, and they will be made to confess to them and will be exposed to shame.

﴿When those who ascribed partners to Allah see their [so-called] 'partners'﴾ on the Day of Resurrection, and they realise that they were false and will not be able to deny it

﴿they will say: Our Lord, these are our [so-called] 'partners' whom we used to call upon besides You﴾; they have no power to benefit us or intercede for us. They themselves will admit the falseness of those so-called partners, and will disbelieve in them, and there will appear enmity and hostility between them and the so-called partners.

﴿But they will respond﴾ that is, the so-called partners will answer back and say to them: ﴿You are surely lying﴾ because you regarded us as partners to Allah, and you worshipped us besides Him, but we did not instruct you to do that and we did not claim that we deserved to be regarded as divine, so the blame is on you.

At that point they will surrender to Allah and submit to His ruling, and they will realise that they are deserving of punishment. ﴿and the [false gods] of their own invention will be lost from them﴾ so they will enter hell, and their hearts will be filled with hatred of their own selves and praise for their Lord, for they will only be punished in accordance with their deeds.

﴿الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَصَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ زِدْنَاهُمْ عَذَابًا فَوْقَ الْعَذَابِ بِمَا كَانُوا يُفْسِدُونَ﴾ (سورة النحل: ٨٨)

- 16:88. For those who disbelieve and bar others from the path of Allah, We will add punishment to their punishment because they used to spread mischief.

That is, they spread mischief when they themselves disbelieved, rejected the revelations of Allah, fought His Messengers, barred people from the path of Allah, and became promoters of misguidance. Thus they deserve a multiple punishment, just as they committed multiple offences and spread mischief on Allah's earth.

﴿وَيَوْمَ نَبْعَثُ فِي كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ شَهِيدًا عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَجِئْنَا بِكَ شَهِيدًا عَلَى هَؤُلَاءِ وَنَزَّلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ تِبْيَانًا لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةً وَبُشْرَى لِلْمُسْلِمِينَ﴾ (سورة النحل: ٨٩)

- 16:89. On the day when We raise up from every nation, a witness against them from amongst themselves, We will bring you [O Muhammad] as a witness against these [your people]. And We have sent down to you the Book, explaining all things, and as guidance, mercy and glad tidings for the Muslims.

---

---

Having mentioned above that He will raise up a witness from every nation (16: 84), Allah mentions the same thing here, and singles out this noble Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ).

﴿We will bring you [O Muhammad] as a witness against these [your people]﴾ that is, to testify concerning your Ummah, good and bad. This is by the perfect justice of Allah (ﷻ): every Messenger will testify concerning his nation, because he is more aware than others of the deeds of his nation, and he will be more just and too compassionate to testify against them except as they deserve.

This is like the verses in which Allah says:

﴿Thus We have made of you an Ummah [nation, community] justly balanced, that you might be witnesses over humankind, and the Messenger might be a witness over you...﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 143)

– and:

﴿How will it be when We bring a witness from every nation and bring you [O Muhammad] as a witness against them? On that day, those who disbelieved and disobeyed the Messenger will wish that the earth could be levelled over them...﴾ (an-Nisā' 4: 41-42)

﴿And We have sent down to you the Book, explaining all things﴾, both the fundamental and minor issues of religion, rulings in this world and the hereafter, and everything that people need to know. It explains fully, in clear words, to the extent that Allah (ﷻ) repeats in it the most important matters that one needs to be aware of at all times. The Qur'an repeats these ideas and discusses them in different words, and with different approaches and proofs, so that they become well-established in people's hearts and bear good fruit, according to how firmly established they are in the heart. Allah (ﷻ) uses clear, short and comprehensive phrases that include many meanings. Consider, for example, the verse that follows this one, and what it contains of innumerable commands and prohibitions.

As this Qur'an explains all things, it constitutes the proof of Allah against all people. Therefore it has left no excuse for the wrongdoers, and the Muslims benefitted from it, as it became a source of guidance for them, by which they are guided with regard to all their affairs, both religious and worldly. It is also a mercy for them, through which they attain all good in this world and the hereafter. Guidance is that by means of which they attain beneficial knowledge and righteous deeds, and mercy is what results from that of reward in this world and the hereafter, such as spiritual well-being, a sense of reassurance, perfection of reasoning which cannot be perfected unless it is based on the meanings of the Qur'an, which are the most sublime meanings, good deeds, good manners, abundant provision, victory over enemies in word and deed, and attaining the pleasure of Allah (ﷻ) and His paradise, in which are eternal blessings such as no one knows except the Most Merciful Lord.

﴿ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَأْمُرُ بِالْعَدْلِ وَالْإِحْسَانِ وَإِيتَايَ ذِي الْقُرْبَىٰ وَيَنْهَىٰ عَنِ
الْفَحْشَاءِ وَالْمُنْكَرِ وَالْبَغْيِ يَعِظُكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴾ (سورة)

(النحل: ٩٠)

16:90. Verily Allah enjoins justice, kindness and giving kinsfolk [their due], and He forbids obscenity, wickedness and wrongdoing. He admonishes you, so that you may pay heed.

The justice that Allah enjoins includes justice with regard to His dues and those of His slaves. Justice in this sense involves paying those dues in full, by doing what Allah has ordained of financial and physical duties, and those which are a combination of both, whether that duty is to Him or to other people, as well as treating other people on the basis of complete justice. So anyone who is in a position of authority should fulfil his duties towards those who are under his authority. This applies equally to the ruler, members of the judiciary, deputies of the ruler and deputies of the judiciary. Justice is what Allah has enjoined upon them in His Book and on the lips of His Messenger (ﷺ), and He has commanded them to adhere to it. Justice in interactions includes the area of buying and selling, as well as all other business transactions; that requires fulfilling all obligations and commitments, not falling short with regard to dues, not cheating, deceiving or wrongdoing others.

Justice is obligatory and kindness is a virtue that is encouraged, such as benefitting people by means of wealth, physical actions, knowledge and other ways of benefitting them. That even includes kindness to animals, including those whose flesh it is permissible to eat and others.

Allah singles out giving kinsfolk their due – even though this is included in the general meaning – so as to emphasise the importance of their rights and encourage fulfilment thereof, because it is a must to uphold ties with them and show kindness towards them. This includes all relatives, both close and distant; the more closely related they are, the more deserving they are of kindness.

﴿and He forbids obscenity﴾ – this refers to every major sin that is regarded as abhorrent according to religious teachings and sound human nature, such as ascribing partners to Allah, unlawful killing, fornication and adultery, stealing, self-admiration, arrogance, looking down on people, and other evil deeds.

Wickedness includes all kinds of sins that have to do with the rights of Allah (ﷻ).

Wrongdoing includes all kinds of transgression against people, whether that has to do with their lives, their wealth or their honour.

This verse is concise and includes all that is enjoined and prohibited; there is nothing that is not included. This is a basic principle to which all minor issues are connected. Anything that involves justice, kindness or giving kinsfolk their due comes under the heading of that which Allah has enjoined; anything that involves obscenity, wickedness or wrongdoing comes under the heading of that which Allah has forbidden. Thus we see the goodness and beauty of that which Allah has enjoined, and the evil and ugliness of that which He has prohibited. Everything that people say or do is to be measured by this standard. Blessed be the One Who put in His words guidance, healing, light and the criterion to distinguish between good and evil in all things.

Hence He says:

«He admonishes you» by what He explains to you in His Book, by enjoining on you that which is in your best interests and prohibiting to you that which is detrimental to your interests.

«so that you may pay heed» to what He exhorts, and thus understand it, for if you pay heed to it and understand it, you will act in accordance with it, and thus you will attain blessing after which there is no misery.

Having enjoined what is obligatory according to the basic principles of Islamic teaching, Allah then enjoins fulfilling whatever a person commits himself to (of additional obligations):

﴿وَأَوْفُوا بِعَهْدِ اللَّهِ إِذَا عَاهَدْتُمْ وَلَا تَنْقُضُوا الْأَيْمَانَ بَعْدَ تَوْكِيدِهَا وَقَدْ جَعَلْتُمُ اللَّهَ عَلَيْكُمْ كَفِيلًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا تَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٩١﴾ وَلَا تَكُونُوا كَالَّذِي نَقَضَتْ غَزَلَهَا مِنْ بَعْدِ قُوَّةٍ أَنْكَا تَتَّخِذُونَ أَيْمَانَكُمْ دَخَلًا بَيْنَكُمْ أَنْ تَكُونَ أُمَّةٌ هِيَ أَرْبَى مِنْ أُمَّةٍ إِنَّمَا يَبْلُوكُمُ اللَّهُ بِهِ، وَلَيَبَينَ لَكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ مَا كُنتُمْ فِيهِ تَخَالِفُونَ ﴿٩٢﴾﴾ (سورة النحل: ٩١-٩٢)

- 16:91. Fulfil the covenant of Allah<sup>14</sup> when you have entered into it, and do not break your oaths after you have confirmed them and have made Allah your surety, for verily Allah knows all that you do.
- 16:92. Do not be like the woman who unravels the yarn she has firmly spun, breaking it into strands, by making your oaths a means of deceiving one another, merely because one party may be more numerous than another.<sup>15</sup> Allah is only testing you by means of this, and on the Day of Resurrection He will surely make clear to you the matters concerning which you differed.

This includes everything that a person promises to his Lord, such as acts of worship and any vows he makes or oaths he swears, if fulfilling them is an act of righteousness. It also includes any covenants between himself and someone else, such as a contract between two parties to a deal, or a promise that a person may make to someone else, committing himself to it. In all such cases he is obliged to fulfil it if he is able to do so. Hence Allah forbade breaking such promises, as He says: ﴿and do not break your oaths after you have confirmed them and have made Allah your surety﴾ by mentioning His name in your pledge. So it is not permissible for you not to comply with that for which you have made Allah your surety, for that would be a failure to venerate Allah and would be disrespectful towards Him, after the other party accepted the oath from you and he accepted this confirmation when you made Allah your surety. Just as the other party trusted you and thought well of you, you should fulfil what you said you would do and assured him of.

<sup>14</sup> Covenant of Allah: this refers to the pledge (bay'ah) made when entering Islam.

<sup>15</sup> What is meant is: do not let the small numbers of the Muslims and the greater numbers of the polytheists deceive you into breaking the covenant or pledge (bay'ah) you made when you entered Islam.

﴿for verily Allah knows all that you do﴾ and He will requite each person for his deeds, according to his intention and aim.

﴿Do not be﴾, by breaking your covenants, like the worst example that is most indicative of the foolishness of the one who breaks his covenant, which is the likeness of ﴿the woman﴾ who spins a strong thread, then when it has become strong as expected, she undoes it and breaks it into ﴿strands﴾, because she got tired of spinning it, then when she undid it she got tired again, so she did not gain anything except frustration, tiredness, foolishness and lack of reasoning. This is like the one who breaks the covenant he made: he is a wrongdoer and a fool who is lacking in religious commitment and dignity.

﴿by making your oaths a means of deceiving one another, merely because one party may be more numerous than another﴾ that is, it is not appropriate in that case for you to make an oath and enter into a covenant, then look for an opportunity to break it, so the one who gives the covenant is inferior in terms of power and will fulfil it because he has no other choice, not because he respects the covenant and oath but because of his weakness. However, if he is in a position of strength and he sees some worldly benefit in breaking his oath, then he will break it and not care about the covenant of Allah and the oath he made in His name.

All of that is going along with whims and desires, and giving precedence to them over what Allah expects of you and the dictates of human dignity and sound character, just because one party may be more numerous and stronger than another.

This is a trial from Allah by means of which He tests you, as He creates circumstances with which to test people and demonstrate who is sincere and faithful to his word, and who is immoral and evil.

﴿and on the Day of Resurrection He will surely make clear to you the matters concerning which you differed﴾ and He will requite each person according to his deeds, and will expose the betrayer to shame.

﴿وَلَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَجَعَلَكُمْ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً وَلَكِنْ يُضِلُّ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَلَتُسْأَلُنَّ عَمَّا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ﴾ (سورة النحل: ٩٣)

16:93. If Allah had so willed, He would have made you a single community, but Allah leaves astray whomever He wills and guides whomever He wills, and you will surely be questioned about what you used to do.

﴿If Allah had so willed﴾ He would have caused all people to be united in following guidance, and He would have made them ﴿a single community﴾. But He is the only One Who has the power to guide people or leave them to stray. His guiding or leaving astray are among His actions that are connected to His knowledge and wisdom. He bestows guidance upon whoever deserves it, by His grace, and he withholds it from whoever does not deserve it, by His justice. ﴿and you will surely be questioned about what you used to do﴾ of good or evil, then He will requite you for it in the most perfect and just manner.

﴿وَلَا تَتَّخِذُوا أَيْمَانَكُمْ دَخَلًا بَيْنَكُمْ فَزَلَاقُمْ بَعْدَ نُبُوتِهَا وَتَذُوقُوا السَّوْءَ بِمَا صَدَدْتُمْ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَلَكِنَّ عَذَابَ عَظِيمٍ﴾ (سورة النحل: ٩٤)

16:94. Do not make your oaths a means of deceiving one another, lest any foot should slip after being firmly planted and you have to taste the evil [consequences] of having barred people from the path of Allah, and yours will be a grievous punishment.

﴿Do not make your oaths﴾ and your covenants and pledges on the basis of your whims and desires, fulfilling them or breaking them as you wish, for if you do that, your feet will slip after having been firmly planted on the straight path, and you will ﴿have to taste the evil [consequences]﴾ that is, the punishment that will cause you grief and distress

﴿of having barred people from the path of Allah﴾ as you went astray and caused others to go astray

﴿and yours will be a grievous punishment﴾ that will be multiplied.

﴿وَلَا تَشْتَرُوا بِعَهْدِ اللَّهِ ثَمَنًا قَلِيلًا ۚ إِنَّمَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ هُوَ خَيْرٌ لِّكُمْ إِن كُنتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ﴾ (٩٥) مَا عِنْدَكُمْ يَنْفَدُ وَمَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ بَاقٍ ۚ وَلَنَجْزِيَنَ الَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا أَجْرَهُمْ بِأَحْسَنِ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾ مَنْ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا مِّن ذَكَرٍ أَوْ أُنْثَىٰ وَهُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ فَلَنُحْيِيَنَّهُ حَيَوةً طَيِّبَةً ۚ وَلَنَجْزِيَنَّهُمْ أَجْرَهُمْ بِأَحْسَنِ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩٧﴾ (سورة النحل: ٩٥-٩٧)

16:95. Do not sell the covenant of Allah for a small price. Surely, that which is with Allah is better for you, if only you knew.

16:96. Whatever you have will [inevitably] come to an end, but that which is with Allah is everlasting. And We will surely grant those who are patient their reward according to the best of their deeds.

16:97. Whoever does righteous deeds, male or female, and is a believer, We will surely grant him a good life, and We will surely grant them their reward according to the best of their deeds.

Here Allah (ﷻ) warns His slaves against breaking covenants and oaths for the sake of worthless worldly matters.

﴿Do not sell the covenant of Allah for a small price﴾ that you gain by breaking the covenant and not fulfilling it.

﴿Surely, that which is with Allah﴾ of reward in this world and the hereafter for the one who gives precedence to pleasing Him and fulfils the promise he made to Allah
 ﴿is better for you﴾ than worthless worldly gain
 ﴿if only you knew﴾.

So give precedence to that which will abide over that which will cease to be, for whatever you have, even if you have a great deal, ﴿will [inevitably] come to an end﴾ and will perish
 ﴿but that which is with Allah is everlasting﴾ as He is, so it will never cease to be or perish. Therefore he is not wise who gives precedence to that which is transient and insignificant over that which will abide and is precious. This is like the verses in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿But you [O humankind] prefer the life of this world even though the hereafter is better and more lasting.﴾ (al-A'la 87: 16-17)

– and:

﴿...that which is with Allah is best for the righteous.﴾ (Āl 'Imrān 3: 198)

This offers encouragement to be uninterested in worldly matters, especially that lack of interest which one must develop; this means showing no interest in that which is harmful and distracts one from that which Allah has enjoined and giving it precedence over the rights of Allah. This kind of disinterest in worldly matters is obligatory.

What helps a person to lose interest in worldly matters is comparing in his mind the pleasures and desires of this world with the good things of the hereafter, for he will find such differences that he will be prompted to give precedence to that which is more sublime. The kind of disinterest in worldly matters that is regarded as praiseworthy does not mean devoting all one's time to acts of worship that are limited to rituals such as prayer, fasting, dhikr and so on; rather a person is not truly disinterested in worldly matters until he does whatever he is able to do of acts both visible and hidden that are enjoined in Islamic teaching and whatever he is able to do of calling people to Allah and to His religion in word and deed. True lack of interest in worldly matters is lack of interest in anything that does not bring benefit in religious or worldly terms, and desiring and striving for everything that is of benefit.

﴿And We will surely grant those who are patient﴾ in obeying Allah and in refraining from disobedience to Him, and who wean themselves from worldly desires that are detrimental to their religious commitment

﴿their reward according to the best of their deeds﴾. Each good deed brings a tenfold reward, up to seven hundredfold, and many times more than that, for Allah will not cause the reward of those who do good to be lost. Hence He mentions the reward of those who do good in this world and the hereafter, as He says:

﴿Whoever does righteous deeds, male or female, and is a believer﴾ therefore faith is a condition of the validity and acceptance of righteous deeds. In fact a deed cannot be called righteous unless it is done on the basis of faith, and the faith which inspires one to do good deeds is certain faith that leads to physical actions, both obligatory and recommended. Whoever combines faith and righteous deeds, ﴿We will surely grant him a good life﴾ by instilling reassurance and tranquillity in his heart, so that he will not pay attention to anything that could cause him any disturbance, and Allah will grant him provision that is lawful and good from where he does not expect.

﴿and We will surely grant them﴾ in the hereafter ﴿their reward according to the best of their deeds﴾, a reward of all types of pleasures such as no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it ever crossed the mind of man. So Allah will give him good in this world and good in the hereafter.

﴿ فَإِذَا قَرَأْتَ الْقُرْآنَ فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ ﴾ (٩٨) إِنَّهُ لَيْسَ لَهُ سُلْطَانٌ عَلَى
الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَلَى رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُونَ ﴿٩٩﴾ إِنَّمَا سُلْطَانُهُ عَلَى الَّذِينَ
يَتَوَلَّوْنَهُ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ بِهِ مُشْرِكُونَ ﴿١٠٠﴾ (سورة النحل: ٩٨-١٠٠)

- 16:98. When you recite the Qur'an, seek refuge with Allah from the accursed Shaytān.
- 16:99. Verily he has no power over those who believe and put their trust in their Lord,
- 16:100. He has power only over those who take him as an ally and, under his influence, ascribe partners to Allah.

That is, when you want to recite the Book of Allah, which is the noblest and most sublime of books, in which there is a prescription for spiritual well-being and a great deal of knowledge, then the Shaytān shows a great deal of interest (in harming a person) when he starts to do righteous deeds. and he tries to divert him from the purpose and goal for which he does those deeds. The way to keep oneself safe from his evil is to turn to Allah and seek refuge in Him from his evil. So the reciter should say: A'oodhu billāhi min ash-Shaytān ir-rajeem (I seek refuge with Allah from the accursed Shaytān), pondering the meaning thereof and relying in his heart upon Allah to divert the Shaytān from him, striving hard to resist his insinuating whispers and bad thoughts, and seeking the strongest means of warding him off, which is resorting to faith and depending on Allah.

For the Shaytān «has no power» or control «over those who believe and put their trust in their Lord» alone, with no partner or associate. Allah wards off from the believers who put their trust in Him the evil of the Shaytān, so he has no power or control over them.

Rather he «has power» and control «only over those who take him as an ally» that is, they take him as an ally by turning away from Allah and starting to obey the Shayṭān and joining his party. Therefore they are the ones who make him their ally, then he goads them into committing sin and leads them to the fire.

﴿وَإِذَا بَدَلْنَا آيَةً مَكَاتٍ آيَةً وَاللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يُزَيِّفُ قَالُوا إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مُفْتَرٍ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٠١﴾ قُلْ نَزَّلَهُ رُوحُ الْقُدُسِ مِنْ رَبِّكَ بِالْحَقِّ لِيُثَبِّتَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَهُدًى وَبُشْرَى لِلْمُسْلِمِينَ ﴿١٠٢﴾﴾ (سورة النحل:

(١٠٢-١٠١)

- 16:101. When We replace one verse with another<sup>16</sup> – and Allah knows best what He reveals – they say: You are just making it up! But most of them have no knowledge.
- 16:102. Say: The Pure Spirit has brought it [the Qur'an] down from your Lord in truth, to make firm those who believe, and as guidance and glad tidings for the Muslims.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that those who disbelieve in this Qur'an try to seek out what they think is an argument to support their claim that the Qur'an is fabricated, which is the idea that Allah (ﷻ) is the Most Wise Who issues rulings and replaces one ruling with another, by His wisdom and mercy. When they saw that, they criticised the Messenger (ﷺ) and what he brought, and said: ﴿You are just making it up!﴾ Allah (ﷻ) said: ﴿But most of them have no knowledge﴾, so they are ignorant and have no knowledge of their Lord or of His laws.

It is well known that criticism from an ignorant person that is not based on knowledge carries no weight, for criticism of a thing stems from knowledge of it and what it may contain that dictates praise or criticism.

<sup>16</sup> This refers to the abrogation of one verse of the Qur'an by another.

Hence Allah mentioned His wisdom in doing that, as He said: ﴿Say: The Pure Spirit﴾ namely Jibreel (جبرئيل), the angelic messenger who is to be declared above any fault, betrayal or ills ﴿has brought it [the Qur'an] down from your Lord in truth﴾ that is, he has brought it down in truth, and it contains truth in its stories, commands and prohibitions. So there is no way that anyone can criticise it on a sound basis, because once it is known that it is truth, it is known that all that contradicts it is false.

﴿to make firm those who believe﴾ when its verses came down in succession, time after time, and the truth continued to reach their hearts little by little, until their faith became firmer than solid mountains. Moreover, they know that it is true, and when Allah prescribes a ruling, then abrogates it, they know that He has replaced it with something like it or something that is better for them than it, and when He abrogates something, He abrogates it in accordance with divine wisdom and in accordance with reason.

﴿and as guidance and glad tidings for the Muslims﴾ that is, it guides them to the reality of things, distinguishing truth from falsehood, guidance from misguidance, and it gives them glad tidings of a goodly reward in which they will abide forever. The fact that it was revealed piecemeal is more effective in bringing guidance and glad tidings, and has a greater impact than if it were to be revealed all at once, because if it came all at once people would not be able to focus on all of it. Rather Allah would send down a ruling and glad tidings, then when they had understood it, reflected upon it, come to know its meaning and fully grasped it, He would reveal more like it, and so on.

Hence the Companions (رضي الله عنهم) reached the optimum level thereby, and their attitudes and manners changed; they attained manners, habits and deeds that surpassed the first and the last. Hence it is more appropriate and more expected that those who come after them should be shaped by the knowledge contained in it, adopt the manners promoted in it, seek its light in the depths of darkness that results from wrongdoing and ignorance, and make it their guide in all their affairs. Thus their affairs, both spiritual and worldly, will be put in order.

﴿وَلَقَدْ نَعْلَمُ أَنَّهُمْ يَقُولُونَ إِنَّمَا يُعَلِّمُهُ بَشَرٌ لِّسَانُ الَّذِي يُلْحِدُونَ إِلَيْهِ أَعْجَمِيٌّ وَهَذَا لِسَانٌ عَرَبِيٌّ مُبِينٌ ﴿١٠٣﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ لَا يَهْدِيهِمُ اللَّهُ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿١٠٤﴾ إِنَّمَا يَفْتَرِي الْكَذِبَ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْكَاذِبُونَ ﴿١٠٥﴾﴾ (سورة النحل: ١٠٣-١٠٥)

- 16:103. We know full well that they say: It is but a man who teaches him. But the one to whom they point speaks a foreign tongue, whereas this is eloquent Arabic speech.
- 16:104. As for those who do not believe in the signs of Allah, Allah will not guide them, and theirs will be a painful punishment.
- 16:105. It is those who do not believe in Allah's signs who fabricate falsehood; it is they who are the liars.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about what the polytheists who disbelieved in His Messenger (ﷺ) said:

«they say: It is but a man who teaches him» this Book that he has brought. The man they were referring to was one who spoke a foreign tongue, «whereas this» namely the Qur'an, «is eloquent Arabic speech». Could what they said possibly be true? But the liar tells lies and does not think about what his lies will lead to, so what he says is filled with such utter contradictions and flaws that one would reject it as soon as one thinks about it.

«As for those who do not believe in the signs of Allah» that clearly point to the manifest truth, they reject it and do not accept it «Allah will not guide them» when guidance comes to them, so they will reject it and they are punished by being deprived of it and by being forsaken by Allah

﴿and﴾ in the hereafter, ﴿theirs will be a painful punishment﴾.

﴿It is those who do not believe in Allah's signs﴾ such as those who harbour resentment against His Messenger (ﷺ) after clear proof has come to them

﴿who fabricate falsehood﴾ that is, fabrications and lies come from them

﴿it is they who are the liars﴾ that is, they are the real liars, and this description is more appropriate for them than for anyone else. As for Muhammad (ﷺ), who believes in the signs of Allah and humbles himself before his Lord, it is impossible for him to tell lies about Allah and attribute to Him words that He did not say. His enemies accused him of lying, but what they attributed to him is more fitting for them, so Allah exposed them and highlighted their shameful deeds; to Him be praise.

﴿مَنْ كَفَرَ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ إِيمَانِهِ إِلَّا مَنْ أُكْرِهَ وَقَلْبُهُ مُطْمَئِنٌّ بِالْإِيمَانِ وَلَكِنْ مَنْ شَرَحَ بِالْكُفْرِ صَدْرًا فَعَلَيْهِمْ غَضَبٌ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ﴾
 ﴿ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ اسْتَحَبُّوا الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا عَلَى الْآخِرَةِ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الْكَافِرِينَ﴾
 ﴿أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ طَبَعَ اللَّهُ عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ وَسَمِعَهُمْ وَأَبْصَرَهُمْ وَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْفَاسِقُونَ﴾
 ﴿لَا جَرَمَ أَنَّهُمْ فِي الْآخِرَةِ هُمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ﴾ (سورة النحل: ١٠٦-١٠٩)

16:106. Whoever disbelieves in Allah after having believed – except one who is compelled while his heart remains steadfast in faith – but for those who open their hearts to disbelief, upon them will be the wrath of Allah, and theirs will be a grievous punishment.

16:107. That is because they prefer the life of this world to the hereafter, and because Allah does not guide the disbelieving people.

- 16:108. These are the ones whose hearts, hearing and sight Allah has sealed up; it is they who are heedless.
- 16:109. Without a doubt, in the hereafter, it is they who will be the greatest losers.
-

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the abhorrent state of those who disbelieve in Allah after having believed, and thus become blind after having seen, and go back to misguidance after having been guided, opening their hearts to disbelief, happy and content with it: they incur great wrath from the Most Merciful Lord Whose wrath, once it is incurred, cannot be resisted and all creatures will be angry with those who incur it.

﴿and theirs will be a grievous punishment﴾ that is, it will be of the utmost severity, in addition to the fact that it will be eternal and everlasting.

﴿That is because they prefer the life of this world to the hereafter﴾ as they have turned their backs on the hereafter, seeking and pursuing trivial worldly gain, and showing no interest in the good of the hereafter. When they chose disbelief over faith, Allah deprived them of guidance, so He did not guide them, because disbelief had become an established part of their character. Therefore He placed a seal on their hearts so that no goodness would enter them, and He placed seals on their hearing and sight, so that nothing beneficial could reach their hearts thereby. Heedlessness enveloped them and they met with failure at every turn; they were deprived of the mercy of Allah which encompasses all things, and that is because it had come to them but they rejected it, and it was presented to them but they did not accept it.

﴿Without a doubt, in the hereafter, it is they who will be the greatest losers﴾ for they will be the ones who lose their own souls, their wealth and their families on the Day of Resurrection; they will miss out on eternal bliss and incur a painful punishment.

This does not apply to those who are forced and compelled to disbelieve when their hearts remain steadfast in faith and they want to believe, for there is no blame and no sin on them. In the case of one who is compelled and forced to do so, it is permissible for him to speak words of disbelief.

This indicates that the words of one who is compelled to issue a divorce, manumit a slave, enter into a transaction of sale or purchase and so on, does not count, and no shar'i rulings can be based on that, because if there is no punishment for uttering the word of disbelief in the case of compulsion, it is more appropriate to apply that ruling to other, less serious issues.

﴿ثُمَّ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ لِلَّذِينَ هَاجَرُوا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا قَاتَلُوا ثُمَّ جَاهَدُوا وَصَبَرُوا إِنَّ رَبَّكَ مِنْ بَعْدِهَا لَغَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١١٠﴾ يَوْمَ تَأْتِي كُلُّ نَفْسٍ تُجَادِلُ عَنْ نَفْسِهَا وَتُوَفَّى كُلُّ نَفْسٍ مَّا عَمِلَتْ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ ﴿١١١﴾﴾ (سورة

النحل: ١١٠-١١١)

- 16:110. But verily your Lord – to those who migrated after persecution, then strove [in jihad] in Allah's cause and patiently persevered – verily your Lord, after all that, will be Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful,
- 16:111. on the day when each soul will come, pleading for itself, and each soul will be paid in full for what it has earned, and no one will be wronged.

That is, verily your Lord Who cares for His sincere slaves by showing kindness to them and blessing them, is also Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful to those who migrated in His cause, leaving behind their homes and wealth, seeking the pleasure of Allah, and were persecuted to make them return to disbelief, but they persisted in their faith and maintained their certain belief, then strove against the enemies of Allah, striving to bring them into the religion of Allah, in word and deed, and they patiently persevered in these acts of worship which are difficult for most people.

These are the greatest means by which the highest reward and greatest gift may be attained, namely: Allah's forgiveness of sins, both minor and major, which also implies deliverance from every disliked thing; and His vast mercy, by means of which they will attain well-being, and their religious and worldly affairs will be put in order. They will have mercy from Allah on the Day of Resurrection, when ﴿each soul will come, pleading for itself﴾, each one saying: Myself myself – not caring for anyone else. On that day, each person will be desperate for the smallest atom of good.

﴿and each soul will be paid in full for what it has earned﴾, of good or evil

﴿and no one will be wronged﴾, so nothing will be added to their bad deeds and nothing will be detracted from their good deeds.

﴿This day, no soul will be wronged in the least, and you will not be requited for anything other than what you used to do.﴾ (Yâ Seen 36: 54)

﴿وَضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا قَرْيَةً كَانَتْ ءَامِنَةً مُطْمَئِنَّةً يَأْتِيهَا رِزْقُهَا رَغَدًا مِنْ كُلِّ مَكَانٍ فَكَفَرَتْ بِأَنْعُمِ اللَّهِ فَأَذَاقَهَا اللَّهُ لِبَاسَ الْجُوعِ وَالْخَوْفِ بِمَا كَانُوا يَصْنَعُونَ ﴿١١٢﴾ وَلَقَدْ جَاءَهُمْ رَسُولٌ مِنْهُمْ فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَأَخَذَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ وَهُمْ ظَالِمُونَ ﴿١١٣﴾﴾ (سورة النحل: ١١٢-١١٣)

16:112. Allah presents an example: that of a city which was safe and peaceful, with its provision coming to it in abundance from all directions. Yet it was ungrateful for the blessings of Allah, so

Allah caused it to taste extreme hunger and fear, because of what they used to do.

16:113. There came to them a Messenger from among themselves, but they rejected him, so the punishment overtook them in the midst of their evildoing.

This city is Makkah, which is safe and peaceful; and no one therein is to be disturbed. The people of the jāhiliyah venerated it to such an extent that one of them might find the murderer of his father and his brother there, but he would not disturb him despite the intense tribal feelings that existed among them and the Arab sense of pride. Thus it attained complete security in a way that was never achieved by any other city. It was also granted abundant provision. Although it was a land in which there were no cornfields and no trees, Allah sent to it provision that came to it from everywhere. Then a Messenger from among them came to them, whose honesty and sincerity they knew well, and he called them to the most perfect of attitudes and manners, and forbade to them all evil things. But they rejected him and were ungrateful for the blessing that Allah had bestowed upon them, so Allah caused them to taste the opposite of what they had been enjoying; He caused them to experience extreme hunger, which is the opposite of abundance, and fear which is the opposite of security. That was because of their actions and disbelief, and their lack of gratitude. ﴿It is not Allah Who wronged them, but it was they who wronged themselves.﴾ (16: 33)

﴿فَكُلُوا مِن مَّا رَزَقَكُمُ اللَّهُ حَلَالًا طَيِّبًا وَاشْكُرُوا نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ إِن كُنتُمْ إِنَّا هَٰؤُلَاءِ نَعْبُدُونَ ۝ إِنَّمَا حَرَّمَ عَلَيْكُمُ الْمَيْتَةَ وَالدَّمَ وَلَحْمَ الْخَيْزِرِ وَمَأْكِلَ الْهَيْدِ ۝ وَلَا تَقُولُوا ۝ فَمِنْ أَضْطَرَّ غَيْرِ بَآئِغٍ وَلَا عَادٍ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ ۝﴾ (116)

لِمَا تَصِفُ أَلْسِنَتُكُمُ الْكَذِبَ هَذَا حَلَلٌ وَهَذَا حَرَامٌ لِّتَفْتَرُوا عَلَى اللَّهِ الْكَذِبَ
 إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَفْتَرُونَ عَلَى اللَّهِ الْكَذِبَ لَا يُفْلِحُونَ ﴿١١٦﴾ مَتَّعٌ قَلِيلٌ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿١١٧﴾ وَعَلَى
 الَّذِينَ هَادُوا حَرَمًا مَّا فَصَّصْنَا عَلَيْكَ مِن قَبْلُ وَمَا ظَلَمْنَاهُمْ وَلَكِن كَانُوا أَنفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُونَ

﴿١١٨﴾ (سورة النحل: ١١٤-١١٨)

- 16:114. So eat of that which Allah has provided for you, lawful and good, and be grateful for the blessings of Allah, if it is Him you worship.
- 16:115. He has only forbidden you the meat of animals found dead, and blood, and the flesh of swine, and that on which any name has been invoked other than that of Allah. But if one is forced by necessity, without wilful disobedience, nor transgressing due limits, then verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
- 16:116. And do not utter falsehood by letting your tongues declare: This is lawful and this is prohibited, thus fabricating lies against Allah. Verily those who fabricate lies against Allah will never prosper.
- 16:117. It is only a brief enjoyment, and theirs will be a painful punishment.
- 16:118. To the Jews We prohibited that which We recounted to you before. We did not wrong them; rather they wronged themselves.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs His slaves to eat what He has provided them with of animals, grains, fruits and other things, «lawful and good» that is, so long as it has these two characteristics, so that it is not something that Allah has prohibited and it has not been obtained in any unlawful manner, and the like. So enjoy what Allah has created for you, without being extravagant and without transgressing due limits.

«and be grateful for the blessings of Allah» by acknowledging them in your hearts, praising Allah for them and using them to obey Allah

«if it is Him you worship» that is, if you are sincere to Him in worship. So do not give thanks except to Him and do not forget the Bestower of blessings.

«He has only forbidden you» things that are harmful, so as to protect you from harm. That includes things such as the following:

- «the meat of animals found dead», which includes everything that died without being slaughtered in the prescribed manner; exempted from that are locusts and fish.
- «and blood» – this refers to blood that has been poured forth (at the time of slaughter); as for that which remains in the veins and flesh, it does not matter.
- «and the flesh of swine» because it is filthy and impure. That includes the flesh, fat and all parts of the pig.
- «and that on which any name has been invoked other than that of Allah» such as that which is slaughtered for idols, graves and the like, because the intention behind it is the ascription of partners to Allah (shirk).

«But if one is forced by necessity» to eat one of the things that have been prohibited – because of urgent necessity and the fear of dying if one does not eat it – then there is no blame on the individual for that, so long as there is no wilful disobedience or transgression; in other words, so long as he does not want to eat that prohibited thing at a time when there is no need to do so, and he is not going beyond that which is lawful to seek that which is prohibited, and he does not transgress by eating more than is essential. Then these things are permissible, subject to the conditions mentioned above.

«And do not utter falsehood by letting your tongues declare: This is lawful and this is prohibited» that is, do not declare things to be prohibited or lawful of your own accord, fabricating lies against Allah and attributing to Him words that He never said.

«thus fabricating lies against Allah. Verily those who fabricate lies against Allah will never prosper» either in this world or the hereafter, for Allah will inevitably humiliate them; even if they have some enjoyment in this world «It is only a brief enjoyment», and their ultimate destiny will be the fire, «and theirs will be a painful punishment».

Allah (ﷻ) has only forbidden impure things to us by His grace, to protect us from everything that is repellent.

But in the case of the Jews, Allah prohibited to them good things that had previously been permitted to them, because of their wrongdoing and as a punishment to them, as in the story in Soorat al-An'âm, where He says:

«To the Jews We forbade every [animal] with undivided hoof, and We forbade to them the fat of cattle and sheep, except that which adheres to their backs or entrails, or is attached to their bones. Thus We requited them for their wilful disobedience; verily We state the truth.» (al-An'âm 6: 146)

ثُمَّ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ لِلَّذِينَ عَمِلُوا الشَّوْءَ بِجَهْلَةٍ ثُمَّ تَابُوا مِنْ بَعْدِ ذَلِكَ وَأَصْلَحُوا
إِنَّ رَبَّكَ مِنْ بَعْدِهَا لَغَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١١٩﴾ (سورة النحل: ١١٩)

16:119. Then verily your Lord, to those who do evil in ignorance then repent and mend their ways – verily your Lord, after that, is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

Here Allah encourages His slaves to repent and calls them to turn to Him. He tells us that if anyone does evil in ignorance, there are consequences that result from that. If he commits that sin deliberately, then whatever knowledge he has in his heart will inevitably decrease at the time when he is committing the sin, but if he repents and mends his ways, by giving up the sin, regretting it and doing righteous deeds, then Allah will forgive him and have mercy on him; He will accept his repentance and restore him to his previous condition, or make him even better.

﴿إِنَّ إِبْرَاهِيمَ كَانَ أُمَّةً قَانِتًا لِلَّهِ خَنِيفًا وَلَمْ يَكُ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ ﴿١٢٠﴾ شَاكِرًا
لِلنَّعِيمِ أَجَبَهُ وَهَدَاهُ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿١٢١﴾ وَءَاتَيْنَاهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَإِنَّهُ فِي
الْآخِرَةِ لَمِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿١٢٢﴾ ثُمَّ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ أَنْ اتَّبِعْ مِلَّةَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ خَنِيفًا وَمَا كَانَ
مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ ﴿١٢٣﴾﴾ (سورة النحل: ١٢٠-١٢٣)

- 16:120. Ibrâheem was indeed an exemplary leader, devoutly obedient to Allah, a monotheist, and he was not one of those who ascribed partners to Allah.
- 16:121. He was ever grateful for His blessings; Allah chose him and guided him to a straight path.
- 16:122. We gave him good in this world, and in the hereafter he will surely be among the righteous.
- 16:123. Then We revealed to you [O Muhammad]: Follow the religion of Ibrâheem, the monotheist, and he was not one of those who ascribe partners to Allah.

Here Allah tells us of the blessings that He bestowed upon His close friend Ibrâheem (ﷺ) and how He singled him out for sublime virtues and perfect characteristics.

﴿Ibrâheem was indeed an exemplary leader﴾ that is, a leader who attained all good characteristics; he was a guide and was himself guided

﴿devoutly obedient to Allah﴾ that is, he constantly obeyed his Lord and was sincerely devoted to Him

«a monotheist» who turned to Allah in love, repentance and true servitude, turning away from all others besides Him
 «and he was not one of those who ascribed partners to Allah» in word or deed, or in any circumstances, because he was the leader of the monotheists.

«He was ever grateful for His blessings» that is, Allah gave him good in this world and bestowed upon him blessings both visible and hidden, and he gave thanks for them.

The outcome of these sublime characteristics was that «Allah chose him» and singled him out to be His close friend, and made him one of the elite of His creation and one of His slaves who are close to Him.

«and guided him to a straight path» in terms of his knowledge and deeds, so he recognised the truth and gave it precedence over all other things.

«We gave him good in this world» namely abundant provision, a beautiful wife, righteous offspring and good characteristics
 «and in the hereafter he will surely be among the righteous» who will be of high status and very close to Allah (ﷻ).

One of the greatest of his virtues is that Allah revealed to the leader of humankind and the most perfect of them that he and his Ummah should follow the religion of Ibrâheem and take him as an example.

﴿ إِنَّمَا جُعِلَ السَّبْتُ عَلَى الَّذِينَ اخْتَلَفُوا فِيهِ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَيَحْكُمُ بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فِيمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴾ (سورة النحل: ١٢٤)

16:124. The Sabbath was only ordained for those who differed concerning it. Verily your Lord will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection concerning that wherein they differed.

«The Sabbath was only ordained» that is, made obligatory «for those who differed concerning it» when they went astray from Friday. This refers to the Jews, and their differing was the reason why it was made obligatory upon them to respect and venerate the Sabbath. Otherwise, the real virtue is in Friday, to which Allah guided this Ummah.

«Verily your Lord will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection concerning that wherein they differed» and He will make clear to them who was in the right and who was in the wrong, who deserves reward and who deserves punishment.

﴿ادْعُ إِلَى سَبِيلِ رَبِّكَ بِالْحُكْمِ وَالْمَوْعِظَةِ الْحَسَنَةِ وَجِدِلْهُمْ بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ ۚ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ ضَلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ ۚ وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْمُهْتَدِينَ﴾ (سورة النحل: ١٢٥)

(١٢٥)

16:125. Invite to the way of your Lord on the basis of wisdom and goodly exhortation, and reason with them in the most courteous manner. Verily your Lord knows best who has gone astray from His path, and He knows best who is rightly guided.

That is, let your call to all people, Muslims and disbelievers, inviting them to the straight path of your Lord, which includes beneficial knowledge and righteous deeds, be «on the basis of wisdom», addressing each according to his situation and ability to understand, and the level of his acceptance and submission.

Therefore the call to Islam should be based on knowledge, not ignorance, starting with the most important matters, then the next most important, issues that are clearer in the mind and easier to understand, and are more likely to be fully accepted, presenting the call with kindness and gentleness.

If the person called responds to that approach which is based on wisdom, all well and good; otherwise the caller may use goodly exhortation, which is enjoining what is right and forbidding what is wrong, accompanied by encouragement and warnings, pointing out and listing what interests one may attain by adhering to the commands, and what harms one may incur by indulging in that which is prohibited. It may also involve pointing out the honour of the one who adheres to the religion of Allah and the disgrace of the one who does not do so, or describing what Allah has prepared of reward in this world and the hereafter for those who are obedient to Him and what He has prepared of punishment in this world and the hereafter for those who are disobedient to Him. If the person to whom the call is addressed thinks that what he is following is truth or if he is a promoter of falsehood, then the caller to Islam should reason with him in the most courteous manner. These are the ways which are more likely to bring a response, according to both reason and the texts.

One way of doing that is to use evidence that he believes is sound, because this is more likely to achieve the goal and not lead to argument or trading of insults, which will defeat the purpose and is of no benefit. Rather the aim is to guide people to the truth, not to prove them wrong and the like.

﴿Verily your Lord knows best who has gone astray from His path﴾ for He knows the reason that led to misguidance, and He knows the deeds that result from misguidance and will requite him for them. ﴿and He knows best who is rightly guided﴾ for He knows that they are fit for guidance, so He guided them then He blessed them and chose them.

﴿وَإِنْ عَاقَبْتُمْ فَعَاقِبُوا بِمِثْلِ مَا عُوقِبْتُمْ بِهِ ۖ وَلَئِنْ صَبَرْتُمْ لَهُوَ خَيْرٌ
لِّلصَّابِرِينَ ۚ وَأَصْبِرْ وَمَا صَبْرُكَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ ۚ وَلَا تَحْزَنْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا تَكُ فِي

صَبِّحْ بِمَا يَمْكُرُونَ ﴿١٢٧﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ مُحْسِنُونَ ﴿١٢٨﴾
(سورة النحل: ١٢٦-١٢٨)

- 16:126. If you retaliate, let your retaliation be commensurate with the wrong that has been done to you. But if you endure patiently, it is indeed better for those who are patient in adversity.
- 16:127. And be patient and steadfast, for your patience can only be by the help of Allah; do not grieve over them, and do not be distressed because of their plots.
- 16:128. Verily Allah is with those who fear Him and those who do good.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says – allowing justice yet recommending generosity and kindness:

«If you retaliate» against one who mistreated you in word or deed «let your retaliation be commensurate with the wrong that has been done to you» without going beyond that and doing more than was done to you.

«But if you endure patiently» and refrain from retaliating, and you forgive their offence

«it is indeed better for those who are patient in adversity» than settling scores, for that which is with Allah is ultimately better for you and better in outcome, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«...but whoever forgives and reconciles, his reward is with Allah...»
(ash-Shoorā 42: 40)

Then Allah instructs His Messenger (ﷺ) to be patient in calling people to Allah, and to seek the help of Allah in doing that, and not to rely on himself.

«And be patient and steadfast, for your patience can only be by the help of Allah» for it is He Who helps you to do that makes you steadfast.

﴿do not grieve over them﴾ if you call them and you see that they do not accept your call, for such grief will not benefit you in the slightest. ﴿and do not be distressed﴾ that is, do not be upset and troubled ﴿because of their plots﴾ because their plot will backfire on them, whereas you are among those who fear Him and those who do good.

And Allah is with those who fear Him and do good, giving them His help, guidance and support, for they are the ones who keep away from disbelief and sin, and they do well in worshipping Allah, as they worship Him as if they can see Him, and if they do not see Him, He sees them; and they show kindness to people by striving to benefit them in all ways. We ask Allah to make us among those who fear Him and do good.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat an-Nahl.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

17.

Soorat al-Isrâ'
(Bani Isrâ'eel)

(Makki)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

سُبْحَنَ الَّذِي أَسْرَى بِعَبْدِهِ لَيْلًا مِنَ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ إِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ الْأَقْصَا
الَّذِي بَارَكْنَا حَوْلَهُ لِنُرِيَهُ مِنْ آيَاتِنَا إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ ﴿١﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ١)

17:1. Glory be to Him Who took His slave for a journey by night from the Sacred Mosque to the Distant Mosque, the environs of which We have blessed, so that We might show him some of Our signs. Verily He is All-Hearing, All-Seeing.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) declares Himself to be exalted and almighty, for all great actions belong to Him and all great favours come from Him, among which was the fact that He «took His slave» namely His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) «for a journey by night from the Sacred Mosque» which is the noblest of all mosques «to the Distant Mosque» which is one of the most virtuous of mosques, for it is the place of the Prophets.

He took him on this journey in a single night, covering a huge distance, and He brought him back the same night, and He showed him some of His signs which increased him in guidance, deep insight, steadfastness and understanding. This was due to Allah's care for him and kindness to him, as He guided him to that which was easy in all his affairs, and He bestowed upon him blessings because of which he surpassed the earlier and later generations.

The apparent meaning of the verse indicates that the Night Journey (Isrâ') occurred at the beginning of the night, and that the journey began from the Sacred Mosque itself, but it is proven in aş-Şaheeh that the Prophet (ﷺ) was taken on the night journey from the house of Umm Hâni' (raḍiya Allâhu 'anhâ – may Allah be pleased with her). Based on that, the virtue that belongs to the Sacred Mosque is applicable to the entire Ḥaram zone; the multiple reward for worship applies to acts of worship anywhere within the Ḥaram zone. This also indicates that the Night Journey involved both body and soul together, otherwise it would not have been a major sign and great virtue.

There are many proven hadiths from the Prophet (ﷺ) about the Night Journey which mention the details of what he saw and state that he was taken on a journey by night to Jerusalem (Bayt al-Maqdis), and then taken up from there to the heavens, until he reached what is above the highest heavens. He also saw paradise and hell, and the Prophets in their various stations in the heavens. Allah enjoined fifty prayers upon him, then he kept going back and asking his Lord to reduce it, based on the advice of Moosâ, the one to whom Allah had spoken directly, until they became five prayers in deed and fifty in reward. He and his Ummah attained great honour on that night, the extent of which no one knows except Allah (ﷻ).

Allah refers to the Prophet (ﷺ) here as a slave, because he attained all that he attained of honour by virtue of being a perfect slave of his Lord.

«the environs of which We have blessed» with a lot of trees and rivers, and land that is always fertile.

Another aspect of that blessing is that it is favoured above other mosques, except the Sacred Mosque and the mosque of Madinah; it is encouraged to travel to it for the purpose of worshipping and praying therein. Allah also chose this place as a place for His Prophet (ﷺ) and chosen ones to live.

﴿وَأَتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ وَجَعَلْنَاهُ هُدًى لِّبَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ أَلَّا تَتَّخِذُوا مِن دُونِي
وَكَيْلًا ۝ (٢) ذُرِّيَّةَ مَنْ حَمَلْنَا مَعَ نُوحٍ إِنَّهُ كَانَ عَبْدًا شَكُورًا ۝ (٣) وَقَضَيْنَا
إِلَىٰ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ فِي الْكِتَابِ لَتُفْسِدُنَّ فِي الْأَرْضِ مَرَّتَيْنِ وَلَتَعْلُنَّ عُلُوًّا كَبِيرًا
۝ (٤) فَإِذَا جَاءَ وَعْدُ أُولَاهُمَا بَعَثْنَا عَلَيْكُمْ عِبَادًا لَّنَا أُولِي بَأْسٍ شَدِيدٍ فَجَاسُوا خِلَالَ
الدِّيَارِ وَكَانَ وَعْدًا مَّفْعُولًا ۝ (٥) ثُمَّ رَدَدْنَا لَكُمُ الْكَرَّةَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَأَمْدَدْنَاكُمْ بِأَمْوَالٍ
وَبَنِيكٍ وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ أَكْثَرَ نَفِيرًا ۝ (٦) إِن أَحْسَنْتُمْ أَحْسَنْتُمْ لِأَنفُسِكُمْ وَإِن أَسَأْتُمْ
فَلَهَا ۝ فَإِذَا جَاءَ وَعْدُ الْآخِرَةِ لِيَسُئَرُوا وُجُوهَكُمْ وَلِيَدْخُلُوا الْمَسْجِدَ كَمَا
دَخَلُوهُ أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ وَلِيُتَبَرَّأُوا مَا عُلُوًّا نَّبِيرًا ۝ (٧) عَسَىٰ رَبُّكُمْ أَن يَرْحَمَكُمْ وَإِنْ عُدتُمْ
عُدْنَا وَجَعَلْنَا جَهَنَّمَ لِلْكَافِرِينَ حَصِيرًا ۝ (٨)﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٢-٨)

- 17:2. We gave Moosâ the Book, and made it a guide for the Children of Israel, [saying]: Do not take any other than Me as a disposer of affairs.
- 17:3. O descendants of those whom We carried with Nooh [in the ark], verily he was a grateful slave.
- 17:4. We declared to the Children of Israel in the Book: You will surely spread mischief in the land twice, and you will surely show great arrogance and tyranny.

- 17:5. When the first of the two came to pass, We sent against you slaves of Ours possessing great might and power, who wrought havoc throughout the land. And [this] decree was sure to be fulfilled.
- 17:6. Then We allowed you to prevail over them once again; We strengthened you with wealth and offspring, and made you greater in number.
- 17:7. If you do good, you do good for your own selves. If you do evil, you do it to your own detriment. So when the second of the two came to pass, [We sent your enemies against you] to humiliate and suppress you, and to enter the mosque [the temple in Jerusalem] as they did the first time, and to utterly destroy all that fell into their power.
- 17:8. It may be that your Lord will have mercy on you, but if you repeat [the mischief], We will repeat [the punishment]. And We have made hell a place of detention for the disbelievers.

---

Allah often mentions the prophethood of Muhammad (ﷺ) and the prophethood of Moosâ (ﷺ) together, and He mentions their Books and their laws together, because their Books are the best of all books, their laws are the most perfect of all laws, their prophethoods were the most sublime of prophethoods, and their followers comprise the majority of believers. Hence Allah says here:

﴿We gave Moosâ the Book﴾ namely the Torah
 ﴿and made it a guide for the Children of Israel﴾ by which they might be guided from the darkness of ignorance to knowledge of the truth
 ﴿[saying]: Do not take any other than Me as a disposer of affairs﴾ that is, We told them that and We revealed the Book to them for that purpose, so that they might worship Allah alone, turn to Him and take Him alone as a disposer of affairs and controller in all their religious and worldly concerns, and so that they would not be attached to any other than Him, such as created beings that have no power over anything and cannot benefit them in any way.

«O descendants of those whom We carried with Nooh [in the ark]» that is, O offspring of those whom We blessed and carried with Nooh, «verily he was a grateful slave» these are words of commendation for Nooh for having given thanks to Allah, as he is described in such terms; this also encourages his descendants to follow his example of gratitude and to remember the blessing that Allah bestowed upon them when He saved them and caused them to inherit the earth, and He caused others to drown.

«We declared to the Children of Israel in the Book» that they would spread mischief in the land twice by committing sins, being ungrateful for the blessings of Allah and acting in an arrogant and tyrannical manner. The first time that happened, Allah would give their enemies power over them and wreak vengeance upon them. This was a warning to them so that they might stop and pay heed.

«When the first of the two came to pass» that is, the first of the two occasions on which they would spread mischief. When that occurred, «We sent against you» as a punishment «slaves of Ours possessing great might and power» that is, they were courageous and strong in terms of numbers and weapons. Allah granted them victory over you, so they killed you, took your children captive, seized your wealth as plunder and wrought havoc throughout your land, breaking into your houses and entering and desecrating the temple in Jerusalem. «And [this] decree was sure to be fulfilled» that it would come to pass, because they were the cause of it.

The commentators differed concerning the identity of those who were sent against them, but they were unanimously agreed that they were a disbelieving people who came from Iraq or Mesopotamia or elsewhere. Allah sent them against the Children of Israel when they committed many sins, abandoned many of their laws and transgressed in the land.

﴿Then We allowed you to prevail over them once again﴾ that is, over those who had been sent against you, so you expelled them from your land.

﴿We strengthened you with wealth and offspring﴾ that is, We increased your provision and numbers, and We give you more strength against them.

﴿and made you greater in number﴾ than them. This was because of your good deeds and your submission to Allah.

﴿If you do good, you do good for your own selves﴾ because the benefit of that comes back to you, even in this world, as you have seen in your victory over your enemies.

﴿If you do evil, you do it to your own detriment﴾ that is, the harm comes back to you, as Allah showed you by giving your enemies the upper hand over you.

﴿So when the second of the two came to pass﴾ that is, the second time you spread corruption in the land, we sent your enemies against you once more.

﴿to humiliate and suppress you﴾ by defeating you and taking you captive, so that they could enter the temple again as they had done the first time. What is meant by the temple is Bayt al-Maqdis.

﴿and to utterly destroy﴾ that is, ruin and demolish
 ﴿all that fell into their power﴾ – so they destroyed your houses, your places of worship and your crops.

﴿It may be that your Lord will have mercy on you﴾ and give you the upper hand over them. And He did indeed have mercy on them and give them the upper hand, and He warned them against falling into sin: ﴿but if you repeat [the mischief]﴾ and spread mischief in the land again, ﴿We will repeat [the punishment]﴾. They did repeat their mischief, so Allah sent against them His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) and wrought vengeance upon them. This was the recompense in this world, and that which is with Allah of recompense (in the hereafter) is more terrifying and more fearsome. Hence He says: ﴿And We have made hell a place of detention for the disbelievers; they will burn therein and will remain there, and they will never emerge from it.

This passage contains a warning for this Ummah against committing sins, lest there befall them what befell the Children of Israel, for the way of Allah (in dealing with sinners) is the same and never changes or alters.

Anyone who examines how the disbelievers and wrongdoers have the upper hand over the Muslims will realise that this is because of the sin of the latter and is a punishment to them; if they adhere to the Book of Allah and the Sunnah of His Messenger (ﷺ), He will give them power in the land and grant them victory over their enemies.

﴿إِنَّ هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ يَهْدِي لِلَّتِي هِيَ أَقْوَمُ وَيُبَشِّرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ الَّذِينَ يَعْمَلُونَ الصَّالِحَاتِ أَنَّ لَهُمْ أَجْرًا كَبِيرًا﴾ (٩) وَأَنَّ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ أَعْتَدْنَا لَهُمْ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا ﴿١٠﴾

(سورة الإسراء: ٩-١٠)

17:9. Verily this Qur'an guides to that which is most just and right, and gives glad tidings to the believers who do righteous deeds that theirs will be a great reward,

17:10. And that for those who do not believe in the hereafter, We have prepared a painful punishment.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the noble status and grandeur of the Qur'an, and that it «guides to that which is most just and right» that is, that which is most upright and sublime of beliefs, deeds and attitudes. Whoever follows that which the Qur'an promotes will be the most perfect and upright of people, and the most guided in all his affairs.

«and gives glad tidings to the believers who do righteous deeds», both obligatory and supererogatory, «that theirs will be a great reward» which Allah has prepared for them in His paradise, the description of which no one knows except Him.

﴿And that for those who do not believe in the hereafter, We have prepared a painful punishment﴾. Thus the Qur'an includes both glad tidings and warnings. It tells us the means of attaining the glad tidings, namely faith and righteous deeds, and it tells us of that which will incur the warning, which is the opposite of that.

﴿وَيَدْعُ الْإِنْسَانُ بِالشَّرِّ دُعَاءَهُ بِالْخَيْرِ وَكَانَ الْإِنْسَانُ عَجُولًا﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ١١)

17:11. Man prays for evil just as he prays for good, for man is ever hasty.

This is because of man's ignorance and haste, for he prays against himself, his children and his wealth when he is angry, and he rushes to pray for that just as he rushes to pray for good. But Allah – by His grace – answers his prayers for good but He does not answer his prayers for evil.

﴿If Allah were to hasten the punishment for people as they would hasten their reward, then their fate would have been sealed...﴾ (Yoonus 10: 11)

﴿وَجَعَلْنَا اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ آيَتَيْنِ ۖ فَمَحَوْنَا آيَةَ اللَّيْلِ وَجَعَلْنَا آيَةَ النَّهَارِ مُبْصِرَةً ۚ لَتَبْتَغُوا فَضْلًا مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ وَلِتَعْلَمُوا عَددَ السِّنِينَ وَالْحِسَابِ ۚ وَكُلَّ شَيْءٍ فَضَّلْنَاهُ تَفْصِيلًا﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ١٢)

17:12. We have made the night and the day as two [of Our] signs. We obscured the sign of the night with darkness and gave light to the sign of the day, so that you might seek the bounty of your Lord and know the number of the years and the reckoning of time. And We have explained all things in detail.

«We have made the night and the day as two [of Our] signs» that is, two signs that point to the perfect nature of Allah's power and the vastness of His mercy, and that no one should be worshipped except Him.

«We obscured the sign of the night with darkness» that is, We have made it dark, for the purpose of stillness and rest

«and gave light to the sign of the day, so that you might seek the bounty of your Lord» by going about in pursuit of your livelihood, doing your crafts, engaging in trade and setting out on your journeys.

«and know» by the alternation of night and day, and the phases of the moon

«the number of the years and the reckoning of time», and on the basis of that you run your affairs.

«And We have explained all things in detail» that is, We have explained the signs so that all things may be clear, and truth may become distinct from falsehood, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«...We have neglected nothing in the Book...» (al-An'am 6: 38)

﴿وَكُلَّ إِنْسَانٍ أَلْزَمْنَاهُ طَائِرَهُ فِي عُنُقِهِ ۖ وَنُخْرِجُ لَهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ كِتَابًا يَلْقَاهُ مِنْشُورًا ۝﴾

﴿أَقْرَأْ كِتَابَكَ ۖ كَفَىٰ بِتَفْسِيكَ الْيَوْمَ عَلَيْكَ حَسِيبًا ۝﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ١٣-١٤)

17:13. Every man's deeds We have fastened to his neck, and on the Day of Resurrection We will bring forth for him a record [of his deeds] which he will find spread wide open.

17:14. [It will be said to him:] Read your own record; sufficient is your own soul as a reckoner against you this day.

Here Allah tells us of the perfect nature of His justice, for each person's deeds are fastened to his neck. In other words, everything that he does, good or evil, Allah will cause it to adhere to him and not go to anyone else, so that he will not be brought to account for the deeds of anyone else, and no one else will be brought to account for his deeds.

﴿and on the Day of Resurrection We will bring forth for him a record [of his deeds] which he will find spread wide open﴾, and in it will be everything that he did, good or evil, small or great: it will be said to him: ﴿Read your own record; sufficient is your own soul as a reckoner against you this day﴾. This is the ultimate justice and fairness, that it will be said to the individual: Take account of your own self, so that he will acknowledge his wrongdoing that brought the punishment upon him.

﴿مَنْ اهْتَدَىٰ فَإِنَّمَا يَهْتَدِي لِنَفْسِهِ ۖ وَمَنْ ضَلَّٰ فَإِنَّمَا يَضِلُّ عَلَيْهَا ۚ وَلَا نَزِرُ وازِرَةً وَّرَرٌ ۚ
 أُخْرَىٰ ۚ وَمَا كُنَّا مُعَذِّبِينَ حَتَّىٰ نَبْعَثَ رَسُولًا ۚ﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ١٥)

17:15. Whoever is guided, is only guided for [the good of] his own soul; whoever goes astray, only goes astray to his own detriment, and no bearer of burdens can bear the burden of another. Nor do We punish until We have sent a Messenger [to give warning].

The guidance or misguidance of each individual only affects him, and no one can bear the burden of another person's sins or ward off from him even an atom's weight of harm. Allah (ﷻ) is the most just of those who show justice; He does not punish anyone until proof has been established against him by sending the message, then he stubbornly rejects it.

As for the one who submits and follows the proof, or no proof reached him from Allah (ﷻ), Allah will not punish him.

This verse is quoted as evidence to prove that those who lived in the periods between Prophets, and the children of the polytheists (who die in infancy) will not be punished by Allah until He sends a Messenger to them, for He is far above injustice.

﴿وَإِذَا أَرَدْنَا أَنْ نُهْلِكَ قَرْيَةً أَمَرْنَا مُتْرَفِيهَا فَفَسَقُوا فِيهَا فَحَقَّ عَلَيْهَا الْقَوْلُ فَدَمَرْنَاهَا تَدْمِيرًا ۖ وَكَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا مِنَ الْقُرُونِ مِنْ بَعْدِ نُوحٍ ۖ وَكَفَىٰ لِرَبِّكَ بِذُنُوبِ عِبَادِهِ خَبِيرًا بَصِيرًا﴾
(سورة الإسراء: ١٦-١٧)

17:16. When it is Our will to destroy a city, We command its affluent people [to fear Allah], but they transgress. Thus the punishment becomes inevitable, then We destroy it completely.

17:17. How many nations We have destroyed since the time of Nooh! Your Lord is sufficiently aware of the sins of His slaves and sees them all.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that when He wants to destroy any wrongdoing city and eradicate it with His punishment, He commands its affluent people to fear Him, but they transgress, and their transgression reaches such a grave extent that «the punishment becomes inevitable» that is, the decree of punishment cannot be put back «then We destroy it completely».

There were many nations whom Allah destroyed with the punishment after the people of Nooh, such as 'Ād, Thamood, the people of Loot, and others. Allah punished them when their transgression became too much and their disbelief became extreme; at that point, Allah sent upon them His mighty punishment.

«Your Lord is sufficiently aware of the sins of His slaves and sees them all», so they have no reason to fear injustice, but the punishment will be commensurate with their deeds.

﴿مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ الْعَاجِلَةَ عَجَلْنَا لَهُ فِيهَا مَا نَشَاءُ لِمَنْ نُرِيدُ ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَا لَهُ جَهَنَّمَ يَصْلَاهَا مَذْمُومًا مَدْحُورًا ﴿١٨﴾ وَمَنْ أَرَادَ الْآخِرَةَ وَسَعَىٰ لَهَا سَعْيَهَا وَهُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ فَأُولَٰئِكَ كَانَ سَعْيُهُمْ مَشْكُورًا ﴿١٩﴾ كُلًّا نُمِدُّ هَٰؤُلَاءِ وَهَٰؤُلَاءِ مِنْ عَطَاءِ رَبِّكَ وَمَا كَانَ عَطَاءُ رَبِّكَ مَحْظُورًا ﴿٢٠﴾ أَنْظِرْ كَيْفَ فَضَّلْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ عَلَىٰ بَعْضٍ وَلِلْآخِرَةِ أَكْبَرُ دَرَجَاتٍ وَأَكْبَرُ تَفْضِيلًا ﴿٢١﴾﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ١٨-٢١)

- 17:18. Whoever seeks [the pleasures of] this fleeting life, We hasten therein whatever We will for whomever We please. Then We decree for him hell, which he will enter, disgraced and rejected.
- 17:19. But whoever seeks the hereafter and strives for it as it should be striven for, and is a [true] believer – such are the ones whose effort will be appreciated.
- 17:20. On all – both the latter and the former – We bestow of the bounty of your Lord. Verily the bounty of your Lord is not denied [to anyone].
- 17:21. See how We have bestowed more on some than on others [in this world], but verily the hereafter will have higher ranks and greater degrees of excellence for some over others.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that «Whoever seeks [the pleasures of] this fleeting life» in this world, which will diminish and come to an end, so he works and strives for that, and forgets how he started and how he will end, Allah will hasten for him whatever He wills of its worthless accumulation and pleasures that He has decreed for him in al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfooḏh, but it is pleasure that is of no benefit and will not last.

Then He will decree for him in the hereafter ﴿hell, which he will enter﴾, and be punished therein ﴿disgraced and rejected﴾ that is, in a state of disgrace, shame and condemnation from Allah and from His creation, far removed from the mercy of Allah. Thus punishment and disgrace will be combined for him.

﴿But whoever seeks the hereafter﴾ and is content with it, and gives it precedence over this world ﴿and strives for it as it should be striven for﴾, as taught in the divinely-revealed Books and the prophetic traditions, and acts in accordance with that to the best of his ability, ﴿and is a [true] believer﴾ in Allah, His angels, His Books, His Messengers and the Last Day ﴿such are the ones whose effort will be appreciated﴾ that is, it will be accepted, multiplied and stored up, and they will have their reward with their Lord. In addition to that, they will not miss out on their share of this world, for Allah will bestow worldly bounty on both believers and disbelievers, because He is generous and kind, ﴿Verily the bounty of your Lord is not denied [to anyone]﴾ that is, it is not withheld from anyone; rather all people enjoy His bounty and kindness.

﴿See how We have bestowed more on some than on others [in this world]﴾, because abundance or restriction of provision, ease and hardship, knowledge and ignorance, wisdom and foolishness, and so on, are things in which Allah has blessed some people more than others.

﴿but verily the hereafter will have higher ranks and greater degrees of excellence for some over others﴾. So there is no comparison at all between the delights and pleasures of this world and those of the hereafter. How great is the difference between the one who is in a lofty dwelling in paradise, enjoying all sorts of pleasures, happiness, bliss and joy, and the one who is suffering in hell, being subjected to a painful punishment, having incurred the wrath of the Most Merciful Lord. In each of these two abodes, the differences between people cannot be enumerated.

﴿لَا يَجْعَلْ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ فَتَقَعُدَ مَذْمُومًا مَّحْذُومًا﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٢٢)

17:22. Do not associate with Allah any other god, lest you find yourself disgraced and forsaken.

That is, do not believe that any created being is deserving of any kind of worship or that any of them can be associated with Allah, for that is blameworthy and leads to failure. Allah, His angels and His Messengers have forbidden the ascription of partners to Allah and have condemned in the strongest terms anyone who does that, describing this action in the worst terms, by using such words that one may conclude from them that the one who does this is the worst in characteristics and the most abhorrent in description.

Such a person is a failure in terms of both worldly and religious affairs, to the extent of his detachment from his Lord. Whoever puts his hopes in anything but Allah is a failure and will be left to the one in whom he put his trust, for no one of Allah's creation can benefit anyone except by Allah's leave. Just as the one who believes that there is any other god besides Allah is deserving of blame and is a failure, the one who affirms His oneness and devotes his worship to Allah alone, putting his hopes in Him and no other, is deserving of commendation and will receive help from Allah in all his affairs.

﴿وَقَضَىٰ رَبُّكَ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا إِيَّاهُ وَبِالْوَالِدَيْنِ إِحْسَانًا إِمَّا يَبْلُغَنَّ عِندَكَ
الْكِبَرَ أَحَدُهُمَا أَوْ كِلَاهُمَا فَلَا تَقُلْ لَهُمَا أَمْرًا وَلَا نَهْرَهُمَا وَقُلْ لَهُمَا قَوْلًا
كَرِيمًا﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٢٣-٢٤)

- 17:23. Your Lord has ordained that you should worship none but Him and show kindness to parents. If one or both of them reach old age in your care, do not say to them even the mildest word of annoyance or reproach them; rather speak to them with respect.
- 17:24. And lower to them the wing of humility out of compassion, and say: My Lord, have mercy on them, as they cared for me when I was small.

Having forbidden the ascription of partners to Him, Allah (ﷻ) enjoins affirmation of His oneness.

﴿Your Lord has ordained﴾ as a religious instruction
 ﴿that you should worship none﴾ of the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth, living or dead
 ﴿but Him﴾, for He is the One, the Eternal, Whom all creatures need, Who possesses all attributes of perfection and the greatest manifestation of those attributes, in such a manner that none of those whom He created resembles Him. He is the Bestower of blessings, both visible and hidden, Who wards off all calamities; the Creator, the Provider, the controller of all matters. He is the only One Who does all of that, and no other has any share of that.

After mentioning His rights, Allah speaks of fulfilling the rights of parents:

﴿and show kindness to parents﴾ that is, be kind to them in all ways, in word and deed, because they are the reason for one's existence, and they have so much love for their child, show him kindness and are close to him, which confirms the rights of the parent over the child and the obligation of the child to show kindness to them.

«If one or both of them reach old age in your care» that is, if they reach this age, at which they become physically weak and need kind and gentle treatment, as is well known,

«do not say to them even the mildest word of annoyance» – this is the least offence, but it is a warning against saying anything that could be more offensive than that. What is meant is: do not offend them in the slightest manner.

«or reproach them» that is, rebuke them or speak harshly to them.

«rather speak to them with respect» in ways that they like, politely and gently, with soft words that will bring joy to their hearts and reassure them. That varies from one situation and time to another, according to people's traditions.

«And lower to them the wing of humility out of compassion» that is, be humble towards them, out of compassion and seeking reward from Allah, not because you fear them or hope to get what they have, and other reasons that may deprive one of reward (from Allah).

«and say: My Lord, have mercy on them» that is, pray for mercy for them in life and in death, as recompense for their having taken care of you when you were small. From this it is understood that the longer they take care of you, the more rights they have over you. Similarly, if someone other than the parents takes care of a person with regard to his religious and worldly interests, and shows him the right path in a sound manner, that person is indebted to the one who took care of him.

﴿رَبُّكُمْ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا فِي نُفُوسِكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ تَكُونُوا صَالِحِينَ فَإِنَّهُ كَانَ لِلْأَوَّابِ غَفُورًا﴾

﴿سورة الإسراء: ٢٥﴾

17:25. Your Lord knows best what is in your hearts. If you are righteous, then verily He is Oft-Forgiving to those who constantly turn to Him [in repentance].

That is, your Lord (ﷻ) sees what is hidden in your hearts of good and evil, and He does not look at your deeds or your physical appearance; rather He looks at your hearts and what is in them of good and evil.

«If you are righteous» in the sense that your intentions and aims are focused on pleasing Allah, and you are keen to draw close to Him, and there are no aspirations in your heart that are contrary to the will of Allah,

«then verily He is Oft-Forgiving to those who constantly turn to Him» that is, those who turn back to Him at all times. So if Allah sees into a person's heart and knows that there is nothing in it except devotion to Him and love for Him and for that which will bring him closer to Him, then – even if that person sometimes behaves in accordance with human inclinations – Allah will pardon him and forgive him for the occasional slip that is out of character.

﴿وَمَا تَذَا الْقُرْبَىٰ حَقَّهُ وَالْمَسْكِينِ وَابْنَ السَّبِيلِ وَلَا تُبَذِّرْ تَبْذِيرًا ۚ إِنَّ الْمُبَذِّرِينَ كَانُوا إِخْوَانَ الشَّيْطَانِ ۖ وَكَانَ الشَّيْطَانُ لِرَبِّهِ كَفُورًا ۚ﴾ (٢٥) ﴿وَأَمَّا تَعْرِضْنَنَّهُنَّ مَتَّعَيْنَةً رَّحِمًا مِّن رَّبِّكَ رَجُومًا فَعَلَّ لَهُمْ قَوْلًا مِّن سُورَةٍ ۚ﴾ (٢٦) ﴿وَلَا تَجْعَلْ يَدَكَ مَغْلُولَةً إِلَىٰ عُنُقِكَ وَلَا تَبْسُطْهَا كُلَّ الْبَسْطِ فَتَقْعُدَ مَلُومًا مَّحْسُورًا ۚ﴾ (٢٧) ﴿إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَن يَشَاءُ وَيَقْدِرُ ۚ إِنَّهُ كَانَ بِعِبَادِهِ خَبِيرًا بَصِيرًا ۚ﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٢٦-٣٠)

17:26. Give kinsfolk their due, and those in need, and wayfarers; but do not squander your wealth wastefully.

- 17:27. For squanderers are the brothers of the devils. And the Shayṭān [the Devil] is ever ungrateful to his Lord.
- 17:28. If you [O Muhammad] must turn away from them whilst seeking mercy from your Lord for which you hope,<sup>17</sup> then say to them words of comfort.
- 17:29. Do not keep your hand tied to your neck [like a miser], or stretch it forth to its utmost extent [like a squanderer], lest you become blameworthy and destitute.
- 17:30. Verily your Lord gives abundantly to whomever He will and sparingly [to whomever He will]. Verily He is well aware of His slaves and sees them all.

---

«Give kinsfolk their due» of kindness and honour, both that which is obligatory and that which is sunnah. These rights vary according to the situation, the degree of relationship and the extent of need at different times.

«and those in need» – give them their due of zakâh and other forms of charity in order to meet their needs

«and wayfarers» this refers to the stranger who is cut off from his homeland. They should all be given from one's wealth, in such a way that does not harm the giver and is not more than is appropriate, because that would come under the heading of squandering, which Allah has prohibited.

«For squanderers are the brothers of the devils» because the Shayṭān only calls people to that which is blameworthy, so he calls people to be miserly and stingy, then if they disobey him, he calls them to be extravagant and to squander their wealth, whereas Allah (ﷻ) only enjoins moderation in all things and praises people for that, as He says, describing the righteous slaves of the Most Gracious:

---

<sup>17</sup> This refers to a situation in which he had no resources with which to help them, and was himself hoping for mercy, that is, provision, from his Lord. (aṭ-Ṭabari)

﴿And who, when they spend, are neither extravagant nor stingy, but follow a middle path between the [two]﴾ (al-Furqân 25: 67)

﴿Do not keep your hand tied to your neck [like a miser]﴾ this is a metaphor for extreme stinginess and miserliness

﴿or stretch it forth to its utmost extent [like a squanderer]﴾, spending it on that which is not necessary or more than is appropriate.

﴿lest you become﴾, if you do that,

﴿blameworthy﴾ that is, subject to blame for what you did

﴿and destitute﴾ that is, empty-handed, with no wealth left and not deserving any praise.

The command to give kinsfolk their due is addressed to the one who has the means and can afford it. As for the one who does not have the means or cannot afford it, Allah (ﷻ) instructs him to apologise by saying kind words:

﴿If you [O Muhammad] must turn away from them whilst seeking mercy from your Lord for which you hope﴾ that is, if you must turn away from giving to them until some other time, hoping that Allah will make things easier,

﴿then say to them words of comfort﴾ that is, kind and gentle words, with a promise to give them something as soon as you can afford it, and apologise for not being able to give them something at present, so that they may go back reassured and comforted, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Kind words and forgiveness are better than charity followed by hurtful words...﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 263)

By His kindness towards His slaves, Allah (ﷻ) instructs them to expect mercy and provision from Him. By the same token, promising to give charity and be generous when one can afford it is in itself an act of worship, because thinking of doing a good deed is in itself a good deed. Hence the individual should do whatever he is able to do of good, and he should have the intention to do whatever he is not able to do, so that he will be rewarded for that and in the hope that Allah may make it easy to do it, because of his hope.

Then Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He grants abundant provision to whomever He will among His slaves, and He grants it sparingly to whomever He will, in accordance with His wisdom.

﴿Verily He is well aware of His slaves and sees them all﴾ and He gives them according to what He knows is good for them, and He deals with them on the basis of kindness and generosity.

﴿وَلَا تَقْتُلُوا أَوْلَادَكُمْ خَشْيَةَ إِمْلَاقٍ نَحْنُ نَرْزُقُهُمْ وَإِيَّاكُمْ إِنَّ قَتْلَهُمْ كَانَ خِطْئًا كَبِيرًا﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٣١)

17:31. Do not kill your children for fear of poverty, for We will provide for them and for you. Verily killing them is a grave sin.

This is by His mercy towards His slaves, for He is more merciful towards them than their own parents. Therefore He forbids parents to kill their children for fear of poverty and want, and He guarantees to provide for all. He informs us that killing them is a grave major sin; in fact it is one of the worst of major sins, because of the loss of mercy from the heart, grave disobedience and transgression by killing children who never did anything wrong.

﴿وَلَا تَقْرَبُوا الزِّنَىٰ إِنَّهُ كَانَ فَحِشَةً وَسَاءَ سَبِيلًا﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٣٢)

17:32. Do not approach fornication [or adultery], for it is shameful, an abominable way indeed.

The prohibition on approaching the matter is more eloquent than the prohibition on simply doing it, because this includes the prohibition of all precursors that lead to it, for:

«...whoever lets his flocks graze around the protected area will soon find his flocks transgressing upon it.» (Bukhari and Muslim)

That is especially applicable with regard to this matter, as many people have the strongest inclination towards it.

Allah describes fornication (or adultery), because of its abhorrent nature, as «shameful» that is, a sin which is regarded as shameful and evil according to Islamic teachings, reason and human nature, because it involves transgression of the sacred limits set by Allah, and it is also a transgression against the woman and against her family or husband, it causes trouble in marriages, mixes lineages, and leads to other negative consequences.

«an abominable way indeed» that is, an evil way, the way of one who has the audacity to commit that grave sin.

﴿وَلَا تَقْتُلُوا النَّفْسَ الَّتِي حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَمَنْ قُتِلَ مَظْلُومًا فَقَدْ جَعَلْنَا لَوْلِيهِ سُلْطَانًا فَلَا يَسْرِفُ فِي الْقَتْلِ إِنَّهُ كَانَ مَنْصُورًا﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٣٣)

- 17:33. Do not kill, for that is forbidden by Allah, except in the course of justice. If anyone is killed wrongfully, We have given his heir authority [to seek legal retribution or compensation, or to forgive], but he should not exceed the bounds in the matter of killing, for he is already supported [by Islamic law].

This applies to every soul the killing of which is «forbidden by Allah», whether it is young or old, male or female, free or slave, Muslim or a non-Muslim who has a covenant with the Muslims.

«except in the course of justice» such as a life for a life; execution of a previously-married adulterer or an (apostate) who leaves his religion and splits from the main body of the Muslims; or cases of self-defence where the attacker cannot be warded off except by killing him.

«If anyone is killed wrongfully» that is, unlawfully
 «We have given his heir», who is the closest to him of his male relatives on his father's side and his heirs «authority» to seek legal retribution (qisās) from the killer. That is when the conditions for this retribution are met, namely that the killing was deliberate and the killer was the aggressor (who initiated the fight), and both are of equal standing.

«but he» that is, the heir
 «should not exceed the bounds in the matter of killing, for he is already supported [by Islamic law]». Exceeding the bounds means overstepping the mark, either by mutilating the killer, or killing him in a manner different from that in which he killed the victim, or killing someone other than the killer.

This verse indicates that the right to legal retribution belongs to the heir, so no retribution can be exacted except with his permission, and if he forgives the killer, retribution is waived. It also indicates that Allah will help the heir of the victim against the killer and anyone who helped the killer, until he is able to settle the score.

﴿وَلَا تَقْرَبُوا مَالَ الْيَتِيمِ إِلَّا بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ حَتَّىٰ يَبْلُغَ أَشُدَّهُ. وَأَوْفُوا بِالْعَهْدِ إِنَّ الْعَهْدَ كَانَ مَسْئُولًا﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٣٤)

17:34. Do not touch the orphan's property, before he comes of age, except to improve it; and fulfil [all] covenants, for [every] covenant will be asked about.

This highlights Allah's kindness and mercy towards the orphan who has lost his father when he is still small and is not aware of what is in his own best interests, nor is he in a position to achieve that. Allah instructs the orphan's guardians to take care of him and his wealth, and to handle it in a manner that best serves his interests. The guardians are not to touch it «except to improve it» by doing business with it, not exposing it to danger, and working to make it grow. That should continue until the orphan «comes of age», that is, until he reaches puberty and becomes mature. When he comes of age, guardianship over him ends; he becomes in charge of his own affairs and his wealth is to be given to him, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«...Then, if you find that they have sound judgement, hand over their property to them...» (an-Nisā' 4: 6)

«and fulfil [all] covenants» that you make, whether the covenant is with Allah or with other people

«for [every] covenant will be asked about» that is, you will be asked whether you fulfilled it or not; if you fulfilled it, then you will have a great reward, but if you did not, then you will carry a great burden of sin.

﴿وَأَوْفُوا الْكَيْلَ إِذَا كَلَّمْتُمْ بِالْقَيْسِطِ الْمُسْتَقِيمِ ذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ وَأَحْسَنُ تَأْوِيلًا﴾

(سورة الإسراء: ٣٥)

17:35. Give full measure when you measure, and weigh with accurate scales; that is better and more seemly in the end.

This is an instruction to be fair and to give full weight and measure, without overcharging or giving short measure. From the general meaning of the verse it is understood that all kinds of cheating are prohibited, whether that has to do with price, quality or the terms of any deal entered into, and it is enjoined to be sincere and honest in all dealings.

﴿that is better﴾ than not doing so
 ﴿and more seemly in the end﴾ that is, it leads to better consequences, for by following this advice, one will be safe from any bad consequences and will attain blessing (barakah).

﴿وَلَا تَقْفُ مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ إِنَّ السَّمْعَ وَالْبَصَرَ وَالْفُؤَادَ كُلُّ أُولَٰئِكَ كَانَ عَنْهُ مَسْئُولًا﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٣٦)

17:36. Do not pursue [beliefs, rumours, slander and the like] of which you have no certain knowledge, for verily, the hearing, the sight, and the heart, all of these will be asked about.

That is, do not pursue that of which you have no knowledge; rather you should make sure that everything you say or do is verified or proven. So do not think that you can get away with it, for it will be recorded either for you or against you.

﴿for verily, the hearing, the sight, and the heart, all of these will be asked about﴾. So the individual – who knows that he is responsible for all that he says and does, and for the way in which he uses his faculties which Allah has created so that he might worship Him – must prepare his answers to that questioning, and that can only be done by using all his faculties in servitude to Allah, doing acts of devotion to Him alone and refraining from that which Allah (ﷻ) hates.

﴿وَلَا تَمْشِ فِي الْأَرْضِ مَرَحًا إِنَّكَ لَنْ تَخْرِقَ الْأَرْضَ وَلَنْ تَبْلُغَ الْجِبَالَ طُولًا﴾ (٣٧) كُلُّ
 ذَٰلِكَ كَانَ سَيِّئُهُ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ مَكْرُوهًا ﴿٣٨﴾ ذَٰلِكَ مِمَّا أَوْحَىٰ إِلَيْكَ رَبُّكَ مِنَ الْحِكْمَةِ وَلَا
 تَجْعَلْ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ فَتُلْقَىٰ فِي جَهَنَّمَ مَلُومًا مَّدْحُورًا ﴿٣٩﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٣٧-٣٩)

17:37. Do not walk on the earth with insolence, for you cannot cleave the earth, nor can you rival the mountains in height.

17:38. The evil of all that is hateful to your Lord.

17:39. This is part of the wisdom that your Lord has revealed to you [O Muhammad]. Do not associate with Allah any other god, lest you be thrown into hell, blameworthy and outcast.

﴿Do not walk on the earth with insolence﴾ that is, with arrogance, too proud to accept the truth and looking down on others, for if you do that ﴿you cannot cleave the earth, nor can you rival the mountains in height﴾ in your arrogance; rather you will be insignificant before Allah and despised by people, hated and resented for having acquired the worst and most reprehensible of characteristics without being able to attain even some of what you are pursuing.

﴿The evil of all that﴾ namely the things that Allah has prohibited, that are mentioned above (17: 22), where Allah says ﴿Do not associate with Allah any other god﴾, and the prohibition on disobedience to parents, and so on,

﴿is hateful to your Lord﴾ that is, all of that will harm those who do it and Allah (ﷻ) hates it and disapproves of it.

﴿This﴾ that We have explained of these important rulings ﴿is part of the wisdom that your Lord has revealed to you [O Muhammad]﴾. Wisdom is enjoining good deeds and noble characteristics, and forbidding evil characteristics and bad deeds.

The good deeds mentioned in these verses are part of the sublime wisdom that the Lord of the worlds revealed to the leader of the Messengers in the noblest of Books, so as to enjoin them upon the best of nations. So they are part of that wisdom which, if anyone is granted it, then he has been granted a great deal of good.

This passage ends with the prohibition on worshipping anything other than Allah, as it began: «Do not associate with Allah any other god, lest you be thrown into hell» that is, to abide therein forever, for whoever ascribes any partner to Allah, Allah will forbid paradise to him, and his abode will be hell.

«blameworthy and outcast» that is, lest you be subject to blame, curses and criticism from Allah, His angels and all the people.

﴿ أَفَأَصْفَكَ رَبُّكُمْ بِالْبَنِينَ وَاتَّخَذَ مِنَ الْمَلَائِكَةِ إِنْتًا ۚ إِنَّكُمْ لَقَوْلٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴾

(سورة الإسراء: ٤٠)

17:40. Has your Lord favoured you with sons and taken for Himself daughters from among the angels? Verily, you are uttering a dreadful word!

This is a stern denunciation of those who claimed that Allah had taken from among His creation daughters.

«Has your Lord favoured you with sons» that is, Has He chosen for you that which is best and perfect, and taken for Himself from among the angels females – as they claimed that the angels were the daughters of Allah.

«Verily, you are uttering a dreadful word!» which implies the worst insolence towards Allah, as you attribute offspring to Him, which would imply need on His part, and would imply that some of His creation have no need of Him. Moreover, you attributed the inferior of the two to Him, namely the females, when He is the One Who created you, and you say that He chose the males for you. Exalted be Allah far above what the wrongdoers say.

﴿وَلَقَدْ صَرَّفْنَا فِي هَٰذَا الْقُرْآنِ لِيَذَّكَّرُوا وَمَا يَزِيدُهُمْ إِلَّا نُفُورًا﴾ (١١) قُلْ لَّوْ كَانَ مَعَهُ آلِهَةٌ كَمَا يَقُولُونَ إِذَا لَا يَنْبَغُوا إِلَىٰ ذِي الْعَرْشِ سَبِيلًا ﴿١٢﴾ سُبْحَنَهُ وَتَعَالَىٰ عَمَّا يَقُولُونَ عُلُوًّا كَبِيرًا ﴿١٣﴾ تَسْبِيحٌ لَهُ السَّمَوَاتُ السَّبْعُ وَالْأَرْضُ وَمَنْ فِيهِنَّ وَإِنْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِلَّا يُسَبِّحُ بِحَمْدِهِ وَلَكِنْ لَا تَفْقَهُونَ تَسْبِيحَهُمْ إِنَّهُ كَانَ حَلِيمًا غَفُورًا ﴿١٤﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٤١-٤٤)

- 17:41. We have explained [the truth] in this Qur'an in various ways, so that they may pay heed, but it only increases them in aversion.
- 17:42. Say [O Muhammad]: If there were [other] gods with Him, as they say, they would surely have sought a way to the Lord of the Throne.<sup>18</sup>
- 17:43. Glory be to Him, and exalted be He far above what they say!
- 17:44. The seven heavens and the earth, and all those who are therein, glorify Him. There is not a thing that does not glorify Him with praise, but you do not understand their glorification. Verily He is Forbearing, Oft-Forgiving.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He has explained all issues to His slaves in this Qur'an. In other words, He discusses various rulings and clarifies them, presenting a great deal of evidence and proof for that to which He calls people, and He exhorts and reminds so that they will remember that which will benefit them and thus follow it, and that which will harm them and thus refrain from it. But most people insist on turning away from the revelations of Allah, because of their resentment towards the truth and their love for that which they are following of falsehood, to the extent that they are fanatically devoted to the falsehood and they do not listen to the revelations of Allah or pay attention to them.

<sup>18</sup> What is meant is that they would have sought a way to challenge Him (al-Qurtubi, from Ibn 'Abbās [raḍiya Allāhu 'anhuma – may Allah be pleased with both of them]); another view is that they would have sought a way to draw near to Him. (aṭ-Ṭabari)

The issue for which the most proof and evidence is presented is the oneness of Allah, which is the most important of fundamental issues. Allah enjoins it, forbids the opposite, and establishes a great deal of rational and textual proof for it, to the extent that if one listens to some of it, no room will be left in his heart for any doubt or confusion.

Among the evidence for that is the rational evidence that is mentioned here:

﴿Say﴾ to the polytheists who associate another god with Allah:
 ﴿If there were [other] gods with Him, as they say﴾ that is, according to their claims and fabrications,
 ﴿they would surely have sought a way to the Lord of the Throne﴾ that is, they would have tried to seek a way to worship Him and draw close to Him, seeking nearness to Him. So how can the weak human being, who realises how great is his need to be a true slave of his Lord, associate another god with Allah? Can this be anything but the worst wrongdoing and the greatest foolishness?

According to this interpretation, the meaning of this verse is similar to that of the verses in which Allah says: ﴿Those upon whom they call themselves seek nearness to their Lord﴾ (17: 57) and:

﴿On the day when He gathers them together with those whom they worshipped besides Allah, He will ask:<sup>19</sup> Did you lead these slaves

---

<sup>19</sup> This question will be put to those who were wrongfully worshipped, such as the angels, 'Eesâ (ﷺ), Prophets, righteous people, 'saints', idols and so on.

of Mine astray, or did they stray from the [right] path by themselves? They will say: Glory be to You! It was not proper for us to take anyone as an ally besides You [and worship him]<sup>20</sup>...» (al-Furqān 25: 17-18)

Or it may be that what is meant by the words «If there were [other] gods with Him, as they say, they would surely have sought a way to the Lord of the Throne» is: they would have sought a way to reach Him and they would have tried to challenge Allah (ﷻ), then if they overcame Him, the one who prevailed would be the Lord and God. However, they already knew and admitted that the gods whom they worshipped besides Allah were subjugated and inferior, and had no control over anything. So why did they take them as gods, if they were like that? In this case, the meaning is like that of the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

«Allah has never begotten a son, nor is there any god besides Him. [In that case,] each god would have taken full control of what he had created, and each would have rushed to gain supremacy over the others...» (al-Mu'minoon 23: 91)

«Glory be to Him, and exalted be He» that is, He is to be declared holy and far above

«what they say» of ascribing partners and rivals to Him, for He is sublime and great, and His Majesty is so immense that there can be no gods besides Him. Those who say such a thing have gone far astray and committed a grievous wrongdoing.

In comparison to His greatness, great creations are as nothing. In comparison to His Majesty, the greatness of the seven heavens and all those who are in them, and of the seven earths and all those who are in them, is very small indeed.

«... On the Day of Resurrection, the entire earth will be in His grip, and the heavens will be rolled up in His Right Hand...» (az-Zumar 39: 67)

---

<sup>20</sup> A question is implied here: so how could we have asked anyone else to take us as allies and worship us besides You? (ash-Shawkāni)

Both the upper and lower realms are inherently in need of Him, and this need is never absent from anyone at any time. This need, in all aspects, is the need for creation, provision and care, a need which they have no choice but to feel until He becomes the object of worship and focus of love, to which they seek to draw near and they turn to Him in all situations. Hence He says:

﴿The seven heavens and the earth, and all those who are therein, glorify Him. There is not a thing﴾ human, animal, tree, plant, inanimate, living or dead ﴿that does not glorify Him with praise﴾ implicitly or explicitly

﴿but you do not understand their glorification﴾ that is, the glorification of all other creatures that do not speak your language, but the Knower of the unseen encompasses them all with His knowledge.

﴿Verily He is Forbearing, Oft-Forgiving﴾ as He does not hasten to punish the one who says concerning Him a word at which the heavens might almost be torn apart, the earth split asunder, and the mountains come tumbling down (cf. 19: 90). Rather He gives respite, bestows blessings upon them, overlooks their deeds, grants them provision and calls them to His door, so that they might repent from this grave sin, so that He might give them an immense reward and forgive them. Were it not for His forbearance and forgiveness, the heavens would fall upon the earth and no living creature would be left on the surface of the earth.

﴿وَإِذَا قَرَأْتَ الْقُرْآنَ جَعَلْنَا بَيْنَكَ وَبَيْنَ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ حِجَابًا مَّسْتُورًا
 (٤٥) وَجَعَلْنَا عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ أَكِنَّةً أَنْ يَفْقَهُوهُ وَفِي آذَانِهِمْ وَقْرًا وَإِذَا ذَكَرْتَ رَبَّكَ فِي الْقُرْآنِ
 وَحْدَهُ، وَلَوْ عَلَىٰ أَذْنِهِمْ نَفُورًا (٤٦) نَحْنُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَسْتَمِعُونَ بِهِ إِذْ يَسْتَمِعُونَ إِلَيْكَ وَإِذْ هُمْ
 نَجْوَىٰ إِذْ يَقُولُ الظَّالِمُونَ إِنْ تَتَّبِعُونَ إِلَّا رَجُلًا مَّسْحُورًا (٤٧) أَنْظِرْ كَيْفَ ضَرَبُوا لَكَ
 الْأَمْثَالَ فَضَلُّوا فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ سَبِيلًا (٤٨)﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٤٥-٤٨)

- 17:45. When you recite the Qur'an, We place between you and those who do not believe in the hereafter a hidden barrier,<sup>21</sup>
- 17:46. And We have placed covers on their hearts so that they will not understand it, and deafness in their ears; when you mention your Lord alone in the Qur'an, they turn their backs in aversion.
- 17:47. We know best what they are listening for when they listen to you, and what they say when they converse in private, when the wrongdoers say: [If you were to follow Muhammad] you would be following none but a man who is bewitched.
- 17:48. See what they liken you to! Thus they have gone astray and cannot find a way.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about His punishment of those disbelievers in the truth who reject it and turn away from it: He then bars them from faith, as He says:

﴿When you recite the Qur'an﴾ in which there is exhortation, admonition, guidance, faith, goodness and a great deal of knowledge, ﴿We place between you and those who do not believe in the hereafter a hidden barrier﴾ that prevents them from understanding it correctly, grasping the true meaning and submitting to the goodness to which they are called.

﴿And We have placed covers on their hearts﴾ so that they do not understand the meanings of the Qur'an; rather they listen to it in such a way that proof is established against them ﴿and deafness in their ears﴾ so that they are prevented from hearing. ﴿when you mention your Lord alone in the Qur'an﴾ calling them to affirm His oneness, and forbidding them to ascribe partners to Him ﴿they turn their backs in aversion﴾ and resentment towards that idea, out of love for that which they are following of falsehood. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

---

<sup>21</sup> That is so that they will not understand it, as a punishment for their (stubborn) disbelief. (aṭ-Ṭabari)

«When Allah alone is mentioned, the hearts of those who do not believe in the hereafter shrink with aversion, but when [gods] other than Him are mentioned, they rejoice.» (az-Zumar 39: 45)

«We know best what they are listening for» that is, We only prevented them from benefiting when they hear the Qur'an because We know that their aim is wrong; they want to find the least reason to criticise it. They are not listening for the purpose of seeking guidance or accepting the truth; rather their intention is not to follow it. One who is like that will not benefit from listening to it in the slightest. Hence Allah says:

«...when they listen to you, and what they say when they converse in private, when the wrongdoers say» when they converse in private «[[If you were to follow Muhammad] you would be following none but a man who is bewitched». If this is the evil conversation that they had amongst themselves, basing it on the assumption that he was bewitched, then it is certain that they were not taking what he said seriously, and they thought that he was simply murmuring, not knowing what he was saying.

«See what they liken you to!» This is expressing astonishment because it is the most misguided of likenesses and the furthest from the truth.

«Thus they have gone astray» by doing that, or it became a cause of their misguidance, because they base their judgement of him on that assumption, and that which is based on something evil is worse than it. «and cannot find a way» that is, they will not be guided in any way, thus their share is pure misguidance and utter wrongdoing.

﴿وَقَالُوا آءِذَا كُنَّا عِظَمًا وَرَفْنَا آءِنَّا لَمَّبْعُوثُونَ خَلْقًا جَدِيدًا ﴿٤٩﴾﴾ قُلْ كُونُوا حِجَارَةً أَوْ حَدِيدًا ﴿٥٠﴾ أَوْ خَلْقًا مِمَّا يَكْبُرُ فِي صُدُورِكُمْ فَسَيَقُولُونَ مَن يُعِيدُنَا قُلِ الَّذِي

فَطَرَكُمْ أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ فَيَتَضَوَّنَ إِلَيْكَ رُءُوسَهُمْ وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هُوَ قُلْ عَسَى أَنْ يَكُونَ قَرِيبًا ﴿٥١﴾ يَوْمَ يَدْعُوكُمْ فَتَسْجُدُونَ بِحَمْدِهِ وَتَنْظُرُونَ أَنْ لَيْسَ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴿٥٢﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٤٩-٥٢)

- 17:49. They say: What! When we have turned into bones and dust, will we really be raised up and created anew?
- 17:50. Say: Even if you turned to stone or iron,
- 17:51. or any other substance you think even more unlikely [to be given life]. Then they will say: Who will bring us back [to life]? Say: The One Who brought you into being in the first instance. They will nod their heads at you [in disbelief and mockery] and say: When will that be? Say: It may well be soon.
- 17:52. On the day when He calls you, you will respond by praising Him and think that you have tarried but a short while.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us what was said by those who denied the resurrection, disbelieved in it and thought it unlikely.

﴿They say: What! When we have turned into bones and dust﴾ that is, when our bodies have disintegrated completely, ﴿will we really be raised up and created anew?﴾ That is, that will never happen and it is impossible – according to their claim. They demonstrated extreme ignorance when they disbelieved the Messengers of Allah, denied the signs of Allah, and compared the power of the Creator of the heavens and the earth to their puny and weak powers. As they saw that it was impossible for them and they could not do it, they assumed that the power of Allah was equally weak.

Glory be to the One Who made some of His creation, who claimed that they were people of mature thinking and intellect, into an example of ignorance of the most obvious of things, for which there is the clearest proof, in order to show His slaves that no one can achieve anything except by His help, otherwise there is nothing but doom and misery.

﴿Our Lord, do not let our hearts deviate now after You have guided us, and bestow upon us mercy from Yourself; for You are the Bestower.﴾

(Âl 'Imrân 3: 8)

Hence Allah instructed His Messenger (ﷺ) to say to these people who denied the resurrection because they thought that it was unlikely:

﴿Say: Even if you turned to stone or iron, or any other substance you think even more unlikely [to be given life]﴾ that is, so that you will be safe – or so you claim – from the power of Allah reaching you or His will being done concerning you. For you cannot escape Allah, no matter what state you are in and no matter what you are turned to. You have no control over yourselves in this life or after death, so leave control and disposal of affairs to the One Who has power over all things and Who encompasses all things.

﴿Then they will say﴾ when you establish proof against them concerning the resurrection:

﴿Who will bring us back [to life]? Say: The One Who brought you into being in the first instance﴾. As He originated you, when you were nothing worth mentioning, He will recreate you:

﴿...As We originated creation, so We will repeat it...﴾ (al-Anbiyâ' 21: 104)

﴿They will nod their heads at you [in disbelief and mockery]﴾ that is, in denial and amazement at what you say

﴿and say: When will that be?﴾ That is, when will this resurrection of which you speak come to pass? They are not affirming the idea of the resurrection; rather this is foolishness on their part, and is intended to cause annoyance.

﴿Say: It may well be soon﴾. There is no benefit in knowing the exact time of it; rather the benefit is to affirm it, establish it as a belief and prove it. Otherwise everything that is coming is near at hand.

«On the day when He calls you» to the resurrection, and the Trumpet is blown

«you will respond by praising Him» that is, you will submit to His command and you will not be able to rebel against Him.

«by praising Him» – for He is worthy of praise for all that He does, and He will requite people for their deeds when He gathers them on the Day of Judgement.

«and think that you have tarried but a short while» because it will happen so quickly, and whatever you had enjoyed of pleasures will be as if it never happened. This is the event of which the deniers asked «When will that be?» They will regret it bitterly when it comes, and it is said to them:

«...This is what you used to deny.» (al-Muʿaffifeen 83: 17)

﴿ وَقُلْ لِعِبَادِي يَقُولُوا الَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ يَنْزِعُ بَيْنَهُمْ إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ كَانَ لِلْإِنْسَانِ عَدُوًّا مُبِينًا ﴾ (or) ﴿ زُكْرًا أَعْلَمُ بِكُمْ إِنَّ يَشَاءُ يَرْحَمَكُمُ أَوْ إِنْ يَشَاءُ يُعَذِّبْكُمْ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَكِيلًا ﴾ (or) ﴿ وَرَبُّكَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَلَقَدْ فَضَّلْنَا بَعْضَ النَّبِيِّينَ عَلَى بَعْضٍ وَآتَيْنَا دَاوُدَ زَبُورًا ﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٥٣-٥٥)

17:53. Tell My slaves that they should say what is best,<sup>22</sup> for Shayṭān sows discord among them. Verily Shayṭān is to man an avowed enemy.

17:54. Your Lord knows you best: if He wills, He will have mercy on you and if He wills, He will punish you. We have not sent you [O Muhammad] to be in charge of them.

<sup>22</sup> What is meant is to speak in a courteous and gracious manner, and not to respond in kind to harsh words.

17:55. And your Lord knows best all who are in the heavens and on earth. Indeed We have exalted some of the Prophets above others, and to Dâwood We gave the Zaboor [Psalms].

This is by His kindness towards His slaves, as He enjoined upon them the best manners, deeds and words that lead to happiness in this world and the hereafter.

«Tell My slaves that they should say what is best» – this is enjoining all words that bring one closer to Allah, such as reading Qur'an, remembering Him (dhikr), acquiring knowledge, enjoining what is right, forbidding what is wrong, and speaking good and kind words to people in a manner that is appropriate to their various positions and status. If there is a choice between two good things, then it is enjoined to give precedence to the better of the two, if it is not possible to combine both.

Speaking good words leads to developing good manners and doing righteous deeds, for the one who controls his tongue will be in control of all his affairs.

«for Shayṭān sows discord among them» that is, he strives to create trouble between people in a manner that is detrimental to their religious commitment and worldly affairs. The remedy for that is not to obey him, by avoiding the inappropriate talk to which he calls people, and by being soft and gentle with one another, so as to suppress the Shayṭān who seeks to spread discord among them, because he is their true enemy whom they should oppose, for he calls them to:

«...become inhabitants of the raging fire.» (Fâtîr 35: 6)

As for brothers in Islam, even if the Shayṭān manages to sow discord among them and create enmity between them, the right thing to do is strive against their enemy and suppress their inclinations towards evil, through which the Shayṭān finds a way to influence them. By doing so, they will be obeying their Lord, putting their affairs in order and following the path of wisdom.

«Your Lord knows you best», better than you know yourselves. Hence He only wants what is good for you and He only enjoins upon you that which is in your best interests. You may want something when the opposite is better.

«if He wills, He will have mercy on you and if He wills, He will punish you». Hence He guides whomever He will to take the measures that lead to mercy, and He forsakes whomever He will, so that he will go astray and will become deserving of punishment.

«We have not sent you [O Muhammad] to be in charge of them» and to control their affairs and requite them for their deeds. Rather Allah is in charge of them, and your role is to convey the message and guide people to the straight path.

«And your Lord knows best all who are in the heavens and on earth» of all types of creatures, so He gives each of them what he deserves, according to His wisdom, and He favours some of them over others in terms of both physical and intangible qualities, just as He favoured some of the Prophets, who all have in common the fact that they received revelation, over others in terms of virtues and characteristics that had to do with what Allah blessed them with of physical characteristics, pleasant manners and attitudes, righteous deeds, number of followers, and revelation of Books to some of them that contained rulings and beliefs, as He sent down to Dâwood the Zaboor (Psalms), which is the well-known Book.

As it is the case that Allah favoured some of them over others, and gave to some of them Books, why do those who reject Muhammad (ﷺ) deny what Allah has sent down to him and what He has blessed him with of prophethood and the Book?

﴿قُلْ أَدْعُوا الَّذِينَ زَعَمْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ فَلَا يَمْلِكُونَ كَشْفَ الضَّرِّ عَنْكُمْ وَلَا تَحْوِيلًا﴾
 ﴿٥٦﴾ أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ يَبْتَغُونَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمُ الْوَسِيلَةَ أَيُّهُمْ أَقْرَبُ وَيَرْجُونَ
 رَحْمَتَهُ وَيَخَافُونَ عَذَابَهُ إِنَّ عَذَابَ رَبِّكَ كَانَ مَحْذُورًا ﴿٥٧﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٥٦-٥٧)

- 17:56. Say: Call on those whom you claim [to be gods]<sup>23</sup> besides Him; they have no power to relieve you of harm or divert it from you.
- 17:57. Those upon whom they call themselves seek nearness to their Lord, [competing to see] which of them will be nearest. They hope for His mercy and fear His punishment, for verily the punishment of your Lord is something to be dreaded.

«Say» to the polytheists who ascribe partners to Allah and take others as gods which they worship as they worship Allah, and they call upon them as they call upon Him, and instruct them to correct what they claim and believe, if they are sincere:

«Call on those whom you claim [to be gods]» besides Allah, and see whether they can benefit you or ward off harm from you, for they «have no power to relieve you of harm or divert it from you», such as sickness, poverty, hardship and so on. They cannot ward it off at all, and they also have no power to divert it from one person to another, or to change it from hardship to something less severe.

If this is how they are, then why do you call upon them besides Allah? For they have no attributes of perfection and do not do any useful deeds, so taking them as gods is lacking in religious understanding and reason, and it is foolishness.

<sup>23</sup> Those who are falsely worshipped, who are referred to in this and the following verse, are 'Eesâ, 'Uzayr and the angels; they have no power to benefit or harm in and of themselves, and are themselves devoted slaves of Allah.

What is astounding is that when foolishness becomes a common practice and is received from misguided parents, a person sees it as being right thinking, and he sees sincere devotion to Allah alone, the One Who is perfect and bestows all blessings, both apparent and invisible, as foolishness and as something strange, as the polytheists said:

﴿Has he made all the gods into one God? This is indeed most strange!﴾
(Ṣād 38: 5)

Then Allah tells us that those whom they worship besides Allah are completely distracted from them because they are concerned with showing their own need for Allah and seeking to draw near to Him:

﴿Those upon whom they call﴾ among the Prophets, the righteous and the angels

﴿themselves seek nearness to their Lord, [competing to see] which of them will be nearest﴾ that is, they compete in drawing near to their Lord, striving their utmost to do righteous deeds that will bring them closer to Allah and to His mercy, for they fear His punishment, so they avoid everything that may lead to it.

﴿for verily the punishment of your Lord is something to be dreaded﴾ that is, it is something to be feared greatly and one should keep away from anything that could lead to it.

These three things – fear, hope and love – which Allah describes as the characteristics of those who are close to Him are the basis and prerequisites for all goodness. Whoever has all of them, all his affairs will be in order, but if his heart is devoid of them, good things will disperse from around him and he will be surrounded by troubles.

The sign of love is that which Allah mentions, that a person strives hard to do everything that will bring him closer to Allah, and he competes with others in drawing closer to Him, intending all his deeds for Allah alone, being utterly sincere in doing them and doing them in the best possible manner. Whoever claims that he loves Allah, but does not do this, is lying.

﴿وَلَنْ مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ إِلَّا نَحْنُ مُهْلِكُوهَا قَبْلَ يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ أَوْ مُعَذِّبُوهَا عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا كَانَ ذَلِكَ فِي الْكِتَابِ مَسْطُورًا﴾ ﴿٥٨﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٥٨)

17:58. There is no city but We will destroy it before the Day of Resurrection, or punish it severely. That is written in the Book [of our decrees].<sup>24</sup>

That is, there is no city among the cities that disbelieved in the Messengers but it will inevitably be destroyed or punished severely before the Day of Resurrection. This is a decree that has been ordained by Allah, and it will inevitably come to pass. So let the disbelievers hasten to turn to Allah and believe in His Messengers, before they reach a point where punishment will become inevitable.

﴿وَمَا مَنَعَنَا أَنْ نُرْسِلَ بِالْآيَاتِ إِلَّا أَنْ كَذَّبَ بِهَا الْأَوَّلُونَ وَآيَاتِنَا ثُمُودَ النَّاقَةِ مُبْصِرَةً فَظَلَمُوا بِهَا وَمَا نُرْسِلُ بِالْآيَاتِ إِلَّا تَخْوِيفًا﴾ ﴿٥٩﴾ ﴿وَإِذْ قُلْنَا لَكَ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ أَحَاطَ بِالنَّاسِ وَمَا جَعَلْنَا الرَّيَّا الَّتِي أَرَيْنَاكَ إِلَّا فِتْنَةً لِلنَّاسِ وَالشَّجَرَةَ الْمَلْعُونَةَ فِي الْقُرْآنِ وَنُخَوِّفُهُمْ فَمَا يَزِيدُهُمْ إِلَّا طُغْيَانًا كَبِيرًا﴾ ﴿٦٠﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٥٩-٦٠)

17:59. Nothing prevents Us from sending signs except that the earlier people rejected them. We sent the she-camel to Thamood as a clear sign, yet they rejected her. We send signs only by way of instilling fear.

17:60. And [remember] when We said to you: Verily your Lord encompasses humankind [with His knowledge and might]. We did not make the sight which We showed you,<sup>25</sup> and the accursed tree<sup>26</sup> [mentioned] in the Qur'an, except as a test for the people. We seek to instil fear in their hearts, but it only increases their inordinate transgression.

<sup>24</sup> That is, al-Lawh al-Mahfoodh.

Here Allah (ﷻ) refers to His mercy in that He did not send down the signs demanded by the disbelievers. Nothing prevented Him from sending them except the possibility of their rejecting them, for if they had rejected them, the punishment would have been hastened for them and would have come upon them without delay, as happened to earlier generations who disbelieved in His signs.

One of the greatest signs is that which Allah sent to Thamood, namely the great she-camel, but they rejected that sign, so that fate befell them of which Allah tells us in His Book. And these people (the disbelievers of Makkah) are the same: even if great signs were to come to them, they would not believe. What prevented them from believing was not the fact that what the Messenger brought was unclear, as a result of which they were uncertain as to whether it was true or false, for He brought a great deal of proof which pointed to the soundness of the message he brought, which would lead to guidance for anyone who was seeking guidance. Any other sign (that they demanded) would be the same, so they would inevitably think of it as they thought of other signs. Therefore not sending another sign, when this was the case, was better for them.

﴿We send signs only by way of instilling fear﴾ that is, the purpose behind it is not to lead them to faith that could not be achieved otherwise; rather the purpose is to instil fear, so as to deter them (from their obstinate behaviour).

<sup>25</sup> This refers to the Prophet's Isrâ' (Night Journey).

<sup>26</sup> This refers to the tree of az-Zaqqoom, mentioned in (ad-Dukhân 44: 43-44), from which the people of hell will be fed.

«And [remember] when We said to you: Verily your Lord encompasses humankind [with His knowledge and might]», so they have nowhere to turn to and no refuge to escape from Him. This is sufficient for anyone who has intellect to refrain from that which is hateful to Allah, Who encompasses humankind.

«We did not make the sight which We showed you, and the accursed tree [mentioned] in the Qur'an, except as a test for the people». The majority of commentators are of the view that the sight mentioned here refers to the Night Journey (Isrâ') and the tree is the tree of az-Zaqqoom that grows from the depths of hell.

What is meant is that if these two things have become a trial or test that causes confusion to people, to the extent that the disbelievers become more stubborn in their disbelief and increase in evil, and some of those who had weak faith recanted their faith because what the Prophet (ﷺ) told them – of events that occurred during the Night Journey, and what happened during that journey from the Sacred Mosque to the Distant Mosque – was so extraordinary, and what he told them about a tree growing from the depths of hell was also extraordinary, and this is what made them reject faith and not accept it, then how about if they saw great signs and remarkable extraordinary events? Is that not more likely to lead to an increase in their evil? Therefore Allah had mercy on them and diverted that from them.

Hence you will understand that it is more appropriate that the Qur'an and Sunnah did not describe in clear terms major events that would occur at later times, because when it comes to things the like of which people have never seen, their minds may not accept them if they are told of them before they happen, which may then become a cause of doubt in the hearts of some believers, and may prevent others from entering Islam, as they are put off from it. Rather Allah refers to such matters in very general and ambiguous words that refer to all that will happen.

﴿We seek to instil fear in their hearts﴾ by means of the signs
 ﴿but it only increases their inordinate transgression﴾.

﴿وَإِذْ قُلْنَا لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ اسْجُدُوا لِآدَمَ فَسَجَدُوا إِلَّا إِبْلِيسَ قَالَ أَأَسْجُدُ لِمَنْ خَلَقْتَ طِينًا ﴿٦١﴾ قَالَ أَرَأَيْتَكَ هَذَا الَّذِي كَرَّمْتَ عَلَيَّ لَئِنْ أَخَّرْتَنِ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ لَأَحْتَنِكَنَّ ذُرِّيَّتَهُ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴿٦٢﴾ قَالَ أَذْهَبَ فَمَنْ تَبِعَكَ مِنْهُمْ فَإِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ جَزَاءُكُمْ جَزَاءً مَوْفُورًا ﴿٦٣﴾ وَأَسْتَفِزُّ مَنِ اسْتَطَعْتُ مِنْهُمْ بِصَوْتِكَ وَأَجْلِبُ عَلَيْهِمْ بِخَيْلِكَ وَرَجِلِكَ وَشَارِكُهُمْ فِي الْأَمْوَالِ وَالْأَوْلَادِ وَعِدَّهُمْ وَمَا يَعِدُهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ إِلَّا غُرُورًا ﴿٦٤﴾ إِنَّ عِبَادِي لَيْسَ لَكَ عَلَيْهِمْ سُلْطَانٌ وَكَفَى بِرَبِّكَ وَكِيلًا ﴿٦٥﴾﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٦١-٦٥)

- 17:61. And [remember] when We said to the angels: Prostrate before Adam, and they [all] prostrated except Iblees. He said: Should I prostrate before one whom You have created from clay?
- 17:62. [Iblees] said: Do you see this one whom You have honoured above me? If You give me respite until the Day of Resurrection, I will surely bring his offspring under my sway, all but a few.
- 17:63. [Allah] said: Go ahead; whoever among them follows you, verily hell will be the recompense of you all, an ample recompense.
- 17:64. Entice whomever among them you can with your voice; mobilise your cavalry and infantry against them;<sup>27</sup> share with them in their wealth and their children,<sup>28</sup> and make promises to them. But Shayṭān makes promises to them only in order to deceive them.

<sup>27</sup> What is meant is use all the means at your disposal against them. (al-Qurṭubī)

<sup>28</sup> What is meant is causing them to acquire and dispose of wealth in unlawful ways, and to produce children in unlawful ways (by means of fornication).

17:65. Verily you will have no power over My slaves, and sufficient is Allah as a guardian.

Here Allah (ﷻ) points out to His slaves the extent of Shayṭān's enmity and his keenness to mislead them, and that when Allah created Adam, he (Shayṭān) was too arrogant to prostrate to him.

﴿He said﴾ out of arrogance: ﴿Should I prostrate before one whom You have created from clay?﴾ He claimed that he was better than him, because he had been created from fire. We have mentioned above how wrong this false analogy was, in many aspects.

When it became clear to Iblees that Allah had favoured Adam, he said to Allah: ﴿Do you see this one whom You have honoured above me? If You give me respite until the Day of Resurrection, I will surely bring his offspring under my sway﴾ that is, I will mislead them and not spare anyone, ﴿all but a few﴾. The evil one knew that there would inevitably be some who would oppose him and disobey him.

Therefore Allah said to him: ﴿Go ahead; whoever among them follows you﴾ and chooses you above his true Lord ﴿verily hell will be the recompense of you all, an ample recompense﴾ that is, it is saved for you as requital for your deeds.

Then Allah told him to do all that he could to misguide them, saying: ﴿Entice whomever among them you can with your voice﴾ – this includes everyone who calls others to sin. ﴿mobilise your cavalry and infantry against them﴾ – this includes everyone who rides or walks in the course of committing sin and disobedience towards Allah; he is one of the cavalry and infantry of the Shayṭān.

What is meant is that Allah tests people by means of this avowed enemy who calls them to disobey Allah by his words and deeds.

«share with them in their wealth and their children» – this includes every sin that is connected to their wealth and children, such as withholding zakâh and expiatory payments, not paying dues, not disciplining children and raising them to do good and keep away from evil, taking wealth unlawfully or using it inappropriately, and acquiring money from bad sources.

In fact many of the commentators stated that sharing with the Shaytân in wealth and children also includes not invoking the name of Allah when eating, drinking and having intercourse, because if a person does not invoke the name of Allah at those times, the Shaytân will have a share of those things with him, as is mentioned in the hadith.

«and make promises to them» that is, attractive promises that have no substance. Hence Allah says: «But Shaytân makes promises to them only in order to deceive them» because his promise is false and has no value, such as when he makes sin and false beliefs fair-seeming to them and promises them reward for that, because they think that they are following truth. Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«The Shaytân threatens you with poverty and instructs you to be miserly, but Allah promises you His forgiveness and grace...»
(al-Baqarah 2: 268)

Having mentioned what the Shaytân wants to do to people, and what helps to protect one from his temptations, which is true servitude to Allah, adherence to faith and putting one's trust in Him, Allah now says: «Verily you will have no power over My slaves» that is, you have no power to tempt them; rather Allah will ward off all evil from them, if they are true slaves to Him, and He will protect them from the accursed Shaytân and suffice them against him.

«and sufficient is Allah as a guardian» for the one who puts his trust in Him and complies with His commands.

رَبِّكُمْ الَّذِي يُزِيحُ لَكُمْ الْفَلَكَ فِي الْبَحْرِ لِيَتَبَنَّوْا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ إِنَّهُ كَانَ بِكُمْ
 رَحِيمًا ﴿٦٦﴾ وَإِذَا مَسَّكُمُ الضُّرُّ فِي الْبَحْرِ ضَلَّ مَنْ تَدْعُونَ إِلَّا إِلَاهُ فَلَمَّا بَجَّكُمُ إِلَى
 الْبَرِّ أَعْرَضْتُمْ وَكَانَ الْإِنْسَانُ كَفُورًا ﴿٦٧﴾ أَفَأَمِنْتُمْ أَنْ يَخْصِفَ بِكُمْ جَانِبَ الْبَرِّ أَوْ يُرْسِلَ
 عَلَيْكُمْ حَاصِبًا ثُمَّ لَا يَجِدُوا لَكُمْ وَكِيلًا ﴿٦٨﴾ أَمْ أَمِنْتُمْ أَنْ يُعِيدَكُمْ فِيهِ تَارَةً
 أُخْرَىٰ فَيُرْسِلَ عَلَيْكُمْ قَاصِفًا مِنَ الرِّيحِ فَيُغَرِّقَكُم بِمَا كَفَرْتُمْ ثُمَّ لَا يَجِدُوا لَكُمْ عَلَيْنَا
 بِهِ تَبِعًا ﴿٦٩﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٦٦-٦٩)

- 17:66. It is your Lord Who drives forward the ships for you on the sea, so that you may seek of His bounty. Verily He is to you Most Merciful.
- 17:67. When danger threatens you at sea, all those on whom you call disappear [from your minds], except Him alone. But when He brings you safe to dry land, you turn away from Him. Man is ever ungrateful.
- 17:68. Do you then feel secure that He will not cause a tract of dry land to swallow you up, or that He will not send against you a violent squall of pebbles? Then you will find none to protect you.
- 17:69. Or do you feel secure that He will not send you back [to sea] once more, then send against you a tempest and drown you because of your disbelief? Then you will find no one to help you against Us.

Here Allah mentions the blessings that He has bestowed upon people, as He has made to be of service to them ships and other vessels, which He inspired them to make. And He has made the tumultuous sea to be of service to them, carrying them on its surface, so that people may benefit thereby, travelling, carrying their goods and doing trade. This is by His mercy towards His slaves, for He is ever merciful and compassionate, giving them everything they want and that is useful for them.

One of the signs of His mercy, which indicates that He is the only One Who is deserving of worship, to the exclusion of all others, is that if harm befalls them on the sea, and they fear that they will die because of the high waves, those whom they used to worship besides Allah at times of ease, among the living and the dead, vanish from their minds, and it is as if they never called upon them at any time, because they realise that those (objects of worship) are helpless and incapable of granting relief from hardship. Instead they cry out to the Originator of the earth and the heavens, Whose help all creatures seek at times of hardship, and they call upon Him and beseech Him with utter sincerity in such situations.

But when Allah grants them relief from hardship and brings them safely to the shore, they forget the one on Whom they called, and they associate others with Him that can neither bring benefit nor cause harm, and can neither give nor withhold, and they turn away from showing sincere devotion to their true Lord and Sovereign. This is indicative of man's ignorance and ingratitude, except those whom Allah has guided and blessed with sound reasoning, so they are guided to the straight path. Such a one knows that the One Who grants relief from hardship and saves one from terrors is the only One Who deserves to be shown sincerity in all one's actions, at times of ease and of hardship.

As for the one who fails and is left to his own devices and weak reasoning, at the time of hardship he focuses only on his immediate interests and need to be saved in that situation. But when he is saved and the hardship is over, he thinks in his ignorance that he has managed to escape from Allah, and the idea of consequences in this world never crosses his mind, let alone consequences in the hereafter.

Therefore Allah reminds them by saying: ﴿Do you then feel secure that He will not cause a tract of dry land to swallow you up, or that

He will not send against you a violent squall of pebbles?﴾ That is, He is able to do all things: if He so willed, He would send down punishment upon you which would come upon you from beneath you by means of the earth swallowing you up, or from above you by means of showers of pebbles, and you would be destroyed, so do not think that death or destruction can only come at sea.

If you do think that, then do you feel confident that ﴿that He will not send you back [to sea] once more, then send against you a tempest﴾ that is, a strong wind that destroys everything in its path ﴿and drown you because of your disbelief? Then you will find no one to help you against Us﴾ and Allah does not wrong them in the slightest.

﴿ وَلَقَدْ كَرَّمْنَا بَنِي آدَمَ وَحَمَلْنَاهُمْ فِي الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ وَرَزَقْنَاهُمْ مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَفَضَّلْنَاهُمْ عَلَى كَثِيرٍ مِمَّنْ خَلَقْنَا تَفْضِيلًا ﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٧٠)

17:70. We have indeed honoured the sons of Adam, given them means of transportation on land and sea, provided them with good things, and have favoured them above many of those whom We have created.

This is by His generosity and kindness towards them, the full extent of which no one can know. He has honoured the children of Adam in all ways, as He has honoured them with knowledge and reason, sending the Messengers, sending down the Books, making some of them His close friends and chosen ones, and bestowing upon them blessings both visible and invisible.

﴿given them means of transportation on land﴾ such as camels, mules, donkeys and other means of transportation ﴿and sea﴾ such as ships and other vessels

«provided them with good things» such as food, drink, clothing and spouses. There is nothing good that has to do with their needs, but Allah has honoured them with it and made it available to them.

«and have favoured them above many of those whom We have created» by means of that for which He has singled them out of blessings, virtues and qualities that are not given to other types of creatures.

So will they not give thanks to the One Who has bestowed these blessings and warded off harm? These blessings should not be a barrier between them and the One Who bestowed them, and they should not distract them from worshipping their Lord, let alone be used to disobey Him.

﴿يَوْمَ نَدْعُوا كُلَّ أُنَاسٍ بِإِمْعَانِهِمْ فَمَنْ أُوتِيَ كِتَابَهُ يَمِينَهُ فَأُتِيَتْكَ أَقْرَبُونَ
 كِتَابَهُمْ وَلَا يَظْلَمُونَ فَتِيلًا ﴿٧٦﴾ وَمَنْ كَانَتْ فِي هَذِهِ أَعْمَىٰ فَهُوَ فِي الْآخِرَةِ
 أَعْمَىٰ وَأَضَلُّ سَبِيلًا ﴿٧٧﴾﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٧١-٧٢)

17:71. [Mention, O Muhammad] the day when We will summon every community with their leaders. Those who are given their record of deeds in their right hands will read their record; they will never be wronged even by as much as the thread in the groove of a date stone.

17:72. Those who are blind [to the truth] in this world will be blind in the hereafter, and even further astray from the path [of truth].

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us how people will be on the Day of Resurrection, and that He will call all people, with their leaders and those who called them to true guidance, namely the Messengers and their deputies. Each nation will be presented, brought by their Messenger who called them, and their deeds will be judged against the Book to which the Messenger called them: were their deeds in accordance with it or otherwise? Based on this criterion, they will be divided into two groups:

«Those who are given their record of deeds in their right hands» because they followed their leader who guided them to the straight path, followed His Book and did a great deal of good deeds and few bad deeds

«will read their record» happily and joyfully, rejoicing at what they see in it

«they will never be wronged even by as much as the thread in the groove of a date stone» with regard to what they did of good deeds.

«Those who are blind [to the truth] in this world» and did not accept the truth or submit to it, rather they followed misguidance

«will be blind in the hereafter» to following the path that leads to paradise, just as they did not follow it in this world

«and even further astray from the path [of truth]» because the requital matches the nature of the deed; as you sow, so shall you reap.

This verse indicates that every nation will be called to its religion and Book: did it act in accordance with it or not? They will not be called to account on the basis of the law of a Prophet whom they were not instructed to follow, for Allah does not punish anyone except after proof is established against him and he chooses to reject it.

People of goodness will be given their records of their deeds in their right hands and they will rejoice greatly; people of evil will be the opposite of that and they will not be able to read their records because of the severity of their distress and grief.

﴿وَأَن كَادُوا لَيَفْتِنُونَكَ عَنِ الَّذِي أُوتِيتَ إِلَيْكَ لَيَغْتَرِي عَلَيْكَ غَيْرُهُمْ وَإِذَا لَا تَأْخُذُوكَ خَلِيلًا ﴿٧١﴾ وَلَوْلَا أَن تَبْنَتَكَ لَفَدَكْتُ تَرَكْنُ إِلَيْهِمْ شَيْئًا قَلِيلًا﴾

﴿٧٤﴾ إِذَا لَذَقْنَكَ ضِعْفَ الْحَيَوةِ وَضِعْفَ الْمَمَاتِ ثُمَّ لَا تَجِدُ لَكَ عَلَيْنَا نَصِيرًا
 ﴿٧٥﴾ وَإِنْ كَادُوا لَيَسْتَفِزُّوكَ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ لِيُخْرِجُوكَ مِنْهَا وَإِذَا لَا يَلْبَثُونَ
 خِلَافَكَ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴿٧٦﴾ سُنَّةَ مَنْ قَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا قَبْلَكَ مِنْ رُسُلِنَا وَلَا تَجِدُ لِسُنَّتِنَا
 تَحْوِيلًا ﴿٧٧﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٧٣-٧٧)

- 17:73. Verily, they were about to tempt you away from that which We have revealed to you [O Muhammad], so that you would fabricate something else and attribute it to Us; then they would have taken you as a close friend.
- 17:74. Had We not kept you steadfast, you would nearly have inclined towards them a little.
- 17:75. In that case, We would have made you taste a double punishment in this life, and a double punishment after death. Then you would have found none to help you against Us.
- 17:76. They were about to hound you from the land in order to expel you therefrom, but in that case they would not have remained there after you, except for a little while.
- 17:77. Such was Our way with the Messengers We sent before you [O Muhammad], and you will find no change in Our way.<sup>29</sup>

Here Allah (ﷻ) mentions His favour to His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) and how He protected him from those who were keen to tempt him away by all means:

﴿Verily, they were about to tempt you away from that which We have revealed to you [O Muhammad], so that you would fabricate something else and attribute it to Us﴾ that is, they wanted something of you but they did not get it. They used tricks to make you fabricate and attribute to Allah something other than what We revealed to you,

<sup>29</sup> What is meant here is that it is the way of Allah to send His punishment upon people if they expelled the Messenger who was sent to them. (at-Tabari) so that you would bring something that was in accordance with their desires and you would abandon that which Allah had sent down to you.

﴿then﴾ if you had done what they wanted ﴿they would have taken you as a close friend﴾ that is, one who was beloved and dearer to them than their own loved ones, because of what Allah has bestowed upon you of good manners and etiquette that endear you to everyone, near and far, friend and enemy.

But you should understand that they only oppose you and show enmity to you because of the truth that you have brought, not because of your character. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿We know well that what they say grieves you [O Muhammad]. It is not you they disbelieve; rather it is the revelations of Allah that the wrongdoers deny.﴾ (al-An'âm 6: 33)

Nevertheless, ﴿Had We not kept you steadfast﴾ in adherence to the truth, and blessed you by enabling you to refrain from responding to their call

﴿you would nearly have inclined towards them a little﴾ because of their persistence and your desire that they be guided.

﴿In that case﴾, if you had inclined towards what they wanted, ﴿We would have made you taste a double punishment in this life, and a double punishment after death﴾ because of the perfect blessing that Allah has bestowed upon you and because of your perfect knowledge. ﴿Then you would have found none to help you against Us﴾ to save you from the punishment that would have befallen you, but Allah (ﷻ) protected you from that which leads to evil and from people, and He made you steadfast and guided you to the straight path, and you did not incline towards them at all. Thus He granted you a perfect blessing.

﴿They were about to hound you from the land in order to expel you therefrom﴾ that is, because they hated for you to stay among them, they almost drove you out of the land and expelled you from it.

If they had done that, they would not have remained there after you, except for a little while, until the punishment came upon them, as is the way of Allah with all nations, which never changes or varies. For every nation that rejected and expelled its Messenger, Allah hastened its punishment.

When those who disbelieved plotted against him and expelled him, it was not long before Allah punished them at Badr, where their leaders were killed and they were weakened; to Him be praise.

This passage points to the individual's great need for Allah to make him steadfast, and indicates that he should keep beseeching his Lord, asking Him to make him firm in his faith, and he should continue striving by all means to attain that, because Allah said to the Prophet (ﷺ), who is the most perfect of all people: «Had We not kept you steadfast, you would nearly have inclined towards them a little», so how about others?

It is also a reminder from Allah to His Messenger (ﷺ) of His blessings and how He protected him against evil. This indicates that Allah loves for His slaves to notice the blessing that He bestows upon them – when they are exposed to temptation – by protecting them from it and keeping them steadfast in their faith.

We also see that the higher a person's status is and the more blessings he receives from Allah, the greater his sin and the more serious the offence if he does something blameworthy, because Allah reminded His Messenger (ﷺ) that if he did that – although he is far above doing such a thing – then «We would have made you taste a double punishment in this life, and a double punishment after death. Then you would have found none to help you against Us».

These verses also tell us that when Allah wills to destroy a nation, their sins increase and become more serious in nature, thus the punishment becomes inevitable, as is His way with all nations, when they expelled their Messengers.

﴿ أَقِمِ الصَّلَاةَ لِذُلُوكِ الشَّمْسِ إِلَى غَسَقِ اللَّيْلِ وَقُرْآنَ الْفَجْرِ إِنَّ قُرْآنَ الْفَجْرِ
كَانَ مَشْهُودًا ﴾ (٧٨) وَمِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَتَهَجَّدْ بِهِ نَافِلَةً لَكَ عَسَى أَنْ يَبْعَثَكَ رَبُّكَ مَقَامًا
مَّحْمُودًا ﴿٧٩﴾ وَقُلْ رَبِّ أَدْخِلْنِي مُدْخَلَ صِدْقٍ وَأَخْرِجْنِي مُخْرَجَ صِدْقٍ وَاجْعَلْ لِي مِنْ
لَدُنْكَ سُلْطَانًا نَصِيرًا ﴿٨٠﴾ وَقُلْ جَاءَ الْحَقُّ وَزَهَقَ الْبَاطِلُ إِنَّ الْبَاطِلَ كَانَ زَهُوقًا
﴿٨١﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٧٨-٨١)

- 17:78. Establish prayer at the decline of the sun [from the meridian] until the darkness of the night, and recite the Qur'an at dawn, for verily the recitation at dawn is ever witnessed [by the angels].<sup>30</sup>
- 17:79. And during the night wake up and pray [tahajjud], an additional prayer for you [O Muhammad], so that your Lord may raise you to a station of praise and honour.
- 17:80. Say: My Lord, grant me a goodly entrance and a goodly exit,<sup>31</sup> and grant me from You a supporting power.
- 17:81. And say: The truth has come and falsehood has perished. Falsehood is always bound to perish.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) to establish prayer perfectly, with the proper outward movements and inward focus of mind, at the prescribed times.

﴿at the decline of the sun [from the meridian]﴾ that is, when it begins to sink towards the western horizon, after reaching its zenith. This includes dhuhr and 'aṣr prayers.

<sup>30</sup> The five daily prayers are included in this verse, from dhuhr (mid-day) prayer through 'aṣr (mid-afternoon) to maghrib (sunset) and 'ishā' (night-time, when it becomes dark), and finally fajr (dawn).

<sup>31</sup> Many commentators said that this refers to the Prophet's leaving Makkah and entering Madinah.

﴿until the darkness of the night﴾ this includes maghrib and 'ishâ' prayers.

﴿and recite the Qur'an at dawn﴾ that is, fajr prayer. It is referred to as reciting the Qur'an because it is prescribed to recite at length in this prayer more than in others, and because of the virtue of recitation, because it is witnessed by Allah and by the angels of the night and the angels of the day.

This verse mentions the times of the five daily prayers, and indicates that the prayers that are to take place at these times are obligatory, because the command refers specifically to them.

It also indicates that being on time is a condition of the prayer being valid and that the time is the reason for the prayer being obligatory, because Allah enjoins us to establish the prayers at these times. It also indicates that dhuhr and 'asr' may be put together for a valid reason, as may maghrib and 'ishâ', because Allah mentioned their times together.

This verse also highlights the virtue of fajr prayer and of reciting at length in it, and highlights the fact that recitation is an essential part of the prayer, because calling an act of worship by the name of one of its parts indicates that that part is obligatory.

﴿And during the night wake up and pray [tahajjud]﴾ that is, pray at any part of the night

﴿an additional prayer for you [O Muhammad]﴾ that is, so that prayer at night may be something additional for you, so as to raise you in status, unlike others for whom it is expiation of sins.

And it may be that what is meant is that the five daily prayers are obligatory for you (O Muhammad [ﷺ]) and for the believers, unlike prayers at night, which are obligatory for you in particular (O Muhammad [ﷺ]), because of your special status before Allah; as He wants to honour you, He has made your duties greater than those of others, so as to increase you in reward and so that you may attain thereby the station of praise and glory (al-maqâm al-mahmûd), which is the station for which the first and the last will praise him, the station of greater intercession, when the people will seek the intercession of Adam, then Nooh, then Ibrâheem, then Moosâ, then 'Eesâ, and all of them will excuse themselves and refuse to do it, until they seek the intercession of the leader of the sons of Adam, to ask Allah to relieve them of the distress and anguish of the standing (on the Day of Resurrection). Then he will intercede with his Lord, Who will accept his intercession and make him stand in that station, for which he will be envied by the first and the last, and he will be praised by all people.

﴿Say: My Lord, grant me a goodly entrance and a goodly exit﴾ that is, make my entrance and my exit all in obedience to You and pleasing to You, because that means sincerity and compliance with Allah's command.

﴿and grant me from You a supporting power﴾ that is, clear evidence and definitive proof for all that I do or do not do.

This is the highest position that Allah may cause a person to attain, that all his situations are good and are means of drawing closer to his Lord, and that – in all situations – he may have clear evidence. This includes beneficial knowledge, righteous deeds and knowledge of various issues and proofs.

﴿And say: The truth has come and falsehood has perished﴾ – the truth is that which Allah revealed to His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) and commanded him to speak and proclaim. The truth has come which nothing can resist, and falsehood has perished, that is it has diminished and vanished.

﴿Falsehood is always bound to perish﴾ that is, this is the nature of falsehood, but it may have the upper hand for a while, if it is not opposed by the truth. But when the truth comes, falsehood diminishes and ends up lifeless. Hence falsehood is only popular at times and in places where there is no knowledge of the revelations and proofs of Allah.

﴿وَنُزِّلَ مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ مَا هُوَ شِفَاءٌ وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَلَا يَزِيدُ الظَّالِمِينَ إِلَّا خَسَارًا﴾
(سورة الإسراء: ٨٢)

17:82. We send down in the Qur'an that which is a healing and mercy for the believers, but it increases the wrongdoers in nothing but loss.

The Qur'an contains healing and mercy, but that is not for everyone; rather it is only for those who believe in it and have knowledge of it. As for the wrongdoers who do not believe in it, or who do not act in accordance with it, its verses only increase them in loss, as proof is established against them by means of it.

The healing that is contained in the Qur'an is broad in scope, and offers healing for spiritual maladies such as doubt, ignorance, corrupt views, deviation and bad intentions. It also contains certain knowledge by means of which all doubts may be dispelled, and exhortation and reminders that dispel all desires that are contrary to the command of Allah. It also offers healing from physical pain and sickness.

With regard to mercy, this refers to what the Qur'an contains of the means of attaining mercy and encouragement to pursue those means; when a person does those things, he will attain mercy, eternal happiness and reward in this world and the hereafter.

﴿وَإِذَا أَنْعَمْنَا عَلَى الْإِنْسَانِ أَعْرَضَ وَنَسَىٰ جَنَائِدَهُ ۖ وَإِذَا مَسَّهُ الشَّرُّ كَانَ يَئُوسًا﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٨٣)

17:83. When We bestow Our blessings upon man, he turns away and draws aside, but if misfortune befalls him, he is filled with despair.

This is the nature of man, by default, except those whom Allah guides. When Allah blesses man, he rejoices in the blessing and becomes insolent because of it, turning away and drawing aside from his Lord; so he does not give thanks and does not remember Him.

«but if misfortune», such as sickness and the like «befalls him, he is filled with despair» of anything good, and he loses all hope in his Lord, thinking that this misfortune will last forever.

But in the case of the one whom Allah guides, when blessings come to him he humbles himself before his Lord and give thanks for His blessings, and when misfortune strikes, he beseeches his Lord and puts his hope in Allah to restore his well-being and relieve him of what has befallen him, and thus the calamity is alleviated.

﴿قُلْ كُلٌّ يَعْمَلُ عَلَىٰ شَاكِلَتِهِ ۖ فَرَبُّكُمْ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ هُوَ أَهْدَىٰ سَبِيلًا﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٨٤)

(٨٤)

17:84. Say: Everyone acts according to his own disposition. But your Lord knows best who is more rightly guided as to the way.

«Say: Everyone» that is, all people
«acts according to his own disposition» that is, as befits his nature. If he is one of the chosen and righteous, nothing befits him except to do deeds solely for the sake of the Lord of the worlds. In the case of others, who have been forsaken by Allah and are doomed to failure, nothing befits them except doing deeds for the sake of created beings, and they do not do anything except that which suits them.

﴿But your Lord knows best who is more rightly guided as to the way﴾ so He knows who is fit to be guided, and He guides him; and He knows who is not fit for guidance, so He forsakes him and does not guide him.

﴿وَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ الرُّوحِ قُلِ الرُّوحُ مِنْ أَمْرِ رَبِّي وَمَا أُوتِيتُمْ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا

(سورة الإسراء: ٨٥) ﴿

17:85. They ask you about the soul. Say: The soul is a matter known only to my Lord, and of knowledge you have been granted only a little.

This is an implied rebuke of the one who asks questions with no intention but to show stubbornness and try to frustrate the person questioned, and he does not ask about that which is important. They ask about the soul, which is a hidden matter that not everyone is able to describe properly or know its nature. Moreover, they are lacking in the knowledge they need and failing to ask about it.

Hence Allah instructed His Messenger (ﷺ) to answer the question by saying: ﴿Say: The soul is a matter known only to my Lord﴾ That is, it is one of the things that He created by saying to it, 'Be!' and it was. There is no great benefit in asking about it, when one lacks knowledge of other important issues.

This verse indicates that if a person is asked about something when it would have been more appropriate to ask about something else, he should refrain from answering and point the questioner towards that which he needs to know and which will benefit him.

﴿ وَلَئِنْ شِئْنَا لَنَذْهَبَنَّ بِالَّذِي أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ ثُمَّ لَا تَجِدُ لَكَ بِهِ عَلَيْنَا وَكِيلًا ﴿٨٦﴾ إِلَّا رَحْمَةً مِنْ رَبِّكَ إِنَّ فَضْلَهُ كَانَ عَلَيْكَ كَبِيرًا ﴿٨٧﴾ ﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٨٦-٨٧)

17:86. If We so willed, We could surely take away that which We have revealed to you; then you would find no one to help you in recovering it from Us.

17:87. But [it has been left with you] by the mercy of your Lord, for His favour to you has been great indeed.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that the Qur'an and the revelation that He gave to His Messenger (ﷺ) was a mercy from Him to the Messenger and His slaves, and it is the greatest blessing of all to His Messenger, for the bounty of Allah towards him is great and no one can evaluate it.

The One Who bestowed it upon you is able to take it away, then you would not find anyone who could recover it for you. So you should be happy to have it and rejoice in it, and do not let the disbelief of the disbelievers and the mockery of those who have gone astray make you sad, for the greatest blessing (namely the Qur'an) was offered to them, but they rejected it, because they are insignificant before Allah and He has forsaken them.

﴿ قُلْ لَّيْنِ اجْتَمَعَتِ الْإِنْسُ وَالْجِنُّ عَلَى أَنْ يَأْتُوا بِمِثْلِ هَذَا الْقُرْآنِ لَا يَأْتُونَ بِمِثْلِهِ وَلَوْ كَانَ بَعْضُهُمْ لِبَعْضٍ ظَهِيرًا ﴿٨٨﴾ ﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٨٨)

17:88. Say: Verily if all of humankind and the jinn were to come together to produce the like of this Qur'an, they could never produce the like thereof, even if they helped one another.

This is definitive proof of the soundness and truth of that which the Messenger (ﷺ) brought, as Allah challenged humankind and the jinn to produce its like, and stated that they would never be able to produce its like; even if they all cooperated to that effect they would never be able to do it.

And it came to pass as Allah told us, for those who disbelieved had the strongest motive to refute it in any way possible, and they had a strong command of the language and were very eloquent. If they had the least ability to meet the challenge, they would have done so.

Thus it is known that they surrendered completely, willingly or otherwise, and declared that they were incapable of producing something to match the Qur'an.

How could one who is created from clay and is lacking in all aspects, who possesses no knowledge, power, will, speech or perfection except that which is granted by his Lord, match the words of the Lord of the earth and the heavens, Who sees all that is hidden, Who is possessed of absolute perfection and majesty, and is worthy of all praise, and if all the sea, with seven more seas besides, were ink and all the trees were pens, the ink would run dry and the pens would wear out, but the words of Allah would never be exhausted?

Just as no one in creation is in any way like unto Allah in any of His attributes, His speech is one of His attributes, in which no one resembles Him. So there is nothing like unto Him in His essence, His names, His attributes and His actions – may He be blessed and exalted.

May he perish, the one who cannot see the difference between the words of the Creator and the words of created beings, and claims that Muhammad (ﷺ) fabricated it and attributed it to Allah, and that he made it up by himself.

﴿وَلَقَدْ صَرَفْنَا لِلنَّاسِ فِي هَذَا الْقُرْآنِ مِنْ كُلِّ مَثَلٍ فَأَبَى أَكْثَرُ النَّاسِ إِلَّا كُفُورًا ﴿٨٩﴾ وَقَالُوا لَنْ نُؤْمِنَ بِكَ حَتَّى تَفْجُرَ لَنَا مِنَ الْأَرْضِ يَنْبُوعًا ﴿٩٠﴾ أَوْ تَكُونَ لَكَ جَنَّةٌ مِنْ نَخِيلٍ وَعِنَبٍ فَتُفَجِّرَ الْأَنْهَارَ خِلَالَهَا تَفْجِيرًا ﴿٩١﴾ أَوْ تُسْقِطَ السَّمَاءَ كَمَا زَعَمْتَ عَلَيْنَا كِسْفًا أَوْ تَأْتِيَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْمَلَائِكَةِ قَبِيلًا ﴿٩٢﴾ أَوْ يَكُونَ لَكَ بَيْتٌ مِنْ زُخْرَفٍ أَوْ تَرْفَى فِي السَّمَاءِ وَلَنْ نُؤْمِنَ لِرَفْعِكَ حَتَّى تُنْزِلَ عَلَيْنَا كِتَابًا نَقْرُوهُ ۖ قُلْ سُبْحَانَ رَبِّيَ هَلْ كُنْتُ إِلَّا بَشَرًا رَسُولًا ﴿٩٣﴾ وَمَا مَعَ النَّاسِ أَنْ يُؤْمِنُوا إِذْ جَاءَهُمُ الْهُدَىٰ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا أَبَعَثَ اللَّهُ بَشَرًا رَسُولًا ﴿٩٤﴾ قُلْ لَوْ كُنْتُ فِي الْأَرْضِ مَلَكًا مَلَأْتُكُمْ بِمَشُورٍ مُطْمَئِنِّينَ لَنَزَّلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَلَكًا رَسُولًا ﴿٩٥﴾ قُلْ كَفَىٰ بِاللَّهِ شَهِيدًا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكُمْ إِنَّهُ كَانَ بِعِبَادِهِ خَبِيرًا بَصِيرًا ﴿٩٦﴾﴾

(سورة الإسراء: ٨٩-٩٦)

- 17:89. We have explained [the truth] to man in this Qur'an, discussing different issues in various ways, yet most people persist in disbelief.
- 17:90. They say: We will never believe in you until you cause a spring to gush forth from the earth for us;
- 17:91. Or you have a garden of date palms and vines, and you cause rivers to gush forth in their midst;
- 17:92. Or you cause the sky to fall upon us in pieces, as you claimed [will happen on the Day of Resurrection]; or you bring Allah and the angels before us, face to face;
- 17:93. Or you have a house made of gold; or you ascend to heaven, and even then we will not believe in your ascent unless you bring down to us a Book we can read. Say: Glory be to my Lord! Am I anything but a man, sent as a Messenger?

- 17:94. Nothing kept the people from believing, when guidance came to them, except that they said: Has Allah sent a [mere] human as a Messenger?
- 17:95. Say: If there had been angels on earth, walking about and settled therein, We would surely have sent down to them from heaven an angel as a messenger.
- 17:96. Say: Allah is sufficient as a witness between me and you. Verily He is well aware of His slaves and sees them all.

﴿We have explained [the truth] to man in this Qur'an, discussing different issues in various ways﴾ that is, We have various ways of exhortation and comparisons, and We have discussed repeatedly issues that people need to know, so that they may be reminded of them and fear Allah. But only a few of them pay heed, those for whom Allah has previously decreed happiness, and whom Allah helped and guided. But most people insist on showing ingratitude for this blessing, which is the greatest of all blessings, and they showed stubbornness by demanding signs other than the signs that Allah sent to His Prophet (ﷺ), and they came up with suggested signs from their own ignorant and unjust minds. Hence they said to the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) who brought this Qur'an which contains all kinds of proof and signs:

﴿We will never believe in you until you cause a spring to gush forth from the earth for us﴾ that is, flowing rivers.

﴿Or you have a garden of date palms and vines﴾ so that you no longer need to walk about in the marketplaces, coming and going.

﴿Or you cause the sky to fall upon us in pieces, as you claimed [will happen on the Day of Resurrection]﴾ that is, as a punishment.

﴿or you bring Allah and the angels before us, face to face﴾ that is, so we can see them with our own eyes and they testify to the truth of what you have brought.

﴿Or you have a house made of gold﴾ that is, adorned with gold and other materials

﴿or you ascend to heaven﴾ physically, ﴿and even then we will not believe in your ascent unless you bring down to us a Book we can read﴾.

As this stubbornness and these demands were the words of the most foolish and the most wicked of people, which implied rejection of the truth and an ill-mannered attitude towards Allah, and stemmed from a belief that it was the Messenger (ﷺ) who produced the signs by himself, Allah instructed him to declare Him to be far above that which they ascribed to Him, so He said:

﴿Say: Glory be to my Lord﴾ and exalted be He far above what they say, for His rulings and signs cannot be in accordance with their corrupt whims and desires and their misguided opinions.

﴿Am I anything but a man, sent as a Messenger?﴾ I have no control over the matter at all.

This matter is what prevented most people from believing: the fact that the Messengers who were sent to them were humans of their own kind. But this was by the mercy of Allah towards them; He sent to them Messengers from among themselves, for they would not have been able to learn from angels.

﴿If there had been angels on earth, walking about and settled therein﴾ then they would have been able to see angels and learn from them, so ﴿We would surely have sent down to them from heaven an angel as a messenger﴾ so that they could learn from them.

﴿Say: Allah is sufficient as a witness between me and you. Verily He is well aware of His slaves and sees them all﴾. Part of His testimony in support of His Messenger (ﷺ) is the miracles with which He supported him, the signs that He sent down to him and the victory that He granted him over those who opposed him. If the Messenger had fabricated any lies and attributed them to Allah, He would have seized him by his right hand, then cut off his aorta (cf. 69: 44-46). For Allah is All-Aware, All-Seeing, and nothing about His slaves is hidden from Him.

﴿وَمَنْ يَهْدِ اللَّهُ فَهُوَ الْمُهْتَدِ وَمَنْ يُضِلِلْ فَلَنْ تَجِدَ لَهُمْ أَوْلِيَاءَ مِنْ دُونِهِ وَيَحْشُرُهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ عَلَىٰ وُجُوهِهِمْ عُمًى وَبُكَاءً وَصُغًا مَا وَنَّهُمْ جَهَنَّمَ كُلَّمَا خَبَتْ زِدْنَاهُمْ سَعِيرًا ﴿١٧﴾ ذَلِكَ جَزَاؤُهُمْ بِمَا كَفَرُوا بِمَا نَبِئْنَاهُمْ وَقَالُوا أَإِذَا كُنَّا عِظْمًا وَرُفَاتًا أَلَمْبَعُوثُونَ خَلَقًا جَدِيدًا ﴿١٨﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّ اللَّهَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ قَادِرٌ عَلَىٰ أَنْ يَخْلُقَ مِثْلَهُمْ وَجَعَلَ لَهُمْ أَجَلًا لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ فَإِنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ إِلَّا كُفُورًا ﴿١٩﴾ قُلْ لَوْ أَنَّكُمْ تَمْلِكُونَ خَزَائِنَ رَحْمَةِ رَبِّي إِذَا لَأَمْسَكْتُمْ خَشْيَةَ الْإِنْفَاقِ وَكَانَ الْإِنْسَانُ قَتُورًا ﴿٢٠﴾﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ٩٧-١٠٠)

- 17:97. Whomever Allah guides is truly guided; whomever He causes to go astray, you will find no one to protect them from Him. On the Day of Resurrection, We will gather them on their faces, blind, dumb and deaf. Their abode will be hell; every time its flames die down, We will increase for them the fierceness of the blaze.
- 17:98. That will be their recompense because they rejected Our revelations and said: What! When we have turned into bones and dust, will we really be raised up and created anew?
- 17:99. Do they not see that Allah, Who created the heavens and the earth, has power to create the like of them? He has decreed an appointed time for them, of which there is no doubt. Yet the wrongdoers persist in disbelief.
- 17:100. Say: If you possessed the treasures of my Lord's bounty, you would surely hold them back for fear of spending, for man is ever miserly.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He is the only One Who has the power to guide or leave astray. Whomever He guides, He shows him the path of ease and protects him from the path of hardship, so that he will be truly guided. But whomever He sends astray, He will forsake him and leave him to his own devices, so he will have none to guide him other than Allah, and he will have no ally to protect him from the punishment of Allah, when Allah gathers them on their faces by way of humiliation and disgrace, blind and dumb, so that they will not be able to see or speak.

«Their abode» that is, their destination
«will be hell» in which all distress, anguish and punishment will be combined.

«every time its flames die down» and are about to be extinguished
«We will increase for them the fierceness of the blaze» that is, We will make it increase in flame. The punishment will never be reduced, nor will they be finished off so that they might die. The punishment will never be alleviated, but Allah (ﷻ) will not wrong them; rather He will requite them for disbelieving in His signs and denying the resurrection of which all the Messengers and Books spoke, and for demanding signs from their Lord and denying His perfect power.

«and said: What! When we have turned into bones and dust, will we really be raised up and created anew?» That is, that will never happen, because it is highly unlikely – according to their corrupt way of thinking.

«Do they not see that Allah, Who created the heavens and the earth», the creation of which is greater than the creation of man
«has power to create the like of them?» Indeed He is able to do that. But «He has decreed an appointed time for them, of which there is no doubt» otherwise, if He so willed, he could have brought them all at once.

«Yet», even though He has established proof and evidence for the resurrection, «the wrongdoers persist in disbelief», unjustly on their part and in rejection of the truth.

«Say: If you possessed the treasures of my Lord's bounty» that never runs out or diminishes

«you would surely hold them back for fear of spending» that is, lest what you spend from them runs out, even though it is impossible for the treasuries of Allah to run out. But man is inherently stingy and miserly.

﴿وَلَقَدْ ءَاتَيْنَا مُوسَىٰ تِسْعَ ءَايَاتٍ بَيِّنَاتٍ ۖ فَسَلَٰلَىٰ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ إِذْ جَآءَهُمْ فَقَالَ لَهُ فِرْعَوْنُ إِنِّي لَأَظُنُّكَ يَمُوسَىٰ مَسْحُورًا ۝١٠١ قَالَ لَقَدْ عَلِمْتَ مَا أَنزَلَ هَٰؤُلَاءِ إِلَّا رَبُّ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَٱلْأَرْضِ بِصَآئِرٍ وَإِنِّي لَأَظُنُّكَ يَنفِرْعَوْتُ مَشْهُورًا ۝١٠٢ فَأَرَادَ أَن يَسْتَفِزَّهُم مِّنَ ٱلْأَرْضِ فَأَغْرَقْنَاهُ وَمَن مَّعَهُ جَمِيعًا ۝١٠٣ وَقُلْنَا مِنۢ بَعْدِهِ لِبَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ أَسْكُنُوا ٱلْأَرْضَ فَإِذَا جَآءَ وَعْدُ ٱلْآخِرَةِ جِئْنَا بِكُمْ لَفِيفًا ۝١٠٤﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ١٠١-١٠٤)

(١٠٤)

- 17:101. We gave Moosâ nine clear signs – ask the Children of Israel. When he came to them, Pharaoh said to him: O Moosâ, indeed I think you are bewitched.
- 17:102. Moosâ said: You know full well that none but the Lord of the heavens and the earth has sent down these [signs] as clear evidence. Verily, O Pharaoh, I think that you are doomed!
- 17:103. So he resolved to drive them out of the land, but We drowned him and all those who were with him.
- 17:104. After his death, we said to the Children of Israel: Dwell in the land, but when the appointed time of the hereafter comes, We will bring you all together as a mixed crowd.

That is: you, O Messenger who is supported by signs, are not the first Messenger to be rejected by the people, for before you We sent Moosâ ibn 'Imrân, to whom We spoke directly, to Pharaoh and his people, and We gave him «nine clear signs», each of which on its own would have been sufficient for anyone whose aim was to follow the truth, such as the snake, the staff, the flood, the locusts, the lice, the frogs, the blood, the plague and the parting of the sea. So if you doubt any of that, ﴿ask the Children of Israel﴾

﴿When he came to them, Pharaoh said to him﴾ despite these signs ﴿O Moosâ, indeed I think you are bewitched﴾.

﴿Moosâ said﴾ to him: ﴿You know full well﴾, O Pharaoh, ﴿that none but the Lord of the heavens and the earth has sent down these [signs] as clear evidence﴾ from Him to His slaves, so your statement is not correct. Rather you only said that in order to deceive your own people and out of disrespect towards their intelligence.

﴿Verily, O Pharaoh, I think that you are doomed!﴾ that is, disgraced and exposed to punishment, subject to condemnation, blame and curses.

﴿So he﴾ namely Pharaoh ﴿resolved to drive them out of the land﴾ that is, to expel them and banish them from the land

﴿but We drowned him and all those who were with him﴾ and we caused the Children of Israel to inherit their land.

Hence Allah says: ﴿After his death, we said to the Children of Israel: Dwell in the land, but when the appointed time of the hereafter comes, We will bring you all together as a mixed crowd﴾ that is, all of you, so that We may requite each one according to his deeds.

﴿وَبِالْحَقِّ أَنزَلْنَاهُ وَبِالْحَقِّ نَزَّلُهُ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا مُبَشِّرًا وَنَذِيرًا﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ١٠٥)

17:105. With the truth We have sent it [the Qur'an] down, and with the truth it has descended. And We have not sent you but as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner.

That is, with the truth We sent down this Noble Qur'an, speaking of commands and prohibitions, reward and punishment.

«With the truth We have sent it [the Qur'an] down» that is, with truth from Allah and justice, and with protection from every accursed devil.

«And We have not sent you but as a bearer of glad tidings» to those who obey Allah, of reward in this world and the hereafter «and a warner» to those who disobey Allah, of punishment in this world and the hereafter. This requires that there should also be further explanation of the glad tidings and warnings that are given.

﴿وَقَرَأْنَاكَ فَرَقْنَاهُ لِتَقْرَأَهُ عَلَى النَّاسِ عَلَى مُكْثٍ وَنَزَّلْنَاهُ تَنْزِيلًا ۝١٠٦﴾ قُلْ ءَامِنُوا بِهِ ؕ أَوَّلًا
تُؤْمِنُوا إِنَّ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ إِذَا يُتْلَى عَلَيْهِمْ يَخِرُّونَ لِلْأَذْقَانِ سُجَّدًا ۝١٠٧﴾ وَيَقُولُونَ
سُبْحَنَ رَبِّنَا إِن كَانَ وَعْدُ رَبِّنَا لَمَفْعُولًا ۝١٠٨﴾ وَيَخِرُّونَ لِلْأَذْقَانِ يَبْكُونَ وَيَزِيدُهُمْ
خُشُوعًا ﴿١٠٩﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ١٠٦-١٠٩)

17:106. It is a Qur'an that We have revealed with clarity so that you may recite it to the people slowly and with deliberation. And We have sent it down little by little.

17:107. Say: Believe in it, or do not believe. Verily, those who were given knowledge before it,<sup>32</sup> when it is recited to them, fall down on their faces in prostration, 17:108. and they say: Glory be to our Lord. Verily the promise of our Lord is ever bound to be fulfilled.

17:109. They fall down on their faces, weeping, and it [the Qur'an] increases them in humility.

<sup>32</sup> Namely the People of the Book (Jews and Christians).

That is, and We have sent down this Qur'an with clarity, to distinguish between guidance and misguidance, truth and falsehood ﴿so that you may recite it to the people slowly and with deliberation﴾, so that they may ponder and reflect upon its meanings, and derive knowledge from it.

﴿And We have sent it down little by little﴾ that is, piecemeal over twenty-three years.

﴿Whenever they come to you [O Muhammad] with an argument, We reveal to you the truth and the best explanation.﴾ (al-Furqân 25: 33)

Once it is clearly established that it is the truth concerning which there is no doubt whatsoever, then ﴿Say﴾ to those who reject it and turn away from it:

﴿Believe in it, or do not believe﴾, for Allah has no need of you and you will not harm Him in the slightest; rather you only harm yourselves, for Allah has slaves other than you and it is they to whom Allah has given beneficial knowledge.

﴿when it is recited to them, fall down on their faces in prostration﴾ that is, they are deeply moved by it and they submit to Him.

﴿and they say: Glory be to our Lord﴾ and exalted be He far above that which is not befitting to His Majesty that the polytheists ascribe to Him.

﴿Verily the promise of our Lord﴾ of the resurrection and requital for deeds

﴿is ever bound to be fulfilled﴾ – it will not be broken and there is no doubt about it.

﴿They fall down on their faces, weeping, and it [the Qur'an] increases them in humility﴾. These people are like those whom Allah blessed of the believers among the People of the Book, such as 'Abdullâh ibn Salâm and others, who believed at the time of the Prophet (ﷺ) and after that.

﴿قُلِ ادْعُوا اللَّهَ أَوْ ادْعُوا الرَّحْمَنَ أَيًّا مَا تَدْعُوا فَلَهُ الْأَسْمَاءُ الْحُسْنَىٰ وَلَا تَجْهَرُ بِصَلَاتِكَ وَلَا تُخَافُ بِهَا وَابْتَغِ بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ سَبِيلًا ۝ وَقُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي لَمْ يَتَّخِذْ وَلَدًا وَلَمْ يَكُن لَّهُ شَرِيكٌ فِي الْمُلْكِ وَلَمْ يَكُن لَّهُ وَلِيٌّ مِّنَ الدَّلِّ وَكَثِيرٌ مُّكِيدٌ ۝﴾ (سورة الإسراء: ١١٠-١١١)

- 17:110. Say [O Muhammad]: Call upon Allah, or call upon the Most Gracious [ar-Rahmân].<sup>33</sup> No matter which name you call upon Him by, to Him belong the most beautiful names. Do not raise your voice too loud in prayer, nor say it in too low a voice, but seek a way in between.
- 17:111. And say: Praise be to Allah Who has never begotten a son, and has no partner in His dominion, nor is anyone [needed] to protect Him due to [any] weakness. And magnify Him by proclaiming His greatness.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His slaves: ﴿Call upon Allah, or call upon the Most Gracious [ar-Rahmân]﴾ that is, whichever name you choose, for ﴿No matter which name you call upon Him by, to Him belong the most beautiful names﴾ that is, He does not have any name that is not beautiful, such that it would not be permissible to call upon Him by it; rather no matter what name you call upon Him by, it will serve the purpose. What should be done is to call upon Him for whatever is sought by the name that is appropriate to that need.

﴿Do not raise your voice too loud in prayer﴾ that is, in your recitation ﴿nor say it in too low a voice﴾ for neither is allowed.

<sup>33</sup> The polytheists of Quraysh objected when they heard the Prophet (ﷺ) saying: O Allah, O Most Gracious (Yâ Allâh, yâ Rahmân). They said: Muhammad enjoins us to call upon One God at the time when he is calling upon two! So this verse was revealed to clarify that there is only One God, to Whom belong the most beautiful names and sublime attributes.

As for raising the voice too loud, if the polytheists who disbelieve in the Qur'an hear it, they revile it and they revile the one who brought it. As for reciting in too low a voice, that does not achieve the purpose because those who want to hear it cannot do so when the voice is too low.

﴿but seek a way in between﴾ that is, between being too loud and too low; in other words, a middle path between the two extremes.

﴿And say: Praise be to Allah﴾ to Whom belong all perfect attributes, praise and glory in all aspects, and Who is far above all faults and shortcomings.

﴿Who has never begotten a son, and has no partner in His dominion﴾; rather all dominion belongs to Allah, the One, the Subduer. Both the upper and lower realms are owned by Him and no one has any share in His dominion.

﴿nor is anyone [needed] to protect Him due to [any] weakness﴾ that is, He does not take anyone from among His creation as a friend in order to seek honour or help from that friendship, for He is the Self-Sufficient, the Most Praiseworthy, Who has no need of any created being on earth or in the heavens. Rather He takes people as close friends out of kindness and mercy towards them.

﴿Allah is the Protector of those who have faith; from the depths of darkness He will lead them forth into light...﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 257)

﴿And magnify Him by proclaiming His greatness﴾ that is, venerate Him and proclaim His greatness by speaking of His great attributes, praising Him by His beautiful names, extolling His glorious actions and honouring Him by worshipping Him alone, with no partner or associate, and showing total devotion to Him alone.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-Isrâ'.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

18.

Soorat al-Kahf

(Makki)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَنزَلَ عَلَى عَبْدِهِ الْكِتَابَ وَلَمْ يَجْعَلْ لَهُ عِوَجًا ﴿١﴾ فِيمَا يُنْذِرَ بَأْسًا
شَدِيدًا مِّن لَّدُنْهُ وَيُبَشِّرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ الَّذِينَ يَعْمَلُونَ الصَّالِحَاتِ أَنَّ لَهُمْ أَجْرًا
حَسَنًا ﴿٢﴾ مَّكِينٍ فِيهِ أَبَدًا ﴿٣﴾ وَيُنذِرَ الَّذِينَ قَالُوا اتَّخَذَ اللَّهُ وَلَدًا ﴿٤﴾
مَا لَهُمْ بِهِ مِنْ عِلْمٍ وَلَا لِآبَائِهِمْ كَبُرَتْ كَلِمَةً تَخْرُجُ مِنْ أَفْوَاهِهِمْ إِنَّ يَقُولُونَ
إِلَّا كَذِبًا ﴿٥﴾ فَلَعَلَّكَ بِنَجْعِ نَفْسِكَ عَلَىٰ عَاقِبَتِهِمْ إِنَّ لَهُمْ يُؤْمِنُوا بِهِذَا الْحَدِيثِ
أَسْفًا ﴿٦﴾ (سورة الكهف: ١-٦)

- 18:1. Praise be to Allah Who has sent down the Book to His slave, and has not allowed any crookedness therein,
18:2. a straightforward Book to warn of a severe punishment from Him, and to give glad tidings to the believers who do righteous deeds, that theirs will be a goodly reward,
18:3. wherein they will abide forever;
18:4. and to warn those who say: Allah has begotten a son.

- 18:5. They have no knowledge of such a thing, nor did their forefathers. Monstrous is the word that comes out of their mouths. What they say is nothing but a lie.
- 18:6. Are you [O Prophet] going to destroy yourself with grief over them, because they do not believe in this message?
-

Praising Allah is extolling Him for His attributes which are all attributes of perfection, and for His blessings both apparent and hidden, spiritual and worldly. The greatest of all His blessings is His sending down of this great Book to His slave and Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ). So Allah praises Himself, which is an implicit instruction to people to praise Him for sending the Messenger (ﷺ) to them and sending down the Book to them.

Then He describes this Book as having two attributes which imply that it is perfect in all aspects. Firstly He states that there is no crookedness in it, and secondly He affirms that it is straightforward. Stating that there is no crookedness in it implies that there are no lies or falsehoods in its stories, no injustice in its commands and prohibitions, and nothing in it is without purpose.

Affirming that it is straightforward implies that it does not enjoin anything but that which is good, and it does not speak of anything but the most sublime issues, which are the issues that fill the heart with knowledge, faith and wisdom, such as when it tells us of the names, attributes and actions of Allah, and stories of the unseen, future and past. Its commands and prohibitions purify and cleanse souls, make them grow and perfect them, because they are based on perfect justice, fairness, sincerity and true servitude to Allah, the Lord of the worlds, alone, with no partner or associate. With regard to a Book that is described in such terms, it is very appropriate that Allah should praise Himself for having sent it down and that He should remind His slaves of this favour.

﴿to warn of a severe punishment from Him﴾ that is, to warn by means of this Holy Qur'an of the consequences that will result, by His will and decree, for those who go against his command. This includes punishment in this world and punishment in the hereafter. This is also one of His blessings, that He alarms His slaves and warns them of that which will cause them harm and destroy them. This is like the verse in which He, after giving a description of the fire, says: ﴿...Thus Allah instills fear in His slaves: O My slaves, then fear Me!﴾ (az-Zumar 39: 16)

By His mercy towards His slaves, He has decreed severe punishments for those who go against His command, and He has explained it to them and described the causes that lead to that.

﴿and to give glad tidings to the believers who do righteous deeds, that theirs will be a goodly reward﴾ that is, and Allah has sent down to His slaves the Book, to give glad tidings to those who believe in Him and in His Messengers and Books, those whose faith is complete. And He enjoined upon them righteous deeds, both obligatory and encouraged, on the basis of both sincerity and following the teachings of the Sunnah.

﴿that theirs will be a goodly reward﴾ – this is the reward that Allah has made dependent on faith and righteous deeds, the greatest and most significant of which is attaining the pleasure of Allah and admittance to paradise, in which there is that which no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it ever crossed the mind of man.

The fact that the reward is described as goodly indicates that the reward will not be interrupted by anything that could cause annoyance or undermine its joy in any way. If there had been any such element in the reward, it would not have been described as goodly.

Moreover, this goodly reward is one in which ﴿they will abide forever﴾ and it will never leave them and they will never leave it. Rather it is a life of ever-increasing bliss. These glad tidings require a mention of the deeds that may lead to that of which the glad tidings speak, therefore this Qur'an refers to every good deed that leads to that which will bring joy to the heart.

﴿and to warn those who say: Allah has begotten a son﴾ namely the Jews, Christians and polytheists who utter such monstrous words. They are not speaking on the basis of certain knowledge, or knowledge that they or their forefathers whom they imitate and follow possessed; rather they followed nothing but conjecture and whims and desires.

﴿Monstrous is the word that comes out of their mouths﴾ that is, it is something extremely abhorrent that deserves the severest punishment. What could be worse than to describe Allah as taking a child, which implies imperfection and shortcomings, and suggests that someone other than Him has a share with Him in the attributes of Lordship and divinity, and is a lie against Him? ﴿Who does greater evil than he who fabricates lies against Allah?﴾ (18: 15) Hence Allah says here: ﴿What they say is nothing but a lie﴾ that is, a pure lie in which there is no element of truth. See how He proves this notion to be false, gradually moving from one thing to another that is even more wrong. So first of all He says: ﴿They have no knowledge of such a thing, nor did their forefathers﴾, for speaking about Allah without knowledge is undoubtedly prohibited and wrong. Then, secondly, He tells us that it is a reprehensible and abhorrent notion, as He says: ﴿Monstrous is the word that comes out of their mouths﴾. And, thirdly, He states that it is a lie and is contrary to the truth.

The Prophet (ﷺ) was keen for people to be guided and he strove hard to achieve that; he would rejoice and be happy when people were guided and he would feel sad and be filled with sorrow for the misguided disbelievers, out of compassion and pity towards them. Therefore Allah instructed him not to be distracted by worry or sorrow for these people who did not believe in this Qur'an, as He said later in this passage: ﴿Are you [O Prophet] going to destroy yourself with grief over them, because they do not believe?﴾ (18: 6). And He says elsewhere:

﴿...So do not let yourself waste away in sorrow for them...﴾ (Fâṭir 35: 8)

﴿Are you [O Prophet] going to destroy yourself with grief over them﴾ that is, with sorrow over them? For your reward is due from Allah, and if Allah knew of any good in these people, He would have guided them, but He knows that they are fit for nothing but the fire. Therefore He has forsaken them, and they were not guided, so distracting yourself with worry and sorrow for them will not benefit you.

There is a lesson in this and similar verses: the one who is instructed to call people to Allah must convey the message and strive by all possible means to guide them and block the path of misguidance as much as he can, whilst putting his trust in Allah. Then if they are guided, all well and good, otherwise he should not grieve or feel sad, for that weakens one's resolve and saps one's strength, and there is no benefit in it. Rather he should carry on and persist in doing what he is instructed to do and is already doing, for anything other than that is beyond his means. Allah says to His Prophet (ﷺ):

﴿...you [O Muhammad] cannot guide whomever you like...﴾ (al-Qaṣaṣ 28: 56)

Moosâ (ﷺ) said:

﴿...O my Lord, I have control only over myself and my brother...﴾ (al-Mâ'idah 5: 25)

In the case of people other than the Prophets it is even more appropriate to note that they have no control over the guidance of others. Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿So admonish [O Muhammad], for you are but sent to admonish; you have no power over them.﴾ (al-Ghâshiyah 88: 21-22)

﴿ إِنَّا جَعَلْنَا مَا عَلَى الْأَرْضِ زِينَةً لِّهَا لِنَبْلُوهُمْ أَيُّهُمْ أَحْسَنُ عَمَلًا ﴾ (٧) وَإِنَّا
لَجَاعِلُونَ مَا عَلَيْهَا صَعِيدًا جُرُزًا ﴿٨﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٧-٨)

18:7. Verily We have made all that is on earth as an adornment for it, in order to test them [humankind] and see which of them are best in conduct.

18:8. And verily We will reduce all that is on it to a barren wasteland.

Here Allah tells us that He has made all that is on the face of the earth, delicious food and drink, fine dwellings, trees, rivers, crops, fruits, beautiful scenery, elegant gardens, enchanting voices, delightful images, gold and silver, horses and camels, and so on – all of that Allah has made as an adornment for this realm, and as a trial and test.

﴿in order to test them [humankind] and see which of them are best in conduct﴾ that is, the most sincere and correct in deeds. Yet despite that, Allah will cause all the things mentioned here to diminish, vanish and come to an end, and the earth will become a barren wasteland, all its pleasures gone, its rivers cut off, all traces of goodness disappeared and its delights vanished. This is the reality of this world, which Allah has made clear to us as if we could see it with our own eyes. He warns us against being deceived by it, and encourages us to seek the realm where delights will last forever and the one who reaches it will be blessed; all of that is out of mercy towards us. Those who look at this world as it appears to be, without looking at its reality, will be deceived by its adornments and finery, so they will live in this world like animals, enjoying it like grazing cattle, not paying any attention to the rights of their Lord or caring to know Him; rather their main focus is pursuit of worldly pleasures, regardless of how they attain them or indulge in them. When death approaches such a person, he feels anxious because he is going to vanish and will no longer enjoy its pleasures, and not because of his deeds of negligence and sin.

But the one who looks at the reality of this world, and understands the purpose of it and of his own creation, will take from it that which will help him to fulfil the purpose for which he was created, and he will make the most of the valuable life that he has been given. So he will regard this world as a place through which he passes, not a place to settle down and have fun, for it is a place through which to travel, not a place of final abode. So he strives hard to know his Lord, obey His commands and do good deeds. This is the best status before Allah, and he deserves from Allah all honour, pleasure and joy. He looks at the reality of this world, whereas the one who is deceived looks only at its outward appearance, and He strives for the sake of his hereafter, whereas the one who wastes his time strives for worldly gain. What a great difference there is between the two.

﴿أَمْ حَسِبْتَ أَنَّ أَصْحَابَ الْكَهْفِ وَالرَّقِيمِ كَانُوا مِنْ آيَاتِنَا عَجَبًا﴾ (٩) إِذْ أَوَى
الْفَتْيَةُ إِلَى الْكَهْفِ فَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا آتِنَا مِنْ لَدُنْكَ رَحْمَةً وَهَيِّئْ لَنَا مِنْ أَمْرِنَا رَشَدًا
﴿١٠﴾ فَضَرَبْنَا عَلَى آذَانِهِمْ فِي الْكَهْفِ سِنِينَ عَدَدًا ﴿١١﴾ ثُمَّ بَعَثْنَاهُمْ لِنَعْلَمَ أَيُّ
الْحَزِينِ أَخَصَّ لِمَا لَبِثُوا أَمَدًا ﴿١٢﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٩-١٢)

18:9. Do you think that the people of the cave and the inscription<sup>34</sup> were more wondrous than Our other signs?

18:10. When the young men took refuge in the cave, they said: Our Lord, bestow upon us mercy from Yourself, and guide us through our ordeal.

<sup>34</sup> The inscription (ar-raqeem) was a tablet or plaque on which were written the names and lineage of the people of the cave. (al-Jalālayn)

- 18:11. Then We caused them to fall into a deep sleep in the cave for many years.
- 18:12. Then We awoke them so that We might see which of the two parties would best calculate the length of their stay [in the cave].

«Do you think that the people of the cave and the inscription were more wondrous than Our other signs?» This appears in the form of a question, but what is meant is a negatory statement and instruction not to think that the story of the people of the cave and what happened to them was something unprecedented among the signs of Allah, or that it was a brilliant sign of His wisdom that was unique and unparalleled. Rather Allah (ﷻ) has sent many wondrous and amazing signs that were akin to the signs of the people of the cave, and even greater than that. And Allah is still showing His slaves signs in the universe and in their own selves, through which truth becomes distinct from falsehood, and guidance from misguidance. This negatory statement does not mean that the story of the people of the cave was not a wonder, for it is one of the wondrous signs of Allah; rather what is meant is that there are many such wonders, therefore limiting our amazement and wonder to this story only, to the exclusion of others, is a sign of lack of knowledge and reason. Rather the believer should think of all the signs of Allah that Allah calls people to reflect upon, for that is the key to faith and the way to attain knowledge and certainty.

Allah describes them as «people of the cave and the inscription» – which was a plaque on which their names and their story were written – because they stayed in that cave for a long time.

Then Allah tells us their story in brief, followed by more details.

«When the young men took refuge in the cave» with the aim of seeking protection for themselves and keeping away from the persecution of their own people,

﴿they said: Our Lord, bestow upon us mercy from Yourself﴾ that is, make us steadfast, protect us from evil and help us to do good.

﴿and guide us through our ordeal﴾ that is, make easy for us that which is best for us, and put right all our affairs, both spiritual and worldly. Thus they combined striving and fleeing from persecution to a place where they could hide, with beseeching Allah and asking Him to help them in their ordeal, and demonstrating that they were not relying on themselves or on other people.

Hence Allah answered this supplication and saved them by means of something they never reckoned on.

﴿Then We caused them to fall into a deep sleep in the cave for many years﴾, that is, three hundred and nine years. By means of the sleep mentioned, their hearts were protected from confusion and fear, and they were also protected from their people, so that they might become a clear sign.

﴿Then We awoke them﴾ from their sleep

﴿so that We might see which of the two parties would best calculate the length of their stay [in the cave]﴾. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Similarly [as We caused them to sleep], We awoke them so that they might question one another﴾ (18: 19). Learning how long they stayed there and reaching the right figure will lead one to acknowledge the perfect might, wisdom and mercy of Allah (ﷻ), for if they had remained asleep, their story would not have been known to anyone.

﴿نَحْنُ نَقُصُّ عَلَيْكَ نَبَأَهُم بِالْحَقِّ إِنَّهُمْ فِيهِ عَامَتُوا لِرَبِّهِمْ وَزِدْنَاهُمْ هُدًى
وَرَبَطْنَا عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ إِذْ قَامُوا فَقَالُوا رَبُّنَا رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ لَن نَدْعُوا
مِنْ دُونِهِ إِلَهًا لَقَدْ قُلْنَا إِذَا شَطَطًا﴾ (سورة الكهف: ١٣-١٤)

18:13. We recount to you their story in truth: they were young men who believed in their Lord, and We increased them in guidance.

18:14. We strengthened their hearts when they stood up and declared: Our Lord is the Lord of the heavens and the earth. We will never call upon any god besides Him; if we did, we would then have uttered an abomination.

---

The details of the story begin here. Allah recounts the story to His Prophet (ﷺ) in truth, and there can be no doubt or confusion concerning it.

«they were young men who believed in their Lord» the word translated here as «young men» appears in a plural form which indicates that they were few, that is, less than ten in number. They believed in Allah alone, with no partner or associate, unlike their people.

«and We increased them in guidance». In other words, because they took the initiative and were guided to faith in the first place, Allah increased them in guidance, which is beneficial knowledge and righteous deeds, as He says elsewhere:

«Allah increases in guidance those who are guided...» (Maryam 19: 76)

«We strengthened their hearts» that is, We gave them patience and make them steadfast, and We instilled reassurance in their hearts in that alarming situation. This was by Allah's kindness towards them: He enabled them to believe and be guided, and He granted them patience, steadfastness and reassurance.

«when they stood up and declared: Our Lord is the Lord of the heavens and the earth» that is, the One Who created us and granted us provision, Who controls us and cares for us, is the Creator of the heavens and the earth, the only One Who could create these mighty creations, not those idols and images that do not create or grant provision, and have no power to bring benefit or cause harm, or to cause death, give life or bring about resurrection. They quoted the oneness of divine Lordship as evidence for the oneness of divinity, hence they said:

﴿We will never call upon any god besides Him﴾ that is, from among created beings

﴿if we did﴾ that is, if we called upon other gods besides Him, after we have come to know that He is the Lord God and it is not permissible or appropriate to worship any but Him

﴿we would then have uttered an abomination﴾ that is, something that is far removed from truth. Thus they combined affirmation of the oneness of Lordship and the oneness of divinity, and adherence to that, with the declaration that He is true and all others besides Him are false. This is indicative of their perfect knowledge of their Lord and increased guidance from Allah.

هَؤُلَاءِ قَوْمُنَا اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ آلِهَةً لَوْلَا يَأْتُونَ عَلَيْهِمْ سُلْطَانٌ بَيِّنٌ
فَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنِ افْتَرَى عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا ﴿١٥﴾ (سورة الكهف: ١٥)

18:15. These people of ours have taken for worship gods other than Him; why do they not bring any clear authority for what they do? Who does greater evil than he who fabricates lies against Allah?

Having mentioned what Allah had bestowed upon them of faith and guidance, they then mentioned what their people were following, of taking gods besides Allah. They resented them for that, and stated that their people had no proof for that; rather they were extremely ignorant and misguided.

﴿why do they not bring any clear authority for what they do?﴾ that is, proof and evidence for what they are following of falsehood, but they can never do that; rather that is a fabrication against Allah on their part, and telling lies about Him, and this is the worst type of wrongdoing. Hence Allah says: «Who does greater evil than he who fabricates lies against Allah?»

﴿وَإِذْ آخَرْتُمُوهُمْ وَمَا يَعْبُدُونَ إِلَّا اللَّهَ فَأْوُوا إِلَى الْكَهْفِ يَنْشُرْ لَكُمْ رَبُّكُمْ مِنْ رَحْمَتِهِ وَيُهَيِّئْ لَكُمْ مِنْ أَمْرِكُمْ مَرْفَقًا﴾ (سورة الكهف: ١٦)

18:16. Now that you have withdrawn from them and all that they worship, except Allah, take refuge in the cave; your Lord will shower His mercy upon you and will make fitting provision for you in your situation.

They said to one another: As you have withdrawn from your people both physically and in religious terms, there is nothing left but to be saved from their evil and to take measures that will lead to that. That is because they had no way of fighting them and they could not remain among them when they were following a religion other than theirs.

«take refuge in the cave» that is, go and hide there
«your Lord will shower His mercy upon you and will make fitting provision for you in your situation».

As stated above, Allah tells us that they called upon Him, saying: «Our Lord, bestow upon us mercy from Yourself, and guide us through our ordeal» (18: 10). Thus they combined the declaration that they had no power or strength, turning to Allah to take care of them and praying for that, with trusting that Allah would do that. So it is no wonder that Allah showered His mercy upon them and made fitting provision for them in that situation. He preserved their religious commitment and physical well-being, made them a sign to His creation and made their name renowned, which was part of His mercy towards them. He made things easy for them, so that even the place where they slept was the most appropriate for their situation. Hence He says:

﴿وَرَرَى الشَّمْسَ إِذَا طَلَعَتْ تَزَوُّرٌ عَنْ كَهْفِهِمْ ذَاتَ الْيَمِينِ وَإِذَا غَرَبَتْ تَقَرَّبُ مِنْهُمْ ذَاتَ الشِّمَالِ وَهُمْ فِي فَجْوَةٍ مِنْهُ ذَلِكَ مِنْ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ مَنْ يَهْدِ اللَّهُ فَهُوَ الْمُهْتَدِ وَمَنْ يُضِلِلْ فَلَنْ تَجِدَ لَهُ وَلِيًّا مُرْشِدًا ﴿١٧﴾ وَتَحْسَبُهُمْ آيْكَاطًا وَهُمْ رُقُودٌ وَنُقِلَبُهُمْ ذَاتَ الْيَمِينِ وَذَاتَ الشِّمَالِ وَكَلْبُهُمْ بَاسِطٌ ذِرَاعَيْهِ بِالْوَصِيدِ لَوِ اطَّلَعْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ لَوَلَّيْتَ مِنْهُمْ فِرَارًا وَلَمُلِئْتَ مِنْهُمْ رُعبًا ﴿١٨﴾﴾ (سورة الكهف: ١٧-١٨)

18:17. You would have seen the sun, when it rose, declining to the right from their cave, and when it set, turning away from them to the left, while they were in the spacious part of it. That was one of the signs of Allah. He whom Allah guides is rightly guided; but he whom Allah causes to go astray, for him you will find no guardian to guide him.

18:18. You would have thought they were awake, although they were sleeping. We caused them to turn over, onto their right and left sides, while their dog lay at the cave's entrance with legs outstretched. If you had seen them, you would certainly have turned and fled, filled with fear of them.

Allah protected them from the sun by making available to them a cave where, when the sun rose, it declined to the right away from it, and when it set, it turned away from it to the left, so its heat did not touch them and cause damage to their bodies.

«while they were in the spacious part of it» that is, of the cave, namely a wide part of it. That was so that fresh air and breezes could reach them, thus taking away any staleness and protecting them from such discomfort as would exist in a narrow space, especially as they stayed there for a long time. This is one of the signs of Allah that point to His power and His mercy towards them, and how He answered their prayers and guided them, even in this situation. Hence He says:

﴿He whom Allah guides is rightly guided﴾ that is, there is no way to attain guidance except from Allah, for He guides to all that is best in both realms (this world and the hereafter).

﴿but he whom Allah causes to go astray, for him you will find no guardian to guide him﴾ that is, you will not find anyone to care for him or control his affairs in a way that is good for him, or to show him the way to goodness and success, for Allah has decreed misguidance for him, and none can put back His decree.

﴿You would have thought they were awake, although they were sleeping﴾ that is, if you had seen them, you would have thought they were awake, when in fact they were asleep. The commentators said: that is because their eyes were open, so that they would not be damaged, so the one who looked at them would have thought that they were awake, although they were asleep.

﴿We caused them to turn over, onto their right and left sides﴾ this was also to protect their bodies, for the earth naturally consumes bodies that are in direct contact with it. But by the decree of Allah, He caused them to turn over onto their right and left sides, as much as was needed to prevent the earth causing damage to their bodies. Allah (ﷻ) was able to protect them from the earth without turning them over, but He is Most Wise, and He wanted His universal laws to be consistent and for causes and effects to remain in place.

﴿while their dog lay at the cave's entrance with legs outstretched﴾ that is, the dog that was with the people of the cave experienced the same as they did of sleep, as he was guarding them, lying at the entrance to the cave with his legs outstretched. This has to do with their protection from the earth. As for their protection from other people, Allah tells us that He protected them by means of fear, as He surrounded them with an atmosphere of fear so that if anyone had come across them, his heart would have been filled with fear, and he would have turned and fled. This is what helped them to remain there for so long without anyone coming to know of them, even though they were very close to the city. The evidence that they were so close is that when they woke up, they sent one of their number to buy some food for them from the city, whilst they stayed there and waited for him. This indicates that they were very close to the city.

﴿وَكَذَلِكَ بَعَثْنَاهُمْ لِيَتَسَاءَلُوا بَيْنَهُمْ قَالَ قَائِلٌ مِّنْهُمْ كَمْ لَبِثْتُمْ قَالُوا لَبِثْنَا يَوْمًا أَوْ بَعْضَ يَوْمٍ قَالُوا رَبُّكُمْ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا لَبِثْتُمْ فَابْعَثُوا أَحَدَكُمْ بِوَرِقِكُمْ هَذِهِ إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ فَلْيَنْظُرْ أَيُّهَا أَزْكَى طَعَامًا فَلْيَأْتِكُمْ بِرِزْقٍ مِنْهُ وَلْيَتَلَطَّفْ وَلَا يُشْعِرَنَّ بِكُمْ أَحَدًا ﴿١٩﴾ إِنَّهُمْ إِنْ يَظْهَرُوا عَلَيْكُمْ يَرْجُمُوكُمْ أَوْ يُعِيدُوكُمْ فِي مِلَّتِهِمْ وَلَنْ تُفْلِحُوا إِذَا أَبَدًا ﴿٢٠﴾﴾ (سورة الكهف: ١٩-٢٠)

18:19. Similarly [as We caused them to sleep], We awoke them so that they might question one another. One of them said: How long have you been here? They said: We have been here for a day, or part of a day. They said: Your Lord knows best how long you have been here. Let one of you go to the city with this silver of yours, and find out which is the best food [to be had] and bring some to you. But let him be cautious and not let your presence be known.

18:20. For if they find out about you, they will stone you or force you to return to their religion, and in that case you will never prosper.

﴿Similarly [as We caused them to sleep], We awoke them﴾ from their lengthy sleep

﴿so that they might question one another﴾ that is, so that they might discuss how long they had actually stayed there.

﴿One of them said: How long have you been here? They said: We have been here for a day, or part of a day﴾. This was based on speculation on the speaker's part. It is as if they were confused and uncertain about the length of their stay, hence ﴿They said: Your Lord knows best how long you have been here﴾. Thus they referred knowledge of the matter to the One Whose knowledge encompasses all things, in general terms and in detail.

Perhaps after that Allah (ﷻ) informed them of how long they had remained there, because He awoke them so that they might question one another, and He tells us that they did question one another and give their answers to the best of their knowledge, but at the end of their discussion they were still uncertain. But Allah must have told them the certain answer, and we know that because of the reason why He awoke them, for He would not have done that with no purpose. By His mercy towards the one who seeks the truth in matters that he should learn about and strive for that purpose as much as he can, Allah will clarify matters for him. Moreover we know this from a subsequent verse in which Allah says: ﴿Thus We caused them to be discovered, so that the people might know that the promise of Allah is true and that there can be no doubt about the Hour﴾ (18: 21). If knowledge concerning the length of their stay was not certain, there would not have been a sign or evidence for what is mentioned (in 18: 21, namely the Hour).

Moreover, when they questioned one another, and there happened that of which Allah tells us, they sent one of their number with their silver – that is, the dirhams that they had with them – to buy some food for them to eat from the city that they had left, and they instructed him to choose the best and most delicious food, and to be cautious and exercise stealth when going there, buying it and coming back, so that no one would be aware of his presence or that of his brothers.

They also mentioned what they feared if people were to find out about them, for one of two things would happen to them: either they would stone them and kill them in the worst manner, because of their resentment towards them and their religion, or they would force them to give up their religion and go back to the people's religion, in which case they would never prosper; rather they would lose their religion and would lose out in this world and the hereafter.

From these two verses we learn a number of things:

- It is encouraged to seek knowledge and discuss it, because Allah awoke them for that purpose.
- The proper etiquette to follow in the event of being uncertain about an issue of knowledge; it should be referred to someone who knows about it, and we should not go beyond what we know.
- It is valid to delegate someone to buy and sell on behalf of another person, and to have partners in doing so.
- It is permissible to eat good and delicious food, so long as that does not go to the extent of extravagance that is prohibited, because Allah tells us that they said: ﴿and find out which is the best food [to be had] and bring some to you﴾ (18: 19). This applies especially if a person is used to that and nothing else will suit him. Perhaps this is the evidence for many of the commentators who suggested that these people were the sons of kings, because they told him to bring the best food, that is usually eaten by rich and prominent people.
- It is encouraged to be cautious and keep a low profile, and to keep away from places where one could be persecuted for religious reasons, using discretion and concealing any information about oneself and one's fellow believers. These young men were very devoted to their religion and they fled from religious persecution, leaving their homeland for the sake of Allah.
- Allah tells us how evil could lead to harm and corruption, that should make one hate it and keep away from it. This is the way of the believers of earlier and later generations, because they said (if the disbelievers forced them to recant their faith): «and in that case you will never prosper» (18: 20).

﴿وَكَذَلِكَ أَتَيْنَاهُم لِيُعْلَمُوا أَنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَأَنَّ السَّاعَةَ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهَا إِذِ يَتَنَزَّعُونَ بَيْنَهُمْ أَمْرَهُمْ فَقَالُوا ابْنُوا عَلَيْهِم بُنْيَانًا رَبُّهُمْ أَعْلَمُ بِهِمْ قَالَ الَّذِينَ غَلَبُوا عَلَىٰ أَمْرِهِمْ لَنَتَّخِذَنَّ عَلَيْهِم مَّسْجِدًا﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٢١)

18:21. Thus We caused them to be discovered, so that the people might know that the promise of Allah is true and that there can be no doubt about the Hour, at a time when they were disputing among themselves concerning the matter [of resurrection]. Some said: Build a structure over them; their Lord knows best about them. Those who prevailed in the matter said: We will surely build a place of worship over them.

Here Allah tells us that He caused the people to find out about the people of the cave. That – and Allah knows best – came about after they had woken up and sent one of their number to buy food for them, and they instructed him to be cautious and keep a low profile. But Allah willed something that was in the people's best interests, and would increase the reward (of the people of the cave), which was that the people would see in them a visible sign of Allah, to show that the promise of Allah is true, beyond any shadow of doubt, and it is not something far-fetched or unlikely, after the people had been disputing about the matter, some of them believing in the promise of resurrection and requital, whilst others denied it. Thus Allah caused their story to increase the believers in insight and certainty, and to establish proof against those who denied it, and the people of the cave attained reward for that.

Allah caused the story to become well known, and He raised them in status until they were held in high esteem by those who discovered them, who said: «Build a structure over them». Allah knows best about them and what their ultimate fate will be.

«Those who prevailed in the matter» – who were the people in authority – «said: We will surely build a place of worship over them» where we will worship Allah and remember their story and what happened to them. This is something that is not allowed, as the Prophet (ﷺ) forbade it and criticised those who do it. The fact that it is mentioned here does not mean that it is not blameworthy. Rather the context here has to do with veneration of the people of the cave and praise for them, and tells us that the respect of those who found out about them reached such a level that they decided to build a place of worship over them, after the people of the cave had been so afraid of their own people and had taken precautions to avoid being discovered, then matters turned out as you see.

This story tells us that whoever flees from persecution for the sake of his religion, Allah will protect him from that; whoever strives to maintain his well-being, Allah will grant him that; whoever seeks refuge with Allah, Allah will grant him refuge and cause him to be a means of guidance for others; whoever puts up with humiliation for His sake, seeking His pleasure, the ultimate consequences will be high status for him that will be achieved in a manner that he does not expect.

«...and that which is with Allah is best for the righteous.» (Āl 'Imrān 3: 198)

﴿سَيَقُولُونَ ثَلَاثَةٌ رَّابِعُهُمْ كَلْبُهُمْ وَيَقُولُونَ خَمْسَةٌ سَادِسُهُمْ كَلْبُهُمْ رَجْمًا بِالْغَيْبِ وَيَقُولُونَ سَبْعَةٌ وَثَامِنُهُمْ كَلْبُهُمْ قُلْ رَّبِّي أَعْلَمُ بِعِدَّتِهِمْ مَا يَعْلَمُهُمْ إِلَّا

قَلِيلٌ فَلَا تُمَارِ فِيهِمْ إِلَّا مِرَاءً ظَاهِرًا وَلَا تَسْتَفْتِ فِيهِمْ مِنْهُمْ أَحَدًا ﴿٢٢﴾ (سورة
الكهف: ٢٢)

18:22. Some will say: There were three of them, their dog being the fourth. Others will say: There were five of them, their dog being the sixth, guessing at the unseen. And others will say: There were seven of them, their dog being the eighth. Say [O Muhammad]: My Lord knows best their number. None but a few have any real knowledge of them. So do not enter into discussion with them about them except in a brief and polite manner, or ask any one of them concerning them.

Here Allah tells us of the differences of opinion among the People of the Book regarding the number of the people of the cave. This difference stemmed from guesswork about a matter of the unseen, and their speaking about something of which they had no knowledge. There were three views among them:

Some of them said that there were three of them, with their dog being the fourth. Others said that there were five of them, with their dog being the sixth. After mentioning these two views, Allah tells us that they were guessing at the unseen, which indicates that they were incorrect.

And some of them said that there were seven of them, with their dog being the eighth. This – and Allah knows best – is the correct view, because Allah stated that the first two were wrong, but He did not state that this was wrong, which indicates that it is correct.

This is a kind of dispute which is of no benefit, because knowing how many they were does not serve any interest for people, whether spiritual or worldly, hence Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿My Lord knows best their number. None but a few have any real knowledge of them﴾ and they are the ones who got it right and knew that they got it right. ﴿So do not enter into discussion﴾ that is, do not argue or debate

﴿with them about them except in a brief and polite manner﴾ that is, based on knowledge and certainty, which should also serve a purpose. As for arguing that is based on ignorance and guesswork at the unseen, in which there is no benefit – either because the person arguing is stubborn, or the issue is unimportant and there is no religious benefit in knowing about it, such as the number of the people of the cave, and so on – then arguing a great deal about it or discussing it on an ongoing basis is a waste of time and could damage relationships among people for no good reason.

﴿or ask any one of them﴾ namely the People of the Book ﴿concerning them﴾ namely the people of the cave. That is because what they say about them is based on guessing at the unseen and speculation that does not serve any real purpose or lead to any certainty. This indicates that it is not allowed to seek fatwas from one who is not fit to issue fatwas, either because he does not have sufficient knowledge concerning the issue asked about, or because he is careless in his talk and may give any answer, as he has no fear of Allah to deter him from doing so. As it is forbidden to ask questions of such a person, it is more appropriate that the person himself should be forbidden to answer questions (because he is ignorant).

This verse also indicates that it may be forbidden to ask a person about some things and not others, so he may be asked about that of which he has knowledge, but not other matters, because Allah did not forbid us to ask them questions in all cases; rather He only forbade us to ask them about the story of the people of the cave and similar matters.

﴿وَلَا تَقُولَنَّ لِشَايْءٍ إِنِّي فَاعِلٌ ذَٰلِكَ غَدًا ۚ ﴿٢٣﴾ إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ ۚ وَادْكُرْ رَبَّكَ إِذَا نَسِيتَ وَقُلْ عَسَى أَنْ يَهْدِيَنَّ رَبِّي لِأَقْرَبَ مِنْ هَٰذَا رَشْدًا ۚ ﴿٢٤﴾﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٢٣-٢٤)

- 18:23. Never say of anything: I will surely do that tomorrow, 18:24. without adding: If Allah wills. And remember your Lord if you forget,<sup>35</sup> and say: I hope that my Lord will guide me to something closer to right guidance than this [matter concerning which I forgot to say: If Allah wills].

This prohibition is like others; although it was addressed to the Messenger (ﷺ) for a specific reason, it is also applicable to all accountable individuals. Allah forbade the individual to say, concerning matters in the future, «I will surely do that» without also mentioning the will of Allah. This is so as to avoid falling into error, which is speaking of the unseen future without being certain as to whether he will do it or not, or whether it will happen or not. That is because failing to say “if Allah wills” is attributing the action to the will of the individual, independently of Allah, and that is not allowed, because the will is all Allah’s.

«But you cannot will it unless Allah, the Lord of the worlds, so wills it.» (at-Takweer 81: 29)

Moreover, mentioning the will of Allah makes things easier, brings barakah (blessing) and is a means of seeking the help of one’s Lord.

But because people are only human, they will inevitably sometimes forget this and not mention the will of Allah (by saying “if Allah wills”). Therefore Allah instructs the individual to say it after that, when he remembers, so as to do what is required and ward off what one seeks to avoid.

From the general meaning of the words «And remember your Lord if you forget» we understand that it is enjoined to remember Allah when one forgets, because that will alleviate forgetfulness and <sup>35</sup> What is meant is that if you realise that you said something you wanted to do in the future without saying “if Allah wills (in shâ’ Allâh)”, you should say this phrase when you realise that, even if that is after a while.

cause the individual to remember what he forgot. Similarly, the one who forgets to remember Allah is instructed to remember his Lord, and not to be among the negligent.

Because the individual needs Allah to help him and guide him to what is right, and protect him from falling into error in word and deed, Allah instructs him to say: «I hope that my Lord will guide me to something closer to right guidance than this [matter concerning which I forgot to say: If Allah wills]». Thus He instructs him to call upon Allah and put his hopes in Him, and trust Him to guide him to that which is closer to right guidance. No wonder that if a person is like this, then he does his utmost and tries hard to seek guidance and the right path, he deserves to be helped and guided, and to receive divine aid that will help him to do the right thing in all his affairs.

﴿وَلْيَتُوبَا فِي كَهْفِهِمَا ثَلَاثَ مِائَةٍ سِنِينَ وَازْدَادُوا تِسْعًا﴾ ٢٥ قُلِ اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا لِيَتُوبَا لَهُ غَيْبُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ أَبْصِرْ بِهِ وَأَسْمِعْ مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا يُشْرِكُ فِي حُكْمِهِ أَحَدًا ﴿٢٦﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٢٥-٢٦)

18:25. They remained in their cave for three hundred years, plus nine.

18:26. Say: Allah knows best how long they remained there. To Him belongs [knowledge of] all that is unseen in the heavens and on earth. How well He sees and how well He hears! Besides Him they have no protector, and He allows none to share in His decree.

Having forbidden the Prophet (ﷺ) to ask the People of the Book about the issue of the people of the cave – because they have no knowledge of that, but Allah is the Knower of the unseen and the seen, the Knower of all things – He now tells him how long they stayed there, and states that the knowledge of that is with Him alone, for this is a matter of the unseen of the heavens and the earth, and only He has knowledge of the unseen thereof. What He has told us about it on the lips of His Messengers is the certain truth concerning which there is no doubt, and whatever He did not inform His Messengers of, no one in creation can know it.

﴿How well He sees and how well He hears!﴾ This is an expression of admiration of the perfection of His hearing and seeing, which encompass all that can be heard and seen. This comes after the statement that His knowledge encompasses all that can be known.

Then Allah tells us that He alone is the protector in a general sense and in a specific sense, for He is the only One Who takes care of and is in control of all of creation, and Who protects His believing slaves, bringing them forth from the depths of darkness to the light, guiding them to that which is easy and protecting them from that which is difficult and hard. Hence He says: ﴿Besides Him they have no protector﴾ that is, it is He Who protected and took care of the people of the cave, by His kindness and generosity, and He did not leave them to the care of any of His creation.

﴿and He allows none to share in His decree﴾ this includes His universal decree and His religious decree. He is the One Who is in control of His creation, in terms of His will and decree, creation and control, and He is the One Who rules over them in terms of commands and prohibitions, reward and punishment.

Having stated that the unseen of the heavens and the earth belong to Him, so no created being has any way of knowing that except through the way in which He has informed His slaves of it – which is this Qur'an which tells a great deal about unseen matters – Allah (ﷻ) then instructs us to focus on the Qur'an:

﴿وَأَنزَلُ مَا أَوْحَىٰ إِلَيْكَ مِن كِتَابِ رَبِّكَ لَا مُبَدِّلَ لِكَلِمَاتِهِ، وَلَن تَجِدَ مِن دُونِهِ مُلْتَحَدًا﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٢٧)

18:27. Recite [and follow] what has been revealed to you [O Muhammad] of the Book of your Lord; none can change His words, and none will you find as a refuge other than Him.

Recitation requires following; in other words, follow what Allah has revealed to you by knowing and understanding its meanings, believing the stories mentioned therein, and complying with its commands and prohibitions, for it is a great Book of which no one can change the words. It does not change because it is true and just, and because it reached the utmost level of beauty and eloquence.

﴿The word of your Lord is perfect in truth and justice...﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 115)

Because it is perfect, it is impossible for it to change. If it were imperfect, it would be exposed to change, to a greater or lesser extent. This is a commendation of the Qur'an and implicit encouragement to focus on it.

﴿and none will you find as a refuge other than Him﴾ that is, you will never find any other than your Lord to whom you may turn. Once it has become clear that He is the only One to turn to in all one's affairs, this indicates that there is no other option but to worship Him alone and pray to Him at times of ease and of hardship, for He is the only One Who is needed in all situations and the only One to be asked for all one's needs.

﴿وَأَصْبِرْ نَفْسَكَ مَعَ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ رَبَّهُمْ بِالْغَدَاةِ وَالْعَشِيِّ يُرِيدُونَ وَجْهَهُ، وَلَا تَعْدُ عَيْنَاكَ عَنْهُمْ تُرِيدُ زِينَةَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَلَا تُطِعْ مَنْ أَغْفَلْنَا قَلْبَهُ عَنْ ذِكْرِنَا وَاتَّبَعَ هَوَاهُ وَكَانَ أَمْرُهُ فُرُطًا﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٢٨)

18:28. Content yourself with [the company of] those who call upon their Lord every morning and afternoon, seeking His Countenance, and do not turn your eyes away from them, desiring the adornment of the life of this world. And do not obey him whose heart We have made heedless of Our remembrance, who follows his own whims and desires, and is reckless in his deeds.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) – and others who are also subject to divine commands and prohibitions – to content themselves with the believers who are obedient and always remember Allah.

﴿those who call upon their Lord every morning and afternoon﴾ that is, at the beginning and end of the day, seeking thereby the Countenance of Allah. He describes them as worshipping Him sincerely, which implies that one should keep company with good people and strive to make oneself content with their company and mix with them, even if they are poor, because there are many benefits in keeping company with them.

﴿and do not turn your eyes away from them﴾ that is, do not overlook them and turn your gaze away from them.

﴿desiring the adornment of the life of this world﴾, for that is harmful and is of no benefit, and it may undermine one's religious interests, because it leads to being attached to this world and focusing one's ideas and thoughts on it, which leads to the heart losing interest in the hereafter. That is because the adornment of this world is pleasing to the onlooker and bewitches the mind, which in turn distracts the heart from the remembrance of Allah and causes it to focus on pleasures and desires. This will cause him to waste his time and will cause his affairs to be in disarray, and it will lead to eternal loss and everlasting regret. Hence Allah says: ﴿And do not obey him whose heart We have made heedless of Our remembrance﴾, so he becomes heedless of Allah, and He punishes him by making him heedless of His remembrance.

﴿who follows his own whims and desires﴾ that is, he becomes a follower of his own whims and desires and strives to get whatever he desires, even if that leads to his doom and loss, for he takes his own whims and desires as his god, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Have you seen the one who takes his own whims and desires as his god, whom Allah causes to go astray despite his knowledge...﴾
(al-Jāthiyah 45: 23)

﴿and is reckless in his deeds﴾ that is, with regard to his own interests. Allah forbids obeying such a person, because he only calls to that which is bad.

This verse indicates that the one who should be obeyed and who should be a leader of people is the one whose heart is filled with love for Allah, and that is reflected in his speech, so he constantly remembers Allah and seeks the pleasure of his Lord, and he gives precedence to that over his whims and desires. By doing so he is making the most of his time; his affairs are in order, his deeds are righteous and he calls people to that which Allah has blessed him with. Thus he deserves to be followed and to be made a leader.

The contentment mentioned in this verse is contentment and patience in obeying Allah, which is the highest level of contentment and patience. By achieving that, other types of contentment and patience may also be achieved.

This verse indicates that it is encouraged to remember Allah, call upon Him and worship Him at both ends of the day, because Allah praised people for doing that, and every time Allah praises the doer of an action, this indicates that Allah loves this action, and if He loves it, then He enjoins it and encourages people to do it.

﴿ وَقُلِ الْحَقُّ مِن رَّبِّكَ ۖ فَمَن شَاءَ فَلْيُؤْمِن وَمَن شَاءَ فَلْيُكْفُرْ ۚ إِنَّا أَعْتَدْنَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ نَارًا أَحَاطَ بِهِمْ سُرَادِقُهَا ۚ وَإِن يَسْتَغِيثُوا يُغَاثُوا بِمَاءٍ كَالْمُهْلِ يَشْوِي الْوُجُوهَ ۚ بِئْسَ الشَّرَابُ وَسَاءَتْ مُرْتَفَقًا ﴿٢٩﴾ إِنَّا أَنزَلْنَاهُ قُرْآنًا عَرَبِيًّا لَّعَلَّكَ تَفْقَهُ ۚ وَهُوَ كِتَابٌ مُّحْكَمٌ ۚ وَلَقَدْ جَاءتْهُم مِّنْهُم مَّا يُفْتَنُونَ فِيهَا مِمَّنْ أَحْسَنَ عَمَلًا ﴿٣٠﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهِمُ الْأَنْهَارُ يُحَلَّوْنَ فِيهَا مِن أَسَاوِرَ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَيَلْبَسُونَ ثِيَابًا خُضْرًا مِن سُنْدُسٍ وَإِسْتَبْرَقٍ مُّتَّكِئِينَ فِيهَا عَلَى الْأَرَائِكِ ۚ نِعَمَ الثَّوَابِ وَحَسُنَتْ مُرْتَفَقًا ﴿٣١﴾ ﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٢٩-٣١)

- 18:29. Say: This is the truth from your Lord. So let him who will, believe; and let him who will, disbelieve. For the wrongdoers We have prepared a fire which will encompass them like the walls of a pavilion. If they cry for help, they will be given water like boiling oil that will scald their faces. What a dreadful drink, and what a miserable resting-place!
- 18:30. As for those who believe and do righteous deeds, verily We will not cause the reward of those who do good to be lost.
- 18:31. They will have gardens of perpetual abode through which rivers flow. They will be adorned therein with bracelets of gold and will wear green garments of fine silk and heavy brocade, reclining therein on couches. What an excellent reward, and what a pleasant resting-place!

That is, say to the people, O Muhammad (ﷺ): This is the truth from your Lord. In other words, guidance has become distinct from misguidance, and the attributes of those who are blessed have become distinct from the attributes of those who are doomed, by means of what Allah has explained on the lips of His Messenger (ﷺ). Once the truth has become clear and there is no doubt or confusion left concerning it, then ﴿let him who will, believe; and let him who will, disbelieve﴾. In other words, there is no option left but to follow one of the two paths, according to whether one is guided or not. Allah has given man free will, by virtue of which he may either believe or disbelieve, and choose either good or evil. Whoever believes has been guided to that which is right, and whoever disbelieves, proof has been established against him. No one is to be compelled to believe, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Let there be no compulsion in religion; truth stands out clear from error...﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 256)

The words ﴿So let him who will, believe; and let him who will, disbelieve﴾ are not to be understood as giving permission for both options; rather that is a threat and a warning to those who choose disbelief after the matter has been explained perfectly. By the same token, these words do not mean that the believers should give up fighting the disbelievers.

Then Allah (ﷻ) mentions the final destination of the two groups. ﴿For the wrongdoers﴾ because of their disbelief, evildoing and sin ﴿We have prepared a fire which will encompass them like the walls of a pavilion﴾ that has no windows or exit, and there is no way to escape from it, and they will be burned by the exceedingly hot fire.

﴿If they cry for help﴾ that is, if they ask for a drink to extinguish the severe thirst that they experience

﴿they will be given water like boiling oil﴾ or like molten lead, because of its extreme heat

﴿that will scald their faces﴾ so how about their innards? Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿...and scalding water will be poured over their heads, which will cause their insides and their skins to melt. They will be lashed with rods of iron.﴾ (al-Hajj 22: 19-21)

﴿What a dreadful drink﴾ that they wanted to quench their thirst and reduce the punishment somewhat, but it will increase their thirst and make the punishment more severe

﴿and what a miserable resting-place﴾ the fire will be. This is a negative description of the fire, highlighting what a bad place it is in which to rest, for there will be no rest there; rather it is a harsh and severe punishment that will not be reduced even for a short while. There they will lose all hope and will despair of all goodness, and the Most Merciful will forget them in their punishment, as they forgot Him.

Then Allah tells us about the other group: ﴿As for those who believe and do righteous deeds﴾ that is, they combined belief in Allah, His angels, His Books, His Messenger, the Last Day and the divine decree, both good and bad, with righteous deeds, both obligatory and recommended

﴿verily We will not cause the reward of those who do good to be lost﴾. Good deeds are those which are intended for the sake of Allah, in accordance with the teachings of Islam. These are the good deeds which Allah will not cause to be lost in the slightest; rather He will preserve them for those who do them, and He will reward them in full, according to their deeds and by His grace and kindness. He describes their reward in the following verse: ﴿They will have gardens of perpetual abode through which rivers flow. They will be adorned therein with bracelets of gold and will wear green garments of fine silk and heavy brocade, reclining therein on couches﴾ that is, those who are described above as having faith and doing righteous deeds will have lofty gardens with many trees and rivers that flow beneath those elegant trees, and fine dwellings. Their adornment therein will be gold and their garments will be of green silk and heavy brocade of a soft type, and they will be reclining on adorned couches covered with fine cloth. The fact that they will be reclining on couches is indicative of perfect relaxation and the absence of tiredness and exhaustion; they will have servants who will bring them whatever they desire, and to complete the blessing they will abide therein for ever and ever.

This splendid abode will be ﴿an excellent reward﴾ for those who strove hard, and ﴿a pleasant resting-place﴾ in which they will rest and enjoy all that it contains of whatever their hearts desire and their eyes delight in of happiness and joy, never-ending pleasure and blessing. What resting-place could be better than an abode in which the least of its inhabitants may walk in his domain and in what Allah has blessed him with of palaces and gardens, for two thousand years, never thinking that there is any bliss greater than this, as he was given all that he wished for and there was added to that other things that may never have crossed his mind. Moreover, their bliss will be eternal, constantly increasing in beauty and quality. We ask Allah, the Most Generous, not to deprive us of the best of what He has of bliss because of the negative consequences of our shortcomings and sins.

This and similar verses indicate that the adornment is for both males and females, as was mentioned in the ṣaḥeeḥ hadiths, because it is mentioned in general terms: ﴿They will be adorned﴾. The same also applies to silk and the like.

﴿وَأَضْرَبَ لَهُمْ مَثَلًا رَجُلَيْنِ جَعَلْنَا لِأَحَدِهِمَا جَنَّتَيْنِ مِنْ أَعْنَابٍ وَحَفَفْنَاهُمَا بِنَخْلٍ وَجَعَلْنَا بَيْنَهُمَا زَرْعًا ۝ كِلَا الْجَنَّتَيْنِ آتَتْ أُكُلَهُمَا وَلَمْ تَظِلِمَا مِنْهُ شَيْئًا وَفَجَّرْنَا خِلْفَهُمَا نَهْرًا ۝﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٣٢-٣٣)

18:32. Present to them the example of two men: to one of them We gave two gardens of grapevines and surrounded them with date palms, with a cornfield lying in between.

18:33. Each garden brought forth its produce and did not fail to yield its best, and We caused a stream to flow through them.

---

Here Allah says to His Prophet (ﷺ): Present to the people the example of these two men, the one who was grateful for the blessings of Allah and the one who was ungrateful, and their conduct, words and deeds, and what resulted from that of punishment and reward in this world and the hereafter, so that they may pay heed and learn a lesson from them and what happened to them. There is no benefit in knowing the identity of the two men, or the time or place in which they lived, and that does not help one to reach the right conclusion. The lesson may be learned from their story alone, and mentioning other details would be superfluous. One of these two men was the one who was ungrateful for the immense blessings of Allah. Allah gave him two beautiful gardens of grapevines,

﴿and surrounded them with date palms﴾ that is, in these two gardens there were all kinds of fruits, especially the noblest of trees and plants, namely the grapevine and the date palm. The grapevines were in the middle of the garden, with the date palms surrounding them; this gave the gardens a beautiful and elegant look, and exposed the trees and date palms to the sun and wind, which enabled the fruit to reach maturity, ripening and taking shape. In addition to that, between the two gardens there was a cornfield. There is nothing left to know about them except to say: how were the fruits of these two gardens and did they have sufficient water for irrigation?

Allah (ﷻ) tells us that each of the gardens ﴿brought forth its produce﴾ that is, its fruits and crops, in abundance and ﴿did not fail to yield its best﴾. In addition to that, there was a stream running freely through them, bringing a lot of water.

﴿وَكَانَ لَهُ ثَمَرٌ فَقَالَ لِصَاحِبِهِ وَهُوَ يُحَاوِرُهُ أَنَا أَكْثَرُ مَنَّا مَالًا وَأَعَزُّ نَفَرًا ﴿٣٤﴾ وَدَخَلَ جَنَّتَهُ وَهُوَ ظَالِمٌ لِّنَفْسِهِ قَالَ مَا أَظُنُّ أَن تَبِيدَ هَذِهِ أَبَدًا ﴿٣٥﴾ وَمَا أَظُنُّ السَّاعَةَ قَائِمَةً وَلَئِن رُّدِدْتُ إِلَىٰ رَبِّي لَأَجِدَنَّ خَيْرًا مِّنْهَا مُنْقَلَبًا ﴿٣٦﴾﴾ (سورة

الكهف: ٣٤-٣٦)

- 18:34. So he was a man of wealth. He said to his companion, as he was conversing with him: I am wealthier than you and have a greater entourage.
- 18:35. He went into his garden, having thus wronged himself, and said: I do not think that this will ever perish,
- 18:36. Nor do I think that the Hour will ever come. Even if I am brought back to my Lord, I will surely find a better place than this.

So that man «was a man of wealth». The word translated here as «wealth» appears (in the original Arabic) in the indefinite form, which implies a great deal of wealth. His two gardens produced their full potential of fruits and crops; their trees began to bend under their load and never suffered from any blight or problem. This is the ultimate in worldly adornments and pleasure with regard to agriculture, therefore this man was deceived by it; he began to boast insolently and he forgot about the hereafter.

As the owner of the two gardens was conversing about some ordinary matters with his companion, who was a believer, he began to boast to him, saying:

«I am wealthier than you and have a greater entourage». He was proud of his great wealth and the power of his supporters, including his slaves, servants and relatives. This was ignorance on his part, for what pride can there be in external matters that are not indicative of any virtue, whether psychological or moral? Rather it is more like the pride of a young boy in wishes that have no basis in reality.

Moreover, he did not stop at boasting in this manner to his companion, until he showed his ignorance and wrongdoing, as he went into his garden, and said: I do not think that this will ever perish that is, diminish and come to an end. He was content and pleased with this world, and he denied the resurrection and said: Nor do I think that the Hour will ever come. Even if I am brought back to my Lord, let us suppose for the sake of argument, I will surely find a better place than this that is, He will give me something better than these two gardens. This can only have been one of two things: either he knew the reality of the matter, so he said these words by way of mockery and ridicule, which further increased his disbelief and ingratitude, or this is what he really thought, in which case he was the most ignorant of people, with the least share of reasoning and intellect. What connection can there be between what one is given in this world and what one will be given in the hereafter, such that one might think, on the basis of ignorance, that the one who is given bounty in this world will necessarily be given bounty in the hereafter? Rather what is usually the case is that Allah keeps worldly gains away from His close friends and chosen ones, whilst granting such things in abundance to His enemies, who have no share in the hereafter. What appears to be the case here is that this man knew the reality of the matter, but he said these words by way of mockery and ridicule, based on the fact that Allah says: He went into his garden, having thus wronged himself. The fact that he is described as having wronged himself when he went into his garden, as a result of what he had said (to his companion), indicates that he was stubborn and obstinate.

﴿ قَالَ لَهُ صَاحِبُهُ وَهُوَ يُحَاوِرُهُ أَكَفَرْتَ بِالَّذِي خَلَقَكَ مِنْ تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ سَوَّكَ
رَجُلًا ۚ لَكِنَّا هُوَ اللَّهُ رَبِّي وَلَا أُشْرِكُ بِرَبِّي أَحَدًا ﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٣٧-٣٨)

- 18:37. His companion said to him, in the course of his conversation with him: Do you disbelieve in the One Who created you from dust, then from a drop of semen, then fashioned you into a man?
- 18:38. But as for me, [I say that] He is Allah, my Lord, and I will not associate anyone with my Lord.
-

His believing companion said to him, advising him and reminding him of his original state, as Allah has created him in this world: ﴿Do you disbelieve in the One Who created you from dust, then from a drop of semen, then fashioned you into a man?﴾ For it is He Who has blessed you by bringing you into existence and providing for you, and He continued to shower you with His blessings and caused you to develop and grow until you became a man, in perfect physical shape and with complete mental faculties. Thus He made the means available to you and bestowed upon you the blessings of this world. So what you possess of worldly wealth was not gained by means of your own strength and power; rather it was by the blessings that Allah (ﷻ) has bestowed upon you. So how can it be fitting for you to disbelieve in and be ungrateful to Allah Who created you from dust, then from a drop of semen, then He fashioned you into a man? How can you deny His blessings and claim that He will not resurrect you, and that if He does resurrect you, He will give you a better garden than this? This is not appropriate and it is not right.

Hence, when his believing companion saw his attitude and how he was persisting in disbelief, ingratitude and transgression, he told him about himself, by way of expressing his gratitude to his Lord and announcing his belief, at a time when he was hearing specious arguments and doubts: ﴿But as for me, [I say that] He is Allah, my Lord, and I will not associate anyone with my Lord﴾. So he affirmed His Lordship and that He is the only Lord, and he committed himself to obeying and worshipping Him alone, and pledged that he would not associate any created being with Him.

Then he told his companion that the blessing that Allah had bestowed upon him of faith and Islam – even though he had little wealth and few children – was the true blessing and that anything other than that was liable to diminish and vanish, then the punishment would come upon him, as he said:

﴿ وَلَوْلَا إِذْ دَخَلْتَ جَنَّتَكَ قُلْتَ مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ إِنْ تَرَنِ أَنَا أَقَلَّ مِنْكَ مَالًا وَوَلَدًا ﴿٣٩﴾ فَعَسَى رَبِّي أَنْ يُؤْتِيَنِي خَيْرًا مِنْ جَنَّتِكَ وَيُرْسِلَ عَلَيْهَا حُسْبَانًا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ فَتُصْبِحُ صَعِيدًا زَلَقًا ﴿٤٠﴾ أَوْ يُصْبِحَ مَاءُهَا غَوْرًا فَلَنْ تَسْتَطِيعَ لَهُ طَلَبًا ﴿٤١﴾ وَأَحِيطْ بِشَمْرِهِ فَاصْبِرْ يَقْلُبْ كَفَيْنَهُ عَلَى مَا أَنْفَقَ فِيهَا وَهِيَ خَاوِيَةٌ عَلَى عُرُوشِهَا وَيَقُولُ يَلَبِّثُنِي لَمْ أَشْرِكْ بِرَبِّي أَحَدًا ﴿٤٢﴾ وَلَمْ تَكُنْ لَهُ فِتْنَةً يَتَصَرُّونَهُ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَمَا كَانَ مُنْتَصِرًا ﴿٤٣﴾ هُنَالِكَ الْوَلِيَّةُ لِلَّهِ الْحَقِّ هُوَ خَيْرٌ ثَوَابًا وَخَيْرٌ عُقْبًا ﴿٤٤﴾ ﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٣٩-٤٤)

- 18:39. Why could you not have said, when you entered your garden: Whatever Allah wills [will come to pass]; there is no power but with Allah? Although you see me less than you in wealth and children,
- 18:40. Yet my Lord may well give me something better than your garden, and send upon [your garden] thunderbolts from heaven, leaving it barren and slippery.
- 18:41. Or its water may disappear under the ground, so that you will never be able to find it again.
- 18:42. And so all his produce was destroyed, and he began to wring his hands in sorrow at the loss of what he had spent on it, as it lay in ruins with all its trellises fallen in, saying: Would that I had never associated anyone with my Lord!
- 18:43. He had none to support him against [the punishment of] Allah, nor was he able to help himself.

---

18:44. In that case, the only protection is that of Allah, the True God. He gives the best reward and the best outcome.

---

That is, the believer said to his disbelieving companion: Although you boasted to me about your great wealth and many children, and you see that I have less wealth than you and fewer children, that which is with Allah is better and more lasting, and what is hoped for of His goodness and kindness is superior to everything in this world for which people compete.

﴿Yet my Lord may well give me something better than your garden, and send upon [your garden]﴾, because of which you transgressed and were deceived

﴿thunderbolts from heaven﴾ that is, as a punishment, with heavy rain or otherwise

﴿leaving it﴾ as a result of that

﴿barren and slippery﴾ that is, with its trees uprooted, its fruits destroyed, its crops drowned and its benefits disappeared.

﴿Or its water﴾ that is essential to its survival

﴿may disappear under the ground, so that you will never be able to find it again﴾ that is, it may disappear in such a way that it cannot be reached by digging with pickaxes or by any other means. The believer prayed against his garden in anger for the sake of his Lord, because it had deceived its owner and caused him to transgress and be content with it. He did this in the hope that his companion would turn back to his Lord, come to his senses and realise where he stood.

Allah answered his supplication, ﴿so all his produce was destroyed﴾ that is, the punishment destroyed it and wiped it out, so that there was nothing left of it. All the trees and their fruits, and all his crops, were destroyed, and he regretted it deeply and was very sad.

﴿and he began to wring his hands in sorrow at the loss of what he had spent on it﴾ that is, because he had spent a great deal of his worldly wealth on it, but when it was destroyed and vanished, he had nothing to compensate for it. He also regretted his ascription of partners to Allah and his evil deeds, therefore he said: ﴿Would that I had never associated anyone with my Lord!﴾.

﴿He had none to support him against [the punishment of] Allah, nor was he able to help himself﴾ that is, when the punishment befell his garden, he lost that which he had boasted about to his companion when he said: ﴿I am wealthier than you and have a greater entourage﴾ (18: 34). They did not ward off this punishment from him at all, at the time when he needed them most, and he could not help himself. How could he have helpers against the decree of Allah that He ordained and brought to pass? For if the inhabitants of heaven and earth were to come together to ward off anything of the decree of Allah, they would not be able to do that.

It is not far-fetched to say that by the mercy and kindness of Allah, the situation of this owner of the garden that was destroyed later improved, and Allah enabled him to turn back to Him and come back to his senses, and give up his rebellion and transgression. That is based on the fact that he expressed regret for his ascription of partners to his Lord, and that Allah took away from him that which had caused him to transgress, and He punished him in this world. If Allah wills good for a person, He hastens to punish him in this world. The grace of Allah cannot be encompassed by human minds, and no one can deny it except one who is an ignorant wrongdoer.

﴿In that case, the only protection is that of Allah, the True God. He gives the best reward and the best outcome﴾ that is, in that case – when Allah sends His punishment upon those who transgressed and gave precedence to the life of this world – and He honours those who believed, did righteous deeds and gave thanks to Allah, and called others to do likewise – it becomes clear that the only protection is that of our True God. Whoever believes in Him and fears Him will be protected by Allah, Who will bestow all kinds of honour upon him and ward off all kinds of punishment and evil from him. But whoever does not believe in his Lord or take Him as an ally and protector will be a loser in both spiritual and worldly terms. The reward of Allah in this world and the hereafter is the best reward that anyone may hope for.

From this great story we learn a number of lessons, including the following:

- We learn a lesson from the one on whom Allah had bestowed worldly blessings, but that distracted him from the hereafter and caused him to transgress and disobey Allah; those blessings will ultimately vanish and disappear, and even if he enjoys them for a little while, he will be deprived of them for a long time.
- If a person likes something of his wealth or offspring, he should attribute this blessing to the One Who bestowed it upon him and he should say, “Mâ shâ’ Allâh, lâ quwwata illâ billâh (Whatever Allah wills [will come to pass]; there is no power but with Allah)”. Thus his giving thanks to Allah will be a means for the blessing of Allah to remain with him, because the believer said to his companion: ﴿Why could you not have said, when you entered your garden: Whatever Allah wills [will come to pass]; there is no power but with Allah?﴾ (18: 39).
- A person may console himself for missing out on the pleasures and desires of this world by reminding himself of the good things that are with Allah, because that believer said: ﴿Although you see me less than you in wealth and children, yet my Lord may well give me something better than your garden﴾.
- Wealth and children are of no benefit if they do not help one to obey Allah, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere: ﴿It is not your wealth or your children that bring you nearer to Us; but those who believe and do righteous deeds – it is they who will have a multiple reward for their deeds...﴾ (Saba' 34: 37)
- One may pray for destruction of the wealth of one who is wealthy if it is the cause of his transgression, disbelief and loss, especially if he thinks that because of his wealth he is superior to the believers, and he boasts to them of that.

The consequences of Allah's protection or the absence thereof will only become clear when the dust settles and recompense becomes due. ﴿In that case, the only protection is that of Allah, the True God. He gives the best reward and the best outcome﴾ (18: 44).

﴿وَأَضْرِبْ لَهُم مَّثَلَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا كَمَا أَنزَلْنَاهُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ فَاخْتَلَطَ بِهِ نَبَاتُ الْأَرْضِ فَأَصْبَحَ هَشِيمًا تَذْرُوهُ الرِّيحُ ۗ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ مُّقْتَدِرًا ﴿٤٥﴾ الْمَالُ وَالْبَنُونَ زِينَةُ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا ۗ وَالْبَاقِيَةُ الصَّالِحَةُ خَيْرٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ ثَوَابًا وَخَيْرٌ أَمَلًا ﴿٤٦﴾﴾
(سورة الكهف: ٤٥-٤٦)

- 18:45. Present to them the likeness of the life of this world: it is like the rain that We send down from the heavens; by means of it, all kinds of plants are brought forth from the earth, but soon they become dry stubble scattered about by the wind. Allah has power over all things.
- 18:46. Wealth and children are the adornment of the life of this world. But righteous deeds of lasting merit bring a better reward with your Lord and are a better source of hope.

Here Allah says to His Prophet (ﷺ) first of all, and subsequently to those who take up his position of teaching and calling people to Allah: Present to the people the likeness of the life of this world, so that they may understand its nature and know it properly, inside and out, and then compare it with the hereafter, and give precedence to that which is most deserving of being given precedence. For the likeness of this world is that of rain that is sent down upon the earth and it brings forth all kinds of beautiful plants at a time when their beauty gladdens the hearts of onlookers and catches the eye of the heedless. Then suddenly they become dry stubble scattered about by the winds, and those fresh green plants and blossoming flowers disappear, and that splendid view vanishes, and the earth becomes dusty and dry, causing the onlookers to lose interest in it and creating alienation in their hearts.

This is how this world is: whilst the one who focuses on this world is enjoying his youth, surpassing his peers, acquiring wealth, indulging in physical pleasures, fulfilling his desires at all times and thinking that this will continue for the rest of his life, suddenly death comes upon him or he loses his wealth, and his happiness disappears and his joy and pleasure vanish; he is faced with pain and anguish at the loss of his youth, strength and wealth, and he is left with nothing except his deeds, good or bad. At that time the wrongdoer will bite on his hand with regret, when he realises the reality with which he is faced, and he will wish to go back to this world, not to carry on fulfilling his desires, but to make up for what he missed out on at the time of negligence, by repenting and doing righteous deeds.

But the wise and prudent person who is rightly guided imagines himself in this situation and says to himself: Imagine that you have died, for you must inevitably die: which of the two situations would you prefer? To be deceived by the adornment of this realm and enjoying it in the manner of grazing animals, or to strive for that realm where food and shade are always available, in which one will have all that one desires and will enjoy all that delights the eye? Thus a person may know whether he is guided or forsaken, winning or losing.

Hence Allah (ﷻ) tells us that wealth and sons are the adornment of the life of this world, and they are no more than that; what will remain and benefit a person, bringing him joy, are righteous deeds of lasting merit. That includes all acts of obedience, both obligatory and recommended, having to do with the rights of Allah and the rights of His slaves, such as prayer, zakâh, charity, Hajj, 'umrah, tasbeeh, tahmeed, tahleel, takbeer, reading Qur'an, seeking beneficial knowledge, enjoining what is right, forbidding what is wrong, upholding ties of kinship, honouring one's parents, fulfilling the rights of wives, slaves and animals, and all acts of kindness towards people. All of these are righteous deeds of lasting merit, and they bring a better reward with Allah and are a better source of hope. Their reward will remain and be multiplied for ever and ever, and that reward and benefit are hoped for at the time of need. This is what people should compete for and strive to attain.

Reflect on how Allah gives this likeness for this world and how it will diminish, and He tells us that in it there are two types of things:

The first type is adornment that is enjoyed for a short while, then it diminishes without bringing any benefit; rather it may in fact bring harm – this refers to wealth and sons.

The second type will remain and bring eternal benefit; this is the righteous deeds of lasting merit.

﴿ وَيَوْمَ نُسِرُّ الْجِبَالَ وَنَرَى الْأَرْضَ بَارِزَةً وَحَشَرْنَاهُمْ فَلَمْ نُغَادِرْ مِنْهُمْ أَحَدًا ۖ وَعَرَضُوا عَلَىٰ رَبِّكَ صَفًّا لَّقَدْ جِئْتُمُونَا كَمَا خَلَقْنَاكُمْ أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ ۚ بَلْ زَعَمْتُمْ أَلَّنْ نَجْعَلَ لَكُمْ مَوْعِدًا ۚ ﴾
 ﴿٤٨﴾ وَوَضَعَ الْكِتَابَ فَفَرَى الْمُجْرِمِينَ مُشْفِقِينَ مِمَّا فِيهِ وَيَقُولُونَ يُبَوِّلُنَا مَا لِهَذَا
 الْكِتَابِ لَا يُغَادِرُ صَغِيرَةً وَلَا كَبِيرَةً إِلَّا أَحْصَاهَا ۚ وَجَدُوا مَا عَمِلُوا حَاضِرًا ۚ وَلَا
 يُظْلَمُ رَبُّكَ أَحَدًا ﴿٤٩﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٤٧-٤٩)

18:47. And [remember] the day when We will remove the mountains and you will see the earth as a levelled plain; We will gather them all together and not leave any one of them behind.

18:48. They will be presented before your Lord in rows, [and He will say]: Now you have come to Us as We created you the first time, even though you claimed that We had not made any such appointment for you.

18:49. And the record of deeds will be placed [in their hands] and you will see the evildoers filled with dread at what it contains. They will say: Woe to us! What sort of record is this, that leaves no deed, small or great, unaccounted for? They will find all they did recorded there, and your Lord will not wrong anyone.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the Day of Resurrection and what it will bring of great terrors and dreadful hardship.

﴿And [remember] the day when We will remove the mountains﴾ that is, He will remove them from their places and make them like sand-hills, then He will make them like carded wool (cf. 101: 5), then they will diminish and vanish, becoming like scattered dust, and the earth will be levelled, becoming a smooth, flat plain in which there is no depression or elevation (cf. 20: 106-107). Allah will gather together all creatures on that earth, and He will not leave anyone but He will gather him.

Indeed, He will gather together the first and the last from the remotest deserts and the depths of the sea; He will bring them back together after they were scattered and will restore them after they had disintegrated, as a new creation, then they will be presented before him in rows, so that He may check them, examine their deeds and judge between them on the basis of His justice in which there is no unfairness or injustice, and He will say to them: ﴿Now you have come to Us as We created you the first time﴾ that is, without wealth, without family, without tribe. They will have nothing with them except the deeds that they did and whatever they earned of good or evil, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Now you have come to Us alone, as We created you the first time, and you have left behind all that We had bestowed on you. We do not see with you your intercessors who you claimed were entitled to a share of your worship and devotion...﴾ (al-An'âm 6: 94)

And here Allah will say, addressing those who denied the resurrection, now that they have seen it with their own eyes: ﴿even though you claimed that We had not made any such appointment for you﴾ that is, you denied the requital for deeds, and you rejected the promises and warnings of Allah, but now you have seen it and tasted it. At that point, the books of deeds that were written by the noble angels will be brought, and people will feel a sense of alarm and distress, and the evildoers will be filled with apprehension. When they see their deeds written down, and their words and actions listed, they will say:

﴿Woe to us! What sort of record is this, that leaves no deed, small or great, unaccounted for?﴾ That is, no mistake, small or great, has been omitted without being written down and recorded; no deed, whether it was done in private or in public, at night or by day, has been omitted. ﴿They will find all they did recorded there﴾ and they will not be able to deny it

﴿and your Lord will not wrong anyone﴾. At that time they will be requited and will be made to admit their deeds, and they will be subjected to disgrace and punishment. That is because of what their own hands sent on ahead of them, for Allah does not wrong His slaves; rather they are not beyond His justice or grace.

﴿وَإِذْ قُلْنَا لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ اسْجُدُوا لِآدَمَ فَسَجَدُوا إِلَّا إِبْلِيسَ كَانَ مِنَ الْجِنِّ فَفَسَقَ عَنْ أَمْرِ رَبِّهِ ۖ أَفَتَتَّخِذُونَهُ وَذُرِّيَّتَهُ أَوْلِيَاءَ مِنْ دُونِي وَهُمْ لَكُمْ عَدُوٌّ بِئْسَ لِلظَّالِمِينَ بَدَلًا

(سورة الكهف: ٥٠) ﴿

- 18:50. And [remember] when We said to the angels: Prostrate before Adam, and they [all] prostrated except Iblees. He was one of the jinn, so he rebelled against the command of his Lord. Will you then take him and his progeny as allies instead of Me, even though they are enemies to you? What a wretched exchange for the wrongdoers!

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the enmity of Iblees towards Adam and his progeny. Allah instructed the angels to prostrate to Adam as a sign of honour and respect, and in obedience to the command of Allah, and they obeyed, ﴿except Iblees. He was one of the jinn, so he rebelled against the command of his Lord﴾. He said:

﴿...Should I prostrate before one whom You have created from clay?﴾
(al-Isrâ' 17: 61)

– and:

﴿...I am better than he...﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 12)

Thus he manifested his enmity towards Allah and towards your father and you, so how could you take him and his progeny, namely the devils, ﴿as allies instead of Me, even though they are enemies to you? What a wretched exchange for the wrongdoers!﴾ That is, what a bad choice they made for themselves by taking the Shayṭân – who does not enjoin anything upon them but obscenity and evil – as an ally, instead of the Most Gracious, in alliance with Whom all happiness, prosperity and success are to be found.

This verse encourages us to take the Shayṭân as an enemy and mentions that no one takes the Shayṭân as an ally except a wrongdoer, and what wrongdoing could be greater than that of one who takes his real enemy as an ally and turns away from the Most Praiseworthy Protector?

﴿Allah is the Protector of those who have faith; from the depths of darkness He will lead them forth into light. As for those who disbelieve, their protectors are the false gods; from light they will lead them forth into the depths of darkness...﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 257)

And Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...they will have taken the devils as friends and allies instead of Allah...﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 30)

﴿ مَا أَشْهَدُهُمْ خَلْقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَلَا خَلْقَ أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَمَا كُنْتُ مُتَّخِذَ
الْمُضِلِّينَ عَضُدًا ﴾ ٥١ وَيَوْمَ يَقُولُ نَادُوا شُرَكَاءِيَ الَّذِينَ زَعَمْتُمْ فَدَعَوْهُمْ فَلَمْ
يَسْتَجِيبُوا لَهُمْ وَجَعَلْنَا بَيْنَهُم مَّوْبِقًا ﴿٥٢﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٥١-٥٢)

- 18:51. I did not call them [Iblees and his progeny] to witness [or assist in] the creation of the heavens and the earth, nor even the creation of their own selves; I do not seek the assistance of those who lead people astray.
- 18:52. And [remember] the day when He will say: Call on My [so-called] partners, as you claimed. They will call on them, but they will not respond to them. And We will place between them a barrier.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says: I did not call on these devils and these people who have gone astray to witness «the creation of the heavens and the earth, nor even the creation of their own selves» that is, I did not cause them to be present at that time, or consult them concerning it, so how can they be creators of any of that? The Only One Who has the power of creation and control, and Who has perfect wisdom in governing creation, is Allah, the Creator of all things, Who controls them according to His wisdom. So how could partners be ascribed to Him from among the devils, who are taken as allies and obeyed as Allah should be obeyed, when they did not create anything or witness the creation of anything, and they did not assist Allah (ﷻ) in that? Hence He says: «I do not seek the assistance of those who lead people astray» that is, I do not seek their help, for Allah does not need any help in any matter. It is not appropriate or befitting for Allah to give them any measure of control, for they are striving to mislead people and oppose their Lord. Therefore what is appropriate is that they should be kept far away and not be brought close.

Having mentioned the situation of those who ascribe partners to Him in this world, and declared that to be utterly invalid and those who do such a thing to be ignorant and foolish, Allah now tells us about their situation with their so-called partners on the Day of Resurrection. Allah will say to them:

﴿Call on My [so-called] partners﴾ that is, according to your false claim; otherwise, in fact, Allah has no partner on earth or in heaven. He will say: Call them and let them benefit you and save you from troubles.

﴿They will call on them, but they will not respond to them﴾ because all power and sovereignty on that day will belong to Allah, and no one will possess the slightest power to benefit himself or anyone else.

﴿And We will place between them﴾ namely the polytheists and the so-called partners they ascribed to Allah

﴿a barrier﴾ to separate them and keep them apart from one another. At that point the enmity of the so-called partners towards those who described them as such will become apparent, and they will reject them and disavow them, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿When humankind are gathered [on the Day of Resurrection], they [the so-called partners] will become their enemies and will reject their worship of them.﴾ (al-Ahqâf 46: 6)

﴿وَرَأَى الْمُجْرِمُونَ النَّارَ فَظَنُّوا أَنَّهُمْ مُوَاقِعُوهَا وَلَمْ يَجِدُوا عَنْهَا مَصْرِفًا﴾ (سورة

الكهف: ٥٣)

18:53. The evildoers will see the fire and will realise that they are bound to fall into it, and will find no escape from it.

That is, on the Day of Resurrection, when the reckoning is complete and each group of people becomes distinct on the basis of their deeds, and the punishment becomes due on the evildoers, they will see hell before they enter it, and they will panic and become very anxious, when they realise for certain that they will enter it.

﴿and will find no escape from it﴾ that is, no way out and no one to intercede for them without Allah's permission. This is aimed at scaring them in such a way that causes hearts to tremble.

﴿وَلَقَدْ صَرَّفْنَا فِي هَٰذَا الْقُرْآنِ لِلنَّاسِ مِنْ كُلِّ مَثَلٍ وَكَانَ الْإِنْسَانُ أَكْثَرَ شَيْءٍ جَدَلًا﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٥٤)

18:54. We have explained [the truth] to man in this Qur'an, discussing different issues in various ways, but man is more than anything argumentative.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the greatness and majesty of the Qur'an and how it encompasses all issues, explaining different matters in different ways, highlighting all types of beneficial knowledge and ways that lead to eternal bliss, and every way that protects against evil and doom. It contains explanations of what is lawful and what is prohibited, requital of deeds, encouragement and deterrents, true stories that benefit the heart by strengthening faith and giving reassurance and light. This dictates that one should surrender to this Qur'an, accept it, follow it, obey the instructions contained therein, and not dispute with it in any issue. Yet despite that, many people argue about the truth after it has become clear, and they debate on the basis of falsehood, seeking to undermine the truth. Hence Allah says: ﴿but man is more than anything argumentative﴾ that is, in debates and disputes concerning the Qur'an, even though that is not appropriate and is not fair on his part. What makes man like that and causes him not to believe in Allah is nothing other than wrongdoing and stubbornness; it is not due to any shortcomings in the proof and evidence set out in the Qur'an.

﴿وَمَا مَنَعَ النَّاسَ أَنْ يُؤْمِنُوا إِذْ جَاءَهُمُ الْهُدَىٰ وَيَسْتَغْفِرُوا رَبَّهُمْ إِلَّا أَنْ تَأْتِيَهُمْ سُنَّةُ الْأَوَّلِينَ أَوْ يَأْتِيَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ قُبُلًا﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٥٥)

18:55. Nothing prevents people from believing, now that guidance has come to them, or from seeking the forgiveness of their Lord, except [their demand] that the fate of the earlier peoples should come to them or that the punishment should appear before their eyes.

That is, nothing prevents the people from believing, at a time when guidance has reached them by means of which one may see the difference between guidance and misguidance, truth and falsehood, and proof is established against them, so that it is not lack of clarity that is preventing them from believing, rather wrongdoing and transgression are preventing them from believing so that there is nothing left except for their demand to be fulfilled, for such is the way of Allah, in which He dealt with the earlier peoples: if they did not believe then the punishment should be hastened for them or they should see that the punishment is coming, and behold it face-to-face. In other words, they should fear it and repent from their disbelief before there comes the punishment that cannot be put back.

﴿وَمَا تُرْسِلُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ إِلَّا مُبَشِّرِينَ وَمُنذِرِينَ وَمُجَدِّدِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِالْبَاطِلِ لِيُدْحِضُوا بِهِ الْحَقَّ وَاتَّخَذُوا آيَاتِي وَمَا أُنذِرُوا هُزُوًا﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٥٦)

18:56. We sent the Messengers only as bearers of good news and as warners. Yet with false arguments those who disbelieve seek to undermine the truth, and they make a mockery of My revelations and of the warning they were given.

That is, We did not send the Messengers in vain, or for people to take them as lords, or so that they might call people to themselves; rather We sent them so that they might call the people to all that is good, and forbid all that is evil, and so that they might give glad tidings, if people paid heed, of reward in this world and in the hereafter, and so that they might warn them, if they disobeyed, of punishment in this world and in the hereafter. Thus the proof of Allah was established against people. Yet despite that, the wrongdoers and disbelievers insisted on arguing on the basis of falsehood so as to refute the truth, and they strove to support falsehood as much as they could and to refute and undermine the truth. They ridiculed the Messengers and revelations of Allah, and they revelled in whatever knowledge they had (cf. 40: 83), but Allah insisted on perfecting His light, even though the disbelievers hate it (cf. 9: 32) and that the truth should prevail over falsehood.

¶Nay, rather We hurl the truth against falsehood, and it crushes it, whereupon it perishes. Woe to you for what you ascribe [falsely, to Allah]. ¶ (al-Anbiyâ' 21: 18)

By the wisdom and mercy of Allah, allowing those who argue against the truth on the basis of falsehood to continue is one of the primary means of making the truth clear and making its evidence manifest, and showing falsehood to be evidently false and corrupt. Thus things become clearer by means of this contrast between opposites.

﴿وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ ذُكِّرَ بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِ، فَأَعْرَضَ عَنْهَا وَنَسِيَ مَا قَدَّمَتْ يَدَاهُ إِنَّا جَعَلْنَا عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ أَكِنَّةً أَنْ يَفْقَهُوهُ وَفِي آذَانِهِمْ وَقْرًا وَإِنْ تَدْعُهُمْ إِلَى الْهُدَى فَلَنْ يَهْتَدُوا إِذًا أَبَدًا ﴿٥٧﴾ وَرَبُّكَ الْغَفُورُ ذُو الرَّحْمَةِ لَوْ يُؤَاخِذُهُمْ بِمَا كَسَبُوا لَعَجَلَهُمْ الْعَذَابُ بَلْ لَهُمْ مَوْعِدٌ لَنْ يَجِدُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ مَوْيلًا ﴿٥٨﴾ وَتِلْكَ الْقُرَى أَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ لَمَّا ظَلَمُوا وَجَعَلْنَا لِمَهْلِكِهِمْ مَوْعِدًا ﴿٥٩﴾﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٥٧-٥٩)

- 18:57. And who does greater wrong than one who is reminded of the revelations of his Lord, but turns away from them, forgetting the [deeds] that his hands have wrought? We have placed covers on their hearts so that they will not understand it, and deafness in their ears. Even if you call them to guidance, they will never be guided.
- 18:58. But your Lord is Oft-Forgiving, full of mercy. If He were to take them to task for what they have earned, He would indeed have hastened their punishment; but they have an appointed time, from which they will find no escape.
- 18:59. And those cities did We destroy when they did wrong; We set an appointed time for their destruction.

Here Allah tells us that there is no greater wrongdoing or evil than that of a person who is reminded of the revelations of Allah, to whom truth is made distinct from falsehood, and guidance from misguidance, and he is warned of a punishment and reminded of the reward, but he turns away and does not pay heed to that of which he was reminded, he does not give up what he was following, he forgets what his hands have sent on ahead of sins, and he fails to remember that the Knower of the unseen is always watching him. His wrongdoing is greater than that of the heedless one whom the revelations of Allah did not reach, and he was not reminded of them. Even though the latter is also a wrongdoer, his wrongdoing is less serious than that of the former, because the one who commits sin despite his awareness and knowledge is worse than one who is not like that.

But Allah will punish him because of his turning away from His revelations, his forgetting about his sins and his being content to follow the path of evil, even though he is aware of that, by closing to him the doors of guidance and placing a cover over his heart that will prevent him from understanding the revelations, so that even if he hears them, he will be unable to understand them in a way that may reach his heart.

﴿and deafness in their ears﴾ that is, deafness that will prevent the revelations from reaching them, and will prevent them from hearing the revelations in such a way that could benefit them. If this is their situation, then there is no way they can be guided.

﴿Even if you call them to guidance, they will never be guided﴾ because the one for whom there is hope of a response to the one who calls him to guidance is the one who has no knowledge. As for these people, who saw then became blind, and they saw the path of truth as true but they shunned it, and they saw the path of misguidance as misguided but they followed it, and Allah punished them by closing their hearts and placing a seal upon them, there is no way at all that they could be guided.

This verse is aimed at scaring the one who shuns the truth after having known it: for a barrier could be set up between him and it, so that he would not be able to follow it after that. Nothing is more alarming or a greater deterrent than that.

Then Allah tells us of the vastness of His forgiveness and mercy, for He forgives sins and accepts the repentance of the one who repents, showering him with His mercy and enfolding him in His kindness. If He were to take people to task for what their hands have wrought of sins, He would hasten the punishment for them. But He is forbearing and does not hasten the punishment; rather He always gives respite, but He does not forget. The consequences of sin are inevitable, even if they are delayed for a long time. Hence Allah says:

«but they have an appointed time, from which they will find no escape» that is, they have an appointed time when they will be requited for their deeds; it is inevitable and they cannot escape it or find any refuge from it or steer clear of it.

This is His way of dealing with the earlier and later generations: He does not hasten the punishment for them; rather He calls them to repent and turn to Him. Then if they repent and turn to Him, He forgives them and has mercy upon them, and He removes the punishment from them. Otherwise, if they persist in their wrongdoing and stubbornness, and the time that He has appointed comes, He sends His punishment down upon them. Hence He says:

«And those cities did We destroy when they did wrong» that is, because of their wrongdoing; it was not wrongdoing on Our part. «We set an appointed time for their destruction» that is, a preordained time that they cannot bring forward or put back.

﴿وَإِذْ قَالَ مُوسَى لِفَتَاهُ لَا أَبْرَحُ حَتَّىٰ أَبْلُغَ مَجْمَعَ الْبَحْرَيْنِ أَوْ أَمْضِيَ حُقُبًا ۖ فَلَمَّا بَلَغَا مَجْمَعَ بَيْنَهُمَا نَسِيَا حُوتَهُمَا فَاتَّخَذَ سَبِيلَهُ فِي الْبَحْرِ سَرَبًا ۖ ﴿٦٠﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاوَزَا قَالَ لِفَتَاهُ إِنِّي نَادَيْتُ الْعُوتَ وَمَا أَسْتَجِبُ إِلَّا الشَّيْطَانُ أَنْ أَذْكُرَهُ ۖ وَاتَّخَذَ سَبِيلَهُ فِي الْبَحْرِ عَجَبًا ۖ ﴿٦١﴾ قَالَ ذَلِكَ مَا كُنَّا نَبْغِ ۖ فَارْتَدَّ عَلَىٰ آثَارِهِمَا قَصَصًا ۖ ﴿٦٢﴾﴾

(سورة الكهف: ٦٠-٦٤)

18:60. And [remember] when Moosâ said to his servant: I will not give up until I reach the junction of the two seas, even if it takes me years [of travel].

- 18:61. But when they reached the junction between them, they forgot about their fish, which made its way into the sea and swam away.
- 18:62. When they had travelled further on, Moosâ said to his servant: Bring us our morning meal; truly this journey of ours has exhausted us.
- 18:63. [The servant] said: Do you remember when we rested by the rock? I did indeed forget [to tell you about] the fish; it was none but the Shayṭân who caused me to forget. It made its way into the sea in an amazing manner.
- 18:64. [Moosâ] said: That is what we were looking for. So they turned back, retracing their footsteps.

Here Allah tells us about His Prophet Moosâ (ﷺ) and his great eagerness to pursue goodness and seek knowledge. He said to his servant, who was constantly by his side at home and when travelling, whose name was Yoosha' ibn Noon, to whom Allah subsequently granted prophethood:

«I will not give up until I reach the junction of the two seas» that is, I will carry on travelling, even if that leads to lengthy hardship and I become exhausted, until I reach the junction of the two seas. That was the place at which, as Allah had revealed to him, he would find one of the knowledgeable slaves of Allah who possessed knowledge that Moosâ did not possess.

«even if it takes me years» and I have to travel a long distance. What is meant is that longing and eagerness prompted Moosâ to say these words to his servant. This is indicative of his unwavering resolve and that is why he fulfilled it.

«But when they» namely he and his servant «reached the junction between them, they forgot about their fish». They had with them a fish which was their provision and from which they used to eat. He had been promised that when he lost the fish, that is where they would find that slave of Allah for whom they were looking. That fish made its way into the sea, and this was one of the signs.

The commentators said that when they reached that place, some of the sea water splashed onto that fish, which was their provision, then it made its way, by Allah's leave, into the sea and came to life with the other sea creatures.

When Moosâ and his servant passed beyond the junction between the two seas, Moosâ said to his servant: ﴿Bring us our morning meal; truly this journey of ours has exhausted us﴾ that is, we have become tired. That tiredness only began when they travelled beyond that point, otherwise the lengthy travel that had brought them to the junction between the two seas had not caused them to feel tired before that. This was one of the signs that indicated to Moosâ that what he sought was there. Their longing to reach that place had made the journey easy for them, but when they went beyond that point, they began to feel tired. When Moosâ said these words to his servant, the servant said:

﴿Do you remember when we rested by the rock? I did indeed forget [to tell you about] the fish﴾ that is, did you not know that when we stopped for the night beside that well-known rock, which was between the two seas, ﴿I did indeed forget [to tell you about] the fish; it was none but the Shayṭân who caused me to forget. It made its way into the sea in an amazing manner﴾ that is, when it moved towards the sea and leapt into it, that was something amazing.

The servant said this to him, and Moosâ had a promise from Allah that when he lost the fish, he would find al-Khiḍr. So Moosâ said:

﴿That is what we were looking for﴾ that is, seeking ﴿So they turned back, retracing their footsteps﴾ and went back to the place where they had forgotten the fish. When they reached that place, they found one of the slaves of Allah, namely al-Khiḍr; he was a righteous slave, but he was not a Prophet, according to the correct view.

﴿فَوَجَدَا عَبْدًا مِّنْ عِبَادِنَا ءَاتَيْنَاهُ رَحْمَةً مِّنْ عِندِنَا وَعَلَّمْنَاهُ مِمَّا لَدُنَّا عِلْمًا﴾ (٦٥)
 قَالَ لَهُ مُوسَىٰ هَلْ أَتَّبِعُكَ عَلَىٰ أَن تُعَلِّمَنِي مِمَّا عَلَّمْتَ رُشْدًا ﴿٦٦﴾ قَالَ إِنَّكَ لَن تَسْتَطِيعَ
 مَعِيَ صَبْرًا ﴿٦٧﴾ وَكَيْفَ تَصْبِرُ عَلَىٰ مَا لَمْ تُحِطْ بِهِ خُبْرًا ﴿٦٨﴾ قَالَ سَتَجِدُنِي إِن شَاءَ اللَّهُ
 صَابِرًا وَلَا أَعْصِي لَكَ أَمْرًا ﴿٦٩﴾ قَالَ فَإِنِ اتَّبَعْتَنِي فَلَا تَسْتَلِنِي عَنْ شَيْءٍ حَتَّىٰ أُحْدِثَ
 لَكَ مِنْهُ ذِكْرًا ﴿٧٠﴾ فَانْطَلَقَا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا رَكِبَا فِي السَّفِينَةِ خَرَقَهَا قَالَ أَخَرَقْنَاهَا لِنُغْرِقَ
 أَهْلَهَا لَقَدْ جِئْتَ شَيْئًا إِمْرًا ﴿٧١﴾ قَالَ أَلَمْ أَقُلْ إِنَّكَ لَن تَسْتَطِيعَ مَعِيَ صَبْرًا ﴿٧٢﴾ قَالَ لَا
 تُؤَاخِذْنِي بِمَا نَسِيتُ وَلَا تُرْهِقْنِي مِنْ أَمْرِي عُسْرًا ﴿٧٣﴾ فَانْطَلَقَا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا لَقِيَا قَوْمًا يَعْطِفُونَ
 قُلُوبَهُمْ عَلَيْهُمَا اتَّفَقَتَا عَلَيْهِمَا أَن يُصْرَفَا أَفْجَا مَوْجًا مَّكَرَ لَهُمَا وَكَلَّمَ اللَّهُ مُوسَىٰ
 تَبَوَّءَ لَكُمَا ذِكْرًا ﴿٧٤﴾

18:65. There they found one of Our slaves, on whom We had bestowed mercy from Us and to whom We had taught knowledge of Our own.

18:66. Moosâ said to him: May I follow you so that you may teach me something of that sound knowledge that you have been taught?

18:67. The man said: You will never be able to have patience with me, 18:68. for how can you have patience with something that you cannot fully comprehend?

18:69. Moosâ said: You shall find me, if Allah wills, patient; and I will not disobey you in any matter.

18:70. The man said: Then if you follow me, do not ask me about anything until I mention it to you myself.

18:71. So they set out until, when they had boarded a boat, he scuttled it. Moosâ said: Have you scuttled it in order to drown its passengers? You have certainly done a dreadful thing!

18:72. The man said: Did I not say: You will never be able to have patience with me?

18:73. Moosâ said: Do not take me to task for what I have forgotten, and do not make it too difficult for me to follow you.

18:74. So they set out until, when they met a boy, he killed him. Moosâ said: Have you killed an innocent soul who killed no one? You have done a terrible thing!

«There they found one of Our slaves, on whom We had bestowed mercy from Us» that is, Allah had granted him special mercy, by virtue of which his knowledge increased and he did righteous deeds «and to whom We had taught knowledge of Our own». He was given knowledge that had not been given to Moosâ, although Moosâ (ﷺ) was more knowledgeable than him in most matters, especially matters of faith and the fundamentals of laws and regulations, because he was one of the Messengers of strong resolve, whom Allah favoured over all creation (of his own time) in terms of knowledge, righteous deeds and other things. When Moosâ met him, he presented his request to him, politely seeking his consent:

«May I follow you so that you may teach me something of that sound knowledge that you have been taught?» That is, may I follow you on the basis that you teach me some of that sound knowledge that Allah has taught you, by which I may be guided and know the truth with regard to these matters? For Allah had given al-Khidr a great deal of inspiration and intuition, through which he could see into the hidden depths of many things that could even be hidden from Moosâ (ﷺ). Al-Khidr said to Moosâ: I will not refuse your request, but «You will never be able to have patience with me» that is, you will not be able to follow me and stay by my side, because you will see things that you will not be able to have patience with, things that outwardly appear to be evil, but inwardly are otherwise. Hence he said:

«for how can you have patience with something that you cannot fully comprehend?» that is, how can you be patient with a matter when you have no knowledge of either its hidden or apparent aspects and you do not know the purpose behind it or how it will unfold?

Moosâ said: «You shall find me, if Allah wills, patient; and I will not disobey you in any matter». This was resolve on his part, before he was put to the test; resolve is one thing and actually having patience is another matter altogether. Therefore Moosâ (ﷺ) was not able to be patient when he was put to the test.

At that point al-Khiḍr said to him: «Then if you follow me, do not ask me about anything until I mention it to you myself» that is, do not ask any question or raise any objection, until I am the one who tells you about it, at the time when it is appropriate to tell you. So he forbade him to ask him, but he promised to explain to him the reality of things.

«So they set out until, when they had boarded a boat, he scuttled it» that is, al-Khiḍr pulled out a plank of it, and he had a reason for doing that which he was going to explain, but Moosâ (ﷺ) could not be patient, because it appeared outwardly to be something bad, for it was damage to the boat which could have caused its passengers to drown. Hence Moosâ said:

«Have you scuttled it in order to drown its passengers? You have certainly done a dreadful thing!» That is, something serious and awful. This was due to lack of patience on his part, so al-Khiḍr said to him: «Did I not say: You will never be able to have patience with me?» That is, it has happened as I said it would. This was due to forgetfulness on Moosâ's part, so he said: «Do not take me to task for what I have forgotten, and do not make it too difficult for me to follow you» that is, do not be too hard on me, and be easy-going with me; this came about because of forgetfulness, so do not take me to task the first time. Thus he both admitted his error and asked for forgiveness for it, as if he was saying: you should not be harsh with your companion, O Khiḍr. So al-Khiḍr forgave him.

«So they set out until, when they met a boy, he» that is, al-Khiḍr «killed him». Moosâ became very angry and was overtaken by religious zeal, when his companion killed a small boy who had done no wrong.

﴿Moosâ said: Have you killed an innocent soul who killed no one? You have done a terrible thing!﴾ For what evil could be greater than killing a small child who had done nothing wrong and had not killed anyone? The first time Moosâ had forgotten, but this was not forgetfulness; rather it was a lack of patience.

---

18. Soorat al-Kahf

(continued)

---

﴿قَالَ أَلَمْ أَقُلْ لَّكَ إِنَّكَ لَنْ تَسْتَطِيعَ مَعِيَ صَبْرًا﴾ ﴿٧٥﴾ قَالَ إِنْ سَأَلْتُكَ عَنْ شَيْءٍ بَعْدَ هَذَا فَلَا تُصَاحِبْنِي قَدْ بَلَغْتَ مِن لَّدُنِّي عُذْرًا ﴿٧٦﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٧٥-٧٦)

18:75. The man said: Did I not say to you: You will never be able to have patience with me?<sup>1</sup>

18:76. Moosâ said: If I ever ask you about anything after this, do not keep me in your company, for then you will have good reason [to part company].

---

After al-Khidr killed the boy, and Moosâ (‘alayhi as-salâm – peace be upon him) had objected vehemently to what appeared to be a heinous act, al-Khidr said to him:

﴿Did I not say to you: You will never be able to have patience with me?﴾

Moosâ said to him: ﴿If I ever ask you about anything after this, do not keep me in your company﴾ that is, you will be justified for not keeping me in your company ﴿for then you will have good reason [to part company]﴾ and you will have done your best to keep me in your company.

---

<sup>1</sup> The meanings of the verses of the Qur'an in this book (with some minor changes to the punctuation) have been translated by the translator. (Editor)

﴿فَانْطَلَقَا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا أَنَّىٰ أَهْلَ قَرْيَةٍ اسْتَطَعَا أَهْلُهَا فَأَبَوْا أَنْ يُضَيِّقُوا لَهُمَا فَوَجَدَا فِيهَا جِدَارًا يُرِيدُ أَنْ يَنْقَضَ فَأَقَامَهُ، قَالَ لَوْ شِئْتَ لَتَّخَذْتَ عَلَيْهِ أَجْرًا﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٧٧)

18:77. So they set out until, when they came to the people of a town, they asked its people for food, but they refused to offer them hospitality. They found there a wall that was about to fall down, but he repaired it. Moosâ said: If you wished, you could have obtained some payment for it!

That is, they requested hospitality but the people did not welcome them.

﴿They found there a wall that was about to fall down﴾ that is, it was in poor repair and was about to collapse

﴿but he﴾ namely al-Khidr

﴿repaired it﴾ that is, he fixed it and restored it. Moosâ said to him:

﴿If you wished, you could have obtained some payment for it!﴾

That is, the people of this town did not give us any hospitality, even though that was required of them, but you restored this wall without any payment, when you were able to take payment for it! On this occasion Moosâ did not fulfil the promise he had made, so al-Khidr had good reason to part ways with him.

﴿قَالَ هَذَا فِرَاقُ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنِكَ سَأُنَبِّئُكَ بِمَا لَمْ تَسْتَطِعْ عَلَيْهِ صَبْرًا ۖ أَمَّا السَّفِينَةُ فَكَانَتْ لِمَسْكِينٍ يَعْمَلُونَ فِي الْبَحْرِ فَأَرَدْتُ أَنْ أَعِيبَهَا وَكَانَ وَرَاءَهُمْ مَلِكٌ يَأْخُذُ كُلَّ سَفِينَةٍ غَصْبًا﴾ (٧٨) وَأَمَّا الْغُلَامُ فَكَانَ أَبَوَاهُ مُؤْمِنَيْنِ فَخَشِينَا أَنْ يُرْهِقَهُمَا طُغْيَانًا

وَكُفِّرًا ﴿٨٢﴾ فَأَرَدْنَا أَنْ يُبْدِلَهُمَا رَبُّهُمَا خَيْرًا مِمَّا زَكَّوْهُ وَأَقْرَبَ رُحْمًا ﴿٨٣﴾ وَأَمَّا الْجِدَارُ فَكَانَ لِغُلَامَيْنِ يَتِيمَيْنِ فِي الْمَدِينَةِ وَكَانَ تَحْتَهُ كَنْزٌ لَهُمَا وَكَانَ أَبُوهُمَا صَالِحًا فَأَرَادَ رَبُّكَ أَنْ يَبْلُغَا أَشُدَّهُمَا وَيَسْتَخْرِجَا كَنْزَهُمَا رَحْمَةً مِن رَّبِّكَ وَمَا فَعَلْتُهُ عَنْ أَمْرِي ﴿٨٤﴾ ذَلِكَ تَأْوِيلُ مَا لَمْ تَسْطِعْ عَلَيْهِ صَبْرًا ﴿٨٥﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٧٨-٨٢)

- 18:78. The man said: This is the parting of the ways between me and you. Now I will explain to you the significance of that which you were unable to bear with patience.
- 18:79. As for the boat, it belonged to some poor people who made their living on the sea; I wanted to damage it because [I knew that] there was a king ahead of them who was seizing every [sound] boat by force.
- 18:80. As for the boy, his parents were believers, and we feared that he would grieve them with his rebellion and ingratitude.
- 18:81. So we desired that their Lord should grant them another in his place, [a child] more righteous and more tender-hearted.
- 18:82. As for the wall, it belonged to two orphan boys in the town, and there was beneath it a treasure belonging to them. Their father had been a righteous man, so your Lord willed that they should come of age and then extract their treasure – as a mercy from your Lord; I did not do it of my own accord. This is the significance of that which you were unable to bear with patience.

Al-Khiḍr said to Moosâ: ﴿This is the parting of the ways between me and you﴾ for you had committed yourself to that, and now you have no excuse left and there is no way that you can continue to keep company with me.

﴿Now I will explain to you the significance of that which you were unable to bear with patience﴾ that is, I shall tell you about those things that you objected to me doing, and I will inform you of the reasons I had for what I did, for I have knowledge of how matters will unfold.

﴿As for the boat﴾ that I scuttled, ﴿it belonged to some poor people who made their living on the sea﴾ which would prompt one to show kindness and compassion towards them.

﴿I wanted to damage it because [I knew that] there was a king ahead of them who was seizing every [sound] boat by force﴾ that is, their route would take them past that unjust king, and he would seize unlawfully any sound boat, free of defect, that passed by him. So I wanted to scuttle it in order to make it defective, so that they would be safe from that wrongdoer.

﴿As for the boy﴾ whom I killed, ﴿his parents were believers, and we feared that he would grieve them with his rebellion and ingratitude﴾. It had been decreed that if that boy had grown up, he would have grieved his parents with his rebellion and ingratitude; that is, he would have put pressure on them which could have led them to transgress and disbelieve, either because of their love for him, or because of their need for him, or because he would force them to do that. But I killed him, because I had knowledge of that, so as to protect the religious commitment of his believing parents. What benefit can be greater than this? Although it was hard for them to be deprived of their offspring, Allah (Subhânahu wa Ta'âlâ – Glorified and Exalted is He) would give them other offspring who would be better than him. Hence he said:

﴿So we desired that their Lord should grant them another in his place, [a child] more righteous and more tender-hearted﴾ that is, a righteous child who would uphold ties of kinship, for if the boy who was killed had grown up, he would have been very disobedient and cruel to them, and he would have forced them to disbelieve and transgress.

﴿As for the wall﴾ that I repaired, ﴿it belonged to two orphan boys in the town, and there was beneath it a treasure belonging to them. Their father had been a righteous man﴾ that is, the situation required that I show kindness and compassion towards them, because they were so young and had lost their father. Moreover, Allah protected them because of the righteousness of their father.

﴿so your Lord willed that they should come of age and then extract their treasure﴾ that is, therefore I demolished the wall, took out their treasure that was beneath it, then I rebuilt it for them for free.

﴿as a mercy from your Lord﴾ that is, what I did was a mercy from Allah, that Allah bestowed upon His slave al-Khidr.

﴿I did not do it of my own accord﴾ that is, I did not do anything on my own initiative or just because I wanted to do it; rather that was by the mercy of Allah and at His command.

﴿This﴾ that I have explained to you ﴿is the significance of that which you were unable to bear with patience﴾.

From this amazing story we learn a number of lessons, rulings and principles, some of which we will note here:

- The virtue of knowledge and travelling to seek it. This is the most important thing, for Moosâ (ﷺ) travelled a great distance and went through hardship to seek it. He gave up his stay with the Children of Israel, whom he was teaching and guiding, and chose to travel in order to increase his knowledge.
- One should prioritise, starting with the most important matters, for increasing knowledge – for an individual – is more important than neglecting that and being preoccupied with teaching others, without increasing one's own knowledge. But combining the two matters is better.
- It is permissible to hire a servant whether one is at home or travelling, so that the servant may take care of one's needs and one may have time to rest and relax, as Moosâ did.
- With regard to the one who travels in pursuit of knowledge or for the purpose of jihad and the like, if there is a purpose to be served by telling about his aim and destination, telling about it is more appropriate than concealing it, because disclosing it brings benefits such as making full preparation for the journey, engaging in matters with proper understanding of what is involved, and manifesting the virtue of this great act of worship, as Moosâ said: «I will not give up until I reach the junction of the two seas, even if it takes me years [of travel]» (18: 60). Similarly, the Prophet (ṣalla Allâhu 'alayhi wa sallam – blessings and peace be upon him) informed his Companions – when he went on the campaign to Tabook – where he was headed, even though his usual habit was to conceal his campaign plans. This is a matter that is to be done as dictated by interests.

- Evil and its causes may be ascribed to the Shayṭân, because of his temptation and making evil fair-seeming, although all things happen by the will and decree of Allah, because the servant of Moosâ said: «it was none but the Shayṭân who caused me to forget» (18: 63).
- It is permissible for a person to express what he feels as a result of human nature, such as exhaustion, hunger or thirst, so long as that is not by way of discontent, if it is true, because Moosâ said: «truly this journey of ours has exhausted us» (18: 62).
- It is recommended for a person's servant to be smart, alert and versatile, so that he may help him to achieve what he wants to do.
- It is recommended for a person to feed his servant the food that he himself eats, and for them to eat together, because the apparent meaning of Moosâ's words, «Bring us our morning meal» (18: 62), refers to both of them and suggests that they would eat together.
- Divine help may be granted to a person commensurate with the extent to which he is doing what is enjoined upon him, and the one who is doing something in accordance with the command of Allah will receive help in a way that others do not, because of the words: «truly this journey of ours has exhausted us» (18: 62). This refers to the journey beyond the junction of the two seas. Before that, he did not complain of exhaustion, even though he had travelled a long way, because that was travel in a true sense. As for the subsequent travel, what appears to be the case is that it was part of a day, because they lost the fish when they got to the rock. It seems that they spent the night at the rock, then they set off the next day, until the time for the morning meal came, when Moosâ said to his servant: «Bring us our morning meal» (18: 62). At that point he remembered that he had forgotten the fish in the place that was the destination they had been seeking.

- The person whom they met was not a Prophet; rather he was a righteous slave of Allah, because he is described as being a true slave of Allah. Moreover, he mentioned what Allah had blessed him with of mercy and knowledge, but no mention is made of being a messenger or Prophet. If he had been a Prophet, that would have been mentioned as it was mentioned in the case of others.

With regard to his words at the end of the story, «I did not do it of my own accord» (18: 82), this does not indicate that he was a Prophet; rather it indicates that he was inspired, as may happen in the case of people other than Prophets, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«We inspired the mother of Moosâ, saying: Breastfeed him...»
(al-Qaşaş 28: 7)

– and:

«And your Lord inspired the bee [saying]: Make your homes in the mountains...» (an-Nahl 16: 68)

The knowledge that Allah teaches to His slaves is of two types: knowledge acquired through effort and striving, and knowledge received directly from Allah, without effort, which Allah bestows upon whomever He will of His slaves, because He says: «to whom We had taught knowledge of Our own» (18: 65).

- One should show proper etiquette towards teachers, and the seeker of knowledge should address his teacher in a gentle manner, because Moosâ (ﷺ) said: «May I follow you so that you may teach me something of that sound knowledge that you have been taught?» (18: 66). He spoke to him in a polite and gentle manner, asking permission, as if he was saying: Will you give me permission to do that or not? And he affirmed that he would learn from him. This is in contrast to those who address their teachers in a rough or arrogant manner, not highlighting their need of the teachers' knowledge; rather they claim to be working together with them. Indeed some may think that they are teaching the teachers, when in fact they are extremely ignorant. Showing humility towards the teacher and expressing one's need of his teaching is one of the most beneficial approaches for the student.

- One who is superior may show humility to learn from one who is of lower status than him. Moosâ (ﷺ) was undoubtedly of higher status than al-Khidr.
- A knowledgeable and virtuous person may learn a branch of knowledge that he does not know from one who does possess that knowledge, even if he is many degrees lower than him in terms of overall knowledge. Moosâ (ﷺ) was one of the Messengers of strong resolve to whom Allah had granted knowledge that He did not grant to others, but with regard to this particular branch of knowledge, al-Khidr possessed knowledge that Moosâ did not; therefore he was very keen to learn from him. Based on that, if a scholar of hadith or fiqh is lacking in knowledge of grammar or morphology or some other branch of knowledge, he should not refrain from learning it from one who is skilled therein, even if he is not a scholar of Hadith or fiqh.
- One should attribute knowledge and other virtues to Allah (ﷻ), and affirm them, and give thanks to Allah for them, because Moosâ said: «so that you may teach me something of that sound knowledge that you have been taught» (18: 66), that is, that knowledge which Allah (ﷻ) has taught you.

- Beneficial knowledge is that which guides to good. Any knowledge in which there is guidance to the ways of goodness and warning against the ways of evil, or is a means of achieving that, is regarded as beneficial knowledge. All other knowledge is either harmful or of no benefit, because Moosâ said: ﴿so that you may teach me something of that sound knowledge that you have been taught﴾ (18: 66).
- Whoever does not have the patience to accompany a scholar and learn from him, and is not able to be steadfast in that, will miss out, according to the degree of his lack of patience, on a great deal of knowledge. Whoever has no patience will not acquire any knowledge, but the one who resorts to patience and adheres to it will attain all that he strives for, because al-Khidr said – when he explained to Moosâ why he could not learn from him – that he would never be able to have patience with him (18: 67).
- The primary means of attaining patience is having full knowledge and understanding of the matter with which he is instructed to be patient. Otherwise if he is not aware of it or does not realise its purpose and consequences, or its benefit and outcome, he will have no reason to be patient, because al-Khidr said: ﴿for how can you have patience with something that you cannot fully comprehend?﴾ (18: 68). So he stated that the reason for his lack of patience was his lack of understanding of the matter.
- It is enjoined to be deliberate and certain, and not to be hasty in passing judgement concerning any matter until one knows what is the aim behind it and the goal that is sought.
- One should connect matters of the future – that have to do with what a person wants to do – to the divine will, and no one should say about anything, “I am going to do that in the future” without also saying “if Allah wills”.
- Resolving to do a thing is not the same as doing it, because Moosâ (عليه السلام) said: ﴿You shall find me, if Allah wills, patient﴾ (18: 69). He prepared himself to be patient, but he did not do it.

- If the teacher sees that there is an interest to be served by instructing the student not to ask questions about some things until the teacher is the one who explains them to him, then there should be a reason for it such as the student not being able to understand it yet, or because he told the student not to ask about minor details when enquiring about matters because other questions may be more important, or because the student is not able to comprehend it, or because he is asking a question that has nothing to do with the topic under discussion.
- It is permissible to travel by sea, so long as there is no fear of drowning.
- The one who forgets is not called to account for his forgetfulness, whether with regard to the rights of Allah or the rights of people, because Moosâ said: ﴿Do not take me to task for what I have forgotten﴾ (18: 73).
- We should accept people as they are with regard to their attitude and behaviour, and accept what they are happy to give when dealing with them. We should not burden them with more than they can cope with, or put undue pressure on them, because that will put them off and make them feel fed up with us. Rather we should accept them as they are, so that dealing with them will be easy.
- People should be judged as they appear to be, and rulings on material matters, such as wealth, life and so on, should be based on what appears to be the case. Moosâ (ﷺ) denounced al-Khiḍr for scuttling the boat and killing the boy because these things appeared to be wrong, so Moosâ (ﷺ) should not have kept quiet about them, except in this case when he was accompanying al-Khiḍr. So he hastened to issue his ruling based on what is usually the case, and he did not pay attention to this extraordinary situation that required him to be patient and not be hasty in denouncing.

- The important and sublime ruling is that the greater evil may be warded off by a lesser evil, and a greater interest may be served by foregoing a lesser interest. Killing the boy was bad, but letting him live until he caused his parents to recant their religion was a greater evil. Letting the boy live and not killing him, and protecting his life, may have been regarded as something good, but what was better was to protect the religious commitment and faith of his parents. Therefore al-Khiḍr killed him. Many guidelines and benefits come under the heading of this general ruling, so when there are conflicting matters, they all come under this ruling.
- Another important principle with regard to one man handling the wealth of another is that if it is done in a manner that serves the latter's interests and wards off harm, it is permissible for him to do that, even without permission and even if that involves causing some damage to the property of the other person, such as when al-Khiḍr scuttled the boat in order to render it defective, so that it would be safe from being seized unlawfully by the unjust king. Based on that, if a fire or flood or the like occurs in the house or property of a man, then it is permissible to damage part of the property or demolish part of the house for the sake of saving the rest. In fact that is prescribed, so as to protect the wealth and property of the other person. Similarly, if a wrongdoer wants to take the property of that other person, so one gives him some of the wealth in order to ransom the rest, that is permissible, even without permission.
- It is permissible to make a living on the sea just as it is permissible on land, because al-Khiḍr said: ﴿who made their living on the sea﴾ (18: 79) and Allah did not denounce what they did.
- A poor person may have wealth that is not sufficient to meet his needs, and that does not cancel out the description of him as poor, because Allah tells us that these poor people had a boat.

- Killing is one of the worst of sins, because Moosâ said with regard to the killing of the boy: ﴿You have done a terrible thing!﴾ (18: 74).
- Killing in legal retribution (qisâs)<sup>2</sup> is not an evil deed, because he said: ﴿Have you killed an innocent soul who killed no one?﴾ (18: 74).
- Allah will protect the righteous person himself and will protect his offspring.
- Serving righteous people and anyone who is connected to them is better than serving others, because al-Khiḍr explained the reason why he extracted the treasure of the two boys and rebuilt their wall as being that the father had been a righteous man.
- One should use proper etiquette with Allah (ﷻ) by choosing the proper words. Al-Khiḍr attributed the act of damaging the boat to himself, when he said: ﴿I wanted to damage it﴾ (18: 79). But in the case of good, he attributed it to Allah (ﷻ), because he said: ﴿so your Lord willed that they should come of age and then extract their treasure – as a mercy from your Lord﴾ (18: 82). This is like when Ibrâheem (ﷺ) said: ﴿When I am sick He heals me.﴾ (ash-Shu'arâ 26: 80) – and when the jinn said: ﴿We do not know whether ill is intended for those on earth, or their Lord intends good for them.﴾ (al-Jinn 72: 10) – even though everything happens by the will and decree of Allah.
- A person should not leave his companion under any circumstances unless he has made clear to him what he should not do, warns him against doing so and explains what he did wrong, as al-Khiḍr did with Moosâ.

<sup>2</sup> Wherever possible, Arabic terms have been translated into English. In cases where we have chosen to retain the Arabic, the transliterated word or phrase is shown in italics the first time it appears in the text. The term is also defined in the glossary found at the end of this book. (Editor)

- Going along with one's companions with regard to things that are not prohibited is a means of companionship lasting and becoming stronger, just as lack of such harmony leads to the end of companionship.
- These things that al-Khidr did were the result of the pure divine decree that Allah caused to occur at the hands of this righteous slave, so that by means of this story people may come to understand the subtlety of the divine decree, and that Allah may decree things that a person dislikes very much but they are good for his religious commitment, as in the case of the boy, or they are good for his worldly interests, as in the case of the boat. Thus He shows examples of His kindness and generosity, so that people may understand and be fully content with the divine decree that may hurt.

﴿وَنَسْتَلُونَكَ عَنْ ذِي الْقَرْنَيْنِ قُلْ سَأَتْلُو عَلَيْكُمْ مِنْهُ ذِكْرًا ﴿٨٣﴾ إِنَّا مَكَّنَّا لَهُ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَءَاتَيْنَاهُ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ سَبِيلًا ﴿٨٤﴾ فَأَتَى سَبِيلًا ﴿٨٥﴾ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا بَلَغَ مَغْرِبَ الشَّمْسِ وَجَدَهَا تَغْرُبُ فِي عَيْنٍ حَمِئَةٍ وَوَجَدَ عِنْدَهَا قَوْمًا قُلْنَا يَبْدَأُ الْقَرْنَيْنِ إِمَّا أَنْ تُعَذِّبَ وَإِمَّا أَنْ تَتَّخِذَ فِيهِمْ حُسْنًا ﴿٨٦﴾ قَالَ أَمَّا مَنْ ظَلَمَ فَسَوْفَ نُعَذِّبُهُ ثُمَّ يُرَدُّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِ فَيُعَذِّبُهُ عَذَابًا ثَكْرًا ﴿٨٧﴾ وَأَمَّا مَنْ آمَنَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَلَهُ جَزَاءُ الْحُسْنَىٰ وَسَنَقُولُ لَهُ مِنْ أَمْرِنَا يُسْرًا ﴿٨٨﴾﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٨٣-٨٨)

(٨٨-٨٣)

- 18:83. They ask you [O Muhammad] about Dhul-Qarnayn. Say: I will tell you something about him.
- 18:84. Verily We established him in the land and gave him the means to achieve all things.
- 18:85. He pursued a certain course
- 18:86. until, when he reached the far west, he found the sun setting in a dark sea, and he found a people nearby. We said: O Dhul-

Qarnayn, [it is up to you] whether you punish them or treat them kindly.

18:87. He said: As for the one who does wrong [and persists therein], we will punish him; then he will be brought back to his Lord, and He will punish him with a terrible punishment.

18:88. But as for the one who believes and does righteous deeds, he will have the best reward, and we will command him to do what is easy for him.

The People of the Book or the polytheists had asked the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) about the story of Dhul-Qarnayn, so Allah instructed him to say:

﴿I will tell you something about him﴾, some useful information and amazing stories. In other words, I will tell you about him something that will be a reminder and a lesson for you. As for other things about him, he did not tell them that.

﴿Verily We established him in the land﴾ Allah (ﷻ) gave him dominion and authority in different parts of the land, where people submitted to his leadership.

﴿and gave him the means to achieve all things. He pursued a certain course﴾ that is, Allah gave him the means of achieving what he achieved, that enabled him to gain dominion in distant lands and enabled him to reach the furthest inhabited regions, and he used the means that Allah had given him in a proper manner. Not everyone who has means available to him uses those means, and not everyone is able to use the means available to him. If a person has the means of achieving something and uses them, he will attain his goal, but if both factors – or one of them – are absent, he will not attain it.

Allah does not tell us what these means that He gave him were, and His Messenger (ﷺ) does not tell us either. There are no reports that could give any information regarding that. Therefore we cannot but keep quiet about them and not pay any attention to what the narrators of reports from Jewish sources and others mention. But we know in general terms that many strong means and measures were available to him, through which he acquired a great army, with huge numbers of men and equipment, and highly disciplined. By means of that he was able to suppress his enemies and it was made easy for him to reach the east and west of the earth and other regions thereof. Allah gave him the means of reaching the place where the sun sets, until he saw the sun with his own eyes as if it was setting in a dark – that is, black – sea. This is what a person would usually see if what is between him and the sun as it is setting is water; he would see it appearing to set into the water itself, although it is far away from the water. At that place – that is, the place where the sun set – he found a people.

﴿We said: O Dhul-Qarnayn, [it is up to you] whether you punish them or treat them kindly﴾. That is: either you may punish them, by killing them, beating them, taking them captive, and the like; or you may treat them kindly. He was given the choice between these two options, because what appears to be the case is that they were either disbelievers or evildoers, or among them there were some who were like that, because if they had been believers and not evildoers, he would not have been given the option of punishing them. Dhul-Qarnayn knew how to deal with people on the basis of shar'i teachings, for which he deserves praise, because Allah guided him to that. So he said: I shall divide them into two groups:

﴿He said: As for the one who does wrong﴾ by disbelieving, ﴿[and persists therein], we will punish him; then he will be brought back to his Lord, and He will punish him with a terrible punishment﴾ that is, he will have two punishments, one in this world and one in the hereafter.

﴿But as for the one who believes and does righteous deeds, he will have the best reward﴾ that is, paradise will be his and he will be in good standing before Allah, as a reward on the Day of Resurrection.

﴿and we will command him to do what is easy for him﴾ that is, we will treat him kindly, speak gently to him and be easy going with him. This indicates that Dhul-Qarnayn was a righteous, knowledgeable and just king, as he dealt with each person according to his situation, which is in accordance with what is pleasing to Allah.

﴿ثُمَّ أَنْبَغَ سَبِيًّا ۝٨٩ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا بَلَغَ مَطْلِعَ الشَّمْسِ وَجَدَهَا تَطْلُعُ عَلَىٰ قَوْمٍ لَّمْ يَجْعَلْ لَّهُمْ مِّنْ دُونِهَا سِتْرًا ۝٩٠ كَذَٰلِكَ وَقَدْ أَحَطْنَا بِمَا لَدَيْهِ خُبْرًا ۝٩١ ثُمَّ أَنْبَغَ سَبِيًّا ۝٩٢ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا بَلَغَ بَيْنَ السَّدَّيْنِ وَجَدَ مِنْ دُونِهِمَا قَوْمًا لَا يَكَادُونَ يَفْقَهُونَ قَوْلًا ۝٩٣ قَالُوا يَٰذَا الْقَرْنَيْنِ إِنَّ يَأْجُوجَ وَمَأْجُوجَ مُفْسِدُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ فَهَلْ نَجْعَلُ لَكَ خَرْجًا عَلَىٰ أَنْ تَجْعَلَ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَهُمْ سَدًّا ۝٩٤ قَالَ مَا مَكْنِي فِيهِ رَبِّي خَيْرٌ فَأَعِينُونِي بِقُوَّةٍ أَجْعَلْ بَيْنَكُمْ وَبَيْنَهُمْ رَدْمًا ۝٩٥ ءَاتُونِي زُبَرَ الْحَدِيدِ ۝ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا سَاوَىٰ بَيْنَ الصَّدَفَيْنِ قَالَ انْفُخُوا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَعَلَهُ نَارًا قَالَ ءَاتُونِي أُفْرِغْ عَلَيْهِ قِطْرًا ۝٩٦ فَمَا اسْطَبَعُوا أَنْ يَظْهَرُوهُ وَمَا اسْتَطَاعُوا لَهُ نَقْبًا ۝٩٧ قَالَ هَٰذَا رَحْمَةٌ مِنِّي فَإِذَا جَاءَ وَعْدُ رَبِّي جَعَلَهُ دَكَّاءَ وَكَانَ وَعْدُ رَبِّي حَقًّا ۝٩٨﴾ (سورة الكهف: ٨٩-٩٨)

18:89. Then he pursued another course

18:90. until, when he reached the far east, he found the sun rising on a people for whom We had provided no shelter from it.

18:91. And so it was; and We had full knowledge of all the means available to him.

18:92. Then he pursued another course

18:93. until, when he arrived between the two mountains, he found beyond them a people who could scarcely understand a word.

18:94. They said: O Dhul-Qarnayn, Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj are spreading mischief in the land. May we give you some payment in return for your constructing a barrier between us and them?

- 18:95. He said: What my Lord has given me is better [than what you would give me]. But help me with manpower and equipment, and I will construct a fortified barrier between you and them.
- 18:96. Bring me blocks of iron. Then when he had filled the gap between the two mountain-sides, [he said]: Blow [with your bellows]. Then when he had made it glow like fire, he said: Bring me molten copper to pour over it.
- 18:97. Thus [Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj] were made powerless to scale it or bore their way through it.
- 18:98. Dhul-Qarnayn said: This is a mercy from my Lord. But when the time appointed by my Lord comes, He will level it. The promise of my Lord is ever true.

---

When he reached the setting place of the sun, he turned around and came back, heading towards the place of its rising, using all the means that Allah had made available to him. Then he reached the place where the sun rises, where ﴿he found the sun rising on a people for whom We had provided no shelter from it﴾ that is, he found it rising upon a people who had no shelter from the sun, either because they did not have houses, because they were very primitive and wild, and were not civilised, or because the sun was always above them and never set completely, as happens in some parts of the world. So he arrived at a place of which the people of the earth had no knowledge and had never tried to reach it. All of that happened by the decree and knowledge of Allah. Hence He says:

﴿And so it was; and We had full knowledge of all the means available to him﴾ that is, We had full knowledge of the resources and great means that he had at his disposal, and We were with him by Our knowledge, wherever he went.

﴿Then he pursued another course until, when he arrived between the two mountains﴾. The commentators said that he went from the east, heading north, and he arrived between the two mountains. There was a chain of mountains that was well known at that time, which formed a barrier between Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj and other people. Beyond the two mountains he found a people who could hardly understand any words because they spoke a foreign language, and because they were foreign in their way of thinking. Allah had given Dhul-Qarnayn knowledge by means of which he could understand the language of those people and they could talk to one another. They complained to him of the harm caused by Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj, who were two great nations among the sons of Adam. Those people said:

«Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj are spreading mischief in the land» by killing, seizing wealth, and so on.

«May we give you some payment» that is, a fee or wages
«in return for your constructing a barrier between us and them?» This indicates that they were not able to build the barrier by themselves, but they realised that Dhul-Qarnayn was able to do it, so they offered him payment to build it, and told him the reason for it, which was that Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj were spreading mischief in the land. Dhul-Qarnayn was not a man who was greedy for money, and he had no desire for worldly gain, nor would he turn away from doing what was in the best interests of his subjects; rather his aim was to do what was right for them. Therefore he responded to their request, because it served the interests of these people, but he did not take any payment from them and he gave thanks to his Lord for enabling him to do it. He said to them:

«He said: What my Lord has given me is better» that is, better than what you are offering and what you would give me; but I ask you to help me with your physical strength and labour
«and I will construct a fortified barrier between you and them» to prevent them from crossing to you.

«Bring me blocks of iron» that is, pieces of iron, which they brought to him

﴿Then when he had filled the gap between the two mountain-sides﴾ that is, the two mountains between which he built the barrier ﴿[he said]: Blow [with your bellows]﴾ on the fire, to let it reach the greatest intensity of heat. They used the bellows for that, so that the heat would become greater and melt the copper. When the copper had melted, which he wanted to pour between the blocks of iron, ﴿he said: Bring me molten copper to pour over it﴾. He poured the molten copper over it, and the barrier became extremely solid, and the people beyond it were protected by it from the harm of Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj.

﴿Thus [Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj] were made powerless to scale it or bore their way through it﴾ that is, they were not able and did not have the strength to climb it because it was so high, or to bore through it because it was so solid and strong. When he did this good deed and great favour, he attributed the blessing to the One Who bestowed it, and said:

﴿This is a mercy from my Lord﴾ that is, it is by His grace and kindness to me.

This is how righteous rulers are: when Allah blesses them with great favours, it increases their gratitude and acknowledgement of the blessings of Allah. Likewise, Sulaymân (ﷺ) said, when the throne of the Queen of Saba' (Sheba) was brought to him despite the great distance:

﴿...This is a favour from my Lord, to test whether I will be grateful or ungrateful...﴾ (an-Naml 27: 40)

This is in contrast to those who are arrogant and proud, and who want to prove themselves in the land; great blessings only increase them in insolence and arrogance, as happened in the case of Qâroon when Allah granted him treasure, the keys of which would weigh down a group of strong men (28: 76); he said:

﴿...This has been given to me only because of knowledge that I possess...﴾ (al-Qasas 28: 78)

«But when the time appointed by my Lord comes» that is, the time for the emergence of Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj,
 «He will level it» that is, that well-built barrier; He will cause it to collapse and make it level with the earth.
 «The promise of my Lord is ever true».

﴿وَنَرَكُنَا بَعْضُهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ يَمُوجُ فِي بَعْضٍ وَنُفِخَ فِي الصُّورِ نَجْمَعُنَّهُمْ جَمْعًا ۝۹۹ وَعَرَّضْنَا جَهَنَّمَ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْكَافِرِينَ عَرْضًا ۝۱۰۰ الَّذِينَ كَانَتْ أَعْيُنُهُمْ فِي غِطَاءٍ عَنْ ذِكْرِي وَكَانُوا لَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ سَمْعًا ۝۱۰۱﴾ (سورة الكهف: ۹۹-۱۰۱)

- 18:99. On that day We will leave them to surge like waves against one another. The Trumpet will be blown, then We will gather them all together.
- 18:100. On that day We will display hell, plain to see, for the disbelievers,
- 18:101. those whose eyes were blind to My signs and they could not bear to hear [the message of truth].

It may be that the pronoun (them) refers to Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj, and when they emerge against the people – because of their large numbers and their reaching all parts of the earth – they will surge like waves against one another, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«Until, when Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj have been let loose and come rushing from all directions.» (al-Anbiya' 21: 96)

Or it may be that the pronoun refers to all creatures on the Day of Resurrection, and they will be gathered together in such great numbers that they will surge like waves against one another, because of their terror and the great earthquake, based on the fact that Allah says here: «The Trumpet will be blown, then We will gather them all together. On that day We will display hell, plain to see, for the disbelievers, those whose eyes were blind to My signs and they could not bear to hear [the message of truth]». That is, when Isrâfeel blows into the Trumpet, Allah will restore souls to bodies, then He will resurrect them and gather them together for the standing of the Day of Resurrection, the first and the last, disbelievers and believers, so that they may be questioned and brought to account, and be requited for their deeds. As for the disbelievers – of all kinds – hell will be their recompense, to abide therein forever.

Hence Allah says: «On that day We will display hell, plain to see, for the disbelievers». This is like the verse in which He says:

«And hell will be placed in full view of those who went astray.»
(ash-Shu'arâ 26: 91)

That is, it will be presented to them, to be their abode, and so that they might taste the pain of its chains, blaze, hot water and bitter cold, and taste the punishment that will stun and overwhelm them, and cause their ears to become deaf. This is the outcome of and requital for their deeds, for in this world their eyes «were blind to My signs» that is, they turned away from the wise reminder and the noble Qur'an, and said:

«...Our hearts are covered [and sealed] against that to which you call us...» (Fuṣṣilat 41: 5)

– and over their eyes there were covers which prevented them from seeing the beneficial signs of Allah, as He says elsewhere:

«...and over their eyes is a cover...» (al-Baqarah 2: 7)

«and they could not bear to hear» that is, they could not bear to hear the verses of Allah which lead to faith, because of their resentment towards the Qur'an and the Messenger (ﷺ), for the one who is filled with resentment cannot bear to hear the words of the one whom he resents. Once the ways of knowledge and goodness are blocked to them, they have no way to hear or see, and no reasoning that could benefit them. They had disbelieved in Allah, denied His revelations and rejected His Messengers, so they deserved hell and a hapless journey's end.

﴿أَفَحِيبَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَنْ يَتَّخِذُوا عِبَادِي مِنْ دُونِ آلِهَاتٍ إِنَّا أَعَدْنَا جَهَنَّمَ لِلْكَافِرِينَ نَزْلًا﴾
(سورة الكهف: ١٠٢)

18:102. Do the disbelievers think that they can take My slaves [whom they worship]<sup>3</sup> as allies instead of Me? Verily We have prepared hell as a dwelling place for the disbelievers.

This is proof and evidence of the falseness of the claim made by the disbelieving polytheists who regarded some of the Prophets and close friends of Allah as so-called partners of Allah whom they worshipped, and claimed that they were their allies who would save them from the punishment of Allah and enable them to attain His reward, when they had disbelieved in Allah and His Messengers.

Allah says to them, in the form of a question by way of denunciation, highlighting the falseness of their view on a rational basis:

﴿Do the disbelievers think that they can take My slaves [whom they worship] as allies instead of Me?﴾ That is, that cannot happen, for no close friend of Allah could ever take an enemy of Allah as an ally, for the close friends of Allah are in agreement with Allah, with regard to what He loves and is pleased with, and what He hates and is angered by. According to this meaning, this verse is akin to the passage in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿On the day when He gathers them all together He will say to the angels: Was it you that these people used to worship? They will say:

<sup>3</sup> It is not possible for one who opposes Allah to take as an ally any of His close friends whom they worship, such as 'Eesâ (Jesus), the angels or the righteous.

Glory be to You! You are our Close Friend, not they... ﴿Saba' 34: 40-41﴾

Whoever claims that he is taking a close friend of Allah as his friend and ally, when he is an enemy to Allah, is lying.

Or it may be – and this is more correct – that what is meant is: do those who disbelieve in Allah and oppose His Messengers think that they can take, instead of Allah, allies who will support them and benefit them instead of Allah, and ward off harm from them? This is wrong thinking, for no created being has any power to bring benefit or cause harm. This is like the verses in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Say: Call on those whom you claim [to be gods]<sup>4</sup> besides Him; they have no power to relieve you of harm or divert it from you.﴾ (al-Isrâ' 17: 56)

– and:

﴿Those on whom they call besides Allah have no power of intercession...﴾ (az-Zukhruf 43: 86)

And there are similar verses in which it says that the one who takes any ally other than Him for support and protection is misguided and hopeless, and he will not attain any of that for which he hopes.

﴿Verily We have prepared hell as a dwelling place for the disbelievers﴾ – what a bad place of dwelling.

﴿قُلْ هَلْ نُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِالْأَخْسَرِينَ أَعْمَالًا ﴿١٣﴾ الَّذِينَ ضَلَّ سَعْيُهُمْ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَهُمْ يَحْسَبُونَ أَنَّهُمْ يُحْسِنُونَ صُنْعًا ﴿١٤﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ وَلِقَائِهِ. فَحَبَّطْتَ أَعْمَالَهُمْ فَلَا نَقِيمَ﴾

<sup>4</sup> Those who are falsely worshipped, who are referred to in this and the following verse, are 'Eesâ, 'Uzayr and the angels; they have no power to benefit or harm in and of themselves, and are themselves devoted slaves of Allah.

﴿لَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَزْنًا﴾ ذَلِكَ جَزَاؤُهُمْ جَهَنَّمَ بِمَا كَفَرُوا وَاتَّخَذُوا آيَاتِي وَرُسُلِي هُزُوًا ﴿١٠٣﴾
(سورة الكهف: ١٠٣-١٠٦)

- 18:103. Say: Shall we tell you who will be the greatest losers in terms of deeds, 18:104. those whose efforts in the life of this world are wasted, while they think that what they do is right?
18:105. They are the ones who reject the signs of their Lord and deny the Meeting with Him. Their deeds will come to nothing and on the Day of Resurrection, We will not give them any weight.<sup>5</sup>
18:106. That will be their recompense, hell, because they disbelieved and made a mockery of My signs and My Messengers.

That is: say, O Muhammad (ﷺ), to the people, by way of warning: shall I tell you who will be the greatest losers in terms of deeds?

«those whose efforts in the life of this world are wasted» that is, all the deeds that they did, thinking that they were doing good, will become worthless and be rendered invalid. So how about the deeds that they do, knowing that they are wrong, and that they are deeds of opposition and enmity towards Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ)? Who are these people whose deeds will come to nothing?

«...who lose their own souls and their families on the Day of Resurrection. That is indeed manifest loss.» (az-Zumar 39: 15)

«They are the ones who reject the signs of their Lord and deny the Meeting with Him» that is, they deny the Qur'anic verses and visible signs that point to the necessity of believing in Him, His angels, His Messengers, His Books and the Last Day.

«Their deeds will come to nothing» because of that

<sup>5</sup> That is, they will be of no significance and the Balance will not be set up for them because they will have no good deeds to be weighed. (al-Baydâwi)

﴿and on the Day of Resurrection, We will not give them any weight﴾ because the benefit of them having weight becomes apparent when good deeds are weighed against bad deeds to see which will outweigh the other. These people will have no good deeds to their credit, because they did not fulfil the necessary condition, which is having faith, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿But whoever does righteous deeds and is a believer need have no fear of being wronged or deprived [of his just recompense].﴾ (Tā Hâ 20: 112)

But their deeds will be counted and they will be made to admit to them, and they will be disgraced because of them before all the people, then they will be punished for them. Hence Allah says:

﴿That will be their recompense﴾ that is, their deeds will come to nothing and will not be given any weight on the Day of Resurrection, because they are insignificant and worthless as a result of their disbelief in the revelations of Allah, and because of their mockery and ridicule thereof, when what is required with regard to the revelations and Messengers of Allah is to believe in them completely, venerate them and act in accordance with them. But these people turned everything upside down, therefore they will find themselves in trouble, in a wretched position and subjected to punishment.

Having described the fate and deeds of the disbelievers, Allah now tells us of the deeds of the believers and their ultimate destination:

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ كَانَتْ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتُ الْفِرْدَوْسِ نُزُلًا ﴿١٠٧﴾ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا لَا يَبْغُونَ عَنْهَا حِوَلًا ﴿١٠٨﴾﴾ (سورة الكهف: ١٠٧-١٠٨)

18:107. But those who believe and do righteous deeds will have gardens of paradise as a dwelling place, 18:108. to abide therein forever, with no desire to leave.

That is, those who believe in their hearts and do righteous deeds with their physical faculties. This includes all of the religion, beliefs, actions, basic principles and minor issues, both outward and inward. These people, regardless of their varying levels of faith and righteous deeds, will have Jannât al-Firdaws (translated here as «gardens of paradise»).

It may be that what is meant by Jannât al-Firdaws is the highest part of paradise, the middle and best part, and that this reward is for those who perfected their faith and righteous deeds. They are the Prophets and those who are close to Allah.

Or it may be that what is meant is all the levels of paradise, so this reward includes people of faith of all levels, those who are close to Allah, the righteous, and the ordinary believers, each according to his status. This is the more likely of the two meanings to be correct, because the wording is general in meaning, and the word jannât (translated here as «gardens») appears in the plural, connected to al-firdaws, which refers to a garden containing grapevines or trees with many long, twisted branches, and this is applicable to all of paradise.

Jannât al-Firdaws (the gardens of paradise) are the dwelling places of those who believed and did righteous deeds, and what dwelling place could be better or greater than these dwellings which include everything that brings joy to hearts and souls, and physical pleasures? In it is that which will delight hearts and eyes, of elegant dwellings, verdant gardens, fruitful trees, singing birds, delicious food, refreshing drinks, beautiful women, plentiful servants, flowing rivers, splendid scenery, beauty of all types and eternal bliss.

The best and greatest of that, which will bring the greatest joy, is nearness to the Most Gracious and attaining His pleasure, which is the greatest of the delights of paradise, and the sublime joy of seeing His noble Countenance and hearing the words of the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful.

How beautiful, perfect and everlasting those dwellings will be, that are too great to be described by man and are more splendid than anything that could cross his mind. If people really knew even a little of these delights, they would be filled with longing, and their souls would feel the pain of homesickness for that place, and they would have rushed towards it in groups and singly; they would not have preferred to it this transient world with its tarnished, diminishing joys, and they would not have allowed any moment to be wasted and lost, when any moment of joy there is equal to millennia of joy in this world. But heedlessness prevailed, faith was weak, knowledge was lacking and willpower was absent, which is the reason for the status quo. There is no power and no strength except with Allah, the Most High, the Almighty.

﴿to abide therein forever﴾ this is the ultimate blessing, that joy and delight therein are perfect, and part of that perfection is that they will never cease.

﴿with no desire to leave﴾ that is, they will never want to depart or move from there, because they do not see anything but that which amazes and delights them, and gives them joy and happiness, and they cannot imagine any bliss greater than that in which they are.

﴿قُلْ لَوْ كَانَ الْبَحْرُ مِدَادًا لَكَلَّمْتُ رَبِّي لَنَفِدَ الْبَحْرُ قَبْلَ أَنْ تَنفَدَ كَلِمَاتُ رَبِّي وَلَوْ جِئْنَا بِمِثْلِهِ مَدَدًا﴾

(سورة الكهف: ١٠٩) ﴿١٨﴾

18:109. Say [O Muhammad]: If the sea were ink for writing the words of my Lord, it would dry up before the words of my Lord were exhausted, even if We brought another sea like it to replenish it.

That is, tell them about the greatness of the Creator and the vastness and encompassing nature of His attributes, and that people can never fully comprehend any of them.

﴿If the sea﴾ in this world
 ﴿were ink for writing the words of my Lord﴾ that is, and the trees of this world, from the first to the last of them, all the trees in the cities and in the wilderness, were pens
 ﴿it would dry up﴾ and the pens would break
 ﴿before the words of my Lord were exhausted﴾. This is a great thing that no one can fully comprehend.

Elsewhere, Allah says:

﴿If all the trees on earth were pens, and the sea [was ink], replenished by seven more seas, the words of Allah would still not be exhausted. Verily, Allah is Almighty, Most Wise.﴾ (Luqmân 31: 27)

This is by way of making the matter easier to understand, because these things are created and all created things will cease to be. As for the words of Allah, they are among His attributes, and His attributes are not created, and they have no limit and no end. Whatever greatness and vastness people can imagine, Allah is above that, and the same applies to all the attributes of Allah (ﷻ), such as His knowledge, His wisdom, His power and His mercy. If all the knowledge of created beings, from the first to the last, the inhabitants of the heavens and the inhabitants of earth, were put together, in comparison to the knowledge of the Almighty it would be less than the amount of water picked up by a bird that came to the shore and dipped its beak in the ocean, in comparison to the amount of water contained in that ocean. Allah is possessed of great and perfect attributes:

﴿That the final destination is with your Lord.﴾ (an-Najm 53: 42)

﴿قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَنَا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُكُمْ يُوحَىٰ إِلَىٰ أَنَّمَا إِلَهُ الْبَشَرِ إِلَهٌ وَاحِدٌ ۚ فَمَن كَانَ يَرْجُوا لِقَاءَ رَبِّهِ فَلْيَعْمَلْ عَمَلًا صَالِحًا وَلَا يُشْرِكْ بِعِبَادَةِ رَبِّهِ ۚ أَحَدًا﴾ (سورة الكهف: ١١٠)

18:110. Say [O Muhammad]: I am but a human being like yourselves, [except that] it has been revealed to me that your God is One God. So whoever hopes to meet his Lord, let him do righteous deeds and include no one else in the worship due to his Lord.

﴿Say﴾ O Muhammad (ﷺ), to the disbelievers and others ﴿I am but a human being like yourselves﴾ that is, I am not divine and I have no share in dominion, or any knowledge of the unseen, nor do I possess the treasures of Allah (cf. 11: 31).

﴿I am but a human being like yourselves﴾, one of the slaves of my Lord

﴿[except that] it has been revealed to me that your God is One God﴾ that is, I have been favoured over you by means of the revelation that Allah has bestowed upon me, the main message of which is to tell you that your God is One God, with no partner or associate, and no one deserves an atom's worth of worship but He. And I call you to do deeds that will bring you closer to Him, earn you His reward and ward off His punishment from you. Hence Allah says:

﴿So whoever hopes to meet his Lord, let him do righteous deeds﴾ that are in accordance with the laws of Allah, both obligatory and recommended deeds.

﴿and include no one else in the worship due to his Lord﴾ that is, he should not show off in his deeds; rather he should do deeds sincerely for the sake of Allah (ﷻ). This refers to one who combines sincerity with following Islamic teachings; he is the one who will attain that which he hopes for and seeks. As for others, they will be losers in this world and the hereafter, and they will miss out on drawing close to their Lord and attaining His pleasure.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-Kahf.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

19. Soorat Maryam

(Maadani)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿كَهَيَّعَ ۝١ ذِكْرَ رَحْمَتِ رَبِّكَ عَبْدَهُ زَكَرِيَّا ۝٢﴾ إِذْ نَادَىٰ رَبَّهُ نِدَاءً خَفِيًّا ۝٣ قَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي وَهَنَ الْعَظْمُ مِنِّي وَاسْتَعَلَ الرَّأْسُ شَيْبًا وَلَمْ أَكُنْ بِدُعَائِكَ رَبِّ شَقِيًّا ۝٤ وَإِنِّي خِفْتُ الْمَوَالِيَ مِنْ وَرَائِي وَكَانَتِ امْرَأَتِي عَاقِرًا فَهَبْ لِي مِنْ لَدُنْكَ وَلِيًّا ۝٥ يَرِثُنِي وَيَرِثُ مِنْ عَالِ يَعْقُوبَ ۚ وَاجْعَلْهُ رَبِّ رَضِيًّا ﴿٦﴾ (سورة مريم: ١-٦)

19:1. Kâf. Hâ'. Yâ'. 'Ayn. Şâd.<sup>6</sup>

19:2. This is an account of the mercy of your Lord to His slave Zakariyâ,

---

<sup>6</sup> Groups of letters (al-huroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

- 19:3. When he called upon his Lord privately.
- 19:4. He said: My Lord, my bones have grown weak and my head glows silver with age, but never, my Lord, has my prayer to You remained unanswered.
- 19:5. Verily I fear [what] my kinsmen [will do] after I am gone, for my wife is barren.<sup>7</sup> Grant unto me by Your grace an heir,
- 19:6. who will inherit from me and from the family of Ya'qoob, and make him, my Lord, one with whom You are pleased.

«This is an account of the mercy of your Lord to His slave Zakariyâ» which We will tell to you and explain in detail, and through it will become known the story of His Prophet Zakariyâ, and his righteous deeds and beautiful trials. In this story there is a lesson for those who are willing to learn and an example for those who wish to follow it. Highlighting the details of Allah's mercy to His close friends, and the means by which they attained His mercy, prompts the reader to love Allah (ﷻ) and remember Him a great deal, and to know the means of reaching Him. Allah (ﷻ) chose and selected Zakariyâ (ﷺ) to be His Messenger and He singled him out to receive His revelation, and he undertook that mission as other Messengers did, calling people to his Lord, teaching them that which Allah had taught him, and sincerely advising them, as his fellow Messengers and their followers did. When he saw that he was growing weak and he feared that he would die, and he had no one to take over from him in calling people to their Lord and advising them, he complained to his Lord of his weakness, both outward and inward; he called upon Him in private, so that his supplication would be more perfect, better and more sincere.

<sup>7</sup> His kinsmen did not care about religion, and he was afraid that after he died, religion would be neglected. So he asked for an heir who would uphold religion after he was gone. Therefore he asked for someone who would inherit knowledge and prophethood, not wealth, from him. (al-Qurtubi)

﴿He said: My Lord, my bones have grown weak﴾. If the bones, which are the pillars of the body, have grown weak, then the rest of the body will also grow weak.

﴿and my head glows silver with age﴾ because grey hair is a sign of weakness and old age, and is the harbinger of death. So he prayed to Allah (ﷻ), expressing his weakness and incapability, and this is one of the dearest means of approaching Allah, because it is declaring one's lack of power and strength, and relying on the power and strength of Allah.

﴿but never, my Lord, has my prayer to You remained unanswered﴾ that is, You have never turned me away empty-handed; rather You have always cared for me and answered my prayers, and Your blessings keep coming down to me and Your kindness constantly reaches me. This is seeking the help of Allah by virtue of His blessings and previous response to supplications, so he asked the One Who had previously shown kindness to complete His kindness in the future.

﴿Verily I fear [what] my kinsmen [will do] after I am gone﴾ that is, I am afraid that whoever the Children of Israel appoint to succeed me as a leader after I am gone will not establish Your religion properly or call Your slaves to You. The apparent meaning of these words indicates that he had not seen anyone among them who was fit for leadership in religious matters. In this we see the compassion and sincerity of Zakariyâ (ﷺ), because his request for a son was not like that of anyone else, whose aim is merely worldly interests; rather his aim was the interests of the religion and the fear that it would be lost, as he thought that no one was fit for that.

His family was one of the families that were known for religious commitment; there were many Messengers among them and they were thought highly of. So he called upon Allah, asking Him to bless him with a son who would establish the religion after him, and he complained of his wife's barrenness, for she had never borne a child and he had grown quite decrepit from old age and had reached an age at which it is very rare to feel physical desire or produce a child. ﴿Grant unto me by Your grace an heir﴾ – this inheritance was to be in terms of religious leadership, prophethood, knowledge and righteous deeds.

Hence he said: ﴿who will inherit from me and from the family of Ya'qoob, and make him, my Lord, one with whom You are pleased﴾ that is, a righteous slave with whom You are pleased, and endear him to Your slaves. To sum up, he asked Allah for a righteous male child who would remain after he died and be his successor, and who would be a Prophet who was pleasing to Allah and to His creation. This is the best that a child could be. By Allah's mercy to His slave, He blessed him with a righteous child who possessed all noble characteristics and sublime attributes. His Lord had mercy on him and answered his supplication, and said:

﴿يَزَكِّرِيَا إِنَّا نُبَشِّرُكَ بِغُلَامٍ اسْمُهُ يَحْيَىٰ لَمْ نَجْعَلْ لَهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ سَمِيًّا ۝٧﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّى يَكُونُ لِي غُلَامٌ وَكَانَتِ امْرَأَتِي عَاقِرًا وَقَدْ بَلَغْتُ مِنَ الْكِبَرِ عِتِيًّا ۝٨ قَالَ كَذَلِكَ قَالَ رَبُّكَ هُوَ عَلَىٰ هَٰئِنٍ وَقَدْ خَلَقْتُكَ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَلَمْ تَكُن شَيْئًا ۝٩ قَالَ رَبِّ اجْعَلْ لِي آيَةً قَالَ ءَايَتُكَ إِلَّا تُكَلِّمَ النَّاسَ ثَلَاثَ لَيَالٍ سَوِيًّا ۝١٠ فَخَرَجَ عَلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ مِنَ الْمِحْرَابِ فَأَوْحَىٰ إِلَيْهِمْ أَن سَبِّحُوا بُكْرَةً وَعَشِيًّا ۝١١﴾ (سورة مريم: ٧-١١)

19:7. [It was said to him:] O Zakariyâ, We give you the glad tidings of a son. His name will be Yahyâ; We have not given such a name to anyone before.

19:8. He said: O my Lord, how can I have a son, when my wife is barren and I have grown quite decrepit from old age?

- 19:9. He said: Thus it will be. Your Lord says: That is easy for Me; indeed I created you before, when you were nothing.
- 19:10. Zakariyâ said: O my Lord, give me a sign. He said: Your sign will be that you will not be able to speak to people for three days, although you are not mute.
- 19:11. So he came out to his people from the chamber, and signalled to them to glorify Allah in the morning and in the evening.

That is, Allah (ﷻ) gave him glad tidings, through the angels, of Yaḥyâ. Allah named him Yaḥyâ and it was a name that suited him, because he lived (the name Yaḥyâ comes from a root meaning live) in a true sense physically, and thus the blessing became perfected through him; he also lived in a metaphorical sense, referring to spiritual life, by means of revelation, knowledge and religious commitment.

﴿We have not given such a name to anyone before﴾ that is, no one was called by this name before him. It may be that what is meant is: We never made anyone equal to him before, like him or better. In this case, the glad tidings were of his perfect nature and praiseworthy attributes, and heralded that he would be superior to those who came before him. But according to this interpretation, there must be some exceptions to this superiority in general terms, because Ibrâheem, Moosâ, Nooh (peace be upon them) and similar figures are definitely of higher standing than Yaḥyâ.

Then when the glad tidings of this child for whom he had prayed came to him, Zakariyâ expressed astonishment and amazement, and said:

﴿O my Lord, how can I have a son﴾ when impediments to having a child are present in me and my wife? It was as if, when he offered this supplication, these impediments did not occur to him because his focus was on the idea of having a child. In this case, when his supplication was accepted, he was astounded by that. But Allah responded by saying:

«Thus it will be. Your Lord says: That is easy for Me» that is, it is usually something strange, and is counter to Allah's usual way of creation, but the might and power of Allah (ﷻ) is able to create things without the usual means. Hence it is easy for Him, and is not more difficult than creating him before that, when he was nothing.

«Zakariyâ said: O my Lord, give me a sign» that is, with which my heart may be reassured. This was not an expression of doubt about what Allah said; rather it was similar to what Ibrâheem al-Khaleel (ﷺ) had said:

«...Show me, O Lord, how You will give life to the dead, He replied: Do you not believe then? He said: Yes of course, but just to reassure my heart...» (al-Baqarah 2: 260)

So he asked for more knowledge and the means to reach the utmost certainty after having attained certain knowledge, and Allah responded to his request out of mercy towards him.

«He said: Your sign will be that you will not be able to speak to people for three days, although you are not mute». Elsewhere Allah says:

«...you will not be able to speak to people for three days except through gestures...» (Âl 'Imrân 3: 41)

The meaning is the same. This is one of the wondrous signs, because his being unable to speak for three days, without there being any muteness or impediment – rather he was sound and had no physical defects – was a sign of the extraordinary might and power of Allah. Moreover, he was unable to speak to other people, but he was not prevented from uttering words of praise and glorification of Allah, remembrance of Him, and the like. Hence Allah says elsewhere:

«...So remember your Lord often, and glorify Him in the afternoon and in the morning.» (Âl 'Imrân 3: 41)

Thus he was reassured and he rejoiced at these great glad tidings. He obeyed the command of Allah to give thanks to Him by worshipping Him and remembering Him, staying in his chamber.

He came out to his people ﴿and signalled to them﴾ by means of gestures
 ﴿to glorify Allah in the morning and in the evening﴾ because the glad tidings of Yahyâ were in the religious interests of all.

﴿يَبِيحُيْ خُذِ الْكِتَابَ بِقُوَّةٍ وَآتَيْنَاهُ الْحُكْمَ صَبِيًّا ۝۱۲ وَحَنَانًا مِن لَّدُنَّا وَزَكَاةً ۝۱۳ وَكَانَ تَقِيًّا ۝۱۴ وَبَرًّا بِوَالِدَيْهِ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ جَبَّارًا عَصِيًّا ۝۱۵ وَسَلَامٌ عَلَيْهِ يَوْمَ وُلِدَ وَيَوْمَ يَمُوتُ وَيَوْمَ يُبْعَثُ حَيًّا ۝۱۶﴾ (سورة مريم: ۱۲-۱۵)

- 19:12. [Allah said:] O Yahyâ, hold fast to the Book [the Torah] with all your strength. And We granted him knowledge and wisdom when he was still a boy.
- 19:13. And by Our grace We made him compassionate and righteous; and he was God-fearing
- 19:14. And dutiful towards his parents, and he was not arrogant or disobedient.
- 19:15. So peace be upon him the day he was born, the day he dies and the day he will be raised up to life again!

These words indicate that Yahyâ was born and grew up, and when he reached the stage where he could understand what he was told, Allah instructed him to hold fast to the Book, which means showing serious commitment by striving to memorise its words, understand its meanings and act in accordance with its commands and prohibitions. This is what holding fast to the Book means in a perfect sense. He complied with the command of his Lord and focused on the Book, memorising it and understanding it, and Allah bestowed upon him intelligence and smartness such as was not found in anyone else. Hence He said:

﴿And We granted him knowledge and wisdom when he was still a boy﴾ that is, knowledge of the rulings of Allah and how to rule in accordance with them, when he was still a small child.

﴿And by Our grace We made him compassionate﴾ that is, We instilled mercy and kindness in his heart, through which his affairs were made easy, his well-being was sound and his deeds were correct ﴿and righteous﴾ that is, he was pure and free of faults and sins. So his heart was pure and his mind was pure. This implies that he had no blameworthy characteristics or bad manners; he possessed extra good manners and praiseworthy characteristics. Hence Allah says ﴿and he was God-fearing﴾ that is, he did what was enjoined and refrained from what was prohibited. Whoever is a God-fearing believer will be a close friend of Allah and will be one of the people of paradise which has been prepared for those who fear Allah, and he will attain reward in this world and the hereafter that Allah has caused to be the outcome of fearing Him.

﴿And﴾ he was also ﴿dutiful towards his parents﴾ he did not disobey them or mistreat them; rather he was kind towards them in word and deed.

﴿and he was not arrogant or disobedient﴾ that is, he was not too arrogant to worship Allah, and he did not look down on the slaves of Allah or on his parents; rather he was humble and obedient, always turning to Allah. Thus he combined fulfilling the rights of Allah with fulfilling the rights of people. Hence he was granted well-being by Allah in all his affairs, from start to finish.

Hence Allah says: ﴿So peace be upon him the day he was born, the day he dies and the day he will be raised up to life again!﴾ That implies that he will be safe from the Shayṭān, and from evil and punishment, in these three situations and in the times in between them; he will be safe from the fire and other terrors, and he is one of the people of paradise. Blessings and peace of Allah be upon him, upon his father and upon all the Messengers, and may Allah make us among their followers, for He is most generous and kind.

﴿وَاذْكُرْ فِي الْكِتَابِ مَرْيَمَ إِذِ انْتَبَذَتْ مِنْ أَهْلِهَا مَكَانًا شَرْقِيًّا ۖ فَاتَّخَذَتْ مِنْ دُونِهِمْ حِجَابًا فَأَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْهَا رُوحَنَا فَتَمَثَّلَ لَهَا بَشَرًا سَوِيًّا ۖ قَالَتْ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِالرَّحْمَنِ مِنْكَ إِنْ كُنْتَ تَقِيًّا ۖ قَالَ إِنَّمَا أَنَا رَسُولُ رَبِّكِ لِأَهَبَ لَكِ غُلَامًا زَكِيًّا ۖ قَالَتْ أَنَّى يَكُونُ لِي غُلَامٌ وَلَمْ يَمْسَسْنِي بَشَرٌ وَلَمْ أَكُ بَغِيًّا ۖ قَالَ كَذَلِكَ قَالَ رَبُّكَ هُوَ عَلَى هَيْنٌ ۖ وَلَنَجْعَلَنَّ آيَةً لِلنَّاسِ وَرَحْمَةً مِنَّا وَكَانَ أَمْرًا مَقْضِيًّا ۝﴾ (سورة مريم: ١٦-٢١)

- 19:16. Recount [O Muhammad] in the Book the story of Maryam, when she withdrew from her family in a place towards the east.
- 19:17. She screened herself from them, then We sent to her Our Angel [Jibreel], and he appeared before her in the form of a perfect human being.
- 19:18. She said: I seek refuge in the Most Merciful from you; [do not come near me] if you fear Him!
- 19:19. He said: I am only a Messenger from your Lord, [to announce] to you the gift of a righteous son.
- 19:20. She said: How will I have a son when no man has touched me, and I have never been unchaste?
- 19:21. He said: Thus it will be. Your Lord says: That is easy for Me; We will make him a sign to humankind, and a mercy from Us. It is a matter already decreed.

Having mentioned the story of Zakariyâ and Yaḥyâ, and its wondrous signs, Allah now tells us a story that is even more wondrous, moving from that which is lesser to that which is more sublime:

«Recount [O Muhammad] in the Book the story of Maryam» – peace be upon her. This is one of her greatest virtues, that she is mentioned in the holy Book which the Muslims, from the east to the west, recite, and she is mentioned therein in the best terms and spoken of highly, as a reward for her noble deeds and perfect efforts. In other words: mention in the Book Maryam, and her good conduct when she «withdrew» that is, moved away, from her family «in a place towards the east» that is, to the east of where they were.

«She screened herself from them» that is, she put a barrier between her and them. The reason why she went away from them and screened herself from them was in order to withdraw and be alone to worship her Lord with humility and sincerity towards Him. That was in obedience to His words:

«And [remember] when the angels said: O Maryam! Allah has chosen you and purified you – chosen you above the women of all nations [of her own time]. O Maryam, worship your Lord devoutly; prostrate and bow [in prayer] with those who bow.» (Āl 'Imrān 3: 42-43)

«then We sent to her Our Angel» namely Jibreel (عليه السلام) «and he appeared before her in the form of a perfect human being» that is, in the perfect figure of a man, handsome and good-looking, with no defects or shortcomings, because she would not have been able to bear seeing him in his real form. When she saw him in this form, when she had withdrawn from her family and isolated herself from people, and had screened herself away from the dearest of people to her, namely her family, she was afraid that he was a man who intended ill towards her, so she sought the protection of her Lord and sought refuge with Him, saying:

«I seek refuge in the Most Merciful from you» that is, I turn to Him and seek protection in His mercy, lest you do me harm «[do not come near me] if you fear Him!» That is, if you fear Allah and you act as a pious man should, then refrain from harming me. Thus she combined seeking the protection of her Lord with warning and scaring him, and instructing him to fear Allah when she was in that situation, on her own with this young man, far away from people, and he was so stunningly handsome and an apparently perfect human being. He had not said anything bad or made any move towards her; rather that was fear on her part; this was indicative of the utmost chastity and keenness to avoid evil and that which may lead to it.

This chastity – especially when there is a motive to fall into sin and there is nothing to prevent it, is one of the best of deeds. Therefore Allah praised her and said:

﴿And [there is another example] in Maryam, the daughter of ‘Imrân, who guarded her chastity. We blew into her [garment] through Our angel [Jibreel]...﴾ (at-Tahreem 66: 12)

-- and:

﴿And [remember] the one who guarded her chastity: We blew into her [garment] through Our angel [Jibreel], and We made her and her son a sign for all people.﴾ (al-Anbiyâ’ 21: 91)

Allah rewarded her for her chastity with a child who was one of the signs of Allah and one of His Messengers.

When Jibreel saw her fear, he said: ﴿I am only a Messenger from your Lord﴾ that is, my only role is to carry out the mission of my Lord concerning you

﴿[to announce] to you the gift of a righteous son﴾. This was great glad tidings of a righteous son, for righteousness implies that he would be free of blameworthy characteristics and would have praiseworthy characteristics. She was amazed at the idea of having a child without a father, so she said:

﴿How will I have a son when no man has touched me, and I have never been unchaste?﴾ For a child cannot come into being otherwise.

﴿He said: Thus it will be. Your Lord says: That is easy for Me; We will make him a sign to humankind﴾ that will point to the perfect might of Allah (ﷻ) and highlight the fact that no cause can lead to its effect independently of Allah; rather the effect comes about by the decree of Allah.

Hence Allah shows His slaves extraordinary events concerning some ordinary causes or means, so that they will not become attached to these means and ignore the One Who controls and decrees them.

﴿and a mercy from Us﴾ that is, so that We might make him a mercy from Us, for him, for his mother and for all the people.

As for the mercy of Allah towards him, that is because of what He singled him out for of His revelation and what He blessed him with of the blessings that He bestowed upon all the Messengers of strong resolve. As for His mercy towards his mother, it is because of the high esteem in which she was held, and the words of commendation and great reward that she attained. As for His mercy towards the people, that is because of the great blessings that He bestowed upon them by sending among them a Messenger who recited His revelations to them, to purify them and teach them the Book and wisdom, so that they would believe in him and obey him, and thus attain happiness in this world and in the hereafter.

﴿It﴾ namely the creation of 'Eesâ (ﷺ) in this manner ﴿is a matter already decreed﴾ so it will inevitably come to pass. So Jibreel (ﷺ) breathed into her garment.

﴿ فَحَمَلَتْهُ فَانْتَبَذَتْ بِهِ مَكَانًا قَصِيًّا ۝۲۲ ۝ فَاجَاءَهَا الْمَخَاضُ إِلَى جِذْعِ النَّخْلَةِ قَالَتْ يَلَيْتَنِي مِتُّ قَبْلَ هَذَا وَكُنْتُ نَسِيًّا مَنْسِيًّا ۝۲۳ ۝ فَوَدَّعْنَاهَا مِنْ تَحْتِهَا أَلَّا تَحْزَنِي قَدْ جَعَلَ رَبُّكِ تَحْتَكِ سَرِيًّا ۝۲۴ ۝ وَهَزَى إِلَيْكِ الْجَنَّةُ النَّخْلَةَ تُسْقِطُ عَلَيْكَ رَطْبًا جَنِيًّا ۝۲۵ ۝ فَكُلِي وَاشْرَبِي وَقَرِّي عَيْنًا فَإِمَّا تَرَيِنَّ مِنَ الْبَشَرِ أَحَدًا فَقُولِي إِنِّي نَذَرْتُ لِلرَّحْمَنِ صَوْمًا فَلَنْ أُكَلِّمَ الْيَوْمَ إِنْسِيًّا ۝۲۶ ﴾ (سورة مريم: ۲۲-۲۶)

- 19:22. So she conceived him and withdrew with him to a remote place.
- 19:23. The pains of childbirth drove her to the trunk of a palm tree. She said: Would that I had died before this and had been overlooked and forgotten!
- 19:24. But he<sup>8</sup> called to her from below her: Do not worry, for your Lord has provided a stream close at hand.
- 19:25. Shake the trunk of the palm tree towards you; it will drop fresh ripe dates upon you.
- 19:26. Eat and drink, and be content. And if you see any human being, say: I have made a vow of silence to the Most Gracious, and today I will not speak to any person.

When she became pregnant with 'Eesâ (ﷺ), she feared scandal, so she stayed away from people, withdrawing ﴿to a remote place﴾. When the time of his birth approached, the labour pains drove her to the trunk of a palm tree, and when the labour pains, the pain of keeping away from food and drink, and the pain of her fear of what people would say grew intense, and she feared that she would not have the patience to withstand all these trials, she wished that she had died before this happened and had been forgotten and not remembered.

This wish resulted from the troubles that she faced, but there was nothing good for her in this wish and it did not serve any interest. Rather what was good for her and what was in her best interests was what was already decreed to happen. At that point the angel calmed her fears, made her steadfast and called to her from below her. It may be that he was in a place lower down than the place where she was, and he said to her: Do not worry; in other words, do not panic or be distressed, ﴿for your Lord has provided a stream close at hand﴾ that is, a river from which you can drink.

<sup>8</sup> The speaker may be 'Eesâ or Jibreel. (aṭ-Ṭabari; al-Qurṭubi)

«Shake the trunk of the palm tree towards you; it will drop fresh ripe dates upon you. Eat» from the dates «and drink» from the stream «and be content» with 'Eesâ. This was reassurance with regard to being safe from the pains of childbirth and obtaining enjoyable and nourishing food and drink.

With regard to what people would say, he (the angel) instructed her, if she saw anyone, to say by way of gestures: «I have made a vow of silence to the Most Gracious, and today I will not speak to any person» that is, I will not speak to them. This was so that she might have respite from having to speak to them and peace of mind regarding what they might say. It was well known among them that silence was an act of worship that was prescribed at that time. She was not instructed to speak to them and say that she had done nothing wrong or defend herself, because the people would not believe her and there was no benefit in doing that. The declaration of her innocence was to come from the words of 'Eesâ when he spoke in the cradle, which would be a more effective testimony of her innocence.

For a woman to produce a child without a husband and claim that he had no father would be a most serious claim, and even if there were many witnesses it would not be believed. Therefore the proof of this extraordinary event was made to be of the same nature as the event itself, which was the speaking of 'Eesâ (ﷺ) when he was very small. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿فَأَتَتْ بِهِ قَوْمَهَا تَحْمِلُهُ، قَالُوا يَمْرُؤٌ لَقَدْ جِئْتَ شَيْئًا فَرِيًّا ۝٢٧ يَتَأَخَذَ هَرُونَ مَا كَانَ أَبُوكَ أَمْرًا سَوْءَ وَمَا كَانَتْ أُمُّكَ بَغِيًّا ۝٢٨ فَأَشَارَتْ إِلَيْهِ قَالُوا كَيْفَ نُكَلِّمُ مَنْ كَانَ فِي الْمَهْدِ صَبِيًّا ۝٢٩ قَالَ إِنِّي عَبْدُ اللَّهِ ءَاتَنِي الْكِتَابَ وَجَعَلَنِي نَبِيًّا ۝٣٠ وَجَعَلَنِي مُبَارَكًا أَيْنَ مَا كُنْتُ وَأَوْصَانِي بِالصَّلَاةِ وَالزَّكَاةِ مَا دُمْتُ حَيًّا ۝٣١ وَبَرًّا بِوَالِدَيْنِي﴾

وَلَمْ يَجْعَلْنِي جَبَّارًا شَقِيًّا ﴿٣٣﴾ وَالسَّلَامُ عَلَيَّ يَوْمَ وُلِدْتُ وَيَوْمَ أَمُوتُ وَيَوْمَ أُبْعَثُ
 حَيًّا ﴿٣٤﴾ (سورة مريم: ٢٧-٣٣)

- 19:27. She came to her people, carrying the infant. They said: O Maryam, indeed you have done something unthinkable!
- 19:28. O sister of Hâroon,<sup>9</sup> your father was not an evil man, nor was your mother unchaste!
- 19:29. Thereupon she pointed to the infant. They said: How can we talk to one who is an infant in the cradle?
- 19:30. 'Eesâ said: Verily I am a slave of Allah; He has given me the Book and made me a Prophet.
- 19:31. He has made me blessed wherever I may be, and has enjoined on me prayer and zakâh as long as I live.
- 19:32. And He has made me dutiful towards my mother, and not arrogant or unblessed.
- 19:33. So peace be upon me the day I was born, the day I die and the day I will be raised up to life again!

When Maryam had recovered from giving birth, she brought 'Eesâ to her people, carrying him in her arms. She knew that she was innocent, so she had no worries. They said: ﴿O Maryam, indeed you have done something unthinkable!﴾ That is, something very serious and bad. What they meant by that was fornication, but she was far above doing such a thing.

﴿O sister of Hâroon﴾ – what appears to be the case is that he was her real brother. They attributed her to him, and they used to give their children the names of Prophets; he was not Hâroon ibn 'Imrân, the brother of Moosâ, because there were many centuries between them.

<sup>9</sup> She had a brother called Hâroon who was known for his righteousness.

﴿your father was not an evil man, nor was your mother unchaste﴾ that is, your parents were nothing but righteous and free of evil, especially this evil to which they were referring. What they meant was: how could you be so different from them and do something that they would never do? That is because the offspring – in most cases – are of the same quality as the parents in terms of righteousness and its opposite. Therefore they were surprised and wondered – on the basis of their suspicion – how she could have done such a thing.

She pointed to the infant, indicating that they should speak to him. She only did that because she had been instructed, when the people spoke to her, to tell them: ﴿I have made a vow of silence to the Most Gracious, and today I will not speak to any person﴾ (19: 26).

When she indicated that they should speak to him, they were astonished by that and said: ﴿How can we talk to one who is an infant in the cradle?﴾ Because this is something that is not ordinary, and it has never happened with one of this age.

At that point, 'Eesâ said, when he was an infant in the cradle: ﴿Verily I am a slave of Allah; He has given me the Book and made me a Prophet﴾. He addressed them, referring to himself as a slave of Allah and stating that he possessed no attributes for which he might deserve to be taken as a god or as the son of God; exalted be Allah far above what the Christians, who claim to be followers of 'Eesâ but drifted away from his path, say concerning him, which is contrary to what 'Eesâ himself said: ﴿Verily I am a slave of Allah﴾.

﴿He has given me the Book﴾ that is, He has decreed that He will give me the Book

﴿and made me a Prophet﴾. Thus he informed them that he was a slave of Allah, and that Allah had taught him the Book and made him one of His Prophets. These are attributes of perfection that had to do with 'Eesâ himself.

Then he mentioned other attributes of perfection that made him beneficial for others, as he said:

﴿He has made me blessed wherever I may be﴾ that is, in any place and at any time. The blessing that Allah bestowed upon him had to do with teaching good and calling people to it, forbidding evil, and calling people to Allah in word and deed. Anyone who sat with him or met him would attain his blessing, and anyone who accompanied him would feel happy.

﴿and has enjoined on me prayer and zakâh as long as I live﴾ that is, He has enjoined me to fulfil His rights, the most important of which is prayer, and the rights of His slaves, the most important of which is zakâh, for as long as I live, and I am complying with the instructions of my Lord, acting in accordance with them, and putting them into practice.

﴿And He has made me dutiful towards my mother﴾ that is, He has also enjoined me to honour my mother, treat her with the utmost kindness, and do what I should for her, because of her honour and virtue, and because she is a mother and has rights because she gave birth to me and cared for me thereafter.

﴿and not arrogant﴾ towards Allah or looking down on His slaves ﴿or unblessed﴾ in this world or the hereafter. He has not made me like that; rather He has made me obedient and humble towards Him and humble towards the slaves of Allah, blessed in this world and the hereafter, I and those who follow me.

As he attained all perfection and good qualities, he said: ﴿So peace be upon me the day I was born, the day I die and the day I will be raised up to life again﴾ that is, by the great kindness and grace of my Lord, I have attained peace and safety on the day of my birth, the day of my death, and the day I will be resurrected, from evil, the Shaytân and punishment. This implies that he will be safe from the terrors of the Day of Resurrection and the abode of the evil (hell), and that he will be one of the people of the abode of peace (paradise). This is a great miracle and amazing proof that he is a Messenger of Allah and a true slave of Allah.

﴿ذَٰلِكَ عِيسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ قَوْلَ الْحَقِّ الَّذِي فِيهِ يَمْتَرُونَ﴾ (٣٦) مَا كَانَ لِلَّهِ أَنْ يَتَّخِذَ مِنْ وَلَدٍ سُبْحَنَهُ إِذَا قَضَىٰ أَمْرًا فَإِنَّمَا يَقُولُ لَهُ كُنْ فَيَكُونُ ﴿٣٥﴾ وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ رَبِّي وَرَبُّكُمْ فَأَعْبُدُوهُ هَدًى صِرَاطٌ مُسْتَقِيمٌ ﴿٣٧﴾ (سورة مريم: ٣٤-٣٦)

19:34. Such was 'Eesâ son of Maryam, and this is the truth about him concerning which they are in doubt.

19:35. It is not befitting to Allah that He should beget a son. Glory be to Him! When He decrees a matter, He merely says to it, 'Be!' and it is.

19:36. Verily Allah is my Lord and your Lord, so worship Him. This is a straight path.

That is, the one who is described in this manner is undoubtedly 'Eesâ son of Maryam. Indeed this is the truth and is what Allah says concerning him, and no one could be more truthful or better in speech than Him. This is certain news about 'Eesâ (ﷺ), and whatever is said about him that is contrary to this is definitely false and can be no more than speculation on the part of one who has no knowledge about him. Therefore Allah says:

﴿concerning which they are in doubt﴾ that is, they argue on the basis of doubt and speculation, saying of him that he is God, or the son of God, or the third of three; exalted be Allah far above their fabrication.

﴿It is not befitting to Allah that He should beget a son﴾ that is, it is not appropriate and is not right, because it is something impossible. Allah is independent of means, most praiseworthy, the Sovereign of all realms, so how could He take a son from among His slaves?

«Glory be to Him» that is, exalted be He far above having a child or any other shortcoming or imperfection.

«When He decrees a matter» that is, no matter, minor or major, is too difficult for Him or is beyond Him.

«He merely says to it, 'Be!' and it is». As His decree is always done, in both the upper and lower realms, how can he have a son? When He wills something, He says to it «'Be!' and it is», so how could it be regarded as far-fetched for Him to create 'Eesâ without a father?

Hence 'Eesâ (ﷺ) stated that he was a slave who was subject to Allah's Lordship and control like anyone else, as he said:

«Verily Allah is my Lord and your Lord» Who created us and fashioned us, to Whose control and decree we are subject.

«so worship Him» that is, devote your worship to Him alone and strive hard to turn to Him. This is affirmation of the oneness of His Lordship and the oneness of His divinity, as he quoted the former as evidence for the latter. Hence he said:

«This is a straight path» that is, a path of moderation that leads to Allah, because it is the path of the Messengers and their followers, and any other paths are the ways of misguidance and error.

﴿فَاخْتَلَفَ الْأَحْزَابُ مِنْ بَيْنِهِمْ فَوَيْلٌ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ مَّشْهَدِ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ﴿٣٧﴾ أَسْمِعْ يَوْمَ وَأَنْصُرْ يَوْمَ يَأْتُونَنَا لَكِنِ الظَّالِمُونَ الْيَوْمَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿٣٨﴾﴾ (سورة مريم: ٣٧-٣٨)

19:37. But the sects differed among themselves [concerning 'Eesâ]. So woe to the disbelievers from the scene of a momentous day!

19:38. How clearly they will hear and see on the day they come to Us. But today the wrongdoers are clearly misguided.

Having explained the nature of 'Eesâ ibn Maryam, concerning which there can be no doubt, Allah now tells us that the sects – that is, the misguided groups, namely the Jews, Christians and others of varying levels – differed concerning 'Eesâ (ﷺ), either exaggerating in praise of him or in dismissing and condemning him.

Some of them said that he was God, others said that he was the son of God or the third of three, and others did not regard him as a Messenger at all; rather they accused him of being illegitimate, as the Jews did.

All these views are false and wrong, and were based on speculation, stubbornness, false evidence and flimsy arguments. All of these people are deserving of this stern warning, hence Allah says:

﴿So woe to the disbelievers﴾ who disbelieved in Allah and His Messengers and Books. This includes the Jews and Christians who spoke words of disbelief concerning 'Eesâ,

﴿from the scene of a momentous day﴾ that is, the scene of the Day of Resurrection, which will be witnessed by the first and the last, the inhabitants of the heavens and the inhabitants of the earth, the Creator and those whom He created, which will be filled with earthquakes and terrors, and on which there will be the requital of deeds. On that day it will become clear what they used to conceal and disclose, and what they used to hide.

﴿How clearly they will hear and see on the day they come to Us﴾ that is, how clearly they will hear and see on that day; then they will admit their disbelief and ascription of partners to Allah, and will admit what they said, saying:

﴿...Our Lord, We have seen and we have heard. Send us back [to the world]; we will do righteous deeds, for now we believe with certainty.﴾ (as-Sajdah 32: 12)

On the Day of Resurrection, they will know for sure the reality of what they followed.

﴿But today the wrongdoers are clearly misguided﴾ and they have no excuse for this misguidance, because they are either stubbornly and knowingly going astray, aware of the truth but turning away from it, or they are going astray from the path of truth even though they are able to find out what is true and right, but they are content with the misguidance they are following and the evil deeds they are doing, and are not even trying to find out what is true and what is false. Think about how Allah says «So woe to the disbelievers» (19: 37) after having said «But the sects differed among themselves», and He did not say “So woe to them”, with the pronoun referring to the sects, because among the various sects there are some who were right and whose view was in harmony with the truth, so they said concerning ‘Eesâ that he was the slave and Messenger of Allah, and they believed in him and followed him. These people are believers and are not included in this warning, therefore Allah addressed the warning only to the disbelievers.

﴿وَأَنذِرْهُمْ يَوْمَ الْحَسْرَةِ إِذْ قُضِيَ الْأَمْرُ وَهُمْ فِي غَفْلَةٍ وَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ إِنَّا نَحْنُ نَرِثُ الْأَرْضَ وَمَنْ عَلَيْهَا وَإِلَيْنَا يُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾﴾ (سورة مريم: ٣٩-٤٠)

19:39. Warn them of the day of remorse, when the matter will have been decided,<sup>10</sup> for they are heedless and do not believe.

19:40. Verily, it is We Who will inherit the earth and all who are upon it, and to Us they will be returned.

The warning here is mentioning and describing the thing that is to be feared, by way of alarming. The thing that most deserves to be warned of, thus alarming people about it, is the day of remorse when the matter will be decided; the first and the last will be gathered in one place and will be questioned about their deeds. Then whoever believed in Allah and followed His Messengers will be blessed with bliss after which there will be no misery, and whoever did not believe in Allah and follow His Messenger will be doomed to misery after which there will be no bliss, and he will lose his own self and his family. At that time he will be filled with remorse and regret that will tear apart his heart. What loss could be greater than missing out on the pleasure and paradise of Allah and incurring His wrath and hell, in such a way that one can never go back and start anew, and has no way of changing his situation by going back to this world? This is what lies ahead of them; but at present in this world, they are heedless of this matter of great significance, which never crosses their minds, and if it does occur to them, it has no impact on them, as they are overwhelmed by heedlessness and distracted by worldly pursuits. That is because they do not believe in Allah and do not follow His Messengers. Their worldly concerns have distracted them and their temporary, fleeting whims and desires have prevented them from believing, but this world and all that is in it, from beginning to end, will be lost to its people and they will depart from it, and Allah will inherit the earth and all who are upon it; they will return to Him and He will requite them for what they did in this world, what they lost and what they gained. Whoever has done good, let him praise Allah, and whoever finds something other than that in his record, let him blame no one but himself.

<sup>10</sup> That is, when the judgement is over, and the people of paradise and hell have entered their respective abodes. (al-Qurtubi)

﴿وَأَذْكُرُ فِي الْكِتَابِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّهُ كَانَ صِدِّيقًا نَبِيًّا ٤١﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لِأَبِيهِ يَتَّبِعْ لِمَ تَعْبُدُ مَا لَا يَسْمَعُ وَلَا يُبْصِرُ وَلَا يُغْنِي عَنْكَ شَيْئًا ٤٢ يَتَّبِعْ إِنِّي قَدْ جَاءَنِي مِنَ الْعِلْمِ مَا لَمْ يَأْتِكَ فَاتَّبِعْنِي أَهْدِكَ صِرَاطًا سَوِيًّا ٤٣﴾ يَتَّبِعْ لَا تَعْبُدِ الشَّيْطَانَ إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ

كَانَ لِلرَّحْمَنِ عَصِيًّا ﴿٤٤﴾ يَتَّابَتْ إِلَىٰ أَخَافُ أَنْ يَمَسَّكَ عَذَابٌ مِّنَ الرَّحْمَنِ فَتَكُونَ
 لِلشَّيْطَانِ وَلِيًّا ﴿٤٥﴾ قَالَ أَرَأَيْتَ أَنْتَ عَنِ الْهَيْتِ يَتَابِرْهُمْ لِيْن لَمْ تَنْتَ لِأَرْجَمَكَ
 وَأَهْجُرْنِي مَلِيًّا ﴿٤٦﴾ قَالَ سَلَّمَ عَلَيْكَ سَأَسْتَغْفِرُ لَكَ رَبِّي إِنَّهُ كَانَ فِي حَفِيًّا
 ﴿٤٧﴾ وَأَعْتَزِلْكُمْ وَمَا تَدْعُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ وَأَدْعُوا رَبِّي عَسَىٰ أَلَّا أَكُونَ بِدُعَاءِ
 رَبِّي شَقِيًّا ﴿٤٨﴾ فَلَمَّا أَعْتَزَلَهُمْ وَمَا يَعْبُدُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ وَهَبْنَا لَهُ إِسْحَاقَ وَيَعْقُوبَ
 وَكُلًّا جَعَلْنَا نَبِيًّا ﴿٤٩﴾ وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُم مِّن رَّحْمِنَا وَجَعَلْنَا لَهُمْ لِسَانَ صِدْقٍ عَلِيًّا ﴿٥٠﴾

(سورة مريم: ٤١-٥٠)

- 19:41. Recount [O Muhammad] in the Book the story of Ibrâheem. Verily he was a man strong and true in faith, a Prophet.
- 19:42. When he said to his father: O my father, why do you worship that which can neither hear nor see, nor benefit you in any way?
- 19:43. O my father, there has come to me some knowledge that did not come to you. So follow me, and I will guide you to a straight path.
- 19:44. O my father, do not worship the Shayṭân, for the Shayṭân has ever been disobedient towards the Most Gracious.
- 19:45. O my father, indeed I fear lest a punishment from the Most Gracious befall you so that you become a companion of the Shayṭân.
- 19:46. His father said: Are you renouncing my gods, O Ibrâheem? If you do not desist, I will surely stone you. Keep away from me for a good long time!
- 19:47. Ibrâheem said: Peace be upon you. I will pray to my Lord to forgive you, for indeed He has always been very kind to me.
- 19:48. I will keep away from [and disavow] you and those on whom you call besides Allah, and I will call upon my Lord; perhaps my supplication to my Lord will not remain unanswered.

- 19:49. After he turned away from them and what they worshipped besides Allah, We bestowed upon him Is-hâq and Ya'qoob, and We made each of them a Prophet.
- 19:50. We bestowed upon them [manifold] gifts by Our mercy, and We granted them a deservedly lofty renown.

The noblest, best and most sublime of books is this clear Book and wise reminder. Whatever stories are mentioned in it are the truest of stories; whatever commands and prohibitions are mentioned in it are the greatest of commands and prohibitions, and the most fair and just; whatever requital, promises and warnings are mentioned in it, they are the truest and most indicative of wisdom, justice and virtue. Whatever Prophets and Messengers are mentioned in it, they are more perfect than others and superior to them. Therefore the stories of the Prophets whom Allah favoured over others and raised them in status are repeated more often, because of what they did of worshipping and loving Allah, turning to Him, fulfilling His rights and those of His slaves, calling people to Allah with patience and steadfastness, and attaining high status and lofty dwellings in paradise.

In this soorah, Allah mentions a number of the Prophets and instructs His Messenger (ﷺ) to mention them, because mentioning them is a manifestation of praise to Allah and praise for them, it highlights His favour and kindness towards them, and it encourages others to believe in them, love them and follow their example. Therefore He says:

﴿Recount [O Muhammad] in the Book the story of Ibrâheem. Verily he was a man strong and true in faith, a Prophet﴾. Here Allah mentions both his faith that was strong and true and his prophethood.

The ṣiddeeq (translated here as ﴿a man strong and true in faith﴾) is one who constantly speaks the truth. So he is truthful and sincere in word and deed, in all situations, and he believes in everything in which he is commanded to believe. This implies great knowledge that penetrates the heart, has an impact on it, and leads to certainty of faith and righteous deeds in a comprehensive manner. Ibrâheem (عليه السلام) is the best of all the Prophets after Muhammad (ﷺ).

He is the third father of the best group, and he is the one among whose progeny Allah ordained prophethood and the Book. He is the one who called people to Allah and bore patiently the great suffering that he encountered. He called everyone, near and far, and strove hard to call his father as much as he could.

Allah tells us how he debated with his father:

﴿When he said to his father﴾, trying to explain to him how abhorrent it is to worship idols

﴿O my father, why do you worship that which can neither hear nor see, nor benefit you in any way?﴾ That is, why do you worship idols that are lacking in and of themselves and in their actions? For they cannot hear or see, and they cannot benefit or harm those who worship them; rather they cannot even benefit themselves in any way or ward off any harm from themselves. This is clear proof which indicates that worshipping something that is lacking in its essence and deeds is something that is reprehensible according to both rational thinking and Islamic teachings.

This indicates that the One Who should be worshipped, and Whom it is appropriate to worship, is the One Who is perfect, and people cannot attain any blessings except from Him and none can ward off harm from them except Him; that is Allah (ﷻ).

﴿O my father, there has come to me some knowledge that did not come to you﴾ that is, O my father, do not look down on me and say that I am your son, and that you know that which I do not know. Rather Allah has given me knowledge that He did not give to you. What is meant by that is the words:

﴿So follow me, and I will guide you to a straight path﴾ that is, a path that is righteous and moderate, which is worship of Allah alone, with no partner or associate, and obedience to Him in all one's affairs. This is obviously a gentle approach in speech, as he avoided saying, "O my father, I know and you do not know" or "you do not know anything". Rather he said it in a way that implied we both have knowledge, but that which has reached me has not reached you, so you should accept the proof and submit to it.

«O my father, do not worship the Shayṭān» because whoever worships anything other than Allah has in fact worshipped the Shayṭān, as Allah says elsewhere:

«Did I not instruct you, O children of Adam, that you should not worship the Shayṭān, for he is to you an avowed enemy?» (Yâ Seen 36: 60)

«for the Shayṭān has ever been disobedient towards the Most Gracious», so whoever follows in his footsteps has taken him as an ally, and is disobedient towards Allah just as the Shayṭān is. Connecting disobedience to the divine name the Most Gracious (ar-Raḥmān) is indicative of sins that deprive a person of the mercy (rahmah) of Allah and close the gate of mercy to him, just as obedience is one of the greatest means of attaining His mercy. Hence he said:

«O my father, indeed I fear lest a punishment from the Most Gracious befall you» that is, because of your persisting in disbelief and transgression

«so that you become a companion of the Shayṭān» that is, in this world and the hereafter, so that you will be following in his evil footsteps. Thus Ibrâheem (عليه السلام) adopted a gradual approach in calling his father, starting with the easiest thing to accept, then the next easiest. He informed him of his knowledge and told him that this required him to follow him, for if he followed him he would be guided to the straight path. Then he told him not to worship the Shayṭān, and informed him of the harmful outcomes of doing so. Then he warned him of the punishment of Allah, if he carried on as he was, and told him that he would be a companion of the Shayṭān. But this call to that doomed individual did not succeed, and he responded in ignorant manner, saying:

﴿Are you renouncing my gods, O Ibrâheem?﴾ Thus he expressed pride in his gods that were made of stone and were idols, and he criticised Ibrâheem for turning away from them. This stemmed from extreme ignorance and the worst type of disbelief, for he boasted of worshipping idols and called people to them.

﴿If you do not desist﴾ that is, if you do not stop reviling my gods and calling me to worship Allah alone
﴿I will surely stone you﴾ that is, I will stone you to death
﴿Keep away from me for a good long time!﴾ That is, do not speak to me for a good long time.

Ibrâheem responded to him in the manner of the slaves of the Most Gracious when addressing the ignorant. He did not revile him, rather he was patient and did not respond to him in an offensive manner. He said: ﴿Peace be upon you﴾ that is, you will be safe from me speaking to you in an offensive or insulting manner, saying anything that you dislike.

﴿I will pray to my Lord to forgive you, for indeed He has always been very kind to me﴾ that is, I shall continue to pray to Allah to guide you and forgive you, by guiding you to Islam by means of which you will attain forgiveness.

﴿for indeed He has always been very kind to me﴾ that is, He has always been merciful and compassionate towards me, caring for me. He continued to pray to Allah to forgive him, hoping that Allah would guide him. But when it became clear to him that he was an enemy of Allah, and that nothing was going to work with him, he stopped praying for forgiveness for him and he disavowed him.

Allah has instructed us to follow the path of Ibrâheem, and part of following his path is following his way of calling people to Allah, by means of knowledge and wisdom, being gentle and kind, using a gradual approach with them, being patient in doing that, not tiring of the people when calling them, bearing with patience whatever one faces of harm in word and deed from people, and responding to that with tolerance and forgiveness, and indeed with kindness in word and deed.

When Ibrâheem despaired of his people and his father, he said: ﴿I will keep away from [and disavow] you and those on whom you call besides Allah﴾ that is, you and your idols ﴿and I will call upon my Lord﴾ – this included both the supplication of worship and the supplication of asking. ﴿perhaps my supplication to my Lord will not remain unanswered﴾ that is, perhaps Allah will grant me the joy of answering my supplication and accepting my deeds. This is what a person should do when he despairs of those whom he is calling to Islam – and they continue to follow their whims and desires, and his exhortation does not succeed with them, so they persist in wandering blindly in their transgression – he should focus on purifying his own soul and hope for acceptance from his Lord, and he should keep away from evil and its people.

Leaving one's homeland and everything one is used to, including one's family and people, is one of the hardest things to bear for many well-known reasons, such as being apart from those who are a source of confidence and assurance. However if a person gives up something for the sake of Allah, Allah will compensate him with something better than it. Ibrâheem withdrew from his people, and Allah said concerning him:

﴿After he turned away from them and what they worshipped besides Allah, We bestowed upon him Is-hâq and Ya'qoob, and We made each of them﴾ namely Is-hâq and Ya'qoob ﴿a Prophet﴾. Thus he was given the gift of these two righteous Messengers who were sent to the people; Allah singled them out for His revelation and chose them from among all others for His message.

﴿We bestowed upon them﴾ namely Ibrâheem and his two sons ﴿[manifold] gifts by Our mercy﴾. This includes everything that Allah bestowed upon them by His mercy, such as beneficial knowledge, righteous deeds, and numerous offspring who spread all over, among whom there were many Prophets and righteous people.

﴿and We granted them a deservedly lofty renown﴾ this also is part of the mercy which Allah bestowed upon them, because Allah promises every person who does good, that He will spread sincere praise for him, according to his good deeds. These were the leaders of the doers of good, so Allah spread for them a deservedly lofty renown that was sincere and not false, and was open and not hidden. Thus they became known all over the world, and praise and love for them filled people's hearts, and they were spoken of in the highest terms. They became an example to follow and leaders for those who are guided. They have continued to be held in high esteem throughout the ages. This is the bounty of Allah that He bestows upon whomever He will, and Allah is Possessor of abundant grace.

﴿وَأَذْكُرْ فِي الْكِتَابِ مُوسَىٰ إِنَّهُ كَانَ مُخْلَصًا وَكَانَ رَسُولًا نَّبِيًّا ٥١﴾ وَنَدْبَتْهُ مِنْ جَانِبِ
الْطُّورِ الْأَيْمَنِ وَقَرَّبْنَاهُ نَجِيًّا ٥٢ وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ مِنْ رَحْمَتِنَا أَخَاهُ هَارُونَ نَبِيًّا ٥٣﴾ (سورة مريم:

(٥٣-٥١)

- 19:51. Recount [O Muhammad] in the Book the story of Moosâ. Verily he was chosen, and he was a Messenger and a Prophet.
- 19:52. We called him from the right-hand side of the mountain and We honoured him by conversing with him in private,
- 19:53. And we granted him, by Our mercy, his brother Hâroon, also a Prophet [to assist him].

That is, recount in this Holy Qur'an the story of Moosâ ibn 'Imrân, by way of veneration and respect, acknowledging his noble status and sublime character.

﴿Verily he was chosen﴾ in the sense that Allah (ﷻ) chose him and selected him above all others. The word translated here as ﴿chosen﴾ (mukhlas) may also be read as meaning sincere (mukhlis), and Moosâ was sincere towards Allah (ﷻ) in all his deeds, words and intentions, so he is described as being sincere in all his affairs. The two meanings are interconnected. Allah chose him because of his sincerity, and his sincerity dictated that he be chosen. The best characteristic that can be ascribed to a person is sincerity towards his Lord and been chosen by his Lord.

﴿and he was a Messenger and a Prophet﴾ Allah bestowed upon him the twin blessings of being both a Messenger and a Prophet. Being a Messenger means conveying the words of the One Who sent him, and conveying all that he brought of issues of religion, both minor and major. Being a Prophet implies that Allah sent revelation to him, and singled him out for receipt of revelation. Being a Prophet has to do with the relationship between him and his Lord, and being a Messenger has to do with the relationship between him and other people. In fact, of all types of revelation, Allah singled him out for the most sublime, which is that He spoke to him directly and brought him close to Him. Thus Moosâ was singled out, from among the other Prophets, to be the one to whom the Most Gracious spoke directly. Therefore Allah says:

﴿We called him from the right-hand side of the mountain﴾ – this may refer to the right-hand side of Moosâ as he was walking, or it may be that the word translated here as ﴿right-hand side﴾ means that which was more blessed, as the root from which the word translated here as ﴿right-hand side﴾ (ayman) comes may also refer to blessing. This meaning is suggested by the verse in which Allah says that Moosâ was called, as he approached the burning bush:

﴿...Blessed is the one who is at the fire and blessed are those who are around it<sup>11</sup>...﴾ (an-Naml 27: 8)

﴿and We honoured him by conversing with him in private﴾. The difference between calling and conversing in private is that the call is in a louder voice and the private conversation is in a softer voice than that. This affirms that Allah (ﷻ) possesses the attribute of speech of various kinds, calling and conversing in private, as is the view of ahl as-Sunnah wal-jamā'ah, in contrast to those who denied that, such as the Jahamis, Mutazilites and those who followed a similar path.

﴿And we granted him, by Our mercy, his brother Hâroon, also a Prophet [to assist him]﴾. This was one of the greatest virtues of Moosâ, and reflects his love and sincerity towards his brother Hâroon: he asked his Lord to make him take part in his mission and to make him a Messenger like him. Allah answered his prayer and, by His mercy, granted prophethood to his brother Hâroon. So the prophethood of Hâroon was connected to that of Moosâ, and he supported and helped him in his mission.

﴿وَأَذْكُرْ فِي الْكِتَابِ إِسْمَاعِيلَ إِنَّهُ كَانَ صَادِقَ الْوَعْدِ وَكَانَ رَسُولًا نَّبِيًّا ۖ وَكَانَ يَأْمُرُ أَهْلَهُ بِالصَّلَاةِ وَالزَّكَاةِ وَكَانَ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِ مَرْضِيًّا ۝﴾ (سورة مريم: ٥٤-٥٥)

19:54. Recount [O Muhammad] in the Book the story of Ismâ'eel. Verily he was true to his promise, and he was a Messenger and a Prophet.

19:55. He used to enjoin his family [and his people] to establish prayer and give zakâh, and his Lord was well pleased with him.

<sup>11</sup> Moosâ was beside the fire, which was the burning bush, and the angels were surrounding him.

That is, mention in the Holy Qur'an this great Prophet from whom are descended the Arab people, the best and noblest of people, among whom is the leader of the children of Adam.

﴿Verily he was true to his promise﴾ that is, he never made a promise but he kept it. This includes the promises that he made to Allah and to people. Hence when he promised to be patient when his father wanted to sacrifice him, and said:

﴿... You will find me, if Allah so wills, among the steadfast.﴾ (aṣ-Ṣaffāt 37: 102)

– he fulfilled that promise and allowed his father to sacrifice him, which is the greatest calamity a person could face. Then Allah describes him as a Messenger and Prophet, which are the greatest blessings that Allah may bestow upon His slaves, and people of that status are the elite among humankind.

﴿He used to enjoin his family [and his people] to establish prayer and give zakāh﴾ that is, he adhered to the commands of Allah with regard to his family, so he would enjoin them to pray, which is an action that demonstrates sincere devotion to Allah, and to give zakāh, which is an action that demonstrates kindness towards other people. Thus he strove to perfect himself and to perfect others, especially the dearest of people to him, namely his family, because they were more deserving of his call than others.

﴿and his Lord was well pleased with him﴾ that is, because of his compliance with that which pleased his Lord and his striving to attain His pleasure, Allah was pleased with him and made him one of the elite among His slaves and one of His close friends who are near to Him. So Allah was pleased with him and he was pleased with his Lord.

﴿وَأَذْكُرُ فِي الْكِتَابِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّهُ كَانَ صِدِّيقًا نَبِيًّا ﴿٥٦﴾ وَرَفَعْنَاهُ مَكَانًا عَلِيًّا ﴿٥٧﴾﴾ (سورة مريم)

19:56. Recount [O Muhammad] in the Book the story of Idrees. Verily he was a man strong and true in faith, a Prophet.

19:57. And We raised him to a lofty station.

That is, mention in the Book by way of veneration and respect, and attributing the description of perfection to him, «Idrees. Verily he was a man strong and true in faith, a Prophet». In addition to making him a ṣiddeeq (one who is strong and true in faith), which includes deep faith, perfect knowledge, complete certainty and righteous deeds, Allah also chose him to receive His revelation and convey His message.

«And We raised him to a lofty station» that is, Allah caused him to be held in high esteem among people, and raised him in status to be among those who are close to Him, so he was of high renown and high status.

﴿أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ مِنْ ذُرِّيَةِ آدَمَ وَمِمَّنْ حَمَلْنَا مَعَ نُوحٍ وَمِنْ ذُرِّيَةِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَإِسْرَءِيلَ وَمِمَّنْ هَدَيْنَا وَاجْتَبَيْنَا إِذَا تُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُ الرَّحْمَنِ خَرُّوا سُجَّدًا وَبُكِيًّا ۝﴾

(سورة مريم: ٥٨) ﴿٥٨﴾

19:58. These are some of the Prophets whom Allah blessed from among the descendants of Adam and of those whom We carried with Nooh [in the ark], and from among the descendants of Ibrâheem and Isrâ'eel, and from among those whom We guided and chose. When the revelations of the Most Gracious were recited to them, they fell down in prostration, weeping.

Having mentioned these noble Prophets and chosen Messengers, Allah now mentions their virtues and their status:

﴿These are some of the Prophets whom Allah blessed﴾ that is, Allah bestowed upon them unsurpassable blessings, namely prophethood and messengership. They are the ones referred to in the command to pray to Allah to guide us to the path of those whom He blessed. Allah also tells us that those who obey Allah will be

﴿...with those whom Allah has blessed of the Prophets, the strong and true in faith, the martyrs and the righteous; what excellent companions these are!﴾ (an-Nisâ' 4: 69)

He also tells us that some of them are ﴿from among the descendants of Adam and of those whom We carried with Nooh [in the ark]﴾ that is, they are from among his descendants

﴿and from among the descendants of Ibrâheem and Isrâ'eel﴾ – these are the best families in the world, whom Allah chose and selected, and brought them close to Him. When the revelations of the Most Gracious were recited to them, which spoke of the unseen, the attributes of the Knower of the unseen, information about the Last Day, and promises and warnings,

﴿they fell down in prostration, weeping﴾ that is, they submitted to the revelations of Allah with humility, and the revelations left their impact on their hearts, instilling faith, the desire for paradise and the fear of hell, which prompted them to weep, turn to Allah and prostrate to their Lord. They were not among those who, when they heard the revelations of Allah, turned a deaf ear and a blind eye to them (cf. 25: 73).

Attributing the revelations to the divine name ar-Raḥmân (the Most Gracious) indicates that the revelations are part of His mercy and kindness towards His slaves, as He guided them thereby to the truth, made their blind eyes see, saved them from misguidance, and granted them knowledge when they were ignorant.

﴿ خَلَفَ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ خَلْفٌ أَضَاعُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَاتَّبَعُوا الشَّهْوَاتِ فَسَوْفَ يَلْقَوْنَ عَذَابًا ٥٩ ﴾
 إِلَّا مَنْ تَابَ وَآمَنَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَأُولَٰئِكَ يَدْخُلُونَ الْجَنَّةَ وَلَا يُظْلَمُونَ شَيْئًا ٦٠ ﴿ جَنَّاتِ
 عَدْنٍ الَّتِي وَعَدَ الرَّحْمَنُ عِبَادَهُ بِالْقَبِيلِ إِنَّهُ كَانَ وَعْدُهُ مَأْتِيًا ٦١ ﴾ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ فِيهَا لَغْوًا إِلَّا سَلَامًا
 وَلَهُمْ رِزْقُهُمْ فِيهَا بُكْرَةً وَعَشِيًا ٦٢ ﴿ تِلْكَ الْجَنَّةُ الَّتِي نُورِثُ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا مَنْ كَانَ تَقِيًا ٦٣ ﴾

(سورة مريم: ٥٩-٦٣)

- 19:59. But after them came generations who neglected prayer and pursued their desires. So they will meet with perdition.
- 19:60. Except those who repent and believe, and do righteous deeds; they will enter paradise and they will not be wronged in the least.
- 19:61. [Theirs will be] gardens of perpetual abode, which the Most Gracious has promised to His slaves without their having seen them. Verily His promise must come to pass.
- 19:62. They will not hear therein any vain talk, but only greetings of peace. And they will have their provision therein in the morning and in the evening.
- 19:63. Such is the garden which We give as an inheritance to those of Our slaves who are God-fearing.

Having mentioned these sincere Prophets who were seeking the pleasure of their Lord, constantly turning to Him, Allah now mentions those who came after them and changed what they were enjoined to do; after them came generations who declined and moved backwards. They neglected the prayer which they had been instructed to establish and offer regularly, and were heedless about it. As they neglected the prayer, which is the foundation of religion and the gauge of faith and sincerity towards the Lord of the worlds, and is the most important of deeds and most virtuous of characteristics, they were even more negligent with regard to other matters of religion and were more reluctant to do them. The reason for that was that they followed their own whims and desires, so their concern focused on that and gave it precedence over the rights of Allah. As a result of this negligence of Allah's rights and focusing on their own desires, whenever they found an opportunity to indulge them, by any possible means, they would not omit to do so.

﴿So they will meet with perdition﴾ that is, multiple and severe punishment.

Then Allah (ﷻ) makes an exception to that:

﴿Except those who repent﴾ from ascribing partners to Allah, following innovation and committing sin, so they give up these things, regret them and resolve firmly not to do them again

﴿and believe﴾ in Allah, His angels, His Books, His Messengers and the Last Day

﴿and do righteous deeds﴾ – this refers to doing that which Allah has prescribed on the lips of His Messengers, seeking thereby His Countenance.

﴿they﴾ namely those who combine repentance and faith with righteous deeds

﴿will enter paradise﴾ which contains eternal bliss, sound well-being and closeness to the generous Lord

﴿and they will not be wronged in the least﴾ with regard to their deeds; rather they will find the reward thereof in full, multiplied in number.

Then Allah tells us that the garden that He has promised they will enter is not like any other garden; rather it is ﴿gardens of perpetual abode﴾ that they will never leave or depart from, because they are so vast and contain so much goodness, happiness, beauty and joy.

﴿which the Most Gracious has promised to His slaves without their having seen them﴾ that is, when speaking of the reward He has promised to His slaves, Allah refers to Himself as ar-Raḥmān (the Most Gracious), because of what this reward contains of mercy and generosity such as no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it ever crossed the mind of man. Elsewhere, He describes it as His mercy, as He says:

﴿But those whose faces become bright, they will be in Allah's mercy [paradise], to abide therein forever.﴾ (Āl 'Imrân 3: 107)

Moreover, attributing it to His mercy is indicative of the abiding nature of its bliss, for it will remain as long as His mercy remains, of which it (paradise) is the outcome and result.

The slaves of Allah mentioned in this verse are those slaves who are devoted to Him, who worshipped Him and adhered to His instructions, so that servitude to Allah became second nature to them. This is like the verse in which He says:

﴿The true slaves of the Most Gracious are those who...﴾ (al-Furqân 25: 63)

– and similar verses.

This is in contrast to those who are His slaves in the sense only that they are subject to His control, but who never worship Him. Although they are slaves in the sense that He is their Lord, because He created them, provides for them and controls them, they are not included among His slaves in the sense of devotion and willing servitude to Him, for which the devoted slave is praised; rather their servitude is the servitude of compulsion, which is not subject to praise.

﴿without their having seen them﴾ – it may be that this is connected to the phrase, ﴿which the Most Gracious has promised﴾ in which case, according to this view, Allah has promised paradise to them although they have not seen it, but they believed in it without seeing it and strove hard for it despite not having seen it. So how about if they saw it? They would strive harder and desire it even more. This is praising them for their belief in the unseen, which is beneficial faith.

Or it may be that what is meant is that these gardens which the Most Merciful has promised to His slaves are among the things that no one can fully comprehend or know its qualities except Allah. This makes people long for it; this concise and general description creates longing and prompts one to seek it. This is like the verse in which Allah says:

﴿No soul knows what is kept hidden in store for them of delight as a reward for what they used to do.﴾ (as-Sajdah 32: 17)

Both meanings are valid, but the first view is more likely to be correct, because Allah says: ﴿Verily His promise must come to pass﴾; it must inevitably happen, because He does not break His promise and He is the most truthful of speakers.

﴿They will not hear therein any vain talk﴾ that is, empty words that are of no benefit or are sinful. They will not hear any slander, bad words or speech that is disobedient towards Allah, or disturbing or annoying.

﴿but only greetings of peace﴾ that is, they will only hear words that are free of anything wrong, words such as remembrance of Allah, greetings, words of joy, glad tidings, exchange of good words between brothers, hearing the words of the Most Gracious, beautiful voices of the hoor al-'een, the angels and the servants, melodious tunes, and soft and gentle words, because it is the abode of peace, in which there is perfect peace in all ways.

﴿And they will have their provision therein in the morning and in the evening﴾ that is, their provision of food and drink, and all kinds of pleasures, will be ongoing, wherever they are and in any place they want. As a sign of the perfection of that pleasure, it will be given at appointed times, ﴿in the morning and in the evening﴾, so that it will bring greater joy and be more beneficial.

This paradise that is described in such terms, ﴿is the garden which We give as an inheritance to those of Our slaves who are God-fearing﴾ that is, We will cause the pious and God-fearing to inherit it and We will make it their eternal abode, which they will never depart from or want to leave. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

«Hasten towards forgiveness from your Lord and a garden as vast as the heavens and the earth, which is prepared for the pious.» (Āl 'Imrān 3: 133)

﴿وَمَا نُنَزِّلُ إِلَّا بِأَمْرِ رَبِّكَ لَهُ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِينَا وَمَا خَلْفَنَا وَمَا بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ وَمَا كَانَ رَبُّكَ نَسِيًّا ﴿٦٤﴾ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا فَاعْبُدْهُ وَاصْطَبِرْ لِعِبَادَتِهِ هَلْ تَعْلَمُ لَهُ سَمِيًّا ﴿٦٥﴾﴾ (سورة مريم: ٦٤-٦٥)

- 19:64. [Jibreel said:] We [angels] do not descend except by the command of your Lord. To Him belongs all that is ahead of us and all that is behind us, and all that is in between. Your Lord is never forgetful,
- 19:65. Lord of the heavens and the earth and of all that is between them. So worship Him, and remain steadfast in worshipping Him. Do you know of anyone equal to Him?

On one occasion the Prophet (ﷺ) thought that Jibreel (عليه السلام) was late in coming down to him, and he said to him:

«Why do you not come to us more often?» (Bukhari)<sup>12</sup>

Because he longed to see him and missed him when he was away, and he wanted to feel reassured by his coming down. So Allah (ﷻ)

<sup>12</sup> All hadiths in this text have been checked and verified by IIPH's researchers. It is rare, but it does happen that a hadith is not verifiable within the timeframe of researching and editing the book. In that case, a decision is made by the editorial board as to whether or not to include the hadith. It is IIPH's policy not to include weak hadiths or fabricated (fake) hadiths in our publications. If a weak hadith is included in any text, it is only because the author of the book discusses it as a weak hadith. (Editor)

revealed on the lips of Jibreel: ﴿We [angels] do not descend except by the command of your Lord﴾ that is, we have no say in the matter at all; if we are instructed to do something, we hasten to comply, and we never disobey any of His commands. This is like the verse in which Allah says of the angels that they:

﴿...do not disobey Allah in whatever He commands them, and they do whatever they are commanded to do.﴾ (at-Tahreem 66: 6)

For they are slaves under orders.

﴿To Him belongs all that is ahead of us and all that is behind us, and all that is in between﴾ that is, to Him belong all matters of the past, future and present, in terms of both time and place. Once it becomes clear that all things are under the command of Allah and that we are slaves under His control, the matter is connected to divine wisdom, whether to issue a command to Jibreel so that he will carry it out or wisdom dictates not to issue a command, so his coming down will be delayed. Hence he said: ﴿Your Lord is never forgetful﴾ that is, Allah has not forgotten you and is not neglecting you. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Your Lord has not forsaken you, nor does He hate you.﴾ (ad-Duha 93: 3)

Rather He will always take care of you and will always deal with you in the best possible manner. In other words, if we (angels) are delayed and do not come down at the usual time, do not be sad and do not worry; remember that Allah is the One Who willed that, on the basis of His wisdom.

Then he explained how Allah's knowledge encompasses all things and He can never forget, for He is ﴿Lord of the heavens and the earth﴾. The fact that he is the Lord of the heavens and the earth, and that they are in the best shape and most perfect order, and there is no sign in them of heedlessness, negligence, purposelessness or falsehood, offers definitive proof of His encompassing knowledge. So do not be distracted by that; rather focus on that which will benefit you and bring you good returns, which is worshipping Him alone with no partner or associate.

﴿and remain steadfast in worshipping Him﴾ that is, be patient and steadfast, strive hard, and carry it out in the most perfect and complete manner, according to your ability. Focusing on worshipping Allah will bring comfort to the individual and shift his focus away from all other attachments and desires, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Do not look longingly at the good things We have given some among them to enjoy, the splendour of the life of this world, so that We may test them thereby. The provision of your Lord is better and more lasting. Enjoin your family [and your people] to establish prayer and remain steadfast therein. We do not ask you for provision; rather it is We Who provide for you. And the best outcome is for those who fear Allah.﴾ (Tâ Hâ 20: 131-132)

﴿Do you know of anyone equal to Him?﴾ That is, do you know of anyone who is equal to Allah, who resembles Him and is like unto Him, from among created beings? This appears in the form of a question, but what is meant is negation. It is something that is known on the basis of rational thinking. In other words: you do not know of any who is equal to Him or like unto Him, because He is the Lord and all others are subject to His Lordship; He is the Creator and all others are created; He is the Self-Sufficient in all aspects, and all others are inherently in need in all aspects; He is absolutely perfect in all aspects, and all others are lacking, possessing no attributes of perfection except that which Allah (ﷻ) bestows upon them. This is definitive proof that Allah is the only One Who alone is deserving of worship, and that worship of Him is true whereas worship of all others besides Him is false. Therefore He enjoined that He alone be worshipped, with steadfastness, and He gave as the reason for that His utter perfection, for He alone is the Almighty, to Whom belong the most beautiful names.

﴿وَيَقُولُ الْإِنْسَنُ أَإِذَا مَاتَ لَسَوْفَ أُخْرَجُ حَيًّا ۖ أَوَلَا يَذْكُرُ الْإِنْسَنُ أَنَّا خَلَقْنَاهُ مِن قَبْلُ وَلَنَرِيكَ شَيْئًا ۚ﴾ (سورة مريم: ٦٦-٦٧)

19:66. Man says: When I am dead, will I then be brought forth alive?

19:67. Does man not call to mind that We created him before, when he was nothing?

What is meant by man here is the one who denies the resurrection and thinks it unlikely that it will happen, so he says – asking a question by way of stubborn denial and disbelief: ﴿When I am dead, will I then be brought forth alive?﴾ that is, how can Allah restore me to life after death and after I have turned to dust? This cannot happen and cannot be imagined. This is according to his corrupt thinking, bad intention and stubborn rejection of the Messengers and Books of Allah. If he were to give it the slightest thought and reflection, he would see that his regarding the resurrection as unlikely is very foolish. Hence Allah mentions definitive proof and clear evidence that everyone knows, to prove that the resurrection is indeed possible:

﴿Does man not call to mind that We created him before, when he was nothing?﴾ That is, does it not occur to him, or does he not remember his former state, and that Allah created him the first time, when he was nothing? Is not the One Who is able to create him from nothing, when he was nothing worth mentioning, able to recreate him after he has disintegrated, and put him back together after he was scattered? This is like the verse in which Allah says:

﴿It is He Who originates creation then repeats it, and that is [even] easier for Him...﴾ (ar-Room 30: 27)

The words ﴿Does man not call to mind﴾ invite man, in a gentle manner, to reflect on the basis of rational thinking. It also points out that the denial of the one who denies that is based on his heedlessness and failure to remember how he was in the beginning; otherwise, if he were to remember it and call it to mind, he would not deny it.

﴿فَوَرَبِّكَ لَنَحْشُرَنَّهُمْ وَالشَّيَاطِينَ ثُمَّ لَنُخْصِرَنَّهُمْ حَوْلَ جَهَنَّمَ جِثِيًا ۖ ثُمَّ لَنَنْزِعَنَّ مِنْ كُلِّ شِيعَةٍ أَهْبَئًا أَشَدَّ عَلَى الرَّحْمَنِ عَيْنًا ۖ﴾ (سورة مريم: ٦٨-٧٠)

19:68. So by your Lord, We will surely gather them and the devils together, then We will surely bring them around hell on their knees.

19:69. Then We will surely bring forth from every sect those of them who were most insolent towards the Most Gracious.

19:70. For indeed We know best who most deserves to be burnt therein.

Here Allah (ﷻ) – Who is the most truthful in speech – swears by His Lordship that He will surely gather these people who denied the resurrection, them and their devils, and He will gather them at an appointed time, on a certain day.

﴿then We will surely bring them around hell on their knees﴾ that is, kneeling in terror at the earthquakes and other terrifying events, awaiting the verdict of the Most Great, Most High. Hence He states what their verdict on them will be:

﴿Then We will surely bring forth from every sect those of them who were most insolent towards the Most Gracious﴾ that is, then We will bring out from each group and sect of the wrongdoers – who share the characteristics of wrongdoing, disbelief and insolence – the worst of them in insolence, wrongdoing and disbelief, and they will go ahead of them to the punishment. Then in like manner, the worst, then the next worst, will go ahead to the punishment. In that situation they will curse one another, and the last of them will say of the first of them:

﴿...Our Lord, these people led us astray, so give them a double punishment of fire. He will say: [It will be] doubled for all, but you do not know. The first of them will say to the last: You were no better than us...﴾ (al-A'raf 7: 38-39)

All of that is in accordance with Allah's justice, wisdom and all-encompassing knowledge; therefore He says:

﴿For indeed We know best who most deserves to be burnt therein﴾ that is, We are fully aware of who is most deserving of being burnt in the fire, for We know them and We know their deeds and the extent to which they deserve it and their share of the punishment.

﴿وَإِنْ مِنْكُمْ إِلَّا وَارِدُهَا كَانَ عَلَى رَبِّكَ حَتْمًا مَقْضِيًّا ﴿٧١﴾ ثُمَّ نُنْجِي الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا وَنُذِرُ الظَّالِمِينَ فِيهَا جِثًا ﴿٧٢﴾﴾ (سورة مريم: ٧١-٧٢)

19:71. There is not one of you but he will come to it; a decree from your Lord which must inevitably come to pass.

19:72. Then We will save those who feared Allah, and We will leave the wrongdoers therein on their knees.

This is addressed to all people, righteous and evildoers, believers and disbelievers; there is no one among them but he will come to the fire, a decree that Allah made binding upon Himself and warned His slaves thereof. So it will inevitably come to pass.

There is a scholarly difference of opinion as to what is meant by coming to it. It was suggested that what is meant by coming to it is that all people will be present around it, until they will all be afraid and disturbed, after which Allah will save those who feared Him. It was also suggested that what is meant by coming to it is entering it and being in it, but for the believers it will be cool and safe. Another suggestion is that what is meant by coming to it is passing over it on the ṣirâṭ (bridge) that crosses over the top of hell, which the people will cross according to their deeds; some of them will pass like a flash of lightning, or like the wind, or like swift horses, or like swift camels, and some of them will run, some will walk, some will crawl and some will be snatched then thrown into the fire, each according to his level of piety and fear of Allah. Hence Allah says:

﴿Then We will save those who feared Allah﴾ by doing that which He enjoined and refraining from that which He prohibited ﴿and We will leave the wrongdoers﴾ that is, those who wronged themselves by disbelieving and committing sins ﴿therein on their knees﴾. That is because of their wrongdoing and disbelief, for which they deserve to abide therein forever and they deserve the punishment, and all ties between them will be severed. (2: 166).

﴿وَإِذَا نُتِلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ ءَايَاتُنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ قَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَيُّ الْفَرِيقَيْنِ خَيْرٌ مَّقَامًا وَأَحْسَنُ نَدِيًّا ۚ وَكَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِنْ قَرْنٍ هُمْ أَحْسَنُ أَثْنَاءَ وَرِيدٍ﴾ (سورة مريم: ٧٣-٧٤)

(٧٤-٧٣)

- 19:73. When Our clear revelations are recited to them, those who disbelieve say to those who believe: Which of the two groups is better in terms of dwellings and social gatherings?
- 19:74. How many nations We destroyed before them who were better in terms of wealth and outward appearance!

That is, when Our clear revelations – that clearly point to the oneness of Allah and the truthfulness of His Messenger (ﷺ), and would guide anyone who hears them to believe sincerely and with certainty – are recited to these disbelievers, they respond with the opposite reaction to what is expected of them, and they ridicule the revelations and those who believe in them; they point to their own well-being in this world to prove that they are better than the believers and they say, by way of opposing the truth:

«Which of the two groups», us or the believers,
«is better in terms of dwellings» that is, in this world, and in terms of large amounts of wealth, large numbers of children and fulfilment of desires

«and social gatherings?» They concluded from this flawed argument that they had more in terms of wealth and children, and had attained most of what they had sought in this world, and that their social gatherings were better and more prestigious, whereas the believers were not like that; therefore they thought that they were better than the believers. But this argument is extremely flawed and is akin to turning facts upside down, because having abundant wealth and children, and looking good, are often means that lead to doom, misery and evil consequences. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says:

«How many nations We destroyed before them who were better in terms of wealth» that is, material goods such as vessels, furnishings, houses and adornments

«and outward appearance» that is, in looks and outward appearance, because of living a life of luxury and enjoying physical pleasure, and because of the good image that they had. If these doomed people were better off in terms of wealth and appearance, but that did not protect them from the punishment befalling them, then how can these people, who have less and are of lower status, be protected from the punishment?

«Are your disbelievers [O Quraysh] better than those, or have you been promised immunity in the [earlier] scriptures?» (al-Qamar 54: 43)

Thus it is known that concluding that one will be in a good situation in the hereafter because one is in a good situation in this world is one of the most flawed arguments, and is the way of thinking of the disbelievers.

﴿قُلْ مَنْ كَانَ فِي الضَّلَالَةِ فَلْيَمْدُدْ لَهُ الرَّحْمَنُ مَدًّا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا رَأَوْا مَا يُوعَدُونَ إِمَّا الْعَذَابَ وَإِمَّا السَّاعَةَ فَسَيَعْلَمُونَ مَنْ هُوَ شَرُّ مَكَانًا وَأَضْعَفُ جُنْدًا﴾ (سورة مريم: ٧٥)

19:75. Say: Whoever is in error, may the Most Gracious grant them respite until, when they see what they were promised – be it punishment [in this world] or [the approach of] the Hour – then they will realise who is in a worse abode and has a smaller following.

Having mentioned the false argument which highlights the severity of their stubbornness and the extent of their misguidance, here Allah tells us that whoever is misguided, accepts that for himself and strives for it, Allah will give him respite and increase him in love for it, as a punishment to him for choosing it over guidance. Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿...So when they chose to deviate [from the truth], Allah caused their hearts to deviate [from right guidance]...﴾ (as-Saff 61: 5)

– and:

﴿We will turn their hearts and eyes away [from the truth], since they refused to believe in it the first time, and We will leave them to wander blindly in their misguidance.﴾ (al-An'âm 6: 110)

﴿until, when they﴾ namely those who said, ﴿Which of the two groups is better in terms of dwellings and social gatherings?﴾ (19: 73) ﴿see what they were promised – be it punishment﴾ by being killed or otherwise

﴿or [the approach of] the Hour﴾ which signals the onset of requital for deeds

﴿then they will realise who is in a worse abode and has a smaller following﴾ that is, and at that time the falseness of their claim will become clear to them, and they will realise that it was a baseless claim; they will realise that they are in a worse situation

﴿and has a smaller following﴾. But this knowledge will not benefit them at all, because it will not enable them to go back to this world and do deeds other than those which they did the first time.

﴿وَيَزِيدُ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ اهْتَدَوْا هُدًى وَالْبَيِّنَاتُ الصَّالِحَاتُ خَيْرٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ ثَوَابًا وَخَيْرٌ مَرَدًّا﴾ (سورة مريم: ٧٦)

19:76. Allah increases in guidance those who are guided, and righteous deeds of lasting merit bring a better reward with your Lord and yield a better return.

Having stated that He gives respite to the disbelievers so that they might get carried away in their misguidance, Allah now tells us that He increases in guidance those who are guided, by His grace and mercy towards them. Guidance includes beneficial knowledge and righteous deeds. Whoever follows a path of knowledge, faith and righteous deeds, Allah will increase him in that and will make it easy for him, and He will bestow upon him other things that have nothing to do with his efforts (that is, as gifts). This indicates that faith may increase and decrease, as the righteous early generations said, and as is indicated by the verses in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...and those who believe might increase in faith...﴾ (al-Muddath-thir 74: 31)

– and:

﴿...and when His revelations are recited it increases them in faith...﴾

(al-Anfāl 8: 2)

This is also seen in reality: faith involves belief in the heart, words on the lips, emotions in the heart and physical actions, and the believers vary greatly in terms of these things.

Then Allah says: ﴿and righteous deeds of lasting merit﴾ that is, good deeds that remain and do not cease when others cease, and they do not diminish. This refers to righteous deeds, such as prayer, zakâh, fasting, Hajj, 'umrah, reading Qur'an, recitation of dhikr glorifying, magnifying and praising Allah, proclaiming His oneness, treating people kindly, and other spiritual and physical deeds.

These deeds ﴿bring a better reward with your Lord and yield a better return﴾ that is, they are better before Allah in terms of reward.

The reason why Allah mentions righteous deeds of lasting merit – and Allah knows best – is that, having stated that the wrongdoers regarded worldly status in terms of wealth and children, and enjoying a good life, and so on, as a sign of having good status in the hereafter, Allah tells us here that the matter is not as they claim; rather the deeds which are a sign of success are the deeds which Allah loves and is pleased with.

﴿أَفَرَأَيْتَ الَّذِي كَفَرَ بِآيَاتِنَا وَقَالَ لَأُوتِيَنَّكَ مَالًا وَوَلَدًا ۖ أَطَّلَعَ الْغَيْبَ أَمْ
أَخَذَ عِنْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ عَهْدًا ۖ﴾ (٧٨) ﴿كَلَّا سَنَكْتُبُ مَا يَقُولُ وَنَمُدُّ لَهُ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ مَدًّا
ۖ وَنَرِيَّهٖ مَا يَقُولُ وَيَأْتِينَا فَرْدًا﴾ (٨٠) ﴿(سورة مريم: ٧٧-٨٠)﴾

19:77. Have you seen the one who rejects Our signs and says: I will surely be given wealth and children [if I am ever resurrected]?<sup>13</sup>

<sup>13</sup> This refers to the story of Khabbâb who was a blacksmith; he did some work for al-'Âṣ ibn Wâ'il, who refused to pay him and said: I will never =

- 19:78. Has he gained knowledge of the unseen, or has he taken a promise from the Most Gracious?
- 19:79. No indeed! We will record what he says and We will add to his punishment.
- 19:80. We will take away from him all that he spoke of, and he will come to Us all alone.

That is, do you not wonder at the situation of this disbeliever who combines disbelief in the signs of Allah with his serious claim that he will be granted wealth and children in the hereafter, that is, that he will be one of the people of paradise. This is something very strange. If he were a believer in Allah and made this claim, then the matter would be simple. Although this verse was revealed concerning a specific disbeliever, it includes every disbeliever who claims to be following truth and that he will be one of the people of paradise.

Allah said, rebuking him and showing him to be a liar: ﴿Has he gained knowledge of the unseen﴾ that is, has his knowledge encompassed the unseen, so that he knows what will happen, and that among the things that will happen is that he will be given wealth and children on the Day of Resurrection?

﴿or has he taken a promise from the Most Gracious﴾ that he will attain what he thinks he will attain (on the Day of Resurrection)? For no such thing has happened. Thus it is known that he is making it up and saying something of which he has no knowledge. Refuting the argument in this manner, which is based on two points, is more

---

= pay you until you disbelieve in Muhammad. Khabbâb said to him: I will never disbelieve in Muhammad even if you die and are resurrected. Al-Âṣ ibn Wâ'il said: Will I be resurrected after I die? I will pay you after I am resurrected, for I will be given wealth and children! (The story is narrated in Ṣaḥeeh Muslim.)

effective in establishing proof against him, because the one who claims that he will attain something good from Allah in the hereafter is one of two things:

Either his words are based on knowledge of future unseen matters, but it is known that such knowledge belongs only to Allah, so no one can know anything of future unseen matters except what the Messengers came to know from Allah;

Or he has taken a promise from Allah, by believing in Him and following His Messengers, which is the covenant of Allah to His obedient slaves, as He has informed them that they are the people of the hereafter who will be saved and victorious. If these two things are not present, then it is known that this claim is false. Therefore Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿No indeed!﴾ That is, it is not as they claim; the one who says that has no knowledge of the unseen, because he is a disbeliever who knows nothing of the Messengers' knowledge, and he has no promise from the Most Gracious, because he is a disbeliever who has no faith. Rather he deserves the opposite of what he falsely claims; his false claim will be recorded against him and he will be requited for it and punished. Hence Allah says:

﴿We will record what he says and We will add to his punishment﴾ that is, We will increase the types of punishments, as he increased in error and misguidance.

﴿We will take away from him all that he spoke of﴾ that is, We will take away his wealth and his children, and he will depart from this world alone, with no wealth, no family, no supporters and no helpers ﴿and he will come to Us all alone﴾ and he will see the terrible and painful punishment that is the recompense of wrongdoers like him.

﴿وَاتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ آلِهَةً لِيَكُونُوا لَهُمْ عِزًّا ۖ كَلَّا سَيَكْفُرُونَ بِعِبَادَتِهِمْ وَيَكُونُونَ عَلَيْهِمْ ضِدًّا﴾ (٨٢) أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا الشَّيَاطِينَ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ تَؤْزُهُمْ أَزًّا ﴿٨٣﴾ فَلَا تَعْجَلْ عَلَيْهِمْ إِنَّمَا نَعِدُّ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا ﴿٨٤﴾ (سورة مريم: ٨١-٨٤)

- 19:81. They have taken other gods besides Allah to help them and protect them [from punishment].
- 19:82. Nay, they will reject their worship of them, and will become their opponents.
- 19:83. Do you not see that We have sent the devils against the disbelievers, to incite them to sin?
- 19:84. So do not be hasty [in calling down Allah's punishment] upon them, for We are keeping full account of their deeds.

This is one of the punishments of the disbelievers: because they did not seek the protection of Allah or hold fast to the Rope of Allah – rather they ascribed partners to Him and took His enemies among the devils as their allies – He gives the devils power over them, and the devils begin to incite them to sin, pushing them towards disbelief, whispering to them and prompting them, making falsehood fair-seeming to them and making the truth appear abhorrent. Thus love of falsehood is instilled in their hearts and becomes deeply entrenched, so they strive for its sake as the one who follows truth strives for the sake of the truth. So they support it with their efforts, fight for it and strive against the people of truth in support of falsehood.

All of this is the requital for taking as allies the enemies of Allah; Allah gives the Shayṭān power over him and lets him control him. Otherwise, if he believed in Allah and put his trust in Him, the Shayṭān would have no power over him, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Verily, he has no power over those who believe and put their trust in their Lord; he has power only over those who take him as an ally and, under his influence, ascribe partners to Allah.﴾ (an-Nahl 16: 99-100)

﴿So do not be hasty [in calling down Allah's punishment] upon them﴾ that is, do not be hasty in calling down punishment upon these disbelievers who seek to hasten the punishment

﴿for We are keeping full account of their deeds﴾; We give them respite and show forbearance towards them for a while, so that they may rethink their attitude towards the message of Allah. Then if that does not succeed with them, We will seize them with the seizing of One Who is Almighty, Omnipotent.

يَوْمَ نَخْشُرُ الْمُتَّقِينَ إِلَى الرَّحْمَنِ وَفْدًا ﴿٨٥﴾ وَنَسُوقُ الْمُجْرِمِينَ إِلَى جَهَنَّمَ وَرْدًا ﴿٨٦﴾ لَا يَمْلِكُونَ الشَّفْعَةَ إِلَّا مَنِ اتَّخَذَ عِنْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ عَهْدًا ﴿٨٧﴾ (سورة مريم: ٨٥-٨٧)

19:85. On the day when We gather the pious before the Most Gracious as an honoured delegation,

19:86. And We drive the evildoers thirsty towards hell,

19:87. No one will have the benefit of intercession, except one who entered into a covenant with the Most Gracious.<sup>14</sup>

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the differences between the two groups, namely the pious and the evildoers. He will gather the pious who fear Him – by avoiding ascription of partners to Him, innovations and sins – to the place of standing (on the Day of Resurrection) honoured, respected and venerated, and their destination will be with the Most Gracious, the Most Bountiful. They will come to Him in delegations as honoured guests, with their hearts filled with great hope and positive thinking of the One to Whom they come, as is well known.

<sup>14</sup> The covenant referred to is belief in the oneness of Allah (tawḥeed). (aṭ-Ṭabari; Ibn Katheer)

The pious will come to the Most Gracious, hoping for His mercy and abundant grace, and hoping to attain His gifts in His paradise, because of what they sent on ahead of good deeds, fearing Him and seeking His pleasure, for Allah promised them that reward on the lips of His Messengers. So they turned towards their Lord, with reassurance in their hearts, content with Him and trusting His grace.

As for the evildoers, they will be driven towards hell, thirsty – which is the worst state one may be in. They will be driven by way of humiliation and disgrace to the greatest prison and worst punishment, namely hell, in a state of thirst and exhaustion. They will seek help but will not be helped, they will call out but will receive no answer, and they will seek intercession but there will be no intercession for them. Hence Allah says:

﴿no one will have the benefit of intercession﴾ that is, they cannot attain intercession and will have no share of it, because it belongs only to Allah (ﷻ).

﴿Say: All intercession belongs to Allah alone...﴾ (az-Zumar 39: 44)

Allah tells us that the intercession of the intercessors will not benefit them, because they did not enter into any covenant with Him by virtue of believing in Him and His Messenger (ﷺ). Otherwise, whoever entered into a covenant by believing in Him and His Messengers, and following them, he will be among those with whom Allah is pleased, and who will have the benefit of intercession, as Allah says:

﴿...and they cannot intercede except for those with whom He is pleased...﴾ (al-Anbiyā' 21: 28)

Allah describes belief in Him and following His Messengers as a covenant because He has promised in His Books and on the lips of His Messengers an abundant reward for those who follow them.

﴿وَقَالُوا اتَّخَذَ الرَّحْمَنُ وَلَدًا ۚ لَقَدْ جِئْتُمْ شَيْئًا إِدًّا ۝٨٩ تَكَادُ السَّمَوَاتُ
يَنْفَطَرْنَ مِنْهُ ۖ تَتَشَقَّقُ الْأَرْضُ وَخُجُرُ الْجِبَالِ هَدًّا ۝٩٠ أَنْ دَعَوْا لِلرَّحْمَنِ وَلَدًا ۚ وَمَا
يَنْبَغِي لِلرَّحْمَنِ أَنْ يَتَّخِذَ وَلَدًا ۝٩١ إِنْ كُلُّ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِلَّا آتِي الرَّحْمَنِ
عَبْدًا ۝٩٢ لَقَدْ أَحْصَاهُمْ وَعَدَّهُمْ عَدًّا ۝٩٣ وَكُلُّهُمْ آتِيهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فَرْدًا ۝٩٤﴾
(سورة مريم: ٨٨-٩٥)

- 19:88. They say: The Most Gracious has begotten a son.
 19:89. Indeed you have uttered something atrocious, 19:90. at which the heavens might almost be torn apart, the earth split asunder, and the mountains come tumbling down,
 19:91. at their ascription of a son to the Most Gracious, 19:92. For it is not befitting for the Most Gracious to beget a son.
 19:93. There is no one in the heavens or on earth but he will come to the Most Gracious as a slave.
 19:94. He encompasses them with His knowledge and has counted each one of them.
 19:95. And each one of them will come to Him on the Day of Resurrection all alone.

This passage highlights how abhorrent is the view of those who stubbornly rejected the message and claimed that the Most Gracious had a child, as the Christians said:

﴿...that the Messiah is the son of Allah...﴾ (at-Tawbah 9: 30)

– the Jews said:

﴿...that ‘Uzayr is the son of Allah...﴾ (at-Tawbah 9: 30)

– and the polytheists said that the angels were the daughters of Allah – exalted be Allah far above what they say.

«Indeed you have uttered something atrocious» that is, terrible and monstrous. It is so serious that «the heavens» despite the fact that they are so great and solid «might almost be torn apart» at these words «the earth split asunder» that is, crack open «and the mountains come tumbling down» that is, collapse.

«at their ascription of a son to the Most Gracious» that is, because of this abhorrent claim, the things mentioned might almost happen.

The fact is that «it is not befitting» that is, it is not appropriate and cannot be true «for the Most Gracious to beget a son» that is because begetting a son is indicative of shortcoming and need, but He is the Self-Sufficient, Most Praiseworthy. Moreover a son is of the same nature as his father, but nothing is like unto Allah (ﷻ) and nothing is equal to Him.

«There is no one in the heavens or on earth but he will come to the Most Gracious as a slave» that is, humbled and submitting, not resisting or refusing. The angels, humans, jinn and others are all slaves under control, and they have no share in dominion or control at all. How can Allah have a child, when He is so great and His dominion is so mighty?

«He encompasses them with His knowledge and has counted each one of them» that is, His knowledge encompasses all of His creation, the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth; He has counted them and has counted their deeds, so nothing can be lost or forgotten, and nothing is hidden from Him.

«And each one of them will come to Him on the Day of Resurrection all alone» that is, with no children, no wealth and no supporters; he will have nothing with him except his deeds. Then Allah will requite him and settle his account in full; if it is good, then the outcome will be good and if it is bad, then the outcome will be bad, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«Now you have come to Us alone, as We created you the first time...»
(al-An'am 6: 94)

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ سَيَجْعَلُ لَهُمُ الرَّحْمَنُ وُدًّا ۝٩٦﴾

(سورة مريم: ٩٦)

19:96. Verily those who believe and do righteous deeds, the Most Gracious will endear them [to His creation].

This is one of Allah's blessings to His slaves who combine faith and righteous deeds: He has promised that He will endear them and make them beloved to His close friends and to the inhabitants of heaven and earth, and, once people have love for them, many things will become easy for them and they will attain good things, people will pray for them, they will be guided, they will be well accepted among people and may attain positions of leadership. Therefore in the ṣaḥeeh hadith it says:

«Verily when Allah loves a person, He calls out to Jibreel: Verily I love So-and-so, so love him. So Jibreel loves him, then he calls out to the inhabitants of heaven: Verily Allah loves So-and-so, so love him. So the inhabitants of heaven love him, and he will be accepted on earth.» (Bukhari)

Allah only endears them to His creation because they loved Him, so He endears them to His close friends and loved ones.

﴿فَإِنَّمَا يَسَّرْنَاهُ بِلِسَانِكَ لِتُبَشِّرَ بِهِ الْمُتَّقِينَ وَتُنذِرَ بِهِ قَوْمًا لَّدَا ۝٩٧ وَكَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِّن قَرْنٍ هَلْ يُحِصُّ مِنْهُمْ مِّنْ أَحَدٍ أَوْ تَسْمَعُ لَهُمْ رِكْزًا ۝٩٨﴾

(سورة مريم: ٩٧-٩٨)

- 19:97. We have made this [Qur'an] easy, in your own language, only so that you [O Muhammad] may give glad tidings to those who fear Allah, and warn thereby contentious people.
- 19:98. How many nations We destroyed before them! Do you see any one of them or hear even a whisper of them?

Here Allah tells us of His blessing and that He has made this Holy Qur'an easy on the lips of the Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ). He has made its words easy and its meanings easy to understand, so as to achieve the purpose behind it and so that people may benefit from it.

«only so that you [O Muhammad] may give glad tidings to those who fear Allah» by mentioning the reward in this world and the hereafter by way of encouragement, and mentioning the means that lead to attaining these glad tidings.

«and warn thereby contentious people» that is, those who are extreme in their support of falsehood and are stubborn in their disbelief. So you are to warn them so that proof will be established against them and the right way will become clear to them, so that those who choose to perish (by choosing disbelief) might do so after seeing clear evidence, and those who choose to live (by choosing faith) might do so after seeing clear evidence (cf. 8: 42). Then Allah warns them by mentioning the destruction of the disbelievers who came before them, as He says:

«How many nations We destroyed before them!» namely the people of Nooh, 'Âd, Thamood, Pharaoh and other stubborn disbelievers. Because they persisted in their transgression, Allah destroyed them and left no trace of them.

«Do you see any one of them or hear even a whisper of them?» A whisper is a soft voice. In other words, no trace is left of them; rather all that is left is their stories, as a lesson to those who will pay heed.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat Maryam.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

20. Soorat Tâ Hâ

(Makki)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿طه﴾ مَا أَنزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْقُرْآنَ لِتَشْقَى ﴿٢﴾ إِلَّا تَذِكْرَةً لِّمَن يَخْشَى ﴿٣﴾ تَنزِيلًا مِّمَّنْ خَلَقَ الْأَرْضَ وَالسَّمَوَاتِ الْعُلَى ﴿٤﴾ الرَّحْمَنُ عَلَى الْعَرْشِ اسْتَوَى ﴿٥﴾ لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا وَمَا تَحْتَ الثَّرَى ﴿٦﴾ وَإِنْ يُجْهَرُ بِالْقَوْلِ فَإِنَّهُ يَعْلَمُ السِّرَّ وَأَخْفَى ﴿٧﴾ اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ لَهُ الْأَسْمَاءُ الْحُسْنَى ﴿٨﴾ (سورة طه: ١-٨)

20:1. Tâ'-Hâ'.<sup>15</sup>

20:2. We have not sent down the Qur'an to cause you distress,

20:3. But only as a reminder for those who fear Allah,

20:4. A revelation from the One Who created the earth and the heavens on high.

<sup>15</sup> Groups of letters (al-ḥuroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

- 20:5. The Most Gracious rose over the Throne [in a manner that befits His Majesty].
- 20:6. To Him belongs all that is in the heavens and on earth, and all that is between them, and all that lies beneath the soil.
- 20:7. If you raise your voice [in supplication – there is no need for that], for He knows what is said privately and that which is yet more hidden [of unspoken thoughts].
- 20:8. Allah: there is no god but He; to Him belong the most beautiful names.

---

«Tâ'-Hâ'» these are among the groups of letters with which many chapters begin; it is not one of the names of the Prophet (ﷺ).

«We have not sent down the Qur'an to cause you distress» that is, the purpose behind the revelation, the sending down of the Qur'an to you and the prescription of laws is not to cause you distress, or to cause undue hardship, or to make it too difficult for people to comply with the laws and teachings. Rather the revelation, the Qur'an and the laws have all been prescribed by the Most Merciful, the Most Gracious, and He has made them a means of attaining happiness, prosperity and success. He has made it very easy and has caused it to offer nourishment for hearts and souls and to be a source of physical well-being. Thus people who are possessed of sound reasoning and sound human nature accept it and submit, because they know what it contains of goodness in this world and the hereafter. Hence Allah says:

«But only as a reminder for those who fear Allah» so that the one who fears Allah (ﷻ) will be admonished by it, so he will be reminded by what it contains of encouragement and inspiration to pursue the most sublime of aims, and he will strive to attain that, and by what it contains of warnings against the path of misery and loss, so he will take precautions against it. He will also come to know in detail the beauty of some shar'i rulings, of which he was aware in general terms, and the explanation and details in the Qur'an will be in harmony with what he finds in his own sound nature and rational thinking. Hence Allah calls it ﴿a reminder﴾.

The reminder points to something that is already there, but one is not paying attention to it and is not aware of its details. The Qur'an is a reminder exclusively for ﴿those who fear Allah﴾, because others do not benefit from it. How can someone benefit from it who does not believe in paradise or hell, and in whose heart there is not even an atom's weight of fear of Allah? That is not possible.

﴿The one who fears Allah will pay heed while the wretched one will avoid it, the one who will enter the great fire.﴾ (al-A'la 87: 10-12)

Then Allah mentions the greatness of this magnificent Qur'an and tells us that it is a revelation from the Creator of the earth and the heavens, the One Who is in control of all created things, so accept His revelation with the utmost submission, love and surrender, and venerate it and show it the utmost respect.

﴿The Most Gracious rose over the Throne [in a manner that befits His Majesty]﴾ which is the most sublime, greatest and vastest of all created things. He (rose over) it in a manner that befits His Majesty and is appropriate to His greatness and beauty. He rose over the Throne, and everything is subject to His dominion.

﴿To Him belongs all that is in the heavens and on earth, and all that is between them﴾ such as angels, humans, jinn, animals, inanimate objects and plants.

﴿and all that lies beneath the soil﴾ that is, beneath the ground. Everything belongs to Allah (ﷻ) and is under His control, subject to His decree. They have no share in dominion, and they do not possess the power to benefit themselves or ward off harm, and they have no power to give life, cause death or bring about resurrection.

﴿If you raise your voice [in supplication – there is no need for that], for He knows what is said privately﴾ that is, secret words ﴿and that which is yet more hidden [of unspoken thoughts]﴾ that is, secrets in the heart, of which one has not spoken. Or this verse may refer to the secrets of that which crosses one's mind ﴿and that which is yet more hidden﴾ of thoughts that have not yet crossed the mind; Allah (ﷻ) knows when and how they will do so.

What is meant is that His knowledge encompasses all things, minor and major, hidden and obvious, whether they are spoken out loud or not. They are all the same in terms of His knowledge.

Having confirmed His absolute perfection on the basis that He is the Creator of all things, to Him belong the power of command and prohibition, His mercy encompasses all, His might is immense, He is above His Throne, His dominion is all-encompassing and His knowledge encompasses all things, the conclusion of all that is that He alone is deserving of worship and that worship of Him is the truth that is dictated by religious teaching, rational thinking and sound human nature, and the worship of anything other than Him is false. Hence He says:

﴿Allah: there is no god but He﴾ that is, there is none deserving of worship, devotion, love, humility, fear, hope and supplication except Him.

﴿to Him belong the most beautiful names﴾ that is, to Him belong many perfect and beautiful names. Part of their beauty is that they are names that inspire praise; there is no name among them that is not indicative of praise. Another aspect of their beauty is that they are not mere names; rather they are names and attributes. Moreover, they point to the perfect attributes of Allah, and indicate that to Him belong all attributes of perfection, in the most comprehensive and sublime sense. Allah has enjoined His slaves to call upon Him by these beautiful names, because they are means of drawing close to Him that He loves, and He loves those who love these names; He loves those who memorise them, look for their meanings and worship Him through these names. Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿To Allah belong the most beautiful names, so call on Him by them...﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 180)

﴿وَهَلْ أَتَاكَ حَدِيثُ مُوسَى ۖ إِذْ رَأَىٰ نَارًا فَقَالَ لِأَهْلِهِ امْكُثُوا إِنِّي آنَسْتُ نَارًا
لَّعَلِّي آتِيكُم مِّنْهَا بِقَبَسٍ أَوْ أَجْدُ عَلَى النَّارِ هُدًى ۖ فَلَمَّا أَنهَا تُودِي بِمُوسَى ۖ إِنِّي
أَنَا رَبُّكَ فَاخْلَعْ نَعْلَيْكَ ۚ إِنَّكَ بِالْوَادِ الْمُقَدَّسِ طُوًى﴾ (سورة طه: ٩-١٢)

20:9. Has there come to you the story of Moosâ?

20:10. He saw a fire, so he said to his family: Wait here, for I can see a fire. Perhaps I can bring you a burning brand from it, or find some guidance<sup>16</sup> at the fire.

20:11. When he came to it, he was called: O Moosâ!

20:12. Verily I am your Lord. So take off your sandals, for you are in the sacred valley of Tûwâ.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ): ﴿Has there come to you the story of Moosâ?﴾ This appears in the form of a question, by way of highlighting the significance of the story. This passage tells of the beginning of Moosâ's blessed prophethood. He saw a fire from afar, when he had lost his way and was very cold, and had no means of warming himself as he travelled.

﴿so he said to his family: Wait here, for I can see a fire﴾. That was on the right-hand side of the mountain.

﴿Perhaps I can bring you a burning brand from it﴾ so that you can warm yourselves with it

﴿or find some guidance at the fire﴾ that is, someone who can show me the way. What he was looking for was physical fire and guidance in the sense of directions, but he found spiritual light there, the light of revelation that illuminates hearts and souls, and he found true guidance, guidance to the straight path that leads to paradise. What happened to him there was something that he did not expect and that had never crossed his mind.

<sup>16</sup> This refers to help and directions, because they had lost their way.

«When he came to it» that is, to the fire that he had seen from afar. It was in fact light, which is fire that burns and shines. This is indicated by the fact that the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

«His (Allah's) veil is light or fire; if it were lifted, the light of His Countenance would burn everything as far as He sees.» (Muslim)

When Moosâ reached the fire, he was called from it; that is, Allah called him, as He says elsewhere:

«We called him from the right-hand side of the mountain and We honoured him by conversing with him in private.» (Maryam 19: 52)

«Verily I am your Lord. So take off your sandals, for you are in the sacred valley of Ṭuwâ». And He instructed him to prepare himself to speak with Him, to pay attention to that preparation, and to take off his sandals, for he was in the venerated and sacred valley. The fact that Allah had chosen to speak to Moosâ in that place is sufficient for it to be regarded as sacred.

Many of the commentators said that Allah instructed him to take off his sandals because they were made from donkey skin. Allah knows best about that.

﴿وَأَنَا اخْتَرْتُكَ فَاسْتَمِعْ لِمَا يُوحَىٰ (١٣) إِنَّنِي أَنَا اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنَا فَاعْبُدْنِي وَأَقِمِ الصَّلَاةَ لِذِكْرِي (١٤) إِنَّ السَّاعَةَ ءَانِيَةٌ أَكَادُ أَخْفِيهَا لِتُجْزَىٰ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا سَعَىٰ (١٥) فَلَا يَصُدُّكَ عَنْهَا مَنْ لَا يُؤْمِنُ بِهَا وَاتَّبَعَ هَوَاهُ فَتَرْدَىٰ (١٦)﴾ (سورة طه: ١٣-١٦)

20:13. I have chosen you, so listen to what will be revealed.

20:14. Verily, I am Allah; there is no god but Me. So worship Me [alone] and establish prayer to remember Me.

20:15. For verily the Hour is coming, but My will is to keep it hidden so that every soul will be required for its endeavours.

20:16. So do not let anyone distract you from it who does not believe in it and follows his own desires, lest you perish.

That is, I have chosen you and selected you from among the people. This was the greatest blessing and favour that Allah bestowed upon him, which required appropriate gratitude. Hence Allah said: ﴿so listen to what will be revealed﴾ that is, listen attentively to what I shall reveal to you, for it is deserving of that, as it is fundamental to the religion and is the starting point thereof, and it is the foundation of the Islamic message.

Then He began that revelation by saying: ﴿Verily, I am Allah; there is no god but Me﴾ that is, Allah alone is deserving of the quality of divinity, because He is perfect in His names and attributes, and His deeds are done by Him alone; He has no partner, no equal, no peer and none is like unto Him.

﴿So worship Me [alone]﴾ – this refers to all kinds of worship, both apparent and hidden, obligatory and supererogatory. Then He singles out prayer for mention – although it is included under the heading of worship – because of its virtue and high status, and because it is an act of worship that involves the heart, tongue and physical faculties. ﴿to remember Me﴾ that is, establish prayer so that you may remember Me, because remembrance of Allah (ﷻ) is one of the most sublime of aims, for it is the worship of the heart through which the heart attains tranquillity. The heart that is devoid of remembrance of Allah is devoid of all good, and is utterly ruined. Allah prescribed for His slaves types of worship, the main aim of which is to remember Him, especially prayer.

Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Recite what has been revealed to you [O Muhammad] of the Book, and establish prayer, for verily prayer keeps [one] away from obscenity and wickedness. And indeed your remembering Allah [in prayer] is of greater merit...﴾ (al-‘Ankaboot 29: 45)

That is, what the prayer contains of remembrance of Allah is greater than what it restrains one from of shameful and evil acts. This is called oneness of divinity (tawḥeed al-uloohiyah) and oneness of worship (tawḥeed al-‘ibâdah); divinity is the attribute of Allah (ﷻ) and servitude is the attribute of His slave.

﴿For verily the Hour is coming﴾ that is, it will inevitably come to pass

﴿but My will is to keep it hidden﴾. Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿The people ask you about the Hour. Say: The knowledge thereof is with Allah [alone]...﴾ (al-Aḥzâb 33: 63)

– and:

﴿...He alone has knowledge of the Hour...﴾ (az-Zukhruf 43: 85)

He has concealed knowledge of it from all of His creation, so no angel who is close to Him and no Prophet who was sent has any knowledge of it.

The wisdom behind the Hour is ﴿so that every soul will be requited for its endeavours﴾, be they good or evil; the Hour is the gateway to the realm of requital.

﴿...so He will requite those who do evil for their deeds, and He will reward those who do good with the best reward.﴾ (an-Najm 53: 31)

﴿So do not let anyone distract you from it who does not believe in it and follows his own desires, lest you perish﴾ that is, do not let anyone bar you or distract you from believing in the Hour and the recompense, and striving for that. Whoever does not believe in it and does not believe that it will come to pass, and he strives to create doubts about it and make others doubt, arguing about it on the basis of falsehood and doing his best to come up with specious arguments to prove that it will not happen, following his whims and desires, his aim is not to find out the truth; rather all he wants to do is follow his whims and desires. So beware of listening to anyone who is like that, or accepting anything he says or does that distracts one from believing in it and striving for it.

Allah (ﷻ) only warned against people who are like this because their influence and misleading thoughts represent the thing that may most be feared for the believer, for people are naturally inclined to follow their peers. This highlights the warning against every caller to falsehood who bars the way to obligatory belief or perfection thereof, or creates doubts in the heart. It is also a warning against reading books that may contain such specious arguments. Allah mentions in this context belief in Him, worshipping Him and believing in the Last Day, because these three matters are the fundamentals of faith and the foundation of the religion. If they are complete, one's religious commitment will be complete, and any shortcoming or absence of religious commitment is due to the lack of these things in part or in whole. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the criterion that shows us who is blessed and who is doomed:

«Those who believe [in the Prophet], and those who are Jews, and the Sabians and the Christians, whoever [among them] believed in Allah and the Last Day, and did righteous deeds, will have no fear, nor will they grieve.» (al-Mā'idah 5: 69)

«lest you perish» that is, be doomed and wretched, if you follow the path of those who distract you (from the path of truth).

﴿وَمَا تِلْكَ يَمِينُكَ يَمْوَسَىٰ ۖ﴾ (١٧) قَالَ هِيَ عَصَايَ أَتَوَكَّؤُا عَلَيْهَا وَاهْتَسِبُ بِهَا عَلَىٰ غَنَمِي وَلِي فِيهَا مَنَازِبٌ أُخْرَىٰ ۚ﴾ (١٨) قَالَ أَلْقَهَا يَمْوَسَىٰ ۖ﴾ (١٩) فَأَلْقَهَا فَلَمَّا رَأَىٰ حَيْثُ تَسَعَىٰ (٢٠) قَالَ خُذْهَا وَلَا تَخَفْ سَنُعِيدُهَا سِيرَتَهَا الْأُولَىٰ (٢١) وَاضْمُمْ يَدَكَ إِلَىٰ جَنَاحِكَ تَخْرُجَ بَيْضَاءَ مِنْ غَيْرِ سُوءٍ ؕ آيَةٌ أُخْرَىٰ ۚ﴾ (٢٢) لِنُزِيلِكَ مِنَ الْكِتَابِ

﴿(سورة طه: ١٧-٢٣)﴾

- 20:17. And what is that in your right hand, O Moosâ?
- 20:18. He said: It is my staff; I lean on it, and with it I beat down leaves to feed my sheep, and I have other uses for it.
- 20:19. Allah said: Throw it down, O Moosâ.
- 20:20. So he threw it down, and thereupon it became a fast-moving snake.
- 20:21. Allah said: Pick it up, and do not be afraid. We will restore it to its former state.
- 20:22. Put your hand under your arm; it will come forth shining white, without harm, as another sign,
- 20:23. So that We may show you some of Our greatest signs.

Having explained the fundamentals of faith Allah then wanted to show him some of His signs, so as to give him a sense of reassurance and ease, and so as to strengthen his faith in the support of Allah against his enemy. So He said:

﴿And what is that in your right hand, O Moosâ?﴾ Although He knew it, He said this in this situation to make him more alert and focused. This is why these words came in the form of a question.

Moosâ said: ﴿It is my staff; I lean on it, and with it I beat down leaves to feed my sheep﴾. He mentioned these two uses for it, one of which is beneficial to humans, as he leaned on it when he was standing and walking, thus it was a kind of help to him. The second use was beneficial to animals, as he used to tend sheep, and when he tended them among the trees, he would use the staff to strike the trees and make the leaves fall, so that the sheep could eat them.

This was a good attitude on the part of Moosâ (ﷺ); his good care for and kindness towards animals were indicative of Allah's care for him and choosing him. This was a sign of Allah's mercy and wisdom.

﴿and I have other uses for it﴾ besides these two.

Another aspect of the etiquette of Moosâ (ﷺ) is that when Allah asked him about what he had in his right hand, the question could have been about what it was or what it was for, and he gave answers for both.

Then Allah said to him: ﴿Throw it down, O Moosâ. So he threw it down, and thereupon it became a fast-moving snake﴾. By Allah's leave, it turned into a big snake, so Moosâ turned and fled in fear, without a backward glance. The description of it as a fast-moving snake serves to remove any thought that that one may have of it being a mere illusion that was not real. The fact that it was fast-moving dispels this notion.

Then Allah said to Moosâ: ﴿Pick it up, and do not be afraid﴾ that is, no harm will come to you from it.

﴿We will restore it to its former state﴾ that is, as it was when it was a staff. Moosâ obeyed the command of Allah, out of faith and submission. So he picked it up and it turned back into his staff as he knew it. This was one sign, then Allah mentioned the other sign; He said:

﴿Put your hand under your arm﴾ that is, put your hand into your garment, then press your arm against it.

﴿it will come forth shining white, without harm﴾ that is, it will come out shining white, with no disease or leprosy, ﴿as another sign﴾. Allah says elsewhere:

﴿...These are two proofs from your Lord to Pharaoh and his chiefs, for they are indeed a rebellious and wicked people.﴾ (al-Qaṣaṣ 28: 32)

﴿So that We may show you some of Our greatest signs﴾ that is, We did what We mentioned, of turning the staff into a fast-moving snake and bringing forth the hand shining white for the onlookers, so that We might show you some of Our greatest signs that point to the veracity of your message and the reality of that which you have brought, so that you might be reassured and increase in knowledge, and so that you might trust the promise of Allah to protect and support you, and so that you might be proof and evidence for those to whom you are sent.

﴿ اذْهَبْ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ إِنَّهُ طَغَىٰ ﴿٢٤﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ اشْرَحْ لِي صَدْرِي ﴿٢٥﴾ وَيَسِّرْ لِي أَمْرِي ﴿٢٦﴾
وَأَحْلِلْ غَدَاةً مِن لِّسَانِي ﴿٢٧﴾ يَقْفَهُوا قَوْلِي ﴿٢٨﴾ وَأَجْعَلْ لِّي وَزِيرًا مِّنْ أَهْلِي ﴿٢٩﴾ هَٰزُونًا أَخِي ﴿٣٠﴾
أَشَدُّ بِهِ أَزْرَىٰ ﴿٣١﴾ وَأَشْرِكُمْ فِي أَمْرِي ﴿٣٢﴾ كَيْ نُنْجِيكَ كَثِيرًا ﴿٣٣﴾ وَنَذْرُكَ كَثِيرًا ﴿٣٤﴾
إِنَّكَ كُنتَ بِنَا بَصِيرًا ﴿٣٥﴾ ۞ (سورة طه: ٢٤-٣٦)

20:24. Go to Pharaoh, for he has indeed transgressed all bounds.

20:25. Moosâ said: My Lord, fill my heart with courage and steadfastness,

20:26. and make my task easy for me,

20:27. And remove the impediment from my speech,

20:28. so that they will understand what I say.

20:29. And appoint for me a helper from my family,

20:30. Hâroon, my brother.

20:31. Strengthen me through him,

20:32. and let him share in my task,

20:33. So that we may glorify You much

20:34. And remember You much.

20:35. For verily You are well aware of our situation.

20:36. Allah said: You are granted your request, O Moosâ.

When Allah had sent revelation to Moosâ, appointed him as a Prophet and showed him clear signs, He sent him to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, saying:

﴿Go to Pharaoh, for he has indeed transgressed all bounds﴾ that is, he has rebelled and gone too far in disbelief, mischief, arrogance in the land and suppressing the weak, to the point that he claimed to be divine – may Allah curse him. In other words, his transgression was the cause of his doom. But by His mercy and wisdom, Allah does not punish anyone until after He has established proof by sending His Messenger. At that point Moosâ (ﷺ) realised that he had been given a heavy burden of responsibility, as he was being sent to this stubborn tyrant who had no one to contest his power in Egypt. Moosâ was just one man, and he had previously committed that offence of killing the Egyptian. He obeyed the command of his Lord and accepted it wholeheartedly, but he asked for help and for the means that were necessary for fulfilment of his mission to be made easily available to him. So he said:

﴿My Lord, fill my heart with courage and steadfastness﴾ so that I may bear with patience any offence in word and deed, and I will not be distressed by that or feel anxious. For if a person feels distressed and anxious, he will not be fit to call people to guidance. Allah said to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ):

﴿It is by the mercy of Allah that you deal gently with them. If you had been harsh or hard-hearted, they would have dispersed from around you...﴾ (Āl 'Imrân 3: 159)

People may be more receptive to the truth if the caller has a kind attitude, is steadfast and has an easy manner with people.

﴿and make my task easy for me﴾ that is, make easy for me every path I take and every aim I pursue for Your sake, and make bearable for me all the hardships that lie ahead of me. Part of making his task easy is guiding the caller to handle matters in an appropriate manner and to speak to each person in the way that is appropriate for him, using the approach that will make the message more easily accepted.

﴿And remove the impediment from my speech, so that they will understand what I say﴾. He had a speech impediment which made his words barely comprehensible, as the commentators said, and as Allah tells us elsewhere that he said:

﴿My brother Hâroon is clearer in speech than I...﴾ (al-Qaşaş 28: 34)

So he asked Allah to remove the impediment so that they would understand what he said, and so as to achieve more fully the purpose of speaking, talking, discussing and explaining meanings.

﴿And appoint for me a helper from my family﴾ that is, someone to aid me, support me and help me with the people to whom You have sent me. He asked for this helper to be from his family, by way of being kind; those who are more deserving of a person's kindness are his relatives. Then he specified the person for whom he was asking, as he said: ﴿Hâroon, my brother. Strengthen me through him﴾ that is, make me stronger and support me through him. Allah said:

﴿...We will strengthen you through your brother, and give you both power...﴾ (al-Qaşaş 28: 35)

﴿and let him share in my task﴾ that is, in prophethood, by making him a Prophet and a Messenger, as You did for me.

Then he mentioned the benefit of that: ﴿So that we may glorify You much and remember You much﴾. Moosâ (ﷺ) understood that the aim of all acts of worship and the foundation of religion is to remember Allah, so he asked Allah to make his brother join him, so that they could help one another and cooperate with one another in righteousness and piety, and thus be able to remember Allah a great deal, by glorifying Him, proclaiming His oneness and doing other kinds of acts of worship.

﴿For verily You are well aware of our situation﴾ that is, You know our situation, our weakness, our helplessness and our need for You in all our affairs; You know us better than we know ourselves and You are more merciful towards us, so bless us with what we have asked for and answer our prayer.

Allah said: ﴿You are granted your request, O Moosâ﴾ that is, you are given all that you asked for, so We will fill your heart with courage and steadfastness, and We will make your task easy for you, and We will remove the impediment from your speech so that they will understand what you say, and We will strengthen you through your brother Hâroon, and We will:

﴿...give you both power, so that they will not be able to harm you. By virtue of Our signs, you two and those who follow you will be triumphant.﴾ (al-Qaṣaṣ 28: 35)

This request of Moosâ (ﷺ) is indicative of his perfect knowledge of Allah, his smartness and understanding of how things work, and his complete sincerity. That is because the one who seeks to guide people to Allah, especially if the one he is calling is a stubborn and arrogant transgressor, needs patience and perfect forbearance so that he will bear with steadfastness the offences with which he will be faced; it also requires eloquence so that he will be able to express clearly what he wants and is aiming for.

Indeed, the ability to speak clearly and eloquently is one of the most important requirements for someone in this position, because there will be a lot of talk and discussions. Moreover, he needs to be able to present the truth in the most attractive way he can, so as to endear the truth to people, and to present falsehood as repulsive and vile, so that people will be put off by it.

In addition to that, he also needs his task to be made easy for him, so that he will be able to have the right approach and call people to the path of Allah with wisdom and beautiful preaching, debating with them in a way that is better and dealing with each person according to his situation. In order to perfect his efforts, the one who undertakes this task needs helpers and advisers to help him to achieve his aims, because when more than one voice is calling, that will inevitably have a greater impact. Therefore Moosâ (ﷺ) asked for these things, and they were granted to him.

If you look at the stories of the Prophets who were sent to people, you will see that they were all like this, each according to his situation, especially the final and best of the Messengers, namely Muhammad (ﷺ). He attained the best of every quality of perfection: he was patient and steadfast, his task was made easy for him, he was eloquent and well spoken, and he had Companions who helped him in support of the truth, such as no other Prophet had.

وَلَقَدْ مَنَّا عَلَيْكَ مَرَّةً أُخْرَىٰ ﴿٣٧﴾ إِذْ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ أُمِّكَ مَا يُوحَىٰ ﴿٣٨﴾ أَنْ اقْذِفِيهِ فِي
التَّابُوتِ فَاقْذِفِيهِ فِي الْيَمِّ فَلْيُلْقِهِ الْيَمُّ بِالسَّاحِلِ يَأْخُذْهُ عَدُوٌّ لِّي وَعَدُوٌّ لَّهُ. وَأَلْقَيْتُ عَلَيْكَ
مَحَبَّةً مِنِّي وَلِتُصْنَعَ عَلَىٰ عَيْنِي ﴿٣٩﴾ إِذْ تَمْشِي أُخْتُكَ فَتَقُولُ هَلْ أَدُلُّكُمْ عَلَىٰ مَن يَكْفُلُهُ.
فَرَجَعْنَاكَ إِلَىٰ أُمِّكَ كَيْ تَقَرَّ عَيْنُهَا وَلَا تَحْزَنَ ۚ وَقَلَّتَ نَفْسًا فَجَنَيْنَاكَ مِنَ الْغَمِّ وَفَنَّاكَ
فُتُونًا فَلَمَّ بَتَ سَيْنٍ فِي أَهْلِ مَدْيَنَ ثُمَّ جِئْتَ عَلَىٰ قَدَرٍ يَمْوَسَّىٰ ﴿٤٠﴾ وَأَصْطَفَيْنَاكَ لِنُقْسِي
(سورة طه: ٣٧-٤١)

20:37. And indeed We bestowed Our favour upon you previously

20:38. When We inspired your mother, saying:

20:39. Place him [the infant Moosâ] in the box, and throw it into the river; the river will cast him up onto the bank, and one who is an enemy to Me and an enemy to him will pick him up. I bestowed on you love from Me [and endeared you to people], so that you might be raised under My watchful eye.

20:40. Then your sister went out [looking for you] and said [to Pharaoh's people]: Shall I show you someone who can take care of him [the child]? Thus We returned you to your mother, so that she might be comforted and not grieve. Then you killed a man, but We saved you from distress and fear, and We tested you with various trials. You stayed among the people of Madyan for many years, then you came here at the time ordained, O Moosâ.

20:41. I have chosen you for Myself [to convey My message].

Having mentioned His blessings to His slave and Messenger Moosâ ibn 'Imrân, whereby He endowed him with religious commitment, revelation and the message, and answered his request, Allah now tells us of the blessings that He bestowed upon him during his childhood and the different stages he went through.

﴿And indeed We bestowed Our favour upon you previously﴾ when We inspired your mother to put you in the box, when you were an infant, out of fear of Pharaoh, because he had issued orders to slaughter the sons of the Israelites. So his mother hid him and feared greatly for him. She placed him in the box, then threw it into the river – namely the Nile in Egypt. Allah commanded the river to cast him up onto the bank, and decreed that he should be taken by the most hostile of the enemies of Allah and of Moosâ, and be brought up among his children and be endeared to everyone who saw him.

Hence Allah says: ﴿I bestowed on you love from Me﴾ therefore everyone who saw him loved him ﴿so that you might be raised under My watchful eye﴾ and grow up under My care and protection. What care could be greater and more perfect than the care of the Beneficent, Most Merciful, Who is able to care for His slave in all aspects and ward off all harm from him? He did not move from one stage to another but it was Allah (ﷻ) Who arranged that in the best interests of Moosâ.

One aspect of His good care was that when Moosâ fell into the clutches of his enemy, his mother became very anxious and was so distressed that she almost spoke up about him, except that Allah made her steadfast and strengthened her heart.

In this situation, Allah caused Moosâ to refuse all wet-nurses, and he refused to breastfeed from any woman, so that he would end up with his mother, who would breastfeed him, and she would be reassured and comforted. They brought various wet-nurses to him, but he did not accept any of them. Then the sister of Moosâ came and said:

﴿...Shall I direct you to a household who will bring him up for you and take good care of him?﴾ (al-Qaṣaṣ 28: 12)

﴿Thus We returned you to your mother, so that she might be comforted and not grieve. Then you killed a man﴾ who was the Egyptian. When Moosâ entered the city at a time when he would not be noticed by its people, he found two men fighting, one from his own people and the other from among his enemies, an Egyptian.

﴿...The man from among his own people called him to help him against his enemy, so Moosâ struck him with his fist and killed him...﴾ (al-Qaṣaṣ 28: 15)

Moosâ prayed to Allah and asked Him for forgiveness, and He forgave him. Then he fled, when he heard that the chiefs were seeking him and wanted to kill him.

But Allah saved him ﴿from distress and fear﴾ of punishment for the offence, and He saved him from being killed.

﴿and We tested you with various trials﴾ that is, We tested and tried you, and We found you steadfast in all situations; or (it may mean that) We caused you to go from one stage to another, until We caused you to attain what you attained.

﴿You stayed among the people of Madyan for many years﴾ – when he fled from Pharaoh and his chiefs, at the time when they wanted to kill him, he headed towards Madyan. He got married there, and stayed there for ten or eight years,

﴿then you came here at the time ordained, O Moosâ﴾ that is, your coming was already decreed; Allah knew of it and wanted it to happen at this time and in this place. Your coming was not coincidental, without being intended on Our part; in fact it is in accordance with Our decree and is because We care for you. This is indicative of Allah's perfect care for Moosâ (ﷺ), hence He said:

﴿I have chosen you for Myself [to convey My message]﴾ and bestowed all kinds of favours and care upon you, so that you would be My beloved and reach a level that no one else reached except very few.

If a lover wants to choose a beloved from among other people and cause him to reach a level of perfection that he could reach, he strives very hard and does all he can to help him reach that level. So what do you think about the Lord Who is powerful and most generous, and what do you think He will do for the one whom He chose for Himself from among His creation?

﴿أَذْهَبَ أَنْتَ وَأَخُوكَ بِآيَاتِي وَلَا لَيْلِيَا فِي ذِكْرِي﴾ ﴿٤٢﴾ أَذْهَبَا إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ إِنَّهُ طَغَىٰ ﴿٤٣﴾ فَقُولَا لَهُ قَوْلًا لَّيِّنًا لَّعَلَّهُ يَتَذَكَّرُ أَوْ يَخْشَىٰ ﴿٤٤﴾ فَلَا رَيْبَ إِنَّنَا خَافُ أَنْ يَفْرُطَ عَلَيْنَا أَوْ أَنْ يَطْغَىٰ ﴿٤٥﴾ قَالَ لَا تَخَافَا إِنِّي مَعَكُمَا أَسْمَعُ وَأَرَىٰ ﴿٤٦﴾ (سورة طه: ٤٢-٤٦)

- 20:42. Go, you and your brother, with My signs, and do not be negligent in remembering Me.
- 20:43. Go, both of you, to Pharaoh, for he has indeed transgressed all bounds.
- 20:44. But speak to him gently, so that perhaps he may pay heed or fear Allah.
- 20:45. They [Moosâ and Hâroon] said: Our Lord, we fear that he may hasten to punish us or transgress all bounds.
- 20:46. Allah said: Fear not; verily I am with you both. I hear and see [everything].

When Allah bestowed blessings, both spiritual and worldly, upon Moosâ, He said to him:

﴿Go, you and your brother﴾ Hâroon ﴿with My signs﴾ that is, with the signs that are from Me, which point to the truth and the beauty thereof, and the abhorrent nature of falsehood, such as the hand, the staff and so on, nine signs to Pharaoh and his chiefs.

﴿and do not be negligent in remembering Me﴾ that is, do not falter or be weary of constantly remembering Me, and adhere to it as you promised, ﴿So that we may glorify You much and remember You much﴾ (20: 33-34), for remembering Allah helps in all things and makes them easier and lighter to bear.

﴿Go, both of you, to Pharaoh, for he has indeed transgressed all bounds﴾ that is, he has overstepped the mark in his disbelief, transgression, wrongdoing and enmity.

﴿But speak to him gently﴾ that is, kindly and politely, with nice words, without being coarse or harsh in speech, or behaving in a rough manner

﴿so that perhaps﴾, because of your gentle speech, ﴿he may pay heed﴾ to that which will benefit him, and so do it ﴿or fear Allah﴾ and avoid that which may harm him. For gentle speech calls to that, whereas harsh speech puts people off. Allah has explained gentle speech elsewhere, where He says:

﴿And say: Are you willing to be purified and for me to guide you to your Lord, so that you may come to fear Him?﴾ (an-Nāzi'āt 79: 18-19)

In such talk there is gentleness, ease and avoidance of harsh and ugly language, as is very clear. The fact that this is presented in the form of a question is suggestive of making an offer and discussing the matter in such a way that no one would be offended by it. It is inviting a person to purify himself and cleanse himself from impurity, which means ridding oneself of the ascription of partners to Allah, which anyone who is of sound mind would willingly accept. It does not say “I will purify you”; rather it says “Are you willing to be purified?”

This is followed by a call to the path of his Lord Who cares for him and bestows blessings upon him both visible and hidden, to which he should respond by giving thanks and mentioning them. Hence it says: ﴿and that I should guide you to your Lord, so that you fear [Him]?﴾. If he does not accept this gentle speech that is very beautiful and should have a great impact on his heart, then it is clear that no reminder will work with him, and he will be seized with the seizing of One Who is Almighty, Omnipotent.

«They [Moosâ and Hâroon] said: Our Lord, we fear that he may hasten to punish us» that is, he may hasten to punish us and hurt us before we can convey Your message to him and establish proof against him «or transgress all bounds» that is, rebel against the truth and transgress all bounds, because of what he has of dominion, power, troops and helpers.

«Allah said: Fear not» that he will hasten to punish you
«verily I am with you both. I hear and see [everything]» that is, you are under My protection and care; I hear all that you say and I see you in all situations, so do not be afraid of him. Thus that fear dissipated and their hearts were reassured by the promise of their Lord.

﴿فَأَنبَاهُ فَقُولَا إِنَّا رَسُولَا رَبِّكَ فَأَرْسِلْ مَعَنَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ وَلَا تَغْلِبْهُمْ قَدْ جِئْنَاكَ بِآيَةٍ مِّن رَّبِّكَ وَالسَّلَامُ عَلٰى مَن اتَّبَعَ الْهُدٰى ﴿٤٧﴾ إِنَّا قَدْ أُوحِىَ إِلَيْنَا أَنَّ الْعَذَابَ عَلَىٰ مَن كَذَّبَ وَتَوَلٰى ﴿٤٨﴾﴾ (سورة طه: ٤٧-٤٨)

20:47. So go, both of you, to him and say: We are both Messengers from your Lord. Let the Children of Israel go with us, and do not oppress them anymore. We have indeed brought you a sign from your Lord. Peace and safety will be the lot of those who follow true guidance.

20:48. Verily it has been revealed to us that the punishment will befall those who disbelieve and turn away.

That is, take these two matters, calling him to Islam and telling him to release these noble people, the Israelites, from oppression and enslavement, so that they may be free and have control over their own affairs, and Moosâ could rule them in accordance with the laws and religion of Allah.

﴿We have indeed brought you a sign from your Lord﴾ that is indicative of our truthfulness.

﴿So Moosâ threw down his staff, and suddenly it was a serpent, plain for all to see And he drew forth his hand, and it appeared shining white to all beholders.﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 107-108)

– and they brought other signs, which Allah has described in His Book.

﴿Peace and safety will be the lot of those who follow true guidance﴾ that is, those who follow the straight path and the clear teachings will attain safety and well-being in this world and the hereafter.

﴿Verily it has been revealed to us﴾ that is, it is news from Allah, not from ourselves

﴿that the punishment will befall those who disbelieve and turn away﴾ that is, those who reject what Allah says and what His Messengers say, and turn away from following them. This was encouraging Pharaoh to believe, accept and follow, and it was a warning against doing the opposite of that. But this exhortation and reminder was to no avail; Pharaoh denied his Lord and disbelieved, and he argued about that wrongfully and stubbornly.

﴿قَالَ فَمَنْ رَبُّكُمَا يٰمُوسَىٰ ۚ﴾ (٤٩) قَالَ رَبُّنَا الَّذِي أَعْطَىٰ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ خَلْقَهُ ثُمَّ هَدَىٰ ﴿٥٠﴾ قَالَ فَمَآ بَالُ الْقُرُونِ الْأُولَىٰ ﴿٥١﴾ قَالَ عَلِمَهَا عِنْدَ رَبِّي فِي كِتَابٍ لَا يَضِلُّ رَبِّي وَلَا يَنسَى ﴿٥٢﴾ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْأَرْضَ مَهْدًا وَسَلَكَ لَكُمْ فِيهَا سُبُلًا وَأَنزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَخْرَجْنَا بِهِ أَزْوَاجًا مِّن نَّبَاتٍ شَتَّىٰ ﴿٥٣﴾ كُلُوا وَارْعَوْا أَنْعَمَكُمُ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّأُولِي النُّهَىٰ ﴿٥٤﴾ ﴿مِنهَا خَلَقْنَكُمْ فِيهَا نُعِيدُكُمْ وَمِنْهَا نُخْرِجُكُمْ تَارَةً أُخْرَىٰ﴾ ﴿٥٥﴾ (سورة طه: ٤٩-٥٥)

20:49. Pharaoh said: So who is the Lord of you two, O Moosâ?

- 20:50. Moosâ said: Our Lord is He Who gave all things their form and nature, then guided them [as to how to function and yield the benefits for which they were created].
- 20:51. Pharaoh said: Then what about the previous nations [who worshipped idols]?
- 20:52. Moosâ said: The knowledge thereof is with my Lord, in a Record; my Lord never errs, nor forgets.
- 20:53. It is He Who has spread out the earth for you, traced out paths for you therein, and sent down water from the sky. By means of it We bring forth various different types of vegetation.
- 20:54. So eat, and graze your livestock. Surely in that there are signs for people of sound intellect.
- 20:55. From it [the earth] We created you, to it We will return you, and from it We will bring you forth once again.

---

Pharaoh said to Moosâ by way of denial: ﴿So who is the Lord of you two, O Moosâ?﴾. Moosâ gave a clear and full answer, saying: ﴿Our Lord is He Who gave all things their form and nature, then guided them [as to how to function and yield the benefits for which they were created]﴾ that is, our Lord is the One Who created all things, and gave each created thing its form and nature that befits it and is indicative of His perfect artistry in His creation, such as the size of its body, whether it is great or small or in between, and all its other attributes.

﴿then guided﴾ every created being to the purpose for which He created it. This guidance in general terms can be seen in all created things; hence you see every creature striving for the purpose for which it was created of attaining benefits and warding off harm, to the extent that Allah (ﷻ) has even given animals sufficient intelligence to be able to achieve that.

This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Who created all things well...﴾ (as-Sajdah 32: 7)

The One Who has created all things, and created them well, such that no one with any reason could think that there could be anything better than them in design, and He guided them to that which is in their best interests, is indeed the true Lord. Denying Him is denying the greatest of all that exists; in fact it is arrogance and a blatant lie. If man were to deny any known thing, whatever it may be, denial of the Lord of the worlds is far worse than that.

Therefore, when Pharaoh was not able to reject this definitive proof, he changed the topic in an attempt to distract from the issue. So he said to Moosâ:

﴿Then what about the previous nations [who worshipped idols]?﴾ That is, what happened to them and what is their news? What was their fate? They preceded us in denial, disbelief, wrongdoing and stubbornness, and we have an example in them.

Moosâ said: ﴿The knowledge thereof is with my Lord, in a Record; my Lord never errs, nor forgets﴾ that is, He has counted their deeds, both good and bad, and written them in a record, namely al-Lawh al-Mahfoodh. He has encompassed all that with His knowledge, and nothing of it will be lost, for He will not forget what He knows of that.

What this implies is that they have already passed away and seen the consequences of their deeds, and they will be requited for them, so there is no point in your asking about them, O Pharaoh. That is a nation which has (already) passed away; they will have what they earned and you will have what you earn. If the evidence that we have quoted to you and the signs that we have shown you are proven to be true and certain, which is indeed the case, then submit to the truth and give up disbelief, wrongdoing and excessive arguing on the basis of falsehood. If you are uncertain about it and you do not think that it is sound and correct, then the door is still open to debate it, so refute evidence with evidence, and proof with proof; but you will never be able to do so

How could he do that, especially as Allah has told us about him and how he rejected it even though he was convinced of it, as He said: ﴿They rejected the signs, although in their hearts they were certain that they were true, out of wickedness and arrogance...﴾ (an-Naml 27: 14)

And Moosâ said:

﴿... You know full well that none but the Lord of the heavens and the earth has sent down these [signs] as clear evidence...﴾ (al-Isrâ' 17: 102)

Thus we know that he was stubborn in his argument and his aim was to exalt himself in the land.

Then Moosâ elaborated on this definitive evidence by mentioning many of Allah's blessings and clear favours:

﴿It is He Who has spread out the earth for you﴾ that is, in such a way that you are able to dwell therein, settle, build, plant and till for agricultural purposes, and so on. Allah has prepared the earth so that it is possible to achieve all that, and He did not make it unsuitable for you in any way.

﴿traced out paths for you therein﴾ that is, He has laid down for you routes that lead you from one land to another, from one country to another, so that humans are able to reach anywhere on earth in the easiest way, and they benefit from travelling more than if they did not travel.

﴿and sent down water from the sky. By means of it We bring forth various different types of vegetation﴾ that is, He sends down the rain:

﴿... whereby He gives life to the earth after its death...﴾ (an-Nahl 16: 65)

– and brings forth thereby all kinds of plants with different qualities. He has made them all available to us, decreed that for us and made it easy for us, as provision for us and our livestock. Were it not for that, all who are on earth of humans and animals would die. Hence Allah says:

﴿So eat, and graze your livestock﴾ this is said in the context of Allah reminding people of His blessings. It may indicate that in principle all that grows from the ground is permissible, and nothing of that is prohibited except that which is proven to be harmful, such as poison and the like.

«Surely in that there are signs for people of sound intellect» that is, people with sound reasoning and right thinking, who contemplate Allah's blessings, kindness, mercy, immense generosity and perfect care; these signs indicate that He is the Lord Who is deserving of worship, the Sovereign Who is worthy of all praise; there is no one who deserves worship or praise except Him, the One Who bestows these blessings. He is able to do all things: just as He gives life to the earth after it was dead, He will also give life to the dead.

Allah singles out people of sound intellect here, because they are the ones who benefit from the signs and reflect on them. As for others, they are more akin to grazing animals, for they do not look at the signs and reflect upon them, and they do not think deeply in order to find the purpose behind them. Rather their share is that of animals that eat and drink whilst living a life of heedlessness, and they turn away from truth.

«How many are the signs in the heavens and the earth which they pass by without paying them any heed!» (Yoosuf 12: 105)

Having mentioned how generous the earth is, and how grateful it is for that which Allah sends down to it of rain, and that by its Lord's leave it produces plants of various kinds, Allah tells us here that He created us from it, and we will return to it when we die and are buried in it, and we will emerge from it once more. Just as He created us from it, when we had been nothing, and we know that and are certain of it, He will recreate us from it when He resurrects us from it after we have died, in order to requite us for the deeds that we did on it.

These two proofs for recreation are rational and clear: the bringing forth of plants from the earth after it was dead and the bringing forth of accountable people from it when they are recreated.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا ءَايَاتِنَا كُلَّهَا فَكَذَّبَ وَأَبَى ﴿٥٦﴾ قَالَ أَجِئْتَنَا لِتُخْرِجَنَا مِنْ أَرْضِنَا بِسِحْرِكَ يَمْوَسَى ﴿٥٧﴾ فَلَنَأْتِيَنَّكَ بِسِحْرٍ مِثْلِهِ ۚ فَاجْعَلْ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكَ مَوْعِدًا لَا تُخْلِفُهُ ۚ نَحْنُ وَلَا أَنْتَ مَكَنَا سُوًى ﴿٥٨﴾ قَالَ مَوْعِدُكُمْ يَوْمَ الزَّيْنَةِ وَأَنْ يُحَشِّرَ النَّاسُ ضُحًى ﴿٥٩﴾ فَتَوَلَّى فِرْعَوْنُ فَجَمَعَ كَيْدَهُ ثُمَّ أَتَى ﴿٦٠﴾ قَالَ لَهُمُ مُوسَى وَيْلَكُمْ لَا تَفْتَرُوا عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا فَيُسْحِتَكُمْ بِعَذَابٍ وَقَدْ خَابَ مَنْ افْتَرَى ﴿٦١﴾﴾ (سورة طه: ٥٦-٦١)

- 20:56. We showed Pharaoh all Our signs, but he rejected them and refused to believe in them.
- 20:57. He said: Have you come to drive us out of our land with your magic, O Moosâ?
- 20:58. Then we will surely produce for you magic to match it. So appoint a day when we and you may meet in a convenient place, an appointment which neither we nor you will fail to keep.
- 20:59. Moosâ said: Your appointment will be on the day of the festival; let the people assemble in the forenoon.
- 20:60. So Pharaoh withdrew and gathered his resources, then he came [for the appointment].
- 20:61. Moosâ said to them: Woe to you! Do not fabricate lies against Allah, lest He annihilate you with His punishment. Those who fabricate such lies are surely lost and doomed.

Here Allah tells (ﷻ) us that He showed Pharaoh signs, lessons and definitive proofs of all kinds, in the visible universe and in himself, but he did not pay heed or give up his evil ways; rather he rejected them and refused to believe.

He rejected what Moosâ told him, turned away from the commands and prohibitions, regarded truth as falsehood and falsehood as truth, and argued on the basis of falsehood so as to mislead people. He said:

«Have you come to drive us out of our land with your magic, O Moosâ?» He claimed that these signs that Moosâ showed him were no more than magic and illusions, the purpose of which was to drive them from their land, and take it over, so that his (Pharaoh's) words would have some impact on his people, for people are naturally inclined towards their homelands and it is difficult for them to leave them.

Pharaoh told them that this was Moosâ's aim so that they would hate him and strive to oppose him. It was as if he was saying to Moosâ: so we will bring you magic like your magic; give us some time, and «appoint a day when we and you may meet in a convenient place, an appointment which neither we nor you will fail to keep» that is, one that is convenient for us and for you. It may be that what is meant is: let us meet in a level place where everyone may see what is going on.

Moosâ said: «Your appointment will be on the day of the festival» which was a holiday on which they had no other business to attend to. «let the people assemble in the forenoon» that is, let them all gather in the forenoon. Moosâ requested that because the day of the festival and the forenoon of that day was a time when people usually gathered in large numbers and would be able to see things as they really were, in a manner that was not possible at other times.

«So Pharaoh withdrew and gathered his resources» that is, he gathered all that he was able to for this contest against Moosâ. He sent envoys to the cities to gather all the skilled magicians. Magic was widespread at that time, and knowledge thereof was something that was highly sought. So he gathered a large number of magicians, then both of them went to the appointed place at the appointed time, and the people also gathered for that occasion.

It was a huge gathering, attended by men and women, chiefs, nobles and commoners, young and old. The people were urged to attend, and it was said to the people:

«... Will you also gather, so that we may follow the magicians [in their religion], if they are the victors?» (ash-Shu'arâ' 26: 39-40)

When they had gathered from all cities, Moosâ (ﷺ) admonished them and said to them: ﴿Woe to you! Do not fabricate lies against Allah, lest He annihilate you with His punishment﴾ that is, do not support the falsehood that you follow by means of your magic and seek to defeat the truth, fabricating lies against Allah, lest He annihilate you with a punishment from Him, and your efforts and fabrications fail, then you will not attain what you seek of victory and high status with Pharaoh and his chiefs, nor will you be safe from the punishment of Allah.

Words of truth inevitably have an impact on people's hearts. It is no wonder that the disputes and arguments among the magicians stopped when they heard the words of Moosâ and felt alarmed. Perhaps some of what they argued about was their doubt concerning Moosâ: was he really following the truth or not? But until this point they had not reached an agreement, so that Allah might bring about what was already decreed, and:

﴿...so that those who chose to perish [by choosing disbelief] might do so after seeing clear evidence, and those who chose to live [by choosing faith] might do so after seeing clear evidence...﴾ (al-Anfâl 8: 42)

Then they conversed privately, and agreed on one view, so that they might succeed and so that the people would adhere to their religion.

Allah describes the private conversation that they had:

﴿فَنَنْزِعُوا أَمْرَهُم بَيْنَهُمْ وَأَسْرُوا النَّجْوَى ۖ ﴿٦٢﴾ قَالُوا إِنَّ هَذَانَ لَسَاحِرَيْنِ يُرِيدَانِ أَنْ يُخْرِجَاكُم مِّنْ أَرْضِكُمْ بِسِحْرِهِمَا وَيَذْهَبَا بِطَرِيقَتِكُمُ الْمُثْلَى ۖ ﴿٦٣﴾ فَأَجْمَعُوا كَيْدَكُمْ ثُمَّ أَتَوُا صَفًّا وَقَدْ أَفْلَحَ الْيَوْمَ مَنِ اسْتَعْلَى ۖ ﴿٦٤﴾﴾ (سورة طه: ٦٢-٦٤)

- 20:62. So they argued among themselves as to what they should do, and conferred in secret.
- 20:63. They said: Verily these two are magicians who want to drive you out of your land with their magic and put an end to your ideal way.
- 20:64. So consolidate your plan, then come forth in ranks. Whoever prevails today will indeed prosper.

---

﴿They said: Verily these two are magicians who want to drive you out of your land with their magic﴾ – this is like what Pharaoh had said previously. Either it was a coincidence that Pharaoh and the magicians agreed on this view, without intending to, or he had dictated to them what he had made his mind up about and had announced to the people. Then they added to what Pharaoh had said by saying: ﴿and put an end to your ideal way﴾ that is, the path of magic for which he envies you, and he wants to prevail over you so that he may attain pride, renown and fame, and so that he may be the one whom people seek in order to learn from him this knowledge to which you have devoted all your time, and take away from you the livelihood that you have because of it and the leadership that you have attained by means of it. Thus they encouraged one another to strive hard in order to defeat him. Therefore they said:

﴿So consolidate your plan﴾ and demonstrate what you can do in one go, supporting and helping one another, in harmony with one another and united.

﴿then come forth in ranks﴾ because that is more convenient for your performance and will create greater awe in people's hearts, and so that none of you will do less than he is able to do. You should know that whoever succeeds today and defeats the other will be the victor, triumphant, for this day will decide your future.

It is amazing how strong and tough they were in supporting falsehood, as they did not spare any effort or means, and they used every kind of plot and scheme against the truth. But Allah insisted that His light would be perfected and the truth would prevail. When their plans were complete and they had decided the goal they wanted to achieve, there was nothing left but to take action.

﴿قَالُوا يَمُوسَىٰ إِمَّا أَنْ تُلْقَىٰ وَإِمَّا أَنْ نَكُونَ أَوَّلَ مَنْ أَلْقَىٰ﴾ ٦٥ ﴿قَالَ بَلْ أَلْقُوا فَإِذَا جِأَهُمْ وَعَصِيَّتُهُمْ تُجِيلُ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ سِحْرِهِمْ أَنَّهُ تَسَعَىٰ﴾ ٦٦ ﴿فَأَوْجَسَ فِي نَفْسِهِ خِيفَةً مُوسَىٰ﴾ ٦٧ ﴿قُلْنَا لَا تَخَفْ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْأَعْلَىٰ﴾ ٦٨ ﴿وَأَلْقَىٰ مَا فِي يَمِينِكَ تَلَقَّفَ مَا صَنَعُوا إِنَّمَا صَنَعُوا كَيْدٌ سِحْرٍ وَلَا يُفْلِحُ السَّاحِرُ حَيْثُ أَتَىٰ﴾ ٦٩ ﴿(سورة طه: ٦٥-٦٩)﴾

- 20:65. They said: O Moosâ, either you throw or we will be the first to throw!
- 20:66. He said: No; you throw first. Thereupon their ropes and sticks appeared to him, by their magic, to be moving about.
- 20:67. Then Moosâ sensed fear in himself.
- 20:68. We said: Fear not, for verily it is you who will prevail.
- 20:69. Throw that which is in your right hand; it will swallow up what they have wrought. What they have wrought is no more than a magician's trick, and the magician will never prosper, no matter where he may be.

«They said: O Moosâ, either you throw» your staff «or we will be the first to throw». They gave him the choice, so as to give the impression that they were certain they would prevail over him, whatever the case.

Moosâ said: «No; you throw first». So they threw their ropes and sticks, and «Thereupon their ropes and sticks appeared to him» that is, to Moosâ

«by their magic» which was very skilful

«to be moving about» that is, they appeared to be fast-moving snakes. When it appeared thus to Moosâ, he «sensed fear in himself», as is human nature; otherwise he was certain of the promise and support of Allah.

«We said», so as to reassure him and make him steadfast: «Fear not, for verily it is you who will prevail» over them; that is, you will defeat them and subdue them, and they will humble themselves and submit to you.

«Throw that which is in your right hand» namely, your staff «it will swallow up what they have wrought. What they have wrought is no more than a magician's trick, and the magician will never prosper, no matter where he may be» that is, their plots and schemes will not yield any results for them and will not succeed. This was part of the scheme of the magicians, who trick people, present falsehood as right and try to give the false impression that they are following the truth. Moosâ threw down his staff, and it swallowed up all that they had wrought and devoured it, whilst the people were looking on, watching this performance.

The magicians realised with certainty that this was not magic, and that it was from Allah, so they hastened to believe.

﴿فَأُلْقِيَ السَّحَرَةُ سُجَّدًا قَالُوا آمَنَّا بِرَبِّ هَارُونَ وَمُوسَى ﴿٧٠﴾ قَالَ آمَنْتُمْ لَهُ، قَبْلَ أَنْ أَاذَنَ لَكُمْ إِنَّهُ لَكَبِيرُكُمُ الَّذِي عَلَّمَكُمُ السِّحْرَ فَلَا قَطْعَ أَيْدِيكُمْ وَأَرْجُلَكُمْ مِنْ خَلْفٍ وَلَأَصْلَبْنَكُمْ فِي جُدُوعِ النَّخْلِ وَلَنَعْلَمَنَّ إِنَّا أَشَدُّ عَذَابًا وَأَبْقَى ﴿٧١﴾ قَالُوا لَنْ نُؤْثِرَكَ عَلَى مَا جَاءَنَا مِنَ الْبَيِّنَاتِ وَالَّذِي فَطَرَنَا فَاقْضِ مَا أَنْتَ قَاضٍ إِنَّمَا تَقْضِي هَذِهِ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا ﴿٧٢﴾ إِنَّا آمَنَّا بِرَبِّنَا لِيَغْفِرَ لَنَا خَطِيئَتَنَا وَمَا أَكْرَهْتَنَا عَلَيْهِ مِنَ السِّحْرِ وَاللَّهُ خَبِيرٌ أَبْقَى ﴿٧٣﴾﴾

(سورة طه: ٧٠-٧٣)

- 20:70. So the magicians fell down in prostration; they said: We believe in the Lord of Moosâ and Hâroon.
- 20:71. Pharaoh said: How dare you believe him before I give you permission! He must be your master, who taught you magic! I will surely cut off your hands and feet on opposite sides, and I will surely crucify you on the trunks of palm trees, and you will surely come to know which of us can give the more severe and longer-lasting punishment!
- 20:72. They said: We will never choose you over the clear signs that have come to us, or over the One Who created us. So decide whatever you will; you can only decide matters pertaining to the life of this world.
- 20:73. Verily we have believed in our Lord so that He may forgive us our sins and what you compelled us to do of magic, for Allah is better [in reward] and more lasting [in punishment].

---

﴿So the magicians fell down in prostration; they said: We believe in the Lord of Moosâ and Hâroon﴾. Thus the truth became manifestly clear, and magic and the plots and schemes of the magicians were proven to be false in that great gathering.

The defeat of the magicians became proof and mercy for the believers, and proof against the stubborn. Pharaoh said to the magicians: ﴿How dare you believe him before I give you permission﴾ that is, how dare you go ahead and believe without consulting me or seeking my permission!

He found their actions strange, because they had been very polite and humble towards him, and had submitted fully to him in all their affairs, so he expected them to behave in a similar manner in this matter too. Then Pharaoh persisted in his disbelief and transgression, after this proof had been established, and he treated his people as fools by telling them that the reason why Moosâ had gained the upper hand over the magicians was not because what he followed was true; rather it was because he and the magicians had conspired and plotted to drive Pharaoh and his people out of their land. The people accepted this lie from Pharaoh and thought that he was telling the truth.

﴿Thus he made fools of his people and they obeyed him. They were indeed a rebellious and wicked people.﴾ (az-Zukhruf 43: 54)

Even though what he suggested to them could not be accepted by anyone who has the slightest common sense, awareness or understanding of reality – for Moosā had come from Madyan on his own, and had not met any of the magicians or anyone else; rather he had hastened to deliver the call to Pharaoh and his people, and show them the signs – Pharaoh nevertheless wanted to oppose what Moosā had brought, so he did his utmost, sending someone to the cities to gather every learned magician. They came to him and he promised them a reward and high status if they won the contest. And they were keen to do their utmost and they tried very hard to defeat Moosā, but this was the result they got. Can it be imagined in this case that they and Moosā had plotted and agreed on this outcome? This is completely impossible.

Then Pharaoh threatened the magicians and said: ﴿I will surely cut off your hands and feet on opposite sides﴾ as is done to the bandit who spreads mischief; his right hand and left foot are cut off.

﴿and I will surely crucify you on the trunks of palm trees﴾ that is, so that you will become a lesson to others and will be humiliated.

﴿and you will surely come to know which of us can give the more severe and longer-lasting punishment﴾. What he meant, according to his claim, was himself or Allah, and that he was able to give a more severe and longer-lasting punishment than Allah, turning facts on their heads in order to scare the foolish.

Hence when the magicians realised the truth and Allah granted them rational thinking by means of which they could verify facts, they responded by saying:

﴿We will never choose you over the clear signs that have come to us﴾ that is, we will never choose you and what you promised us of reward and being close to you over what Allah has shown us of clear signs which prove that Allah is the only Lord Who is worthy of worship and veneration, and everything other than Him is false, and we will not give you precedence over the One Who originated us and created us; that can never happen.

﴿So decide whatever you will﴾ and choose whatever you will of that with which you threatened us, be it cutting off our limbs, crucifying us or punishing us.

﴿you can only decide matters pertaining to the life of this world﴾ that is, what you are threatening us with is only in this life, which will come to an end and vanish, and will not harm us, unlike the punishment of Allah for the one who persists in his disbelief, for it is eternal and severe.

It is as if this is a response from them to Pharaoh's words: ﴿and you will surely come to know which of us can give the more severe and longer-lasting punishment﴾ (20: 71). These words of the magicians indicate that the wise person should weigh up between the pleasures of this world and the pleasures of the hereafter, and between punishment in this world and punishment in the hereafter.

﴿Verily we have believed in our Lord so that He may forgive us our sins﴾ that is, our disbelief and disobedience, for faith expiates evil deeds and repentance erases that which came before it.

﴿and what you compelled us to do of magic﴾ by means of which we opposed the truth. This indicates that they had no choice with regard to their previous deeds; rather Pharaoh had forced them to do that.

What appears to be the case – and Allah knows best – is that when Moosâ exhorted them, as we have seen above (in 20: 61), ﴿Woe to you! Do not fabricate lies against Allah, lest He annihilate you with His punishment﴾, that had a great impact on them and affected them deeply, so they disputed after hearing these words and exhortation.

But Pharaoh forced them to do that and compelled them to make the plans that they did, so they reiterated what Pharaoh had said, when they said: «Verily these two are magicians who want to drive you out of your land with their magic» (20: 63). So they did what he wanted them to do and forced them to do.

Perhaps these feelings that developed in their hearts of reluctance to oppose truth with falsehood and to do what they were compelled to do is what affected them, and Allah had mercy on them because of it and enabled them to believe and repent.

«for Allah is better [in reward]» than what you have promised us of reward and high status

«and more lasting» in punishment than what Pharaoh promised when he said «and you will surely come to know which of us can give the more severe and longer-lasting punishment» (20: 71).

Wherever the story of Moosā and Pharaoh is mentioned, Allah states, when referring to the story of the magicians, that Pharaoh threatened them with cutting off of limbs and crucifixion, but He does not say that he actually did that, and there is no ṣaḥeeḥ hadith which says that. But to affirm whether it occurred or not requires proof, and Allah knows best about that and other matters. However, the fact that he threatened them with that and was able to carry out his threat indicates that it did happen, because if it had not taken place Allah would have said so, and because the transmitters are agreed that it happened.

﴿إِنَّهُم مِّنْ يَّاتِ رَبَّهُمْ مُّجْرِمَاتٍ إِنَّ لَهُمْ جَهَنَّمَ لَا يَمُوتُ فِيهَا وَلَا يَحْيَىٰ ﴿٧٦﴾ وَمَنْ يَأْتِهِ مُؤْمِنًا قَدْ عَمِلَ الصَّالِحَاتِ فَأُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمُ الدَّرَجَاتُ الْعُلَىٰ ﴿٧٥﴾ جَنَّاتٌ عَدْنٌ تَجْرَىٰ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَذَٰلِكَ جَزَاءُ مَنْ تَزَكَّىٰ ﴿٧٦﴾﴾ (سورة طه: ٧٤-٧٦)

- 20:74. Verily whoever comes to his Lord as an evildoer, for him is hell, in which he will neither die nor live.
- 20:75. But whoever comes to Him as a believer, having done righteous deeds, for such will be high ranks,
- 20:76. gardens of perpetual abode, through which rivers flow, to abide therein forever. Such is the reward of those who purify themselves.

Here Allah tells us that whoever comes to Him as an evildoer – that is, he is evil in all ways, which implies that he is a disbeliever – and persists in that until he dies, then for him is hell, wherein is severe punishment, huge chains, bottomless depths and agonising heat and cold, the torments of which will destroy one utterly. The severity of the punishment is reflected in the fact that the one who is punished there will neither die nor live; he will not die so as to find relief and he will not live any kind of life in which he could find pleasure. Rather his life will be filled with suffering of the heart, soul and body, the severity of which no one can comprehend, and that suffering will not be alleviated even for a moment. He will cry out for help but will not be helped, and he will call out but will not be answered. If they cry for help, they will be given water like boiling oil that will scald their faces (cf. 18: 29) and if they call out, the response will be:

﴿...Be humiliated therein and do not speak to Me.﴾ (al-Mu'minoon 23: 108)

But whoever comes to his Lord believing in Him and in His Messengers, following His Books, ﴿having done righteous deeds﴾, both obligatory and recommended, ﴿for such will be high ranks﴾ that is, lofty dwellings, adorned rooms, never-ending delights, rivers flowing in all directions, eternal life and great joy such as no eye has seen, no ear has heard, and it has never crossed the mind of any man.

«Such» recompense «is the reward of those who purify themselves» that is, those who purify themselves from polytheism, disbelief, evil-doing and sin, either by not doing these things at all or repenting from what they have done of such things, and also purifying themselves by developing their faith and righteous deeds, because purification is twofold, cleansing and removing dirt, and increasing in doing good. Zakāh (which comes from a root meaning purity) reflects these two meanings.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ أَنْ أَسْرِ بِعِبَادِي فَاصْرِبْ لَهُمْ طَرِيقًا فِي الْبَحْرِ يَبَسًا لَا تَخَفْ دَرَكًا وَلَا تَخْشَى ۚ فَاَتْبَعَهُمْ فِرْعَوْنُ بِجُنُودِهِ ۚ فَغَشَّيَهُم مِّنَ اللَّيْلِ مَا عَاشِيَهُمْ ۖ وَاصْلَ فِرْعَوْنُ قَوْمَهُ ۖ وَمَا هَدَىٰ﴾ (سورة طه: ٧٧-٧٩)

- 20:77. We inspired Moosā: Travel by night with My slaves, and strike a dry path for them in the sea. Have no fear of being overtaken and do not be afraid [of drowning in the sea].
- 20:78. Then Pharaoh pursued them with his troops, but they were completely overwhelmed by the power of the sea.
- 20:79. Thus Pharaoh led his people astray, and he did not guide them.

When Moosā prevailed over Pharaoh and his people by means of proof and evidence, he remained in Egypt, calling them to Islam and striving to save the Children of Israel from Pharaoh and his persecution. But Pharaoh persisted in his arrogance and aversion to the truth, and continued to treat the Israelites harshly, and Allah continued to show him the signs and lessons of which He tells us in the Qur'an.

The Children of Israel were not able to practise their faith openly, so they took their houses as places of worship and put up with Pharaoh and his persecution. But Allah (ﷻ) wanted to save them from their enemy and establish them in the land so that they could worship Him openly and establish His laws.

So He inspired His Prophet Moosâ to travel with them by night, and He told him that Pharaoh and his people would pursue them. So they set out at the beginning of the night, all of the Israelites, with their womenfolk and children. Then when morning came, the Egyptians found that none of them were left, so their enemy Pharaoh became very angry with them. He sent envoys to the cities to rally the people and urge them to go out in pursuit of the Children of Israel, so that he could capture them and punish them. But Allah decreed that they should be saved. When all the troops of Pharaoh had gathered, he set out with them in pursuit of the Israelites.

﴿Then [the Egyptians] caught up with them at sunrise. When the two groups came within sight of one another, the companions of Moosâ said: We are sure to be overtaken.﴾ (ash-Shu'arâ' 26: 60-61)

– and they were anxious and scared, because the sea was in front of them and Pharaoh was behind them, his heart filled with rage and fury. But Moosâ was calm and reassured, for he trusted the promise of his Lord, so he said:

﴿...No indeed! Verily, my Lord is with me and He will guide me.﴾ (ash-Shu'arâ' 26: 62)

Allah inspired him to strike the sea with his staff, so he struck it and twelve pathways opened up, with the water rising up like high mountains to the right and left of those pathways. Allah made the pathways which appeared when the waters split dry, and instructed them not to be afraid of Pharaoh catching up with them or to be afraid of drowning in the sea. So they followed those pathways, then Pharaoh and his troops came in pursuit of them until, when all of Moosâ's people had emerged (on the other side) and the people of Pharaoh had all entered, Allah commanded the sea to close over them, and: ﴿they were completely overwhelmed by the power of the sea﴾ (20: 78). They all drowned and not one of them was saved, as the Israelites were looking on and watching the enemy. Allah gave them the satisfaction of witnessing Pharaoh's destruction.

This was the result of disbelief and misguidance, and not following the guidance of Allah. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Thus Pharaoh led his people astray﴾ by making disbelief fair-seeming to them and tarnishing the image of that which Moosā brought. Thus he fooled them and never guided them at any time; he led them in the path of error and misguidance, then he led them on a path that brought them to punishment and doom.

﴿يَبْنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ قَدْ أَفْجَيْتَكُم مِّنْ عَدُوِّكُمْ وَوَعَدْنَاكَ جَانِبَ الطُّورِ الْأَيْمَنِ وَنَزَّلْنَا عَلَيْكُمُ الْمَنَّاءَ وَالسَّلَوىَ ۖ كُلُوا مِّنْ طَيِّبَاتِ مَا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ وَلَا تَطْغَوْا فِيهِ فَيَحِلَّ عَلَيْكُمْ غَضَبِي ۖ وَمَن يَحِلَّ عَلَيْهِ غَضَبِي فَقَدْ هَوَىٰ ۖ وَإِنِّي لَغَفَّارٌ لِّمَن تَابَ وَآمَنَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا ثُمَّ اهْتَدَىٰ﴾ (سورة طه: ٨٠-٨٢)

- 20:80. O Children of Israel, verily We delivered you from your enemy, We made an appointment with you on the right-hand side of the mountain, and We sent down to you the manna and quails.
- 20:81. Eat of the good things We have provided for you, but do not exceed the bounds therein, lest you incur My wrath, for whoever incurs My wrath is indeed ruined.
- 20:82. Verily I am Oft-Forgiving to those who repent and believe, and do righteous deeds, then remain steadfast.

Here Allah reminds the Children of Israel of the great blessings that He bestowed upon them by destroying their enemy and making an appointment with Moosā (ﷺ) on the right-hand side of the mountain to send down to him the Book that contained sublime rulings and beautiful stories. Thus spiritual blessings were perfected for them after worldly blessings. Allah also reminds them of how He blessed them in the wilderness, by sending down the manna and quails, and delicious and easily available provision that they could obtain without much effort. He said to them:

﴿Eat of the good things We have provided for you﴾ that is, and give thanks for what He has bestowed upon you of blessings ﴿but do not exceed the bounds therein﴾ that is, with regard to His provision, so do not use it to disobey Him or become arrogant because of the blessings, for if you do that, you will incur My wrath, that is, I will be angry with you then I will punish you.

﴿for whoever incurs My wrath is indeed ruined﴾ that is, he is destroyed and doomed, and is utterly lost, because that proves that he is discontent and is not a doer of good, therefore wrath and loss are his lot.

Nevertheless, repentance is always available, no matter what sins a person has committed. Hence Allah says:

﴿Verily I am Oft-Forgiving﴾ that is, I offer abundant forgiveness and mercy to anyone who repents from disbelief, innovation and evildoing, and believes in Allah, His angels, His Books, His Messengers and the Last Day, and does righteous deeds in terms of beliefs, physical actions and words.

﴿then remains steadfast﴾ that is, he follows the straight path and follows the noble Messenger, and adheres to true religion. Allah will forgive such a person for his sins and pardon his previous errors in which he had persisted, because he has taken the best measures that may lead to forgiveness and mercy; indeed all measures are limited to these things, for repentance erases that which came before it, and faith and Islam cancel out that which came before them, and righteous deeds erase bad deeds. Being steadfast in following the path of guidance in all ways, such as acquiring knowledge and reflecting upon a verse or hadith, so that one may understand the meaning that will help him to be steadfast and call others to the true religion, and refute innovation or disbelief or misguidance, as well as jihad, migration and other aspects of steadfastness in Islam, all expiate sins and fulfil the purpose.

﴿ وَمَا أَعْجَلَكَ عَنْ قَوْمِكَ يَمُوسَىٰ ۖ قَالَ هُمْ أُولَاءِ عَلَىٰ أَثَرِي وَعَجِلْتُ إِلَيْكَ رَبِّ لِتَرْضَىٰ ۚ ۞ قَالَ فَإِنَّا قَدْ فَتَنَّا قَوْمَكَ مِنْ بَعْدِكَ وَأَضَلَّهُمُ السَّامِرِيُّ ۚ ۞ فَرَجَعَ مُوسَىٰ إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ غَضْبَنَ أَسْفًا قَالَ يَنْقُورِ آلَمْ يَعِدْكُمْ رَبُّكُمْ وَعَدًّا حَسَنًا أَفَقَالَ عَلَيْهِمُ الْعَهْدُ أَمْ أَرَدْتُمْ أَن يَحِلَّ عَلَيْكُمْ غَضَبٌ مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ فَأَخْلَفْتُم مَّوعِدِي ۚ ۞ ﴾ (سورة طه: ٨٣-٨٦)

- 20:83. What made you hasten and leave your people behind, O Moosâ?
- 20:84. Moosâ said: They are close behind me; I hastened to You, my Lord, so that You may be pleased.
- 20:85. Allah said: Verily We have put your people to the test in your absence and as-Sâmiri has led them astray.
- 20:86. So Moosâ returned to his people, angry and filled with sorrow. He said: O my people, did not your Lord give you a goodly promise? Did the time seem too long for you, or did you want the wrath of your Lord to fall upon you, when you broke your promise to me?

Allah (ﷻ) had made an appointment with Moosâ, for him to come to Him so that He might send down the Torah to him, a period of thirty nights, then He completed it with ten more. When the appointed time came, Moosâ (ﷺ) hastened to attend the appointment, longing and eager to keep the appointment. Allah said to him:

﴿What made you hasten and leave your people behind, O Moosâ?﴾ That is, what brought you here before them? Why could you not wait until you came with them? He said:

﴿They are close behind me﴾ that is, they are nearby and will come soon after me; what made me hasten to You, O Lord, was my desire to be near You and seek Your pleasure, and longing for You.

Allah said to him: ﴿Verily We have put your people to the test in your absence﴾ that is, with the worship of the calf; We tested and tried them, but they were not patient, and when that test came to them, they disbelieved
﴿and as-Sâmiri has led them astray﴾.

He ﴿produced for them a calf, an effigy﴾ (20: 88) which he fashioned, then it ﴿made a lowing sound, and they said: This is your god, and the god of Moosâ﴾ (20: 88), but Moosâ has forgotten it. The Children of Israel were confused by it, so they worshipped it; Hâroon called them not to do that, but they paid no heed.

When Moosâ returned to his people, he was very angry and upset; in other words, he was filled with rage, anger and distress. He said to them, rebuking them for what they had done: ﴿O my people, did not your Lord give you a goodly promise?﴾ Which was His promise to send down the Torah.

﴿Did the time seem too long for you﴾ that is, did you think that I was away for too long, although it was only a short time?

This is the view of many commentators, but it may be that what is meant is: has it been so long since a Prophet or Messenger came to you, so that you did not have any knowledge of prophethood and the teachings of the Prophets had vanished, so that nothing of their teachings was left with you, and therefore you worshipped something other than Allah because of your ignorance and lack of knowledge of the teachings of prophethood? In other words, that is not so; rather there is prophethood among you, and knowledge is available, so your excuse is not acceptable. Or did you intend by your deed to bring upon yourselves the wrath of your Lord? For you have committed that which justifies His wrath and you have done that which makes His punishment inevitable. This is the reality.

«when you broke your promise to me», as I instructed you to adhere to the path of truth, and I left Hâroon in charge of you, but you did not pay any attention to what I said or show any respect to him.

﴿قَالُوا مَا أَخْلَفْنَا مَوْعِدَكَ بِمَلِكِنَا وَلَكِنَّا حَمَلْنَا أَوزَارًا مِّن زِينَةِ الْقَوْمِ فَقَذَفْنَاهَا فَكَذَلِكَ أَلْقَى السَّامِرِيُّ ﴿٨٧﴾ فَأَخْرَجَ لَهُمْ عِجْلًا جَسَدًا لَهُ خُورٌ فَقَالُوا هَذَا إِلَهُكُمْ وَإِلَهُ مُوسَىٰ فَنَسِيَ ﴿٨٨﴾ أَفَلَا يَرَوْنَ أَنَّهُ لَا يُرْجِعُ إِلَيْهِمْ قَوْلًا وَلَا يَمْلِكُ لَهُمْ ضَرًّا وَلَا نَفْعًا ﴿٨٩﴾﴾ (سورة طه: ٨٧-٨٩)

- 20:87. They said: We did not break our promise to you of our own accord. But we were loaded with the [sinful] burdens of the [Egyptian] people's jewellery, so we threw them into the fire, and as-Sâmiri also threw likewise.
- 20:88. Then as-Sâmiri produced for them a calf, an effigy that made a lowing sound, and they said: This is your god, and the god of Moosâ, but he has forgotten!
- 20:89. Could they not see that it could not give them any response and that it had no power either to cause harm or bring benefit to them?

That is, they said to him: We did not do what we did deliberately or on our own initiative; rather the reason for that was that we felt the sin of keeping the people's jewellery that was in our possession. They had, according to what they said, borrowed a lot of jewellery from the Egyptians, and when they left Egypt they had it with them. They gathered it together when Moosâ went away, so that they could consult him about it when he returned.

On the day when Pharaoh was drowned, as-Sâmiri had spotted the hoof print of the messenger Jibreel's horse, and his soul prompted him to take a handful of it. He thought that if he threw it onto something it would come to life, and that was a test and trial for them. He threw it onto that image that he had made in the shape of a calf, and it moved and made a lowing sound, and the people said: Moosâ has gone to seek his Lord but (his Lord) is here; Moosâ has forgotten. This was a sign of their foolishness and lack of intellect; when they saw this strange thing that began to make a lowing sound after having been inanimate, they thought that it was the God of the heavens and the earth!

«Could they not see» that the calf «could not give them any response» that is, it could not speak or talk to them, or give them any response, and it could not ward off any harm from them or bring them any benefit. One who is lacking in perfection and unable to speak or do anything does not deserve to be worshipped. It is more lacking than its worshippers, for they are able to speak and do some things, and to bring some benefits and ward off some harm, by Allah's decree.

﴿وَلَقَدْ قَالَ لَهُمْ هَارُونُ مِنْ قَبْلُ يَقَوْمُ إِنَّمَا فُتِنْتُمْ بِهِ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكُمُ الرَّحْمَنُ فَاتَّبِعُونِي وَأَطِيعُوا أَمْرِيَ ﴿٩٠﴾ قَالُوا لَنْ نَبْرَحَ عَلَيْهِ عَاكِفِينَ حَتَّى يَرْجِعَ إِلَيْنَا مُوسَى ﴿٩١﴾ قَالَ يَهْتَرُونَ بِمَا مَنَعَكَ إِذْ رَأَيْتَهُمْ ضَلُّوا ﴿٩٢﴾ أَلَّا تَتَّبِعَنِ أَفَعَصَيْتَ أَمْرِيَ ﴿٩٣﴾ قَالَ يَبْنَؤُمْ لَا تَأْخُذْ بِلِحَافِي وَلَا يَأْمُرُ إِنِّي خَشِيتُ أَنْ تَقُولَ فَرَّقْتَ بَيْنَ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ وَلَمْ تَرْقُبْ قَوْلِي ﴿٩٤﴾﴾ (سورة طه: ٩٠-٩٤)

- 20:90. Hâroon had earlier said to them: O my people, you are being tested with it. Verily your Lord is the Most Gracious, so follow me and obey my command.
- 20:91. They said: We will not stop worshipping it until Moosâ comes back to us.
- 20:92. Moosâ said: O Hâroon, what prevented you, when you saw that they had gone astray, 20:93. from following me? Did you then disobey my command?

20:94. Hâroon said: O son of my mother, do not seize me by my beard, or by my head! Verily I was afraid that you would say: You have caused division among the Children of Israel, and you did not pay heed to my words.

They had no excuse for taking the calf for worship. Even though they developed some confusion about worshipping it, Hâroon had forbidden them to do that and had told them that it was a test, and that the true Lord was the Most Gracious, from Whom come all blessings both visible and invisible, and Who wards off harm. He had commanded them to follow him and reject the calf, but they refused and said: «We will not stop worshipping it until Moosâ comes back to us».

Moosâ came to his brother and blamed him, saying: «O Hâroon, what prevented you, when you saw that they had gone astray, from following me» that is, coming after me and telling me so that I could hasten to come back to them?

«Did you then disobey my command?» when I said:

«...Take my place amongst my people in my absence, do what is right, and do not follow the way of those who spread mischief.»
(al-A râf 7: 142)

Moosâ took hold of Hâroon by the head and beard, pulling him out of anger and rebuking him. But Hâroon said: «O son of my mother» to soften his heart; otherwise they were full brothers.

«do not seize me by my beard, or by my head! Verily I was afraid that you would say: You have caused division among the Children of Israel, and you did not pay heed to my words» – you instructed me to take your place among them in your absence, and if I had followed you (and come after you to tell you what was happening), I would have been neglecting what you had instructed me to adhere to, and I was afraid that you would rebuke me and say: «You have caused division among the Children of Israel» by leaving them. They had no one to look after them, and that would have divided them and caused them to split into groups. So do not count me among the people who are given to wrongdoing and do not give our enemies cause to rejoice in our misfortune (cf. 7: 150).

Moosâ regretted what he had done to his brother when he did not deserve that, so he said:

«...O my Lord, forgive me and my brother and admit us to Your mercy, for You are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy.»
(al-A'râf 7: 151)

Then he turned his attention to as-Sâmiri.

﴿قَالَ فَمَا خَطْبُكَ يُسْمِرِي﴾ (٩٥) قَالَ بَصُرْتُ بِمَا لَمْ يَبْصُرُوا بِهِ فَقَبَضْتُ قَبْضَةً مِّنْ أَثَرِ الرَّسُولِ فَنَبَذْتُهَا وَكَذَلِكَ سَوَّلَتْ لِي نَفْسِي ﴿٩٦﴾ قَالَ فَاذْهَبْ فَإِنَّ لَكَ فِي الْحَيَاةِ أَنْ تَقُولَ لَا مِسَاسَ وَإِنَّ لَكَ مَوْعِدًا لَّنْ تَخْلَفَنَّهُ وَانْظُرْ إِلَى إِلٰهِكَ الَّذِي ظَلْتَ عَلَيْهِ عَاكِفًا لَّنُحَرِّقَنَّهُ ثُمَّ لَنَنْبِفَنَّهُ فِي الْيَمِّ نَسْفًا ﴿٩٧﴾﴾

(سورة طه: ٩٥-٩٧)

20:95. Moosâ said: And what is the matter with you, O Sâmiri?

20:96. He said: I saw what they did not see, so I took a handful [of dust] from the hoof print of the messenger Jibreel's horse, and threw it [into the calf]. Thus my soul prompted me.

20:97. Moosâ said: Begone then! Verily, your [punishment] in this life will be that you will say: Touch me not [and you will be an outcast]. And there awaits an appointed time for your reckoning that you cannot miss. Now look at your god, that you were worshipping. We will surely burn it then scatter its remains in the sea.

﴿Moosā said: And what is the matter with you, O Sāmiri?﴾ that is, why did you do what you did?

As-Sāmiri said: ﴿I saw what they did not see﴾ that is, he saw Jibreel (جبريل) on a horse when they came out of the sea, and Pharaoh and his troops drowned – this is according to what the commentators said. So I took a handful from the hoof print of his horse, and I threw it into the calf.

﴿Thus my soul prompted me﴾ to take that handful and then throw it, then what happened happened.

Moosā said to him: ﴿Begone then!﴾ that is, go far away from me and keep your distance

﴿Begone then! Verily, your [punishment] in this life will be that you will say: Touch me not﴾ that is, the punishment in this life is that no one will come near you and no one will touch you; even if someone wants to come near you, you will say to him: Do not touch me and do not come near me – as a punishment for what you did, for you touched something that no one else touched, and you did something that no one else did.

﴿And there awaits an appointed time for your reckoning that you cannot miss﴾ and you will be requited for your deeds, both good and bad.

﴿Now look at your god, that you were worshipping﴾ namely the calf

﴿We will surely burn it then scatter its remains in the sea﴾. Moosā did that, and if it had been a god it would have protected itself from the one who intended to harm it and wanted to destroy it. The hearts of the Israelites had been filled with love for the calf, so Moosā (موسى) wanted to destroy it as they were looking on, in such a way that it could not be restored, by burning it, crushing it and scattering its remains in the sea, so as to remove love for it from their hearts, just as the thing itself was to be removed; moreover, leaving it alone would

﴿will surely bear a heavy burden [of sin] on the Day of Resurrection﴾ because of which he turned away from the Qur'an, and doing so led him to disbelief and negligence.

﴿abiding therein [in the punishment for that sin] forever﴾ that is, they will abide in that burden of sin forever; the sin itself will turn into punishment, according to how small or great it is.

﴿What a miserable burden it will be for them on the Day of Resurrection﴾ that is, what a wretched burden it is that they carry and what a wretched punishment they will be punished with on the Day of Resurrection.

Then Allah goes on to mention the state of affairs on the Day of Resurrection and the horrors thereof:

﴿يَوْمَ يُفْخَخُ فِي الصُّورِ وَتَحْشُرُ الْمُجْرِمِينَ يَوْمَئِذٍ زُرْقًا ۚ يَخَفَتُونَ بَيْنَهُمْ إِنْ لَبِثْتُمْ إِلَّا عَشْرًا ۖ نَحْنُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَقُولُونَ إِذْ يَقُولُ أَمْثَلُهُمْ طَرِيقَةً إِنْ لَبِثْتُمْ إِلَّا يَوْمًا ۚ﴾

(سورة طه: ١٠٢-١٠٤)

20:102. the day when the Trumpet will be blown; on that day the evildoers will be gathered together, their eyes blind.

20:103. They will whisper to one another: You stayed only for ten [days in the world].

20:104. We know best what they will say, but the most perceptive of them will say: You stayed only one day.

That is, when the Trumpet is blown and the people emerge from their graves, each according to his situation. So those who were pious and feared Allah will be gathered before the Most Gracious as an honoured delegation (cf. 19: 85), and the evildoers will be gathered together, their eyes blind. They will converse with one another, whispering to one another about how brief their stay in this world was and how swiftly the hereafter has come. Some will say that they stayed only for ten days in this world, and others will say something else. Allah knows of their whispering and hears what they say.

﴿but the most perceptive of them﴾ that is, the one who is closest in his estimate to the facts

﴿will say: You stayed only one day﴾. What this signifies is great regret at how they wasted that short time and spent it careless and negligent, turning away from that which would have benefitted them and turning towards that which harmed them, and now requital has come and the warning of punishment will inevitably be fulfilled. So there is nothing left but regret and calls for doom and destruction.

This is like the passage in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Allah will say: How many years did you remain on earth? They will say: We remained there for a day, or part of a day. But ask those who keep count. Allah will say: You only remained there for a short while, if you had but known.﴾ (al-Mu'minoon 23: 112-114)

﴿وَيَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ الْجِبَالِ فَقُلْ يَنْسِفُهَا رَبِّي نَسْفًا ﴿١٠٥﴾ فَيَذَرُهَا قَاعًا صَفْصَفًا ﴿١٠٦﴾ لَا تَرَى فِيهَا عِوَجًا وَلَا أَمْتًا ﴿١٠٧﴾ يَوْمَئِذٍ يَتَّبِعُونَ الدَّاعِيَ لَا عِوَجَ لَهُ، وَخَشَعَتِ الْأَصْوَاتُ لِلرَّحْمَنِ فَلَا تَسْمَعُ إِلَّا هَمْسًا ﴿١٠٨﴾ يَوْمَئِذٍ لَا نَنْفَعُ الشَّفْعَةُ إِلَّا مَنْ أَذِنَ لَهُ الرَّحْمَنُ وَرَضِيَ لَهُ قَوْلًا ﴿١٠٩﴾ يَعْلَمُ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ وَلَا يُحِيطُونَ بِهِ، عِلْمًا ﴿١١٠﴾ وَعَنْتِ الْأَوْجُهُ لِلْحَيِّ الْقَيُّومِ وَقَدْ خَابَ مَنْ حَمَلَ ظُلْمًا ﴿١١١﴾ وَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْرَ ذَرَّةٍ خَيْرًا يَرَهُ ﴿١١٢﴾﴾ (سورة طه: ١٠٥-١١٢)

20:105. They ask you [O Muhammad] about the mountains. Say: My Lord will uproot them and scatter them as dust,

20:106. and He will leave the earth as a smooth, levelled plain,

- 20:107. In which you will see no depression or elevation.
- 20:108. On that day, they will follow the caller, without any deviation. All voices will be stilled before the Most Gracious, and you will not hear anything but a faint sound.
- 20:109. On that day, no intercession will be of any benefit except from one to whom the Most Gracious has given permission and with whose word He is pleased.
- 20:110. He knows what was before them and what will be after them, but they do not encompass it with their knowledge.
- 20:111. All faces will be humbled before the Ever-Living, the Self-Sustaining and All-Sustaining, and the one who carries a burden of wrongdoing will surely be lost and doomed.
- 20:112. But whoever does righteous deeds and is a believer need have no fear of being wronged or deprived [of his just recompense].
-

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the horrors of the Day of Resurrection and what will occur then of earthquakes and upheaval.

﴿They ask you [O Muhammad] about the mountains﴾ that is, what will happen to them on the Day of Resurrection, and will they remain as they are or not?

﴿Say: My Lord will uproot them and scatter them as dust﴾ that is, He will remove them from their places and they will become like carded wool, or like sand. Then He will crush them and make them scattered dust, so they will diminish and vanish. He will make them level with the earth, and He will make the earth a smooth levelled plain, which will be so flat that the onlooker will see no depression or elevation, no valleys or high ground. The earth will be made smooth and flat, and will be expanded to accommodate all creatures. Allah will spread it out like a leather mat, so they will all be standing in one place, they will all be able to hear the caller and they will all be seen at one time. Hence Allah says:

﴿On that day, they will follow the caller﴾ that is when they are resurrected and rise from their graves. The caller will call them to attend and gather in the gathering place. So they will follow him, hastening towards him, not turning away from him and not deviating to the right or left.

﴿without any deviation﴾ that is, they will not deviate from his call; rather the caller will call all the people and make them all hear, so they will all come to the place of standing with their voices stilled before the Most Gracious.

﴿and you will not hear anything but a faint sound﴾ that is, the sound of their footsteps or the sound of whispering which is moving the lips only. They will be overwhelmed by fear, quiet and attentive, awaiting the judgement of the Most Gracious, utterly humbled. In that great place of standing, you will see rich and poor, men and women, free and slave, kings and commoners, silent and attentive, their gazes lowered, their necks bent in submission, kneeling in humility, not knowing what the fate of each will be or what will be done to him. Each person will be preoccupied with himself and his own situation, and he will be heedless of his father, brother, friends and loved ones. ﴿Every one of them, on that day, will have too many concerns of his own to care about anyone else.﴾ ('Abasa 80: 37)

At that time the Just Judge will pass judgement on them and will requite the doer of good for his good deeds and the doer of evil by depriving him of reward.

The hope that we have in the generous Lord, the Most Gracious, Most Merciful, is that He will show people grace, kindness, pardon and forgiveness such as cannot be described or imagined.

At that time all people will hope for His mercy because of what they see, but those who believed in Him and His Messengers will be singled out for mercy. If it is asked: on what basis do you have this hope? Or if you wish, you may say: how do you know what is mentioned above? Our response is: it is because of what we know about His mercy prevailing over His wrath, and what we know of His vast generosity which encompasses all of creation, and because of what we see in ourselves and others of abundant blessings in this realm, and especially what we know about His mercy on the Day of Resurrection, for Allah says: «All voices will be stilled before the Most Gracious» (20: 108) and «except from one to whom the Most Gracious has given permission», and He says elsewhere:

«On that day true dominion will belong to the Most Gracious...» (al-Furqân 25: 26)

Moreover, the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

«Allah has one hundred parts of mercy, and He sent down to His slaves one part thereof, by virtue of which they show mercy and compassion to one another, and even the animal lifts its foot for fear of stepping on its offspring, because of the mercy instilled in its heart. Then when the Day of Resurrection comes, this part of mercy will be put back together with the other ninety-nine parts of mercy, whereby mercy will be shown to all people.» (Bukhari and Muslim)

– and he said:

«Allah is more merciful towards His slaves than a mother towards her child.» (Muslim)

So say whatever you wish about His mercy; it is more than what you say. Imagine whatever you wish; it is far above that. So glory be to the One Who showed mercy in His justice and punishment, just as He showed mercy in His grace, kindness and reward.

Exalted be the One Whose mercy encompasses all things, Whose generosity encompasses all living beings. Glorified be the One Who has no need of His slaves and is merciful towards them, whilst they are in need of Him constantly, in all their affairs, so they cannot do without Him even for the blink of an eye.

﴿On that day, no intercession will be of any benefit except from one to whom the Most Gracious has given permission and with whose word He is pleased﴾ that is, no one among humankind can intercede with Him unless He has given permission for him to intercede, and He does not give permission to anyone except one with whose word – that is, his intercession – He is pleased, among the Prophets, Messengers and His slaves who are close to Him, for those with whose words and deeds He is pleased, namely the sincere believers. If any one of these conditions is not met, there is no way anyone can benefit from the intercession of anyone else.

In that place of standing, people will be divided into two groups, the first of which will be those who did wrong by disbelieving and committing evil deeds. These people will attain nothing but frustration, deprivation, the painful punishment in hell and the wrath of the Almighty Judge.

The second group is those who believed as enjoined and did righteous deeds, both obligatory and sunnah. They ﴿need have no fear of being wronged﴾ that is, of anything being added to their bad deeds ﴿or deprived﴾ that is, of anything being detracted from their good deeds. Rather their sins will be forgiven, they will be cleansed of their faults and the reward for their good deeds will be multiplied.

﴿...And if there is a good deed Allah will multiply it, and give an immense reward of His own.﴾ (an-Nisā' 4: 40)

﴿وَكَذَلِكَ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ قُرْآنًا عَرَبِيًّا وَصَرَفْنَا فِيهِ مِنَ الْوَعِيدِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَّقُونَ أَوْ يُحْدِثُ لَهُمْ ذِكْرًا

(سورة طه: ١١٣) ﴿

20:113. Thus We have sent it down, the Qur'an in Arabic, and given all kinds of warnings in it, so that they may fear Allah or pay heed.

That is, thus We have sent down this Book, in the noble Arabic language which you understand and comprehend, and none of its wordings or meanings are hidden from you.

﴿and given all kinds of warnings in it﴾ that is, We have given many various kinds of warnings, sometimes by mentioning divine names that are indicative of justice and vengeance, sometimes by giving examples of the punishments of previous nations and instructing later nations to learn from them, sometimes by mentioning the consequences of sin and how it makes a person look bad, sometimes by mentioning the horrors of the Day of Resurrection and what it involves of events that cause distress and anxiety, sometimes by mentioning hell and what it contains of all types of punishment and suffering. All of that is out of mercy towards people, so that they may fear Allah and give up evil and sin that bring them harm.

﴿or pay heed﴾ and thus start doing acts of obedience and good deeds that will benefit them. The fact that it is Arabic and that it gives all kinds of warnings is the greatest reason and greatest motive to follow the path of piety and righteous deeds, for if it was not Arabic or did not give all kinds of warnings, it would not have that impact.

﴿فَنَعْلَى اللَّهِ الْمَلِكُ الْحَقُّ وَلَا تَعْجَلْ بِالْقُرْآنِ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يُقْضَى إِلَيْكَ وَحْيُهُ
وَقُلْ رَبِّ زِدْنِي عِلْمًا﴾ (سورة طه: ١١٤)

20:114. So exalted be Allah, the True Sovereign. Do not hasten to repeat [the newly-revealed verses of] the Qur'an before its revelation to you is completed, and say: O my Lord, increase me in knowledge.

Having mentioned His decree concerning requital of His slaves and His decree concerning religious instructions that He revealed in His Book, which is a sign of His dominion, Allah (ﷻ) now says:

«So exalted be Allah» that is, He is most high and sublime, above having any defects or shortcomings.

«the True Sovereign» Whose attribute is dominion and all creatures are His subjects, for the decree of the Sovereign with regard to universal or religious decrees is inevitable and binding. His existence, dominion and perfection are true; attributes of perfection cannot rightfully be attributed to any but the Owner of Majesty, which includes the attribute of sovereignty. Even if created beings may possess some sort of sovereignty at some times, over some things, this is sovereignty that is limited, imperfect and temporary. As for the Lord, He never ceases to be the Sovereign, Ever-Living, Self-Sustaining and All-Sustaining, and Majestic.

«Do not hasten to repeat [the newly-revealed verses of] the Qur'an before its revelation to you is completed» that is, do not hasten (O Muhammad ﷺ) to repeat the verses of the Qur'an whilst Jibreel is still reciting them to you; be patient until he has finished, and when he has finished, then recite it, for Allah has guaranteed that you will be able to memorise it and recite it, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«Do not move your tongue [O Prophet] in haste to repeat and memorize this revelation. Verily, it is incumbent upon Us to enable you to memorize it and enable you to recite it. So when We recite it [through Jibreel], follow its recitation attentively. Then it is incumbent upon Us to make its meanings clear.» (al-Qiyamah 75: 16-19)

Because the Prophet's hastening to repeat the Revelation was indicative of his perfect love for knowledge and his eagerness to acquire it, Allah (ﷻ) instructed him to ask Him for more knowledge, for knowledge is good and to have a great deal of goodness is something that is required. It is from Allah, and the way to attain it is by striving, longing for knowledge, asking Allah for it, seeking His help and acknowledging one's need for Him at all times.

From this verse we learn the etiquette of receiving knowledge, and that the one who listens to knowledge must be patient and wait until the teacher has finished speaking, because what he wants to say is interconnected. Then when he has finished, the one who has questions may ask him. He should not hasten to ask questions and interrupt the teacher when he is speaking, because that is a cause of being deprived of knowledge. At the same time, the one who is asked a question should try to understand what the questioner is asking and find out what he really wants to know before answering, because that will help him to give the right answer.

﴿وَلَقَدْ عَهِدْنَا إِلَىٰ آدَمَ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَنَسِيَ وَلَمْ نَجِدْ لَهُ عَزْمًا﴾ (سورة طه: ١١٥)

20:115. Indeed We gave a command to Adam before, but he forgot, and We found him lacking in firm resolve.

That is, We instructed Adam and made a covenant with him so that he would adhere to it, and he did adhere to it, submit to it and comply with it, and he resolved to carry it out. Yet despite that, he forgot what he had been instructed to do and his strong resolve wavered. Therefore what happened to him happened. He became a lesson for his offspring, and their nature became like his. Adam forgot so his offspring forget; he did wrong so they do wrong. He could not adhere to what he firmly resolved to do, and they are the same. But he hastened to repent from his error, and he admitted and acknowledged it, so he was forgiven, and whoever does as his father (Adam) did will not go wrong.

Then Allah discusses in detail that which He spoke of in general terms:

﴿وَإِذْ قُلْنَا لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ اسْجُدُوا لِآدَمَ فَسَجَدُوا إِلَّا إِبْلِيسَ أَبَىٰ ۖ فَقُلْنَا يَسَٰدُمُ إِنَّ هَٰذَا عَدُوٌّ لَّكَ وَلِزَوْجِكَ فَلَا يُخْرِجُكَ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ فَتَشْقَىٰ ۚ إِنَّ لَكَ أَلَّا

تَجْمَعُ فِيهَا وَلَا تَعْرِى ۚ (١١٨) وَأَنَّكَ لَا تَظْمَأُ فِيهَا وَلَا تَصْحَى (١١٩) فَوْسَوْسَ إِلَيْهِ
 الشَّيْطَانُ قَالَ يَتَّخِذُكُمْ هَلْ أَذْكَ عَلَى شَجَرَةِ الْخُلْدِ وَمُلْكٍ لَّا يَبْلَى (١٢٠) فَأَكَلَا
 مِنْهَا فَبَدَّتْ لُهُمَا سَوْءُ ثُهُمَا وَطَفِقَا يَخْصِفَانِ عَلَيْهِمَا مِنْ وَرَقِ الْجَنَّةِ وَعَصَى آدَمُ رَبَّهُ
 فَغَوَى (١٢١) ثُمَّ اجْبَنَاهُ رَبُّهُ فَنَابَ عَلَيْهِ وَهَدَى (١٢٢) ﴿ (سورة طه: ١١٦-١٢٢) ﴾

- 20:116. And [remember] when We said to the angels: Prostrate before Adam, and they [all] prostrated except Iblees; he refused.
- 20:117. We said: O Adam, verily this is an enemy to you and your wife; do not let him drive you both out of paradise, for then you will be put to toil.
- 20:118. [But] here [in paradise] it is granted to you that you will not go hungry or be naked,
- 20:119. Nor will you be thirsty here [in paradise] or suffer from the sun's heat.
- 20:120. Then Shayṭān whispered to him, saying: O Adam, shall I show you the tree of immortality and a dominion that will never decay?
- 20:121. So they both ate from the tree, then their private parts became visible to them, so they began to put together leaves from the garden to cover themselves. Thus Adam disobeyed his Lord, and fell into error.
- 20:122. Then his Lord brought him close, accepted his repentance, and guided him.

That is, after He had finished creating Adam with His Hand, and after He had taught him the names of all things and favoured and honoured him, He commended the angels to prostrate to him by way of honour and respect, and they hastened to prostrate in obedience to the command. But among them was Iblees, who was too arrogant to obey the command of his Lord. He refused to prostrate to Adam and he said:

﴿...I am better than he; You created me from fire and You created him from clay.﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 12)

At that point his extreme animosity towards Adam and his wife became clear, because he was an enemy to Allah. He also showed his envy, which was the reason for his animosity. So Allah warned Adam and his wife against him, saying: ﴿do not let him drive you both out of paradise, for then you will be put to toil﴾ if you are driven out of it. For in it you have readily available provision and a life of ease.

﴿[But] here [in paradise] it is granted to you that you will not go hungry or be naked, nor will you be thirsty here [in paradise] or suffer from the sun's heat﴾. Thus he was guaranteed a perpetual supply of food, drink, clothing and water, with no toil or exhaustion, but He forbade him to eat from a particular tree, and said:

﴿...but do not approach this tree, or else you will both become transgressors.﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 19)

But Shayṭân kept on inciting them and making the idea of eating from that tree fair-seeming to them, saying:

﴿O Adam, shall I show you the tree of immortality﴾ that is, a tree which whoever eats from it will live forever in paradise.

﴿and a dominion that will never decay﴾ that is, it will never end, if you eat from it. He approached him as a sincere adviser, using gentle words, and Adam was deceived by him. They both ate from the tree, then they fell into despair; their clothes fell from them and their sin became apparent to them. The private parts of each of them became visible to the other, after they had been covered, and they began to put together leaves from the garden to cover themselves. They felt very embarrassed before Allah, the extent of which only Allah knows.

﴿Thus Adam disobeyed his Lord, and fell into error﴾, but they both hastened to repent and turn back to Allah. They both said:

﴿...Our Lord, we have wronged ourselves. If You do not forgive us and have mercy on us, we will certainly be among the losers.﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 23)

So his Lord brought him close, chose him and enabled him to repent.

﴿accepted his repentance, and guided him﴾. After repenting, he was better than he had been before, so this scheme of his enemy backfired and his plot failed. The blessing was perfected for Adam and his offspring, and it became obligatory for them to show gratitude for the blessing and acknowledge it, and to beware of this enemy who was always with them, watching out by night and day.

﴿O children of Adam, do not let Shayṭān deceive you, as he caused your parents to be expelled from the garden, stripping them of their garments and making their private parts visible to them. For he and his offspring see you from where you cannot see them. We have made the devils friends and allies of those who do not believe.﴾ (al-A'raf 7: 27)

﴿قَالَ أَهْبِطَا مِنْهَا جَمِيعًا بَعْضُكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ عَدُوٌّ فَإِمَّا يَأْتِيَنَّكُمْ مِنِّي هُدًى فَمَنِ اتَّبَعَ هُدَايَ فَلَا يَضِلُّ وَلَا يَشْقَى ﴿١٢٣﴾ وَمَنْ أَعْرَضَ عَن ذِكْرِي فَإِنَّ لَهُ مَعِيشَةً ضَنْكًا وَنَحْشُرُهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ أَعْمَى ﴿١٢٤﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ لِمَ حَشَرْتَنِي أَعْمَى وَقَدْ كُنْتُ بَصِيرًا ﴿١٢٥﴾ قَالَ كَذَلِكَ أَتَتْكَ آيَاتُنَا فَنَسِيْنَهَا وَكَذَلِكَ الْيَوْمَ تُنْسَى ﴿١٢٦﴾ وَكَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي مَنْ أَشْرَفَ وَلَمْ يُؤْمِنْ بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِ ۚ وَلَعَذَابُ الْآخِرَةِ أَشْدُّ وَأَبْقَى ﴿١٢٧﴾﴾ (سورة طه: ١٢٣-١٢٧)

20:123. Allah said: Go down from here, all of you, as enemies to one another. Then when guidance comes to you from Me, whoever follows My guidance will not go astray or suffer wretchedness.

20:124. But whoever turns away from My Reminder [the Qur'an] will have a miserable life, and on the Day of Resurrection We will raise him up blind.

20:125. He will say: O my Lord, why have You raised me up blind, when I was able to see before?

- 20:126. Allah will say: Just as Our revelations came to you and you disregarded them, so will you, on this day, be disregarded.
- 20:127. Thus do We requite him who transgresses beyond bounds and does not believe in the revelations of his Lord; and the punishment of the hereafter is more severe and more lasting.

Here Allah tells us that He instructed Adam and Iblees to go down to the earth, and He decreed that Adam and his offspring should take the Shayṭān as their enemy and beware of him, and they should take precautions and be prepared to fight him. Allah told Adam that He would send down Books to them and would send Messengers to them to explain to them the straight path that leads to Him and to His paradise, and to warn them against this avowed enemy. Whenever guidance came to them, in the form of the Books and Messengers, whoever followed that guidance, did what he was instructed to do and refrained from what was prohibited, would not go astray in this world or the hereafter, and would not suffer wretchedness in either realm; rather he would be guided to the straight path in this world and the hereafter, and he would attain happiness and safety in the hereafter.

Elsewhere, Allah tells us that such a one will not fear or grieve, as He says:

﴿...whosoever follows My guidance will have no fear, nor will they grieve.﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 38)

Following true guidance means believing in the text and not rejecting it on the basis of doubts and specious arguments, and complying with the command and not going against it by following whims and desires.

﴿But whoever turns away from My Reminder﴾ that is, My Book by means of which he will be reminded of all sublime aims and goals; whoever turns away from it due to lack of interest in it or – what is worse – turns away from it because he rejects it and does not believe in it ﴿will have a miserable life﴾ that is, his requital will be that We will make his life difficult and hard; this cannot mean anything other than a life of pain and suffering.

The phrase ﴿miserable life﴾ has also been interpreted as referring to the punishment in the grave, for his grave will be narrow and he will be compressed in it and punished, as a requital for turning away from the reminder of his Lord. This is one of the verses that point to the punishment in the grave; the second such verse is:

﴿...If you [O Muhammad] could but see the evildoers when they are in the throes of death and the angels are stretching out their hands...﴾
(al-An'ām 6: 93)

The third verse is:

﴿We will surely cause them to taste a lesser punishment before the greater punishment...﴾ (as-Sajdah 32: 21)

– and the fourth verse is that in which Allah said concerning the people of Pharaoh:

﴿The fire, which will be shown to them morning and afternoon...﴾
(Ghâfir 40: 46)

What made some of the earlier scholars think that this refers to the punishment of the grave only and limit its interpretation to that only – and Allah knows best – is the end of the verse (20: 124) quoted above, at the end of which Allah mentions the punishment of the Day of Resurrection.

Some commentators thought that the phrase ﴿miserable life﴾ applies to this world, and what befalls the one who turns away from his Lord's reminder of distress, grief and pain, which is a kind of hastened portion of the punishment, as well as what will befall him in al-barzakh and in the hereafter, because the phrase ﴿miserable life﴾ is mentioned in general terms and is not specific, so it may refer to any stage.

﴿and on the Day of Resurrection We will raise him up blind﴾ in a real, physical sense, according to the correct view. This refers to the one who turns away from the reminder of his Lord. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...On the Day of Resurrection, We will gather them on their faces, blind, dumb and deaf...﴾ (al-Isrâ' 17: 97)

He (the one who is raised in such a manner) will say, by way of feeling humiliation, enquiring, expressing pain and complaining about his situation:

﴿O my Lord, why have You raised me up blind, when I was able to see before?﴾ – that is, in the previous world. What has brought me to this horrible situation?

﴿Allah will say: Just as Our revelations came to you and you disregarded them﴾ by turning away from them
 ﴿so will you, on this day, be disregarded﴾ that is, you will be left to suffer the punishment.

So the answer will be that this is exactly what you did, for the requital is of the same nature as the deed. Just as you were blind to the remembrance of your Lord, and you turned away and forgot Him, and you forgot your share of the reminder, Allah will make you blind in the hereafter, and you will be resurrected to the fire, blind, deaf and dumb, for He will have turned away from you and forgotten you, leaving you to suffer the punishment.

﴿Thus﴾ with this punishment
 ﴿do We requite him who transgresses beyond bounds﴾ by overstepping the mark and going beyond the bounds of what is permissible to commit what is prohibited
 ﴿and does not believe in the revelations of his Lord﴾ that clearly point to the requirements of faith; Allah will not have wronged him and will not have punished him when he did not deserve it; rather the reason for that is his transgression and lack of faith.

﴿and the punishment of the hereafter is more severe﴾ that is, many times more severe than punishment in this world
 ﴿and more lasting﴾ because it never ends, unlike worldly punishment, which does come to an end. So what is required is to fear Allah and beware of the punishment of the hereafter.

﴿أَفَلَمْ يَهْدِ لَهُمْ كَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِنَ الْقُرُونِ يَمْشُونَ فِي مَسْكَانِهِمْ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ
 لِأُولِي النَّهْيِ﴾ (سورة طه: ١٢٨)

20:128. Has it not become clear to them how many nations We destroyed before them, in whose dwelling places they now walk about? Surely in that there are signs for people of sound intellect.

That is, has it not become clear to these disbelievers who turn away? They should be prompted to follow the path of guidance and to avoid the path of misguidance and wickedness, by the punishment that Allah sent down upon the disbelievers who came before them, of past nations and successive nations whose stories they know, and they tell one another about their stories, and they see with their own eyes the dwellings left behind by those people, such as the people of Hood, Shalih, Loot and others. When they rejected Our Messengers and turned away from our Books, we sent upon them the painful punishment.

What guarantee do these people have that the same fate will not befall them as befell those people?

﴿Are your disbelievers [O Quraysh] better than those, or have you been promised immunity in the [earlier] scriptures? Or do they say: We are a united group, bound to prevail?﴾ (al-Qamar 54: 43-44)

The answer is none of these; these disbelievers are no better than those of the past, such that the punishment could be warded off from them because of their goodness. In fact they are worse than them, because they disbelieved in the noblest of the Messengers and the best of the Books. They have not been granted any immunity in the scriptures or any covenant with Allah, and they are not as they say, that their large number and unity will benefit them and protect them, for they are too insignificant for that.

The destruction of previous nations for their sins is one of the means of guidance, because it is one of the signs that point to the truthfulness of the message brought to them by the Messengers and the falseness of the path they were following. But not everyone benefits from the signs; rather it is people of sound intellect and upright nature who benefit, as these characteristics restrain them from doing that which is not appropriate.

﴿وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةٌ سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ لَكَانَ لِزَامًا وَأَجَلٌ مُّسَمًّى﴾ (١٢٩) فَاصْبِرْ عَلَىٰ مَا يَقُولُونَ وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ قَبْلَ طُلُوعِ الشَّمْسِ وَقَبْلَ غُرُوبِهَا وَمِنْ آنَاءِ اللَّيْلِ فَسَبِّحْ وَأَطْرَافَ النَّهَارِ لَعَلَّكَ تَرْضَىٰ ﴿١٣٠﴾ (سورة طه: ١٢٩-١٣٠)

- 20:129. Were it not for a prior decree from your Lord, and a term [of respite] already fixed, [their punishment in this world] would have been inevitable.
- 20:130. So bear patiently what they say, and glorify and praise your Lord before the rising of the sun and before its setting, and glorify Him during the night and during the day, so that you may be pleased [with the reward that Allah will give you].

These words offer consolation to the Messenger (ﷺ) and encourage him to be patient and not hasten to seek the destruction of the disbelievers who turn away, for their disbelief and rejection in and of themselves form a good reason for punishment to inevitably befall them, because Allah has made the punishments to be the result and inevitable consequence of sin.

These people have done that which leads to the cause of punishment, but what delayed its coming was the decree of your Lord, which dictated that they should be given respite and the punishment should be delayed, and the duration of the respite had already been determined. It is the predetermined period of respite, in fulfilment of the divine decree, that caused the punishment to be delayed until the time for it came, so that they might pay heed to the command of Allah and repent, so that He might accept their repentance and lift the punishment, if it had not yet become inevitable.

Therefore Allah instructed His Messenger (ﷺ) to be patient in bearing their offensive words, and He instructed him to seek His help by glorifying and praising his Lord at these times of virtue, before sunrise and sunset, and during the day, and at some times of the night. (In other words,) perhaps if you do that, you will be content with what your Lord has given you of reward in this world and the hereafter, your heart will be reassured, you will find joy in worshipping your Lord, and you will be distracted thereby from thinking about their offensive words, and thus patience will become easy for you.

﴿وَلَا تَمُدَّنَّ عَيْنَيْكَ إِلَىٰ مَا مَتَّعْنَا بِهِ أَزْوَاجًا مِنْهُمْ زَهْرَةَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا لِنَفْتِنَهُمْ فِيهِ ۚ وَرِزْقُ رَبِّكَ خَيْرٌ وَأَبْقَىٰ﴾ (سورة طه: ١٣١)

20:131. Do not look longingly at the good things We have given some among them to enjoy, the splendour of the life of this world, so that We may test them thereby. The provision of your Lord is better and more lasting.

That is, do not be unduly impressed and do not look repeatedly and admiringly at different aspects of this world and those who are enjoying them, such as delicious food and drink, fine clothing, beautiful houses, and adorned women, for all of that is merely the splendour of the life of this world. People who are deceived by this life are excited about these things and they dazzle the eyes of those who turn away from the truth, and the wrongdoers enjoy these things without paying any attention to the hereafter. But this world will soon come to an end, and everything in it will cease to be; it destroys those who love it and are infatuated by it, but they will regret it at a time when regret will be of no benefit, and they will realise, when the Resurrection comes, that what they were pursuing was no more than a trial and test from Allah, to find out who would make this world his sole concern and be deceived by it, and who would do good, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Verily, We have made all that is on earth as an adornment for it, in order to test them [humankind] and see which of them are best in conduct. And verily We will reduce all that is on it to a barren wasteland.﴾ (al-Kahf 18: 7-8)

﴿The provision of your Lord﴾ in this world of knowledge, faith, and righteous deeds, and in the hereafter of eternal bliss and a good life in closeness to the Most Gracious Lord,

﴿is better﴾ in essence and attributes than enjoyment in this life, ﴿and more lasting﴾ because it will never end; its food and shade will be perpetual, as Allah says elsewhere:

﴿But you [O humankind] prefer the life of this world, even though the hereafter is better and more lasting.﴾ (al-A'la 87: 16-17)

This verse indicates that if an individual notices in himself any aspiration for the adornment of this world and finds himself interested in pursuing it, he should remind himself of what lies ahead of the provision of his Lord, and he should weigh up the two matters.

﴿وَأْمُرْ أَهْلَكَ بِالصَّلَاةِ وَاصْطَبِرْ عَلَيْهَا لَا نَسْأَلُكَ رِزْقًا نَحْنُ نَرْزُقُكَ وَالْعَاقِبَةُ لِلتَّقْوَى﴾
 ﴿سورة طه: ١٣٢﴾

20:132. Enjoin your family [and your people] to establish prayer and remain steadfast therein. We do not ask you for provision; rather it is We who provide for you. And the best outcome is for those who fear Allah.

That is, encourage and urge your family to establish prayer, both obligatory and supererogatory. Enjoining prayer also implicitly enjoins everything without which it cannot be done. Hence this is a command to teach them how to pray, teach them what could invalidate the prayer, and teach them how to pray properly.

﴿and remain steadfast therein﴾ that is, remain steadfast in performing the prayer in the proper manner, paying attention to its essential parts, etiquette and focus of mind. If anyone finds that difficult, he should force himself to do it and strive to achieve that, and he should be patient in so doing. If he performs his prayer in the manner enjoined, he will be more careful and observant with regard to other matters of his religion, but if he neglects it, he will be more careless with regard to other matters. Then Allah (ﷻ) guarantees provision to His Messenger (ﷺ), so he should not be distracted by thinking of it from carrying out the commands of his religion.

﴿rather it is We who provide for you﴾ that is, your provision is due from Us and We guarantee it, just as We guarantee the provision of all creatures, so how about one who complies with Our commands and focuses on remembering Us? The provision of Allah is guaranteed to all, both those who fear Him and others, so we should focus our attention on that which will bring eternal happiness, which is piety or fear of Allah (taqwā). Hence Allah says:

«And the best outcome» in this world and the hereafter
 «is for those who fear Allah», which means doing what is enjoined and refraining from what is prohibited. Whoever does that will have the best outcome, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«...and the best outcome is for those who fear Allah.» (al-A'râf 7: 128)

﴿وَقَالُوا لَوْلَا يَأْتِينَا بِآيَةٍ مِنْ رَبِّهِ ۚ أَوَلَمْ تَأْتِهِمْ بَيِّنَةٌ مِمَّا فِي الصُّحُفِ الْأُولَى ۖ وَلَوْ
 أَنَّا أَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ لَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا لَوْلَا أَرْسَلْتَ إِلَيْنَا رَسُولًا فَنَتَّبِعَ آيَاتِكَ
 مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ نُنْزِلَ وَتُخْزَى ۖ قُلْ كُلُّ مُتَرَبِّصٍ فَتَرَبَّصُوا ۚ فَسَتَعْلَمُونَ مَنْ أَصْحَابُ
 الصِّرَاطِ السَّوِيِّ وَمَنِ اهْتَدَى ۚ﴾ (سورة طه: ١٣٣-١٣٥)

- 20:133. They say: Why does he not bring us a sign from his Lord? Has there not come to them that which explains and confirms what was in the earlier scriptures [namely the Qur'an]?
- 20:134. If We had destroyed them with a punishment before this, they would have said: Our Lord, why did You not send to us a Messenger so that we could have followed Your revelations before we were humiliated and disgraced?
- 20:135. Say: Each of us is waiting; so wait, and you will come to know who is following the straight path and who is rightly guided.

Those who disbelieved in the Messenger (ﷺ) said: Why does he not bring us a sign from his Lord? What they meant was the signs that they themselves demanded. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

«They say: We will never believe in you until you cause a spring to gush forth from the earth for us; or you have a garden of date palms and vines, and you cause rivers to gush forth in their midst; or you cause the sky to fall upon us in pieces, as you claimed [will happen on the Day of Resurrection]; or you bring Allah and the angels before us, face to face. ﴿al-Isrâ' 17: 90-92﴾

This was obstinacy, stubbornness and wrongdoing on their part, for they and the Messenger (ﷺ) were all humans and slaves of Allah, so it was not appropriate for them to demand signs according to their own whims and desires; rather it is the One Who sends down the signs Who chooses them according to His wisdom, and that is Allah.

Because their words ﴿Why does he not bring us a sign from his Lord?﴾ implied that he had not brought them a sign to confirm his truthfulness, these words are to be regarded as a lie and fabrication, because he had indeed brought clear miracles and overwhelming signs, any one of which would be sufficient to achieve the purpose. Hence Allah says:

﴿Has there not come to them﴾, if they are sincere in what they say and are really seeking truth that is based on evidence, ﴿that which explains and confirms what was in the earlier scriptures?﴾ namely this Qur'an, which confirms that which was in the earlier scriptures, such as the Torah, Gospel and so on, with which it is in harmony, and it tells of what they told before, and they also offer testimony for the Qur'an and foretell of the Messenger (ﷺ). This is like the verse in which Allah says:

﴿Is it not enough for them that We have sent down to you the Book [Qur'an] which is recited to them? Verily, in that is mercy and a reminder for people who believe.﴾ (al-'Ankaboot 29: 51)

The signs benefit the believers, and increase them in faith and certainty; as for those who turn away from them and oppose them, they will not believe in them and will not benefit from them.

﴿Verily, those against whom the decree of your Lord is fulfilled will not believe, even if every sign were to come to them, until they see [for themselves] the painful punishment.﴾ (Yoonus 10: 96-97)

Rather the benefit in showing them Our signs is to establish the proof of Allah against them, lest they say when the punishment befalls them: «Our Lord, why did You not send to us a Messenger so that we could have followed Your revelations before we were humiliated and disgraced» by the punishment? For His Messenger did indeed come, bringing with him His signs and proof; so if you are as you claim, then believe in him.

Say, O Muhammad (ﷺ), to those who reject you and who say: wait for some misfortune to befall him «Say: Each of us is waiting», so wait for my death, and I will wait for the punishment to befall you.

«Say: Are you waiting for anything to happen to us except one of the two good things [victory or martyrdom]? But we are waiting for Allah to afflict you with a punishment, either from Himself or at our hands...» (at-Tawbah 9: 52)

«so wait, and you will come to know who is following the straight path and who is rightly guided» in his attitude, me or you, because the one who has the right attitude is the winner and is rightly guided, and he will be saved and will triumph. But the one who diverts from that path will be a loser and a failure, and he will be punished.

Thus it is known that it is the Messenger (ﷺ) who is like that, and his enemies are something other than that. And Allah knows best.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat Tâ Hâ.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

21.

Soorat al-Anbiyâ'

(Makki)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿اقْتَرَبَ لِلنَّاسِ حِسَابُهُمْ وَهُمْ فِي غَفْلَةٍ مُّعْرِضُونَ ﴿١﴾ مَا يَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ ذِكْرِ
مِنْ رَبِّهِمْ تُخَذِّلُ إِلَّا أَسْتَمِعُوهُ وَهُمْ يَلْعَبُونَ ﴿٢﴾ لَا هِيَ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَأَسْرُوا النَّجْوَى
الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا هَلْ هَذَا إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُكُمْ أَفَتَأْتُونَ السَّحَرَ وَأَنْتُمْ تَبْصُرُونَ
﴿٣﴾ قَالَ رَبِّي يَعْلَمُ الْقَوْلَ فِي السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٤﴾﴾ (سورة

الأنبياء: ١-٤)

- 21:1. The Day of Reckoning for humankind has drawn near, and yet they turn away in heedlessness.
- 21:2. No fresh revelation comes to them from their Lord, but they listen to it in ridicule,
- 21:3. with hearts distracted. The wrongdoers whisper to one another in secret: Is this man not a human being like yourselves? Will you, then, follow his magic with your eyes wide open?
- 21:4. He said: My Lord knows every word spoken in the heavens and on earth, for He is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.

This is an expression of amazement at people's attitude, and at the fact that no reminder moves them, and they do not pay any attention to any warner, for their reckoning has drawn near and the requital for their deeds, both good and bad, is at hand, but they are turning away in heedlessness, paying no attention to the purpose for which they were created and ignoring that of which they have been warned, as if they were created for this world and were born merely to enjoy physical pleasures therein. Allah keeps renewing the reminder and exhortation to them, but they persist in their negligence and turning away. Hence He says:

﴿No fresh revelation comes to them from their Lord﴾, reminding them of that which will benefit them and urging them to do it, and reminding them of that which will harm them and warning them against it

﴿but they listen to it﴾ in a manner of listening that establishes proof against them

﴿in ridicule, with hearts distracted﴾ that is, their hearts are heedless and turn away, distracted by worldly concerns and idle pursuits. They are distracted by physical pleasure, striving for false purposes and ridiculing the message, even though what they should do is something other than that; their hearts should be focused on the commands and prohibitions of Allah, and they should listen to the message in such a way that they understand the intended meaning, and they should strive physically to worship their Lord, which is the purpose for which they were created, and they should be mindful of the Resurrection, reckoning and recompense. By doing that, they would attain what they aspire for, their affairs would be put in order and their deeds would become righteous.

There are two scholarly views concerning the meaning of the words: ﴿The Day of Reckoning for humankind has drawn near﴾ (21: 1).

The first view is that the Ummah is the last of nations and its Messenger (ﷺ) is the final Messenger, and the Hour will come upon his Ummah. So the reckoning has drawn near to them in contrast to the nations that came before them, because the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

«I and the Hour have been sent like these two.» (Muslim)

-- and he held up two of his fingers together, the forefinger and the one that is next to it.

The second view is that what is meant by the approach of the reckoning is death, because when a person dies, his reckoning has begun and he has entered the realm of requital for deeds. This is an expression of amazement at all those who are negligent and turn away, not knowing when death will strike, morning or evening. This is how all people are, except those on whom Allah has bestowed His grace, so they prepare for death and what comes after it.

Then Allah tells us what the disbelievers and wrongdoers spoke of when they whispered to one another by way of stubbornness, opposing the truth with falsehood. They conversed with one another and reached an agreement among themselves that they would say concerning the Messenger (ﷺ): He is a human being like you, so what makes him better than you and what makes him special? If any of you were to make a claim like his, his word would be equal to his, but he wants to make himself superior to you and establish himself as a leader among you, so do not obey him and do not believe him; he is a magician and what he has brought of the Qur'an is magic, so keep away from him and deter other people from speaking to him, and say: «Will you, then, follow his magic with your eyes wide open?» (21: 3). They plotted this even though they knew that he was indeed the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), based on what they had seen of clear signs, the like of which no one else had ever seen. But what made them do that was the fact that they were doomed, wrongdoers and stubborn. Allah (ﷻ) encompassed with His knowledge all that they said in private, and He would requite them for it. Hence He said:

«He said: My Lord knows every word spoken» in private and in public
 «in the heavens and on earth» that is, in all regions thereof
 «for He is All-Hearing» and hears all voices, in all different languages, calling out for all kinds of different needs
 «All-Knowing» and He knows what is in people's hearts and what is yet more hidden.

﴿بَلْ قَالُوا أَضْغَتْ أَحْلَامٌ بَلْ افْتَرَاهُ بَلْ هُوَ شَاعِرٌ فَلْيَأْتِنَا بِآيَةٍ كَمَا أُرْسِلَ الْأَوَّلُونَ ﴿٥﴾ مَا آمَنَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ مِنْ قَرِيَةٍ أَهْلَكْنَاهَا أَفَهُمْ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٦﴾﴾ (سورة

الأنبياء: ٥-٦)

21:5. They said: Nay, [these are] jumbled, confusing dreams; nay, he has fabricated it; nay, he is but a poet. So let him bring us a sign, such as the earlier Messengers were sent with.

21:6. Not one of the cities whom We destroyed believed [even though We showed them signs]; will these people then believe?

Here Allah (ﷻ) refers to the lies fabricated by those who disbelieved in Muhammad (ﷺ) and what he brought of the Holy Qur'an, telling us that they called him a fool and made other false accusations against him. Sometimes they said «[[these are] jumbled, confusing dreams», like the words of one who murmurs in his sleep and does not realise what he is saying. Sometimes they said «he has fabricated it» and made it up by himself. And sometimes they said that he was a poet and what he brought was poetry.

Anyone who has the slightest knowledge of the reality of the Messenger (ﷺ), and examines this Book that he brought, will be certain, beyond any shadow of a doubt, that it is the best and most sublime of speech and that it is from Allah, for no human could ever produce anything like even part of it, as Allah challenged His enemies to do and thereby prove that it was not from Him. Even though they had a motive to prove that it was not from Him, and they harboured enmity towards it, they were not able to produce something like it to prove that it was not from Him, and they were well aware of that. Otherwise, what made them strive so hard? What gave them sleepless nights and rendered them speechless, except the truth that nothing can resist? Rather they said these words about the Prophet (ﷺ) – as they did not believe in him – so as to turn people away from him who did not know him. The Qur'an is the greatest of eternal signs that points to the soundness of the message brought by the Messenger (ﷺ) and his truthfulness, and it is sufficient.

Whoever looks for proof other than it, or demands some other sign, is ignorant and is being unfair; he is more like those stubborn people who rejected the Qur'an and demanded other signs of their own, choosing which would be the most harmful thing for them and would bring them no benefits at all, because if their aim was to know the truth on the basis of proof, the proof was already established without what they were demanding of signs. But if their aim was to outwit the Prophet (ﷺ) and find excuses for themselves (for not believing) – if their demand for a particular sign was not met – then in that case, even if they were given what they demanded of signs, they definitely would not believe; even if every sign were to come to them, they would not believe until they saw (for themselves) the painful punishment (cf. 10: 97).

Hence Allah tells us that they said: ﴿So let him bring us a sign, such as the earlier Messengers were sent with﴾ that is, like the she-camel of Şâlih and the staff of Moosâ, and so on.

﴿Not one of the cities whom We destroyed believed﴾ in these signs that they demanded. Allah's way of dealing with people is that if anyone demands a sign and it is granted to him, but he does not believe, then the punishment will be hastened for him. The earlier generations did not believe in those signs, so will these people believe in them? What makes them better than those earlier generations? What good virtue do they possess that would make them believe when these signs appear?

This appears in the form of a question – ﴿will these people then believe?﴾ – but what is meant is denial or negation; in other words, they will never believe.

﴿وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا قَبْلَكَ إِلَّا رِجَالًا نُوْحِي إِلَيْهِمْ فَسَتَلَوْا أَهْلَ الذِّكْرِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٧﴾ وَمَا جَعَلْنَاهُمْ جَسَدًا لَا يَأْكُلُونَ الطَّعَامَ وَمَا كَانُوا خَالِدِينَ ﴿٨﴾ ثُمَّ صَدَقْنَاهُمُ الْوَعْدَ فَأَنْجَيْنَاهُمْ وَمَنْ نَشَاءُ وَأَهْلَكْنَا الْمُسْرِفِينَ ﴿٩﴾﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٧-٩)

(٩-٧)

- 21:7. We did not send before you [O Muhammad] any but men to whom We gave revelation. So [O people] ask those who have knowledge,<sup>17</sup> if you do not know.
- 21:8. We did not give them bodies that needed no food, nor were they immortal.
- 21:9. Then We fulfilled Our promise to them, and We saved them and those whom We willed, and We destroyed those who transgressed all bounds.

This is a response to the specious argument of those who disbelieved in the Messenger (ﷺ) and said: Why is he not an angel who does not need food or drink, and does not engage in business in the marketplace? Why is he not immortal? As he was not like that, they thought that this indicated that he was not a Messenger (ﷺ).

<sup>17</sup> This may refer to: Jewish and Christian scholars who have knowledge of the previous scriptures; Muslim scholars who have knowledge of the Qur'an; or those who have knowledge of the history of earlier nations.

This specious argument is still used by those who disbelieve in the Messengers. They are all alike in their disbelief, and they are all alike in their thinking. Allah (ﷻ) responded to this argument from those who disbelieved in the Messenger (Muhammad [ﷺ]), although they accepted Messengers who came before him – even if they believed only in Ibrâheem (ﷺ), whose prophethood was accepted by all groups, including the polytheists who claimed to be following his path and religion – by noting that the Messengers who came before Muhammad (ﷺ) were all human beings who ate food, walked about in the marketplaces and were subject to everything that human beings go through, such as death and the like; Allah sent them to their peoples and nations, and some believed in them whereas others disbelieved, and Allah fulfilled His promise to them of saving and blessing them and their followers, and destroying the transgressors who rejected them.

So why, in the case of Muhammad (ﷺ), do they reject his message on the basis of false arguments, when the same argument could be made with regard to his fellow Messengers in whom those who reject Muhammad believe? This argument is very clear and binding. If they accept a human Messenger, but they will not accept a non-human Messenger, then their argument is flawed, and they themselves have shown it to be flawed when they admitted that it was so, and when they contradicted themselves in their argument. If, based on this argument, they then denied the prophethood of any human being at all, and said that no one could be a Prophet unless he was immortal and did not eat food, then Allah (ﷻ) has answered this specious argument in the verses in which He says:

﴿They say: Why has an angel not been sent down to him? If We did send down an angel, that would be the end of the matter and they would be given no respite. And if We had appointed [as Messenger] an angel, We would have made him appear as a man, and thus We would only have confused them in the same way as they are now confusing themselves.﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 8-9)

Moreover, ordinary human beings are not able to receive revelation directly from the angels:

﴿Say: If there had been angels on earth, walking about and settled therein, We would surely have sent down to them from heaven an angel as a messenger.﴾ (al-Isrā' 17: 95)

If you still have any doubts and do not know about the condition of the earlier Messengers, then ﴿ask those who have knowledge﴾ of the earlier scriptures, such as the people of the Torah and the Gospel, and they will tell you what they know, that the Messengers were all human, like those to whom they were sent.

Although the particular reason for revelation of this verse had to do with asking the People of the Book about the earlier Messengers, as they were people of knowledge, it is general in meaning and applies to other matters of religion, both basic and minor. If a person does not have any knowledge of such an issue, he may ask one who does know it. So it is a command to learn and ask people of knowledge. We are only instructed to ask them because they are obliged to teach and answer questions about what they know.

Because we are specifically instructed to ask those who have knowledge, this implies that it is not allowed to ask questions of one who is known to be ignorant and to have no knowledge, and it is prohibited for one who has no knowledge to give answers. This verse also indicates that there are no Prophets among women, neither Maryam nor anyone else, because Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿any but men to whom We gave revelation﴾.

﴿لَقَدْ أَنزَلْنَا إِلَيْكُمْ كِتَابًا فِيهِ ذِكْرُكُمْ أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ١٠)

21:10. We have sent down to you [O people] a Book in which there is honour for you [if you follow its teachings]; will you not then understand?

We have sent down to you – O people to whom Muhammad ibn ‘Abdullâh ibn ‘Abdul-Muttalib (ﷺ) was sent – a noble Book and a clear Qur’an, ﴿in which there is honour for you﴾ that is, renown, pride and a lofty status, if you pay heed to what it contains of true stories, then believe in it, comply with what it enjoins and avoid what it forbids. Then you will rise in status and become significant.

﴿will you not then understand﴾ what will benefit you and what will harm you? How can you not accept it and not strive to adhere to that in which is your renown and honour in this world and in the hereafter? If you had any understanding, you would have followed this path.

But because you did not follow it, and you followed other paths instead that would lead to humiliation and to low status and misery in this world and the hereafter, it is known that you have no sound reasoning or understanding.

This verse is confirmed by what happened in reality: those who believed in the Messenger (ﷺ) and followed the teachings of the Qur’an, namely the Ṣaḥābah and those who came after them, attained honour, high status and great renown, and were elevated to a higher position than kings, as is well known to everyone. It is also known what happened to those who did not adhere to this Qur’an and were not guided by it and did not purify themselves on the basis thereof: they were brought low, despised, tainted and wretched. There is no way to attain happiness in this world or the hereafter except by adhering to the teachings of this Book.

﴿وَكَمْ قَصَمْنَا مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ كَانَتْ ظَالِمَةً وَأَنْشَأْنَا بَعْدَهَا قَوْمًا آخَرِينَ﴾ (١١) فَلَمَّا
 أَحْسَوْا بِأَسَنَّا إِذَا هُمْ مِنْهَا يَرْكُضُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ لَا تَرْكُضُوا وَارْجِعُوا إِلَى مَا أُتْرِفْتُمْ فِيهِ
 وَمَسْكِنَيْكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُشْكِلُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ قَالُوا يَبُولْنَا إِنْ أُنَاكُنَّا ظَالِمِينَ ﴿١٤﴾ فَمَا زَالَتْ تِلْكَ
 دَعْوَاهُمْ حَتَّى جَعَلْنَاهُمْ حَصِيدًا خَمِيدِينَ ﴿١٥﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ١١-١٥)

- 21:11. How many cities that were given to wrongdoing have We utterly destroyed, and raised up other people in their stead.
- 21:12. When they sensed Our punishment [approaching], they began to flee from it.
- 21:13. Do not flee. Go back to your comforts and your dwellings, so that you may be sought out [to give help and advice to others].
- 21:14. They said: Woe to us! We were indeed wrongdoers.
- 21:15. And that cry of theirs did not cease until We mowed them down and left them lifeless.

Here Allah warns these wrongdoers who disbelieved in the Messenger (ﷺ) of what happened to previous nations who disbelieved in other Messengers:

﴿How many cities that were given to wrongdoing have We utterly destroyed﴾ that is, eradicated completely
 ﴿and raised up other people in their stead﴾. When these people who were destroyed realised that the punishment of Allah was imminent and had started to befall them, and that it was not possible for them to go back and there was no way they could flee, they began to stamp their feet in an expression of regret and anguish, lamenting what they had done and trying to escape the punishment.

Therefore it was said to them, by way of mockery (as part of the punishment): ﴿Do not flee. Go back to your comforts and your dwellings, so that you may be sought out [to give help and advice to others]] that is, stamping your feet and expressing regret will not benefit you, but if you think you can, then go back to your pleasures and desirable things, to your fine dwellings and your world that deceived you and distracted you until the punishment of Allah came to you, so that you may establish yourselves again there and indulge in pleasures, and feel content and respected in your dwellings; perhaps you will be as you were before, and people will come to you seeking help with regard to worldly affairs, as happened before. But there is no way that can happen. How could they go back to that, when that time is now over and the punishment and divine wrath have started to befall them, their worldly honour and glory have vanished and all that is left is regret and lamentation?

Hence ﴿They said: Woe to us! We were indeed wrongdoers. And that cry of theirs did not cease﴾ that is, that cry of woe, doom and regret, admitting their wrongdoing and acknowledging that Allah was just in what He sent upon them, did not cease ﴿until We mowed them down and left them lifeless﴾ that is, like crops that are mown down and brought low. Thus they were felled, all their movements ceased and their voices were silenced. So beware – O you who are addressed here – of persisting in rejection of the noblest of the Messengers (ﷺ), lest there befall you what befell them.

﴿وَمَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَاءَ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا لَعِينٍ ﴿١٦﴾ لَوْ أَرَدْنَا أَنْ نَتَّخِذَ لَهُمْ آتَاخِذَةً مِنْ لَدُنَّا إِنْ كُنَّا فَاعِلِينَ ﴿١٧﴾﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ١٦-١٧)

21:16. We have not created the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, in vain.

21:17. If We had wanted to take a pastime, We could have done so, if We were to do such a thing.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He did not create the heavens and the earth without purpose or for no reason; rather He created them in truth and for the truth, so that people may find proof in them that He is the Almighty Creator, wise controller, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful to Whom belong all attributes of perfection, to Whom be all praise and glory, Whose word is true and Whose Messengers are truthful in what they tell. The One Who is able to create the heavens and the earth, despite their immense vastness, is also able to recreate bodies after their death, so that He may requite the doer of good for his good deeds and the doer of evil for his evil deeds.

﴿If We had wanted to take a pastime﴾ – this is said only for argument's sake, because it is impossible

﴿We could have done so, if We were to do such a thing﴾ and We would not have disclosed to you what it would contain of vanity and frivolity, because that is a shortcoming and a negative reflection on Us, and We would not want to show it to you.

The real purpose behind the heavens and the earth, which are always visible to you, cannot be vain or frivolous. All of this is said by way of argument and addressed to small-minded people and is aimed at convincing them by all possible means. Glory be to the Most Forbearing, Most Merciful, Who is Most Wise and deals with all matters appropriately.

﴿بَلْ نَقْذِفُ بِالْحَقِّ عَلَى الْبَاطِلِ فَيَدْمَغُهُ فَإِذَا هُوَ زَاهِقٌ وَلَكُمُ الْوَيْلُ مِمَّا نَصِفُونَ﴾<sup>(١٨)</sup>
 وَلَهُ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَنْ عِنْدَهُ لَا يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ عَنْ عِبَادَتِهِ وَلَا
 يَسْتَحْسِرُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ يُسْحِقُونَ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ لَا يَفْقُرُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ١٨-٢٠)

21:18. Nay, rather We hurl the truth against falsehood, and it crushes it, whereupon it perishes. Woe to you for what you ascribe [falsely, to Allah].

21:19. To Him belong all those who are in the heavens and on earth, and those who are with Him are not too proud to worship Him, nor do they ever grow weary.

21:20. They glorify Him night and day, without flagging.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He guarantees to show the truth to be true and to show falsehood to be false; any falsehood that is presented or defended by anyone, Allah will send down truth, knowledge and explanations that will destroy it, so that it will diminish and it will become apparent to everyone that it is false.

﴿whereupon it perishes﴾ that is, it diminishes and disappears. This is general in meaning and applies to all religious matters. No supporter of falsehood presents a specious argument, basing it on reason or on a text, supporting falsehood or rejecting truth, but there is definitive evidence from Allah that is based on reason or on texts, that will defeat the false argument and suppress it. Thus the falseness thereof will become clear to everyone. That becomes clear by examining these issues one by one, and you will always find that this is the case.

﴿Woe to you﴾ who ascribed to Allah that which is not befitting to Him, such as saying that He has a child, a wife, rivals or partners. All that you will gain from that is ﴿woe﴾, regret and loss; there is no benefit for you in what you say and you will not get the return for which you hope and strive. All you will get is the opposite of what you are seeking, namely loss and deprivation.

Then Allah tells us that He is the Sovereign of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them, therefore all creatures are His slaves and subject to Him, and not one of them has any control or share of dominion, not one of them helps Him in His control, and no one can intercede except by Allah's leave, so how can any of them be taken as gods? How could Allah have begotten any of them as a son?

Glorified and exalted be the Almighty Sovereign to Whom all submit, for Whom nothing is difficult, to Whom the angels who are near Him submit and they all constantly worship Him.

Hence Allah says: ﴿and those who are with Him﴾ namely the angels, ﴿are not too proud to worship Him, nor do they ever grow weary﴾ that is, they never tire of worship, because they are so eager, their love is complete and they are physically strong.

﴿They glorify Him night and day, without flagging﴾ that is, they are immersed in worship and glorification at all times, without ceasing. Despite their great number, all of them are like that, and this is indicative of Allah's greatness, complete sovereignty, and perfect knowledge and wisdom, which dictate that none should be worshipped except He, and no act of worship should be directed to anyone except Him.

﴿أَمْ اتَّخَذُوا إِلَهًا مِّنَ الْأَرْضِ هُمْ يُنشِرُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ لَوْ كَانَ فِيهِمَا آلِهَةٌ إِلَّا اللَّهُ لَفَسَدَتَا فَسُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَرْشِ عَمَّا يَصِفُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾ لَا يُشْئِلُ عَمَّا يَفْعَلُ وَهُمْ يُشْكِرُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ أَمْ اتَّخَذُوا مِن دُونِهِ إِلَهًا قُلْ هَاتُوا بُرْهَانَكُمْ هَذَا ذِكْرُ مَن مَّعِيَ وَذِكْرُ مَن قَبْلِي بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ الْحَقَّ فَهُمْ مُّعْرِضُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِن قَبْلِكَ مِن رَّسُولٍ إِلَّا نُوحِي إِلَيْهِ أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنَا فَاعْبُدُونِ ﴿٢٥﴾﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٢١-٢٥)

- 21:21. Or have they taken gods from the earth who can raise [the dead]?
 21:22. If there had been therein [in the heavens and the earth] any gods besides Allah, both realms would surely have fallen into disorder. Glory be to Allah, Lord of the Throne, and [exalted be He] far above what they ascribe [to Him].
 21:23. He cannot be questioned about what He does, but they will be questioned.
 21:24. Or have they taken other gods besides Him? Say: Bring your proof. This is the Book of those who are with me, and the Book of those who came before me. But most of them do not know the truth, so they turn away.

- 21:25. And We did not send before you [O Muhammad] any Messenger but We revealed to him: There is no god but I, so worship Me [alone].

Having mentioned the perfect nature of His power and greatness, and the submission of all things to Him, here Allah (ﷻ) denounces the polytheists who have, besides Allah, taken others from the earth as gods who are utterly helpless and incapable.

﴿Or have they taken gods from the earth who can raise [the dead]?﴾ This appears in the form of a question, but what is meant is negation; in other words, those [false gods] are not able to raise the dead or resurrect them. This is explained elsewhere, where Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿They have taken other gods besides Him that can create nothing but are themselves created; they have no power either to harm or benefit themselves, and they have no power to cause death, give life or resurrect.﴾ (al-Furqān 25: 3)

– and:

﴿Yet they have taken other gods besides Allah, in the hope that they may be helped. They cannot help them; rather their worshippers stand like warriors ready to defend them.﴾ (Yā Seen 36: 74-75)

So the polytheist worships something created that cannot benefit or harm, and he does not devote his worship solely to Allah, to Whom all perfect attributes belong and in Whose Hand is control and the power to benefit or harm. That is because the polytheist is not guided and is unfortunate, and because of his ignorance and wrongdoing. The universe cannot maintain well-being unless it is cared for by One God, as it was created and brought into being by only one Lord. Hence Allah says:

﴿If there had been therein﴾ that is in the heavens and the earth,

﴿any gods besides Allah, both realms would surely have fallen into disorder﴾ in and of themselves, and all creatures in them would also have fallen into disorder.

What this means is that the upper and lower realms are visibly in the most perfect shape, sound and in order, with no flaws or defects, no resistance to the divine will and no opposition to the divine decree. This indicates that their Controller is one, their Lord is one and their God is one. If there were two or more controllers or lords, then their system would falter and their pillars would collapse, because they (those two controllers or lords) would oppose one another and strive against one another. If one of them wanted one thing, the other would want the opposite. Therefore it is impossible for two wills to coexist, and if the will of one was done but not the other, this would indicate that the other was helpless and incapable, but it would be impossible for both to agree on one thing in all matters.

Therefore it must be the case that the Controller Whose will alone is done, without any resistance or opposition, is Allah, the One, the Subduer. Hence Allah refers to this argument when He says:

﴿Allah has never begotten a son, nor is there any god besides Him. [In that case,] each god would have taken full control of what he had created, and each would have rushed to gain supremacy over the others. Glory be to Allah and [exalted be He] far above what they ascribe [to Him].﴾ (al-Mu'minoon 23: 91)

– and:

﴿Say [O Muhammad]: If there were [other] gods with Him, as they say, they would surely have sought a way to the Lord of the Throne.<sup>18</sup> Glory be to Him, and exalted be He far above what they say!﴾ (al-Isrā' 17: 42-43)

---

<sup>18</sup> What is meant is that they would have sought a way to challenge Him (al-Qurtubi, from Ibn 'Abbās).

Hence Allah says here: «Glory be to Allah» that is, exalted be He above all shortcomings, for He alone is perfect «Lord of the Throne» which is above all creation, and is the vastest and greatest of all created things. If He is Lord of the Throne, it is even more appropriate for Him to be Lord of whatever is beneath it. «and [exalted be He] far above what they ascribe [to Him]» that is, what the disbelievers ascribe to Him, of having begotten offspring or taken a wife, or having a partner in any way whatsoever.

«He cannot be questioned about what He does» because of His greatness, glory and perfect might. No one can resist Him or oppose Him in word or deed, because of His perfect wisdom, for He is precise and wise in all that He does. He has created everything perfectly that may be comprehended by reason, so there can be no question concerning it, because all that He creates is free of faults.

«but they» that is, all created beings «will be questioned» about the deeds and words, because of their helplessness and weakness, and because they are His slaves; their actions and movements are controlled and they have not the slightest control over themselves or anyone else.

Then Allah again criticises and rebukes the polytheists for taking gods besides Him: «Or have they taken other gods besides Him? Say: Bring your proof» that is your evidence for the soundness of your view. But they will never be able to do that; rather definitive evidence has been established of its falseness. Hence Allah says:

«This is the Book of those who are with me, and the Book of those who came before me» that is, all the previous scriptures and religious teachings are agreed on the soundness of what I have said to you regarding the wrongness of ascribing partners to Allah. This is the Book of Allah in which there is mention of all things on the basis of rational and textual evidence, and all of these previous scriptures are proof and evidence for what I said. As it is the case that proof and evidence have been established against them of the falseness of what they believe, it is known that they have no proof, because definitive proof is that which, when there is certainty, no argument can withstand, otherwise it cannot be definitive. If there is proof and there are arguments that may be raised against it, then they are specious arguments that do not change anything.

﴿But most of them do not know the truth﴾ that is, they persist in their way, imitating their forefathers and arguing without any knowledge or guidance. The fact that they do not have any knowledge of the truth is not because it is hidden or unclear; rather it is because they turn away from it. Otherwise, if they paid the slightest attention to it, they would know truth from falsehood in a very clear way. Hence Allah says: ﴿so they turn away﴾.

When Allah referred to the scriptures of those who came before, and instructed people to refer to them in the context of discussing this issue, He explained it fully by saying: ﴿And We did not send before you [O Muhammad] any Messenger but We revealed to him: There is no god but I, so worship Me [alone]﴾. With regard to all the Messengers who came before you, and their Books, the basic essence of their message is the command to worship Allah alone, with no partner or associate, and the declaration that He alone is the true God Who is deserving of worship, and worship of anything other than Him is false.

﴿وَقَالُوا اتَّخَذَ الرَّحْمَنُ وَلَدًا سُبْحَنَهُ بَلْ عِبَادٌ مُّكْرَمُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ لَا يَسْـَٔفُونَهُ بِالْقَوْلِ وَهُمْ بِأَمْرِهِ يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾ يَعْلَمُ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ وَلَا يَشْفَعُونَ إِلَّا لِمَنِ ارْتَضَىٰ وَهُمْ مِنْ خَشْيَتِهِ مُشْفِقُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ وَمَنْ يَقُلْ مِنْهُمْ إِنِّي إِلَهٌ مِنْ دُونِهِ فَذَلِكَ نَجْزِيهِ جَهَنَّمَ كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٧٠﴾﴾ (سورة

(الأنبياء: ٢٦-٢٩)

- 21:26. They say: The Most Gracious has begotten offspring. Glory be to Him! They [the ones they describe as His offspring] are but honoured slaves.
- 21:27. They do not speak until He has spoken, and they only do as He commands.
- 21:28. He knows what was before them and what will be after them, and they cannot intercede except for those with whom He is pleased, and they are filled with reverent awe of Him.
- 21:29. If any of them were to say: I am a god besides Him, We would requite him with hell. Thus do We requite the wrongdoers.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the foolishness of the polytheists who disbelieved in the Messenger (ﷺ) and claimed that Allah had begotten offspring by saying that the angels were the daughters of Allah. Exalted be Allah far above what they say.

Then He goes on to describe the angels as slaves who are subject to His Lordship and under His control. They have no control over anything at all; rather they are honoured by Allah, Who made them His slaves and bestowed His mercy upon them, and He singled them out for virtues and purified them of all bad attributes. They observe the utmost etiquette with Allah and comply with His commands.

﴿They do not speak until He has spoken﴾ that is, they do not say anything that has to do with the affairs of His dominion until Allah speaks, because of their perfect etiquette and their awareness of the perfect nature of His wisdom and knowledge.

﴿and they only do as He commands﴾ that is, no matter what He commands them to do, they comply with His command; no matter what task He gives them, they do it. They do not disobey Him for even an instant, and they do not do anything on the basis of what they themselves desire; rather they do only what Allah commands. Moreover, Allah has encompassed them with His knowledge.

For He knows ﴿what was before them and what will be after them﴾ that is, their past and future affairs, so they cannot escape His knowledge, just as they cannot escape His command and control.

Because they do not speak until He has spoken, they do not intercede for anyone without His permission and consent. If He gives them permission and is pleased with the one for whom they seek to intercede, then they will intercede for him. However, Allah (ﷻ) does not accept any words or deeds except those that were done sincerely for His sake, in accordance with the teachings of His Messenger (ﷺ). This verse is one of the proofs for the concept of intercession, and proves that the angels will intercede.

﴿and they are filled with reverent awe of Him﴾ that is, they fear Him and are in awe of Him. They have submitted to His Majesty and their faces are humbled before His glory and beauty.

Having explained that they have no right to divinity and do not deserve any worship at all, as the description that He gives of them implies that, Allah also states that they have no share in divinity even if they make such a claim, and that if, for argument's sake, any of them were to say, ﴿I am a god besides Him, We would requite him with hell. Thus do We requite the wrongdoers﴾. What wrongdoing could be greater than that of an imperfect creature, who is in need of Allah in all ways, claiming to share with Allah the attributes of divinity and Lordship?

﴿أَوَلَمْ يَرِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَنَّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ كَانَتْ رَتْقًا فَفَتَقْنَاهُمَا وَجَعَلْنَا
مِنَ الْمَاءِ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ حَيٍّ أَفَلَا يُؤْمِنُونَ﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٣٠)

21:30. Do the disbelievers not realise that the heavens and the earth were a single mass, then We split them apart? And We have made from water every living thing. Will they not then believe?

That is, can these people who disbelieve in their Lord and do not show devotion in worship to Him alone not see that which clearly indicates that He is the Lord Who is Most Praiseworthy, Most Generous, and is deserving of worship? They look at the heavens and the earth, and see them as a solid mass; they see the sky without a single cloud to bring rain, and they see the earth lifeless and dead, with no vegetation in it. Then We split them apart, so that the sky produces rain and the earth produces vegetation. It is He Who creates clouds in the sky, after it had been completely clear, and instils in the clouds abundant water, then sends it down to a dead land, that was covered in dust and utterly parched, and He causes it to rain so that the earth stirs to life and swells, and brings forth beautiful plants of every kind, that are used for many different purposes. Does that not indicate that He is true and all others besides Him are false, and that it is He Who will give life to the dead, and that He is the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful? ﴿Will they not then believe?﴾ This refers to sound faith, with no element of doubt or ascription of partners to Allah.

Then Allah refers to evidence in the universe:

﴿وَجَعَلْنَا فِي الْأَرْضِ رَوَاسِيَ أَنْ تَمِيدَ بِهِمْ وَجَعَلْنَا فِيهَا فِجَاجًا سُبُلًا لَّعَلَّهُمْ يَهْتَدُونَ﴾ (٣١) وَجَعَلْنَا السَّمَاءَ سَقْفًا مَحْفُوظًا وَهُمْ عَنْ آيَاتِهَا مُعْرِضُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ وَالنَّهَارَ وَاللَّيْلَ وَالشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ كُلٌّ فِي فَلَكٍ يَسْبَحُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٣١-٣٣)

- 21:31. And We have set on the earth mountains standing firm, lest it shake with them, and We have made therein broad paths so that they may find their way.
- 21:32. And We have made the heaven a canopy, safe and well-guarded, yet they turn away from its signs.

21:33. It is He Who created the night and the day, and the sun and the moon, each moving swiftly in its orbit.

That is, among the evidence of His might, His perfection, His oneness and His mercy is the fact that, as the earth could not be stable without the mountains, He has made it stable thereby, and has made the mountains like pegs for it, so that it will not shake with the people. People would not be able to remain steady on it or cultivate it or settle on it otherwise.

So Allah has made the earth stable by means of the mountains, which resulted in an abundance of benefits. Because the mountains are connected to one another, and those chains of high peaks run on for a long distance, if they were to remain like that, travelling between countries would be very difficult. But by His wisdom and mercy, Allah has created broad paths between the mountains; this refers to easy routes and gentle terrain through which people can find their way to reach the lands they seek. And perhaps they will be guided to evidence of the oneness of the Bestower.

﴿And We have made the heaven a canopy﴾ for the earth on which you are;

﴿safe and well-guarded﴾ against falling.

﴿Verily, Allah sustains the heavens and the earth, lest they decline...﴾
(Fâtir 35: 41)

The heavens are also guarded against the eavesdropping of the devils.

﴿yet they turn away from its signs﴾ that is, they are heedless and distracted. This is general in meaning and refers to all the signs in the heaven: its great height, vastness, greatness, beautiful colour, amazing precision and other things that are visible in it, such as the stars and planets, sun and moon, from which result night and day, and the fact that they are always running in their own courses, and the stars do likewise. Many benefits for people result from that, such as heat and cold, and the passage of the seasons; they know how to work out the times for their acts of worship and their dealings and transactions; they rest at night, settling down calmly, and they go about their business during the day, earning their livelihood. If the wise person reflects on all these things and thinks deeply about them, he will reach the certain conclusion, with no element of doubt, that Allah has made them for a certain length of time, during which people will gain great benefits from them, then after that they will diminish and cease to be; the One Who created them will extinguish them, and the One Who set them in motion will bring them to a halt.

Then those who are accountable will move to another realm, in which they will find the requital of their deeds in full, and it will be known that the purpose of this realm was to invest for the eternal realm, and that it was a place to pass through, not a place to settle.

﴿وَمَا جَعَلْنَا لِلشَّرِّ مِن قَبْلِكَ الْخُلْدَ أَفَإِن مِّنْ فَهْمٍ الْخَالِدُونَ﴾ (٢١) ﴿كُلُّ نَفْسٍ ذَاقَةُ الْمَوْتِ وَنَبْلُوكُمْ بِالشَّرِّ وَالْخَيْرِ فِتْنَةً وَإِلَيْنَا تُرْجَعُونَ﴾ (٢٥) (سورة الأنبياء: ٣٥-٣٤)

(٣٥-٣٤)

21:34. We did not grant everlasting life to any human being before you [O Muhammad]. So if you die, will they [the disbelievers] live forever?

21:35. Every soul is bound to taste death; We test you with evil and good by way of trial, and to Us you will be returned.

Because the enemies of the Messenger (ﷺ) were saying: Let us wait for some misfortune to befall him (cf. 52: 30), Allah (ﷻ) said: This path (of misfortune) is well-trodden. ﴿We did not grant everlasting life» in this world «to any human being before you», O Muhammad (ﷺ), so if you die, it is the same as happened to others like you among the Messengers, Prophets, close friends of Allah, and others.

«So if you die, will they [the disbelievers] live forever?» That is, will they be given eternal life after you are gone? Then let them enjoy that eternal life, if there is such a thing, but that is not the case; rather all who are on earth will perish, hence Allah says here: «Every soul is bound to taste death». This includes all creatures; this is a cup from which all must inevitably drink, even those who live for a long time.

But Allah (ﷻ) has created His slaves in this world, and has issued commands and prohibitions. He tests them with good and bad, wealth and poverty, power and humiliation, life and death; this is a trial from Him and a test to see who among them will be best in deeds, who will fail when tested, and who will be saved.

«and to Us you will be returned» and We will requite you for your deeds; if they were good then you will be rewarded, and if they were evil then you will be punished.

«...And your Lord is never unjust to His slaves.» (Fussilat 41: 46)

This verse highlights the falseness of the view of those who say that al-Khidr is still alive and that he is immortal in this world. This is a view for which there is no proof and it is contrary to the shar'i evidence.

﴿وَإِذَا رَأَوْاكَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِتَّخَذُواكَ إِلهًا هُمْزُوا هَذَا الَّذِي يَذْكُرُ
 ۞ إِلَهُتَكُمْ وَهُمْ يَذْكُرُ الرَّحْمَنُ هُمْ كَفَرُوا ۞ خُلِقَ الْإِنْسَانُ مِنْ عَجَلٍ
 ۞ سَأُورِيكُمْ آيَاتِي فَلَا تَسْتَعْجِلُونِ ۞ وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هَذَا الْوَعْدُ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ
 ۞ صَادِقِينَ ۞ لَوْ يَعْلَمُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا حِينَ لَا يَكْفُرُونَ عَنْ وُجُوهِِهِمُ النَّارَ

وَلَا عَنْ ظُهُورِهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ يُنصَرُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ بَلْ تَأْتِيهِمْ بَغْتَةً فَتَبْهَتُهُمْ فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ رَدَّهَا وَلَا هُمْ يُنظَرُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا نِيْلَإِمْرَأْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ فَحَاقَ بِالَّذِينَ سَخِرُوا مِنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾ ﴿سورة الأنبياء: ٣٦-٤١﴾

- 21:36. When the disbelievers see you, they treat you only with ridicule, [saying]: Is this the one who speaks ill of your gods? and they reject all mention of the Most Gracious.
- 21:37. Man is a creature of haste. I will show you My signs, so do not ask Me to hasten.
- 21:38. They say: When will this promise come to pass, if you speak the truth?
- 21:39. If only the disbelievers knew of the time when they will not be able to ward off the fire from their faces or their backs, nor will they be helped, [they would not seek to hasten it].
- 21:40. Rather it will come upon them suddenly and confound them, and they will not be able to avert it, nor will they be given any respite.
- 21:41. Indeed Messengers before you were ridiculed, but then those who mocked them were overwhelmed by the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule.

This is because of the severity of their disbelief. When the polytheists saw the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), they ridiculed him and said: «Is this the one who speaks ill of your gods?» That is, is this insignificant man – as they claimed – the one who reviles your gods, criticises them and attacks them? In other words: pay no attention to him and do not worry about him.

The fact that they ridiculed him and looked down on him is indicative of his perfection, for he was the more perfect and virtuous one; one of his virtues was his devotion to worshipping Allah alone and his criticism of everything that is worshipped besides Him, pointing out its real status and situation. Rather those who deserved to be despised and ridiculed were these disbelievers, who combined all blameworthy characteristics. Even if there was nothing except their disbelief in the Lord and their rejection of His Messengers, they would still be the most vile and worst of people.

The mention of His name «Most Gracious» here highlights how bad they were. How could they respond to the Most Gracious – Who bestows all blessings and protects against harm, and no one has any blessing but it comes from Him, and no harm is ward off except by Him – by disbelieving in Him and ascribing partners to Him?

«Man is a creature of haste» that is, he was created hasty and prone to rushing into things, impatient for them to happen. The believers seek to hasten the punishment of Allah for the disbelievers, and think it slow in coming, whilst the disbelievers turn away and seek to hasten the punishment because they do not believe in it, and out of stubbornness, and they say:

«When will this promise come to pass, if you speak the truth?» Allah (ﷻ) gives respite but does not overlook; He shows forbearance and grants them a temporary reprieve, but:

«...when their appointed time comes, they will not be able to delay it for a single moment or bring it forward.» (Yoonus 10: 49)

Hence Allah says here (21: 37): «I will show you My signs» that is, in My vengeance upon those who disbelieved in Me and disobeyed Me, «so do not ask Me to hasten» that. Similarly, those who disbelieve say: «When will this promise come to pass, if you speak the truth?». They said this out of arrogance, when the punishment had not yet become due and had not yet befallen them.

«If only the disbelievers knew of» the terrible situation they will be in at «the time when they will not be able to ward off the fire from their faces or their backs», when it surrounds them on all sides and overwhelms them from all directions

﴿nor will they be helped﴾ that is, no one will help them; they will not help others and they will not be helped.

﴿Rather it﴾ that is, the fire ﴿will come upon them suddenly and confound them﴾ because of its suddenness and the alarm and great fear it will bring.

﴿and they will not be able to avert it﴾ because they will be too humiliated and weak to do that

﴿nor will they be given any respite﴾ that is, any reprieve, such that the punishment might be delayed for them. If they truly understood this, they would not seek to hasten the punishment, and they would be very afraid. But because they did not have this knowledge, they said what they said.

Having mentioned their ridicule of His Messenger (ﷺ) when they said: ﴿Is this the one who speaks ill of your gods?﴾ (21: 36), Allah consoles him by reminding him that this was the way in which previous nations dealt with their Messengers, as He says:

﴿Indeed Messengers before you were ridiculed, but then those who mocked them were overwhelmed by the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule﴾ that is, the punishment befell them and they could find no means of escape. So let these people beware, lest there befall them what befell those disbelievers.

﴿قُلْ مَنْ يَكْلُؤُكُمْ بِاللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ مِنَ الرَّحْمَنِ ۚ بَلْ هُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ رَبِّهِمْ
مُعْرِضُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾ أَمْ لَهُمْ ءَالِهَةٌ تَمْنَعُهُمْ مِنْ دُونِنَا لَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ نَصْرَ
أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ مِنَّا يُصْحَبُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ بَلْ مَتَّعْنَا هَؤُلَاءِ وَءَابَاءَهُمْ حَتَّى طَالَ
عَلَيْهِمُ الْعُمُرُ ۚ أَفَلَا يَرَوْنَ أَنَّا نَأْتِي الْأَرْضَ نَنْقُصُهَا مِنْ أَطْرَافِهَا ۚ أَفَهُمْ
الْمُغْلِبُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٤٢-٤٤)

- 21:42. Say: Who can protect you by night and by day other than the Most Gracious? Yet they turn away from the admonition of their Lord.
- 21:43. Or do they have gods who can protect them from Our [punishment]? They have no power to help themselves, nor do they enjoy Our support.
- 21:44. But We have allowed these people and their forefathers to enjoy the good things of life for a long time. Do they not see that We gradually reduce the land [under their control] from its outlying borders? Is it they who will prevail?

Here Allah (ﷻ) mentions the helplessness of these people who take others besides Him as gods, and notes that they are in desperate need of their Lord, the Most Gracious, Whose mercy encompasses both righteous and evildoers alike, by night and by day:

«Say: Who can protect you» that is, guard you «by night» when you are sleeping in your beds and your faculties are not functioning «and by day» as you go about your business and are distracted «other than the Most Gracious?» Can anyone protect you other than Him? No one can protect except Him. «Yet they turn away from the admonition of their Lord». Hence they ascribed partners to Him. Otherwise, if they had paid heed to the admonition of their Lord and accepted His instructions, they would have been guided and granted divine help.

«Or do they have gods who can protect them from Our [punishment]?» that is, if We decree ill for them, can any of their gods protect them from that ill and the evil that befalls them?

«They have no power to help themselves, nor do they enjoy Our support» that is, they will receive no help from Us with regard to their affairs, and if they receive no help from Allah, they will fail in all their affairs and will not be able to achieve any benefit or ward off any harm.

The reason why they persisted in their disbelief and ascription of partners to Allah is indicated in the following verse:

﴿But We have allowed these people and their forefathers to enjoy the good things of life for a long time﴾ that is, We have granted them wealth and sons, and We have given them a long life, so they focused on enjoying it and were distracted from that for which they were created. That went on for a long time, so their hearts grew hardened, and they persisted in their transgression and in their ingratitude. If they had paid attention and looked at the people around them, they would not have seen anything but people dying all around them, and they would not have heard anything but voices of lament, and they would not have been aware of anything but a constant succession of people dying, day after day. Death sets traps on every route to snatch people's souls.

Hence Allah says: ﴿Do they not see that We gradually reduce the land [under their control] from its outlying borders?﴾ That is, by means of the death of its people and their gradual demise, until Allah inherits the earth and all who are on it, and He is the best of inheritors. If they realised this situation, they would not be deceived and would not persist as they are.

﴿Is it they who will prevail?﴾ That is, is it really possible that they will be able to escape Allah's decree or that they can ward off death? How could they be so deceived and think that they will live forever? Or is it the case that when the Angel of Death comes to take their souls, they will submit and surrender, and will not show any resistance?

﴿قُلْ إِنَّمَا أُنذِرُكُمْ بِالْوَحْيِ ۚ وَلَا يَسْمَعُ الصُّمُّ الدُّعَاءَ إِذَا مَا يُنذَرُونَ
وَلَكِنْ مَسَّتْهُمْ نَفْحَةٌ مِّنْ عَذَابِ رَبِّكَ لَيَقُولُنَّ يُوَيْسَأُنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا ظَالِمِينَ﴾

(سورة الأنبياء: ٤٥-٤٦)

- 21:45. Say: I only warn you on the strength of divine revelation. But the deaf cannot hear the call when they are warned.
- 21:46. If the slightest touch of your Lord's punishment were to reach them, they would surely say: Woe to us! We were indeed wrongdoers.

---

«Say», O Muhammad (ﷺ), to all the people: «I only warn you on the strength of divine revelation» that is, I am just a Messenger; I do not bring anything of my own accord, I do not possess the treasures of Allah, I have no knowledge of the unseen and I am not an angel; rather I warn you on the basis of what Allah reveals to me. So if you respond, you have responded to Allah and He will reward you for that, but if you turn away and resist, then I have no control over the matter at all; rather the matter rests with Allah and the decree is all His.

«But the deaf cannot hear the call when they are warned» that is, one who is deaf cannot hear any voice, for the faculty of hearing is absent in his case. Hearing is stipulated in addition to the voice, for the means of receiving the sound should be present. Likewise, the revelation causes the heart to spring to life (spiritual life), and makes one understand what Allah wants from us. But if the heart is not receptive to guidance, then with regard to guidance and faith, it will be like the deaf person with regard to sounds and voices. These polytheists are deaf to guidance, so it is no wonder that they are not guided, especially in this situation where the punishment has not yet reached them and they have not yet felt its pain.

«If the slightest touch» that is, even a small part «of your Lord's punishment were to reach them», and nothing of His punishment is easy,

«they would surely say: Woe to us! We were indeed wrongdoers» that is, crying out words of woe, doom and regret, acknowledging their wrongdoing and disbelief, and admitting that they deserve the punishment.

﴿وَنَضَعُ الْمَوَازِينَ الْقِسْطَ لِيَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ فَلَا تُظْلَمُ نَفْسٌ شَيْئًا وَإِنْ كَانَ مِثْقَالٌ
حَبَّةٍ مِنْ خَرْدَلٍ أَتَيْنَا بِهَا وَكَفَى بِنَا حَاسِبِينَ﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٤٧)

21:47. We will set up scales of justice for the Day of Resurrection, so that no soul will be dealt with unjustly in the least. Even if a deed is the weight of a mustard seed, We will bring it forth, and sufficient are We as Reckoners.

Here Allah tells us that He will judge justly and fairly between His slaves when He gathers them on the Day of Resurrection; He will set up the scales of justice which will show even the weight of a tiny particle, to weigh people's good deeds and bad deeds.

﴿so that no soul﴾, Muslim or disbeliever, ﴿will be dealt with unjustly in the least﴾ by anything being detracted from its good deeds or added to its bad deeds.

﴿Even if a deed is the weight of a mustard seed﴾, which is the smallest and most insignificant of things, whether that deed is good or bad ﴿We will bring it forth﴾ so that the doer may be requited for it. This is like the verses in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿So whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it, and whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it.﴾ (az-Zalzalah 99: 7-8)

And they will say:

﴿... Woe to us! What sort of record is this, that leaves no deed, small or great, unaccounted for? They will find all they did recorded there, and your Lord will not wrong anyone.﴾ (al-Kahf 18: 49)

﴿and sufficient are We as Reckoners﴾. Here Allah (ﷻ) refers to Himself; sufficient is He as a Reckoner; that is, He knows people's deeds and has a record of that; He knows their quantity and what reward or punishment they deserve in requital, and He will ensure that the requital reaches the doer.

﴿وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى وَهَارُونَ الْفُرْقَانَ وَضِيَاءَ وَذِكْرًا لِّلْمُنْقِبِ ۖ ۝٤٨﴾ الَّذِينَ يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُم بِالْغَيْبِ وَهُمْ مِّنَ السَّاعَةِ مُشْفِقُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ وَهَذَا ذِكْرٌ مُّبَارَكٌ أَنزَلْنَاهُ أَفَأَنْتُمْ لَهُ مُنْكَرُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٤٨-٥٠)

- 21:48. Verily We gave to Moosâ and Hâroon the criterion [between right and wrong – the Torah], and a light, and admonition for the pious,
- 21:49. who fear their Lord unseen, and are apprehensive about the Hour.
- 21:50. And this [the Qur'an] is a blessed reminder that We have sent down. Will you then deny it?

Allah (ﷻ) often mentions these two noble Books together; no Book has ever come to the world that is better than them, of greater renown and blessing, or greater in guidance and clarification. They are the Torah and the Qur'an. Allah tells us that the Torah came principally to Moosâ, but also to Hâroon, as he joined him in his mission.

﴿the criterion﴾, namely the Torah which differentiates between truth and falsehood, guidance and misguidance. It is ﴿light﴾ by which people are guided; those who want to follow the straight path follow its teachings, and from it they learn religious rulings, distinguish what is lawful from what is prohibited, and find light in the darkness of ignorance, innovation and misguidance.

﴿and admonition for the pious﴾, by which they are reminded of what will benefit them and what will harm them, and they are reminded thereby of good and evil. The pious are singled out for mention because they are the ones who benefit from that in terms of both knowledge and deeds.

Then Allah explains who the pious are, namely those ﴿who fear their Lord unseen﴾ that is, they fear Him when they are hiding away and no one sees them, so it is more apt when they are in the view of others that they refrain from that which is prohibited and they do that which is obligatory.

﴿and are apprehensive about the Hour﴾ that is, they fear it and are in awe of it, because of their perfect knowledge of their Lord. Thus they combine piety with fear of Allah.

﴿And this [the Qur'an] is a blessed reminder that We have sent down﴾. Allah describes two characteristics that it possesses: it is a reminder of all that one needs to be reminded of, such as knowing Allah by His names, attributes and deeds; and the characteristics and stories of the Messengers and close friends of Allah; Islamic rulings having to do with acts of worship, business dealings and other matters; rulings on requital, and paradise and hell. Through the Qur'an people are reminded of issues and proofs both rational and textual. Allah calls it a reminder, because it reminds the individual of what Allah has instilled in his mind and nature of believing in true stories, enjoining what is regarded as good on a rational basis, and forbidding what is regarded as evil on a rational basis. The second characteristic that it possesses, namely that it is blessed, implies that it contains abundant and ever-increasing goodness. There is nothing more blessed than this Qur'an. Every good thing, blessing and increase, whether that is in terms of religious or worldly affairs, or in the hereafter, is because of it and is a result of adhering to it. As it is a blessed reminder, one should accept it with willing submission and give thanks to Allah for this great gift, adhering to its teachings and seeking its blessings by learning its words and meanings. As for responding to it in the opposite manner, by turning away from it, ignoring it, rejecting it and not believing in it, this is one of the worst kinds of disbelief, ignorance and wrongdoing. Hence Allah (ﷻ) denounced the one who rejects it by saying: ﴿Will you then deny it?﴾.

﴿ وَلَقَدْ ءَاتَيْنَا إِبْرَٰهِيمَ رُشْدَهُ ۖ مِن قَبْلُ وَكُنَّا بِهِ عَلِيمِينَ ﴿٥١﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لِأَبِيهِ وَقَوْمِهِ مَا هَذِهِ التَّمَاثِيلُ الَّتِي أَنْتُمْ لَهَا عَاكِفُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾ قَالُوا وَجَدْنَا ءَابَاءَنَا لَهَا عِبَادِينَ ﴿٥٣﴾ قَالَ لَقَدْ كُنْتُمْ أَنْتُمْ وَءَابَاؤُكُمْ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٥٤﴾ قَالُوا أَجِئْتَنَا بِالْحَقِّ أَمْ أَنْتَ مِنَ اللَّاعِينَ ﴿٥٥﴾ قَالَ بَلْ زَكَّيْكُمْ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ الَّذِي فَطَرَهُمْ ۖ وَأَنَا عَلَىٰ ذَٰلِكُمْ مِنَ الشَّاهِدِينَ ﴿٥٦﴾ وَتَاللَّهِ لَأَكِيدَنَّ أَصْنَامَكُمْ بَعْدَ أَن تُوَلُّوا مُدْبِرِينَ ﴿٥٧﴾ ﴾ (سورة

الأنبياء: ٥١-٥٧)

- 21:51. Indeed We bestowed upon Ibrâheem maturity of mind [from an early age] before that, for We knew him well.
- 21:52. [Remember] when he said to his father and his people: What are these images to which you are so devoted?
- 21:53. They said: We found our fathers worshipping them.
- 21:54. He said: Indeed you and your fathers have been clearly misguided.
- 21:55. They said: Are you telling us the truth, or are you joking?
- 21:56. He said: Nay, your Lord is the Lord of the heavens and the earth, Who created them, and I am one of those who bear witness to that.
- 21:57. And, by Allah, I have a plan for your idols, after you leave.

Having mentioned Moosâ (ﷺ) and Muhammad (ﷺ) and their Books, Allah (ﷻ) now says:

﴿Indeed We bestowed upon Ibrâheem maturity of mind [from an early age] before that﴾ that is, before the sending of Moosâ and Muhammad (ﷺ), and the sending down of their Books. Allah gave him an insight into (His) mighty dominion over the heavens and the earth (cf. 6: 75), and gave him maturity of mind, by means of which he perfected himself and called people to that, such as was given to no one else in the world apart from Muhammad (ﷺ). Maturity of mind is attributed to him, because his level of maturity was commensurate with his situation and high level. Otherwise every believer was given maturity of mind commensurate with the level of his faith.

«for We knew him well» that is: We gave him maturity of mind and singled him out to be Our Messenger and close friend, and We chose him in this world and the hereafter, because We knew that he was deserving of that and was qualified for it, due to his purity and intelligence. Hence Allah tells us of how he debated with his people and told them not to ascribe partners to Him, and how he broke their idols and established binding proof against them.

«[Remember] when he said to his father and his people: What are these images» that you make and carve with your own hands in the form of some created beings

«to which you are so devoted» and you constantly worship them. What are they? What virtue is proven to be in them? Where has your reasoning gone, so that you ended up devoting your lives to worship of these things, at the time when you are the ones who shaped them and carved them with your own hands? This is something very strange indeed, that you worship something that you yourselves carved.

They responded without giving any proof, in the manner of one who is helpless and does not have even the flimsiest argument to support what he does. They said:

«We found our fathers worshipping them», so we followed the same path and imitated our fathers in worshipping them.

It is well known that the actions of any person, other than the Messengers, do not constitute proof and it is not permissible to follow a person's example blindly, especially with regard to fundamentals of religion and the oneness of the Lord of the worlds. Hence Ibrâheem said to them, describing them all as being misguided:

«Indeed you and your fathers have been clearly misguided» that is, you are obviously misguided, for what misguidance can be greater than their misguidance that led them to ascribe partners to Allah and ignore His oneness? In other words, what you have said is not fit to be adhered to, and you and they are all clearly misguided, as is quite obvious to everyone.

﴿They said﴾ by way of finding his words strange, and expressing their shock at what he said, for how could he describe them and their fathers as being foolish?

﴿Are you telling us the truth, or are you joking?﴾ That is, what you have said, and the message you have brought to us, is it really true and serious? Or is what you say to us by way of a joke and ridicule on the part of one who does not know what he is saying? They asked whether it was one or the other, because what they meant was that they were certain that his words were the words of someone foolish, who did not understand what he was saying. Therefore Ibrâheem gave them a clear response, highlighting why he thought that they were foolish and lacking in reason:

﴿He said: Nay, your Lord is the Lord of the heavens and the earth, Who created them, and I am one of those who bear witness to that﴾. Thus he combined rational evidence with textual evidence.

As for the rational evidence, everyone – even those with whom Ibrâheem argued – knows that Allah alone is the Creator of all created things, including the sons of Adam, the angels, the jinn, the animals, the heavens and the earth; He controls them all, in all ways. Therefore every created being is under His control and domination, including everything that is worshipped besides Allah. So is it befitting, for anyone who possesses the slightest reason and discernment, to worship a created thing that is itself under control, and does not possess any power to bring benefit, cause harm, cause death, give life or resurrect, and fail to worship the Creator and Provider, Who is in control of all things?

As for the textual evidence, such evidence has been transmitted from the Messengers (blessings and peace of Allah be upon them).

Whatever they brought is infallible and cannot be wrong, and it cannot say anything but the truth. Part of this textual evidence is the testimony of any one of the Messengers to that effect. Hence Ibrâheem said: ﴿and I am one of those who bear witness to that﴾ that is, to the fact that Allah alone is deserving of worship, and worship of anything other than Him is false and invalid. What testimony, after the testimony of Allah, can be better than the testimony of the Messengers, especially the Messengers of strong will, and especially the close friend of the Most Gracious?

Having stated that their idols had no control over anything, he wanted to show them in practical terms just how helpless they were and how unable they were to help themselves, by taking action that would force them to admit that. Hence he said:

﴿And, by Allah, I have a plan for your idols﴾ that is, I will break them ﴿after you leave﴾ and head out to attend your festival. When they left, he went to the idols secretly.

﴿فَجَعَلَهُمْ جُودًا إِلَّا كَيْدَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ لَعَلَّهُمْ إِلَيْهِ يَرْجِعُونَ﴾ (٥٨) قَالُوا مَنْ فَعَلَ هَذَا بِآلِهَتِنَا إِنَّهُ لَمِنَ الظَّالِمِينَ (٥٩) قَالُوا سَمِعْنَا فَتًى يَذْكُرُهُمْ يُقَالُ لَهُ إِبْرَاهِيمُ (٦٠) قَالُوا بَدَأَ عَلَى آعَيْنِ النَّاسِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَشْهَدُونَ (٦١) قَالُوا أَأَنْتَ فَعَلْتَ هَذَا يَا إِلَهَ تِنَا يَتِإِبْرَاهِيمُ (٦٢) قَالَ بَلْ فَعَلَهُ كَبِيرُهُمْ هَذَا فَاسْأَلُوهُمْ إِنْ كَانُوا يَنْطِقُونَ (٦٣) فَرَجَعُوا إِلَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ فَقَالُوا إِنَّكُمْ أَنْتُمُ الظَّالِمُونَ (٦٤) ثُمَّ نَكَسُوا عَلَى رُءُوسِهِمْ لَقَدْ عَلِمْتَ مَا هَؤُلَاءِ يَنْطِقُونَ (٦٥) قَالَ أَتَعْبُدُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لَا يَنْفَعُكُمْ شَيْئًا وَلَا يَضُرُّكُمْ (٦٦) أَفَبِلَكُمْ وَلِمَا تَعْبُدُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ (٦٧) ﴿ (سورة الأنبياء: ٥٨-٦٧)

- 21:58. So he broke them to pieces, [all] but the biggest of them, so that they might come back to it [and ask it what happened].
- 21:59. They said: Who has done this to our gods? He must surely be one of the wrongdoers!
- 21:60. They said: We heard a young man speaking ill of them; he is called Ibrâheem.
- 21:61. They said: So bring him out before the people, so that they may be witnesses.
- 21:62. They said: Is it you who has done this to our gods, O Ibrâheem?
- 21:63. He said: Nay, it was this one, the biggest of them, who did it. So ask them, if they can speak!
- 21:64. So they started thinking and said to one another: Surely it is you who are doing wrong.
- 21:65. But then they relapsed into their former obstinacy [and said]: You know full well that these [idols] cannot speak.
- 21:66. Ibrâheem said: Do you then worship, besides Allah, that which cannot benefit or harm you in any way?
- 21:67. Fie on you and on all that you worship besides Allah! Have you then no sense?

«So he broke them to pieces» that is, he smashed them. The idols were all gathered together in one place, so he broke all of them, «[all] but the biggest of them» that is, except the biggest idol, which he left alone for a purpose that would become clear.

When they saw what had happened to their idols of disrespect and humiliation,

«They said: Who has done this to our gods? He must surely be one of the wrongdoers!» They accused Ibrâheem of wrongdoing when they were the ones who were more deserving of being described as such, because they did not realise that his breaking of the idols was one of the best of his virtues, and was an action that was based on his sense of justice and affirmation of the oneness of Allah. Rather the wrongdoer is the one who took such idols as gods, even though he saw what had happened to them.

«They said: We heard a young man speaking ill of them» that is, criticising and condemning them, and one who is like that must surely be the one who broke them. Or it may mean that some of them had heard him saying that he had a plan for them.

«he is called Ibrâheem». When they realised that it was Ibrâheem who had broken them,

«They said: So bring him» namely Ibrâheem

«out before the people» that is, where they can see and hear

«so that they may be witnesses» that is, so that they may be present in order to see what is to be done with the one who broke their gods. This is what Ibrâheem wanted; he wanted the truth to be manifest before the people so that they could witness the truth, and truth could be established against them, as Moosâ said when he made his appointment to confront Pharaoh:

«... Your appointment will be on the day of the festival; let the people assemble in the forenoon.» (Tā Hā 20: 59)

When the people had gathered and Ibrâheem was brought out, they said to him:

«Is it you who has done this» that is, breaking them «to our gods, O Ibrâheem?» This was a question that was aimed at affirming that he was the one who did it. In other words: what gave you the audacity and what made you do this thing?

Ibrâheem said, as the people were looking on: «Nay, it was this one, the biggest of them, who did it» that is, it broke them out of resentment towards them, because they were being worshipped alongside it, and it wanted you to worship your biggest idol only.

The aim behind these words was to establish binding proof against his opponents. Hence he said: «So ask them, if they can speak!» He was referring to the broken idols; ask them why they were broken, and ask the idol that was not broken why it broke them. If they are able to speak they will answer, otherwise you and I, and everyone, will know that they cannot speak and talk, and that they cannot bring benefit or cause harm, indeed they cannot even help themselves against anyone who intends harm towards them.

﴿So they started thinking﴾ that is, it was as if their reason suddenly came back to them and they came back to their senses, and realised that they had gone astray by worshipping those idols; they admitted to themselves that they had done wrong and ascribed partners to Allah. ﴿and said to one another: Surely it is you who are doing wrong﴾. Thus the point was made and proof was established by their admission that what they were doing was false and wrong.

But they did not persist in that; rather they ﴿relapsed into their former obstinacy﴾ that is, suddenly they changed and their thinking took a wrong turn, and they said to Ibrâheem:

﴿You know full well that these [idols] cannot speak﴾ so how could you make fun of us and ridicule us, telling us to ask them questions when you know that they cannot speak?

Ibrâheem said, rebuking them openly in front of the people for ascribing partners to Allah and pointing out that their gods were not deserving of worship:

﴿Do you then worship, besides Allah, that which cannot benefit or harm you in any way?﴾

﴿Fie on you and on all that you worship besides Allah!﴾ That is, how astray you are, what losers you are, and how evil you are, you and all that you worship besides Allah! If you had any sense, you would realise the situation you are in. But because you lack common sense and you are ignorant, going astray with your eyes wide open, animals are better off than you.

Once he had defeated them in argument and proved them wrong, they could not produce any evidence to support their ascription of partners to Allah, so they resorted to physical strength to punish him.

﴿قَالُوا حَرِّقُوهُ وَانصُرُوا آلِهَتَكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ فَاعِلِينَ﴾ ﴿٦٨﴾ قُلْنَا يَنْدُرُكَوْنِي بَرَدًا وَسَلَامًا
عَلَىٰ إِبْرَاهِيمَ ﴿٦٩﴾ وَأَرَادُوا بِهِ كَيْدًا فَجَعَلْنَاهُمُ الْأَخْسَرِينَ ﴿٧٠﴾ وَنَجَّيْنَاهُ وَلُوطًا
إِلَى الْأَرْضِ الَّتِي بَارَكْنَا فِيهَا لِلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٧١﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٦٨-٧١)

21:68. They said: Burn him and avenge your gods, if you are going to take action!

21:69. We said: O fire, be cool and safe for Ibrâheem.

21:70. They planned to harm him, but We made them the greatest losers.

21:71. And We saved him and Loot [and brought them] to the land which We have blessed for all people.

﴿They said: Burn him and avenge your gods, if you are going to take action!﴾ That is, kill him in the worst manner, by burning him, in anger for the sake of your gods and in support of them. How doomed they were, as they worshipped that which they admitted needed their support, and they took it as a god.

But Allah helped His close friend when they threw him in the fire, as He said to it: ﴿be cool and safe for Ibrâheem﴾. So it became cool and safe for him, no harm reached him and he did not feel any pain.

﴿They planned to harm him﴾ when they decided to burn him ﴿but We made them the greatest losers﴾ in this world and the hereafter, just as Allah made His close friend and his followers the triumphant winners.

﴿And We saved him and Loot﴾ – that was when no one among his people believed except Loot. It was said that he was the son of his brother. Allah saved him and he migrated ﴿to the land which We have blessed for all people﴾ that is, Greater Syria. So Ibrâheem left his people in Babylon, in Iraq, and said:

﴿...I shall migrate [where I have been commanded to] by my Lord. Verily, He is the Almighty, Most Wise.﴾ (al-'Ankaboot 29: 26)

One of the blessings of Greater Syria is that many of the Prophets went there. Allah chose it as the place of migration for His close friend, and in that land there is one of His three sacred houses, namely Bayt al-Maqdis.

﴿وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ إِسْحَاقَ وَيَعْقُوبَ نَافِلَةً ۖ وَكُلًّا جَعَلْنَا صَالِحِينَ ﴿٧٢﴾ وَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ أَيْمَةً يَهْدُونَ بِأَمْرِنَا وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْهِمْ فِعْلَ الْخَيْرَاتِ وَإِقَامَ الصَّلَاةِ وَإِيتَاءَ الزَّكَاةِ وَكَانُوا لَنَا عَبِيدِينَ ﴿٧٣﴾﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٧٢-٧٣)

21:72. And We bestowed upon him Is-hâq and [then] Ya'qoob, a grandson, and We made all of them righteous.

21:73. We made them leaders, guiding people by Our command; and We inspired them to do good deeds, establish prayer and give zakâh; and they worshipped only Us.

﴿And We bestowed upon him﴾ when he withdrew from his people ﴿Is-hâq and [then] Ya'qoob﴾, the son of Is-hâq ﴿a grandson﴾ after he had grown old and his wife was barren, the angels gave him the glad tidings of Is-hâq:

﴿...and, after Is-hâq, of Ya'qoob.﴾ (Hood 11: 71)

Ya'qoob is Isrâ'eel (Israel), from whom stemmed a great nation. Ibrâheem was also the father of Ismâ'eel, from whom stemmed the noble Arab nation, and among his descendants was the leader of the first and the last (namely the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ).

﴿and We made all of them﴾ namely, Ibrâheem, Is-hâq and Ya'qoob ﴿righteous﴾ that is, fulfilling their duties towards Him and towards His slaves. Because of their righteousness, He made them leaders who guided people by His command. This is one of the greatest blessings that Allah may bestow upon His slave, by making him a leader by means of whom people are guided and whom many people follow. That is because they were patient and steadfast, and they had certain faith in the revelations of Allah.

﴿guiding people by Our command﴾ that is, on the basis of the teachings of Our religion. They did not instruct people to do things on the basis of their own whims and desires; rather it was by the command of Allah and in accordance with His religion, and for the purpose of seeking His pleasure. A person cannot be a leader unless he calls people to that which Allah has commanded.

﴿and We inspired them to do good deeds﴾ which they did, calling people to them. This includes all good deeds with regard to duties towards Allah and towards other people.

﴿establish prayer and give zakâh﴾ – this comes under the heading of mentioning specific deeds after speaking in general terms, because of the noble status and virtue of these two acts of worship. Whoever does them properly, his religious commitment will be sound, but whoever neglects them will be more neglectful with regard to other matters. Moreover, prayer is the best of deeds that are due to Allah, and zakâh is the best of deeds that involve kindness towards His creation.

﴿and they worshipped only Us﴾ and no others. In other words, they persisted in acts of worship, both in their hearts (in terms of belief) and in their words and physical actions, most of the time. So they deserved to be described as worshippers, as they adhered to that which Allah enjoined upon humankind and the purpose for which He created them.

﴿وَلُوطًا ءَايَيْنَاهُ حُكْمًا وَعِلْمًا وَجَعَلْنَاهُ مِنَ الْقَرَبِۤىۡهِ الَّتِى كَانَتْ تَعْمَلُ الْفَحْشَآءَ ۚ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمَ سَوْءٍ فَسِۦقِينَ ﴿٧٦﴾ وَأَدْخَلْنَاهُ فِي رَحْمَتِنَا إِنَّهُ مِنَ الصَّٰلِحِیۡنَ﴾

(سورة الانبياء: ٧٤-٧٥) ﴿٧٥﴾

21:74. To Loot also We gave wisdom and knowledge, and We saved him from the city that practised abominations. Verily, they were a people given to wickedness, and rebellious.

21:75. And We admitted him to Our mercy, for he was one of the righteous.

Here Allah praises His Messenger Loot (ﷺ) for having religious knowledge and having the knowledge to judge between people soundly and correctly. Allah sent him to his people, to call them to worship Allah alone and to forbid them to do the shameful deeds they were involved in. He spent some time calling them, but they did not respond to him, so Allah turned their city upside down upon them and punished them all, because they were «a people given to wickedness, and rebellious». They rejected the caller and threatened to punish him, but Allah saved Loot and his family. He commanded him to take them and leave by night, so that they could get far away from the city. So they left at night and thus were saved, by the grace and blessing of Allah towards them.

«And We admitted him to Our mercy» and whoever enters it will be safe from all fears, and will attain all goodness, happiness, joy and praise. That is because he was one of the righteous, whose deeds were righteous, who became of sound character and Allah put right the (formerly) wicked ones among them. Righteousness is the means of being admitted to the mercy of Allah, just as wickedness is the means of being deprived of mercy and goodness. The most righteous of the people are the Prophets (peace be upon them), hence Allah describes them as righteous. Sulaymān (ﷺ) said:

﴿...and include me, by Your mercy, among Your righteous slaves.﴾
(an-Naml 27: 19)

﴿وَنُوحًا إِذْ نَادَىٰ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَاسْتَجَبْنَا لَهُ، فَنَجَّيْنَاهُ وَأَهْلَهُ مِنَ الْكَرْبِ الْعَظِيمِ ۚ وَنَصَرْنَاهُ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا ۖ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمَ سَوْءٍ فَأَغْرَقْنَاهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٧٦-٧٧)

21:76. And [remember] Nooh, when he called upon [Us] before that.
We answered him and saved him and his family from great distress.

21:77. And We delivered him from the people who rejected Our signs.
They were a people given to wickedness, so We drowned them all.

That is, and remember Our slave and Messenger Nooh (ﷺ), by way of praising and commending him. When Allah sent him to his people, he stayed among them for one thousand years less fifty, calling them to worship Allah alone and forbidding them to ascribe partners to Him, trying repeatedly and never wavering, calling them in private and in public, by night and day.

But when he saw that exhorting them was to no avail, and that rebuking them was of no benefit, he called upon his Lord and said:

﴿...My Lord, do not leave on earth a single living soul from among the disbelievers. For if You leave them, they will mislead Your slaves and will beget none but wicked disbelievers.﴾ (Nooh 71: 26-27)

Allah answered his prayer and drowned them, and not one of them survived, but Allah saved Nooh and his family, along with the believers who were with him, in the laden ark, and He caused his offspring to be the survivors, and Allah granted him victory over his people who had ridiculed him.

﴿وَدَاوُدَ وَسُلَيْمَانَ إِذْ يَحْكُمَانِ فِي الْحَرْثِ إِذْ نَفَسَتْ فِيهِ غَنَمُ الْقَوْمِ وَكُنَّا لِحُكْمِهِمْ شَاهِدِينَ﴾ (٧٨) فَفَهَّمْنَاهَا سُلَيْمَانَ وَكَلَّمْنَا آدَمَ حُكْمًا وَعِلْمًا وَسَخَّرْنَا مَعَ دَاوُدَ الْجِبَالَ يُسَبِّحْنَ وَالطَّيْرَ وَكُنَّا فَاعِلِينَ ﴿٧٩﴾ وَعَلَّمْنَاهُ صَنْعَةَ لَبُوسٍ لَكُمْ لِنُخْصِنَكُمْ مِنْ بَأْسِكُمْ فَهَلْ أَنْتُمْ شَاكِرُونَ ﴿٨٠﴾ وَلِسُلَيْمَانَ الرِّيحَ عَاصِفَةً تَجْرِي بِأَمْرِهِ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ الَّتِي بَارَكْنَا فِيهَا وَكُنَّا بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمِينَ ﴿٨١﴾ وَمِنَ الشَّيَاطِينِ مَنْ يَغُوصُونَ لَهُ وَيَعْمَلُونَ عَمَلًا دُونَ ذَلِكَ وَكُنَّا لَهُمْ حَافِظِينَ﴾ (٨٢) (سورة الأنبياء: ٧٨-٨٢)

- 21:78. And [remember] Dāwūd and Sulaymān, when they gave judgement in the case of the field into which some people's sheep had strayed at night and eaten the crops. We were witness to their judgement.
- 21:79. We guided Sulaymān to the right verdict, and to each of them We gave wisdom and knowledge. And We compelled the mountains and the birds to glorify Allah with Dāwūd, for We are able to do [all things].
- 21:80. And We taught him the art of making coats of mail for your benefit, to protect you in battle. Will you then be grateful?
- 21:81. And for Sulaymān [We subjugated] the raging wind, which blew at his command to the land which We had blessed. And We have full knowledge of all things.
- 21:82. And [We also subjugated for him] some of the devils who dived for him in the sea and performed other tasks. And We were watching over them.

That is, and remember these two noble Prophets, namely Dâwood and Sulaymân, by way of praise and commendation. Allah gave them abundant knowledge and the ability to judge between people, based on the words: ﴿when they gave judgement in the case of the field into which some people's sheep had strayed at night and eaten the crops﴾ that is, when the owner of the field referred to them for judgement, as some people's sheep had strayed into the field at night and grazed there, eating everything that was growing, and had eaten his crops. Dâwood (ﷺ) issued a verdict that the sheep should go to the owner of the field, based on the negligence of their owners, so he punished them in this manner.

But Sulaymân gave the right verdict in this case, as he ruled that the owners of the sheep should let the owners of the field keep the sheep and benefit from their milk and wool, and they should tend the garden of the owner of the field until they had restored it to its original state. Then when it was restored to its original state, each party should return the property of the other. This was due to his perfect understanding and smartness. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿We guided Sulaymân to the right verdict﴾ that is, We helped him to understand this case and reach the right verdict. This does not mean that Allah did not enable Dâwood to reach the right verdict in other cases. Hence He pointed this out, as He says: ﴿and to each of them﴾ namely Dâwood and Sulaymân ﴿We gave wisdom and knowledge﴾. This indicates that a judge may reach the right conclusion or he may get it wrong; he is not to be blamed if he makes a mistake so long as he tried his hardest.

Then Allah tells us of what was given uniquely to each of them:

﴿And We compelled the mountains and the birds to glorify Allah with Dâwood﴾ that is because he was one of the most devoted of worshippers and one of those who remembered Allah the most, glorifying Him and praising Him. Allah had given him a beautiful, soft and melodious voice, such as He had never given to anyone else.

So when he glorified and praised Allah, the mountains and birds would repeat his words of praise. This was by the grace and great kindness of Allah to him. Hence Allah says: ﴿for We are able to do [all things]﴾.

﴿And We taught him the art of making coats of mail for your benefit﴾ that is, Allah taught Dâwood (عليه السلام) how to make coats of mail. He was the first one to make them and learn this craft, and this skill was passed down to those who came after him. Allah made iron soft in his hands and taught him how to make it into rings of chainmail, which was of immense benefit.

﴿to protect you in battle﴾ that is, it is protection for you, to protect you in battle when the fighting grows intense.

﴿Will you then be grateful?﴾ For the blessing that Allah has bestowed upon you, when He caused it to reach you through His slave Dâwood. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...and He has given you garments to protect you from heat, and garments to protect you in battle. Thus does He perfect His favours to you, so that you may submit to Him.﴾ (an-Nahl 16: 81)

It may be that when Allah taught Dâwood how to make chainmail and made iron soft for him, this was a miracle by which – as the commentators said – Allah made iron soft for him until he was able to use it like dough or clay, without having to melt it in fire.

Or it may be that Allah taught him how to do it in the ordinary manner, and that iron was made soft for him by way of Allah teaching him the means that is known now, namely melting it. This is what appears to be the case, because Allah is reminding people of His favour and instructing them to give thanks for it. Were it not for the fact that making it is something that Allah has put within the capability of people, He would not have reminded them of this favour and mentioned its benefit, because it is not possible that only the chainmail that was actually made by Dâwood (عليه السلام) is what is meant here. Rather the reminder has to do with the knowledge of how to make it. There is no evidence for the first possibility mentioned by the commentators except the words:

﴿...And We made iron malleable for him.﴾ (Saba' 34: 10)

There is nothing to indicate that He made it soft for him without any cause. And Allah knows best about that.

﴿And for Sulaymân [We subjugated] the raging wind﴾ that is, the fast-moving wind

﴿which blew at his command﴾; wherever it was directed, it would obey his command, travelling a month's journey in the morning and again in the afternoon, coming back ﴿to the land which We had blessed﴾, namely Greater Syria, where he resided. He would travel on the wind, east and west, but he would always come back to the blessed land.

﴿And We have full knowledge of all things﴾ that is, Our knowledge encompasses all things; We knew about Dâwood and Sulaymân, and that which made them deserve to be blessed as described.

﴿And [We also subjugated for him] some of the devils who dived for him in the sea and performed other tasks﴾. This was another of the unique characteristics of Sulaymân (ﷺ): Allah subjugated for him devils and ifrits, and gave him the power to subjugate them to do tasks that many others were not able to do. Some of them dived in the sea for him and brought out pearls and other things, and some of them worked for him as he desired, (making) arches, images, basins as large as reservoirs, and (cooking) cauldrons fixed (in their places) (cf. 34: 13). He subjugated some of them to build Bayt al-Maqdis (the Temple) for him, and he died whilst they were building it, but they continued for a year after that, until they found out that he had died, as we shall see below, in shâ' Allâh.

﴿And We were watching over them﴾ that is, they could not refuse to do anything he told them to, or disobey him; rather Allah kept watch over them, by His might, power and authority.

﴿وَأَيُّوبَ إِذْ نَادَىٰ رَبَّهُ أَنِّي مَسَّنِيَ الضُّرُّ وَأَنْتَ أَرْحَمُ الرَّاحِمِينَ﴾
 فَاسْتَجَبْنَا لَهُ، فَكَشَفْنَا مَا بِهِ مِنْ ضُرٍّ، وَآتَيْنَاهُ أَهْلَهُ وَمِثْلَهُمْ مَعَهُمْ رَحْمَةً مِنَّا وَذِكْرَىٰ لِلْعَابِدِينَ ﴿٨٣﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٨٣-٨٤)

21:83. And [remember] Ayyoob, when He called upon his Lord: Affliction has indeed befallen me, and You are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy.

21:84. So We answered his prayer and relieved his affliction, and We restored his family to him and doubled their number, as a mercy from Us and as a reminder for all who worship Us.

That is, remember Our slave and Messenger Ayyoob, in a context of praise and respect, showing his high status, when Allah tested him with a great trial and found him patient and content with his Lord. The Shayṭān was given power over his body as a test from Allah, so he breathed into his body and he was afflicted with great sores that stayed for a long time. He faced a severe calamity, his family died and he lost his wealth, so he called out to his Lord: O Lord, ﴿Affliction has indeed befallen me, and You are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy﴾.

He beseeched Allah by telling of his situation – and that his affliction had become so severe – and by referring to His abundant mercy. So Allah responded to him and said to him:

﴿...Strike [the ground] with your foot. Here is cool water for you to wash in and drink.﴾ (Ṣād 38: 42)

So he struck the ground with his foot, and as a result of his doing so, a spring of cold water gushed forth. He bathed in it and drank from it, and Allah relieved him of his affliction.

﴿and We restored his family to him﴾ that is, we returned his family and his wealth to him

﴿and doubled their number﴾ because, in addition to healing him, Allah granted him family and wealth in abundance.

﴿as a mercy from Us﴾ to him, because he was patient and was content with his Lord. Therefore Allah rewarded him in this world, before bestowing the reward of the hereafter.

﴿and as a reminder for all who worship Us﴾ that is, We made him a lesson for all who worship Us, those who will benefit from the lesson. When they see what befell him of calamity, then what Allah rewarded him with after it was over, and they look for the reason behind that, they will realise that it is patience and steadfastness. Hence Allah praised him for that when He said:

﴿... Truly We found him to be patient and steadfast, a good and faithful slave who constantly turned [to Us].﴾ (Sād 38: 44)

So they will take him as an example to follow when calamity strikes.

﴿وَلِإِسْمَاعِيلَ وَإِدْرِيسَ وَذَا الْكِفْلِ كُلٌّ مِنَ الصَّابِرِينَ﴾ ﴿٨٥﴾ وَأَدْخَلْنَاهُمْ فِي رَحْمَتِنَا إِنَّهُمْ مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿٨٦﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٨٥-٨٦)

21:85. And remember Ismâ'eel and Idrees and Dhul-Kifl. All of them were men of constancy and patience, 21:86. And We admitted them to Our mercy, for they were among the righteous.

And remember Our chosen slaves and Prophets, mention them in the best manner, and praise them in the most eloquent terms: Ismâ'eel ibn Ibrâheem, and Idrees and Dhul-Kifl, who were two of the Prophets of the Israelites.

﴿All﴾ of those who are mentioned here ﴿were men of constancy and patience﴾. Constancy and patience refers to restraining oneself from doing that to which one is naturally inclined. This includes all three types of patience: patience in obeying Allah, patience in refraining from disobeying Allah, and patience in accepting the decree of Allah when it is painful. No one deserves to be described as perfectly patient unless he fulfils all three types of patience.

Allah (ﷻ) described these Prophets (peace be upon them) as being patient, which indicates that they attained all three types of patience, and they exercised patience. He also described them as righteous, which includes righteousness of the heart, by knowing and loving Allah, and turning to Him at all times; righteousness of the tongue, by keeping it moist with the remembrance of Allah; and physical righteousness, by keeping the physical faculties busy with acts of obedience to Allah and restraining them from sin. By virtue of their patience and righteousness, Allah admitted them to His mercy and included them alongside their fellow Messengers, and He rewarded them in this world and in the hereafter. If their reward was no more than making their names renowned among humankind and granting them an honourable mention among the later nations, that would be sufficient honour and virtue.

﴿وَذَا النُّونِ إِذْ ذَهَبَ مُغْلِبًا فَظَنَّ أَنْ لَنْ نَقْدِرَ عَلَيْهِ فَنَادَىٰ فِي الظُّلُمَاتِ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ إِنِّي كُنْتُ مِنَ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٨٧﴾ فَاسْتَجَبْنَا لَهُ وَجَعَلْنَاهُ مِنَ الْغَمِّ وَكَذَلِكَ نُنْجِي الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٨٨﴾﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٨٧-٨٨)

21:87. And [remember] Dhun-Noon [Yoonus], when he departed in anger, thinking that We would not punish him. Then he called out in the depths of darkness: There is no god but You. Glory be to You; I have indeed done wrong.

21:88. So We answered his prayer and delivered him from his distress; thus do We deliver the believers.

That is, and remember Our slave and Messenger Dhun-Noon, namely Yoonus, the one who was swallowed by the fish; remember him in the best terms and praise him, for Allah (ﷻ) sent him to his people, and he called them, but they did not believe, so he warned them of the punishment which would befall at a set time of which he informed them.

The punishment came to them, and they saw it with their own eyes, so they turned to Allah, beseeching and repenting, and Allah spared them the punishment, as He says elsewhere:

﴿There was no city that believed [after seeing the punishment] and benefitted from its faith except the people of Yoonus. When they believed, We removed from them the punishment of disgrace in this world, and allowed them to enjoy life for a while.﴾ (Yoonus 10: 98)

And He said:

﴿We sent him as a Messenger to a hundred thousand people or more, and they believed, so We allowed them to enjoy life for a while.﴾ (aṣ-Ṣāffāt 37: 147-148)

This great nation that believed in the call of Yoonus was one of his greatest virtues, but he departed in anger and ran away to the fully laden ship, because of some sin of which Allah has not told us in His Book, and we have no need to know what it was, as Allah tells us:

﴿He ran away to the fully-laden ship, then he drew lots with them and he was one of those who lost. Then the fish swallowed him. He had done an act worthy of blame.﴾ (aṣ-Ṣāffāt 37: 140-142)

What appears to be the case is that this refers to his hastening to leave his people, getting angry with them, and leaving them before Allah (ﷻ) instructed him to do so, and thinking that Allah would not punish him for that and would not put him in a constrained space in the belly of the fish, or he thought that he could escape the punishment of Allah. There is nothing wrong with such a thought crossing the mind of people of perfect character, in a way that does not take root and does not persist. So he embarked on the ship with some other people, then they cast lots to determine which of them should be thrown into the sea, because they feared that they would drown if they all remained on board. The lot fell to Yoonus, so he was thrown overboard and the fish swallowed him and took him down to the darkest depths of the sea. In the depths of darkness he called out: ﴿There is no god but You. Glory be to You; I have indeed done wrong﴾. Thus he affirmed the perfect divinity of Allah (ﷻ), declaring Him to be above any shortcomings, defects or faults, and he acknowledged his own wrongdoing and transgression. Allah (ﷻ) said:

﴿Were it not for the fact that he was one of those who glorified Allah a great deal, he would have remained in its belly until the Day of Resurrection.﴾ (as-Sâffât 37: 143-144)

Hence Allah says here: ﴿So We answered his prayer and delivered him from his distress﴾ that is, from the hardship he had fallen into. ﴿thus do We deliver the believers﴾. This is a promise and glad tidings to every believer who falls into hardship and distress, that Allah (ﷻ) will save him from it, and will grant him relief and alleviate his distress, because of his faith, as He did in the case of Yoonus (عليه السلام).

﴿وَزَكَرِيَّا إِذْ نَادَىٰ رَبَّهُ، رَبِّ لَا تَذَرْنِي فَرْدًا وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ الْوَارِثِينَ ﴿٨٩﴾ فَاسْتَجَبْنَا لَهُ، وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ يَحْيَىٰ وَأَصْلَحْنَاهُ، رُؤُوسُهُمْ كَانُوا يُسْكِرُونَ ﴿٩٠﴾﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٨٩-٩٠)

21:89. And [remember] Zakariyâ, when he called upon his Lord: My Lord, do not leave me childless, although You are the best of inheritors.

21:90. So We answered his prayer and We bestowed upon him Yahyâ, and cured his wife [of barrenness]. Verily, they used to hasten to do good deeds, and they used to call on Us in hope and fear, and they were always humble before Us.

That is, and remember Our slave Zakariyâ, by way of praise and holding him in high esteem, mentioning his virtues and good characteristics, among which was this great virtue which is indicative of his sincerity towards people and the mercy of Allah towards him. He ﴿called upon his Lord: My Lord, do not leave me childless﴾. In other words: he said:

﴿...My Lord, my bones have grown weak and my head glows silver with age, but never, my Lord, has my prayer to You remained unanswered. Verily, I fear [what] my kinsmen [will do] after I am gone, for my wife is barren.<sup>19</sup> Grant unto me by Your grace an heir, who will inherit from me and from the family of Ya'qoob, and make him, my Lord, one with whom You are pleased.﴾ (Maryam 19: 4-6)

From these verses, in which we see that he said ﴿My Lord, do not leave me childless﴾, we learn that as death approached, he feared that there would be no one to take his place in calling people to Allah and advising the slaves of Allah, for there was no one at his time who was like him in knowledge, and there would be no one to succeed him and carry on the work that he had been doing.

﴿although You are the best of inheritors﴾ that is, the best of those who remain, and the best to do good to people after I am gone, for You are more merciful towards Your slaves than I am, but I want to put my mind at rest and be reassured, and to have ongoing reward for that.

<sup>19</sup> His kinsmen did not care about religion, and he was afraid that after he died, religion would be neglected. So he asked for an heir who would uphold religion after he was gone. Therefore he asked for someone who would inherit knowledge and prophethood, not wealth, from him. (al-Qurtubi)

﴿So We answered his prayer and We bestowed upon him Yaḥyā﴾ the noble Prophet, whose name Allah had never given to anyone before him.

﴿and cured his wife [of barrenness]﴾ after her womb had been unable to bear children. Allah healed her and made her womb able to bear a child, for the sake of His Prophet Zakariyā. This is one of the benefits of having good and righteous companions, for those who keep company with them will be blessed. Thus Yaḥyā was born to his parents.

Having mentioned these Prophets and Messengers, each of them on his own, Allah praises all of them in general terms by saying:

﴿Verily, they used to hasten to do good deeds﴾ that is, they would hasten to do them at the best time and complete them in the appropriate manner, not omitting any virtue that they were able to attain without making the most of any opportunity to do good.

﴿and they used to call on Us in hope and fear﴾ that is, they would ask Us for whatever they needed and hoped for, in this world and the hereafter, and they would seek refuge with Us from that which they feared of harm in both realms, hoping and fearing, never becoming heedless or distracted, or taking things for granted.

﴿and they were always humble before Us﴾ that is, they submitted with humility, beseeching Us, because of their perfect knowledge of their Lord.

﴿وَالَّذِي أَحْضَنْتَ فَزَحَّهَا فَتَفَخَّنَا فِيهَا مِنْ رُوحِنَا وَجَعَلْنَاهَا وَابْنَهَا آيَةً
لِّلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٩١﴾ إِنَّ هَذِهِ أُمَّتُكُمْ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً وَأَنَا رَبُّكُمْ فَاعْبُدُونِ
﴿٩٢﴾ وَنَقُطِعْ أَمْرَهُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ كُلُّ إِلَهِنَا رَاجِعُونَ ﴿٩٣﴾ فَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِنَ
الصَّالِحَاتِ وَهُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ فَلَا كُفْرَانَ لِسَعِيدِهِ وَإِنَّا لَهُ كَنُيُوتٌ ﴿٩٤﴾﴾ (سورة

الأنبياء: ٩١-٩٤)

- 21:91. And [remember] the one who guarded her chastity: We blew into her [garment] through Our angel [Jibreel], and We made her and her son a sign for all people.
- 21:92. Verily this religion of yours is one religion, and I am your Lord, so worship Me alone.
- 21:93. But people have divided themselves into sects; yet to Us they will all return.
- 21:94. Then whoever does righteous deeds and is a believer, his efforts will not go unappreciated, for We are recording it.

---

That is, and remember Maryam (peace be upon her), praising her, pointing out her high status and making her chastity known to all.

«the one who guarded her chastity» that is, she protected it from that which is prohibited and from approaching such deeds; she also protected it from that which is lawful. She did not marry, because she was focused on worship, and spent all her time serving her Lord.

When Jibreel came to her in the form of a perfect, handsome man: «She said: I seek refuge in the Most Merciful from you; [do not come near me] if you fear Him!» (Maryam 19: 18)

Allah granted her a reward that fit the nature of her deed, as He blessed her with a son without a father; rather Jibreel blew into her (garment) and she conceived by Allah's leave.

«and We made her and her son a sign for all people», as she conceived him and gave birth to him without anyone touching her; and he spoke in the cradle, declaring her innocent of that of which people accused her, and he spoke of himself in that situation. Allah caused extraordinary events and miracles to occur at his hands, as is well known. Thus she and her son were a sign for all people, as generation after generation of those who pay heed have spoken of her and learned lessons from her.

Having mentioned the Prophets, Allah (ﷻ) now addresses the humankind and says: ﴿Verily this religion of yours is one religion﴾ that is, this religion is the religion of all the Messengers mentioned. They are your leaders whose example you follow. They all follow one religion and one path, and they all worship one Lord.

Hence Allah says: ﴿and I am your Lord﴾ Who created you and bestowed My blessings upon you, by guiding you to faith and granting other worldly blessings. As the Lord is one, and the Prophet is one, and the religion is one – and it is to worship Allah alone, with no partner or associate, devoting all kinds of worship to Him – your role and duty is to follow that. Hence Allah says: ﴿so worship Me alone﴾.

What should have happened is that people should have agreed on the matter of religion and not been divided on this matter, but transgression and enmity insisted on causing divisions and dissent. Hence Allah says: ﴿But people have divided themselves into sects﴾ that is, they split into factions and parties who claim to follow the Prophets, each claiming to possess the truth and regarding all others as following falsehood.

﴿But people divided into sects, each group rejoicing in what it has.﴾
(al-Mu'minoon 23: 53)

It is known that the one who gets it right is the one who follows the true religion and straight path, following in the footsteps of the Prophets. This will become clear when the covers are removed and hidden things are exposed, when Allah gathers all people to pass judgement. At that time it will become clear who is telling the truth and who is lying. Hence Allah says: ﴿yet to Us they will all return﴾ that is, all these various groups, and others, will return to Us and We will requite them in full.

Then Allah explains how He will requite them:

﴿Then whoever does righteous deeds﴾ that is, the deeds that were prescribed by the Messengers and encouraged in the Books

﴿and is a believer﴾ in Allah and His Messengers, and the message they brought

﴿his efforts will not go unappreciated﴾ that is, We will not cause his efforts to be wasted or rendered invalid; rather We will greatly multiply the reward for them.

﴿for We are recording it﴾ that is, We are recording it in al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfooḥ, and in pages that are with the recording angels. This implies that whoever does not do righteous deeds, or who does righteous deeds but is not a believer, will be deprived of reward and will be a loser in both religious and worldly terms.

﴿وَحَرَامٌ عَلَىٰ قَرْيَةٍ أَهْلَكْنَاهَا أَنَّهُمْ لَا يَرْجِعُونَ﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٩٥)

21:95. It is not possible for any city whom We have destroyed to return [to this world],

That is, it is impossible for any city that was destroyed with the punishment to return to this world in order to make up for what they neglected. There is no way for those who were destroyed and punished to return. So let those who are addressed here beware of continuing to do that which leads to doom, lest it befall them, for then it cannot be lifted; let them give up (their sin) whilst it is still possible for them to do so.

﴿حَقَّ إِذَا فَتَحَتْ يَا جُوجُ وَمَاجُوجُ وَهُمْ مِّنْ كُلِّ حَدَبٍ يَنْسِلُونَ﴾
 ﴿وَأَقْرَبَ الْوَعْدِ الْحَقُّ فَإِذَا هِيَ شَاخِصَةٌ أَبْصَرُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يُنْوِلُنَا قَدْ كُنَّا
 فِي غَفْلَةٍ مِّنْ هَذَا بَلْ كُنَّا ظَالِمِينَ﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٩٦-٩٧)

- 21:96. until, when Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj have been let loose and come rushing from all directions,
- 21:97. and the true promise<sup>20</sup> nears its fulfilment; then the eyes of the disbelievers will stare in horror [and they will say]: Woe to us! We were indeed heedless of this; nay, we were wrongdoers.

This is a warning from Allah to the people, lest they persist in disbelief and sin, for the time has drawn near for the emergence of Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj. These are two great tribes of the sons of Adam. Dhul-Qarnayn built the barrier to contain them, when a complaint was made to him about their spreading mischief in the land.

At the end of time, the barrier will be breached and they will emerge against people in the manner described by Allah, rushing from all directions. This is indicative of their huge numbers and the speed with which they will travel throughout the earth, either because of their own strength or because of what Allah will create for them of means of crossing large distances and making that which is difficult easy. They will subdue the people and behave arrogantly towards them in this world, and no one will be able to fight them.

﴿and the true promise nears its fulfilment﴾ namely the Day of Resurrection, which Allah has promised will come, and His promise is true. On that day, you will see the eyes of the disbelievers staring in horror because of the intensity of fear, great terror and immense turmoil, and because of what they know of their offences and sins. They will pray against themselves and call for doom, in regret and sorrow for what has passed, and they will say:

﴿Woe to us! We were indeed heedless of this﴾ great day, for we were constantly distracted from it, indulging in worldly pleasures, until that which is certain (death) came to us, and the resurrection came to us. If anyone could die of regret and sorrow, they would die.

---

<sup>20</sup> This refers to the Day of Resurrection.

﴿nay, we were wrongdoers﴾ – they will admit their wrongdoing and will acknowledge that Allah has been just towards them.

At that point, orders will be issued to take them to the fire, they and that which they used to worship. Hence Allah says:

﴿إِنَّكُمْ وَمَا تَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ حَصَبُ جَهَنَّمَ أَنْتُمْ لَهَا وَرَدُونَ ﴿٩٨﴾ لَوْ كَانَتْ هَتُولَاءَ إِلَٰهَةً مَا وَرَدُوهَا وَكُلٌّ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ﴿٩٩﴾ لَهُمْ فِيهَا زَفِيرٌ وَهُمْ فِيهَا لَا يَسْمَعُونَ ﴿١٠٠﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ سَبَقَتْ لَهُمْ مِنَّا الْحُسْنَىٰ أُولَٰئِكَ عَنْهَا مُبْعَدُونَ ﴿١٠١﴾ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ حَيْثُهَا وَهُمْ فِي مَا آسَتْهُمْ أَنْفُسُهُمْ خَالِدُونَ ﴿١٠٢﴾ لَا يَحْزَنُهُمُ الْفَزَعُ الْأَكْبَرُ وَتَتَلَقَّاهُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ هَٰذَا يَوْمُكُمْ الَّذِي كُنْتُمْ تُوعَدُونَ ﴿١٠٣﴾﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ٩٨-١٠٣)

21:98. Verily you [O disbelievers] and that which you worship besides Allah are fuel for hell; to it you will [surely] come.

21:99. If these [idols] had really been gods, they would not have come to it. But they will all abide therein forever.

21:100. Therein they will be wailing, and they will not be able to hear.

21:101. But those for whom We have decreed good will surely be kept far away from it.

21:102. They will not hear even the slightest sound of it, and they will abide forever in that which their hearts desire.

21:103. The greatest terror will not grieve them; and the angels will welcome them [saying]: This is your day, that you were promised.

That is, O you who used to worship other gods alongside Allah, you ﴿are fuel for hell; to it you will [surely] come﴾, you and your idols.

The wisdom behind the admission of the idols to hell, even though they are inanimate and cannot think, and there is no sin on their part, is to highlight the lies of those who took them as gods, and so as to increase their punishment. Hence Allah says:

«If these [idols] had really been gods, they would not have come to it». This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

«[They will be raised up] so that He may make clear to them that concerning which they differ, and so that those who disbelieved may realise that they were lying.» (an-Nahl 16: 39)

Both the worshippers and their objects of worship will abide therein forever, and will never emerge from it or depart from it.

«Therein they will be wailing» because of the severity of the punishment

«and they will not be able to hear». They will be deaf, dumb and blind, unable to hear any sound other than that made by the fire, because of the intensity of its boiling, wailing and raging.

The admission of the gods of the polytheists to hell only refers to the idols or those who were worshipped and approved of that.

However in the case of the Messiah, 'Uzayr, the angels and other close friends of Allah who were worshipped, they will not be punished for that. They are included among «those for whom We have decreed good» that is, according to the prior knowledge of Allah and as is written in al-Lawḥ al-Mahfūdh, they are blessed, and in this world they are guided to the path of ease and righteous deeds. They «will surely be kept far away from it» namely hell. They will not enter it or even come near it; rather they will be kept very far away from it, so that they will not hear the slightest sound from it or see it.

«and they will abide forever in that which their hearts desire» of food, drink, spouses and scenery, such as no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it ever entered the mind of man. That will be perpetual and will increase in beauty with the passage of time.

«The greatest terror will not grieve them» that is, it will not worry them when the people panic at the greatest terror. That will be on the Day of Resurrection, when the fire is brought near, raging with anger towards the disbelievers and sinners, and there will be great panic and terror at that point, but these righteous people will not be grieved by that, because they are certain of what lies ahead of them, for Allah has granted them safety against what they fear.

«and the angels will welcome them» when they are resurrected from their graves and come on camels as a delegation. The angels will congratulate them, saying: «This is your day, that you were promised»; we congratulate you for what Allah has promised you. So be of great good cheer, for what lies ahead of you of honour, and rejoice greatly, for Allah has saved you from fear and harm.

﴿يَوْمَ نَطْوِي السَّمَاءَ كَطَيِّ السِّجِلِّ لِلْكُتُبِ ۚ كَمَا بَدَأْنَا أَوَّلَ خَلْقٍ نُعِيدُهُ ۖ وَعَدًا عَلَيْنَا ۚ إِنَّا كُنَّا فَاعِلِينَ ﴿١٠٤﴾ وَلَقَدْ كَتَبْنَا فِي الزَّبُورِ مِنْ بَعْدِ الذِّكْرِ أَنَّ الْأَرْضَ يَرِثُهَا عِبَادِيَ الصَّالِحُونَ ﴿١٠٥﴾﴾ (سورة الأنبياء: ١٠٤-١٠٥)

21:104. On that day We will roll up the heavens like a written scroll. As We originated creation, so We will repeat it, a promise binding upon Us. We will indeed fulfil it.

21:105. We wrote in the scripture, after We had done so in the Reminder: My righteous slaves will inherit the land.

Here Allah tells us that on the Day of Resurrection, He will roll up the heavens, despite their vastness, as a written scroll is rolled up. The stars will be scattered, and the sun and moon will be rolled up and moved from their places. «As We originated creation, so We will repeat it» that is, We will create them anew, as We created them the first time. As we created them initially, when they were nothing, so too We will recreate them after they have died.

«a promise binding upon Us. We will indeed fulfil it» and do what We have promised. That is because of His perfect might, for nothing is impossible for Him.

«We wrote in the scripture» this refers to the divinely revealed Books, such as the Torah and the like

«after We had done so in the Reminder» that is, We wrote it in the divinely revealed Books, after We had written it in the previous record, namely al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfoodh. What was written in it is:

«My righteous slaves» that is, those who did what was enjoined and avoided what was prohibited «will inherit the land» namely, the land of paradise. It is His righteous slaves whom Allah will cause to inherit paradise, as the people of paradise will say:

«...Praise be to Allah Who has fulfilled His promise to us and given us this land as our own, so that we may dwell in paradise wherever we wish...» (az-Zumar 39: 74)

It may be that what is meant is becoming in charge of the land on earth, and that Allah will give the righteous power and authority on earth, and will cause them to be in charge of it, as He says elsewhere:

«Allah has promised those among you who believe and do righteous deeds that He will surely make them successors [to power] in the land, as He made those before them successors; that He will surely establish for them their religion that He has chosen for them; and that He will surely cause their [present] state of fear to be replaced by peace and security. [That is because] they worship Me alone and do not associate anything with Me. If any are ungrateful after this, it is they who are the evildoers.» (an-Noor 24: 55)

﴿إِنَّ فِي هَذَا لَبَلَاغًا لِّقَوْمٍ عٰكِدِيْنَ﴾ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا رَحْمَةً لِّلْعٰلَمِيْنَ
﴿قُلْ إِنَّمَا يُوحِي إِلَيَّ أَنَّمَا إِلَهُكُمْ إِلَهٌ وَحِدٌ فَهَلْ أَنْتُمْ مُّسْلِمُونَ﴾

﴿١٠٦﴾ فَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَقُلْ ءَاذَنْتُكُمْ عَلَىٰ سَوَاءٍ وَإِنْ أَذْرِي أَقْرَبُ أَمَّ بَعِيدُ مَا تُوعَدُونَ
 ﴿١٠٧﴾ إِنَّهُ يَعْلَمُ الْجَهْرَ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا تَكْتُمُونَ ﴿١٠٨﴾ وَإِنْ أَذْرِي
 لَعَلَّهُ فِتْنَةٌ لَّكُمْ وَمَنْعٌ إِلَىٰ حِينٍ ﴿١٠٩﴾ قُلْ رَبِّ أَخَذْتُ بِالْحَقِّ وَرَبُّنَا الرَّحْمَنُ الْمُسْتَعَانُ عَلَىٰ مَا
 تَصِفُونَ ﴿١١٠﴾ ﴿سورة الأنبياء: ١٠٦-١١٢﴾

- 21:106. Verily this [Qur'an] is sufficient for people who are devoted to worshipping Allah.
- 21:107. And We have not sent you but as a mercy to the worlds.
- 21:108. Say: It has been revealed to me that your God is One God. Will you then submit to Him [in Islam]?
- 21:109. But if they turn away, say: I have proclaimed the message to all of you alike; but I do not know whether what you are warned of is imminent or far off.
- 21:110. Verily He knows what is said openly and He knows what you conceal.
- 21:111. For all I know, this may be a test for you and a short reprieve.
- 21:112. He said: O my Lord, judge in truth. Our Lord, the Most Gracious, is the One Whose help is to be sought against what you utter [of falsehood].

Here Allah (ﷻ) praises His noble Book, the Qur'an, and explains that it is completely sufficient and they have no need of anything else; no one can do without it.

﴿Verily this [Qur'an] is sufficient for people who are devoted to worshipping Allah﴾ that is, it is sufficient to help them reach their Lord and His paradise. It shows them the way to attain the sublime goal and best aim. Those who are devoted to worshipping Allah – who are the noblest of humankind – have no other aim, because this Book will guarantee that they will learn about their Lord and His names, attributes and deeds; and about the true stories of the unseen. It calls them to the fundamentals of faith, highlighting proof and evidence for that, explaining all the commands and prohibitions, highlighting the faults and weaknesses of the soul, what could undermine deeds, and the ways they should follow in minor and major issues of religion. It warns them against the paths of the Shayṭān and explains how he interferes with man and tries to gain control over him. Whoever does not think that the Qur'an is sufficient, may Allah never make him content.

Then Allah praises His Messenger (ﷺ) who brought the Qur'an: ﴿And We have not sent you but as a mercy to the worlds﴾ for he is Allah's mercy, given to His slaves. So those who believe in him accept this mercy, give thanks for it and adhere to it, but others reject it, respond with ingratitude for the blessing of Allah, and refuse the mercy and grace of Allah.

﴿Say﴾, O Muhammad (ﷺ): ﴿It has been revealed to me that your God is One God﴾ and none is deserving of worship except Him. Hence He says: ﴿Will you then submit to Him [in Islam]?﴾ That is, submit in servitude to Him and surrender to His divinity. If they do that, then let them praise their Lord for this blessing that He has bestowed upon them that surpasses all other blessings.

﴿But if they turn away﴾ and do not submit in servitude to their Lord, then warn them of the punishment, and ﴿say: I have proclaimed the message﴾ that is, I have given notice of the punishment ﴿to all of you alike﴾ that is, all of us, you and I, are now equally aware of it, so do not say, when the punishment befalls you:

﴿...No bearer of glad tidings and no warner ever came to us...﴾
(al-Mā'idah 5: 19)

Rather now everyone knows about it, because I have warned you and have told you the consequences of disbelief, and I have not withheld or concealed anything from you.

﴿but I do not know whether what you are warned of﴾ namely the punishment ﴿is imminent or far off﴾, because knowledge of that is with Allah, and it is under His control; I have no say in the matter at all.

«For all I know, this may be a test for you and a short reprieve» that is, perhaps the delay of the punishment that you seek to hasten is bad for you, so that you may enjoy life in this world for a little while, then your punishment will be greater.

«He said: O my Lord, judge in truth» that is, between me and the disbelieving people. Allah answered this supplication and judged between them in this world, before the hereafter, as He punished the disbelievers at the Battle of Badr and otherwise.

«Our Lord, the Most Gracious, is the One Whose help is to be sought against what you utter [of falsehood]» that is, we ask our Lord, the Most Gracious, and we seek His help against what you say; we will prevail over you and your religion will diminish. This is not self-admiration on our part, and we are not putting our trust in our power or strength; rather we are seeking the help of the Most Gracious, in Whose Hand is the forelock of every creature, and we hope that He will continue to bestow His mercy upon us. And He did indeed do that. Praise be to Allah.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-Anbiyâ'.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

22.

Soorat al-Hajj

(It was said that it is Makki or Madani)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿يَتَذَكَّرُهَا النَّاسُ أَتَقُوا رَبَّكُمْ إِنَّ زَلْزَلَةَ السَّاعَةِ شَيْءٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١﴾ يَوْمَ تَرَوْنَهَا تَذْهَلُ كُلُّ مُرْضِعَةٍ عَمَّا أَرْضَعَتْ وَتَضَعُ كُلُّ ذَاتِ حَمْلٍ حَمْلَهَا وَتَرَى النَّاسَ سُكَرَىٰ وَمَا هُمْ بِسُكَرَىٰ وَلَٰكِنَّ عَذَابَ اللَّهِ شَدِيدٌ ﴿٢﴾﴾ (سورة الحج: ١-٢)

- 22:1. O humankind, fear your Lord, for verily the convulsion of the Hour will be a terrible thing.
- 22:2. On the day you see it, every nursing mother will be distracted from the infant she is nursing and every pregnant woman will miscarry. You will see people as though they are drunk, although they are not drunk, but the punishment of Allah will be severe indeed.

Here Allah addresses all people, telling them to fear their Lord Who has bestowed upon them all sorts of blessings, both visible and hidden. Therefore they should fear Him and refrain from ascription of partners to Him, evildoing and sin; and they should comply with His commands as much as possible.

Then He tells them that He will help them to fear Him, and He warns them against not doing that, by telling them of the horrors of the Day of Resurrection.

﴿for verily the convulsion of the Hour will be a terrible thing﴾ and no one can estimate how terrible it will be and what its nature will be. When the Hour begins, the earth will shake and convulse, and there will be earthquakes. The mountains will begin to collapse and crumble, and will become like heaps of shifting sand, then like scattered dust. Then humankind will be divided into three groups.

The heaven will be rent asunder, the sun and the moon will be rolled up, and the stars will be scattered. There will be such turmoil and upheaval that hearts will crack, children will turn grey and the solid mountains will melt. Hence Allah says:

﴿On the day you see it, every nursing mother will be distracted from the infant she is nursing﴾, even though the nursing mother naturally has a deep love for her child, especially at this stage, at which the infant cannot survive without her.

﴿and every pregnant woman will miscarry﴾ because of the intensity of terror and horror.

﴿You will see people as though they are drunk, although they are not drunk﴾ that is, you would think – if you saw them – that they were drunk from imbibing alcohol, but they will not be drunk.

﴿but the punishment of Allah will be severe indeed﴾ and as a result they will lose their minds, and their hearts will be filled with fear and panic; their hearts will reach their throats and they will stare fixedly in horror. On that day, no father will avail his child and no child will avail his father anything. On that day:

﴿...a man will flee from his own brother, and from his mother and his father, and from his wife and his children. Every one of them, on that day, will have too many concerns of his own to care about anyone else.﴾ ('Abasa 80: 34-37)

On that day:

﴿...the wrongdoer will bite on his hands and say: Would that I had taken a path with the Messenger. Alas for me! Would that I had not taken So-and-so as a friend!﴾ (al-Furqân 25: 27-28)

On that day, some faces will turn dark and others will turn bright. The Balance will be set up which will weigh the smallest particle of good or evil. The records of deeds will be spread out, with all that they contain of deeds, words and intentions, small or great. The şirât (the path leading to paradise that passes over hellfire) will be set up over hell, paradise will be brought near to the pious, and hell will be placed in full view of those who went astray.

﴿When it sees them from afar, they will hear its raging and roaring. When they are cast into a narrow place therein, bound together in shackles, they will call out [wishing] for death.﴾ (al-Furqân 25: 12-13)

But it will be said to them:

﴿...Do not call out once [wishing] for death today; rather call out many times.﴾ (al-Furqân 25: 14)

But when they call upon their Lord, asking Him to bring them out of it, He will say:

﴿...Away with you! Be humiliated therein and do not speak to Me.﴾ (al-Mu'minoon 23: 108)

The Most Merciful Lord will be angry with them; the painful punishment will befall them, and they will despair of all good. They will find all their deeds recorded, with nothing omitted, not even the tiniest detail.

On the other hand, the pious will be in a garden, rejoicing (30: 15), enjoying all kinds of pleasures, abiding forever in that which their hearts desire (21: 102).

The wise person who knows that all of this lies ahead of him is expected to prepare the means that will enable him to reach it, and he should not hope to live long (in this world) and give up striving. He should fear Allah, and love and remembrance of Allah should be the essence of all his deeds.

﴿وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يُجَادِلُ فِي اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَيَتَّبِعُ كُلَّ شَيْطَانٍ مَّرِيدٍ ۖ كُتِبَ عَلَيْهِ أَنَّهُ مَن تَوَلَّاهُ فَأَنَّهُ يُضِلُّهُ وَيَهْدِيهِ إِلَىٰ عَذَابِ السَّعِيرِ﴾ (سورة الحج: ٣-٤)

22:3. Among people there are some who dispute about Allah without knowledge, and they follow every rebellious devil,

22:4. about whom it is decreed that whoever takes him as an ally, he will lead him astray and guide him to the punishment of the raging fire.

That is, among people there are some who followed the path of misguidance, and began to argue on the basis of falsehood against the truth, wanting to prove and support falsehood and invalidate the truth. But in fact they are extremely ignorant and do not have any knowledge. All they have is blind imitation of the leaders of misguidance, and of every rebellious devil who stubbornly rebelled against Allah and His Messengers, opposing them and going against what they said, thus becoming leaders of those who called people to hell.

﴿about whom it is decreed﴾ that is, it is decreed against this rebellious devil

﴿that whoever takes him as an ally﴾ that is, follows him

﴿he will lead him astray﴾ from the truth, and will keep him away from the straight path
 ﴿and guide him to the punishment of the raging fire﴾.

The person who disputes about Allah has combined his own misguidance with attempts to misguide other people. He is a follower and imitator of every rebellious devil. This is darkness upon darkness, and it includes the majority of the disbelievers and innovators, for most of them are mere imitators who argue without knowledge.

﴿يَتَأْتِيهَا النَّاسُ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ فِي رَيْبٍ مِّنَ الْبَعْثِ فَإِنَّا خَلَقْنَاهُ مِن نُّطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ مِّنْ عَلَقَةٍ ثُمَّ مِن مُّضْغَةٍ مُّخَلَّقَةٍ وَغَيْرِ مُخَلَّقَةٍ لِّنَبَيِّنَ لَكُمْ وَنَقُرِّ فِي الْآزْوَاجِ مَا نَشَاءُ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ثُمَّ نُخْرِجُكُمْ طِفْلًا ثُمَّ لِتَبْلُغُوا أَشُدَّكُمْ وَمِنْكُمْ مَّنْ يُؤْتَفُ وَمِنْكُمْ مَّنْ يُرَدُّ إِلَىٰ أَرْذَلِ الْعُمُرِ لِكَيْلَا يَعْلَمَ مِن بَعْدِ عِلْمٍ شَيْئًا وَتَرَىٰ الْأَرْضَ هَامِدَةً فَإِذَا أَنزَلْنَا عَلَيْهَا الْمَاءَ اهْتَزَّتْ وَرَبَتْ وَأَنْبَتَتْ مِن كُلِّ زَوْجٍ بَهِيجٍ ﴿٥﴾ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ وَأَنَّهُ يُحْيِي الْمَوْتَىٰ وَأَنَّهُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٦﴾ وَأَنَّ السَّاعَةَ آتِيَةٌ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهَا وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ يَبْعَثُ مَن فِي الْقُبُورِ ﴿٧﴾﴾ (سورة الحج:

(٧-٥)

22:5. O humankind, if you are in doubt about the resurrection, then consider that We created you from dust, then from a drop of semen, then from a clinging clot, then from a lump of flesh, shaped and unshaped,<sup>21</sup> so that We may make clear to you [Our power]. And We cause to remain in the wombs whomever We will for an appointed term. Then We bring you forth as infants, then [We cause you to grow] so that you may reach your age of full strength. Then some of you die and some are sent back to a feeble age, so that, after having had knowledge, they then know nothing at all. You see the earth dry and barren, but when We send down rain upon it, it stirs and swells, and brings forth beautiful plants of every kind.

<sup>21</sup> ﴿shaped and unshaped﴾: the developing embryo is initially unshaped, then its features start to appear until it is fully shaped. This is what is seen in the event of miscarriage; the embryo is either undeveloped (unshaped) or has distinct features (shaped).

22:6. That is because Allah alone is the Truth; He alone brings the dead to life, and He has power over all things.

22:7. For verily the Hour is coming; there can be no doubt about it. And verily Allah will raise up those who are in the graves.

«O humankind, if you are in doubt about the resurrection» and you do not know when it will happen, even though all that is required of you is to believe your Lord and believe His Messengers with regard to this matter. But if you must doubt it, then here are two rational proofs that you can see, either one of which definitively points to that which you doubt, and will dispel the doubts from your heart.

Firstly, Allah gives as evidence the beginning of man's creation, for the One Who initiated his creation will repeat it.

«then consider that We created you from dust» – this refers to the creation of the father of humankind, Adam (ﷺ)

«then from a drop of semen» – this is the beginning of the creation process

«then from a clinging clot» that is, the drop of semen turns into red blood, by Allah's leave

«then from a lump of flesh» that is, the blood turns into a lump of flesh the size of a morsel of food. That lump of flesh is sometimes «shaped» that is, it has human features; or sometimes it is «unshaped», when the womb miscarries it before it is shaped.

«so that We may make clear to you» how you are created and the stages of your development. Even though He is able to complete creation in a single moment, He highlights to us the perfect nature of His wisdom, the greatness of His might and the vastness of His mercy.

﴿And We cause to remain in the wombs whomever We will for an appointed term﴾ that is, We cause to become established in the womb and not expelled thereby whatever We will, for an appointed term, which is the duration of pregnancy.

﴿Then We bring you forth﴾ from your mothers' wombs ﴿as infants﴾, not knowing anything and having no power. We cause your mothers to look after you and We grant you provision at their breast, then you move through one stage after another until you reach your age of full strength, which is the peak of your physical and mental faculties.

﴿Then some of you die﴾ before reaching the age of full strength, and some pass that stage and are sent back to a feeble age, which is the worst stage. That is senile old age and dementia, in which the individual's mental capacity diminishes and is lost, as are all his other strengths, and he becomes weak.

﴿so that, after having had knowledge, they then know nothing at all﴾ that is, so that this elderly person will know nothing that he knew before, because his mind has grown weak. Human strength begins and ends with weakness: the weakness of childhood and the weakness of old age, as Allah says:

﴿It is Allah Who created you in a state of weakness, then after weakness He gave you strength, then after strength, weakness and grey hair. He creates as He wills, and He is the All-Knowing, Omnipotent.﴾
(ar-Room 30: 54)

Secondly, Allah gives as evidence the revival of the earth after it was dead, concerning which He says:

﴿You see the earth dry and barren﴾ that is, lifeless and dusty, with no vegetation or greenery.

﴿but when We send down rain upon it, it stirs﴾ with the movement of plants beginning to grow
 ﴿and swells﴾ that is, it rises up after it was subdued, due to increased growth
 ﴿and brings forth beautiful plants of every kind﴾ that is, all kinds of plants, the beauty of which brings delight to the beholder and brings joy to those who reflect. These two definitive proofs highlight the following points:

﴿That is because Allah﴾ is the One Who created man from that which He described to you, and gave life to an earth that was dead, and He ﴿alone is the Truth﴾ that is, He alone is the Lord Who is deserving of worship, and none should be worshipped except Him. Worship of Him is the truth and worship of anything other than Him is false. ﴿He alone brings the dead to life﴾ – as He initiated creation and as He gave life to an earth that was dead
 ﴿and He has power over all things﴾ – as He has made you see the brilliance of His power and creation.

﴿For verily the Hour is coming﴾ so there is no reason to think that it is not possible
 ﴿And verily Allah will raise up those who are in the graves﴾, then He will requite them for their deeds, both good and bad.

﴿وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يُجَادِلُ فِي اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَلَا هُدًى وَلَا كِتَابٍ مُّنِيرٍ ۝٨ تَآثِي عَظِيمَةٍ ۝٩ لِيُضِلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ لَهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا خِزْيٌ وَنَذِيرُهُ ۖ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ عَذَابُ الْحَرِيقِ ۝١٠ ذَٰلِكَ بِمَا قَدَّمْتَ يَدَاكَ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ لَيْسَ يَضِلُّمُ لِلْعَبِيدِ ۝١١﴾ (سورة الحج: ٨-١٠)

- 22:8. Among people there are some who dispute about Allah without knowledge, without guidance and without any clear revealed text.

22:9. They turn their faces away in scorn, so as to lead people astray from the path of Allah. For them there is disgrace in this world, and on the Day of Resurrection We will cause them to taste the punishment of the scorching fire.

22:10. [It will be said to them:] This is because of what your hands sent on ahead. For Allah is never unjust to [His] slaves.

The «dispute» mentioned above [vv. 3-4] refers to the argument of one who argues on the basis of imitation (and has no knowledge of his own). Here the «dispute» refers to the argument of the rebellious devil who calls people to innovation. Allah tells us that he «dispute[s] about Allah» that is, he disputes with the Messengers of Allah and their followers on the basis of falsehood in an attempt to refute the truth «without knowledge» that is, without sound knowledge «without guidance» that is, without following in his argument anyone who could guide him, and without being guided by rational thinking, or following someone who is guided «and without any clear revealed text» that is, without any rational or textual proof. It is nothing but specious arguments with which the Shayṭān inspires him.

«...But the devils whisper to their friends [among humankind] to argue with you...» (al-An'ām 6: 121)

Despite that, «They turn their faces away in scorn». This refers to their being too arrogant to follow the truth and their scorn for people. They rejoice in what they have of knowledge that is not beneficial and they look down upon the people of truth and the truth that they follow. «so as to lead people astray from the path of Allah» that is, so that they may be promoters of misguidance. This includes all the leaders of disbelief and misguidance.

Then Allah mentions their punishment in this world and the hereafter:

﴿For them there is disgrace in this world﴾ that is, they will be exposed to shame in this world, before the hereafter. This is one of the wondrous signs of Allah, for you will not find anyone who calls to disbelief and misguidance but he will be resented, cursed, hated and blamed by people and he will have what he deserves, each according to his situation.

﴿and on the Day of Resurrection We will cause them to taste the punishment of the scorching fire﴾ that is, We will cause him to taste its intense scorching heat. That is because of what their hands sent on ahead. ﴿For Allah is never unjust to [His] slaves﴾.

﴿وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يَعْبُدُ اللَّهَ عَلَىٰ حَرْفٍ ۖ فَإِنْ أَصَابَهُ خَيْرٌ اطْمَأَنَّ بِهِ ۚ وَإِنْ أَصَابَهُ فِتْنَةٌ اِنْقَلَبَ عَلَىٰ وَجْهِهِ ۚ خَيْرُ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ ۚ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْخُسْرَانُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿١١﴾ يَدْعُوا مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لَا يَضُرُّهُمْ وَمَا لَا يَنْفَعُهُمْ ۚ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الضَّلَالُ الْبَعِيدُ ﴿١٢﴾ يَدْعُوا لَمَن ضَرُّهُ أَقْرَبُ مِن نَّفْعِهِ ۚ لَيْسَ الْمَوْلَىٰ وَلَيْسَ الْعَشِيرُ ﴿١٣﴾﴾ (سورة الحج: ١١-١٣)

- 22:11. Among people there are some who worship Allah on the edge [of faith]. If something good comes to them, they are content with it, but if a trial befalls them, they make an about-face, thus forfeiting both this world and the hereafter. That is indeed manifest loss.
- 22:12. They call, besides Allah, upon that which can neither harm them nor benefit them. That is straying far into error.
- 22:13. They call upon that which is more likely to harm them than benefit them. What a wretched protector and what a wretched associate!

That is, among people there are some who are weak in faith; faith has not truly entered their hearts and they have never felt the joy of faith. Rather they entered the religion either out of fear or by way of following a custom, and they cannot be steadfast when faced with trials and tribulations.

﴿If something good comes to them, they are content with it﴾ if provision continues to come easily, and they are not faced with any hardship, they are content with that life of ease, not with their faith. Allah may give them well-being and not put them through trials which could cause them to give up their religion.

﴿but if a trial befalls them﴾ such as being faced with hardship or the loss of someone or something dear to them

﴿they make an about-face﴾ that is, they apostatise and give up their religion.

﴿thus forfeiting both this world and the hereafter﴾. With regard to this world, this means that they do not get what they hope for by apostatising. The one who made his apostasy his capital, giving up his faith in return for something that he thought he would achieve, will find that his efforts were to no avail and he will not get anything but what is decreed for him. With regard to the hereafter, it is obvious. They will be deprived of paradise which is as vast as the heavens and the earth, and they will deserve hell.

﴿That is indeed manifest loss﴾ that is, clear and obvious loss.

﴿They﴾ that is, those who do an about-face
 ﴿call, besides Allah, upon that which can neither harm them nor benefit them﴾. This description is applicable to everything that is called upon and worshipped instead of Allah: it has no power to bring benefit or cause harm to itself or to anyone else.

﴿That is straying far into error﴾ which has reached the ultimate level, when people turn away from worshipping the One Who can bring benefit and cause harm, the One Who is Self-Sufficient and can suffice others, and they focus instead on worshipping a created being that is like them or lower in status, that has no power or control at all; rather they are more likely to find the opposite of what they seek to attain. Hence Allah says:

«They call upon that which is more likely to harm them than benefit them» because the harm it causes, that will affect them in both mind and body, in this world and the hereafter, is well known. «What a wretched protector» – this refers to that object of worship «and what a wretched associate» that is, the companion who was always there. The purpose of a protector and associate is to attain benefit and ward off harm, but in this case none of that was achieved, so this protector and associate is indeed deserving of blame.

﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَدْخُلُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَفْعَلُ مَا يُرِيدُ﴾ (سورة الحج: ١٤)

22:14. Verily Allah will admit those who believe and do righteous deeds to gardens through which rivers flow; verily Allah does whatever He wills.

Having mentioned those who argue on the basis of falsehood, and explained that they are of two types: those who imitate others and those who are leaders of the call to falsehood, Allah (ﷻ) now tells us that those who claim to have faith are also of two types: those for whom faith has not truly entered their hearts, as mentioned above, and a second category, namely those who are truly believers and who confirm their faith by doing righteous deeds. Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He will admit them to gardens through which rivers flow.

Paradise is described as jannah because it contains dwellings, palaces, trees and plants that cover (tujinnu) those who are in them, and they are concealed by them because they are so abundant and plentiful.

«verily Allah does whatever He wills». Whatever He wills, He does without any resistance or opposition. That includes causing the people of paradise to reach it; may Allah make us among them by His grace and generosity.

﴿مَنْ كَانَتْ يَدُهُ عَنْ نَصْرَةِ اللَّهِ فَإِنَّ يَدَهُ بِالدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ فَلْيَمْدُدْ بِسَبَبٍ إِلَى السَّمَاءِ ثُمَّ لْيَقْطَعْ فَلْيَنْظُرْ هَلْ يُذْهِبَنَّ كَيْدَهُ مَا يَغِيظُ﴾ (سورة الحج: ١٥)

22:15. Whoever thinks [and hopes] that Allah will not grant victory to him [His Messenger] in this world and in the hereafter, let him tie a rope to heaven [and climb up], so as to stop the victory [from coming down from Allah to the Prophet], then let him see whether his action will do away with that which has enraged him.<sup>22</sup>

That is, whoever thinks that Allah will not grant victory to His Messenger (ﷺ), and that the religion of Islam will diminish, then he should understand that victory is from Allah and He sends it down from heaven.

«let him tie a rope to heaven [and climb up], so as to stop the victory» that is coming down from heaven.

«then let him see whether his action will do away with that which has enraged him» that is, let him see whether the plot he is hatching against the Prophet (ﷺ), the effort he is putting into fighting him and his eagerness to destroy his religion will do away with that which has enraged him of the religion of Islam prevailing.

This verse confirms that this can never happen, and that he will never be able to do away with that which has enraged him, no matter what measures he takes.

<sup>22</sup> What is meant is that the hopes and wishes of those enemies will not change anything, and the Prophet's victory is inevitable, so they may as well give up and kill themselves.

What this verse means is: O you who oppose the Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) and are striving to extinguish his religion, thinking on the basis of ignorance that your efforts will benefit you, you should understand that no matter what measures you take and no matter what efforts you make to oppose and harm the Messenger (ﷺ), that will not take away your rage and will not give you any satisfaction. You have no power to do that, but We will point out something that could take away your rage and help you to stop the victory from reaching the Messenger (ﷺ), if that was possible: take a rope and tie it to heaven, then climb up until you reach the gates of heaven from which victory comes; then block those gates and put an end to them. Thus you will do away with that which has enraged you. This is the right plan; you should never think that any other plan could help you to do away with that which has enraged you, no matter how many people help you.

This verse contains a promise and glad tidings that Allah will grant victory to His religion, His Messenger (ﷺ), and His believing slaves, as is quite clear, and He will cause the disbelievers who seek to extinguish the light of Allah with their mouths to lose hope, for Allah will perfect His light even though the disbelievers hate that and no matter how hard they strive.

﴿وَكَذَلِكَ أَنزَلْنَاهُ آيَاتٍ يُبَيِّنَاتٍ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ يَهْدِيَ مَن يُرِيدُ﴾ (سورة الحج: ١٦)

22:16. Thus We have sent down to you clear revelations; verily Allah guides whomever He wills.

That is, as We have explained issues clearly in this Qur'an, We have made it of clear verses that explain all that is needed of beneficial issues. But guidance is in the Hand of Allah; whomever Allah wishes to guide, he will be guided by this Qur'an, and he will adhere to it and follow its teachings, and he will benefit from its light. But whomever Allah does not wish to guide, even if all signs come to him he will not believe, and the Qur'an will not benefit him in the slightest; rather it will be proof against him.

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَالَّذِينَ هَادُوا وَالصَّابِئِينَ وَالنَّصَارَى وَالْمَجُوسَ وَالَّذِينَ أَشْرَكُوا إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَفْصِلُ بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ﴾ (١٧) ﴿أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَسْجُدُ لَهُ مِنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَالشَّمْسُ وَالْقَمَرُ وَالنُّجُومُ وَالْجِبَالُ وَالشَّجَرُ وَالدَّوَابُّ وَكَثِيرٌ مِنَ النَّاسِ وَكَثِيرٌ حَقَّ عَلَيْهِ الْعَذَابُ وَمَنْ يُنِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ مُكْرِمٍ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَفْعَلُ مَا يَشَاءُ﴾ (١٨) ﴿هَذَانِ خَصْمَانِ أَخَصَمُوا فِي رَبِّهِمْ فَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا قُطِعَتْ لَهُمْ نِيَابٌ مِنْ نَارٍ يُصَبُّ مِنْ فَوْقِ رُءُوسِهِمُ الْحَمِيمُ﴾ (١٩) ﴿يُصْهَرُ بِهِ مَا فِي بُطُونِهِمْ وَالْجُلُودُ﴾ (٢٠) ﴿وَلَهُمْ مَقْلَعٌ مِنْ حَدِيدٍ﴾ (٢١) ﴿كُلَّمَا أَرَادُوا أَنْ يَخْرُجُوا مِنْهَا مِنْ غَمٍّ أُعِيدُوا فِيهَا وَذُوقُوا عَذَابَ الْحَرِيقِ﴾ (٢٢) ﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُدْخِلُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ يُحَلَّوْنَ فِيهَا مِنْ أَسَاوِرَ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَلُؤْلُؤًا وَلِبَاسُهُمْ فِيهَا حَرِيرٌ﴾ (٢٣) ﴿وَهُدُوا إِلَى الطَّيِّبِ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ وَهُدُوا إِلَى صِرَاطٍ الْحَمِيدِ﴾ (٢٤) (سورة الحج: ١٧-٢٤)

22:17. Verily those who believe, those who are Jews, the Sabians, the Christians, the Magians and those who ascribe partners to Allah – Allah will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection. Verily Allah is Witness over all things.

22:18. Do you not see that to Allah prostrate all those who are in the heavens and on earth, the sun, the moon, the stars, the mountains, the trees, the animals, and many people? But there are also many for whom punishment is inevitable. Whomever Allah disgraces, none can honour him. Verily Allah does whatever He wills.

- 22:19. These are two opposing groups who are disputing about their Lord. As for those who disbelieve, garments of fire will be cut out for them, and scalding water will be poured over their heads,
- 22:20. which will cause their insides and their skins to melt.
- 22:21. They will be lashed with rods of iron.
- 22:22. Every time they want to escape from it, in their anguish, they will be driven back into it and [it will be said to them]: Taste the punishment of the scorching fire!
- 22:23. Verily Allah will admit those who believe and do righteous deeds to gardens through which rivers flow. They will be adorned therein with bracelets of gold and of pearls, and their garments therein will be of silk.
- 22:24. For they were guided to the best of words and they were guided to the path of Him Who is Worthy of all praise.
-

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the groups among the people of earth, those who were given the scriptures, the believers, the Jews, the Christians, the Sabians, the Magians and the polytheists. He will gather them all together on the Day of Resurrection, will pass judgement between them on the basis of His just rule, and requite them for their deeds that He recorded, wrote down and witnessed. Hence He says: ﴿Verily Allah is Witness over all things﴾.

Then He explains this judgement between them: ﴿These are two opposing groups who are disputing about their Lord﴾, each group claiming that it is following the right path.

﴿As for those who disbelieve﴾ – this includes all disbelievers, such as the Jews, Christians, Magians, Sabians and polytheists. ﴿garments of fire will be cut out for them﴾ that is, garments of pitch will be made for them, then they will be set on fire, so that the punishment will envelop them from all directions.

﴿and scalding water﴾ that is, extremely hot water ﴿will be poured over their heads﴾; it will cause whatever is inside them of flesh, fat and intestines to melt, due to the severity of its heat.

﴿They will be lashed with rods of iron﴾ in the hands of stern angels who will strike them with those rods and subdue them.

﴿Every time they want to escape from it, in their anguish, they will be driven back into it﴾. The punishment will never be reduced for them and they will never be given any respite. It will be said to them, by way of rebuke: ﴿Taste the punishment of the scorching fire!﴾ That is, the fire that burns hearts and bodies.

﴿Verily Allah will admit those who believe and do righteous deeds to gardens through which rivers flow﴾. It is well known that this description does not apply to anyone other than the Muslims, who believe in all the Books and all the Messengers.

﴿They will be adorned therein with bracelets of gold and of pearls﴾ which will adorn their arms; both their men and their women will wear bracelets of gold

﴿and their garments therein will be of silk﴾. Allah completes the description of their joy by referring to different kinds of delicious food, which may be implied by the word gardens; by referring to rivers going in all directions, which are rivers of water, milk, honey and wine; by referring to different kinds of clothing and splendid jewellery. That is because ﴿they were guided to the best of words﴾, the best and most virtuous of which is the word of sincere faith (lā ilāha illā Allāh), then all good words, including remembrance of Allah and kind words to the slaves of Allah.

﴿and they were guided to the path of Him Who is Worthy of all praise﴾ that is, they were guided to the path of Allah, the Most Praiseworthy, for Allah often ascribes the path to Himself, because it leads the one who follows it to Allah. Moreover, the path itself may be described as praiseworthy, because all its teachings are based on wisdom and praise, for everything that is enjoined in Islam is good and everything that is forbidden is bad. This is the religion of the middle path between two extremes, a religion that encourages the pursuit of beneficial knowledge and doing righteous deeds.

The fact that Allah is mentioned here as He «Who is Worthy of all praise» indicates that they attained guidance by virtue of their praising their Lord and by virtue of His blessings upon them. Hence they will say in paradise:

«...Praise be to Allah Who has guided us to this, for we would never have been guided if Allah had not guided us...» (al-A'raf 7: 43)

In the midst of this passage (in 22: 18), Allah mentions the prostration of all creatures to Him, all those who are in the heavens and on earth, the sun, the moon, the stars, the mountains, the trees, the animals and many people, namely the believers.

«But there are also many for whom punishment is inevitable» that is, it has been decreed, because of their disbelief and failure to believe. Allah did not guide them to faith, because He has disgraced them, and «Whomever Allah disgraces, none can honour him» and none can resist His will or object to His will.

As all creatures prostrate to their Lord and submit to His greatness and power, this indicates that He alone is the Lord Who is deserving of worship, the Sovereign Who is deserving of all praise. Whoever turns away from Him to worship something other than Him has gone far astray and is clearly a loser.

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَيَصُدُّونَ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ الَّذِي جَعَلْنَاهُ لِلنَّاسِ سَوَاءً الْعَنَكُفُ فِيهِ وَالْبَاءُ وَمَنْ يُرِدْ فِيهِ بِالْحَكَايمِ يُظْلَمِ نَذْقُهُ مِنْ عَذَابِ أَلِيمٍ﴾ (سورة الحج: ٢٥)

22:25. As for those who disbelieve and bar [people] from the path of Allah and from the Sacred Mosque – which We have made for all people, residents and visitors alike – and any who intend to profane it by deliberate evil-doing, We will cause them to taste a painful penalty.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the abhorrent ways of the polytheists who disbelieved in their Lord: they combined disbelief in Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) with barring people from the path of Allah and preventing them from believing, and also barring them from the Sacred Mosque, which did not belong to them or their forefathers; rather all people have equal rights to it, both residents and visitors. Indeed, they barred from it the best of humankind, namely Muhammad (ﷺ) and his Companions. In fact, because the Sacred Mosque is a holy and venerated place, whoever intends to profane it by deliberate evil-doing, We will cause them to taste a painful penalty.

Merely intending to do wrong or commit profane acts in the sanctuary makes punishment inevitable, although in other cases a person will not be punished unless he actually does the wrong deed. So how about those who actually committed the worst of wrongdoing, such as disbelieving, ascribing partners to Allah, barring people from His path and preventing those who wanted to visit the Sacred Mosque? What do you think Allah will do to them?

This verse highlights the obligation to respect and venerate the sanctuary, and warns against wanting to commit sin therein and actually doing that.

﴿وَإِذْ بَوَّأْنَا لِإِبْرَاهِيمَ مَكَانَ الْبَيْتِ أَنْ لَا تُشْرِكْ بِي شَيْئًا وَطَهِّرْ بَيْتِيَ
لِلطَّائِفِينَ وَالْقَائِمِينَ وَالرُّكَّعِ السُّجُودِ ۝ وَأَذِّنْ فِي النَّاسِ بِالْحَجِّ يَأْتُوكَ

رَبِّكَ لَا وَعَلَىٰ كُلِّ ضَامِرٍ يَأْتِينَكَ مِنْ كُلِّ فَيْحٍ عَمِيقٍ ﴿٢٧﴾ لِشَهِدُوا مَنَافِعَ لَهُمْ
وَيَذْكُرُوا اسْمَ اللَّهِ فِي أَيَّامٍ مَّعْلُومَةٍ عَلَىٰ مَا رَزَقَهُمْ مِنْ بَهِيمَةِ الْأَنْعَامِ
فَكُلُوا مِنْهَا وَأَطْعِمُوا الْبَائِسَ الْفَقِيرَ ﴿٢٨﴾ ثُمَّ لْيَقْضُوا تَفَثَهُمْ وَلْيُوفُوا
نُذُورَهُمْ وَلْيَطَّوَّفُوا بِالْبَيْتِ الْعَتِيقِ ﴿٢٩﴾ (سورة الحج: ٢٦-٢٩)

- 22:26. And [remember] when We showed to Ibrâheem the site of the [Sacred] House, [saying]: Do not associate anything in worship with Me, and purify My House for those who circumambulate it, those who stand to pray, and those who bow and prostrate.
- 22:27. And proclaim to all people the duty of pilgrimage. They will come to you on foot and on every lean camel, coming from every distant land,
- 22:28. so that they may avail themselves of benefits and mention the name of Allah [at the time of sacrifice], during the appointed days, over the livestock that He has provided for them; then eat thereof and feed the wretched poor.
- 22:29. Then let them complete their rites, fulfil their vows, and [again] circumambulate the Ancient House.

Here Allah mentions the greatness and majestic nature of the Sacred House, and the greatness of the one who built it, namely the close friend of the Most Gracious:

﴿And [remember] when We showed to Ibrâheem the site of the [Sacred] House﴾ and We caused him to stay there, and We caused some of his progeny to reside permanently in that place. Allah instructed him to build it, so he built it on the basis of piety and obedience to Allah. He built it along with his son Ismâ'eel, instructing him not to associate anything with Allah, to make his deed sincerely for the sake of Allah alone, and to build it in the name of Allah.

﴿and purify My House﴾ that is, purify it from polytheism and sin, and cleanse it of impurity and dirt. The Most Gracious called it His House in order to highlight its great status and virtue, and so that people would have great love for it, their hearts would long to come to it from all directions, and people would be motivated to purify it and venerate it, because it is the House of the Lord, purifying it for those who circumambulate it and those who worship at that place, and those who stay there to perform some acts of worship such as remembering Allah, reading Qur'an, acquiring knowledge and teaching it, and other acts by means of which one may draw closer to Allah.

﴿and those who bow and prostrate﴾ that is, people who come and pray there. In other words, purify it for those good people whose main aim is to worship and serve their Lord, and to draw near to Him at His House. These people have the right and deserve to be honoured and welcomed. Part of honouring them is to purify the House for their sake. Purifying it includes purifying it of loud voices talking of idle things that disturb those worshippers who come to pray and circumambulate the Kaaba. Circumambulation is mentioned before standing to pray, because it is unique to this House; then prayer is mentioned, because it is something that is common to every mosque.

﴿And proclaim to all people the duty of pilgrimage﴾ that is, tell them about it, summon them to it, and convey to near and far how obligatory and virtuous it is. If you call them, they will come to you to perform Hajj and 'umrah. They will come on foot, walking with longing (to visit the sacred places) ﴿and on every lean camel﴾, crossing wildernesses and deserts, travelling great distances, until they reach the holiest of places, ﴿coming from every distant land﴾ that is, from every faraway land.

Ibrâheem (ﷺ) did that, as did his descendant Muhammad (ﷺ); he called people to come on pilgrimage to this House, and they both did that repeatedly. And what Allah promised came to pass: people came to it on foot and riding, from east and west. Then Allah mentions the benefits of visiting the sacred House of Allah, so as to encourage people to do that:

﴿so that they may avail themselves of benefits﴾ that is, so that they may avail themselves at the House of Allah of spiritual benefits such as acts of worship, including acts of worship that can only be done at that place, and worldly benefits such as earning income and making some worldly gains. All of this happens, as everyone knows. ﴿and mention the name of Allah [at the time of sacrifice], during the appointed days, over the livestock that He has provided for them﴾ – this refers to another of the spiritual and worldly benefits. In other words: mention the name of Allah at the time of slaughtering the sacrificial animals, in gratitude to Allah for what He has bestowed thereof and made easy for the pilgrims. When you have slaughtered them, ﴿then eat thereof and feed the wretched poor﴾ that is, those who are very poor.

﴿Then let them complete their rites﴾ that is, let them complete their pilgrimage rituals, which includes removing dirt that has got onto them during the state of ihrām.

﴿fulfil their vows﴾ that they took upon themselves, to perform Hajj and ‘umrah, and offer the sacrifice.

﴿and [again] circumambulate the Ancient House﴾, the best of all mosques. This command to circumambulate the Kaaba is a specific instruction that comes after the command to perform the rituals in general, to highlight its special virtue, and because it is the ultimate act; everything that comes before it is a means to get to this point.

Perhaps – and Allah knows best – it is also for another reason, which is that circumambulation is prescribed at all times, whether it is connected to a pilgrimage or is done separately.

﴿ذَلِكَ وَمَنْ يُعْظِمِ حُرْمَتِ اللَّهِ فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لَهُ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِ. وَأَجَلْتُ لَكُمْ
الْأَنْفَعُ إِلَّا مَا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكُمْ فَاجْتَنِبُوا الرِّجْسَ مِنَ الْأَوْثَانِ وَاجْتَنِبُوا

قَوْلِكَ الزُّورِ ﴿٣٠﴾ حُنَفَاءَ لِلَّهِ غَيْرَ مُشْرِكِينَ بِهِ. وَمَنْ يُشْرِكْ بِاللَّهِ فَكَأَنَّمَا خَرَّ مِنْ
السَّمَاءِ فَتَخْطَفُهُ الطَّيْرُ أَوْ تَهْوِي بِهِ الرِّيحُ فِي مَكَانٍ سَحِيقٍ ﴿٣١﴾ (سورة الحج: ٣٠-٣١)

22:30. Such [is the pilgrimage]; whoever honours the sacred rites of Allah, that is better for him with his Lord. All livestock has been made lawful for you except that mentioned to you [as unlawful]. So shun the abomination of idols and shun all words of falsehood,

22:31. being true in faith to Allah alone, not ascribing any partner to Him. Whoever ascribes partners to Him, it is as if he has fallen from heaven and been snatched up by birds or carried away by the wind to a far-off place.

«Such [is the pilgrimage]» That is, what We have mentioned to you of those rulings that have to do with the pilgrimage and what they involve of venerating, showing respect to and honouring the sacred rites of Allah; venerating the sacred rites of Allah is something that is beloved to Him and is a means of drawing closer to Him for the one who venerates and honours those rites. Allah will reward him greatly for that, and it will be good for him in his spiritual and worldly affairs, and in the hereafter with his Lord.

The sacred rites of Allah include everything that is sacred and that we are instructed to respect, such as acts of worship and other matters, including all the rituals, the Hāram zone, iḥrām, the sacrificial animals, and all the acts of worship that Allah has instructed His slaves to adhere to and perform.

Venerating them means respecting them in one's heart, loving them and showing complete servitude when doing them, without taking the matter lightly, feeling lazy or showing reluctance.

Then Allah mentions His blessing and kindness, as He has made permissible to His slaves the livestock animals such as camels, cattle and sheep, and has made them part of the rituals through which one draws closer to Him. Thus His blessing is shown to be great on two counts (namely making their meat permissible and making them part of the rituals).

﴿All livestock has been made lawful for you except that mentioned to you [as unlawful]﴾ in the Qur'an, in the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Forbidden to you [for food] are: the meat of animals found dead, blood, the flesh of swine...﴾ (al-Mā'idah 5: 3)

But what He forbade to them was because of His mercy towards His slaves; He forbade it to them for the purpose of purifying them and cleansing them from the sin of polytheism and speaking falsehood. Hence He says:

﴿So shun the abomination﴾ that is, the filth and evil ﴿of idols﴾ that they regarded as gods besides Allah, for they are the worst kind of innovation.

﴿and shun all words of falsehood﴾ that is, all forbidden kinds of speech, for they come under the heading of words of falsehood. This includes lying and bearing false witness.

Having forbidden them to ascribe partners to Him, worship idols and speak words of falsehood, Allah now enjoins them to be ﴿true in faith to Allah alone﴾ that is, turning to Him and focusing on His worship, turning away from all besides Him, ﴿not ascribing any partner to Him﴾.

﴿Whoever ascribes partners to Him, it is as if he has fallen from heaven and been snatched up﴾ quickly ﴿by birds or carried away by the wind to a far-off place﴾ that is, a distant place. Such is the polytheist, for faith is like the heavens: it is protected and elevated. But whoever shuns faith is like the one who has fallen from heaven and is exposed to troubles and problems. He may be snatched up by the birds, who will tear him limb from limb. This is like the polytheist:

when he shuns the protection of faith, the devils snatch him from all directions and tear him apart, spoiling his spiritual and worldly well-being.

﴿ذَلِكَ وَمَنْ يُعْظِمَ شَعِيرَ اللَّهِ فَإِنَّهَا مِنْ تَقْوَى الْقُلُوبِ﴾ ﴿٣٣﴾ لَكُمْ فِيهَا مَنَافِعُ إِلَى أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ثُمَّ يَحْمِلُهَا إِلَى الْبَيْتِ الْعَتِيقِ ﴿٣٤﴾ (سورة الحج: ٣٢-٣٣)

22:32. That [is the command]. And whoever honours the rites of Allah, verily that stems from piety of the hearts.

22:33. You may derive benefit [from the sacrificial animals] for an appointed term, then their place of sacrifice is near the Sacred House.

That is, what we have mentioned to you about venerating the sacred rites and symbols of Allah. What is meant by symbols is the visible symbols of Islam, including all the rituals, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Verily, Şafā and Marwah are among the symbols of Allah...﴾
(al-Baqarah 2: 158)

It also includes offering the sacrifice in Makkah.

We stated above that what is meant by honouring them is venerating them and doing them in the most perfect manner possible. That includes the sacrificial animals: they are to be respected and the animals chosen for the sacrifice should be of high quality and healthy, perfect in all ways. Honouring the sacred rites of Allah stems from piety of the hearts. The one who honours them is proving his piety and the soundness of his faith, because honouring them results from honouring and venerating Allah.

﴿You may derive benefit [from the sacrificial animals] for an appointed term﴾ this refers to the sacrificial animals that are brought to Makkah, camels and others. The owner may derive benefits from them by riding them, milking them, and so on, so long as that does not cause any harm to them

﴿for an appointed term﴾ that is, for a limited time, which is until they are slaughtered. When the animals reach their place of sacrifice, which is the Ancient House – this refers to the entire Haram zone, Mina and elsewhere – then when they are slaughtered, eat from their meat, give some as a gift, and feed the desperate poor.

﴿وَلِكُلِّ أُمَّةٍ جَعَلْنَا مَنْسَكًا لِّيَذْكُرُوا اسْمَ اللَّهِ عَلَىٰ مَا رَزَقَهُمْ مِنْ بَهِيمَةِ
الْأَنْعَامِ ۖ فَإِلَهُكُمُ إِلَهُ وَاحِدٌ فَلَهُ أَسْلِمُوا وَبَشِّرِ الْمُخْبِتِينَ ﴿٣٤﴾ الَّذِينَ إِذَا ذَكَرَ اللَّهُ
وَجِلَتْ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَالصَّابِرِينَ عَلَىٰ مَا أَصَابَهُم وَالْمُقِيمِي الصَّلَاةِ وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنفِقُونَ
(سورة الحج: ٣٤-٣٥) ﴿٣٥﴾﴾

- 22:34. For every nation We ordained rites of sacrifice, so that they might mention the name of Allah [at the time of sacrifice] over the livestock that He provided for them. But your God is One God, so submit to Him alone. And give glad tidings [O Muhammad] to the humble,
- 22:35. those whose hearts are filled with awe when Allah is mentioned, who endure with patience whatever befalls them, establish prayer, and spend out of what We have provided for them.

That is, for each of the previous nations, We ordained rites of sacrifice. Therefore hasten to do good deeds so that We may see which of you is best in deeds. The wisdom behind Allah's ordaining rites of sacrifice for each nation was so as to establish remembrance of Him and focus on giving thanks to Him. Hence He says:

﴿so that they might mention the name of Allah [at the time of sacrifice] over the livestock that He provided for them. But your God is One God». Even though the types of rituals differed, they were all agreed on this principle, namely the divinity of Allah and the fact that He alone is to be worshipped, and no partners are to be ascribed to Him. Hence He says:

«so submit to Him alone» that is, submit and surrender to Him and no other, for submission to Him is the path that leads to paradise.

«And give glad tidings» in this world and the hereafter «to the humble» that is, those who humble themselves before their Lord and submit to His command, and are humble towards His slaves.

Then Allah describes the characteristics of the humble:

«those whose hearts are filled with awe when Allah is mentioned» that is, their hearts are filled with fear and veneration, and for that reason they refrain from that which is forbidden, because of their fear and awe of Allah alone.

«who endure with patience whatever befalls them» of hardship, sickness or other kinds of harm. They do not become discontent with any of that; rather they bear it with patience for the sake of their Lord, seeking His reward and hoping for it.

«establish prayer» that is, those who establish it properly and perfectly, by doing that which is obligatory and that which is recommended, with complete submission and servitude, both outward and inward.

«and spend out of what We have provided for them» this includes all kinds of obligatory expenditure, such as zakâh, expiation, spending on wives, dependents and relatives, as well as recommended kinds of spending such as charity of all kinds.

It says «out of what» so as to highlight that it is only some of it, so as to indicate how easy the commands of Allah are, and to encourage people to do that, because it is only a small part of that which Allah has provided. The individual could not have obtained it, were it not that Allah made it easy for him and provided it to him. This command is addressed to one who has received provision from the bounty of Allah: spend out of what Allah has provided for you, and Allah will spend on you and give you more.

﴿وَالْبُدْنَ جَعَلْنَاهَا لَكُمْ مِنْ شَعْتِ اللَّهِ لَكُمْ فِيهَا خَيْرٌ فَاذْكُرُوا اسْمَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهَا صَوَافٍ فَإِذَا وَجِيتُ جُنُوبَهَا فَكُلُوا مِنْهَا وَأَطْعِمُوا الْقَانِعَ وَالْمُعْتَرَّ كَذَلِكَ سَخَّرْنَاهَا لَكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ لَنْ يَنَالَ اللَّهُ لُحُومُهَا وَلَا دِمَاؤُهَا وَلَكِنْ يَنَالُهُ التَّقْوَىٰ مِنْكُمْ كَذَلِكَ سَخَّرَهَا لَكُمْ لِتُكَبِّرُوا اللَّهَ عَلَىٰ مَا هَدَاكُمْ وَبَشِّرِ الْمُحْسِنِينَ﴾ (سورة الحج: ٣٦-٣٧)

- 22:36. We have ordained the sacrificial camels for you as one of the rites of Allah. There is much good for you in them. So mention the name of Allah over them [at the time of sacrifice] as they are standing, then after they have fallen lifeless to the ground, eat thereof and feed [the poor] who do not ask as well as those who do. Thus We have made these animals subservient to your needs, so that you may give thanks.
- 22:37. It is not their flesh or their blood that reaches Allah; rather it is your piety that reaches Him. Thus He has subjected them to you, so that you may glorify Allah for having guided you. And give glad tidings to those who do good.

This indicates that the rites of Allah include all visible symbols of Islam. We noted above that Allah tells us that if a person respects His rites, that stems from the piety of the hearts. Here He tells us that one of His rites is the sacrificial camels – and cows according to one of the two scholarly views. They are to be respected, and healthy and good specimens are to be chosen for the sacrifice.

«There is much good for you in them» that is, for the one who offers the sacrifice and others, as their meat may be eaten and given in charity, bringing benefit and reward.

«So mention the name of Allah over them» that is, at the time of slaughter, say: “bismillâh (in the name of Allah)” and slaughter them.

﴿as they are standing﴾. The camel is to be made to stand on all four legs, then the left foreleg is to be tied up, then it is to be slaughtered.

﴿then after they have fallen lifeless to the ground﴾ on their sides, then the carcass is skinned and cut into pieces by the butcher, and the pieces fall to the ground, at that point it is ready to be eaten from. ﴿eat thereof﴾. This is addressed to the one who offers the sacrifice; it is permissible for him to eat from his sacrifice.

﴿and feed [the poor] who do not ask as well as those who do﴾ that is, the poor person who does not ask out of dignity, and the poor person who does ask. Both of them have a right to a share of it.

﴿Thus We have made these animals﴾ namely the sacrificial camels ﴿subservient to your needs, so that you may give thanks﴾ to Allah for making them subservient to your needs, for if He had not made them subservient to your needs, you would not be able to control them (and benefit from them). But He has subjugated them to you out of mercy and kindness towards you, so praise Him.

﴿It is not their flesh or their blood that reaches Allah﴾ that is, the aim of the sacrifice is not merely to slaughter the animals, for nothing of their flesh or blood reaches Allah, because He is the Self-Sufficient, Most Praiseworthy. Rather what reaches Him is sincerity in the deed, seeking of His reward, and good intention. Hence He says: ﴿rather it is your piety that reaches Him﴾.

This encourages and urges the believer to be sincere to Him when offering the sacrifice. The aim should be to seek the pleasure of Allah alone, not pride, showing off, seeking to enhance one's reputation or merely following custom. The same applies to all acts of worship: if they are not accompanied by sincerity and fear of Allah, then they are merely empty shells, like a body without a soul.

﴿Thus He has subjected them to you, so that you may glorify Allah﴾ that is, venerate and honour Him
 ﴿for having guided you﴾ that is, in return for His having guided you, for He is deserving of the most perfect praise and highest veneration.

﴿And give glad tidings to those who do good﴾ by worshipping Allah, in that they worship Allah as if they see Him. If they have not reached that level, then let them worship Him believing at the time of their worship that He is watching them and sees them. This also refers to those who do good to other people in all ways, whether by offering financial help, teaching knowledge, using their position to help, offering sincere advice, enjoining what is right, forbidding what is wrong, saying a kind word, and so on.

Those who do good have glad tidings from Allah of happiness in this world and the hereafter; Allah will show them kindness as they did good by worshipping Him and they did good to His slaves.

﴿Is the reward of goodness anything but goodness?﴾ (ar-Rahmān 55: 60)

﴿For those who do good there will be the best reward and more besides...﴾ (Yoonus 10: 26)

﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُدَافِعُ عَنِ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ كُلَّ خَوَّانٍ كَفُورٍ﴾

(سورة الحج: ٣٨)

22:38. Verily, Allah will defend those who believe; verily Allah does not love the treacherous and the ungrateful.

This is a promise and glad tidings from Allah to those who believe, that Allah will ward off from them all hardships and will ward off from them all evil – because of their faith – and He will protect them from the evil of the disbelievers, the evil of the whispers of the Shayṭān, the evil of their own selves and their bad deeds. He will help them when hardship comes and they are faced with something beyond that which they can bear, and He will reduce it greatly. Every believer has a share of this defence and the virtue of being defended, commensurate with his faith; some will have a little and some will have a great deal.

﴿verily Allah does not love the treacherous﴾ that is, the one who betrays his trust that Allah made obligatory upon him, so he does not carry out his duties towards Allah and he betrays that trust, and he betrays people too.

﴿and the ungrateful﴾ that is, those who are ungrateful for the blessings of Allah that He persistently bestows, and in return he persists in disbelief and disobedience. Allah does not love such a person; rather He hates him and despises him, and He will requite him for his disbelief and treachery. What this verse means is that Allah loves every trustworthy person who fulfils his trust and gives thanks to his Lord.

﴿أُذِنَ لِلَّذِينَ يُقَاتِلُونَ بِأَنَّهُمْ ظَلِمُوا وَإِنْ أَلَّ اللَّهُ عَلَىٰ نَصْرِهِمْ لَقَدِيرٌ﴾ (٣٩) الَّذِينَ أُخْرِجُوا مِنْ دِيَارِهِمْ بِغَيْرِ حَقٍّ إِلَّا أَنْ يَقُولُوا رَبُّنَا اللَّهُ وَلَوْلَا دَفْعُ اللَّهِ النَّاسَ بَعْضَهُمْ بِبَعْضٍ لَفَسَدَتِ الصُّلُوعُ وَبِيعَ وَصَلَاتٌ وَمَسْجِدٌ يُذَكَّرُ فِيهَا اسْمُ اللَّهِ كَثِيرًا وَلَيَنْصُرَنَّ اللَّهُ مَنْ يَنْصُرُهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَقَوِيٌّ عَزِيزٌ (٤٠) الَّذِينَ إِنْ مَكَّنَّاهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ أَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتَوُا الزَّكَاةَ وَأَمَرُوا بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَنَهَوْا عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ وَلِلَّهِ عَنَقَبَةُ الْأُمُورِ﴾ (٤١) (سورة الحج: ٣٩-٤١)

22:39. Permission [to fight] is given to those who are attacked, because they have been wronged. Verily Allah is able to grant them victory,

22:40. those who have been driven from their homes unjustly, only because they say: Our Lord is Allah. Were it not for Allah restraining the people, some by means of others, monasteries, churches, synagogues, and mosques, in which the name of Allah is mentioned much, would surely have been destroyed. Allah will surely help those who help His cause. Verily Allah is Strong, Almighty.

22:41. [They are] those who, if We establish them in the land, will establish regular prayer and give zakâh, and will enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong. Allah decides the outcome of all matters.

In the beginning, the Muslims were forbidden to fight the disbelievers and were enjoined to show patience with them, as dictated by divine wisdom. But when they migrated to Madinah and gained some strength and power, permission was given to them to fight. Allah (ﷻ) said:

﴿Permission [to fight] is given to those who are attacked﴾. From this it is understood that prior to that they had been forbidden to fight, then Allah gave them permission to fight those who attacked them. Such permission was given to them only because they had been wronged by being prevented from following their religion; they had been persecuted for that and had been expelled from their homes.

﴿Verily Allah is able to grant them victory﴾ so let them seek His help and support. Then Allah mentions the nature of the wrong that was done to them:

﴿those who have been driven from their homes﴾ they were forced to leave, because of the harm and persecution that were done to them ﴿unjustly﴾ that is, their “fault” for which their enemies resented them was ﴿only because they say: Our Lord is Allah﴾. In other words, it was only because they affirmed the oneness of Allah and devoted their worship solely to Him. If this is a fault, then that was their fault. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Their only grievance against them was that they believed in Allah, the Almighty, the Praiseworthy.﴾ (al-Burooj 85: 8)

This is indicative of the wisdom behind jihad, the purpose of which is to establish the religion of Allah and stand up to those disbelievers who are persecuting the believers and who are the ones who started the aggression, so as to ward off their wrongdoing and persecution in order that the believers will be able to worship Allah and establish the visible symbols and rituals of Islam. Hence Allah says:

﴿Were it not for Allah restraining the people, some by means of others﴾ for Allah wards off the harm of the disbelievers by means of those who strive in jihad in His cause

﴿monasteries, churches, synagogues, and mosques, in which the name of Allah is mentioned much, would surely have been destroyed﴾ that is, these main places of worship for various groups of the People of the Book – the places of worship of the Jews and Christians, and the mosques of the Muslims – would have been destroyed.

﴿in which the name of Allah is mentioned much﴾ that is, in these places of worship prayers are held, the Books of Allah are recited and the name of Allah is mentioned in different ways. Were it not for Allah restraining the people, some by means of others, the disbelievers would gain control over the Muslims, and they would destroy their places of worship and force them to give up their religion. This indicates that jihad is prescribed for the purpose of warding off the aggressor and the one who causes harm. And there are also other aims of jihad.

This indicates that the countries in which people feel safe to worship Allah, the mosques are maintained and all the rituals of Islam are established, are part of the virtue resulting from the efforts of those who strive in jihad, for by virtue of their blessed efforts Allah warded off the disbelievers from that country. Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...Were it not for Allah restraining the people, some by means of others, the earth would indeed be filled with mischief. But Allah is most gracious to all the worlds.﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 251)

If you were to say: nowadays we see the mosques of the Muslims being maintained and frequented, and they are not destroyed, even though many are in small Muslim countries with governments that are not powerful, and they have no power to fight in neighbouring non-Muslim countries; in fact we even see mosques in countries under the control of non-Muslims that are maintained and frequented, and their people are safe and secure, even though the non-Muslim rulers are able to destroy them, but Allah has told us that were it not for Allah restraining the people, some by means of others, these places of worship would be destroyed. But we do not see the application of this concept of some people being restrained by others.

The response to that is that this question is included in the general meaning of this verse. The one who knows about how countries are run nowadays is aware that according to their system every community under its authority and subject to its rule is regarded as part of the society that plays a role in its government, even if that community has power because of its numbers or what it possesses of equipment or wealth, or the work it does and the services it offers. Governments pay attention to both the religious and worldly interests of that community, because they fear that if they do not do that it will lead to trouble or loss of some of their support. For that reason, they pay attention to some aspects of the religion, especially mosques which, praise be to Allah, are well established even in the capitals of the superpowers.

Those independent states and governments pay attention to the feelings of their Muslim subjects. Moreover there is mutual envy and enmity among some Christian nations, which Allah has told us will continue until the Day of Resurrection. So you will find that the Muslim government, even though it may not be able to defend itself, is safe from much of their harm because of that enmity that exists among them. So not one of them can cause harm to the Muslim state, lest the Muslim state seek the protection of another Christian state. Moreover, Allah (ﷻ) will show His slaves support for Islam and the Muslims, as He has promised in His Book.

The signs of divine support began to appear – praise be to Allah – when the Muslims realised the necessity of turning back to their religion and of striving hard. We praise Him and we ask Him to complete His blessing.

Hence Allah says in a true promise, the fulfilment of which can be seen in real life: ﴿Allah will surely help those who help His cause﴾ that is, those who support His religion with sincerity to Him alone, fighting for His sake so that the word of Allah will be supreme.

﴿Verily Allah is Strong, Almighty﴾ that is, He is perfect in His might and strength, and none can resist Him. He has subjected all creatures and has control over them. So be of good cheer, O Muslims, for even though you are weak in numbers and in weapons and equipment, and the numbers and weapons of your enemy are greater, your support is Allah, the Strong, the Almighty, and you are relying on the One Who created you and created all that you do. So take the measures that are enjoined upon you, then seek His support, and He will inevitably grant you victory.

﴿O you who believe, if you help Allah's cause, He will help you and steady your footsteps.﴾ (Muhammad 47: 7)

So fulfil your duties, O Muslims, as dictated by your faith, and do righteous deeds, for:

﴿Allah has promised those among you who believe and do righteous deeds that He will surely make them successors [to power] in the land, as He made those before them successors; that He will surely establish for them their religion that He has chosen for them; and that He will surely cause their [present] state of fear to be replaced by peace and security. [That is because] they worship Me alone and do not associate anything with Me...﴾ (an-Noor 24: 55)

Then Allah mentions the sign of the one who supports and helps His cause and the means by which it is known who supports Allah's cause and His religion, and whoever does not fit this description is lying. Allah says: ﴿[They are] those who, if We establish them in the land﴾ that is, if We give them control in it and give them power over it, without anyone disputing their authority or opposing them, they ﴿will establish regular prayer﴾, offering their prayers on time, performing them properly, doing all the obligatory parts of the prayer and fulfilling the necessary conditions, in Jumu'ah (Friday) prayer and prayers in congregation.

﴿and give zakâh﴾ which is obligatory upon them in particular and upon their subjects in general; they give it to those who are entitled to it.

﴿and will enjoin what is right﴾ that includes everything that is right and good according to Islamic teaching and common sense, with regard to the rights of Allah and the rights of other people.

﴿and forbid what is wrong﴾ everything that is wrong according to Islamic teaching and common sense is known to be reprehensible. The command to do a thing or the prohibition on doing it includes that without which it cannot be done. If the commands and prohibitions are dependent upon learning and teaching, then it is to be made mandatory for people to learn and teach; if they are dependent upon discipline and punishment, whether that is specified by Islamic laws or otherwise, such as certain kinds of disciplinary punishments, then that must be done. If it depends on appointing people to carry out this task, then that must be done, and so on; this applies to everything without which enjoining what is right and forbidding what is wrong cannot be done.

﴿Allah decides the outcome of all matters﴾ that is, all matters are decided by Allah, and He has told us that the best outcome results from piety or fear of Him. Whoever is given authority and power over people by Allah, and he complies with the commands of Allah, he will have a good end and his well-being will be sound. But whoever behaves as a tyrant, ruling over them according to his whims and desires, even if he has power for a while, his outcome will not be good; his reign will bode ill for people and his end will be bad.

﴿ وَإِنْ يُكَذِّبُوكَ فَقَدْ كَذَّبَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ وَعَادٌ وَثَمُودٌ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَقَوْمُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَقَوْمُ لُوطٍ ﴿٤٣﴾ وَأَصْحَابُ مَدْيَنَ وَكَذَّبَ مُوسَى فَأَمَلَيْتُ لِلْكَافِرِينَ ثُمَّ أَخَذْتُهُمْ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ نَكِيرِ ﴿٤٤﴾ فَكَأَنَّمِنْ قَرْيَةٍ أَهْلَكْنَاهَا وَهِيَ ظَالِمَةٌ فِيهَا خَاوِبَةٌ عَلَى غُرُوشِهَا وَأَيْبَرُ مُعَطَّلَةٌ وَقَصْرٌ مَشِيدٌ ﴿٤٥﴾ أَفَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَتَكُونَ لَهُمْ قُلُوبٌ يَعْقِلُونَ بِهَا أَوْ آذَانٌ يَسْمَعُونَ بِهَا فَإِنَّهَا لَا تَعْمَى الْأَبْصَارُ وَلَكِنْ تَعْمَى الْقُلُوبُ الَّتِي فِي الصُّدُورِ ﴿٤٦﴾ ﴾ (سورة الحج: ٤٢-٤٦)

- 22:42. If they reject you [O Muhammad], the people of Nooh, 'Ad and Thamood before them also rejected [their Prophets],
- 22:43. as did the people of Ibrâheem and the people of Loot,
- 22:44. and the people of Madyan. And Moosâ was also rejected. But I granted respite to the disbelievers, then I punished them, and how [severe] was My punishment of them!<sup>23</sup>
- 22:45. How many cities that were given to wrongdoing have We destroyed! They lie in ruins, their wells abandoned and their lofty palaces [deserted].
- 22:46. Have they not travelled in the land so that their hearts might understand and their ears might hear?<sup>24</sup> Verily it is not the eyes that are blind, but the hearts in their chests.

Here Allah tells His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ): If these polytheists reject you, you are not the first Messenger to be rejected, and they are not the first nation to reject its Messenger. ﴿the people of Nooh, 'Âd and Thamood before them also rejected [their Prophets], as did the people of Ibrâheem and the people of Loot, and the people of Madyan﴾ that is, the people of Shu'ayb.

<sup>23</sup> As Allah changed the way He had been dealing with them, changing abundance to scarcity and well-being to destruction. (at-Tabari)

<sup>24</sup> This verse urges the disbelievers to travel to the lands of past nations like them who disbelieved and rejected their Messengers, and see how Allah punished them, so that they may take heed and begin to understand the signs of Allah and listen to the truth. (at-Tabari)

﴿And Moosâ was also rejected. But I granted respite to the disbelievers﴾ who rejected their Messengers. I did not hasten the punishment for them; rather I gave them respite until they persisted in wandering blindly in their transgression, increasing in their disbelief and evil.

﴿then I punished them﴾ with the punishment of One Who is Almighty, Omnipotent

﴿and how [severe] was My punishment of them﴾ that is, My punishment of them because of their disbelief and their rejection of the Messengers was the most severe and terrible of punishments. Some of them were drowned, some of them were overcome by the blast, some of them were destroyed by the devastating wind, some of them were swallowed up by the earth, some of them were overtaken by the punishment of the day of the overshadowing cloud (26: 189). So let these disbelievers learn from them, lest there befall them what befell those earlier peoples, for they are no better than them, and they have not been given any exemption in the scriptures that were revealed by Allah. How many disbelievers were punished and destroyed who were just like these people. Hence Allah says:

﴿How many cities that were given to wrongdoing have We destroyed﴾ with severe punishment and disgrace in this world because of their disbelief in Allah and their rejection of His Messengers. Our punishment of them was not wrongdoing on Our part.

﴿They lie in ruins﴾ that is, their houses, palaces and walls are destroyed; they have fallen down and have been abandoned after having been populated, desolate after having been filled with life and people.

«their wells abandoned and their lofty palaces [deserted]» that is, how many wells there are, around which people used to crowd to get water for themselves and for their flocks, but now they are deserted; no one comes and goes around them. And how many palaces that are, which people worked hard to build, fortify and adorn, but when the decree of Allah came to pass, nothing availed those people; those palaces are also now deserted and have become a lesson for those who will learn and an example for those who reflect and ponder.

Hence Allah calls upon His slaves to travel in the land, in order to see and learn. He says: «Have they not travelled in the land so that their hearts might understand» the signs of Allah, and reflect upon them and learn lessons

«and their ears might hear» the stories of past nations who were subject to punishment. However, merely looking, listening and travelling without reflecting and learning lessons is of no benefit and does not serve the purpose.

Hence Allah (ﷻ) says: «Verily it is not the eyes that are blind, but the hearts in their chests» that is, the kind of blindness that is detrimental to one's religious commitment is blindness of the heart to the truth, so that it does not see it, just as the blind man does not see things that are visible to others. As for physical blindness, it is limited only to worldly issues.

وَسْتَغْجِلُونَكَ بِالْعَذَابِ وَلَنْ يُخْلِفَ اللَّهُ وَعْدَهُ وَإِنَّ يَوْمًا عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ كَأَلْفِ سَنَةٍ مِّمَّا تَعُدُّونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَكَأَنِّ مِنْ قَرْبَةٍ أَمَلَيْتُ لَهَا وَهِيَ ظَالِمَةٌ ثُمَّ أَخَذْتُهَا وَإِلَى الْمَصِيرِ ﴿٤٨﴾ (سورة الحج: ٤٧-٤٨)

22:47. They ask you to hasten on the punishment, but Allah will not fail in His promise, for verily a day with your Lord is like a thousand years by your reckoning.

22:48. To how many cities that were given to wrongdoing have I granted respite, then I punished them. And unto Me is the return [of all].

---

That is, these disbelievers ask you to hasten the punishment due to their ignorance, wrongfully and stubbornly, thinking that they can outwit Allah, to express their rejection of His Messengers. But Allah will never break His promise: what He has promised them of punishment will inevitably come to them, and nothing can prevent it reaching them. As for seeking to hasten it and bring it upon them quickly, that is not up to you, O Muhammad (ﷺ), and you cannot respond to their demands for haste. Ahead of them lies the Day of Resurrection, on which the first of them and the last of them will be gathered together and they will be requited for their deeds, and the eternal, everlasting punishment will befall them. Hence Allah says:

﴿for verily a day with your Lord is like a thousand years by your reckoning﴾, because it will be so long and difficult, and filled with terrors. It is all the same whether punishment befalls them in this world or is delayed, for this day will inevitably come.

It may be that what is meant is that Allah is forbearing; even if they seek to hasten the punishment, one day with Him is like a thousand years by your reckoning, so even if you think that the period of waiting is long and is passing slowly, and that the punishment will not come, you should know that Allah may give respite for a long time but He never forgets, and when He seizes the wrongdoers with His punishment, He will not let them escape.

﴿To how many cities that were given to wrongdoing have I granted respite﴾ that is, a lengthy period of respite, even though they were doing wrong. The fact that they hastened to do wrong does not mean that We should hasten to punish them.

﴿then I punished them. And unto Me is the return [of all]﴾ that is, in addition to their punishment in this world, they will be brought back to Allah, and He will punish them for their sins. So let these evildoers beware of the punishment of Allah, and let them not be deceived by the respite.

﴿قُلْ يٰٓأَيُّهَا النَّاسُ إِنَّمَا أَنَا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُكُمْ نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿٤٩﴾ ۖ فَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ ﴿٥٠﴾ ۖ وَالَّذِينَ سَعَوْا فِيٓ ءَايَاتِنَا مُعْجِرِينَ أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ ٱلْجَحِيمِ ﴿٥١﴾﴾ (سورة الحج: ٤٩-٥١)

- 22:49. Say [O Muhammad]: O people, verily I am to you but a clear warner.
- 22:50. Those who believe and do righteous deeds will have forgiveness and a generous provision.
- 22:51. But those who strive against Our revelations, seeking to discredit them, will be inhabitants of the blazing fire.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs His slave and Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) to call people, telling them that he is indeed the Messenger of Allah, who brings glad tidings to the believers of the reward of Allah, and warns the disbelievers and wrongdoers of His punishment.

﴿a clear warner﴾ that is, bringing a warning that is clear, which is a warning that explains that of which they are warned, because he has established clear proof of the truth of what he has warned them of.

Then Allah mentions details of the warning and glad tidings:

﴿Those who believe﴾ in their hearts, with sincere and sound faith ﴿and do righteous deeds﴾ in terms of physical actions ﴿will be in gardens of delight﴾ (22: 56) that is, gardens in which they will enjoy all manner of delightful food, drink, spouses, images and sounds, and they will have the joy of beholding the Most Generous Lord and hearing His words.

﴿And for those who disbelieve﴾ (22: 57) that is, those who deny the blessings of their Lord and reject His Messengers and His signs, will be the inhabitants of hell: they will abide therein and remain there at all times; its torment will never be reduced or its punishment halted even for a moment.

﴿وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ مِنْ رَسُولٍ وَلَا نَبِيٍّ إِلَّا إِذَا تَمَنَّى أَلْقَى الشَّيْطَانُ فِي أُمْنِيَّتِهِ فَيَنسَخُ اللَّهُ مَا يُلْقِي الشَّيْطَانُ ثُمَّ يُحْكِمُ اللَّهُ ءَايَتِهِ ۚ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٥٢﴾ لِيَجْعَلَ مَا يُلْقِي الشَّيْطَانُ فِتْنَةً لِلَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَرَضٌ وَالْقَاسِيَةِ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَإِنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ لَفِي شِقَاقٍ بَعِيدٍ ﴿٥٣﴾ وَلِيَعْلَمَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ أَنَّهُ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّكَ فَيُؤْمِنُوا بِهِ فَتُخْبِتَ لَهُ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَهَادِ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٥٤﴾ وَلَا يَزَالُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فِي مِرْيَةٍ مِنْهُ حَتَّى تَأْتِيَهُمُ السَّاعَةُ بَغْتَةً أَوْ يَأْتِيَهُمْ عَذَابٌ يَوْمٍ عَقِيمٍ ﴿٥٥﴾ أَلَمْ نَكُنْ يَوْمَ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ الْوَحْيَ قُلُوبُكَ تَالِيَةً لِّلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَيُصْطَفَى بَيْنَهُمُ الْكَافِرُونَ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ فِي جَنَّاتٍ النَّعِيمِ ﴿٥٦﴾ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا فَأُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّهِينٌ ﴿٥٧﴾﴾ (سورة الحج: ٥٢-٥٧)

22:52. We did not send any Messenger or Prophet before you but, when he recited [the revelations], the Shayṭān threw [some falsehood] into his recitation. But Allah cancels out anything [false] that the Shayṭān throws in, then Allah confirms His revelations, for Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise.

22:53. [That is] so that He may make what the Shayṭān throws in [of falsehood] a trial for those in whose hearts is a disease and those whose hearts are hardened, for verily the wrongdoers go much too far in opposition:

22:54. And so that those who were given knowledge may know that it [the Qur'an] is the truth from your Lord, so they may believe therein and their hearts may be certain of it. Verily Allah guides those who believe to a straight path.

22:55. Those who disbelieve will not cease to be in doubt concerning it [the Qur'an] until the Hour comes upon them suddenly or there comes upon them the punishment of a day devoid of all hope.

22:56. On that day all dominion will belong to Allah. He will judge between them, then those who believed and did righteous deeds will be in gardens of delight.

22:57. And for those who disbelieve and reject Our revelations, there will be a humiliating punishment.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of His great wisdom in testing His slaves, for before Muhammad (ﷺ) He never sent any Messenger or Prophet... but, when he recited [the revelations] by means of which he reminded people, enjoining that which is right and forbidding that which is wrong,

﴿the Shayṭān threw [some falsehood] into his recitation﴾, as part of his plots and schemes, that was contrary to that recitation. Although Allah protected the Messengers from error with regard to what they conveyed from Him, and He protected His revelation from being tampered with or mixed with something else, this introduction or throwing in of falsehood by the Shayṭān did not remain in the text; rather it was something temporary that might happen then be removed. Hence Allah says:

﴿But Allah cancels out anything [false] that the Shayṭān throws in﴾ that is, He removes it and takes it away, and clearly shows that it is not part of His revelation

﴿then Allah confirms His revelations﴾ that is, He keeps them precise, frees them from error and preserves them as they originally were; thus they remain free of that material that was thrown in by the Shayṭān.

﴿for Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise﴾ and does what is appropriate. By His perfect wisdom, He allowed the devils to throw in falsehood as mentioned, so that the purpose referred to in the following verse would be achieved:

«[That is] so that He may make what the Shayṭān throws in [of falsehood] a trial» for two groups of people about whom Allah does not care. They are:

«those in whose hearts is a disease» that is, weakness or lack of perfect faith and firm belief, hence the slightest doubt that occurs to them may shake their faith. When they hear that which the Shayṭān throws in, they begin to doubt and it becomes a test for them;

«and those whose hearts are hardened» and they are not influenced by rebukes or reminders, and they do not understand what Allah and His Messengers say, because of their hardheartedness. When they hear that which the Shayṭān throws in, they use it to support their arguments and opposition to Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ). Hence Allah says:

«for verily the wrongdoers go much too far in opposition» that is, in opposition to Allah and in stubborn rejection of the truth, going against it and straying far from the right path. So what the Shayṭān throws in becomes a trial to these two groups, thus exposing what is in their hearts of concealed evil. As for the third group, it is a mercy in their case. They are the ones who are mentioned in the following verse:

«And so that those who were given knowledge may know that it [the Qur'an] is the truth from your Lord» because Allah has blessed them with knowledge through which they recognise the truth as distinct from falsehood, and guidance as distinct from misguidance. So they distinguish between the two matters – established truth that Allah confirms and makes precise, and falsehood of a temporary nature that Allah cancels out – on the basis of indications that are available for both, so that they may know that Allah is Most Wise; He decrees some types of tests so as to show what is hidden in people's hearts of good and evil.

«so they may believe therein» because of that, and increase in faith, when they ward off passing doubts and confusion

﴿and their hearts may be certain of it﴾ that is, so that their hearts may be humbled and submit to His wisdom. This is part of His guidance to them; ﴿Verily Allah guides those who believe﴾, because of their faith, ﴿to a straight path﴾ that is, knowledge of the truth and acting accordingly. Allah will make steadfast those who believe, with the word that stands firm, in this world and in the hereafter (cf. 14: 27).

These verses highlight the fact that the Messenger (ﷺ) had the example of his fellow Messengers with regard to what happened to him when he recited Soorat an-Najm. When he reached the words:

﴿Have you thought about al-Lât and al-‘Uzzâ, and Manât, the third and last?﴾ (an-Najm 53: 19-20)

– the Shaytân threw into his recitation the words “These are the exalted gharâneeq (cranes), whose intercession is hoped for”, which caused great sorrow and distress for the Messenger (ﷺ) and confusion for the people, as Allah stated. So Allah revealed these verses: ﴿Those who disbelieve will not cease to be in doubt concerning it [the Qur’an] until the Hour comes upon them suddenly or there comes upon them the punishment of a day devoid of all hope. On that day all dominion will belong to Allah. He will judge between them, then those who believed and did righteous deeds will be in gardens of delight. And for those who disbelieve and reject Our revelations, there will be a humiliating punishment.﴾ (22: 55-57)

Here Allah tells us of the state of the disbelievers, and that they will continue to doubt that which you have brought to them, O Muhammad (ﷺ), because of their stubbornness and aversion, and that they will persist in this attitude, ﴿until the Hour comes upon them suddenly﴾ and catches them unawares, ﴿or there comes upon them the punishment of a day devoid of all hope﴾ that is, in which there is nothing good, namely the Day of Resurrection.

When the Hour comes upon them, or that day comes, those who disbelieve will realise that they were lying, and they will be filled with regret at a time when regret will not avail them anything. They will give up all hope and despair of all good, and they will wish that they had believed in the Messenger (ﷺ) and followed his path. In this there is a warning against persisting in suspicion and fabrication.

﴿On that day﴾ namely the Day of Resurrection,
﴿all dominion will belong to Allah﴾ may He be exalted, and to no other.

﴿He will judge between them﴾ with justice, and His judgement will be decisive.

﴿then those who believed﴾ in Allah and His Messengers, and what they brought

﴿and did righteous deeds﴾ that confirmed their faith

﴿will be in gardens of delight﴾ that will bring to their hearts, souls and bodies delights that can barely be described or comprehended.

﴿And for those who disbelieve﴾ in Allah and His Messengers, and reject His revelations that guide to the truth and what is right, so they stubbornly turn away from them,

﴿there will be a humiliating punishment﴾ that will be severe and painful for them, and will reach their hearts. As they tried to humiliate His Messengers and ridicule His revelations, Allah will humiliate them with the punishment.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ هَاجَرُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ثُمَّ قُتِلُوا أَوْ مَاتُوا لَيَرْزُقَنَّهُمُ اللَّهُ رِزْقًا
حَسَنًا ۗ وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَهُوَ خَيْرُ الرَّزُقِينَ ﴿٥٨﴾ لَيُنْزِلَنَّهُمْ مَدَنًا
يَرْضَوْنَ ۗ وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَعَلِيمٌ حَلِيمٌ ﴿٥٩﴾﴾ (سورة الحج: ٥٨-٥٩)

22:58. As for those who migrate in the cause of Allah and are slain or die, Allah will surely bestow upon them a goodly provision. Verily Allah is the best of providers.

22:59. He will surely admit them to a place with which they will be well pleased, for verily Allah is All-Knowing, Most Forbearing.

---

This is great glad tidings for those who migrated in Allah's cause, leaving behind their homes, native lands, children and wealth, seeking the pleasure of Allah and in support of His religion. The reward of such a person has become incumbent upon Allah, whether he dies in his bed or is killed fighting in jihad in Allah's cause.

«Allah will surely bestow upon them a goodly provision» in al-barzakh, and on the Day of Resurrection, by admitting them to paradise, where they will find peace and tranquillity, beauty and delight, and spiritual and physical bliss.

It may be that what is meant is that for the one who migrates for the sake of Allah, his provision is guaranteed in this world, goodly and abundant provision, whether Allah knows that he will die in his bed or he will be killed as a martyr. All of them are guaranteed provision, so no one should ever think that if he migrates and leaves behind his property and wealth, that he will become poor and needy, for his Provider is the best of providers. And it happened as He said: the earlier migrants left behind their property, children and wealth in support of the religion of Allah, but it was not long before Allah enabled them to conquer various lands and gave them power over people. Thus they accumulated wealth by means of which they became the richest of people. Based on this view, what is meant by the words «He will surely admit them to a place with which they will be well pleased» is that either Allah would enable them to conquer various lands, especially the conquest of Makkah, for they entered it in a state of joy and happiness, or it refers to provision in the hereafter, and this refers to admission to paradise. Thus this verse combines two types of provision: provision in this world and provision in the hereafter. The wording is appropriate for both interpretations and both meanings are sound; therefore there is no reason why it should not refer to both.

﴿for verily Allah is All-Knowing﴾ of all affairs, both apparent and hidden, what comes earlier and what comes later

﴿Most Forbearing﴾ – people disobey Him and defiantly commit grievous sins, yet He does not hasten the punishment for them, although He is perfectly able to do so; rather He continues to grant them His provision and bestow His bounty upon them.

﴿ذَٰلِكَ وَمَنْ عَاقَبْ بِمِثْلِ مَا عُوقِبَ بِهِ ثُمَّ بُغِيَ عَلَيْهِ لِيَنْصُرَهُ اللَّهُ﴾
 ﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَعَفُوفٌ غَفُورٌ﴾ (سورة الحج: ٦٠)

22:60. That is so. Whoever retaliates only to the extent of the wrong that was done to him, and then is wronged again, Allah will surely help him. Verily Allah is Pardoning, Oft-Forgiving.

If a person is wronged and injustice is committed against him, it is permissible for him to retaliate and do a similar wrong to the one who wronged him. If he does that, there is no blame on him and he is not to be criticised, and if he is wronged after that, Allah will help him, because he has been wronged. So it is not permissible for anyone to wrong him again because he settled the score. If the one who settled the score in return for a wrong done to him is wronged again, Allah will help him. In the case of the one who did not settle the score and is wronged again, divine help is even closer to him.

﴿Verily Allah is Pardoning, Oft-Forgiving﴾ that is, He pardons sinners and does not hasten to punish them; He forgives their sins and removes them, and removes the effects and consequences thereof.

This is how Allah always is, and this is how He deals with His slaves at all times, offering pardon and forgiveness. So you who have been wronged and mistreated should pardon, overlook and forgive, so that Allah may treat you as you treated His slaves.

﴿...but whoever forgives and reconciles, his reward is with Allah...﴾
 (ash-Shoorā 42: 40)

﴿ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ يُولِجُ اللَّيْلَ فِي النَّهَارِ وَيُولِجُ النَّهَارَ فِي اللَّيْلِ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ بَصِيرٌ﴾ (٦١)
 ﴿ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ وَأَبَدٌ مَا يَدْعُونَ مِن دُونِهِ هُوَ الْبَاطِلُ وَأَبَدٌ اللَّهُ هُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْكَبِيرُ﴾ (٦٢) (سورة الحج: ٦١-٦٢)

- 22:61. That is because Allah causes the night to encroach upon the day, and the day to encroach upon the night. And verily Allah is All-Hearing, All-Seeing.
- 22:62. That is because Allah is the Truth, and those they call upon besides Him are sheer falsehood. Verily Allah is the Most High, the Most Great.

Such is the One Who has prescribed for you these good and just rulings. He is good in His control and planning, the One Who causes the night to encroach upon the day, so He brings the night after the day, and the day after the night, and He causes the one to increase by as much as the other decreases, then vice versa, which results in the passage of the seasons and causes the alternation of night and day, sun and moon, which is one of His greatest blessings and is something that is essential for people.

﴿And verily Allah is All-Hearing﴾; He hears the sound of all voices, in all languages, expressing various needs
 ﴿All-Seeing﴾; He sees a black ant walking on a solid rock in the darkness of night.

﴿It is the same [to Him] whether any of you conceals his speech or declares it openly, and whether he hides under the cover of the night or walks openly in the light of day.﴾ (ar-Ra'd 13: 10)

«That is because Allah is the Truth» and is eternal; He always was and always will be. He is the First, before Whom there was nothing, and the Last, after Whom there will be nothing, and He is the most perfect in His names and attributes. He fulfils His promise, and His promise is true, the meeting with Him is true, His religion is true, worship of Him is true and brings benefits that will last forever.

«and those they call upon besides Him» of idols and rivals, both animate and inanimate, «are sheer falsehood»; they are false in and of themselves and worship of them is false because it is connected to something transient that will inevitably perish and therefore is false and invalid.

«Verily Allah is the Most High, the Most Great» in and of Himself, for He is high above all created things. He is also Most High and Most Great in His decree, for He is perfect in all His attributes and in His subduing of all creatures. And He is Most Great in and of Himself, and in His names and attributes. One sign of His greatness and pride is that on the Day of Resurrection He will hold the entire earth in His grasp and fold up the heavens in His Right Hand (cf. 39: 67). As a sign of His pride, His Footstool encompasses the heavens and the earth. As a sign of His greatness and pride, the forelocks of all people are in His Hand, so they do not do anything at all except by His will.

No one knows the true nature of His pride except He, not any angel who is close to Him or any Prophet who was sent. The real nature thereof is that every attribute of perfection, majesty, pride and greatness is confirmed and affirmed for Him, and of each of these attributes He is possessed of the most sublime and perfect degree thereof. As a sign of His pride, the purpose of all acts of worship done by the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth is to magnify Him, glorify Him, venerate Him and honour Him. Hence the takbeer (saying Allāhu akbar – Allah is most great) is the slogan of major acts of worship such as the prayer and others.

﴿الَّذِينَ أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ مَاءً مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَتُصْبِحُ الْأَرْضُ مُخْضَرَّةً إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَطِيفٌ خَبِيرٌ﴾ (١٦) ﴿لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَاوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَهُوَ الْغَفُورُ الْحَكِيمُ﴾ (١٧) (سورة الحج: ٦٣-٦٤)

- 22:63. Do you not see that Allah sends down water from the sky, whereupon the earth becomes green? Verily Allah is the Knower of subtleties, the All-Aware.
- 22:64. To Him belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth. And verily Allah is Self-Sufficient, Worthy of all praise.

Here Allah (ﷻ) encourages us to look at the signs which point to His oneness and perfect nature.

﴿Do you not see﴾ that is, have you not seen with your eyes and reflected with your intellect

﴿that Allah sends down water from the sky﴾, which is the rain; it comes down to an earth that is barren, desolate and dusty, its trees and plants dry, then it becomes green, covered with all kinds of vegetation, a delight to behold. The One Who brought it back to life after it was dead and lifeless will revive the dead after they have turned to dust.

﴿Verily Allah is the Knower of subtleties, the All-Aware﴾. He is the Knower of subtleties, Who knows the hidden part of things and their secrets. He brings good things to His slave and wards off evil from him in very subtle ways that are hidden from people. By His knowledge of subtleties, He shows His slaves His might and perfect power when He wreaks vengeance, then He shows His kindness after a person was about to die. By His knowledge of subtleties, He knows where the raindrops fall on earth, and where the seeds are in the earth, so He sends that rain to those seeds that are hidden and unknown to people, and brings forth all kinds of plants from them.

﴿the All-Aware﴾ of all secrets, what is hidden in people's hearts, and all hidden things.

﴿To Him belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth﴾ because He created them and they are all His slaves; He controls them as He is the Sovereign, Most Wise, Almighty; no one else has any control at all.

﴿And verily Allah is Self-Sufficient﴾ in and of Himself; He is completely independent of means in all aspects. One aspect thereof is that He does not need any of His creation and does not take them as friends because of any need for help and support. Because He is Self-Sufficient, He has never taken a spouse or begotten a child. He is entirely Self-Sufficient; He does not eat or drink, and He does not need what people need in any way. He feeds but is not fed. Because He is Self-Sufficient, all people need Him to bring them into existence, to make them adaptable to their environment and to provide for them, and to guide them with regard to their religious and worldly affairs. Because He is Self-Sufficient, if all those who are in the heavens and on earth were to come together, both the living and the dead, in a single plain, and each of them were to ask Him for what he wishes for, and He were to give them more than they wished for, that would not detract from His sovereignty in the slightest. Because He is Self-Sufficient, His Hand is outstretched to bestow goodness and blessings by night and by day; His bounty keeps coming down at every moment. Because He is Self-Sufficient and Most Generous, what He has stored up in paradise is such that no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it ever crossed the mind of man.

﴿Worthy of all praise﴾ that is, He is praiseworthy in and of Himself; in His names, for they are beautiful; in His attributes, because they are all attributes of perfection; in His deeds, because they are all based on justice, kindness, mercy and wisdom; in His laws, for He does not enjoin anything but that which is completely of benefit or its benefits outweigh its harms, and He does not forbid anything but that which is completely bad or its harms outweigh any benefits. To Him be praise that fills everything in the heavens and on earth and in between, and whatever He wills after that, for people cannot praise Him enough; rather He is as He has praised Himself, far above the praise that His slaves give. He is worthy of praise for helping whomever He helps and forsaking whomever He forsakes. He is Self-Sufficient in His praise, and Most Praiseworthy in His self-sufficiency.

﴿الَّذِينَ تَرَوْنَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ سَخَّرَ لَكُمْ مَّا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَالْفَلَكَ تَجْرِي فِي الْبَحْرِ بِأَمْرِهِ وَيُمْسِكُ السَّمَاءَ أَنْ تَقَعَ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِالنَّاسِ لَرءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٦٥﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي أَحْيَاكُمْ ثُمَّ يُمِيتُكُمْ ثُمَّ يُحْيِيكُمْ إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لَكَفُورٌ ﴿٦٦﴾﴾ (سورة الحج:

(٦٦-٦٥)

- 22:65. Do you not see that Allah has made all that is on earth to be of service to you, and the ships that sail on the sea by His command? And He holds back the sky so that it cannot fall on the earth except by His leave. Verily Allah is Most Compassionate, Most Merciful to humankind.
- 22:66. It is He Who gave you life, then will cause you to die, then He will bring you back to life. Verily man is indeed ungrateful.

That is, have you not seen with your own eyes and intellect the comprehensive blessings and favours of your Lord?

﴿Allah has made all that is on earth to be of service to you﴾ including animals, plants and inanimate objects. Everything that is on earth has been made to be of service to the sons of Adam: animals which they use for riding, carrying loads and other purposes, as well as food and other kinds of benefits; trees and fruits that they eat, for man has been given the ability to plant them and make use of them; and minerals that man extracts from the earth and makes use of them.

﴿and the ships﴾ have also been made to be of service to you, as they ﴿sail on the sea by His command﴾, carrying you and your trade goods, and they take you from one place to another. And you extract from the sea ornaments that you wear. By His mercy towards you, Allah ﴿holds back the sky so that it cannot fall on the earth﴾. Were it not for His mercy and might, the sky would have fallen onto the earth, destroying all that is on it and killing everyone on it.

﴿Verily, Allah sustains the heavens and the earth, lest they decline, and if they were to decline, there is no one who could sustain them other than Him. Verily, He is Forbearing, Oft-Forgiving.﴾ (Fâtir 35: 41)

﴿Verily Allah is Most Compassionate, Most Merciful to humankind﴾ – He is more merciful to them than their parents and than their own selves. Hence He wants what is good for them, whereas they want that which is evil and harmful for themselves. By His mercy, He has caused all these things to be of service to them.

﴿It is He Who gave you life﴾ when He created you from nothing ﴿then will cause you to die﴾ after giving you life ﴿then He will bring you back to life﴾ after your death, in order to requite the doer of good for his good deeds and the doer of evil for his evil deeds. ﴿Verily man﴾ in general, except those whom Allah blesses ﴿is indeed ungrateful﴾ for the blessings of Allah; he is ungrateful to Allah and does not acknowledge His kindness; rather he may disbelieve in the resurrection and the might of his Lord.

﴿لِكُلِّ أُمَّةٍ جَعَلْنَا مَنْسَكًا هُمْ نَاسِكُوهُ فَلَا يُبْذَرُ عَنْكَ فِي الْأَمْرِ وَأَدْعُ إِلَى رَبِّكَ
إِنَّكَ لَعَلَّ هُدًى مُسْتَقِيمٌ ﴿٦٧﴾ وَإِنْ جَدَلُوكَ فَقُلِ اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾ اللَّهُ

يَحْكُمُ بَيْنَكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فِيمَا كُنْتُمْ فِيهِ تَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ أَلَمْ تَعْلَمْ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِنَّ ذَلِكَ فِي كِتَابٍ إِنَّ ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ ﴿٧٠﴾

(سورة الحج: ٦٧-٧٠)

- 22:67. For every nation We decreed ways of worship which they follow, so do not let them dispute with you concerning this matter. But call them to your Lord, for you are indeed rightly guided.
- 22:68. And if they do dispute with you, then say: Allah knows best what you are doing.
- 22:69. Allah will judge between you on the Day of Resurrection concerning that wherein you differ.
- 22:70. Do you not know that Allah knows all that is in the heavens and on earth? Verily that is [inscribed] in a record; verily that is easy for Allah.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He decreed for every nation its «ways of worship», which may differ in some aspects, but they are all based on justice and wisdom, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«...To each [community] among you, We have prescribed a law and a clear way. If Allah had so willed, He would have made you a single community, but [He willed it otherwise] in order to test you in what He has given you. So hasten to do good deeds. To Allah you will all return, then He will inform you about the matters concerning which you differed.» (al-Mā'idah 5: 48)

«which they follow» that is, they act in accordance with that, according to their situations. So there should not be any objection to any set of divine laws, especially from the illiterate polytheists who are clearly ignorant. Once the message of the Messenger (ﷺ) is proven with evidence, it becomes obligatory to respond to everything he brought by accepting it and submitting, and not raising objections. Hence Allah says:

﴿so do not let them dispute with you concerning this matter﴾ that is, do not let those who reject you dispute with you and object to some of what you have brought to them, on the basis of their corrupt thinking, such as when they disputed the issue of meat found dead, on the basis of their false analogy, saying: “You eat what you kill, but you do not eat what Allah kills”, and when they said “Selling is like usury”, and similar objections, concerning which there is no need to answer these particular objections when they are denying the message, and there is no point in arguing about these issues in isolation from the main issue (which is the message itself), because issues should be discussed within the right framework and context.

If the one who raises these objections whilst denying the message of the Messenger (ﷺ) claims that he is arguing in order to learn and find the right answer, it should be said to him: What we discuss with you is whether the message is sound or not, otherwise his limiting the discussion to this issue is indicative of his stubbornness and attempts to frustrate you. Hence Allah instructed His Messenger (ﷺ) to call people to his Lord with wisdom and beautiful preaching, and to focus on that, regardless of whether anyone objects or not. Nothing should deter you from calling people to Allah, because you are ﴿indeed rightly guided﴾, for the path you are following is moderate and will bring you to your goal, as it includes knowledge of the truth and acting upon it. So you are sure of the matter that you are following, and you are certain of your religion, which requires you to adhere strongly to what your Lord has enjoined upon you. You are not following a matter that is doubtful or something that is fabricated, such that you would go along with people and follow their whims and desires, and be hindered by their objections. This is similar to the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿So put your trust in Allah, for you are on the path of clear truth.﴾

(an-Naml 27: 79)

Moreover, the words «for you are indeed rightly guided» are a response, based on sound rational thought, to the objections of those who object to minor issues of Islamic teaching, because the Messenger (ﷺ) is following guidance, and all that the Messenger (ﷺ) brought, whether minor or major issues, is part of that guidance. The beauty, justice, fairness and wisdom of these issues may be known by means of reasoning and sound thinking, and may be reached by reflecting on the details of what is enjoined and what is prohibited.

Hence Allah instructed him to refrain from disputing with them in this situation, as He said: «And if they do dispute with you, then say: Allah knows best what you are doing» that is, He knows your aims and intentions, and He will requite you for that on the Day of Resurrection, on which Allah will judge between you concerning that wherein you differed. So whoever follows the straight path will be among the people of paradise, and whoever deviates from it will be one of the people of hell.

One aspect of the perfect nature of His judgement is that it is based on knowledge; therefore Allah tells us that His knowledge and His record are all-encompassing.

